Genesis 24:45 And even before I had finished speaking to my heart, there came Rivkah, going out with her jug on her shoulder; she went down to the spring and drew water. When I said to her, ‘Please let me have a drink,’

Genesis 24:46 she immediately lowered the jug from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels as well.’ So I drank, and she had the camels drink too.

Genesis 24:47 “I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ and she answered, ‘The daughter of B’tu’el son of Nachor, whom Milkah bore to him.’ Then I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists, Genesis 24:48 bowed my head, prostrated myself before ADONAI and blessed ADONAI, God of my master Avraham, for having led me in the right way to obtain my master’s brother’s [[grand]]daughter for his son.

Genesis 24:49 “So now if you people intend to show grace and truth to my master, tell me. But if not, tell me, so that I can turn elsewhere.”

Genesis 24:50 Lavan and B’tu’el replied, “Since this comes from ADONAI, we can’t say anything to you either bad or good.

Genesis 24:51 Rivkah is here in front of you; take her and go. Let her be your master's son's wife, as ADONAI has said."

Genesis 24:52 When Avraham's servant heard what they said, he prostrated himself on the ground to ADONAI.

Genesis 24:53 Then the servant brought out silver and gold jewelry, together with clothing, and gave them to Rivkah. He also gave valuable gifts to her brother and mother.

Genesis 24:54 He and his men then ate and drank and stayed the night. In the morning they got up; and he said, "Send me off to my master."

Genesis 24:55 Her brother and mother said, "Let the girl stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that, she will go."

Genesis 24:56 He answered them, "Don't delay me, since ADONAI has made my trip successful, but let me go back to my master."

Genesis 24:57 They said, "We will call the girl and see what she says."

Genesis 24:58 They called Rivkah and asked her, "Will you go with this man?" and she replied, "I will."

Genesis 24:59 So they sent their sister Rivkah away, with her nurse, Avraham's servant and his men.

Genesis 24:60 They blessed Rivkah with these words: "Our sister, may you be the mother of millions, and may your descendants possess the cities of those who hate them."

Genesis 24:61 Then Rivkah and her maids mounted the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rivkah and went on his way.

Genesis 24:62 Meanwhile, Yitz'chak, one evening after coming along the road from Be'er-Lachai-Ro'i- he was living in the Negev-

Genesis 24:63 went out walking in the field; and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching.

Genesis 24:64 Rivkah too looked up; and when she saw Yitz'chak, she quickly dismounted the camel.

Genesis 24:65 She said to the servant, "Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?" When the servant replied, "It's my master," she took her veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 The servant told Yitz'chak everything he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Then Yitz'chak brought her into his mother Sarah's tent and took Rivkah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. Thus was Yitz'chak comforted for the loss of his mother.

Genesis 25:1 Avraham took another wife, whose name was K'turah.

Genesis 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Yokshan, Medan, Midyan, Yishbak; and Shuach.

Genesis 25:3 Yokshan fathered Sh’va and D’dan. The sons of D’dan were Ashurim, L’tushim and L’umim.

Genesis 25:4 The sons of Midyan were ‘Eifah, ‘Efer, Hanokh, Avida and Elda’ah. All these were descendants of K’turah.

Genesis 25:5 Avraham gave everything he owned to Yitz’chak.

Genesis 25:6 But to the sons of the concubines he made grants while he was still living and sent them off to the east, to the land of Kedem, away from Yitz’chak his son.

Genesis 25:7 This is how long Avraham lived: 175 years.

Genesis 25:8 Then Avraham breathed his last, dying at a ripe old age, an old man full of years; and he was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:9 Yitz’chak and Yishma’el his sons buried him in the cave of Makhpelah, in the field of ‘Efron the son of Tzochar the Hitti, by Mamre, Genesis 25:10 the field which Avraham purchased from the sons of Het. Avraham was buried there with Sarah his wife.

Genesis 25:11 After Avraham died, God blessed Yitz’chak his son, and Yitz’chak lived near Be’er-Lachai-Ro’i.

Genesis 25:12 Here is the genealogy of Yishma’el, Avraham’s son, whom Hagar the Egyptian woman bore to Avraham.

Genesis 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Yishma’el, listed in the order of their birth. The firstborn of Yishma’el was N’vayot; followed by Kedar, Adbe’el, Mivsam,

Genesis 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Genesis 25:15 Hadad, Teima, Y’tur, Nafish and Kedmah.

Genesis 25:16 These are the sons of Yishma’el, and these are their names, according to their settlements and camps, twelve tribal rulers.

Genesis 25:17 This is how long Yishma’el lived: 137 years. Then he breathed his last, died and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:18 Yishma’el’s sons lived between Havilah and Shur, near Egypt as you go toward Ashur; he settled near all his kinsmen.

Genesis 25:19 Here is the history of Yitz’chak, Avraham’s son. Avraham fathered Yitz’chak.

Genesis 25:20 Yitz’chak was forty years old when he took Rivkah, the daughter of B’tu’el the Arami from Paddan-Aram and sister of Lavan the Arami, to be his wife.

Genesis 25:21 Yitz’chak prayed to ADONAI on behalf of his wife, because she was childless. ADONAI heeded his prayer, and Rivkah became pregnant.

Genesis 25:22 The children fought with each other inside her so much that she said, “If it’s going to be like this, why go on living?” So she went to inquire of ADONAI,

Genesis 25:23 who answered her, “There are two nations in your womb. From birth they will be two rival peoples. One of these peoples will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger.”

Genesis 25:24 When the time for her delivery came, there were twins in her womb.

Genesis 25:25 The first to come out was reddish and covered all over with hair, like a coat; so they named him ‘Esav [[completely formed, that is, having hair already]].

Genesis 25:26 Then his brother emerged, with his hand holding ‘Esav’s heel, so he was called Ya’akov [[he catches by the heel, he supplants]]. Yitz’chak was sixty years old when she bore them.

Genesis 25:27 The boys grew; and ‘Esav became a skillful hunter, an outdoorsman; while Ya’akov was a quiet man who stayed in the tents.

Genesis 25:28 Yitz’chak favored ‘Esav, because he had a taste for game; Rivkah favored Ya’akov.

Genesis 25:29 One day when Ya’akov had cooked some stew, ‘Esav came in from the open country, exhausted,

Genesis 25:30 and said to Ya’akov, “Please! Let me gulp down some of that red stuff- that red stuff! I’m exhausted!” (This is why he was called Edom [[red]].)

Genesis 25:31 Ya’akov answered, “First sell me your rights as the firstborn.”

Genesis 25:32 “Look, I’m about to die!” said ‘Esav. “What use to me are my rights as the firstborn?”

Genesis 25:33 Ya’akov said, “First, swear to me!” So he swore to him, thus selling his birthright to Ya’akov.

Genesis 25:34 Then Ya’akov gave him bread and lentil stew; he ate and drank, got up and went on his way. Thus ‘Esav showed how little he valued his birthright.

Genesis 26:1 A famine came over the land, not the same as the first famine, which had taken place when Avraham was alive. Yitz’chak went to G’rar, to Avimelekh king of the P’lishtim.

Genesis 26:2 ADONAI appeared to him and said, “Don’t go down into Egypt, but live where I tell you.

Genesis 26:3 Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you, because I will give all these lands to you and to your descendants. I will fulfill the oath which I swore to Avraham your father-

Genesis 26:4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, I will give all these lands to your descendants, and by your descendants all the nations of the earth will bless themselves.

Genesis 26:5 All this is because Avraham heeded what I said and did what I told him to do- he followed my [mitzvot], my regulations and my teachings."

Genesis 26:6 So Yitz'chak settled in G'rar.

Genesis 26:7 The men of the place asked him about his wife, and out of fear he said, "She is my sister." He thought, "If I tell them she's my wife, they might kill me in order to take Rivkah. After all, she is a beautiful woman."

Genesis 26:8 But one day, after he had lived there a long time, Avimelekh king of the P'lishtim happened to be looking out of a window when he spotted Yitz'chak caressing Rivkah his wife.

Genesis 26:9 Avimelekh summoned Yitz'chak and said, "So she is your wife, after all! How come you said, 'She is my sister'?" Yitz'chak responded, "Because I thought, 'I could get killed because of her.'"

Genesis 26:10 Avimelekh said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people could easily have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!"

Genesis 26:11 Then Avimelekh warned all the people: "Whoever touches this man or his wife will certainly be put to death."

Genesis 26:12 Yitz'chak planted crops in that land and reaped that year a hundred times as much as he had sowed. ADONAI had blessed him.

Genesis 26:13 The man became rich and prospered more and more, until he had become very wealthy indeed.

Genesis 26:14 He had flocks, cattle and a large household; and the P'lishtim envied him.

Genesis 26:15 Now the P'lishtim had stopped up and filled with dirt all the wells his father's servants had dug during the lifetime of Avraham his father.

Genesis 26:16 Avimelekh said to Yitz'chak, "You must go away from us, because you have become much more powerful than we are."

Genesis 26:17 So Yitz'chak left, set up camp in [Vadi] G'rar and lived there.

Genesis 26:18 Yitz'chak reopened the wells which had been dug during the lifetime of Avraham his father, the ones the P'lishtim had stopped up after Avraham died, and called them by the names his father had used for them.

Genesis 26:19 Yitz'chak's servants dug in the [vadi] and uncovered a spring of running water.

Genesis 26:20 But the herdsmen of G’rar quarreled with Yitz’chak’s herdsmen, claiming, “That water is ours!” So he called the well ‘Esek [[quarrel]], because they quarreled with him.

Genesis 26:21 They dug another well and quarreled over that one too. So he called it Sitnah [[enmity]].

Genesis 26:22 He went away from there and dug another well, and over that one they didn’t quarrel. So he called it Rechovot [[wide open spaces]] and said, “Because now ADONAI has made room for us, and we will be productive in the land.”

Genesis 26:23 From there Yitz’chak went up to Be’er-Sheva.

Genesis 26:24 ADONAI appeared to him that same night and said, “I am the God of Avraham your father. Don’t be afraid, because I am with you; I will bless you and increase your descendants for the sake of my servant Avraham.”

Genesis 26:25 There he built an altar and called on the name of ADONAI. He pitched his tent there, and there Yitz’chak’s servants dug a well.

Genesis 26:26 Then Avimelekh went to him from G’rar with his friend Achuzat and Pikhol the commander of his army.

Genesis 26:27 Yitz’chak said to them, “Why have you come to me, even though you were unfriendly to me and sent me away?”

Genesis 26:28 They answered, “We saw very clearly that ADONAI has been with you; so we said, ‘Let there be an oath between us: let’s make a pact between ourselves and you Genesis 26:29 that you will not harm us, just as we have not caused you offense but have done you nothing but good and sent you on your way in peace. Now you are blessed by ADONAI.’“

Genesis 26:30 Yitz’chak prepared a banquet for them, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 The next morning, they got up early and swore to each other. Then Yitz’chak sent them on their way, and they left him peacefully.

Genesis 26:32 That very day Yitz’chak’s servants came and told him about the well they had dug, “We have found water.”

Genesis 26:33 So he called it Shiv’ah [[oath, seven]], and for this reason the name of the city is Be’er-Sheva [[well of seven, well of an oath]] to this day.

Genesis 26:34 When ‘Esav was forty years old, he took as wives Y’hudit the daughter of Be’eri the Hitti and Basmat the daughter of Elon the Hitti.

Genesis 26:35 But they became a cause for embitterment of spirit to Yitz’chak and Rivkah.

Genesis 27:1 In the course of time, after Yitz'chak had grown old and his eyes dim, so that he couldn't see, he called 'Esav his older son and said to him, "My son?" and he answered, "Here I am."

Genesis 27:2 "Look, I'm old now, I don't know when I will die.

Genesis 27:3 Therefore, please take your hunting gear- your quiver of arrows and your bow; go out in the country, and get me some game.

Genesis 27:4 Make it tasty, the way I like it; and bring it to me to eat. Then I will bless you [[as firstborn]], before I die."

Genesis 27:5 Rivkah was listening when Yitz'chak spoke to his son 'Esav. So when 'Esav went out to the country to hunt for game and bring it back,

Genesis 27:6 she said to her son Ya'akov, "Listen! I heard your father telling 'Esav your brother,

Genesis 27:7 'Bring me game, and make it tasty, so I can eat it. Then I will give you my blessing in the presence of ADONAI, before my death.'

Genesis 27:8 Now pay attention to me, my son; and do what I tell you.

Genesis 27:9 Go to the flock, and bring me back two choice kids. I will make it tasty for your father, the way he likes it;

Genesis 27:10 and you will bring it to your father to eat; so that he will give his blessing to you before his death."

Genesis 27:11 Ya'akov answered Rivkah his mother, "Look, 'Esav is hairy, but I have smooth skin.

Genesis 27:12 Suppose my father touches me- he'll know I'm trying to trick him, and I'll bring a curse on myself, not a blessing!"

Genesis 27:13 But his mother said, "Let your curse be on me. Just listen to me, and go get me the kids!"

Genesis 27:14 So he went, got them and brought them to his mother; and his mother prepared them in the tasty way his father loved.

Genesis 27:15 Next, Rivkah took 'Esav her older son's best clothes, which she had with her in the house, and put them on Ya'akov her younger son;

Genesis 27:16 and she put the skins of the goats on his hands and on the smooth parts of his neck.

Genesis 27:17 Then she gave the tasty food and the bread she had prepared to her son Ya'akov.

Genesis 27:18 He went to his father and said, "My father?" He replied, "Here I am; who are you, my son?"

Genesis 27:19 Ya'akov said to his father, "I am 'Esav your firstborn. I've done what you asked me to do. Get up now, sit down, eat the game, and then give me your blessing."

Genesis 27:20 Yitz’chak said to his son, “How did you find it so quickly, my son?” He answered, “ADONAI your God made it happen that way.”

Genesis 27:21 Yitz’chak said to Ya’akov, “Come here, close to me, so I can touch you, my son, and know whether you are in fact my son ‘Esav or not.”

Genesis 27:22 Ya’akov approached Yitz’chak his father, who touched him and said, “The voice is Ya’akov’s voice, but the hands are ‘Esav’s hands.”

Genesis 27:23 However, he didn’t detect him; because his hands were hairy like his brother ‘Esav’s hands; so he gave him his blessing.

Genesis 27:24 He asked, “Are you really my son ‘Esav?” And he replied, “I am.”

Genesis 27:25 He said, “Bring it here to me, and I will eat my son’s game, so that I can give you my blessing.” So he brought it up to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine, and he drank.

Genesis 27:26 Then his father Yitz’chak said to him, “Come close now, and kiss me, my son.”

Genesis 27:27 He approached and kissed him. Yitz’chak smelled his clothes and blessed Ya’akov with these words: “See, my son smells like a field which ADONAI has blessed.

Genesis 27:28 So may God give you dew from heaven, the richness of the earth, and grain and wine in abundance.

Genesis 27:29 May peoples serve you and nations bow down to you. May you be lord over your kinsmen, let your mother’s descendants bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you!”

Genesis 27:30 But as soon as Yitz’chak had finished giving his blessing to Ya’akov, when Ya’akov had barely left his father’s presence, ‘Esav his brother came in from his hunting.

Genesis 27:31 He too had prepared a tasty meal and brought it to his father, and now he said to his father, “Let my father get up and eat from his son’s game, so that you may give me your blessing.”

Genesis 27:32 Yitz’chak his father said to him, “Who are you?” and he answered, “I am your son, your firstborn, ‘Esav.”

Genesis 27:33 Yitz’chak began trembling uncontrollably and said, “Then who was it that took game and brought it to me? I ate it all just before you came, and I gave my blessing to him. That’s the truth, and the blessing must stand.”

Genesis 27:34 When ‘Esav heard his father’s words he burst into loud, bitter sobbing. “Father, bless me too,” he begged.

Genesis 27:35 He replied, “Your brother came deceitfully and took away your blessing.”

Genesis 27:36 ‘Esav said, “His name, Ya’akov [[he supplants]], really suits him- because he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, and here, now he has taken away my blessing!” Then he asked, “Haven’t you saved a blessing for me?”

Genesis 27:37 Yitz’chak answered ‘Esav, “Look, I have made him your lord, I have given him all his kinsmen as servants, and I have given him grain and wine to sustain him. What else is there that I can do for you, my son?”

Genesis 27:38 ‘Esav said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, my father? Father, bless me too!” ‘Esav wept aloud, Genesis 27:39 and Yitz’chak his father answered him: “Here! Your home will be of the richness of the earth and of the dew of heaven from above.

Genesis 27:40 You will live by your sword, and you will serve your brother. But when you break loose, you will shake his yoke off your neck.”

Genesis 27:41 ‘Esav hated his brother because of the blessing his father had given him. ‘Esav said to himself, “The time for mourning my father will soon come, and then I will kill my brother Ya’akov.”

Genesis 27:42 But the words of ‘Esav her older son were told to Rivkah. She sent for Ya’akov her younger son and said to him, “Here, your brother ‘Esav is comforting himself over you by planning to kill you.

Genesis 27:43 Therefore, my son, listen to me: get up and escape to Lavan my brother in Haran.

Genesis 27:44 Stay with him a little while, until your brother’s anger subsides.

Genesis 27:45 Your brother’s anger will turn away from you, and he will forget what you did to him. Then I’ll send and bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you on the same day?”

Genesis 27:46 Rivkah said to Yitz’chak, “I’m sick to death of Hitti women! If Ya’akov marries one of the Hitti women, like those who live here, my life won’t be worth living.”

Genesis 28:1 So Yitz’chak called Ya’akov, and, after blessing him, charged him: “You are not to choose a wife from the Hitti women.

Genesis 28:2 Go now to the home of B’tu’el your mother’s father, and choose a wife there from the daughters of Lavan your mother’s brother.

Genesis 28:3 May [El Shaddai] bless you, make you fruitful and increase your descendants, until they become a whole assembly of peoples.

Genesis 28:4 And may he give you the blessing which he gave Avraham, you and your descendants with you, so that you will possess the land you will travel through, the land God gave to Avraham."

Genesis 28:5 So Yitz'chak sent Ya'akov away; and he went to Paddan-Aram, to Lavan, son of B'tu'el the Arami, the brother of Rivkah Ya'akov's and 'Esav's mother.

Genesis 28:6 Now 'Esav saw that Yitz'chak had blessed Ya'akov and sent him away to Paddan-Aram to choose a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he charged him, "You are not to choose a Kena'ani woman as your wife,"

Genesis 28:7 and that Ya'akov had listened to his father and mother and gone to Paddan-Aram.

Genesis 28:8 'Esav also saw that the Kena'ani women did not please Yitz'chak his father.

Genesis 28:9 So 'Esav went to Yishma'el and took, in addition to the wives he already had, Machalat the daughter of Yishma'el Avraham's son, the sister of N'vayot, to be his wife.

Genesis 28:10 Ya'akov went out from Be'er-Sheva and traveled toward Haran.

Genesis 28:11 He came to a certain place and stayed the night there, because the sun had set. He took a stone from the place, put it under his head and lay down there to sleep.

Genesis 28:12 He dreamt that there before him was a ladder resting on the ground with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of ADONAI were going up and down on it.

Genesis 28:13 Then suddenly ADONAI was standing there next to him; and he said, "I am ADONAI, the God of Avraham your [[grand]]father and the God of Yitz'chak. The land on which you are lying I will give to you and to your descendants.

Genesis 28:14 Your descendants will be as numerous as the grains of dust on the earth. You will expand to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. By you and your descendants all the families of the earth will be blessed.

Genesis 28:15 Look, I am with you. I will guard you wherever you go, and I will bring you back into this land, because I won't leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

Genesis 28:16 Ya'akov awoke from his sleep and said, "Truly, ADONAI is in this place- and I didn't know it!"

Genesis 28:17 Then he became afraid and said, "This place is fearsome! This has to be the house of God! This is the gate of heaven!"

Genesis 28:18 Ya'akov got up early in the morning, took the stone he had put under his head, set it up as a standing-stone, poured olive oil on its top

Genesis 28:19 and named the place Beit-El [[house of God]]; but the town had originally been called Luz.

Genesis 28:20 Ya'akov took this vow: "If God will be with me and will guard me on this road that I am traveling, giving me bread to eat and clothes to wear,

Genesis 28:21 so that I return to my father's house in peace, then ADONAI will be my God;

Genesis 28:22 and this stone, which I have set up as a standing-stone, will be God's house; and of everything you give me, I will faithfully return one-tenth to you."

Genesis 29:1 Continuing his journey, Ya'akov came to the land of the people of the east.

Genesis 29:2 As he looked, he saw a well in a field; and there were three flocks of sheep lying there next to it; because they watered the sheep from that well. The stone on the well's mouth was large,

Genesis 29:3 and only when all the flocks had gathered there would they roll the stone away from the opening of the well and water the sheep. Then they would put the stone back in its place on the well's opening.

Genesis 29:4 Ya'akov said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" They answered, "We're from Haran."

Genesis 29:5 He asked them, "Do you know Lavan the [[grand]]son of Nachor?" They said, "We do."

Genesis 29:6 He asked them, "Are things going well with him?" "Yes," they answered, "and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep."

Genesis 29:7 He said, "Look, there's still plenty of daylight left; and it isn't time to bring the animals home; so water the sheep; then go, and put them out to pasture."

Genesis 29:8 They answered, "We can't, not until all the flocks have been gathered together, and they roll the stone away from the opening of the well. That's when we water the sheep."

Genesis 29:9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, because she took care of them.

Genesis 29:10 When Ya'akov saw Rachel the daughter of Lavan his mother's brother, and the sheep of Lavan his mother's brother, Ya'akov went up and rolled the stone away from the opening of the well and watered the flock of Lavan his mother's brother.

Genesis 29:11 Ya'akov kissed Rachel and wept aloud.

Genesis 29:12 Ya'akov told Rachel that he was her father's relative, and that he was Rivkah's son; and she ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 When Lavan heard the news of Ya’akov his sister’s son, he ran to meet him, hugged him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Ya’akov told Lavan all that had happened.

Genesis 29:14 Lavan said to him, “You are indeed my own flesh and blood.” After Ya’akov had stayed with him for a whole month,

Genesis 29:15 Lavan said to him, “Why should you work for me for nothing, just because you are my relative? Tell me how much I should pay you.”

Genesis 29:16 Now Lavan had two daughters; the name of the older was Le’ah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Genesis 29:17 Le’ah’s eyes were weak; but Rachel was good-looking, with beautiful features.

Genesis 29:18 Ya’akov had fallen in love with Rachel and said, “I will work for you seven years in exchange for Rachel your younger daughter.”

Genesis 29:19 Lavan answered, “Better that I give her to you than to someone else; stay with me.”

Genesis 29:20 So Ya’akov worked seven years for Rachel, and it seemed only a few days to him, because he was so much in love with her.

Genesis 29:21 Ya’akov said to Lavan, “Give me my wife, since my time is finished, so that I can start living with her.”

Genesis 29:22 Lavan gathered all the men of the place and gave a banquet.

Genesis 29:23 In the evening he took Le’ah his daughter and brought her to Ya’akov, and he went in and slept with her.

Genesis 29:24 Lavan also gave his slave-girl Zilpah to his daughter Le’ah as her slave-girl.

Genesis 29:25 In the morning Ya’akov saw that he was with Le’ah, and he said to Lavan, “What kind of thing is this that you’ve done to me? Didn’t I work for you for Rachel? Why have you deceived me?”

Genesis 29:26 Lavan answered, “In our place that isn’t how it’s done, to give the younger daughter before the firstborn.

Genesis 29:27 Finish the marriage week of this one, and we’ll give you the other one also in exchange for the work you will do for me during yet another seven years.”

Genesis 29:28 Ya’akov agreed to this, so he finished her week, and Lavan gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.

Genesis 29:29 Lavan also gave to his daughter Rachel his slave-girl Bilhah as her slave-girl.

Genesis 29:30 So not only did Ya’akov go in and sleep with Rachel, but he also loved Rachel more than Le’ah. Then he served Lavan another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 ADONAI saw that Le’ah was unloved, so he made her fertile, while Rachel remained childless.

Genesis 29:32 Le’ah conceived and gave birth to a son, whom she named Re’uven [[see, a son!]], for she said, “It is because ADONAI has seen how humiliated I have been, but now my husband will love me.”

Genesis 29:33 She conceived again, gave birth to a son and said, “It is because ADONAI has heard that I am unloved; therefore he has given me this son also.” So she named him Shim’on [[hearing]].

Genesis 29:34 Once more she conceived and had a son; and she said, “Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore she named him Levi [[joining]].

Genesis 29:35 She conceived yet again, had a son and said, “This time I will praise ADONAI”; therefore she named him Y’hudah [[praise]]. Then she stopped having children.

Genesis 30:1 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing children for Ya’akov, she envied her sister and said to Ya’akov, “Give me children, or I will die!”

Genesis 30:2 This made Ya’akov angry at Rachel; he answered, “Am I in God’s place? He’s the one who is denying you children.”

Genesis 30:3 She said, “Here is my maid Bilhah. Go, sleep with her, and let her give birth to a child that will be laid on my knees, so that through her I too can build a family.”

Genesis 30:4 So she gave him Bilhah her slave-girl as his wife, and Ya’akov went in and slept with her.

Genesis 30:5 Bilhah conceived and bore Ya’akov a son.

Genesis 30:6 Rachel said, “God has judged in my favor; indeed he has heard me and given me a son.” Therefore she called him Dan [[he judged]].

Genesis 30:7 Bilhah Rachel’s slave-girl conceived again and bore Ya’akov a second son.

Genesis 30:8 Rachel said, “I have wrestled mightily with my sister and won,” and called him Naftali [[my wrestling]].

Genesis 30:9 When Le’ah saw that she had stopped having children, she took Zilpah her slave-girl and gave her to Ya’akov as his wife.

Genesis 30:10 Zilpah Le’ah’s slave-girl bore Ya’akov a son;

Genesis 30:11 and Le’ah said, “Good fortune has come,” calling him Gad [[good fortune]].

Genesis 30:12 Zilpah Le’ah’s slave-girl bore Ya’akov a second son;

Genesis 30:13 and Le’ah said, “How happy I am! Women will say I am happy!” and called him Asher [[happy]].

Genesis 30:14 During the wheat harvest season Re’uven went and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Le’ah.

Rachel said to Le'ah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes [[so that I can be fertile]]."

Genesis 30:15 She answered, "Isn't it enough that you have taken away my husband? Do you have to take my son's mandrakes too?" Rachel said, "Very well; in exchange for your son's mandrakes, sleep with him tonight."

Genesis 30:16 When Ya'akov came in from the field in the evening, Le'ah went out to meet him and said, "You have to come and sleep with me, because I've hired you with my son's mandrakes." So Ya'akov slept with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 God listened to Le'ah, and she conceived and bore Ya'akov a fifth son.

Genesis 30:18 Le'ah said, "God has given me my hire, because I gave my slave-girl to my husband." So she called him Yissakhar [[hire, reward]].

Genesis 30:19 Le'ah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Ya'akov.

Genesis 30:20 Le'ah said, "God has given me a wonderful gift. Now at last my husband will live with me, since I have borne him six sons." And she called him Z'vulun [[living together]].

Genesis 30:21 After this, she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah [[controversy over rights]].

Genesis 30:22 Then God took note of Rachel, heeded her prayer and made her fertile.

Genesis 30:23 She conceived, had a son and said, "God has taken away my disgrace."

Genesis 30:24 She called him Yosef [[may he add]], saying, "May ADONAI add to me another son."

Genesis 30:25 After Rachel had given birth to Yosef, Ya'akov said to Lavan, "Send me on my way, so that I can return to my own place, to my own country.

Genesis 30:26 Let me take my wives, for whom I have served you, and my children; and let me go. You know very well how faithfully I have served you."

Genesis 30:27 Lavan answered him, "If you regard me favorably, then please listen: I have observed the signs that ADONAI has blessed me on account of you.

Genesis 30:28 Name your wages," he said; "I will pay them."

Genesis 30:29 Ya'akov replied, "You know how faithfully I have served you and how your livestock have prospered under my care.

Genesis 30:30 The few you had before I came have increased substantially; ADONAI has blessed you wherever I went. But now, when will I provide for my own household?"

Genesis 30:31 Lavan said, “What should I give you?” “Nothing,” answered Ya’akov, “just do this one thing for me: once more I will pasture your flock and take care of it.

Genesis 30:32 I will also go through the flock and pick out every speckled, spotted or brown sheep, and every speckled or spotted goat; these and their offspring will be my wages.

Genesis 30:33 And I will let my integrity stand as witness against me in the future: when you come to look over the animals constituting my wages, every goat that isn’t speckled or spotted and every sheep that isn’t brown will count as stolen by me.”

Genesis 30:34 Lavan replied, “As you have said, so be it.”

Genesis 30:35 That day Lavan removed the male goats that were streaked or spotted and all the female goats that were speckled or spotted, every one with white on it, and all the brown sheep; turned them over to his sons;

Genesis 30:36 and put three days’ distance between himself and Ya’akov. Ya’akov fed the rest of Lavan’s flocks.

Genesis 30:37 Ya’akov took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white streaks on them by peeling off the bark.

Genesis 30:38 Then he set the rods he had peeled upright in the watering troughs, so that the animals would see them when they came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink,

Genesis 30:39 the animals mated in sight of the rods and gave birth to streaked, speckled and spotted young.

Genesis 30:40 Ya’akov divided the lambs and had the animals mate with the streaked and the brown in the flock of Lavan. He also kept his own livestock separate and did not have them mix with Lavan’s flock.

Genesis 30:41 Whenever the hardier animals came into heat, Ya’akov would set up the rods in the watering troughs; so that the animals would see them and conceive in front of them;

Genesis 30:42 but he didn’t set up the rods in front of the weaker animals. Thus the more feeble were Lavan’s and the stronger Ya’akov’s.

Genesis 30:43 In this way the man became very rich and had large flocks, along with male and female slaves, camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31:1 But then he heard what Lavan’s sons were saying: “Ya’akov has taken away everything that our father once had. It’s from what used to belong to our father that he has gotten so rich.”

Genesis 31:2 He also saw that Lavan regarded him differently than before.

Genesis 31:3 ADONAI said to Ya’akov, “Return to the land of your ancestors, to your kinsmen; I will be with you.”

Genesis 31:4 So Ya’akov sent for Rachel and Le’ah and had them come to the field where his flock was.

Genesis 31:5 He said to them, “I see by the way your father looks that he feels differently toward me than before; but the God of my father has been with me.

Genesis 31:6 You know that I have served your father with all my strength,

Genesis 31:7 and that your father has belittled me and has changed my wages ten times; but God did not allow him to do me any damage.

Genesis 31:8 If he said, ‘The speckled will be your wages,’ then all the animals gave birth to speckled young; and if he said, ‘The streaked will be your wages,’ then all the animals gave birth to streaked young.

Genesis 31:9 This is how God has taken away your father’s animals and given them to me.

Genesis 31:10 Once, when the animals were mating, I had a dream: I looked up and there in front of me the male goats which mated with the females were streaked, speckled and mottled.

Genesis 31:11 Then, in the dream, the angel of God said to me, ‘Ya’akov!’ and I replied, ‘Here I am.’

Genesis 31:12 He continued, ‘Raise your eyes now, and look: all the male goats mating with the females are streaked, speckled and mottled; for I have seen everything Lavan has been doing to you.

Genesis 31:13 I am the God of Beit-El, where you anointed a standing-stone with oil, where you vowed your vow to me. Now get up, get out of this land, and return to the land where you were born.’“ Genesis 31:14 Rachel and Le’ah answered him, “We no longer have any inheritance from our father’s possessions;

Genesis 31:15 and he considers us foreigners, since he has sold us; moreover, he has consumed everything he received in exchange for us.

Genesis 31:16 Nevertheless, the wealth which God has taken away from our father has become ours and our children’s anyway; so whatever God has told you to do, do.”

Genesis 31:17 Then Ya’akov got up, put his sons and wives on the camels,

Genesis 31:18 and carried off all his livestock, along with all the riches he had accumulated, the livestock in his possession which he had acquired in Paddan-Aram, to go to Yitz’chak his father in the land of Kena’an.

Genesis 31:19 Now Lavan had gone to shear his sheep, so Rachel stole the household idols that belonged to her father,

Genesis 31:20 and Ya’akov outwitted Lavan the Arami by not telling him of his intended flight.

Genesis 31:21 So he fled with everything he had: he departed, crossed the [[Euphrates]] River and set out for the hill-country of Gil’ad.

Genesis 31:22 Not until the third day was Lavan told that Ya’akov had fled.

Genesis 31:23 Lavan took his kinsmen with him and spent the next seven days pursuing Ya’akov, overtaking him in the hill-country of Gil’ad.

Genesis 31:24 But God came to Lavan the Arami in a dream that night and said to him, “Be careful that you don’t say anything to Ya’akov, either good or bad.”

Genesis 31:25 When Lavan caught up with Ya’akov, Ya’akov had set up camp in the hill-country; so Lavan and his kinsmen set up camp in the hill-country of Gil’ad.

Genesis 31:26 Lavan said to Ya’akov, “What do you mean by deceiving me and carrying off my daughters as if they were captives taken in war?

Genesis 31:27 Why did you flee in secret and deceive me and not tell me? I would have sent you off with joy and singing to the music of tambourines and lyres.

Genesis 31:28 You didn’t even let me kiss my sons and daughters good-bye! What a stupid thing to do!

Genesis 31:29 I have it in my power to do you harm; but the God of your father spoke to me last night and said, ‘Be careful that you don’t say anything to Ya’akov, either good or bad.’

Genesis 31:30 Granted that you had to leave, because you longed so deeply for your father’s house; but why did you steal my gods?”

Genesis 31:31 Ya’akov answered Lavan, “Because I was afraid. I said, ‘Suppose you take your daughters away from me by force?’

Genesis 31:32 But if you find your gods with someone, that person will not remain alive. So with our kinsmen to witness, if you spot anything that I have which belongs to you, take it back.” Ya’akov did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

Genesis 31:33 Lavan went into Ya’akov’s tent, then into Le’ah’s tent and into the tent of the two slave-girls; but he did not find them. He left Le’ah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent.

Genesis 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods, put them in the saddle of the camel and was sitting on them. Lavan felt all around the tent but did not find them.

Genesis 31:35 She said to her father, “Please don’t be angry that I’m not getting up in your presence, but it’s the time of my period.” So he searched, but he didn’t find the household gods.

Genesis 31:36 Then Ya'akov became angry and started arguing with Lavan. "What have I done wrong?" he demanded. "What is my offense, that you have come after me in hot pursuit?

Genesis 31:37 You have felt around in all my stuff, but what have you found of all your household goods? Put it here, in front of my kinsmen and yours, so that they can render judgment between the two of us!

Genesis 31:38 I have been with you for these twenty years! Your female sheep and goats haven't aborted their young, and I haven't eaten the male animals in your flocks.

Genesis 31:39 If one of your flock was destroyed by a wild animal, I didn't bring the carcass to you but bore the loss myself. You demanded that I compensate you for any animal stolen, whether by day or by night.

Genesis 31:40 Here's how it was for me: during the day thirst consumed me, and at night the cold- my sleep fled from my eyes.

Genesis 31:41 These twenty years I've been in your house- I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock; and you changed my wages ten times!

Genesis 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Avraham, the one whom Yitz'chak fears, had not been on my side, by now you would certainly have already sent me away with nothing! God has seen how distressed I've been and how hard I've worked, and last night he passed judgment in my favor."

Genesis 31:43 Lavan answered Ya'akov, "The daughters are mine, the children are mine, the flocks are mine, and everything you see is mine! But what can I do today about these daughters of mine or the children they have borne?

Genesis 31:44 So now, come, let's make a covenant, I and you; and let it stand as a testimony between me and you."

Genesis 31:45 Ya'akov took a stone and set it upright as a standing-stone.

Genesis 31:46 Then Ya'akov said to his kinsmen, "Gather some stones"; and they took stones, made a pile of them and ate there by the pile of stones.

Genesis 31:47 Lavan called it Y'gar-Sahaduta [["pile of witness" in Aramaic]], while Ya'akov called it Gal-'Ed [["pile of witness" in Hebrew]].

Genesis 31:48 Lavan said, "This pile witnesses between me and you today." This is why it is called Gal-'Ed Genesis 31:49 and also HaMitzpah [[the watchtower]], because he said, "May ADONAI watch between me and you when we are apart from each other.

Genesis 31:50 If you cause pain to my daughters, or if you take wives in addition to my daughters, then, even if no one is there with us, still God is witness between me and you."

Genesis 31:51 Lavan also said to Ya'akov, "Here is this pile, and here is this standing-stone, which I have set up between me and you.

Genesis 31:52 May this pile be a witness, and may the standing-stone be a witness, that I will not pass beyond this pile to you, and you will not pass beyond this pile and this standing-stone to me, to cause harm.

Genesis 31:53 May the God of Avraham and also the god of Nachor, the god of their father, judge between us." But Ya'akov swore by the One his father Yitz'chak feared.

Genesis 31:54 Ya'akov offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his kinsmen to the meal. They ate the food and spent the whole night on the mountain. [(Maftir)]

Genesis 32:1 Early in the morning Lavan got up, kissed his sons and daughters, and blessed them. Then Lavan left and returned to his own place.

Genesis 32:2 Ya'akov went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

Genesis 32:3 When Ya'akov saw them, he said, "This is God's camp," and called that place Machanayim [[two camps]].

Genesis 32:4 Ya'akov sent messengers ahead of him to 'Esav his brother toward the land of Se'ir, the country of Edom, Genesis 32:5 with these instructions: "Here is what you are to say to my lord 'Esav: 'Your servant Ya'akov says, "I have been living with Lavan and have stayed until now.

Genesis 32:6 I have cattle, donkeys and flocks, and male and female servants. I am sending to tell this news to my lord, in order to win your favor." '"

Genesis 32:7 The messengers returned to Ya'akov saying, "We went to your brother 'Esav, and he is coming to meet you; with him are four hundred men."

Genesis 32:8 Ya'akov became greatly afraid and distressed. He divided the people, flocks, cattle and camels with him into two camps,

Genesis 32:9 saying, "If 'Esav comes to the one camp and attacks it, at least the camp that is left will escape."

Genesis 32:10 Then Ya'akov said, "God of my father Avraham and God of my father Yitz'chak, ADONAI, who told me, 'Return to your country and your kinsmen, and I will do you good':

Genesis 32:11 I’m not worthy of all the love and faithfulness you have shown your servant, since I crossed the Yarden with only my staff. But now I have become two camps.

Genesis 32:12 Please! Rescue me from my brother ‘Esav! I’m afraid of him, afraid he’ll come and attack me, without regard for mothers or children.

Genesis 32:13 You said, ‘I will certainly do you good and make your descendants as numerous as the grains of sand by the sea, which are so many they can’t be counted.’“

Genesis 32:14 He stayed there that night; then he chose from among his possessions the following as a present for ‘Esav his brother:

Genesis 32:15 two hundred female goats and twenty males, two hundred female sheep and twenty males,

Genesis 32:16 thirty milk-camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten colts.

Genesis 32:17 He turned them over to his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Cross over in front of me, and keep a space between each drove and the next one.”

Genesis 32:18 He instructed the servant in front, “When ‘Esav my brother meets you and asks you, ‘Whose servant are you? Where are you going? And whose animals are these?’

Genesis 32:19 then you are to say, ‘They belong to your servant Ya’akov, and they are a present he has sent to my lord ‘Esav; and Ya’akov himself is just behind us.’“

Genesis 32:20 He also instructed the second servant, and the third, and all that followed the droves, “When you encounter ‘Esav, you are to speak to him in the same way,

Genesis 32:21 and you are to add, ‘And there, just behind us, is your servant Ya’akov.’“ For he said, “I will appease him first with the present that goes ahead of me; then, after that, I will see him myself- and maybe he will be friendly toward me.”

Genesis 32:22 So the present crossed over ahead of him, and he himself stayed that night in the camp.

Genesis 32:23 He got up that night, took his two wives, his two slave-girls, and his eleven children, and forded the Yabok.

Genesis 32:24 He took them and sent them across the stream, then sent his possessions across;

Genesis 32:25 and Ya’akov was left alone. Then some man wrestled with him until daybreak.

Genesis 32:26 When he saw that he did not defeat Ya’akov, he struck Ya’akov’s hip socket, so that his hip was dislocated while wrestling with him.

Genesis 32:27 The man said, “Let me go, because it’s daybreak.” But Ya’akov replied, “I won’t let you go unless you bless me.”

Genesis 32:28 The man asked, “What is your name?” and he answered, “Ya’akov.”

Genesis 32:29 Then the man said, “From now on, you will no longer be called Ya’akov, but Isra’el; because you have shown your strength to both God and men and have prevailed.”

Genesis 32:30 Ya’akov asked him, “Please tell me your name.” But he answered, “Why are you asking about my name?” and blessed him there.

Genesis 32:31 Ya’akov called the place P’ni-El [[face of God]], “Because I have seen God face to face, yet my life is spared.”

Genesis 32:32 As the sun rose upon him he went on past P’ni-El, limping at the hip.

Genesis 32:33 This is why, to this day, the people of Isra’el do not eat the thigh muscle that passes along the hip socket- because the man struck Ya’akov’s hip at its socket.

Genesis 33:1 Ya’akov raised his eyes and looked out; and there was ‘Esav coming, and four hundred men with him. So Ya’akov divided the children between Le’ah, Rachel and the two slave-girls, Genesis 33:2 putting the slave-girls and their children first, Le’ah and her children second, and Rachel and Yosef last.

Genesis 33:3 Then he himself passed on ahead of them and prostrated himself on the ground seven times before approaching his brother.

Genesis 33:4 ‘Esav ran to meet him, hugged him, threw his arms around his neck and kissed him; and they wept.

Genesis 33:5 Esav looked up; on seeing the women and children, he asked, “Who are these with you?” Ya’akov answered, “The children God has graciously given to your servant.”

Genesis 33:6 Then the slave-girls approached with their children, and they prostrated themselves;

Genesis 33:7 Le’ah too and her children approached and prostrated themselves; and last came Yosef and Rachel; and they prostrated themselves.

Genesis 33:8 ‘Esav asked, “What was the meaning of this procession of droves I encountered?” and he answered, “It was to win my lord’s favor.”

Genesis 33:9 ‘Esav replied, “I have plenty already; my brother, keep your possessions for yourself.”

Genesis 33:10 Ya'akov said, "No, please! If now I have won your favor, then accept my gift. Just seeing your face has been like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me.

Genesis 33:11 So please accept the gift I have brought you, for God has dealt kindly with me and I have enough." Thus he urged him, until he accepted it.

Genesis 33:12 'Esav said, "Let's break camp and get going. I'll go first."

Genesis 33:13 Ya'akov said to him, "My lord knows that the children are small, and the sheep and cattle suckling their young concern me, because if they overdrive them even one day, all the flocks will die.

Genesis 33:14 Instead, please, let my lord go on ahead of his servant. I will travel more slowly, at the pace of the cattle ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Se'ir."

Genesis 33:15 'Esav replied, "Then let me leave with you some of the people I have with me." But Ya'akov said, "There's no need for my lord to be so kind to me."

Genesis 33:16 So 'Esav left that day to return to Se'ir.

Genesis 33:17 Ya'akov went on to Sukkot, where he built himself a house and put up shelters for his cattle. This is why the place is called Sukkot [[shelters]].

Genesis 33:18 Having traveled from Paddan-Aram, Ya'akov arrived safely at the city of Sh'khem, in Kena'an, and set up camp near the city.

Genesis 33:19 From the sons of Hamor Sh'khem's father he bought for one hundred pieces of silver the parcel of land where he had pitched his tent.

Genesis 33:20 There he put up an altar, which he called El-Elohei-Yisra'el [[God, the God of Isra'el]].

Genesis 34:1 One time Dinah the daughter of Le'ah, whom she had borne to Ya'akov, went out to visit the local girls;

Genesis 34:2 and Sh'khem the son of Hamor the Hivi, the local ruler, saw her, grabbed her, raped her and humiliated her.

Genesis 34:3 But actually he was strongly attracted to Dinah the daughter of Ya'akov; he fell in love with the girl and tried to win her affection.

Genesis 34:4 Sh'khem spoke with his father Hamor and said, "Get this girl for me; I want her to be my wife."

Genesis 34:5 When Ya'akov heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Ya'akov restrained himself until they came.

Genesis 34:6 Hamor the father of Sh'khem went out to Ya'akov to speak with him

Genesis 34:7 just as Ya'akov's sons were coming in from the field. When they heard what had happened, the men were saddened and were very angry at the outrage this man had committed against Isra'el by raping Ya'akov's daughter, something that is simply not done.

Genesis 34:8 But Hamor said to them, "My son Sh'khem's heart is set on your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife;

Genesis 34:9 and intermarry with us: give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.

Genesis 34:10 You will live with us, and the land will be available to you- you'll live, do business and acquire possessions here."

Genesis 34:11 Then Sh'khem said to her father and brothers, "Only accept me, and I will give whatever you tell me.

Genesis 34:12 Ask as large a bride-price as you like, I'll pay whatever you tell me. Just let me marry the girl."

Genesis 34:13 The sons of Ya'akov answered Sh'khem and Hamor his father deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

Genesis 34:14 They said to them, "We can't do it, because it would be a disgrace to give our sister to someone who hasn't been circumcised.

Genesis 34:15 Only on this condition will we consent to what you are asking: that you become like us by having every male among you get circumcised.

Genesis 34:16 Then we'll give our daughters to you, and we'll take your daughters for ourselves, and we'll live with you and become one people.

Genesis 34:17 But if you won't do as we say and get circumcised, then we'll take our daughter and go away."

Genesis 34:18 What they said seemed fair to Hamor and Sh'khem the son of Hamor,

Genesis 34:19 and the young man did not put off doing what was asked of him, even though he was the most respected member of his father's family, because he so much wanted Ya'akov' s daughter.

Genesis 34:20 Hamor and Sh'khem his son came to the entrance of their city and spoke with its leading men:

Genesis 34:21 "These people are peaceful toward us; therefore let them live in the land and do business in it; for, as you can see, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives for ourselves, and we'll give them our daughters.

Genesis 34:22 But the people will consent to live with us and become one people only on this condition: that every male among us gets circumcised, as they themselves are circumcised.

Genesis 34:23 Won't their cattle, their possessions and all their animals be ours? Only let's consent to do what they ask, and then they will live with us."

Genesis 34:24 Everyone going out the city's gate listened to Hamor and Sh'khem his son; so every male was circumcised, every one that went out the gate of the city.

Genesis 34:25 On the third day after the circumcision, when they were in pain, two of Ya'akov's sons, Shim'on and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords, boldly descended on the city and slaughtered all the males.

Genesis 34:26 They killed Hamor and Sh'khem his son with their swords, took Dinah out of Sh'khem's house, and left.

Genesis 34:27 Then the sons of Ya'akov entered over the dead bodies of those who had been slaughtered and plundered the city in reprisal for defiling their sister.

Genesis 34:28 They took their flocks, cattle and donkeys, and everything else, whether in the city or in the field,

Genesis 34:29 everything they owned. Their children and wives they took captive, and they looted whatever was in the houses.

Genesis 34:30 But Ya'akov said to Shim'on and Levi, "You have caused me trouble by making me stink in the opinion of the local inhabitants, the Kena'ani and the P'rizi. Since I don't have many people, they'll align themselves together against me and attack me; and I will be destroyed, I and my household."

Genesis 34:31 They replied, "Should we let our sister be treated like a whore?"

Genesis 35:1 God said to Ya'akov, "Get up, go up to Beit-El and live there, and make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled 'Esav your brother."

Genesis 35:2 Then Ya'akov said to his household and all the others with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that you have with you, purify yourselves, and put on fresh clothes.

Genesis 35:3 We're going to move on and go up to Beit-El. There I will build an altar to God, who answered me when I was in such distress and stayed with me wherever I went."

Genesis 35:4 They gave Ya'akov all the foreign gods in their possession and the earrings they were wearing, and Ya'akov buried them under the pistachio tree near Sh'khem.

Genesis 35:5 While they were traveling, a terror from God fell upon the cities around them, so that none of them pursued the sons of Ya'akov.

Genesis 35:6 Ya'akov and all the people with him arrived at Luz (that is, Beit-El) in the land of Kena'an.

Genesis 35:7 He built there an altar and called the place El-Beit-El [[God of Beit-El]], because it was there that God was revealed to him, at the time when he was fleeing from his brother.

Genesis 35:8 Then D'vorah, Rivkah's nurse, died. She was buried below Beit-El under the oak, which was given the name Alon-Bakhut [[oak of weeping]].

Genesis 35:9 After Ya'akov arrived from Paddan-Aram, God appeared to him again and blessed him.

Genesis 35:10 God said to him, "Your name is Ya'akov, but you will be called Ya'akov no longer; your name will be Isra'el." Thus he named him Isra'el.

Genesis 35:11 God further said to him, "I am [El Shaddai.] Be fruitful and multiply. A nation, indeed a group of nations, will come from you; kings will be descended from you.

Genesis 35:12 Moreover, the land which I gave to Avraham and Yitz'chak I will give to you, and I will give the land to your descendants after you."

Genesis 35:13 Then God went up from him there where he had spoken with him.

Genesis 35:14 Ya'akov set up a standing-stone in the place where he had spoken with him, a stone pillar. Then he poured out a drink offering on it and poured oil on it.

Genesis 35:15 Ya'akov called the place where God spoke with him Beit-El.

Genesis 35:16 Then they traveled on from Beit-El, and while there was still some distance to go before arriving in Efrat, Rachel went into labor, and she had great difficulty with it.

Genesis 35:17 While she was undergoing this hard labor, the midwife said to her, "Don't worry, this is also a son for you."

Genesis 35:18 But she died in childbirth. As she was dying she named her son Ben-Oni [[son of my grief]], but his father called him Binyamin [[son of the right hand, son of the south]].

Genesis 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Efrat (that is, Beit-Lechem).

Genesis 35:20 Ya'akov set up a standing-stone on her grave; it is the standing-stone of Rachel's grave to this day.

Genesis 35:21 Isra'el continued his travels and pitched his tent on the other side of Migdal-'Eder.

Genesis 35:22 It was while Isra'el was living in that land that Re'uven went and slept with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Isra'el heard about it. Ya'akov had twelve sons.

Genesis 35:23 The sons of Le'ah were Re'uven Ya'akov's firstborn, Shim'on, Levi, Y'hudah, Yissakhar and Z'vulun.

Genesis 35:24 The sons of Rachel were Yosef and Binyamin.

Genesis 35:25 The sons of Bilhah Rachel's slave-girl were Dan and Naftali.

Genesis 35:26 And the sons of Zilpah Le'ah's slave-girl were Gad and Asher. These were Ya'akov's sons, born to him in Paddan-Aram.

Genesis 35:27 Ya'akov came home to his father Yitz'chak at Mamre, near Kiryat-Arba (also known as Hevron), where Avraham and Yitz'chak had lived as foreigners.

Genesis 35:28 Yitz'chak lived to be 180 years old.

Genesis 35:29 Then he breathed his last, died and was gathered to his people, an old man full of years; and his sons 'Esav and Ya'akov buried him.

Genesis 36:1 This is the genealogy of 'Esav (that is, Edom).

Genesis 36:2 'Esav chose Kena'ani women as his wives: 'Adah the daughter of Eilon the Hitti; Oholivamah the daughter of 'Anah the daughter of Tziv'on the Hivi;

Genesis 36:3 and Basmat Yishma'el's daughter, sister of N'vayot.

Genesis 36:4 'Adah bore to 'Esav Elifaz, Basmat bore Re'u'el,

Genesis 36:5 and Oholivamah bore Ye'ush, Ya'lam and Korach. These were the sons of 'Esav born to him in the land of Kena'an.

Genesis 36:6 'Esav took his wives, his sons and daughters, the others in his household, his cattle and other animals and everything else he owned, which he had acquired in the land of Kena'an, and went off to a country distant from his brother Ya'akov.

Genesis 36:7 For their possessions had become too great for them to live together, and the countryside through which they were traveling couldn't support so much livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So 'Esav lived in the hill-country of Se'ir. ('Esav is Edom.)

Genesis 36:9 This is the genealogy of 'Esav the father of Edom in the hill-country of Se'ir.

Genesis 36:10 The names of 'Esav's sons were Elifaz, son of 'Adah the wife of 'Esav, and Re'u'el the son of Basmat the wife of 'Esav.

Genesis 36:11 The sons of Elifaz were Teman, Omar, Tzefo, Ga'tam and K'naz.

Genesis 36:12 Timnah was the concubine of Elifaz 'Esav's son, and she bore to Elifaz 'Amalek. These were the descendants of 'Adah 'Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:13 The sons of Re'u'el were Nachat, Zerach, Shammah and Mizah. These were the sons of Basmat 'Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:14 These were the sons of Oholivamah, the daughter of 'Anah the daughter of Tziv'on, 'Esav's wife: she bore to 'Esav Ye'ush, Ya'lam and Korach.

Genesis 36:15 The chieftains of the sons of 'Esav were the sons of Elifaz the firstborn of 'Esav and the chieftains of Teman, Omar, Tzefo, K'naz, Genesis 36:16 Korach, Ga'tam and 'Amalek. These were the chieftains descended from Elifaz in Edom and from 'Adah.

Genesis 36:17 The sons of Re'u'el 'Esav's son were the chieftains of Nachat, Zerach, Shammah and Mizah. These were the chieftains descended from Re'u'el in the land of Edom and from Basmat 'Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:18 The sons of Oholivamah 'Esav's wife were the chieftains of Ye'ush, Ya'lam and Korach. These were the chieftains descended from Oholivamah the daughter of 'Anah, 'Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:19 These were the descendants of 'Esav (that is, Edom), and these were their chieftains.

Genesis 36:20 These were the descendants of Se'ir the Hori, the local inhabitants: Lotan, Shoval, Tziv'on, 'Anah, Genesis 36:21 Dishon, Etzer and Dishan. They were the chieftains descended from the Hori, the people of Se'ir in the land of Edom.

Genesis 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; Lotan's sister was Timnah.

Genesis 36:23 The sons of Shoval were 'Alvan, Manachat, 'Eival, Sh'fo and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 The sons of Tziv'on were Ayah and 'Anah. This is the 'Anah who found the hot springs in the desert while pasturing his father Tziv'on's donkeys.

Genesis 36:25 The children of 'Anah were Dishon and Oholivamah the daughter of 'Anah.

Genesis 36:26 The sons of Dishon were Hemdan, Eshban, Yitran and K'ran.

Genesis 36:27 The sons of Etzer were Bilhan, Za'avan and 'Akan.

Genesis 36:28 The sons of Dishan were 'Utz and Aran.

Genesis 36:29 These were the chieftains descended from the Hori: the chieftains of Lotan, Shoval, Tziv'on, 'Anah, Genesis 36:30 Dishon, Etzer and Dishan. They were the chieftains descended from the Hori by their clans in Se'ir.

Genesis 36:31 Following are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king had reigned over the people of Isra'el.

Genesis 36:32 Bela the son of B’or reigned in Edom; the name of his city was Dinhavah.

Genesis 36:33 When Bela died, Yovav the son of Zerach from Botzrah reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:34 When Yovav died, Husham from the land of the Temani reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:35 When Husham died, Hadad the son of B’dad, who killed Midyan in the field of Mo’av, reigned in his place; the name of his city was ‘Avit.

Genesis 36:36 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:37 When Samlah died, Sha’ul of Rechovot-by-the-River reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:38 When Sha’ul died, Ba’al-Chanan the son of ‘Akhbor reigned in his place.

Genesis 36:39 When Ba’al-Chanan died, Hadar reigned in his place; the name of his city was Pa’u; and his wife’s name was M’heitav’el the daughter of Matred the daughter of Mei-Zahav.

Genesis 36:40 These are the names of the chieftains descended from ‘Esav, according to their clans, places and names: the chieftains of Timna, ‘Alvah, Y’tet,

Genesis 36:41 Oholivamah, Elah, Pinon,

Genesis 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mivtzar,

Genesis 36:43 Magdi’el and ‘Iram. These were the chieftains of Edom according to their settlements in the land they owned. This is ‘Esav the father of Edom.

Genesis 37:1 Ya’akov continued living in the land where his father had lived as a foreigner, the land of Kena’an.

Genesis 37:2 Here is the history of Ya’akov. When Yosef was seventeen years old he used to pasture the flock with his brothers, even though he was still a boy. Once when he was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father’s wives, he brought a bad report about them to their father.

Genesis 37:3 Now Isra’el loved Yosef the most of all his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a long-sleeved robe.

Genesis 37:4 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they began to hate him and reached the point where they couldn’t even talk with him in a civil manner.

Genesis 37:5 Yosef had a dream which he told his brothers, and that made them hate him all the more.

Genesis 37:6 He said to them, “Listen while I tell you about this dream of mine.

Genesis 37:7 We were tying up bundles of wheat in the field when suddenly my bundle got up by itself and stood upright; then your bundles came, gathered around mine and prostrated themselves before it.”

Genesis 37:8 His brothers retorted, “Yes, you will certainly be our king. You’ll do a great job of bossing us around!” And they hated him still more for his dreams and for what he said.

Genesis 37:9 He had another dream which he told his brothers: “Here, I had another dream, and there were the sun, the moon and eleven stars prostrating themselves before me.”

Genesis 37:10 He told his father too, as well as his brothers, but his father rebuked him: “What is this dream you have had? Do you really expect me, your mother and your brothers to come and prostrate ourselves before you on the ground?”

Genesis 37:11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Genesis 37:12 After this, when his brothers had gone to pasture their father’s sheep in Sh’khem,

Genesis 37:13 Isra’el asked Yosef, “Aren’t your brothers pasturing the sheep in Sh’khem? Come, I will send you to them.” He answered, “Here I am.”

Genesis 37:14 He said to him, “Go now, see whether things are going well with your brothers and with the sheep, and bring word back to me.” So he sent him away from the Hevron Valley, and he went to Sh’khem,

Genesis 37:15 where a man found him wandering around in the countryside. The man asked him, “What are you looking for?”

Genesis 37:16 “I’m looking for my brothers,” he answered. “Tell me, please, where are they pasturing the sheep?”

Genesis 37:17 The man said, “They’ve left here; because I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dotan.’“ Yosef went after his brothers and found them in Dotan.

Genesis 37:18 They spotted him in the distance, and before he had arrived where they were, they had already plotted to kill him.

Genesis 37:19 They said to each other, “Look, this dreamer is coming!

Genesis 37:20 So come now, let’s kill him and throw him into one of these water cisterns here. Then we’ll say some wild animal devoured him. We’ll see then what becomes of his dreams!”

Genesis 37:21 But when Re’uven heard this, he saved him from being destroyed by them. He said, “We shouldn’t take his life.

Genesis 37:22 Don't shed blood," Re'uven added. "Throw him into this cistern here in the wilds, but don't lay hands on him yourselves." He intended to rescue him from them later and restore him to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So it was that when Yosef arrived to be with his brothers, they stripped off his robe, the long-sleeved robe he was wearing,

Genesis 37:24 and took him and threw him into the cistern (the cistern was empty; without any water in it).

Genesis 37:25 Then they sat down to eat their meal; but as they looked up, they saw in front of them a caravan of Yishma'elim coming from Gil'ad, their camels loaded with aromatic gum, healing resin and opium, on their way down to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 Y'hudah said to his brothers, "What advantage is it to us if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

Genesis 37:27 Come, let's sell him to the Yishma'elim, instead of putting him to death with our own hands. After all, he is our brother, our own flesh." His brothers paid attention to him.

Genesis 37:28 So when the Midyanim, merchants, passed by, they drew and lifted Yosef up out of the cistern and sold him for half a pound of silver [shekel]s to the Yishma'elim, who took Yosef on to Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 Re'uven returned to the cistern, and, upon seeing that Yosef wasn't in it, tore his clothes in mourning.

Genesis 37:30 He returned to his brothers and said, "The boy isn't there! Where can I go now?"

Genesis 37:31 They took Yosef's robe, killed a male goat and dipped the robe in the blood.

Genesis 37:32 Then they sent the long-sleeved robe and brought it to their father, saying, "We found this. Do you know if it's your son's robe or not?"

Genesis 37:33 He recognized it and cried, "It's my son's robe! Some wild animal has torn Yosef in pieces and eaten him!"

Genesis 37:34 Ya'akov tore his clothes and, putting sackcloth around his waist, mourned his son for many days.

Genesis 37:35 Though all his sons and daughters tried to comfort him, he refused all consolation, saying, "No, I will go down to the grave, to my son, mourning." And his father wept for him.

Genesis 37:36 In Egypt the Midyanim sold Yosef to Potifar, one of Pharaoh's officials, a captain of the guard.

Genesis 38:1 It was at this time that Y'hudah went off from his brothers and settled near a man named Hirah who was an 'Adulami.

Genesis 38:2 There Y'hudah saw one of the daughters of a certain Kena'ani whose name was Shua, and he took her and slept with her.

Genesis 38:3 She conceived and had a son, whom he named ‘Er.

Genesis 38:4 She conceived again and had a son, and she called him Onan.

Genesis 38:5 Then she conceived yet again and had a son whom she called Shelah; he was in K’ziv when she gave birth to him.

Genesis 38:6 Y’hudah took a wife for ‘Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.

Genesis 38:7 But ‘Er, Y’hudah’s firstborn, was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so ADONAI killed him.

Genesis 38:8 Y’hudah said to Onan, “Go and sleep with your brother’s wife- perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her, and preserve your brother’s line of descent.”

Genesis 38:9 However, Onan knew that the child would not count as his; so whenever he had intercourse with his brother’s wife, he spilled the semen on the ground, so as not to give his brother offspring.

Genesis 38:10 What he did was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so he killed him too.

Genesis 38:11 Then Y’hudah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, “Stay a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up”; for he thought, “I don’t want him to die too, like his brothers.” So Tamar went and lived at home with her father.

Genesis 38:12 In due time, Shua’s daughter, the wife of Y’hudah, died. After Y’hudah had been comforted, he went up to be with his sheep-shearers in Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the ‘Adulami.

Genesis 38:13 Tamar was told, “Your father-in-law has gone up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

Genesis 38:14 So she took off her widow’s clothes, completely covered her face with her veil, and sat at the entrance to ‘Einayim, which is on the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah had grown up, but she still was not being given to him as his wife.

Genesis 38:15 When Y’hudah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute, because she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 So he went over to her where she was sitting and said, not realizing that she was his daughter-in-law, “Come, let me sleep with you.” She answered, “What will you pay to sleep with me?”

Genesis 38:17 He said, “I will send you a kid from the flock of goats.” She said, “Will you also give me something as a guarantee until you send it”

Genesis 38:18 He answered, “What should I give you as a guarantee?” She said, “Your seal, with its cord, and the staff you’re carrying in your hand.” So he gave them to her, then went and slept with her; and she conceived by him.

Genesis 38:19 She got up and went away, took off her veil and put on her widow's clothes.

Genesis 38:20 Y'hudah sent the kid with his friend the 'Adulami to receive the guarantee items back from the woman, but he couldn't find her.

Genesis 38:21 He asked the people near where she had been, "Where is the prostitute who was on the road at 'Einayim?" But they answered, "There hasn't been any prostitute here."

Genesis 38:22 So he returned to Y'hudah and said, "I couldn't find her; also the people there said, 'There hasn't been any prostitute here.'"

Genesis 38:23 Y'hudah said, "All right, let her keep the things, so that we won't be publicly shamed. I sent the kid, but you didn't find her."

Genesis 38:24 About three months later Y'hudah was told, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has been acting like a whore; moreover, she is pregnant as a result of her prostitution." Y'hudah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burned alive!"

Genesis 38:25 When she was brought out, she sent this message to her father-in-law: "I am pregnant by the man to whom these things belong. Determine, I beg you, whose these are- the signet, the cords and the staff."

Genesis 38:26 Then Y'hudah acknowledged owning them. He said, "She is more righteous than I, because I didn't let her become the wife of my son Shelah." And he never slept with her again.

Genesis 38:27 When she went into labor, it became evident that she was going to have twins.

Genesis 38:28 As she was in labor, one of them put out his hand; and the midwife took his hand and tied a scarlet thread on it, saying, "This one came out first."

Genesis 38:29 But then he withdrew his hand, and his brother came out; so she said, "How did you manage to break out first?" Therefore he was named Peretz [[breaking out]].

Genesis 38:30 Then out came his brother, with the scarlet thread on his hand, and he was given the name Zerach [[scarlet]].

Genesis 39:1 Yosef was brought down to Egypt, and Potifar, an officer of Pharaoh's and captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Yishma'elim who had brought him there.

Genesis 39:2 ADONAI was with Yosef, and he became wealthy while he was in the household of his master the Egyptian.

Genesis 39:3 His master saw how ADONAI was with him, that ADONAI prospered everything he did.

Genesis 39:4 Yosef pleased him as he served him, and his master appointed him manager of his household; he entrusted all his possessions to Yosef.

Genesis 39:5 From the time he appointed him manager of his household and all his possessions, ADONAI blessed the Egyptian's household for Yosef's sake; ADONAI's blessing was on all he owned, whether in the house or in the field.

Genesis 39:6 So he left all his possessions in Yosef's care; and because he had him, he paid no attention to his affairs, except for the food he ate. Now Yosef was well-built and handsome as well.

Genesis 39:7 In time, the day came when his master's wife took a look at Yosef and said, "Sleep with me!"

Genesis 39:8 But he refused, saying to his master's wife, "Look, because my master has me, he doesn't know what's going on in this house. He has put all his possessions in my charge.

Genesis 39:9 In this house I am his equal; he hasn't withheld anything from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?"

Genesis 39:10 But she kept pressing him, day after day. Nevertheless, he didn't listen to her; he refused to sleep with her or even be with her.

Genesis 39:11 However, one day, when he went into the house to do his work, and none of the men living in the house was there indoors,

Genesis 39:12 she grabbed him by his robe and said, "Sleep with me!" But he fled, leaving his robe in her hand, and got himself outside.

Genesis 39:13 When she saw that he had left his robe in her hand and had escaped, Genesis 39:14 she called the men of her house and said to them, "Look at this! My husband brought in a Hebrew to make fools of us. He came in and wanted to sleep with me, but I yelled out loudly.

Genesis 39:15 When he heard me yelling like that, he left his robe with me and ran out."

Genesis 39:16 She put the robe aside until his master came home.

Genesis 39:17 Then she said to him, "This Hebrew slave you brought us came in to make a fool of me.

Genesis 39:18 But when I yelled out, he left his robe with me and fled outside."

Genesis 39:19 When his master heard what his wife said as she showed him, "Here's what your slave did to me," he became furious.

Genesis 39:20 Yosef's master took him and put him in prison, in the place where the king's prisoners were kept; and there he was in the prison.

Genesis 39:21 But ADONAI was with Yosef, showing him grace and giving him favor in the sight of the prison warden.

Genesis 39:22 The prison warden made Yosef supervisor of all the prisoners in the prison; so that whatever they did there, he was in charge of it.

Genesis 39:23 The prison warden paid no attention to anything Yosef did, because ADONAI was with him; and whatever he did, ADONAI prospered. [(vii)]

Genesis 40:1 Some time later it came about that the Egyptian king's cupbearer and baker gave offense to their lord the king of Egypt.

Genesis 40:2 Pharaoh became angry with his two officers the chief cupbearer and the chief baker.

Genesis 40:3 So he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, in the same place where Yosef was kept.

Genesis 40:4 The captain of the guard charged Yosef to be with them, and he became their attendant while they remained in prison.

Genesis 40:5 One night the two of them, the king of Egypt's cupbearer and his baker, there in prison, both had dreams, each dream with its own meaning.

Genesis 40:6 Yosef came in to them in the morning and saw that they looked sad.

Genesis 40:7 He asked Pharaoh's officers there with him in the prison of his master's house, "Why are you looking so sad today?"

Genesis 40:8 They said to him, "We each had a dream, and there's no one around who can interpret it." Yosef said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Tell it to me, please."

Genesis 40:9 Then the chief cupbearer told Yosef his dream: "In my dream, there in front of me was a vine,

Genesis 40:10 and the vine had three branches. The branches budded, then it suddenly began to blossom, and finally clusters of ripe grapes appeared.

Genesis 40:11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, so I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and gave the cup to Pharaoh."

Genesis 40:12 Yosef said to him, "Here is its interpretation: the three branches are three days.

Genesis 40:13 Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office: you will be giving Pharaoh his cup as you used to when you were his cupbearer.

Genesis 40:14 But remember me when it goes well with you; and show me kindness, please; and mention me to Pharaoh, so that he will release me from this prison.

Genesis 40:15 For the truth is that I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and here too I have done nothing wrong that would justify putting me in this dungeon.”

Genesis 40:16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Yosef, “I too saw in my dream: there were three baskets of white bread on my head.

Genesis 40:17 In the uppermost basket there were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds ate them out of the basket on my head.”

Genesis 40:18 Yosef answered, “Here is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days.

Genesis 40:19 Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from off of you- he will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you.”

Genesis 40:20 On the third day, which was Pharaoh’s birthday, he gave a party for all his officials, and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his officials.

Genesis 40:21 He restored the chief cupbearer back to his position, so that he again gave Pharaoh his cup.

Genesis 40:22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Yosef had interpreted to them.

Genesis 40:23 Nevertheless, the chief cupbearer didn’t remember Yosef, but forgot him.

Genesis 41:1 At the end of two years, Pharaoh had a dream: he was standing beside the Nile River;

Genesis 41:2 and there came up out of the river seven cows, sleek and fat; and they began feeding in swamp grass.

Genesis 41:3 After them, there came up out of the river seven more cows, miserable-looking and lean; and they stood by the other cows at the edge of the river.

Genesis 41:4 Then the miserable-looking and lean cows ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. At this point Pharaoh woke up.

Genesis 41:5 But he went to sleep again and dreamt a second time: seven full, ripe ears of grain grew out of a single stalk.

Genesis 41:6 After them, seven ears, thin and blasted by the east wind, sprang up.

Genesis 41:7 And the thin ears swallowed up the seven full, ripe ears. Then Pharaoh woke up and realized it had been a dream.

Genesis 41:8 In the morning he found himself so upset that he summoned all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one there could interpret them for him.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, “Today reminds me of something wherein I am at fault:

Genesis 41:10 Pharaoh was angry with his officials and put me in the prison of the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker.

Genesis 41:11 One night both I and he had dreams, and each man's dream had its own meaning.

Genesis 41:12 There was with us a young man, a Hebrew, a servant of the captain of the guard; and we told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us- he interpreted each man's dream individually.

Genesis 41:13 And it came about as he interpreted to us- I was restored to my office, and he was hanged."

Genesis 41:14 Then Pharaoh summoned Yosef, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came in to Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 Pharaoh said to Yosef, "I had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it; but I've heard it said about you that when you hear a dream, you can interpret it."

Genesis 41:16 Yosef answered Pharaoh, "It isn't in me. God will give Pharaoh an answer that will set his mind at peace."

Genesis 41:17 Pharaoh said to Yosef, "In my dream, I stood at the edge of the river;

Genesis 41:18 and there came up out of the river seven cows, fat and sleek; and they began feeding in the swamp grass.

Genesis 41:19 After them, there came up out of the river seven more cows, poor, miserable-looking and lean- I've never seen such bad-looking cows in all the land of Egypt!

Genesis 41:20 Then the lean and miserable-looking cows ate up the first seven fat cows.

Genesis 41:21 But after they had eaten them up, one couldn't tell that they had eaten them; because they were as miserable-looking as before. At this point I woke up.

Genesis 41:22 But I dreamed again and saw seven full, ripe ears of grain growing out of a single stalk.

Genesis 41:23 After them, seven ears, thin and blasted by the east wind, sprang up.

Genesis 41:24 And the thin ears swallowed up the seven ripe ears. I told this to the magicians, but none of them could explain it to me."

Genesis 41:25 Yosef said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are the same: God has told Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Genesis 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears of grain are seven years- the dreams are the same.

Genesis 41:27 Likewise the seven lean and miserable-looking cows that came up after them are seven years, and also the seven empty ears blasted by the east wind- there will be seven years of famine.

Genesis 41:28 This is what I told Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Genesis 41:29 Here it is: there will be seven years of abundance throughout the whole land of Egypt;

Genesis 41:30 but afterwards, there will come seven years of famine; and Egypt will forget all the abundance. The famine will consume the land,

Genesis 41:31 and the abundance will not be known in the land because of the famine that will follow, because it will be truly terrible.

Genesis 41:32 Why was the dream doubled for Pharaoh? Because the matter has been fixed by God, and God will shortly cause it to happen.

Genesis 41:33 "Therefore, Pharaoh should look for a man both discreet and wise to put in charge of the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 Pharaoh should do this, and he should appoint supervisors over the land to receive a twenty percent tax on the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.

Genesis 41:35 They should gather all the food produced during these good years coming up and set aside grain under the supervision of Pharaoh to be used for food in the cities, and they should store it.

Genesis 41:36 This will be the land's food supply for the seven years of famine that will come over the land of Egypt, so that the land will not perish as a result of the famine."

Genesis 41:37 The proposal seemed good both to Pharaoh and to all his officials.

Genesis 41:38 Pharaoh said to his officials, "Can we find anyone else like him? The Spirit of God lives in him!"

Genesis 41:39 So Pharaoh said to Yosef, "Since God has shown you all this- there is no one as discerning and wise as you-

Genesis 41:40 you will be in charge of my household; all my people will be ruled by what you say. Only when I rule from my throne will I be greater than you."

Genesis 41:41 Pharaoh said to Yosef, "Here, I place you in charge of the whole land of Egypt."

Genesis 41:42 Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Yosef's hand, had him clothed in fine linen with a gold chain around his neck

Genesis 41:43 and had him ride in his second best chariot; and they cried before him, “Bow down!” Thus he placed him in charge of the whole land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 Pharaoh said to Yosef, “I, Pharaoh, decree that without your approval no one is to raise his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:45 Pharaoh called Yosef by the name Tzafnat-Pa’neach and gave him as his wife Osnat the daughter of Poti-Fera priest of On. Then Yosef went out through all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Yosef was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt; then he left Pharaoh’s presence and traveled through all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:47 During the seven years of abundance, the earth brought forth heaps of produce.

Genesis 41:48 He collected all the food of these seven years in the land of Egypt and stored it in the cities- the food grown in the fields outside each city he stored in that city.

Genesis 41:49 Yosef stored grain in quantities like the sand on the seashore, so much that they stopped counting, because it was beyond measure.

Genesis 41:50 Two sons were born to Yosef before the year of famine came; Osnat the daughter of Poti-Fera priest of On bore them to him.

Genesis 41:51 Yosef called the firstborn M’nasheh [[causing to forget]], “Because God has caused me to forget all the troubles I suffered at the hands of my family.”

Genesis 41:52 The second he called Efrayim [[fruit]], “For God has made me fruitful in the land of my misfortune.”

Genesis 41:53 The seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt ended;

Genesis 41:54 and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Yosef had said. There was famine in all lands, but throughout the land of Egypt there was food.

Genesis 41:55 When the whole land of Egypt started feeling the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Yosef, and do what he tells you to do.”

Genesis 41:56 The famine was over all the earth, but then Yosef opened all the storehouses and sold food to the Egyptians, since the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 Moreover all countries came to Egypt to Yosef to buy grain, because the famine was severe throughout the earth.

Genesis 42:1 Now Ya’akov saw that there was grain in Egypt; so Ya’akov said to his sons, “Why are you staring at each other?

Genesis 42:2 Look," he said, "I've heard that there's grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us from there, so that we can stay alive and not die!"

Genesis 42:3 Thus Yosef's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt,

Genesis 42:4 except for Binyamin, Yosef's brother. Ya'akov did not send him with his brothers, because he was afraid something might happen to him.

Genesis 42:5 The sons of Isra'el came to buy along with the others that came, since the famine extended to the land of Kena'an.

Genesis 42:6 Yosef was governor over the land; it was he who sold to all the people of the land. Now when Yosef's brothers came and prostrated themselves before him on the ground,

Genesis 42:7 Yosef saw his brothers and recognized them; but he acted toward them as if he were a stranger and spoke harshly with them. He asked them, "Where are you from?" They answered, "From the land of Kena'an to buy food."

Genesis 42:8 So Yosef recognized his brothers, but they didn't recognize him.

Genesis 42:9 Remembering the dreams he had had about them, Yosef said to them, "You are spies! You've come to spot our country's weaknesses!"

Genesis 42:10 "No, my lord," they replied, "your servants have come to buy food.

Genesis 42:11 We're all the sons of one man, we're upright men; your servants aren't spies."

Genesis 42:12 "No," he said to them, "you've come to spy out our country's weaknesses."

Genesis 42:13 They said, "We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Kena'an; the youngest stayed with our father, and another one is gone."

Genesis 42:14 "Just as I said," replied Yosef, "you're spies!

Genesis 42:15 Here's how you can prove you're not lying: as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave here unless your youngest brother comes here.

Genesis 42:16 Send one of you, and let him bring your brother. Meanwhile, you will be kept in custody. This will prove whether there is any truth in what you say. Otherwise, as Pharaoh lives, you are certainly spies."

Genesis 42:17 Then he put all of them together in prison for three days.

Genesis 42:18 On the third day, Yosef said to them, "Do what I say, and stay alive, for I fear God.

Genesis 42:19 If you are upright men, let one of your brothers remain incarcerated in the prison you're being kept in, while you go and carry grain back to relieve the famine in your homes.

Genesis 42:20 But bring your youngest brother to me. In this way your statements will be verified, and you won't die." So they did it.

Genesis 42:21 They said to each other, "We are in fact guilty concerning our brother. He was in distress and pleaded with us; we saw it and wouldn't listen. That's why this distress has come upon us now."

Genesis 42:22 Re'uven answered them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't wrong the boy'? But you wouldn't hear of it. Now comes the reckoning for his blood!"

Genesis 42:23 They had no idea that Yosef understood them, since an interpreter was translating for them.

Genesis 42:24 Yosef turned away from them and wept; then he returned and spoke to them. He took Shim'on from among them and put him in prison before their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Next he ordered that their containers be filled with grain, that every man's money be put back in his pack and that they be given provisions for the journey. When these things had been done for them,

Genesis 42:26 they loaded their grain on their donkeys and departed.

Genesis 42:27 But at camp that night, as one of them opened his pack to give fodder to his donkey, he noticed his money- there it was, just inside his pack.

Genesis 42:28 He said to his brothers, "My money has been restored- there it is, right in my pack!" At that, their hearts sank; they turned, trembling, to one another and said, "What is this that God has done to us?"

Genesis 42:29 They returned to Ya'akov their father in the land of Kena'an and told him all that had happened to them.

Genesis 42:30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us. He took us for spies in his country.

Genesis 42:31 We said to him, 'We are upright men, we're not spies;

Genesis 42:32 we are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is gone, and the youngest stayed with our father in the land of Kena'an.'

Genesis 42:33 But the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'Here is how I will know that you are upright men: leave one of your brothers with me, take grain to relieve the famine in your homes, and go on your way;

Genesis 42:34 but bring your youngest brother to me. By this I will know that you aren't spies, but are upright men; then I will return your brother to you; and you will do business in the land.'"

Genesis 42:35 Next, as they emptied their packs, there was each man's bag of money in his pack; and when they and their father saw their bags of money, they became afraid.

Genesis 42:36 Ya'akov their father said to them, "You have robbed me of my children! Yosef is gone, Shim'on is gone, now you're taking Binyamin away- it all falls on me!"

Genesis 42:37 Re'uven said to his father, "If I don't bring him back to you, you can kill my own two sons! Put him in my care; I will return him to you."

Genesis 42:38 But he replied, "My son will not go down with you. His brother is dead, and he alone is left. If anything were to happen to him while traveling with you, you would bring my gray hair down to Sh'ol with grief."

Genesis 43:1 But the famine was severe in the land;

Genesis 43:2 so when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again, buy us a little food."

Genesis 43:3 Y'hudah said to him, "The man expressly warned us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'

Genesis 43:4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food;

Genesis 43:5 but if you will not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

Genesis 43:6 Isra'el said, "Why did you bring such trouble my way by telling the man you had another brother?"

Genesis 43:7 They answered, "The man kept questioning us about ourselves and about our kinsmen. He asked, 'Is your father still alive?' 'Do you have another brother?' and we answered according to the literal meaning of his questions. How were we to know he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?"

Genesis 43:8 Y'hudah said to Isra'el his father, "Send the boy with me; and we will make preparations and leave; so that we may stay alive and not die, both we and you, and also our little ones.

Genesis 43:9 I myself will guarantee his safety; you can hold me responsible. If I fail to bring him to you and present him to your face, let me bear the blame forever.

Genesis 43:10 Except for our lengthy delay, we would have been there again by now."

Genesis 43:11 Their father Isra'el answered them, "If that's how it is, do this: take in your containers some of the land's best products, and bring the man a gift- some healing resin, a little honey, aromatic gum, opium, pistachio nuts and almonds.

Genesis 43:12 Take twice the amount of money with you; and return the money that came back with you in your packs- it could have been an oversight.

Genesis 43:13 Yes, and take your brother too; and get ready; and go again to the man.

Genesis 43:14 May [El Shaddai] give you favor in the man's sight, so that he will release to you your other brother as well as Binyamin. As for me, if I must lose my children, lose them I will."

Genesis 43:15 The men took that gift, and they took twice the money with them, and Binyamin; then they prepared, went down to Egypt and stood before Yosef.

Genesis 43:16 When Yosef saw Binyamin with them, he said to his household manager, "Take the men inside the house, kill the animals and prepare the meat. These men will dine with me at noon."

Genesis 43:17 The man did as Yosef ordered and brought the men into Yosef's house.

Genesis 43:18 Upon being ushered inside Yosef's house, the men became fearful. They said, "It's because of the money that was returned in our packs the first time that we have been brought inside- so that he can use it as an excuse to attack us, take us as slaves and seize our donkeys too."

Genesis 43:19 So they approached the manager of Yosef's household and spoke to him at the entrance of the house:

Genesis 43:20 "Please, my lord, the first time we indeed came down to buy food;

Genesis 43:21 but when we got to camp, we opened our packs, and there inside our packs was each man's money, the full amount. We have brought it back with us;

Genesis 43:22 moreover, we have brought down other money to buy food. We have no idea who put our money in our packs."

Genesis 43:23 "Stop worrying," he replied, "don't be afraid. Your God and the God of your father put treasure in your packs. As for your money- I was the one who received it." Then he brought Shim'on out to them.

Genesis 43:24 The man brought the men into Yosef's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet, and he provided fodder for their donkeys.

Genesis 43:25 Then they got their gift ready for Yosef's arrival at noon, for they had heard that they were going to eat a meal there.

Genesis 43:26 When Yosef arrived home, they went in the house and presented him with the gift they had brought with them, then prostrated themselves before him on the ground.

Genesis 43:27 He asked them how they were and inquired, “Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?”

Genesis 43:28 They answered, “Your servant our father is well; yes, he is still alive,” as they bowed in respect.

Genesis 43:29 He looked up and saw Binyamin his brother, his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?” and added, “May God be good to you, my son.”

Genesis 43:30 Then Yosef hurried out, because his feelings toward his brother were so strong that he wanted to cry; he went into his bedroom and there he wept.

Genesis 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out, but he controlled himself as he gave the order to serve the meal.

Genesis 43:32 They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians included at the meal by themselves-Egyptians don’t eat with Hebrews, because that is abhorrent to them.

Genesis 43:33 So they sat there facing him, the firstborn in the place of honor, the youngest in last place; and the men expressed their amazement to each other.

Genesis 43:34 Each was given his serving there in front of him, but Binyamin’s portion was five times as large as any of theirs. So they drank and enjoyed themselves with him.

Genesis 44:1 Then he ordered the manager of his household, “Fill the men’s packs with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money just inside his pack.

Genesis 44:2 And put my goblet, the silver one, just inside the pack of the youngest, along with his grain money.” He did what Yosef told him to do.

Genesis 44:3 At daybreak the men were sent off with their donkeys;

Genesis 44:4 but before they were far from the city Yosef said to his manager, “Up, go after the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid good with evil?

Genesis 44:5 Isn’t this the goblet my lord drinks from, indeed the one he uses for divination? What you have done is evil!’“

Genesis 44:6 So he caught up with them and said these words to them.

Genesis 44:7 They replied, “Why does my lord speak this way? Heaven forbid that we should do such a thing!

Genesis 44:8 Why, the money we found inside our packs we brought back to you from the land of Kena'an! So how would we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?

Genesis 44:9 Whichever one of us the goblet is found with, let him be put to death- and the rest of us will be my lord's slaves!"

Genesis 44:10 He replied, "Fine; let it be as you have said: whichever one it is found with will be my slave. But the rest of you will be blameless."

Genesis 44:11 Then each hurried to put his pack down on the ground, and each one opened his pack.

Genesis 44:12 He searched, starting with the oldest and ending with the youngest; and the goblet was found in the pack belonging to Binyamin.

Genesis 44:13 At this, they tore their clothes from grief. Then each man loaded up his donkey and returned to the city.

Genesis 44:14 Y'hudah and his brothers arrived at Yosef's house. He was still there, and they fell down before him on the ground.

Genesis 44:15 Yosef said to them, "How could you do such a thing? Don't you know that a man such as myself can learn the truth by divination?"

Genesis 44:16 Y'hudah said, "There's nothing we can say to my lord! How can we speak? There's no way we can clear ourselves! God has revealed your servants' guilt; so here we are, my lord's slaves- both we and also the one in whose possession the cup was found."

Genesis 44:17 But he replied, "Heaven forbid that I should act in such a way. The man in whose possession the goblet was found will be my slave; but as for you, go in peace to your father."

Genesis 44:18 Then Y'hudah approached Yosef and said, "Please, my lord! Let your servant say something to you privately; and don't be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself.

Genesis 44:19 My lord asked his servants, 'Do you have a father? or a brother?'

Genesis 44:20 We answered my lord, 'We have a father who is an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one whose brother is dead; so that of his mother's children he alone is left; and his father loves him.'

Genesis 44:21 But you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, so that I can see him.'

Genesis 44:22 We answered my lord, 'The boy can't leave his father; if he were to leave his father, his father would die.'

Genesis 44:23 You said to your servants, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'

Genesis 44:24 We went up to your servant my father and told him what my lord had said;

Genesis 44:25 but when our father said, ‘Go again, and buy us some food,’

Genesis 44:26 we answered, ‘We can’t go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go down, because we can’t see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

Genesis 44:27 Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons:

Genesis 44:28 the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he has been torn to pieces,” and I haven’t seen him since.

Genesis 44:29 Now if you take this one away from me too, and something happens to him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sh’ol with grief.’

Genesis 44:30 So now if I go to your servant my father, and the boy isn’t with us- seeing how his heart is bound up with the boy’s heart-

Genesis 44:31 when he sees that the boy isn’t with us, he will die; and your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sh’ol with grief.

Genesis 44:32 For your servant himself guaranteed his safety; I said, ‘If I fail to bring him to you, then I will bear the blame before my father forever.’

Genesis 44:33 Therefore, I beg you, let your servant stay as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go up with his brothers.

Genesis 44:34 For how can I go up to my father if the boy isn’t with me? I couldn’t bear to see my father so overwhelmed by anguish.”

Genesis 45:1 At last Yosef could no longer control his feelings in front of his attendants and cried, “Get everybody away from me!” So no one else was with him when Yosef revealed to his brothers who he was.

Genesis 45:2 He wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard, and Pharaoh’s household heard.

Genesis 45:3 Yosef said to his brothers, “I am Yosef! Is it true that my father is still alive?” His brothers couldn’t answer him, they were so dumbfounded at seeing him.

Genesis 45:4 Yosef said to his brothers, “Please! Come closer.” And they came closer. He said, “I am Yosef, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

Genesis 45:5 But don’t be sad that you sold me into slavery here or angry at yourselves, because it was God who sent me ahead of you to preserve life.

Genesis 45:6 The famine has been over the land for the last two years, and for yet another five years there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

Genesis 45:7 God sent me ahead of you to ensure that you will have descendants on earth and to save your lives in a great deliverance.

Genesis 45:8 So it was not you who sent me here, but God; and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his household and ruler over the whole land of Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 Hurry, go up to my father, and tell him, ‘Here is what your son Yosef says: “God has made me lord of all Egypt! Come down to me, don’t delay!

Genesis 45:10 You will live in the land of Goshen and be near me- you, your children, your grandchildren, flocks, herds, everything you own.

Genesis 45:11 I will provide for you there, so that you won’t become poverty-stricken, you, your household and all that you have; because five years of famine are yet to come.”‘

Genesis 45:12 Here! Your own eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Binyamin, that it is my own mouth speaking to you.

Genesis 45:13 Tell my father how honored I am in Egypt and everything you have seen, and quickly bring my father down here!”

Genesis 45:14 Then he embraced his brother Binyamin and wept, and Binyamin wept on his neck,

Genesis 45:15 and he kissed all his brothers and wept on them. After that, his brothers talked with him.

Genesis 45:16 The report of this reached Pharaoh’s house: “Yosef’s brothers have come”; and Pharaoh and his servants were pleased.

Genesis 45:17 Pharaoh said to Yosef, “Tell your brothers, ‘Here is what you are to do. Load up your animals, go to the land of Kena’an, Genesis 45:18 take your father and your families, and come back to me. I will give you good property in Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.

Genesis 45:19 “‘Moreover- and this is an order- do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt to carry your little ones and your wives, and bring your father, and come.

Genesis 45:20 Don’t worry about your stuff, because everything good in the land of Egypt is yours.’“

Genesis 45:21 The sons of Isra’el acted accordingly; and Yosef gave them wagons, as Pharaoh had ordered, and gave them provisions for their journey.

Genesis 45:22 To each of them he gave a set of new clothes; but to Binyamin he gave seven-and-a-half pounds of silver and five sets of new clothes.

Genesis 45:23 Likewise, to his father he sent ten donkeys loaded with the finest goods Egypt produced, as well as ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread and food for his father to eat on the return journey.

Genesis 45:24 Thus he sent his brothers on their way, and they left; he said to them, “Don’t quarrel among yourselves while you’re traveling!”

Genesis 45:25 So they went up out of Egypt, entered the land of Kena’an and came to Ya’akov their father.

Genesis 45:26 They told him, “Yosef is still alive! He is ruler over the whole land of Egypt!” He was stunned at the news; he couldn’t believe them.

Genesis 45:27 So they reported to him everything Yosef had said to them; but it was only when he saw the wagons which Yosef had sent to carry him that the spirit of Ya’akov their father began to revive.

Genesis 45:28 Isra’el said, “Enough! My son Yosef is still alive! I must go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46:1 Isra’el took everything he owned with him on his journey. He arrived at Be’er-Sheva and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Yitz’chak.

Genesis 46:2 In a vision at night God called to Isra’el, “Ya’akov! Ya’akov!” He answered, “Here I am.”

Genesis 46:3 He said, “I am God, the God of your father. Don’t be afraid to go down to Egypt. It is there that I will make you into a great nation.

Genesis 46:4 Not only will I go down with you to Egypt; but I will also bring you back here again, after Yosef has closed your eyes.”

Genesis 46:5 So Ya’akov left Be’er-Sheva; the sons of Isra’el brought Ya’akov their father, their little ones and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to carry them.

Genesis 46:6 They took their cattle and their possessions which they had acquired in the land of Kena’an and arrived in Egypt, Ya’akov and all his descendants with him-

Genesis 46:7 his sons, grandsons, daughters, granddaughters and all his descendants he brought with him into Egypt.

Genesis 46:8 These are the names of Isra’el’s children who came into Egypt, Ya’akov and his sons: Re’uven Ya’akov’s firstborn;

Genesis 46:9 and the sons of Re’uven- Hanokh, Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi.

Genesis 46:10 The sons of Shim’on: Y’mu’el, Yamin, Ohad, Yakhin, Tzochar and Sha’ul the son of a Kena’ani woman.

Genesis 46:11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, K’hat and M’rari.

Genesis 46:12 The sons of Y’hudah: ‘Er, Onan, Shelah, Peretz and Zerach; but ‘Er and Onan died in the land of Kena’an. The sons of Peretz were Hetzron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:13 The sons of Yissakhar: Tola, Puvah, Yov and Shimron.

Genesis 46:14 The sons of Z’vulun: Sered, Elon and Yachle’el.

Genesis 46:15 These were the children of Le’ah whom she bore to Ya’akov in Paddan-Aram, with his daughter Dinah. In sum, his sons and daughters numbered thirty-three.

Genesis 46:16 The sons of Gad: Tzifyon, Haggi, Shuni, Etzbon, ‘Eri, Arodi and Ar’eli.

Genesis 46:17 The children of Asher: Yimnah, Yishvah, Yishvi, B’ri’ah, and their sister Serach. The sons of B’ri’ah were Hever and Malki’el.

Genesis 46:18 These were the children of Zilpah, whom Lavan gave to Le’ah his daughter; she bore them to Ya’akov- sixteen people.

Genesis 46:19 The sons of Rachel Ya’akov’s wife: Yosef and Binyamin.

Genesis 46:20 To Yosef in the land of Egypt were born M’nasheh and Efrayim, whom Osnat the daughter of Poti-Fera priest of On bore to him.

Genesis 46:21 The sons of Binyamin: Bela, Bekher, Ashbel, Gera, Na’aman, Echi, Rosh, Mupim, Hupim and Ard.

Genesis 46:22 These were the children of Rachel who were born to Ya’akov- in sum, fourteen people.

Genesis 46:23 The sons of Dan: Hushim.

Genesis 46:24 The sons of Naftali: Yachtze’el, Guni, Yetzer and Shillem.

Genesis 46:25 These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Lavan gave to Rachel his daughter; she bore them to Ya’akov- in sum, seven people.

Genesis 46:26 All the people belonging to Ya’akov coming into Egypt, his direct descendants (not counting Ya’akov’s sons’ wives), totaled sixty-six.

Genesis 46:27 The sons of Yosef, born to him in Egypt, were two in number. Thus all the people in Ya’akov’s family who entered Egypt numbered seventy.

Genesis 46:28 Ya’akov sent Y’hudah ahead of him to Yosef, so that the latter might guide him on the road to Goshen; thus they arrived in the land of Goshen.

Genesis 46:29 Yosef prepared his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet Isra’el his father. He presented himself to him, embraced him and wept on his neck for a long time.

Genesis 46:30 Then Isra’el said to Yosef, “Now I can die, because I have seen your face and seen that you are still alive.”

Genesis 46:31 Yosef said to his brothers and his father’s family, “I’m going up to tell Pharaoh. I’ll say to him, ‘My brothers and my father’s family, who were in the land of Kena’an, have come to me.

Genesis 46:32 The men are shepherds and keepers of livestock; they have brought their flocks, their herds and all their possessions.’

Genesis 46:33 Now when Pharaoh summons you and asks, ‘What is your occupation?’

Genesis 46:34 tell him, ‘Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth until now, both we and our ancestors.’ This will ensure that you will live in the land of Goshen- for any shepherd is abhorrent to the Egyptians.”

Genesis 47:1 Then Yosef went in and told Pharaoh, “My father and brothers have come from the land of Kena’an with their flocks, livestock and all their possessions; right now they are in the land of Goshen.”

Genesis 47:2 He took five of his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:3 Pharaoh said to his brothers, “What is your occupation?” They answered Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, both we and our ancestors,”

Genesis 47:4 and added, “We have come to live in the land, because in the land of Kena’an there is no place to pasture your servant’s flocks, the famine is so severe there. Therefore, please, let your servants live in the land of Goshen.”

Genesis 47:5 Pharaoh said to Yosef, “Your father and brothers have come to you, Genesis 47:6 and the land of Egypt lies before you. Have your father and brothers live on the best property in the country- let them live in the land of Goshen. Moreover, if you know that some of them are particularly competent, put them in charge of my livestock.”

Genesis 47:7 Yosef then brought in Ya’akov his father and presented him to Pharaoh, and Ya’akov blessed Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh asked Ya’akov, “How old are you?”

Genesis 47:9 and Ya’akov replied, “The time of my stay on earth has been 130 years; they have been few and difficult, fewer than the years my ancestors lived.”

Genesis 47:10 Then Ya’akov blessed Pharaoh and left his presence.

Genesis 47:11 Yosef found a place for his father and brothers and gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best region of the country, in the land of Ra'amses, as Pharaoh had ordered.

Genesis 47:12 Yosef provided food for his father, his brothers and all his father's household, taking full care of even the youngest.

Genesis 47:13 There was no food anywhere, for the famine was very severe, so that both Egypt and Kena'an grew weak from hunger.

Genesis 47:14 Yosef collected all the money there was in Egypt and Kena'an in exchange for the grain they bought, and put the money in Pharaoh's treasury.

Genesis 47:15 When all the money in Egypt had been spent, and likewise in Kena'an, all the Egyptians approached Yosef and said, "Give us something to eat, even though we have no money; why should we die before your eyes?"

Genesis 47:16 Yosef replied, "Give me your livestock. If you don't have money, I will give you food in exchange for your livestock."

Genesis 47:17 So they brought Yosef their livestock; and Yosef gave them food in exchange for the horses, flocks, cattle and donkeys- all that year he provided them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Genesis 47:18 When that year was over, they approached Yosef again and said to him, "We won't hide from my lord that all our money is spent, and the herds of livestock belong to my lord. We have nothing left, as my lord can see, but our bodies and our land.

Genesis 47:19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we and our land will be enslaved to Pharaoh. But also give us seed to plant, so that we can stay alive and not die, and so that the land won't become barren."

Genesis 47:20 So Yosef acquired all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh, as one by one the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine weighed on them so severely. Thus the land became the property of Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:21 As for the people, he reduced them to serfdom city by city, from one end of Egypt's territory to the other.

Genesis 47:22 Only the priests' land did he not acquire, because the priests were entitled to provisions from Pharaoh, and they ate from what Pharaoh provided them; therefore they did not sell their land.

Genesis 47:23 Then Yosef said to the people, "As of today I have acquired you and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you to sow the land.

Genesis 47:24 When harvest time comes, you are to give twenty percent to Pharaoh; eighty percent will be yours to keep for seed to plant in the fields, as well as for your food and for that of your households and your little ones."

Genesis 47:25 They replied, “You have saved our lives! So if it pleases my lord, we will be Pharaoh’s slaves.”

Genesis 47:26 Yosef made it a law for the country of Egypt, valid to this day, that Pharaoh should have twenty percent. Only the property belonging to the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:27 Isra’el lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. They acquired possessions in it and were productive, and their numbers multiplied greatly.

Genesis 47:28 Ya’akov lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; thus Ya’akov lived to be 147 years old.

Genesis 47:29 The time came when Isra’el was approaching death; so he called for his son Yosef and said to him, “If you truly love me, please put your hand under my thigh and pledge that, out of consideration for me, you will not bury me in Egypt.

Genesis 47:30 Rather, when I sleep with my fathers, you are to carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried.” He replied, “I will do as you have said.”

Genesis 47:31 He said, “Swear it to me,” and he swore to him. Then Isra’el bowed down at the head of his bed.

Genesis 48:1 Awhile later someone told Yosef that his father was ill. He took with him his two sons, M’nasheh and Efrayim.

Genesis 48:2 Ya’akov was told, “Here comes your son Yosef.” Isra’el gathered his strength and sat up in bed.

Genesis 48:3 Ya’akov said to Yosef, “[El Shaddai] appeared to me at Luz in the land of Kena’an and blessed me,

Genesis 48:4 saying to me, ‘I will make you fruitful and numerous. I will make of you a group of peoples; and I will give this land to your descendants to possess forever.’

Genesis 48:5 Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Efrayim and M’nasheh will be as much mine as Re’uven and Shim’on are.

Genesis 48:6 The children born to you after them will be yours, but for purposes of inheritance they are to be counted with their older brothers.

Genesis 48:7 “Now as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died suddenly, as we were traveling through the land of Kena’an, while we were still some distance from Efrat; so I buried her there on the way to Efrat (also known as Beit-Lechem).”

Genesis 48:8 Then Isra’el noticed Yosef’s sons and asked, “Whose are these?”

Genesis 48:9 Yosef answered his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” Ya’akov replied, “I want you to bring them here to me, so that I can bless them.”

Genesis 48:10 Now Isra’el’s eyes were dim with age, so that he could not see. Yosef brought his sons near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

Genesis 48:11 Isra’el said to Yosef, “I never expected to see even you again, but God has allowed me to see your children too!”

Genesis 48:12 Yosef brought them out from between his legs and prostrated himself on the ground.

Genesis 48:13 Then Yosef took them both, Efrayim in his right hand toward Isra’el’s left hand and M’nasheh in his left hand toward Isra’el’s right hand, and brought them near to him.

Genesis 48:14 But Isra’el put out his right hand and laid it on the head of the younger one, Efrayim, and put his left hand on the head of M’nasheh- he intentionally crossed his hands, even though M’nasheh was the firstborn.

Genesis 48:15 Then he blessed Yosef: “The God in whose presence my fathers Avraham and Yitz’chak lived, the God who has been my own shepherd all my life long to this day, Genesis 48:16 the angel who has rescued me from all harm, bless these boys. May they remember who I am and what I stand for, and likewise my fathers Avraham and Yitz’chak, who they were and what they stood for. And may they grow into teeming multitudes on the earth.”

Genesis 48:17 When Yosef saw that his father was laying his right hand on Efrayim’s head, it displeased him, and he lifted up his father’s hand to remove it from Efrayim’s head and place it instead on M’nasheh’s head.

Genesis 48:18 Yosef said to his father, “Don’t do it that way, my father; for this one is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head.”

Genesis 48:19 But his father refused and said, “I know that, my son, I know it. He too will become a people, and he too will be great; nevertheless his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will grow into many nations.”

Genesis 48:20 Then he added this blessing on them that day: “Isra’el will speak of you in their own blessings by saying, ‘May God make you like Efrayim and M’nasheh.’“ Thus he put Efrayim ahead of M’nasheh.

Genesis 48:21 Isra’el then said to Yosef, “You see that I am dying, but God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your ancestors.

Genesis 48:22 Moreover, I am giving to you a [sh’khem] [[shoulder, ridge, share, city of Sh’khem]] more than to your brothers; I captured it from the Emori with my sword and bow.”

Genesis 49:1 Then Ya'akov called for his sons and said, "Gather yourselves together, and I will tell you what will happen to you in the [acharit-hayamim].

Genesis 49:2 Assemble yourselves and listen, sons of Ya'akov; pay attention to Isra'el your father.

Genesis 49:3 "Re'uven, you are my firstborn, my strength, the firstfruits of my manhood.

Genesis 49:4 Though superior in vigor and power you are unstable as water, so your superiority will end, because you climbed into your father's bed and defiled it- he climbed onto my concubine's couch!

Genesis 49:5 "Shim'on and Levi are brothers, related by weapons of violence.

Genesis 49:6 Let me not enter their council, let my honor not be connected with their people; for in their anger they killed men, and at their whim they maimed cattle.

Genesis 49:7 Cursed be their anger, for it has been fierce; their fury, for it has been cruel. I will divide them in Ya'akov and scatter them in Isra'el.

Genesis 49:8 "Y'hudah, your brothers will acknowledge you, your hand will be on the neck of your enemies, your father's sons will bow down before you.

Genesis 49:9 Y'hudah is a lion's cub; my son, you stand over the prey. He crouches down and stretches like a lion; like a lioness, who dares to provoke him?

Genesis 49:10 The scepter will not pass from Y'hudah, nor the ruler's staff from between his legs, until he comes to whom [[obedience]] belongs;* and it is he whom the peoples will obey.

Genesis 49:11 Tying his donkey to the vine, his donkey's colt to the choice grapevine, he washes his clothes in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

Genesis 49:12 His eyes will be darker than wine, his teeth whiter than milk.

Genesis 49:13 "Z'vulun will live at the seashore, with ships anchoring along his coast and his border at Tzidon.

Genesis 49:14 "Yissakhar is a strong donkey lying down in the sheep sheds.

Genesis 49:15 On seeing how good is settled life and how pleasant the country, he will bend his back to the burden, and submit to forced labor.

Genesis 49:16 "Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Isra'el.

Genesis 49:17 Dan will be a viper on the road, a horned snake in the path that bites the horse’s heels so its rider falls off backward.

Genesis 49:18 I wait for your deliverance, ADONAI.

Genesis 49:19 “Gad [[troop]]- a troop will troop on him, but he will troop on their heel.

Genesis 49:20 “Asher’s food is rich- he will provide food fit for a king.

Genesis 49:21 “Naftali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns.*

Genesis 49:22 “Yosef is a fruitful plant, a fruitful plant by a spring, with branches climbing over the wall.

Genesis 49:23 The archers attacked him fiercely, shooting at him and pressing him hard;

Genesis 49:24 but his bow remained taut; and his arms were made nimble by the hands of the Mighty One of Ya’akov, from there, from the Shepherd, the Stone of Isra’el,

Genesis 49:25 by the God of your father, who will help you, by [El Shaddai], who will bless you with blessings from heaven above, blessings from the deep, lying below, blessings from the breasts and the womb.

Genesis 49:26 The blessings of your father are more powerful than the blessings of my parents, extending to the farthest of the everlasting hills; they will be on the head of Yosef, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.]

Genesis 49:27 “Binyamin is a ravenous wolf, in the morning devouring the prey, in the evening still dividing the spoil.”

Genesis 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Isra’el, and this is how their father spoke to them and blessed them, giving each his own individual blessing.

Genesis 49:29 Then he charged them as follows: “I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my ancestors in the cave that is in the field of ‘Efron the Hitti,

Genesis 49:30 the cave in the field of Makhpelah, by Mamre, in the land of Kena’an, which Avraham bought together with the field from ‘Efron the Hitti as a burial-place belonging to him-

Genesis 49:31 there they buried Avraham and his wife Sarah, there they buried Yitz’chak and his wife Rivkah, and there I buried Le’ah-

Genesis 49:32 the field and the cave in it, which was purchased from the sons of Het.”

Genesis 49:33 When Ya’akov had finished charging his sons, he drew his legs up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50:1 Yosef fell on his father’s face, wept over him and kissed him.

Genesis 50:2 Then Yosef ordered the physicians in his service to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Isra'el.

Genesis 50:3 Forty days were spent at this, the normal amount of time for embalming. Then the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

Genesis 50:4 When the period of mourning was over, Yosef addressed to the household of Pharaoh: "I would like to ask a favor. Tell Pharaoh, Genesis 50:5 'My father had me swear an oath. He said, "I am going to die. You are to bury me in my grave, which I dug for myself in the land of Kena'an." Therefore, I beg you, let me go up and bury my father; I will return.'"

Genesis 50:6 Pharaoh responded, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."

Genesis 50:7 So Yosef went up to bury his father. With him went all Pharaoh's servants, the leaders of his household and the leaders of the land of Egypt,

Genesis 50:8 along with the entire household of Yosef, his brothers and his father's household; only their little ones, their flocks and their cattle did they leave in the land of Goshen.

Genesis 50:9 Moreover, there went up with him both chariots and horsemen- it was a very large caravan.

Genesis 50:10 When they arrived at the threshing-floor in Atad, beyond the Yarden, they raised a loud and bitter lamentation, mourning for his father seven days.

Genesis 50:11 When the local inhabitants, the Kena'ani, saw the mourning on the floor of Atad they said, "How bitterly the Egyptians are mourning!" This is why the place was given the name Avel-Mitzrayim [[mourning of Egypt]], there beyond the Yarden.

Genesis 50:12 His sons did to him as he had ordered them to do-

Genesis 50:13 they carried him into the land of Kena'an and buried him in the cave in the field of Makhpelah, which Avraham had bought, along with the field, as a burial-place belonging to him, from 'Efron the Hitti, by Mamre.

Genesis 50:14 Then, after burying his father, Yosef returned to Egypt, he, his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

Genesis 50:15 Realizing that their father was dead, Yosef's brothers said, "Yosef may hate us now and pay us back in full for all the suffering we caused him."

Genesis 50:16 So they sent a message to Yosef which said, "Your father gave this order before he died:

Genesis 50:17 ‘Say to Yosef, “I beg you now, please forgive your brothers’ crime and wickedness in doing you harm.”‘ So now, we beg of you, forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father.” Yosef wept when they spoke to him;

Genesis 50:18 and his brothers too came, prostrated themselves before him and said, “Here, we are your slaves.”

Genesis 50:19 But Yosef said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Am I in the place of God?

Genesis 50:20 You meant to do me harm, but God meant it for good- so that it would come about as it is today, with many people’s lives being saved.

Genesis 50:21 So don’t be afraid- I will provide for you and your little ones.” In this way he comforted them, speaking kindly to them.

Genesis 50:22 Yosef continued living in Egypt, he and his father’s household. Yosef lived 110 years.[(Maftir)]

Genesis 50:23 Yosef lived to see Efrayim’s great-grandchildren, and the children of M’nasheh’s son Makhir were born on Yosef’s knees.

Genesis 50:24 Yosef said to his brothers, “I am dying. But God will surely remember you and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov.”

Genesis 50:25 Then Yosef took an oath from the sons of Isra’el: “God will surely remember you, and you are to carry my bones up from here.”

Genesis 50:26 So Yosef died at the age of 110, and they embalmed him and put him in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1:1 These are the names of the sons of Isra’el who came into Egypt with Ya’akov; each man came with his household:

Exodus 1:2 Re’uven, Shim’on, Levi, Y’hudah,

Exodus 1:3 Yissakhar, Z’vulun, Binyamin,

Exodus 1:4 Dan, Naftali, Gad and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 All told, there were seventy descendants of Ya’akov; Yosef was already in Egypt.

Exodus 1:6 Yosef died, as did all his brothers and all that generation.

Exodus 1:7 The descendants of Isra’el were fruitful, increased abundantly, multiplied and grew very powerful; the land became filled with them.

Exodus 1:8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt. He knew nothing about Yosef Exodus 1:9 but said to his people, “Look, the descendants of Isra’el have become a people too numerous and powerful for us.

Exodus 1:10 Come, let’s use wisdom in dealing with them. Otherwise, they’ll continue to multiply; and in the event of war they might ally themselves with our enemies, fight against us and leave the land altogether.”

Exodus 1:11 So they put slavemasters over them to oppress them with forced labor, and they built for Pharaoh the storage cities of Pitom and Ra’amses.

Exodus 1:12 But the more the Egyptians oppressed them, the more they multiplied and expanded, until the Egyptians came to dread the people of Isra’el

Exodus 1:13 and worked them relentlessly,

Exodus 1:14 making their lives bitter with hard labor- digging clay, making bricks, all kinds of field work; and in all this toil they were shown no mercy.

Exodus 1:15 Moreover, the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was called Shifrah and the other Pu’ah.

Exodus 1:16 “When you attend the Hebrew women and see them giving birth,” he said, “if it’s a boy, kill him; but if it’s a girl, let her live.”

Exodus 1:17 However, the midwives were God-fearing women, so they didn’t do as the king of Egypt ordered but let the boys live.

Exodus 1:18 The king of Egypt summoned the midwives and demanded of them, “Why have you done this and let the boys live?”

Exodus 1:19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, “It’s because the Hebrew women aren’t like the Egyptian women- they go into labor and give birth before the midwife arrives.”

Exodus 1:20 Therefore God prospered the midwives, and the people continued to multiply and grow very powerful.

Exodus 1:21 Indeed, because the midwives feared God, he made them founders of families.

Exodus 1:22 Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: “Every boy that is born, throw in the river; but let all the girls live.”

Exodus 2:1 A man from the family of Levi took a woman also descended from Levi as his wife.

Exodus 2:2 When she conceived and had a son, upon seeing what a fine child he was, she hid him for three months.

Exodus 2:3 When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket, coated it with clay and tar, put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the riverbank.

Exodus 2:4 His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

Exodus 2:5 The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe in the river while her maids-in-attendance walked along the riverside. Spotting the basket among the reeds, she sent her slave-girl to get it.

Exodus 2:6 She opened it and looked inside, and there in front of her was a crying baby boy! Moved with pity, she said, “This must be one of the Hebrews’ children.”

Exodus 2:7 At this point, his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Would you like me to go and find you one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?”

Exodus 2:8 Pharaoh’s daughter answered, “Yes, go.” So the girl went and called the baby’s own mother.

Exodus 2:9 Pharaoh’s daughter told her, “Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will pay you for doing it.” So the woman took the child and nursed it.

Exodus 2:10 Then, when the child had grown some, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter; and she began to raise him as her son. She called him Moshe [[pull out]], explaining, “Because I pulled him out of the water.”

Exodus 2:11 One day, when Moshe was a grown man, he went out to visit his kinsmen; and he watched them struggling at forced labor. He saw an Egyptian strike a Hebrew, one of his kinsmen.

Exodus 2:12 He looked this way and that; and when he saw that no one was around, he killed the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 The next day, he went out and saw two Hebrew men fighting with each other. To the one in the wrong he said, “Why are you hitting your companion?”

Exodus 2:14 He retorted, “Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? Do you intend to kill me the way you killed the Egyptian?” Moshe became frightened. “Clearly,” he thought, “the matter has become known.”

Exodus 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of it, he tried to have Moshe put to death. But Moshe fled from Pharaoh to live in the land of Midyan. One day, as he was sitting by a well,

Exodus 2:16 the seven daughters of the priest of Midyan came to draw water. They had filled the troughs to water their father’s sheep,

Exodus 2:17 when the shepherds came and tried to drive them away. But Moshe got up and defended them; then he watered their sheep.

Exodus 2:18 When they came to Re’u’el their father, he said, “How come you’re back so soon today?”

Exodus 2:19 They answered, “An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds; more than that, he drew water for us and watered the sheep.”

Exodus 2:20 He asked his daughters, “Where is he? Why did you leave the man there? Invite him to have something to eat.”

Exodus 2:21 Moshe was glad to stay on with the man, and he gave Moshe his daughter Tzipporah in marriage.

Exodus 2:22 She gave birth to a son, and he named him Gershom [[foreigner there]], for he said, “I have been a foreigner in a foreign land.”

Exodus 2:23 Sometime during those many years the king of Egypt died, but the people of Isra’el still groaned under the yoke of slavery, and they cried out, and their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God.

Exodus 2:24 God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov.

Exodus 2:25 God saw the people of Isra’el, and God acknowledged them.

Exodus 3:1 Now Moshe was tending the sheep of Yitro his father-in-law, the priest of Midyan. Leading the flock to the far side of the desert, he came to the mountain of God, to Horev.

Exodus 3:2 The angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a fire blazing from the middle of a bush. He looked and saw that although the bush was flaming with fire, yet the bush was not being burned up.

Exodus 3:3 Moshe said, “I’m going to go over and see this amazing sight and find out why the bush isn’t being burned up.”

Exodus 3:4 When ADONAI saw that he had gone over to see, God called to him from the middle of the bush, “Moshe! Moshe!” He answered, “Here I am.”

Exodus 3:5 He said, “Don’t come any closer! Take your sandals off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Exodus 3:6 I am the God of your father,” he continued, “the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz’chak and the God of Ya’akov.” Moshe covered his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

Exodus 3:7 ADONAI said, “I have seen how my people are being oppressed in Egypt and heard their cry for release from their slavemasters, because I know their pain.

Exodus 3:8 I have come down to rescue them from the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that country to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey, the place of the Kena’ani, Hitti, Emori, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi.

Exodus 3:9 Yes, the cry of the people of Isra’el has come to me, and I have seen how terribly the Egyptians oppress them.

Exodus 3:10 Therefore, now, come; and I will send you to Pharaoh; so that you can lead my people, the descendants of Isra’el, out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:11 Moshe said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and lead the people of Isra’el out of Egypt?”

Exodus 3:12 He replied, “I will surely be with you. Your sign that I have sent you will be that when you have led the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.”

Exodus 3:13 Moshe said to God, “Look, when I appear before the people of Isra’el and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you’; and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what am I to tell them?”

Exodus 3:14 God said to Moshe, “[Ehyeh] [Asher] [Ehyeh] [[I am/will be what I am/will be]],” and added, “Here is what to say to the people of Isra’el: ‘[Ehyeh] [[I Am [or] I Will Be]] has sent me to you.’“

Exodus 3:15 God said further to Moshe, “Say this to the people of Isra’el: ‘[Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh] [[ADONAI]], the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz’chak and the God of Ya’akov, has sent me to you.’ This is my name forever; this is how I am to be remembered generation after generation.

Exodus 3:16 Go, gather the leaders of Isra’el together, and say to them, ‘ADONAI, the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov, has appeared to me and said, “I have been paying close attention to you and have seen what is being done to you in Egypt;

Exodus 3:17 and I have said that I will lead you up out of the misery of Egypt to the land of the Kena’ani, Hitti, Emori, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi, to a land flowing with milk and honey.”‘

Exodus 3:18 They will heed what you say. Then you will come, you and the leaders of Isra’el, before the king of Egypt; and you will tell him, ‘ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now, please, let us go three days’ journey into the desert; so that we can sacrifice to ADONAI our God.’

Exodus 3:19 I know that the king of Egypt will not let you leave unless he is forced to do so.

Exodus 3:20 But I will reach out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will do there. After that, he will let you go.

Exodus 3:21 Moreover, I will make the Egyptians so well-disposed toward this people that when you go, you won’t go empty-handed.

Exodus 3:22 Rather, all the women will ask their neighbors and house guests for silver and gold jewelry and clothing, with which you will dress your own sons and daughters. In this way you will plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus 4:1 Moshe replied, “But I’m certain they won’t believe me, and they won’t listen to what I say, because they’ll say, ‘ADONAI did not appear to you.’“

Exodus 4:2 ADONAI answered him, “What is that in your hand?” and he said, “A staff.”

Exodus 4:3 He said, “Throw it on the ground!” and he threw it on the ground. It turned into a snake, and Moshe recoiled from it.

Exodus 4:4 Then ADONAI said to Moshe, “Put your hand out and take it by the tail.” He reached out with his hand and took hold of it, and it became a staff in his hand.

Exodus 4:5 “This is so that they will believe that ADONAI, the God of their fathers, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz’chak and the God of Ya’akov, has appeared to you!”

Exodus 4:6 Furthermore ADONAI said to him, “Now put your hand inside your coat.” He put his hand in his coat; and when he took it out his hand was leprous, as white as snow.

Exodus 4:7 Then God said, “Now put your hand back in your coat.” He put his hand back in his coat; and when he took it out, it was as healthy as the rest of his body.

Exodus 4:8 “If they won’t believe you or heed the evidence of the first sign, they will be convinced by the second.

Exodus 4:9 But if they aren’t persuaded even by both these signs and still won’t listen to what you say, then take some water from the river, and pour it on the ground. The water you take from the river will turn into blood on the dry land.”

Exodus 4:10 Moshe said to ADONAI, “Oh, [Adonai], I’m a terrible speaker. I always have been, and I’m no better now, even after you’ve spoken to your servant! My words come slowly, my tongue moves slowly.”

Exodus 4:11 ADONAI answered him, “Who gives a person a mouth? Who makes a person dumb or deaf, keen-sighted or blind? Isn’t it I, ADONAI?

Exodus 4:12 Now, therefore, go; and I will be with your mouth and will teach you what to say.”

Exodus 4:13 But he replied, “Please, Lord, send someone else-anyone you want!”

Exodus 4:14 At this, ADONAI’s anger blazed up against Moshe; he said, “Don’t you have a brother, Aharon the [Levi]? I know that he’s a good speaker. In fact, here he is now, coming out to meet you; and he’ll be happy to see you.

Exodus 4:15 You will speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I will be with your mouth and his, teaching you both what to do.

Exodus 4:16 Thus he will be your spokesman to the people, in effect; for you, he will be a mouth; and for him, you will be like God.

Exodus 4:17 Now take this staff in your hand, because you need it to perform the signs.”

Exodus 4:18 Moshe left, returned to Yitro his father-in-law and said to him, “I beg you to let me go and return to my kinsmen in Egypt, to see if they are still alive.” Yitro said to Moshe, “Go in peace.”

Exodus 4:19 ADONAI said to Moshe in Midyan, “Go on back to Egypt, because all the men who wanted to kill you are dead.”

Exodus 4:20 So Moshe took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and started out for Egypt. Moshe took God’s staff in his hand.

Exodus 4:21 ADONAI said to Moshe, “When you get back to Egypt, make sure that you do before Pharaoh every one of the wonders I have enabled you to do. Nevertheless, I am going to make him hardhearted, and he will refuse to let the people go.

Exodus 4:22 Then you are to tell Pharaoh: ‘ADONAI says, “Isra’el is my firstborn son.

Exodus 4:23 I have told you to let my son go in order to worship me, but you have refused to let him go. Well, then, I will kill your firstborn son!”“

Exodus 4:24 At a lodging-place on the way, ADONAI met Moshe and would have killed him,

Exodus 4:25 had not Tzipporah taken a flintstone and cut off the foreskin of her son. She threw it at his feet, saying, “What a bloody bridegroom you are for me!”

Exodus 4:26 But then, God let Moshe be. She added, “A bloody bridegroom because of the circumcision!”

Exodus 4:27 ADONAI said to Aharon, “Go into the desert to meet Moshe.” He went, met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 Moshe told him everything ADONAI had said in sending him, including all the signs he had ordered him to perform.

Exodus 4:29 Then Moshe and Aharon went and gathered together all the leaders of the people of Isra’el.

Exodus 4:30 Aharon said everything ADONAI had told Moshe, who then performed the signs for the people to see.

Exodus 4:31 The people believed; when they heard that ADONAI had remembered the people of Isra’el and seen how they were oppressed, they bowed their heads and worshipped. [(vii)]

Exodus 5:1 After that, Moshe and Aharon came and said to Pharaoh, “Here is what ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, says: ‘Let my people go, so that they can celebrate a festival in the desert to honor me.’“

Exodus 5:2 But Pharaoh replied, “Who is ADONAI, that I should obey when he says to let Isra’el go? I don’t know ADONAI, and I also won’t let Isra’el go.”

Exodus 5:3 They said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days’ journey into the desert, so that we can sacrifice to ADONAI our God. Otherwise, he may strike us with a plague or with the sword.”

Exodus 5:4 The king of Egypt answered them, “Moshe and Aharon, what do you mean by taking the people away from their work? Get back to your labor!

Exodus 5:5 Look!” Pharaoh added, “the population of the land has grown, yet you are trying to have them stop working!”

Exodus 5:6 That same day Pharaoh ordered the slavemasters and the people’s foremen, Exodus 5:7 “You are no longer to provide straw for the bricks the people are making, as you did before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

Exodus 5:8 But you will require them to produce the same quantity of bricks as before, don’t reduce it, because they’re lazing around. This is why they’re crying, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’

Exodus 5:9 Give these people harder work to do. That will keep them too busy to pay attention to speeches full of lies.”

Exodus 5:10 The people’s slavemasters went out, their foremen too, and said to the people, “Here is what Pharaoh says: ‘I will no longer give you straw.

Exodus 5:11 You go, yourselves, and get straw wherever you can find it. But your output is not to be reduced.’“

Exodus 5:12 So the people were dispersed throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

Exodus 5:13 The slavemasters kept pressing them. “Keep working! Make your daily quota, just as when straw was provided.”

Exodus 5:14 The foremen of the people of Isra’el, whom Pharaoh’s slavemasters had appointed to be over them, were flogged and asked, “Why haven’t you fulfilled your quota of bricks yesterday and today, as you did formerly?”

Exodus 5:15 Then the foremen of the people of Isra’el came and complained to Pharaoh: “Why are you treating your servants this way?

Exodus 5:16 No straw is given to your servants, yet they keep telling us to make bricks. And now your servants are being flogged, but the fault lies with your own people.”

Exodus 5:17 “Lazy!” he retorted, “You’re just lazy! That’s why you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to ADONAI.’

Exodus 5:18 Get going now, and get back to work! No straw will be given to you, and you will still deliver the full amount of bricks.”

Exodus 5:19 When they said, “You are not to reduce your daily production quota of bricks,” the foremen of the people of Isra’el could see that they were in deep trouble.

Exodus 5:20 As they were leaving Pharaoh, they encountered Moshe and Aharon standing by the road;

Exodus 5:21 and they said to them, “May ADONAI look at you and judge accordingly, because you have made us utterly abhorrent in the view of Pharaoh and his servants, and you have put a sword in their hands to kill us!”

Exodus 5:22 Moshe returned to ADONAI and said, “ADONAI, why have you treated this people so terribly? What has been the value of sending me?

Exodus 5:23 For ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has dealt terribly with this people! And you haven’t rescued your people at all!”

Exodus 6:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Now you will see what I am going to do to Pharaoh. With a mighty hand he will send them off; with force he will drive them from the land!”

Exodus 6:2 God spoke to Moshe; he said to him, “I am ADONAI.

Exodus 6:3 I appeared to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov as [El Shaddai], although I did not make myself known to them by my name, [Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh] [[ADONAI]].

Exodus 6:4 Also with them I established my covenant to give them the land of Kena’an, the land where they wandered about and lived as foreigners.

Exodus 6:5 Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the people of Isra’el, whom the Egyptians are keeping in slavery; and I have remembered my covenant.

Exodus 6:6 “Therefore, say to the people of Isra’el: ‘I am ADONAI. I will free you from the forced labor of the Egyptians, rescue you from their oppression, and redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.

Exodus 6:7 I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am ADONAI your God, who freed you from the forced labor of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:8 I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov- I will give it to you as your inheritance. I am ADONAI.”‘

Exodus 6:9 Moshe said this to the people of Isra’el. But they wouldn’t listen to him, because they were so discouraged, and their slavery was so cruel.

Exodus 6:10 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 6:11 “Go in; and tell Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to let the people of Isra’el leave his land.”

Exodus 6:12 Moshe said to ADONAI, “Look, the people of Isra’el haven’t listened to me; so how will Pharaoh listen to me, poor speaker that I am?”

Exodus 6:13 But ADONAI spoke to Moshe and Aharon and gave them orders concerning both the people of Isra’el and Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to bring the people of Isra’el out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 These were the heads of their families: the sons of Re’uven the firstborn of Isra’el were Hanokh, Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi. These were the families of Re’uven.

Exodus 6:15 The sons of Shim’on were Y’mu’el, Yamin, Ohad, Yakhin, Tzochar and Sha’ul the son of a Kena’ani woman. These were the families of Shim’on.

Exodus 6:16 These are the names of the sons of Levi with their descendants: Gershon, K’hat and M’rari. Levi lived to be 137 years old.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon were Livni and Shim’i, with their families.

Exodus 6:18 The sons of K’hat were ‘Amram, Yitz’har, Hevron and ‘Uzi’el. K’hat lived to be 133 years old.

Exodus 6:19 The sons of M’rari were Machli and Mushi. These were the families of Levi with their descendants.

Exodus 6:20 ‘Amram married Yokheved his father’s sister, and she bore him Aharon and Moshe. ‘Amram lived to be 137 years old.

Exodus 6:21 The sons of Yitz’har were Korach, Nefeg and Zikhri.

Exodus 6:22 The sons of ‘Uzi’el were Misha’el, Eltzafan and Sitri.

Exodus 6:23 Aharon married Elisheva daughter of ‘Amminadav and sister of Nachshon, and she bore him Nadav, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar.

Exodus 6:24 The sons of Korach were Asir, Elkanah and Avi’asaf. These were the Korchi families.

Exodus 6:25 El’azar the son of Aharon married one of the daughters of Puti’el, and she bore him Pinchas. These were the heads of the families of Levi, family by family.

Exodus 6:26 These are the Aharon and Moshe to whom ADONAI said, “Bring the people of Isra’el out of the land of Egypt, division by division,”

Exodus 6:27 and who told Pharaoh king of Egypt, to let the people of Isra’el leave Egypt. These are the same Moshe and Aharon.

Exodus 6:28 On the day when ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 6:29 he said, “I am ADONAI. Tell Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything I say to you.”

Exodus 6:30 Moshe answered ADONAI, “Look, I’m such a poor speaker that Pharaoh won’t listen to me.”

Exodus 7:1 But ADONAI said to Moshe, “I have put you in the place of God to Pharaoh, and Aharon your brother will be your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 You are to say everything I order you, and Aharon your brother is to speak to Pharaoh and tell him to let the people of Isra’el leave his land.

Exodus 7:3 But I will make him hardhearted. Even though I will increase my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 7:4 Pharaoh will not listen to you. Then I will lay my hand on Egypt and bring my armies, my people the sons of Isra’el, out of the land of Egypt with great acts of judgment.

Exodus 7:5 Then, when I stretch out my hand over Egypt and bring the people of Isra’el out from among them, the Egyptians will know that I am [ADONAI.]”

Exodus 7:6 Moshe and Aharon did exactly what ADONAI ordered them to do.

Exodus 7:7 Moshe was eighty years old and Aharon eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Exodus 7:9 “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Perform a miracle,’ tell Aharon to take his staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh, so that it can become a snake.”

Exodus 7:10 Moshe and Aharon went in to Pharaoh and did this, as ADONAI had ordered- Aharon threw down his staff in front of Pharaoh and his servants, and it turned into a snake.

Exodus 7:11 But Pharaoh in turn called for the sages and sorcerers; and they too, the magicians of Egypt, did the same thing, making use of their secret arts.

Exodus 7:12 Each one threw his staff down, and they turned into snakes. But Aharon’s staff swallowed up theirs.

Exodus 7:13 Nevertheless, Pharaoh was made hardhearted; and he didn’t listen to them, as ADONAI had said would happen.

Exodus 7:14 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Pharaoh is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go.

Exodus 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning when he goes out to the water. Stand on the riverbank to confront him, take in your hand the staff which was turned into a snake,

Exodus 7:16 and say to him, ‘ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you to say: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me in the desert.” But until now you haven’t listened;

Exodus 7:17 so ADONAI says, “This will let you know that I am ADONAI”: I will take the staff in my hand and strike the water in the river, and it will be turned into blood.

Exodus 7:18 The fish in the river will die, the river will stink and the Egyptians won’t want to drink water from the river.’“

Exodus 7:19 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Say to Aharon, ‘Take your staff, reach out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, canals, ponds and all their reservoirs, so that they can turn into blood. There will be blood throughout the whole land of Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars.’“

Exodus 7:20 Moshe and Aharon did exactly what ADONAI had ordered. He raised the staff and, in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, struck the water in the river; and all the water in the river was turned into blood.

Exodus 7:21 The fish in the river died, and the river stank so badly that the Egyptians couldn’t drink its water. There was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same with their secret arts, so that Pharaoh was made hardhearted and didn’t listen to them, as ADONAI had said would happen.

Exodus 7:23 Pharaoh just turned and went back to his palace, without taking any of this to heart.

Exodus 7:24 All the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink, because they couldn’t drink the river water.

Exodus 7:25 Seven days after ADONAI had struck the river,

Exodus 7:26 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exodus 7:27 If you refuse to let them go, I will strike all your territory with frogs.

Exodus 7:28 The river will swarm with frogs. They will go up, enter your palace and go into your bedroom, onto your bed. They will enter the houses of your servants and your people and go into your ovens and kneading bowls.

Exodus 7:29 The frogs will climb all over you, your people and your servants.”’“

Exodus 8:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Say to Aharon, ‘Reach out your hand with your staff over the rivers, canals and ponds; and cause frogs to come up onto the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 8:2 Aharon put out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:3 But the magicians did the same with their secret arts and brought up frogs onto the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:4 Then Pharaoh summoned Moshe and Aharon and said, “Intercede with ADONAI to take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will let the people go and sacrifice to ADONAI.”

Exodus 8:5 Moshe said to Pharaoh, “Not only that, but you can have the honor of naming the time when I will pray for you, your servants and your people to be rid of the frogs, both yourselves and your homes, and that they stay only in the river.”

Exodus 8:6 He answered, “Tomorrow.” Moshe said, “It will be as you have said, and from this you will learn that ADONAI our God has no equal.

Exodus 8:7 The frogs will leave you and your homes, also your servants and your people; they will stay in the river only.”

Exodus 8:8 Moshe and Aharon left Pharaoh’s presence, and Moshe cried to ADONAI about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:9 ADONAI did as Moshe had asked- the frogs died in the houses, courtyards and fields;

Exodus 8:10 they gathered them in heaps till the land stank.

Exodus 8:11 But when Pharaoh saw that he had been given some relief, he made himself hardhearted and would not listen to them, just as ADONAI had said would happen.

Exodus 8:12 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Say to Aharon: ‘Reach out with your staff and strike the dust on the ground; it will become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 8:13 They did it- Aharon reached out his hand with his staff and struck the dust on the ground, and there were lice on people and animals; all the dust on the ground became lice throughout the whole land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:14 The magicians tried with their secret arts to produce lice, but they couldn’t. There were lice on people and animals.

Exodus 8:15 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh was made hardhearted, so that he didn’t listen to them, just as ADONAI had said would happen.

Exodus 8:16 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Get up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh when he goes out to the water and say to him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exodus 8:17 Otherwise, if you won’t let my people go, I will send swarms of insects on you, your servants and your people, and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of insects, and likewise the ground they stand on.

Exodus 8:18 But I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people live- no swarms of insects will be there- so that you can realize that I am ADONAI, right here in the land.

Exodus 8:19 Yes, I will distinguish between my people and your people, and this sign will happen by tomorrow.”’“

Exodus 8:20 ADONAI did it: terrible swarms of insects went into Pharaoh’s palace and into all his servants’ houses- the insects ruined the entire land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:21 Pharaoh summoned Moshe and Aharon and said, “Go, and sacrifice to your God here in the land.”

Exodus 8:22 But Moshe replied, “It would be inappropriate for us to do that, because the animal we sacrifice to ADONAI our God is an abomination to the Egyptians. Won’t the Egyptians stone us to death if before their very eyes we sacrifice what they consider an abomination?

Exodus 8:23 No, we will go three days’ journey into the desert and sacrifice to ADONAI our God, as he has ordered us to do.”

Exodus 8:24 Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, so that you can sacrifice to ADONAI your God in the desert. Only you are not to go very far away. Intercede on my behalf.”

Exodus 8:25 Moshe said, “All right, I am going away from you, and I will intercede with ADONAI; so that tomorrow, the swarms of insects will leave Pharaoh, his servants and his people. Just make sure that Pharaoh stops playing games with the people by preventing them from going and sacrificing to ADONAI.”

Exodus 8:26 Moshe left Pharaoh and interceded with ADONAI,

Exodus 8:27 and ADONAI did what Moshe had asked: he removed the swarms of insects from Pharaoh, his servants and his people- not one remained.

Exodus 8:28 But this time, too, Pharaoh made himself stubborn and didn’t let the people go.

Exodus 9:1 Then ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, ‘Here is what ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exodus 9:2 If you refuse to let them go and persist in holding on to them,

Exodus 9:3 the hand of ADONAI is on your livestock in the field- on the horses, donkeys, camels, cattle and flocks- and will make them suffer a devastating illness.

Exodus 9:4 But ADONAI will distinguish between Egypt’s and Isra’el’s livestock- nothing belonging to the people of Isra’el will die.”‘“

Exodus 9:5 ADONAI determined the exact time by saying, “Tomorrow ADONAI will do this in the land.”

Exodus 9:6 The following day, ADONAI did it- all the livestock of Egypt died; but not one of the animals belonging to the people of Isra’el died.

Exodus 9:7 Pharaoh investigated and found that not even one of the animals of the people of Isra'el had died. Nevertheless, Pharaoh's heart remained stubborn, and he didn't let the people go.

Exodus 9:8 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, "Take handfuls of ashes from a kiln, and let Moshe throw them in the air before Pharaoh's eyes.

Exodus 9:9 They will turn into fine dust over all the land of Egypt and become infected sores on men and animals throughout Egypt."

Exodus 9:10 So they took ashes from a kiln, stood in front of Pharaoh and threw them in the air; and they became infected sores on men and animals.

Exodus 9:11 The magicians couldn't even stand in Moshe's presence because of the sores, which were on them as well as on the other Egyptians.

Exodus 9:12 But ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, so that he didn't listen to them- just as ADONAI had said to Moshe.

Exodus 9:13 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Get up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, 'Here is what ADONAI says: "Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exodus 9:14 For this time, I will inflict my plagues on you, yourself, and on your officials and your people; so that you will realize that I am without equal in all the earth.

Exodus 9:15 By now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with such severe plagues that you would have been wiped off the earth.

Exodus 9:16 But it is for this very reason that I have kept you alive- to show you my power, and so that my name may resound throughout the whole earth.

Exodus 9:17 Since you are still setting yourself up against my people and not letting them go,

Exodus 9:18 tomorrow, about this time, I will cause a hailstorm so heavy that Egypt has had nothing like it from the day it was founded until now.

Exodus 9:19 Therefore, send and hurry to bring indoors all your livestock and everything else you have in the field. For hail will fall on every human being and animal left in the field that hasn't been brought home, and they will die."'"

Exodus 9:20 Whoever among Pharaoh's servants feared what ADONAI had said had his slaves and livestock escape into the houses;

Exodus 9:21 but those who had no regard for what ADONAI had said left their slaves and livestock in the field.

Exodus 9:22 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Reach out your hand toward the sky, so that there will be hail in all the land of Egypt, falling on people, animals and everything growing in the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:23 Moshe reached out with his staff toward the sky, and ADONAI sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. ADONAI caused it to hail on the land of Egypt-

Exodus 9:24 it hailed, and fire flashed up with the hail; it was terrible, worse than any hailstorm in all of Egypt since it became a nation.

Exodus 9:25 Throughout all the land of Egypt, the hail struck everything in the field, people and animals; and the hail struck every plant growing in the field and broke every tree there.

Exodus 9:26 But in the land of Goshen, where the people of Isra’el were, there was no hail.

Exodus 9:27 Pharaoh summoned Moshe and Aharon and said to them, “This time I have sinned: ADONAI is in the right; I and my people are in the wrong.

Exodus 9:28 Intercede with ADONAI- we can’t take any more of this terrible thunder and hail; and I will let you go, you will stay no longer.”

Exodus 9:29 Moshe said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to ADONAI; the thunder will end, and there won’t be any more hail- so that you can know that the earth belongs to ADONAI.

Exodus 9:30 But you and your servants, I know you still won’t fear ADONAI, God.”

Exodus 9:31 The flax and barley were ruined, because the barley was ripe and the flax in bud.

Exodus 9:32 But the wheat and buckwheat were not ruined, because they come up later.

Exodus 9:33 Moshe went out of the city, away from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands to ADONAI. The thunder and hail ended, and the rain stopped pouring down on the earth.

Exodus 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail and thunder had ended, he sinned still more by making himself hardhearted, he and his servants.

Exodus 9:35 Pharaoh was made hardhearted, and he didn’t let the people of Isra’el go, just as ADONAI had said through Moshe.

Exodus 10:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have made him and his servants hardhearted, so that I can demonstrate these signs of mine among them, Exodus 10:2 so that you can tell your son and grandson about what I did to Egypt and about my signs that I demonstrated among them, and so that you will all know that I am ADONAI."

Exodus 10:3 Moshe and Aharon went in to Pharaoh and said to him, "Here is what ADONAI, God of the Hebrews, says: 'How much longer will you refuse to submit to me? Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exodus 10:4 Otherwise, if you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory.

Exodus 10:5 One won't be able to see the ground, so completely will the locusts cover it. They will eat anything you still have that escaped the hail, including every tree you have growing in the field.

Exodus 10:6 They will fill your houses and those of your servants and of all the Egyptians. It will be like nothing your fathers or their fathers have ever seen since the day they were born until today.'" Then he turned his back and left.

Exodus 10:7 Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How much longer must this fellow be a snare for us? Let the people go and worship ADONAI their God. Don't you understand yet that Egypt is being destroyed?"

Exodus 10:8 So Moshe and Aharon were brought to Pharaoh again, and he said to them, "Go, worship ADONAI your God. But who exactly is going?"

Exodus 10:9 Moshe answered, "We will go with our young and our old, our sons and our daughters; and we will go with our flocks and herds; for we must celebrate a feast to ADONAI."

Exodus 10:10 Pharaoh said to them, "ADONAI certainly will be with you if I ever let you go with your children! It's clear that you are up to no good.

Exodus 10:11 Nothing doing! Just the men among you may go and worship [ADONAI.] That's what you want, isn't it?" And they were driven out of Pharaoh's presence.

Exodus 10:12 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Reach out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that locusts will invade the land and eat every plant that the hail has left."

Exodus 10:13 Moshe reached out with his staff over the land of Egypt, and ADONAI caused an east wind to blow on the land all day and all night; and in the morning the east wind brought the locusts.

Exodus 10:14 The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and settled throughout Egypt's territory. It was an invasion more severe than there had ever been before or will ever be again.

Exodus 10:15 They completely covered the ground, so that the ground looked black. They ate every plant growing from the ground and all the fruit of the trees left by the hail. Not one green thing remained, not a tree and not a plant in the field, in all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 10:16 Pharaoh hurried to summon Moshe and Aharon and said, “I have sinned against ADONAI your God and against you.

Exodus 10:17 Now, therefore, please forgive my sin just this once; and intercede with ADONAI your God, so that he will at least take away from me this deadly plague!”

Exodus 10:18 He went out from Pharaoh and interceded with ADONAI.

Exodus 10:19 ADONAI reversed the wind and made it blow very strongly from the west. It took up the locusts and drove them into the Sea of Suf; not one locust remained on Egyptian soil.

Exodus 10:20 But ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he didn’t let the people of Isra’el go.

Exodus 10:21 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Reach out your hand toward the sky, and there will be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness so thick it can be felt!”

Exodus 10:22 Moshe reached out his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in the entire land of Egypt for three days.

Exodus 10:23 People couldn’t see each other, and no one went anywhere for three days. But all the people of Isra’el had light in their homes.

Exodus 10:24 Pharaoh summoned Moshe and said, “Go, worship ADONAI; only leave your flocks and herds behind- your children may go with you.”

Exodus 10:25 Moshe answered, “You must also see to it that we have sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we can sacrifice to ADONAI our God.

Exodus 10:26 Our livestock will also go with us- not a hoof will be left behind- because we must choose some of them to worship ADONAI our God, and we don’t know which ones we will need to worship ADONAI until we get there.”

Exodus 10:27 But ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he would not let them go.

Exodus 10:28 Pharaoh said to them, “Get away from me! And you had better not see my face again, because the day you see my face, you will die!”

Exodus 10:29 Moshe answered, “Well spoken! I will see your face no more.”

Exodus 11:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, “I’m going to bring still one more plague on Pharaoh and Egypt, and after that he will let you leave here. When he does let you go, he will throw you out completely!

Exodus 11:2 Now tell the people that every man is to ask his neighbor and every woman her neighbor for gold and silver jewelry."

Exodus 11:3 ADONAI made the Egyptians favorably disposed toward the people. Moreover, Moshe was regarded by Pharaoh's servants and the people as a very great man in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 11:4 Moshe said, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'About midnight I will go out into Egypt,

Exodus 11:5 and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the slave-girl at the handmill, and all the firstborn of the livestock.

Exodus 11:6 There will be a horrendous wailing throughout all the land of Egypt- there has never been another like it, and there never will be again.

Exodus 11:7 But not even a dog's growl will be heard against any of the people of Isra'el, neither against people nor against animals. In this way you will realize that ADONAI distinguishes between Egyptians and Isra'el.

Exodus 11:8 All your servants will come down to me, prostrate themselves before me and say, "Get out!- you and all the people who follow you!" and after that, I will go out!' " And he went out from Pharaoh in the heat of anger.

Exodus 11:9 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that still more of my wonders will be shown in the land of Egypt."

Exodus 11:10 Moshe and Aharon did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but ADONAI had made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he didn't let the people of Isra'el leave his land.

Exodus 12:1 ADONAI spoke to Moshe and Aharon in the land of Egypt; he said,

Exodus 12:2 "You are to begin your calendar with this month; it will be the first month of the year for you.

Exodus 12:3 Speak to all the assembly of Isra'el and say, 'On the tenth day of this month, each man is to take a lamb or kid for his family, one per household-

Exodus 12:4 except that if the household is too small for a whole lamb or kid, then he and his next-door neighbor should share one, dividing it in proportion to the number of people eating it.

Exodus 12:5 Your animal must be without defect, a male in its first year, and you may choose it from either the sheep or the goats.

Exodus 12:6 "'You are to keep it until the fourteenth day of the month, and then the entire assembly of the community of Isra'el will slaughter it at dusk.

Exodus 12:7 They are to take some of the blood and smear it on the two sides and top of the door-frame at the entrance of the house in which they eat it.

Exodus 12:8 That night, they are to eat the meat, roasted in the fire; they are to eat it with [matzah] and [maror.]

Exodus 12:9 Don't eat it raw or boiled, but roasted in the fire, with its head, the lower parts of its legs and its inner organs.

Exodus 12:10 Let nothing of it remain till morning; if any of it does remain, burn it up completely.

Exodus 12:11 "'Here is how you are to eat it: with your belt fastened, your shoes on your feet and your staff in your hand; and you are to eat it hurriedly. It is ADONAI's [Pesach] [[Passover]][.]

Exodus 12:12 For that night, I will pass through the land of Egypt and kill all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both men and animals; and I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt; I am ADONAI.

Exodus 12:13 The blood will serve you as a sign marking the houses where you are; when I see the blood, I will pass over <N1> you- when I strike the land of Egypt, the death blow will not strike you.

Exodus 12:14 "'This will be a day for you to remember and celebrate as a festival to ADONAI; from generation to generation you are to celebrate it by a perpetual regulation.

Exodus 12:15 "'For seven days you are to eat [matzah-] on the first day remove the leaven from your houses. For whoever eats [hametz] [[leavened bread]] from the first to the seventh day is to be cut off from Isra'el.

Exodus 12:16 On the first and seventh days, you are to have an assembly set aside for God. On these days no work is to be done, except what each must do to prepare his food; you may do only that.

Exodus 12:17 You are to observe the festival of [matzah], for on this very day I brought your divisions out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, you are to observe this day from generation to generation by a perpetual regulation.

Exodus 12:18 From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month until the evening of the twenty-first day, you are to eat [matzah].

Exodus 12:19 During those seven days, no leaven is to be found in your houses. Whoever eats food with [hametz] in it is to be cut off from the community of Isra'el- it doesn't matter whether he is a foreigner or a citizen of the land.

Exodus 12:20 Eat nothing with [hametz] in it. Wherever you live, eat [matzah.]'" Exodus 12:21 Then Moshe called for all the leaders of Isra'el and said, "Select and take lambs for your families, and slaughter the [Pesach] lamb.

Exodus 12:22 Take a bunch of hyssop leaves and dip it in the blood which is in the basin, and smear it on the two sides and top of the door-frame. Then, none of you is to go out the door of his house until morning.

Exodus 12:23 For ADONAI will pass through to kill the Egyptians; but when he sees the blood on the top and on the two sides, ADONAI will pass over the door and will not allow the Slaughterer to enter your houses and kill you.

Exodus 12:24 You are to observe this as a law, you and your descendants forever.

Exodus 12:25 “When you come to the land which ADONAI will give you, as he has promised, you are to observe this ceremony.

Exodus 12:26 When your children ask you, ‘What do you mean by this ceremony?’

Exodus 12:27 say, ‘It is the sacrifice of ADONAI’s [Pesach] [[Passover]], because [[ADONAI]] passed over the houses of the people of Isra’el in Egypt, when he killed the Egyptians but spared our houses.’“ The people of Isra’el bowed their heads and worshipped.

Exodus 12:28 Then the people of Isra’el went and did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe and Aharon- that is what they did.

Exodus 12:29 At midnight ADONAI killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock.

Exodus 12:30 Pharaoh got up in the night, he, all his servants and all the Egyptians; and there was horrendous wailing in Egypt; for there wasn’t a single house without someone dead in it.

Exodus 12:31 He summoned Moshe and Aharon by night and said, “Up and leave my people, both you and the people of Isra’el; and go, serve ADONAI as you said.

Exodus 12:32 Take both your flocks and your herds, as you said; and get out of here! But bless me, too.”

Exodus 12:33 The Egyptians pressed to send the people out of the land quickly, because they said, “Otherwise we’ll all be dead!”

Exodus 12:34 The people took their dough before it had become leavened and wrapped their kneading bowls in their clothes on their shoulders.

Exodus 12:35 The people of Isra’el had done what Moshe had said- they had asked the Egyptians to give them silver and gold jewelry and clothing;

Exodus 12:36 and ADONAI had made the Egyptians so favorably disposed toward the people that they had let them have whatever they requested. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

Exodus 12:37 The people of Isra'el traveled from Ra'amses to Sukkot, some six hundred thousand men on foot, not counting children.

Exodus 12:38 A mixed crowd also went up with them, as well as livestock in large numbers, both flocks and herds.

Exodus 12:39 They baked [matzah] loaves from the dough they had brought out of Egypt, since it was unleavened; because they had been driven out of Egypt without time to prepare supplies for themselves.

Exodus 12:40 The time the people of Isra'el lived in Egypt was 430 years.

Exodus 12:41 At the end of 430 years to the day, all the divisions of ADONAI left the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:42 This was a night when ADONAI kept vigil to bring them out of the land of Egypt, and this same night continues to be a night when ADONAI keeps vigil for all the people of Isra'el through all their generations.

Exodus 12:43 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, "This is the regulation for the [Pesach] lamb: no foreigner is to eat it.

Exodus 12:44 But if anyone has a slave he bought for money, when you have circumcised him, he may eat it.

Exodus 12:45 Neither a traveler nor a hired servant may eat it.

Exodus 12:46 It is to be eaten in one house. You are not to take any of the meat outside the house, and you are not to break any of its bones.

Exodus 12:47 The whole community of Isra'el is to keep it.

Exodus 12:48 If a foreigner staying with you wants to observe ADONAI's [Pesach], all his males must be circumcised. Then he may take part and observe it; he will be like a citizen of the land. But no uncircumcised person is to eat it.

Exodus 12:49 The same teaching is to apply equally to the citizen and to the foreigner living among you."

Exodus 12:50 All the people of Isra'el did just as ADONAI had ordered Moshe and Aharon.

Exodus 12:51 On that very day, ADONAI brought the people of Isra'el out of the land of Egypt by their divisions. [(vii)]

Exodus 13:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 13:2 "Set aside for me all the firstborn. Whatever is first from the womb among the people of Isra'el, both of humans and of animals, belongs to me."

Exodus 13:3 Moshe said to the people, "Remember this day, on which you left Egypt, the abode of slavery; because ADONAI, by the strength of his hand, has brought you out of this place. Do not eat [hametz.]

Exodus 13:4 You are leaving today, in the month of Aviv.

Exodus 13:5 When ADONAI brings you into the land of the Kena’ani, Hitti, Emori, Hivi and Y’vusi, which he swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you are to observe this ceremony in this month.

Exodus 13:6 For seven days you are to eat [matzah], and the seventh day is to be a festival for [ADONAI.]

Exodus 13:7 [Matzah] is to be eaten throughout the seven days; neither [hametz] nor leavening agents are to be seen with you throughout your territory.

Exodus 13:8 On that day you are to tell your son, ‘It is because of what ADONAI did for me when I left Egypt.’

Exodus 13:9 “Moreover, it will serve you as a sign on your hand and as a reminder between your eyes, so that ADONAI’s [Torah] may be on your lips; because with a strong hand ADONAI brought you out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:10 Therefore you are to observe this regulation at its proper time, year after year.

Exodus 13:11 When ADONAI brings you into the land of the Kena’ani, as he swore to you and your ancestors, and gives it to you, Exodus 13:12 you are to set apart for ADONAI everything that is first from the womb. Every firstborn male animal will belong to ADONAI.

Exodus 13:13 Every firstborn from a donkey, you are to redeem with a lamb; but if you choose not to redeem it, you must break its neck. But from people, you are to redeem every firstborn son.

Exodus 13:14 When, at some future time, your son asks you, ‘What is this?’ then say to him, ‘With a strong hand ADONAI brought us out of Egypt, out of the abode of slavery.

Exodus 13:15 When Pharaoh was unwilling to let us go, ADONAI killed all the firstborn males in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of humans and the firstborn of animals. This is why I sacrifice to ADONAI any male that is first from the womb of an animal, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’

Exodus 13:16 This will serve as a sign on your hand and at the front of a headband around your forehead that with a strong hand ADONAI brought us out of Egypt.”

Exodus 13:17 After Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not guide them to the highway that goes through the land of the P’lishtim, because it was close by- God thought that the people, upon seeing war, might change their minds and return to Egypt.

Exodus 13:18 Rather, God led the people by a roundabout route, through the desert by the Sea of Suf. The people of Isra’el went up from the land of Egypt fully armed.

Exodus 13:19 Moshe took the bones of Yosef with him, for Yosef had made the people of Isra’el swear an oath when he said, “God will certainly remember you; and you are to carry my bones up with you, away from here.”

Exodus 13:20 They traveled from Sukkot and set up camp in Etam, at the edge of the desert.

Exodus 13:21 ADONAI went ahead of them in a column of cloud during the daytime to lead them on their way, and at night in a column of fire to give them light; thus they could travel both by day and by night.

Exodus 13:22 Neither the column of cloud by day nor the column of fire at night went away from in front of the people.

Exodus 14:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 14:2 “Tell the people of Isra’el to turn around and set up camp in front of Pi-Hachirot, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Ba’al-Tz’fon; camp opposite it, by the sea.

Exodus 14:3 Then Pharaoh will say that the people of Isra’el are wandering aimlessly in the countryside, the desert has closed in on them.

Exodus 14:4 I will make Pharaoh so hardhearted that he will pursue them; thus I will win glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will realize at last that I am ADONAI.” The people did as ordered.

Exodus 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people. They said, “What have we done, letting Isra’el stop being our slaves?”

Exodus 14:6 So he prepared his chariots and took his people with him-

Exodus 14:7 he took 600 first-quality chariots, as well as all the other chariots in Egypt, along with their commanders.

Exodus 14:8 ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he pursued the people of Isra’el, as they left boldly.

Exodus 14:9 The Egyptians went after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, with his cavalry and army, and overtook them as they were encamped by the sea, by Pi-Hachirot, in front of Ba’al-Tz’fon.

Exodus 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the people of Isra’el looked up and saw the Egyptians right there, coming after them. In great fear the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI

Exodus 14:11 and said to Moshe, “Was it because there weren’t enough graves in Egypt that you brought us out to die in the desert? Why have you done this to us, bringing us out of Egypt?

Exodus 14:12 Didn’t we tell you in Egypt to let us alone, we’ll just go on being slaves for the Egyptians? It would be better for us to be the Egyptians’ slaves than to die in the desert!”

Exodus 14:13 Moshe answered the people, “Stop being so fearful! Remain steady, and you will see how ADONAI is going to save you. He will do it today- today you have seen the Egyptians, but you will never see them again!

Exodus 14:14 ADONAI will do battle for you. Just calm yourselves down!”

Exodus 14:15 ADONAI asked Moshe, “Why are you crying to me? Tell the people of Isra’el to go forward!

Exodus 14:16 Lift your staff, reach out with your hand over the sea, and divide it in two. The people of Isra’el will advance into the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 14:17 As for me, I will make the Egyptians hardhearted; and they will march in after them; thus I will win glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and all his army, chariots and cavalry.

Exodus 14:18 Then the Egyptians will realize that I am ADONAI, when I have won myself glory at the expense of Pharaoh, his chariots and his cavalry.”

Exodus 14:19 Next, the angel of God, who was going ahead of the camp of Isra’el, moved away and went behind them; and the column of cloud moved away from in front of them and stood behind them.

Exodus 14:20 It stationed itself between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Isra’el- there was cloud and darkness here, but light by night there; so that the one did not come near the other all night long.

Exodus 14:21 Moshe reached his hand out over the sea, and ADONAI caused the sea to go back before a strong east wind all night. He made the sea become dry land, and its water was divided in two.

Exodus 14:22 Then the people of Isra’el went into the sea on the dry ground, with the water walled up for them on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:23 The Egyptians continued their pursuit, going after them into the sea- all Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and cavalry.

Exodus 14:24 Just before dawn, ADONAI looked out on the Egyptian army through the column of fire and cloud and threw them into a panic.

Exodus 14:25 He caused the wheels of their chariots to break off, so that they could move only with difficulty. The Egyptians said, “ADONAI is fighting for Isra’el against the Egyptians! Let’s get away from them!”

Exodus 14:26 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Reach your hand out over the sea, and the water will return and cover the Egyptians with their chariots and cavalry.”

Exodus 14:27 Moshe reached his hand out over the sea, and by dawn the sea had returned to its former depth. The Egyptians tried to flee, but ADONAI swept them into the sea.

Exodus 14:28 The water came back and covered all the chariots and cavalry of Pharaoh's army who had followed them into the sea- not even one of them was left.

Exodus 14:29 But the people of Isra'el walked on dry ground in the sea, with the water walled up for them on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:30 On that day, ADONAI saved Isra'el from the Egyptians; Isra'el saw the Egyptians dead on the shore.

Exodus 14:31 When Isra'el saw the mighty deed that ADONAI had performed against the Egyptians, the people feared ADONAI, and they believed in ADONAI and in his servant Moshe.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moshe and the people of Isra'el sang this song to ADONAI: "I will sing to ADONAI, for he is highly exalted: the horse and its rider he threw in the sea.

Exodus 15:2 [Yah] is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation. This is my God: I will glorify him; my father's God: I will exalt him.

Exodus 15:3 ADONAI is a warrior; ADONAI is his name.

Exodus 15:4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army he hurled into the sea. His elite commanders were drowned in the Sea of Suf[.]

Exodus 15:5 The deep waters covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone.

Exodus 15:6 Your right hand, ADONAI, is sublimely powerful; your right hand, ADONAI, shatters the foe.

Exodus 15:7 By your great majesty you bring down your enemies; you send out your wrath to consume them like stubble.

Exodus 15:8 With a blast from your nostrils the waters piled up- the waters stood up like a wall, the depths of the sea became firm ground.

Exodus 15:9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue and overtake, divide the spoil and gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them.'

Exodus 15:10 You blew with your wind, the sea covered them, they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Exodus 15:11 Who is like you, ADONAI, among the mighty? Who is like you, sublime in holiness, awesome in praises, working wonders?

Exodus 15:12 You reached out with your right hand: the earth swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 In your love, you led the people you redeemed; in your strength, you guided them to your holy abode.

Exodus 15:14 The peoples have heard, and they tremble; anguish takes hold of those living in P'leshet;

Exodus 15:15 then the chiefs of Edom are dismayed; trepidation seizes the heads of Mo'av; all those living in Kena'an are melted away.

Exodus 15:16 Terror and dread fall on them; by the might of your arm they are still as stone until your people pass over, ADONAI, till the people you purchased pass over.

Exodus 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain which is your heritage, the place, ADONAI, that you made your abode, the sanctuary, [Adonai], which your hands established.

Exodus 15:18 ADONAI will reign forever and ever.

Exodus 15:19 For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and with his cavalry into the sea, but ADONAI brought the sea waters back upon them, while the people of Isra'el walked on dry land in the midst of the sea!"

Exodus 15:20 Also Miryam the prophet, sister of Aharon, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines, dancing,

Exodus 15:21 as Miryam sang to them: "Sing to ADONAI, for he is highly exalted! The horse and its rider he threw in the sea!"

Exodus 15:22 Moshe led Isra'el onward from the Sea of Suf[.] They went out into the Shur Desert; but after traveling three days in the desert, they had found no water.

Exodus 15:23 They arrived at Marah but couldn't drink the water there, because it was bitter. This is why they called it Marah [[bitterness]].

Exodus 15:24 The people grumbled against Moshe and asked, "What are we to drink?"

Exodus 15:25 Moshe cried to ADONAI; and ADONAI showed him a certain piece of wood, which, when he threw it into the water, made the water taste good. There ADONAI made laws and rules of life for them, and there he tested them.

Exodus 15:26 He said, "If you will listen intently to the voice of ADONAI your God, do what he considers right, pay attention to his [mitzvot] and observe his laws, I will not afflict you with any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians; because I am ADONAI your healer."

Exodus 15:27 They came to Eilim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and camped there by the water.

Exodus 16:1 They traveled on from Eilim, and the whole community of the people of Isra'el arrived at the Seen Desert, between Eilim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after leaving the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 There in the desert the whole community of the people of Isra'el grumbled against Moshe and Aharon.

Exodus 16:3 The people of Isra'el said to them, "We wish ADONAI had used his own hand to kill us off in Egypt! There we used to sit around the pots with the meat boiling, and we had as much food as we wanted. But you have taken us out into this desert to let this whole assembly starve to death!"

Exodus 16:4 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Here, I will cause bread to rain down from heaven for you. The people are to go out and gather a day's ration every day. By this I will test whether they will observe my [Torah] or not.

Exodus 16:5 On the sixth day, when they prepare what they have brought in, it will turn out to be twice as much as they gather on the other days."

Exodus 16:6 Moshe and Aharon said to all the people of Isra'el, "This evening, you will realize that it has been ADONAI who brought you out of Egypt;

Exodus 16:7 and in the morning, you will see ADONAI's glory. For he has listened to your grumblings against ADONAI- what are we that you should grumble against us?"

Exodus 16:8 Moshe added, "What I have said will happen when ADONAI gives you meat to eat this evening and your fill of bread tomorrow morning. ADONAI has listened to your complaints and grumblings against him- what are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against ADONAI."

Exodus 16:9 Moshe said to Aharon, "Say to the whole community of Isra'el, 'Come close, into the presence of ADONAI, for he has heard your grumblings.'"

Exodus 16:10 As Aharon spoke to the whole community of the people of Isra'el, they looked toward the desert; and there before them the glory of ADONAI appeared in the cloud;

Exodus 16:11 and ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 16:12 "I have heard the grumblings of the people of Isra'el. Say to them: 'At dusk you will be eating meat, and in the morning you will have your fill of bread. Then you will realize that I am ADONAI your God.'"

Exodus 16:13 That evening, quails came up and covered the camp; while in the morning there was a layer of dew all around the camp.

Exodus 16:14 When the dew had evaporated, there on the surface of the desert was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground.

Exodus 16:15 When the people of Isra'el saw it, they asked each other, "[Man hu?] [[What is it?]]" because they didn't know what it was. Moshe answered them, "It is the bread which ADONAI has given you to eat.

Exodus 16:16 Here is what ADONAI has ordered: each man is to gather according to his appetite- each is to take an ['omer] [[two quarts]] per person for everyone in his tent."

Exodus 16:17 The people of Isra'el did this. Some gathered more, some less;

Exodus 16:18 but when they put it in an ['omer-]measure, whoever had gathered much had no excess; and whoever had gathered little had no shortage; nevertheless each person had gathered according to his appetite.

Exodus 16:19 Moshe told them, “No one is to leave any of it till morning.”

Exodus 16:20 But they didn't pay attention to Moshe, and some kept the leftovers until morning. It bred worms and rotted, which made Moshe angry at them.

Exodus 16:21 So they gathered it morning after morning, each person according to his appetite; but as the sun grew hot, it melted.

Exodus 16:22 On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two ['omer]s per person; and all the community leaders came and reported to Moshe.

Exodus 16:23 He told them, “This is what ADONAI has said: ‘Tomorrow is a holy [Shabbat] for ADONAI. Bake what you want to bake; boil what you want to boil; and whatever is left over, set aside and keep for the morning.’“

Exodus 16:24 They set it aside till morning, as Moshe had ordered; and it didn't rot or have worms.

Exodus 16:25 Moshe said, “Today, eat that; because today is a [Shabbat] for ADONAI- today you won't find it in the field.

Exodus 16:26 Gather it six days, but the seventh day is the [Shabbat-] on that day there won't be any.”

Exodus 16:27 However, on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather and found none.

Exodus 16:28 ADONAI said to Moshe, “How long will you refuse to observe my [mitzvot] and teachings?

Exodus 16:29 Look, ADONAI has given you the [Shabbat.] This is why he is providing bread for two days on the sixth day. Each of you, stay where you are; no one is to leave his place on the seventh day.”

Exodus 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Exodus 16:31 The people called the food [man]. It was like coriander seed, white; and it tasted like honey cakes.

Exodus 16:32 Moshe said, “Here is what ADONAI has ordered: ‘Let two quarts of[man] be kept through all your generations, so that they will be able to see the bread which I fed you in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.’“

Exodus 16:33 Moshe said to Aharon, “Take a jar, put in it two quarts of [man], and set it aside before ADONAI to be kept through all your generations.”

Exodus 16:34 Just as ADONAI ordered Moshe, Aharon set it aside before the testimony to be kept.

Exodus 16:35 The people of Isra’el ate [man] for forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate [man] until they arrived at the borders of the land of Kena’an.

Exodus 16:36 (An [‘omer] is one-tenth of an [eifah] [[which is a bushel dry-measure]][.]) [(vii)]

Exodus 17:1 The whole community of the people of Isra’el left the Seen Desert, traveling in stages, as ADONAI had ordered, and camped at Refidim; but there was no water for the people to drink.

Exodus 17:2 The people quarreled with Moshe, demanding, “Give us water to drink!” But Moshe replied, “Why pick a fight with me? Why are you testing ADONAI?”

Exodus 17:3 However, the people were thirsty for water there and grumbled against Moshe, “For what did you bring us up from Egypt? To kill us, our children and our livestock with thirst?”

Exodus 17:4 Moshe cried out to ADONAI, “What am I to do with these people? They’re ready to stone me!”

Exodus 17:5 ADONAI answered Moshe, “Go on ahead of the people, and bring with you the leaders of Isra’el. Take your staff in your hand, the one you used to strike the river; and go.

Exodus 17:6 I will stand in front of you there on the rock in Horev. You are to strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so the people can drink.” Moshe did this in the sight of the leaders of Isra’el.

Exodus 17:7 The place was named Massah [[testing]] and M’rivah [[quarreling]] because of the quarreling of the people of Isra’el and because they tested ADONAI by asking, “Is ADONAI with us or not?”

Exodus 17:8 Then ‘Amalek came and fought with Isra’el at Refidim.

Exodus 17:9 Moshe said to Y’hoshua, “Choose men for us, go out, and fight with ‘Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with God’s staff in my hand.”

Exodus 17:10 Y’hoshua did as Moshe had told him and fought with ‘Amalek. Then Moshe, Aharon and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 When Moshe raised his hand, Isra’el prevailed; but when he let it down, ‘Amalek prevailed.

Exodus 17:12 However, Moshe’s hands grew heavy; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aharon and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side and the other on the other; so that his hands stayed steady until sunset.

Exodus 17:13 Thus Y'hoshua defeated 'Amalek, putting their people to the sword.

Exodus 17:14 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Write this in a book to be remembered, and tell it to Y'hoshua: I will completely blot out any memory of 'Amalek from under heaven."

Exodus 17:15 Moshe built an altar, called it ADONAI [Nissi] [[ADONAI is my banner/miracle]],

Exodus 17:16 and said, "Because their hand was against the throne of [Yah], ADONAI will fight 'Amalek generation after generation."

Exodus 18:1 Now Yitro the priest of Midyan, Moshe's father-in-law, heard about all that God had done for Moshe and for Isra'el his people, how ADONAI had brought Isra'el out of Egypt.

Exodus 18:2 After Moshe had sent away his wife Tzipporah and her two sons, Yitro Moshe's father-in-law had taken them back.

Exodus 18:3 The name of the one son was Gershom, for Moshe had said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land."

Exodus 18:4 The name of the other was Eli'ezer [[my God helps]], "because the God of my father helped me by rescuing me from Pharaoh's sword."

Exodus 18:5 Yitro Moshe's father-in-law brought Moshe's sons and wife to him in the desert where he was encamped, at the mountain of God.

Exodus 18:6 He sent word to Moshe, "I, your father-in-law Yitro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

Exodus 18:7 Moshe went out to meet his father-in-law, prostrated himself and kissed him. Then, after inquiring of each other's welfare, they entered the tent.

Exodus 18:8 Moshe told his father-in-law all that ADONAI had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Isra'el's sake, all the hardships they had suffered while traveling and how ADONAI had rescued them.

Exodus 18:9 Yitro rejoiced over all the good that ADONAI had done for Isra'el by rescuing them from the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:10 Yitro said, "Blessed be ADONAI, who has rescued you from the Egyptians and from Pharaoh, who has rescued the people from the harsh hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:11 Now I know that ADONAI is greater than all other gods, because he rescued those who were treated so arrogantly."

Exodus 18:12 Yitro Moshe's father-in-law brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aharon came with all the leaders of Isra'el to share the meal before God with Moshe's father-in-law.

Exodus 18:13 The following day Moshe sat to settle disputes for the people, while the people stood around Moshe from morning till evening.

Exodus 18:14 When Moshe's father-in-law saw all that he was doing to the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing to the people? Why do you sit there alone, with all the people standing around you from morning till evening?"

Exodus 18:15 Moshe answered his father-in-law, "It's because the people come to me seeking God's guidance.

Exodus 18:16 Whenever they have a dispute, it comes to me; I judge between one person and another, and I explain to them God's laws and teachings[.]"

Exodus 18:17 Moshe's father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing isn't good.

Exodus 18:18 You will certainly wear yourself out- and not only yourself, but these people here with you as well. It's too much for you- you can't do it alone, by yourself.

Exodus 18:19 So listen now to what I have to say. I will give you some advice, and God will be with you. You should represent the people before God, and you should bring their cases to God.

Exodus 18:20 You should also teach them the laws and the teachings, and show them how to live their lives and what work they should do.

Exodus 18:21 But you should choose from among all the people competent men who are God-fearing, honest and incorruptible to be their leaders, in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exodus 18:22 Normally, they will settle the people's disputes. They should bring you the difficult cases; but ordinary matters they should decide themselves. In this way, they will make it easier for you and share the load with you.

Exodus 18:23 If you do this- and God is directing you to do it- you will be able to endure; and all these people too will arrive at their destination peacefully."

Exodus 18:24 Moshe paid attention to his father-in-law's counsel and did everything he said.

Exodus 18:25 Moshe chose competent men from all Isra'el and made them heads over the people, in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exodus 18:26 As a general rule, they settled the people's disputes- the difficult cases they brought to Moshe, but every simple matter they decided themselves.

Exodus 18:27 Then Moshe let his father-in-law leave, and he went off to his own country.

Exodus 19:1 In the third month after the people of Isra'el had left the land of Egypt, the same day they came to the Sinai Desert.

Exodus 19:2 After setting out from Refidim and arriving at the Sinai Desert, they set up camp in the desert; there in front of the mountain, Isra'el set up camp.

Exodus 19:3 Moshe went up to God, and ADONAI called to him from the mountain: "Here is what you are to say to the household of Ya'akov, to tell the people of Isra'el:

Exodus 19:4 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

Exodus 19:5 Now if you will pay careful attention to what I say and keep my covenant, then you will be my own treasure from among all the peoples, for all the earth is mine;

Exodus 19:6 and you will be a kingdom of [cohanim] for me, a nation set apart.' These are the words you are to speak to the people of Isra'el."

Exodus 19:7 Moshe came, summoned the leaders of the people and presented them with all these words which ADONAI had ordered him to say.

Exodus 19:8 All the people answered as one, "Everything ADONAI has said, we will do." Moshe reported the words of the people to ADONAI.

Exodus 19:9 ADONAI said to Moshe, "See, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, so that the people will be able to hear when I speak with you and also to trust in you forever." Moshe had told ADONAI what the people had said;

Exodus 19:10 so ADONAI said to Moshe, "Go to the people; today and tomorrow separate them for me by having them wash their clothing;

Exodus 19:11 and prepare for the third day. For on the third day, ADONAI will come down on Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people.

Exodus 19:12 You are to set limits for the people all around; and say, 'Be careful not to go up on the mountain or even touch its base; whoever touches the mountain will surely be put to death.

Exodus 19:13 No hand is to touch him; for he must be stoned or shot by arrows; neither animal nor human will be allowed to live.' When the [shofar] sounds, they may go up on the mountain."

Exodus 19:14 Moshe went down from the mountain to the people and separated the people for God, and they washed their clothing.

Exodus 19:15 He said to the people, "Prepare for the third day; don't approach a woman."

Exodus 19:16 On the morning of the third day, there was thunder, lightning and a thick cloud on the mountain. Then a [shofar] blast sounded so loudly that all the people in the camp trembled.

Exodus 19:17 Moshe brought the people out of the camp to meet God; they stood near the base of the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 Mount Sinai was enveloped in smoke, because ADONAI descended onto it in fire- its smoke went up like the smoke from a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently.

Exodus 19:19 As the sound of the [shofar] grew louder and louder, Moshe spoke; and God answered him with a voice.

Exodus 19:20 ADONAI came down onto Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; then ADONAI called Moshe to the top of the mountain; and Moshe went up.

Exodus 19:21 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go down and warn the people not to force their way through to ADONAI to see him; if they do, many of them will perish.

Exodus 19:22 Even the [cohanim], who are allowed to approach ADONAI, must keep themselves holy; otherwise, ADONAI may break out against them.”

Exodus 19:23 Moshe said to ADONAI, “The people can’t come up to Mount Sinai, because you ordered us to set limits around the mountain and separate it.”

Exodus 19:24 But ADONAI answered him, “Go, get down! Then come back up, you and Aharon with you. But don’t let the [cohanim] and the people force their way through to come up to ADONAI, or he will break out against them.”

Exodus 19:25 So Moshe went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20:1 Then God said all these words:

Exodus 20:2 “I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the abode of slavery.

Exodus 20:3 “You are to have no other gods before me.

Exodus 20:4 You are not to make for yourselves a carved image or any kind of representation of anything in heaven above, on the earth beneath or in the water below the shoreline.

Exodus 20:5 You are not to bow down to them or serve them; for I, ADONAI your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sins of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

Exodus 20:6 but displaying grace to the thousandth generation of those who love me and obey my [mitzvot].

Exodus 20:7 “You are not to use lightly the name of ADONAI your God, because ADONAI will not leave unpunished someone who uses his name lightly.

Exodus 20:8 “Remember the day, [Shabbat], to set it apart for God.

Exodus 20:9 You have six days to labor and do all your work,

Exodus 20:10 but the seventh day is a [Shabbat] for ADONAI your God. On it, you are not to do any kind of work- not you, your son or your daughter, not your male or female slave, not your livestock, and not the foreigner staying with you inside the gates to your property.

Exodus 20:11 For in six days, ADONAI made heaven and earth, the sea and everything in them; but on the seventh day he rested. This is why ADONAI blessed the day, [Shabbat], and separated it for himself.

Exodus 20:12 “Honor your father and mother, so that you may live long in the land which ADONAI your God is giving you.

Exodus 20:13 “Do not murder. “Do not commit adultery. “Do not steal. “Do not give false evidence against your neighbor.

Exodus 20:14 “Do not covet your neighbor’s house; do not covet your neighbor’s wife, his male or female slave, his ox, his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

Exodus 20:15 All the people experienced the thunder, the lightning, the sound of the [shofar], and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled. Standing at a distance,

Exodus 20:16 they said to Moshe, “You, speak with us; and we will listen. But don’t let God speak with us, or we will die.”

Exodus 20:17 Moshe answered the people, “Don’t be afraid, because God has come only to test you and make you fear him, so that you won’t commit sins.”

Exodus 20:18 So the people stood at a distance, but Moshe approached the thick darkness where God was.

Exodus 20:19 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Here is what you are to say to the people of Isra’el: ‘You yourselves have seen that I spoke with you from heaven.

Exodus 20:20 You are not to make with me gods of silver, nor are you to make gods of gold for yourselves.

Exodus 20:21 For me you need make only an altar of earth; on it you will sacrifice your burnt offerings, peace offerings, sheep, goats and cattle. In every place where I cause my name to be mentioned, I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 20:22 If you do make me an altar of stone, you are not to build it of cut stones; for if you use a tool on it, you profane it.

Exodus 20:23 Likewise, you are not to use steps to go up to my altar; so that you won’t be indecently uncovered.’“

Exodus 21:1 “These are the rulings you are to present to them:

Exodus 21:2 “If you purchase a Hebrew slave, he is to work six years; but in the seventh, he is to be given his freedom without having to pay anything.

Exodus 21:3 If he came single, he is to leave single; if he was married when he came, his wife is to go with him when he leaves.

Exodus 21:4 But if his master gave him a wife, and she bore him sons or daughters, then the wife and her children will belong to her master, and he will leave by himself.

Exodus 21:5 Nevertheless, if the slave declares, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children, so I don’t want to go free,’

Exodus 21:6 then his master is to bring him before God; and there at the door or doorpost, his master is to pierce his ear with an awl; and the man will be his slave for life.

Exodus 21:7 “If a man sells his daughter as a slave, she is not to go free like the men-slaves.

Exodus 21:8 If her master married her but decides she no longer pleases him, then he is to allow her to be redeemed. He is not allowed to sell her to a foreign people, because he has treated her unfairly.

Exodus 21:9 If he has her marry his son, then he is to treat her like a daughter.

Exodus 21:10 If he marries another wife, he is not to reduce her food, clothing or marital rights.

Exodus 21:11 If he fails to provide her with these three things, she is to be given her freedom without having to pay anything.

Exodus 21:12 “Whoever attacks a person and causes his death must be put to death.

Exodus 21:13 If it was not premeditated but an act of God, then I will designate for you a place to which he can flee.

Exodus 21:14 But if someone willfully kills another after deliberate planning, you are to take him even from my altar and put him to death.

Exodus 21:15 “Whoever attacks his father or mother must be put to death.

Exodus 21:16 “Whoever kidnaps someone must be put to death, regardless of whether he has already sold him or the person is found still in his possession.

Exodus 21:17 “Whoever curses his father or mother must be put to death.

Exodus 21:18 “If two people fight, and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist, and the injured party doesn’t die but is confined to his bed;

Exodus 21:19 then, if he recovers enough to be able to walk around outside, even if with a cane, the attacker will be free of liability, except to compensate him for his loss of time and take responsibility for his care until his recovery is complete.

Exodus 21:20 “If a person beats his male or female slave with a stick so severely that he dies, he is to be punished;

Exodus 21:21 except that if the slave lives for a day or two, he is not to be punished, since the slave is his property.

Exodus 21:22 “If people are fighting with each other and happen to hurt a pregnant woman so badly that her unborn child dies, then, even if no other harm follows, he must be fined. He must pay the amount set by the woman’s husband and confirmed by judges.

Exodus 21:23 But if any harm follows, then you are to give life for life,

Exodus 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exodus 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound and bruise for bruise.

Exodus 21:26 “If a person hits his male or female slave’s eye and destroys it, he must let him go free in compensation for his eye.

Exodus 21:27 If he knocks out his male or female slave’s tooth, he must let him go free in compensation for his tooth.

Exodus 21:28 “If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox is to be stoned and its flesh not eaten, but the owner of the ox will have no further liability.

Exodus 21:29 However, if the ox was in the habit of goring in the past, and the owner was warned but did not confine it, so that it ended up killing a man or a woman; then the ox is to be stoned, and its owner too is to be put to death.

Exodus 21:30 However, a ransom may be imposed on him; and the death penalty will be commuted if he pays the amount imposed.

Exodus 21:31 If the ox gores a son or daughter, the same rule applies.

Exodus 21:32 If the ox gores a male or female slave, its owner must give their master twelve ounces of silver; and the ox is to be stoned to death.

Exodus 21:33 “If someone removes the cover from a cistern or digs one and fails to cover it, and an ox or donkey falls in,

Exodus 21:34 the owner of the cistern must make good the loss by compensating the animal’s owner; but the dead animal will be his.

Exodus 21:35 “If one person’s ox hurts another’s, so that it dies, they are to sell the live ox and divide the revenue from the sale; and they are also to divide the dead animal.

Exodus 21:36 But if it is known that the ox was in the habit of goring in the past, and the owner did not confine it; he must pay ox for ox, but the dead animal will be his.

Exodus 21:37 “If someone steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters or sells it, he is to pay five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

Exodus 22:1 “If a thief caught in the act of breaking in is beaten to death, it is not murder;

Exodus 22:2 unless it happens after sunrise, in which case it is murder. A thief must make restitution; so if he has nothing, he himself is to be sold to make good the loss from the theft.

Exodus 22:3 If what he stole is found alive in his possession, he is to pay double, no matter whether it is an ox, a donkey or a sheep.

Exodus 22:4 “If a person causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over or lets his animal loose to graze in someone else’s field, he is to make restitution from the best produce of his own field and vineyard.

Exodus 22:5 “If a fire is started and spreads to thorns, so that stacked grain, standing grain or a field is destroyed, the person who lit it must make restitution.

Exodus 22:6 “If a person entrusts a neighbor with money or goods, and they are stolen from the trustee’s house, then, if the thief is found, he must pay double.

Exodus 22:7 But if the thief is not found, then the trustee must state before God that he did not take the person’s goods himself.

Exodus 22:8 In every case of dispute over ownership, whether of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, clothing, or any missing property, where one person says, ‘This is mine,’ both parties are to come before God; and the one whom God condemns must pay the other one double.

Exodus 22:9 “If a person trusts a neighbor to look after a donkey, ox, sheep or any animal, and it dies, is injured or is driven away unseen,

Exodus 22:10 then the neighbor’s oath before ADONAI that he has not taken the goods will settle the matter between them- the owner is to accept it without the neighbor’s making restitution.

Exodus 22:11 But if it was stolen from the neighbor, he must make restitution to the owner.

Exodus 22:12 If it was torn to pieces by an animal, the neighbor must bring it as evidence, and then he doesn’t need to make good the loss.

Exodus 22:13 “If someone borrows something from his neighbor, and it gets injured or dies with the owner not present, he must make restitution.

Exodus 22:14 If the owner was present, he need not make good the loss. If the owner hired it out, the loss is covered by the hiring fee.

Exodus 22:15 “If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price for her to be his wife.

Exodus 22:16 But if her father refuses to give her to him, he must pay a sum equivalent to the bride-price for virgins.

Exodus 22:17 “You are not to permit a sorceress to live.

Exodus 22:18 “Whoever has sexual relations with an animal must be put to death.

Exodus 22:19 “Anyone who sacrifices to any god other than ADONAI alone is to be completely destroyed.

Exodus 22:20 “You must neither wrong nor oppress a foreigner living among you, for you yourselves were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 22:21 “You are not to abuse any widow or orphan.

Exodus 22:22 If you do abuse them in any way, and they cry to me, I will certainly heed their cry.

Exodus 22:23 My anger will burn, and I will kill you with the sword- your own wives will be widows and your own children fatherless.

Exodus 22:24 “If you loan money to one of my people who is poor, you are not to deal with him as would a creditor; and you are not to charge him interest.

Exodus 22:25 If you take your neighbor’s coat as collateral, you are to restore it to him by sundown,

Exodus 22:26 because it is his only garment- he needs it to wrap his body; what else does he have in which to sleep? Moreover, if he cries out to me, I will listen; because I am compassionate.

Exodus 22:27 “You are not to curse God, and you are not to curse a leader of your people.

Exodus 22:28 “You are not to delay offering from your harvest of grain, olive oil or wine. “The firstborn of your sons you are to give to me.

Exodus 22:29 You are to do the same with your oxen and your sheep- it is to stay with its mother seven days, and on the eighth day you are to give it to me.

Exodus 22:30 “You are to be my specially separated people. Therefore you are not to eat any flesh torn by wild animals in the countryside; rather, throw it out for the dogs.

Exodus 23:1 “You are not to repeat false rumors; do not join hands with the wicked by offering perjured testimony.

Exodus 23:2 Do not follow the crowd when it does what is wrong; and don’t allow the popular view to sway you into offering testimony for any cause if the effect will be to pervert justice.

Exodus 23:3 On the other hand, don’t favor a person’s lawsuit simply because he is poor.

Exodus 23:4 “If you come upon your enemy’s ox or donkey straying, you must return it to him.

Exodus 23:5 If you see the donkey which belongs to someone who hates you lying down helpless under its load, you are not to pass him by but to go and help him free it.

Exodus 23:6 “Do not deny anyone justice in his lawsuit simply because he is poor.

Exodus 23:7 Keep away from fraud, and do not cause the death of the innocent and righteous; for I will not justify the wicked.

Exodus 23:8 You are not to receive a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clearsighted and subverts the cause of the righteous.

Exodus 23:9 “You are not to oppress a foreigner, for you know how a foreigner feels, since you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 “For six years, you are to sow your land with seed and gather in its harvest.

Exodus 23:11 But the seventh year, you are to let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people can eat; and what they leave, the wild animals in the countryside can eat. Do the same with your vineyard and olive grove.

Exodus 23:12 “For six days, you are to work. But on the seventh day, you are to rest, so that your ox and donkey can rest, and your slave-girl’s son and the foreigner be renewed.

Exodus 23:13 “Pay attention to everything I have said to you; do not invoke the names of other gods or even let them be heard crossing your lips.

Exodus 23:14 “Three times a year, you are to observe a festival for me.

Exodus 23:15 Keep the festival of [matzah]: for seven days, as I ordered you, you are to eat [matzah] at the time determined in the month of Aviv; for it was in that month that you left Egypt. No one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Exodus 23:16 Next, the festival of harvest, the firstfruits of your efforts sowing in the field; and last, the festival of ingathering, at the end of the year, when you gather in from the fields the results of your efforts.

Exodus 23:17 Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Lord, ADONAI.

Exodus 23:18 “You are not to offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, nor is the fat of my festival to remain all night until morning.

Exodus 23:19 “You are to bring the best firstfruits of your land into the house of ADONAI your God. “You are not to boil a young animal in its mother’s milk.

Exodus 23:20 “I am sending an angel ahead of you to guard you on the way and bring you to the place I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 Pay attention to him, listen to what he says and do not rebel against him; because he will not forgive any wrongdoing of yours, since my name resides in him.

Exodus 23:22 But if you listen to what he says and do everything I tell you, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes.

Exodus 23:23 When my angel goes ahead of you and brings you to the Emori, Hitti, P'rizi, Kena'ani, Hivi and Y'vusi, I will make an end of them.

Exodus 23:24 You are not to worship their gods, serve them or follow their practices; rather, you are to demolish them completely and smash their standing-stones to pieces.

Exodus 23:25 "You are to serve ADONAI your God; and he will bless your food and water. I will take sickness away from among you.

Exodus 23:26 In your land your women will not miscarry or be barren, and you will live out the full span of your lives.

Exodus 23:27 I will send terror of me ahead of you, throwing into confusion all the people to whom you come; and I will make all your enemies turn their backs on you.

Exodus 23:28 I will send hornets ahead of you to drive out the Hivi, Kena'ani and Hitti from before you.

Exodus 23:29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, which would cause the land to become desolate and the wild animals too many for you.

Exodus 23:30 I will drive them out from before you gradually, until you have grown in number and can take possession of the land.

Exodus 23:31 I will set your boundaries from the Sea of Suf to the sea of the P'lishtim and from the desert to the [[Euphrates]] River, for I will hand the inhabitants of the land over to you, and you will drive them out from before you.

Exodus 23:32 You are not to make a covenant with them or with their gods.

Exodus 23:33 They are not to live in your land; otherwise they will make you sin against me by ensnaring you to serve their gods."

Exodus 24:1 To Moshe [[ADONAI]] said, "Come up to ADONAI- you, Aharon, Nadav, Avihu, and seventy of the leaders of Isra'el. Prostrate yourselves at a distance, Exodus 24:2 while Moshe alone approaches ADONAI- the others are not to approach, and the people are not to go up with him."

Exodus 24:3 Moshe came and told the people everything ADONAI had said, including all the rulings. The people answered with one voice: "We will obey every word ADONAI has spoken."

Exodus 24:4 Moshe wrote down all the words of ADONAI. He rose early in the morning, built an altar at the base of the mountain and set upright twelve large stones to represent the twelve tribes of Isra'el.

Exodus 24:5 He sent the young men of the people of Isra'el to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice peace offerings of oxen to ADONAI.

Exodus 24:6 Moshe took half of the blood and put it in basins; the other half of the blood he splashed against the altar.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the book of the covenant and read it aloud, so that the people could hear; and they responded, "Everything that ADONAI has spoken, we will do and obey."

Exodus 24:8 Moshe took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, "This is the blood of the covenant which ADONAI has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Exodus 24:9 Moshe, Aharon, Nadav, Avihu and seventy of the leaders went up;

Exodus 24:10 and they saw the God of Isra'el. Under his feet was something like a sapphire stone pavement as clear as the sky itself.

Exodus 24:11 He did not reach out his hand against these notables of Isra'el; on the contrary, they saw God, even as they were eating and drinking.

Exodus 24:12 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Come up to me on the mountain, and stay there. I will give you the stone tablets with the [Torah] and the [mitzvot] I have written on them, so that you can teach them."

Exodus 24:13 Moshe got up, also Y'hoshua his assistant; and Moshe went up onto the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 To the leaders he said, "Stay here for us, until we come back to you. See, Aharon and Hur are with you; whoever has a problem should turn to them."

Exodus 24:15 Moshe went up onto the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

Exodus 24:16 The glory of ADONAI stayed on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day he called to Moshe out of the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 To the people of Isra'el the glory of ADONAI looked like a raging fire on the top of the mountain.

Exodus 24:18 Moshe entered the cloud and went up on the mountain; he was on the mountain forty days and nights.

Exodus 25:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 25:2 "Tell the people of Isra'el to take up a collection for me-accept a contribution from anyone who wholeheartedly wants to give.

Exodus 25:3 The contribution you are to take from them is to consist of gold, silver and bronze;

Exodus 25:4 blue, purple and scarlet yarn; fine linen, goat's hair,

Exodus 25:5 tanned ram skins and fine leather; acacia-wood;

Exodus 25:6 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Exodus 25:7 onyx stones and other stones to be set, for the ritual vest and breastplate.

Exodus 25:8 “They are to make me a sanctuary, so that I may live among them.

Exodus 25:9 You are to make it according to everything I show you- the design of the tabernacle and the design of its furnishings. This is how you are to make it.

Exodus 25:10 “They are to make an ark of acacia-wood three-and-three-quarters feet long, two-and-a-quarter feet wide and two-and-a-quarter feet high.

Exodus 25:11 You are to overlay it with pure gold- overlay it both inside and outside- and put a molding of gold around the top of it.

Exodus 25:12 Cast four gold rings for it, and attach them to its four feet, two rings on each side.

Exodus 25:13 Make poles of acacia-wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 25:14 Put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark; you will use them to carry the ark.

Exodus 25:15 The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they are not to be removed from it.

Exodus 25:16 Into the ark you are to put the testimony which I am about to give you.

Exodus 25:17 “You are to make a cover for the ark out of pure gold; it is to be three-and-three-quarters feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet high.

Exodus 25:18 You are to make two [k’ruvim] of gold. Make them of hammered work for the two ends of the ark-cover.

Exodus 25:19 Make one [keruv] for one end and one [keruv] for the other end; make the [k’ruvim] of one piece with the ark-cover at its two ends.

Exodus 25:20 The [k’ruvim] will have their wings spread out above, so that their wings cover the ark, and their faces are toward each other and toward the ark-cover.

Exodus 25:21 You are to put the ark-cover on top of the ark. “Inside the ark you will put the testimony that I am about to give you.

Exodus 25:22 There I will meet with you. I will speak with you from above the ark-cover, from between the two [k’ruvim] which are on the ark for the testimony, about all the orders I am giving you for the people of Isra’el.

Exodus 25:23 “You are to make a table of acacia-wood three feet long, eighteen inches wide and eighteen inches high.

Exodus 25:24 Overlay it with pure gold, and put a molding of gold around the top of it.

Exodus 25:25 Make around it a rim a handbreadth wide, and put a molding of gold around the rim.

Exodus 25:26 Make four gold rings for it, and attach the rings to the four corners, near its four legs.

Exodus 25:27 The rings to hold the poles used to carry the table are to be placed close to the rim.

Exodus 25:28 Make the poles of acacia-wood, overlay them with gold, and use them to carry the table.

Exodus 25:29 “Make its dishes, pans, bowls and pitchers of pure gold.

Exodus 25:30 On the table you are to place the bread of the presence in my presence always.

Exodus 25:31 “You are to make a [menorah] of pure gold. It is to be made of hammered work; its base, shaft, cups, ring of outer leaves and petals are to be of one piece with it.

Exodus 25:32 It is to have six branches extending from its sides, three branches of the [menorah] on one side of it and three on the other.

Exodus 25:33 On one branch are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a ring of outer leaves and petals; likewise on the opposite branch three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a ring of outer leaves and petals; and similarly for all six branches extending from the [menorah].

Exodus 25:34 On the central shaft of the [menorah] are to be four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its ring of outer leaves and petals.

Exodus 25:35 Where each pair of branches joins the central shaft is to be a ring of outer leaves of one piece with the pair of branches- thus for all six branches.

Exodus 25:36 The rings of outer leaves and their branches are to be of one piece with the shaft. Thus the whole [menorah] is to be a single piece of hammered work made of pure gold.

Exodus 25:37 “Make seven lamps for the [menorah], and mount them so as to give light to the space in front of it.

Exodus 25:38 Its tongs and trays are to be of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 The [menorah] and its utensils are to be made of sixty-six pounds of pure gold.

Exodus 25:40 See that you make them according to the design being shown you on the mountain. [(A: iii)]

Exodus 26:1 “You are to make the tabernacle with ten sheets of finely woven linen and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn. You are to make them with [k’ruvim] worked in, that have been crafted by a skilled artisan.

Exodus 26:2 Each one is to be forty-two feet long and six feet wide; all the sheets are to be the same size.

Exodus 26:3 Five sheets are to be joined one to another, and the other five sheets are to be joined one to another.

Exodus 26:4 Make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set, and do the same on the edge of the outermost sheet in the second set.

Exodus 26:5 Make fifty loops on the one sheet, and make fifty loops on the edge of the sheet in the second set; the loops are to be opposite one another.

Exodus 26:6 Make fifty fasteners of gold, and couple the sheets to each other with the fasteners, so that the tabernacle forms a single unit.

Exodus 26:7 “You are to make sheets of goat’s hair to be used as a tent covering the tabernacle; make eleven sheets.

Exodus 26:8 Each sheet is to be forty-five feet long and six feet wide-all eleven sheets are to be the same size.

Exodus 26:9 Join five sheets together and six sheets together, and fold the sixth sheet double at the front of the tent.

Exodus 26:10 Make fifty loops on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set and fifty loops on the edge of the outermost sheet in the second set.

Exodus 26:11 Make fifty fasteners of bronze, put the fasteners in the loops, and join the tent together, so that it forms a single unit.

Exodus 26:12 As for the overhanging part that remains of the sheets forming the tent, the half-sheet remaining is to hang over the back of the tabernacle;

Exodus 26:13 and the eighteen inches on the one side and the eighteen inches on the other side of that remaining in the length of the sheets forming the tent is to hang over the tabernacle to cover it on each side.

Exodus 26:14 “You are to make a covering for the tent of tanned ram skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

Exodus 26:15 “Make the upright planks for the tabernacle out of acacia-wood.

Exodus 26:16 Each plank is to be fifteen feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide.

Exodus 26:17 There are to be two projections on each plank, and the planks are to be joined one to another. That is how you are to make all the planks for the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:18 “Make the planks for the tabernacle as follows: twenty planks for the south side, facing southward.

Exodus 26:19 Make forty silver sockets under the twenty planks, two sockets under one plank for its two projections and two sockets under another plank for its two projections.

Exodus 26:20 “For the second side of the tabernacle, to the north, make twenty planks

Exodus 26:21 and their forty silver sockets, two sockets under one plank and two under another.

Exodus 26:22 “For the rear part of the tabernacle, toward the west, make six planks.

Exodus 26:23 For the corners of the tabernacle in the rear, make two planks;

Exodus 26:24 these are to be double from the bottom all the way to the top but joined at a single ring. Do the same with both of them; they are to form the two corners.

Exodus 26:25 Thus there will be eight planks with their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under one plank and two under another.

Exodus 26:26 “Make crossbars of acacia-wood, five for the planks of the one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 26:27 five crossbars for the planks of the other side of the tabernacle, and five crossbars for the planks at the side of the tabernacle at the rear toward the west.

Exodus 26:28 The middle crossbar, halfway up the planks, is to extend from end to end.

Exodus 26:29 Overlay the planks with gold, make gold rings for them through which the crossbars will pass, and overlay the crossbars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 “You are to erect the tabernacle according to the design you have been shown on the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 “You are to make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. Make it with [k’ruvim] worked in, that have been crafted by a skilled artisan.

Exodus 26:32 Hang it with gold hooks on four acacia-wood posts overlaid with gold and standing in four silver sockets.

Exodus 26:33 Hang the curtain below the fasteners. Then bring the ark for the testimony inside the curtain; the curtain will be the divider for you between the Holy Place and the Especially Holy Place.

Exodus 26:34 You are to put the ark-cover on the ark for the testimony in the Especially Holy Place.

Exodus 26:35 “You are to put the table outside the curtain and the [menorah] opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; put the table on the north side.

Exodus 26:36 “For the entrance to the tent, make a screen of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen; it should be in colors, the work of a weaver.

Exodus 26:37 For the screen, make five posts of acacia-wood; overlay them with gold; and cast for them five sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:1 “You are to make the altar of acacia-wood, seven-and-a-half feet long and seven-and-a-half feet wide- the altar is to be square and four-and-a-half feet high.

Exodus 27:2 Make horns for it on its four corners; the horns are to be of one piece with it; and you are to overlay it with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 “Make its pots for removing ashes, and its shovels, basins, meat-hooks and fire pans; all its utensils you are to make of bronze.

Exodus 27:4 Make for it a grate of bronze netting; and on the four corners of the netting, make four bronze rings.

Exodus 27:5 Put it under the rim of the altar, so that the netting reaches halfway up the altar.

Exodus 27:6 Make poles of acacia-wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze.

Exodus 27:7 Its poles are to be put into the rings; the poles are to be on both sides of the altar for carrying it.

Exodus 27:8 The altar is to be made of planks and hollow inside. They are to make it just as you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 27:9 “Here is how you are to make the courtyard of the tabernacle. On the south side, facing southward, are to be tapestries for the courtyard made of finely woven linen, 150 feet for one side,

Exodus 27:10 supported on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets; the hooks on the posts and the attached rings for hanging are to be of silver.

Exodus 27:11 Likewise, along the north side are to be tapestries 150 feet long, hung on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets, with silver hooks and rings for the posts.

Exodus 27:12 Across the width of the courtyard on the west side are to be tapestries seventy-five feet long, hung on ten posts in ten sockets.

Exodus 27:13 The width of the courtyard on the east side, facing east, will be seventy-five feet.

Exodus 27:14 The tapestries for one side [[of the gateway]] will be twenty-two-and-a-half feet long, hung on three posts in three sockets;

Exodus 27:15 for the other side there will be tapestries twenty-two-and-a-half feet long on three posts in three sockets.

Exodus 27:16 “For the gateway of the courtyard there is to be a screen thirty feet made of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. It should be in colors, the work of a weaver. It is to be on four posts in four sockets.

Exodus 27:17 All the posts all the way around the courtyard are to be banded with silver and to stand in sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:18 The length of the courtyard is to be 150 feet and the width seventy-five feet everywhere; with the height seven-and-a-half feet. The tapestries and screen are to be of finely woven linen, and the sockets are to be of bronze.

Exodus 27:19 “All the equipment needed for every kind of service in the tabernacle, as well as the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

Exodus 27:20 “You are to order the people of Isra’el to bring you pure oil of pounded olives for the light, and to keep a lamp burning continually.

Exodus 27:21 Aharon and his sons are to put it in the tent of meeting, outside the curtain in front of the testimony, and keep it burning from evening until morning before ADONAI. This is to be a permanent regulation through all the generations of the people of Isra’el.

Exodus 28:1 “You are to summon your brother Aharon and his sons to come from among the people of Isra’el to you, so that they can serve me as [cohanim]- Aharon and his sons Nadav, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar.

Exodus 28:2 You are to make for your brother Aharon garments set apart for serving God, expressing dignity and splendor.

Exodus 28:3 Speak to all the craftsmen to whom I have given the spirit of wisdom, and have them make Aharon’s garments to set him apart for me, so that he can serve me in the office of [cohen.]

Exodus 28:4 “The garments they are to make are these: a breastplate, a ritual vest, a robe, a checkered tunic, a turban and a sash. They are to make holy garments for your brother Aharon and his sons, so that he can serve me in the office of [cohen].

Exodus 28:5 They are to use gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and fine linen.

Exodus 28:6 “They are to make the ritual vest of gold, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely woven linen, crafted by a skilled artisan.

Exodus 28:7 Attached to its front and back edges are to be two shoulder-pieces that can be fastened together.

Exodus 28:8 Its decorated belt is to be of the same workmanship and materials- gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely woven linen.

Exodus 28:9 Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Isra’el-

Exodus 28:10 six of their names on one stone and the six remaining names on the other, in the order of their birth.

Exodus 28:11 An engraver should engrave the names of the sons of Isra’el on the two stones as he would engrave a seal. Mount the stones in gold settings,

Exodus 28:12 and put the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the vest as stones calling to mind the sons of Isra’el. Aharon is to carry their names before ADONAI on his two shoulders as a reminder.

Exodus 28:13 “Make gold squares

Exodus 28:14 and two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords; attach the cord-like chains to the squares.

Exodus 28:15 “Make a breastplate for judging. Have it crafted by a skilled artisan; make it like the work of the ritual vest- make it of gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely woven linen.

Exodus 28:16 When folded double it is to be square- a hand-span by a hand-span.

Exodus 28:17 Put in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: the first row is to be a carnelian, a topaz and an emerald;

Exodus 28:18 the second row a green feldspar, a sapphire and a diamond;

Exodus 28:19 the third row an orange zircon, an agate and an amethyst;

Exodus 28:20 and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx and a jasper. They are to be mounted in their gold settings.

Exodus 28:21 The stones will correspond to the names of the twelve sons of Isra’el; they are to be engraved with their names as a seal would be engraved, to represent the twelve tribes.

Exodus 28:22 “On the breastplate, make two pure gold chains twisted like cords.

Exodus 28:23 Also for the breastplate, make two gold rings; and put the gold rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

Exodus 28:24 Put the two twisted gold chains in the two rings at the two ends of the breastplate;

Exodus 28:25 attach the other two ends of the twisted chains to the front of the shoulder-pieces of the ritual vest[.]

Exodus 28:26 Make two gold rings and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, at its edge, on the side facing in toward the vest[.]

Exodus 28:27 Also make two gold rings and attach them low on the front part of the vest's shoulder-pieces, near the join, above the vest's decorated belt.

Exodus 28:28 Then bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the vest with a blue cord, so that it can be on the vest's decorated belt, and so that the breastplate won't swing loose from the vest[.]

Exodus 28:29 Aharon will carry the names of the sons of Isra'el on the breastplate for judging, over his heart, when he enters the Holy Place, as a continual reminder before [ADONAI.]

Exodus 28:30 You are to put the [urim] and the [tumim] in the breastplate for judging; they will be over Aharon's heart when he goes into the presence of ADONAI. Thus Aharon will always have the means for making decisions for the people of Isra'el over his heart when he is in the presence of ADONAI.

Exodus 28:31 "You are to make the robe for the ritual vest entirely of blue.

Exodus 28:32 It is to have an opening for the head in the middle. Around the opening is to be a border woven like the neck of a coat of mail, so that it won't tear.

Exodus 28:33 On its bottom hem make pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet; and put them all the way around, with gold bells between them all the way around-

Exodus 28:34 gold bell, pomegranate, gold bell, pomegranate, all the way around the hem of the robe.

Exodus 28:35 Aharon is to wear it when he ministers, and its sound will be heard whenever he enters the Holy Place before ADONAI and when he leaves, so that he won't die.

Exodus 28:36 "You are to make an ornament of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal, 'Set apart for ADONAI.'

Exodus 28:37 Fasten it to the turban with a blue cord, on the front of the turban,

Exodus 28:38 over Aharon's forehead. Because Aharon bears the guilt for any errors committed by the people of Isra'el in consecrating their holy gifts, this ornament is always to be on his forehead, so that the gifts for ADONAI will be accepted by him.

Exodus 28:39 "You are to weave the checkered tunic of fine linen, make a turban of fine linen, and make a belt, the work of a weaver in colors.

Exodus 28:40 Likewise for Aharon's sons make tunics, sashes and headgear expressing dignity and splendor.

Exodus 28:41 With them clothe your brother Aharon and his sons. Then anoint them, inaugurate them, and consecrate them, so that they will be able to serve me in the office of [cohen.]

Exodus 28:42 Also make for them linen shorts reaching from waist to thigh, to cover their bare flesh.

Exodus 28:43 Aharon and his sons are to wear them when they go into the tent of meeting and when they approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they won't incur guilt and die. This is to be a perpetual regulation, both for him and for his descendants.

Exodus 29:1 "Here is what you are to do to consecrate them for ministry to me in the office of [cohen]. Take one young bull and two rams without defect,

Exodus 29:2 also [matzah], [matzah] cakes mixed with olive oil, and [matzah] wafers spread with oil- all made from fine wheat flour;

Exodus 29:3 put them together in a basket, and present them in the basket, along with the bull and the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 "Bring Aharon and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them with water.

Exodus 29:5 Take the garments, and put on Aharon the tunic, the robe for the ritual vest, the vest itself, and the breastplate. Fasten the vest on him with its belt.

Exodus 29:6 Put the turban on his head and attach the holy ornament to the turban.

Exodus 29:7 Then take the anointing oil, and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

Exodus 29:8 Bring his sons; put tunics on them;

Exodus 29:9 wrap sashes around them, Aharon and his sons; and put the headgear on their heads. The office of [cohen] is to be theirs by a permanent regulation. Thus you will consecrate Aharon and his sons.

Exodus 29:10 "Bring the young bull to the front of the tent of meeting. Aharon and his sons are to lay their hands on the bull's head, Exodus 29:11 and you are to slaughter the bull in the presence of ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 29:12 Take some of the bull's blood, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Exodus 29:13 Take all the fat that covers the inner organs, the covering of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat, and offer them up in smoke on the altar.

Exodus 29:14 But the bull's flesh, skin and dung you are to destroy by fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

Exodus 29:15 "Take one of the rams: Aharon and his sons are to lay their hands on the ram's head;

Exodus 29:16 and you are to slaughter the ram, take its blood, and splash it on all sides of the altar.

Exodus 29:17 Quarter the ram, wash the inner organs and the lower parts of the legs, and put them with the quarters and the head.

Exodus 29:18 Then offer up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It is a burnt offering for ADONAI, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to ADONAI by fire.

Exodus 29:19 “Take the other ram: Aharon and his sons are to lay their hands on the ram’s head;

Exodus 29:20 and you are to slaughter the ram, take some of its blood, and put it on the lobe of Aharon’s right ear, on the lobes of his sons’ right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Take the rest of the blood and splash it on all sides of the altar.

Exodus 29:21 Then take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aharon and his clothing and on his sons and the clothing of his sons with him; so that he and his clothing will be consecrated, and with him his sons and his sons’ clothing.

Exodus 29:22 Also take the fat from the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the inner organs, the two kidneys, the fat covering them and the right thigh- for it is a ram of consecration-

Exodus 29:23 along with one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread and one wafer from the basket of [matzah] which is before ADONAI-

Exodus 29:24 and put it all in the hands of Aharon and his sons. They are to wave them as a wave offering in the presence of ADONAI.

Exodus 29:25 Then take them back; and burn them up in smoke on the altar, on top of the burnt offering, to be a pleasing aroma before ADONAI; it is an offering made to ADONAI by fire.

Exodus 29:26 “Take the breast of the ram for Aharon’s consecration, and wave it as a wave offering before ADONAI; it will be your share.

Exodus 29:27 Consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of any contribution that has been waved and raised up, whether from the ram of consecration, or from anything else meant for Aharon or his sons;

Exodus 29:28 this will belong to Aharon and his sons as their share perpetually due from the people of Isra’el- it will be a contribution from the people of Isra’el from their peace offerings, their contribution to ADONAI.

Exodus 29:29 “The holy garments of Aharon will be used by his sons after him; they will be anointed and consecrated in them.

Exodus 29:30 The son who becomes [cohen] in his place, who comes into the tent of meeting to serve in the Holy Place, is to wear them for seven days.

Exodus 29:31 Take the ram of consecration, and boil its meat in a holy place.

Exodus 29:32 Aharon and his sons will eat the ram’s meat and the bread in the basket at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 29:33 They are to eat the things with which atonement was made for them, to inaugurate and consecrate them; no one else may eat this food, because it is holy.

Exodus 29:34 If any of the meat for the consecration or any of the bread remains until morning, burn up what remains; it is not to be eaten, because it is holy.

Exodus 29:35 Carry out all these orders I have given you concerning Aharon and his sons. You are to spend seven days consecrating them.

Exodus 29:36 “Each day, offer a young bull as a sin offering, besides the other offerings of atonement; offer the sin offering on the altar as your atonement for it; then anoint it to consecrate it.

Exodus 29:37 Seven days you will make atonement on the altar and consecrate it; thus the altar will be especially holy, and whatever touches the altar will become holy.

Exodus 29:38 “Now this is what you are to offer on the altar: two lambs a year old, regularly, every day.

Exodus 29:39 The one lamb you are to offer in the morning and the other lamb at dusk.

Exodus 29:40 With the one lamb offer two quarts of finely ground flour mixed with one quart of oil from pressed olives; along with one quart of wine as a drink offering.

Exodus 29:41 The other lamb you are to offer at dusk; do with it as with the morning grain and drink offerings- it will be a pleasing aroma, an offering made to ADONAI by fire.

Exodus 29:42 Through all your generations this is to be the regular burnt offering at the entrance to the tent of meeting before ADONAI. There is where I will meet with you to speak with you.

Exodus 29:43 There I will meet with the people of Isra’el; and the place will be consecrated by my glory.

Exodus 29:44 I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar, likewise I will consecrate Aharon and his sons to serve me in the office of [cohen].

Exodus 29:45 Then I will live with the people of Isra’el and be their God:

Exodus 29:46 they will know that I am ADONAI their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt in order to live with them. I am ADONAI their God. [(vii)]

Exodus 30:1 “You are to make an altar on which to burn incense; make it of acacia-wood.

Exodus 30:2 It is to be eighteen inches square and three feet high; its horns are to be of one piece with it.

Exodus 30:3 Overlay it with pure gold- its top, all around its sides, and its horns; and put around it a molding of gold.

Exodus 30:4 Make two gold rings for it under its molding at the two corners on both sides; this is where the carrying-poles will go.

Exodus 30:5 Make the poles of acacia-wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 “Place it in front of the curtain by the ark for the testimony, in front of the ark-cover that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.

Exodus 30:7 Aharon will burn fragrant incense on it as a pleasing aroma every morning; he is to burn it when he prepares the lamps.

Exodus 30:8 Aharon is also to burn it when he lights the lamps at dusk; this is the regular burning of incense before ADONAI through all your generations.

Exodus 30:9 You are not to offer unauthorized incense on it, or a burnt offering or a grain offering; and you are not to pour a drink offering on it.

Exodus 30:10 Aharon is to make atonement on its horns once a year- with the blood of the sin offering of atonement he is to make atonement for it once a year through all your generations; it is especially holy to ADONAI.”

Exodus 30:11 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 30:12 “When you take a census of the people of Isra’el and register them, each, upon registration, is to pay a ransom for his life to ADONAI, to avoid any breakout of plague among them during the time of the census.

Exodus 30:13 Everyone subject to the census is to pay as an offering to ADONAI half a [shekel] [[one-fifth of an ounce of silver]]- by the standard of the sanctuary [shekel] (a [shekel] equals twenty [gerah]s).

Exodus 30:14 Everyone over twenty years of age who is subject to the census is to give this offering to ADONAI-

Exodus 30:15 the rich is not to give more or the poor less than the half-[shekel] when giving ADONAI’s offering to atone for your lives.

Exodus 30:16 You are to take the atonement money from the people of Isra’el and use it for the service in the tent of meeting, so that it will be a reminder of the people of Isra’el before ADONAI to atone for your lives.”

Exodus 30:17 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 30:18 “You are to make a basin of bronze, with a base of bronze, for washing. Place it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exodus 30:19 Aharon and his sons will wash their hands and feet there

Exodus 30:20 when they enter the tent of meeting- they are to wash with water, so that they won’t die. Also when they approach the altar to minister by burning an offering for ADONAI,

Exodus 30:21 they are to wash their hands and feet, so that they won’t die. This is to be a perpetual law for them through all their generations.”

Exodus 30:22 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 30:23 “Take the best spices- 500 [shekel]s of myrrh [], half this amount s) of aromatic cinnamon [], 250 [shekel]s of aromatic cane,

Exodus 30:24 500 [shekel]s of cassia (use the sanctuary standard), and one gallon of olive oil-

Exodus 30:25 and make them into a holy anointing oil; blend it and perfume it as would an expert perfume-maker; it will be a holy anointing oil.

Exodus 30:26 Use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark for the testimony,

Exodus 30:27 the table and all its utensils, the [menorah] and all its utensils, the incense altar,

Exodus 30:28 the altar for burnt offerings and all its utensils, and the basin with its base.

Exodus 30:29 You are to consecrate them- they will be especially holy, and whatever touches them will be holy.

Exodus 30:30 Then you are to anoint Aharon and his sons- you are to consecrate them to serve me in the office of [cohen.]

Exodus 30:31 “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘This is to be a holy anointing oil for me through all your generations.

Exodus 30:32 It is not to be used for anointing a person’s body; and you are not to make any like it, with the same composition of ingredients- it is holy, and you are to treat it as holy.

Exodus 30:33 Whoever makes any like it or uses it on any unauthorized person is to be cut off from his people.’“

Exodus 30:34 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Take aromatic plant substances- balsam resin, sweet onycha root and bitter galbanum gum- these spices along with frankincense, all in equal quantities;

Exodus 30:35 and make incense, blended and perfumed as would an expert perfume-maker, salted, pure and holy.

Exodus 30:36 You are to grind up some of it very finely and put it in front of the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you; you are to regard it as especially holy.

Exodus 30:37 You are not to make for your own use any incense like it, with the same composition of ingredients- you are to treat it as holy, for ADONAI.

Exodus 30:38 Whoever makes up any like it to use as perfume is to be cut off from his people."

Exodus 31:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 31:2 "I have singled out B'tzal'el the son of Uri the son of Hur, of the tribe of Y'hudah.

Exodus 31:3 I have filled him with the Spirit of God- with wisdom, understanding and knowledge concerning every kind of artisanry.

Exodus 31:4 He is a master of design in gold, silver, bronze,

Exodus 31:5 cutting precious stones to be set, woodcarving and every other craft.

Exodus 31:6 "I have also appointed as his assistant Oholi'av the son of Achisamakh, of the tribe of Dan. Moreover, I have endowed all the craftsmen with the wisdom to make everything I have ordered you-

Exodus 31:7 the tent of meeting, the ark for the testimony, the ark-cover above it, all the furnishings of the tent,

Exodus 31:8 the table and its utensils, the pure [menorah] and all its utensils, the incense altar,

Exodus 31:9 the altar for burnt offerings and all its utensils, the basin and its base,

Exodus 31:10 the garments for officiating, the holy garments for Aharon the [cohen] and the garments for his sons, so that they can serve in the office of [cohen],

Exodus 31:11 the anointing oil and the incense of aromatic spices for the Holy Place: they are to make everything just as I have ordered you."

Exodus 31:12 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 31:13 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'You are to observe my [Shabbat]s; for this is a sign between me and you through all your generations; so that you will know that I am ADONAI, who sets you apart for me.

Exodus 31:14 Therefore you are to keep my [Shabbat], because it is set apart for you. Everyone who treats it as ordinary must be put to death; for whoever does any work on it is to be cut off from his people.

Exodus 31:15 On six days work will get done; but the seventh day is [Shabbat], for complete rest, set apart for ADONAI. Whoever does any work on the day of [Shabbat] must be put to death.

Exodus 31:16 The people of Isra'el are to keep the [Shabbat], to observe [Shabbat] through all their generations as a perpetual covenant.

Exodus 31:17 It is a sign between me and the people of Isra'el forever; for in six days ADONAI made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day he stopped working and rested.'"

Exodus 31:18 When he had finished speaking with Moshe on Mount Sinai, ADONAI gave him the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

Exodus 32:1 When the people saw that Moshe was taking a long time to come down from the mountain, they gathered around Aharon and said to him, "Get busy; and make us gods to go ahead of us; because this Moshe, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt- we don't know what has become of him."

Exodus 32:2 Aharon said to them, "Have your wives, sons and daughters strip off their gold earrings; and bring them to me."

Exodus 32:3 The people stripped off their gold earrings and brought them to Aharon.

Exodus 32:4 He received what they gave him, melted it down, and made it into the shape of a calf. They said, "Isra'el! Here is your god, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!"

Exodus 32:5 On seeing this, Aharon built an altar in front of it and proclaimed, "Tomorrow is to be a feast for ADONAI."

Exodus 32:6 Early the next morning they got up and offered burnt offerings and presented peace offerings. Afterwards, the people sat down to eat and drink; then they got up to indulge in revelry.

Exodus 32:7 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Go down! Hurry! Your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have become corrupt!

Exodus 32:8 So quickly they have turned aside from the way I ordered them to follow! They have cast a metal statue of a calf, worshipped it, sacrificed to it and said, 'Isra'el! Here is your god, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!'"

Exodus 32:9 ADONAI continued speaking to Moshe: "I have been watching these people; and you can see how stiffnecked they are.

Exodus 32:10 Now leave me alone, so that my anger can blaze against them, and I can put an end to them! I will make a great nation out of you instead."

Exodus 32:11 Moshe pleaded with ADONAI his God. He said, "ADONAI, why must your anger blaze against your own people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a strong hand?

Exodus 32:12 Why let the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intentions that he led them out, to slaughter them in the hills and wipe them off the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce anger! Relent! Don't bring such disaster on your people!

Exodus 32:13 Remember Avraham, Yitz'chak and Isra'el, your servants, to whom you swore by your very self. You promised them, 'I will make your descendants as many as the stars in the sky; and I will give all this land I have spoken about to your descendants; and they will possess it forever.'"

Exodus 32:14 ADONAI then changed his mind about the disaster he had planned for his people.

Exodus 32:15 Moshe turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets inscribed on both sides, on the front and on the back.

Exodus 32:16 The tablets were the work of God; and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 When Y'hoshua heard the noise of the people shouting he said to Moshe, "It sounds like war in the camp!"

Exodus 32:18 He answered, "That is neither the clamor of victory nor the wailings of defeat; what I hear is the sound of people singing."

Exodus 32:19 But the moment Moshe got near the camp, when he saw the calf and the dancing, his own anger blazed up. He threw down the tablets he had been holding and shattered them at the base of the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 Seizing the calf they had made, he melted it in the fire and ground it to powder, which he scattered on the water. Then he made the people of Isra'el drink it.

Exodus 32:21 Moshe said to Aharon, "What did these people do to you to make you lead them into such a terrible sin?"

Exodus 32:22 Aharon replied, "My lord shouldn't be so angry. You know what these people are like, that they are determined to do evil.

Exodus 32:23 So they said to me, 'Make us gods to go ahead of us; because this Moshe, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt- we don't know what has become of him.'

Exodus 32:24 I answered them, 'Anyone with gold, strip it off!' So they gave it to me. I threw it in the fire, and out came this calf!"

Exodus 32:25 When Moshe saw that the people had gotten out of control- because Aharon had allowed them to get out of control, to the derision of their enemies-

Exodus 32:26 Moshe stood at the entrance to the camp and shouted, "Whoever is for ADONAI, come to me!" All the descendants of Levi rallied around him.

Exodus 32:27 He told them, "Here is what ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, says: 'Each of you, put his sword on his side; and go up and down the camp, from gate to gate; and every man is to kill his own kinsman, his own friend and his own neighbor!”

Exodus 32:28 The sons of Levi did what Moshe said, and that day three thousand of the people died.

Exodus 32:29 Moshe said, “You have consecrated yourselves today to ADONAI, because every one of you has been against his own son and against his own kinsman, in order to bring a blessing on yourselves today.”

Exodus 32:30 The next day Moshe said to the people, “You have committed a terrible sin. Now I will go up to ADONAI; maybe I will be able to atone for your sin.”

Exodus 32:31 Moshe went back to ADONAI and said, “Please! These people have committed a terrible sin: they have made themselves a god out of gold.

Exodus 32:32 Now, if you will just forgive their sin! But if you won’t, then, I beg you, blot me out of your book which you have written!”

Exodus 32:33 ADONAI answered Moshe, “Those who have sinned against me are the ones I will blot out of my book.

Exodus 32:34 Now go and lead the people to the place I told you about; my angel will go ahead of you. Nevertheless, the time for punishment will come; and then I will punish them for their sin.”

Exodus 32:35 ADONAI struck the people with a plague because they had made the calf, the one Aharon made.

Exodus 33:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Leave, you and the people you brought up from the land of Egypt; and move on from here toward the land of which I swore to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’

Exodus 33:2 I will send an angel ahead of you; and I will drive out the Kena’ani, Emori, Hitti, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi.

Exodus 33:3 You will go to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I myself will not go with you, because you are such a stiffnecked people that I might destroy you on the way.”

Exodus 33:4 When the people heard this bad news, they went into mourning; and no one wore his ornaments.

Exodus 33:5 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘You are a stiffnecked people! If I were to go up with you for even one moment, I would exterminate you! Now, keep your ornaments off; then I will decide what to do to you.’“

Exodus 33:6 So from Mount Horev onward, the people of Isra’el stripped themselves of their ornaments.

Exodus 33:7 Moshe would take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp. He called it the tent of meeting. Everyone who wanted to consult ADONAI would go out to the tent of meeting, outside the camp.

Exodus 33:8 Whenever Moshe went out to the tent, all the people would get up and stand, each man at his tent door, and look at Moshe until he had gone into the tent.

Exodus 33:9 Whenever Moshe entered the tent, the column of cloud would descend and station itself at the entrance to the tent; and ADONAI would speak with Moshe.

Exodus 33:10 When all the people saw the column of cloud stationed at the entrance to the tent, they would get up and prostrate themselves, each man at his tent door.

Exodus 33:11 ADONAI would speak to Moshe face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. Then he would return to the camp; but the young man who was his assistant, Y'hoshua the son of Nun, never left the inside of the tent.

Exodus 33:12 Moshe said to ADONAI, "Look, you say to me, 'Make these people move on!' But you haven't let me know whom you will be sending with me. Nevertheless you have said, 'I know you by name,' and also, 'You have found favor in my sight.'

Exodus 33:13 Now, please, if it is really the case that I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways; so that I will understand you and continue finding favor in your sight. Moreover, keep on seeing this nation as your people."

Exodus 33:14 He answered, "Set your mind at rest- my presence will go with you, after all."

Exodus 33:15 Moshe replied, "If your presence doesn't go with us, don't make us go on from here.

Exodus 33:16 For how else is it to be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, other than by your going with us? That is what distinguishes us, me and your people, from all the other peoples on earth."

Exodus 33:17 ADONAI said to Moshe, "I will also do what you have asked me to do, because you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."

Exodus 33:18 But Moshe said, "I beg you to show me your glory!"

Exodus 33:19 He replied, "I will cause all my goodness to pass before you, and in your presence I will pronounce the name of [ADONAI.] Moreover, I show favor to whomever I will, and I display mercy to whomever I will.

Exodus 33:20 But my face," he continued, "you cannot see, because a human being cannot look at me and remain alive.

Exodus 33:21 Here," he said, "is a place near me; stand on the rock.

Exodus 33:22 When my glory passes by, I will put you inside a crevice in the rock and cover you with my hand, until I have passed by.

Exodus 33:23 Then I will remove my hand, and you will see my back, but my face is not to be seen."

Exodus 34:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Cut yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones; and I will inscribe on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Exodus 34:2 Be ready by morning; in the morning you are to ascend Mount Sinai and present yourself to me on the top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 No one is to come up with you, and no one is to be seen anywhere on the mountain; don't even let the flocks or herds feed in front of this mountain."

Exodus 34:4 Moshe cut two stone tablets like the first. Then he got up early in the morning and, with the two stone tablets in his hands, ascended Mount Sinai, as ADONAI had ordered him to do.

Exodus 34:5 ADONAI descended in the cloud, stood with him there and pronounced the name of [ADONAI.]

Exodus 34:6 ADONAI passed before him and proclaimed: "[YUD-HEH-VAV-HEH]!!! [Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh] [[ADONAI]] is God, merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in grace and truth;

Exodus 34:7 showing grace to the thousandth generation, forgiving offenses, crimes and sins; yet not exonerating the guilty, but causing the negative effects of the parents' offenses to be experienced by their children and grandchildren, and even by the third and fourth generations."

Exodus 34:8 At once Moshe bowed his head to the ground, prostrated himself

Exodus 34:9 and said, "If I have now found favor in your view, [Adonai], then please let [Adonai] go with us, even though they are a stiffnecked people; and pardon our offenses and our sin; and take us as your possession."

Exodus 34:10 He said, "Here, I am making a covenant; in front of all your people I will do wonders such as have not been created anywhere on earth or in any nation. All the people around you will see the work of [ADONAI.] What I am going to do through you will be awesome!

Exodus 34:11 Observe what I am ordering you to do today. Here! I am driving out ahead of you the Emori, Kena'ani, Hitti, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi.

Exodus 34:12 Be careful not to make a covenant with the people living in the land where you are going, so that they won't become a snare within your own borders.

Exodus 34:13 Rather, you are to demolish their altars, smash their standing-stones and cut down their sacred poles;

Exodus 34:14 because you are not to bow down to any other god; since ADONAI- whose very name is Jealous- is a jealous God.

Exodus 34:15 Do not make a covenant with the people living in the land. It will cause you to go astray after their gods and sacrifice to their gods. Then they will invite you to join them in eating their sacrifices,

Exodus 34:16 and you will take their daughters as wives for your sons. Their daughters will prostitute themselves to their own gods and make your sons do the same!

Exodus 34:17 “Do not cast metal gods for yourselves.

Exodus 34:18 “Keep the festival of [matzah] by eating [matzah], as I ordered you, for seven days during the month of Aviv; for it was in the month of Aviv that you came out from Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 “Everything that is first from the womb is mine. Of all your livestock, you are to set aside for me the males, the firstborn of cattle and flock.

Exodus 34:20 The firstborn of a donkey you must redeem with a lamb; if you won’t redeem it, break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you are to redeem, and no one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Exodus 34:21 “Six days you will work, but on the seventh day you are to rest- even in plowing time and harvest season you are to rest.

Exodus 34:22 “Observe the festival of [Shavu’ot] with the first-gathered produce of the wheat harvest, and the festival of ingathering at the turn of the year.

Exodus 34:23 Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Lord, ADONAI, the God of Isra’el.

Exodus 34:24 For I am going to expel nations ahead of you and expand your territory, and no one will even covet your land when you go up to appear before ADONAI your God three times a year.

Exodus 34:25 You are not to offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the sacrifice of the feast of [Pesach] is not to be left until morning.

Exodus 34:26 You are to bring the best firstfruits of your land into the house of ADONAI your God. “You are not to boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

Exodus 34:27 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Write these words down, because they are the terms of the covenant I have made with you and with Isra’el.”

Exodus 34:28 Moshe was there with ADONAI forty days and forty nights, during which time he neither ate food nor drank water. [[ADONAI]] wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Words.

Exodus 34:29 When Moshe came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, he didn't realize that the skin of his face was sending out rays of light as a result of his talking with [[ADONAI]].

Exodus 34:30 When Aharon and the people of Isra'el saw Moshe, the skin of his face was shining; and they were afraid to approach him.

Exodus 34:31 But Moshe called to them; then Aharon and all the community leaders came back to him, and Moshe spoke to them.

Exodus 34:32 Afterwards, all the people of Isra'el came near; and he passed on to them all the orders that ADONAI had told him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 Once Moshe had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

Exodus 34:34 But when he went in before ADONAI for him to speak, he would take the veil off until he came out; then, when he came out, he would tell the people of Isra'el what he had been ordered.

Exodus 34:35 But when the people of Isra'el saw Moshe's face, that the skin of Moshe's face shone, he would put the veil back over his face until he went in again to speak with [[ADONAI]].

Exodus 35:1 Moshe assembled the whole community of the people of Isra'el and said to them, "These are the things which ADONAI has ordered you to do.

Exodus 35:2 On six days work is to be done, but the seventh day is to be a holy day for you, a [Shabbat] of complete rest in honor of ADONAI. Whoever does any work on it is to be put to death.

Exodus 35:3 You are not to kindle a fire in any of your homes on [Shabbat]."

Exodus 35:4 Moshe said to the whole community of the people of Isra'el, "Here is what ADONAI has ordered:

Exodus 35:5 'Take up a collection for ADONAI from among yourselves- anyone whose heart makes him willing is to bring the offering for ADONAI: gold, silver and bronze;

Exodus 35:6 blue, purple and scarlet yarn; fine linen, goat's hair,

Exodus 35:7 tanned ram skins and fine leather; acacia-wood;

Exodus 35:8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Exodus 35:9 onyx stones and stones to be set, for the ritual vest and the breastplate.

Exodus 35:10 "'Then let all the craftsmen among you come and make everything ADONAI has ordered:

Exodus 35:11 the tabernacle with its tent, covering, fasteners, planks, crossbars, posts and sockets;

Exodus 35:12 the ark with its poles, ark-cover and the curtain to screen it;

Exodus 35:13 the table with its poles, all its utensils and the showbread;

Exodus 35:14 the [menorah] for the light, with its utensils and lamps, and the oil for the light;

Exodus 35:15 the incense altar with its poles; the anointing oil; the fragrant incense; the screen for the entranceway at the entrance to the tabernacle;

Exodus 35:16 the altar for burnt offerings, with its poles and all its utensils; the basin with its base;

Exodus 35:17 the tapestries for the courtyard, with their posts and sockets; the screen for the gateway of the courtyard;

Exodus 35:18 the tent pegs for the tabernacle; the tent pegs for the courtyard, with their ropes;

Exodus 35:19 the garments for officiating, for serving in the Holy Place; and the holy garments for Aharon the [cohen] and the garments for his sons, so that they can serve in the office of [cohen].'"

Exodus 35:20 Then the whole community of the people of Isra'el withdrew from Moshe's presence;

Exodus 35:21 and they came, everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit made him willing, and brought ADONAI's offering for the work on the tent of meeting, for the service in it and for the holy garments.

Exodus 35:22 Both men and women came, as many as had willing hearts; they brought nose-rings, earrings, signet-rings, belts, all kinds of gold jewelry- everyone bringing an offering of gold to ADONAI.

Exodus 35:23 Everyone who had blue, purple or scarlet yarn; fine linen; tanned ram skins or fine leather brought them.

Exodus 35:24 Everyone contributing silver or bronze brought his offering for ADONAI, and everyone who had acacia-wood suitable for any of the work brought it.

Exodus 35:25 All the women who were skilled at spinning got to work and brought what they had spun, the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and the fine linen.

Exodus 35:26 Likewise the women whose heart stirred them to use their skill spun the goat's hair.

Exodus 35:27 The leaders brought the onyx stones and the stones to be set, for the ritual vest and the breasplate;

Exodus 35:28 the spices; and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.

Exodus 35:29 Thus every man and woman of the people of Isra’el whose heart impelled him to contribute to any of the work ADONAI had ordered through Moshe brought it to ADONAI as a voluntary offering.

Exodus 35:30 Moshe said to the people of Isra’el, “See, ADONAI has singled out B’tzal’el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Y’hudah.

Exodus 35:31 He has filled him with the Spirit of God- with wisdom, understanding and knowledge concerning every kind of artisanry.

Exodus 35:32 He is a master of design in gold, silver, bronze,

Exodus 35:33 cutting precious stones to be set, woodcarving and every other craft.

Exodus 35:34 [[ADONAI]] has also given him and Oholi’av the son of Achisamakh, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others.

Exodus 35:35 He has filled them with the skill needed for every kind of work, whether done by an artisan, a designer, an embroiderer using blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen, or a weaver- they have the skill for every kind of work and design.

Exodus 36:1 “B’tzal’el and Oholi’av, along with all the craftsmen whom ADONAI has endowed with the wisdom and skill necessary to carry out the work needed for the sanctuary, are to do exactly according to everything ADONAI has ordered.”

Exodus 36:2 Moshe summoned B’tzal’el, Oholi’av and every craftsman to whom ADONAI had given wisdom, everyone whose heart stirred him, to come and take part in the work.

Exodus 36:3 They received from Moshe all the offering which the people of Isra’el had brought for the work of building the sanctuary. But they still kept bringing voluntary offerings every morning,

Exodus 36:4 until all the craftsmen doing the work for the sanctuary left the work they were involved with

Exodus 36:5 to tell Moshe, “The people are bringing far more than is needed to do the work ADONAI has ordered done.”

Exodus 36:6 So Moshe gave an order which was proclaimed throughout the camp: “Neither men nor women are to make any further efforts for the sanctuary offering.” In this way, the people were restrained from making additional contributions.

Exodus 36:7 For what they had already was not only sufficient for doing all the work, but too much!

Exodus 36:8 All the skilled men among them who did the work made the tabernacle, using ten sheets of finely woven linen and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn. He made them with [k’ruvim] worked in that had been crafted by a skilled artisan.

Exodus 36:9 Each sheet was forty-two feet long and six feet wide; all the sheets were the same size.

Exodus 36:10 He joined five sheets one to another, and the other five sheets he joined one to another.

Exodus 36:11 He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set and did the same on the edge of the outermost sheet in the second set.

Exodus 36:12 He made fifty loops on the one sheet, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the sheet in the second set; the loops were opposite one another.

Exodus 36:13 He made fifty fasteners of gold and coupled the sheets to each other with the fasteners, so that the tabernacle formed a single unit.

Exodus 36:14 He made sheets of goat’s hair to be used as a tent covering the tabernacle; he made eleven sheets.

Exodus 36:15 Each sheet was forty-five feet long and six feet wide; all eleven sheets were the same size.

Exodus 36:16 He joined five sheets together and six sheets together.

Exodus 36:17 He made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set and fifty loops on the outermost sheet in the second set.

Exodus 36:18 He made fifty fasteners of bronze to join the tent together, so that it would be a single unit.

Exodus 36:19 He made a covering for the tent of tanned ram skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

Exodus 36:20 He made the upright planks of acacia-wood for the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:21 Each plank was fifteen feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide.

Exodus 36:22 There were two projections on each plank, and the planks were joined one to another. This is how he made all the planks for the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:23 He made the planks for the tabernacle as follows: twenty planks for the south side, facing southward.

Exodus 36:24 He made forty silver sockets under the twenty planks, two sockets under one plank for its two projections and two sockets under another plank for its two projections.

Exodus 36:25 For the second side of the tabernacle, to the north, he made twenty planks

Exodus 36:26 and their forty silver sockets, two sockets under one plank and two under another.

Exodus 36:27 For the rear part of the tabernacle, toward the west, he made six planks.

Exodus 36:28 For the corners of the tabernacle in the rear he made two planks,

Exodus 36:29 double from the bottom all the way to the top but joined at a single ring. He did the same with both of them at the two corners.

Exodus 36:30 Thus there were eight planks with their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under each plank.

Exodus 36:31 He made crossbars of acacia-wood, five for the planks of the one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 36:32 five crossbars for the planks of the other side of the tabernacle, and five crossbars for the planks at the side of the tabernacle at the rear toward the west.

Exodus 36:33 He made the middle crossbar so that it extended from one end of the planks to the other, halfway up.

Exodus 36:34 He overlaid the planks with gold, made gold rings for them through which the crossbars could pass and overlaid the crossbars with gold.

Exodus 36:35 He made the curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. He made them with [k'ruvim] worked in that had been crafted by a skilled artisan.

Exodus 36:36 He made for it four posts of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold, and gold hooks; and cast for them four silver sockets.

Exodus 36:37 For the entrance to the tent he made a screen of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen, in colors, the work of a weaver;

Exodus 36:38 with its five posts and their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their attached rings for hanging with gold, while their five sockets were of bronze.

Exodus 37:1 B'tzal'el made the ark of acacia-wood three-and-three-quarters feet long, two-and-a-quarter feet wide and two-and-a-quarter feet high.

Exodus 37:2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and put a molding of gold for it around the top.

Exodus 37:3 He cast four gold rings for it at its four feet, two rings on each side.

Exodus 37:4 He made poles of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:5 He put the carrying-poles for the ark in the rings on the sides of the ark.

Exodus 37:6 He made a cover for the ark of pure gold, three-and-three-quarters feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide.

Exodus 37:7 He made two [k'ruvim] of gold; he made them of hammered work for the two ends of the ark-cover-

Exodus 37:8 one [keruv] for one end and one [keruv] for the other end; he made the [k'ruvim] of one piece with the ark-cover at its two ends.

Exodus 37:9 The [k'ruvim] had their wings spread out above, so that their wings covered the ark; their faces were toward each other and toward the ark-cover.

Exodus 37:10 He made the table of acacia-wood, three feet long, eighteen inches wide and eighteen inches high.

Exodus 37:11 He overlaid it with pure gold and put a molding of gold around the top of it.

Exodus 37:12 He made around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a molding of gold around the rim.

Exodus 37:13 He cast for it four gold rings and attached the rings to the four corners, near its four legs.

Exodus 37:14 The rings to hold the carrying-poles for the table were placed close to the rim.

Exodus 37:15 He made the carrying-poles for the table of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:16 He made the utensils to be put on the table- its dishes, pans, bowls and pitchers- of pure gold.

Exodus 37:17 He made the [menorah] of pure gold. He made it of hammered work; its base, shaft, cups, rings of outer leaves and flowers were a single unit.

Exodus 37:18 There were six branches extending from its sides, three branches of the [menorah] on one side of it and three on the other.

Exodus 37:19 On one branch were three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a ring of outer leaves and petals; likewise on the opposite branch three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a ring of outer leaves and petals; and similarly for all six branches extending from the [menorah].

Exodus 37:20 On the central shaft of the [menorah] were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its ring of outer leaves and petals.

Exodus 37:21 Where each pair of branches joined the central shaft was a ring of outer leaves of one piece with the pair of branches- thus for all six branches.

Exodus 37:22 Their rings of outer leaves and their branches were of one piece with the shaft. Thus the whole [menorah] was one piece of hammered work made of pure gold.

Exodus 37:23 He made its seven lamps, its tongs and its trays of pure gold.

Exodus 37:24 The [menorah] and its utensils were made of sixty-six pounds of pure gold.

Exodus 37:25 He made the altar on which to burn incense of acacia-wood, eighteen inches square and three feet high; its horns were a single unit.

Exodus 37:26 He overlaid it with pure gold- its top, all around its sides and its horns; and he put around it a molding of gold.

Exodus 37:27 He made two gold rings for it under its molding at the two corners on both sides, to hold the carrying-poles.

Exodus 37:28 He made the poles of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:29 He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of aromatic plant substances as would an expert perfume-maker. [(RY: iv, LY: vii)]

Exodus 38:1 He made the altar for burnt offerings of acacia-wood, seven-and-a-half feet long and seven-and-a-half feet wide- it was square- and four-and-a-half feet high.

Exodus 38:2 He made horns for it on its four corners, the horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

Exodus 38:3 He made all the utensils for the altar- its pots, shovels, basins, meat-hooks and fire pans; all its utensils he made of bronze.

Exodus 38:4 He made for the altar a grate of bronze netting, under its rim, reaching halfway up the altar.

Exodus 38:5 He cast four rings for the four ends of the bronze grate to hold the poles.

Exodus 38:6 He made the poles of acacia-wood and overlaid them with bronze.

Exodus 38:7 He put the carrying-poles into the rings on the sides of the altar; he made it of planks and hollow inside.

Exodus 38:8 He made the basin of bronze with its base of bronze from the mirrors of the women serving at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 38:9 He made the courtyard. On the south side, facing southward, the tapestries for the courtyard were made of finely woven linen, 150 feet long,

Exodus 38:10 supported on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets; the hooks on the posts and the attached rings for hanging were of silver.

Exodus 38:11 On the north side they were 150 feet long, hung on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets, with the hooks on the posts and their rings of silver.

Exodus 38:12 On the west side were tapestries seventy-five feet long, hung on ten posts in ten sockets, with the hooks on the posts and their rings of silver.

Exodus 38:13 On the east side were tapestries seventy-five feet long.

Exodus 38:14 The tapestries for the one side [[of the gateway]] were twenty-two-and-a-half feet long, hung on three posts in three sockets;

Exodus 38:15 likewise for the other side- on either side [[of the gate]] were tapestries twenty-two-and-a-half feet long on three posts in three sockets.

Exodus 38:16 All the tapestries for the courtyard, all the way around, were of finely woven linen;

Exodus 38:17 the sockets for the posts were of bronze; the hooks on the posts and their rings were of silver; the capitals of the posts were overlaid with silver; and all the posts of the courtyard were banded with silver.

Exodus 38:18 The screen for the gateway to the courtyard was the work of a weaver in colors, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. Its length was thirty feet and its height seven-and-a-half feet all the way along, like the tapestries of the courtyard.

Exodus 38:19 It had four posts in four bronze sockets, with silver hooks, capitals overlaid with silver and silver fasteners.

Exodus 38:20 The tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard around it were of bronze.

Exodus 38:21 These are the accounts of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, recorded, as Moshe ordered, by the [L'vi'im] under the direction of Itamar the son of Aharon, the [cohen.]

Exodus 38:22 B'tzal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Y'hudah, made everything that ADONAI ordered Moshe to make.

Exodus 38:23 Assisting him was Oholi'av the son of Achisamakh, of the tribe of Dan, who was an engraver, a designer and a weaver in colors- in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and in fine linen.

Exodus 38:24 All the gold used for the work in everything needed for the sanctuary, the gold of the offering, weighed 29 talents 730 [shekel]s [], using the sanctuary [shekel].

Exodus 38:25 The silver given by the community weighed 100 talents 1,775 [shekel]s [], using the sanctuary [shekel].

Exodus 38:26 This was a [beka] per person, that is, half a [shekel] [[one-fifth of an ounce]], using the sanctuary [shekel], for everyone twenty years old or older counted in the census, 603,550 men.

Exodus 38:27 The hundred talents of silver were used to cast the sockets for the sanctuary and the sockets for the curtain- one hundred sockets made from the hundred talents, one talent [[sixty-six pounds]] per socket.

Exodus 38:28 The 1,775 [shekel]s [[fifty pounds]] he used to make hooks for the posts, to overlay their capitals and to make fasteners for them.

Exodus 38:29 The bronze in the offering came to 4,680 pounds.

Exodus 38:30 He used it to make the sockets for the entrance to the tent of meeting, the bronze altar, its bronze grate, all the utensils for the altar,

Exodus 38:31 the sockets for the courtyard around it, the sockets for the gateway to the courtyard, all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and all the tent pegs for the courtyard around it.

Exodus 39:1 From the blue, purple and scarlet yarn they made the garments for officiating, for serving in the Holy Place; and they made the holy garments for Aharon, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:2 He made the ritual vest of gold, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely woven linen.

Exodus 39:3 They hammered the gold into thin plates and cut them into threads in order to work it into the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and the fine linen crafted by the skilled artisan.

Exodus 39:4 They made shoulder-pieces for it, joined together; they were joined together at the two ends.

Exodus 39:5 The decorated belt on the vest, used to fasten it, was of the same workmanship and materials- gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely twined linen- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:6 They worked the onyx stones, mounted in gold settings, engraving them with the names of the sons of Isra'el as they would be engraved on a seal.

Exodus 39:7 Then he put them on the shoulder-pieces of the vest to be stones calling to mind the sons of Isra'el, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:8 He made the breastplate; it was crafted by a skilled artisan and made like the work of the ritual vest [-] of gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely woven linen.

Exodus 39:9 When folded double, the breastplate was square-doubled, it was a hand-span by a hand-span.

Exodus 39:10 They set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a carnelian, a topaz and an emerald;

Exodus 39:11 the second row a green feldspar, a sapphire and a diamond;

Exodus 39:12 the third row an orange zircon, an agate and an amethyst;

Exodus 39:13 and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx and a jasper. They were mounted in settings of gold.

Exodus 39:14 The stones corresponded to the names of the twelve sons of Isra'el; they were engraved with their names as a seal would be engraved, each name representing one of the twelve tribes.

Exodus 39:15 On the breastplate they made two pure gold chains, twisted like cords.

Exodus 39:16 Also for the breastplate they made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and they put the two rings at the two ends of the breastplate.

Exodus 39:17 They put the two twisted gold chains in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate

Exodus 39:18 and attached the other two ends of the twisted chains to the front of the shoulder-pieces of the ritual vest[.]

Exodus 39:19 They also made two gold rings and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, at its edge, on the side facing in toward the vest[.]

Exodus 39:20 Also they made two gold rings and attached them low on the front part of the vest[']s shoulder-pieces, near the join, above the vest's decorated belt.

Exodus 39:21 Then they bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the vest with a blue cord, so that it could be on the vest's decorated belt, and so that the breastplate would not swing loose from the vest- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:22 He made the robe for the ritual vest; it was woven entirely of blue,

Exodus 39:23 with its opening in the middle, like that of a coat of mail, and with a border around the opening, so that it wouldn't tear.

Exodus 39:24 On the bottom hem they made pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet, and woven linen;

Exodus 39:25 and they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates all the way around the hem of the robe- between the pomegranates,

Exodus 39:26 that is, bell, pomegranate, bell, pomegranate, all the way around the hem of the robe for service- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:27 They made the tunics of finely woven linen for Aharon and his sons,

Exodus 39:28 the turban of fine linen, the splendid headgear of fine linen, the linen shorts, Exodus 39:29 and the sash of finely woven linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, the work of a weaver in colors- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:30 They made the ornament for the holy turban of pure gold; wrote on it the words, “Set apart for [ADONAI,]” like the engraving on a seal;

Exodus 39:31 and tied a blue cord on it to fasten it to the front of the turban- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:32 Thus all the work for the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was finished, with the people of Isra’el doing everything exactly as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Moshe- the tent and all its furnishings, clasps, planks, crossbars, posts and sockets;

Exodus 39:34 the covering of tanned ram skins, the covering of fine leather and the curtain for the screen;

Exodus 39:35 the ark for the testimony, its poles and the ark-cover;

Exodus 39:36 the table, all its utensils and the showbread;

Exodus 39:37 the pure [menorah], its lamps and their arrangement for display, its accessories and the oil for the light;

Exodus 39:38 the gold altar; the anointing oil; the fragrant incense; the screen for the entrance to the tent;

Exodus 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grate, poles and all its utensils; the basin with its base;

Exodus 39:40 the tapestries for the courtyard, with their posts and sockets; the screen for the entrance to the courtyard, with its ropes and tent pegs; all the utensils for the service in the tabernacle, the tent of meeting;

Exodus 39:41 the garments for officiating, for serving in the Holy Place; the holy garments for Aharon the [cohen]; and the garments for his sons to serve in the office of [cohen.]

Exodus 39:42 The people of Isra’el did all the work just as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 39:43 Moshe saw all the work, and- there it was!- they had done it! Exactly as ADONAI had ordered, they had done it. And Moshe blessed them. [(RY: vii, LY: v)]

Exodus 40:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Exodus 40:2 “On the first day of the first month, you are to set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:3 Put in it the ark for the testimony, and conceal the ark with the curtain.

Exodus 40:4 Bring in the table, and arrange its display. Bring in the [menorah], and light its lamps.

Exodus 40:5 Set the gold altar for incense in front of the ark for the testimony, and set up the screen at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:6 Place the altar for burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:7 Set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exodus 40:8 Set up the courtyard all the way around, and hang up the screen for the entrance to the courtyard.

Exodus 40:9 “Take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it- consecrate it with all its furnishings; then it will be holy.

Exodus 40:10 Anoint the altar for burnt offerings with all its utensils- consecrate the altar; then the altar will be especially holy.

Exodus 40:11 Anoint the basin and its base, and consecrate it.

Exodus 40:12 “Then bring Aharon and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water.

Exodus 40:13 Put the holy garments on Aharon, anoint him, and consecrate him, so that he can serve me in the office of [cohen.]

Exodus 40:14 Bring his sons, put tunics on them,

Exodus 40:15 and anoint them as you anointed their father, so that they can serve me in the office of [cohen.] Their anointing will signify that the office of [cohen] is theirs through all their generations.”

Exodus 40:16 Moshe did this- he acted in accordance with everything ADONAI had ordered him to do.

Exodus 40:17 On the first day of the first month of the second year, the tabernacle was set up.

Exodus 40:18 Moshe erected the tabernacle, put its sockets in place, put up its planks, put in its crossbars and set up its posts.

Exodus 40:19 He spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent above it, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:20 He took and put the testimony inside the ark, put the poles on the ark, and set the ark-cover above, on the ark.

Exodus 40:21 Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle, set up the curtain as a screen and concealed the ark for the testimony, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:22 He put the table in the tent of meeting on the side of the tabernacle facing north, outside the curtain.

Exodus 40:23 He arranged a row of bread on it before ADONAI, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:24 He put the [menorah] in the tent of meeting across from the table, on the side of the tabernacle facing south.

Exodus 40:25 Then he lit the lamps before ADONAI, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:26 He set the gold altar in the tent of meeting in front of the curtain

Exodus 40:27 and burned on it incense made from aromatic spices, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:28 He set up the screen at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:29 The altar for burnt offerings he placed at the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:30 He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing,

Exodus 40:31 so that Moshe and Aharon and his sons could wash their hands and feet there-

Exodus 40:32 so that they could wash when entering the tent of meeting and when approaching the altar, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Exodus 40:33 Finally, he erected the courtyard around the tabernacle and the altar and set up the screen for the entrance to the courtyard.

Exodus 40:34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of ADONAI filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:35 Moshe was unable to enter the tent of meeting, because the cloud remained on it, and the glory of ADONAI filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:36 Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Isra'el continued with all their travels.

Exodus 40:37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not travel onward until the day when it was taken up.

Exodus 40:38 For the cloud of ADONAI was above the tabernacle during the day, and fire was in [[the cloud]] at night, so that all the house of Isra'el could see it throughout all their travels.

Leviticus

1:1 ADONAI called to Moshe and spoke to him from the tent of meeting. He said,

Leviticus 1:2 "Speak to the people of Isra'el; say to them, 'When any of you brings an offering to ADONAI, you may bring your animal offering either from the herd or from the flock.

Leviticus 1:3 If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he must offer a male without defect. He is to bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, so that it can be accepted by [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 1:4 He is to lay his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

Leviticus 1:5 He is to slaughter the young bull before ADONAI; and the sons of Aharon, the [cohanim], are to present the blood. They are to splash the blood against all sides of the altar, which is by the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 1:6 He is to skin the burnt offering and cut it in pieces.

Leviticus 1:7 The descendants of Aharon the [cohen] are to put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Leviticus 1:8 The sons of Aharon, the [cohanim], are to arrange the pieces, the head and the fat on the wood which is on the fire on the altar.

Leviticus 1:9 He is to wash the entrails and lower parts of the legs with water, and the [cohen] is to cause all of it to go up in smoke on the altar as a burnt offering; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 1:10 "'If his offering is from the flock, whether from the sheep or from the goats, for a burnt offering, he must offer a male without defect.

Leviticus 1:11 He is to slaughter it on the north side of the altar before ADONAI; and the sons of Aharon, the [cohanim], are to splash its blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 1:12 He is to cut it into pieces, and the [cohen] is to arrange them with the head and fat on the wood which is on the fire on the altar.

Leviticus 1:13 He is to wash the entrails and lower parts of the legs with water; and the [cohen] is to offer it all and make it go up in smoke on the altar as a burnt offering; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 1:14 "'If his offering to ADONAI is a burnt offering of birds, he must offer a dove or a young pigeon.

Leviticus 1:15 The [cohen] is to bring it to the altar, snap off its head and make it go up in smoke on the altar; its blood is to be drained out on the side of the altar.

Leviticus 1:16 He is to remove the food pouch and its feathers from its neck and discard it on the pile of ashes just east of the altar.

Leviticus 1:17 He is to pull it open with a wing on each side, but without tearing it in half. The [cohen] is to make it go up in smoke on the altar, on the wood which is on the fire, as a burnt offering; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 2:1 "'Anyone who brings a grain offering to ADONAI is to make his offering of fine flour; he is to pour olive oil on it and put frankincense on it.

Leviticus 2:2 He is to bring it to the sons of Aharon, the [cohanim]. The [cohen] is to take a handful of fine flour from it, together with its olive oil and all its frankincense, and make this reminder portion go up in smoke on the altar as an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 2:3 But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aharon and his sons; it is an especially holy part of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire.

Leviticus 2:4 "'When you bring a grain offering which has been baked in the oven, it is to consist of either unleavened cakes made of fine flour mixed with olive oil or [matzah] spread with olive oil.

Leviticus 2:5 If your offering is a grain offering cooked on a griddle, it is to consist of unleavened fine flour mixed with olive oil;

Leviticus 2:6 you are to break it in pieces and pour olive oil on it- it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:7 If your offering is a grain offering cooked in a pot, it is to consist of fine flour with olive oil.

Leviticus 2:8 "'You are to bring the grain offering prepared in any of these ways to ADONAI; it is to be presented to the [cohen], and he is to bring it to the altar.

Leviticus 2:9 The [cohen] is to remove the reminder portion of the grain offering and make it go up in smoke on the altar as an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 2:10 But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aharon and his sons; it is an especially holy part of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire.

Leviticus 2:11 "'No grain offering that you bring to ADONAI is to be made with leaven, because you are not to cause any leaven or honey to go up in smoke as an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Leviticus 2:12 As an offering of firstfruits you may bring these to ADONAI, but they are not to be brought up onto the altar to make a fragrant aroma.

Leviticus 2:13 You are to season every grain offering of yours with salt- do not omit from your grain offering the salt of the covenant with your God, but offer salt with all your offerings.

Leviticus 2:14 "'If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to ADONAI, you are to bring as the grain offering from your firstfruits kernels of grain from fresh ears, dry-roasted with fire.

Leviticus 2:15 Put olive oil on it, and lay frankincense on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:16 The [cohen] is to cause the reminder portion of it, its grits and olive oil, with all its frankincense, to go up in smoke; it is an offering made by fire for ADONAI.

Leviticus 3:1 “‘If his offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings, then, if he offers before ADONAI an animal from the herd, then, no matter whether it is male or female, it must be without defect.

Leviticus 3:2 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aharon, the [cohanim], are to splash the blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 3:3 He is to present the sacrifice of the peace offerings as an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is to consist of the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs,

Leviticus 3:4 the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:5 Aharon’s sons will make it go up in smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering which is on the wood on the fire; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 3:6 “‘If his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI is from the flock, then, when he offers it, no matter whether it is male or female, it must be without defect.

Leviticus 3:7 If he brings a lamb for his offering, then he is to present it before [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 3:8 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aharon are to splash its blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 3:9 From the sacrifices made as peace offerings, he is to present ADONAI with an offering made by fire; it is to consist of its fat, the entire fat tail, which he will remove close to the lower backbone, the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs,

Leviticus 3:10 the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:11 The [cohen] will make it go up in smoke on the altar; it is food, an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Leviticus 3:12 “‘If his offering is a goat, then he is to present it before [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 3:13 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aharon are to splash its blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 3:14 He is to present from it his offering, an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is to consist of the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs,

Leviticus 3:15 the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:16 The [cohen] will make them go up in smoke on the altar; it is food, an offering made by fire to be a fragrant aroma; all the fat belongs to ADONAI.

Leviticus 3:17 It is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations wherever you live that you will eat neither fat nor blood.'"

Leviticus 4:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 4:2 "Tell the people of Isra'el: 'If anyone sins inadvertently against any of the [mitzvot] of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, if he does any one of them,

Leviticus 4:3 then, if it is the anointed [cohen] who sinned and thus brought guilt on the people, he is to offer ADONAI a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he committed.

Leviticus 4:4 He must bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before ADONAI, lay his hand on the bull's head and slaughter the bull in the presence of ADONAI.

Leviticus 4:5 The anointed [cohen] is to take some of the bull's blood and bring it to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:6 The [cohen] is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times in the presence of ADONAI in front of the curtain of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 4:7 The [cohen] is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for fragrant incense before ADONAI there in the tent of meeting. All the remaining blood of the bull he is to pour out at the base of the altar for burnt offerings, which is at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:8 He is to remove from the bull for the sin offering all of its fat- the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs,

Leviticus 4:9 the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys

Leviticus 4:10 as it is removed from an ox sacrificed as a peace offering; and the [cohen] is to make these parts go up in smoke on the altar for burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:11 But the bull's hide and all its flesh, with its head, the lower parts of its legs, its inner organs and dung-

Leviticus 4:12 in other words, the entire bull- he is to bring outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are emptied out. There he is to burn it on wood with fire; there, where the ashes are emptied out, it is to be burned up.

Leviticus 4:13 "'If the entire community of Isra'el inadvertently makes a mistake, with the assembly being unaware of the matter, and they do something against any of the [mitzvot] of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, they are guilty.

Leviticus 4:14 When the sin they have committed becomes known, then the assembly is to offer a young bull as a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:15 The leaders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull’s head and slaughter the bull in the presence of ADONAI.

Leviticus 4:16 The anointed [cohen] is to bring some of the bull’s blood to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:17 The [cohen] is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times in the presence of ADONAI in front of the curtain.

Leviticus 4:18 He is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar before ADONAI, there in the tent of meeting. All the remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar for burnt offerings, which is at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:19 He is to remove all its fat and make it go up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 4:20 This is what he is to do with the bull- he must do the same with this bull as he does with the one for the sin offering. Thus the [cohen] will make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:21 He is to bring the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

Leviticus 4:22 “‘When a leader sins and inadvertently does something against any of the [mitzvot] of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, he is guilty.

Leviticus 4:23 If the sin which he committed becomes known to him, he is to bring as his offering a male goat without defect,

Leviticus 4:24 lay his hand on the goat’s head and slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering in the presence of ADONAI; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 4:25 The [cohen] is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. Its remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar for burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:26 All its fat he is to make go up in smoke on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice for peace offerings; thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him in regard to his sin, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:27 “‘If an individual among the people commits a sin inadvertently, doing something against any of the [mitzvot] of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, he is guilty.

Leviticus 4:28 If the sin he committed becomes known to him, he is to bring as his offering a female goat without defect for the sin he committed, Leviticus 4:29 lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter the sin offering in the place of burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:30 The [cohen] is to take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. All its remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:31 All its fat he is to remove, as the fat is removed from the sacrifice for peace offerings; and the [cohen] is to make it go up in smoke on the altar as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. Thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:32 "'If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he is to bring a female without defect,

Leviticus 4:33 lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it as a sin offering in the place where they slaughter burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:34 The [cohen] is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. All its remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:35 All its fat he is to remove, as the fat of a lamb is removed from the sacrifice for peace offerings; and the [cohen] is to make it go up in smoke on the altar on top of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire. Thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him in regard to the sin he committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:1 "'If a person who is a witness, sworn to testify, sins by refusing to tell what he has seen or heard about the matter, he must bear the consequences.

Leviticus 5:2 If a person touches something unclean, whether the carcass of an unclean wild animal, a domestic animal or a reptile, he is guilty, even though he may not be aware that he is unclean.

Leviticus 5:3 If he touches some human uncleanness, no matter what the source of his uncleanness is, and is unaware of it, then, when he learns of it, he is guilty.

Leviticus 5:4 If someone allows to slip from his mouth an oath to do evil or to do good, and he doesn't remember that he clearly spoke this oath, then, no matter what it was about, when he learns of it, he is guilty.

Leviticus 5:5 A person guilty of any of these things is to confess in what manner he sinned

Leviticus 5:6 and bring his guilt offering to ADONAI for the sin he committed; it is to be a female from the flock, either a lamb or a goat, as a sin offering; and the [cohen] will make atonement for him in regard to his sin.

Leviticus 5:7 "'If he can't afford a lamb, he is to bring as his guilt offering for the sin he committed two doves or two young pigeons for ADONAI- the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 5:8 He is to bring them to the [cohen], who will offer the one for a sin offering first. He is to wring its neck but not remove the head, Leviticus 5:9 sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar and drain out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:10 He is to prepare the second as a burnt offering in the manner prescribed. Thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him in regard to the sin which he committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:11 "'But if his means are insufficient even for two doves or two young pigeons, then he is to bring as his offering for the sin he committed two quarts of fine flour for a sin offering; he is not to put any olive oil or frankincense on it, because it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:12 He is to bring it to the [cohen], and the [cohen] is to take a handful of it as its reminder portion and make it go up in smoke on the altar on top of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:13 Thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him in regard to the sin he committed concerning any of these things, and he will be forgiven. The rest will belong to the [cohanim], as with a grain offering.'"

Leviticus 5:14 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 5:15 "If anyone acts improperly and inadvertently sins in regard to the holy things of ADONAI, he is to bring as his guilt offering for ADONAI a ram without defect from the flock or its equivalent in silver [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel] as the standard), according to your appraisal of its value; it is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 5:16 In addition, he is to make restitution for whatever he did wrong in regard to the holy thing; moreover, he is to add to that one-fifth and give it to the [cohen]. Then the [cohen] will make atonement with the ram of the guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:17 "If someone sins by doing something against any of the [mitzvot] of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, he is guilty, even if he is unaware of it; and he bears the consequences of his wrongdoing.

Leviticus 5:18 He must bring a ram without defect from the flock, or its equivalent according to your appraisal, to the [cohen] for a guilt offering; the [cohen] will make atonement concerning the error which he committed, even though he was unaware of it; and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:19 It is a guilt offering- he is certainly guilty before ADONAI."

Leviticus 5:20 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 5:21 "If someone sins and acts perversely against ADONAI by dealing falsely with his neighbor in regard to a deposit or security entrusted to him, by stealing from him, by extorting him,

Leviticus 5:22 or by dealing falsely in regard to a lost object he has found, or by swearing to a lie- if a person commits any of these sins,

Leviticus 5:23 then, if he sinned and is guilty, he is to restore whatever it was he stole or obtained by extortion, or whatever was deposited with him, or the lost object which he found,

Leviticus 5:24 or anything about which he has sworn falsely. He is to restore it in full plus an additional one-fifth; he must return it to the person who owns it, on the day when he presents his guilt offering.

Leviticus 5:25 He is to bring as his guilt offering to ADONAI a ram without defect from the flock, or its equivalent according to your appraisal, to the [cohen]; it is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 5:26 Thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him before ADONAI, and he will be forgiven in regard to whatever it was he did that made him guilty.

Leviticus 6:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 6:2 "Give this order to Aharon and his sons: 'This is the law for the burnt offering <N1>: it is what goes up <N2> on its firewood upon the altar all night long, until morning; in this way the fire of the altar will be kept burning.

Leviticus 6:3 When the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, the [cohen], having put on his linen garment and covered himself with his linen shorts, is to remove the ashes and put them beside the altar.

Leviticus 6:4 Then he is to remove those garments and put on others, before carrying the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

Leviticus 6:5 In this way, the fire on the altar will be kept burning and not be allowed to go out. Each morning, the [cohen] is to kindle wood on it, arrange the burnt offering and make the fat of the peace offerings go up in smoke.

Leviticus 6:6 Fire is to be kept burning on the altar continually; it is not to go out.

Leviticus 6:7 "'This is the law for the grain offering: the sons of Aharon are to offer it before ADONAI in front of the altar.

Leviticus 6:8 He is to take from the grain offering a handful of its fine flour, some of its olive oil and all of the frankincense which is on the grain offering; and he is to make this reminder portion of it go up in smoke on the altar as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 6:9 The rest of it Aharon and his sons are to eat; it is to be eaten without leaven in a holy place- they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:10 It is not to be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire; like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is especially holy.

Leviticus 6:11 Every male descendant of Aharon may eat from it; it is his share of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire forever through all your generations. Whatever touches those offerings will become holy.'"

Leviticus 6:12 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 6:13 "This is the offering for ADONAI that Aharon and his sons are to offer on the day he is anointed: two quarts of fine flour, half of it in the morning and half in the evening, as a grain offering from then on.

Leviticus 6:14 It is to be well mixed with olive oil and fried on a griddle; then bring it in, break it in pieces and offer the grain offering as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 6:15 The anointed [cohen] who will take Aharon's place from among his descendants will offer it; it is a perpetual obligation. It must be entirely made to go up in smoke for ADONAI;

Leviticus 6:16 every grain offering of the [cohen] is to be entirely made to go up in smoke- it is not to be eaten."

Leviticus 6:17 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 6:18 "Tell Aharon and his sons, 'This is the law for the sin offering: the sin offering is to be slaughtered before ADONAI in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is especially holy.

Leviticus 6:19 The [cohen] who offers it for sin is to eat it- it is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:20 Whatever touches its flesh will become holy; if any of its blood splashes on any item of clothing, you are to wash it in a holy place.

Leviticus 6:21 The clay pot in which it is cooked must be broken; if it is cooked in a bronze pot, it must be scoured and rinsed in water.

Leviticus 6:22 Any male from a family of [cohanim] may eat the sin offering; it is especially holy.

Leviticus 6:23 But no sin offering which has had any of its blood brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place is to be eaten; it is to be burned up completely.

Leviticus 7:1 "'This is the law for the guilt offering: it is especially holy.

Leviticus 7:2 They are to slaughter the guilt offering in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering, and its blood is to be splashed against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 7:3 He is to offer all its fat- the fat tail, the fat covering the inner organs,

Leviticus 7:4 the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 7:5 The [cohen] will make them go up in smoke on the altar as an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 7:6 Every male from a family of [cohanim] may eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place; it is especially holy.

Leviticus 7:7 The guilt offering is like the sin offering; the same law governs them- it will belong to the [cohen] who uses it to make atonement.

Leviticus 7:8 "'The [cohen] who offers someone's burnt offering will possess the hide of the burnt offering which he has offered.

Leviticus 7:9 "'Every grain offering baked in the oven, cooked in a pot or fried on a griddle will belong to the [cohen] who offers it.

Leviticus 7:10 But every grain offering which is mixed with olive oil or is dry will belong to all the sons of Aharon equally.

Leviticus 7:11 "'This is the law for sacrificing peace offerings offered to ADONAI:

Leviticus 7:12 If a person offers it for giving thanks, he is to offer it with the thanksgiving sacrifice of unleavened cakes mixed with olive oil, [matzah] spread with olive oil, and cakes made of fine flour mixed with olive oil and fried.

Leviticus 7:13 With cakes of leavened bread he is to present his offering together with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for giving thanks.

Leviticus 7:14 From each kind of offering he is to present one as a gift for ADONAI; it will belong to the [cohen] who splashes the blood of the peace offerings against the altar.

Leviticus 7:15 The meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for giving thanks is to be eaten on the day of his offering; he is not to leave any of it until morning.

Leviticus 7:16 But if the sacrifice connected with his offering is for a vow or is a voluntary offering, then, while it is to be eaten on the day he offers his sacrifice, what remains of it may be eaten the next day.

Leviticus 7:17 However, what remains of the meat of the sacrifice on the third day is to be burned up completely.

Leviticus 7:18 If any of the meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten on the third day, the sacrifice will neither be accepted nor credited to the person offering it; rather, it will have become a disgusting thing, and whoever eats it will bear the consequences of his wrongdoing.

Leviticus 7:19 Meat which touches something unclean is not to be eaten but burned up completely. As for the meat, everyone who is clean may eat it;

Leviticus 7:20 but a person in a state of uncleanness who eats any meat from the sacrifice of peace offerings made to ADONAI will be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:21 Anyone who touches something unclean- whether the uncleanness be from a person, from an unclean animal or from some other unclean detestable thing- and then eats the meat from the sacrifice of peace offerings for ADONAI, that person will be cut off from his people.'"

Leviticus 7:22 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 7:23 "Say to the people of Isra'el, 'You are not to eat the fat of bulls, sheep or goats.

Leviticus 7:24 The fat of animals that die of themselves or are killed by wild animals may be used for any other purpose, but under no circumstances are you to eat it.

Leviticus 7:25 For whoever eats the fat of animals of the kind used in presenting an offering made by fire to ADONAI will be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:26 You are not to eat any kind of blood, whether from birds or animals, in any of your homes.

Leviticus 7:27 Whoever eats any blood will be cut off from his people.'"

Leviticus 7:28 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 7:29 "Say to the people of Isra'el, 'A person who offers his sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI is to bring part of his sacrifice of peace offerings as his offering for ADONAI.

Leviticus 7:30 He is to bring with his own hands the offerings for ADONAI made by fire- he is to bring the breast with its fat. The breast is to be waved as a wave offering before ADONAI.

Leviticus 7:31 The [cohen] is to make the fat go up in smoke on the altar, but the breast will belong to Aharon and his descendants.

Leviticus 7:32 You are to give the right thigh from your sacrifices of peace offerings to the [cohen] as a contribution.

Leviticus 7:33 The descendant of Aharon who offers the blood of the peace offerings is to have the right thigh as his share.

Leviticus 7:34 For the breast that has been waved and the thigh that has been contributed I have taken from the people of Isra'el out of their sacrifices of peace offerings and given them to Aharon the [cohen] and to his descendants as their share forever from the people of Isra’el.’“

Leviticus 7:35 On the day when Aharon and his sons were presented to serve ADONAI in the office of [cohen], this portion was set aside for him and his descendants from the offerings for ADONAI made by fire.

Leviticus 7:36 On the day they were anointed, ADONAI ordered that this be given to them by the people of Isra’el. It is their share forever through all their generations.

Leviticus 7:37 This is the law for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the consecration offering and the sacrifice of peace offerings

Leviticus 7:38 which ADONAI ordered Moshe on Mount Sinai on the day he ordered the people of Isra’el to present their offerings to ADONAI, in the Sinai Desert.

Leviticus 8:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 8:2 “Take Aharon and his sons with him, the garments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams and the basket of [matzah];

Leviticus 8:3 and assemble the entire community at the entrance to the tent of meeting.”

Leviticus 8:4 Moshe did as ADONAI ordered him, and the community was assembled at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 8:5 Moshe said to the community, “This is what ADONAI has ordered to be done.”

Leviticus 8:6 Moshe brought Aharon and his sons, washed them with water,

Leviticus 8:7 put the tunic on him, wrapped the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, put the ritual vest on him, wrapped around him the decorated belt and fastened the vest to him with it.

Leviticus 8:8 He put the breastplate on him, and on the breastplate he put the [urim] and [tumim].

Leviticus 8:9 He set the turban on his head, and on the front of the turban he affixed the gold plate, the holy ornament, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 8:10 Then Moshe took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything in it, thus consecrating them.

Leviticus 8:11 He sprinkled some on the altar seven times, anointing the altar with all its utensils and the basin with its base, to consecrate them.

Leviticus 8:12 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aharon’s head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

Leviticus 8:13 Moshe brought Aharon’s sons, clothed them with tunics, wrapped sashes on them and put headgear on them, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 8:14 Then the young bull for the sin offering was brought, and Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering.

Leviticus 8:15 After it had been slaughtered, Moshe took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar all the way around with his finger, thus purifying the altar. The remaining blood he poured out at the base of the altar and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.

Leviticus 8:16 Moshe took all the fat on the inner organs, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and made it go up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 8:17 But the bull, its hide, its flesh and its dung were taken outside the camp and burned up completely, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 8:18 Next, the ram for the burnt offering was presented. Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram;

Leviticus 8:19 and after it had been slaughtered, Moshe splashed the blood on all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 8:20 When the ram had been cut in pieces, Moshe made the head, the pieces and the fat go up in smoke.

Leviticus 8:21 When the inner organs and the lower parts of the legs had been washed with water, Moshe made the entire ram go up in smoke on the altar; it was a burnt offering giving a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire to ADONAI- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 8:22 Then the other ram was presented, the ram of consecration; Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

Leviticus 8:23 After it had been slaughtered, Moshe took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aharon’s right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 8:24 Next Aharon’s sons were brought, and Moshe put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet; then Moshe splashed the blood on all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 8:25 He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat covering the inner organs, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:26 From the basket of [matzah] that was before ADONAI he took one piece of [matzah], one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:27 Then he put it all in Aharon’s hands and in the hands of his sons and waved them as a wave offering before ADONAI.

Leviticus 8:28 Moshe took them out of their hands and made them go up in smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering; they were a consecration offering giving a fragrant aroma; an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Leviticus 8:29 Moshe took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before ADONAI; it was Moshe’s portion of the ram of consecration- as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 8:30 Moshe took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar and sprinkled it on Aharon and his clothing, and on his sons with him and their clothing, and consecrated Aharon and his clothing together with his sons and their clothing.

Leviticus 8:31 Moshe said to Aharon and his sons, “Boil the meat at the door of the tent of meeting; and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I ordered when I said that Aharon and his sons are to eat it.

Leviticus 8:32 Whatever is left over of the meat and bread you are to burn up completely.

Leviticus 8:33 You are not to go out from the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration are over; since ADONAI will be consecrating you for seven days.

Leviticus 8:34 He ordered done what has been done today, in order to make atonement for you.

Leviticus 8:35 You are to remain at the entrance to the tent of meeting day and night for seven days, thereby obeying what ADONAI ordered done, so that you may not die. For this is what I was ordered.”

Leviticus 8:36 Aharon and his sons did all the things which ADONAI ordered through Moshe.

Leviticus 9:1 On the eighth day, Moshe called Aharon, his sons and the leaders of Isra’el, Leviticus 9:2 and said to Aharon, “Take a male calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without defect, and offer them before ADONAI.

Leviticus 9:3 Then tell the people of Isra’el, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering and a calf and a lamb, both a year old and without defect, for a burnt offering,

Leviticus 9:4 and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before ADONAI; also a grain offering mixed with olive oil- because today ADONAI is going to appear to you.’“

Leviticus 9:5 They brought what Moshe had ordered before the tent of meeting, and the whole community approached and stood before ADONAI.

Leviticus 9:6 Moshe said, “This is what ADONAI has ordered you to do, so that the glory of ADONAI will appear to you.”

Leviticus 9:7 Moshe told Aharon, “Approach the altar, offer your sin offering and burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and the people. Then present the offering of the people and make atonement for them, as ADONAI ordered.”

Leviticus 9:8 So Aharon approached the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering which was for himself.

Leviticus 9:9 The sons of Aharon presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; then he poured out the blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 9:10 But the fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver of the sin offering he made go up in smoke on the altar, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 9:11 The meat and the skin were burned up completely outside the camp.

Leviticus 9:12 Next he slaughtered the burnt offering; Aharon’s sons brought him the blood, and he splashed it against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 9:13 They brought him the burnt offering, piece by piece, and the head; and he made them go up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 9:14 He washed the inner organs and the lower parts of the legs and made them go up in smoke on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

Leviticus 9:15 Then the people’s offering was presented. He took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the earlier sin offering.

Leviticus 9:16 The burnt offering was presented, and he offered it in the prescribed manner.

Leviticus 9:17 The grain offering was presented; he took a handful of it and made it go up in smoke on the altar, in addition to the morning’s burnt offering.

Leviticus 9:18 He slaughtered the ox and the ram, the people’s sacrifice as peace offerings; Aharon’s sons brought him the blood, which he splashed against all sides of the altar,

Leviticus 9:19 and the fat of the ox and of the ram- the fat tail, the fat which covers the inner organs, the kidneys and the covering of the liver.

Leviticus 9:20 They put the fat on the breasts, and he made the fat go up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 9:21 The breasts and right thigh Aharon waved as a wave offering before ADONAI, as Moshe had ordered.

Leviticus 9:22 Aharon raised his hands toward the people, blessed them and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

Leviticus 9:23 Moshe and Aharon entered the tent of meeting, came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of ADONAI appeared to all the people!

Leviticus 9:24 Fire came forth from the presence of ADONAI, consuming the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10:1 But Nadav and Avihu, sons of Aharon, each took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and offered unauthorized fire before ADONAI, something he had not ordered them to do.

Leviticus 10:2 At this, fire came forth from the presence of ADONAI and consumed them, so that they died in the presence of ADONAI.

Leviticus 10:3 Moshe said to Aharon, “This is what ADONAI said: ‘Through those who are near me I will be consecrated, and before all the people I will be glorified.’“ Aharon kept silent.

Leviticus 10:4 Moshe called Misha’el and Eltzafan, sons of ‘Uzi’el Aharon’s uncle, and told them, “Come here, and carry your cousins away from in front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp.”

Leviticus 10:5 They approached and carried them in their tunics out of the camp, as Moshe had said.

Leviticus 10:6 Then Moshe told Aharon and his sons El’azar and Itamar, “Don’t unbind your hair or tear your clothes in mourning, so that you won’t die and so that ADONAI won’t be angry with the entire community. Rather, let your kinsmen- the whole house of Isra’el- mourn, because of the destruction ADONAI brought about with his fire.

Leviticus 10:7 Moreover, don’t leave the entrance to the tent of meeting, or you will die, because ADONAI’s anointing oil is on you.”

Leviticus 10:8 ADONAI said to Aharon,

Leviticus 10:9 “Don’t drink any wine or other intoxicating liquor, neither you nor your sons with you, when you enter the tent of meeting, so that you will not die. This is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations,

Leviticus 10:10 so that you will distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;

Leviticus 10:11 and so that you will teach the people of Isra’el all the laws ADONAI has told them through Moshe.”

Leviticus 10:12 Moshe said to Aharon and to El’azar and Itamar, his remaining sons, “Take the grain offering left from the offerings for ADONAI made by fire, and eat it without leaven next to the altar, because it is especially holy.

Leviticus 10:13 Eat it in a holy place, because it is your and your sons' share of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire; for this is what I have been ordered.

Leviticus 10:14 The breast that was waved and the thigh that was raised you are to eat in a clean place- you, your sons and your daughters with you; for these are given as your and your children's share of the sacrifices of the peace offerings presented by the people of Isra'el.

Leviticus 10:15 They are to bring the raised thigh and the waved breast, along with the offerings of fat made by fire, and wave it as a wave offering before ADONAI; then it will belong to you and your descendants with you as your perpetual share, as ADONAI has ordered."

Leviticus 10:16 Then Moshe carefully investigated what had happened to the goat of the sin offering and discovered that it had been burned up. He became angry with El'azar and Itamar, the remaining sons of Aharon, and asked,

Leviticus 10:17 "Why didn't you eat the sin offering in the area of the sanctuary, since it is especially holy? He gave it to you to take away the guilt of the community, to make atonement for them before ADONAI.

Leviticus 10:18 Look! Its blood wasn't brought into the sanctuary! You should have eaten it there in the sanctuary, as I ordered."

Leviticus 10:19 Aharon answered Moshe, "Even though they offered their sin offering and burnt offering today, things like these have happened to me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have pleased ADONAI?"

Leviticus 10:20 On hearing this reply, Moshe was satisfied.

Leviticus 11:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Leviticus 11:2 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'These are the living creatures which you may eat among all the land animals:

Leviticus 11:3 any that has a separate hoof which is completely divided and chews the cud- these animals you may eat.

Leviticus 11:4 But you are not to eat those that only chew the cud or only have a separate hoof. For example, the camel, the coney and the hare are unclean for you, because they chew the cud but don't have a separate hoof;

Leviticus 11:5

Leviticus 11:6

Leviticus 11:7 while the pig is unclean for you, because, although it has a separate and completely divided hoof, it doesn't chew the cud.

Leviticus 11:8 You are not to eat meat from these or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:9 “‘Of all the things that live in the water, you may eat these: anything in the water that has fins and scales, whether in seas or in rivers- these you may eat.

Leviticus 11:10 But everything in the seas and rivers without both fins and scales, of all the small water-creatures and of all the living creatures in the water, is a detestable thing for you.

Leviticus 11:11 Yes, these will be detestable for you- you are not to eat their meat, and you are to detest their carcasses.

Leviticus 11:12 Whatever lacks fins and scales in the water is a detestable thing for you.

Leviticus 11:13 “‘The following creatures of the air are to be detestable for you- they are not to be eaten, they are a detestable thing: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,

Leviticus 11:14 the kite, the various kinds of buzzards,

Leviticus 11:15 the various kinds of ravens,

Leviticus 11:16 the ostrich, the screech-owl, the seagull, the various kinds of hawks,

Leviticus 11:17 the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl,

Leviticus 11:18 the horned owl, the pelican, the barn owl,

Leviticus 11:19 the stork, the various kinds of herons, the hoopoe and the bat.

Leviticus 11:20 “‘All winged swarming creatures that go on all fours are a detestable thing for you;

Leviticus 11:21 except that of all winged swarming creatures that go on all fours, you may eat those that have jointed legs above their feet, enabling them to jump off the ground.

Leviticus 11:22 Specifically, of these you may eat the various kinds of locusts, grasshoppers, katydids and crickets.

Leviticus 11:23 But other than that, all winged swarming creatures having four feet are a detestable thing for you.

Leviticus 11:24 “‘The following will make you unclean; whoever touches the carcass of them will be unclean until evening,

Leviticus 11:25 and whoever picks up any part of their carcass is to wash his clothes and be unclean until evening:

Leviticus 11:26 every animal that has a separate but incompletely divided hoof or that doesn’t chew the cud is unclean for you; anyone who touches them will become unclean.

Leviticus 11:27 Whatever goes on its paws, among all animals that go on all fours, is unclean for you; whoever touches its carcass will be unclean until evening;

Leviticus 11:28 and whoever picks up its carcass is to wash his clothes and be unclean until evening- these are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:29 “‘The following are unclean for you among the small creatures that swarm on the ground: the weasel, the mouse, the various kinds of lizards,

Leviticus 11:30 the gecko, the land crocodile, the skink, the sand-lizard and the chameleon.

Leviticus 11:31 They are unclean crawling creatures; whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:32 Anything on which one of them falls when dead will become unclean- wooden utensil, article of clothing, leather, sacking- any utensil used for work; it must be put in water, and it will be unclean until evening; then it will be clean.

Leviticus 11:33 If one of them falls into a clay pot, whatever is in it will become unclean, and you are to break the pot.

Leviticus 11:34 Any food permitted to be eaten that water from such a vessel gets on will become unclean, and any permitted liquid in such a vessel will become unclean.

Leviticus 11:35 Everything on which any carcass-part of theirs falls will become unclean, whether oven or stove; it is to be broken in pieces- they are unclean and will be unclean for you;

Leviticus 11:36 although a spring or cistern for collecting water remains clean. But anyone who touches one of their carcasses will become unclean.

Leviticus 11:37 If any carcass-part of theirs falls on any kind of seed to be sown, it is clean;

Leviticus 11:38 but if water is put on the seed and a carcass-part of theirs falls on it, it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:39 “‘If an animal of a kind that you are permitted to eat dies, whoever touches its carcass will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:40 A person who eats meat from its carcass or carries its carcass is to wash his clothes; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:41 “‘Any creature that swarms on the ground is a detestable thing; it is not to be eaten-

Leviticus 11:42 whatever moves on its stomach, goes on all fours, or has many legs- all creatures that swarm on the ground; you are not to eat them, because they are a detestable thing.

Leviticus 11:43 You are not to make yourselves detestable with any of these swarming, crawling creatures; do not make yourselves unclean with them, do not defile yourselves with them.

Leviticus 11:44 For I am ADONAI your God; therefore, consecrate yourselves and be holy, for I am holy; and do not defile yourselves with any kind of swarming creature that moves along the ground.

Leviticus 11:45 For I am ADONAI, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God. Therefore you are to be holy, because I am holy.

Leviticus 11:46 “‘Such, then, is the law concerning animals, flying creatures, all living creatures that move about in the water, and all creatures that swarm on the ground.

Leviticus 11:47 Its purpose is to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.’“

Leviticus 12:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 12:2 “Tell the people of Isra’el: ‘If a woman conceives and gives birth to a boy, she will be unclean for seven days with the same uncleanness as in [niddah], when she is having her menstrual period.

Leviticus 12:3 On the eighth day, the baby’s foreskin is to be circumcised.

Leviticus 12:4 She is to wait an additional thirty-three days to be purified from her blood; she is not to touch any holy thing or come into the sanctuary until the time of her purification is over.

Leviticus 12:5 But if she gives birth to a girl, she will be unclean for two weeks, as in her [niddah]; and she is to wait another sixty-six days to be purified from her blood.

Leviticus 12:6 “‘When the days of her purification are over, whether for a son or for a daughter, she is to bring a lamb in its first year for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or dove for a sin offering to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the [cohen].

Leviticus 12:7 He will offer it before ADONAI and make atonement for her; thus she will be purified from her discharge of blood. Such is the law for a woman who gives birth, whether to a boy or to a girl.

Leviticus 12:8 If she can’t afford a lamb, she is to take two doves or two young pigeons, the one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; the [cohen] will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’“

Leviticus 13:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Leviticus 13:2 “If someone develops on his skin a swelling, scab or bright spot which could develop into the disease [tzara’at], he is to be brought to Aharon the [cohen] or to one of his sons who are [cohanim.]

Leviticus 13:3 The [cohen] is to examine the sore on his skin; if the hair in the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to go deep into the skin, it is [tzara’at], and after examining him the [cohen] is to declare him unclean.

Leviticus 13:4 If the bright spot on his skin is white, but it does not appear to go deep into the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the [cohen] is to isolate him for seven days.

Leviticus 13:5 On the seventh day the [cohen] is to examine him again, and if the sore appears the same as before and has not spread on the skin, then the [cohen] is to isolate him for seven more days.

Leviticus 13:6 On the seventh day the [cohen] is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and hasn't spread on the skin, then the [cohen] is to declare him clean- it is only a scab, so he is to wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:7 But if the scab spreads further on the skin after he has been examined by the [cohen] and declared clean, he is to let himself be examined yet again by the [cohen].

Leviticus 13:8 The [cohen] will examine him, and if he sees that the scab has spread on his skin, then the [cohen] will declare him unclean; it is [tzara'at].

Leviticus 13:9 "If a person has [tzara'at], he is to be brought to the [cohen].

Leviticus 13:10 The [cohen] is to examine him, and if he sees that there is a white swelling in the skin which has turned the hair white and inflamed flesh in the swelling,

Leviticus 13:11 then it is chronic [tzara'at] on his skin, and the [cohen] is to declare him unclean; he is not to isolate him, because it is already clear that he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:12 If the [tzara'at] breaks out all over the skin, so that, as far as the [cohen] can see, the person with [tzara'at] has sores everywhere on his body, from his head to his feet;

Leviticus 13:13 then the [cohen] is to examine him, and if he sees that the [tzara'at] has covered his entire body, he is to pronounce the person with the sores clean- it has all turned white, and he is clean.

Leviticus 13:14 But if one day inflamed flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.

Leviticus 13:15 The [cohen] will examine the inflamed flesh and declare him unclean; the inflamed flesh is unclean; it is [tzara'at.]

Leviticus 13:16 However, if the inflamed flesh again turns white, he is to come to the [cohen].

Leviticus 13:17 The [cohen] will examine him, and if he sees that the sores have turned white, then the [cohen] is to declare clean the person with the sores; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:18 "If a person has on his skin a boil that heals

Leviticus 13:19 in such a way that in place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white bright spot, it is to be shown to the [cohen].

Leviticus 13:20 The [cohen] is to examine it; if he sees that it appears to be more than skin-deep, and its hair has turned white, then the [cohen] is to pronounce him unclean- the disease of [tzara'at] has broken out in the boil.

Leviticus 13:21 But if the [cohen] looks at it and doesn't see any white hairs in it, and it isn't more than skin-deep but appears faded, the [cohen] is to isolate him for seven days.

Leviticus 13:22 If it spreads on the skin, the [cohen] is to declare him unclean; it is the disease.

Leviticus 13:23 But if the bright spot stays where it was and has not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the [cohen] is to declare him clean.

Leviticus 13:24 "Or if someone has on his skin a burn caused by fire; and the inflamed flesh where it was burned has become a bright spot, reddish-white or white,

Leviticus 13:25 then the [cohen] is to examine it; and if he sees that the hair in the bright spot has turned white and that it appears to be deeper than the skin around it, it is [tzara'at]; it has broken out in the burn, and the [cohen] is to declare him unclean; it is a sore from [tzara'at.]

Leviticus 13:26 But if the [cohen] examines it and sees no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no lower than the skin around it but looks faded, then the [cohen] is to isolate him for seven days.

Leviticus 13:27 On the seventh day the [cohen] is to examine him; if it has spread on the skin, then the [cohen] is to declare him unclean; it is a sore from [tzara'at].

Leviticus 13:28 But if the bright spot stays where it was and has not spread on the skin but appears faded, it is a swelling due to the burn; and the [cohen] is to declare him clean; because it is only a scar from the burn.

Leviticus 13:29 "If a man or woman has a sore on the head or a man in his beard,

Leviticus 13:30 then the [cohen] is to examine the sore; if he sees that it appears to be deeper than the skin around it, with yellow, thin hair in it, then the [cohen] is to declare him unclean; it is a crusted area, a [tzara'at] of the head or beard.

Leviticus 13:31 If the [cohen] examines the diseased crusted area and sees that it appears not to be deeper than the skin around it, and without any black hair in it, then the [cohen] is to isolate for seven days the person with the diseased crusted area.

Leviticus 13:32 On the seventh day the [cohen] is to examine the sore, and if he sees that the crusted area hasn't spread, that it has no yellow hair in it, and that the crusted area is not deeper than the skin around it;

Leviticus 13:33 then the person is to be shaved, except for the crusted area itself, and the [cohen] is to isolate him for seven more days.

Leviticus 13:34 On the seventh day the [cohen] is to examine the crusted area; and if he sees that the crusted area has not spread on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the skin around it, then the [cohen] is to declare him clean; he is to wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:35 But if the crusted area spreads after his purification,

Leviticus 13:36 then the [cohen] is to examine him; and if he sees that the crusted area has spread on the skin, the [cohen] is not to look for yellow hair; he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:37 But if the crusted area's appearance doesn't change, and black hair grows up in it, then the crusted area is healed; he is clean; and the [cohen] is to declare him clean.

Leviticus 13:38 "If a man or woman has bright spots on his skin, bright white spots;

Leviticus 13:39 then the [cohen] is to examine them. If he sees that the bright spots on the skin are dull white, it is only a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:40 "If a man's hair has fallen from his scalp, he is bald; but he is clean.

Leviticus 13:41 If his hair has fallen off the front part of his head, he is forehead-bald; but he is clean.

Leviticus 13:42 But if on the bald scalp or forehead there is a reddish-white sore, it is [tzara'at] breaking out on his bald scalp or forehead.

Leviticus 13:43 Then the [cohen] is to examine him; if he sees that there is a reddish-white swelling on his bald scalp or forehead, appearing like [tzara'at] on the rest of the body,

Leviticus 13:44 he is a person with [tzara'at]; he is unclean; the [cohen] must declare him unclean; the sore is on his head.

Leviticus 13:45 "Everyone who has [tzara'at] sores is to wear torn clothes and unbound hair, cover his upper lip and cry, 'Unclean! Unclean!'

Leviticus 13:46 As long as he has sores, he will be unclean; since he is unclean, he must live in isolation; he must live outside the camp.

Leviticus 13:47 "When [tzara'at] infects an article of clothing, whether it be a woolen or a linen garment, Leviticus 13:48 on the threads or the woven-in parts of either linen or wool, or on a hide or item made of leather;

Leviticus 13:49 then if the stain on the garment, hide, threads, woven-in parts or leather item is greenish or reddish, it is an infection of [tzara'at] and is to be shown to the [cohen].

Leviticus 13:50 The [cohen] is to examine the stain and isolate the article that has the infection for seven days.

Leviticus 13:51 On the seventh day he is to examine the stain; if the stain has spread on the garment, threads, woven-in parts or leather, whatever its use, the infection is a contagious [tzara'at]; the garment is unclean.

Leviticus 13:52 He is to burn the garment, threads, woven-in parts of either wool or linen, or item of leather having the infection; for it is a contagious [tzara'at]; it must be burned up completely.

Leviticus 13:53 But if, when the [cohen] examines it, he sees that the infection has not spread on the garment or in the threads, woven-in parts or leather item,

Leviticus 13:54 then the [cohen] is to order that the article having the infection be washed and isolated for seven more days.

Leviticus 13:55 The [cohen] is to examine it after the stain has been washed, and if he sees that the stain has not changed color, then, even though the stain has not spread, it is unclean; you are to burn it up completely- it is rotten, no matter whether the spot is on the outside or on the inside.

Leviticus 13:56 If the [cohen] examines it and sees that the stain has faded after being washed, then he is to tear the stain out of the garment, leather, threads or woven-in parts.

Leviticus 13:57 If it appears again in the garment, threads, woven-in parts or leather item, it is contagious, and you are to burn up completely the article that had the stain.

Leviticus 13:58 But if the infection is gone from the garment, threads, woven-in parts or leather item that you washed, then it is to be washed a second time, and it will be clean.

Leviticus 13:59 This is the law concerning infections of [tzara'at] in a garment of wool or linen, or in the threads or the woven-in parts, or in any leather item- when to declare it clean and when to declare it unclean.

Leviticus 14:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 14:2 "This is to be the law concerning the person afflicted with [tzara'at] on the day of his purification. He is to be brought to the [cohen], Leviticus 14:3 and the [cohen] is to go outside the camp and examine him there. If he sees that the [tzara'at] sores have been healed in the afflicted person,

Leviticus 14:4 then the [cohen] will order that two living clean birds be taken for the one to be purified, along with cedar-wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop leaves.

Leviticus 14:5 The [cohen] is to order one of the birds slaughtered in a clay pot over running water.

Leviticus 14:6 As for the live bird, he is to take it with the cedar-wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird slaughtered over running water,

Leviticus 14:7 and sprinkle the person to be purified from the [tzara'at] seven times. Next he is to set the live bird free in an open field.

Leviticus 14:8 He who is to be purified must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and bathe himself in water. Then he will be clean; and after that, he may enter the camp; but he must live outside his tent for seven days.

Leviticus 14:9 On the seventh day he is to shave all the hair off his head, also his beard and eyebrows- he must shave off all his hair; and he is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; and he will be clean.

Leviticus 14:10 "On the eighth day he is to take two male lambs without defect, one female lamb in its first year without defect and six-and-a-half quarts of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with olive oil, and two-thirds of a pint of olive oil.

Leviticus 14:11 The [cohen] purifying him is to place the person being purified with these items before ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 14:12 The [cohen] is to take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering with the two-thirds-pint of olive oil, then wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:13 He is to slaughter the male lamb at the place in the sanctuary for slaughtering sin offerings and burnt offerings, because the guilt offering belongs to the [cohen], just like the sin offering; it is especially holy.

Leviticus 14:14 The [cohen] is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:15 Next, the [cohen] is to take some of the two-thirds-pint of olive oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand,

Leviticus 14:16 dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and sprinkle from the oil with his finger seven times before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:17 Then the [cohen] is to put some of the remaining oil in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand, on the big toe of his right foot and on the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:18 Finally, the [cohen] is to put the rest of the oil in his hand on the head of the person being purified; and the [cohen] will make atonement for him before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:19 The [cohen] is to offer the sin offering and make atonement for the person being purified because of his uncleanness; afterwards, he is to slaughter the burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:20 The [cohen] is to offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar; thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him; and he will be clean.

Leviticus 14:21 “If he is poor, so that he can’t afford to do otherwise, he is to take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for him; two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; two-thirds of a pint of olive oil;

Leviticus 14:22 and two doves or two young pigeons, such as he can afford, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:23 On the eighth day, he will bring them to the [cohen] for his purification, to the entrance of the tent of meeting before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:24 The [cohen] is to take the lamb of the guilt offering and the two-thirds of a pint of olive oil and wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:25 He is to slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering; and the [cohen] is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:26 The [cohen] is to take some of the olive oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand,

Leviticus 14:27 and sprinkle with his right hand some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:28 The [cohen] is to put some of the oil in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand, on the big toe of his right foot- in the same place as the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:29 Finally, the [cohen] is to put the rest of the oil in his hand on the head of the person being purified, to make atonement for him before ADONAI.

Leviticus 14:30 He is to offer one of the doves or young pigeons, such as the person can afford,

Leviticus 14:31 whatever his means suffice for- the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering- with the grain offering; thus the [cohen] will make atonement before ADONAI for the person being purified.

Leviticus 14:32 Such is the law for the person who has [tzara'at] sores if he cannot afford the usual elements used for his purification."

Leviticus 14:33 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Leviticus 14:34 "When you have entered the land of Kena'an which I am giving you as a possession, and I put an infection of [tzara'at] in a house in the land that you possess,

Leviticus 14:35 then the owner of the house is to come and tell the [cohen], 'It seems to me that there may be an infection in the house.'

Leviticus 14:36 The [cohen] is to order the house emptied before he goes in to inspect the infection, so that everything in the house won't be made unclean; afterwards, the [cohen] is to enter and inspect the house.

Leviticus 14:37 He will examine the infection; and if he sees that the infection is in the walls of the house, with greenish or reddish depressions that seem to go in deeper than the surface of the wall,

Leviticus 14:38 he is to go out of the house to its door and seal up the house for seven days.

Leviticus 14:39 The [cohen] will come again on the seventh day and examine the house; if he sees that the infection has spread over its walls,

Leviticus 14:40 he is to order them to remove the infected stones and throw them into some unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:41 Next, he is to have the inside of the house thoroughly scraped, and the scraped-off plaster is to be discarded outside the city in an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:42 Finally, other stones must be set in the place of the first stones and other plaster used to replaster the house.

Leviticus 14:43 If the infection returns and breaks out in the house after the stones have been removed and the house scraped and plastered;

Leviticus 14:44 then the [cohen] is to enter and examine it. If he sees that the infection has spread in the house, it is a contagious [tzara'at] in the house; it is unclean.

Leviticus 14:45 He must break down the house and take its stones, timber and plaster out of the city to an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:46 Moreover, whoever enters the house at any time while it is sealed up will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 14:47 Whoever lies down or eats in the house must wash his clothes.

Leviticus 14:48 If the [cohen] enters, examines and sees that the infection has not spread in the house since it was plastered; then he is to declare the house clean; because the infection is cured.

Leviticus 14:49 "To purify the house, he is to take two birds, cedar-wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop leaves.

Leviticus 14:50 He is to slaughter one of the birds in a clay pot over running water.

Leviticus 14:51 He is to take the cedar-wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn and the live bird and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Leviticus 14:52 He will purify the house with the blood of the bird, the running water, the live bird, the cedar-wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn.

Leviticus 14:53 But he is to set the live bird free outside the city in an open field; thus will he make atonement for the house; and it will be clean.

Leviticus 14:54 “Such is the law for all kinds of [tzara’at] sores, for a crusted area,

Leviticus 14:55 for [tzara’at] in a garment, for a house,

Leviticus 14:56 for a swelling, for a scab and for a bright spot,

Leviticus 14:57 to determine when it is clean and when it is unclean. This is the law concerning [tzara’at].”

Leviticus 15:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Leviticus 15:2 “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, the discharge is unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 The discharge is unclean no matter whether it continues flowing or has stopped; it is still his uncleanness.

Leviticus 15:4 Every bed which the person with the discharge lies on is unclean, and everything he sits on is unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 Whoever touches his bed is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:6 Whoever sits on anything the person with the discharge sat on is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:7 Anyone who touches the body of the person with the discharge is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:8 If the person with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, the latter is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:9 Any saddle that the person with the discharge rides on will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:10 Whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until evening; he who carries those things is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:11 If the person with the discharge fails to rinse his hands in water before touching someone, that person is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:12 If the person with the discharge touches a clay pot, it must be broken; if he touches a wooden utensil, it must be rinsed in water.

Leviticus 15:13 "'When a person with a discharge has become free of it, he is to count seven days for his purification. Then he is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water; after that, he will be clean.

Leviticus 15:14 On the eighth day, he is to take for himself two doves or two young pigeons, come before ADONAI to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the [cohen].

Leviticus 15:15 The [cohen] is to offer them, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering; thus the [cohen] will make atonement for him on account of his discharge before ADONAI.

Leviticus 15:16 "'If a man has a seminal emission, he is to bathe his entire body in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:17 Any clothing or leather on which there is any semen is to be washed with water; it will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:18 If a man goes to bed with a woman and has sexual relations, both are to bathe themselves in water; they will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:19 "'If a woman has a discharge, and the discharge from her body is blood, she will be in her state of [niddah] for seven days. Whoever touches her will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:20 Everything she lies on or sits on in her state of [niddah] will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 Whoever touches her bed is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:22 Whoever touches anything she sits on is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:23 Whether he is on the bed or on something she sits on, when he touches it, he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:24 If a man goes to bed with her, and her menstrual flow touches him, he will be unclean seven days; and every bed he lies on will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 "'If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days not during her period, or if her discharge lasts beyond the normal end of her period, then throughout the time she is having an unclean discharge she will be as when she is in [niddah]- she is unclean.

Leviticus 15:26 Every bed she lies on at any time while she is having her discharge will be for her like the bed she uses during her time of [niddah]; and everything she sits on will be unclean with uncleanness like that of her time of [niddah.]

Leviticus 15:27 Whoever touches those things will be unclean; he is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:28 "'If she has become free of her discharge, she is to count seven days; after that, she will be clean.

Leviticus 15:29 On the eighth day, she is to take for herself two doves or two young pigeons and bring them to the [cohen] at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 15:30 The [cohen] is to offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering; thus the [cohen] will make atonement for her before ADONAI on account of her unclean discharge.

Leviticus 15:31 "'In this way you will separate the people of Isra'el from their uncleanness, so that they will not die in a state of uncleanness for defiling my tabernacle which is there with them.

Leviticus 15:32 "'Such is the law for the person who has a discharge; for the man who has a seminal emission that makes him unclean;

Leviticus 15:33 for the woman in [niddah] during her menstrual period; for the person, man or woman, with a discharge; and for the man who has sexual relations with a woman who is unclean.

Leviticus 16:1 ADONAI spoke with Moshe after the death of Aharon's two sons, when they tried to sacrifice before ADONAI and died;

Leviticus 16:2 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Tell your brother Aharon not to come at just any time into the Holy Place beyond the curtain, in front of the ark-cover which is on the ark, so that he will not die; because I appear in the cloud over the ark-cover.

Leviticus 16:3 "Here is how Aharon is to enter the Holy Place: with a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:4 He is to put on the holy linen tunic, have the linen shorts next to his bare flesh, have the linen sash wrapped around him, and be wearing the linen turban- they are the holy garments. He is to bathe his body in water and put them on.

Leviticus 16:5 "He is to take from the community of the people of Isra'el two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:6 Aharon is to present the bull for the sin offering which is for himself and make atonement for himself and his household.

Leviticus 16:7 He is to take the two goats and place them before ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 16:8 Then Aharon is to cast lots for the two goats, one lot for ADONAI and the other for 'Az'azel.

Leviticus 16:9 Aharon is to present the goat whose lot fell to ADONAI and offer it as a sin offering.

Leviticus 16:10 But the goat whose lot fell to ‘Az’azel is to be presented alive to ADONAI to be used for making atonement over it by sending it away into the desert for ‘Az’azel.

Leviticus 16:11 “Aharon is to present the bull of the sin offering for himself; he will make atonement for himself and his household; he is to slaughter the bull of the sin offering which is for himself.

Leviticus 16:12 He is to take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before ADONAI and, with his hands full of ground, fragrant incense, bring it inside the curtain.

Leviticus 16:13 He is to put the incense on the fire before ADONAI, so that the cloud from the incense will cover the ark-cover which is over the testimony, in order that he not die.

Leviticus 16:14 He is to take some of the bull’s blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the ark-cover toward the east; and in front of the ark-cover he is to sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

Leviticus 16:15 “Next, he is to slaughter the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, bring its blood inside the curtain and do with its blood as he did with the bull’s blood, sprinkling it on the ark-cover and in front of the ark-cover.

Leviticus 16:16 He will make atonement for the Holy Place because of the uncleannesses of the people of Isra’el and because of their transgressions- all their sins; and he is to do the same for the tent of meeting which is there with them right in the middle of their uncleannesses.

Leviticus 16:17 No one is to be present in the tent of meeting from the time he enters the Holy Place to make atonement until the time he comes out, having made atonement for himself, for his household and for the entire community of Isra’el.

Leviticus 16:18 Then he is to go out to the altar that is before ADONAI and make atonement for it; he is to take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood and put it on all the horns of the altar.

Leviticus 16:19 He is to sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, thus purifying it and setting it apart from the uncleannesses of the people of Isra’el.

Leviticus 16:20 “When he has finished atoning for the Holy Place, the tent of meeting and the altar, he is to present the live goat.

Leviticus 16:21 Aharon is to lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the transgressions, crimes and sins of the people of Isra’el; he is to put them on the head of the goat and then send it away into the desert with a man appointed for the purpose.

Leviticus 16:22 The goat will bear all their transgressions away to some isolated place, and he is to let the goat go in the desert.

Leviticus 16:23 “Aharon is to go back into the tent of meeting, where he is to remove the linen garments he put on when he entered the Holy Place, and he is to leave them there.

Leviticus 16:24 Then he is to bathe his body in water in a holy place, put on his other clothes, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, thus making atonement for himself and for the people.

Leviticus 16:25 He is to make the fat of the sin offering go up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 16:26 “The man who let go the goat for ‘Az’azel is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; afterwards, he may return to the camp.

Leviticus 16:27 “The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, is to be carried outside the camp; there they are to burn up completely their hides, meat and dung.

Leviticus 16:28 The person burning them is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; afterwards, he may return to the camp.

Leviticus 16:29 “It is to be a permanent regulation for you that on the tenth day of the seventh month you are to deny yourselves and not do any kind of work, both the citizen and the foreigner living with you.

Leviticus 16:30 For on this day, atonement will be made for you to purify you; you will be clean before ADONAI from all your sins.

Leviticus 16:31 It is a [Shabbat] of complete rest for you, and you are to deny yourselves. “This is a permanent regulation.

Leviticus 16:32 The [cohen] anointed and consecrated to be [cohen] in his father’s place will make the atonement; he will put on the linen garments, the holy garments;

Leviticus 16:33 he will make atonement for the Especially Holy Place; he will make atonement for the tent of meeting and the altar; and he will make atonement for the [cohanim] and for all the people of the community.

Leviticus 16:34 This is a permanent regulation for you, to make atonement for the people of Isra’el because of all their sins once a year.” Moshe did as ADONAI had ordered him. [(LY: iv)]

Leviticus 17:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 17:2 “Speak to Aharon and his sons and to all the people of Isra’el. Tell them that this is what ADONAI has ordered:

Leviticus 17:3 ‘When someone from the community of Isra’el slaughters an ox, lamb or goat inside or outside the camp

Leviticus 17:4 without bringing it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to present it as an offering to ADONAI before the tabernacle of ADONAI, he is to be charged with blood- he has shed blood, and that person is to be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 17:5 The reason for this is so that the people of Isra'el will bring their sacrifices that they sacrifice out in the field- so that they will bring them to ADONAI, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the [cohen], and sacrifice them as peace offerings to ADONAI.

Leviticus 17:6 The [cohen] will splash the blood against the altar of ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting and make the fat go up in smoke as a pleasing aroma for [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 17:7 No longer will they offer sacrifices to the goat-demons, before whom they prostitute themselves! This is a permanent regulation for them through all their generations.'

Leviticus 17:8 "Also tell them, 'When someone from the community of Isra'el or one of the foreigners living with you offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

Leviticus 17:9 without bringing it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to sacrifice it to ADONAI, that person is to be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 17:10 When someone from the community of Isra'el or one of the foreigners living with you eats any kind of blood, I will set myself against that person who eats blood and cut him off from his people.

Leviticus 17:11 For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for yourselves; for it is the blood that makes atonement because of the life.'

Leviticus 17:12 This is why I told the people of Isra'el, 'None of you is to eat blood, nor is any foreigner living with you to eat blood.'

Leviticus 17:13 "When someone from the community of Isra'el or one of the foreigners living with you hunts and catches game, whether animal or bird that may be eaten, he is to pour out its blood and cover it with earth.

Leviticus 17:14 For the life of every creature- its blood is its life. Therefore I said to the people of Isra'el, 'You are not to eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood. Whoever eats it will be cut off.'

Leviticus 17:15 "Anyone eating an animal that dies naturally or is torn to death by wild animals, whether he is a citizen or a foreigner, is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening; then he will be clean.

Leviticus 17:16 But if he doesn't wash them or bathe his body, he will bear the consequences of his wrongdoing."

Leviticus 18:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 18:2 “Speak to the people of Isra’el; tell them, ‘I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 18:3 You are not to engage in the activities found in the land of Egypt, where you used to live; and you are not to engage in the activities found in the land of Kena’an, where I am bringing you; nor are you to live by their laws.

Leviticus 18:4 You are to obey my rulings and laws and live accordingly; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 18:5 You are to observe my laws and rulings; if a person does them, he will have life through them; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 18:6 “‘None of you is to approach anyone who is a close relative in order to have sexual relations; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 18:7 You are not to have sexual relations with your father, and you are not to have sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother- do not have sexual relations with her.

Leviticus 18:8 You are not to have sexual relations with your father’s wife; that is your father’s prerogative.

Leviticus 18:9 You are not to have sexual relations with your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere. Do not have sexual relations with them.

Leviticus 18:10 You are not to have sexual relations with your son’s daughter or with your daughter’s daughter. Do not have sexual relations with them, because their sexual disgrace will be your own.

Leviticus 18:11 You are not to have sexual relations with your father’s wife’s daughter, born to your father, because she is your sister; do not have sexual relations with her.

Leviticus 18:12 You are not to have sexual relations with your father’s sister, because she is your father’s close relative.

Leviticus 18:13 You are not to have sexual relations with your mother’s sister, because she is your mother’s close relative.

Leviticus 18:14 You are not to disgrace your father’s brother by having sexual relations with his wife, because she is your aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 You are not to have sexual relations with your daughter-in-law; because she is your son’s wife. Do not have sexual relations with her.

Leviticus 18:16 You are not to have sexual relations with your brother’s wife, because this is your brother’s prerogative.

Leviticus 18:17 “‘You are not to have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter, nor are you to have sexual relations with her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter; they are close relatives of hers, and it would be shameful.

Leviticus 18:18 You are not to take a woman to be a rival with her sister and have sexual relations with her while her sister is still alive.

Leviticus 18:19 You are not to approach a woman in order to have sexual relations with her when she is unclean from her time of [niddah].

Leviticus 18:20 You are not to go to bed with your neighbor's wife and thus become unclean with her.

Leviticus 18:21 "'You are not to let any of your children be sacrificed to Molekh, thereby profaning the name of your God; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 18:22 "'You are not to go to bed with a man as with a woman; it is an abomination.

Leviticus 18:23 "'You are not to have sexual relations with any kind of animal and thus become unclean with it; nor is any woman to present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; it is perversion.

Leviticus 18:24 "'Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these things, because all the nations which I am expelling ahead of you are defiled with them.

Leviticus 18:25 The land has become unclean, and this is why I am punishing it- the land itself will vomit out its inhabitants.

Leviticus 18:26 But you are to keep my laws and rulings and not engage in any of these disgusting practices, neither the citizen nor the foreigner living with you;

Leviticus 18:27 for the people of the land have committed all these abominations, and the land is now defiled.

Leviticus 18:28 If you make the land unclean, it will vomit you out too, just as it is vomiting out the nation that was there before you.

Leviticus 18:29 For those who engage in any of these disgusting practices, whoever they may be, will be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 18:30 So keep my charge not to follow any of these abominable customs that others before you have followed and thus defile yourselves by doing them. I am ADONAI your God.'"

Leviticus 19:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 19:2 "Speak to the entire community of Isra'el; tell them, 'You people are to be holy because I, ADONAI your God, am holy.

Leviticus 19:3 "'Every one of you is to revere his father and mother, and you are to keep my [Shabbat]s; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 19:4 "'Do not turn to idols, and do not cast metal gods for yourselves; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 19:5 "'When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI, offer it in a way that will make you accepted.

Leviticus 19:6 It is to be eaten the same day you offer it and the following day; but if any of it remains until the third day, it is to be burned up completely.

Leviticus 19:7 If any of it is eaten on the third day, it will have become a disgusting thing and will not be accepted;

Leviticus 19:8 moreover, everyone who eats it will bear the consequences of profaning something holy meant for ADONAI- that person will be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 19:9 "'When you harvest the ripe crops produced in your land, don't harvest all the way to corners of your field, and don't gather the ears of grain left by the harvesters.

Leviticus 19:10 Likewise, don't gather the grapes left on the vine or fallen on the ground after harvest; leave them for the poor and the foreigner; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 19:11 "'Do not steal from, defraud or lie to each other.

Leviticus 19:12 Do not swear by my name falsely, which would be profaning the name of your God; I am [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 19:13 Do not oppress or rob your neighbor; specifically, you are not to keep back the wages of a hired worker all night until morning.

Leviticus 19:14 "'Do not speak a curse against a deaf person or place an obstacle in the way of a blind person; rather, fear your God; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 19:15 "'Do not be unjust in judging- show neither partiality to the poor nor deference to the mighty, but with justice judge your neighbor.

Leviticus 19:16 "'Do not go around spreading slander among your people, but also don't stand idly by when your neighbor's life is at stake; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 19:17 "'Do not hate your brother in your heart, but rebuke your neighbor frankly, so that you won't carry sin because of him.

Leviticus 19:18 Don't take vengeance on or bear a grudge against any of your people; rather, love your neighbor as yourself; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 19:19 "'Observe my regulations. "'Don't let your livestock mate with those of another kind, don't sow your field with two different kinds of grain, and don't wear a garment of cloth made with two different kinds of thread.

Leviticus 19:20 "'If a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave intended for another man, and she has neither been redeemed nor given her freedom, there is to be an investigation. They are not to be put to death, because she was not free.

Leviticus 19:21 In reparation he is to bring a ram as a guilt offering for himself to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 19:22 The [cohen] will make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before ADONAI for the sin he committed, and he will be forgiven for the sin he committed.

Leviticus 19:23 "'When you enter the land and plant various kinds of fruit trees, you are to regard its fruit as forbidden- for three years it will be forbidden to you and not eaten.

Leviticus 19:24 In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, for praising ADONAI.

Leviticus 19:25 But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, so that it will produce even more for you; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 19:26 "'Do not eat anything with blood. Do not practice divination or fortune-telling.

Leviticus 19:27 Don't round your hair at the temples or mar the edges of your beard.

Leviticus 19:28 Don't cut gashes in your flesh when someone dies or tattoo yourselves; I am [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 19:29 "'Do not debase your daughter by making her a prostitute, so that the land will not fall into prostitution and become full of shame.

Leviticus 19:30 "'Keep my [Shabbat]s, and revere my sanctuary; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 19:31 "'Do not turn to spirit-mediums or sorcerers; don't seek them out, to be defiled by them; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 19:32 "'Stand up in the presence of a person with gray hair, show respect for the old; you are to fear your God; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 19:33 "'If a foreigner stays with you in your land, do not do him wrong.

Leviticus 19:34 Rather, treat the foreigner staying with you like the native-born among you- you are to love him as yourself, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 19:35 "'Don't be dishonest when measuring length, weight or capacity.

Leviticus 19:36 Rather, use an honest balance-scale, honest weights, an honest bushel dry[-]measure and an honest gallon liquid-measure; I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Leviticus 19:37 Observe all my regulations and rulings, and do them; I am ADONAI.'" [(LY: v)]

Leviticus 20:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 20:2 "Say to the people of Isra'el, 'If someone from the people of Isra'el or one of the foreigners living in Isra'el sacrifices one of his children to Molekh, he must be put to death; the people of the land are to stone him to death.

Leviticus 20:3 I too will set myself against him and cut him off from his people, because he has sacrificed his child to Molekh, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name.

Leviticus 20:4 If the people of the land look the other way when that man sacrifices his child to Molekh and fail to put him to death,

Leviticus 20:5 then I will set myself against him, his family and everyone who follows him to go fornicating after Molekh, and cut them off from their people.

Leviticus 20:6 “‘The person who turns to spirit-mediums and sorcerers to go fornicating after them- I will set myself against him and cut him off from his people.

Leviticus 20:7 Therefore consecrate yourselves- you people must be holy, because I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 20:8 Observe my regulations, and obey them; I am ADONAI, who sets you apart to be holy.

Leviticus 20:9 “‘A person who curses his father or mother must be put to death; having cursed his father or his mother, his blood is on him.

Leviticus 20:10 “‘If a man commits adultery with another man’s wife, that is, with the wife of a fellow countryman, both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

Leviticus 20:11 The man who goes to bed with his father’s wife has disgraced his father sexually, and both of them must be put to death; their blood is on them.

Leviticus 20:12 If a man goes to bed with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death; they have committed a perversion, and their blood is on them.

Leviticus 20:13 If a man goes to bed with a man as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they must be put to death; their blood is on them.

Leviticus 20:14 If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is depravity; they are to be put to death by fire, both he and they, so that there will not be depravity among you.

Leviticus 20:15 If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he must be put to death, and you are to kill the animal.

Leviticus 20:16 If a woman approaches an animal and has sexual relations with it, you are to kill the woman and the animal; their blood will be on them.

Leviticus 20:17 If a man takes his sister, his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter, and has sexual relations with her, and she consents, it is a shameful thing; they are to be cut off publicly- he has had sexual relations with his sister, and he will bear the consequences of their wrongdoing.

Leviticus 20:18 If a man goes to bed with a woman in her menstrual period and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her blood, and she has exposed the source of her blood; both of them are to be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 20:19 You are not to have sexual relations with your mother’s sister or your father’s sister; a person who does this has had sexual relations with his close relative; they will bear the consequences of their wrongdoing.

Leviticus 20:20 If a man goes to bed with his uncle’s wife, he has disgraced his uncle sexually; they will bear the consequences of their sin and die childless.

Leviticus 20:21 If a man takes his brother’s wife, it is uncleanness; he has disgraced his brother sexually; they will be childless.

Leviticus 20:22 “‘You are to observe all my regulations and rulings and act on them, so that the land to which I am bringing you will not vomit you out.

Leviticus 20:23 Do not live by the regulations of the nation which I am expelling ahead of you; because they did all these things, which is why I detested them.

Leviticus 20:24 But to you I have said, “You will inherit their land; I will give it to you as a possession, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am ADONAI your God, who has set you apart from other peoples.

Leviticus 20:25 Therefore you are to distinguish between clean and unclean animals and between clean and unclean birds; do not make yourselves detestable with an animal, bird or reptile that I have set apart for you to regard as unclean.

Leviticus 20:26 Rather, you people are to be holy for me; because I, ADONAI, am holy; and I have set you apart from the other peoples, so that you can belong to me.

Leviticus 20:27 “‘A man or woman who is a spirit-medium or sorcerer must be put to death; they are to stone them to death; their blood will be on them.’“

Leviticus 21:1 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Speak to the[cohanim], the sons of Aharon; tell them: ‘No [cohen] is to make himself unclean for any of his people who dies,

Leviticus 21:2 except for his close relatives- his mother, father, son, daughter and brother;

Leviticus 21:3 he may also make himself unclean for his virgin sister who has never married and is therefore dependent on him.

Leviticus 21:4 He may not make himself unclean, because he is a leader among his people; doing so would profane him.

Leviticus 21:5 [Cohanim] are not to make bald spots on their heads, mar the edges of their beards or cut gashes in their flesh.

Leviticus 21:6 Rather, they are to be holy for their God and not profane the name of their God. For they are the ones who present ADONAI with offerings made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore they must be holy.

Leviticus 21:7 “‘A [cohen] is not to marry a woman who is a prostitute, who has been profaned or who has been divorced; because he is holy for his God.

Leviticus 21:8 Rather, you are to set him apart as holy, because he offers the bread of your God; he is to be holy for you, because I, ADONAI, who makes you holy, am holy.

Leviticus 21:9 The daughter of a [cohen] who profanes herself by prostitution profanes her father; she is to be put to death by fire.

Leviticus 21:10 “‘The [cohen] who is ranked highest among his brothers, the one on whose head the anointing oil is poured and who is consecrated to put on the garments, is not to stop grooming his hair, tear his clothes,

Leviticus 21:11 go in to where any dead body is or make himself unclean, even when his father or mother dies.

Leviticus 21:12 He may not leave the sanctuary then or profane the sanctuary of his God, because the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 21:13 “‘He is to marry a virgin;

Leviticus 21:14 he may not marry a widow, divorcee, profaned woman or prostitute; but he must marry a virgin from among his own people

Leviticus 21:15 and not disqualify his descendants among his people; because I am ADONAI, who makes him holy.’“

Leviticus 21:16 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 21:17 “Tell Aharon, ‘None of your descendants who has a defect may approach to offer the bread of his God.

Leviticus 21:18 No one with a defect may approach- no one blind, lame, with a mutilated face or a limb too long,

Leviticus 21:19 a broken foot or a broken arm,

Leviticus 21:20 a hunched back, stunted growth, a cataract in his eye, festering or running sores, or damaged testicles-

Leviticus 21:21 no one descended from Aharon the [cohen] who has such a defect may approach to present the offerings for ADONAI made by fire; he has a defect and is not to approach to offer the bread of his God.

Leviticus 21:22 He may eat the bread of his God, both the especially holy and the holy;

Leviticus 21:23 only he is not to go in to the curtain or approach the altar, because he has a defect- so that he will not profane my holy places, because I am ADONAI, who makes them holy.'"

Leviticus 21:24 Moshe said these things to Aharon, his sons and all the people of Isra'el.

Leviticus 22:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 22:2 "Tell Aharon and his sons to separate themselves from the holy things of the people of Isra'el which they set apart as holy for me, so that they will not profane my holy name; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:3 Tell them, 'Any descendant of yours through all your generations who approaches the holy things that the people of Isra'el consecrate to ADONAI and is unclean will be cut off from before me; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:4 "'Any descendant of Aharon with [tzara'at] or a discharge is not to eat the holy things until he is clean. Anyone who has touched a person made unclean by a dead body, or who has had a seminal emission,

Leviticus 22:5 or who has touched a reptile or insect that can make him unclean, or a man who is unclean for any reason and who can transmit to him his uncleanness-

Leviticus 22:6 the person who touches any of these will be unclean until evening and is not to eat the holy things unless he bathes his body in water.

Leviticus 22:7 After sunset he will be clean; and afterwards, he may eat the holy things; because they are his food.

Leviticus 22:8 But he is not to eat anything that dies naturally or is torn to death by wild animals and thereby make himself unclean; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:9 The [cohanim] must observe this charge of mine; otherwise, if they profane it, they will bear the consequences of their sin for doing so and die in it; I am ADONAI, who makes them holy.

Leviticus 22:10 "'No one who is not a [cohen] may eat anything holy, nor may a tenant or employee of a [cohen] eat anything holy.

Leviticus 22:11 But if a [cohen] acquires a slave, either through purchase or through his being born in his household, he may share his food.

Leviticus 22:12 If the daughter of a [cohen] is married to a man who is not a [cohen], she is not to have a share of the food set aside from the holy things.

Leviticus 22:13 But if the daughter of a [cohen] is a widow or divorcee and has no child, and she is sent back to her father's house as when she was young, she may share in her father's food; but no one not a [cohen] is to share in it.

Leviticus 22:14 If a person eats holy food by mistake, he must add one-fifth to it and give the holy food to the [cohen.]

Leviticus 22:15 They are not to profane the holy things of the people of Isra'el that they have set apart for ADONAI

Leviticus 22:16 and thus cause them to bear guilt requiring a guilt offering, by eating their holy things; because I am ADONAI, who makes them holy.'"

Leviticus 22:17 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 22:18 "Speak to Aharon and his sons and to the entire people of Isra'el; tell them: 'When anyone, whether a member of the house of Isra'el or a foreigner living in Isra'el, brings his offering, either in connection with a vow or as a voluntary offering, and brings it to ADONAI as a burnt offering,

Leviticus 22:19 in order for you to be accepted, you must bring a male without defect from the cattle, the sheep or the goats.

Leviticus 22:20 You are not to bring anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted from you.

Leviticus 22:21 Whoever brings a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI in fulfillment of a vow or as a voluntary offering, whether it come from the herd or from the flock, it must be unblemished and without defect in order to be accepted.

Leviticus 22:22 If it is blind, injured, mutilated, has an abnormal growth or has festering or running sores, you are not to offer it to ADONAI or make such an offering by fire on the altar to ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:23 If a bull or lamb has a limb which is too long or short, you may offer it as a voluntary offering; but for a vow it will not be accepted.

Leviticus 22:24 An animal with bruised, crushed, torn or cut genitals you are not to offer to ADONAI. You are not to do these things in your land,

Leviticus 22:25 and you are not to receive any of these from a foreigner for you to offer as bread for your God, because their deformity is a defect in them- they will not be accepted from you.'"

Leviticus 22:26 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 22:27 "When a bull, sheep or goat is born, it is to stay with its mother for seven days; but from the eighth day on, it may be accepted for an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:28 However, no animal is to be slaughtered together with its young on the same day, neither cow nor ewe.

Leviticus 22:29 "When you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to ADONAI, you must do it in a way such that you will be accepted.

Leviticus 22:30 It must be eaten on the same day it is offered; leave none of it till morning; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:31 “You are to keep my [mitzvot] and obey them; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 22:32 You are not to profane my holy name; on the contrary, I am to be regarded as holy among the people of Isra’el; I am ADONAI, who makes you holy,

Leviticus 22:33 who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am ADONAI.”

Leviticus 23:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 23:2 “Tell the people of Isra’el: ‘The designated times of ADONAI which you are to proclaim as holy convocations are my designated times.

Leviticus 23:3 “‘Work is to be done on six days; but the seventh day is a [Shabbat] of complete rest, a holy convocation; you are not to do any kind of work; it is a [Shabbat] for ADONAI, even in your homes.

Leviticus 23:4 “‘These are the designated times of ADONAI, the holy convocations you are to proclaim at their designated times.

Leviticus 23:5 “‘In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, between sundown and complete darkness, comes [Pesach] for ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:6 On the fifteenth day of the same month is the festival of [matzah]; for seven days you are to eat [matzah.]

Leviticus 23:7 On the first day you are to have a holy convocation; don’t do any kind of ordinary work.

Leviticus 23:8 Bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI for seven days. On the seventh day is a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work.’“

Leviticus 23:9 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 23:10 “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘After you enter the land I am giving you and harvest its ripe crops, you are to bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the [cohen].

Leviticus 23:11 He is to wave the sheaf before ADONAI, so that you will be accepted; the [cohen] is to wave it on the day after the [Shabbat].

Leviticus 23:12 On the day that you wave the sheaf, you are to offer a male lamb without defect, in its first year, as a burnt offering for ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:13 Its grain offering is to be one gallon of fine flour mixed with olive oil, an offering made by fire to ADONAI as a fragrant aroma; its drink offering is to be of wine, one quart.

Leviticus 23:14 You are not to eat bread, dried grain or fresh grain until the day you bring the offering for your God; this is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live.

Leviticus 23:15 "'From the day after the day of rest- that is, from the day you bring the sheaf for waving- you are to count seven full weeks,

Leviticus 23:16 until the day after the seventh week; you are to count fifty days; and then you are to present a new grain offering to ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:17 You must bring bread from your homes for waving- two loaves made with one gallon of fine flour, baked with leaven- as firstfruits for ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:18 Along with the bread, present seven lambs without defect one year old, one young bull and two rams; these will be a burnt offering for ADONAI, with their grain and drink offerings, an offering made by fire as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:19 Offer one male goat as a sin offering and two male lambs one year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings.

Leviticus 23:20 The [cohen] will wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before ADONAI, with the two lambs; these will be holy for ADONAI for the [cohen].

Leviticus 23:21 On the same day, you are to call a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work; this is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live.

Leviticus 23:22 "'When you harvest the ripe crops produced in your land, don't harvest all the way to the corners of your field, and don't gather the ears of grain left by the harvesters; leave them for the poor and the foreigner; I am ADONAI your God.'"

Leviticus 23:23 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 23:24 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'In the seventh month, the first of the month is to be for you a day of complete rest for remembering, a holy convocation announced with blasts on the [shofar.]

Leviticus 23:25 Do not do any kind of ordinary work, and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI.'"

Leviticus 23:26 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 23:27 "The tenth day of this seventh month is [Yom-Kippur]; you are to have a holy convocation, you are to deny yourselves, and you are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:28 You are not to do any kind of work on that day, because it is [Yom-Kippur], to make atonement for you before ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 23:29 Anyone who does not deny himself on that day is to be cut off from his people;

Leviticus 23:30 and anyone who does any kind of work on that day, I will destroy from among his people.

Leviticus 23:31 You are not to do any kind of work; it is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live.

Leviticus 23:32 It will be for you a [Shabbat] of complete rest, and you are to deny yourselves; you are to rest on your [Shabbat] from evening the ninth day of the month until the following evening."

Leviticus 23:33 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 23:34 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of [Sukkot] for seven days to ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:35 On the first day there is to be a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work.

Leviticus 23:36 For seven days you are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI; on the eighth day you are to have a holy convocation and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is a day of public assembly; do not do any kind of ordinary work.

Leviticus 23:37 "'These are the designated times of ADONAI that you are to proclaim as holy convocations and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI- a burnt offering, a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, each on its own day-

Leviticus 23:38 besides the [Shabbat]s of ADONAI, your gifts, all your vows and all your voluntary offerings that you give to ADONAI.

Leviticus 23:39 "'But on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered the produce of the land, you are to observe the festival of ADONAI seven days; the first day is to be a complete rest and the eighth day is to be a complete rest[.]

Leviticus 23:40 On the first day you are to take choice fruit, palm fronds, thick branches and river-willows, and celebrate in the presence of ADONAI your God for seven days.

Leviticus 23:41 You are to observe it as a feast to ADONAI seven days in the year; it is a permanent regulation, generation after generation; keep it in the seventh month.

Leviticus 23:42 You are to live in [sukkot] for seven days; every citizen of Isra'el is to live in a [sukkah],

Leviticus 23:43 so that generation after generation of you will know that I made the people of Isra'el live in [sukkot] when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am ADONAI your God.'"

Leviticus 23:44 Thus Moshe announced to the people of Isra'el the designated times of ADONAI. [(vii)]

Leviticus 24:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 24:2 "Order the people of Isra'el to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the light, to keep lamps burning always.

Leviticus 24:3 Outside the curtain of the testimony in the tent of meeting, Aharon is to arrange for the light to be kept burning always from evening until morning before ADONAI; this is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations.

Leviticus 24:4 He is always to keep in order the lamps on the pure [menorah] before [ADONAI.]

Leviticus 24:5 "You are to take fine flour and use it to bake twelve loaves, one gallon per loaf.

Leviticus 24:6 Arrange them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure table before ADONAI.

Leviticus 24:7 Put frankincense with each row to be an offering made by fire to ADONAI in place of the bread and as a reminder of it.

Leviticus 24:8 Regularly, every [Shabbat], he is to arrange them before ADONAI; they are from the people of Isra'el, as a covenant forever.

Leviticus 24:9 They will belong to Aharon and his sons; and they are to eat them in a holy place; because for him they are, of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire, especially holy. This is a permanent law."

Leviticus 24:10 There was a man who was the son of a woman of Isra'el and an Egyptian father. He went out among the people of Isra'el, and this son of a woman of Isra'el had a fight in the camp with a man of Isra'el,

Leviticus 24:11 in the course of which the son of the woman of Isra'el uttered the Name [[[Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh]]] in a curse. So they brought him to Moshe. (His mother's name was Shlomit the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

Leviticus 24:12 They put him under guard until ADONAI would tell them what to do.

Leviticus 24:13 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 24:14 "Take the man who cursed outside the camp, have everyone who heard him lay their hands on his head, and have the entire community stone him.

Leviticus 24:15 Then tell the people of Isra'el, 'Whoever curses his God will bear the consequences of his sin;

Leviticus 24:16 and whoever blasphemes the name of ADONAI must be put to death; the entire community must stone him. The foreigner as well as the citizen is to be put to death if he blasphemes the Name.

Leviticus 24:17 "'Anyone who strikes another person and kills him must be put to death.

Leviticus 24:18 Anyone who strikes an animal and kills it is to make restitution, life for life.

Leviticus 24:19 If someone injures his neighbor, what he did is to be done to him-

Leviticus 24:20 break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth- whatever injury he has caused the other person is to be rendered to him in return.

Leviticus 24:21 He who kills an animal is to make restitution, but he who kills another person is to be put to death.

Leviticus 24:22 You are to apply the same standard of judgment to the foreigner as to the citizen, because I am ADONAI your God."

Leviticus 24:23 So Moshe spoke to the people of Isra'el, and they took the man who had cursed outside the camp and stoned him to death. Thus the people of Isra'el did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Leviticus 25:1 ADONAI spoke to Moshe on Mount Sinai; he said,

Leviticus 25:2 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'When you enter the land I am giving you, the land itself is to observe a [Shabbat] rest for ADONAI.

Leviticus 25:3 Six years you will sow your field; six years you will prune your grapevines and gather their produce.

Leviticus 25:4 But in the seventh year is to be a [Shabbat] of complete rest for the land, a [Shabbat] for ADONAI; you will neither sow your field nor prune your grapevines.

Leviticus 25:5 You are not to harvest what grows by itself from the seeds left by your previous harvest, and you are not to gather the grapes of your untended vine; it is to be a year of complete rest for the land.

Leviticus 25:6 But what the land produces during the year of [Shabbat] will be food for all of you- you, your servant, your maid, your employee, anyone living near you,

Leviticus 25:7 your livestock and the wild animals on your land; everything the land produces may be used for food.

Leviticus 25:8 "'You are to count seven [Shabbat]s of years, seven times seven years, that is, forty-nine years.

Leviticus 25:9 Then, on the tenth day of the seventh month, on [Yom-Kippur], you are to sound a blast on the [shofar]; you are to sound the [shofar] all through your land;

Leviticus 25:10 and you are to consecrate the fiftieth year, proclaiming freedom throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It will be a [yovel] for you; you will return everyone to the land he owns, and everyone is to return to his family.

Leviticus 25:11 That fiftieth year will be a [yovel] for you; in that year you are not to sow, harvest what grows by itself or gather the grapes of untended vines;

Leviticus 25:12 because it is a [yovel.] It will be holy for you; whatever the fields produce will be food for all of you.

Leviticus 25:13 In this year of [yovel], every one of you is to return to the land he owns.

Leviticus 25:14 “‘If you sell anything to your neighbor or buy anything from him, neither of you is to exploit the other.

Leviticus 25:15 Rather, you are to take into account the number of years after the [yovel] when you buy land from your neighbor, and he is to sell to you according to the number of years crops will be raised.

Leviticus 25:16 If the number of years remaining is large, you will raise the price; if few years remain, you will lower it; because what he is really selling you is the number of crops to be produced.

Leviticus 25:17 Thus you are not to take advantage of each other, but you are to fear your God; for I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 25:18 “‘Rather, you are to keep my regulations and rulings and act accordingly. If you do, you will live securely in the land.

Leviticus 25:19 The land will yield its produce, you will eat until you have enough, and you will live there securely.

Leviticus 25:20 “‘If you ask, “If we aren’t allowed to sow seed or harvest what our land produces, what are we going to eat the seventh year?”

Leviticus 25:21 then I will order my blessing on you during the sixth year, so that the land brings forth enough produce for all three years.

Leviticus 25:22 The eighth year you will sow seed but eat the the old, stored produce until the ninth year; that is, until the produce of the eighth year comes in, you will eat the old, stored food.

Leviticus 25:23 “‘The land is not to be sold in perpetuity, because the land belongs to me- you are only foreigners and temporary residents with me.

Leviticus 25:24 Therefore, when you sell your property, you must include the right of redemption.

Leviticus 25:25 That is, if one of you becomes poor and sells some of his property, his next-of-kin can come and buy back what his relative sold.

Leviticus 25:26 If the seller has no one to redeem it but becomes rich enough to redeem it himself,

Leviticus 25:27 he will calculate the number of years the land was sold for, refund the excess to its buyer, and return to his property.

Leviticus 25:28 If he hasn’t sufficient means to get it back himself, then what he sold will remain in the hands of the buyer until the year of [yovel]; in the [yovel] the buyer will vacate it and the seller return to his property.

Leviticus 25:29 “‘If someone sells a dwelling in a walled city, he has one year after the date of sale in which to redeem it. For a full year he will have the right of redemption;

Leviticus 25:30 but if he has not redeemed the dwelling in the walled city within the year, then title in perpetuity passes to the buyer through all his generations; it will not revert in the [yovel.]

Leviticus 25:31 However, houses in villages not surrounded by walls are to be dealt with like the fields in the countryside- they may be redeemed [[before the [yovel]]], and they revert in the [yovel.]

Leviticus 25:32 "'Concerning the cities of the [L'vi'im] and the houses in the cities they possess, the [L'vi'im] are to have a permanent right of redemption.

Leviticus 25:33 If someone purchases a house from one of the[L'vi'im], then the house he sold in the city where he owns property will still revert to him in the [yovel]; because the houses in the cities of the[L'vi'im] are their tribe's possession among the people of Isra'el.

Leviticus 25:34 The fields in the open land around their cities may not be sold, because that is their permanent possession.

Leviticus 25:35 "'If a member of your people has become poor, so that he can't support himself among you, you are to assist him as you would a foreigner or a temporary resident, so that he can continue living with you.

Leviticus 25:36 Do not charge him interest or otherwise profit from him, but fear your God, so that your brother can continue living with you.

Leviticus 25:37 Do not take interest when you loan him money or take a profit when you sell him food.

Leviticus 25:38 I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to give you the land of Kena'an and be your God.

Leviticus 25:39 "'If a member of your people has become poor among you and sells himself to you, do not make him do the work of a slave.

Leviticus 25:40 Rather, you are to treat him like an employee or a tenant; he will work for you until the year of [yovel].

Leviticus 25:41 Then he will leave you, he and his children with him, and return to his own family and regain possession of his ancestral land.

Leviticus 25:42 For they are my slaves, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; therefore they are not to be sold as slaves.

Leviticus 25:43 Do not treat him harshly, but fear your God.

Leviticus 25:44 "'Concerning the men and women you may have as slaves: you are to buy men- and women-slaves from the nations surrounding you.

Leviticus 25:45 You may also buy the children of foreigners living with you and members of their families born in your land; you may own these.

Leviticus 25:46 You may also bequeath them to your children to own; from these groups you may take your slaves forever. But as far as your brothers the people of Isra'el are concerned, you are not to treat each other harshly.

Leviticus 25:47 “If a foreigner living with you has grown rich, and a member of your people has become poor and sells himself to this foreigner living with you or to a member of the foreigner's family,

Leviticus 25:48 he may be redeemed after he has been sold. One of his brothers may redeem him;

Leviticus 25:49 or his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him; or any near relative of his may redeem him; or, if he becomes rich, he may redeem himself.

Leviticus 25:50 He will calculate with the person who bought him the time from the year he sold himself to him to the year of [yovel]; and the amount to be paid will be according to the number of years and his time at an employee's wage.

Leviticus 25:51 If many years remain, according to them will he refund the amount for his redemption from the amount he was bought for.

Leviticus 25:52 If there remain only a few years until the year of [yovel], then he will calculate with him; according to his years will he refund the amount for his redemption.

Leviticus 25:53 He will be like a worker hired year by year. You will see to it that he is not treated harshly.

Leviticus 25:54 “If he has not been redeemed by any of these procedures, nevertheless he will go free in the year of [yovel-] he and his children with him.

Leviticus 25:55 For to me the people of Isra'el are slaves; they are my slaves whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 26:1 “‘You are not to make yourselves any idols, erect a carved statue or a standing-stone, or place any carved stone anywhere in your land in order to bow down to it. I am ADONAI your God.

Leviticus 26:2 “‘Keep my [Shabbat]s, and revere my sanctuary; I am ADONAI.

Leviticus 26:3 “‘If you live by my regulations, observe my [mitzvot] and obey them;

Leviticus 26:4 then I will provide the rain you need in its season, the land will yield its produce, and the trees in the field will yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:5 Your threshing time will extend until the grape harvest, and your grape harvesting will extend until the time for sowing seed. You will eat as much food as you want and live securely in your land.

Leviticus 26:6 “‘I will give [shalom] in the land- you will lie down to sleep unafraid of anyone. I will rid the land of wild animals. The sword will not go through your land.

Leviticus 26:7 You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall before your sword.

Leviticus 26:8 Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand- your enemies will fall before your sword.

Leviticus 26:9 “‘I will turn toward you, make you productive, increase your numbers and uphold my covenant with you.

Leviticus 26:10 You will eat all you want from last year’s harvest and throw out what remains of the old to make room for the new.

Leviticus 26:11 I will put my tabernacle among you, and I will not reject you,

Leviticus 26:12 but I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people.

Leviticus 26:13 I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you would not be their slaves. I have broken the bars of your yoke, so that you can walk upright.

Leviticus 26:14 “‘But if you will not listen to me and obey all these [mitzvot],

Leviticus 26:15 if you loathe my regulations and reject my rulings, in order not to obey all my [mitzvot] but cancel my covenant;

Leviticus 26:16 then I, for my part, will do this to you: I will bring terror upon you- wasting disease and chronic fever to dim your sight and sap your strength. You will sow your seed for nothing, because your enemies will eat the crops.

Leviticus 26:17 I will set my face against you- your enemies will defeat you, those who hate you will hound you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.

Leviticus 26:18 If these things don’t make you listen to me, then I will discipline you seven times over for your sins.

Leviticus 26:19 I will break the pride you have in your own power. I will make your sky like iron, your soil like bronze-

Leviticus 26:20 you will spend your strength in vain, because the land will not yield its produce or the trees in the field their fruit.

Leviticus 26:21 “‘Yes, if you go against me and don’t listen to me, I will increase your calamities sevenfold, according to your sins.

Leviticus 26:22 I will send wild animals among you; they will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock and reduce your numbers, until your roads are deserted.

Leviticus 26:23 “‘If, in spite of all this, you refuse my correction and still go against me;

Leviticus 26:24 then I too will go against you; and I, yes I, will strike you seven times over for your sins.

Leviticus 26:25 I will bring a sword against you which will execute the vengeance of the covenant. You will be huddled inside your cities, I will send sickness among you, and you will be handed over to the power of the enemy.

Leviticus 26:26 I will cut off your supply of bread, so that ten women will bake your bread in one oven and dole out your bread by weight, and you will eat but not be satisfied.

Leviticus 26:27 "'And if, for all this, you still will not listen to me, but go against me;

Leviticus 26:28 then I will go against you furiously, and I also will chastise you yet seven times more for your sins.

Leviticus 26:29 You will eat the flesh of your own sons, you will eat the flesh of your own daughters.

Leviticus 26:30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your pillars for sun-worship, and throw your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols; and I will detest you.

Leviticus 26:31 I will lay waste to your cities and make your sanctuaries desolate, so as not to smell your fragrant aromas.

Leviticus 26:32 I will desolate the land, so that your enemies living in it will be astounded by it.

Leviticus 26:33 You I will disperse among the nations, and I will draw out the sword in pursuit after you; your land will be a desolation and your cities a wasteland.

Leviticus 26:34 Then, at last, the land will be paid its [Shabbat]s. As long as it lies desolate and you are in the lands of your enemies, the land will rest and be repaid its [Shabbat]s.

Leviticus 26:35 Yes, as long as it lies desolate it will have rest, the rest it did not have during your [Shabbat]s, when you lived there.

Leviticus 26:36 As for those of you who are left, I will fill their hearts with anxiety in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a driven leaf will frighten them, so that they will flee as one flees from the sword and fall when no one is pursuing.

Leviticus 26:37 Yes, with no one pursuing they will stumble over each other as if fleeing the sword- you will have no power to stand before your enemies.

Leviticus 26:38 And among the nations you will perish; the land of your enemies will devour you.

Leviticus 26:39 Those of you who remain will pine away in the lands of your enemies from guilt over your misdeeds and those of your ancestors.

Leviticus 26:40 Then they will confess their misdeeds and those of their ancestors which they committed against me in their rebellion; they will admit that they went against me.

Leviticus 26:41 At that time I will be going against them, bringing them into the lands of their enemies. But if their uncircumcised hearts will grow humble, and they are paid the punishment for their misdeeds;

Leviticus 26:42 then I will remember my covenant with Ya'akov, also my covenant with Yitz'chak and my covenant with Avraham; and I will remember the land.

Leviticus 26:43 For the land will lie abandoned without them, and it will be paid its [Shabbat]s while it lies desolate without them; and they will be paid the punishment for their misdeeds, because they rejected my rulings and loathed my regulations.

Leviticus 26:44 Yet, in spite of all that, I will not reject them when they are in the lands of their enemies, nor will I loathe them to the point of utterly destroying them and thus break my covenant with them, because I am ADONAI their God.

Leviticus 26:45 Rather, for their sakes, I will remember the covenant of their ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Egypt- with the nations watching- so that I might be their God; I am ADONAI.'"

Leviticus 26:46 These are the laws, rulings and teachings that ADONAI himself gave to the people of Isra'el on Mount Sinai through Moshe. [(RY: vi; LY: iv)]

Leviticus 27:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Leviticus 27:2 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'If someone makes a clearly defined vow to ADONAI to give him an amount equal to the value of a human being,

Leviticus 27:3 the value you are to assign to a man between the ages of twenty and sixty years is to be fifty [shekel]s of silver [[one-and-a-quarter pounds]], with the sanctuary [shekel] being the standard,

Leviticus 27:4 if a woman, thirty [shekel]s.

Leviticus 27:5 If it is a child five to twenty years old, assign a value of twenty [shekel]s for a boy and ten for a girl;

Leviticus 27:6 if a baby one month to five years of age, five [shekel]s for a boy and three for a girl;

Leviticus 27:7 if a person past sixty, fifteen [shekel]s for a man and ten for a woman.

Leviticus 27:8 If the person is too poor to be evaluated, set him before the [cohen], who will assign him a value in keeping with the means of the person who made the vow.

Leviticus 27:9 “‘If the vow is for the value of an animal of the kind used when people bring an offering to ADONAI, all that a person gives of such animals to ADONAI will be holy.

Leviticus 27:10 He is not to exchange or replace it by substituting a good animal for a bad one or vice versa; if he does make such a substitution, both the original animal and the one replacing it will be holy.

Leviticus 27:11 If the animal is an unclean one, such as may not be used in an offering to ADONAI, he must set it before the [cohen];

Leviticus 27:12 and the [cohen] is to set a value on it in relation to its good and bad points; the value set by you the [cohen] will stand.

Leviticus 27:13 But if the person making the vow wishes to redeem the animal, he must add one-fifth to your valuation.

Leviticus 27:14 “‘When a person consecrates his house to be holy for ADONAI, the [cohen] is to set a value on it in relation to its good and bad points; the value set by the [cohen] will stand.

Leviticus 27:15 If the consecrator wishes to redeem his house, he must add one-fifth to the value you have set on it; and it will revert to him.

Leviticus 27:16 “‘If a person consecrates to ADONAI part of a field belonging to his tribe’s possession, you are to value it according to its production, with five bushels of barley being valued at fifty [shekel]s of silver [[one-and-a-quarter pounds]].

Leviticus 27:17 If he consecrates his field during the year of [yovel], this valuation will stand.

Leviticus 27:18 But if he consecrates his field after the [yovel], then the [cohen] is to calculate the price according to the years remaining till the next [yovel], with a corresponding reduction from your valuation.

Leviticus 27:19 If the one consecrating the field wishes to redeem it, he must add one-fifth to your valuation, and the field will be set aside to revert to him.

Leviticus 27:20 If the seller does not wish to redeem the field, or if [[the treasurer for the [cohanim]]] has already sold the field to someone else, it can no longer be redeemed.

Leviticus 27:21 But when the purchaser has to vacate the field in the [yovel], it will become holy to ADONAI, like a field unconditionally consecrated; it will belong to the [cohanim].

Leviticus 27:22 “‘If he consecrates to ADONAI a field which he has bought, a field which is not part of his tribe’s possession,

Leviticus 27:23 then the [cohen] is to calculate its value according to the years remaining until the year of [yovel]; and the man will on that same day pay this amount; since it is holy to ADONAI.

Leviticus 27:24 In the year of [yovel] the field will revert to the person from whom it was bought, that is, to the person to whose tribal possession it belongs.

Leviticus 27:25 “‘All your valuations are to be according to the sanctuary [shekel] [[two-fifths of an ounce]], twenty [gerah]s to the [shekel.]

Leviticus 27:26 “‘However, the firstborn among animals, since it is already born as a firstborn for ADONAI, no one can consecrate- neither ox nor sheep- since it belongs to ADONAI already.

Leviticus 27:27 But if it is an unclean animal, he may redeem it at the price at which you value it and add one-fifth; or if he does not redeem it, it is to be sold at the price at which you value it.

Leviticus 27:28 However, nothing consecrated unconditionally which a person may consecrate to ADONAI out of all he owns- person, animal or field he possesses- is to be sold or redeemed; because everything consecrated unconditionally is especially holy to ADONAI.

Leviticus 27:29 No person who has been sentenced to die, and thus unconditionally consecrated, can be redeemed; he must be put to death.

Leviticus 27:30 “‘All the tenth given from the land, whether from planted seed or fruit from trees, belongs to ADONAI; it is holy to ADONAI.

Leviticus 27:31 If someone wants to redeem any of his tenth, he must add to it one-fifth.

Leviticus 27:32 “‘All the tenth from the herd or the flock, whatever passes under the shepherd’s crook, the tenth one will be holy to ADONAI.

Leviticus 27:33 The owner is not to inquire whether the animal is good or bad, and he cannot exchange it; if he does exchange it, both it and the one he substituted for it will be holy; it cannot be redeemed.’“

Leviticus 27:34 These are the [mitzvot] which ADONAI gave to Moshe for the people of Isra’el on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

1:1 ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the Sinai Desert, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month of the second year after they had left the land of Egypt. He said,

Numbers 1:2 “Take a census of the entire assembly of the people of Isra’el, by clans and families. Record the names of all the men

Numbers 1:3 twenty years old and over who are subject to military service in Isra’el. You and Aharon are to enumerate them company by company.

Numbers 1:4 Take with you from each tribe someone who is head of a clan.

Numbers 1:5 These are the men to take with you: From Re’uven, Elitzur the son of Sh’de’ur;

Numbers 1:6 From Shim’on, Shlumi’el the son of Tzurishaddai;

Numbers 1:7 From Y’hudah, Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav;

Numbers 1:8 From Yissakhar, N’tan’el the son of Tzu’ar;

Numbers 1:9 From Z’vulun, Eli’av the son of Helon.

Numbers 1:10 Of the children of Yosef: From Efrayim, Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud; From M’nasheh, Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur.

Numbers 1:11 From Binyamin, Avidan the son of Gid’oni;

Numbers 1:12 From Dan, Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai;

Numbers 1:13 From Asher, Pag’i’el the son of ‘Okhran;

Numbers 1:14 From Gad, Elyasaf the son of De’u’el;

Numbers 1:15 From Naftali, Achira the son of ‘Enan.”

Numbers 1:16 These were the ones called from the assembly, the chiefs of their fathers’ clans and heads of thousands in Isra’el.

Numbers 1:17 So Moshe and Aharon took these men who had been designated by name;

Numbers 1:18 and, on the first day of the second month, they gathered the whole assembly to state their genealogies by families and clans and recorded the names of all those twenty years old and over, as well as their total numbers.

Numbers 1:19 Moshe counted them in the Sinai Desert, just as ADONAI had ordered him.

Numbers 1:20 The men twenty years old and over who were subject to military service were recorded by name, family and clan, starting with the descendants of Re’uven, Isra’el’s firstborn. Here are the totals:

Numbers 1:21 Descendants of Re’uven 46,500

Numbers 1:22 Descendants of Shim’on 59,300

Numbers 1:23

Numbers 1:24 Descendants of Gad 45,650

Numbers 1:25

Numbers 1:26 Descendants of Y’hudah 74,600

Numbers 1:27

Numbers 1:28 Descendants of Yissakhar 54,400

Numbers 1:29

Numbers 1:30 Descendants of Z’vulun 57,400

Numbers 1:31

Numbers 1:32 Descendants of Efrayim 40,500

Numbers 1:33

Numbers 1:34 Descendants of M’nasheh 32,200

Numbers 1:35

Numbers 1:36 Descendants of Binyamin 35,400

Numbers 1:37

Numbers 1:38 Descendants of Dan 62,700

Numbers 1:39

Numbers 1:40 Descendants of Asher 41,500

Numbers 1:41

Numbers 1:42 Descendants of Naftali 53,400

Numbers 1:43

Numbers 1:44 Moshe, Aharon and the twelve leaders of Isra’el, each from a clan,

Numbers 1:45 counted the people of Isra’el by their clans, those twenty years old and over, eligible for military service in Isra’el;

Numbers 1:46 and the grand total came to 603,550.

Numbers 1:47 But those who were [L’vi’im], according to the clan of their fathers, were not counted in this census;

Numbers 1:48 because ADONAI had told Moshe,

Numbers 1:49 “Do not include the clan of Levi when you take the census of the people of Isra’el.

Numbers 1:50 Instead, give the [L’vi’im] charge over the tabernacle of the testimony, its equipment and everything else connected with it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its equipment, serve in it and set up their camp around it.

Numbers 1:51 When the tabernacle is to be moved onward, it is the [L’vi’im] who are to take it down and set it up in the new location; anyone else who involves himself is to be put to death.

Numbers 1:52 The rest of Isra’el are to set up camp, company by company, each man with his own banner.

Numbers 1:53 But the [L’vi’im] are to camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that no anger will come upon the assembly of the people of Isra’el. The [L’vi’im] are to be in charge of the tabernacle of the testimony.”

Numbers 1:54 This is what the people of Isra’el did- they did everything that ADONAI had ordered Moshe. [(iii)]

Numbers 2:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Numbers 2:2 “The people of Isra’el are to set up camp by clans, each man with his own banner and under his clan’s symbol; they are to camp around the tent of meeting, but at a distance.

Numbers 2:3 “Those camping on the east side toward the sunrise are to be under the banner of the camp of Y’hudah; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows: Tribe Chief Number Y’hudah Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav 74,600 Yissakhar N’tan’el the son of Tzu’ar 54,400 Z’vulun Eli’av the son of Helon 57,400 Total 186,400 “This group is to set out first.

Numbers 2:4

Numbers 2:5

Numbers 2:6

Numbers 2:7

Numbers 2:8

Numbers 2:9

Numbers 2:10 “Those camping on the south are to be under the banner of the camp of Re’uven; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows: Tribe Chief Number Re’uven Elitzur the son of Sh’de’ur 46,500 Shim’on Shlumi’el the son of Tzurishaddai 59,300 Gad Elyasaf the son of Re’u’el 45,650 Total 151,450 “This group is to set out second.

Numbers 2:11

Numbers 2:12

Numbers 2:13

Numbers 2:14

Numbers 2:15

Numbers 2:16

Numbers 2:17 “Then the tent of meeting, with the camp of the [L’vi’im], will set out, with the other camps in front and behind. They will go in the same order as their camps are set up- each man will go forward in his position, under his banner.

Numbers 2:18 “Those camping on the west are to be under the banner of the camp of Efrayim; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows: Tribe Chief Number Efrayim Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud 40,500 M’nasheh Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur 32,200 Binyamin Avidan the son of Gid’oni 35,400 Total 108,100 “This group is to set out third.

Numbers 2:19

Numbers 2:20

Numbers 2:21

Numbers 2:22

Numbers 2:23

Numbers 2:24

Numbers 2:25 “Those camping on the north are to be under the banner of the camp of Dan; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows: Tribe Chief Number Dan Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai 62,700 Asher Pag’i’el the son of ‘Okhran 41,500 Naftali Achira the son of ‘Enan 53,400 Total 157,600 “This group is to set out last with their banners.”

Numbers 2:26

Numbers 2:27

Numbers 2:28

Numbers 2:29

Numbers 2:30

Numbers 2:31

Numbers 2:32 These are the ones counted from the people of Isra’el by clans; the total number recorded in the camps, company by company, was 603,550.

Numbers 2:33 But, as ADONAI ordered Moshe, the [L’vi’im] were not counted with the rest of Isra’el.

Numbers 2:34 The people of Isra’el did everything ADONAI had ordered Moshe: they set up camp under their banners, and they set out, each according to his family and clan.

Numbers 3:1 These are the descendants of Aharon and Moshe as of the day when ADONAI spoke with Moshe on Mount Sinai.

Numbers 3:2 The names of the sons of Aharon are: Nadav the firstborn, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar.

Numbers 3:3 These were the names of the sons of Aharon the [cohen], whom he anointed and ordained as [cohanim].

Numbers 3:4 But Nadav and Avihu died in the presence of ADONAI when they offered unauthorized fire before ADONAI in the Sinai Desert, and they had no children; El’azar and Itamar served as [cohanim] in the presence of Aharon their father.

Numbers 3:5 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 3:6 “Summon the tribe of Levi, and assign them to Aharon the [cohen], so that they can help him.

Numbers 3:7 They are to carry out his duties and the duties of the whole community before the tent of meeting in performing the service of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:8 They are to be in charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting and to carry out all the duties of the people of Isra’el connected with the service of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:9 Assign the [L’vi’im] to Aharon and his sons; their one responsibility in regard to the people of Isra’el is to serve him.

Numbers 3:10 You are to appoint Aharon and his sons to carry out the duties of [cohanim]; anyone else who involves himself is to be put to death.”

Numbers 3:11 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 3:12 “I have taken the [L’vi’im] from among the people of Isra’el in lieu of every firstborn male that is first from the womb among the people of Isra’el; the [L’vi’im] are to be mine.

Numbers 3:13 All the firstborn males belong to me, because on the day that I killed all the firstborn males in the land of Egypt, I separated for myself all the firstborn males in Isra’el, both human and animal. They are mine; I am [ADONAI.]”

Numbers 3:14 ADONAI said to Moshe in the Sinai Desert,

Numbers 3:15 “Take a census of the tribe of Levi by clans and families. Count every male a month old or over.”

Numbers 3:16 Moshe counted them in the manner ADONAI had said, as he had been ordered.

Numbers 3:17 The names of the sons of Levi were Gershon, K’hat and M’rari.

Numbers 3:18 The names of the sons of Gershon were Livni and Shim’i; they fathered their respective clans;

Numbers 3:19 likewise the sons of K’hat- ‘Amram,Yitz’har, Hevron and ‘Uzi’el-

Numbers 3:20 and the sons of M’rari- Machli and Mushi. These fathered the clans of the [L’vi’im.]

Numbers 3:21 Gershon fathered the clans of Livni and Shim’i; these were the Gershon clans.

Numbers 3:22 Of them, 7,500 males a month old and over were counted.

Numbers 3:23 The Gershon clans were to camp behind the tabernacle, toward the west.

Numbers 3:24 The chief of the Gershon clan was Elyasaf, the son of La’el.

Numbers 3:25 In connection with the tent of meeting, the descendants of Gershon were to be in charge of the following: the tabernacle itself, its inner and outer coverings, the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 3:26 the curtains surrounding the courtyard, the screen for the entrance of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and the altar, all the fixtures and ropes for these items, and their maintenance.

Numbers 3:27 K’hat fathered the clans of ‘Amram, Yitz’har, Hevron and ‘Uzi’el; these were the K’hat clans.

Numbers 3:28 Of them, 8,600 males a month old and over were counted; they were in charge of the Holy Place.

Numbers 3:29 The K’hat clans were to camp next to the tabernacle, toward the south.

Numbers 3:30 The chief of the K'hat clan was Elitzafan the son of 'Uzi'el.

Numbers 3:31 They were responsible for the ark, the table, the [menorah], the altars, the utensils the [cohanim] use when they serve in the Holy Place, the curtain, and everything involved with the maintenance of these things.

Numbers 3:32 El'azar the son of Aharon the [cohen] was first among the chiefs of the [L'vi'im] and supervised those in charge of the Holy Place.

Numbers 3:33 M'rari fathered the clans of Machli and Mushi; these were the M'rari clans.

Numbers 3:34 Of them, 6,200 males a month old and over were counted.

Numbers 3:35 The chief of the M'rari clan was Tzuri'el the son of Avichayil. They were to camp next to the tabernacle, toward the north.

Numbers 3:36 The M'rari clans were assigned responsibility for the frames of the tabernacle, along with its crossbars, posts, sockets and fittings, together with their maintenance;

Numbers 3:37 also the posts of the surrounding courtyard, with their sockets, pegs and ropes.

Numbers 3:38 Those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle on the east, in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moshe, Aharon and his sons who were in charge of the Holy Place. They carried out their responsibility on behalf of the people of Isra'el, and anyone else who involved himself was to be put to death.

Numbers 3:39 The total number of [L'vi'im] whom Moshe and Aharon counted by their clans, all the males a month old and over, was 22,000.

Numbers 3:40 ADONAI said to Moshe, "Register all the firstborn males of the people of Isra'el a month old and over, and determine how many there are.

Numbers 3:41 Then you are to take the [L'vi'im] for me, ADONAI, in place of all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el, and the cattle of the [L'vi'im] in place of the firstborn of the cattle belonging to the people of Isra'el."

Numbers 3:42 Moshe counted, as ADONAI had ordered him, all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 3:43 The total number of firstborn males registered, a month old and over, of those who were counted, was 22,273.

Numbers 3:44 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 3:45 "Take the [L'vi'im] in place of all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el, and the cattle of the [L'vi'im] in place of their cattle; the [L'vi'im] are to belong to me, ADONAI.

Numbers 3:46 Since there were 273 more firstborn males from Isra'el than male [L'vi'im], in order to redeem them,

Numbers 3:47 you are to take five [shekel]s [[two ounces]] for each of these (use the sanctuary [shekel], which is equal to twenty [gerah]s).

Numbers 3:48 Give the redemption money for these extra people to Aharon and his sons."

Numbers 3:49 Moshe took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the [L'vi'im];

Numbers 3:50 the amount of money he took from the firstborn of the people of Isra'el was 1,365 [shekel]s, using the sanctuary [shekel.]

Numbers 3:51 Moshe gave the redemption-money to Aharon and his sons, in keeping with what ADONAI had said, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. [(vii)]

Numbers 4:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Numbers 4:2 "Take a census of the descendants of K'hat, who are among the descendants of Levi, by clans and families,

Numbers 4:3 all those from thirty to fifty years old; these will enter the corps doing the work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:4 "Here is how the descendants of K'hat are to serve in the tent of meeting and deal with the especially holy things:

Numbers 4:5 when the time comes to break camp, Aharon is to go in with his sons, take down the curtain which serves as a screen, and cover the ark of the testimony with it.

Numbers 4:6 On that they are to place a covering of fine leather, and on top of that spread an all-blue cloth. Then they are to insert the carrying-poles.

Numbers 4:7 On the table of showbread they are to spread a blue cloth and place on it the dishes, incense pans, offering bowls and pitchers. The perpetual bread is to remain on the table.

Numbers 4:8 They are to spread on these things a scarlet cloth, cover them with a covering of fine leather and insert the poles.

Numbers 4:9 They are to take a blue cloth and cover the [menorah] for the light, its lamps, its tongs, its trays and the jars used to add oil to it.

Numbers 4:10 They are to wrap it and all its accessories in fine leather and place them on a carrying-frame.

Numbers 4:11 On the gold altar they are to spread a blue cloth, cover it with a covering of fine leather and insert its carrying-poles.

Numbers 4:12 They are to take all the utensils they use when serving in the sanctuary and put them in a blue cloth, cover them with fine leather and place them on a carrying-frame.

Numbers 4:13 After removing the greasy ashes from the altar, they are to spread a purple cloth over it

Numbers 4:14 and place on it all the utensils required for their altar service- the fire pans, meat-hooks, shovels, basins and other utensils for the altar. Then they are to spread over it a fine leather covering and insert its carrying-poles.

Numbers 4:15 When Aharon and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy utensils, when the camp is about to move forward, then the descendants of K'hat are to come and carry them. But they are not to touch the holy things, so that they won't die. These things are the responsibility of the descendants of K'hat in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:16 "El'azar the son of Aharon the [cohen] is to be responsible for the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continuing grain offering and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including the sanctuary and its furnishings."

Numbers 4:17 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Numbers 4:18 "Do not cut off the clan of K'hat from among the [L'vi'im];

Numbers 4:19 rather, do this for them, so that they will live and not die: when they approach the especially holy things, Aharon and his sons are to go in- and you are to assign each one his task;

Numbers 4:20 but the descendants of K'hat are not to go in and look at the holy things as they are being covered; if they do, they will die."

Numbers 4:21 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 4:22 "Take a census of the descendants of Gershon also, by clans and families;

Numbers 4:23 count all those between thirty and fifty years old, all who will enter the corps doing the work of serving in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:24 "The Gershon families are to be responsible for serving and for transporting loads.

Numbers 4:25 They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, its covering, the fine leather covering above it, the screen for the entrance to the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:26 the tapestries for the courtyard, and the screen for the entrance to the courtyard by the tabernacle and around the altar, along with the ropes and all the utensils they need for their service; and they are to do the work connected with these things.

Numbers 4:27 Aharon and his sons are to supervise all the work of the Gershon clan in transporting loads and serving, and to assign them who is to carry what.

Numbers 4:28 This is how the Gershon families are to serve in the tent of meeting, and they are to be under the direction of Itamar the son of Aharon the [cohen.]

Numbers 4:29 “As for the descendants of M’rari, take a census by clans and families

Numbers 4:30 of all those between thirty and fifty years old, all who will be in the corps doing the work of serving in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:31 “Their service for the tent of meeting will be to carry the frames, crossbars, posts and sockets of the tabernacle;

Numbers 4:32 also the posts for the surrounding courtyard, with their sockets, tent pegs, ropes and other accessories, and everything having to do with their service. You are to assign particular loads to specific persons by name.

Numbers 4:33 This is how the M’rari families are to serve in the tent of meeting, directed by Itamar the son of Aharon the [cohen].”

Numbers 4:34 Moshe, Aharon and the community leaders took a census of the descendants of K’hat by their clans and families,

Numbers 4:35 all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of the corps serving in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:36 Registered by their families, they numbered 2,750.

Numbers 4:37 These are the ones counted from the K’hat families of all those serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moshe and Aharon enumerated, in keeping with the order given by ADONAI through Moshe.

Numbers 4:38 The census of the descendants of Gershon, by their clans and families,

Numbers 4:39 all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of the corps serving in the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:40 yielded 2,630, registered by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:41 These are the ones counted from the families of the descendants of Gershon of all those serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moshe and Aharon enumerated, in keeping with the order given by ADONAI.

Numbers 4:42 The census of the families of the descendants of M’rari, by their clans and families,

Numbers 4:43 all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of the corps serving in the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:44 yielded 3,200, registered by their families.

Numbers 4:45 These are the ones counted from the families of the descendants of M’rari, whom Moshe and Aharon enumerated, in keeping with the order given by ADONAI through Moshe.

Numbers 4:46 The census of the [L’vi’im], whom Moshe, Aharon and the leaders of Isra’el enumerated by their clans and families, Numbers 4:47 all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of those working to serve and working to carry loads in the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:48 yielded a total of 8,580 persons.

Numbers 4:49 According to ADONAI's order they were appointed by Moshe, each one to his specific service or work. They were also enumerated, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. [(iii)]

Numbers 5:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 5:2 "Order the people of Isra'el to expel from the camp everyone with [tzara'at], everyone with a discharge and whoever is unclean because of touching a corpse.

Numbers 5:3 Both male and female you must expel; put them outside the camp; so that they won't defile their camp, where I live among you."

Numbers 5:4 The people of Isra'el did this and put them outside the camp- the people of Isra'el did what ADONAI had said to Moshe.

Numbers 5:5 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 5:6 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'When a man or woman commits any kind of sin against another person and thus breaks faith with ADONAI, he incurs guilt.

Numbers 5:7 He must confess the sin which he has committed; and he must make full restitution for his guilt, add twenty percent and give it to the victim of his sin.

Numbers 5:8 But if the person has no relative to whom restitution can be made for the guilt, then what is given in restitution for guilt will belong to ADONAI, that is, to the [cohen-] in addition to the ram of atonement through which atonement is made for him.

Numbers 5:9 "'Every contribution which the people of Isra'el consecrate and present to the [cohen] will belong to him.

Numbers 5:10 Anything an individual consecrates will be his own [[to allocate among the [cohanim]]], but what a person gives to the [cohen] will belong to him.'"

Numbers 5:11 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 5:12 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'If a man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him;

Numbers 5:13 that is, if another man goes to bed with her without her husband's knowledge, so that she becomes impure secretly, and there is no witness against her, and she was not caught in the act;

Numbers 5:14 then, if a spirit of jealousy comes over him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she has become impure- or, for that matter, if the spirit of jealousy comes over him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she has not become impure-

Numbers 5:15 he is to bring his wife to the [cohen], along with the offering for her, two quarts of barley flour on which he has not poured olive oil or put frankincense, because it is a grain offering for jealousy, a grain offering for remembering, for recalling guilt to mind.

Numbers 5:16 The [cohen] will bring her forward and place her before ADONAI.

Numbers 5:17 The [cohen] will put holy water in a clay pot, and then the [cohen] will take some of the dust on the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water.

Numbers 5:18 The [cohen] will place the woman before ADONAI, unbind the woman's hair and put the grain offering for remembering in her hands, the grain offering for jealousy; while the [cohen] has in his hand the water of embitterment and cursing.

Numbers 5:19 The [cohen] will make her swear by saying to her, "If no man has gone to bed with you, if you have not gone astray to make yourself unclean while under your husband's authority, then be free from this water of embitterment and cursing.

Numbers 5:20 But if you have in fact gone astray while under your husband's authority and become unclean, because some man other than your husband has gone to bed with you..."

Numbers 5:21 then the [cohen] is to make the woman swear with an oath that includes a curse; the [cohen] will say to the woman,"...may ADONAI make you an object of cursing and condemnation among your people by making your private parts shrivel and your abdomen swell up!

Numbers 5:22 May this water that causes the curse go into your inner parts and make your abdomen swell and your private parts shrivel up!"- and the woman is to respond, "[Amen]! [Amen]!"

Numbers 5:23 The [cohen] is to write these curses on a scroll, wash them off into the water of embitterment

Numbers 5:24 and make the woman drink the water of embitterment and cursing- the water of cursing will enter her and become bitter.

Numbers 5:25 Then the [cohen] is to remove the grain offering for jealousy from the woman's hand, wave the grain offering before ADONAI and bring it to the altar.

Numbers 5:26 The [cohen] is to take a handful of the grain offering as its reminder portion and make it go up in smoke on the altar; afterwards, he is to make the woman drink the water.

Numbers 5:27 When he has made her drink the water, then, if she is unclean and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that causes the curse will enter her and become bitter, so that her abdomen swells and her private parts shrivel up; and the woman will become an object of cursing among her people.

Numbers 5:28 But if the woman is not unclean but clean, then she will be innocent and will have children.

Numbers 5:29 This is the law for jealousy: when either a wife under her husband’s authority goes astray and becomes unclean,

Numbers 5:30 or the spirit of jealousy comes over a husband and he becomes jealous of his wife, then he is to place the woman before ADONAI, and the [cohen] is to deal with her in accordance with all of this law.

Numbers 5:31 The husband will be clear of guilt, but the wife will bear the consequences of her guilt.’“

Numbers 6:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 6:2 “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘When either a man or a woman makes a special kind of vow, the vow of a [nazir], consecrating himself to ADONAI;

Numbers 6:3 he is to abstain from wine and other intoxicating liquor, he is not to drink vinegar from either source, he is not to drink grape juice, and he is not to eat grapes or raisins.

Numbers 6:4 As long as he remains a [nazir] he is to eat nothing derived from the grapevine, not even the grape-skins or the seeds.

Numbers 6:5 “‘Throughout the period of his vow as a [nazir], he is not to shave his head. Until the end of the time for which he has consecrated himself to ADONAI he is to be holy: he is to let the hair on his head grow long.

Numbers 6:6 “‘Throughout the period for which he has consecrated himself to ADONAI, he is not to approach a corpse.

Numbers 6:7 He is not to make himself unclean for his father, mother, brother or sister when they die, since his consecration to God is on his head.

Numbers 6:8 Throughout the time of his being a [nazir] he is holy for ADONAI.

Numbers 6:9 “‘If someone next to him dies very suddenly, so that he defiles his consecrated head, then he is to shave his head on the day of his purification; he is to shave it on the seventh day.

Numbers 6:10 On the eighth day he is to bring two doves or two young pigeons to the [cohen] at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 6:11 The [cohen] is to prepare one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering and thus make atonement for him, inasmuch as he sinned because of the dead person. That same day he is to re-consecrate his head;

Numbers 6:12 he is to consecrate to ADONAI the full period of his being a [nazir] by bringing a male lamb in its first year as a guilt offering.

The previous days will not be counted, because his consecration became defiled.

Numbers 6:13 "'This is the law for the [nazir] when his period of consecration is over: he is to be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 6:14 where he will present his offering to ADONAI- one male lamb in its first year without defect as a burnt offering, one female lamb in its first year without defect as a sin offering, one ram without defect as peace offerings,

Numbers 6:15 a basket of [matzah], loaves made of fine flour mixed with olive oil, unleavened wafers spread with olive oil, their grain offering and their drink offerings.

Numbers 6:16 The [cohen] is to bring them before ADONAI, offer his sin offering, his burnt offering,

Numbers 6:17 and his ram as a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI, with the basket of [matzah]. The [cohen] will also offer the grain offering and drink offering that go with the peace offering.

Numbers 6:18 The [nazir] will shave his consecrated head at the entrance to the tent of meeting, take the hair removed from his consecrated head and put it on the fire under the sacrifice of peace offerings.

Numbers 6:19 When the ram has been boiled, the [cohen] is to take its shoulder, one loaf of [matzah] from the basket and one unleavened wafer, and place them in the hands of the [nazir], after he has shaved his consecrated head.

Numbers 6:20 The [cohen] is to wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI; this is set aside for the [cohen], along with the breast for waving and the raised-up thigh. Following that, the [nazir] may drink wine.

Numbers 6:21 "'This is the law for the [nazir] who makes a vow and for his offering to ADONAI for his being a [nazir-] in addition to anything more for which he has sufficient means. In keeping with whatever vow he makes, he must do it according to the law for the [nazir.]'"

Numbers 6:22 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 6:23 "Speak to Aharon and his sons, and tell them that this is how you are to bless the people of Isra'el: you are to say to them,

Numbers 6:24 '[Y'varekh'kha ADONAI v'yishmerekha.] [[May ADONAI bless you and keep you.]]

Numbers 6:25 [Ya'er ADONAI panav eleikha vichunekka.] [[May ADONAI make his face shine on you and show you his favor.]]

Numbers 6:26 [Yissa ADONAI panav eleikha v'yasem l'kha shalom.] [[May ADONAI lift up his face toward you and give you peace.]]'

Numbers 6:27 “In this way they are to put my name on the people of Isra’el, so that I will bless them.” [(A: v, S: iv)]

Numbers 7:1 On the day Moshe finished putting up the tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it, all its furnishings, and the altar with its utensils. After anointing and consecrating them,

Numbers 7:2 the leaders of Isra’el, who were heads of their father’s clans, made an offering. These were the tribal leaders in charge of those counted in the census.

Numbers 7:3 They brought their offering before ADONAI, six covered wagons and twelve oxen- a wagon for every two leaders and for each an ox- and presented them in front of the tabernacle.

Numbers 7:4 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 7:5 “Receive these from them; they are to be used for the service in the tent of meeting. Give them to the [L’vi’im], to each as needed for his duties.”

Numbers 7:6 So Moshe took the wagons and oxen and gave them to the [L’vi’im].

Numbers 7:7 He gave two wagons and four oxen to the descendants of Gershon, in keeping with the needs of their duties.

Numbers 7:8 Four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the descendants of M’rari, in keeping with the needs of their duties, directed by Itamar the son of Aharon the [cohen].

Numbers 7:9 But to the descendants of K’hat he gave none, because their duties involved the holy articles, which they carried on their own shoulders.

Numbers 7:10 The leaders brought the offering for dedicating the altar on the day it was anointed. The leaders brought their offering before the altar,

Numbers 7:11 and ADONAI said to Moshe, “They are to present their offerings to dedicate the altar, each leader on his own day.”

Numbers 7:12 Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav, from the tribe of Y’hudah, presented his offering on the first day.

Numbers 7:13 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:14 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:15 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:16 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:17 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav.

Numbers 7:18 On the second day N’tan’el the son of Tzu’ar, leader of Yissakhar, presented his offering.

Numbers 7:19 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:20 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:21 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:22 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:23 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of N’tan’el the son of Tzu’ar.

Numbers 7:24 On the third day Eli’av the son of Helon, leader of Z’vulun, presented his offering.

Numbers 7:25 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:26 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:27 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:28 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:29 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eli’av the son of Helon.

Numbers 7:30 On the fourth day was Elitzur the son of Sh’de’ur, leader of the descendants of Re’uven.

Numbers 7:31 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:32 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:33 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:34 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:35 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elitzur the son of Sh'de'ur.

Numbers 7:36 On the fifth day was Shlumi'el the son of Tzurishaddai, leader of the descendants of Shim'on.

Numbers 7:37 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:38 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:39 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:40 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:41 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Shlumi'el the son of Tzurishaddai.

Numbers 7:42 On the sixth day was Elyasaf the son of De'u'el, leader of the descendants of Gad.

Numbers 7:43 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:44 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:45 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:46 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:47 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elyasaf the son of De'u'el.

Numbers 7:48 On the seventh day was Elishama the son of 'Ammihud, leader of the descendants of Efrayim.

Numbers 7:49 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:50 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:51 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:52 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:53 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud.

Numbers 7:54 On the eighth day was Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur, leader of the descendants of M’nasheh.

Numbers 7:55 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:56 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:57 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:58 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:59 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur.

Numbers 7:60 On the ninth day was Avidan the son of Gid’oni, leader of the descendants of Binyamin.

Numbers 7:61 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:62 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:63 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:64 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:65 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Avidan the son of Gid’oni.

Numbers 7:66 On the tenth day was Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai, leader of the descendants of Dan.

Numbers 7:67 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:68 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:69 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:70 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:71 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai.

Numbers 7:72 On the eleventh day was Pag’i’el the son of ‘Okhran, leader of the descendants of Asher.

Numbers 7:73 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:74 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:75 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:76 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:77 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Pag’i’el the son of ‘Okhran.

Numbers 7:78 On the twelfth day was Achira the son of ‘Enan, leader of the descendants of Naftali.

Numbers 7:79 He offered one silver dish weighing 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and one silver basin of seventy [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:80 one gold pan of ten [shekel]s [[one-quarter pound]], full of incense;

Numbers 7:81 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering,

Numbers 7:82 one male goat as a sin offering,

Numbers 7:83 and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Achira the son of ‘Enan.

Numbers 7:84 This was the offering for dedicating the altar which was given by the leaders of Isra’el on the day of its anointing: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver basins and twelve gold pans.

Numbers 7:85 Each silver dish weighed 130 [shekel]s [[three-and-a-quarter pounds]] and each basin seventy shekels [[one-and-three-quarters pounds]]; all the silver of the vessels weighed 2,400 [shekel]s (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[just over sixty pounds]].

Numbers 7:86 The twelve gold pans, full of incense, weighed ten [shekel]s apiece (using the sanctuary [shekel]) [[one-quarter pound]]; all the gold of the pans weighed 120 [shekel]s [[three pounds]].

Numbers 7:87 The livestock for the burnt offering consisted of twelve bulls, twelve rams and twelve male lambs in their first year, with their grain offering. There were twelve male goats for a sin offering.

Numbers 7:88 The livestock for the sacrifice of peace offerings consisted of twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats and sixty male lambs in their first year. This was the offering for dedicating the altar after it had been anointed.

Numbers 7:89 When Moshe went into the tent of meeting in order to speak with ADONAI, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the ark-cover on the ark for the testimony, from between the two [k'ruvim]; and he spoke to him.

Numbers 8:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 8:2 "Tell Aharon, 'When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps are to cast their light forward, in front of the [menorah].'"

Numbers 8:3 Aharon did this: he lit its lamps so as to give light in front of the [menorah], as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 8:4 Here is how the [menorah] was made: it was hammered gold from its base to its flowers, hammered work, following the pattern ADONAI had shown Moshe. This is how he made the [menorah.]

Numbers 8:5 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 8:6 "Take the [L'vi'im] from among the people of Isra'el and cleanse them.

Numbers 8:7 Here is how you are to cleanse them: sprinkle the purification water on them, have them shave their whole body with a razor, and have them wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.

Numbers 8:8 Then they are to take a young bull with its grain offering, which is to be fine flour mixed with olive oil; while you take another bull for a sin offering.

Numbers 8:9 You are to present the [L'vi'im] in front of the tent of meeting, and assemble the entire community of the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 8:10 You will present the [L'vi'im] before ADONAI, the people of Isra'el will lay their hands on the [L'vi'im], Numbers 8:11 and Aharon will offer the [L'vi'im] before ADONAI as a wave offering from the people of Isra'el, so that they may do ADONAI's service.

Numbers 8:12 The [L'vi'im] will lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; the one you will offer as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to ADONAI to make atonement for the [L'vi'im].

Numbers 8:13 You are to place the [L'vi'im] before Aharon and his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to ADONAI.

Numbers 8:14 In this way you will separate the [L'vi'im] from the people of Isra'el, and the [L'vi'im] will belong to me.

Numbers 8:15 “After that, the [L’vi’im] will enter and do the service of the tent of meeting. You will cleanse them and offer them as a wave offering,

Numbers 8:16 because they are entirely given to me from among the people of Isra’el; I have taken them for myself in place of all those who come first out of the womb, that is, the firstborn males of the people of Isra’el.

Numbers 8:17 For all the firstborn among the people of Isra’el are mine, both humans and animals; on the day I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I set them apart for myself.

Numbers 8:18 But I have taken the [L’vi’im] in place of all the firstborn among the people of Isra’el,

Numbers 8:19 and I have given the [L’vi’im] to Aharon and his sons from among the people of Isra’el to do the service of the people of Isra’el in the tent of meeting and to make atonement for the people of Isra’el, so that no plague will fall on the people of Isra’el in consequence of their coming too close to the sanctuary.”

Numbers 8:20 This is what Moshe, Aharon and all the community of the people of Isra’el did to the [L’vi’im.] The people of Isra’el acted in accordance with everything that ADONAI had ordered Moshe in regard to the [L’vi’im.]

Numbers 8:21 The [L’vi’im] purified themselves and washed their clothes. Then Aharon offered them as a holy gift before ADONAI and made atonement for them in order to cleanse them.

Numbers 8:22 After that, the [L’vi’im] came to do their service in the tent of meeting in front of Aharon and his sons; they acted in accordance with ADONAI’s orders to Moshe in regard to the [L’vi’im].

Numbers 8:23 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 8:24 “Here are instructions concerning the [L’vi’im]: when they reach the age of twenty-five, they are to begin performing their duties serving in the tent of meeting;

Numbers 8:25 and when they reach the age of fifty, they are to stop performing this work and not serve any longer.

Numbers 8:26 They will assist their brothers who are performing their duties in the tent of meeting, but they themselves will not do any of the work. This is what you are to do with the [L’vi’im] in regard to their duties.” [(iii)]

Numbers 9:1 ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the Sinai Desert in the first month of the second year after they had left the land of Egypt; he said, Numbers 9:2 “Let the people of Isra’el observe [Pesach] at its designated time.

Numbers 9:3 On the fourteenth day of this month, at dusk, you are to observe it- at its designated time. You are to observe it according to all its regulations and rules."

Numbers 9:4 Moshe told the people of Isra'el to observe [Pesach.]

Numbers 9:5 So they observed [Pesach] at dusk on the fourteenth day of the month in the Sinai Desert; the people of Isra'el acted in accordance with all that ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 9:6 But there were certain people who had become unclean because of someone's corpse, so that they could not observe [Pesach] on that day. So they came before Moshe and Aharon that day

Numbers 9:7 and said to him, "We are unclean because of someone's corpse; but why must we be kept from bringing the offering for ADONAI at the time designated for the people of Isra'el?"

Numbers 9:8 Moshe answered them, "Wait, so that I can hear what ADONAI will order concerning you."

Numbers 9:9 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 9:10 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'If any of you now or in future generations is unclean because of a corpse, or if he is on a trip abroad, nevertheless he is to observe [Pesach.]

Numbers 9:11 But he will observe it in the second month on the fourteenth day at dusk. They are to eat it with [matzah] and [maror],

Numbers 9:12 they are to leave none of it until morning, and they are not to break any of its bones- they are to observe it according to all the regulations of [Pesach.]

Numbers 9:13 But the person who is clean and not on a trip who fails to observe [Pesach] will be cut off from his people; because he did not bring the offering for ADONAI at its designated time, that person will bear the consequences of his sin.

Numbers 9:14 If a foreigner is staying with you and wants to observe [Pesach] for ADONAI, he is to do it according to the regulations and rules of [Pesach] [-] you are to have the same law for the foreigner as for the citizen of the land.'"

Numbers 9:15 On the day the tabernacle was put up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, that is, the tent of the testimony; and in the evening, over the tabernacle was what appeared to be fire, which remained until morning.

Numbers 9:16 So the cloud always covered it, and it looked like fire at night.

Numbers 9:17 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tent, the people of Isra'el continued their travels; and they camped wherever the cloud stopped.

Numbers 9:18 At the order of ADONAI, the people of Isra'el traveled; at the order of ADONAI, they camped; and as long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they stayed in camp.

Numbers 9:19 Even when the cloud remained on the tabernacle for a long time, the people of Isra'el did what ADONAI had charged them to do and did not travel.

Numbers 9:20 Sometimes the cloud was a few days over the tabernacle; according to ADONAI's order, they remained in camp; and according to ADONAI's order, they traveled.

Numbers 9:21 Sometimes the cloud was there only from evening until morning; so that when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled. Or even if it continued up both day and night, when the cloud was up, they traveled.

Numbers 9:22 Whether it was two days, a month or a year that the cloud remained over the tabernacle, staying on it, the people of Isra'el remained in camp and did not travel; but as soon as it was taken up, they traveled.

Numbers 9:23 At ADONAI's order, they camped; and at ADONAI's order, they traveled- they did what ADONAI had charged them to do through Moshe.

Numbers 10:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 10:2 “Make two trumpets; make them of hammered silver. Use them for summoning the community and for sounding the call to break camp and move on.

Numbers 10:3 When they are sounded, the entire community is to assemble before you at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 10:4 If only one is sounded, then just the leaders, the heads of the clans of Isra'el, are to assemble before you.

Numbers 10:5 “When you sound an alarm, the camps to the east will commence traveling.

Numbers 10:6 When you sound a second alarm, the camps to the south will set out; they will sound alarms to announce when to travel.

Numbers 10:7 However, when the community is to be assembled, you are to sound; but don't sound an alarm.

Numbers 10:8 It will be the sons of Aharon, the [cohanim], who are to sound the trumpets; this will be a permanent regulation for you through all your generations.

Numbers 10:9 “When you go to war in your land against an adversary who is oppressing you, you are to sound an alarm with the trumpets; then you will be remembered before ADONAI your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

Numbers 10:10 “Also on your days of rejoicing, at your designated times and on [Rosh-Hodesh], you are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; these will be your reminder before your God. I am ADONAI your God.”

Numbers 10:11 On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony;

Numbers 10:12 and the people of Isra’el moved out in stages from the Sinai Desert. The cloud stopped in the Pa’ran Desert.

Numbers 10:13 So they set out on their first journey, in keeping with ADONAI’s order through Moshe.

Numbers 10:14 In the lead was the banner of the camp of the descendants of Y’hudah, whose companies moved forward; over his company was Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav.

Numbers 10:15 Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of Yissakhar was N’tan’el the son of Tzu’ar.

Numbers 10:16 Over the company of the descendants of Z’vulun was Eli’av the son of Helon.

Numbers 10:17 Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the descendants of Gershon and the descendants of M’rari set out, carrying the tabernacle.

Numbers 10:18 Next, the banner of the camp of Re’uven moved forward by companies; over his company was Elitzur the son of Sh’de’ur.

Numbers 10:19 Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of Shim’on was Shlumi’el the son of Tzurishaddai.

Numbers 10:20 Over the company of the descendants of Gad was Elyasaf the son of De’u’el.

Numbers 10:21 Then the descendants of K’hat set out, carrying the sanctuary, so that [[at the next camp]] the tabernacle could be set up before they arrived.

Numbers 10:22 The banner of the camp of the descendants of Efrayim moved forward by companies; over his company was Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud.

Numbers 10:23 Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of M’nasheh was Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur.

Numbers 10:24 Over the company of the descendants of Binyamin was Avidan the son of Gid’oni.

Numbers 10:25 The banner of the camp of the descendants of Dan, forming the rearguard for all the camps, moved forward by companies; over his company was Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai.

Numbers 10:26 Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of Asher was Pag’i’el the son of ‘Okhran.

Numbers 10:27 Over the company of the descendants of Naftali was Achira the son of ‘Enan.

Numbers 10:28 This is how the people of Isra’el traveled by companies; thus they moved forward.

Numbers 10:29 Moshe said to Hovav the son of Re’u’el the Midyani, Moshe’s father-in-law, “We are traveling to the place about which ADONAI said, ‘I will give it to you.’ Come with us, and we will treat you well, because ADONAI has promised good things to Isra’el.”

Numbers 10:30 But he replied, “I will not go; I would rather go back to my own country and my own kinsmen.”

Numbers 10:31 Moshe continued, “Please don’t leave us, because you know that we have to camp in the desert, and you can serve as our eyes.

Numbers 10:32 If you do go with us, then whatever good ADONAI does for us, we will do the same for you.”

Numbers 10:33 So they set out from ADONAI’s mountain and traveled for three days. Ahead of them on this three-day journey went the ark of ADONAI’s covenant, searching for a new place to stop.

Numbers 10:34 The cloud of ADONAI was over them during the day as they set out from the camp.

Numbers 10:35 When the ark moved forward, Moshe said, “Arise, ADONAI! May your enemies be scattered! Let those who hate you flee before you!”

Numbers 10:36 When it stopped, he said, “Return, ADONAI of the many, many thousands of Isra’el!”

Numbers 11:1 But the people began complaining about their hardships to ADONAI. When ADONAI heard it, his anger flared up, so that fire from ADONAI broke out against them and consumed the outskirts of the camp.

Numbers 11:2 Then the people cried to Moshe, Moshe prayed to ADONAI, and the fire abated.

Numbers 11:3 That place was called Tav’erah [[burning]] because ADONAI’s fire broke out against them.

Numbers 11:4 Next, the mixed crowd that was with them grew greedy for an easier life; while the people of Isra’el, for their part, also renewed their weeping and said, “If only we had meat to eat!

Numbers 11:5 We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt- it cost us nothing!- and the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, the garlic!

Numbers 11:6 But now we’re withering away, we have nothing to look at but this [man.]”

Numbers 11:7 The [man], by the way, was like coriander seed and white like gum resin.

Numbers 11:8 The people would go around gathering it and would grind it up in mills or pound it to paste with mortar and pestle. Then they would cook it in pots and make it into loaves that tasted like cakes baked with olive oil.

Numbers 11:9 When the dew settled on the camp during the night, the [man] came with it.

Numbers 11:10 Moshe heard the people crying, family after family, each person at the entrance to his tent; the anger of ADONAI flared up violently; and Moshe too was displeased.

Numbers 11:11 Moshe asked ADONAI, “Why are you treating your servant so badly? Why haven’t I found favor in your sight, so that you put the burden of this entire people on me?

Numbers 11:12 Did I conceive this people? Was I their father, so that you tell me, ‘Carry them in your arms, like a nurse carrying a baby, to the land you swore to their ancestors?’

Numbers 11:13 Where am I going to get meat to give to this entire people?- because they keep bothering me with their crying and saying, ‘Give us meat to eat!’

Numbers 11:14 I can’t carry this entire people by myself alone- it’s too much for me!

Numbers 11:15 If you are going to treat me this way, then just kill me outright!- please, if you have any mercy toward me!- and don’t let me go on being this miserable!”

Numbers 11:16 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Bring me seventy of the leaders of Isra’el, people you recognize as leaders of the people and officers of theirs. Bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them stand there with you.

Numbers 11:17 I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take some of the Spirit which rests on you and put it on them. Then they will carry the burden of the people along with you, so that you won’t carry it yourself alone.

Numbers 11:18 “Tell the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you will eat meat; because you cried in the ears of ADONAI, “If only we had meat to eat! We had the good life in Egypt!” All right, ADONAI is going to give you meat, and you will eat it.

Numbers 11:19 You won’t eat it just one day, or two days, or five, or ten, or twenty days, Numbers 11:20 but a whole month!- until it comes out of your nose and you hate it!- because you have rejected ADONAI, who is here with you, and distressed him with your crying and asking, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?”“

Numbers 11:21 But Moshe said, “Here I am with six hundred thousand men on foot, and yet you say, ‘I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!’

Numbers 11:22 If whole flocks and herds were slaughtered for them, would it be enough? If all the fish in the sea were collected for them, would even that be enough?”

Numbers 11:23 ADONAI answered Moshe, “Has ADONAI’s arm grown short? Now you will see whether what I said will happen or not!”

Numbers 11:24 Moshe went out and told the people what ADONAI had said. Then he collected seventy of the leaders of the people and placed them all around the tent.

Numbers 11:25 ADONAI came down in the cloud, spoke to him, took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy leaders. When the Spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied- then but not afterwards.

Numbers 11:26 There were two men who stayed in the camp, one named Eldad and the other Medad, and the Spirit came to rest on them. They were among those listed to go out to the tent, but they hadn’t done so, and they prophesied in the camp.

Numbers 11:27 A young man ran and told Moshe, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!”

Numbers 11:28 Y’hoshua, the son of Nun, who from his youth up had been Moshe’s assistant, answered, “My lord, Moshe, stop them!”

Numbers 11:29 But Moshe replied, “Are you so zealous to protect me? I wish all of ADONAI’s people were prophets! I wish ADONAI would put his Spirit on all of them!”

Numbers 11:30 Moshe and the leaders of Isra’el went back into the camp;

Numbers 11:31 and ADONAI sent out a wind which brought quails from across the sea and let them fall near the camp, about a day’s trip away on each side of the camp and all around it, covering the ground to a depth of three feet.

Numbers 11:32 The people stayed up all that day, all night and all the next day gathering the quails- the person gathering the least collected ten heaps; then they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

Numbers 11:33 But while the meat was still in their mouth, before they had chewed it up, the anger of ADONAI flared up against the people, and ADONAI struck the people with a terrible plague.

Numbers 11:34 Therefore that place was named Kivrot-HaTa’avah [[graves of greed]], because there they buried the people who were so greedy.

Numbers 11:35 From Kivrot-HaTa’avah the people traveled to Hatzerot, and they stayed at Hatzerot.

Numbers 12:1 Miryam and Aharon began criticizing Moshe on account of the Ethiopian woman he had married, for he had in fact married an Ethiopian woman.

Numbers 12:2 They said, “Is it true that ADONAI has spoken only with Moshe? Hasn’t he spoken with us too?” ADONAI heard them.

Numbers 12:3 Now this man Moshe was very humble, more so than anyone on earth.

Numbers 12:4 Suddenly ADONAI told Moshe, Aharon and Miryam, “Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting.” The three of them went out.

Numbers 12:5 ADONAI came down in a column of cloud and stood at the entrance to the tent. He summoned Aharon and Miryam, and they both went forward.

Numbers 12:6 He said, “Listen to what I say: when there is a prophet among you, I, ADONAI, make myself known to him in a vision, I speak with him in a dream.

Numbers 12:7 But it isn’t that way with my servant Moshe. He is the only one who is faithful in my entire household.

Numbers 12:8 With him I speak face to face and clearly, not in riddles; he sees the image of ADONAI. So why weren’t you afraid to criticize my servant Moshe?”

Numbers 12:9 The anger of ADONAI flared up against them, and he left.

Numbers 12:10 But when the cloud was removed from above the tent, Miryam had [tzara’at], as white as snow. Aharon looked at Miryam, and she was as white as snow.

Numbers 12:11 Aharon said to Moshe, “Oh, my lord, please don’t punish us for this sin we committed so foolishly.

Numbers 12:12 Please don’t let her be like a stillborn baby, with its body half eaten away when it comes out of its mother’s womb!”

Numbers 12:13 Moshe cried to ADONAI, “Oh God, I beg you, please, heal her!”

Numbers 12:14 ADONAI answered Moshe, “If her father had merely spit in her face, wouldn’t she hide herself in shame for seven days? So let her be shut out of the camp for seven days; after that, she can be brought back in.”

Numbers 12:15 Miryam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not travel until she was brought back in.

Numbers 12:16 Afterwards, the people went on from Hatzerot and camped in the Pa’ran Desert.

Numbers 13:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 13:2 “Send men on your behalf to reconnoiter the land of Kena’an, which I am giving to the people of Isra’el. From each ancestral tribe send someone who is a leader in his tribe.”

Numbers 13:3 Moshe dispatched them from the Pa’ran Desert as ADONAI had ordered; all of them were leading men among the people of Isra’el.

Numbers 13:4 Here are their names: from the tribe of Re’uven, Shamua the son of Zakur;

Numbers 13:5 from the tribe of Shim’on, Shafat the son of Hori;

Numbers 13:6 from the tribe of Y’hudah, Kalev the son of Y’funeh;

Numbers 13:7 from the tribe of Yissakhar, Yig’al the son of Yosef;

Numbers 13:8 from the tribe of Efrayim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

Numbers 13:9 from the tribe of Binyamin, Palti the son of Rafu;

Numbers 13:10 from the tribe of Z’vulun, Gadi’el the son of Sodi;

Numbers 13:11 from the tribe of Yosef, that is, from the tribe of M’nasheh, Gadi the son of Susi;

Numbers 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, ‘Ammi’el the son of G’malli;

Numbers 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, S’tur the son of Mikha’el;

Numbers 13:14 from the tribe of Naftali, Nachbi the son of Vofsi; and Numbers 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Ge’u’el the son of Makhi.

Numbers 13:16 These are the names of the men Moshe sent out to reconnoiter the land. Moshe gave to Hoshea the son of Nun the name Y’hoshua.

Numbers 13:17 Moshe sent them to reconnoiter the land of Kena’an, instructing them, “Go on up to the Negev and into the hills,

Numbers 13:18 and see what the land is like. Notice the people living there, whether they are strong or weak, few or many;

Numbers 13:19 and what kind of country they live in, whether it is good or bad; and what kind of cities they live in, open or fortified.

Numbers 13:20 See whether the land is fertile or unproductive and whether there is wood in it or not. Finally, be bold enough to bring back some of the fruit of the land.” When they left it was the season for the first grapes to ripen.

Numbers 13:21 They went up and reconnoitered the land from the Tzin Desert to Rechov near the entrance to Hamat.

Numbers 13:22 They went up into the Negev and arrived at Hevron; Achiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the ‘Anakim, lived there. (Hevron was built seven years before Tzo’an in Egypt.)

Numbers 13:23 They came to the Eshkol Valley; and there they cut off a branch bearing one cluster of grapes, which they carried on a pole between two of them; they also took pomegranates and figs.

Numbers 13:24 That place was called the Valley of Eshkol [[cluster]], because of the cluster which the people of Isra'el cut down there.

Numbers 13:25 Forty days later, they returned from reconnoitering the land

Numbers 13:26 and went to Moshe, Aharon and the entire community of the people of Isra'el at Kadesh in the Pa'ran Desert, where they brought back word to them and to the entire community and showed them the fruit of the land.

Numbers 13:27 What they told him was this: "We entered the land where you sent us, and indeed it does flow with milk and honey- here is its fruit!

Numbers 13:28 However the people living in the land are fierce, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the 'Anakim there.

Numbers 13:29 'Amalek lives in the area of the Negev; the Hitti, the Y'vusi and the Emori live in the hills; and the Kena'ani live by the sea and alongside the Yarden."

Numbers 13:30 Kalev silenced the people around Moshe and said, "We ought to go up immediately and take possession of it; there is no question that we can conquer it."

Numbers 13:31 But the men who had gone with him said, "We can't attack those people, because they are stronger than we are";

Numbers 13:32 and they spread a negative report about the land they had reconnoitered for the people of Isra'el by saying, "The land we passed through in order to spy it out is a land that devours its inhabitants. All the people we saw there were giant!

Numbers 13:33 We saw the N'filim, the descendants of 'Anak, who was from the N'filim; to ourselves we looked like grasshoppers by comparison, and we looked that way to them too!"

Numbers 14:1 At this all the people of Isra'el cried out in dismay and wept all night long.

Numbers 14:2 Moreover, all the people of Isra'el began grumbling against Moshe and Aharon; the whole community told them, "We wish we had died in the land of Egypt! or that we had died here in the desert!

Numbers 14:3 Why is ADONAI bringing us to this land, where we will die by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will be taken as booty! Wouldn't it be better for us to return to Egypt?"

Numbers 14:4 And they said to each other, "Let's appoint a leader and return to Egypt!"

Numbers 14:5 Moshe and Aharon fell on their faces before the entire assembled community of the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 14:6 Y'hoshua the son of Nun and Kalev the son of Y'funeh, from the detachment that had reconnoitered the land, tore their clothes

Numbers 14:7 and said to the whole community of Isra'el, "The land we passed through in order to spy it out is an outstandingly good land!

Numbers 14:8 If ADONAI is pleased with us, then he will bring us into this land and give it to us- a land flowing with milk and honey.

Numbers 14:9 Just don't rebel against [ADONAI.] And don't be afraid of the people living in the land- we'll eat them up! Their defense has been taken away from them, and ADONAI is with us! Don't be afraid of them!"

Numbers 14:10 But just as the whole community were saying they should be stoned to death, the glory of ADONAI appeared in the tent of meeting to all the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 14:11 ADONAI said to Moshe, "How much longer is this people going to treat me with contempt? How much longer will they not trust me, especially considering all the signs I have performed among them?

Numbers 14:12 I am going to strike them with sickness, destroy them and make from you a nation greater and stronger than they are!"

Numbers 14:13 However, Moshe replied to ADONAI, "When the Egyptians hear about this- [[and they will,]] because it was from among them that you, by your strength, brought this people up-

Numbers 14:14 they will tell the people living in this land. They have heard that you, ADONAI, are with this people; that you, ADONAI, are seen face to face; that your cloud stands over them; that you go ahead of them in a column of cloud by day and a column of fire by night.

Numbers 14:15 If you kill off this people at a single stroke, then the nations that have heard of your reputation will say

Numbers 14:16 that the reason ADONAI slaughtered this people in the desert is that he wasn't able to bring them into the land which he swore to give them.

Numbers 14:17 So now, please, let [Adonai]'s power be as great as when you said,

Numbers 14:18 'ADONAI is slow to anger, rich in grace, forgiving offenses and crimes; yet not exonerating the guilty, but causing the negative effects of the parents' offenses to be experienced by their children and even by the third and fourth generations.'

Numbers 14:19 Please! Forgive the offense of this people according to the greatness of your grace, just as you have borne with this people from Egypt until now."

Numbers 14:20 ADONAI answered, “I have forgiven, as you have asked.

Numbers 14:21 But as sure as I live, and that the whole earth is filled with the glory of ADONAI,

Numbers 14:22 none of the people who saw my glory and the signs I did in Egypt and in the desert, yet tested me these ten times and did not listen to my voice,

Numbers 14:23 will see the land I swore to their ancestors! None of those who treated me with contempt will see it.

Numbers 14:24 But my servant Kalev, because he had a different Spirit with him and has fully followed me- him I will bring into the land he entered, and it will belong to his descendants.

Numbers 14:25 “Now, since the ‘Amaleki and the Kena’ani are living in the valley, tomorrow turn around and get yourselves into the desert along the way to the Sea of [Suf].”

Numbers 14:26 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Numbers 14:27 “How long am I to put up with this evil community who keep grumbling about me? I have heard the complaints of the people of Isra’el, which they continue to raise against me.

Numbers 14:28 Tell them this: ‘As surely as I live, ADONAI swears, as surely as you have spoken in my ears, I will do this to you:

Numbers 14:29 your carcasses will fall in this desert! Every single one of you who were included in the census over the age of twenty, you who have complained against me,

Numbers 14:30 will certainly not enter the land about which I raised my hand to swear that I would have you live in it- except for Kalev the son of Y’funeh and Y’hoshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 14:31 But your little ones, who you said would be taken as booty- them I will bring in. They will know the land you have rejected.

Numbers 14:32 But you, your carcasses will fall in this desert;

Numbers 14:33 and your children will wander about in the desert for forty years bearing the consequences of your prostitutions until the desert eats up your carcasses.

Numbers 14:34 It will be a year for every day you spent reconnoitering the land that you will bear the consequences of your offenses- forty days, forty years. Then you will know what it means to oppose me!

Numbers 14:35 I, ADONAI, have spoken.’ I will certainly do this to this whole evil community who have assembled together against me- they will be destroyed in this desert and die there.”

Numbers 14:36 The men whom Moshe had sent to reconnoiter the land and who, when they returned, made the entire community complain against him by giving an unfavorable report about the land-

Numbers 14:37 those men who gave the unfavorable report about the land died by the plague in the presence of ADONAI.

Numbers 14:38 Of the men who went to reconnoiter the land, only Y'hoshua the son of Nun and Kalev the son of Y'funeh remained alive.

Numbers 14:39 When Moshe told these things to all the people of Isra'el, the people felt great remorse.

Numbers 14:40 They arose early the next morning, came up to the top of the mountain and said, "Here we are, and we did sin, but now we'll go up to the place ADONAI promised."

Numbers 14:41 Moshe answered, "Why are you opposing what ADONAI said? You won't succeed!

Numbers 14:42 Don't go up there, because ADONAI isn't with you. If you do, your enemies will defeat you.

Numbers 14:43 The 'Amalekim and the Kena'anim are there ahead of you, and you will be struck down by the sword. The reason will be that you have turned away from following ADONAI, so that ADONAI won't be with you."

Numbers 14:44 But they were presumptuous and went on up toward the high parts of the hill-country, even though the ark for the covenant of ADONAI- and Moshe- stayed in the camp.

Numbers 14:45 So the 'Amalekim and the Kena'anim living in that hill-country descended, struck them down and beat them back all the way to Hormah.

Numbers 15:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 15:2 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'When you have come into the land where you are going to live, which I am giving to you,

Numbers 15:3 and want to make an offering by fire to ADONAI- a burnt offering or sacrifice to fulfill a special vow, or to be a voluntary offering, or at your designated times, to make a fragrant aroma for ADONAI- then, whether it is comes from the herd or from the flock,

Numbers 15:4 the person bringing the offering is to present ADONAI with a grain offering consisting of two quarts of fine flour mixed with one quart of olive oil,

Numbers 15:5 and one quart of wine for the drink offering. This is what you are to prepare with the burnt offering or for each lamb sacrificed.

Numbers 15:6 "'For a ram, prepare one gallon of fine flour mixed with one-and-one-third quarts of olive oil;

Numbers 15:7 while for the drink offering, you are to present one-and-one-third quarts of wine as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Numbers 15:8 "'When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering, as a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow or as peace offerings for ADONAI, Numbers 15:9 there is to be presented with the bull a grain offering of one-and-a-half gallons of fine flour mixed with two quarts of olive oil.

Numbers 15:10 For the drink offering, present two quarts of wine for an offering made by fire, a fragant aroma for ADONAI.

Numbers 15:11 "'Do it this way for each bull, ram, male lamb or kid.

Numbers 15:12 For as many animals as you prepare, do this for each one, regardless of how many animals there are.

Numbers 15:13 "'Every citizen is to do these things in this way when presenting an offering made by fire as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Numbers 15:14 If a foreigner stays with you- or whoever may be with you, through all your generations- and he wants to bring an offering made by fire as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI, he is to do the same as you.

Numbers 15:15 For this community there will be the same law for you as for the foreigner living with you; this is a permanent regulation through all your generations; the foreigner is to be treated the same way before ADONAI as yourselves.

Numbers 15:16 The same [Torah] and standard of judgment will apply to both you and the foreigner living with you.'"

Numbers 15:17 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 15:18 "Speak to the people of Isra'el; tell them, 'When you enter the land where I am bringing you

Numbers 15:19 and eat bread produced in the land, you are to set aside a portion as a gift for ADONAI.

Numbers 15:20 Set aside from your first dough a cake as a gift; set it aside as you would set aside a portion of the grain from the threshing-floor.

Numbers 15:21 From your first dough you will give ADONAI a portion as a gift through all your generations.

Numbers 15:22 "'If by mistake you fail to observe all these [mitzvot] that ADONAI has spoken to Moshe,

Numbers 15:23 yes, everything that ADONAI has ordered you to do through Moshe, from the day ADONAI gave the order and onward through all your generations,

Numbers 15:24 then, if it was done by mistake by the community and was not known to them, the whole community is to offer one young bull for a burnt offering as a fragrant aroma to ADONAI, with its grain and drink offerings, in keeping with the rule, and one male goat as a sin offering.

Numbers 15:25 The [cohen] is to make atonement for the whole community of the people of Isra’el; and they will be forgiven; because it was a mistake; and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire, to ADONAI, and their sin offering before ADONAI for their mistake.

Numbers 15:26 The whole community of the people of Isra’el will be forgiven, likewise the foreigner staying with them; because for all the people it was a mistake.

Numbers 15:27 “‘If an individual sins by mistake, he is to offer a female goat in its first year as a sin offering.

Numbers 15:28 The [cohen] will make atonement before ADONAI for the person who makes a mistake by sinning inadvertently; he will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven-

Numbers 15:29 no matter whether he is a citizen of Isra’el or a foreigner living with them. You are to have one law for whoever it is that does something wrong by mistake.

Numbers 15:30 “‘But an individual who does something wrong intentionally, whether a citizen or a foreigner, is blaspheming ADONAI. That person will be cut off from his people.

Numbers 15:31 Because he has had contempt for the word of ADONAI and has disobeyed his command, that person will be cut off completely; his offense will remain with him.’“

Numbers 15:32 While the people of Isra’el were in the desert, they found a man gathering wood on [Shabbat.]

Numbers 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moshe, Aharon and the whole congregation.

Numbers 15:34 They kept him in custody, because it had not yet been decided what to do to him.

Numbers 15:35 Then ADONAI said to Moshe, “This man must be put to death; the entire community is to stone him to death outside the camp.”

Numbers 15:36 So the whole community brought him outside the camp and threw stones at him until he died, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 15:37 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 15:38 “Speak to the people of Isra’el, instructing them to make, through all their generations, [tzitziyot] on the corners of their garments, and to put with the [tzitzit] on each corner a blue thread.

Numbers 15:39 It is to be a [tzitzit] for you to look at and thereby remember all of ADONAI’s [mitzvot] and obey them, so that you won’t go around wherever your own heart and eyes lead you to prostitute yourselves;

Numbers 15:40 but it will help you remember and obey all my [mitzvot] and be holy for your God.

Numbers 15:41 I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to be your God. I am ADONAI your God."

Numbers 16:1 Now Korach the son of Yitz'har, the son of K'hat, the son of Levi, along with Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av, and On, the son of Pelet, descendants of Re'uven, took men and Numbers 16:2 rebelled against Moshe. Siding with them were 250 men of Isra'el, leaders of the community, key members of the council, men of reputation.

Numbers 16:3 They assembled themselves against Moshe and Aharon and said to them, "You take too much on yourselves! After all, the entire community is holy, every one of them, and ADONAI is among them. So why do you lift yourselves up above ADONAI's assembly?"

Numbers 16:4 When Moshe heard this he fell on his face.

Numbers 16:5 Then he said to Korach and his whole group, "In the morning, ADONAI will show who are his and who is the holy person he will allow to approach him. Yes, he will bring whomever he chooses near to himself.

Numbers 16:6 Do this: take censers, Korach and all your group;

Numbers 16:7 put fire in them; and put incense in them before ADONAI tomorrow. The one whom ADONAI chooses will be the one who is holy! It is you, you sons of Levi, who are taking too much on yourselves!"

Numbers 16:8 Then Moshe said to Korach, "Listen here, you sons of Levi!

Numbers 16:9 Is it for you a mere trifle that the God of Isra'el has separated you from the community of Isra'el to bring you close to himself, so that you can do the work in the tabernacle of ADONAI and stand before the community serving them?

Numbers 16:10 He has brought you close and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you. Now you want the office of [cohen] too!

Numbers 16:11 That's why you and your group have gathered together against ADONAI! After all, what is Aharon that you complain against him?"

Numbers 16:12 Then Moshe sent to summon Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av. But they replied, "We won't come up!

Numbers 16:13 Is it such a mere trifle, bringing us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the desert, that now you arrogate to yourself the role of dictator over us?

Numbers 16:14 You haven't at all brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, and you haven't put us in possession of fields and vineyards. Do you think you can gouge out these men's eyes and blind them? We won't come up!"

Numbers 16:15 Moshe was very angry and said to ADONAI, "Don't accept their grain offering! I haven't taken one donkey from them, I've done nothing wrong to any of them."

Numbers 16:16 Moshe said to Korach, "You and your group, be there before ADONAI tomorrow- you, they and Aharon.

Numbers 16:17 Each of you take his fire pan and put incense in it; every one of you, bring before ADONAI his fire pan, 250 fire pans, you too, and Aharon- each one his fire pan."

Numbers 16:18 Each man took his fire pan, put fire in it, laid incense on it and stood at the entrance to the tent of meeting with Moshe and Aharon.

Numbers 16:19 Korach assembled all the group who were against them at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then the glory of ADONAI appeared to the whole assembly.

Numbers 16:20 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Numbers 16:21 "Separate yourselves from this assembly; I'm going to destroy them right now!"

Numbers 16:22 They fell on their faces and said, "Oh God, God of the spirits of all humankind, if one person sins, are you going to be angry with the entire assembly?"

Numbers 16:23 ADONAI answered Moshe,

Numbers 16:24 "Tell the assembly to move away from the homes of Korach, Datan and Aviram."

Numbers 16:25 Moshe got up and went to Datan and Aviram, and the leaders of Isra'el followed him.

Numbers 16:26 There he said to the assembly, "Leave the tents of these wicked men! Don't touch anything that belongs to them, or you may be swept away in all their sins."

Numbers 16:27 So they moved away from all around the area where Korach, Datan and Aviram lived. Then Datan and Aviram came out and stood at the entrance to their tents with their wives, sons and little ones.

Numbers 16:28 Moshe said, "Here is how you will know that ADONAI has sent me to do all these things and that I haven't done them out of my own ambition:

Numbers 16:29 if these men die a natural death like other people, only sharing the fate common to all humanity, then ADONAI has not sent me.

Numbers 16:30 But if ADONAI does something new- if the ground opens up and swallows them with everything they own, and they go down alive to Sh'ol- then you will understand that these men have had contempt for ADONAI."

Numbers 16:31 The moment he finished speaking, the ground under them split apart-

Numbers 16:32 the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up with their households, all the people who had sided with Korach and everything they owned.

Numbers 16:33 So they and everything they owned went down alive into Sh'ol, the earth closed over them and their existence in the community ceased.

Numbers 16:34 All Isra'el around them fled at their shrieks, shouting, "The earth might swallow us too!"

Numbers 16:35 Then fire came out from ADONAI and destroyed the 250 men who had offered the incense.

Numbers 17:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 17:2 "Tell El'azar the son of Aharon the [cohen] to remove the fire pans from the fire, and scatter the smoldering coals at a distance, because they have become holy.

Numbers 17:3 Also the fire pans of these men, whose sin cost them their lives, have become holy, because they were offered before ADONAI. Therefore, have them hammered into plates to cover the altar. This will be a sign for the people of Isra'el."

Numbers 17:4 El'azar the [cohen] took the brass fire pans which the men who had been burned to death had offered, and they hammered them into a covering for the altar,

Numbers 17:5 to remind the people of Isra'el that an ordinary person, not descended from Aharon, is not to approach and burn incense before ADONAI, if he wants to avoid the fate of Korach and his group- as ADONAI had said to him through Moshe.

Numbers 17:6 But the very next day, the whole community of the people of Isra'el complained against Moshe and Aharon: "You have killed ADONAI's people!"

Numbers 17:7 However, as the community was assembling against Moshe and Aharon, they looked in the direction of the tent of meeting and saw the cloud cover it and the glory of ADONAI appear.

Numbers 17:8 Moshe and Aharon came to the front of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 17:9 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 17:10 "Get away from this assembly, and I will destroy them at once!" But they fell on their faces.

Numbers 17:11 Moshe said to Aharon, “Take your fire pan, put fire from the altar in it, lay incense on it, and hurry with it to the assembly to make atonement for them, because anger has gone out from ADONAI, and the plague has already begun!”

Numbers 17:12 Aharon took it, as Moshe had said, and ran into the middle of the assembly. There the plague had already begun among the people, but he added the incense and made atonement for the people.

Numbers 17:13 He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped.

Numbers 17:14 Those dying from the plague numbered 14,700- besides those who died in the Korach incident.

Numbers 17:15 Aharon returned to Moshe at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and the plague was stopped.

Numbers 17:16 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 17:17 “Speak to the people of Isra’el, and take from them staffs, one for each ancestral tribe from each leader of a tribe, twelve staffs. Write each man’s name on his staff;

Numbers 17:18 and write Aharon’s name on the staff of Levi, for each tribe’s leader is to have one staff.

Numbers 17:19 Put them in the tent of meeting in front of the testimony, where I meet with you.

Numbers 17:20 The staff of the man I am going to choose will sprout buds- in this way I will put a stop to the complaints the people of Isra’el keep making against you.”

Numbers 17:21 Moshe spoke to the people of Isra’el, and all their leaders gave him staffs, one for each leader, according to their ancestral tribes, twelve staffs. Aharon’s staff was among their staffs.

Numbers 17:22 Moshe put the staffs before ADONAI in the tent of the testimony.

Numbers 17:23 The next day Moshe went into the tent of the testimony, and there he saw that Aharon’s staff for the house of Levi had budded- it had sprouted not only buds but flowers and ripe almonds as well.

Numbers 17:24 Moshe brought out all the staffs from before ADONAI to all the people of Isra’el, and they looked, and each man took back his staff.

Numbers 17:25 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Return Aharon’s staff to its place in front of the testimony. It is to be kept there as a sign to the rebels, so that they will stop grumbling against me and thus not die.”

Numbers 17:26 Moshe did this; he did as ADONAI had ordered him.

Numbers 17:27 But the people of Isra’el said to Moshe, “Oh no! We’re dead men! Lost! We’re all lost!

Numbers 17:28 Whenever anyone approaches the tabernacle of ADONAI, he dies! Will we all perish?"

Numbers 18:1 ADONAI said to Aharon, "You, your sons and your father's family line will be responsible for anything that goes wrong in the sanctuary. You and your sons with you will be responsible for anything wrong in your service as [cohanim].

Numbers 18:2 But you are to bring your kinsmen, the tribe of Levi, along with yourselves, to work together with you and help you- you and your sons with you- when you are there before the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:3 They are to be at your disposal and perform all kinds of tasks related to the tent; only they are not to come near the holy furnishings or the altar, so that neither they nor you will die.

Numbers 18:4 They will work together with you in your duties related to the tent of meeting, whatever the service in the tent may be; but an unauthorized person is not to come near you.

Numbers 18:5 You will take charge of all the holy things and the altar, so that there will no longer be anger against the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 18:6 I myself have taken your kinsmen the [L'vi'im] from among the people of Isra'el; they have been given as a gift to ADONAI for you, so that you can perform the service in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:7 You and your sons with you will exercise your prerogatives and duties as [cohanim] in regard to everything having to do with the altar and within the curtain. I entrust the service required of [cohanim] to you; the unauthorized person who tries to perform it is to be put to death."

Numbers 18:8 ADONAI said to Aharon, "I myself have put you in charge of the contributions given to me. Everything consecrated by the people of Isra'el I have given and set aside for you and your sons; this is a perpetual law.

Numbers 18:9 Here is what is to be yours of the especially holy things taken from the fire: every offering they make- that is, every grain offering, sin offering and guilt offering of theirs that they turn over to me- will be especially holy for you and your sons.

Numbers 18:10 You are to eat it in an especially holy place; every male may eat it; it will be set apart for you.

Numbers 18:11 "Also yours is the contribution the people of Isra'el give in the form of wave offerings. I have given these to you, your sons and your daughters with you; this is a perpetual law. Everyone in your family who is clean may eat it.

Numbers 18:12 All the best of the olive oil, wine and grain, the first portion of what they give to ADONAI, I have given to you.

Numbers 18:13 The first produce to turn ripe of all that is in their land, which they bring to ADONAI, is to be yours; every clean person in your family may eat it.

Numbers 18:14 “Everything in Isra’el which has been consecrated unconditionally is to be yours.

Numbers 18:15 “Everything that comes first out of the womb, of all living things which they offer to ADONAI, whether human or animal, will be yours. However, the firstborn of a human being you must redeem, and the firstborn of an unclean beast you are to redeem.

Numbers 18:16 The sum to be paid for redeeming anyone a month old or over is to be five [shekel]s of silver [[two ounces]], as you value it, using the sanctuary [shekel] (this is the same as twenty [gerah]s).

Numbers 18:17 But the firstborn of an ox, sheep or goat you are not to redeem; they are holy- you are to splash their blood against the altar and make their fat go up in smoke as an offering made by fire, as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Numbers 18:18 Their meat will be yours, like the breast that is waved and the right thigh- they will be yours.

Numbers 18:19 All the contributions of holy things which the people of Isra’el offer to ADONAI I have given to you, your sons and your daughters with you; this is a perpetual law, an eternal covenant of salt before ADONAI for you and your descendants with you.”

Numbers 18:20 ADONAI said to Aharon, “You are not to have any inheritance or portion in their land; I am your portion and inheritance among the people of Isra’el.

Numbers 18:21 “To the descendants of Levi I have given the entire tenth of the produce collected in Isra’el. It is their inheritance in payment for the service they render in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:22 From now on, the people of Isra’el are not to approach the tent of meeting, so that they will not bear the consequences of their sin and die.

Numbers 18:23 Only the [L’vi’im] are to perform the service in the tent of meeting, and they will be responsible for whatever they do wrong. This is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations. They are to have no inheritance among the people of Isra’el,

Numbers 18:24 because I have given to the [L’vi’im] as their inheritance the tenths of the produce which the people of Isra’el set aside as a gift for ADONAI. This is why I have said to them that they are to have no inheritance among the people of Isra’el.”

Numbers 18:25 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 18:26 “Tell the [L’vi’im], ‘When you take from the people of Isra’el the tenth of the produce which I have given you from them as your inheritance, you are to set aside from it a gift for ADONAI, one tenth of the tenth.

Numbers 18:27 The gift you set aside will be accounted to you as if it were grain from the threshing-floor and grape juice from the wine vat.

Numbers 18:28 In this way you will set aside a gift for ADONAI from all your tenths that you receive from the people of Isra'el, and from these tenths you are to give to Aharon the [cohen] the gift set aside for [ADONAI.]

Numbers 18:29 From everything given to you, you are to set aside all that is due ADONAI, the best part of it, its holy portion.'

Numbers 18:30 "Therefore you are to tell them, 'When you set aside from it its best part, it will be accounted to the [L'vi'im] as if it were grain from the threshing-floor and grape juice from the wine vat.

Numbers 18:31 You may eat it anywhere, you and your households; because it is your payment in return for your service in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:32 Moreover, because you will have set aside from it its best parts, you will not be committing any sin because of it; for you are not to profane the holy things of the people of Isra'el, or you will die.'"

Numbers 19:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon,

Numbers 19:2 "This is the regulation from the [Torah] which ADONAI has commanded. Tell the people of Isra'el to bring you a young red female cow without fault or defect and which has never borne a yoke.

Numbers 19:3 You are to give it to El'azar the [cohen]; it is to be brought outside the camp and slaughtered in front of him.

Numbers 19:4 El'azar the [cohen] is to take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle this blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.

Numbers 19:5 The heifer is to be burned to ashes before his eyes- its skin, meat, blood and dung is to be burned to ashes.

Numbers 19:6 The [cohen] is to take cedar-wood, hyssop and scarlet yarn and throw them onto the heifer as it is burning up.

Numbers 19:7 Then the [cohen] is to wash his clothes and himself in water, after which he may re-enter the camp; but the [cohen] will remain unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:8 The person who burned up the heifer is to wash his clothes and himself in water, but he will remain unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:9 A man who is clean is to collect the ashes of the heifer and store them outside the camp in a clean place. They are to be kept for the community of the people of Isra'el to prepare water for purification from sin.

Numbers 19:10 The one who collected the ashes of the heifer is to wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. For the people of Isra’el and for the foreigner staying with them this will be a permanent regulation.

Numbers 19:11 “Anyone who touches a corpse, no matter whose dead body it is, will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:12 He must purify himself with [[these ashes]] on the third and seventh days; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself the third and seventh days, he will not be clean.

Numbers 19:13 Anyone who touches a corpse, no matter whose dead body it is, and does not purify himself has defiled the tabernacle of ADONAI. That person will be cut off from Isra’el, because the water for purification was not sprinkled on him. He will be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

Numbers 19:14 “This is the law: when a person dies in a tent, everyone who enters the tent and everything in the tent will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:15 Every open container without a cover closely attached is unclean.

Numbers 19:16 Also whoever is in an open field and touches a corpse, whether of someone killed by a weapon or of someone who died naturally, or the bone of a person, or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:17 “For the unclean person they are to take some of the ashes of the animal burned up as a purification from sin and add them to fresh water in a container.

Numbers 19:18 A clean person is to take a bunch of hyssop leaves, dip it in the water and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the containers, on the people who were there, and on the person who touched the bone or the person killed or the one who died naturally or the grave.

Numbers 19:19 The clean person will sprinkle the unclean person on the third and seventh days. On the seventh day he will purify him; then he will wash his clothes and himself in water; and he will be clean at evening.

Numbers 19:20 The person who remains unclean and does not purify himself will be cut off from the community because he has defiled the sanctuary of [ADONAI.] The water for purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.

Numbers 19:21 This is to be a permanent regulation for them. The person who sprinkles the water for purification is to wash his clothes. Whoever touches the water for purification will be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:22 Anything the unclean person touches will be unclean, and anyone who touches him will be unclean until evening.”

Numbers 20:1 The people of Isra'el, the whole community, entered the Tzin Desert in the first month, and they stayed in Kadesh. There Miryam died, and there she was buried.

Numbers 20:2 Because the community had no water, they assembled themselves against Moshe and Aharon.

Numbers 20:3 The people quarreled with Moshe and said, "We wish we had died when our brothers died before ADONAI.

Numbers 20:4 Why did you bring ADONAI's community into this desert? To die there, we and our livestock?

Numbers 20:5 Why did you make us leave Egypt? To bring us to this terrible place without seed, figs, grapevines, pomegranates or even water to drink?"

Numbers 20:6 Moshe and Aharon left the assembly, went to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces; and the glory of ADONAI appeared to them.

Numbers 20:7 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 20:8 "Take the staff, assemble the community, you and Aharon your brother; and before their eyes, tell the rock to produce its water. You will bring them water out of the rock and thus enable the community and their livestock to drink."

Numbers 20:9 Moshe took the staff from the presence of ADONAI, as he had ordered him.

Numbers 20:10 But after Moshe and Aharon had assembled the community in front of the rock, he said to them, "Listen here, you rebels! Are we supposed to bring you water from this rock?"

Numbers 20:11 Then Moshe raised his hand and hit the rock twice with his staff. Water flowed out in abundance, and the community and their livestock drank.

Numbers 20:12 But ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, "Because you did not trust in me, so as to cause me to be regarded as holy by the people of Isra'el, you will not bring this community into the land I have given them."

Numbers 20:13 This is M'rivah Spring [[Disputation Spring]], where the people of Isra'el disputed with ADONAI, and he was caused to be regarded as holy by them.

Numbers 20:14 Moshe sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: "This is what your brother Isra'el says: you know all the troubles we have gone through-

Numbers 20:15 that our ancestors went down into Egypt, we lived in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our ancestors badly.

Numbers 20:16 But when we cried out to ADONAI, he heard us, sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. Now here we are in Kadesh, a city at the edge of your territory.

Numbers 20:17 Please let us pass through your land. We will not go through fields or vineyards, and we won't drink any water from the wells. We will go along the King's Highway, not turning aside either to the right or to the left until we have left your territory."

Numbers 20:18 But Edom answered, "You are not to pass through my land; if you do, I will come out against you with the sword."

Numbers 20:19 The people of Isra'el replied, "We will keep to the highway; if we do drink the water, either we or our livestock, we will pay for it. Just let us pass through on foot- it's nothing."

Numbers 20:20 But he said, "You are not to pass through"; and Edom came out against them with many people and much force.

Numbers 20:21 Thus Edom refused to allow Isra'el passage through its territory, so Isra'el turned away.

Numbers 20:22 They traveled on from Kadesh; and the people of Isra'el, the whole community, arrived at Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:23 At Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, Numbers 20:24 "Aharon is about to be gathered to his people, because he is not to enter the land I have given to the people of Isra'el, inasmuch as you rebelled against what I said at the M'rivah Spring.

Numbers 20:25 Take Aharon and El'azar his son, bring them up to Mount Hor, Numbers 20:26 remove the garments from Aharon and put them on El'azar his son. Aharon will be gathered to his people- he will die there."

Numbers 20:27 Moshe did as ADONAI had ordered. They went up onto Mount Hor before the eyes of the whole community.

Numbers 20:28 Moshe removed the garments from Aharon, and put them on El'azar his son, and Aharon died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moshe and El'azar came down the mountain.

Numbers 20:29 When the entire community saw that Aharon was dead, they mourned Aharon thirty days, the whole house of Isra'el.

Numbers 21:1 Then the king of 'Arad, a Kena'ani who lived in the Negev, heard that Isra'el was approaching by way of Atarim, so he attacked Isra'el and took some of them captive.

Numbers 21:2 Isra'el made a vow to ADONAI, "If you will hand this people over to me, I will completely destroy their cities."

Numbers 21:3 ADONAI listened to what Isra'el said and handed over the Kena'anim, so they completely destroyed them and their cities and named the place Hormah [[complete destruction]].

Numbers 21:4 Then they traveled from Mount Hor on the road toward the Sea of Suf in order to go around the land of Edom; but the people's tempers grew short because of the detour.

Numbers 21:5 The people spoke against God and against Moshe: "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt? To die in the desert? There's no real food, there's no water, and we're sick of this miserable stuff we're eating!"

Numbers 21:6 In response, ADONAI sent poisonous snakes among the people; they bit the people, and many of Isra'el's people died.

Numbers 21:7 The people came to Moshe and said, "We sinned by speaking against ADONAI and against you. Pray to ADONAI that he rid us of these snakes." Moshe prayed for the people,

Numbers 21:8 and ADONAI answered Moshe: "Make a poisonous snake and put it on a pole. When anyone who has been bitten sees it, he will live."

Numbers 21:9 Moshe made a bronze snake and put it on the pole; if a snake had bitten someone, then, when he looked toward the bronze snake, he stayed alive.

Numbers 21:10 The people of Isra'el traveled on and camped at Ovot.

Numbers 21:11 From Ovot they traveled and camped at 'Iyei-Ha'avarim, in the desert fronting Mo'av on the east.

Numbers 21:12 From there they traveled and camped in [Vadi] Zered.

Numbers 21:13 From there they traveled and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in the desert; this river comes out of the territory of the Emori; for the Arnon is the boundary between Mo'av and the Emori.

Numbers 21:14 This is why it says, in the Book of the Wars of ADONAI,"... Vahev at Sufah, the [vadi]s of Arnon, Numbers 21:15 and the slope of the [vadi]s extending as far as the site of 'Ar, which lie next to the territory of Mo'av."

Numbers 21:16 From there they went on to Be'er [[well]]; that is the well about which ADONAI said to Moshe, "Assemble the people, and I will give them water."

Numbers 21:17 Then Isra'el sang this song: "Spring up, oh well! Sing to the well Numbers 21:18 sunk by the princes, dug by the people's leaders with the scepter, with their staffs!" From the desert they went to Mattanah,

Numbers 21:19 from Mattanah to Nachali'el, from Nachali'el to Bamot,

Numbers 21:20 and from Bamot to the valley by the plain of Mo'av at the start of the Pisgah range, where it overlooks the desert.

Numbers 21:21 Isra’el sent messengers to Sichon, king of the Emori, with this message:

Numbers 21:22 “Let me pass through your land. We won’t turn aside into fields or vineyards, and we won’t drink any water from the wells. We will go along the King’s Highway until we have left your territory.”

Numbers 21:23 But Sichon would not allow Isra’el to pass through his territory. Instead, Sichon mustered all his people and went out into the desert to fight Isra’el. On reaching Yachatz, he fought Isra’el.

Numbers 21:24 Isra’el defeated him by force of arms and took control of his land from the Arnon to the Yabok River, but only as far as the people of ‘Amon, because the territory of the people of ‘Amon was well defended.

Numbers 21:25 Isra’el took all these cities- Isra’el lived in all the cities of the Emori, in Heshbon and all its surrounding towns.

Numbers 21:26 Heshbon was the city of Sichon, the king of the Emori, who had fought against the former king of Mo’av and conquered all his land up to the Arnon.

Numbers 21:27 This is why the storytellers say, “Come to Heshbon! Let it be rebuilt! Let Sichon’s city be restored!

Numbers 21:28 “For fire burst out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sichon. It consumed ‘Ar of Mo’av, the lords of Arnon’s high places.

Numbers 21:29 “Woe to you, Mo’av! You are destroyed, people of K’mosh! He let his sons be fugitives and his daughters captives of Sichon, king of the Emori.

Numbers 21:30 “We shot them down; Heshbon is destroyed, all the way to Divon. We even laid waste to Nofach, which extends as far as Meidva.”

Numbers 21:31 Thus Isra’el lived in the land of the Emori.

Numbers 21:32 Moshe sent men to reconnoiter Ya’zer; they captured its towns and drove out the Emori who were there.

Numbers 21:33 Then they turned and went up along the road to Bashan; and ‘Og, the king of Bashan, marched out against them, he with all his people, to fight at Edre’i.

Numbers 21:34 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Don’t be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you with all his people and his land. You will treat him just as you did Sichon, king of the Emori, who lived at Heshbon.”

Numbers 21:35 So they struck him down, with his sons and all his people, until there was no one left alive; and then they took control of his land.

Numbers 22:1 Then the people of Isra’el traveled on and camped in the plains of Mo’av beyond the Yarden River, opposite Yericho.

Numbers 22:2 Now Balak the son of Tzippor saw all that Isra'el had done to the Emori.

Numbers 22:3 Mo'av was very afraid of the people, because there were so many of them; Mo'av was overcome with dread because of the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 22:4 So Mo'av said to the leaders of Midyan, "This horde will lick up everything around us, the way an ox licks up grass in the field." Balak the son of Tzippor was king of Mo'av at that time.

Numbers 22:5 He sent messengers to Bil'am the son of B'or, at P'tor by the [[Euphrates]] River in his native land, to tell him, "Listen, a people has come out of Egypt, spread over all the land and settled down next to me.

Numbers 22:6 Therefore, please come, and curse this people for me, because they are stronger than I am. Maybe I will be able to strike them down and drive them out of the land, for I know that whomever you bless is in fact blessed, and whomever you curse is in fact cursed."

Numbers 22:7 The leaders of Mo'av and Midyan left, taking with them the payment for divining, came to Bil'am and spoke to him the words of Balak.

Numbers 22:8 He said to them, "Stay here tonight, and I will bring you back whatever answer ADONAI tells me." So the princes of Mo'av stayed with Bil'am.

Numbers 22:9 God came to Bil'am and said, "Who are these men with you?"

Numbers 22:10 Bil'am said to God, "Balak the son of Tzippor, king of Mo'av, has sent me this message:

Numbers 22:11 'The people who came out of Egypt have spread over the land; now, come and curse them for me; maybe I will be able to fight against them and drive them out.'"

Numbers 22:12 God answered Bil'am, "You are not to go with them; you are not to curse the people, because they are blessed."

Numbers 22:13 Bil'am got up in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, "Return to your own land, because ADONAI refuses to give me permission to go with you."

Numbers 22:14 The princes of Mo'av got up, returned to Balak and said, "Bil'am refuses to come with us."

Numbers 22:15 Balak again sent princes, more of them and of higher status than the first group.

Numbers 22:16 They went to Bil'am and said to him, "Here is what Balak the son of Tzippor says: 'Please don't let anything keep you from coming to me.

Numbers 22:17 I will reward you very well, and whatever you say to me I will do. So please come, and curse this people for me.'"

Numbers 22:18 Bil'am answered the servants of Balak, "Even if Balak were to give me his palace filled with silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of ADONAI my God to do anything, great or small.

Numbers 22:19 Now, please, you too, stay here tonight; so that I may find out what else ADONAI will say to me."

Numbers 22:20 God came to Bil'am during the night and said to him, "If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them; but do only what I tell you."

Numbers 22:21 So Bil'am got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Mo'av.

Numbers 22:22 But God's anger flared up because he went, and the angel of ADONAI stationed himself on the path to bar his way. He was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

Numbers 22:23 The donkey saw the angel of ADONAI standing on the road, drawn sword in hand; so the donkey turned off the road into the field; and Bil'am had to beat the donkey to get it back on the road.

Numbers 22:24 Then the angel of ADONAI stood on the road where it became narrow as it passed among the vineyards and had stone walls on both sides.

Numbers 22:25 The donkey saw the angel of ADONAI and pushed up against the wall, crushing Bil'am's foot against the wall. So he beat it again.

Numbers 22:26 The angel of ADONAI moved ahead and stood in a place so tight that there was no room to turn either right or left.

Numbers 22:27 Again the donkey saw the angel of ADONAI and lay down under Bil'am, which made him so angry that he hit the donkey with his stick.

Numbers 22:28 But ADONAI enabled the donkey to speak, and it said to Bil'am, "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?"

Numbers 22:29 Bil'am said to the donkey, "It's because you've been making a fool of me! I wish I had a sword in my hand; I would kill you on the spot!"

Numbers 22:30 The donkey said to Bil'am, "I'm your donkey, right? You've ridden me all your life, right? Have I ever treated you like this before?" "No," he admitted.

Numbers 22:31 Then ADONAI opened Bil'am's eyes, so that he could see the angel of ADONAI standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand, and he bowed his head and fell on his face.

Numbers 22:32 The angel of ADONAI said to him, “Why did you hit your donkey three times like that? I have come out here to bar your way, because you are rushing to oppose me.

Numbers 22:33 The donkey saw me and turned aside these three times; and indeed, if she hadn’t turned away from me, I would have killed you by now and saved it alive!”

Numbers 22:34 Bil’am said to the angel of ADONAI, “I have sinned. I didn’t know that you were standing on the road to block me. Now, therefore, if what I am doing displeases you, I will go back.”

Numbers 22:35 But the angel of ADONAI said to Bil’am, “No, go on with the men; but you are to say only what I tell you to say.” So Bil’am went along with the princes of Balak.

Numbers 22:36 When Balak heard that Bil’am had come, he went out to meet him in the city of Mo’av at the Arnon border, in the farthest reaches of the territory.

Numbers 22:37 Balak said to Bil’am, “I sent more than once to summon you! Why didn’t you come to me? Did you think I couldn’t pay you enough?”

Numbers 22:38 Bil’am replied to Balak, “Here, I’ve come to you! But I have no power of my own to say anything. The word that God puts in my mouth is what I will say.”

Numbers 22:39 Bil’am went with Balak. When they arrived at Kiryat-Hutzot, Numbers 22:40 Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, then sent to Bil’am and the princes with him.

Numbers 22:41 In the morning Balak took Bil’am and brought him up to the high places of Ba’al; from there he could see a portion of the people.

Numbers 23:1 Bil’am said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare me seven bulls and seven rams here.”

Numbers 23:2 Balak did as Bil’am said; then Balak and Bil’am offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:3 Bil’am said to Balak, “Stand by your burnt offering while I go off; maybe ADONAI will come and meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell you.” He went off to a bare hill.

Numbers 23:4 God met Bil’am, who said to him, “I prepared the seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.”

Numbers 23:5 Then ADONAI put a word in Bil’am’s mouth and said, “Go on back to Balak, and speak as I tell you.”

Numbers 23:6 He went back to him, and there, standing by his burnt offering, he with all the princes of Mo’av, Numbers 23:7 he made his pronouncement: “Balak, the king of Mo’av, brings me from Aram, from the eastern hills, saying, ‘Come, curse Ya’akov for me; come and denounce Isra’el.’

Numbers 23:8 “How am I to curse those whom God has not cursed? How am I to denounce those whom ADONAI has not denounced?

Numbers 23:9 “From the top of the rocks I see them, from the hills I behold them- yes, a people that will dwell alone and not think itself one of the nations.

Numbers 23:10 “Who has counted the dust of Ya’akov or numbered the ashes of Isra’el? May I die as the righteous die! May my end be like theirs!”

Numbers 23:11 Balak said to Bil’am, “What have you done to me?! To curse my enemies is why I brought you; and, here, you have totally blessed them!”

Numbers 23:12 He answered, “Mustn’t I take care to say just what ADONAI puts in my mouth?”

Numbers 23:13 Balak said to him, “All right, come with me to another place where you can see them. You will see only some of them, not all; but you can curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:14 He took him through the field of Tzofim to the top of the Pisgah Range, built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:15 Bil’am said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offering, while I go over there for a meeting.”

Numbers 23:16 ADONAI met Bil’am, put a word in his mouth and said, “Go on back to Balak, and speak as I tell you.”

Numbers 23:17 He came to him and stood by his burnt offering, with all the princes of Mo’av. Balak asked him, “What did ADONAI say?”

Numbers 23:18 Then Bil’am made his pronouncement: “Get up, Balak, and listen! Turn your ears to me, son of Tzippor!

Numbers 23:19 “God is not a human who lies or a mortal who changes his mind. When he says something, he will do it; when he makes a promise, he will fulfill it.

Numbers 23:20 Look, I am ordered to bless; when he blesses, I can’t reverse it.

Numbers 23:21 “No one has seen guilt in Ya’akov, or perceived perversity in Isra’el; ADONAI their God is with them and acclaimed as king among them.

Numbers 23:22 “God, who brought them out of Egypt, gives them the strength of a wild ox;

Numbers 23:23 thus one can’t put a spell on Ya’akov, no magic will work against Isra’el. It can now be said of Ya’akov and Isra’el, ‘What is this that God has done?!’

Numbers 23:24 “Here is a people rising up like a lioness; like a lion he rears himself up- he will not lie down till he eats up the prey and drinks the blood of the slain.”

Numbers 23:25 Balak said to Bil’am, “Obviously, you won’t curse them. But at least don’t bless them!”

Numbers 23:26 However, Bil’am answered Balak, “Didn’t I warn you that I must do everything ADONAI says?”

Numbers 23:27 Balak said to Bil’am, “Come, I will take you now to another place; maybe it will please God for you to curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:28 Balak took Bil’am to the top of P’or, overlooking the desert.

Numbers 23:29 Bil’am said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare me seven bulls and seven rams.”

Numbers 23:30 Balak did as Bil’am said and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24:1 When Bil’am saw that it pleased ADONAI to bless Isra’el, he didn’t go, as at the other times, to make use of divination, but looked out toward the desert.

Numbers 24:2 Bil’am raised his eyes and saw Isra’el encamped tribe by tribe. Then the Spirit of God came upon him, Numbers 24:3 and he made his pronouncement: “This is the speech of Bil’am, son of B’or; the speech of the man whose eyes have been opened;

Numbers 24:4 the speech of him who hears God’s words; who sees what [Shaddai] sees, who has fallen, yet has open eyes:

Numbers 24:5 “How lovely are your tents, Ya’akov; your encampments, Isra’el!

Numbers 24:6 They spread out like valleys, like gardens by the riverside, like succulent aloes planted by ADONAI, like cedar trees next to the water.

Numbers 24:7 “Water will flow from their branches, their seed will have water aplenty. Their king will be higher than Agag and his kingdom lifted high.

Numbers 24:8 God, who brought them out of Egypt, gives them the strength of a wild ox. They will devour the nations opposing them, break their bones, pierce them with their arrows.

Numbers 24:9 “When they lie down they crouch like a lion, or like a lioness- who dares to rouse it? Blessed be all who bless you! Cursed be all who curse you!”

Numbers 24:10 Balak blazed with fury against Bil’am. He struck his hands together and said to Bil’am, “I summoned you to curse my enemies. But here, you have done nothing but bless them- three times already!

Numbers 24:11 Now you had better escape to your own place! I had planned to reward you very well, but now ADONAI has deprived you of payment.”

Numbers 24:12 Bil’am answered Balak, “Didn’t I tell the messengers you sent me

Numbers 24:13 that even if Balak would give me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not of my own accord go beyond the word of ADONAI to do either good or bad? that what ADONAI said is what I would say?

Numbers 24:14 But now that I am going back to my own people, come, I will warn you what this people will do to your people in the [acharit-hayamim].

Numbers 24:15 So he made his pronouncement: “This is the speech of Bil’am, son of B’or; the speech of the man whose eyes have been opened;

Numbers 24:16 the speech of him who hears God’s words; who knows what ‘[Elyon] knows, who sees what [Shaddai] sees, who has fallen, yet has open eyes:

Numbers 24:17 “I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not soon- a star will step forth from Ya’akov, a scepter will arise from Isra’el, to crush the corners of Mo’av and destroy all descendants of Shet.

Numbers 24:18 His enemies will be his possessions- Edom and Se’ir, possessions. Isra’el will do valiantly, Numbers 24:19 From Ya’akov will come someone who will rule, and he will destroy what is left of the city.”

Numbers 24:20 He saw ‘Amalek and made this pronouncement: “First among nations was ‘Amalek, but destruction will be its end.”

Numbers 24:21 He saw the Keini and made this pronouncement: “Though your dwelling is firm, your nest set on rock, Numbers 24:22 Kayin will be wasted while captive to Ashur.”

Numbers 24:23 Finally, he made this pronouncement: “Oh no! Who can live when God does this?

Numbers 24:24 But ships will come from the coast of Kittim to subdue Ashur and subdue ‘Ever, but they too will come to destruction.”

Numbers 24:25 Then Bil’am got up, left and returned to his home; and Balak too went his way.

Numbers 25:1 Isra’el stayed at Sheetim, and there the people began whoring with the women of Mo’av.

Numbers 25:2 These women invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, where the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

Numbers 25:3 With Isra’el thus joined to Ba’al-P’or, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against Isra’el.

Numbers 25:4 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them facing the sun before ADONAI, so that the raging fury of ADONAI will turn away from Isra’el.”

Numbers 25:5 Moshe said to the judges of Isra’el, “Each of you is to put to death those in his tribe who have joined themselves to Ba’al-P’or.”

Numbers 25:6 Just then, in the sight of Moshe and the whole community of Isra’el, as they were weeping at the entrance to the tent of meeting, a man from Isra’el came by, bringing to his family a woman from Midyan.

Numbers 25:7 When Pinchas the son of El’azar, the son of Aharon the [cohen], saw it, he got up from the middle of the crowd, took a spear in his hand,

Numbers 25:8 and pursued the man from Isra’el right into the inner part of the tent, where he thrust his spear through both of them- the man from Isra’el and the woman through her stomach. Thus was the plague among the people of Isra’el stopped;

Numbers 25:9 nevertheless, 24,000 died in the plague.

Numbers 25:10 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 25:11 “Pinchas the son of El’azar, the son of Aharon the [cohen], has deflected my anger from the people of Isra’el by being as zealous as I am, so that I didn’t destroy them in my own zeal.

Numbers 25:12 Therefore say, ‘I am giving him my covenant of [shalom],

Numbers 25:13 making a covenant with him and his descendants after him that the office of [cohen] will be theirs forever.’ This is because he was zealous on behalf of his God and made atonement for the people of Isra’el.”

Numbers 25:14 The name of the man from Isra’el who was killed, put to death with the woman from Midyan, was Zimri the son of Salu, leader of one of the clans from the tribe of Shim’on.

Numbers 25:15 The name of the woman from Midyan who was killed was Kozbi the daughter of Tzur, and he was head of the people in one of the clans of Midyan.

Numbers 25:16 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 25:17 “Treat the Midyanim as enemies and attack them;

Numbers 25:18 because they are treating you as enemies by the trickery they used to deceive you in the P’or incident and in the affair of their sister Kozbi, the daughter of the leader from Midyan, the woman who was killed on the day of the plague in the P’or incident.”

Numbers 25:19 After the plague,

Numbers 26:1 ADONAI said to Moshe and El’azar, the son of Aharon the [cohen],

Numbers 26:2 “Take a census of the entire assembly of the people of Isra’el twenty years old and over, by their ancestral clans, all who are subject to military service in Isra’el.”

Numbers 26:3 Moshe and El’azar the [cohen] spoke with them on the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden across from Yericho, explaining,

Numbers 26:4 “Those twenty years old and over who came out of the land of Egypt, as ADONAI ordered Moshe and the people of Isra’el.”

Numbers 26:5 [[The census results begin with]] Re’uven, the firstborn of Isra’el. The descendants of Re’uven were: of Hanokh, the family of the Hanokhi; of Pallu, the family of the Pallu’i;

Numbers 26:6 of Hetzron, the family of the Hetzroni; and of Karmi the family of the Karmi.

Numbers 26:7 These were the the families of the Re’uveni; of them were counted 43,730.

Numbers 26:8 The sons of Pallu: Eli’av;

Numbers 26:9 and the sons of Eli’av: N’mu’el, Datan and Aviram. These are the same Datan and Aviram, men of reputation in the community, who rebelled against Moshe and Aharon in Korach’s group, when they rebelled against ADONAI;

Numbers 26:10 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korach when that group died, and the fire consumed 250 men, and they became a warning sign.

Numbers 26:11 (However, the sons of Korach did not die.)

Numbers 26:12 The descendants of Shim’on, by their families, were: of N’mu’el, the family of the N’mu’eli; of Yamin, the family of the Yamini; of Yakhin, the family of the Yakhini;

Numbers 26:13 of Zerach, the family of the Zarchi; and of Sha’ul, the family of the Sha’uli.

Numbers 26:14 These were the families of the Shim’oni, 22,200.

Numbers 26:15 The descendants of Gad, by their families, were: of Tz’fon, the family of the Tz’foni; of Haggi, the family of the Haggi; of Shuni, the family of the Shuni;

Numbers 26:16 of Ozni, the family of the Ozni; of ‘Eri, the family of the ‘Eri;

Numbers 26:17 of Arod, the family of the Arodi; and of Ar’eli, the family of the Ar’eli.

Numbers 26:18 These were the families of the sons of Gad, according to those counted of them, 40,500.

Numbers 26:19 The sons of Y’hudah: First ‘Er and Onan, but ‘Er and Onan died in the land of Kena’an.

Numbers 26:20 The sons of Y’hudah who had descendants were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelani; of Peretz, the family of the Partzi; and of Zerach, the family of the Zarchi.

Numbers 26:21 The sons of Peretz were: of Hetzron, the family of the Hetzroni; and of Hamul, the family of the Hamuli.

Numbers 26:22 These were the families of Y’hudah, according to those counted of them, 76,500.

Numbers 26:23 The descendants of Yissakhar, by their families, were: of Tola, the family of the Tola’i; of Puvah, the family of the Puni;

Numbers 26:24 of Yashuv, the family of the Yashuvi; and of Shimron, the family of the Shimroni.

Numbers 26:25 These were the families of Yissakhar, according to those counted of them, 64,300.

Numbers 26:26 The descendants of Z’vulun, by their families, were: of Sered, the family of the Sardi; of Elon, the family of the Eloni; and of Yachle’el, the family of the Yachle’eli.

Numbers 26:27 These were the families of the Z’vuloni, according to those counted of them, 60,500.

Numbers 26:28 The sons of Yosef, by their families, were M’nasheh and Efrayim.

Numbers 26:29 The descendants of M’nasheh were: of Makhir, the family of the Makhiri. Makhir was the father of Gil’ad; of Gil’ad, the family of the Gil’adi.

Numbers 26:30 These are the descendants of Gil’ad: of I’ezer, the family of the I’ezri; of Helek, the family of the Helki;

Numbers 26:31 of Asri’el, the family of the Asri’eli; of Sh’khem, the family of the Shikhmi;

Numbers 26:32 of Sh’mida, the family of the Sh’mida’i; and of Hefer, the family of the Hefri.

Numbers 26:33 Tz’lof’chad the son of Hefer had no sons but daughters; the names of the daughters of Tz’lof’chad were Machlah, No’ah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah.

Numbers 26:34 These were the families of M’nasheh; of them were counted 52,700.

Numbers 26:35 These are the descendants of Efrayim, by their families: of Shutelach, the family of the Shutalchi; of Bekher, the family of the Bakhri; and of Tachan, the family of the Tachani.

Numbers 26:36 These are the descendants of Shutelach: of ‘Eran, the family of the ‘Erani.

Numbers 26:37 These were the families of the descendants of Efrayim, according to those of them that were counted, 32,500. These were the descendants of Yosef, by their families.

Numbers 26:38 The descendants of Binyamin, by their families were: of Bela, the family of the Bal’i; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbeli; of Achiram, the family of the Achirami;

Numbers 26:39 of Sh’fufam, the family of the Shufami; and of Hufam, the family of the Hufami.

Numbers 26:40 The sons of Bela were Ard and Na’aman; [[of Ard,]] the family of the Ardi; and of Na’aman, the family of the Na’ami.

Numbers 26:41 These were the descendants of Binyamin, by their families; of them were counted 45,600.

Numbers 26:42 The descendants of Dan, by their families, were: of Shucham, the family of the Shuchami. These are the families of Dan, by their families.

Numbers 26:43 All the families of the Shuchami, according to those of them that were counted, were 64,400.

Numbers 26:44 The descendants of Asher, by their families: of Yimnah, the family of the Yimnah; of Yishvi, the family of the Yishvi; and of B’ri’ah, the family of the B’ri’i.

Numbers 26:45 Of the descendants of B’ri’ah: of Hever, the family of the Hevri; and of Malki’el, the family of the Malki’eli.

Numbers 26:46 The name of Asher’s daughter was Serach.

Numbers 26:47 These were the families of the descendants of Asher, according to those of them that were counted, 53,400.

Numbers 26:48 The descendants of Naftali, by their families: of Yachtze’el, the families of the Yachtze’eli; of Guni, the family of the Guni;

Numbers 26:49 of Yetzer, the family of the Yitzri; and of Shillem, the family of the Shillemi.

Numbers 26:50 These are the families of Naftali according to their families; those of them that were counted were 45,400.

Numbers 26:51 Thus those who were counted of the people of Isra’el numbered 601,730.

Numbers 26:52 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 26:53 “The land is to be parceled out among these as a possession to be inherited, according to the number of names.

Numbers 26:54 To those families with more persons you are to give a greater inheritance, and to those with fewer you are to give a smaller inheritance- each family's inheritance is to be given according to the number counted in it.

Numbers 26:55 However, the land is to be awarded by lot. They will inherit according to the names of the tribes of their ancestors,

Numbers 26:56 but the inheritance is to be parceled out by lot between the families with more and those with fewer."

Numbers 26:57 Those counted among the Levi, by their families, were: of Gershon, the family of the Gershuni, of K'hat, the family of the K'hati; and of M'rari, the family of the M'rari.

Numbers 26:58 These are the families of Levi: the family of the Livni, the family of the Hevroni, the family of the Machli, the family of the Mushi and the family of the Korchi. K'hat was the father of 'Amram.

Numbers 26:59 The name of 'Amram's wife was Yokheved the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to 'Amram Aharon, Moshe and their sister Miryam.

Numbers 26:60 To Aharon were born Nadav, Avihu, El'azar and Itamar;

Numbers 26:61 but Nadav and Avihu died when they offered unauthorized fire before [ADONAI.]

Numbers 26:62 Those males one month old or more counted of the Levi were 23,000. These were not included in the census of the people of Isra'el, because no land for inheritance was given to them among the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 26:63 These are the ones counted by Moshe and El'azar the [cohen], who took a census of the people of Isra'el in the plains of Mo'av by the Yarden across from Yericho.

Numbers 26:64 But there was not a man among them who had also been included in the census of Moshe and Aharon the [cohen] when they enumerated the people of Isra'el in the Sinai Desert;

Numbers 26:65 because ADONAI had said of them, "They will surely die in the desert." So there was not left even one of them, except Kalev the son of Y'funeh and Y'hoshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 27:1 Then the daughters of Tz'lof'chad the son of Hefer, the son of Gil'ad, the son of Machir, the son of M'nasheh, of the families of M'nasheh, the son of Yosef, approached. These were the names of his daughters: Machlah, No'ah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah.

Numbers 27:2 They stood in front of Moshe, El'azar the [cohen], the leaders and the whole community at the entrance to the tent of meeting and said, Numbers 27:3 “Our father died in the desert. He wasn’t part of the group who assembled themselves to rebel against ADONAI in Korach’s group, but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons.

Numbers 27:4 Why should the name of our father be eliminated from his family just because he didn’t have a son? Give us property to possess along with the brothers of our father.”

Numbers 27:5 Moshe brought their cause before [ADONAI.]

Numbers 27:6 ADONAI answered Moshe,

Numbers 27:7 “The daughters of Tz’lof’chad are right in what they say. You must give them property to be inherited along with that of their father’s brothers; have what their father would have inherited pass to them.

Numbers 27:8 Moreover, say to the people of Isra’el, ‘If a man dies and does not have a son, you are to have his inheritance pass to his daughter.

Numbers 27:9 If he doesn’t have a daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers.

Numbers 27:10 If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

Numbers 27:11 If his father doesn’t have brothers, give his inheritance to the closest relative in his family, and he will possess it. This will be the standard for judgment to be used by the people of Isra’el, as ADONAI ordered Moshe.’“ Numbers 27:12 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Climb this mountain in the ‘Avarim Range, and look out at the land which I have given the people of Isra’el.

Numbers 27:13 After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, just as Aharon your brother was gathered;

Numbers 27:14 because in the Tzin Desert, when the community was disputing with me, you rebelled against my order to uphold my holiness by means of the water, with them looking on.” (This was M’rivat-Kadesh Spring, in the Tzin Desert.)

Numbers 27:15 Moshe said to ADONAI,

Numbers 27:16 “Let ADONAI, God of the spirits of all human beings, appoint a man to be over the community, Numbers 27:17 to go out and come in ahead of them, to lead them out and bring them in, so that ADONAI’s community will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

Numbers 27:18 ADONAI said to Moshe, “Take Y’hoshua the son of Nun, a spiritual man, and lay your hand on him.

Numbers 27:19 Put him in front of El’azar the [cohen] and the whole community, and commission him in their sight.

Numbers 27:20 Delegate to him some of your authority, so that the entire community of Isra’el will obey him.

Numbers 27:21 He is to present himself to El’azar the [cohen], who is to find out by means of the [urim] what ADONAI’s will is for Y’hoshua’s decisions[.] Then, at his word they will go out, and at his word they will come in, both he and all the people of Isra’el with him, the whole community.”

Numbers 27:22 Moshe did as ADONAI had ordered him. He took Y’hoshua, put him before El’azar the [cohen] and the whole community, Numbers 27:23 laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as ADONAI had said through Moshe.

Numbers 28:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 28:2 “Give an order to the people of Isra’el. Tell them, ‘You are to take care to offer me at the proper time the food presented to me as offerings made by fire, providing a fragrant aroma for me.’

Numbers 28:3 Tell them, ‘This is the offering made by fire that you are to bring to ADONAI: male lambs in their first year and without defect, two daily as a regular burnt offering.

Numbers 28:4 Offer the one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at dusk,

Numbers 28:5 along with two quarts of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with one quart of oil from pressed olives.

Numbers 28:6 It is the regular burnt offering, the same as was offered on Mount Sinai to give a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire for ADONAI.

Numbers 28:7 Its drink offering is to be one-quarter [hin] for one lamb; in the Holy Place you are to pour out a drink offering of intoxicating liquor to ADONAI.

Numbers 28:8 The other lamb you are to present at dusk; present it with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering as in the morning; it is an offering made by fire, with a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

Numbers 28:9 “‘On [Shabbat] offer two male lambs in their first year and without defect, with one gallon of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with olive oil, and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:10 This is the burnt offering for every [Shabbat], in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:11 “‘At each [Rosh-Hodesh] of yours, you are to present a burnt offering to ADONAI consisting of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs in their first year and without defect;

Numbers 28:12 with six quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for the one ram;

Numbers 28:13 and two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for each lamb. This will be the burnt offering giving a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire for ADONAI.

Numbers 28:14 Their drink offerings will be two quarts of wine for a bull, one-and-one-third quarts for the ram, and one quart for each lamb. This is the burnt offering for every [Rosh-Hodesh] throughout the months of the year.

Numbers 28:15 Also a male goat is to be offered as a sin offering to ADONAI, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:16 "'In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is ADONAI's [Pesach].

Numbers 28:17 On the fifteenth day of the month is to be a feast. [Matzah] is to be eaten for seven days.

Numbers 28:18 The first day is to be a holy convocation: do not do any kind of ordinary work;

Numbers 28:19 but present an offering made by fire, a burnt offering, to ADONAI, consisting of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs in their first year (they are to be without defect for you)

Numbers 28:20 with their grain offering, fine flour mixed with olive oil. Offer six quarts for a bull, four quarts for the ram,

Numbers 28:21 and two quarts for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 28:22 also a male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:23 You are to offer these in addition to the morning burnt offering, which is the regular burnt offering.

Numbers 28:24 In this fashion you are to offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, making a fragrant aroma for ADONAI; it is to be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:25 On the seventh day you are to have a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work.

Numbers 28:26 "'On the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to ADONAI in your feast of [Shavu'ot], you are to have a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work;

Numbers 28:27 but present a burnt offering as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI, consisting of two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs in their first year,

Numbers 28:28 and their grain offering- fine flour mixed with olive oil, six quarts for each bull, four quarts for the one ram,

Numbers 28:29 and two quarts for each of the seven lambs-

Numbers 28:30 plus a male goat to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:31 You are to offer these in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering (they are to be without defect for you), with their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:1 "'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you are to have a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work; it is a day of blowing the [shofar] for you.

Numbers 29:2 Prepare a burnt offering to make a fragrant aroma for ADONAI- one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs in their first year and without defect-

Numbers 29:3 with their grain offering, consisting of fine flour mixed with olive oil- six quarts for the bull, four quarts for the ram,

Numbers 29:4 and two quarts for each of the seven lambs-

Numbers 29:5 also one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Numbers 29:6 This is to be in addition to the burnt offering for [Rosh-Hodesh] with its grain offering, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to the rule for them; this will be a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Numbers 29:7 "'On the tenth day of this seventh month you are to have a holy convocation. You are to deny yourselves, and you are not to do any kind of work;

Numbers 29:8 but you are to present a burnt offering to ADONAI to make a fragrant aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs in their first year (they are to be without defect for you),

Numbers 29:9 with their grain offering, fine flour mixed with olive oil, six quarts for the bull, four quarts for the one ram,

Numbers 29:10 and two quarts for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 29:11 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the sin offering for atonement and the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:12 "'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you are to have a holy convocation. You are not to do any kind of ordinary work, and you are to observe a feast to ADONAI seven days.

Numbers 29:13 You are to present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, bringing a fragrant aroma to ADONAI. It is to consist of thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year (they are to be without defect),

Numbers 29:14 with their grain offering- fine flour mixed with olive oil, six quarts for each of the thirteen bulls, four quarts for each of the two rams,

Numbers 29:15 and two quarts for each of the fourteen lambs;

Numbers 29:16 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:17 “‘On the second day you are to present twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:18 with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:19 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:20 “‘On the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:21 with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:22 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:23 “‘On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:24 with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:25 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:26 “‘On the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:27 with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:28 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:29 “‘On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:30 with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:31 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:32 “‘On the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:33 with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:34 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:35 “‘On the eighth day you are to have a festive assembly: you are not to do any kind of ordinary work;

Numbers 29:36 but you are to present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, giving a fragrant aroma to ADONAI- one bull, one ram, seven male lambs in their first year, without defect;

Numbers 29:37 with the grain and drink offerings for the bull, the ram and the lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule;

Numbers 29:38 also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

Numbers 29:39 "'You are to offer these to ADONAI at your designated times in addition to your vows and voluntary offerings- whether these are your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings or peace offerings.'"

Numbers 30:1 Moshe told the people of Isra'el everything, just as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 30:2 Then Moshe spoke to the heads of the tribes of the people of Isra'el. He said, "Here is what ADONAI has ordered:

Numbers 30:3 when a man makes a vow to ADONAI or formally obligates himself by swearing an oath, he is not to break his word but is to do everything he said he would do.

Numbers 30:4 "When a woman makes a vow to ADONAI, formally obligating herself, while she is a minor living in her father's house;

Numbers 30:5 then, if her father has heard what she vowed or obligated herself to do and holds his peace, then all her vows remain binding- every obligation she has bound herself to will stand.

Numbers 30:6 But if on the day her father hears it, he expresses his disapproval, then none of her vows or obligations she has bound herself to will stand; and ADONAI will forgive her, because her father expressed his disapproval.

Numbers 30:7 "If, having made vows or rashly committed herself to an obligation, she gets married;

Numbers 30:8 and her husband hears but holds his peace with her on the day he learns of it, then her vows and obligations she has bound herself to will stand.

Numbers 30:9 But if her husband expresses his disapproval on the day he hears it, he will void the vow which is on her and the obligation to which she has bound herself; and ADONAI will forgive her.

Numbers 30:10 "The vow of a widow, however, or of a divorcee, including everything to which she has obligated herself, will stand against her.

Numbers 30:11 "If a woman vowed in her husband's house or obligated herself with an oath;

Numbers 30:12 and her husband heard it but held his peace with her and did not express disapproval, then all her vows and obligations will stand.

Numbers 30:13 But if her husband makes them null and void on the day he hears them, then whatever she said, vows or binding obligation, will not stand; her husband has voided them; and ADONAI will forgive her.

Numbers 30:14 Her husband may let every vow and every binding obligation stand, or he may void it.

Numbers 30:15 But if her husband entirely holds his peace with her day after day, then he confirms all her vows and obligations; he must let them stand, because he held his peace with her on the day he heard them.

Numbers 30:16 If he makes them null and void after he has heard them, then he will bear the consequent guilt."

Numbers 30:17 These are the laws which ADONAI ordered Moshe between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter, if she is a minor living in her father's house. [(LY: ii)]

Numbers 31:1 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 31:2 "On behalf of the people of Isra'el, take vengeance on the Midyanim. After that, you will be gathered to your people."

Numbers 31:3 Moshe said to the people, "Equip men from among yourselves for war. They are to go and fight Midyan, in order to carry out ADONAI's vengeance on Midyan.

Numbers 31:4 You are to send to the war a thousand men from every one of Isra'el's tribes."

Numbers 31:5 So out of the thousands of people in Isra'el, a thousand armed men from each tribe, 12,000 altogether, were mustered for war.

Numbers 31:6 Moshe sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war; he sent them and Pinchas the son of El'azar the [cohen] to the war, with the holy utensils and the trumpets for sounding the alarm in his care.

Numbers 31:7 They fought against Midyan, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe, and killed every male.

Numbers 31:8 They killed the kings of Midyan along with the others who were slain- Evi, Rekem, Tzur, Hur and Reva, the five kings of Midyan. They also killed Bil'am the son of B'or with the sword.

Numbers 31:9 The people of Isra'el took captive the women of Midyan and their little ones, and they took as booty all their cattle, flocks and other goods.

Numbers 31:10 They set fire to all their cities in the areas where they lived and all their camps.

Numbers 31:11 They took all the booty, all the people and animals they had captured, Numbers 31:12 and brought the captives, booty and spoil to Moshe, El’azar the [cohen] and the community of Isra’el in the camp on the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden across from Yericho.

Numbers 31:13 Moshe, El’azar the [cohen] and all the community leaders went to meet them outside the camp.

Numbers 31:14 But Moshe was angry with the army officers, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds coming in from the battlefield.

Numbers 31:15 Moshe asked them, “You let the women live?

Numbers 31:16 Why, these are the ones who- because of Bil’am’s advice- caused the people of Isra’el to rebel, breaking faith with ADONAI in the P’or incident, so that the plague broke out among ADONAI’s community!

Numbers 31:17 Now kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has ever slept with a man.

Numbers 31:18 But the young girls who have never slept with a man, keep alive for yourselves.

Numbers 31:19 Pitch your tents outside the camp for seven days. Whoever has killed a person or touched the corpse of someone slain, purify yourselves on the third and seventh days, you and your captives.

Numbers 31:20 Also purify every garment, whether of skin or goat’s hair, and everything made of wood.”

Numbers 31:21 El’azar the [cohen] said to the soldiers who had gone to the front, “This is the regulation from the [Torah] which ADONAI has ordered Moshe.

Numbers 31:22 Even though gold, silver, brass, iron, tin and lead

Numbers 31:23 can all withstand fire, so that you are indeed to purify everything made of these materials by having them pass through fire; nevertheless they must also be purified with the water for purification. Everything that can’t withstand fire you are to have go through the water.

Numbers 31:24 On the seventh day you are to wash your clothes, and you will be clean; after that you may enter the camp.”

Numbers 31:25 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 31:26 “Take all the booty, both people and animals, you, El’azar the [cohen] and the leaders of clans in the community;

Numbers 31:27 and divide the booty into two parts: half for the experienced soldiers who went out to battle, and half for the rest of the community.

Numbers 31:28 From the portion of the soldiers who went out to battle, levy a tax for ADONAI consisting of one-five-hundredth of the persons, cattle, donkeys and sheep;

Numbers 31:29 take it from their half and give it to El'azar the [cohen] as a portion set apart for ADONAI.

Numbers 31:30 From the half that goes to the people of Isra'el, you are to take one-fiftieth of the persons, and of the cattle, donkeys and sheep, that is, of all the livestock; and give them to the [L'vi'im] taking care of the tabernacle of ADONAI."

Numbers 31:31 Moshe and El'azar the [cohen] did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 31:32 The booty, over and above the portion which the soldiers took, came to 675,000 sheep,

Numbers 31:33 72,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:34 61,000 donkeys,

Numbers 31:35 and 32,000 persons in all, consisting of the women who had never slept with a man.

Numbers 31:36 The half which was the portion of the soldiers who went out to fight, numbered 337,500 sheep,

Numbers 31:37 of which ADONAI's tribute was 675;

Numbers 31:38 36,000 cattle, of which ADONAI's tribute was seventy-two;

Numbers 31:39 30,500 donkeys, of which ADONAI's tribute was sixty-one;

Numbers 31:40 and 16,000 persons, of whom ADONAI's tribute was thirty-two persons.

Numbers 31:41 Moshe gave the tribute set apart for ADONAI to El'azar the [cohen], as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 31:42 From the half that went to people of Isra'el, which Moshe separated from that of the men who had gone to fight-

Numbers 31:43 now the community's half consisted of 337,500 sheep,

Numbers 31:44 36,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:45 30,500 donkeys

Numbers 31:46 and 16,000 persons-

Numbers 31:47 from the people of Isra'el's half, Moshe took one-fiftieth of the persons and animals and gave them to the [L'vi'im] taking care of the tabernacle of ADONAI, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 31:48 The officers in charge of the thousands who fought, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moshe Numbers 31:49 and said to him, “Your servants have counted all the soldiers under our command, and not one of us is missing.

Numbers 31:50 We have brought an offering for ADONAI, what every man has obtained in the way of gold jewelry- armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and belts- to make atonement for ourselves before ADONAI.”

Numbers 31:51 Moshe and El’azar the [cohen] accepted their gold, all the jewelry.

Numbers 31:52 All the gold in this gift which the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds set apart for ADONAI weighed 420 pounds.

Numbers 31:53 For the soldiers had taken booty, every man for himself.

Numbers 31:54 Moshe and El’azar the [cohen] took the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a reminder for the people of Isra’el before ADONAI. [(RY: iii; LY: vi)]

Numbers 32:1 The descendants of Re’uven and the descendants of Gad had vast quantities of livestock. When they saw that the land of Ya’zer and the land of Gil’ad were good for livestock,

Numbers 32:2 the descendants of Gad and of Re’uven came and spoke to Moshe, El’azar the [cohen] and the community leaders. They said,

Numbers 32:3 “‘Atarot, Divon, Ya’zer, Nimrah, Heshbon, El’aleh, S’vam, N’vo and Be’on, Numbers 32:4 the country that ADONAI conquered before the community of Isra’el, is livestock country; and your servants have livestock.

Numbers 32:5 If you regard us favorably,” they went on, “let this land be given to your servants as their possession; and don’t have us cross the Yarden.”

Numbers 32:6 Moshe answered the descendants of Gad and of Re’uven: “Are your brothers to go to war while you stay here?

Numbers 32:7 Besides, why are you trying to discourage the people of Isra’el from crossing into the land ADONAI gave them?

Numbers 32:8 This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea to see the land.

Numbers 32:9 For when they went up to the Eshkol Valley and saw the land, they disheartened the people of Isra'el, so that they wouldn't enter the land ADONAI had given them.

Numbers 32:10 ADONAI's anger blazed up on that day; and he swore,

Numbers 32:11 'None of the people aged twenty or more who came out of Egypt will see the land I swore to Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov; because they haven't followed me unreservedly-

Numbers 32:12 except Kalev the son of Y'funeh the K'nizi and Y'hoshua the son of Nun, because they have followed ADONAI unreservedly.'

Numbers 32:13 Thus ADONAI's anger blazed against Isra'el, so that he made them wander here and there in the desert forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of ADONAI had died out.

Numbers 32:14 Now you, another brood of sinners, have arisen in your fathers' place to increase still more the fierce anger of ADONAI toward Isra'el!

Numbers 32:15 For if you turn away from him, he will leave them in the desert again, and thus you will cause the destruction of all these people!"

Numbers 32:16 But they came up to him and said, "Here we will build enclosures for our livestock and cities for our little ones,

Numbers 32:17 but we ourselves will be armed and ready for action to march at the head of the people of Isra'el, until we have brought them to their place. Our little ones will stay in the fortified cities here because of the people now living in the land.

Numbers 32:18 However, we will not return to our own homes until every man in Isra'el has taken possession of his land for inheritance.

Numbers 32:19 We will not have an inheritance with them on the other side of the Yarden, westward; because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Yarden, eastward."

Numbers 32:20 Moshe said to them, "If you will do this- if you will arm yourselves to go before ADONAI to the war,

Numbers 32:21 and if every one of your soldiers will cross the Yarden before ADONAI, until he has driven out his enemies ahead of him,

Numbers 32:22 and if the land has been conquered before ADONAI, and only after that do you return- then you will be clear before ADONAI and before Isra'el, and this land here will be yours to possess before ADONAI.

Numbers 32:23 But if you will not do this, then you have sinned against ADONAI, and you must understand that your sin will find you out.

Numbers 32:24 Build cities for your little ones and enclosures for your sheep; then do what you said you would do."

Numbers 32:25 The descendants of Gad and the descendants of Re'uven said to Moshe, "Your servants will do as my lord orders.

Numbers 32:26 Our little ones, wives, flocks and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gil'ad;

Numbers 32:27 but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before ADONAI to do battle, as my lord says."

Numbers 32:28 So Moshe gave orders concerning them to El'azar the [cohen], Y'hoshua the son of Nun and the clan leaders of the tribes of the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 32:29 Moshe said to them, "If the descendants of Gad and of Re'uven cross over the Yarden with you, every man armed for battle, before ADONAI; and if the land is conquered before you, then you are to give them the land of Gil'ad as theirs to possess.

Numbers 32:30 But if they do not cross with you armed, they are to possess land along with you in Kena'an."

Numbers 32:31 The descendants of Gad and of Re'uven answered, "We will do as ADONAI has said to your servants.

Numbers 32:32 We will cross over into the land of Kena'an armed before ADONAI, and the land we will possess for inheritance will be on this side of the Yarden."

Numbers 32:33 So Moshe gave the descendants of Gad and of Re'uven, and also to the half-tribe of M'nasheh the son of Yosef, the kingdom of Sichon king of the Emori and the kingdom of 'Og king of Bashan- the country and its cities within its borders, along with their surrounding towns.

Numbers 32:34 The descendants of Gad built Divon, 'Atarot, 'Aro'er,

Numbers 32:35 'Atrot-Shofan, Ya'zer, Yogbehah,

Numbers 32:36 Beit-Nimrah and Beit-Haran- fortified cities; and also enclosures for sheep.

Numbers 32:37 The descendants of Re'uven built Heshbon, El'aleh, Kiryatayim, Numbers 32:38 N'vo, Ba'al-M'on (these names have been changed) and Sivmah; they renamed the cities they built.

Numbers 32:39 The descendants of Machir the son of M'nasheh went to Gil'ad and conquered it, dispossessing the Emori who were there.

Numbers 32:40 Moshe gave Gil'ad to Machir the son of M'nasheh, and he lived in it.

Numbers 32:41 Ya'ir the son of M'nasheh went and captured its villages and called them Havot-Ya'ir [[villages of Ya'ir]].

Numbers 32:42 Novach went and captured K'nat with its villages and named it Novach after himself.

Numbers 33:1 These are the stages in the journey of the people of Isra'el as they left the land of Egypt divided into groups under the leadership of Moshe and Aharon.

Numbers 33:2 Moshe recorded each of the stages of their journey by order of ADONAI; here are the starting-points of each stage:

Numbers 33:3 They began their journey from Ram'ses in the first month. On the fifteenth day of the first month, the morning after the [Pesach], the people of Isra'el left proudly in view of all the Egyptians;

Numbers 33:4 while the Egyptians were burying those among them whom ADONAI had killed, all their firstborn; ADONAI had also executed judgment on their gods.

Numbers 33:5 The people of Isra'el moved on from Ram'ses and camped at Sukkot.

Numbers 33:6 They moved on from Sukkot and camped at Etam, by the edge of the desert.

Numbers 33:7 They moved on from Etam and turned back to Pi-Hachirot, in front of Ba'al-Tz'fon, and camped before Migdol.

Numbers 33:8 They moved on from P'nei-Hachirot, passed through the sea to the desert, continued three days' journey into the Etam Desert and camped at Marah.

Numbers 33:9 They moved on from Marah and came to Eilim; in Eilim were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, so they camped there.

Numbers 33:10 They moved on from Eilim and camped by the Sea of Suf.

Numbers 33:11 They moved on from the Sea of Suf and camped in the Seen Desert.

Numbers 33:12 They moved on from the Seen Desert and camped at Dofkah.

Numbers 33:13 They moved on from Dofkah and camped at Alush.

Numbers 33:14 They moved on from Alush and camped at Refidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

Numbers 33:15 They moved on from Refidim and camped in the Sinai Desert.

Numbers 33:16 They moved on from the Sinai Desert and camped at Kivrot-HaTa'avah.

Numbers 33:17 They moved on from Kivrot-HaTa'avah and camped in Hatzerot.

Numbers 33:18 They moved on from Hatzerot and camped at Ritmah.

Numbers 33:19 They moved on from Ritmah and camped at Rimmon-Peretz.

Numbers 33:20 They moved on from Rimmon-Peretz and camped at Livnah.

Numbers 33:21 They moved on from Livnah and camped at Rissah.

Numbers 33:22 They moved on from Rissah and camped at K’helah.

Numbers 33:23 They moved on from K’helah and camped at Mount Shefer.

Numbers 33:24 They moved on from Mount Shefer and camped at Haradah.

Numbers 33:25 They moved on from Haradah and camped at Mak’helot.

Numbers 33:26 They moved on from Mak’helot and camped at Tachat.

Numbers 33:27 They moved on from Tachat and camped at Terach.

Numbers 33:28 They moved on from Terach and camped at Mitkah.

Numbers 33:29 They moved on from Mitkah and camped at HaShmonah.

Numbers 33:30 They moved on from HaShmonah and camped at Moserot.

Numbers 33:31 They moved on from Moserot and camped at B’nei-Ya’akan.

Numbers 33:32 They moved on from B’nei-Ya’akan and camped at Hor-HaGidgad.

Numbers 33:33 They moved on from Hor-HaGidgad and camped at Yotvatah.

Numbers 33:34 They moved on from Yotvatah and camped at Avronah.

Numbers 33:35 They moved on from Avronah and camped at ‘Etzyon-Gever.

Numbers 33:36 They moved on from ‘Etzyon-Gever and camped in the Tzin Desert, that is, Kadesh.

Numbers 33:37 They moved on from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the border of the land of Edom.

Numbers 33:38 At ADONAI’s order Aharon the [cohen] went up on Mount Hor, and he died there on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the people of Isra’el had left the land of Egypt.

Numbers 33:39 Aharon was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Numbers 33:40 The Kena’ani king of ‘Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Kena’an, had heard that the people of Isra’el were coming;

Numbers 33:41 so they moved on from Mount Hor and camped at Tzalmonah.

Numbers 33:42 They moved on from Tzalmonah and camped at Punon.

Numbers 33:43 They moved on from Punon and camped at Ovot.

Numbers 33:44 They moved on from Ovot and camped ‘Iyei-Ha’Avarim, at the border of Mo’av.

Numbers 33:45 They moved on from ‘Iyim and camped at Divon-Gad.

Numbers 33:46 They moved on from Divon-Gad and camped at ‘Almon-Divlatayim.

Numbers 33:47 They moved on from Almon-Divlatayim and camped in the ‘Avarim Range, in front of N’vo.

Numbers 33:48 They moved on from the ‘Avarim Range and camped in the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden, across from Yericho.

Numbers 33:49 Their camp by the Yarden extended from Beit-HaYeshimot all the way to Avel-HaSheetim in the plains of Mo’av.

Numbers 33:50 ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden, across from Yericho. He said

Numbers 33:51 to tell the people of Isra’el, “When you cross the Yarden into the land of Kena’an,

Numbers 33:52 you are to expel all the people living in the land from in front of you. Destroy all their stone figures, destroy all their metal statues and demolish all their high places.

Numbers 33:53 Drive out the inhabitants of the land, and live in it, for I have given the land to you to possess.

Numbers 33:54 You will inherit the land by lot according to your families. You are to give more land to the larger families and less to the smaller ones. Wherever the lot falls to any particular person, that will be his property. You will inherit according to the tribes of your ancestors.

Numbers 33:55 But if you don’t drive out the inhabitants of the land from in front of you, then those you allow to remain will become like thorns in your eyes and stings in your sides- they will harass you in the land where you are living.

Numbers 33:56 And in this event, I will do to you what I intended to do to them.”

Numbers 34:1 ADONAI told Moshe

Numbers 34:2 to give this order to the people of Isra’el: “When you enter the land of Kena’an, it will become your land to pass on as an inheritance, the land of Kena’an as defined by these borders.

Numbers 34:3 “Your southern portion will extend from the Tzin Desert close to the border of Edom. The eastern terminus of your southern border is at the end of the Dead Sea.

Numbers 34:4 From there your border turns, goes south of the ‘Akrabbim Ascent and passes on to Tzin. From there it goes south of Kadesh-Barnea, on to Hatzar-Adar, and on to ‘Atzmon.

Numbers 34:5 Then the border turns and goes from ‘Atzmon to the [Vadi] of Egypt and along it to the Sea.

Numbers 34:6 “Your western border will be the Great Sea.

Numbers 34:7 “Your northern border will be as follows: from the Great Sea mark a line to Mount Hor, Numbers 34:8 and from Mount Hor mark a line to the entrance of Hamat. The border goes out to Tz’dad.

Numbers 34:9 Then the border goes to Zifron and finally to Hatzar-’Einan; this is your northern border.

Numbers 34:10 “For the eastern border mark your line from Hatzar-’Enan to Sh’fam.

Numbers 34:11 Then the border goes down from Sh’fam to Rivlah, on the east side of ‘Ayin, then down until it hits the slope east of Lake Kinneret.

Numbers 34:12 From there it goes down the Yarden River till it flows into the Dead Sea. These will be the borders of your land.”

Numbers 34:13 Moshe gave this order to the people of Isra’el: “This is the land in which you will receive inheritances by lot, which ADONAI has ordered to give to the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

Numbers 34:14 The tribe of the descendants of Re’uven have already received their land for inheritance according to their clans, and so have the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh.

Numbers 34:15 These two-and-a-half tribes have received their inheritance on this side of the Yarden, across from Yericho and eastward, toward the sunrise.”

Numbers 34:16 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 34:17 “These are the names of the men who will take possession of the land for you: El’azar the [cohen] and Y’hoshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 34:18 Also appoint one leader from each tribe to take possession of the land.

Numbers 34:19 The names of these men are: from the tribe of Y’hudah, Kalev the son of Y’funeh;

Numbers 34:20 from the tribe of the descendants of Shim’on, Sh’mu’el the son of ‘Ammihud;

Numbers 34:21 from the tribe of Binyamin, Elidad the son of Kislon;

Numbers 34:22 from the tribe of the descendants of Dan, a leader, Buki the son of Yogli;

Numbers 34:23 from the descendants of Yosef: from the tribe of the descendants of M'nasheh, a leader, Hani'el the son of Efod;

Numbers 34:24 from the tribe of the descendants of Efrayim, a leader, K'mu'el the son of Shiftan;

Numbers 34:25 from the tribe of the descendants of Z'vulun, a leader, Elitzafan the son of Parnakh;

Numbers 34:26 from the tribe of the descendants of Yissakhar, a leader, Palti'el the son of 'Azan;

Numbers 34:27 from the tribe of the descendants of Asher, a leader, Achihud the son of Shlomi;

Numbers 34:28 from the tribe of the descendants of Naftali, a leader, P'dah'el the son of 'Ammihud."

Numbers 34:29 These are the ones whom ADONAI ordered to divide the inheritance among the people of Isra'el in the land of Kena'an. [(LY: v)]

Numbers 35:1 In the plains of Mo'av by the Yarden, across from Yericho, ADONAI said to Moshe, Numbers 35:2 "Order the people of Isra'el to give to the [L'vi'im] cities to live in from the heritage they will possess, and you are also to give the [L'vi'im] some of the open land surrounding the cities.

Numbers 35:3 They are to have the cities to live in, while their open land will be for their livestock, for growing crops and for all their animals.

Numbers 35:4 The open land around the cities you give to the [L'vi'im] is to commence at a line drawn around the city wall 1,500 feet outside it and is to extend outward from there.

Numbers 35:5 Measure 3,000 feet outward from the city wall to the east, south, west and north, with the city in the center. The space between the 1,500-foot line and the 3,000-foot line will be their open land around the cities.

Numbers 35:6 The cities you give to the [L'vi'im] are to be the six cities of refuge to which you permit the person who kills someone to flee to; plus an additional forty-two cities.

Numbers 35:7 Thus you will give the [L'vi'im] forty-eight cities, with their surrounding open land.

Numbers 35:8 As to the cities you will give from those the people of Isra'el possess, from the many you will take many, and from the few you will take few- each tribe will contribute from its cities to the [L'vi'im] in accordance with the size of its inheritance."

Numbers 35:9 ADONAI said to Moshe,

Numbers 35:10 "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'When you cross the Yarden into the land of Kena'an,

Numbers 35:11 you are to designate for yourselves cities that will be cities of refuge for you, to which anyone who kills someone by mistake can flee.

Numbers 35:12 These cities are to be a refuge for you from the dead person's next-of-kin, who might otherwise avenge his kinsman's death by slaying the killer prior to his standing trial before the community.

Numbers 35:13 In regard to the cities you are to give, there are to be six cities of refuge for you.

Numbers 35:14 You are to give three cities east of the Yarden and three cities in the land of Kena'an; they will be cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:15 These six cities will serve as refuge for the people of Isra'el, as well as for the foreigner and resident alien with them; so that anyone who kills someone by mistake may flee there.

Numbers 35:16 "'However, if he hits him with an iron implement and thus causes his death, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

Numbers 35:17 Or if he hits him with a stone in his hand big enough to kill someone, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

Numbers 35:18 Or if he hits him with a wood utensil in his hand capable of killing someone, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

Numbers 35:19 The next-of-kin avenger is to put the murderer to death himself- upon meeting him, he is to put him to death.

Numbers 35:20 Likewise, if he shoves him out of hatred; or intentionally throws something at him, causing his death;

Numbers 35:21 or out of hostility strikes him with his hand, so that he dies; then the one who struck him must be put to death; he is a murderer; and the next-of-kin avenger is to put the murderer to death upon meeting him.

Numbers 35:22 "'But suppose he shoves him suddenly, but without hostility; or he throws something at him unintentionally;

Numbers 35:23 or, without seeing him, being his enemy or seeking to harm him, he throws a stone big enough to cause death; and the person dies.

Numbers 35:24 Then the community is to judge between the one who struck him and the next-of-kin avenger in accordance with these rules;

Numbers 35:25 and the community is to save the killer from the next-of-kin avenger. The community is to return him to the city of refuge to which he fled, and he is to live there until the [cohen hagadol], who was anointed with the holy oil, dies.

Numbers 35:26 But if the killer ever goes beyond the limits of the city of refuge he fled to,

Numbers 35:27 and the next-of-kin avenger finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger kills the killer, he will not be guilty of the man's blood;

Numbers 35:28 because he must stay in his city of refuge until the death of the [cohen hagadol]. But after the death of the [cohen hagadol] the killer may return to the land he owns.

Numbers 35:29 These things shall constitute your standard for judgment through all your generations, wherever you live.

Numbers 35:30 "'If anyone kills someone, the murderer is to be put to death upon the testimony of witnesses; but the testimony of only one witness will not suffice to cause a person to be put to death.

Numbers 35:31 Also, you are not to accept a ransom in lieu of the life of a murderer condemned to death; rather, he must be put to death.

Numbers 35:32 Likewise, you are not to accept for someone who has fled to his city of refuge a ransom that would allow him to return to his land before the death of the [cohen].

Numbers 35:33 In this way you will not defile the land in which you are living. For blood defiles the land, and in this land no atonement can be made for the blood shed in it except the blood of him who shed it.

Numbers 35:34 No, you are not to defile the land in which you live and in which I live; for I, ADONAI, live among the people of Isra'el.'" [(LY: vii)]

Numbers 36:1 The leaders of the clans of the family of the descendants of Gil'ad, the son of Machir, the son of M'nasheh, of the families of the descendants of Yosef, approached and addressed Moshe and the leaders, the heads of the clans of the people of Isra'el.

Numbers 36:2 They said, "ADONAI ordered my lord to give by lot the land to be inherited by the people of Isra'el, and my lord was ordered by ADONAI to give the inheritance of our kinsman Tz'lof'chad to his daughters.

Numbers 36:3 But if they get married to anyone belonging to another of the tribes of the people of Isra'el, then their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our ancestors and be added to the inheritance of the tribe they will then belong to; thus it will be taken away from the sum total of our inheritance.

Numbers 36:4 And when the [yovel] of the people of Isra'el comes, their inheritance will be added to the land possessed by the tribe they will then belong to and be subtracted from the inheritance belonging to the tribe of our ancestors."

Numbers 36:5 Moshe gave this order to the people of Isra’el, in keeping with the word of ADONAI: “The tribe of the descendants of Yosef is right in what it says.

Numbers 36:6 Here is what ADONAI has ordered concerning the daughters of Tz’lof’chad: ‘Let them be married to whomever they think best, but they must marry only into a family from their father’s tribe.

Numbers 36:7 In this way no inheritance of the people of Isra’el will move from one tribe to another; for each of the people of Isra’el is to hold on to the land for inheritance belonging to his father’s tribe.

Numbers 36:8 Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the people of Isra’el is to become the wife of someone from the family of her father’s tribe, so that every one of the people of Isra’el will stay in possession of his ancestors’ inheritance.

Numbers 36:9 Thus no inheritance will move from one tribe to another, for each of the tribes of the people of Isra’el will hold on to its own inheritance.”

Numbers 36:10 The daughters of Tz’lof’chad did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Numbers 36:11 Machlah, Tirtzah, Hoglah, Milkah and No’ah all got married to sons of their father’s brothers.

Numbers 36:12 They were married into the families of the descendants of M’nasheh the son of Yosef, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father’s family.

Numbers 36:13 These are the [mitzvot] and rulings which ADONAI gave through Moshe to the people of Isra’el in the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden, across from Yericho.

Deuteronomy

1:1 These are the words Moshe spoke to all Isra’el on the far side of the Yarden River, in the desert, in the ‘Aravah, across from Suf, between Pa’ran and Tofel, Lavan, Hatzerot and Di-Zahav.

Deuteronomy 1:2 It is eleven days’ journey from Horev to Kadesh-Barnea by way of Mount Se’ir.

Deuteronomy 1:3 On the first day of the eleventh month of the fortieth year, Moshe spoke to the people of Isra’el, reviewing everything ADONAI had ordered him to tell them.

Deuteronomy 1:4 This was after he had defeated Sichon, king of the Emori, who lived in Heshbon, and ‘Og, king of Bashan, who lived in ‘Ashtarot, at Edre’i.

Deuteronomy 1:5 There, beyond the Yarden, in the land of Mo’av, Moshe took it upon himself to expound this [Torah] and said:

Deuteronomy 1:6 “ADONAI spoke to us in Horev. He said, ‘You have lived long enough by this mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:7 Turn, get moving and go to the hill-country of the Emori and all the places near there in the ‘Aravah, the hill-country, the Sh’felah, the Negev and by the seashore- the land of the Kena’ani, and the L’vanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates River.

Deuteronomy 1:8 I have set the land before you! Go in, and take possession of the land ADONAI swore to give to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov, and their descendants after them.’

Deuteronomy 1:9 “At that time I told you, ‘You are too heavy a burden for me to carry alone.

Deuteronomy 1:10 ADONAI your God has multiplied your numbers, so that there are as many of you today as there are stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy 1:11 May ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, increase you yet a thousandfold and bless you, as he has promised you!

Deuteronomy 1:12 But you are burdensome, bothersome and quarrelsome! How can I bear it by myself alone?

Deuteronomy 1:13 Pick for yourselves from each of your tribes men who are wise, understanding and knowledgeable; and I will make them heads over you.’

Deuteronomy 1:14 “You answered me, ‘What you have said would be a good thing for us to do.’

Deuteronomy 1:15 So I took the heads of your tribes, men wise and knowledgable, and made them heads over you- leaders in charge of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, and officers, tribe by tribe.

Deuteronomy 1:16 At that time I commissioned your judges, ‘Hear the cases that arise between your brothers; and judge fairly between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is with him.

Deuteronomy 1:17 You are not to show favoritism when judging, but give equal attention to the small and to the great. No matter how a person presents himself, don’t be afraid of him; because the decision is God’s. The case that is too hard for you, bring to me and I will hear it.’

Deuteronomy 1:18 I also gave you orders at that time concerning all the things you were to do.

Deuteronomy 1:19 “So we left Horev and went through all that vast and fearsome desert which you saw on the way to the hill-country of the Emori, as ADONAI our God ordered us; and we arrived at Kadesh-Barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:20 There I said to you, ‘You have come to the hill-country of the Emori, which ADONAI our God is giving to us.

Deuteronomy 1:21 Look! ADONAI your God has placed the land before you. Go up, take possession, as ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, has told you. Don't be afraid, don't be dismayed.'

Deuteronomy 1:22 "You approached me, every one of you, and said, 'Let's send men ahead of us to explore the country for us and bring back word concerning what route we should use in going up and what the cities we will encounter are like.'

Deuteronomy 1:23 The idea seemed good to me, so I took twelve of your men, one from each tribe;

Deuteronomy 1:24 and they set out, went up into the hills, came to the Eshkol Valley and reconnoitered it.

Deuteronomy 1:25 They took some of the produce of the land and brought it down to us; they also brought back word to us- 'The land ADONAI our God is giving to us is good.'

Deuteronomy 1:26 "But you would not go up. Instead you rebelled against the order of ADONAI your God;

Deuteronomy 1:27 and in your tents you complained, 'It's because ADONAI hated us that he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, only to hand us over to the Emori to destroy us.

Deuteronomy 1:28 What sort of place is it that we're heading for? Our brothers made our courage fail when they said, "The people are bigger and taller than we are; the cities are great and fortified up to the sky; and finally, we have seen 'Anakim there."'

Deuteronomy 1:29 "I answered you, 'Don't be fearful, don't be afraid of them.

Deuteronomy 1:30 ADONAI your God, who is going ahead of you, will fight on your behalf, just as he accomplished all those things for you in Egypt before your eyes,

Deuteronomy 1:31 and likewise in the desert, where you saw how ADONAI your God carried you, like a man carries his child, along the entire way you traveled until you arrived at this place.

Deuteronomy 1:32 Yet in this matter you don't trust ADONAI your God,

Deuteronomy 1:33 even though he went ahead of you, seeking out places for you to pitch your tents and showing you which way to go, by fire at night and by a cloud during the day.'

Deuteronomy 1:34 "ADONAI heard what you were saying, became angry and swore,

Deuteronomy 1:35 'Not a single one of these people, this whole evil generation, will see the good land I swore to give to your ancestors, Deuteronomy 1:36 except Kalev the son of Y'funeh- he will see it; I will give him and his descendants the land he walked on, because he has fully followed ADONAI.'

Deuteronomy 1:37 "Also, because of you ADONAI was angry with me and said, 'You too will not go in there.

Deuteronomy 1:38 Y'hoshua the son of Nun, your assistant- he will go in there. So encourage him, because he will enable Isra'el to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 1:39 Moreover, your little ones, who you said would be taken as booty, and your children who don't yet know good from bad- they will go in there; I will give it to them, and they will have possession of it.

Deuteronomy 1:40 But as for yourselves, turn around and head into the desert by the road to the Sea of Suf.'

Deuteronomy 1:41 "Then you answered me, 'We have sinned against ADONAI. Now we will go up and fight, in accordance with everything ADONAI our God ordered us.' And every man among you put on his arms, considering it an easy matter to go up into the hill-country.

Deuteronomy 1:42 But ADONAI said to me, 'Tell them, "Don't go up, and don't fight, because I am not there with you; if you do, your enemies will defeat you."'

Deuteronomy 1:43 So I told you, but you wouldn't listen. Instead, you rebelled against ADONAI's order, took matters into your own hands and went up into the hill-country;

Deuteronomy 1:44 where the Emori living in that hill-country came out against you like bees, defeated you in Se'ir and chased you back all the way to Hormah.

Deuteronomy 1:45 You returned and cried before ADONAI, but ADONAI neither listened to what you said nor paid you any attention.

Deuteronomy 1:46 This is why you had to stay in Kadesh as long as you did.

Deuteronomy 2:1 "Then we turned and began traveling into the desert along the road to the Sea of Suf, as ADONAI had said to me; and we skirted Mount Se'ir for a long time.

Deuteronomy 2:2 Finally ADONAI said to me,

Deuteronomy 2:3 'You have been going around this mountain long enough! Head north,

Deuteronomy 2:4 and give this order to the people: "You are to pass through the territory of your kinsmen the descendants of 'Esav who live in Se'ir. They will be afraid of you, so be very cautious,

Deuteronomy 2:5 and don't get into disputes with them; for I am not going to give you any of their land, no, not even enough for one foot to stand on; inasmuch as I have given Mount Se'ir to 'Esav as his possession.

Deuteronomy 2:6 Pay them money for the food you eat, and pay them money for the water you drink.

Deuteronomy 2:7 For ADONAI your God has blessed you in everything your hands have produced. He knows that you have been traveling through this vast desert; these forty years ADONAI your God has been with you; and you have lacked nothing.'

Deuteronomy 2:8 "So we went on past our kinsmen the descendants of 'Esav living in Se'ir, left the road through the 'Aravah from Eilat and 'Etzyon-Gever, and turned to pass along the road through the desert of Mo'av.

Deuteronomy 2:9 ADONAI said to me, 'Don't be hostile toward Mo'av or fight with them, because I will not give you any of their land to possess, since I have already given 'Ar to the descendants of Lot as their territory.'" Deuteronomy 2:10 (The Emim used to live there, a great and numerous people as tall as the 'Anakim.

Deuteronomy 2:11 They are also considered Refa'im, as are the 'Anakim, but the Mo'avim call them Emim.

Deuteronomy 2:12 In Se'ir the Horim used to live, but the descendants of 'Esav dispossessed and destroyed them, settling in their place. Isra'el did similarly in the land it came to possess, which ADONAI gave to them.)

Deuteronomy 2:13 "'Now get going, and cross [Vadi] Zered!' "So we crossed [Vadi] Zered.

Deuteronomy 2:14 The time between our leaving Kadesh-Barnea and our crossing [Vadi] Zered was thirty-eight years- until the whole generation of men capable of bearing arms had been eliminated from the camp, as ADONAI had sworn they would be.

Deuteronomy 2:15 Moreover, ADONAI's hand was against them to root them out of the camp until the last of them was gone.

Deuteronomy 2:16 When all the men who were able to bear arms had died and were no longer part of the people,

Deuteronomy 2:17 ADONAI said to me,

Deuteronomy 2:18 'Today you are to cross the border of Mo'av at 'Ar.

Deuteronomy 2:19 When you approach the descendants of 'Amon, don't bother them or fight with them, for I will not give you any of the territory of the people of 'Amon to possess, since I have given it to the descendants of Lot as their territory.'" Deuteronomy 2:20 (This too is considered a land of the Refa'im: Refa'im, whom the Emori call Zamzumim, used to live there.

Deuteronomy 2:21 They were a large, numerous people, as tall as the ‘Anakim; but ADONAI destroyed them as the people of ‘Amon advanced and settled in their place-

Deuteronomy 2:22 just as he destroyed the Horim as descendants of ‘Esav advanced into Se’ir and settled in their place, where they live to this day.

Deuteronomy 2:23 It was the same with the ‘Avim, who lived in villages as far away as ‘Azah- the Kaftorim, coming from Kaftor, destroyed them and settled in their place.)

Deuteronomy 2:24 “‘Get up, get moving, and cross the Arnon Valley! Here, I have put in your hands Sichon the Emori, king of Heshbon, and his land; commence the conquest, begin the battle!

Deuteronomy 2:25 Today I will start putting the fear and dread of you into all the peoples under heaven, so that the mere mention of your name will make them quake and tremble before you.’

Deuteronomy 2:26 “I sent envoys from the K’demot Desert to Sichon king of Heshbon with a peaceable message, Deuteronomy 2:27 ‘Let me pass through your land. I will keep to the road, turning neither right nor left.

Deuteronomy 2:28 You will sell me food to eat for money and give me water to drink for money. I only want to pass through.

Deuteronomy 2:29 Do as the people of ‘Esav living in Se’ir and the Mo’avim living in ‘Ar did with me, until I cross the Yarden into the land ADONAI our God is giving us.’

Deuteronomy 2:30 “But Sichon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through his territory, because ADONAI your God had hardened his spirit and made him stubborn, so that he could hand him over to you, as is the case today.

Deuteronomy 2:31 ADONAI said to me, ‘See, I have begun handing over Sichon and his territory before you; start taking possession of his land.’

Deuteronomy 2:32 Then Sichon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Yahatz;

Deuteronomy 2:33 and ADONAI our God handed him over to us, so that we defeated him, his sons and all his people.

Deuteronomy 2:34 At that time we captured all his cities and completely destroyed every city- men, women, little ones- we left none of them.

Deuteronomy 2:35 As booty for ourselves we took only the cattle, along with the spoil from the cities we had captured.

Deuteronomy 2:36 From ‘Aro’er, on the edge of the Arnon Valley, and from the city in the valley, all the way to Gil’ad, there was not one city too well fortified for us to capture- ADONAI our God gave all of them to us.

Deuteronomy 2:37 The only land you didn’t approach was that of the descendants of ‘Amon- the region around the Yabok River, the cities in the hills and wherever else ADONAI our God forbade us to go.

Deuteronomy 3:1 “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and ‘Og the king of Bashan came out against us with all his people to fight at Edre’i.

Deuteronomy 3:2 ADONAI said to me, ‘Don’t be afraid of him; for I have handed him, all his people and his territory over to you; you will do to him as you did to Sichon king of the Emori, who lived at Heshbon.’

Deuteronomy 3:3 So ADONAI our God also handed over to us ‘Og the king of Bashan with all his people, and we defeated him until he had no one left.

Deuteronomy 3:4 At that time we captured all his cities; there was not one city of theirs that we didn’t capture. There were sixty cities, all the region of Argov, the kingdom of ‘Og in Bashan;

Deuteronomy 3:5 all of them fortified cities with high walls, gates and bars- in addition to a great number of unwalled towns.

Deuteronomy 3:6 We completely destroyed them, as we did with Sichon king of Heshbon, annihilating every city-men, women and little ones.

Deuteronomy 3:7 But we took all the livestock, along with the spoil from the cities, as booty for ourselves.

Deuteronomy 3:8 “At that time we captured the territory of the two kings of the Emori east of the Yarden between the Arnon Valley and Mount Hermon,”

Deuteronomy 3:9 the Hermon which the Tzidonim call Siryon and the Emori call S’nir,

Deuteronomy 3:10 “all the cities of the plain, all Gil’ad and all Bashan, as far as Salkhah and Edre’i, cities of the kingdom of ‘Og in Bashan.”

Deuteronomy 3:11 ‘Og king of Bashan was the last survivor of the Refa’im. His bed was made of iron; it is still in Rabbah with the people of ‘Amon. It was nine cubits long and four cubits wide, using the normal cubit [[thirteen-and-a-half by six feet]].

Deuteronomy 3:12 “Of this land that we took possession of then, I assigned to the Re’uveni and the Gadi the territory extending from ‘Aro’er along the Arnon Valley together with half the hill-country of Gil’ad, including its cities.

Deuteronomy 3:13 The rest of Gil'ad and all Bashan, the kingdom of 'Og, I gave to the half-tribe of M'nasheh." The whole region of Argov together with all of Bashan form what is called the land of Refa'im.

Deuteronomy 3:14 Ya'ir the son of M'nasheh took all the region of Argov, as far as the border with the G'shuri and the Ma'akhati; he named this whole area, including Bashan, after himself- it remains Havot-Ya'ir to this day.

Deuteronomy 3:15 "I gave Gil'ad to Machir;

Deuteronomy 3:16 and to the Re'uveni and the Gadi I gave the territory from Gil'ad to the Arnon Valley, with the middle of the valley as the border, as far as the Yabok River, which is the border with the people of 'Amon;

Deuteronomy 3:17 the 'Aravah too, the Yarden being its border, from Kinneret to the Sea of the 'Aravah, the Dead Sea, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah to the east.

Deuteronomy 3:18 "At that time I gave you this order: 'ADONAI your God has given you this land to possess. But all of you who are fit to fight must cross over, armed, ahead of your brothers the people of Isra'el.

Deuteronomy 3:19 Your wives, your little ones and your livestock- I know you have much livestock- will stay in your cities which I have given you,

Deuteronomy 3:20 until ADONAI allows your brothers to rest, as he has allowed you; and they too take possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving them on the west side of the Yarden. At that point you will return, each man to his own possession which I have given you.'

Deuteronomy 3:21 "Also at that time I gave this order to Y'hoshua: 'Your eyes have seen everything that ADONAI your God has done to these two kings. ADONAI will do the same to all the kingdoms you encounter when you cross over.

Deuteronomy 3:22 Don't be afraid of them, because ADONAI your God will fight on your behalf.'

Deuteronomy 3:23 "Then I pleaded with ADONAI,

Deuteronomy 3:24 '[Adonai ELOHIM], you have begun to reveal your greatness to your servant, and your strong hand- for what other god is there in heaven or on earth that can do the works and mighty deeds that you do?

Deuteronomy 3:25 Please! Let me go across and see the good land on the other side of the Yarden, that wonderful hill-country and the L'vanon!'

Deuteronomy 3:26 But ADONAI was angry with me on account of you, and he didn't listen to me. ADONAI said to me, 'Enough from you! Don't say another word to me about this matter!

Deuteronomy 3:27 Climb up to the top of Pisgah and look out to the west, north, south and east. Look with your eyes- but you will not go across this Yarden.

Deuteronomy 3:28 However, commission Y'hoshua, encourage him and strengthen him; for he will lead this people across and enable them to inherit the land that you will see.'

Deuteronomy 3:29 So we stayed in the valley across from Beit-P'or.

Deuteronomy 4:1 "Now, Isra'el, listen to the laws and rulings I am teaching you, in order to follow them, so that you will live; then you will go in and take possession of the land that ADONAI, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

Deuteronomy 4:2 In order to obey the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God which I am giving you, do not add to what I am saying, and do not subtract from it.

Deuteronomy 4:3 You saw with your own eyes what ADONAI did at Ba'al-P'or, that ADONAI destroyed from among you all the men who followed Ba'al-P'or;

Deuteronomy 4:4 but you who stuck with ADONAI your God are still alive today, every one of you.

Deuteronomy 4:5 Look, I have taught you laws and rulings, just as ADONAI my God ordered me, so that you can behave accordingly in the land where you are going in order to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 4:6 Therefore, observe them; and follow them; for then all peoples will see you as having wisdom and understanding. When they hear of all these laws, they will say, 'This great nation is surely a wise and understanding people.'

Deuteronomy 4:7 For what great nation is there that has God as close to them as ADONAI our God is, whenever we call on him?

Deuteronomy 4:8 What great nation is there that has laws and rulings as just as this entire [Torah] which I am setting before you today?

Deuteronomy 4:9 Only be careful, and watch yourselves diligently as long as you live, so that you won't forget what you saw with your own eyes, so that these things won't vanish from your hearts. Rather, make them known to your children and grandchildren-

Deuteronomy 4:10 the day you stood before ADONAI your God at Horev, when ADONAI said to me, 'Gather the people to me, and I will make them hear my very words, so that they will learn to hold me in awe as long as they live on earth, and so that they will teach their children.'

Deuteronomy 4:11 You approached and stood at the foot of the mountain; and the mountain blazed with fire to the heart of heaven, with darkness, clouds and thick mist.

Deuteronomy 4:12 Then ADONAI spoke to you out of the fire! You heard the sound of words but saw no shape, there was only a voice.

Deuteronomy 4:13 He proclaimed his covenant to you, which he ordered you to obey, the Ten Words; and he wrote them on two stone tablets.

Deuteronomy 4:14 At that time ADONAI ordered me to teach you laws and rulings, so that you would live by them in the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 4:15 “Therefore, watch out for yourselves! Since you did not see a shape of any kind on the day ADONAI spoke to you in Horev from the fire,

Deuteronomy 4:16 do not become corrupt and make yourselves a carved image having the shape of any figure- not a representation of a human being, male or female,

Deuteronomy 4:17 or a representation of any animal on earth, or a representation of any bird that flies in the air,

Deuteronomy 4:18 or a representation of anything that creeps along on the ground, or a representation of any fish in the water below the shoreline.

Deuteronomy 4:19 For the same reason, do not look up at the sky, at the sun, moon, stars and everything in the sky, and be drawn away to worship and serve them; ADONAI your God has allotted these to all the peoples under the entire sky.

Deuteronomy 4:20 No, you ADONAI has taken and brought out of the smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people of inheritance for him, as you are today.

Deuteronomy 4:21 “But ADONAI was angry with me on account of you and swore that I would not cross the Yarden and go into that good land, which ADONAI your God is giving you to inherit.

Deuteronomy 4:22 Rather, I must die in this land and not cross the Yarden; but you are to cross and take possession of that good land.

Deuteronomy 4:23 Watch out for yourselves, so that you won’t forget the covenant of ADONAI your God, which he made with you, and make yourself a carved image, a representation of anything forbidden to you by ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 4:24 For ADONAI your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

Deuteronomy 4:25 “When you have had children and grandchildren, lived a long time in the land, become corrupt and made a carved image, a representation of something, and thus done what is evil in the sight of ADONAI your God and provoked him;

Deuteronomy 4:26 I call on the sky and the earth to witness against you today that you will quickly disappear from the land that you are crossing the Yarden to possess. You will not prolong your days there but will be completely destroyed.

Deuteronomy 4:27 ADONAI will scatter you among the peoples; and among the nations to which ADONAI will lead you away, you will be left few in number.

Deuteronomy 4:28 There you will serve gods which are the product of human hands, made of wood and stone, which can't see, hear, eat or smell.

Deuteronomy 4:29 However, from there you will seek ADONAI your God; and you will find him if you search after him with all your heart and being.

Deuteronomy 4:30 In your distress, when all these things have come upon you, in the [acharit-hayamim], you will return to ADONAI your God and listen to what he says;

Deuteronomy 4:31 for ADONAI your God is a merciful God. He will not fail you, destroy you, or forget the covenant with your ancestors which he swore to them.

Deuteronomy 4:32 "Indeed, inquire about the past, before you were born: since the day God created human beings on the earth, from one end of heaven to the other, has there ever been anything as wonderful as this? Has anyone heard anything like it?

Deuteronomy 4:33 Did any other people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of a fire, as you have heard, and stay alive?

Deuteronomy 4:34 Or has God ever tried to go and take for himself a nation from the very bowels of another nation, by means of ordeals, signs, wonders, war, a mighty hand, an outstretched arm and great terrors- like all that ADONAI your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

Deuteronomy 4:35 This was shown to you, so that you would know that ADONAI is God, and there is no other beside him.

Deuteronomy 4:36 From heaven he caused you to hear his voice, in order to instruct you; and on earth he caused you to see his great fire; and you heard his very words coming out from the fire.

Deuteronomy 4:37 Because he loved your ancestors, chose their descendants after them and brought you out of Egypt with his presence and great power,

Deuteronomy 4:38 in order to drive out ahead of you nations greater and stronger than you, so that he could bring you in and give you their land as an inheritance, as is the case today;

Deuteronomy 4:39 know today, and establish it in your heart, that ADONAI is God in heaven above and on earth below- there is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:40 Therefore, you are to keep his laws and [mitzvot] which I am giving you today, so that it will go well with you and with your children after you, and so that you will prolong your days in the land ADONAI your God is giving you forever."

Deuteronomy 4:41 Then Moshe separated three cities on the east side of the Yarden, toward the sunrise,

Deuteronomy 4:42 to which a killer might flee, that is, someone who kills by mistake a person whom he did not previously hate, and upon fleeing to one of these cities might live there.

Deuteronomy 4:43 The cities were Betzer in the desert, in the flatland, for the Re'uveni; Ramot in Gil'ad for the Gadi; and Golan in Bashan for the M'nashi.

Deuteronomy 4:44 This is the [Torah] which Moshe placed before the people of Isra'el-

Deuteronomy 4:45 these are the instructions, laws and rulings which Moshe presented to the people of Isra'el after they had come out of Egypt-

Deuteronomy 4:46 beyond the Yarden River, in the valley across from Beit-P'or, in the land of Sichon king of the Emori, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moshe and the people of Isra'el defeated when they came out of Egypt;

Deuteronomy 4:47 and they took possession of his land and the land of 'Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Emori, who were beyond the Yarden toward the sunrise;

Deuteronomy 4:48 from 'Aro'er on the edge of the Arnon Valley to Mount Si'on," that is, Mount Hermon, Deuteronomy 4:49 "with all the 'Aravah beyond the Yarden eastward, all the way to the Dead Sea at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah. [(A: iv, S: iii)]

Deuteronomy 5:1 Then Moshe called to all Isra'el and said to them, "Listen, Isra'el, to the laws and rulings which I am announcing in your hearing today, so that you will learn them and take care to obey them.

Deuteronomy 5:2 ADONAI our God made a covenant with us at Horev.

Deuteronomy 5:3 ADONAI did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us- with us, who are all of us here alive today.

Deuteronomy 5:4 ADONAI spoke with you face to face from the fire on the mountain.

Deuteronomy 5:5 At that time I stood between ADONAI and you in order to tell you what ADONAI was saying; because, on account of the fire, you were afraid and wouldn't go up onto the mountain. He said, t

Deuteronomy 5:6 "'I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you lived as slaves. c Deuteronomy 5:7 "'You are to have no other gods before me.

Deuteronomy 5:8 You are not to make for yourselves a carved image or any kind of representation of anything in heaven above, on the earth beneath or in the water below the shoreline-

Deuteronomy 5:9 you are not to bow down to them or serve them; for I, ADONAI your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sins of the parents, also the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

Deuteronomy 5:10 but displaying grace to the thousandth generation of those who love me and obey my [mitzvot]. d

Deuteronomy 5:11 "'You are not to misuse the name of ADONAI your God, because ADONAI will not leave unpunished someone who misuses his name. s Deuteronomy 5:12 "'Observe the day of [Shabbat], to set it apart as holy, as ADONAI your God ordered you to do.

Deuteronomy 5:13 You have six days to labor and do all your work,

Deuteronomy 5:14 but the seventh day is a [Shabbat] for ADONAI your God. On it you are not to do any kind of work- not you, your son or your daughter, not your male or female slave, not your ox, your donkey or any of your other livestock, and not the foreigner staying with you inside the gates to your property- so that your male and female servants can rest just as you do.

Deuteronomy 5:15 You are to remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and ADONAI your God brought you out from there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore ADONAI your God has ordered you to keep the day of [Shabbat]. v

Deuteronomy 5:16 "'Honor your father and mother, as ADONAI your God ordered you to do, so that you will live long and have things go well with you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you. u

Deuteronomy 5:17 "'Do not murder. z "'Do not commit adultery. j "'Do not steal. y "'Do not give false evidence against your neighbor. h

Deuteronomy 5:18 "'Do not covet your neighbor's wife; do not covet your neighbor's house, his field, his male or female slave, his ox, his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.'

Deuteronomy 5:19 "These words ADONAI spoke to your entire gathering at the mountain from fire, cloud and thick mist, in a loud voice; then it ceased. But he wrote them on two stone tablets, which he gave to me.

Deuteronomy 5:20 When you heard the voice coming out of the darkness, as the mountain blazed with fire, you came to me, all the heads of your tribes and your leaders,

Deuteronomy 5:21 and said, 'Here, ADONAI our God has shown us his glory and his greatness! We have heard his voice coming from the fire, and we have seen today that God does speak with human beings, and they stay alive.

Deuteronomy 5:22 But why should we keep risking death? This great fire will consume us! If we hear the voice of ADONAI our God any more, we will die!

Deuteronomy 5:23 For who is there of all humanity that has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the fire, as we have, and stayed alive?

Deuteronomy 5:24 You, go near; and hear everything ADONAI our God says. Then you will tell us everything ADONAI our God says to you; and we will listen to it and do it.'

Deuteronomy 5:25 "ADONAI heard what you were saying when you spoke to me, and ADONAI said to me, 'I have heard what this people has said when speaking to you, and everything they have said is good.

Deuteronomy 5:26 Oh, how I wish their hearts would stay like this always, that they would fear me and obey all my [mitzvot]; so that it would go well with them and their children forever.

Deuteronomy 5:27 Go, tell them to return to their tents.

Deuteronomy 5:28 But you, stand here by me; and I will tell you all the [mitzvot], laws and rulings which you are to teach them, so that they can obey them in the land I am giving them as their possession.'

Deuteronomy 5:29 "Therefore you are to be careful to do as ADONAI your God has ordered you; you are not to deviate either to the right or the left.

Deuteronomy 5:30 You are to follow the entire way which ADONAI your God has ordered you; so that you will live, things will go well with you, and you will live long in the land you are about to possess.

Deuteronomy 6:1 "Now this is the [mitzvah], the laws and rulings which ADONAI your God ordered me to teach you for you to obey in the land you are crossing over to possess,

Deuteronomy 6:2 so that you will fear ADONAI your God and observe all his regulations and [mitzvot] that I am giving you- you, your child and your grandchild- as long as you live, and so that you will have long life.

Deuteronomy 6:3 Therefore listen, Isra'el, and take care to obey, so that things will go well with you, and so that you will increase greatly, as ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, promised you by giving you a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 6:4 "[Sh'ma, Yisra'el]![ADONAI Eloheinu, ADONAI echad] [[Hear, Isra'el! ADONAI our God, ADONAI is one]];

Deuteronomy 6:5 and you are to love ADONAI your God with all your heart, all your being and all your resources.

Deuteronomy 6:6 These words, which I am ordering you today, are to be on your heart;

Deuteronomy 6:7 and you are to teach them carefully to your children. You are to talk about them when you sit at home, when you are traveling on the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 6:8 Tie them on your hand as a sign, put them at the front of a headband around your forehead,

Deuteronomy 6:9 and write them on the door-frames of your house and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:10 “When ADONAI your God has brought you into the land he swore to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov that he would give you- cities great and prosperous, which you didn’t build;

Deuteronomy 6:11 houses full of all sorts of good things, which you didn’t fill; water cisterns dug out, which you didn’t dig; vineyards and olive trees, which you didn’t plant- and you have eaten your fill;

Deuteronomy 6:12 then be careful not to forget ADONAI, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you lived as slaves.

Deuteronomy 6:13 You are to fear ADONAI your God, serve him and swear by his name.

Deuteronomy 6:14 You are not to follow other gods, chosen from the gods of the peoples around you;

Deuteronomy 6:15 because ADONAI, your God, who is here with you, is a jealous God. If you do, the anger of ADONAI your God will flare up against you and he will destroy you from the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 6:16 Do not put ADONAI your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah [[testing]].

Deuteronomy 6:17 Observe diligently the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God, and his instructions and laws which he has given you.

Deuteronomy 6:18 You are to do what is right and good in the sight of ADONAI, so that things will go well with you, and you will enter and possess the good land ADONAI swore to your ancestors,

Deuteronomy 6:19 expelling all your enemies ahead of you, as ADONAI said.

Deuteronomy 6:20 “Some day your child will ask you, ‘What is the meaning of the instructions, laws and rulings which ADONAI our God has laid down for you?’

Deuteronomy 6:21 Then you will tell your child, ‘We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and ADONAI brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand.

Deuteronomy 6:22 ADONAI worked great and terrible signs and wonders against Egypt, Pharaoh and all his household, before our very eyes.

Deuteronomy 6:23 He brought us out from there in order to bring us to the land he had sworn to our ancestors that he would give us.

Deuteronomy 6:24 ADONAI ordered us to observe all these laws, to fear ADONAI our God, always for our own good, so that he might keep us alive, as we are today.

Deuteronomy 6:25 It will be righteousness for us if we are careful to obey all these [mitzvot] before ADONAI our God, just as he ordered us to do.'" [(vii)]

Deuteronomy 7:1 "ADONAI your God is going to bring you into the land you will enter in order to take possession of it, and he will expel many nations ahead of you- the Hitti, Girgashi, Emori, Kena'ani, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi, seven nations bigger and stronger than you.

Deuteronomy 7:2 When he does this, when ADONAI your God hands them over ahead of you, and you defeat them, you are to destroy them completely! Do not make any covenant with them. Show them no mercy.

Deuteronomy 7:3 Don't intermarry with them- don't give your daughter to his son, and don't take his daughter for your son.

Deuteronomy 7:4 For he will turn your children away from following me in order to serve other gods. If this happens, the anger of ADONAI will flare up against you, and he will quickly destroy you.

Deuteronomy 7:5 No, treat them this way: break down their altars, smash their standing-stones to pieces, cut down their sacred poles and burn up their carved images completely.

Deuteronomy 7:6 For you are a people set apart as holy for ADONAI your God. ADONAI your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his own unique treasure.

Deuteronomy 7:7 ADONAI didn't set his heart on you or choose you because you numbered more than any other people- on the contrary, you were the fewest of all peoples.

Deuteronomy 7:8 Rather, it was because ADONAI loved you, and because he wanted to keep the oath which he had sworn to your ancestors, that ADONAI brought you out with a strong hand and redeemed you from a life of slavery under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:9 From this you can know that ADONAI your God is indeed God, the faithful God, who keeps his covenant and extends grace to those who love him and observe his [mitzvot], to a thousand generations.

Deuteronomy 7:10 But he repays those who hate him to their face and destroys them. He will not be slow to deal with someone who hates him; he will repay him to his face.

Deuteronomy 7:11 Therefore, you are to keep the [mitzvot], laws and rulings which I am giving you today, and obey them.

Deuteronomy 7:12 “Because you are listening to these rulings, keeping and obeying them, ADONAI your God will keep with you the covenant and mercy that he swore to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 7:13 He will love you, bless you and increase your numbers; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground- your grain, wine, olive oil and the young of your cattle and sheep- in the land he swore to your ancestors that he would give you.

Deuteronomy 7:14 You will be blessed more than all other peoples; there will not be a sterile male or female among you, and the same with your livestock.

Deuteronomy 7:15 ADONAI will remove all illness from you- he will not afflict you with any of Egypt’s dreadful diseases, which you have known; instead, he will lay them on those who hate you.

Deuteronomy 7:16 You are to devour all the peoples that ADONAI your God hands over to you- show them no pity, and do not serve their gods, because that will become a trap for you.

Deuteronomy 7:17 If you think to yourselves, ‘These nations outnumber us; how can we dispossess them?’

Deuteronomy 7:18 nevertheless, you are not to be afraid of them; you are to remember well what ADONAI your God did to Pharaoh and all of Egypt-

Deuteronomy 7:19 the great ordeals which you yourself saw, and the signs, wonders, strong hand and outstretched arm by which ADONAI your God brought you out. ADONAI will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

Deuteronomy 7:20 Moreover, ADONAI your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left and those who hide themselves perish ahead of you.

Deuteronomy 7:21 You are not to be frightened of them, because ADONAI your God is there with you, a God great and fearsome.

Deuteronomy 7:22 ADONAI your God will expel those nations ahead of you little by little; you can’t put an end to them all at once, or the wild animals will become too numerous for you.

Deuteronomy 7:23 Nevertheless, ADONAI your God will give them over to you, sending one disaster after another upon them until they have been destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:24 He will hand their kings over to you, and you will wipe out their name from under heaven; none of them will be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 7:25 You are to burn up completely the carved statues of their gods. Don’t be greedy for the silver or gold on them; don’t take it with you, or you will be trapped by it; for it is abhorrent to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 7:26 Don’t bring something abhorrent into your house, or you will share in the curse that is on it; instead, you are to detest it completely, loathe it utterly; for it is set apart for destruction.

Deuteronomy 8:1 “All the [mitzvot] I am giving you today you are to take care to obey, so that you will live, increase your numbers, enter and take possession of the land ADONAI swore about to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 8:2 You are to remember everything of the way in which ADONAI led you these forty years in the desert, humbling and testing you in order to know what was in your heart- whether you would obey his [mitzvot] or not.

Deuteronomy 8:3 He humbled you, allowing you to become hungry, and then fed you with [man], which neither you nor your ancestors had ever known, to make you understand that a person does not live on food alone but on everything that comes from the mouth of ADONAI.

Deuteronomy 8:4 During these forty years the clothing you were wearing didn’t grow old, and your feet didn’t swell up.

Deuteronomy 8:5 Think deeply about it: ADONAI was disciplining you, just as a man disciplines his child.

Deuteronomy 8:6 So obey the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God, living as he directs and fearing him.

Deuteronomy 8:7 For ADONAI your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with streams, springs and water welling up from the depths in valleys and on hillsides.

Deuteronomy 8:8 It is a land of wheat and barley, grapevines, fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey;

Deuteronomy 8:9 a land where you will eat food in abundance and lack nothing in it; a land where the stones contain iron and the hills can be mined for copper.

Deuteronomy 8:10 So you will eat and be satisfied, and you will bless ADONAI your God for the good land he has given you.

Deuteronomy 8:11 “Be careful not to forget ADONAI your God by not obeying his [mitzvot], rulings and regulations that I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 8:12 Otherwise, after you have eaten and are satisfied, built fine houses and lived in them,

Deuteronomy 8:13 and increased your herds, flocks, silver, gold and everything else you own,

Deuteronomy 8:14 you will become proud-hearted. Forgetting ADONAI your God- who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you lived as slaves;

Deuteronomy 8:15 who led you through the vast and fearsome desert, with its poisonous snakes, scorpions and waterless, thirsty ground; who brought water out of flint rock for you;

Deuteronomy 8:16 who fed you in the desert with [man], unknown to your ancestors; all the while humbling and testing you in order to do you good in the end-

Deuteronomy 8:17 you will think to yourself, ‘My own power and the strength of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.’

Deuteronomy 8:18 No, you are to remember ADONAI your God, because it is he who is giving you the power to get wealth, in order to confirm his covenant, which he swore to your ancestors, as is happening even today.

Deuteronomy 8:19 If you forget ADONAI your God, follow other gods and serve and worship them, I am warning you in advance today that you will certainly perish.

Deuteronomy 8:20 You will perish just like the nations that ADONAI is causing to perish ahead of you, because you will not have heeded the voice of ADONAI your God.”

Deuteronomy 9:1 “Listen, Isra’el! You are to cross the Yarden today, to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, great cities fortified up to the sky;

Deuteronomy 9:2 a people great and tall, the ‘Anakim, whom you know about and of whom you have heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the descendants of ‘Anak?’

Deuteronomy 9:3 Therefore understand today that ADONAI your God will himself cross ahead of you as a devouring fire; he will destroy them and bring them down before you. Thus will you drive them out and cause them to perish quickly, as ADONAI has said to you.

Deuteronomy 9:4 “Don’t think to yourself, after your God has pushed them out ahead of you, ‘It is to reward my righteousness that ADONAI has brought me in to take possession of this land.’ No, it is because these nations have been so wicked that ADONAI is driving them out ahead of you.

Deuteronomy 9:5 It is not because of your righteousness, or because your heart is so upright, that you go in to take possession of their land; but to punish the wickedness of these nations that ADONAI your God is driving them out ahead of you, and also to confirm the word which ADONAI swore to your ancestors, Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov.

Deuteronomy 9:6 Therefore, understand that it is not for your righteousness that ADONAI your God is giving you this good land to possess. “For you are a stiffnecked people!

Deuteronomy 9:7 Remember, don’t forget, how you made ADONAI your God angry in the desert. From the day you left the land of Egypt till you arrived at this place, you have been rebelling against ADONAI.

Deuteronomy 9:8 Also in Horev you made ADONAI angry- ADONAI was angry enough with you to destroy you!

Deuteronomy 9:9 I had gone up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets on which was written the covenant ADONAI had made with you. I stayed on the mountain forty days and nights without eating food or drinking water.

Deuteronomy 9:10 Then ADONAI gave me the two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God; and on them was written every word ADONAI had said to you from the fire on the mountain the day of the assembly.

Deuteronomy 9:11 Yes, after forty days and nights ADONAI gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant.

Deuteronomy 9:12 Then ADONAI said to me, 'Get up, and hurry down from here, because your people, whom you led out of Egypt, have become corrupt. So quickly have they turned aside from the way I ordered them to follow! They have made themselves a metal image!'

Deuteronomy 9:13 Moreover, ADONAI said to me, 'I have seen this people, and what a stiffnecked people they are!

Deuteronomy 9:14 Let me alone, so that I can put an end to them and blot out their name from under heaven! I will make out of you a nation bigger and stronger than they.'

Deuteronomy 9:15 I came down from the mountain. The mountain was blazing fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

Deuteronomy 9:16 I looked, and there, you had sinned against ADONAI your God! You had made yourselves a metal calf, you had turned aside quickly from the way ADONAI had ordered you to follow.

Deuteronomy 9:17 I seized the two tablets, threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes.

Deuteronomy 9:18 Then I fell down before ADONAI, as I had the first time, for forty days and nights, during which time I neither ate food nor drank water, all because of the sin you committed by doing what was evil in the sight of ADONAI and thus provoking him.

Deuteronomy 9:19 I was terrified that because of how angry ADONAI was at you, of how heatedly displeased he was, that he would destroy you. But ADONAI listened to me that time too.

Deuteronomy 9:20 In addition, ADONAI was very angry with Aharon and would have destroyed him; but I prayed for Aharon also at the same time.

Deuteronomy 9:21 I took your sin, the calf you had made, and burned it up in the fire, beat it to pieces, and ground it up still smaller, until it was as fine as dust; then I threw its dust into the stream coming down from the mountain.

Deuteronomy 9:22 "Again at Tav'erah, Massah and Kivrot-HaTa'avah you made ADONAI angry;

Deuteronomy 9:23 and when ADONAI sent you off from Kadesh-Barnea by saying, ‘Go up and take possession of the land I have given you,’ you rebelled against the order of ADONAI your God- you neither trusted him nor heeded what he said.

Deuteronomy 9:24 You have been rebelling against ADONAI from the day I first knew you!

Deuteronomy 9:25 “So I fell down before ADONAI for those forty days and nights; and I lay there; because ADONAI had said he would destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:26 I prayed to ADONAI; I said, ‘[Adonai ELOHIM]! Don’t destroy your people, your inheritance! You redeemed them through your greatness, you brought them out of Egypt with a strong hand!

Deuteronomy 9:27 Remember your servants Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov! Don’t focus on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or on their sin.

Deuteronomy 9:28 Otherwise, the land you brought us out of will say, “It is because ADONAI wasn’t able to bring them into the land he promised them and because he hated them that he has brought them out to kill them in the desert.”

Deuteronomy 9:29 But in fact they are your people, your inheritance, whom you brought out by your great power and your outstretched arm.’

Deuteronomy 10:1 “At that time ADONAI said to me, ‘Cut yourself two stone tablets like the first ones, come up to me on the mountain, and make yourself an ark of wood.

Deuteronomy 10:2 I will inscribe on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you are to put them in the ark.’

Deuteronomy 10:3 So I made an ark of acacia-wood and cut two stone tablets like the first, then climbed the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

Deuteronomy 10:4 He inscribed the tablets with the same inscription as before, the Ten Words which ADONAI proclaimed to you from the fire on the mountain the day of the assembly; and ADONAI gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 10:5 I turned, came down the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made; and there they remain; as ADONAI ordered me.

Deuteronomy 10:6 “The people of Isra’el traveled from the wells of B’nei-Ya’akan to Moserah, where Aharon died and was buried; and El’azar his son took his place, serving in the office of [cohen.]

Deuteronomy 10:7 From there they traveled to Gudgod, and from Gudgod to Yotvatah, a region with running streams.

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time ADONAI set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark for the covenant of ADONAI and to stand before ADONAI to serve him and to bless in his name, as they still do today.

Deuteronomy 10:9 This is why Levi has no share or inheritance with his brothers; ADONAI is his inheritance, as ADONAI your God had said to him.

Deuteronomy 10:10 “I stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as previously; and ADONAI listened to me that time too- ADONAI would not destroy you.

Deuteronomy 10:11 Then ADONAI said to me, ‘Get up, and go on your way at the head of the people, so that they can enter and take possession of the land I swore to their ancestors that I would give them.’

Deuteronomy 10:12 “So now, Isra’el, all that ADONAI your God asks from you is to fear ADONAI your God, follow all his ways, love him and serve ADONAI your God with all your heart and all your being;

Deuteronomy 10:13 to obey, for your own good, the [mitzvot] and regulations of ADONAI which I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 10:14 See, the sky, the heaven beyond the sky, the earth and everything on it all belong to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 10:15 Only ADONAI took enough pleasure in your ancestors to love them and choose their descendants after them- yourselves- above all peoples, as he still does today.

Deuteronomy 10:16 Therefore, circumcise the foreskin of your heart; and don’t be stiffnecked any longer!

Deuteronomy 10:17 For ADONAI your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty and awesome God, who has no favorites and accepts no bribes.

Deuteronomy 10:18 He secures justice for the orphan and the widow; he loves the foreigner, giving him food and clothing.

Deuteronomy 10:19 Therefore you are to love the foreigner, since you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 10:20 You are to fear ADONAI your God, serve him, cling to him and swear by his name.

Deuteronomy 10:21 He is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which you have seen with your own eyes.

Deuteronomy 10:22 Your ancestors went down into Egypt with only seventy people, but now ADONAI your God has made your numbers as many as the stars in the sky!

Deuteronomy 11:1 “Therefore, you are to love ADONAI your God and always obey his commission, regulations, rulings and [mitzvot].

Deuteronomy 11:2 Today it is you I am addressing- not your children, who haven't known or experienced the discipline of ADONAI your God, his greatness, his strong hand, his outstretched arm,

Deuteronomy 11:3 his signs and his actions which he did in Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to his entire country.

Deuteronomy 11:4 They didn't experience what he did to Egypt's army, horses and chariots- how ADONAI overwhelmed them with the water of the Sea of Suf as they were pursuing you, so that they remain destroyed to this day.

Deuteronomy 11:5 They didn't experience what he kept doing for you in the desert until you arrived at this place;

Deuteronomy 11:6 or what he did to Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av the descendant of Re'uven- how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households, tents and every living thing in their company, there in front of all Isra'el.

Deuteronomy 11:7 But you have seen with your own eyes all these great deeds of [ADONAI.]

Deuteronomy 11:8 Therefore, you are to keep every [mitzvah] I am giving you today; so that you will be strong enough to go in and take possession of the land you are crossing over to conquer;

Deuteronomy 11:9 and so that you will live long in the land ADONAI swore to give to your ancestors and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 11:10 "For the land you are entering in order to take possession of it isn't like the land of Egypt. There you would sow your seed and had to use your feet to operate its irrigation system, as in a vegetable garden.

Deuteronomy 11:11 But the land you are crossing over to take possession of is a land of hills and valleys, which soaks up water when rain falls from the sky.

Deuteronomy 11:12 It is a land ADONAI your God cares for. The eyes of ADONAI your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

Deuteronomy 11:13 "So if you listen carefully to my [mitzvot] which I am giving you today, to love ADONAI your God and serve him with all your heart and all your being;

Deuteronomy 11:14 then, [[says ADONAI,]] 'I will give your land its rain at the right seasons, including the early fall rains and the late spring rains; so that you can gather in your wheat, new wine and olive oil;

Deuteronomy 11:15 and I will give your fields grass for your livestock; with the result that you will eat and be satisfied.'

Deuteronomy 11:16 But be careful not to let yourselves be seduced, so that you turn aside, serving other gods and worshipping them.

Deuteronomy 11:17 If you do, the anger of ADONAI will blaze up against you. He will shut up the sky, so that there will be no rain. The ground will not yield its produce, and you will quickly pass away from the good land ADONAI is giving you.

Deuteronomy 11:18 Therefore, you are to store up these words of mine in your heart and in all your being; tie them on your hand as a sign; put them at the front of a headband around your forehead;

Deuteronomy 11:19 teach them carefully to your children, talking about them when you sit at home, when you are traveling on the road, when you lie down and when you get up;

Deuteronomy 11:20 and write them on the door-frames of your house and on your gates-

Deuteronomy 11:21 so that you and your children will live long on the land ADONAI swore to your ancestors that he would give them for as long as there is sky above the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:22 “For if you will take care to obey all these [mitzvot] I am giving you, to do them, to love ADONAI your God, to follow all his ways and to cling to him,

Deuteronomy 11:23 then ADONAI will expel all these nations ahead of you; and you will dispossess nations bigger and stronger than you are.

Deuteronomy 11:24 Wherever the sole of your foot steps will be yours; your territory will extend from the desert to the L’vanon and from the River, the Euphrates River, to the Western Sea.

Deuteronomy 11:25 No one will be able to withstand you; ADONAI your God will place the fear and dread of you on all the land you step on, as he told you.

Deuteronomy 11:26 “See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse-

Deuteronomy 11:27 the blessing, if you listen to the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God that I am giving you today;

Deuteronomy 11:28 and the curse, if you don’t listen to the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God, but turn aside from the way I am ordering you today and follow other gods that you have not known.

Deuteronomy 11:29 “When ADONAI your God brings you into the land you are entering in order to take possession of it, you are to put the blessing on Mount G’rizim and the curse on Mount ‘Eival.

Deuteronomy 11:30 Both are west of the Yarden, in the direction of the sunset, in the land of the Kena’ani living in the ‘Aravah, across from Gilgal, near the pistachio trees of Moreh.

Deuteronomy 11:31 For you are to cross the Yarden to enter and take possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving you; you are to own it and live in it.

Deuteronomy 11:32 And you are to take care to follow all the laws and rulings I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy 12:1 Here are the laws and rulings you are to observe and obey in the land ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, has given you to possess as long as you live on earth.

Deuteronomy 12:2 You must destroy all the places where the nations you are dispossessing served their gods, whether on high mountains, on hills, or under some leafy tree.

Deuteronomy 12:3 Break down their altars, smash their standing-stones to pieces, burn up their sacred poles completely and cut down the carved images of their gods. Exterminate their name from that place.

Deuteronomy 12:4 “But you are not to treat ADONAI your God this way.

Deuteronomy 12:5 Rather, you are to come to the place where ADONAI your God will put his name. He will choose it from all your tribes; and you will seek out that place, which is where he will live, and go there.

Deuteronomy 12:6 You will bring there your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tenths [[that you set aside for ADONAI]], the offerings that you give, the offerings you have vowed, your voluntary offerings, and the firstborn of your cattle and sheep.

Deuteronomy 12:7 There you will eat in the presence of ADONAI your God; and you will rejoice over everything you set out to do, you and your households, in which ADONAI your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 12:8 You will not do things the way we do them here today, where everyone does whatever in his own opinion seems right;

Deuteronomy 12:9 because you haven’t yet arrived at the rest and inheritance which ADONAI your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 12:10 But when you cross the Yarden and live in the land ADONAI your God is having you inherit, and he gives you rest from all your surrounding enemies, so that you are living in safety;

Deuteronomy 12:11 then you will bring all that I am ordering you to the place ADONAI your God chooses to have his name live- your burnt offerings, sacrifices, tenths, the offering from your hand, and all your best possessions that you dedicate to ADONAI;

Deuteronomy 12:12 and you will rejoice in the presence of ADONAI your God- you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves and the [Levi] staying with you, inasmuch as he has no share or inheritance with you.

Deuteronomy 12:13 “Be careful not to offer your burnt offerings just anywhere you see, Deuteronomy 12:14 but do it in the place ADONAI will choose in one of your tribal territories; there is where you are to offer your burnt offerings and do everything I order you to do.

Deuteronomy 12:15 However, you may slaughter and eat meat wherever you live and whenever you want, in keeping with the degree to which ADONAI your God has blessed you. The unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer.

Deuteronomy 12:16 But don't eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:17 "You are not to eat on your own property the tenth of your grain, new wine or olive oil [[that you set aside for ADONAI]], or the firstborn of your cattle or sheep, or any offering you have vowed, or your voluntary offering, or the offering from your hand.

Deuteronomy 12:18 No, you are to eat these in the presence of ADONAI your God in the place ADONAI your God will choose- you and your sons, daughters, male and female slaves, and the [Levi] who is your guest; and you are to rejoice before ADONAI your God in everything you undertake to do.

Deuteronomy 12:19 As long as you are living on your property, take care not to abandon the [Levi.]

Deuteronomy 12:20 "When ADONAI your God expands your territory, as he has promised you, and you say, 'I want to eat meat,' simply because you want to eat meat, then you may eat meat, as much as you want.

Deuteronomy 12:21 If the place which ADONAI your God chooses to place his name is too far away from you; then you are to slaughter animals from your cattle or sheep, which ADONAI has given you; and eat on your own property, as much as you want.

Deuteronomy 12:22 Eat it as you would gazelle or deer; the unclean and clean alike may eat it.

Deuteronomy 12:23 Just take care not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you are not to eat the life with the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:24 Don't eat it, but pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:25 Do not eat it, so that things will go well with you and with your children after you, as you do what ADONAI sees as right.

Deuteronomy 12:26 Only the things set aside for God which you have, and the vows you have vowed to make, you must take and go to the place which ADONAI will choose.

Deuteronomy 12:27 There you will offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of ADONAI your God. The blood of your sacrifices is to be poured out on the altar of ADONAI your God, and you will eat the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:28 Obey and pay attention to everything I am ordering you to do, so that things will go well with you and with your descendants after you forever, as you do what ADONAI sees as good and right.

Deuteronomy 12:29 “When ADONAI your God has cut off ahead of you the nations you are entering in order to dispossess, and when you have dispossessed them and are living in their land;

Deuteronomy 12:30 be careful, after they have been destroyed ahead of you, not to be trapped into following them; so that you inquire after their gods and ask, ‘How did these nations serve their gods? I want to do the same.’

Deuteronomy 12:31 You must not do this to ADONAI your God! For they have done to their gods all the abominations that ADONAI hates! They even burn up their sons and daughters in the fire for their gods!

Deuteronomy 13:1 “Everything I am commanding you, you are to take care to do. Do not add to it or subtract from it.

Deuteronomy 13:2 “If a prophet or someone who gets messages while dreaming arises among you and he gives you a sign or wonder,

Deuteronomy 13:3 and the sign or wonder comes about as he predicted when he said, ‘Let’s follow other gods, which you have not known; and let us serve them,’

Deuteronomy 13:4 you are not to listen to what that prophet or dreamer says. For ADONAI your God is testing you, in order to find out whether you really do love ADONAI your God with all your heart and being.

Deuteronomy 13:5 You are to follow ADONAI your God, fear him, obey his [mitzvot], listen to what he says, serve him and cling to him;

Deuteronomy 13:6 and that prophet or dreamer is to be put to death; because he urged rebellion against ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from a life of slavery; in order to seduce you away from the path ADONAI your God ordered you to follow. This is how you are to rid your community of this wickedness.

Deuteronomy 13:7 “If your brother the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or your wife whom you love, or your friend who means as much to you as yourself, secretly tries to entice you to go and serve other gods, which you haven’t known, neither you nor your ancestors-

Deuteronomy 13:8 gods of the peoples surrounding you, whether near or far away from you, anywhere in the world-

Deuteronomy 13:9 you are not to consent, and you are not to listen to him; and you must not pity him or spare him; and you may not conceal him.

Deuteronomy 13:10 Rather, you must kill him! Your own hand must be the first one on him in putting him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people.

Deuteronomy 13:11 You are to stone him to death; because he has tried to draw you away from ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a life of slavery.

Deuteronomy 13:12 Then all Isra'el will hear about it and be afraid, so that they will stop doing such wickedness as this among themselves.

Deuteronomy 13:13 "If you hear it told that in one of your cities which ADONAI your God is giving you to live in,

Deuteronomy 13:14 certain scoundrels have sprung up among you and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city by saying, 'Let's go and serve other gods, which you haven't known,'

Deuteronomy 13:15 then you are to investigate the matter, inquiring and searching diligently. If the rumor is true, if it is confirmed that such detestable things are being done among you,

Deuteronomy 13:16 you must put the inhabitants of that city to death with the sword, destroying it completely with the sword, everything in it, including its livestock.

Deuteronomy 13:17 Heap all its spoils in an open space, and burn the city with its spoils to the ground for ADONAI your God; it will remain a [tel] forever and not be built again-

Deuteronomy 13:18 none of what has been set apart for destruction is to stay in your hands. Then ADONAI will turn from his fierce anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and increase your numbers, as he swore to your ancestors-

Deuteronomy 13:19 provided you listen to what ADONAI says and obey all his [mitzvot] that I am giving you today, thus doing what ADONAI your God sees as right.

Deuteronomy 14:1 "You are the people of ADONAI your God. You are not to gash yourselves or shave the hair above your foreheads in mourning for the dead, Deuteronomy 14:2 because you are a people set apart as holy for ADONAI your God. ADONAI your God has chosen you to be his own unique treasure out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 14:3 "You are not to eat anything disgusting.

Deuteronomy 14:4 The animals which you may eat are: ox, sheep, goat,

Deuteronomy 14:5 deer, gazelle, roebuck, ibex, antelope, oryx and mountain sheep.

Deuteronomy 14:6 Any animal that has a separate hoof that is completely divided and also chews the cud, these animals you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:7 But you are not to eat those that only chew the cud or only have a divided hoof. For example, the camel, the hare and the coney are unclean for you because they chew the cud but don’t have a separate hoof;

Deuteronomy 14:8 while the pig is unclean for you because, although it has a separate hoof, it doesn’t chew the cud. You are not to eat meat from these or touch their carcasses.

Deuteronomy 14:9 “Of all that lives in the water, you may eat these: anything in the water that has fins and scales, these you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:10 But whatever lacks fins and scales you are not to eat; it is unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:11 “You may eat any clean bird;

Deuteronomy 14:12 but these you are not to eat: eagles, vultures, ospreys,

Deuteronomy 14:13 kites, any kind of buzzard,

Deuteronomy 14:14 any kind of raven,

Deuteronomy 14:15 ostriches, screech-owls, seagulls, any kind of hawk,

Deuteronomy 14:16 little owls, great owls, horned owls,

Deuteronomy 14:17 pelicans, barn owls, cormorants,

Deuteronomy 14:18 storks, any kind of heron, hoopoes and bats.

Deuteronomy 14:19 “All winged swarming creatures are unclean for you; they are not to be eaten;

Deuteronomy 14:20 but all clean flying creatures you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:21 “You are not to eat any animal that dies naturally; although you may let a stranger staying with you eat it, or sell it to a foreigner; because you are a holy people for ADONAI your God. “You are not to boil a young animal in its mother’s milk.

Deuteronomy 14:22 “Every year you must take one tenth of everything your seed produces in the field,

Deuteronomy 14:23 and eat it in the presence of ADONAI your God. In the place where he chooses to have his name live you will eat the tenth of your grain, new wine and olive oil, and the firstborn of your cattle and sheep, so that you will learn to fear ADONAI your God always.

Deuteronomy 14:24 But if the distance is too great for you, so that you are unable to transport it, because the place where ADONAI chooses to put his name is too far away from you; then, when ADONAI your God prospers you,

Deuteronomy 14:25 you are to convert it into money, take the money with you, go to the place which ADONAI your God will choose, Deuteronomy 14:26 and exchange the money for anything you want- cattle, sheep, wine, other intoxicating liquor, or anything you please- and you are to eat there in the presence of ADONAI your God, and enjoy yourselves, you and your household.

Deuteronomy 14:27 “But don’t neglect the [Levi] staying with you, because he has no share or inheritance like yours.

Deuteronomy 14:28 At the end of every three years you are to take all the tenths of your produce from that year and store it in your towns.

Deuteronomy 14:29 Then the [Levi], because he has no share or inheritance like yours, along with the foreigner, the orphan and the widow living in your towns, will come, eat and be satisfied- so that ADONAI your God will bless you in everything your hands produce.

Deuteronomy 15:1 “At the end of every seven years you are to have a [sh’mittah.]

Deuteronomy 15:2 Here is how the [sh’mittah] is to be done: every creditor is to give up what he has loaned to his fellow member of the community- he is not to force his neighbor or relative to repay it, because ADONAI’s time of remission has been proclaimed.

Deuteronomy 15:3 You may demand that a foreigner repay his debt, but you are to release your claim on whatever your brother owes you.

Deuteronomy 15:4 In spite of this, there will be no one needy among you; because ADONAI will certainly bless you in the land which ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess-

Deuteronomy 15:5 if only you will listen carefully to what ADONAI your God says and take care to obey all these [mitzvot] I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 15:6 Yes, ADONAI your God will bless you, as he promised you- you will lend money to many nations without having to borrow, and you will rule over many nations without their ruling over you.

Deuteronomy 15:7 “If someone among you is needy, one of your brothers, in any of your towns in your land which ADONAI your God is giving you, you are not to harden your heart or shut your hand from giving to your needy brother.

Deuteronomy 15:8 No, you must open your hand to him and lend him enough to meet his need and enable him to obtain what he wants.

Deuteronomy 15:9 Guard yourself against allowing your heart to entertain the mean-spirited thought that because the seventh year, the year of [sh’mittah] is at hand, you would be stingy toward your needy brother and not give him anything; for then he may cry out to ADONAI against you, and it will be your sin.

Deuteronomy 15:10 Rather, you must give to him; and you are not to be grudging when you give to him. If you do this, ADONAI your God will bless you in all your work, in everything you undertake-

Deuteronomy 15:11 for there will always be poor people in the land. That is why I am giving you this order, 'You must open your hand to your poor and needy brother in your land.'

Deuteronomy 15:12 "If your kinsman, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you, he is to serve you for six years; but in the seventh year, you are to set him free.

Deuteronomy 15:13 Moreover, when you set him free, don't let him leave empty-handed;

Deuteronomy 15:14 but supply him generously from your flock, threshing-floor and winepress; from what ADONAI your God has blessed you with, you are to give to him.

Deuteronomy 15:15 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and ADONAI your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this order today.

Deuteronomy 15:16 But if he says to you, 'I don't want to leave you,' because he loves you and your household, and because his life with you is a good one;

Deuteronomy 15:17 then take an awl, and pierce his ear through, right into the door; and he will be your slave forever. Do the same with your female slave.

Deuteronomy 15:18 Don't resent it when you set him free, since during his six years of service he has been worth twice as much as a hired employee. Then ADONAI your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 15:19 "All the firstborn males in your herd of cattle and in your flock you are to set aside for ADONAI your God; you are not to do any work with a firstborn from your herd or shear a firstborn sheep.

Deuteronomy 15:20 Each year you and your household are to eat it in the presence of ADONAI your God in the place which ADONAI will choose.

Deuteronomy 15:21 But if it has a defect, is lame or blind, or has some other kind of fault, you are not to sacrifice it to ADONAI your God;

Deuteronomy 15:22 rather, eat it on your own property; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it, like the gazelle or the deer.

Deuteronomy 15:23 Just don't eat its blood, but pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16:1 "Observe the month of Aviv, and keep [Pesach] to ADONAI your God; for in the month of Aviv, ADONAI your God brought you out of Egypt at night.

Deuteronomy 16:2 You are to sacrifice the [Pesach] offering from flock and herd to ADONAI your God in the place where ADONAI will choose to have his name live.

Deuteronomy 16:3 You are not to eat any [hametz] with it; for seven days you are to eat with it [matzah], the bread of affliction; for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste. Thus you will remember the day you left the land of Egypt as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 16:4 No leaven is to be seen with you anywhere in your territory for seven days. None of the meat from your sacrifice on the first day in the evening is to remain all night until morning.

Deuteronomy 16:5 You may not sacrifice the [Pesach] offering in just any of the towns that ADONAI your God is giving you;

Deuteronomy 16:6 but at the place where ADONAI your God will choose to have his name live- there is where you are to sacrifice the [Pesach] offering, in the evening, when the sun sets, at the time of year that you came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:7 You are to roast it and eat it in the place ADONAI your God will choose; in the morning you will return and go to your tents.

Deuteronomy 16:8 For six days you are to eat [matzah]; on the seventh day there is to be a festive assembly for ADONAI your God; do not do any kind of work.

Deuteronomy 16:9 “You are to count seven weeks; you are to begin counting seven weeks from the time you first put your sickle to the standing grain.

Deuteronomy 16:10 You are to observe the festival of [Shavu’ot] [[weeks]] for ADONAI your God with a voluntary offering, which you are to give in accordance with the degree to which ADONAI your God has prospered you.

Deuteronomy 16:11 You are to rejoice in the presence of ADONAI your God- you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, the [L’vi’im] living in your towns, and the foreigners, orphans and widows living among you- in the place where ADONAI your God will choose to have his name live.

Deuteronomy 16:12 Remember that you were a slave in Egypt; then you will keep and obey these laws.

Deuteronomy 16:13 “You are to keep the festival of [Sukkot] for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing-floor and winepress.

Deuteronomy 16:14 Rejoice at your festival- you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, the [L’vi’im], and the foreigners, orphans and widows living among you.

Deuteronomy 16:15 Seven days you are to keep the festival for ADONAI your God in the place ADONAI your God will choose, because ADONAI your God will bless you in all your crops and in all your work, so you are to be full of joy!

Deuteronomy 16:16 “Three times a year all your men are to appear in the presence of ADONAI your God in the place which he will choose- at the festival of [matzah], at the festival of [Shavu’ot] and at the festival of [Sukkot.] They are not to show up before ADONAI empty-handed,

Deuteronomy 16:17 but every man is to give what he can, in accordance with the blessing ADONAI your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 16:18 “You are to appoint judges and officers for all your gates [[in the cities]] ADONAI your God is giving you, tribe by tribe; and they are to judge the people with righteous judgment.

Deuteronomy 16:19 You are not to distort justice or show favoritism, and you are not to accept a bribe, for a gift blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of even the upright.

Deuteronomy 16:20 Justice, only justice, you must pursue; so that you will live and inherit the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:21 “You are not to plant any sort of tree as a sacred pole beside the altar of ADONAI your God that you will make for yourselves.

Deuteronomy 16:22 Likewise, do not set up a standing-stone; ADONAI your God hates such things.

Deuteronomy 17:1 “You are not to sacrifice to ADONAI your God a cow or sheep that has a defect or anything wrong with it; that would be an abomination to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 17:2 “If there is found among you, within any of your gates [[in any city]] that ADONAI your God gives you, a man or woman who does what ADONAI your God sees as wicked, transgressing his covenant

Deuteronomy 17:3 by going and serving other gods and worshipping them, the sun, the moon, or anything in the sky- something I have forbidden-

Deuteronomy 17:4 and it is told to you, or you hear about it; then you are to investigate the matter diligently. If it is true, if it is confirmed that such detestable things are being done in Isra’el;

Deuteronomy 17:5 then you are to bring the man or woman who has done this wicked thing to your city gates, and stone that man or woman to death.

Deuteronomy 17:6 The death sentence is to be carried out only if there was testimony from two or three witnesses; he may not be sentenced to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Deuteronomy 17:7 The witnesses are to be the first to stone him to death; afterwards, all the people are to stone him. Thus you will put an end to this wickedness among you.

Deuteronomy 17:8 “If a case comes before you at your city gate which is too difficult for you to judge, concerning bloodshed, civil suit, personal injury or any other controversial issue; you are to get up, go to the place which ADONAI your God will choose,

Deuteronomy 17:9 and appear before the [cohanim], who are [L’vi’im], and the judge in office at the time. Seek their opinion, and they will render a verdict for you.

Deuteronomy 17:10 You will then act according to what they have told you there in that place which ADONAI will choose; you are to take care to act according to all their instructions.

Deuteronomy 17:11 In accordance with the [Torah] they teach you, you are to carry out the judgment they render, not turning aside to the right or the left from the verdict they declare to you.

Deuteronomy 17:12 Anyone presumptuous enough not to pay attention to the [cohen] appointed there to serve ADONAI your God or to the judge- that person must die. Thus you will exterminate such wickedness from Isra’el-

Deuteronomy 17:13 all the people will hear about it and be afraid to continue acting presumptuously.

Deuteronomy 17:14 “When you have entered the land ADONAI your God is giving you, have taken possession of it and are living there, you may say, ‘I want to have a king over me, like all the other nations around me.’

Deuteronomy 17:15 In that event, you must appoint as king the one whom ADONAI your God will choose. He must be one of your kinsmen, this king you appoint over you- you are forbidden to appoint a foreigner over you who is not your kinsman.

Deuteronomy 17:16 However, he is not to acquire many horses for himself or have the people return to Egypt to obtain more horses, inasmuch as ADONAI told you never to go back that way again.

Deuteronomy 17:17 Likewise, he is not to acquire many wives for himself, so that his heart will not turn away; and he is not to acquire excessive quantities of silver and gold.

Deuteronomy 17:18 “When he has come to occupy the throne of his kingdom, he is to write a copy of this [Torah] for himself in a scroll, from the one the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] use.

Deuteronomy 17:19 It is to remain with him, and he is to read in it every day, as long as he lives; so that he will learn to fear ADONAI his God and keep all the words of this [Torah] and these laws and obey them;

Deuteronomy 17:20 so that he will not think he is better than his kinsmen; and so that he will not turn aside either to the right or to the left from the [mitzvah]. In this way he will prolong his own reign and that of his children in Isra'el. [(iii)]

Deuteronomy 18:1 The [cohanim], who are [L'vi'im], and indeed the whole tribe of Levi, is not to have a share or an inheritance with Isra'el. Instead, their support will come from the food offered by fire to ADONAI and from whatever else becomes his.

Deuteronomy 18:2 They will have no inheritance with their brothers, because ADONAI is their inheritance- as he has said to them.

Deuteronomy 18:3 "The [cohanim] will have the right to receive from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, whether ox or sheep, the shoulder, the jowls and the stomach.

Deuteronomy 18:4 You will also give him the firstfruits of your grain, new wine and olive oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep.

Deuteronomy 18:5 For ADONAI your God has chosen him from all your tribes to stand and serve in the name of ADONAI, him and his sons forever.

Deuteronomy 18:6 "If a [Levi] from one of your towns anywhere in Isra'el where he is living comes, highly motivated, to the place which ADONAI will choose,

Deuteronomy 18:7 then he will serve there in the name of ADONAI his God, just like his kinsmen the [L'vi'im] who stand and serve in the presence of [ADONAI.]

Deuteronomy 18:8 Such a [Levi] will receive the same share as they do, in addition to what he may receive from selling his inherited ancestral property.

Deuteronomy 18:9 "When you enter the land ADONAI your God is giving you, you are not to learn how to follow the abominable practices of those nations.

Deuteronomy 18:10 There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or daughter pass through fire, a diviner, a soothsayer, an enchanter, a sorcerer,

Deuteronomy 18:11 a spell-caster, a consulter of ghosts or spirits, or a necromancer.

Deuteronomy 18:12 For whoever does these things is detestable to ADONAI, and because of these abominations ADONAI your God is driving them out ahead of you.

Deuteronomy 18:13 You must be wholehearted with ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 18:14 For these nations, which you are about to dispossess, listen to soothsayers and diviners; but you, ADONAI your God does not allow you to do this.

Deuteronomy 18:15 “ADONAI will raise up for you a prophet like me from among yourselves, from your own kinsmen. You are to pay attention to him,

Deuteronomy 18:16 just as when you were assembled at Horev and requested ADONAI your God, ‘Don’t let me hear the voice of ADONAI my God any more, or let me see this great fire ever again; if I do, I will die!’

Deuteronomy 18:17 On that occasion ADONAI said to me, ‘They are right in what they are saying.

Deuteronomy 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I order him.

Deuteronomy 18:19 Whoever doesn’t listen to my words, which he will speak in my name, will have to account for himself to me.

Deuteronomy 18:20 “‘But if a prophet presumptuously speaks a word in my name which I didn’t order him to say, or if he speaks in the name of other gods, then that prophet must die.’

Deuteronomy 18:21 You may be wondering, ‘How are we to know if a word has not been spoken by ADONAI?’

Deuteronomy 18:22 When a prophet speaks in the name of ADONAI, and the prediction does not come true- that is, the word is not fulfilled- then ADONAI did not speak that word. The prophet who said it spoke presumptuously; you have nothing to fear from him.

Deuteronomy 19:1 “When ADONAI your God cuts off the nations whose land ADONAI your God is giving you, and you take their place and settle in their cities and houses,

Deuteronomy 19:2 you are to set aside three cities for yourselves in your land that ADONAI your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:3 Divide the territory of your land, which ADONAI your God is having you inherit, into three parts; and prepare the roads, so that any killer can flee to these cities.

Deuteronomy 19:4 The killer who will live if he flees there is someone who has killed his fellow member of the community by mistake, who did not hate him in the past.

Deuteronomy 19:5 An example would be if a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood and takes a stroke with the axe to fell a tree, but the head of the axe flies off the handle, hits his neighbor and kills him. Then he is to flee to one of these cities and live there.

Deuteronomy 19:6 Otherwise the next-of-kin avenger, in the heat of his anger, may pursue the killer, overtake him because the distance [[to the city of refuge]] is long, and strike him dead- even though he didn’t deserve to die, inasmuch as he hadn’t hated him in the past.

Deuteronomy 19:7 This is why I am ordering you to set aside for yourselves three cities.

Deuteronomy 19:8 “If ADONAI your God expands your territory, as he swore to your ancestors that he would, and gives you all the land he promised to give to your ancestors-

Deuteronomy 19:9 provided you keep and observe all these [mitzvot] I am giving you today, loving ADONAI your God and always following his ways- then you are to add three more cities for yourselves, besides these three;

Deuteronomy 19:10 so that innocent blood will not be shed in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance, and thus blood guilt be on you.

Deuteronomy 19:11 “However, if someone hates his fellow member of the community, lies in wait for him, attacks him, strikes him a death blow, and then flees into one of these cities;

Deuteronomy 19:12 then the leaders of his own town are to send and bring him back from there and hand him over to the next-of-kin avenger, to be put to death.

Deuteronomy 19:13 You are not to pity him. Rather, you must put an end to the shedding of innocent blood in Isra’el. Then things will go well with you.

Deuteronomy 19:14 “You are not to move your neighbor’s boundary marker from the place where people put it long ago, in the inheritance soon to be yours in the land ADONAI your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:15 “One witness alone will not be sufficient to convict a person of any offense or sin of any kind; the matter will be established only if there are two or three witnesses testifying against him.

Deuteronomy 19:16 “If a malicious witness comes forward and gives false testimony against someone,

Deuteronomy 19:17 then both the men involved in the controversy are to stand before ADONAI, before the [cohanim] and the judges in office at the time.

Deuteronomy 19:18 The judges are to investigate carefully. If they find that the witness is lying and has given false testimony against his brother,

Deuteronomy 19:19 you are to do to him what he intended to do to his brother. In this way, you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

Deuteronomy 19:20 Those who remain will hear about it, be afraid and no longer commit such wickedness among you.

Deuteronomy 19:21 Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20:1 “When you go out to fight your enemies and see horses, chariots and a force larger than yours, you are not to be afraid of them; because ADONAI your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you.

Deuteronomy 20:2 When you are about to go into battle, the [cohen] is to come forward and address the people.

Deuteronomy 20:3 He should tell them, ‘Listen, Isra’el! You are about to do battle against your enemies. Don’t be fainthearted or afraid; don’t be alarmed or frightened by them;

Deuteronomy 20:4 because ADONAI your God is going with you to fight on your behalf against your enemies and give you victory.’

Deuteronomy 20:5 “Then the officials will speak to the soldiers. They are to say, ‘Is there a man here who has built a new house, but hasn’t dedicated it yet? He should go back home now; otherwise he may die fighting, and another man will dedicate it.

Deuteronomy 20:6 “‘Is there a man here who has planted a vineyard, but hasn’t yet made use of its fruit? He should go back home; otherwise he may die fighting, and another man will use it.

Deuteronomy 20:7 “‘Is there a man here who is engaged to a woman, but hasn’t married her yet? He should go back home; otherwise he may die fighting, and another man will marry her.’

Deuteronomy 20:8 “The officials will then add to what they have said to the soldiers: ‘Is there a man here who is afraid and fainthearted? He should go back home; otherwise his fear may demoralize his comrades as well.’

Deuteronomy 20:9 When the officials have finished speaking with the soldiers, commanders are to be appointed to lead the army.

Deuteronomy 20:10 “When you advance on a town to attack it, first offer it terms for peace.

Deuteronomy 20:11 If it accepts the terms for peace and opens its gates to you, then all the people there are to be put to forced labor and work for you.

Deuteronomy 20:12 However, if they refuse to make peace with you but prefer to make war against you, you are to put it under siege.

Deuteronomy 20:13 When ADONAI your God hands it over to you, you are to put every male to the sword.

Deuteronomy 20:14 However, you are to take as booty for yourself the women, the little ones, the livestock, and everything in the city- all its spoil. Yes, you will feed on your enemies’ spoil, which ADONAI your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 20:15 This is what you are to do to all the towns which are at a great distance from you, which are not the towns of these nations.

Deuteronomy 20:16 “As for the towns of these peoples, which ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance, you are not to allow anything that breathes to live.

Deuteronomy 20:17 Rather you must destroy them completely- the Hitti, the Emori, the Kena’ani, the P’rizi, the Hivi and the Y’vusi- as ADONAI your God has ordered you;

Deuteronomy 20:18 so that they won’t teach you to follow their abominable practices, which they do for their gods, thus causing you to sin against ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 20:19 “When, in making war against a town in order to capture it, you lay siege to it for a long time, you are not to destroy its trees, cutting them down with an axe. You can eat their fruit, so don’t cut them down. After all, are the trees in the field human beings, so that you have to besiege them too?

Deuteronomy 20:20 However, if you know that certain trees provide no food, you may destroy them and cut them down, in order to build siege-works against the town making war with you, until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21:1 “If, in the land ADONAI your God is giving you to possess, a murder victim is found lying in the countryside; and the perpetrator of the murder is not known;

Deuteronomy 21:2 then your leaders and judges are to go out and measure the distance between it and the surrounding towns.

Deuteronomy 21:3 After it has been determined which town is the closest, the leaders of that town are to take a young female cow that has never been put to work or yoked for use as a draft animal.

Deuteronomy 21:4 The leaders of that town are to bring the heifer down to a [vadi] with a stream in it that never dries up, to a place that is neither plowed nor sown; and they are to break the cow’s neck there in the [vadi].

Deuteronomy 21:5 Then the [cohanim], who are [L’vi’im], are to approach; for ADONAI your God has chosen them to serve him and to pronounce blessings in the name of ADONAI; they will decide the outcome of every dispute and matter involving violence.

Deuteronomy 21:6 All the leaders of the town nearest the murder victim are to wash their hands over the cow whose neck was broken in the [vadi].

Deuteronomy 21:7 Then they are to speak up and say, ‘This blood was not shed by our hands, nor have we seen who did it.

Deuteronomy 21:8 ADONAI, forgive your people Isra’el, whom you redeemed; do not allow innocent blood to be shed among your people Isra’el.’ And they will be forgiven this bloodshed.

Deuteronomy 21:9 Thus you will banish the shedding of innocent blood from among you, by doing what ADONAI sees as right.

Deuteronomy 21:10 “When you go out to war against your enemies, and ADONAI your God hands them over to you, and you take prisoners,

Deuteronomy 21:11 and you see among the prisoners a woman who looks good to you, and you feel attracted to her and want her as your wife;

Deuteronomy 21:12 you are to bring her home to your house, where she will shave her head, cut her fingernails

Deuteronomy 21:13 and remove her prison clothing. She will stay there in your house, mourning her father and mother for a full month; after which you may go in to have sexual relations with her and be her husband, and she will be your wife.

Deuteronomy 21:14 In the event that you lose interest in her, you are to let her go wherever she wishes; but you may not sell her for money or treat her like a slave, because you humiliated her.

Deuteronomy 21:15 “If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and unloved wives have borne him children, and if the firstborn son is the child of the unloved wife;

Deuteronomy 21:16 then, when it comes time for him to pass his inheritance on to his sons, he may not give the inheritance due the firstborn to the son of the loved wife in place of the son of the unloved one, who is in fact the firstborn.

Deuteronomy 21:17 No, he must acknowledge as firstborn the son of the unloved wife by giving him a double portion of everything he owns, for he is the firstfruits of his manhood, and the right of the firstborn is his.

Deuteronomy 21:18 “If a man has a stubborn, rebellious son who will not obey what his father or mother says, and even after they discipline him he still refuses to pay attention to them;

Deuteronomy 21:19 then his father and mother are to take hold of him and bring him out to the leaders of his town, at the gate of that place,

Deuteronomy 21:20 and say to the leaders of his town, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious, he doesn’t pay attention to us, lives wildly, gets drunk.’

Deuteronomy 21:21 Then all the men of his town are to stone him to death; in this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you, and all Isra’el will hear about it and be afraid.

Deuteronomy 21:22 “If someone has committed a capital crime and is put to death, then hung on a tree,

Deuteronomy 21:23 his body is not to remain all night on the tree, but you must bury him the same day, because a person who has been hanged has been cursed by God- so that you will not defile your land, which ADONAI your God is giving you to inherit.

Deuteronomy 22:1 “You are not to watch your brother’s ox or sheep straying and behave as if you hadn’t seen it; you must bring them back to your brother.

Deuteronomy 22:2 If your brother is not close by, or you don’t know who the owner is, you are to bring it home to your house; and it will remain with you until your brother asks for it; then you are to give it back to him.

Deuteronomy 22:3 You are to do the same with his donkey, his coat or anything else of your brother’s that he loses. If you find something he lost, you must not ignore it.

Deuteronomy 22:4 “If you see your brother’s donkey or ox collapsed on the road, you may not behave as if you hadn’t seen it; you must help him get them up on their feet again.

Deuteronomy 22:5 “A woman is not to wear men’s clothing, and a man is not to put on women’s clothing, for whoever does these things is detestable to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 22:6 “If, as you are walking along, you happen to see a bird’s nest in a tree or on the ground with chicks or eggs, and the mother bird is sitting on the chicks or the eggs, you are not to take the mother with the chicks.

Deuteronomy 22:7 You must let the mother go, but you may take the chicks for yourself; so that things will go well with you, and you will prolong your life.

Deuteronomy 22:8 “When you build a new house, you must build a low wall around your roof; otherwise someone may fall from it, and you will be responsible for his death.

Deuteronomy 22:9 “You are not to sow two kinds of seed between your rows of vines; if you do, both the two harvested crops and the yield from the vines must be forfeited.

Deuteronomy 22:10 You are not to plow with an ox and a donkey together.

Deuteronomy 22:11 You are not to wear clothing woven with two kinds of thread, wool and linen together.

Deuteronomy 22:12 “You are to make for yourself twisted cords on the four corners of the garment you wrap around yourself.

Deuteronomy 22:13 “If a man marries a woman, has sexual relations with her and then, having come to dislike her,

Deuteronomy 22:14 brings false charges against her and defames her character by saying, ‘I married this woman, but when I had intercourse with her I did not find evidence that she was a virgin’;

Deuteronomy 22:15 then the girl’s father and mother are to take the evidence of the girl’s virginity to the leaders of the town at the gate.

Deuteronomy 22:16 The girl’s father will say to the leaders, ‘I let my daughter marry this man, but he hates her,

Deuteronomy 22:17 so he has brought false charges that he didn’t find evidence of her virginity; yet here is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity’- and they will lay the cloth before the town leaders.

Deuteronomy 22:18 The leaders of that town are to take the man, punish him,

Deuteronomy 22:19 and fine him two-and-a-half pounds of silver [shekel]s, which they will give to the girl’s father, because he has publicly defamed a virgin of Isra’el. She will remain his wife, and he is forbidden from divorcing her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:20 “But if the charge is substantiated that evidence for the girl’s virginity could not be found;

Deuteronomy 22:21 then they are to lead the girl to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her town will stone her to death, because she has committed in Isra’el the disgraceful act of being a prostitute while still in her father’s house. In this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

Deuteronomy 22:22 “If a man is found sleeping with a woman who has a husband, both of them must die- the man who went to bed with the woman and the woman too. In this way you will expel such wickedness from Isra’el.

Deuteronomy 22:23 “If a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a man, and another man comes upon her in the town and has sexual relations with her;

Deuteronomy 22:24 you are to bring them both out to the gate of the city and stone them to death- the girl because she didn’t cry out for help, there in the city, and the man because he has humiliated his neighbor’s wife. In this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

Deuteronomy 22:25 “But if the man comes upon the engaged girl out in the countryside, and the man grabs her and has sexual relations with her, then only the man who had intercourse with her is to die.

Deuteronomy 22:26 You will do nothing to the girl, because she has done nothing deserving of death. The situation is like the case of the man who attacks his neighbor and kills him.

Deuteronomy 22:27 For he found her in the countryside, and the engaged girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.

Deuteronomy 22:28 “If a man comes upon a girl who is a virgin but who is not engaged, and he grabs her and has sexual relations with her, and they are caught in the act,

Deuteronomy 22:29 then the man who had intercourse with her must give to the girl’s father one-and-a-quarter pounds of silver [shekel]s, and she will become his wife, because he humiliated her; he may not divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 23:1 “A man is not to take his father’s wife, thus violating his father’s rights.

Deuteronomy 23:2 “A man with crushed or damaged private parts may not enter the assembly of ADONAI.

Deuteronomy 23:3 “A [mamzer] may not enter the assembly of ADONAI, nor may his descendants down to the tenth generation enter the assembly of ADONAI.

Deuteronomy 23:4 “No ‘Amoni or Mo’avi may enter the assembly of ADONAI, nor may any of his descendants down to the tenth generation ever enter the assembly of ADONAI,

Deuteronomy 23:5 because they did not supply you with food and water when you were on the road after leaving Egypt, and because they hired Bil’am the son of B’or from P’tor in Aram-Naharayim to put a curse on you.

Deuteronomy 23:6 But ADONAI your God would not listen to Bil’am; rather, ADONAI your God turned the curse into a blessing for you; because ADONAI your God loved you.

Deuteronomy 23:7 So you are never to seek their peace or well being, as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 23:8 “But you are not to detest an Edomi, because he is your brother; and you are not to detest an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in his land.

Deuteronomy 23:9 The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of ADONAI.

Deuteronomy 23:10 “When you are in camp, at war with your enemies, you are to guard yourself against anything bad.

Deuteronomy 23:11 If there is a man among you who is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he is to go outside the camp; he is not to enter the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:12 When evening arrives he is to bathe himself in water, and after sunset he may enter the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:13 Also you are to have an area outside the camp to use as a latrine.

Deuteronomy 23:14 You must include a trowel with your equipment, and when you relieve yourself, you are to dig a hole first and afterwards cover your excrement.

Deuteronomy 23:15 For ADONAI your God moves about in your camp to rescue you and to hand over your enemies to you. Therefore your camp must be a holy place. [[ADONAI]] should not see anything indecent among you, or he will turn away from you.

Deuteronomy 23:16 “If a slave has escaped from his master and taken refuge with you, you are not to hand him back to his master.

Deuteronomy 23:17 Allow him to stay with you, in whichever place suits him best among your settlements; do not mistreat him.

Deuteronomy 23:18 “No woman of Isra’el is to engage in ritual prostitution, and no man of Isra’el is to engage in ritual homosexual prostitution.

Deuteronomy 23:19 Nothing earned through heterosexual or homosexual prostitution is to be brought into the house of ADONAI your God in fulfillment of any vow, for both of these are abhorrent to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 23:20 “You are not to lend at interest to your brother, no matter whether the loan is of money, food or anything else that can earn interest.

Deuteronomy 23:21 To an outsider you may lend at interest, but to your brother you are not to lend at interest, so that ADONAI your God will prosper you in everything you set out to do in the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 23:22 “When you make a vow to ADONAI your God, you are not to delay in fulfilling it, for ADONAI your God will certainly demand it of you, and your failure to do so will be your sin.

Deuteronomy 23:23 If you choose not to make a vow at all, that will not be a sin for you;

Deuteronomy 23:24 but if a vow passes your lips, you must take care to perform it according to what you voluntarily vowed to ADONAI your God, what you promised in words spoken aloud.

Deuteronomy 23:25 “When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat enough grapes to satisfy your appetite; but you are not to put any in your basket.

Deuteronomy 23:26 When you enter your neighbor’s field of growing grain, you may pluck ears with your hand; but you are not to put a sickle to your neighbor’s grain.

Deuteronomy 24:1 “Suppose a man marries a woman and consummates the marriage but later finds her displeasing, because he has found her offensive in some respect. He writes her a divorce document, gives it to her and sends her away from his house.

Deuteronomy 24:2 She leaves his house, goes and becomes another man’s wife;

Deuteronomy 24:3 but the second husband dislikes her and writes her a [get], gives it to her and sends her away from his house; or the second husband whom she married dies.

Deuteronomy 24:4 In such a case her first husband, who sent her away, may not take her again as his wife, because she is now defiled. It would be detestable to ADONAI, and you are not to bring about sin in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance.

Deuteronomy 24:5 “If a man has recently married his wife, he is not to be subject to military service; he is to be free of external obligations and left at home for one year to make his new wife happy.

Deuteronomy 24:6 “No one may take a mill or even an upper millstone as collateral for a loan, because that would be taking as collateral the debtor’s very means of sustenance.

Deuteronomy 24:7 “If a man kidnaps any of his brothers, fellow members of the community of Isra’el, and makes him his slave or sells him, that kidnapper must die; in this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

Deuteronomy 24:8 “When there is an outbreak of [tzara’at], be careful to observe and do just what the [cohanim], who are [L’vi’im], teach you. Take care to do as I ordered them.

Deuteronomy 24:9 Remember what ADONAI your God did to Miryam on the road after you left Egypt.

Deuteronomy 24:10 “When you make any kind of loan to your neighbor, you are not to enter his house to take his collateral.

Deuteronomy 24:11 You must stand outside, and the borrower will bring the collateral outside to you.

Deuteronomy 24:12 If he is poor, you are not to go to bed with what he gave as collateral in your possession;

Deuteronomy 24:13 rather, you must restore the pledged item at sunset; then he will go to sleep wearing his garment and bless you. This will be an upright deed of yours before ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 24:14 “You are not to exploit a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether one of your brothers or a foreigner living in your land in your town.

Deuteronomy 24:15 You are to pay him his wages the day he earns them, before sunset; for he is poor and looks forward to being paid. Otherwise he will cry out against you to ADONAI, and it will be your sin.

Deuteronomy 24:16 “Fathers are not to be executed for the children, nor are children to be executed for the fathers; every person will be executed for his own sin.

Deuteronomy 24:17 “You are not to deprive the foreigner or the orphan of the justice which is his due, and you are not to take a widow’s clothing as collateral for a loan.

Deuteronomy 24:18 Rather, remember that you were a slave in Egypt; and ADONAI your God redeemed you from there. That is why I am ordering you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:19 “When harvesting the grain in your field, if you forgot a sheaf of grain there, you are not to go back and get it; it will remain there for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, so that ADONAI your God will bless you in all the work you do.

Deuteronomy 24:20 When you beat your olive tree, you are not to go back over the branches again; the olives that are left will be for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:21 When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, you are not to return and pick grapes a second time; what is left will be for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:22 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. That is why I am ordering you to do this.

Deuteronomy 25:1 “If people have a dispute, seek its resolution in court, and the judges render a decision in favor of the righteous one and condemning the wicked one;

Deuteronomy 25:2 then, if the wicked one deserves to be flogged, the judge is to have him lie down and be flogged in his presence. The number of strokes is to be proportionate to his offense;

Deuteronomy 25:3 but the maximum number is forty. He is not to exceed this; if he goes over this limit and beats him more than this, your brother will be humiliated before your eyes.

Deuteronomy 25:4 “You are not to muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain.

Deuteronomy 25:5 “If brothers live together, and one of them dies childless, his widow is not to marry someone unrelated to him; her husband’s brother is to go to her and perform the duty of a brother-in-law by marrying her.

Deuteronomy 25:6 The first child she bears will succeed to the name of his dead brother, so that his name will not be eliminated from Isra’el.

Deuteronomy 25:7 If the man does not wish to marry his brother’s widow, then his brother’s widow is to go up to the gate, to the leaders, and say, ‘My brother-in-law refuses to raise up for his brother a name in Isra’el; he will not perform the duty of a husband’s brother for me.’

Deuteronomy 25:8 The leaders of his town are to summon him and speak to him. If, on appearing before them, he continues to say, ‘I don’t want to marry her,’

Deuteronomy 25:9 then his brother’s widow is to approach him in the presence of the leaders, pull his sandal off his foot, spit in his face and say, ‘This is what is done to the man who refuses to build up his brother’s family.’

Deuteronomy 25:10 From that time on, his family is to be known in Isra’el as ‘the family of the man who had his sandal pulled off.’

Deuteronomy 25:11 “If men are fighting with each other, and the wife of one comes up to help her husband get away from the man attacking him by grabbing the attacker’s private parts with her hand,

Deuteronomy 25:12 you are to cut off her hand; show no pity.

Deuteronomy 25:13 “You are not to have in your pack two sets of weights, one heavy, the other light.

Deuteronomy 25:14 You are not to have in your house two sets of measures, one big, the other small.

Deuteronomy 25:15 You are to have a correct and fair weight, and you are to have a correct and fair measure, so that you will prolong your days in the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 25:16 For all who do such things, all who deal dishonestly, are destestable to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 25:17 “Remember what ‘Amalek did to you on the road as you were coming out of Egypt,

Deuteronomy 25:18 how he met you by the road, attacked those in the rear, those who were exhausted and straggling behind when you were tired and weary. He did not fear God.

Deuteronomy 25:19 Therefore, when ADONAI your God has given you rest from all your surrounding enemies in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance to possess, you are to blot out all memory of ‘Amalek from under heaven. Don’t forget!

Deuteronomy 26:1 “When you have come to the land ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance, taken possession of it and settled there;

Deuteronomy 26:2 you are to take the firstfruits of all the crops the ground yields, which you will harvest from your land that ADONAI your God is giving you, put them in a basket and go to the place where ADONAI your God will choose to have his name live.

Deuteronomy 26:3 You will approach the [cohen] holding office at the time and say to him, ‘Today I declare to ADONAI your God that I have come to the land ADONAI swore to our ancestors that he would give us.’

Deuteronomy 26:4 The [cohen] will take the basket from your hand and put it down in front of the altar of ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 26:5 “Then, in the presence of ADONAI your God, you are to say, ‘My ancestor was a nomad from Aram. He went down into Egypt few in number and stayed. There he became a great, strong, populous nation.

Deuteronomy 26:6 But the Egyptians treated us badly; they oppressed us and imposed harsh slavery on us.

Deuteronomy 26:7 So we cried out to ADONAI, the God of our ancestors. ADONAI heard us and saw our misery, toil and oppression;

Deuteronomy 26:8 and ADONAI brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand and a stretched-out arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders.

Deuteronomy 26:9 Now he has brought us to this place and given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 26:10 Therefore, as you see, I have now brought the firstfruits of the land which you, ADONAI, have given me.' You are then to put the basket down before ADONAI your God, prostrate yourself before ADONAI your God,

Deuteronomy 26:11 and take joy in all the good that ADONAI your God has given you, your household, the [Levi] and the foreigner living with you.

Deuteronomy 26:12 "After you have separated a tenth of the crops yielded in the third year, the year of separating a tenth, and have given it to the [Levi], the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, so that they can have enough food to satisfy them while staying with you;

Deuteronomy 26:13 you are to say, in the presence of ADONAI your God, 'I have rid my house of the things set aside for God and given them to the [Levi], the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, in keeping with every one of the [mitzvot] you gave me. I haven't disobeyed any of your [mitzvot] or forgotten them.

Deuteronomy 26:14 I haven't eaten any of this food when mourning, I haven't put any of it aside when unclean, nor have I given any of it for the dead. I have listened to what ADONAI my God has said, and I have done everything you ordered me to do.

Deuteronomy 26:15 Look out from your holy dwelling-place, from heaven; and bless your people Isra'el and the land you gave us, as you swore to our ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey.'

Deuteronomy 26:16 "Today ADONAI your God orders you to obey these laws and rulings. Therefore, you are to observe and obey them with all your heart and all your being.

Deuteronomy 26:17 You are agreeing today that ADONAI is your God and that you will follow his ways; observe his laws, [mitzvot] and rulings; and do what he says.

Deuteronomy 26:18 In turn ADONAI is agreeing today that you are his own unique treasure, as he promised you; that you are to observe all his [mitzvot];

Deuteronomy 26:19 and that he will raise you high above all the nations he has made, in praise, reputation and glory; and that, as he said, you will be a holy people for ADONAI your God."

Deuteronomy 27:1 Then Moshe and all the leaders of Isra'el gave orders to the people. They said, "Observe all the [mitzvot] I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 27:2 When you cross the Yarden to the land ADONAI your God is giving you, you are to set up large stones, put plaster on them,

Deuteronomy 27:3 and, after crossing over, write this [Torah] on them, every word- so that you can enter the land ADONAI your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, promised you.

Deuteronomy 27:4 When you have crossed the Yarden, you are to set up these stones, as I am ordering you today, on Mount ‘Eival; and put plaster on them.

Deuteronomy 27:5 There you are to erect an altar to ADONAI your God, an altar made of stones. You are not to use any iron tool on them,

Deuteronomy 27:6 but are to build the altar of ADONAI your God of uncut stones; and you are to offer burnt offerings on it to ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 27:7 Also you are to sacrifice peace offerings, eat there and be joyful in the presence of ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 27:8 You are to write on the stones all the words of this [Torah] very clearly.”

Deuteronomy 27:9 Next Moshe and the [cohanim], who are [L’vi’im], spoke to all Isra’el. They said, “Be quiet; and listen, Isra’el! Today you have become the people of ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 27:10 Therefore you are to listen to what ADONAI your God says and obey his [mitzvot] and laws, which I am giving you today.”

Deuteronomy 27:11 That same day Moshe commissioned the people as follows:

Deuteronomy 27:12 “These are the ones who are to stand on Mount G’rizim and bless the people after you have crossed the Yarden: Shim’on, Levi, Y’hudah, Yissakhar, Yosef and Binyamin;

Deuteronomy 27:13 while these are to stand on Mount ‘Eival for the curse: Re’uven, Gad, Asher, Z’vulun, Dan and Naftali.

Deuteronomy 27:14 The [L’vi’im], speaking loudly, will proclaim to every man of Isra’el:

Deuteronomy 27:15 “‘A curse on anyone who makes a carved or metal image, something ADONAI detests, the handiwork of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret!’ All the people are to respond by saying, ‘[Amen]!’

Deuteronomy 27:16 “‘A curse on anyone who dishonors his father or mother.’ All the people are to say, ‘[Amen]!’

Deuteronomy 27:17 “‘A curse on anyone who moves his neighbor’s boundary marker.’ All the people are to say, ‘[Amen]!’

Deuteronomy 27:18 “‘A curse on anyone who causes a blind person to lose his way on the road.’ All the people are to say, ‘[Amen]!’

Deuteronomy 27:19 "'A curse on anyone who interferes with justice for the foreigner, orphan or widow.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:20 "'A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with his father's wife, because he has violated his father's rights.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:21 "'A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with any kind of animal.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:22 "'A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with his sister, no matter whether she is the daughter of his father or of his mother.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:23 "'A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with his mother-in-law.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:24 "'A curse on anyone who secretly attacks a fellow member of the community.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:25 "'A curse on anyone who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 27:26 "'A curse on anyone who does not confirm the words of this [Torah] by putting them into practice.' All the people are to say, '[Amen]!'

Deuteronomy 28:1 "If you listen closely to what ADONAI your God says, observing and obeying all his [mitzvot] which I am giving you today, ADONAI your God will raise you high above all the nations on earth;

Deuteronomy 28:2 and all the following blessings will be yours in abundance- if you will do what ADONAI your God says:

Deuteronomy 28:3 "A blessing on you in the city, and a blessing on you in the countryside.

Deuteronomy 28:4 "A blessing on the fruit of your body, the fruit of your land and the fruit of your livestock- the young of your cattle and flocks.

Deuteronomy 28:5 "A blessing on your grain-basket and kneading-bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:6 "A blessing on you when you go out, and a blessing on you when you come in.

Deuteronomy 28:7 "ADONAI will cause your enemies attacking you to be defeated before you; they will advance on you one way and flee before you seven ways.

Deuteronomy 28:8 "ADONAI will order a blessing to be with you in your barns and in everything you undertake; he will bless you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:9 "ADONAI will establish you as a people separated out for himself, as he has sworn to you- if you will observe the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God and follow his ways.

Deuteronomy 28:10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that ADONAI's name, his presence, is with you; so that they will be afraid of you.

Deuteronomy 28:11 “ADONAI will give you great abundance of good things- of the fruit of your body, the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your land in the land ADONAI swore to your ancestors to give you.

Deuteronomy 28:12 ADONAI will open for you his good treasure, the sky, to give your land its rain at the right seasons and to bless everything you undertake. You will lend to many nations and not borrow;

Deuteronomy 28:13 ADONAI will make you the head and not the tail; and you will be only above, never below- if you will listen to, observe and obey the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God

Deuteronomy 28:14 and not turn away from any of the words I am ordering you today, neither to the right nor to the left, to follow after other gods and serve them.

Deuteronomy 28:15 “But if you refuse to pay attention to what ADONAI your God says, and do not observe and obey all his [mitzvot] and regulations which I am giving you today, then all the following curses will be yours in abundance:

Deuteronomy 28:16 “A curse on you in the city, and a curse on you in the countryside.

Deuteronomy 28:17 “A curse on your grain-basket and kneading-bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:18 “A curse on the fruit of your body, the fruit of your land and the young of your cattle and flocks.

Deuteronomy 28:19 “A curse on you when you come in, and a curse on you when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:20 “ADONAI will send on you curses, disasters and frustration in everything you set out to do, until you are destroyed and quickly perish, because of your evil actions in abandoning me.

Deuteronomy 28:21 “ADONAI will bring on you a plague that will stay with you until he has exterminated you from the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 28:22 ADONAI will strike you down with wasting diseases, fever, inflammation, fiery heat, drought, blasting winds and mildew; and they will pursue you until you perish.

Deuteronomy 28:23 “The sky over your head will be brass and the earth under you iron.

Deuteronomy 28:24 ADONAI will turn the rain your land needs into powder and dust that will fall on you from the sky until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:25 “ADONAI your God will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you will advance on them one way and flee before them seven. You will become an object of horror to every kingdom on earth.

Deuteronomy 28:26 Your carcasses will become food for all the birds in the air and the wild animals, and there will be no one to scare them away.

Deuteronomy 28:27 ADONAI will strike you down with the boils that broke out on the Egyptians, tumors, skin lesions and itching, all incurable.

Deuteronomy 28:28 ADONAI will strike you with insanity, blindness and utter confusion.

Deuteronomy 28:29 You will grope about at noon like a blind person groping in the dark, unable to find your way. “You will be continually oppressed and robbed, and there will be no one to save you.

Deuteronomy 28:30 You will get engaged to a woman, but another man will marry her. You will build a house but not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but not use its fruit.

Deuteronomy 28:31 Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you won’t eat any of its meat. Your donkey will be taken away from you by force as you watch, and you won’t get it back. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and there will be no one to help you.

Deuteronomy 28:32 Your sons and daughters will be handed over to another people; you will watch for them longingly all day but not see them; and there will be nothing you can do about it.

Deuteronomy 28:33 A nation unknown to you will eat the fruit of your land and labor. Yes, you will be continually oppressed and crushed,

Deuteronomy 28:34 till you go crazy from what your eyes have to see.

Deuteronomy 28:35 ADONAI will strike you down in the knees and legs with painful and incurable boils; they will spread from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.

Deuteronomy 28:36 ADONAI will bring you and your king whom you have put over yourselves to a nation you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors; and there you will serve other gods made of wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:37 You will be so devastated as to become a proverb and a laughingstock among all the peoples to which ADONAI will drive you.

Deuteronomy 28:38 “You will carry much seed out to the field but gather little in, because locusts will devour it.

Deuteronomy 28:39 You will plant vineyards and dress them but neither drink the wine nor gather the grapes, because worms will eat them.

Deuteronomy 28:40 You will have olive trees throughout your territory but not anoint yourself with the oil, because your olives will fall off unripe.

Deuteronomy 28:41 You will father sons and daughters, but they won't belong to you, because they will go into captivity.

Deuteronomy 28:42 The bugs will inherit all your trees and the produce of your land.

Deuteronomy 28:43 "The foreigner living with you will rise higher and higher while you sink lower and lower.

Deuteronomy 28:44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he will be the head and you the tail.

Deuteronomy 28:45 "All these curses will come on you, pursuing you and overtaking you until you are destroyed, because you didn't pay attention to what ADONAI your God said, observing his [mitzvot] and regulations that he gave you.

Deuteronomy 28:46 These curses will be on you and your descendants as a sign and a wonder forever.

Deuteronomy 28:47 Because you didn't serve ADONAI your God with joy and gladness in your heart when you had such an abundance of everything;

Deuteronomy 28:48 ADONAI will send your enemy against you; and you will serve him when you are hungry, thirsty, poorly clothed and lacking everything; he will put a yoke of iron on your neck until he destroys you.

Deuteronomy 28:49 Yes, ADONAI will bring against you a nation from far away that will swoop down on you from the end of the earth like a vulture, a nation whose language you don't understand,

Deuteronomy 28:50 a nation grim in appearance, whose people neither respect the old nor pity the young.

Deuteronomy 28:51 They will devour the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your soil, until you have been destroyed. They will leave you without grain, wine, olive oil, or your young cattle and sheep-until they have caused you to perish.

Deuteronomy 28:52 They will besiege all your towns until your high, fortified walls, in which you trusted, collapse everywhere in your land, which ADONAI your God gave you.

Deuteronomy 28:53 Then, because of the severity of the siege and distress that your enemies are inflicting on you, you will eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of your own sons and daughters, whom ADONAI your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:54 Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will be without pity for his brother, his beloved wife or his surviving children,

Deuteronomy 28:55 to the degree that he will refuse to share with any of them the flesh of his children whom he is eating; because if he did, he would have nothing left for himself- in the severity of the siege and distress your enemies are inflicting on you in all your towns.

Deuteronomy 28:56 The most delicate and sensitive woman among you, so sensitive and delicate that she wouldn't think of touching the sole of her foot to the ground, will so begrudge her own beloved husband, son and daughter

Deuteronomy 28:57 that she will secretly eat the afterbirth that comes out of her and even her own children as she bears them- so desperately hungry will she be in the severity of the siege and distress your enemies are inflicting on you in your towns.

Deuteronomy 28:58 "If you will not observe and obey all the words of this [Torah] that are written in this book, so that you will fear this glorious and awesome name, ADONAI your God;

Deuteronomy 28:59 then ADONAI will strike down you and your descendants with extraordinary plagues and severe sicknesses that go on and on.

Deuteronomy 28:60 He will bring back upon you all the diseases the Egyptians had, which you were in dread of; and they will cling to you.

Deuteronomy 28:61 Not only that, but ADONAI will bring upon you all the sicknesses and plagues that are not written in this book of the [Torah]- until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:62 You will be left few in number, whereas you were once as numerous as the stars in the sky- because you did not pay attention to the voice of ADONAI your God.

Deuteronomy 28:63 "Thus it will come about that just as once ADONAI took joy in seeking to do you good and increase your numbers, so now ADONAI will take joy in causing you to perish and be destroyed, and you will be plucked off the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 28:64 ADONAI will scatter you among all peoples from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve other gods, made of wood and stone, which neither you nor your ancestors have known.

Deuteronomy 28:65 Among these nations you will not find repose, and there will be no rest for the sole of your foot; rather ADONAI will give you there anguish of heart, dimness of eyes and apathy of spirit.

Deuteronomy 28:66 Your life will hang in doubt before you; you will be afraid night and day and have no assurance that you will stay alive.

Deuteronomy 28:67 In the morning you will say, ‘Oh, how I wish it were evening!’ and in the evening you will say, ‘Oh, how I wish it were morning!’- because of the fear overwhelming your heart and the sights your eyes will see.

Deuteronomy 28:68 Finally, ADONAI will bring you back in ships to Egypt, the place of which I said to you, ‘You will never ever see it again’; and there you will try to sell yourselves as slaves to your enemies, but no one will buy you.”

Deuteronomy 28:69 These are the words of the covenant which ADONAI ordered Moshe to make with the people of Isra’el in the land of Mo’av, in addition to the covenant which he made with them in Horev. [(vii)]

Deuteronomy 29:1 Then Moshe summoned all Isra’el and said to them, “You saw everything ADONAI did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants and to all his land;

Deuteronomy 29:2 the great testings which you saw with your own eyes, and the signs and those great wonders.

Deuteronomy 29:3 Nevertheless, to this day[ADONAI] has not given you a heart to understand, eyes to see or ears to hear!

Deuteronomy 29:4 I led you forty years in the desert. Neither the clothes on your body nor the shoes on your feet wore out.

Deuteronomy 29:5 You didn’t eat bread, and you didn’t drink wine or other intoxicating liquor; this was so that you would know that ‘I am ADONAI your God.’

Deuteronomy 29:6 When you arrived at this place, Sichon the king of Heshbon and ‘Og the king of Bashan advanced against us in battle, and we defeated them,

Deuteronomy 29:7 took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Re’uveni, the Gadi and the M’nashi.

Deuteronomy 29:8 Therefore, observe the words of this covenant and obey them; so that you can make everything you do prosper.

Deuteronomy 29:9 “Today you are standing, all of you, before ADONAI your God- your heads, your tribes, your leaders and your officers- all the men of Isra’el,

Deuteronomy 29:10 along with your little ones, your wives and your foreigners here with you in your camp, from the one who chops your wood to the one who draws your water.

Deuteronomy 29:11 The purpose is that you should enter into the covenant of ADONAI your God and into his oath which ADONAI your God is making with you today,

Deuteronomy 29:12 so that he can establish you today for himself as a people, and so that for you he will be God- as he said to you and as he swore to your ancestors, to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov.

Deuteronomy 29:13 “But I am not making this covenant and this oath only with you.

Deuteronomy 29:14 Rather, I am making it both with him who is standing here with us today before ADONAI our God and also with him who is not here with us today.

Deuteronomy 29:15 For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we came directly through the nations you passed through;

Deuteronomy 29:16 and you saw their detestable things and their idols of wood, stone, silver and gold that they had with them.

Deuteronomy 29:17 So let there not be among you a man, woman, family or tribe whose heart turns away today from ADONAI our God to go and serve the gods of those nations. Let there not be among you a root bearing such bitter poison and wormwood.

Deuteronomy 29:18 If there is such a person, when he hears the words of this curse, he will bless himself secretly, saying to himself, ‘I will be all right, even though I will stubbornly keep doing whatever I feel like doing; so that I, although “dry,” [[sinful,]] will be added to the “watered” [[righteous]].’

Deuteronomy 29:19 But ADONAI will not forgive him. Rather, the anger and jealousy of ADONAI will blaze up against that person. Every curse written in this book will be upon him. ADONAI will blot out his name from under heaven.

Deuteronomy 29:20 ADONAI will single him out from all the tribes of Isra’el to experience what is bad in all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the [Torah].

Deuteronomy 29:21 “When the next generation, your children who will grow up after you, and the foreigner who arrives from a distant land, see the plagues of that land and the diseases with which ADONAI has made it sick,

Deuteronomy 29:22 and that the whole land has become burning sulfur and salt, that it isn’t being sown or bearing crops or even producing grass- like the overthrow of S’dom, ‘Amora, Admah and Tzvoyim, which ADONAI overthrew in his furious anger-

Deuteronomy 29:23 then all the nations will ask, ‘Why did ADONAI do this to this land? What is the meaning of such frenzied, furious anger?’

Deuteronomy 29:24 People will answer, ‘It’s because they abandoned the covenant of ADONAI, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 29:25 They went and served other gods, prostrating themselves before them, gods they had not known and which he had not assigned them.

Deuteronomy 29:26 For this reason, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against this land and brought upon it every curse written in this book;

Deuteronomy 29:27 and ADONAI, in anger, fury and incensed with indignation, uprooted them from their land and threw them out into another land- as it is today.’

Deuteronomy 29:28 “Things which are hidden belong to ADONAI our God. But the things that have been revealed belong to us and our children forever, so that we can observe all the words of this [Torah]. [(RY: ii, LY: iv)]

Deuteronomy 30:1 “When the time arrives that all these things have come upon you, both the blessing and the curse which I have presented to you; and you are there among the nations to which ADONAI your God has driven you; then, at last, you will start thinking about what has happened to you;

Deuteronomy 30:2 and you will return to ADONAI your God and pay attention to what he has said, which will be exactly what I am ordering you to do today- you and your children, with all your heart and all your being.

Deuteronomy 30:3 At that point, ADONAI your God will reverse your exile and show you mercy; he will return and gather you from all the peoples to which ADONAI your God scattered you.

Deuteronomy 30:4 If one of yours was scattered to the far end of the sky, ADONAI your God will gather you even from there; he will go there and get you.

Deuteronomy 30:5 ADONAI your God will bring you back into the land your ancestors possessed, and you will possess it; he will make you prosper there, and you will become even more numerous than your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 30:6 Then ADONAI your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your children, so that you will love ADONAI your God with all your heart and all your being, and thus you will live.

Deuteronomy 30:7 ADONAI your God will put all these curses on your enemies, on those who hated and persecuted you;

Deuteronomy 30:8 but you will return and pay attention to what ADONAI says and obey all his [mitzvot] which I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 30:9 Then ADONAI your God will give you more than enough in everything you set out to do- the fruit of your body, the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your land will all do well; for ADONAI will once again rejoice to see you do well, just as he rejoiced in your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 30:10 “However, all this will happen only if you pay attention to what ADONAI your God says, so that you obey his [mitzvot] and regulations which are written in this book of the [Torah], if you turn to ADONAI your God with all your heart and all your being.

Deuteronomy 30:11 For this [mitzvah] which I am giving you today is not too hard for you, it is not beyond your reach.

Deuteronomy 30:12 It isn’t in the sky, so that you need to ask, ‘Who will go up into the sky for us, bring it to us and make us hear it, so that we can obey it?’

Deuteronomy 30:13 Likewise, it isn’t beyond the sea, so that you need to ask, ‘Who will cross the sea for us, bring it to us and make us hear it, so that we can obey it?’

Deuteronomy 30:14 On the contrary, the word is very close to you- in your mouth, even in your heart; therefore, you can do it!

Deuteronomy 30:15 “Look! I am presenting you today with, on the one hand, life and good; and on the other, death and evil-

Deuteronomy 30:16 in that I am ordering you today to love ADONAI your God, to follow his ways, and to obey his [mitzvot], regulations and rulings; for if you do, you will live and increase your numbers; and ADONAI your God will bless you in the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 30:17 But if your heart turns away, if you refuse to listen, if you are drawn away to prostrate yourselves before other gods and serve them;

Deuteronomy 30:18 I am announcing to you today that you will certainly perish; you will not live long in the land you are crossing the Yarden to enter and possess.

Deuteronomy 30:19 “I call on heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have presented you with life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore, choose life, so that you will live, you and your descendants, Deuteronomy 30:20 loving ADONAI your God, paying attention to what he says and clinging to him- for that is the purpose of your life! On this depends the length of time you will live in the land ADONAI swore he would give to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov.”

Deuteronomy 31:1 Moshe went and spoke the following words to all Isra’el:

Deuteronomy 31:2 “I am 120 years old today. I can’t get around any longer; moreover, ADONAI has said to me, ‘You will not cross this Yarden.’

Deuteronomy 31:3 ADONAI your God- he will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations ahead of you, and you will dispossess them. Y’hoshua- he will cross over ahead of you, as ADONAI has said.

Deuteronomy 31:4 ADONAI will do to them what he did to Sichon and ‘Og, the kings of the Emori, and to their land- he destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 31:5 ADONAI will defeat them ahead of you, and you are to do to them just as I have ordered you to do.

Deuteronomy 31:6 Be strong, be bold, don't be afraid or frightened of them, for ADONAI your God is going with you. He will neither fail you nor abandon you."

Deuteronomy 31:7 Next Moshe summoned Y'hoshua and, in the sight of all Isra'el, said to him, "Be strong, be bold, for you are going with this people into the land ADONAI swore to their ancestors he would give them. You will be the one causing them to inherit it.

Deuteronomy 31:8 But ADONAI- it is he who will go ahead of you. He will be with you. He will neither fail you nor abandon you, so don't be afraid or downhearted."

Deuteronomy 31:9 Then Moshe wrote down this [Torah] and gave it to the [cohanim], the descendants of Levi who carried the ark with the covenant of ADONAI, and to all the leaders of Isra'el.

Deuteronomy 31:10 Moshe gave them these orders: "At the end of every seven years, during the festival of [Sukkot] in the year of [sh'mittah],

Deuteronomy 31:11 when all Isra'el have come to appear in the presence of ADONAI at the place he will choose, you are to read this [Torah] before all Isra'el, so that they can hear it.

Deuteronomy 31:12 Assemble the people- the men, the women, the little ones and the foreigners you have in your towns- so that they can hear, learn, fear ADONAI your God and take care to obey all the words of this [Torah];

Deuteronomy 31:13 and so that their children, who have not known, can hear and learn to fear ADONAI your God, for as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Yarden to possess."

Deuteronomy 31:14 ADONAI said to Moshe, "The time is coming for you to die. Summon Y'hoshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I can commission him." Moshe and Y'hoshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting.

Deuteronomy 31:15 ADONAI appeared in the tent in a column of cloud; the column of cloud stood above the entrance to the tent.

Deuteronomy 31:16 ADONAI said to Moshe, "You are about to sleep with your ancestors. But this people will get up and offer themselves as prostitutes to the foreign gods of the land where they are going. When they are with those gods, they will abandon me and break my covenant which I have made with them.

Deuteronomy 31:17 Then my anger will flare up, and I will abandon them and hide my face from them. They will be devoured, and many calamities and troubles will come upon them. Then they will ask, ‘Haven’t these calamities come upon us because our God isn’t here with us?’

Deuteronomy 31:18 But I will be hiding my face from them because of all the evil they will have done in turning to other gods.

Deuteronomy 31:19 “Therefore, write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the people of Isra’el. Have them learn it by heart, so that this song can be a witness for me against the people of Isra’el.

Deuteronomy 31:20 For when I have brought them into the land I swore to their ancestors, flowing with milk and honey; and they have eaten their fill, grown fat and turned to other gods, serving them and despising me, and broken my covenant;

Deuteronomy 31:21 then, after many calamities and troubles have come upon them, this song will testify before them as a witness, because their descendants will still be reciting it and will not have forgotten it. For I know how they think even now, even before I have brought them into the land about which I swore.”

Deuteronomy 31:22 So Moshe wrote this song that same day and taught it to the people of Isra’el.

Deuteronomy 31:23 ADONAI also commissioned Y’hoshua the son of Nun with these words: “Be strong and full of courage; for you are to bring the people of Isra’el into the land about which I swore to them; and I will be with you.”

Deuteronomy 31:24 Moshe kept writing the words of this [Torah] in a book until he was done. When he had finished,

Deuteronomy 31:25 Moshe gave these orders to the [L’vi’im] who carried the ark with the covenant of ADONAI:

Deuteronomy 31:26 “Take this book of the [Torah] and put it next to the ark with the covenant of ADONAI your God, so that it can be there to witness against you.

Deuteronomy 31:27 For I know how rebellious and stiffnecked you are! Here, even while I am still alive with you today, you have rebelled against ADONAI; so how much more will you do so after my death?

Deuteronomy 31:28 Assemble for me all the leaders of your tribes and your officials, so that I can say these things in their hearing, calling heaven and earth to witness against them-

Deuteronomy 31:29 because I know that after my death you will become very corrupt and turn aside from the way that I have ordered you, and that disaster will come upon you in the [acharit-hayamim], because you will do what ADONAI sees as evil and provoke him by your deeds.”

Deuteronomy 31:30 Then Moshe spoke in the hearing of the whole assembly of Isra’el the words of this song, from beginning to end:

Deuteronomy 32:1 “Hear, oh heavens, as I speak! Listen, earth, to the words from my mouth!

Deuteronomy 32:2 May my teaching fall like rain. May my speech condense like dew, like light rain on blades of grass, or showers on growing plants.

Deuteronomy 32:3 “For I will proclaim the name of ADONAI. Come, declare the greatness of our God!

Deuteronomy 32:4 The Rock! His work is perfect, for all his ways are just. A trustworthy God who does no wrong, he is righteous and straight.

Deuteronomy 32:5 “He is not corrupt; the defect is in his children, a crooked and perverted generation.

Deuteronomy 32:6 You foolish people, so lacking in wisdom, is this how you repay ADONAI? He is your father, who made you his! It was he who formed and prepared you!

Deuteronomy 32:7 “Remember how the old days were; think of the years through all the ages. Ask your father- he will tell you; your leaders too- they will inform you.

Deuteronomy 32:8 “When ‘[Elyon] gave each nation its heritage, when he divided the human race, he assigned the boundaries of peoples according to Isra’el’s population;

Deuteronomy 32:9 but ADONAI’s share was his own people, Ya’akov his allotted heritage.

Deuteronomy 32:10 “He found his people in desert country, in a howling, wasted wilderness. He protected him and cared for him, guarded him like the pupil of his eye,

Deuteronomy 32:11 like an eagle that stirs up her nest, hovers over her young, spreads out her wings, takes them and carries them as she flies.

Deuteronomy 32:12 “ADONAI alone led his people; no alien god was with him.

Deuteronomy 32:13 He made them ride on the heights of the earth. They ate the produce of the fields. He had them suck honey from the rocks and olive oil from the crags,

Deuteronomy 32:14 curds from the cows and milk from the sheep, with lamb fat, rams from Bashan and goats, with the finest wheat flour; and you drank sparkling wine from the blood of grapes.

Deuteronomy 32:15 “But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked (you grew fat, thick, gross!). He abandoned God his Maker; he scorned the Rock, his salvation.

Deuteronomy 32:16 They roused him to jealousy with alien gods, provoked him with abominations.

Deuteronomy 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, non-gods, gods that they had never known, new gods that had come up lately, which your ancestors had not feared.

Deuteronomy 32:18 You ignored the Rock who fathered you, you forgot God, who gave you birth.

Deuteronomy 32:19 “ADONAI saw and was filled with scorn at his sons’ and daughters’ provocation.

Deuteronomy 32:20 He said, ‘I will hide my face from them and see what will become of them; for they are a perverse generation, untrustworthy children.

Deuteronomy 32:21 They aroused my jealousy with a non-god and provoked me with their vanities; I will arouse their jealousy with a non-people and provoke them with a vile nation.

Deuteronomy 32:22 “‘For my anger has been fired up. It burns to the depths of Sh’ol, devouring the earth and its crops, kindling the very roots of the hills.

Deuteronomy 32:23 I will heap disasters on them and use up all my arrows against them.

Deuteronomy 32:24 “‘Fatigued by hunger, they will be consumed by fever and bitter defeat; I will send them the fangs of wild beasts, and the poison of reptiles crawling in the dust.

Deuteronomy 32:25 Outside, the sword makes parents childless; inside, there is panic, as young men and girls alike are slain, sucklings and graybeards together.

Deuteronomy 32:26 “‘I considered putting an end to them, erasing their memory from the human race;

Deuteronomy 32:27 but I feared the insolence of their enemy, feared that their foes would mistakenly think, “We ourselves accomplished this; ADONAI had nothing to do with it.”

Deuteronomy 32:28 “‘They are a nation without common sense, utterly lacking in discernment.

Deuteronomy 32:29 If they were wise they could figure it out and understand their destiny.

Deuteronomy 32:30 After all, how can one chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to rout, unless their Rock sells them to their enemies, unless ADONAI hands them over?

Deuteronomy 32:31 For our enemies have no rock like our Rock-even they can see that!

Deuteronomy 32:32 “‘Rather, their vine is from the vine of S’dom, from the fields of ‘Amora- their grapes are poisonous, their clusters are bitter;

Deuteronomy 32:33 their wine is snake poison, the cruel venom of vipers.

Deuteronomy 32:34 "'Isn't this hidden with me, sealed in my storehouses?

Deuteronomy 32:35 Vengeance and payback are mine for the time when their foot slips; for the day of their calamity is coming soon, their doom is rushing upon them.'

Deuteronomy 32:36 "Yes, ADONAI will judge his people, taking pity on his servants, when he sees that their strength is gone, that no one is left, slave or free.

Deuteronomy 32:37 Then he will ask, 'Where are their gods, the rock in whom they trusted?

Deuteronomy 32:38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let him get up and help you, let him protect you!

Deuteronomy 32:39 See now that I, yes, I, am he; and there is no god beside me. I put to death, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal; no one saves anyone from my hand!

Deuteronomy 32:40 "'For I lift up my hand to heaven and swear, "As surely as I am alive forever,

Deuteronomy 32:41 if I sharpen my flashing sword and set my hand to judgment, I will render vengeance to my foes, repay those who hate me.

Deuteronomy 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, my sword will devour flesh- the blood of the slain and the captives, flesh from the wild-haired heads of the enemy."'

Deuteronomy 32:43 "Sing out, you nations, about his people! For he will avenge the blood of his servants. He will render vengeance to his adversaries and make atonement for the land of his people."

Deuteronomy 32:44 Moshe came and proclaimed all the words of this song in the hearing of the people and of Hoshea the son of Nun.

Deuteronomy 32:45 When he had finished speaking all these words to all Isra'el,

Deuteronomy 32:46 he said to them, "Take to heart all the words of my testimony against you today, so that you can use them in charging your children to be careful to obey all the words of this [Torah].

Deuteronomy 32:47 For this is not a trivial matter for you; on the contrary, it is your life! Through it you will live long in the land you are crossing the Yarden to possess."

Deuteronomy 32:48 That same day ADONAI said to Moshe, Deuteronomy 32:49 “Go up into the ‘Avarim Range, to Mount N’vo, in the land of Mo’av across from Yericho; and look out over the land of Kena’an, which I am giving the people of Isra’el as a possession.

Deuteronomy 32:50 On the mountain you are ascending you will die and be gathered to your people, just as Aharon your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.

Deuteronomy 32:51 The reason for this is that both of you broke faith with me there among the people of Isra’el at the M’rivat-Kadesh Spring, in the Tzin Desert; you failed to demonstrate my holiness there among the people of Isra’el.

Deuteronomy 32:52 So you will see the land from a distance, but you will not enter the land I am giving to the people of Isra’el.”

Deuteronomy 33:1 This is the blessing that Moshe, the man of God, spoke over the people of Isra’el before his death:

Deuteronomy 33:2 “ADONAI came from Sinai; from Se’ir he dawned on his people, shone forth from Mount Pa’ran; and with him were myriads of holy ones; at his right hand was a fiery law for them.

Deuteronomy 33:3 He truly loves the peoples- all his holy ones are in your hand; sitting at your feet, they receive your instruction,

Deuteronomy 33:4 the [Torah] Moshe commanded us as an inheritance for the community of Ya’akov.

Deuteronomy 33:5 Then a king arose in Yeshurun when the leaders of the people were gathered, all the tribes of Isra’el together.

Deuteronomy 33:6 “Let Re’uven live and not die out, even though his numbers grow few.”

Deuteronomy 33:7 Of Y’hudah he said: “Hear, ADONAI, the cry of Y’hudah! Bring him in to his people, let his own hands defend him; but you, help him against his enemies.”

Deuteronomy 33:8 Of Levi he said: “Let your [tumim] and [urim] be with your pious one, whom you tested at Massah, with whom you struggled at M’rivah Spring.

Deuteronomy 33:9 Of his father and mother he said, ‘I don’t know them’; he didn’t acknowledge his brothers or children. For he observed your word, and he kept your covenant.

Deuteronomy 33:10 They will teach Ya’akov your rulings, Isra’el your [Torah]. They will set incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.

Deuteronomy 33:11 ADONAI, bless his possessions, accept the work he does; but crush his enemies hip and thigh; may those who hate him rise no more.”

Deuteronomy 33:12 Of Binyamin he said: “ADONAI’s beloved lives securely. He protects him day after day. He lives between his shoulders.”

Deuteronomy 33:13 Of Yosef he said: “May ADONAI bless his land with the best from the sky, for the dew, and for what comes from the deep beneath,

Deuteronomy 33:14 with the best of what the sun makes grow, with the best of what comes up each month,

Deuteronomy 33:15 with the best from the mountains of old, with the best from the eternal hills,

Deuteronomy 33:16 with the best from the earth and all that fills it, and the favor of him who lived in the [[burning]] bush. May blessing come on the head of Yosef, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

Deuteronomy 33:17 His firstborn bull- glory is his; his horns are those of a wild ox; With them he will gore the peoples, all of them, to the ends of the earth. These are the myriads of Efrayim; these are the thousands of M’nasheh.”

Deuteronomy 33:18 Of Z’vulun he said: “Rejoice, Z’vulun, as you go forth, and you, Yissakhar, in your tents.

Deuteronomy 33:19 They will summon peoples to the mountain and there offer righteous sacrifices; for they will draw from the abundance of the seas and from the hidden treasures of the sand.”

Deuteronomy 33:20 Of Gad he said: “Blessed is he who makes Gad so large; he lies there like a lion, tearing arm and scalp.

Deuteronomy 33:21 He chose the best for himself when the princely portion was assigned. When the leaders of the people came, he carried out ADONAI’s justice and his rulings concerning Isra’el.”

Deuteronomy 33:22 Of Dan he said: “Dan is a lion cub leaping forth from Bashan.”

Deuteronomy 33:23 Of Naftali he said: “You, Naftali, satisfied with favor and full of blessing from ADONAI, take possession of the sea and the south.”

Deuteronomy 33:24 Of Asher he said: “May Asher be most blessed of sons, may he be the favorite among his brothers and bathe his feet in oil.

Deuteronomy 33:25 May your bolts be of iron and bronze and your strength last as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 33:26 “Yeshurun, there is no one like God, riding through the heavens to help you, riding on the clouds in his majesty.

Deuteronomy 33:27 The God of old is a dwelling-place, with everlasting arms beneath. He expelled the enemy before you and he said, ‘Destroy!’

Deuteronomy 33:28 So Isra’el lives in security; the fountain of Ya’akov is alone in a land of grain and new wine, where the skies drip with dew.

Deuteronomy 33:29 Happy are you, Isra'el! "Who is like you, a people saved by ADONAI, your defender helping you and your sword of triumph? Your enemies will cringe before you, but you will trample down their high places." [(vii)]

Deuteronomy 34:1 Moshe ascended from the plains of Mo'av to Mount N'vo, to the summit of Pisgah, across from Yericho. There ADONAI showed him all the land- Gil'ad as far as Dan,

Deuteronomy 34:2 all Naftali, the land of Efrayim and M'nasheh, the land of Y'hudah all the way to the sea beyond, Deuteronomy 34:3 the Negev, and the 'Aravah, including the valley where Yericho, the City of Date-Palms, as far away as Tzo'ar.

Deuteronomy 34:4 ADONAI said to him, "This is the land concerning which I swore to Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over there."

Deuteronomy 34:5 So Moshe, the servant of ADONAI, died there in the land of Mo'av, as ADONAI had said.

Deuteronomy 34:6 He was buried in the valley across from Beit-P'or in the land of Mo'av, but to this day no one knows where his grave is.

Deuteronomy 34:7 Moshe was 120 years old when he died, with eyes undimmed and vigor undiminished.

Deuteronomy 34:8 The people of Isra'el mourned Moshe on the plains of Mo'av for thirty days; after this, the days of crying and mourning for Moshe ended.

Deuteronomy 34:9 Y'hoshua the son of Nun was full of the Spirit of wisdom, for Moshe had laid his hands on him, and the people of Isra'el heeded him and did what ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Deuteronomy 34:10 Since that time there has not arisen in Isra'el a prophet like Moshe, whom ADONAI knew face to face.

Deuteronomy 34:11 What signs and wonders ADONAI sent him to perform in the land of Egypt upon Pharaoh, all his servants and all his land!

Deuteronomy 34:12 What might was in his hand! What great terror he evoked before the eyes of all Isra'el!

Joshua

1:1 After the death of Moshe the servant of ADONAI, ADONAI said to Y'hoshua the son of Nun, Moshe's assistant,

Joshua 1:2 "Moshe my servant is dead. So now, get up and cross over this Yarden, you and all the people, to the land I am giving to them, the people of Isra'el.

Joshua 1:3 I am giving you every place you will step on with the sole of your foot, as I said to Moshe.

Joshua 1:4 All the land from the desert and the L'vanon to the great river, the Euphrates River- all the land of the Hitti- and on to the Great Sea in the west will be your territory.

Joshua 1:5 No one will be able to withstand you as long as you live. Just as I was with Moshe, so I will be with you. I will neither fail you nor abandon you.

Joshua 1:6 "Be strong, be bold; for you will cause this people to inherit the land I swore to their fathers I would give them.

Joshua 1:7 Only be strong and very bold in taking care to follow all the [Torah] which Moshe my servant ordered you to follow; do not turn from it either to the right or to the left; then you will succeed wherever you go.

Joshua 1:8 Yes, keep this book of the [Torah] on your lips, and meditate on it day and night, so that you will take care to act according to everything written in it. Then your undertakings will prosper, and you will succeed.

Joshua 1:9 Haven't I ordered you, 'Be strong, be bold'? So don't be afraid or downhearted, because ADONAI your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:10 Y'hoshua instructed the officials of the people

Joshua 1:11 to go through the camp and order the people, "Prepare provisions, because in three days you will cross this Yarden to go in and take possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving you."

Joshua 1:12 To the Re'uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M'nasheh Y'hoshua said,

Joshua 1:13 "Remember what Moshe the servant of ADONAI ordered you: 'ADONAI your God has let you rest and will give you this land.'

Joshua 1:14 Your wives, your little ones and your livestock will stay in the land Moshe gave you on the east side of the Yarden; but you are to cross over armed as a fighting force ahead of your brothers, to help them;

Joshua 1:15 until ADONAI allows your brothers to rest, as he has allowed you; and they too have taken possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving them. At that point, you will return to the land which is yours and possess it, the land Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave you in 'Ever-HaYarden to the east, toward the sunrise."

Joshua 1:16 They answered Y'hoshua, "We will do everything you have ordered us to do, and we will go wherever you send us.

Joshua 1:17 Just as we listened to everything Moshe said, so will we listen to you. Only may ADONAI your God be with you as he was with Moshe.

Joshua 1:18 If anyone rebels against your order and doesn't heed what you say in every detail of your order, he will be put to death. Just be strong, be bold!"

Joshua 2:1 Y'hoshua the son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Sheetim with these instructions: "Go, inspect the land and Yericho." They left and came to the house of a prostitute named Rachav, where they spent the night.

Joshua 2:2 The king of Yericho was told about it- "Tonight some men from Isra'el came here to reconnoiter the land."

Joshua 2:3 The king of Yericho sent a message to Rachav, "Bring out the men who came to you and are staying in your house, because they have come to reconnoiter all the land."

Joshua 2:4 However, the woman, after taking the two men and hiding them, replied, "Yes, the men did come to me; but I didn't know where they had come from.

Joshua 2:5 The men left around the time when they shut the gate, when it was dark. Where they went I don't know; but if you chase after them quickly, you will overtake them."

Joshua 2:6 Actually she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them under some stalks of flax she had spread out there.

Joshua 2:7 The men pursued them all the way to the fords at the Yarden; as soon as the pursuit party had left, the gate was shut.

Joshua 2:8 The two men had not yet lain down when she returned to the roof

Joshua 2:9 and said to them, "I know that ADONAI has given you the land. Fear of you has fallen on us; everyone in the land is terrified at the thought of you.

Joshua 2:10 We've heard how ADONAI dried up the water in the Sea of Suf ahead of you, when you left Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Emori on the other side of the Yarden, Sichon and 'Og, that you completely destroyed them.

Joshua 2:11 As soon as we heard it, our hearts failed us. Because of you, everyone is in a state of depression. For ADONAI your God- he is God in heaven above and on the earth below.

Joshua 2:12 So, please, swear to me by ADONAI that, since I have been kind to you, you will also be kind to my father's family. Give me some evidence of your good faith,

Joshua 2:13 that you will spare the lives of my father, mother, brothers and sisters and all who are theirs, so that we won't be killed."

Joshua 2:14 The men replied to her, "Our lives are certainly worth yours, provided you don't betray our mission. So when ADONAI gives us the land, we will treat you kindly and in good faith."

Joshua 2:15 Then she lowered them by a rope through the window; since her house abutted the city wall, indeed was actually built into it.

Joshua 2:16 She told them, “Head for the hills, so that the pursuit party won’t get their hands on you; and hide yourselves there for three days, until the pursuers have returned. After that, you can go on your way.”

Joshua 2:17 The men said to her, “We will not be guilty of violating the oath you made us swear, provided that

Joshua 2:18 when we enter the land, you tie this piece of scarlet cord in the window you let us down from; and you gather together in your house your father, mother, brothers, and your father’s entire household.

Joshua 2:19 If anyone goes out the doors of your house into the street, he will be responsible for his own blood, and we will be guiltless. But everyone who stays with you in the house- we will be responsible for his blood if anyone lays a hand on him.

Joshua 2:20 However, if you say a word about this business of ours, then we will be free of your oath that you made us swear.”

Joshua 2:21 “According to your words, so be it,” she said, and sent them away. As they departed, she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

Joshua 2:22 They left, arrived in the hills, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers had searched for them all the way but hadn’t found them.

Joshua 2:23 Then the two men returned. Descending from the hills they crossed over and came to Y’hoshua the son of Nun, and reported everything that had happened to them.

Joshua 2:24 “Truly ADONAI has handed over all the land to us,” they told Y’hoshua. “Everyone in the land is terrified that we’re coming.”

Joshua 3:1 Y’hoshua got up early in the morning, and they left Sheetim and came to the Yarden, he with all the people of Isra’el; they camped there before crossing.

Joshua 3:2 After three days, the officials circulated through the camp

Joshua 3:3 and gave the people these orders: “When you see the ark for the covenant of ADONAI your God and the [cohanim], who are [L’vi’im], carrying it, you are to leave your position and follow it.

Joshua 3:4 But keep a distance between yourelves and it of about a thousand yards- don’t come any closer, so that you will understand which way to go, because you haven’t gone this way before.”

Joshua 3:5 Y’hoshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, because tomorrow ADONAI is going to work wonders among you.”

Joshua 3:6 Then Y’hoshua said to the [cohanim], “Take the ark for the covenant, and go on ahead of the people.” They took the ark for the covenant and went ahead of the people.

Joshua 3:7 ADONAI said to Y’hoshua, “Starting today, I will make you great in full view of all Isra’el; so that they will know that just as I was with Moshe, so I will be with you.

Joshua 3:8 Now you are to order the [cohanim] carrying the ark for the covenant as follows: ‘When you come to the edge of the Yarden River, you are to stop in the Yarden itself.’“

Joshua 3:9 Y’hoshua said to the people of Isra’el, “Come here, and listen to the words of ADONAI your God.”

Joshua 3:10 Then Y’hoshua said, “Here is how you will know that the living God is here with you and that, without fail, he will drive out from before you the Kena’ani, the Hitti, the Hivi, the P’rizi, the Girgashi, the Emori and the Y’vusi:

Joshua 3:11 the ark for the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going on ahead of you across the Yarden.

Joshua 3:12 Now choose yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Isra’el, one man for each tribe.

Joshua 3:13 As soon as the [cohanim] carrying the ark of ADONAI, the Lord of all the earth, put the soles of their feet in the water of the Yarden, the water of the Yarden will be cut off upstream and stand piled up like an embankment.”

Joshua 3:14 So the people left their tents to cross the Yarden, with the [cohanim] carrying the ark for the covenant ahead of the people.

Joshua 3:15 When those carrying the ark had come to the Yarden, and the [cohanim] carrying the ark had waded into the water (for throughout harvest season the Yarden overflows its banks),

Joshua 3:16 the water upstream stood piled up like an embankment for a great distance at Adam, the city next to Tzartan; so that the water flowing downstream toward the Sea of the ‘Aravah, the Dead Sea, was completely cut off; and the people crossed over right by Yericho.

Joshua 3:17 The [cohanim] carrying the ark for the covenant of ADONAI stood fast on dry ground in the middle of the Yarden, while all Isra’el crossed on dry ground, until the entire nation had finished crossing the Yarden.

Joshua 4:1 After the whole nation had finished crossing the Yarden, ADONAI said to Y’hoshua,

Joshua 4:2 “Take for yourselves from the people twelve men, a man from every tribe;

Joshua 4:3 and give them this order: ‘Take twelve stones from the middle of the Yarden riverbed, where the [cohanim] are standing, carry them over with you and set them down in the place where you will camp tonight.’“

Joshua 4:4 Y’hoshua called the twelve men whom he had chosen from the people of Isra’el, a man from every tribe,

Joshua 4:5 and said to them, “Go on ahead of the ark of ADONAI your God into the riverbed of the Yarden. Then, each of you take a stone on his shoulder, corresponding to the number of tribes of the people of Isra’el.

Joshua 4:6 This will be a sign for you. In the future, when your children ask, ‘What do you mean by these stones?’

Joshua 4:7 you will answer them, ‘It’s because the water in the Yarden was cut off before the ark for the covenant of ADONAI; when it crossed the Yarden, the water in the Yarden was cut off; and these stones are to be a reminder for the people of Isra’el forever.’“

Joshua 4:8 The people of Isra’el did just as Y’hoshua had ordered. They took twelve stones out of the Yarden riverbed, as ADONAI had said to Y’hoshua, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the people of Isra’el, carried them over with them to the place where they were camping, and set them down there.

Joshua 4:9 Y’hoshua also set up twelve stones in the Yarden River itself, in the place where the feet of the [cohanim] carrying the ark for the covenant had stood. They are there to this day.

Joshua 4:10 The [cohanim] carrying the ark stood in the Yarden riverbed until Y’hoshua had finished saying to the people everything that ADONAI had ordered him to say, in keeping with everything that Moshe had ordered Y’hoshua; then the people hurried across.

Joshua 4:11 When all the people had finished crossing, the ark of ADONAI passed on, and the [cohanim], ahead of the people.

Joshua 4:12 The descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh went on, armed, ahead of the people of Isra’el, as Moshe had said to them;

Joshua 4:13 some 40,000 armed soldiers ready for battle crossed in the presence of ADONAI to the plains of Yericho.

Joshua 4:14 That day ADONAI made Y’hoshua great in full view of all Isra’el. They were in awe of him, just as they had been in awe of Moshe all his life.

Joshua 4:15 ADONAI said to Y’hoshua,

Joshua 4:16 “Order the [cohanim] carrying the ark for the testimony to come up out of the Yarden.”

Joshua 4:17 So Y’hoshua ordered the [cohanim], “Come up out of the Yarden!”

Joshua 4:18 The [cohanim] carrying the ark for the covenant of ADONAI came up from the Yarden riverbed, and as soon as the soles of the feet of the [cohanim] touched dry ground, the water of the Yarden returned to its place and the river overflowed its banks as it had before.

Joshua 4:19 The people came up out of the Yarden on the tenth day of the first month and camped at Gilgal, by the eastern boundary of Yericho.

Joshua 4:20 Those twelve stones which they took out of the Yarden, Y'hoshua piled up at Gilgal.

Joshua 4:21 Then he said to the people of Isra'el, "In the future, when your children ask their fathers what these stones mean,

Joshua 4:22 you are to explain it to them by saying, 'Isra'el came over this Yarden on dry land.

Joshua 4:23 For ADONAI your God dried up the water in the Yarden from in front of you, until you had crossed, just as ADONAI your God did to the Sea of Suf, which he dried up from in front of us, until we had crossed.

Joshua 4:24 From this all the peoples of the earth can know that the hand of ADONAI is strong, and you can fear ADONAI your God forever.'"

Joshua 5:1 When all the kings of the Emori on the west side of the Yarden and all the kings of the Kena'ani near the sea heard how ADONAI had dried up the Yarden River ahead of the people of Isra'el until they had crossed it, their hearts failed them, and they fell into depression because of the people of Isra'el.

Joshua 5:2 It was at that time that ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Make yourself knives of flint, and circumcise the people of Isra'el again, a second time.

Joshua 5:3 So Y'hoshua made himself knives of flint and circumcised the people of Isra'el at Giv'at-Ha'Aralot [[the hill of foreskins]].

Joshua 5:4 The reason Y'hoshua circumcised was that all the people who had left Egypt who were males, all the fighting men, had died in the desert along the way after leaving Egypt.

Joshua 5:5 For although all the people who left Egypt had been circumcised, all those who had been born in the desert on the way as they went on from Egypt had not been circumcised;

Joshua 5:6 because the people of Isra'el walked forty years in the desert until the whole nation, that is, the fighting men who had left Egypt, had died out; because they had not heeded what ADONAI said. ADONAI had sworn that he would not allow them to see the land which ADONAI swore to their ancestors that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Joshua 5:7 So he raised up their children to take their place, and it was these whom Y'hoshua circumcised; till then they had been uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised while traveling.

Joshua 5:8 When all the nation had been circumcised, every one of them, they stayed where they were in camp until they had healed.

Joshua 5:9 ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Today I have rolled off from you the stigma of Egypt." This is why the place has been called Gilgal [[rolling]] ever since.

Joshua 5:10 The people of Isra'el camped at Gilgal, and they observed [Pesach] on the fourteenth day of the month, there on the plains of Yericho.

Joshua 5:11 The day after [Pesach] they ate what the land produced, [matzah] and roasted ears of grain that day.

Joshua 5:12 The following day, after they had eaten food produced in the land, the [man] ended. From then on the people of Isra'el no longer had [man]; instead, that year, they ate the produce of the land of Kena'an.

Joshua 5:13 One day, when Y'hoshua was there by Yericho, he raised his eyes and looked; and in front of him stood a man with his drawn sword in his hand. Y'hoshua went over to him and asked him, "Are you on our side or on the side of our enemies?"

Joshua 5:14 "No," he replied, "but I am the commander of ADONAI's army; I have come just now." Y'hoshua fell down with his face to the ground and worshipped him, then asked, "What does my lord have to say to his servant?"

Joshua 5:15 The commander of ADONAI's army answered Y'hoshua, "Take your sandals off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy." And Y'hoshua did so.

Joshua 6:1 Yericho had completely barricaded its gates against the people of Isra'el- no one left, and no one entered.

Joshua 6:2 ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "I have handed Yericho over to you, including its king and his warriors.

Joshua 6:3 You are to encircle the city with all your soldiers and march around it once. Do this for six days.

Joshua 6:4 Seven [cohanim] are to carry seven [shofar]s in front of the ark. On the seventh day you are to march around the city seven times, and the [cohanim] will blow the [shofar]s.

Joshua 6:5 Then they are to blow a long blast on the [shofar]. On hearing the sound of the [shofar], all the people are to shout as loudly as they can; and the wall of the city will fall down flat. Then the people are to go up into the city, each one straight from where he stands."

Joshua 6:6 Y'hoshua the son of Nun called the [cohanim] and told them, "Take up the ark for the covenant, and have seven [cohanim] carry seven [shofar]s ahead of the ark of ADONAI."

Joshua 6:7 To the people he said, "Move on, encircle the city, and have the army march ahead of the ark of ADONAI."

Joshua 6:8 When Y'hoshua had spoken to the people, the seven [cohanim] carrying the seven [shofar]s before ADONAI passed on and blew on the [shofar]s, with the ark for the covenant of ADONAI following them.

Joshua 6:9 The fighting men went ahead of the [cohanim] blowing the [shofar]s, while the rearguard marched after the ark, with incessant blowing on the [shofar]s.

Joshua 6:10 Y'hoshua gave this order to the people: "Don't shout, don't let your voice be heard, don't let a single word out of your mouth until the day I tell you to shout; then you will shout."

Joshua 6:11 So he had the ark of ADONAI make a circle around the city, going around it once; then they returned to camp and stayed in the camp.

Joshua 6:12 The next morning Y'hoshua got up early, and the [cohanim] took up the ark of ADONAI.

Joshua 6:13 The seven [cohanim] carrying the seven [shofar]s ahead of the ark of ADONAI went on, continually blowing on their [shofar]s, with the fighting men marching ahead of them and the rearguard following after the ark of ADONAI; all the while the blowing on the [shofar]s was incessant.

Joshua 6:14 The second day, they went around the city once and returned to camp. They did the same for six days.

Joshua 6:15 On the seventh day, they got up early, at sunrise, and went around the city in the same way seven times. That was the only day they encircled the city seven times.

Joshua 6:16 The seventh time, when the [cohanim] blew on their [shofar]s, Y'hoshua said to the people, "Shout! because ADONAI has given you the city!

Joshua 6:17 But the city and everything in it is to be set aside for ADONAI and therefore to be destroyed completely; only Rachav the prostitute is to be spared, she and everyone with her in her house, because she hid the messengers we sent.

Joshua 6:18 So you, keep clear of everything reserved for destruction. If you bring a curse on yourselves by taking anything set aside to be destroyed, you will bring a curse on the whole camp of Isra'el and cause great distress there.

Joshua 6:19 All the silver and gold, and all the brass and iron utensils are to be separated out for ADONAI and added to the treasury of ADONAI."

Joshua 6:20 So the people shouted, with the [shofar]s blowing. When the people heard the sound of the [shofar]s, the people let out a great shout; and the wall fell down flat; so that the people went up into the city, each one straight ahead of him; and they captured the city.

Joshua 6:21 They completely destroyed everything in the city with the sword- men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

Joshua 6:22 Y'hoshua said to the two men who had reconnoitered the land, "Go into the prostitute's house and bring the woman out with all that she has, as you swore to her."

Joshua 6:23 The young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rachav with her father, mother, brothers and all she had; they brought out all her relatives and put them safely outside the camp of Isra'el.

Joshua 6:24 Then they burned the city to ashes with everything in it, except for the silver, the gold and the brass and iron utensils, which they put in the treasury of the house of ADONAI.

Joshua 6:25 But Y'hoshua spared Rachav the prostitute, her father's household and everything she had; and she has continued living with Isra'el from then until now; because she hid the messengers Y'hoshua had sent to reconnoiter Yericho.

Joshua 6:26 Y'hoshua then made the people take this oath: "A curse before ADONAI on anyone who rises up and rebuilds this city of Yericho: he will lay its foundation with the loss of his firstborn son and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son."

Joshua 6:27 So ADONAI was with Y'hoshua, and people heard about him throughout the land.

Joshua 7:1 But the people of Isra'el misappropriated some of the goods set aside to be destroyed; for 'Akhan, the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Y'hudah, took some of the things reserved for destruction. In consequence, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against the people of Isra'el.

Joshua 7:2 Y'hoshua sent men from Yericho to 'Ai, which is next to Beit-Aven, east of Beit-El, telling them to go up and spy out the land. So the men went up, reconnoitered 'Ai,

Joshua 7:3 returned to Y'hoshua and told him, "Don't have all the people go up; but let perhaps two or three thousand men go up and attack 'Ai. There's no point in making all the people exert themselves to get there, because there are only a few of them."

Joshua 7:4 So from the people about three thousand men went up there, but they were routed by the men of 'Ai.

Joshua 7:5 The men of ‘Ai killed some thirty-six of them and chased them from before their gate all the way to Sh’varim, attacking them on the descent. The hearts of the people melted and turned to water.

Joshua 7:6 Y’hoshua tore his clothes and fell to his face on the ground before the ark of ADONAI until evening, he and the leaders of Isra’el, and they put dust on their heads.

Joshua 7:7 Y’hoshua said, “Oh, [Adonai] [ELOHIM]! Why did you take the trouble to bring this people across the Yarden if you meant to hand us over to the Emori and have us perish? We should have been satisfied to live on the other side of the Yarden!

Joshua 7:8 Oh, ADONAI! What can I say, after Isra’el has turned their backs and retreated before their enemies?

Joshua 7:9 For when the Kena’ani and the other people living in the land hear about it, they will surround us and wipe us off the face of the earth. What will you do then to save the honor of your great name?”

Joshua 7:10 ADONAI said to Y’hoshua, “Stand up! Why are you lying there face down?

Joshua 7:11 Isra’el has sinned. Yes, they have violated my covenant, which I commanded them. They have taken some of what was to have been set aside for destruction. They have stolen it, lied about it and put it with their own things.

Joshua 7:12 This is why the people of Isra’el cannot stand before their enemies. They turn their backs on their enemies, because they have come under a curse. I won’t be with you any more unless you destroy the things meant for destruction that you have with you.

Joshua 7:13 So get up, consecrate the people, and say, ‘Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow; for here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: “Isra’el, you have things under the curse of destruction among you; and you will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove the things that were to have been destroyed from among you.”

Joshua 7:14 Therefore, tomorrow morning you are to come forward, one tribe at a time; the tribe ADONAI takes is to come forward, one family at a time; the family ADONAI takes is to come forward, one household at a time; and the household ADONAI takes is to come forward, one person at a time.

Joshua 7:15 The person who is caught with things in his possession that were reserved for destruction is to be burned to ashes, he and everything he has, because he has violated the covenant of ADONAI and has committed a shameful deed in Isra’el.’“

Joshua 7:16 So Y’hoshua got up early in the morning and had Isra’el come forward, one tribe at a time; and the tribe of Y’hudah was taken.

Joshua 7:17 He had the families of Y'hudah come forward and took the family of the Zarchi. He had the Zarchi family come forward by household leaders, and Zavdi was taken.

Joshua 7:18 He had his household come forward, one person at a time; and 'Akhan the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Y'hudah, was taken.

Joshua 7:19 Y'hoshua said to 'Akhan, "My son, swear to ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, that you will tell the truth and confess to him. Tell me, now, what did you do? Don't hide anything from me."

Joshua 7:20 'Akhan answered Y'hoshua, "It is true: I have sinned against ADONAI, the God of Isra'el. Here is exactly what I did:

Joshua 7:21 when I saw there with the spoil a beautiful robe from Shin'ar, five pounds of silver [shekel]s and a one-and-a-quarter-pound wedge of gold, I really wanted them. So I took them. You will find them hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

Joshua 7:22 Y'hoshua sent messengers, who ran to the tent. It was all there, hidden in his tent, including the silver underneath.

Joshua 7:23 They took the things from inside the tent, brought them to Y'hoshua and all the people of Isra'el, and put them down before ADONAI.

Joshua 7:24 Y'hoshua, together with all Isra'el, took 'Akhan, the son of Zerach, with the silver, the robe, the gold wedge, his sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and everything he had, and brought them up to the Akhor Valley.

Joshua 7:25 Y'hoshua said, "Why have you brought trouble on us? Today ADONAI will bring trouble on you!" Then all Isra'el stoned him to death; they burned them to ashes and stoned them.

Joshua 7:26 Over him they piled a great mound of stones, which is there to this day. Finally ADONAI turned away from his fierce anger. And this is why that place is called the Valley of Akhor [[trouble]] to this day.

Joshua 8:1 ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Don't be afraid or fall into despair! Take all the people who can fight with you, set out, and go up to 'Ai; because now I have handed over to you the king of 'Ai, his people, his city and his land.

Joshua 8:2 Do to 'Ai and its king as you did to Yericho and its king; but this time, take its spoil and cattle as booty for yourselves. Ambush the city from behind."

Joshua 8:3 So Y'hoshua set out for 'Ai with all the people who could fight. Y'hoshua chose 30,000 men, the most courageous of his troops, and sent them out by night.

Joshua 8:4 He instructed them, "You are to lie in wait to ambush the city from behind. Stay close to the city; and all of you, be ready.

Joshua 8:5 I and all the troops with me will approach the city; and when they come out to attack us, as they did before, we will run away from them.

Joshua 8:6 They will chase after us until we have drawn them away from the city; because they will say, 'They're running away from us, as they did before'; so we'll run away from them.

Joshua 8:7 Then you will jump up from your ambush position and take possession of the city, for ADONAI your God will hand it over to you.

Joshua 8:8 When you have captured the city, you are to set it on fire; do according to what ADONAI has said. Those are your orders."

Joshua 8:9 Y'hoshua sent them out; and they went to the place for the ambush, staying between Beit-El and 'Ai, to the west of 'Ai; while Y'hoshua camped that night with the people.

Joshua 8:10 Y'hoshua got up early in the morning, mustered his men and went up to 'Ai ahead of the people, he and the leaders of Isra'el.

Joshua 8:11 All the troops marching with him went up, advanced, arrived in front of the city and camped on the north side of 'Ai, with a valley between him and 'Ai.

Joshua 8:12 Then he took about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Beit-El and 'Ai, to the west of 'Ai.

Joshua 8:13 Thus the people arrayed themselves, with all the army to the north of the city, and their rearguard lying in wait to the west of the city. Y'hoshua spent that night in the valley.

Joshua 8:14 The king of 'Ai saw this, so the men in the city hurried out early in the morning to battle against Isra'el, he and all his people, at a meeting-place facing the 'Aravah. But he was unaware that behind the city an ambush had been laid against him.

Joshua 8:15 Y'hoshua and all Isra'el made as if they had been defeated before them and ran off on the road to the desert.

Joshua 8:16 All the people in 'Ai were summoned together to pursue them, so they chased Y'hoshua and were drawn away from the city.

Joshua 8:17 Not a man was left in 'Ai or Beit-El who had not gone after Isra'el; pursuing Isra'el, they left the city wide open.

Joshua 8:18 Then ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Point the spear in your hand toward 'Ai, because I will hand it over to you." Y'hoshua pointed the spear in his hand toward the city.

Joshua 8:19 The men in ambush jumped up quickly from their place; the moment he stretched out his hand, they ran, entered the city and captured it; and they hurried to set the city on fire.

Joshua 8:20 When the men of 'Ai looked behind them, they saw it-there was the smoke from the city, rising to the sky; and they had no power to flee this way or that- at which point the people who had run off toward the desert turned back on the pursuers.

Joshua 8:21 When Y'hoshua and all Isra'el saw that the ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city was going up, they turned back and slaughtered the men of 'Ai;

Joshua 8:22 while the others came out of the city against them too; so that they were surrounded by Isra'el with some on this side and some on that side. They attacked them, allowing none to remain or escape.

Joshua 8:23 But they took the king of 'Ai alive and brought him to Y'hoshua.

Joshua 8:24 When Isra'el had finished slaughtering all the inhabitants of 'Ai in the countryside, in the desert where they had pursued them, and they had all fallen, consumed by the sword, then all Isra'el returned to 'Ai and defeated it with the sword.

Joshua 8:25 Twelve thousand men and women fell that day, everyone in 'Ai.

Joshua 8:26 For Y'hoshua did not withdraw his hand, which he had used to point the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of 'Ai.

Joshua 8:27 Only the livestock and the spoil of that city did Isra'el take as booty for themselves, in keeping with the order ADONAI had given Y'hoshua.

Joshua 8:28 So Y'hoshua burned down 'Ai and turned it into a [tel] forever, so that it remains a ruin to this day.

Joshua 8:29 The king of 'Ai he hanged on a tree until evening; at sundown Y'hoshua gave an order, so they took his carcass down from the tree, threw it at the entrance of the city gate and piled on it a big heap of stones, which is there to this day.

Joshua 8:30 Then Y'hoshua built an altar to ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, on Mount 'Eival,

Joshua 8:31 as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered the people of Isra'el to do (this is written in the book of the [Torah] of Moshe), an altar of uncut stones that no one had touched with an iron tool. On it they offered burnt offerings to ADONAI and sacrificed peace offerings.

Joshua 8:32 He wrote there on the stones a copy of the [Torah] of Moshe, inscribing it in the presence of the people of Isra'el.

Joshua 8:33 Then all Isra'el, including their leaders, officials and judges, stood on either side of the ark in front of the [cohanim], who were [L'vi'im] and who carried the ark for the covenant of ADONAI. The foreigners were there along with the citizens. Half of the people were in front of Mount G'rizim and half of them in front of Mount 'Eival, as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered them earlier in connection with blessing the people of Isra'el.

Joshua 8:34 After this, he read all the words of the [Torah], the blessing and the curse, according to everything written in the book of the [Torah].

Joshua 8:35 There was not a word of everything Moshe had ordered that Y’hoshua did not read before all Isra’el assembled, including the women, the little ones and the foreigners living with them.

Joshua 9:1 When all the kings on the west side of the Yarden in the hills, in the Sh’felah and all along the shore of the Great Sea that fronts the L’vanon- the Hitti, Emori, Kena’ani, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi- heard what had happened,

Joshua 9:2 they joined forces to fight together against Y’hoshua and Isra’el.

Joshua 9:3 But when the inhabitants of Giv’ah heard what Y’hoshua had done to Yericho and ‘Ai,

Joshua 9:4 they developed a clever deception: they made themselves look as if they had been on a long journey by putting old sacks on their donkeys and taking used wineskins that had burst and been mended back together.

Joshua 9:5 They put old, patched sandals on their feet and dressed in worn-out clothes; and took as provisions nothing but dried-up bread that was crumbling to pieces.

Joshua 9:6 Then they went to Y’hoshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Isra’el, “We have come from a country far away. Now, make a covenant with us.”

Joshua 9:7 The men of Isra’el said to the Hivi, “How do we know that you don’t live here among us? If you do, we don’t want to make a covenant with you.”

Joshua 9:8 But they answered Y’hoshua, “We are your servants.” Y’hoshua asked, “Who are you, and where do you come from?”

Joshua 9:9 They answered him, “Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the reputation of ADONAI your God. We have heard reports about him- everything he did in Egypt,

Joshua 9:10 and everything he did to the two kings of the Emori across the Yarden, Sichon king of Heshbon and ‘Og king of Bashan at ‘Ashtarot.

Joshua 9:11 So our leaders and all the people living in our country said to us, “Take provisions with you for the journey, go to meet them, and say to them, ‘We are your servants, and now make a covenant with us.’

Joshua 9:12 Here is the bread which we took for our provisions. It was still warm when we took it out of our homes the day we left to come to you. Now look at it! It’s dry and turned to crumbs!

Joshua 9:13 And these wineskins were new when we filled them, but look, now they're torn. Likewise these clothes of ours and our shoes are worn out because of the very long journey."

Joshua 9:14 The men sampled some of their food but didn't seek the advice of ADONAI,

Joshua 9:15 so Y'hoshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them to spare their lives, and the leading officials of the community swore to them.

Joshua 9:16 But three days later, after they had made the covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, that they lived there with them.

Joshua 9:17 The people of Isra'el traveled and arrived at their cities on the third day. Their cities were Giv'on, K'firah, Be'erot and Kiryat-Ye'arim.

Joshua 9:18 The people of Isra'el did not attack them, because the leading officials of the community had sworn to them by ADONAI, the God of Isra'el; but all the community grumbled against the leaders.

Joshua 9:19 However, the leaders replied to the whole community, "We have sworn to them by ADONAI, the God of Isra'el; so we can't touch them.

Joshua 9:20 Here is what we will do to them: we will let them live, so that God's anger will not be on us because of the oath we swore to them.

Joshua 9:21 Yes, let them live," the leaders continued, "but let them chop wood and draw water for the whole community." This is what the leaders said.

Joshua 9:22 Y'hoshua summoned them and said this to them: "Why have you deceived us by saying, 'We come from a place very far away,' when in fact you are living right here with us?

Joshua 9:23 Now you have a curse on you: you will be slaves forever, supplying people to chop wood and draw water for the house of my God."

Joshua 9:24 They answered Y'hoshua, "It is because we heard the reports that ADONAI your God had ordered his servant Moshe to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from ahead of you. So we were terrified for our lives on account of you; that's why we did this.

Joshua 9:25 Now, as you see, we are in your hands; do to us whatever seems good and right to you."

Joshua 9:26 So Y'hoshua did exactly that: he saved them from the power of the people of Isra'el, so that they didn't kill them.

Joshua 9:27 But he did that same day make them choppers of wood and drawers of water for the community and for the altar of ADONAI in the place which he would choose; and they remain so to this day.

Joshua 10:1 When Adoni-Tzedek king of Yerushalayim heard how Y'hoshua had taken 'Ai and utterly destroyed it- he had done the same to 'Ai and its king as he had done to Yericho and its king- and how the inhabitants of Giv'on had made peace with Isra'el and were living among them,

Joshua 10:2 his people became greatly alarmed; because Giv'on was as large as one of the royal cities, larger than 'Ai, and all its men were courageous.

Joshua 10:3 So Adoni-Tzedek king of Yerushalayim sent this message to Hoham king of Hevron, Pir'am king of Yarmut, Yafia king of Lakhish and D'vir king of 'Eglon:

Joshua 10:4 "Come up and help me, and we'll attack Giv'on, because it has made peace with Y'hoshua and the people of Isra'el."

Joshua 10:5 So the five kings of the Emori- the kings of Yerushalayim, Hevron, Yarmut, Lakhish and 'Eglon- got together, went up with all their armies, pitched camp against Giv'on and made war against it.

Joshua 10:6 The people of Giv'on sent a message to Y'hoshua at their camp in Gilgal that said, "Don't ignore your servants! Come up to us quickly, and save us! Help us, because all the kings of the Emori living in the hills have gotten together to fight us."

Joshua 10:7 Y'hoshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the fighting men with him, including all the bravest ones.

Joshua 10:8 ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Don't be afraid of them, for I have handed them over to you; not one of their men will stand against you."

Joshua 10:9 Having spent the entire night marching up from Gilgal, Y'hoshua fell upon them, taking them by surprise.

Joshua 10:10 ADONAI threw them into confusion before Isra'el and defeated them in a great slaughter at Giv'on, pursuing them along the road that goes up from Beit-Horon, and beating them back to 'Azekah and all the way to Makkedah.

Joshua 10:11 As they fled before Isra'el down the road to Beit-Horon, ADONAI threw huge hailstones down on them all the way to 'Azekah, and they died; more died because of the hail than because Isra'el had killed them with the sword.

Joshua 10:12 Then, on the day ADONAI handed over the Emori to the people of Isra'el, Y'hoshua spoke to [ADONA I]; in the sight of Isra'el he said, "Sun, stand motionless over Giv'on! Moon, you too, over Ayalon Valley!"

Joshua 10:13 So the sun stood still and the moon stayed put, till Isra'el took vengeance on their enemies. This is written in the book of Yashar. The sun stood still in the sky and was in no rush to set for nearly a whole day.

Joshua 10:14 There has never been a day like that before or since, when ADONAI listened to the voice of a man; it happened because ADONAI was fighting on Isra'el's behalf.

Joshua 10:15 Y'hoshua returned with all Isra'el to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 10:16 But those five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah,

Joshua 10:17 and it was reported to Y'hoshua that the five kings had been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah.

Joshua 10:18 Y'hoshua said, "Roll big stones to the mouth of the cave, and put men there to guard them.

Joshua 10:19 However, you, don't wait, but keep chasing your enemies, and attack those farthest in the rear. Don't allow them to return to their cities, because ADONAI has handed them over to you."

Joshua 10:20 After Y'hoshua and the people of Isra'el had finished killing them off in a very great slaughter, till they had been destroyed, and the remaining remnant had entered the fortified cities,

Joshua 10:21 all the people returned safely to Y'hoshua at the camp in Makkedah; and no one said a word against any of the people of Isra'el.

Joshua 10:22 Then Y'hoshua said, "Open up the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me.

Joshua 10:23 They did it; they brought the five kings out to him- the kings of Yerushalayim, Hevron, Yarmut, Lakhish and 'Eglon.

Joshua 10:24 After they had brought the five kings to Y'hoshua, he summoned all the men of Isra'el and said to the commanders of the soldiers who had gone with him, "Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings." They came and put their feet on their necks.

Joshua 10:25 Y'hoshua said to them, "Don't be afraid or confused, but be strong and bold, because this is what ADONAI will do to all your enemies that you fight against."

Joshua 10:26 With that, Y'hoshua struck them and put them to death, hanging them on five trees, where they remained hanging until evening.

Joshua 10:27 At sunset Y'hoshua gave an order, and they lowered them from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, then laid big stones at the mouth of the cave; and there they remain to this day.

Joshua 10:28 Y'hoshua captured Makkedah that day, defeating it and its king by the sword. He completely destroyed them, everyone there-he left no one; and he did to the king of Makkedah what he had done to the king of Yericho.

Joshua 10:29 Y’hoshua went on from Makkedah, and all Isra’el with him, to Livnah; and he fought against Livnah.

Joshua 10:30 ADONAI also handed it and its king over to Isra’el. He defeated it with the sword, everyone there- he left no one, and he did to its king what he had done to the king of Yericho.

Joshua 10:31 Y’hoshua went on from Livnah, and all Isra’el with him, to Lakhish; and he pitched camp against it and fought against it.

Joshua 10:32 ADONAI handed it over to Isra’el; he captured it the second day. He defeated it with the sword, everyone there, exactly as he had done to Livnah.

Joshua 10:33 But then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lakhish; so Y’hoshua attacked him and his people, until he had no one left with him.

Joshua 10:34 Y’hoshua went on from Lakhish, and all Isra’el with him, to ‘Eglon; and he pitched camp against it and fought against it.

Joshua 10:35 They captured it that very day. He defeated it with the sword, completely destroying everyone there, exactly as he had done to Lakhish.

Joshua 10:36 Y’hoshua went up from ‘Eglon, and all Isra’el with him, to Hevron; and they fought against it.

Joshua 10:37 They captured it, defeating it with the sword, including its king, its villages and everyone there; he left no one, exactly as he had done to ‘Eglon; but he completely destroyed it and everyone there.

Joshua 10:38 Y’hoshua turned back, and all Isra’el with him, to D’vir and fought against it.

Joshua 10:39 They captured it, its king and all its villages, defeating them with the sword and utterly destroying everyone there; he left no one. He did to D’vir and it king as he had done to Hevron and as he had done to Livnah and its king.

Joshua 10:40 So Y’hoshua attacked all the land- the hills, the Negev, the Sh’felah and the mountain slopes- and all their kings; he left none but completely destroyed everything that breathed, as ADONAI the God of Isra’el had ordered.

Joshua 10:41 Y’hoshua attacked them from Kadesh-Barnea to ‘Azah and all the land of Goshen, as far as Giv’on.

Joshua 10:42 Y’hoshua captured all these kings and their land all at the same time, because ADONAI the God of Isra’el fought on Isra’el’s behalf.

Joshua 10:43 Then Y'hoshua returned, and all Isra'el with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11:1 When Yavin king of Hatzor heard of it, he informed Yovav king of Madon; the king of Shimron; the king of Akhshaf;

Joshua 11:2 the kings to the north, in the hills, in the 'Aravah south of Kinn'rot, in the Sh'felah and in the regions of Dor on the west;

Joshua 11:3 the Kena'ani to east and west; the Emori, Hitti, P'rizi and Y'vusi in the hills; and the Hivi at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mitzpah.

Joshua 11:4 So they set out, they and all their armies, many people, in number like the sand at the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.

Joshua 11:5 All these kings met together, then came and pitched camp together at the Merom Spring, to fight Isra'el.

Joshua 11:6 ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Don't be afraid on their account; because at this time tomorrow I will hand them over, all of them dead, before Isra'el. You are to hamstring their horses and burn up their chariots."

Joshua 11:7 So Y'hoshua came against them suddenly with all his fighting men and fell on them at the Merom Spring.

Joshua 11:8 ADONAI handed them over to Isra'el- they attacked and chased them to Greater Tzidon, Misrefot-Mayim and eastward to the Mitzpeh Valley; they attacked them until none of them was left.

Joshua 11:9 Y'hoshua did to them what ADONAI had ordered- he hamstrung their horses and burned up their chariots.

Joshua 11:10 Then Y'hoshua turned back and captured Hatzor, striking its king dead with the sword; for in time past Hatzor had been the head of all those kingdoms.

Joshua 11:11 They put everyone there to death with the sword, completely destroying them; there was nothing left that breathed; and he burned Hatzor to the ground.

Joshua 11:12 Y'hoshua captured all the cities of those kings and the kings as well; he defeated them with the sword and completely destroyed them, as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered.

Joshua 11:13 But as for the cities built on their [tel]s, Isra'el burned none of them except Hatzor; Y'hoshua did burn that one.

Joshua 11:14 All the spoil of these cities and the livestock the people of Isra'el took as booty for themselves; but every human being they put to death with the sword, until they had destroyed them- they left no one breathing.

Joshua 11:15 Moshe had given orders to Y'hoshua, just as ADONAI had given orders to Moshe his servant, and Y'hoshua acted accordingly- he did everything ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Joshua 11:16 So Y'hoshua captured all that land, the hills, the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the Sh'felah, the 'Aravah and the Isra'el hills and Sh'felah,

Joshua 11:17 from the bare mountain that goes up to Se'ir to Ba'al-Gad in the L'vanon Valley under Mount Hermon; and he took all their kings, struck them and put them to death.

Joshua 11:18 Y'hoshua made war with all those kings for a long time.

Joshua 11:19 Not one city made peace with the people of Isra'el, except for the Hivi living in Giv'on; they took everything in battle.

Joshua 11:20 For it was ADONAI who caused them to harden their hearts and come against Isra'el in battle, so that they would be utterly destroyed, so that they would not find favor but be destroyed, in keeping with the orders ADONAI had given Moshe.

Joshua 11:21 Y'hoshua at that time came and cut off the 'Anakim from the land- from Hevron, D'vir, 'Anav and from all the hill-country of Y'hudah and Isra'el; Y'hoshua utterly destroyed them and their cities.

Joshua 11:22 No 'Anakim were left in the land of the people of Isra'el- only in 'Azah, Gat and Ashdod did some remain.

Joshua 11:23 Y'hoshua took the whole land, in keeping with all that ADONAI had said to Moshe and to Isra'el according to their divisions into tribes. Then the land rested from war.

Joshua 12:1 These are the kings of the land whom the people of Isra'el defeated and of whose land they took possession, across the Yarden toward the east, from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon and all the 'Aravah eastward:

Joshua 12:2 Sichon king of the Emori, who lived in Heshbon and ruled the territory that includes 'Aro'er, at the edge of the Arnon Valley; the middle of the valley; half of Gil'ad, to the Yabok River, which forms the border with the people of 'Amon;

Joshua 12:3 the 'Aravah to Lake Kinneret eastward and to the sea of the 'Aravah, the Dead Sea, eastward by way of Beit-Yeshimot and on the south under the slopes of Pisgah.

Joshua 12:4 There was also the territory of 'Og king of Bashan, who belonged to the remnant of the Refa'im. He lived at 'Ashtarot and at Edre'i;

Joshua 12:5 and he ruled Mount Hermon; Salkhah; all Bashan, to the border with the G'shuri and the Ma'akhati; and half of Gil'ad, to its border with Sichon king of Heshbon.

Joshua 12:6 Moshe the servant of ADONAI, with the people of Isra’el, defeated them; and Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave it to the Re’uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M’nasheh as their possession.

Joshua 12:7 Following are the kings of the land whom Y’hoshua, with the people of Isra’el, defeated in the area west of the Yarden, between Ba’al-Gad in the L’vanon Valley and the bare mountain that goes up to Se’ir. Y’hoshua gave this land, inhabited by the Hitti, Emori, Kena’ani, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi, to the tribes of Isra’el to possess, according to their divisions, in the hills, the Sh’felah, the ‘Aravah, the mountain slopes, the desert and the Negev:

Joshua 12:8

Joshua 12:9 the king of Yericho, the king of ‘Ai, by Beit-El,

Joshua 12:10 the king of Yerushalayim, the king of Hevron,

Joshua 12:11 the king of Yarmut, the king of Lakhish,

Joshua 12:12 the king of ‘Eglon, the king of Gezer,

Joshua 12:13 the king of D’vir, the king of Geder,

Joshua 12:14 the king of Hormah, the king of ‘Arad,

Joshua 12:15 the king of Livnah, the king of ‘Adulam,

Joshua 12:16 the king of Makkedah, the king of Beit-El,

Joshua 12:17 the king of Tapuach, the king of Hefer,

Joshua 12:18 the king of Afek, the king of Sharon,

Joshua 12:19 the king of Madon, the king of Hatzor,

Joshua 12:20 the king of Shimron-M’ron, the king of Akhshaf,

Joshua 12:21 the king of Ta’anakh, the king of Megiddo,

Joshua 12:22 the king of Kedesh, the king of Yokne’am in Karmel,

Joshua 12:23 the king of Dor in the region of Dor, the king of Goyim in the Gilgal, and Joshua 12:24 the king of Tirtzah- making a total of thirty-one kings.

Joshua 13:1 Now Y’hoshua was old; the years had taken their toll. ADONAI said to him, “You are old, and the years have taken their toll; but there is yet a great deal of land to be possessed.

Joshua 13:2 “This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the P’lishtim and all the G’shuri,

Joshua 13:3 from the Shichor which fronts Egypt, to the border of ‘Ekron (northward from there the land is considered as belonging to the Kena’ani)- that is, the territory of the rulers of the P’lishtim in ‘Azah, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gat and ‘Ekron; also the ‘Avim

Joshua 13:4 to the south; all the land of the Kena’ani; Me’arah, which belongs to the Tzidonim, as far as Afek and on to the border with the Emori;

Joshua 13:5 the land of the Givli; all the L'vanon eastward, from Ba'al-Gad at the foot of Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamat.

Joshua 13:6 "As for the inhabitants of the hills between the L'vanon and Misrefot-Mayim, that is, all the Tzidonim, I myself will expel them ahead of the people of Isra'el; all you have to do is assign it to Isra'el as an inheritance, as I have ordered you.

Joshua 13:7 So now, divide this land as an inheritance for the nine tribes and the half-tribe of M'nasheh."

Joshua 13:8 With the half-tribe of M'nasheh, the Re'uveni and the Gadi received their inheritance, which Moshe had given them, beyond the Yarden eastward, just as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had given them-

Joshua 13:9 from 'Aro'er on the edge of the Arnon Valley, the city in the middle of the valley, all the plateau between Meidva and Divon,

Joshua 13:10 and all the cities of Sichon king of the Emori who ruled in Heshbon to the border with the people of 'Amon;

Joshua 13:11 and Gil'ad, the territory of the G'shuri and Ma'akhati, all Mount Hermon, all Bashan as far as Salkhah-

Joshua 13:12 that is, all the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan, who ruled in 'Ashtarot and Edre'i. 'Og was one of those remaining from the Refa'im, whom Moshe defeated and expelled.

Joshua 13:13 However, the people of Isra'el expelled neither the G'shuri nor the Ma'akhati, with the consequence that G'shur and Ma'akhat have lived among Isra'el to this day.

Joshua 13:14 Only to the tribe of Levi did Moshe give no inheritance; because the offerings made by fire for ADONAI the God of Isra'el are its inheritance; as [[ADONAI]] had said to Moshe.

Joshua 13:15 Moshe gave land to the tribe of the descendants of Re'uven by clans.

Joshua 13:16 Their territory included 'Aro'er on the edge of the Arnon Valley, the city in the middle of the valley, all the plateau near Meidva,

Joshua 13:17 Heshbon and its villages on the plateau, Divon, Bamot-Ba'al, Beit-Ba'al-M'on,

Joshua 13:18 Yahatz, K'demot, Mefa'at,

Joshua 13:19 Kiryatayim, Sivmah, Tzeret-Shachar at the top of the valley,

Joshua 13:20 Beit-P'or, the slopes of Pisgah, Beit-Yeshimot,

Joshua 13:21 all the cities of the plateau- all the kingdom of Sichon king of the Emori, who ruled in Heshbon. Moshe defeated him with the chiefs of Midyan, along with Evi, Rekem, Tzur, Hur and Reva the princes of Sichon who lived in the land.

Joshua 13:22 Along with the others the people of Isra'el killed with the sword, they also struck down Bil'am the son of B'or, who practiced divination.

Joshua 13:23 The Yarden formed the border for the descendants of Re'uven. This was the inheritance of the descendants of Re'uven by clans, with its cities and villages.

Joshua 13:24 Moshe gave land to the tribe of the Gad, to the descendants of Gad by clans.

Joshua 13:25 Their territory included Ya'zer; all the cities of Gil'ad; half the land of the people of 'Amon, as far as 'Aro'er fronting Rabbah-

Joshua 13:26 that is, from Heshbon to Ramot-Mitzpeh and B'tonim; and from Machanayim to the border of Lidvir;

Joshua 13:27 while in the valley it included Beit-Haram, Beit-Nimrah, Sukkot and Tzafon- in other words, the rest of the kingdom of Sichon king of Heshbon; with the Yarden to the far end of Lake Kinneret as its border, their territory extended eastward.

Joshua 13:28 This is the inheritance of the descendants of Gad by clans, with its cities and villages.

Joshua 13:29 Moshe gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of the M'nasheh; it was for the half-tribe of the descendants of M'nasheh by clans.

Joshua 13:30 Their territory included Machanayim and all of Bashan- that is, all the kingdom of 'Og king of Bashan; all the villages of Ya'ir in Bashan, sixty cities;

Joshua 13:31 half of Gil'ad; and 'Ashtarot and Edre'i, the cities of the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan. All this was for the descendants of Makhir the son of M'nasheh, or, rather, for half of the descendants of Makhir, by clans.

Joshua 13:32 These are the inheritances which Moshe distributed in the plains of Mo'av, beyond the Yarden and Yericho, eastward.

Joshua 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi Moshe gave no inheritance; ADONAI the God of Isra'el is their inheritance- as he told them.

Joshua 14:1 These are the inheritances which the people of Isra'el took in the land of Kena'an, which El'azar the [cohen], Y'hoshua the son of Nun and the heads of the ancestral clans of the tribes of the people of Isra'el distributed to them

Joshua 14:2 by lot for them to inherit, as ADONAI ordered through Moshe, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

Joshua 14:3 Moshe had already given the inheritances to the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Yarden; to the [L'vi'im] he gave no inheritance among them.

Joshua 14:4 The descendants of Yosef constituted two tribes, M’nasheh and Efrayim; and they gave no portion of the land to the [L’vi’im] except cities to live in, with the open land surrounding them for their livestock and crops.

Joshua 14:5 As ADONAI had ordered Moshe, so the people of Isra’el did- they divided the land.

Joshua 14:6 The descendants of Y’hudah approached Y’hoshua in Gilgal, and Kalev the son of Y’funeh the K’nizi said to him, “You know what ADONAI told Moshe the man of God about me and you in Kadesh-Barnea.

Joshua 14:7 I was forty years old when Moshe the servant of ADONAI sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to reconnoiter the land, and I brought back to him an honest report.

Joshua 14:8 My brothers who went up with me discouraged the people, but I followed ADONAI my God completely.

Joshua 14:9 On that day Moshe swore, ‘Surely the land where your foot has been will be the inheritance for you and your descendants forever, because you have followed ADONAI my God completely.’

Joshua 14:10 Now, look: ADONAI has kept me alive these forty-five years, as he said he would, from the time ADONAI said this to Moshe, when Isra’el was going through the desert. Today I am eighty-five years old,

Joshua 14:11 but I am as strong today as on the day Moshe sent me- I’m as strong now as I was then, whether for war or simply for going here and there.

Joshua 14:12 Therefore, give me this hill, the one ADONAI spoke about on that day; for on that day you heard how the ‘Anakim were there with great, fortified cities; perhaps ADONAI will be with me, and I will drive them away, as ADONAI said.”

Joshua 14:13 Y’hoshua blessed him and gave Hevron to Kalev the son of Y’funeh as his inheritance.

Joshua 14:14 So Hevron became the inheritance of Kalev the son of Y’funeh the K’nizi, as it is to this day; because he followed ADONAI the God of Isra’el completely.

Joshua 14:15 (Hevron was formerly called Kiryat-Arba; this Arba was the greatest man among the ‘Anakim.) Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15:1 The territory chosen by lot for the tribe of the descendants of Y’hudah according to their families extended to the border of Edom in the Tzin Desert, toward the Negev in the far south.

Joshua 15:2 Their southern border began at the far shore of the Dead Sea, from the bay facing southward, Joshua 15:3 and went out south of the Scorpion Ascent, passed toward Tzin, went up south of Kadesh-Barnea, passed Hetzron, went up toward Adar, turned toward Karka,

Joshua 15:4 passed toward ‘Atzmon, and went out at the [Vadi] of Egypt, with the border ending at the sea; this will be your southern border.

Joshua 15:5 The eastern border was the Dead Sea to where the Yarden entered it. The northern border began at the bay of the sea at the end of the Yarden;

Joshua 15:6 then the border went up to Beit-Hoglah and passed north of Beit-’Aravah; next the border went up to the Stone of Bohan the son of Re’uven;

Joshua 15:7 then the border went up to D’vir from the Akhor Valley, then northward facing Gilgal (that is, across from Ma’alei-Adumim, which is on the south side of the [vadi]); next the border passed to the ‘Ein-Shemesh Spring and went out at ‘Ein-Rogel.

Joshua 15:8 Then the border went up the Ben-Hinnom Valley to the south side of the Y’vusi (that is, Yerushalayim), and the border continued up to the top of the hill in front of the Hinnom Valley on the west (which is also at the northernmost end of the Refa’im Valley)

Joshua 15:9 From this hilltop the border was drawn to the source of the Neftoach Spring and continued out to the cities of Mount ‘Efron; next the border was drawn to Ba’alah (that is, Kiryat-Ye’arim).

Joshua 15:10 Then the border turned from Ba’al westward to Mount Se’ir, passed the spur of Mount Ye’arim (also called K’salon) on the north, went down to Beit-Shemesh and passed Timnah.

Joshua 15:11 Next the border went out toward the side of ‘Ekron northward; and finally, the border was drawn to Shikron, passed Mount Ba’alah, and went out at Yavne’el, with the border ending at the sea.

Joshua 15:12 As for the west border, the Great Sea was its border. These were the borders of the territory of the descendants of Y’hudah, by clans.

Joshua 15:13 To Kalev the son of Y’funeh he gave a portion with the descendants of Y’hudah, as ADONAI had ordered Y’hoshua, namely, Kiryat-Arba (Arba was the father of the ‘Anak), also called Hevron.

Joshua 15:14 Kalev expelled from there three descendants of ‘Anak-Sheshai, Achiman and Talmai, children of ‘Anak.

Joshua 15:15 From there he went up to fight the inhabitants of D’vir (D’vir was formerly called Kiryat-Sefer).

Joshua 15:16 Kalev said, “To whoever overpowers Kiryat-Sefer and captures it I will give my daughter Akhsah as his wife.”

Joshua 15:17 ‘Otni’el the son of K’naz, Kalev’s brother, captured it; so he gave him ‘Akhsah his daughter as his wife.

Joshua 15:18 After becoming his wife, she persuaded him to ask her father to give them a field; when she got off her donkey, Kalev asked her, “What do you want?”

Joshua 15:19 She said to him: “Give me a blessing: since you gave me land in the Negev, also give me sources of water.” So Kalev gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

Joshua 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Y’hudah, by clans.

Joshua 15:21 The cities at the outer part of the tribe of Y’hudah toward the border with Edom in the south were: Kavtze’el, ‘Eder, Yagur,

Joshua 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, ‘Ad’adah,

Joshua 15:23 Kedesh, Hatzor, Yitnan,

Joshua 15:24 Zif, Telem, Be’alot,

Joshua 15:25 Hatzor, Hadatah, K’riot, Hetzron (which is Hatzor),

Joshua 15:26 Amam, Sh’ma, Moladah,

Joshua 15:27 Hatzar-Gadah, Heshmon, Beit-Pelet,

Joshua 15:28 Hatzar-Shu’al, Be’er-Sheva, Bizyot-Yah,

Joshua 15:29 Ba’alah, ‘Iyim, ‘Etzem,

Joshua 15:30 El-Tolad, K’sil, Hormah,

Joshua 15:31 Ziklag, Madmanah, Sansanah,

Joshua 15:32 L’va’ot, Shilchim, ‘Ayin and Rimmon- twenty-nine cities in all, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:33 In the Sh’felah: Eshta’ol, Tzor’ah, Ashnah,

Joshua 15:34 Zanoach, ‘Ein-Ganim, Tapuach, ‘Enam,

Joshua 15:35 Yarmut, ‘Adulam, Sokhoh, ‘Azekah,

Joshua 15:36 Sh’arim, ‘Aditayim, G’derah and G’derotayim- fourteen cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:37 Tz’nan, Hadashah, Migdal-Gad,

Joshua 15:38 Dil’an, Mitzpeh, Yokte’el,

Joshua 15:39 Lakhish, Bozkat, ‘Eglon,

Joshua 15:40 Kabon, Lachmas, Kitlish,

Joshua 15:41 G’derot, Beit-Dagon, Na’amah and Makkedah- sixteen cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:42 Livnah, ‘Eter, ‘Ashan,

Joshua 15:43 Yiftach, Ashnah, N’tziv,

Joshua 15:44 Ke’ilah, Akhziv and Mareshah- nine cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:45 ‘Ekron, with its towns and villages-

Joshua 15:46 from ‘Ekron to the sea; all those near Ashdod, with their villages;

Joshua 15:47 Ashdod, with its towns and villages; ‘Azah, with its towns and villages, to the [Vadi] of Egypt, with the Great Sea as its border.

Joshua 15:48 In the hills: Shamir, Yatir, Sokhoh,

Joshua 15:49 Danah, Kiryat-Sanna (that is, D’vir),

Joshua 15:50 ‘Anav, Esht’moh, ‘Anim,

Joshua 15:51 Goshen, Holon and Giloh- eleven cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:52 Arav, Dumah, Esh’an,

Joshua 15:53 Yanum, Beit-Tapuach, Afekah,

Joshua 15:54 Humtah, Kiryat-Arba (that is, Hevron) and Tzi’or- nine cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:55 Ma’on, Karmel, Zif, Yutah,

Joshua 15:56 Yizre’el, Yokde’am, Zanoach,

Joshua 15:57 Kayin, Giv’ah and Timnah- ten cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:58 Halchul, Beit-Tzur, G’dor,

Joshua 15:59 Ma’arat, Beit-’Anot, Elt’kon- six cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:60 Kiryat-Ba’al (that is, Kiryat-Ye’arim) and Rabbah- two cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:61 In the desert: Beit-’Aravah, Middin, S’khakhah,

Joshua 15:62 Nivshan, ‘Ir-Hamelach and ‘Ein-Gedi- six cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 15:63 As for the Y’vusi, who lived in Yerushalayim, the descendants of Y’hudah could not drive them out; so the Y’vusi live with the descendants of Y’hudah in Yerushalayim to this day.

Joshua 16:1 The border of the territory chosen by lot for the descendants of Yosef began from the Yarden at Yericho, at the spring of Yericho on the east, went up from Yericho through the hills and desert to Beit-El,

Joshua 16:2 went out from Beit-El to Luz, passed on to the border with the Arki to ‘Atarot,

Joshua 16:3 went down westward to the border with the Yafleti, to the border of Lower Beit-Horon, on to Gezer and ending at the sea.

Joshua 16:4 So the descendants of Yosef, M’nasheh and Efrayim took the inheritance.

Joshua 16:5 The border of the descendants of Efrayim according to their families was as follows: the eastern border of their inheritance began at ‘Atrot-Adar and went to Upper Beit-Horon;

Joshua 16:6 then the border extended westward, with Mikhm'tat on the north; next the border turned eastward to Ta'anat-Shiloh and passed by it to the east of Yanochah;

Joshua 16:7 then it went down from Yanochah to 'Atarot, went to Na'arah, extended to Yericho and ended at the Yarden.

Joshua 16:8 From Tapuach the border went westward to [Vadi] Kanah and ended at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Efrayim according to their families,

Joshua 16:9 together with the cities set aside for the descendants of Efrayim inside the territory to be inherited by the descendants of M'nasheh, all the cities with their villages.

Joshua 16:10 They did not drive out the Kena'ani living in Gezer, so the Kena'ani live together with Efrayim to this day, having become slaves to do the heavy work.

Joshua 17:1 This was the territory chosen by lot for the tribe of M'nasheh, for he was the firstborn of Yosef. As for Makhir the firstborn of M'nasheh, the father of Gil'ad, because he was a warrior he got Gil'ad and Bashan.

Joshua 17:2 So the lot was drawn for the other descendants of M'nasheh according to their families- for the descendants of Avi'ezer, Helek, Asri'el, Sh'khem, Hefer and Sh'mida; these were the male descendants of M'nasheh according to their families.

Joshua 17:3 But Tz'lof'chad the son of Hefer, the son of Gil'ad, the son of Makhir, the son of M'nasheh, had no sons, only daughters; these are the names of his daughters: Machlah, No'ah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah.

Joshua 17:4 They approached El'azar the [cohen], Y'hoshua the son of Nun and the leaders and said, "ADONAI ordered Moshe to give us an inheritance together with our kinsmen." Therefore, in keeping with ADONAI's order, he gave them an inheritance together with the kinsmen of their father.

Joshua 17:5 Thus ten parts fell to M'nasheh, in addition to the land of Gil'ad and Bashan beyond the Yarden,

Joshua 17:6 because the daughters of M'nasheh had an inheritance along with his descendants; but the land of Gil'ad belonged to the rest of the descendants of M'nasheh.

Joshua 17:7 The border of M'nasheh began at Asher and went to Mikhm'tat, which is across from Sh'khem; next the border went along to the right, to the people of 'Ein-Tapuach.

Joshua 17:8 The land of Tapuach belonged to M'nasheh, but Tapuach on the border of M'nasheh belonged to the descendants of Efrayim.

Joshua 17:9 The border descended to [Vadi] Kanah, south of the [vadi], by cities which belonged to Efrayim among the cities of M’nasheh; but the border with M’nasheh was on the north side of the [vadi], and it ended at the sea.

Joshua 17:10 Southward it was Efrayim’s, northward it was M’nasheh’s, and the sea was its border; while to the north they extended to Asher, and on the east to Yissakhar.

Joshua 17:11 In Asher and Yissakhar, M’nasheh had Beit-Sh’an and its villages; Yivle’am and its villages; and the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, of ‘Ein-Dor and its villages, of Ta’anakh and its villages, and of Megiddo and its villages- three districts in all.

Joshua 17:12 But the descendants of M’nasheh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; the Kena’ani wanted to stay in that land.

Joshua 17:13 After the people of Isra’el had become strong, they made the Kena’ani do heavy labor but didn’t completely drive them out.

Joshua 17:14 Then the descendants of Yosef spoke to Y’hoshua; they said, “Why have you given me only one lot and only one portion to inherit? After all, I am a great people, since ADONAI has blessed me so.”

Joshua 17:15 Y’hoshua answered them, “If you are a great people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the territory of the P’rizi and the Refa’im- since the hills of Efrayim don’t give you enough space.”

Joshua 17:16 The descendants of Yosef replied, “The hills won’t be enough for us; and all the Kena’ani living in the valleys have iron chariots- both those in Beit-Sh’an and its villages and those in the Yizre’el Valley.”

Joshua 17:17 Then Y’hoshua said to the house of Yosef, to both Efrayim and M’nasheh, “You are a great people with much power; you will not have only one lot, Joshua 17:18 but the hills too will be yours. Although it is a forest, you will clear it, and the resulting open land will be yours. You will drive out the Kena’ani, even though they have iron chariots and are strong.”

Joshua 18:1 The entire community of the people of Isra’el assembled themselves together at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there, after the land had been subdued before them.

Joshua 18:2 There still remained among the people of Isra’el seven tribes that had not yet received their inheritance.

Joshua 18:3 Y’hoshua said to the people of Isra’el, “How long will you delay going in to take possession of the land which ADONAI the God of your ancestors has given you?

Joshua 18:4 Appoint three men for each tribe; I will commission them; and they are to set out, go through the land and describe it according to their inheritance; then they are to come back to me.

Joshua 18:5 They are to divide it into seven portions, with Y'hudah remaining in its territory to the south and the house of Yosef in their territory to the north.

Joshua 18:6 You will describe seven portions of land and bring the descriptions here to me; then I will cast lots for you here before ADONAI our God.

Joshua 18:7 But the [L'vi'im] have no share with you, because the office of [cohen] to ADONAI is their inheritance; and Gad and Re'uven and the half-tribe of M'nasheh have received their inheritance beyond the Yarden to the east, which Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave them."

Joshua 18:8 So the men got up and went. Y'hoshua gave them this commission as they left to describe the land: "Go; walk through the land; and describe it; then come back to me, and I will cast lots for you here before ADONAI in Shiloh."

Joshua 18:9 The men went and passed through the land, surveying it by cities, dividing it into seven regions and writing the results on a scroll. Then they came to Y'hoshua in the camp at Shiloh.

Joshua 18:10 Y'hoshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before ADONAI, and there Y'hoshua divided the land among the people of Isra'el according to their regions.

Joshua 18:11 The lot for the tribe of the descendants of Binyamin came up according to their families. The border of their territory chosen by lot was between the descendants of Y'hudah and the descendants of Yosef.

Joshua 18:12 On the north side, their border began at the Yarden, went up alongside Yericho on the north, continued up through the hills westward and arrived at the Beit-Aven Desert.

Joshua 18:13 From there the border passed on to Luz, to the south side of Luz (that is, Beit-El); then the border went down to 'Atrot-Adar, by the hill on the south side of Lower Beit-Horon.

Joshua 18:14 The border was delineated as turning at the western corner and heading southward, from the hill located in front of Beit-Horon on the south; and it ended at Kiryat-Ba'al (that is, Kiryat-Ye'arim), a city belonging to the descendants of Y'hudah; this was the west side.

Joshua 18:15 On the south the border extended westward from the most distant part of Kiryat-Ye'arim, going out to the source of the Neftoach Spring.

Joshua 18:16 Then the border went down to the farthest part of the hill located in front of the Ben-Hinnom Valley, north of the Refa'im Valley, south of the Y'vusi; and continued down to 'Ein-Rogel,

Joshua 18:17 where it was drawn to the north; then it went on to 'Ein-Shemesh; continued to G'lilot, which is across from Ma'alei-Adumim; went down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Re'uven;

Joshua 18:18 passed alongside the ‘Aravah, heading north; and went down to the ‘Aravah.

Joshua 18:19 Then the border passed alongside Beit-Hoglah, heading north; and the border ended at the north bay of the Dead Sea, at the south end of the Yarden; this was the south border.

Joshua 18:20 The Yarden was to be its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the descendants of Binyamin, defined by its surrounding borders, according to their families.

Joshua 18:21 The cities of the tribe of the descendants of Binyamin according to their families were: Yericho, Beit-Hoglah, ‘Emek-K’tzitz,

Joshua 18:22 Beit-’Aravah, Tz’marayim, Beit-El,

Joshua 18:23 ‘Avim, Parah, ‘Ofrah,

Joshua 18:24 K’far-Ha’amonah, ‘Ofni and Geva- twelve cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 18:25 Giv’on, Ramah, Be’erot,

Joshua 18:26 Mitzpeh, K’firah, Motzah,

Joshua 18:27 Rekem, Yirpe’el, Tar’alah,

Joshua 18:28 Tzela, Elef, Y’vusi (that is, Yerushalayim), Giv’at and Kiryat- fourteen cities, together with their villages. This is the inheritance of the descendants of Binyamin according to their families.

Joshua 19:1 The second lot came out for Shim’on, for the tribe of the descendants of Shim’on according to their families. Their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the descendants of Y’hudah.

Joshua 19:2 For their inheritance they had Be’er-Sheva, Sheva, Moladah,

Joshua 19:3 Hatzar-Shu’al, Balah, ‘Etzem,

Joshua 19:4 El-Tolad, B’tul, Hormah,

Joshua 19:5 Ziklag, Beit-Markavot, Hatzar-Susah,

Joshua 19:6 Beit-L’va’ot and Sharuchen- thirteen cities, together with their villages;

Joshua 19:7 ‘Ayin, Rimmon, ‘Eter and ‘Ashan- four cities, together with their villages;

Joshua 19:8 and all the villages surrounding these cities, as far as Ba’alat-Be’er, Ramah of the Negev. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Shim’on according to their families.

Joshua 19:9 The inheritance of the descendants of Shim’on was taken out of the allotment for the descendants of Y’hudah, because the portion given to the descendants of Y’hudah was too much for them, so the descendants of Shim’on had an inheritance inside the descendants of Y’hudah.

Joshua 19:10 The third lot came up for the descendants of Z’vulun according to their families. The border of their inheritance began at Sarid.

Joshua 19:11 Then their border went up westward to Mar’alah, extended to Dabeshet and on to the [vadi] fronting Yokne’am.

Joshua 19:12 Also from Sarid it turned toward the sunrise to the east to the border of Kislot-Tavor, went on to Dovrat and up to Yafia.

Joshua 19:13 From there it passed eastward to Gat-Hefer, on to ‘Et-Katzin, went out at Rimmon and reached to Ne’ah.

Joshua 19:14 Then the border turned on the north side to Hanaton, ending in the Yiftach’el Valley.

Joshua 19:15 Also Katat, Nahalal, Shimron, Yid’alah and Beit-Lechem- twelve cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 19:16 This is the inheritance of the descendants of Z’vulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Yissakhar, for the descendants of Yissakhar according to their families.

Joshua 19:18 Their territory included Yizre’el, K’sulot, Shunem,

Joshua 19:19 Hafarayim, Shi’on, Anacharat,

Joshua 19:20 Rabit, Kishyon, Evetz,

Joshua 19:21 Remet, ‘Ein-Ganim, ‘Ein-Hadah and Beit-Patzetz.

Joshua 19:22 Their territory extended to Tavor, Shachatzimah and Beit-Shemesh; and their territory ended at the Yarden- sixteen cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 19:23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Yissakhar according to their families, the cities, with their villages.

Joshua 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the descendants of Asher according to their families.

Joshua 19:25 Their territory included Helkat, Hali, Beten, Akhshaf, Joshua 19:26 Alamelekh, ‘Am’ad and Mish’al. It extended to the Karmel on the west and to Shichor-Livnat.

Joshua 19:27 The border turned eastward to Beit-Dagon, reached to Z’vulun and the Yiftach’el Valley on its north, then Beit-’Emek and Ne’i’el, went out to Kavul on the left, Joshua 19:28 then ‘Evron, Rechov, Hamon, Kanah and on to greater Tzidon.

Joshua 19:29 The border turned toward Ramah and the fortified city of Tzor; next the border turned to Hosah; and it ended at the sea from Hevel to Akhziv.

Joshua 19:30 Also included were ‘Umah, Afek and Rechov- twenty cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 19:31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:32 The sixth lot came out for the descendants of Naftali, for the descendants of Naftali according to their families.

Joshua 19:33 Their border went from Helef and the oak in Tza’ananim, included Adami-Nekev and Yavne’el, went on to Lakum and ended at the Yarden.

Joshua 19:34 Westward the border turned to Aznot-Tavor and went out from there to Hukok, reaching to Z’vulun on the south, Asher on the west and Y’hudah at the Yarden toward the east.

Joshua 19:35 The fortified cities were Tzidim, Tzer, Hamat, Rakat, Kinneret,

Joshua 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hatzor,

Joshua 19:37 Kedesh, Edre’i, ‘Ein-Hatzor,

Joshua 19:38 Yir’on, Migdal-El, Horem, Beit-’Anat and Beit-Shemesh- nineteen cities, together with their villages.

Joshua 19:39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Naftali according to their families, the cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the descendants of Dan according to their families.

Joshua 19:41 The territory of their inheritance included Tzor’ah, Eshta’ol, ‘Ir-Shemesh,

Joshua 19:42 Sha’alabin, Ayalon, Yitlah,

Joshua 19:43 Eilon, Timnah, ‘Ekron,

Joshua 19:44 Elt’keh, Gib’ton, Ba’alat,

Joshua 19:45 Y’hud, B’nei-Brak, Gat-Rimmon,

Joshua 19:46 Yarkon Springs and Rakon, with the border fronting Yafo.

Joshua 19:47 The territory of the descendants of Dan was too small for them, so the descendants of Dan went up and fought against Leshem, captured it, defeated it by the sword, took possession of it and lived there, calling Leshem “Dan” after Dan their ancestor.

Joshua 19:48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:49 When they had finished distributing the land for inheritance according to its borders, the people of Isra’el gave an inheritance within their territory to Y’hoshua the son of Nun.

Joshua 19:50 According to ADONAI’s order they gave him the city he had asked for, Timnat-Serach in the hills of Efrayim; so he built up the city and lived in it.

Joshua 19:51 These are the inheritances which El’azar the [cohen], Y’hoshua the son of Nun and the leaders of the ancestral clans of the tribes of the people of Isra’el distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before ADONAI at the door of the tent of meeting. Thus they finished dividing up the land.

Joshua 20:1 ADONAI said to Y’hoshua,

Joshua 20:2 “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘Select the cities of refuge about which I spoke to you through Moshe;

Joshua 20:3 so that anyone who kills someone by mistake and unknowingly may escape there; they will serve as refuges for you from the next-of-kin avenger.

Joshua 20:4 He is to flee to one of those cities, stand at the entrance to the city gate and state his cause to the city leaders. Then they will bring him into the city with them and give him a place, so that he may live among them.

Joshua 20:5 If the next-of-kin avenger pursues him, they are not to hand over the killer to him; because he struck his fellow community member unknowingly and had not hated him previously.

Joshua 20:6 So he will live in that city until he stands trial before the community, until the death of the [cohen hagadol] who is in office at the time. When that time comes, the killer may return to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.’“

Joshua 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in the Galil, in the hills of Naftali; Sh’khem in the hills of Efrayim; and Kiryat-Arba (that is, Hevron) in the hills of Y’hudah.

Joshua 20:8 Beyond the Yarden east of Yericho they selected Betzer in the desert, on the plateau, out of the tribe of Re’uven; Ramot in Gil’ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of M’nasheh.

Joshua 20:9 These were the cities selected for all the people of Isra’el and for the foreigner living among them, so that anyone who kills any person by mistake could flee there and not die at the hand of the next-of-kin avenger prior to standing trial before the community.

Joshua 21:1 Then the leaders of the ancestral clans of the [L’vi’im] approached El’azar the [cohen], Y’hoshua the son of Nun and the leaders of the ancestral clans of the tribes of the people of Isra’el.

Joshua 21:2 It was at Shiloh in the land of Kena’an that they spoke to them; they said, “ADONAI ordered through Moshe that we be given cities to live in, with the surrounding open land for our livestock.”

Joshua 21:3 So out of their inheritance the people of Isra’el gave the [L’vi’im] the following cities with the surrounding open land:

Joshua 21:4 The lot came out for the families of the K’hati. The descendants of Aharon the [cohen], who were of the [L’vi’im], received by lot thirteen cities from the tribes of Y’hudah, Shim’on and Binyamin.

Joshua 21:5 The rest of the descendants of K’hat received by lot ten cities from the families of the tribes of Efrayim and Dan and the half-tribe of M’nasheh.

Joshua 21:6 The descendants of Gershon received by lot thirteen cities from the families of the tribes of Yissakhar, Asher, Naftali and the half-tribe of M’nasheh in Bashan.

Joshua 21:7 The descendants of M’rari according to their families received twelve cities from the tribes of Re’uven, Gad and Z’vulun.

Joshua 21:8 The people of Isra’el gave by lot to the [L’vi’im] these cities with the surrounding open land, as ADONAI had ordered through Moshe.

Joshua 21:9 They gave from the tribe of the descendants of Y’hudah and from the tribe of the descendants of Shim’on these cities here mentioned by name;

Joshua 21:10 they were for the descendants of Aharon, of the families of the K’hati, who were among the descendants of Levi; because theirs was the first lot.

Joshua 21:11 They gave them: Kiryat-Arba- this Arba was the father of ‘Anak- (that is, Hevron), in the hills of Y’hudah, with the surrounding open land;

Joshua 21:12 but the fields and villages of the city they gave to Kalev the son of Y’funeh as his possession.

Joshua 21:13 Thus to the descendants of Aharon the [cohen] they gave: Hevron with its surrounding open land, already a city of refuge for the killer; Livnah with its surrounding open land;

Joshua 21:14 Yatir with its surrounding open land; Esht’moa with its surrounding open land;

Joshua 21:15 Holon with its surrounding open land; D’vir with its surrounding open land;

Joshua 21:16 ‘Ayin with its surrounding open land, Yutah with its surrounding open land and Beit-Shemesh with its surrounding open land- nine cities out of these two tribes.

Joshua 21:17 Out of the tribe of Binyamin: Giv’on with its surrounding open land, Geva with its surrounding open land, Joshua 21:18 ‘Anatot with its surrounding open land and ‘Almon with its surrounding open land- four cities.

Joshua 21:19 All the cities of the descendants of Aharon, the [cohanim], numbered thirteen cities with their surrounding open land.

Joshua 21:20 The families of the descendants of K’hat, who were [L’vi’im], that is, the rest of the descendants of K’hat, received the cities of their lot. Out of the tribe of Efrayim

Joshua 21:21 they gave them: Sh’khem with its surrounding open land, in the hills of Efrayim, the city of refuge for the killer; Gezer with its surrounding open land;

Joshua 21:22 Kivtzayim with its surrounding open land and Beit-Horon with its surrounding open land- four cities.

Joshua 21:23 Out of the tribe of Dan: Elt’ke with its surrounding open land, Gib’ton with its surrounding open land,

Joshua 21:24 Ayalon with its surrounding open land and Gat-Rimmon with its surrounding open land- four cities.

Joshua 21:25 Out of the half-tribe of M’nasheh: Ta’nakh with its surrounding open land and Gat-Rimmon with its surrounding open land- two cities.

Joshua 21:26 All the cities of the families of the rest of the descendants of K’hat numbered ten with their surrounding open land.

Joshua 21:27 To the descendants of Gershon, of the families of the [L’vi’im], out of the half-tribe of M’nasheh they gave: Golan in Bashan with its surrounding open land, the city of refuge for the killer; and B’esht’rah with its surrounding open land- two cities.

Joshua 21:28 Out of the tribe of Yissakhar: Kishyon with its surrounding open land, Dovrat with its surrounding open land, Joshua 21:29 Yarmut with its surrounding open land and ‘Ein-Ganim with its surrounding open land- four cities.

Joshua 21:30 Out of the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its surrounding open land, ‘Avdon with its surrounding open land,

Joshua 21:31 Helkat with its surrounding open land and Rechov with its surrounding open land- four cities.

Joshua 21:32 Out of the tribe of Naftali: Kedesh in the Galil with its surrounding open land, the city of refuge for the killer; Hammot-Dor with its surrounding open land; and Kartan with its surrounding open land- three cities.

Joshua 21:33 All the cities of the Gershuni according to their families were thirteen cities with their surrounding open land.

Joshua 21:34 To the families of the descendants of M’rari, the rest of the [L’vi’im], out of the tribe of Z’vulun: Yokne’am with its surrounding open land, Kartah with its surrounding open land, Joshua 21:35 Dimnah with its surrounding open land and Nahalal with its surrounding open land- four cities.

Joshua 21:36 Out of the tribe of Gad: Ramot in Gil'ad with its surrounding open land, the city of refuge for the killer; Machanayim with its surrounding open land;

Joshua 21:37 Heshbon with its surrounding open land and Ya'zer with its surrounding open land- four cities in all.

Joshua 21:38 All these were the cities of the descendants of M'rari according to their families, the rest of the families of the [L'vi'im]; their lot totaled twelve cities.

Joshua 21:39 All the cities of the [L'vi'im], forty-eight cities with their surrounding open land, are to be in among the lands possessed by the people of Isra'el-

Joshua 21:40 these cities, each with its surrounding open land; thus is it to be with all these cities.

Joshua 21:41 So ADONAI gave Isra'el all the land which he swore to give to their ancestors, and they took possession of it and lived in it.

Joshua 21:42 Then ADONAI gave them rest all around, according to everything he had sworn to their ancestors. Not a man from all their enemies stood against them; ADONAI handed all their enemies over to them.

Joshua 21:43 Not one good thing that ADONAI had spoken of to the household of Isra'el failed to happen; it all took place.

Joshua 22:1 Then Y'hoshua called the Re'uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M'nasheh,

Joshua 22:2 and said to them, "You have done everything Moshe the servant of ADONAI ordered you to do and heeded what I said in all the orders I gave you.

Joshua 22:3 All this time you have not abandoned your kinsmen but have obeyed your commission, as ADONAI your God ordered.

Joshua 22:4 Now ADONAI your God has given rest to your kinsmen, as he told them he would. So you too, return to your tents in the land which is your possession, which Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave you beyond the Yarden.

Joshua 22:5 Only take great care to obey the [mitzvah] and the [Torah] which Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave you- to love ADONAI your God, follow all his ways, observe his [mitzvot], cling to him, and serve him with all your heart and being."

Joshua 22:6 Then Y'hoshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

Joshua 22:7 (To the one half-tribe of M'nasheh, Moshe had given an inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half, Y'hoshua gave one among their kinsmen on the west side of the Yarden.) When Y'hoshua sent them away to their tents he blessed them, Joshua 22:8 saying, “Return with great riches to your tents- with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron and with great quantities of clothing; share the spoil of your enemies with your kinsmen.”

Joshua 22:9 So the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh returned; they left the people of Isra’el in Shiloh, in the land of Kena’an, to go to the land of Gil’ad, to the land they were to possess and which they already did possess- according to the order of ADONAI through Moshe.

Joshua 22:10 When the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe arrived in the area of the land of Kena’an near the Yarden, they built an altar there by the Yarden, a large, impressive altar.

Joshua 22:11 The people of Isra’el heard of it and said, “Look! The descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh have built an altar by the frontier of the land of Kena’an, in the area by the Yarden, on the side that belongs to the people of Isra’el.”

Joshua 22:12 When the people of Isra’el heard of it, the entire community of Isra’el gathered together in Shiloh to wage war against them.

Joshua 22:13 The people of Isra’el sent Pinchas the son of El’azar the [cohen] into the land of Gil’ad to the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh.

Joshua 22:14 With him were ten leaders, one leader of an ancestral clan for each of the tribes of Isra’el; each one was a head of his ancestral clan among the thousands of Isra’el.

Joshua 22:15 They came to the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh in the land of Gil’ad and spoke with them; they said,

Joshua 22:16 “Here is what the whole community of ADONAI is saying: ‘What is this treachery that you have committed against the God of Isra’el, turning away today from following ADONAI, in that you have built yourselves an altar, thus rebelling today against ADONAI?

Joshua 22:17 Is the guilt we incurred at P’or not enough for us? We haven’t cleansed ourselves from it to this day, even though a plague came on the community of ADONAI.

Joshua 22:18 Is this why you have to turn away today from following ADONAI? If you rebel against ADONAI today, he will be angry tomorrow with the whole community of Isra’el.

Joshua 22:19 If the land you have taken possession of is unclean, then cross back over into the land which belongs to ADONAI, where the tabernacle of ADONAI is located, and take a possession among us. But don’t rebel against ADONAI, and don’t rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of ADONAI our God.

Joshua 22:20 Didn’t Achan the son of Zerach commit a sin in regard to things set aside for destruction, and God’s anger fell on the whole community of Isra’el? He was not the only one who died for his crime.”‘

Joshua 22:21 Then the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh answered the leaders of the thousands of Isra’el:

Joshua 22:22 “The Mighty One, God, is ADONAI! He knows, and Isra’el will know- if we acted in rebellion or treachery against ADONAI, don’t vindicate us today!

Joshua 22:23 We haven’t built an altar in order to turn away from following ADONAI or to offer on it burnt offerings, grain offerings or sacrifices as peace offerings. If we have, let ADONAI himself require us to atone for it.

Joshua 22:24 Rather, we did this out of anxiety, because we thought, ‘Sometime in the future, your descendants might say to our descendants, “You don’t have anything to do with ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, Joshua 22:25 because ADONAI made the Yarden the border between us and you, so you descendants of Re’uven and Gad have no share in ADONAI.”‘ In this way your descendants could make our descendants stop fearing ADONAI.

Joshua 22:26 So we said, ‘Let us now make preparations and build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices,

Joshua 22:27 but as a witness between us and you, and between our generations who will come after us, so that we may perform the service for ADONAI in his presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and peace offerings- so that your descendants will not say to our descendants at some future time, “You have no share in ADONAI.”‘

Joshua 22:28 For this reason we said, ‘When they accuse us or future generations in this way, we will say, “Look! Here is a replica of the altar of ADONAI which our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.”‘

Joshua 22:29 Far be it from us that we should rebel against ADONAI and turn away today from following ADONAI by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings or sacrifices other than the altar of ADONAI our God which stands in front of his tabernacle!”

Joshua 22:30 When Pinchas the [cohen] and the leaders of the community, the heads of the thousands of Isra’el who were with him, heard what the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the descendants of M’nasheh said, it satisfied them.

Joshua 22:31 Pinchas the son of El’azar the [cohen] said to the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the descendants of M’nasheh, “Today we know that ADONAI is here with us, because you have not committed this treasonous act against [ADONAI.] Now you have saved the people of Isra'el from the anger of ADONAI."

Joshua 22:32 So Pinchas the son of El'azar the [cohen] and the leaders returned from the descendants of Re'uven and Gad, from the land of Gil'ad to the land of Kena'an and the people of Isra'el, bringing word back to them.

Joshua 22:33 What they said satisfied the people of Isra'el. The people of Isra'el blessed God and said no more about going to wage war against the descendants of Re'uven and Gad and destroying the land where they lived.

Joshua 22:34 The descendants of Re'uven and Gad called the altar "'[Ed] [[a witness]]" between us that ADONAI is God.

Joshua 23:1 A long time afterwards, when ADONAI had given Isra'el rest from all their surrounding enemies, and Y'hoshua was old, with age taking its toll, Joshua 23:2 Y'hoshua summoned all Isra'el- their leaders, heads, judges and officials- and said to them, "I am old; age is taking its toll.

Joshua 23:3 You have seen everything that ADONAI your God has done to all these nations because of you, for it is ADONAI your God who has fought on your behalf.

Joshua 23:4 Here, I have allotted to you land for inheritance according to your tribes between the Yarden and the Great Sea to the west; it includes the land of the nations I have destroyed and the nations which remain.

Joshua 23:5 ADONAI your God will thrust them out ahead of you and drive them out of your sight, so that you will possess their land, as ADONAI your God told you.

Joshua 23:6 "Therefore be very firm about keeping and doing everything written in the book of the [Torah] of Moshe and not turning aside from it either to the right or to the left.

Joshua 23:7 Then you won't become like those nations remaining among you. Don't even mention the name of their gods, let alone have people swear by them, serve them or worship them;

Joshua 23:8 but cling to ADONAI your God, as you have done to this day.

Joshua 23:9 This is why ADONAI has driven out great, strong nations ahead of you; and it explains why no one has prevailed against you to this day,

Joshua 23:10 why one man of you has chased a thousand- it is because ADONAI your God has fought on your behalf, as he said to you.

Joshua 23:11 "Therefore take great care to love ADONAI your God.

Joshua 23:12 Otherwise, if you retreat and cling to the remnant of these other nations remaining among you, if you make marriages with them and have children with them and they with you,

Joshua 23:13 know for certain that ADONAI your God will stop driving out these nations from your sight. Instead, they will become a snare and a trap for you, whipping your sides and pricking your eyes, until you perish from this good land which ADONAI your God has given you.

Joshua 23:14 “Today I am going the way of all the earth. Therefore consider in all your heart and being that not one of all the good things ADONAI your God said concerning you has failed to happen; it has all come to pass; nothing of it has failed.

Joshua 23:15 Nevertheless, just as all the good things ADONAI your God promised you have come upon you, likewise ADONAI will bring upon you all the bad things too, until he has destroyed you from this good land which ADONAI your God has given you.

Joshua 23:16 When you violate the covenant of ADONAI your God, which he ordered you to obey, and go and serve other gods and worship them, then the anger of ADONAI will blaze up against you; and you will perish quickly from the good land which he has given you!”

Joshua 24:1 Y’hoshua gathered all the tribes of Isra’el to Sh’khem; he summoned the leaders, heads, judges and officials of Isra’el; and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua 24:2 Y’hoshua said to all the people, “This is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘In antiquity your ancestors lived on the other side of the [[Euphrates]] River- Terach the father of Avraham and Nachor- and they served other gods.

Joshua 24:3 I took your ancestor Avraham from beyond the River, led him through all the land of Kena’an, increased his descendants and gave him Yitz’chak.

Joshua 24:4 I gave to Yitz’chak Ya’akov and ‘Esav. To ‘Esav I gave Mount Se’ir as his possession, but Ya’akov and his children went down into Egypt.

Joshua 24:5 I sent Moshe and Aharon, I inflicted plagues on Egypt in accordance with what I did among them, and afterwards I brought you out.

Joshua 24:6 Yes, I brought your fathers out of Egypt: you arrived at the sea, and the Egyptians were pursuing your ancestors with chariots and horsemen to the Sea of Suf.

Joshua 24:7 But when they cried out to ADONAI, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, overwhelmed them with the sea and drowned them. Your eyes saw what I did in Egypt, and then you lived in the desert for a long time.

Joshua 24:8 I brought you into the land of the Emori living beyond the Yarden; they fought against you, but I handed them over to you. You took possession of their land, and I destroyed them ahead of you.

Joshua 24:9 Then Balak the son of Tzippor, king of Mo'av, rose up and fought against Isra'el. He sent and summoned Bil'am the son of B'or to put a curse on you.

Joshua 24:10 But I refused to listen to Bil'am, and he actually blessed you. In this way I rescued you from him.

Joshua 24:11 Next you crossed the Yarden and came to Yericho. The men of Yericho fought against you- the Emori, P'rizi, Kena'ani, Hitti, Girgashi, Hivi and Y'vusi- and I handed them over to you.

Joshua 24:12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, driving them out from ahead of you, the two kings of the Emori- it wasn't by your sword or your bow.

Joshua 24:13 Then I gave you a land where you had not worked and cities you had not built, and you live there. You eat fruit from vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.'

Joshua 24:14 "Therefore fear ADONAI, and serve him truly and sincerely. Put away the gods your ancestors served beyond the [[Euphrates]]River and in Egypt, and serve ADONAI!

Joshua 24:15 If it seems bad to you to serve ADONAI, then choose today whom you are going to serve! Will it be the gods your ancestors served beyond the River? or the gods of the Emori, in whose land you are living? As for me and my household, we will serve ADONAI!"

Joshua 24:16 The people answered, "Far be it from us that we would abandon ADONAI to serve other gods;

Joshua 24:17 because it is ADONAI our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from a life of slavery, and did those great signs before our eyes, and preserved us all along the way we traveled and among all the peoples we passed through;

Joshua 24:18 and it was ADONAI who drove out from ahead of us all the peoples, the Emori living in the land. Therefore we too will serve ADONAI, for he is our God."

Joshua 24:19 Y'hoshua said to the people, "You can't serve ADONAI; because he is a holy God, a jealous God, and he will not forgive your crimes and sins.

Joshua 24:20 If you abandon ADONAI and serve foreign gods, he will turn, doing you harm and destroying you after he has done you good."

Joshua 24:21 But the people said to Y'hoshua, "No, but we will serve ADONAI."

Joshua 24:22 Y'hoshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen ADONAI, to serve him." They answered, "We are witnesses."

Joshua 24:23 “Now,” Y’hoshua urged, “put away the foreign gods you have among you, and turn your hearts to ADONAI, the God of Isra’el.”

Joshua 24:24 The people answered Y’hoshua, “We will serve ADONAI our God; we will pay attention to what he says.”

Joshua 24:25 So Y’hoshua made a covenant with the people that day, laying down for them laws and rulings there in Sh’khem.

Joshua 24:26 Y’hoshua wrote these words in the book of the [Torah] of God. Then he took a big stone and set it up there under the oak next to the sanctuary of ADONAI.

Joshua 24:27 Y’hoshua said to all the people, “See, this stone will be a witness against us; because it has heard all the words of ADONAI which he said to us; therefore it will be a witness against you, in case you deny your God.”

Joshua 24:28 Then Y’hoshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.

Joshua 24:29 After this, Y’hoshua the son of Nun, the servant of ADONAI, died; he was 110 years old.

Joshua 24:30 They buried him on his property in Timnat-Serach, which is in the hills of Efrayim, north of Mount Ga’ash.

Joshua 24:31 Isra’el served ADONAI throughout Y’hoshua’s lifetime and throughout the lifetimes of the leaders who outlived Y’hoshua and had known all the deeds that ADONAI had done on behalf of Isra’el.

Joshua 24:32 The bones of Yosef, which the people of Isra’el had brought up from Egypt, they buried in Sh’khem, in the parcel of ground which Ya’akov had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Sh’khem for a hundred pieces of silver; and they became a possession of the descendants of Yosef.

Joshua 24:33 Finally, El’azar the son of Aharon died; and they buried him on the hill belonging to Pinchas his son, which had been given to him in the hills of Efrayim.

Judges

1:1 After the death of Y’hoshua, the people of Isra’el asked ADONAI, “Who will go up for us first to fight against the Kena’ani?”

Judges 1:2 ADONAI said: “Y’hudah will go up; here, I have handed the land over to him.”

Judges 1:3 Y’hudah said to his brother Shim’on, “Come up with me into my assigned territory, so that we can fight against the Kena’ani; and I likewise will go with you into your territory.” So Shim’on went with him.

Judges 1:4 Y’hudah went up; and ADONAI gave the Kena’ani and the P’rizi into their hands; of those in Bezek they killed ten thousand men.

Judges 1:5 They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him. They killed the Kena'ani and the P'rizi, Judges 1:6 but Adoni-Bezek fled. They pursued him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Judges 1:7 Adoni-Bezek said: "Seventy kings, with their thumbs and their big toes cut off, gathered food under my table; God has paid me back in accordance with what I did." They brought him to Yerushalayim, and he died there.

Judges 1:8 Then the people of Y'hudah fought against Yerushalayim, captured it, overpowered it with the sword, and set the city on fire.

Judges 1:9 Afterwards, the people of Y'hudah went down to fight against the Kena'ani who lived in the hill-country, in the Negev, and in the Sh'felah.

Judges 1:10 Y'hudah also attacked the Kena'ani living in Hevron (formerly called Kiryat-Arba), and they overpowered Sheshai, Achiman and Talmai.

Judges 1:11 From there they attacked the inhabitants of D'vir (D'vir was formerly called Kiryat-Sefer).

Judges 1:12 Kalev said: "To whoever overpowers Kiryat-Sefer and captures it I will give my daughter 'Akhsah as his wife."

Judges 1:13 'Otni'el the son of K'naz, Kalev's younger brother, captured it; so he gave him 'Akhsah his daughter as his wife.

Judges 1:14 After becoming his wife, she persuaded him to ask her father to give them a field; when she got off her donkey, Kalev asked her, "What do you want?"

Judges 1:15 She said to him: "Give me a blessing: since you gave me land in the Negev, also give me sources of water." So Kalev gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

Judges 1:16 Next, the descendants of the Keini, Moshe's father-in-law, went up out of the City of Date-Palms with the people of Y'hudah into the Y'hudah Desert south of 'Arad; and they came and settled with the people.

Judges 1:17 Y'hudah went with Shim'on his brother; they overpowered the Kena'ani who inhabited Tz'fat, and completely destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah.

Judges 1:18 Y'hudah also took 'Azah with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory and 'Ekron with its territory.

Judges 1:19 ADONAI was with Y'hudah, and they took possession of the hill-country, because they could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, since they had iron chariots.

Judges 1:20 They gave Hevron to Kalev, as Moshe had said to do; and he drove out from there the three sons of 'Anak.

Judges 1:21 The people of Binyamin did not drive out the Y'vusi who inhabited Yerushalayim; rather, the Y'vusi continued living with the people of Binyamin in Yerushalayim, as they do to this day.

Judges 1:22 The house of Yosef likewise attacked Beit-El; and ADONAI was with them.

Judges 1:23 The house of Yosef sent spies to Beit-El (the city was formerly called Luz).

Judges 1:24 The spies saw a man coming out of the city and said to him: "Please show us the way to enter the city, and we will treat you kindly."

Judges 1:25 So he showed them the way into the city, and they overpowered the city with the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free.

Judges 1:26 He went into the land of the Hittim, built a city and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.

Judges 1:27 M'nasheh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beit-Sh'an and its villages, Ta'anakh and its villages, Dor and its villages, Yivle'am and its villages or Megiddo and its villages; so that the Kena'ani managed to keep on living in that land.

Judges 1:28 In time, when Isra'el had grown strong, they did put the Kena'ani to forced labor but failed to drive them out completely.

Judges 1:29 Efrayim did not drive out the Kena'ani living in Gezer; so the Kena'ani continued living in Gezer along with them.

Judges 1:30 Z'vulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or Nahalol; so the Kena'ani continued to live among them but became subject to forced labor.

Judges 1:31 Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of 'Akko, Tzidon, Achlav, Akhziv, Helbah, Afik or Rechov;

Judges 1:32 so the Asheri lived among the Kena'ani who were living in the land, because they didn't drive them out.

Judges 1:33 Naftali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beit-Shemesh or Beit-'Anat but lived among the Kena'ani living in the land; however, the inhabitants of Beit-Shemesh and Beit-'Anat became forced labor for them.

Judges 1:34 The Emori forced the people of Dan into the hills; for they would not let them come down to the valley.

Judges 1:35 The Emori had resolved to live in the Heres Hills, in Ayalon and in Sha'alvim; but when the power of the house of Yosef grew greater, they became subject to forced labor.

Judges 1:36 So the territory of the Emori was from the Scorpion Ascent and the Rock upward.

Judges 2:1 Now the angel of ADONAI came up from Gilgal to Bokhim and said, “I brought you up out of Egypt, led you to the land I swore to your fathers and said, ‘I will never break my covenant with you;

Judges 2:2 you, for your part, are not to make any covenant with the inhabitants of this land but must tear down their altars.’ However, you have paid no attention to what I said. What is this you have done?

Judges 2:3 This is why I also said, ‘I will not drive them out before you; but they will be on your flanks, and their gods will become a snare for you.’“

Judges 2:4 When the angel of ADONAI spoke these words to all the people of Isra’el, they began crying and wailing at the top of their voices.

Judges 2:5 So they called the name of that place Bokhim [[crying]] and sacrificed there to [ADONAI.]

Judges 2:6 When Y’hoshua had sent the people away, the people of Isra’el had gone each one to his assigned property in order to take possession of the land.

Judges 2:7 The people served ADONAI throughout Y’hoshua’s life and throughout the lives of all the older men who outlived Y’hoshua and who had seen all the great work of ADONAI which he had done for Isra’el.

Judges 2:8 When Y’hoshua the son of Nun, the servant of ADONAI, died, he was 110 years old;

Judges 2:9 and they buried him near the boundary of his property in Timnat-Heres, in the hills of Efrayim, north of Mount Ga’ash.

Judges 2:10 When that entire generation had been gathered to their ancestors, another generation arose that knew neither ADONAI nor the work he had done for Isra’el.

Judges 2:11 Then the people of Isra’el did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective and served the [ba’alim].

Judges 2:12 They abandoned ADONAI, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, selected from the gods of the peoples around them, and worshipped them; this made ADONAI angry.

Judges 2:13 They abandoned ADONAI and served Ba’al and the [‘ashtarot].

Judges 2:14 The anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra’el; and he handed them over to pillagers, who plundered them, and to their enemies around them; so that they could no longer resist their enemies.

Judges 2:15 Whenever they launched an attack, the power of ADONAI was against them, so that things turned out badly- just as ADONAI had said would happen and had sworn to them. They were in dire distress.

Judges 2:16 But then ADONAI raised up judges, who rescued them from the power of those who were plundering them.

Judges 2:17 Yet they did not pay attention to their judges, but made whores of themselves to other gods and worshipped them; they quickly turned away from the path on which their ancestors had walked, the way of obeying ADONAI's[mitzvot]- they failed to do this.

Judges 2:18 When ADONAI raised up judges for them, ADONAI was with the judge and delivered them from the hands of their enemies throughout the lifetime of the judge; for ADONAI was moved to pity by their groaning under those oppressing and crushing them.

Judges 2:19 But after the judge died, they would relapse into worse behavior than that of their ancestors, following other gods to serve and worship them; they abandoned none of their practices or stubborn ways.

Judges 2:20 So the anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra'el; he said, "Because this nation violates my covenant, which I ordered their fathers to obey; and they don't pay attention to what I say;

Judges 2:21 in the future, I will not expel ahead of them any of the nations that Y'hoshua left when he died.

Judges 2:22 This is how I will test Isra'el, to see whether or not they will keep the way of ADONAI, living according to it, as their ancestors did."

Judges 2:23 So ADONAI allowed those nations to remain where they were, without quickly driving them out; he did not hand them over to Y'hoshua.

Judges 3:1 These are the nations which ADONAI allowed to remain, in order to put to the test all the people of Isra'el who had not known any of the wars with Kena'an.

Judges 3:2 This was only so that the generations of Isra'el who had previously known nothing of war might learn about it.

Judges 3:3 These nations consisted of the five chiefs of the P'lishtim, all the Kena'ani, the Tzidoni, and the Hivi who lived in the hills of the L'vanon between Mount Ba'al-Hermon and the entrance to Hamat.

Judges 3:4 They stayed there to test whether Isra'el would pay attention to the[mitzvot] of ADONAI, which, through Moshe, he had ordered their ancestors to obey.

Judges 3:5 So the people of Isra'el lived among the Kena'ani, Hitti, Emori, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi;

Judges 3:6 taking their daughters as their wives, giving their own daughters to their sons and serving their gods.

Judges 3:7 Thus the people of Isra'el did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, forgot ADONAI their God, and served the [ba'alim] and [asherim].

Judges 3:8 Therefore the anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra'el, and he gave them over into the hands of Kushan-Rish'atayim king of Aram-Naharayim; and the people of Isra'el served Kushan-Rish'atayim eight years.

Judges 3:9 But when the people of Isra'el cried out to ADONAI, ADONAI raised up a savior for the people of Isra'el; and he rescued them; this was 'Otni'el, the son of Kalev's younger brother K'naz.

Judges 3:10 The spirit of ADONAI came upon him, and he judged Isra'el. Then he went out to war, and ADONAI gave Kushan-Rish'atayim king of Aram into his hands; his power prevailed against Kushan-Rish'atayim.

Judges 3:11 So the land had rest for forty years, until 'Otni'el the son of K'naz died.

Judges 3:12 But the people of Isra'el again did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, so ADONAI strengthened 'Eglon the king of Mo'av against Isra'el, because they had done what was evil from ADONAI's perspective.

Judges 3:13 In confederation with the people of 'Amon and 'Amalek, 'Eglon went out and defeated Isra'el, capturing the City of Date-Palms;

Judges 3:14 and the people of Isra'el served 'Eglon the king of Mo'av eighteen years.

Judges 3:15 But when the people of Isra'el cried out to ADONAI, ADONAI raised up for them a savior, Ehud the son of Gera, from the tribe of Binyamin, a left-handed man. The people of Isra'el appointed him to take their tribute to 'Eglon the king of Mo'av.

Judges 3:16 Ehud made himself a double-edged sword eighteen inches long and strapped it to his right thigh under his clothes.

Judges 3:17 Then he presented the tribute to 'Eglon king of Mo'av. Now 'Eglon was a very fat man.

Judges 3:18 When he had finished presenting the tribute, he dismissed the people who had brought it.

Judges 3:19 But he himself, after reaching the quarries at Gilgal, went back and said, "King, I have a secret message for you." The king commanded silence, and all his attendants withdrew.

Judges 3:20 Ehud came to him; he was sitting alone by himself in his upstairs room, where it was cool. Ehud said: "I have a message from God for you." As the king arose from his seat,

Judges 3:21 Ehud reached out with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into the king's belly.

Judges 3:22 The hilt too went in after the blade, and the fat closed around the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly, so that it came out behind.

Judges 3:23 Then Ehud went out onto the porch, shut the doors of the upstairs room behind him and locked them.

Judges 3:24 After Ehud had left, the king's servants came. Seeing that the doors of the upper room were locked, they said, "He must be relieving himself in the inner part of the cool room."

Judges 3:25 They waited until they became embarrassed, but he still didn't open the doors of the upstairs room. So they took the key and opened them; and there before them lay their master, dead on the ground.

Judges 3:26 But while they were delaying, Ehud escaped- he passed beyond the quarries and arrived safely in Se'irah.

Judges 3:27 Upon arrival in the hills of Efrayim, he began sounding the call on the [shofar]; and the people of Isra'el went down with him from the hill-country; he himself took the lead.

Judges 3:28 He said to them: "Follow me, because ADONAI has given your enemy Mo'av into your hands. They went down after him, seized the fords of the Yarden opposite Mo'av and permitted no one to cross.

Judges 3:29 On that occasion they defeated Mo'av, some ten thousand men, all tough, experienced soldiers; not one of them escaped.

Judges 3:30 Thus was Mo'av subdued that day under the power of Isra'el. Then the land had rest for eighty years.

Judges 3:31 After Ehud came Shamgar the son of 'Anat, who killed 600 P'lishtim with an oxgoad; and he too rescued Isra'el.

Judges 4:1 But after Ehud had died, the people of Isra'el again did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective.

Judges 4:2 So ADONAI handed them over to Yavin king of Kena'an. He ruled from Hatzor; and the commander of his army was Sisra, who lived in Haroshet-HaGoyim.

Judges 4:3 The people of Isra'el cried out to ADONAI, because he had 900 iron chariots, and for twenty years he cruelly oppressed the people of Isra'el.

Judges 4:4 Now D'vorah, a woman and a prophet, the wife of Lapidot, was judging Isra'el at that time.

Judges 4:5 She used to sit under D'vorah's Palm between Ramah and Beit-El, in the hills of Efrayim; and the people of Isra'el would come to her for judgment.

Judges 4:6 She sent for Barak the son of Avino'am, from Kedesh in Naftali, and said to him: "ADONAI has given you this order: 'Go, march to Mount Tavor, and take with you 10,000 men from the people of Naftali and Z'vulun.

Judges 4:7 I will cause Sisra, the commander of Yavin's army, to encounter you at the Kishon River with his chariots and troops; and I will hand him over to you.'"

Judges 4:8 Barak answered her: "If you go with me, I'll go; but if you won't go with me, I won't go."

Judges 4:9 She replied, "Yes, I will gladly go with you; but the way you are doing it will bring you no glory; because ADONAI will hand Sisra over to a woman." Then D'vorah set out and went with Barak to Kedesh.

Judges 4:10 Barak summoned Z'vulun and Naftali to come to Kedesh. Ten thousand men followed him, and D'vorah went up with him.

Judges 4:11 Now Hever the Keini had cut himself off from the rest of Kayin, the descendants of Hovav Moshe's father-in-law; he had pitched his tent near the oak at Tza'ananim, which is close to Kedesh.

Judges 4:12 Sisra was informed that Barak the son of Avino'am had gone up to Mount Tavor.

Judges 4:13 So Sisra rallied his chariots, all 900 iron chariots, and all the troops he had with him, from Haroshet-HaGoyim to the Kishon River.

Judges 4:14 D'vorah said to Barak: "Get going! This is the day when ADONAI will hand Sisra over to you! ADONAI has gone out ahead of you!" So Barak went down from Mount Tavor with 10,000 men following him;

Judges 4:15 and ADONAI threw Sisra, all his chariots and his entire army into a panic before Barak's sword; so that Sisra got down from his chariot and fled on foot.

Judges 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the army all the way to Haroshet-HaGoyim. Sisra's entire army was put to the sword; not one man was left.

Judges 4:17 However, Sisra ran on foot to the tent of Ya'el the wife of Hever the Keini, because there was peace between Yavin the king of Hatzor and the family of Hever the Keini.

Judges 4:18 Ya'el went out to meet Sisra and said to him, "Come in, my lord; stay here with me; and don't be afraid." So he went into her tent, and she covered him with a blanket.

Judges 4:19 He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink-I'm thirsty." She opened a goatskin of milk, gave him some to drink, and covered him up again.

Judges 4:20 He said to her, "Stand at the entrance to the tent; and if anyone asks you if somebody is here, say, 'No.'"

Judges 4:21 But when he was deeply asleep, Ya'el the wife of Hever took a tent peg and a hammer in her hand, crept in to him quietly and drove the tent peg into his temple, right through to the ground; so that he died without waking up.

Judges 4:22 So here is Barak pursuing Sisra, and Ya'el steps out to meet him and says, “Come, I will show you the man you are looking for.” He goes into her tent; and there is Sisra, lying dead with the tent peg through his temple.

Judges 4:23 Thus God on that day defeated Yavin the king of Kena'an in the presence of the people of Isra'el.

Judges 4:24 The hand of the people of Isra'el came down more and more heavily against Yavin the king of Kena'an, until they had completely destroyed Yavin the king of Kena'an.

Judges 5:1 On that day D'vorah and Barak the son of Avino'am sang this song:

Judges 5:2 “When leaders in Isra'el dedicate themselves, and the people volunteer, you should all bless [ADONAI.]

Judges 5:3 Hear, kings; listen, princes; I will sing to ADONAI! I will sing praise to ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

Judges 5:4 “ADONAI, when you went out from Se'ir, when you marched out from the field of Edom; the earth quaked, and the sky shook; yes, the clouds poured down torrents.

Judges 5:5 The mountains melted at the presence of ADONAI, at Sinai, before ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

Judges 5:6 “In the days of Shamgar the son of 'Anat, in the days of Ya'el, the main roads were deserted; travelers walked the byways.

Judges 5:7 The rulers ceased in Isra'el, they ceased, until you arose, D'vorah, arose a mother in Isra'el.

Judges 5:8 “They chose new gods when war was at the gates. Was there a shield or spear to be seen among Isra'el's forty thousand men?

Judges 5:9 My heart goes out to Isra'el's leaders and to those among the people who volunteer. All of you, bless [ADONAI.]

Judges 5:10 “You who ride white donkeys, sitting on soft saddle-blankets, and you walking on the road, talk about it!

Judges 5:11 Louder than the sound of archers at the watering-holes will they sound as they retell the righteous acts of ADONAI, the righteous acts of his rulers in Isra'el. “Then ADONAI's people marched down to the gates.

Judges 5:12 “Awake, awake, D'vorah! Awake, awake, break into song! Arise, Barak! Lead away your captives, son of Avino'am!

Judges 5:13 “Then a remnant of the nobles marched down; the people of ADONAI marched down to me like warriors.

Judges 5:14 From Efrayim came those rooted in 'Amalek. Behind you, Binyamin is with your peoples. From Makhir the commanders marched down, and from Z'vulun those holding the musterer's staff.

Judges 5:15 The princes of Yissakhar were with D'vorah, Yissakhar, along with Barak; into the valley they rushed forth behind him. Among the divisions of Re'uven they made great resolutions in their hearts.

Judges 5:16 But why did you stay at the pens for the sheep, and listen to the shepherd's flute playing for the flocks? Concerning the divisions of Re'uven there were great searchings of heart.

Judges 5:17 Gil'ad lives beyond the Yarden. Dan- why does he stay by the ships? Asher stayed by the shore of the sea, remaining near its bays.

Judges 5:18 The people of Z'vulun risked their lives, Naftali too, on the open heights.

Judges 5:19 "Kings came; they fought. Yes, the kings of Kena'an fought at Ta'anakh, by the waters of Megiddo; but they took no spoil of silver.

Judges 5:20 They fought from heaven, the stars in their courses; yes, they fought against Sisra.

Judges 5:21 The Kishon River swept them away, that ancient river, the Kishon River. O my soul, march on with strength!

Judges 5:22 Then the horses' hoofs pounded the ground, their mighty steeds galloping at full speed.

Judges 5:23 "'Curse Meroz!' said the angel of ADONAI, 'Curse the people living there with a bitter punishment for not coming to help ADONAI, to help ADONAI against the mighty warriors.'

Judges 5:24 "Ya'el will be blessed more than all women. The wife of Hever the Keini will be blessed more than any woman in the tent.

Judges 5:25 He asked for water, and she gave him milk; In an elegant bowl she brought him curds.

Judges 5:26 Then she took a tent peg in her left hand and a workman's hammer in her right; with the hammer she struck Sisra, pierced his skull, yes, she shattered and crushed his temple.

Judges 5:27 He sank down at her feet, he fell and lay there; he sank at her feet, he fell- where he sank down, there he fell dead.

Judges 5:28 "Sisra's mother looks out the window; peering out through the lattice she wonders, 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why are his horses so slow to return?'

Judges 5:29 The wisest of her ladies answer her, and she repeats it to herself,

Judges 5:30 'Of course! They're collecting and dividing the spoil- a girl, two girls for every warrior, for Sisra booty of dyed clothing, a plunder of colorfully embroidered garments, two embroidered scarves for every soldier's neck.'

Judges 5:31 “May all your enemies perish like this, ADONAI; but may those who love him be like the sun going forth in its glory!” Then the land had rest for forty years.

Judges 6:1 But the people of Isra’el did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so ADONAI handed them over to Midyan for seven years.

Judges 6:2 Midyan exercised its power harshly against Isra’el, and because of Midyan the people of Isra’el hid themselves in mountains, in caves and in other safe places.

Judges 6:3 One time, after Isra’el’s sowing season, Midyan, with ‘Amalek and others from the east, attacked them.

Judges 6:4 They set up camp by them and destroyed the produce of the country all the way to ‘Azah; they left nothing for people to live on, no sheep, no oxen, no donkeys.

Judges 6:5 For they came up with their cattle and tents, and they came in as thick as locusts; both they and their camels were beyond numbering, and they came into the land to destroy it.

Judges 6:6 Isra’el became very discouraged because of Midyan, and the people of Isra’el cried out to [ADONAI.]

Judges 6:7 When the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI because of Midyan,

Judges 6:8 ADONAI sent a prophet to the people of Isra’el, who said to them: “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says, ‘I brought you up from Egypt, out of a life of slavery.

Judges 6:9 I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all your oppressors. I drove them out ahead of you and gave you their land.

Judges 6:10 And I said to you: “I am ADONAI your God; you are not to be afraid of the gods of the Emori in whose land you are living.” But you paid no attention to what I said!’“

Judges 6:11 Then the angel of ADONAI came and sat under the pistachio tree in ‘Ofrah that belonged to Yo’ash the Avi’ezri. His son Gid’on was threshing wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from Midyan.

Judges 6:12 The angel of ADONAI appeared to him and said to him: “You valiant hero! ADONAI is with you!”

Judges 6:13 “Excuse me, sir,” answered Gid’on, “but if ADONAI is with us, then why is all this happening to us? And where are all his miracles our ancestors told us about when they said, ‘Didn’t ADONAI bring us up from Egypt?’ For now ADONAI has abandoned us and handed us over to Midyan.”

Judges 6:14 ADONAI turned to him and said, “Go in this strength of yours and save Isra’el from the hands of Midyan. Haven’t I sent you?”

Judges 6:15 But Gid’on answered him, “Forgive me, my Lord, but with what am I to save Isra’el? Why, my family is the poorest in M’nasheh, and I’m the youngest person in my father’s house!”

Judges 6:16 ADONAI said to him, “Because I will be with you, you will strike down Midyan as easily as if they were just one man.”

Judges 6:17 Gid’on replied, “If indeed you favor me, would you mind giving me a sign that it is really you talking with me?

Judges 6:18 Please don’t leave until I go and return with a gift and present it to you.” He replied, “I’ll wait till you come back.”

Judges 6:19 Gid’on went in, cooked a young goat and made [matzot] from a bushel of flour. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, brought them out to him under the pistachio tree and presented them.

Judges 6:20 The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and [matzot], lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” Gid’on did so.

Judges 6:21 Then the angel of ADONAI reached out with the stick he was holding, touched the meat and [matzot], and fire shot up out of the rock and burned up the meat and [matzot]. Then the angel of ADONAI disappeared before his eyes.

Judges 6:22 Gid’on realized that he was the angel of ADONAI and said, “Oh no! My Lord! ADONAI! Because I’ve seen the angel of ADONAI face-to-face!”

Judges 6:23 But ADONAI reassured him, “[Shalom] to you, don’t be afraid, you won’t die!”

Judges 6:24 Then Gid’on built an altar there to ADONAI and called it “[ADONAI-]Shalom”; to this day it remains in ‘Ofrah of the Avi’ezri.

Judges 6:25 That very night ADONAI said to him, “Take your father’s bull and the other bull, the seven-year-old. Destroy the altar to Ba’al that belongs to your father, cut down the sacred pole next to it, Judges 6:26 and build a proper altar to ADONAI your God on top of this strong-point. Then take the second bull; and offer it as a burnt offering, using the wood of the sacred pole you cut down.”

Judges 6:27 Gid’on took ten of his servants and did what ADONAI had told him to do. He didn’t do it by day, because he was afraid of the men in his father’s household and those from the city, so he did it at night.

Judges 6:28 When the men of the city got up the next morning, there was the altar of Ba’al destroyed, the sacred pole cut down, and the second bull a burnt offering on the newly built altar.

Judges 6:29 They asked each other, “Who could have done this?” But after investigating, they concluded that Gid’on the son of Yo’ash had done it.

Judges 6:30 “Bring out your son,” the men of the city demanded of Yo’ash, “so that he may die, because he destroyed the altar of Ba’al and cut down the sacred pole next to it!”

Judges 6:31 But Yo’ash said to all those crowding around him, “You’re defending Ba’al, are you? It’s your job to save him? Anyone who defends Ba’al will be put to death before morning! If he’s a god, let him defend himself! After all, somebody destroyed his altar!”

Judges 6:32 Therefore on that day Gid’on was given the name Yeruba’al [[let Ba’al defend]], because they said, “Let Ba’al defend himself against him, since he destroyed his altar.”

Judges 6:33 Now all Midyan, ‘Amalek and the others from the east joined forces, crossed the Yarden, and set up camp in the Yizre’el Valley.

Judges 6:34 But the Spirit of ADONAI covered Gid’on. He sounded the call on the [shofar], and Avi’ezer rallied behind him.

Judges 6:35 He sent messengers throughout all M’nasheh, and they too rallied behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Z’vulun and Naftali; and they came up to join them.

Judges 6:36 Gid’on said to God, “If you are going to save Isra’el through me, as you said you would,

Judges 6:37 then, here: I will lay a wool fleece on the threshing-floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, while all the ground stays dry, I will be convinced that you will save Isra’el through me, as you said you would.”

Judges 6:38 And it happened! He got up early in the morning, pressed the fleece together and wrung dew out of it, a bowlful of water.

Judges 6:39 But Gid’on said to God, “Don’t be angry with me because I am asking one more thing, let me make one more test, please: this time let it be dry only on the fleece, with dew all over the ground.”

Judges 6:40 And that is what God did that night- it was dry only on the fleece, even though there was dew all over the ground.

Judges 7:1 Then Yeruba’al, that is, Gid’on, and all the people with him, got up early and set up camp by ‘Ein-Harod; the camp of Midyan was north of them, by Giv’at-Moreh, in the valley.

Judges 7:2 ADONAI said to Gid’on, “There are too many people with you for me to hand Midyan over to them, because I don’t want Isra’el to be able to boast against me, ‘We saved ourselves by our own strength.’

Judges 7:3 Therefore, proclaim to the people ‘Anyone who is anxious or afraid should go back home, while we stay here on Mount Gil’ad.’“ Twenty-two thousand returned, but ten thousand remained.

Judges 7:4 ADONAI said to Gid’on, “There are still too many people. Have them come down to the water, and there I will screen them for you. If I say of anyone, ‘This one is for you,’ he will go with you; and if I say, ‘This one is not for you,’ he won’t go with you.”

Judges 7:5 So he brought the people down to the water, and ADONAI said to Gid'on, “Put to one side everyone who laps up water with his tongue the way a dog does, and put to the other side everyone who gets down on his knees to drink.”

Judges 7:6 Three hundred lapped, putting their hand to their mouth; all the rest of the men got down on their knees to drink water.

Judges 7:7 ADONAI said to Gid'on, “I will use the three hundred men who lapped the water to save you; I will hand Midyan over to you. Let all these others go back home.”

Judges 7:8 So they took the provisions and the [shofar]s of the people; then he sent all the men of Isra'el away, each to his tent. But the three hundred men he kept. The camp of Midyan was in the valley below him.

Judges 7:9 That night ADONAI said to him, “Get up and attack the camp, because I have handed it over to you.

Judges 7:10 But if you are afraid to attack, go down with your servant Purah;

Judges 7:11 and after you hear what they are saying, you will have the courage to attack the camp.” So with his servant Purah he went down to the outposts of the camp.

Judges 7:12 Now Midyan, ‘Amalek and all the others from the east had settled in the valley as thick as locusts; their camels too were beyond counting, like the sand on the seashore.

Judges 7:13 Gid'on got there just as a man was telling a comrade about a dream he had had: “I just now dreamt that a loaf of barley bread fell into the camp of Midyan, came to the tent and struck it so hard that it overturned the tent and knocked it flat.”

Judges 7:14 His comrade answered, “This can only be the sword of Gid'on son of Yo'ash, a man of Isra'el. God has given Midyan and all its army into his hands.”

Judges 7:15 When Gid'on heard the dream and its interpretation, he fell on his knees in worship. Then he returned to the camp of Isra'el and said, “Get up! because ADONAI has handed Midyan's army over to you.”

Judges 7:16 He divided the three hundred men into three companies. He put in the hands of all of them [shofar]s and empty pitchers with torches in them.

Judges 7:17 Then he said to them, “Watch me, and do what I do. When I get to the edge of the camp, whatever I do, you do the same.

Judges 7:18 When I and everyone with me blow the [shofar], then you blow your [shofar]s all around the whole camp, and shout, “For ADONAI and for Gid'on!”

Judges 7:19 Gid'on and the hundred men with him arrived at the edge of the camp a little before midnight, just after they had changed the guard. They blew the [shofar]s and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands.

Judges 7:20 All three companies blew the [shofar]s, broke the pitchers and held the torches in their left hands, keeping their right hands free for the [shofar]s they were blowing; and they shouted, “The sword for ADONAI and for Gid’on!”

Judges 7:21 Then, as every man stood still in place around the camp, the whole camp was thrown into panic, with everyone screaming and trying to escape.

Judges 7:22 Gid’on’s men blew their 300 [shofar]s, and ADONAI caused everyone in the camp to attack his comrades; and the enemy fled beyond Beit-Sheetah near Tz’rerah, as far as the border of Avel-M’cholah, by Tabat.

Judges 7:23 Then men of Isra’el were summoned from Naftali, Asher, and both regions of M’nasheh; and they pursued Midyan.

Judges 7:24 Gid’on sent messengers through all the hills of Efrayim, with the message, “Come down and attack Midyan; and capture the rivers before they get there, as far as Beit-Barah, and also the Yarden.” So all the men of Efrayim came together and seized the rivers as far as Beit-Barah and the Yarden.

Judges 7:25 They also captured two chiefs of Midyan, ‘Orev and Ze’ev. They put ‘Orev to death at the Rock of ‘Orev and Ze’ev at Ze’ev’s Winepress; then, as they kept pursuing Midyan, they brought the heads of Orev and Ze’ev to Gid’on, who had crossed to the far side of the Yarden.

Judges 8:1 But the men of Efrayim complained to Gid’on, “Why didn’t you call on us when you went to fight Midyan? Why did you treat us this way?” They were sharp in their criticism.

Judges 8:2 He answered by saying to them, “How can what I have done be compared with what you have done? Aren’t the grapes Efrayim leaves on the vines better than the ones Avi’ezer harvests?

Judges 8:3 God handed over to you Midyan’s chiefs, ‘Orev and Ze’ev. What could I do that matches what you did?” By saying that, he appeased their anger at him.

Judges 8:4 By now Gid’on and his three hundred men had come to the Yarden and crossed over. They were exhausted but were still pursuing the enemy.

Judges 8:5 In Sukkot he asked the people there, “Please give some loaves of bread to the men following me, because they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zevach and Tzalmuna the kings of Midyan.”

Judges 8:6 But the chiefs of Sukkot said, “You haven’t captured Zevach and Tzalmuna yet, so why should we give bread to your army?”

Judges 8:7 Gid’on said: “If that’s your answer, then after ADONAI has put Zevach and Tzalmuna in my hands, I will tear your flesh apart with desert thorns and thistles!”

Judges 8:8 From there he went up to P’nu’el and made the same request, and the people of P’nu’el gave the same answer as those of Sukkot.

Judges 8:9 So he answered the people of P’nu’el similarly, “When I return safe and sound, I will break down this tower!”

Judges 8:10 Now Zevach and Tzalmuna were in Karkor with their army, about 15,000 men, all that remained of the entire army of the people from the east; since 120,000 arms-bearing soldiers had fallen.

Judges 8:11 Gid’on went up, using the route of the nomads east of Novach and Yogbehah, and struck down the army when they thought they were safe.

Judges 8:12 Zevach and Tzalmuna fled, but Gid’on pursued them. Thus he captured the two kings of Midyan, Zevach and Tzalmuna, and routed their whole army in panic.

Judges 8:13 When Gid’on the son of Yo’ash returned from the battle by way of the Heres Pass,

Judges 8:14 he captured a young man from Sukkot and asked him about the chiefs and leaders of Sukkot; he wrote down for him the names of seventy-seven of them.

Judges 8:15 Then he came to the people of Sukkot and said: “You insulted me when you said, ‘You haven’t captured Zevach and Tzalmuna yet, so why should we give bread to your exhausted men?’ Well, here are Zevach and Tzalmuna!”

Judges 8:16 And he took the leaders of the city and desert thorns and thistles, and used them to teach the people of Sukkot a lesson!

Judges 8:17 He also broke down the tower of P’nu’el and put the men of the city to death.

Judges 8:18 Then he said to Zevach and Tzalmuna, “Tell me about the men you killed at Tavor.” They answered, “They looked like you, like a king’s sons.”

Judges 8:19 Gid’on replied, “They were my brothers, my mother’s sons. As surely as ADONAI is alive, I swear that if you had spared them, I would not kill you.”

Judges 8:20 Then he ordered his oldest son, Yeter, “Get up, and kill them!” But the boy didn’t draw his sword; being still a boy, he was afraid.

Judges 8:21 Then Zevach and Tzalmuna said, “You, do it. You, kill us. Let a grown man do what takes a grown man’s strength.” So Gid’on got up and killed Zevach and Tzalmuna; then he took the ornamental crescents from around their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:22 The men of Isra'el said to Gid'on: "Rule over us, you, your son and your grandson, because you saved us from the power of Midyan.

Judges 8:23 Gid'on replied, "Neither I nor my son will rule over you; ADONAI will rule over you."

Judges 8:24 Then he added, "But I have this request to make of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from the booty you have taken." For the enemy soldiers had worn gold earrings, like all the other tribes descended from Yishma'el.

Judges 8:25 They replied, "We're glad to give them to you." They spread out a robe, and each man threw in the earrings from his booty.

Judges 8:26 The gold earrings he requested weighed more than forty-two pounds; and this doesn't include the crescents, pendants and purple cloth worn by the kings of Midyan and the chains around their camels' necks.

Judges 8:27 Out of these things Gid'on made a ritual vest, which he located in his city, 'Ofrah. But all Isra'el turned it into an idol there, and it thus became a snare to Gid'on and his family.

Judges 8:28 This is how Midyan was defeated by Isra'el, so that they ceased to be a threat. The land had rest forty years during the lifetime of Gid'on;

Judges 8:29 Yeruba'al the son of Yo'ash returned to his home and stayed there.

Judges 8:30 Gid'on became the father of seventy sons, because he had many wives.

Judges 8:31 He also had a concubine in Sh'khem, and she too bore him a son, whom he called Avimelekh.

Judges 8:32 Gid'on the son of Yo'ash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Yo'ash, in 'Ofrah of the Avi'ezri.

Judges 8:33 But as soon as Gid'on was dead, the people of Isra'el again went astray after the [ba'alim] and made Ba'al-B'rit their god.

Judges 8:34 They forgot ADONAI their God, who had saved them from the power of all their enemies on every side;

Judges 8:35 and they showed no kindness toward the family of Yeruba'al, that is, Gid'on, to repay them for all the good he had done for Isra'el.

Judges 9:1 Avimelekh the son of Yeruba'al went to Sh'khem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with the whole clan of his maternal grandfather. He said,

Judges 9:2 "Please ask all the men of Sh'khem, 'Which is better for you- that all seventy sons of Yeruba'al rule over you, or that one person rule over you? And remember that I am your blood relative.'"

Judges 9:3 His mother’s brothers spoke to all the men of Sh’khem and said all this about him, so that they followed their feelings and supported Avimelekh, arguing, “After all, he’s our brother.”

Judges 9:4 They also gave him seventy pieces of silver from the temple of Ba’al-B’rit; and he used these to pay good-for-nothing thugs to follow him.

Judges 9:5 He went back to his father’s house in ‘Ofrah and killed his brothers the sons of Yeruba’al, all seventy of them, on a single rock, except for Yotam Yeruba’al’s youngest son, who stayed alive because he hid himself.

Judges 9:6 All the men of Sh’khem and all Beit-Millo got together and went and made Avimelekh king at the oak by the cult-pillar in Sh’khem.

Judges 9:7 When they told this to Yotam, he went and stood on top of Mount G’rizim and shouted, “Listen to me, you leaders of Sh’khem; then God will listen to you!

Judges 9:8 Once the trees went out to choose a king to rule them. They said to the olive tree, ‘Rule over us!’

Judges 9:9 But the olive tree replied, ‘Am I supposed to leave my oil, which is used to honor both God and humanity, just to go and hold sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:10 So the trees said to the fig tree, ‘You, come and rule over us!’

Judges 9:11 But the fig tree replied, ‘Am I supposed to leave my sweetness and my good fruit just to go and hold sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:12 So the trees said to the grapevine, ‘You, come and rule over us!’

Judges 9:13 But the grapevine replied, ‘Am I supposed to leave my wine, which gives cheer to God and humanity, just to go and hold sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:14 Finally, all the trees said to the thorn bush, ‘You, come and rule over us!’

Judges 9:15 The thorn bush replied, ‘If you really make me king over you, then come and take shelter in my shade. But if not, let fire come out of the thorn bush and burn down the cedars of the L’vanon!’

Judges 9:16 “Here’s the point. Have you been honest and straightforward in making Avimelekh king? Have you been fair with Yeruba’al and his household and treated him as he deserves?

Judges 9:17 My father fought on your behalf, risking his life, and rescued you from the power of Midyan;

Judges 9:18 and now you are rebelling against my father’s household. You’ve killed his seventy sons on a single stone and made

Avimelekh, the son of his slave-girl, king over the men of Sh’khem, because he’s your brother.

Judges 9:19 I say this: if you are dealing honestly and righteously with Yeruba’al and his household today, then may you enjoy Avimelekh and may he enjoy you!

Judges 9:20 But if not, let fire come out from Avimelekh and burn up the men of Sh’khem and Beit-Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Sh’khem and Beit-Millo and burn up Avimelekh!”

Judges 9:21 Then Yotam fled, making his way to Be’er, and he lived there for fear of Avimelekh his brother.

Judges 9:22 Avimelekh was chief over Isra’el for three years.

Judges 9:23 But God sent a spirit of discord between Avimelekh and the men of Sh’khem, so that the men of Sh’khem dealt treacherously with Avimelekh.

Judges 9:24 This came about so that the crime against the seventy sons of Yeruba’al might be avenged and the responsibility for their bloody death be placed on Avimelekh their brother, who murdered them, and on the men of Sh’khem, who helped him kill his brothers.

Judges 9:25 So the men of Sh’khem sent out men to ambush him on the mountaintops. They robbed everyone who went past them, and Avimelekh was told about it.

Judges 9:26 Ga’al the son of a slave came with his brothers and went on to Sh’khem, and the men of Sh’khem put their trust in him.

Judges 9:27 They went out into the field, gathered their grapes and pressed the juice out of them. Then they held a feast and went into the house of their god to eat and drink, and there they insulted Avimelekh.

Judges 9:28 Ga’al the son of a slave said, “Who is Avimelekh? Think of the contrast with Sh’khem! Why should we serve Avimelekh? Isn’t he the son of Yeruba’al? Isn’t Z’vul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Sh’khem! Why should we serve Avimelekh?

Judges 9:29 If I were in control of this people, I’d get rid of Avimelekh!” Then, addressing his words to Avimelekh, he said, “Come out and fight! I don’t care if you make your army even larger!”

Judges 9:30 When Z’vul the ruler of the city heard the words of Ga’al the son of a slave, he was enraged.

Judges 9:31 He sent messengers to Avimelekh in Tormah with this message: “Ga’al the son of a slave and his brothers have come to Sh’khem, and they’re inciting the city against you.

Judges 9:32 You and the men with you should come up now at night and lie in wait in the field.

Judges 9:33 In the morning, get up early, as soon as the sun rises; and attack the city. Then, when Ga'al and the men with him come out to fight you, do whatever you can to them."

Judges 9:34 Avimelekh and all the men with him came up by night and lay in wait against Sh'khem in four groups.

Judges 9:35 Ga'al the son of a slave went out and stationed himself at the entrance to the city gate. Then Avimelekh and his men rose from their ambush.

Judges 9:36 When Ga'al saw the men, he said to Z'vul, "Look, there are men coming down from the mountaintops." Z'vul answered, "You're seeing the shadows of the mountains as if they were men."

Judges 9:37 Ga'al said again, "Look, there are men coming down from the main hill in the land, and one group is coming on the road from the Fortuneteller's Oak.

Judges 9:38 Z'vul said to him, "Where's your mouth now? You said, 'Who is Avimelekh? Why should we serve him?' Aren't these the people you despise? Go on out and fight them!"

Judges 9:39 So Ga'al went out, leading the men of Sh'khem, and fought Avimelekh.

Judges 9:40 But Avimelekh gave chase, and Ga'al took to flight; many fell wounded, strewn all along the way to the city gate.

Judges 9:41 Then Avimelekh took up residence in Arumah, and Z'vul drove out Ga'al and his brothers, so that they could not live in Sh'khem.

Judges 9:42 But the very next day, the people went out into the field, and Avimelekh was told about it.

Judges 9:43 He took his men, divided them into three groups, and lay in wait in the field. When he saw the people going out of the city, he came out of hiding and slaughtered them.

Judges 9:44 Avimelekh and his group rushed forward and occupied the entrance to the city gate, while the other two groups attacked all those in the field and killed them.

Judges 9:45 Avimelekh fought against the city all that day; captured it, killed its people, destroyed its buildings and sowed its land with salt.

Judges 9:46 When all the men in the fortress at Sh'khem heard about this, they took refuge in the stronghold of the temple of El-B'rit.

Judges 9:47 Avimelekh was told that all the men from the Sh'khem fortress had gathered together;

Judges 9:48 so he led all his men up to Mount Tzalmon, where he took an axe in his hand, cut a branch off a tree, and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to those with him, "Quick! Do just what you saw me do!"

Judges 9:49 They all did likewise, each man cutting off his branch; and they followed Avimelekh. They put the branches up against the stronghold, set them on fire, and burned down the stronghold; so that all the people from the Sh’khem fortress died, about a thousand men and women.

Judges 9:50 Then Avimelekh went to Tevetz, set up camp against Tevetz and captured it.

Judges 9:51 But there was a fortified tower inside the city; and all the men and women took refuge in it, everyone in the city. They shut themselves inside and went up onto the roof of the tower.

Judges 9:52 However, when Avimelekh approached the tower, attacked it, and then came up close to the tower’s door in order to burn it down,

Judges 9:53 a woman dropped an upper millstone on Avimelekh’s head, cracking his skull.

Judges 9:54 He quickly called out to the young man holding his armor, “Draw your sword, and finish me off, so that people won’t say a woman killed me.” So his attendant ran him through, and he died.

Judges 9:55 When the men of Isra’el saw that Avimelekh was dead, they all went back home.

Judges 9:56 This is how God paid back Avimelekh for the wrong he did to his father in murdering his seventy brothers.

Judges 9:57 God also repaid the men of Sh’khem for all the wrong they had done; on them came the curse of Yotam the son of Yeruba’al.

Judges 10:1 After Avimelekh there arose to save Isra’el Tola the son of Pu’ah, the son of Dodo, from the tribe of Yissakhar. He lived in Shamir, in the hills of Efrayim.

Judges 10:2 He judged Isra’el twenty-three years, and when he died he was buried in Shamir.

Judges 10:3 After him arose Ya’ir, from Gil’ad. He judged Isra’el twenty-two years.

Judges 10:4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty young donkeys. They owned thirty cities which are called Havot-Ya’ir to this day; they are in the territory of Gil’ad.

Judges 10:5 When Ya’ir died, he was buried in Kamon.

Judges 10:6 Again the people of Isra’el did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective- they served the [ba’alim], the [‘ashtarot], the gods of Aram, the gods of Tzidon, the gods of Mo’av, the gods of the people of ‘Amon and the gods of the P’lishtim. They abandoned ADONAI and did not serve him;

Judges 10:7 so the anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra’el, and he handed them over to the P’lishtim and the people of ‘Amon.

Judges 10:8 For eighteen years, starting that year, they oppressed and persecuted all the people of Isra’el who lived beyond the Yarden, in the territory of the Emorim, in Gil’ad.

Judges 10:9 The people of ‘Amon also crossed the Yarden to fight Y’hudah, Binyamin and the house of Efrayim; so that Isra’el was greatly distressed.

Judges 10:10 Then the people of Isra’el cried to ADONAI, “We have sinned against you by forsaking our God and serving the [ba’alim.]”

Judges 10:11 ADONAI said to the people of Isra’el, “I saved you from the Egyptians, the Emorim, the people of ‘Amon, and the P’lishtim, didn’t I?

Judges 10:12 Likewise, when the people of Tzidon, ‘Amalek and Ma’on oppressed you, you cried out to me; and I rescued you from their power.

Judges 10:13 Yet you abandoned me and served other gods; therefore I will not rescue you any more.

Judges 10:14 Go and cry to the gods you chose; let them rescue you when you’re in trouble!”

Judges 10:15 The people of Isra’el said to ADONAI, “We have sinned! Treat us in whatever way seems good to you, but save us today, please!”

Judges 10:16 They got rid of their foreign gods and served ADONAI, and he became troubled by Isra’el’s misery.

Judges 10:17 Then the people of ‘Amon gathered together and set up camp in Gil’ad, while the people of Isra’el assembled and camped at Mitzpah.

Judges 10:18 The people, the chiefs of Gil’ad, said to each other, “Whoever leads the battle against the army of ‘Amon will be head over everyone living in Gil’ad.”

Judges 11:1 Now Yiftach, a brave soldier from Gil’ad, was the son of a prostitute. His father, Gil’ad,

Judges 11:2 had other sons by his wife; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Yiftach away and told him, “You will not inherit from our father, because you are another woman’s son.”

Judges 11:3 Then Yiftach fled from his brothers and lived in the territory of Tov, where he enlisted a gang of rowdies who would go out raiding with him.

Judges 11:4 After a while the people of ‘Amon made war against Isra’el.

Judges 11:5 When the army of ‘Amon attacked Isra’el, the leaders of Gil’ad went to fetch Yiftach from the territory of Tov

Judges 11:6 and said to him, “Come and be our chief, so that we can fight the army of ‘Amon.”

Judges 11:7 Yiftach answered the leaders of Gil’ad, “Didn’t you hate me so much that you forced me out of my father’s house? Why are you coming to me now, when you’re in trouble?”

Judges 11:8 The leaders of Gil’ad replied, “Here is why we’ve come back to you now: if you lead us in war with the people of ‘Amon, you will be head over everyone living in Gil’ad.”

Judges 11:9 Yiftach answered them, “If you bring me back home to fight the army of ‘Amon, and ADONAI defeats them for me, I will be your head.”

Judges 11:10 The leaders of Gil’ad said to Yiftach, “ADONAI is witness that we promise to do what you have said.”

Judges 11:11 Then Yiftach went with the leaders of Gil’ad, and the people made him head and chief over them. Yiftach repeated all these conditions at Mitzpah in the presence of ADONAI.

Judges 11:12 Yiftach sent messengers to the king of the people of ‘Amon to say, “What’s your problem with us? Why are you invading our territory?”

Judges 11:13 The king of ‘Amon answered the messengers of Yiftach, “Because Isra’el took away my territory when they came up from Egypt. They took everything from the Arnon to the Yabok and the Yarden. Now, restore it peacefully.”

Judges 11:14 Yiftach sent messengers again to the king of the people of ‘Amon

Judges 11:15 with this response, “Here is what Yiftach has to say: ‘Isra’el captured neither the territory of Mo’av nor the territory of the people of ‘Amon.

Judges 11:16 But when Isra’el came up from Egypt, walked through the desert to the Red Sea and arrived at Kadesh, Judges 11:17 then Isra’el sent messengers to the king of Edom, to say, “Please let us pass through your land.” But the king of Edom wouldn’t let them. He sent a similar message to the king of Mo’av, but neither would he, so Isra’el stayed at Kadesh.

Judges 11:18 Then they walked through the desert, around the territory of Edom and the territory of Mo’av, past the east border of the territory of Mo’av, and pitched camp on the other side of the Arnon; but they did not cross the border into Mo’av, for the Arnon was the border of Mo’av.

Judges 11:19 Isra’el sent messengers to Sichon king of the Emori and king of Heshbon with this message, “Please let us pass through your land to our own place.”

Judges 11:20 But Sichon did not trust that Isra’el would only pass through his land, so he gathered all his people together, pitched camp in Yahatz and fought against Isra’el.

Judges 11:21 ADONAI the God of Isra'el handed Sichon and all his people over to Isra'el, and they killed them. Thus Isra'el possessed all the territory of the Emori who lived there.

Judges 11:22 They took possession of all the territory of the Emori from the Arnon to the Yabok and from the desert to the Yarden.

Judges 11:23 So now that ADONAI the God of Isra'el has expelled the Emori before his people Isra'el, do you think that you will expel us?

Judges 11:24 You should just keep the territory your god K'mosh has given you; while we, for our part, will hold onto whatever ADONAI our God has given us of the lands that belonged to others before us.

Judges 11:25 Really, are you better than Balak the son of Tzippor, king of Mo'av? Did he ever pick a quarrel with Isra'el or fight with us?

Judges 11:26 Isra'el lived in Heshbon and its villages, in 'Aro'er and its villages and in all the cities on the banks of the Arnon for three hundred years. Why didn't you take them back during that time?

Judges 11:27 No, I have done you no wrong. But you are doing me wrong to war against me. May ADONAI the Judge be judge today between the people of Isra'el and the people of 'Amon.'"

Judges 11:28 But the king of the people of 'Amon paid no attention to the message Yiftach sent him.

Judges 11:29 Then the spirit of ADONAI came upon Yiftach; and he passed through Gil'ad and M'nasheh, on through Mitzpeh of Gil'ad, and from there over to the people of 'Amon.

Judges 11:30 Yiftach made a vow to ADONAI: "If you will hand the people of 'Amon over to me,

Judges 11:31 then whatever comes out the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the people of 'Amon will belong to ADONAI; I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering."

Judges 11:32 So Yiftach crossed over to fight the people of 'Amon, and ADONAI handed them over to him.

Judges 11:33 He killed them from 'Aro'er until you reach Minnit, twenty cities, all the way to Avel-K'ramim; it was a massacre. So the people of 'Amon were defeated before the people of Isra'el.

Judges 11:34 As Yiftach was returning to his house in Mitzpah, his daughter came dancing out to meet him with tambourines. She was his only child; he had no other son or daughter.

Judges 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Oh, no, my daughter! You're breaking my heart! Why must you be the cause of such pain to me? I made a vow to ADONAI, and I can't go back on my word."

Judges 11:36 She said to him, “Father, you made a vow to ADONAI; so do whatever you said you would do to me; because ADONAI did take vengeance on your enemies the people of ‘Amon.”

Judges 11:37 Then she said to her father, “Just do this one thing for me- let me be alone for two months. I’ll go away into the mountains with my friends and mourn, because I will die without getting married.”

Judges 11:38 “You may go,” he answered, and he sent her away for two months. She left, she and her friends, and mourned in the mountains that she would die unmarried.

Judges 11:39 After two months she returned to her father, and he did with her what he had vowed; she had remained a virgin. So it became a law in Isra’el

Judges 11:40 that the women of Isra’el would go every year for four days to lament the daughter of Yiftach from Gil’ad.

Judges 12:1 The men of Efrayim assembled, crossed into Tzafon and said to Yiftach, “Why didn’t you call us to go with you when you went over to fight the people of ‘Amon? We’re ready to burn down your house with you in it!”

Judges 12:2 Yiftach answered, “When my people and I were in a serious dispute with the people of ‘Amon, I called you; and you didn’t rescue me from their power.

Judges 12:3 When I saw that you weren’t rescuing me, I put my life in my own hands and went over to attack the people of ‘Amon; and ADONAI gave them over into my power. So why have you come up today to fight me?”

Judges 12:4 Then Yiftach gathered together all the men of Gil’ad and fought with Efrayim, and the men of Gil’ad defeated Efrayim; because they were saying, “You Gil’ad men who live in Efrayim and M’nasheh have deserted Efrayim!”

Judges 12:5 The men of Gil’ad cut off Efrayim from the crossings over the Yarden, and whenever anyone from Efrayim tried to escape and said, “Let me go across,” the men of Gil’ad would ask him, “Are you from Efrayim?” and if he said, “No,”

Judges 12:6 they would tell him to say “[Shibbolet].” If he said, “[Sibbolet],” because he could not make his mouth pronounce it right, they took hold of him and killed him on the spot at the Yarden crossing; at that time 42,000 men of Efrayim died.

Judges 12:7 Yiftach judged Isra’el for six years. Then Yiftach from Gil’ad died, and he was buried in one of the cities of Gil’ad.

Judges 12:8 After him Ibtzan of Beit-Lechem judged Isra’el.

Judges 12:9 He had thirty sons, and he had thirty daughters whom he sent abroad; he brought thirty women from abroad in to marry his sons. He judged Isra’el for seven years.

Judges 12:10 Then Ibtzan died and was buried at Beit-Lechem.

Judges 12:11 After him Elon from Z'vulun judged Isra'el; he judged Isra'el for ten years.

Judges 12:12 Then Elon from Z'vulun died and was buried at Ayalon, in the territory of Z'vulun.

Judges 12:13 After him Avdon the son of Hillel from Pir'aton judged Isra'el.

Judges 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Isra'el for eight years.

Judges 12:15 Then Avdon the son of Hillel from Pir'aton died and was buried at Pir'aton in the territory of Efrayim, in the 'Amalek hills.

Judges 13:1 Again the people of Isra'el did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, and ADONAI handed them over to the P'lishtim for forty years.

Judges 13:2 There was a man from Tzor'ah from the family of Dan, whose name was Manoach; his wife was barren, childless.

Judges 13:3 The angel of ADONAI appeared to the woman and said to her, "Listen! You are barren, you haven't had a child, but you will conceive and bear a son.

Judges 13:4 Now, therefore, be careful not to drink any wine or other intoxicating liquor, and don't eat anything unclean.

Judges 13:5 For indeed you will conceive and bear a son. No razor is to touch his head, because the child will be a [nazir] for God from the womb. Moreover, he will begin to rescue Isra'el from the power of the P'lishtim."

Judges 13:6 The woman came and told her husband; she said, "A man of God came to me; his face was fearsome, like that of the angel of God. I didn't ask him where he came from, and he didn't tell me his name.

Judges 13:7 But he said to me, 'Listen! You will conceive and bear a son, so now don't drink any wine or other intoxicating liquor, and don't eat anything unclean, because the child will be a [nazir] for God from the womb until the day he dies.'"

Judges 13:8 Then Manoach prayed to ADONAI, "Please, [Adonai], let the man of God you sent come again to us and teach us what we should do for the child who will be born."

Judges 13:9 God paid attention to what Manoach said, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but her husband Manoach wasn't with her.

Judges 13:10 The woman hurried and ran to tell her husband, "Here! That man, the one who came to me the other day, he's come again!"

Judges 13:11 Manoach got up, followed his wife, went to the man and said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to the woman?” He answered, “I am.”

Judges 13:12 Manoach asked, “Now, when what you said comes true, what are the guidelines for raising the child? What should be done for him?”

Judges 13:13 The angel of ADONAI said to Manoach, “The woman should take care to do everything I said to her.

Judges 13:14 She shouldn’t eat anything that comes from a grapevine, she shouldn’t drink wine or other intoxicating liquor, and she shouldn’t eat anything unclean. She should do everything I ordered her to do.”

Judges 13:15 Manoach said to the angel of ADONAI, “Please stay with us a bit longer, so that we can cook a young goat for you.”

Judges 13:16 The angel of ADONAI said to Manoach, “Even if I do stay, I won’t eat your food; and if you prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to [ADONAI.]” For Manoach did not know that he was the angel of ADONAI.

Judges 13:17 Manoach said to the angel of ADONAI, “Tell us your name, so that when your words come true we can honor you.”

Judges 13:18 The angel of ADONAI answered him, “Why are you asking about my name? It is wonderful.”

Judges 13:19 Manoach took the kid and the grain offering and offered them on the rock to [ADONAI.] Then, with Manoach and his wife looking on, the angel did something wonderful-

Judges 13:20 as the flame went up toward the sky from the altar, the angel of ADONAI went up in the flame from the altar. When Manoach and his wife saw it, they fell to the ground on their faces.

Judges 13:21 But the angel of ADONAI did not appear again to Manoach or his wife. Then Manoach realized it had been the angel of [ADONAI.]

Judges 13:22 Manoach said to his wife, “We will surely die, because we have seen God!”

Judges 13:23 But his wife said to him, “If ADONAI had wanted to kill us, he wouldn’t have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from us, and he wouldn’t have shown us all this or told us such things at this time.”

Judges 13:24 The woman bore a son and called him Shimshon. The child grew, and ADONAI blessed him.

Judges 13:25 The Spirit of ADONAI began to stir him when he was in the Camp of Dan, between Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol.

Judges 14:1 Shimshon went down to Timnah, and in Timnah he saw a woman who was one of the P'lishtim.

Judges 14:2 He came up and told his father and mother, "I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the P'lishtim. Now get her for me to be my wife."

Judges 14:3 His father and mother replied, "Isn't there any woman from the daughters of your kinsmen or among all my people? Must you go to the uncircumcised P'lishtim to find a wife?" Shimshon said to his father, "Get her for me. I like her."

Judges 14:4 His father and mother didn't know that all this came from ADONAI, who was seeking grounds for a quarrel with the P'lishtim. (At that time the P'lishtim were ruling Isra'el.)

Judges 14:5 Shimshon went down with his father and mother to Timnah. When they came to the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion roared at him.

Judges 14:6 The Spirit of ADONAI came powerfully upon Shimshon, and barehanded he tore the lion to pieces as easily as if it had been a young goat. But he didn't tell his father or mother what he had done.

Judges 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman and found he still liked her.

Judges 14:8 Awhile later, as he was returning to claim his bride, he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion and saw that there was now a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey.

Judges 14:9 He scraped the honey out into his hands and went on, eating as he went; and when he came to his father and mother, he gave them some; and they ate too. But he didn't tell them that he had scraped the honey out of the body of the lion.

Judges 14:10 His father went down to the woman, and there Shimshon gave a banquet- this is what the young men used to do.

Judges 14:11 When the P'lishtim saw him, they provided thirty companions to be with him.

Judges 14:12 Shimshon said to them, "Let me present you with a riddle. If you can solve it within the seven days of the banquet and tell me the solution, I will give you thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of good clothes.

Judges 14:13 But if you can't solve it, you give me thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of good clothes." They answered, "Tell us the riddle, we want to hear it."

Judges 14:14 So he said to them, "Out of the eater came food; out of the strong came sweetness." Three days passed, and they couldn't solve the riddle.

Judges 14:15 On the seventh day, they said to Shimshon's wife, "Coax your husband into telling us the solution to the riddle. Otherwise we'll burn down your father's house and you with it. You two called us here to turn us into paupers, didn't you?"

Judges 14:16 Shimshon's wife went to him in tears and said, "You don't love me, you hate me! You told a riddle to my fellow countrymen, and you haven't told me the answer." He said to her, "Look, I haven't even told it to my father and mother! Should I tell you?"

Judges 14:17 But she had been crying throughout the seven days of the banquet; so on the seventh day, because she had kept pressing him, he told her the solution; and she passed it on to her people.

Judges 14:18 Then, before sundown on the seventh day, the men of the city said to him, "What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion?" Shimshon answered, "If you hadn't plowed with my young cow, you wouldn't have solved my riddle now."

Judges 14:19 Then the Spirit of ADONAI came over him powerfully. He went down to Ashkelon, killed thirty of their men, took their good clothes, and gave them to the men who had "solved" the riddle. He was boiling with rage, so he went straight up to his father's house,

Judges 14:20 and his wife was given to the companion who had been best man at the wedding.

Judges 15:1 But after a while, during the wheat-harvest season, Shimshon went to see his wife. He brought a young goat for her and said to her father, "I want to go to my wife in her room." But he wouldn't let him.

Judges 15:2 Her father said, "I really thought you hated her altogether, so I gave her to your best man. But her younger sister- isn't she even prettier? Why not take her instead?"

Judges 15:3 Shimshon said to them, "This time I'm through with the P'lishtim! I'm going to do something terrible to them!"

Judges 15:4 So Shimshon went and caught three hundred foxes. Then he took torches, tied pairs of foxes to each other by their tails, and put a torch in the knot of every pair of tails.

Judges 15:5 Then he set the torches on fire and let the foxes loose in wheat fields of the P'lishtim. In this way he burned up the harvested wheat along with the grain waiting to be harvested, and the olive orchards as well.

Judges 15:6 The P'lishtim asked, "Who did this?" They answered, "Shimshon the son-in-law of the man from Timnah, because he took Shimshon's wife and gave her to his best man." Then the P'lishtim came up and burned both her and her father to death.

Judges 15:7 Shimshon said to them, "I will certainly have my revenge on you for doing such a thing; but after I do, I'll stop."

Judges 15:8 Infuriated, he began killing them right and left; it was a massacre. Then he went down and stayed in the cave at the 'Eitam Rock.

Judges 15:9 The P'lishtim went up, pitched camp in Y'hudah and attacked Lechi.

Judges 15:10 The men of Y'hudah said, "Why are you attacking us?" They replied, "To arrest Shimshon, that's why- to treat him the way he treated us."

Judges 15:11 Then 3,000 men from Y'hudah went down to the cave at the Eitam Rock and said to Shimshon, "Don't you know that the P'lishtim are our rulers? What are you doing to us?" He answered, "I've only treated them the way they treated me."

Judges 15:12 They said to him, "We've come down to arrest you and hand you over to the P'lishtim." Shimshon replied, "Swear to me that you won't fall on me yourselves."

Judges 15:13 They said to him, "No, but we will tie you up and hand you over to them. However, we promise not to kill you." So they tied him up with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

Judges 15:14 When he got to Lechi, the P'lishtim came running and shouting at him; and the Spirit of ADONAI came on him powerfully. The ropes on his arms became as weak as burnt flax and fell from his arms.

Judges 15:15 He found a fresh donkey jawbone, took it in his hand, and with it he struck down a thousand men.

Judges 15:16 Shimshon said, "With the jawbone of a donkey I left heaps piled on heaps! With the jawbone of a donkey I killed a thousand men!"

Judges 15:17 After he finished speaking he threw the jawbone away, and the place came to be called Ramat-Lechi [[jawbone heights]].

Judges 15:18 Then he felt very thirsty, so he called on ADONAI, saying, "You accomplished this great rescue through your servant. But am I now to die from thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"

Judges 15:19 Then God made a gash in the crater at Lechi, and water came out. When he had drunk, his spirit came back; and he revived. This is why the place was called 'Ein-HaKorei [[the spring of him who called]], and it is there in Lechi until now.

Judges 15:20 He judged Isra'el in the period of the P'lishtim for twenty years.

Judges 16:1 Shimshon went to 'Azah, where he saw a prostitute and went in to spend the night with her.

Judges 16:2 The people in 'Azah were told that Shimshon had come, so they surrounded the place where he was and also set an ambush for him all night at the city gate. Their plan was to do nothing at night, but to wait until morning and then kill him.

Judges 16:3 However, Shimshon stayed in bed until midnight; then he got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts as well, pulled them up, bar and all, hoisted them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill overlooking Hevron.

Judges 16:4 After this, he fell in love with a woman who lived in the Sorek Valley, whose name was D'lilah.

Judges 16:5 The chiefs of the P'lishtim went up to her and said, "Coax him into telling you where his great strength comes from and how we can overcome him, so that we can tie him up and subdue him. If you do, each of us will give you 1,100 pieces of silver."

Judges 16:6 D'lilah said to Shimshon, "Please tell me what it is that makes you so strong, and how someone could tie you up and subdue you."

Judges 16:7 Shimshon replied, "If they tie me up with seven fresh bowstrings that have never been dried, I will become as weak as any other man."

Judges 16:8 The chiefs of the P'lishtim brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried, and she tied him up with them.

Judges 16:9 Now she had people lying in wait in the inside room. So she said to him, "Shimshon! The P'lishtim have come for you!" But he snapped the bowstrings as easily as a piece of straw breaks when it touches fire, and the source of his strength remained unknown.

Judges 16:10 D'lilah said to Shimshon, "You're making fun of me, telling me lies. Now, come on, tell me what it takes to tie you up."

Judges 16:11 "All it takes," he answered, "is to tie me up with new ropes that haven't been used. Then I'll become weak and be like anyone else."

Judges 16:12 So D'lilah took new ropes, tied him up, and said to him, "Shimshon! The P'lishtim have come for you!" (The people lying in wait were in the inside room.) But he broke the ropes from off his arms like a thread.

Judges 16:13 D'lilah said to Shimshon, "Till now you've been making fun of me and telling me lies. Tell me what it takes to tie you up." He said, "If you weave the seven locks of my hair across thread on a loom."

Judges 16:14 So she fastened her cloth work in the loom with a pin and wove his hair in, then said to him, "Shimshon! The P'lishtim have come for you!" He awoke from his sleep and pulled away the loom pin and the interwoven cloth.

Judges 16:15 She said to him, "How can you say you love me when your heart isn't with me? Three times you've made fun of me, and you haven't told me the source of your great strength."

Judges 16:16 Every day she kept nagging at him and pressing at him, till it bothered him to death,

Judges 16:17 so that he finally told her everything. He said to her, "No razor has ever touched my head, because I have been a [nazir] of God since I was born. If someone shaves me, then my strength will leave me; and I will be like any other man.”

Judges 16:18 When D’lilah saw that he had really confided in her, she sent and summoned the chiefs of the P’lishtim with the message, “Come up this one last time, because he has finally told me the truth.” The chiefs of the P’lishtim went up to her and brought the money with them.

Judges 16:19 She had him go to sleep in her lap and called for a man to shave off his seven locks of hair. Then she began tormenting him, but his strength had gone away.

Judges 16:20 She said, “Shimshon! The P’lishtim have come for you!” He awoke from his sleep and said, “I’ll get out this time, just as I shook myself loose before.” But he didn’t know that ADONAI had left him.

Judges 16:21 So the P’lishtim seized him, gouged out his eyes and took him down to ‘Azah. There they bound him with two bronze chains and put him to work grinding grain at the mill in the prison.

Judges 16:22 However, after the hair on his head had been cut off, it began growing back again.

Judges 16:23 The chiefs of the P’lishtim assembled to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. As they celebrated they sang, “Our god has handed over to us our enemy Shimshon.”

Judges 16:24 Upon seeing him, the people praised their god: “Our god has handed over to us our enemy, who destroyed our land and killed so many of us.”

Judges 16:25 When they were in high spirits they said, “Summon Shimshon to amuse us.” So they called Shimshon out of the prison, and he amused them. When they put him between the columns,

Judges 16:26 Shimshon said to the boy holding him by the hand, “Let me feel the columns supporting the building, so that I can lean on them.”

Judges 16:27 The building was full of men and women; and all the chiefs of the P’lishtim were there; in addition to them, there were about three thousand men and women on the roof, watching, as Shimshon performed.

Judges 16:28 Shimshon called to ADONAI, “[Adonai ELOHIM], just this once, please, think of me, and please, give me strength, so that I can take revenge on the P’lishtim for at least one of my two eyes.”

Judges 16:29 Shimshon got a good hold on the two middle columns supporting the building and leaned on them, on one with his right hand and on the other with his left.

Judges 16:30 Then, crying, “Let me die with the P’lishtim!” he pushed with all his might; and the building collapsed on the chiefs and on all the people inside. So he killed more at his death than he had killed during his life.

Judges 16:31 His brothers and all his father's family came down, took him, brought him up and buried him between Tzor'ah and Eshta'ol, in the tomb of his father Manoach. He had judged Isra'el twenty years.

Judges 17:1 There was a man from the hills of Efrayim named Mikhay'hu.

Judges 17:2 He said to his mother, "You know the 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you- you pronounced a curse about it, and you told me about it? Well, the money is with me. I took it." His mother said, "May ADONAI bless my son,"

Judges 17:3 as he restored the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother. Then his mother said, "I solemnly dedicate this money of mine to ADONAI, in order for my son to make a carved image overlaid with silver. So now I'm giving it back to you."

Judges 17:4 But he returned the money to his mother, and she took 200 pieces of silver and gave them to the metalworker, who made a carved image overlaid with silver which was put in Mikhay'hu's house.

Judges 17:5 This man Mikhah owned a house of God; so he made a ritual vest and household gods and consecrated one of his sons, who became his [cohen].

Judges 17:6 At that time there was no king in Isra'el; a man simply did whatever he thought was right.

Judges 17:7 There was a young man from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah, from the family of Y'hudah, who was a [Levi.] He had been staying Judges 17:8 in Beit-Lechem, but he left there to find another place to live and came to the hills of Efrayim, where eventually he made his way to the house of Mikhah.

Judges 17:9 Mikhah asked him, "Where are you coming from?" He answered, "I am a [Levi] from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah, and I'm looking for a place to live."

Judges 17:10 Mikhah replied, "Stay with me, and be a father and [cohen] for me; I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, in addition to your clothing and food." So the [Levi] went in

Judges 17:11 and agreed to stay with the man; the young man became like one of his sons.

Judges 17:12 After Mikhah consecrated the [Levi], the young man became his [cohen] and stayed there in Mikhah's house.

Judges 17:13 Mikhah said, "Now I know that ADONAI will treat me well, because I have a [Levi] for a [cohen].

Judges 18:1 At that time there was no king in Isra'el, and it was also at that time that the tribe of Dan was looking for a place to claim ownership of and settle in, since they had not yet been given any land of their own among the tribes of Isra’el.

Judges 18:2 The people of Dan sent five leading men from Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol, representing their whole tribe, to spy out and explore the land. They instructed them, “Go, and explore the land.” They came to the hills of Efrayim, to the house of Mikhah, and stayed there.

Judges 18:3 While they were at Mikhah’s house they recognized the accent of the young man, the [Levi], so they approached him and said, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is there for you here?”

Judges 18:4 He answered, “Here’s the arrangement Mikhah has made with me: he pays me a wage, and I serve as his [cohen.]”

Judges 18:5 They said to him, “Please ask God whether our journey will be successful.”

Judges 18:6 The [cohen] replied, “Don’t worry. ADONAI is with you on this journey.”

Judges 18:7 The five men left, came to Layish and saw the people there living securely according to the customs of the Tzidonim, quietly and securely; since no one in the land was exercising authority that might shame them in any respect; moreover, they were far away from the Tzidonim and had no dealings with other peoples.

Judges 18:8 When they returned to their kinsmen in Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol, they asked them what they had to report.

Judges 18:9 They said, “Let’s go up and attack them. We’ve seen the land, and it’s excellent. Don’t delay; start moving! Go in, and take the land!

Judges 18:10 When you go, you will come to a people who feel safe. There’s plenty of land, the place lacks nothing, it has everything there is on earth, and God has given it to you.”

Judges 18:11 So from the tribe of Dan 600 men equipped for war set out from there, from Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol.

Judges 18:12 They went up and camped at Kiryat-Ye’arim, in Y’hudah, which is why that place is called Machaneh-Dan [[the camp of Dan]] to this day (actually, it’s behind Kiryat-Ye’arim).

Judges 18:13 From there they passed on into the hills of Efrayim and came to Mikhah’s house.

Judges 18:14 The men who had gone to spy out the land of Layish then said to their kinsmen, “Are you aware that in these buildings there is a ritual vest, household gods and a carved image overlaid with silver? Decide what you ought to do.”

Judges 18:15 They turned off the road and went to the house of the young [Levi], that is, to Mikhah’s house, and asked how he was doing.

Judges 18:16 The 600 soldiers from Dan stayed at the gate,

Judges 18:17 while the five who had spied out the land went in and took the idol overlaid with silver, the vest and the household gods. The [cohen] had stayed with the 600 soldiers by the gate.

Judges 18:18 But when they went into Mikhah's house and took the silver-covered image, the vest and the household gods, the [cohen] asked them, "What are you doing?"

Judges 18:19 They replied, "Be quiet, keep your mouth shut, and come with us. Be a father and a [cohen] for us. Which is better? To be a [cohen] in the house of one man or to be [cohen] to a whole tribe and family in Isra'el?"

Judges 18:20 This made the [cohen] feel very good; so he took the ritual vest, the household gods and the image and went off with the people.

Judges 18:21 So they turned and left, with their children, cattle and belongings going ahead of them.

Judges 18:22 When they were a good distance from Mikhah's house, the men who lived in the houses near his got together [[with him]], overtook the people from Dan

Judges 18:23 and began shouting at them. The people from Dan turned and said to Mikhah, "What's wrong with you, that you've gathered such a crowd?"

Judges 18:24 He answered, "You've taken away my god, which I made, and gone off with the [cohen]! What more have I got? How can you ask me, 'What's wrong with you?'"

Judges 18:25 The men from Dan replied, "You had best say no more to us, because some of us might get angry and attack you. You could lose your life, and so might the others in your household."

Judges 18:26 Then the people from Dan went their way; and when Mikhah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Judges 18:27 So they took what Mikhah had made and his [cohen]. They came to Layish, to a quiet and trusting people. They attacked, killed them and burned down the city.

Judges 18:28 No one came to rescue them, because it was far from Tzidon, and they had no dealings with other peoples. This was in the valley near Beit-Rechov. Then the people of Dan rebuilt the city and settled there.

Judges 18:29 They named the city Dan, after Dan their ancestor, who was born to Isra'el; although the city had previously been called Layish.

Judges 18:30 The people of Dan set up the image for themselves. Y'honatan the son of Gershom, the son of M'nasheh, and his sons were [cohanim] for the tribe of the people of Dan until the day of the exile from the land.

Judges 18:31 Thus they erected for themselves Mikhah’s idol which he had made, and it remained there as long as the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19:1 In those days, when there was no king in Isra’el, there was a certain [Levi] living on the far side of the Efrayim hills who took a woman from Beit-Lechem in Y’hudah to be his concubine.

Judges 19:2 But his concubine was unfaithful to him and left him to go to her father’s house at Beit-Lechem in Y’hudah, where she stayed for some time, four months.

Judges 19:3 Then her husband went after her to persuade her to return; he had his servant with him and a pair of donkeys. She brought him into her father’s house; and when the girl’s father saw him, he was glad to meet him.

Judges 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl’s father, kept him there; so he remained with him three days; they ate, drank and stayed there.

Judges 19:5 On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to leave. But the girl’s father said to his son-in-law, “You’ll feel better if you have a bite of food before you leave.”

Judges 19:6 So the two of them sat down and ate and drank together. Then the girl’s father said to the man, “Please stay one more night, and have a good time.”

Judges 19:7 The man rose to leave, but his father-in-law pressed him, so he stayed there again.

Judges 19:8 The morning of the fifth day, he got up early to leave; but the girl’s father said, “Why don’t you have something to eat, and leave this afternoon?” So the two men ate.

Judges 19:9 When the man got up to leave with his concubine and servant, his father-in-law, the girl’s father, said to him, “Look, it’s almost evening. Please stay the night- you see that it’s getting late. Stay on, enjoy yourself, and tomorrow get going early on your way home.”

Judges 19:10 But the man wouldn’t stay that night; so he got up and left with his concubine and his two saddled donkeys; and they arrived at Y’vus, also known as Yerushalayim.

Judges 19:11 By the time they arrived at Y’vus it was nearly evening; and the servant said to his master, “Why don’t we go on into this city of the Y’vusi and stay there?”

Judges 19:12 But his master said to him, “We won’t go into a city of foreigners which doesn’t belong to the people of Isra’el. We’ll go on across to Giv’ah.”

Judges 19:13 He said to his servant, “Let’s go, and we’ll get to one of those places; we’ll stay in Giv’ah or Ramah.”

Judges 19:14 So they went on and kept traveling, until the sun set on them near Giv'ah, which belongs to Binyamin.

Judges 19:15 There they turned off the road to go and stay in Giv'ah. He went in and sat down in the city's open space, since no one had offered his home for them to spend the night.

Judges 19:16 In time, at nightfall, an old man came from his work in the field. He was from the Efrayim hills and was staying in Giv'ah, although the residents were of Binyamin.

Judges 19:17 The old man looked up, saw the traveler in the city's open space and said, "Where are you going, and where are you coming from?"

Judges 19:18 He replied, "We're crossing from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah to the far side of the Efrayim hills. That's where I'm from. I went to Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah, and now I'm going to the house of ADONAI; but there's no one here who will let me spend the night in his home.

Judges 19:19 We have straw and food for our donkeys, also bread and wine for me, my concubine and the boy there with your servants; we don't need anything else."

Judges 19:20 The old man said, "You're welcome to stay with me. I'll take care of anything you lack; just don't spend the night out in the open."

Judges 19:21 So he brought him home and gave food to the donkeys. Then they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Judges 19:22 They were relaxing, when suddenly some men from the city, good-for-nothings, surrounded the house and began beating at the door. "Send out the man who came home with you!" they demanded of the old man whose house it was. "We want to have sex with him!"

Judges 19:23 The man whose house it was went out and said to them, "No, my brothers, please don't do anything as wrong as this. Look, he's just a guest in my house; don't do this degrading thing.

Judges 19:24 Here's my daughter, who's a virgin, and his concubine. I'll bring them out. Mistreat them, do what you want to them, but don't do such a degrading thing to this man."

Judges 19:25 However, the men wouldn't listen to him; so the man took hold of his concubine and brought her out to them. They raped her and abused her all night long; only at dawn did they let her go.

Judges 19:26 At daybreak the woman came and fell down at the door of the man's house where her husband was, and she was still there when it grew light.

Judges 19:27 When her husband got up, opened the doors of the house, and went out to go on his way, he saw the woman lying there with her hands stretched out toward the door.

Judges 19:28 He said to her, “Get up! Let’s go!” But there was no answer. So he loaded her body on the donkey and began his trip home.

Judges 19:29 On arrival at his house, he got a knife, took hold of his concubine’s body, cut her up into twelve pieces, and sent them to all the regions of Isra’el.

Judges 19:30 Everyone who saw it said, “From the day the people of Isra’el came up from Egypt until now, never has such a thing happened or been seen. What are we going to do about it? Talk it over and decide.”

Judges 20:1 All the people of Isra’el came out, from Dan to Be’er-sheva, including Gil’ad; the community assembled with one accord before ADONAI at Mitzpah.

Judges 20:2 The leaders of all the tribes of Isra’el presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, 400,000 foot soldiers armed with swords.

Judges 20:3 Now the people of Binyamin heard that the people of Isra’el had gone up to Mitzpah. The people of Isra’el said, “Tell us, how was this crime committed?”

Judges 20:4 The [Levi], the husband of the murdered woman, answered, “I came to Giv’ah, which belongs to Binyamin, I and my concubine, to stay the night;

Judges 20:5 and the men in Giv’ah attacked me and surrounded the house I was staying in at night. They wanted to kill me, but instead they raped my concubine to death.

Judges 20:6 I took my concubine’s body, cut it into pieces and sent them throughout all the territories belonging to Isra’el; because they committed a shockingly obscene and degrading crime in Isra’el.

Judges 20:7 Look, you are all people of Isra’el. So discuss what to do, and give your advice here and now.”

Judges 20:8 All the people stood up in agreement and said, “None of us will go home to his tent or his house.

Judges 20:9 What we will do now to Giv’ah is this: we’ll draw lots,

Judges 20:10 we’ll take ten men out of each hundred throughout all the tribes of Isra’el, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand to collect food for the others. When these come to Giv’ah in Binyamin, they will avenge the crime that was committed.”

Judges 20:11 Thus all the men of Isra’el, joined together in complete agreement, assembled to attack the city.

Judges 20:12 The tribes of Isra’el sent men throughout all the tribe of Binyamin with this message: “What is this crime committed by some of your people?

Judges 20:13 Turn over these good-for-nothings who are in Giv’ah at once, so that we can execute them and rid Isra’el of such evil.” But the people of Binyamin refused to obey the order of their kinsmen the people of Isra’el.

Judges 20:14 Instead the people of Binyamin gathered themselves together from their cities and went to Giv’ah to fight the people of Isra’el.

Judges 20:15 On that day there were 26,000 men from Binyamin armed with swords, besides the inhabitants of Giv’ah, who numbered 700 specially chosen men.

Judges 20:16 All of these 700 specially picked men were left-handed, and every one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

Judges 20:17 The army of Isra’el, apart from Binyamin, numbered 400,000 men with swords; they were all experienced soldiers.

Judges 20:18 The army of Isra’el began by going up to Beit-El, where they asked God, “Who should go up first to attack the army of Binyamin?” ADONAI said, “Y’hudah first.”

Judges 20:19 So the army of Isra’el got up in the morning and set up their camp near Giv’ah.

Judges 20:20 Then the army of Isra’el went out to attack Binyamin and set up their battle line in front of Giv’ah.

Judges 20:21 But the army of Binyamin came out of Giv’ah and slaughtered the army of Isra’el; on that day 22,000 men fell.

Judges 20:22 The people, the men of Isra’el, restored their morale and again positioned themselves for battle where they had been the first day.

Judges 20:23 Then the army of Isra’el went up and cried before ADONAI until evening. They asked ADONAI, “Should we attack our kinsmen the people of Binyamin again? ADONAI answered, “Attack them.”

Judges 20:24 So the army of Isra’el went out to attack the army of Binyamin the second day.

Judges 20:25 But Binyamin went out against them from Giv’ah the second day and slaughtered the army of Isra’el; 18,000 men armed with swords fell.

Judges 20:26 Then the whole army of Isra’el, all the people, went up to Beit-El and cried and sat there in the presence of [ADONAI.] They fasted that day until evening, offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to ADONAI,

Judges 20:27 and asked ADONAI what to do. The ark for the covenant of God was there at that time;

Judges 20:28 and Pinchas the son of El’azar, the son of Aharon, stood before it at that time. They asked, “Should we still go out to battle again against our kinsmen the people of Binyamin, or should we stop?”

ADONAI answered, “Attack, because tomorrow I will hand them over to you.”

Judges 20:29 Isra’el hid some men around Giv’ah,

Judges 20:30 and on the third day Isra’el attacked the army of Binyamin and took a position against Giv’ah as they had the other times.

Judges 20:31 Again the army of Binyamin went out against the people. Lured away from the city, they began attacking and killing some of the people, as they had the other times- they killed about thirty men of Isra’el in the countryside and on the roads, one of which goes up to Beit-El and the other to Giv’ah.

Judges 20:32 The army of Binyamin said, “They’re defeated, just as before.” But the army of Isra’el said, “Let’s run off and draw them away from the city onto the roads.”

Judges 20:33 All the men of Isra’el left their places and took up a battle position at Ba’al-Tamar, while the other Isra’el men burst out of their hiding places at Ma’areh-Geva.

Judges 20:34 Ten thousand men chosen out of all Isra’el came over to attack Giv’ah, and the combat was intense. But the army of Binyamin didn’t know that they were about to be defeated.

Judges 20:35 For ADONAI routed Binyamin in Isra’el’s presence; that day the army of Isra’el destroyed 25,100 men of Binyamin, all of whom carried swords;

Judges 20:36 and the people of Binyamin realized that they had been beaten. The men of Isra’el, trusting the ones they had put in place to ambush Binyamin, gave ground to the men of Binyamin.

Judges 20:37 Then the men who had been lying in wait rushed in on Giv’ah, drew their swords and destroyed the city.

Judges 20:38 The army of Isra’el and the ambushers had agreed that as a signal they would make a huge cloud of smoke rise from the city,

Judges 20:39 at which time the men of Isra’el would turn back. When this happened, Binyamin began to attack. They killed about thirty of Isra’el’s men and said, “Clearly we’re defeating them again, as in the first battle.”

Judges 20:40 But when the smoke signal began rising from the city, the men of Binyamin looked behind them and saw the whole city going up to the sky in smoke.

Judges 20:41 Then, as the men of Isra’el reversed direction, those of Binyamin were overcome with terror. When they saw that disaster had come upon them,

Judges 20:42 they turned their backs on the men of Isra’el and made for the road to the desert. But the battle followed them, and those who came out of the city destroyed them from the rear.

Judges 20:43 They surrounded the men of Binyamin, chased them and trampled them down across from Giv’ah on the east.

Judges 20:44 Eighteen thousand men of Binyamin fell, all of them experienced soldiers.

Judges 20:45 They turned and fled toward the desert to the Rock of Rimmon; and 5,000 of them were killed on the roads. They followed them to Gid’om and killed another 2,000.

Judges 20:46 Thus the total number from Binyamin who fell that day was 25,000 experienced, sword-bearing soldiers.

Judges 20:47 But 600 turned and fled toward the desert to the Rock of Rimmon, and lived there four months.

Judges 20:48 The men of Isra’el turned back on the people of Binyamin and killed them with the sword, the entire city, the cattle and everything they found. Moreover, they set on fire all the cities they encountered.

Judges 21:1 The men of Isra’el had sworn in Mitzpah that none of them would let his daughter marry a man from Binyamin.

Judges 21:2 The people came to Beit-El and stayed there before God till evening crying out and weeping.

Judges 21:3 They said: “ADONAI, why has this come about in Isra’el? Why should there be today in Isra’el one tribe missing?”

Judges 21:4 The next day the people got up early, built an altar and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

Judges 21:5 The people of Isra’el asked, “Who among the tribes of Isra’el did not come up to assemble before ADONAI? For they had made a great oath to put to death whoever didn’t come up to ADONAI at Mitzpah.

Judges 21:6 The people of Isra’el became sorry for Binyamin their brother and said, “Today one tribe has been cut off from Isra’el.

Judges 21:7 How are we going to obtain wives for those who remain alive, since we’ve sworn by ADONAI that we won’t let our daughters marry them?”

Judges 21:8 Then they asked who from the tribes of Isra’el had not come up to ADONAI at Mitzpah and found that none had come from Yavesh-Gil’ad to the camp where the assembly was;

Judges 21:9 since when the people were counted, none of the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gil’ad were found there.

Judges 21:10 So the gathering sent 12,000 warriors there and ordered them, “Go, and put the people who live in Yavesh-Gil’ad to death with the sword, including women and children.

Judges 21:11 Completely destroy every man and every woman who has had sex with a man.”

Judges 21:12 Among the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gil'ad they found 400 young virgins who had not known a man by lying with him, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Kena'an.

Judges 21:13 Then the whole gathering sent a message proclaiming peace to the people of Binyamin who were at the Rock of Rimmon.

Judges 21:14 So Binyamin returned at that time, and the people of Isra'el gave them the women they had kept alive of the women from Yavesh-Gil'ad. But those weren't enough for them.

Judges 21:15 The people were still sorry for Binyamin because ADONAI had made a division among the tribes of Isra'el.

Judges 21:16 The leaders of the assembly asked, "What are we to do for those who still don't have wives, inasmuch as all the women of Binyamin have been killed?"

Judges 21:17 They said, "There has to be a way to help the survivors preserve Binyamin's inheritance, so that a tribe will not be eliminated from Isra'el.

Judges 21:18 Yet we can't give them our daughters as wives." For the people of Isra'el had sworn, "Cursed be whoever gives a wife to Binyamin."

Judges 21:19 Then they said, "Look, each year there's a festival in honor of ADONAI in Shiloh, north of Beit-El, on the east side of the road that goes up from Beit-El to Sh'khem, and south of Levonah."

Judges 21:20 They ordered the men of Binyamin, "Go, hide in the vineyards,

Judges 21:21 and keep watch. If the girls of Shiloh come out to do their dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each of you catch for himself a wife from the Shiloh girls, and go on to the land of Binyamin.

Judges 21:22 When their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, 'Give them as a personal favor to us, because we didn't take wives for each of them in battle. You didn't give them to them; that would have made you guilty of breaking your oath.'"

Judges 21:23 So the men of Binyamin did this- they took wives for themselves from the girls who were dancing, as many as they needed. They carried them off, went back to the land of their inheritance, rebuilt the cities and lived in them.

Judges 21:24 The people of Isra'el then left that place, each man returned to his tribe and family, and each man went out from there to the land he had inherited.

Judges 21:25 At that time there was no king in Isra'el; a man simply did whatever he thought was right.

Ruth

1:1 Back in the days when the judges were judging, at a time when there was a famine in the land, a certain man from Beit-Lechem went to live in the territory of Mo'av- he, his wife and his two sons.

Ruth 1:2 The man's name was Elimelekh, his wife's name was Na'omi, and his two sons were named Machlon and Kilyon; they were Efratim from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah. They arrived in the plain of Mo'av and settled there.

Ruth 1:3 Elimelekh, Na'omi's husband, died; and she was left, she and her two sons.

Ruth 1:4 They took wives for themselves from the women of Mo'av; the name of the one was 'Orpah; and the name of the other was Rut. They lived there for about ten years.

Ruth 1:5 Then Machlon and Kilyon died, both of them; and the woman was left with neither her two sons nor her husband.

Ruth 1:6 So she prepared to return with her daughters-in-law from the plain of Mo'av; for in the plain of Mo'av she had heard how ADONAI had paid attention to his people by giving them food.

Ruth 1:7 She left the place where she was with her two daughters-in-law and took the road leading back to Y'hudah.

Ruth 1:8 Na'omi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Each of you, go back to your mother's house. May ADONAI show grace to you, as you did to those who died and to me.

Ruth 1:9 May ADONAI grant you security in the home of a new husband." Then she kissed them, but they began weeping aloud.

Ruth 1:10 They said to her, "No; we want to return with you to your people."

Ruth 1:11 Na'omi said, "Go back, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb who could become your husbands?

Ruth 1:12 Go back, my daughters; go your way; for I'm too old to have a husband. Even if I were to say, 'I still have hope'; even if I had a husband tonight and bore sons;

Ruth 1:13 would you wait for them until they grew up? Would you refuse to marry, just for them? No, my daughters. On your behalf I feel very bitter that the hand of ADONAI has gone out against me."

Ruth 1:14 Again they wept aloud. Then 'Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye. But Rut stuck with her.

Ruth 1:15 She said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her god; go back, after your sister-in-law."

Ruth 1:16 But Rut said, “Don’t press me to leave you and stop following you; for wherever you go, I will go; and wherever you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God will be my God.

Ruth 1:17 Where you die, I will die; and there I will be buried. May ADONAI bring terrible curses on me, and worse ones as well, if anything but death separates you and me.”

Ruth 1:18 When Na’omi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

Ruth 1:19 So the two of them went on until they came to Beit-Lechem. When they arrived in Beit-Lechem, the whole city was stirred with excitement over them. The women asked, “Can this be Na’omi?”

Ruth 1:20 “Don’t call me Na’omi [[pleasant]],” she answered them; “call me Marah [[bitter]], because [Shaddai] has made my life very bitter.

Ruth 1:21 I went out full, and ADONAI has brought me back empty. Why call me Na’omi? ADONAI has testified against me, [Shaddai] has afflicted me.”

Ruth 1:22 This is how Na’omi returned, with Rut the woman from Mo’av, her daughter-in-law, accompanying her from the plain of Mo’av. They arrived in Beit-Lechem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Ruth 2:1 Na’omi had a relative on her husband’s side, a prominent and wealthy member of Elimelekh’s clan, whose name was Bo’az.

Ruth 2:2 Rut the woman from Mo’av said to Na’omi, “Let me go into the field and glean ears of grain behind anyone who will allow me to.” She answered her, “Go, my daughter.”

Ruth 2:3 So she set out, arrived at the field and gleaned behind the reapers. She happened to be in the part of the field that belonged to Bo’az from Elimelekh’s clan,

Ruth 2:4 when Bo’az arrived from Beit-Lechem. He said to the reapers, “ADONAI be with you”; and they answered him, “ADONAI bless you.”

Ruth 2:5 Then Bo’az asked his servant supervising the reapers, “Whose girl is this?”

Ruth 2:6 The servant supervising the reapers answered, “She’s a girl from Mo’av who returned with Na’omi from the plain of Mo’av.

Ruth 2:7 She said, ‘Please, let me glean and gather what falls from the sheaves behind the reapers.’ So she went and has kept at it from morning until now, except for a little rest in the shelter.”

Ruth 2:8 Bo’az said to Rut, “Did you hear that, my daughter? Don’t go to glean in another field, don’t leave this place, but stick here with my working girls.

Ruth 2:9 Keep your eyes on whichever field the reapers are working in, and follow the girls. I’ve ordered the young men not to bother you.

Whenever you get thirsty, go and drink from the water jars the young men have filled.”

Ruth 2:10 She fell on her face, prostrating herself, and said to him, “Why are you showing me such favor? Why are you paying attention to me? After all, I’m only a foreigner.”

Ruth 2:11 Bo’az answered her, “I’ve heard the whole story, everything you’ve done for your mother-in-law since your husband died, including how you left your father and mother and the land you were born in to come to a people about whom you knew nothing beforehand.

Ruth 2:12 May ADONAI reward you for what you’ve done; may you be rewarded in full by ADONAI the God of Isra’el, under whose wings you have come for refuge.”

Ruth 2:13 She said, “My lord, I hope I continue pleasing you. You have comforted and encouraged me, even though I’m not one of your servants.”

Ruth 2:14 When meal-time came, Bo’az said to her, “Come here, have something to eat, and dip your piece of bread in the [[olive oil and]] vinegar.” She sat by the reapers, and they passed her some roasted grain. She ate till she was full, and she had some left over.

Ruth 2:15 When she got up to glean, Bo’az ordered his young men, “Let her glean even among the sheaves themselves, without making her feel ashamed.

Ruth 2:16 In fact, pull some ears of grain out from the sheaves on purpose. Leave them for her to glean, and don’t rebuke her.”

Ruth 2:17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. When she beat out what she had gathered, it came to about a bushel of barley.

Ruth 2:18 She picked it up and went back to the city. Her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned, and Rut brought out and gave her what she had left over after eating her fill.

Ruth 2:19 Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you glean today? Where were you working? Blessed be the one who took such good care of you!” She told her mother-in-law with whom she had been working; she said, “The name of the man with whom I was working today is Bo’az.”

Ruth 2:20 Na’omi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by ADONAI, who has never stopped showing grace, neither to the living nor to the dead.” Na’omi also told her, “The man is closely related to us; he’s one of our redeeming kinsmen.”

Ruth 2:21 Rut the woman from Mo’av said, “Moreover, he even said to me, ‘Stay close to my young men until they’ve finished my harvest.’“

Ruth 2:22 Na’omi said to Rut her daughter-in-law, “It’s good, my daughter, for you to keep going out with his girls; so that you won’t encounter hostility in some other field.”

Ruth 2:23 So she stayed close to Bo’az’s girls to glean, until the end of the barley and wheat harvests; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3:1 Na’omi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, I should be seeking security for you; so that things will go well with you.

Ruth 3:2 Now there’s Bo’az our relative- you were with his girls. He’s going to be winnowing barley tonight at the threshing-floor.

Ruth 3:3 So bathe, anoint yourself, put on your good clothes, and go down to the threshing-floor; but don’t reveal your presence to the man until he’s finished eating and drinking.

Ruth 3:4 Then, when he lies down, take note of where he’s lying; later, go in, uncover his feet, and lie down. He will tell you what to do.”

Ruth 3:5 She responded, “I will do everything you tell me.”

Ruth 3:6 She went down to the threshing-floor and did everything as her mother-in-law had instructed her.

Ruth 3:7 After Bo’az was through eating and drinking and was feeling good, he went to lie down at the end of the pile of grain. She stole in, uncovered his feet and lay down.

Ruth 3:8 In the middle of the night the man was startled and turned over, and- there was a woman lying at his feet!

Ruth 3:9 He asked, “Who are you?” and she answered, “I’m your handmaid Rut. Spread your robe over your handmaid, because you are a redeeming kinsman.”

Ruth 3:10 He said, “May ADONAI bless you, my daughter. Your latest kindness is even greater than your first, in that you didn’t go after the young men, neither the rich ones nor the poor.

Ruth 3:11 And now, my daughter, don’t be afraid. I will do for you everything you say, for all the city leaders among my people know that you are a woman of good character.

Ruth 3:12 Now, it is true that I am a redeeming kinsman; but there is a redeemer who is a closer relative than I am.

Ruth 3:13 Stay tonight. If, in the morning, he will redeem you, fine!- let him redeem you. But if he doesn’t want to redeem you, then, as ADONAI lives, I will redeem you. Now, lie down until morning.”

Ruth 3:14 She lay at his feet until morning; then, before [[it was light enough that]] people could recognize each other, she got up; because he said, “No one should know that the woman came to the threshing-floor.”

Ruth 3:15 He also said, “Bring the shawl you are wearing, and take hold of it.” She held it while he put six measures of barley into it; then he went into the city.

Ruth 3:16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she asked, “Who are you? My daughter?” She told her everything the man had done for her.

Ruth 3:17 Then she added, “He gave me these six measures of barley; because he said to me, “You shouldn’t return to your mother-in-law with nothing.”

Ruth 3:18 Na’omi said, “My daughter, just stay where you are, until you learn how the matter comes out; for the man won’t rest unless he resolves the matter today.”

Ruth 4:1 Meanwhile, Bo’az had gone up to the gate and had sat down there, when the redeemer of whom Bo’az had spoken passed by. “Such-and-such,” he said, “come over, and sit down”; so he came over and sat down.

Ruth 4:2 He took ten of the city’s leaders and said, “Sit down here”; and they sat down.

Ruth 4:3 Then he said to the redeeming kinsman, “The parcel of land which used to belong to our relative Elimelekh is being offered for sale by Na’omi, who has returned from the plain of Mo’av.

Ruth 4:4 I thought I should tell you about it and say, ‘Buy it in the presence of the people sitting here and in the presence of the leaders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it. But if it is not to be redeemed, then tell me, so that I can know, because there is no one else in line to redeem it, and I’m after you.” He said, “I want to redeem it.”

Ruth 4:5 Then Bo’az said, “The same day you buy the field from Na’omi, you must also buy Rut the woman from Mo’av, the wife of the deceased [[son]], in order to raise up in the name of the deceased an heir for his property.”

Ruth 4:6 The redeemer said, “Then I can’t redeem it for myself, because I might put my own inheritance at risk. You, take my right of redemption on yourself; because I can’t redeem it.”

Ruth 4:7 In the past, this is what was done in Isra’el to validate all transactions involving redemption and exchange: a man took off his shoe and gave it to the other party; this was the form of attestation in Isra’el.

Ruth 4:8 So the redeemer said to Bo’az, “Buy it for yourself,” and took off his shoe.

Ruth 4:9 Bo’az addressed the leaders and all the people: “You are witnesses today that I am purchasing from Na’omi all that belonged to Elimelekh and all that belonged to Kilyon and Machlon.

Ruth 4:10 Also I am acquiring as my wife Rut the woman from Mo’av, the wife of Machlon, in order to raise up in the name of the deceased an heir for his property; so that the name of the deceased will not be cut off from his kinsmen and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today.”

Ruth 4:11 All the people at the gate and the leaders said, “We are witnesses. May ADONAI make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Le’ah, who between them built up the house of Isra’el. Do worthy deeds in Efrat; become renowned in Beit-Lechem.

Ruth 4:12 May your house, because of the seed ADONAI will give you from this young woman, become like the house of Peretz, whom Tamar bore to Y’hudah.”

Ruth 4:13 So Bo’az took Rut, and she became his wife. He had sexual relations with her, ADONAI enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

Ruth 4:14 Then the women said to Na’omi, “Blessed be ADONAI, who today has provided you a redeemer! May his name be renowned in Isra’el.

Ruth 4:15 May he restore your life and provide for your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”

Ruth 4:16 Na’omi took the child, laid it on her breast and became its nurse.

Ruth 4:17 The women who were her neighbors gave it a name; they said, “A son has been born to Na’omi,” and called it ‘Oved. He was the father of Yishai the father of David.

Ruth 4:18 Here is the genealogy of Peretz. Peretz was the father of Hetzron,

Ruth 4:19 Hetzron was the father of Ram, Ram was the father of ‘Amminadav,

Ruth 4:20 ‘Amminadav was the father of Nachshon, Nachshon was the father of Salmon,

Ruth 4:21 Salmon was the father of Bo’az, Bo’az was the father of ‘Oved,

Ruth 4:22 ‘Oved was the father of Yishai, and Yishai was the father of David.

1 Samuel

1:1 There was a man from Ramatayim-Tzofim, in the hills of Efrayim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Yerocham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tochu, the son of Tzuf, from Efrat.

1 Samuel 1:2 He had two wives, one named Hannah and the other P’ninah. P’ninah had children, but Hannah had no children.

1 Samuel 1:3 This man went up from his city every year to worship and sacrifice to [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] in Shiloh. The two sons of ‘Eli, Hofni and Pinchas, were [cohanim] of ADONAI there.

1 Samuel 1:4 One day, when Elkanah was sacrificing, he gave a portion of the sacrifice to his wife P’ninah and portions to each of her sons and daughters;

1 Samuel 1:5 but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved Hannah, even though ADONAI had kept her from having children.

1 Samuel 1:6 Her rival taunted her and made her feel bad, because ADONAI had kept her from having children.

1 Samuel 1:7 He did the same every year; and each time she went up to the house of ADONAI, she taunted her so much that she would cry and not eat.

1 Samuel 1:8 Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Hannah, why are you crying, and why aren’t you eating? Why be so sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

1 Samuel 1:9 So Hannah got up after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. ‘Eli the [cohen] was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of the temple of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 1:10 In deep depression she prayed to ADONAI and cried.

1 Samuel 1:11 Then she took a vow; she said, “[ADONAI-Tzva’ot], if you will notice how humiliated your servant is, if you will remember me and not forget your servant but will give your servant a male child, then I will give him to ADONAI for as long as he lives; and no razor will ever come on his head.”

1 Samuel 1:12 She prayed for a long time before ADONAI; and as she did so, ‘Eli was watching her mouth.

1 Samuel 1:13 Hannah was speaking in her heart- her lips moved, but her voice could not be heard- so ‘Eli thought she was drunk.

1 Samuel 1:14 ‘Eli said to her, “How long are you going to stay drunk? Stop drinking your wine!”

1 Samuel 1:15 But Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a very unhappy woman. I have not drunk either wine or other strong liquor; rather, I’ve been pouring out my soul before ADONAI.

1 Samuel 1:16 Don’t think of your servant as a worthless woman; because I have been speaking from the depth of my distress and anger.”

1 Samuel 1:17 Then ‘Eli replied, “Go in peace. May the God of Isra’el grant what you have asked of him.”

1 Samuel 1:18 She replied, “May your servant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went on her way, and she ate, and her face was no longer sad.

1 Samuel 1:19 They got up early in the morning and worshipped before ADONAI, then returned and came to their house in Ramah. Elkanah had sexual relations with Hannah his wife, and ADONAI remembered her.

1 Samuel 1:20 She conceived; and in due time she gave birth to a son, whom she named Sh’mu’el, “because I asked ADONAI for him.”*

1 Samuel 1:21 The husband, Elkanah, went up with all his household to offer the yearly sacrifice to ADONAI and fulfill his vow.

1 Samuel 1:22 But Hannah did not go up, explaining to her husband, “Not till the child has been weaned. Then I will bring him, so that he can appear before ADONAI and live there forever.”

1 Samuel 1:23 Her husband Elkanah answered her, “Do what seems good to you; stay here until you have weaned him. Only may ADONAI bring about what he said.” So the woman stayed behind and nursed the child, until she weaned him.

1 Samuel 1:24 After weaning him, she took him up with her, along with three young bulls, a bushel of flour and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of ADONAI in Shiloh, even though he was just a child.

1 Samuel 1:25 After the bull had been slaughtered, the child was brought to ‘Eli;

1 Samuel 1:26 and she said, “My lord, as sure as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here near you, praying to ADONAI.

1 Samuel 1:27 I prayed for this child, and ADONAI has granted the request I asked of him.

1 Samuel 1:28 Therefore, I too have loaned him to ADONAI- as long as he lives, he is on loan to ADONAI.” And he prostrated himself there before ADONAI.

1 Samuel 2:1 Then Hannah prayed; she said: “My heart exults in ADONAI! My dignity has been restored by ADONAI! I can gloat over my enemies, because of my joy at your saving me.

1 Samuel 2:2 “No one is as holy as ADONAI, because there is none to compare with you, no rock like our God.

1 Samuel 2:3 “Stop your proud boasting! Don’t let arrogance come from your mouth! For ADONAI is a God of knowledge, and he appraises actions.

1 Samuel 2:4 The bows of the mighty are broken, while the feeble are armed with strength.

1 Samuel 2:5 The well-fed hire themselves for bread, while those who were hungry hunger no more. The barren woman has borne seven, while the mother of many wastes away.

1 Samuel 2:6 “ADONAI kills and makes alive; he brings down to the grave, and he brings up.

1 Samuel 2:7 ADONAI makes poor, and he makes rich; he humbles, and he exalts.

1 Samuel 2:8 He raises the poor from the dust, lifts up the needy from the trash pile; he gives them a place with leaders and assigns them seats of honor. “For the earth’s pillars belong to ADONAI; on them he has placed the world.

1 Samuel 2:9 He will guard the steps of his faithful, but the wicked will be silenced in darkness. For it is not by strength that a person prevails-

1 Samuel 2:10 those who fight ADONAI will be shattered; he will thunder against them in heaven- ADONAI will judge the ends of the earth. He will strengthen his king and enhance the power of his anointed.”

1 Samuel 2:11 Elkanah went home to Ramah, while the child began ministering to ADONAI under the direction of ‘Eli the [cohen].

1 Samuel 2:12 ‘Eli’s sons were scoundrels who had no regard for ADONAI.

1 Samuel 2:13 The rule these [cohanim] followed in dealing with the people was that when anyone offered a sacrifice, the [cohen]’s servant would come, while the meat was stewing, with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

1 Samuel 2:14 He would stick it in the pan, kettle, caldron or pot; and the [cohen] would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is how they dealt with all the people of Isra’el who came there to Shiloh.

1 Samuel 2:15 The [cohen]’s servant would actually come before the fat had burned to smoke and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give the [cohen] meat he can roast; because he doesn’t want your meat stewed, but raw.”

1 Samuel 2:16 If the man answered, “First let the fat burn to smoke, then take as much as you want,” he would say, “No, give it to me now, or I’ll take it by force.”

1 Samuel 2:17 The sin of these young men was very serious in ADONAI’s view, because they treated offerings made to ADONAI with contempt.

1 Samuel 2:18 But Sh’mu’el ministered in the presence of ADONAI, wearing a linen ritual vest even though he was only a child.

1 Samuel 2:19 Each year his mother would make him a little coat and bring it when she came up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice.

1 Samuel 2:20 ‘Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, “May ADONAI give you children from this woman because of the boy you have loaned to ADONAI”; then they would go home.

1 Samuel 2:21 So ADONAI took notice of Hannah, and she conceived and bore three more sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Sh’mu’el grew in the presence of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 2:22 When ‘Eli was very old, he heard about everything his sons were doing to all Isra’el, and that they were having sex with the women doing service at the door of the tent of meeting.

1 Samuel 2:23 He asked them, “Why are you doing things like this? I am hearing bad reports about you from all these people.

1 Samuel 2:24 No, my sons, I don’t hear ADONAI’s people spreading a single good report!

1 Samuel 2:25 If a person commits a sin against another person, the judges can mediate between them. But if a person commits a sin against ADONAI, who can intercede for him?” However, they wouldn’t pay attention to what their father said, because ADONAI had decided to kill them.

1 Samuel 2:26 The child Sh’mu’el kept growing and gaining favor both with ADONAI and with people.

1 Samuel 2:27 A man of God came to ‘Eli and told him, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Didn’t I reveal myself to your ancestor’s clan when they were in Egypt, serving as slaves in Pharaoh’s household?

1 Samuel 2:28 Didn’t I choose him out of all the tribes of Isra’el to be my [cohen], go up to my altar, burn incense and wear a ritual vest in my presence? Didn’t I assign to your ancestor’s clan all the offerings of the people of Isra’el made by fire?

1 Samuel 2:29 So why are you showing such disrespect for my sacrifices and offerings, which I ordered to be made at my dwelling? Why do you show more honor to your sons than to me, making yourselves fat with the choicest parts of all the offerings of Isra’el my people?’

1 Samuel 2:30 “Therefore ADONAI the God of Isra’el says, ‘I did indeed say that your family and your father’s family would walk in my presence forever.’ But now ADONAI says, ‘Forget it! I respect those who respect me, but those who despise me will meet with contempt.

1 Samuel 2:31 The day is coming when I will break your strength and the strength of your father’s family, so that no one in your family will live to old age.

1 Samuel 2:32 At a time when Isra’el is prospering, you will see a rival in my Dwelling; and never will anyone in your family live to old age.

1 Samuel 2:33 Still, I won’t cut off every one of your men from my altar; because that would make your eyes grow dim, and you would waste away. Nevertheless, all your descendants will die young.

1 Samuel 2:34 Your sign that this will occur will be what happens to your two sons Hofni and Pinchas- they will both die on the same day.

1 Samuel 2:35 I will raise up for myself a faithful [cohen] who will do what I want and what I intend. I will make his family faithful, and he will serve in the presence of my anointed one forever.

1 Samuel 2:36 Everyone left in your family will come, prostrate himself before him for a silver coin or a loaf of bread, and say, “Please, won’t you give me some work as a [cohen], so I can have a scrap of bread to eat?”“

1 Samuel 3:1 The child Sh’mu’el continued ministering to ADONAI under ‘Eli’s direction. Now, in those days ADONAI rarely spoke, and visions were few.

1 Samuel 3:2 Once, during that period, ‘Eli had gone to bed- his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that it was hard for him to see.

1 Samuel 3:3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out; and Sh’mu’el had lain down to sleep in the sanctuary of ADONAI, where the ark of God was.

1 Samuel 3:4 ADONAI called, “Sh’mu’el!” and he answered, “Here I am.”

1 Samuel 3:5 Then he ran to ‘Eli and said, “Here I am- you called me?” But he said, “I didn’t call you; go back, and lie down.” So he went and lay down.

1 Samuel 3:6 ADONAI called a second time, “Sh’mu’el!” Sh’mu’el got up, went to ‘Eli and said, “Here I am- you called me.” He answered, “I didn’t call, my son; lie down again.”

1 Samuel 3:7 Now Sh’mu’el didn’t yet know ADONAI; the word of ADONAI had not yet been revealed to him.

1 Samuel 3:8 ADONAI called, “Sh’mu’el!” again, a third time. He got up, went to ‘Eli and said, “Here I am- you called me.” At last ‘Eli realized it was ADONAI calling the child.

1 Samuel 3:9 So ‘Eli said to Sh’mu’el, “Go, and lie down. If you are called again, say, ‘Speak, ADONAI; your servant is listening.’ Sh’mu’el went and lay down in his place.

1 Samuel 3:10 ADONAI came and stood, then spoke as at the other times: “Sh’mu’el! Sh’mu’el!” Then Sh’mu’el said, “Speak; your servant is listening.”

1 Samuel 3:11 ADONAI said to Sh’mu’el, “Look! I am going to do something in Isra’el that will make both ears of everyone who hears about it tingle.

1 Samuel 3:12 On that day I will do against ‘Eli everything I have said with regard to his family, from beginning to end.

1 Samuel 3:13 For I have told him that I will execute judgment against his family forever, because of his wickedness in not rebuking his sons, even though he knew that they had brought a curse on themselves.

1 Samuel 3:14 Therefore I have sworn to the family of ‘Eli that the wickedness of ‘Eli’s family will never be atoned for by any sacrifice or offering.”

1 Samuel 3:15 Sh’mu’el lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of ADONAI. But Sh’mu’el was afraid to tell ‘Eli the vision.

1 Samuel 3:16 Then ‘Eli called Sh’mu’el: “Sh’mu’el, my son!” He answered, “Here I am.”

1 Samuel 3:17 ‘Eli said, “What did he say to you? Please, don’t hide it from me; may God do whatever he said and worse, if you hide from me anything he said to you.”

1 Samuel 3:18 So Sh’mu’el told him every word and hid nothing. ‘Eli replied, “It is ADONAI; let him do what seems good to him.”

1 Samuel 3:19 Sh’mu’el kept growing, ADONAI was with him, and he let none of his words fall to the ground.

1 Samuel 3:20 All Isra’el from Dan to Be’er-Sheva became aware that Sh’mu’el had been confirmed as a prophet of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 3:21 ADONAI continued appearing in Shiloh, for ADONAI revealed himself to Sh’mu’el in Shiloh by the word of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 4:1 So the word of Sh’mu’el came to all Isra’el. Isra’el went out to fight against the P’lishtim, setting up camp at Even-’Ezer, while the P’lishtim camped at Afek.

1 Samuel 4:2 The P’lishtim drew up in battle formation against Isra’el. The battle was fierce, and Isra’el was beaten by the P’lishtim- they killed about four thousand soldiers on the battlefield.

1 Samuel 4:3 When the army had returned to camp, the leaders of Isra’el asked, “Why has ADONAI defeated us today before the P’lishtim? Let’s bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI from Shiloh to us, so that he will come among us and save us from our enemies.”

1 Samuel 4:4 So the people sent to Shiloh and brought from there the ark for the covenant of ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], who is present above the [k’ruvim.] The two sons of ‘Eli, Hofni and Pinchas, were there with the ark for the covenant of God.

1 Samuel 4:5 When the ark for the covenant of ADONAI entered the camp, all Isra’el gave a mighty shout that resounded through the land.

1 Samuel 4:6 On hearing the shout, the P’lishtim asked, “What does this great shout in the Hebrews’ camp mean?” Then they realized that the ark of ADONAI had arrived in the camp,

1 Samuel 4:7 and the P’lishtim became afraid. They said, “God has entered the camp! We’re lost! There was no such thing yesterday or the day before.

1 Samuel 4:8 We’re lost! Who will rescue us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods that completely overthrew the Egyptians in the desert.

1 Samuel 4:9 Be strong; and behave like men, you P’lishtim; so that you won’t become slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Behave like men, and fight!”

1 Samuel 4:10 The P’lishtim fought, Isra’el was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. It was a terrible slaughter- 30,000 of Isra’el’s foot soldiers fell.

1 Samuel 4:11 Moreover, the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of ‘Eli, Hofni and Pinchas, died.

1 Samuel 4:12 One of the soldiers, a man from Binyamin, ran and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes torn and earth on his head [[as a sign of mourning]].

1 Samuel 4:13 As he arrived, ‘Eli was sitting on his seat by the road, watching; because he was trembling with anxiety over the ark of God. When the man entered the city and told the news, the whole city began crying out.

1 Samuel 4:14 On hearing the cries, ‘Eli asked, “What does this uproar mean?” So the man hurried, came to ‘Eli and told him.

1 Samuel 4:15 ‘Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his gaze was fixed, because he was blind.

1 Samuel 4:16 The man said to ‘Eli, “I’m the soldier that came; I escaped today from the battlefield.” He asked, “How did things go, my son?”

1 Samuel 4:17 The one who had come with the news answered, “Isra’el fled before the P’lishtim, and there was a terrible slaughter among the people. Your two sons, Hofni and Pinchas, also are dead; and the ark of God was captured.

1 Samuel 4:18 As soon as he mentioned what had happened to the ark of God, ‘Eli fell backward off his seat next to the gate, broke his neck and died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Isra’el forty years.

1 Samuel 4:19 His daughter-in-law, Pinchas’s wife, was pregnant and near delivery-time. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and husband were dead, she went into abnormal labor, bent over and gave birth.

1 Samuel 4:20 As she was dying, the women standing by her said to her, “Don’t be afraid, because you have given birth to a son.” But she didn’t answer or show any sign of recognition.

1 Samuel 4:21 She named the child I-Khavod [[without glory]], saying, “The glory has departed from Isra’el”; because the ark of God had been captured, and because of her father-in-law and husband.

1 Samuel 4:22 She said, “The glory of Isra’el has gone into exile, because the ark of God has been captured.”

1 Samuel 5:1 The P’lishtim had captured the ark of God and brought it from Even-’Ezer to Ashdod.

1 Samuel 5:2 Then the P’lishtim took the ark of God, brought it to the temple of Dagon and set it next to Dagon.

1 Samuel 5:3 But early the next morning, when the people of Ashdod got up, there was Dagon, fallen down with his face to the ground before the ark of ADONAI. They took Dagon and set him in his place again;

1 Samuel 5:4 but early the following morning, when they got up, Dagon was again fallen down with his face to the ground before the ark of ADONAI; this time, the head of Dagon and both hands lay there, severed, on the threshold; all that was left of Dagon was his torso.

1 Samuel 5:5 This is why, to this day, the priests of Dagon and those entering his temple never walk on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod.

1 Samuel 5:6 ADONAI began oppressing the people of Ashdod; he ravaged them, striking Ashdod and its surrounding area with tumors.

1 Samuel 5:7 When the people of Ashdod came to understand what was happening, they said, “The ark of the God of Isra’el can’t remain with us, because he is oppressing us and our god Dagon.”

1 Samuel 5:8 They summoned all the leaders of the P’lishtim and asked, “What are we to do with the ark of the God of Isra’el?” They answered, “Have the ark of the God of Isra’el carried to Gat.” So they carried the ark of the God of Isra’el to Gat.

1 Samuel 5:9 But after it arrived there, ADONAI oppressed that city, causing terrible panic. He struck the people of the city, great and small alike; tumors broke out on them.

1 Samuel 5:10 Next they sent the ark of God to ‘Ekron; but when the ark of God arrived in ‘Ekron the ‘Ekronim shouted, “Now they’ve brought the ark of the God of Isra’el to us, to kill us and our people!”

1 Samuel 5:11 So they summoned all the leaders of the P’lishtim and said, “Send the ark of the God of Isra’el away! Let it go back to its own place, so that it won’t kill us and our people!”- because death and panic pervaded the whole city; God’s oppression was very heavy there.

1 Samuel 5:12 The people who didn’t die were struck with the tumors; and the city’s cries for help reached the skies.

1 Samuel 6:1 The ark of ADONAI was in the country of the P’lishtim for seven months.

1 Samuel 6:2 The P’lishtim summoned the priests and soothsayers and asked them, “What are we to do with the ark of ADONAI? Tell us how to send it back where it belongs.”

1 Samuel 6:3 They said, “If you do send off the ark of the God of Isra’el, don’t send it back empty, but return it with some sort of guilt offering for him. Then you will be cured, and you will learn why he has not stopped oppressing you.”

1 Samuel 6:4 They asked, “What kind of guilt offering should we send him?” and they replied, “Five gold models of tumors and five gold rats, because that’s how many leaders the P’lishtim have, and you and your leaders all had the same illness.

1 Samuel 6:5 So make models of your tumors and models of your rats that are infesting your land, and show respect to the God of Isra'el. Maybe he will stop oppressing you, your gods and your land.

1 Samuel 6:6 Why be obstinate like the Egyptians and Pharaoh were? When he had done his work among them, didn't they let the people go?- and they left.

1 Samuel 6:7 Now take and prepare yourselves a new cart and two milk-cows that have never been under a yoke. Harness the cows to the cart, but put their calves back in the shed.

1 Samuel 6:8 Then take the ark of ADONAI and lay it on the cart. In a box next to it, put the gold objects you are sending back to him as a guilt offering. Then send it away to go off by itself,

1 Samuel 6:9 but watch to see if it goes up the road to Beit-Shemesh in its own territory. If it does, he is responsible for this great tragedy; if not, we will know that it is not his oppression which has been over us, but that what has been happening to us has been only by chance."

1 Samuel 6:10 The men did it. They took two milk-cows, harnessed them to the cart and confined their calves to the shed.

1 Samuel 6:11 Then they put the ark on the cart, along with the box containing the gold rats and the models of their tumors.

1 Samuel 6:12 The cows made straight for the road to Beit-Shemesh and took that route, mooing as they went and turning off neither to the right nor to the left. The leaders of the P'lishtim followed them as far as the border of Beit-Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:13 The people of Beit-Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley when they looked up and saw the ark. They were so happy to see it!

1 Samuel 6:14 The cart entered the field of Y'hoshua the Beit-Shimshi and stood there by a big rock. They cut up the wood of the cart and offered up the cows as a burnt offering to ADONAI.

1 Samuel 6:15 Then the [L'vi'im] removed the ark of ADONAI and the box that was with it, which contained the gold objects, and put them on the big rock. That same day the men of Beit-Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrifices to ADONAI.

1 Samuel 6:16 Upon seeing this, the five leaders of the P'lishtim returned that day to 'Ekron.

1 Samuel 6:17 The gold tumors which the P'lishtim sent back as a guilt offering for ADONAI were one each for Ashdod, 'Azah, Ashkelon, Gat and 'Ekron;

1 Samuel 6:18 and the gold rats also corresponded to the number of all the cities of the P'lishtim that belonged to the five leaders- fortified cities and country villages. [[The rock]] is a witness to this day of the great mourning [[which resulted from]] putting the ark of ADONAI on it in the field of Y’hoshua the Beit-Shimshi;

1 Samuel 6:19 for [[ADONAI]] struck the people of Beit-Shemesh for looking at the ark of ADONAI. He killed 50,070 of the people; the people mourned because ADONAI had struck them with such a terrible slaughter.

1 Samuel 6:20 The people of Beit-Shemesh asked, “Who can stand before ADONAI, this holy God? To whom can we send it, to get it away from us?”

1 Samuel 6:21 They sent messengers to the people living in Kiryat-Ye’arim with this message: “The P’lishtim have returned the ark of ADONAI. Come down and bring it back up with you.”

1 Samuel 7:1 So the men of Kiryat-Ye’arim came and brought back the ark of ADONAI. They took it to the home of Avinadav on the hill and appointed his son El’azar to guard the ark of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 7:2 From the day that the ark arrived in Kiryat-Ye’arim a long time elapsed, twenty years; and all the people of Isra’el yearned for ADONAI.

1 Samuel 7:3 Sh’mu’el addressed all the people of Isra’el; he said: “If you are returning to ADONAI with all your heart, then be done with the foreign gods and [‘ashtarot] that you have with you, and direct your hearts to ADONAI. If you will serve only him, he will rescue you from the power of the P’lishtim.”

1 Samuel 7:4 So the people of Isra’el banished the [ba’alim] and the [‘ashtarot] and served only ADONAI.

1 Samuel 7:5 Sh’mu’el said, “Gather all Isra’el to Mitzpah, and I will pray for you to ADONAI.”

1 Samuel 7:6 So they gathered together at Mitzpah, drew water and poured it out before ADONAI, fasted that day, and said there, “We have sinned against ADONAI.” Sh’mu’el began serving as judge over the people of Isra’el at Mitzpah.

1 Samuel 7:7 When the P’lishtim heard that the people of Isra’el had gathered together at Mitzpah, the leaders of the P’lishtim marched up against Isra’el; and when the people of Isra’el heard about this, they were afraid of the P’lishtim.

1 Samuel 7:8 The people of Isra’el said to Sh’mu’el, “Don’t stop crying out to ADONAI our God for us, to save us from the power of the P’lishtim.”

1 Samuel 7:9 Sh’mu’el took a baby lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to ADONAI. Then Sh’mu’el cried to ADONAI for Isra’el, and ADONAI answered him.

1 Samuel 7:10 As Sh’mu’el was presenting the burnt offering, the P’lishtim advanced to attack Isra’el. But this time, ADONAI thundered violently over the P’lishtim, throwing them into such confusion that they were struck down before Isra’el.

1 Samuel 7:11 The men of Isra’el went out from Mitzpah, pursuing the P’lishtim and attacking them all the way to Beit-Kar.

1 Samuel 7:12 Sh’mu’el took a stone, placed it between Mitzpah and Shen, and gave it the name Even-’Ezer [[stone of help]], explaining, “ADONAI has helped us until now.”

1 Samuel 7:13 Thus the P’lishtim were humbled, so that they no longer entered Isra’el’s territory; and the hand of ADONAI was against the P’lishtim as long as Sh’mu’el lived.

1 Samuel 7:14 The cities between ‘Ekron and Gat which the P’lishtim had captured from Isra’el were restored to Isra’el, and Isra’el rescued all this territory from the power of the P’lishtim. There was also peace between Isra’el and the Emori.

1 Samuel 7:15 Sh’mu’el continued in office as judge of Isra’el as long as he lived.

1 Samuel 7:16 Year by year he would travel in a circuit that included Beit-El, Gilgal and Mitzpah; and in all these places he served as judge over Isra’el.

1 Samuel 7:17 Then he would return to Ramah, because that’s where his home was, and he would judge Isra’el there too. He also built an altar there to ADONAI.

1 Samuel 8:1 When Sh’mu’el grew old, he appointed his sons as judges over Isra’el.

1 Samuel 8:2 His firstborn was named Yo’el, while his second son was named Aviyah; they were judges in Be’er-Sheva.

1 Samuel 8:3 However, his sons did not follow his way of life; they turned off it to pursue riches, so that they would take bribes to distort justice.

1 Samuel 8:4 All the leaders of Isra’el gathered themselves together, approached Sh’mu’el in Ramah

1 Samuel 8:5 and said to him, “Look, you have grown old, and your sons are not following your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

1 Samuel 8:6 Sh’mu’el was not pleased to hear them say, “Give us a king to judge us”; so he prayed to ADONAI.

1 Samuel 8:7 ADONAI said to Sh’mu’el, “Listen to the people, to everything they say to you; for it is not you they are rejecting; they are rejecting me; they don’t want me to be king over them.

1 Samuel 8:8 They are doing to you exactly what they have been doing to me, from the day I brought them out of Egypt until today, by abandoning me and serving other gods.

1 Samuel 8:9 So do what they say, but give them a sober warning, telling them what kinds of rulings their king will make.”

1 Samuel 8:10 Sh’mu’el reported everything ADONAI had said to the people asking him for a king.

1 Samuel 8:11 He said, “Here is the kind of rulings your king will make: he will draft your sons and assign them to take care of his chariots, be his horsemen and be bodyguards running ahead of his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:12 He will appoint them to serve him as officers in charge of a thousand or of fifty, plowing his fields, gathering his harvest, and making his weapons and the equipment for his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:13 He will take your daughters and have them be perfume-makers, cooks and bakers.

1 Samuel 8:14 He will expropriate your fields, vineyards and olive groves- the very best of them!- and hand them over to his servants.

1 Samuel 8:15 He will take the ten-percent tax of your crops and vineyards and give it to his officers and servants.

1 Samuel 8:16 He will take your male and female servants, your best young men and your donkeys, and make them work for him.

1 Samuel 8:17 He will take the ten-percent tax of your flocks, and you will become his servants.

1 Samuel 8:18 When that happens, you will cry out on account of your king, whom you yourselves chose. But when that happens, ADONAI will not answer you!”

1 Samuel 8:19 However, the people refused to listen to what Sh’mu’el told them, and they said, “No! We want a king over us,

1 Samuel 8:20 so that we can be like all the nations, with our king to judge us, lead us and fight our battles.”

1 Samuel 8:21 Sh’mu’el heard everything the people said and repeated them for ADONAI to hear.

1 Samuel 8:22 ADONAI said to Sh’mu’el, “Do what they ask, and set up a king for them.” So Sh’mu’el told the men of Isra’el, “Each of you, return to his city.”

1 Samuel 9:1 There was a man from Binyamin named Kish the son of Avi’el, the son of Tz’ror, the son of B’khorat, the son of Afiach, the son of a man from Binyamin. He was a man of substance and brave as well.

1 Samuel 9:2 He had a son named Sha’ul who was young and good-looking; among the people of Isra’el there was no one better-looking than he; he stood head and shoulders taller than anyone else in Isra’el.

1 Samuel 9:3 Once the donkeys belonging to Kish Sha’ul’s father got lost. Kish said to his son Sha’ul, “Please take one of the servants with you, go out, and look for the donkeys.”

1 Samuel 9:4 He went through the hills of Efrayim and the territory of Shalishah, but they didn’t find them. Then they went through the territory of Sha’alim, but they weren’t there. They went through the territory of Binyamin but didn’t find them there either.

1 Samuel 9:5 On reaching the territory of Tzuf, Sha’ul said to his servant with him, “Come, let’s go back; otherwise my father will stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying about us.”

1 Samuel 9:6 His servant replied, “Here now, there’s a man of God in this city, a man who is highly respected, and everything he says proves true. Let’s go to him; maybe he can tell us something about where we should go.”

1 Samuel 9:7 “But look,” Sha’ul said to his servant, “if we go to the man, what can we bring him? We’ve used up all the bread in our packs, and there’s nothing for us to give the man of God- what do we have left?”

1 Samuel 9:8 The servant replied again to Sha’ul: “See, I have here in my hand a silver quarter-[shekel] [[one-tenth of an ounce]]. I will give it to the man of God to tell us which way to go.”

1 Samuel 9:9 (In Isra’el, back in the old days, when someone went to consult God, he would say, “Come, let’s go to the seer”; because a person now called a prophet used to be called a seer.)

1 Samuel 9:10 “Well said,” Sha’ul answered his servant. “Come on, let’s go.” So they went to the city where the man of God was.

1 Samuel 9:11 Ascending the slope to the town they found girls going out to draw water and asked them, “Is the seer here?”

1 Samuel 9:12 The girls answered them, “He’s here, he’s right ahead of you. Hurry now, he just came into the city today, because the people are sacrificing today at the high place.

1 Samuel 9:13 Find him as soon as you enter the city, before he goes up to the high place to eat; because the people won’t eat until he comes and blesses the sacrifice. Afterwards, the ones invited will eat. So go on up, because this is when you will find him.”

1 Samuel 9:14 They went up to the city; and as they entered the city, there was Sh’mu’el coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

1 Samuel 9:15 The day before Sha’ul arrived, ADONAI had given Sh’mu’el a revelation:

1 Samuel 9:16 “Tomorrow at about this time I will send you a man from the territory of Binyamin. You are to anoint him prince over my people Isra’el. He will save my people from the power of the P’lishtim, because I have seen my people’s situation, and their cry of distress has come to me.”

1 Samuel 9:17 When Sh’mu’el saw Sha’ul, ADONAI said to him, “Here is the man I told you about, the one who is going to govern my people.”

1 Samuel 9:18 Sha'ul approached Sh'mu'el in the gateway and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

1 Samuel 9:19 Sh'mu'el answered Sha'ul, "I'm the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place, because you are going to dine with me today. In the morning, I will let you leave; and I will tell you everything that is on your heart.

1 Samuel 9:20 As for your donkeys that got lost three days ago, don't worry about them; they've been found. Now, who is it that all Isra'el wants? Isn't it you, and all your father's household?"

1 Samuel 9:21 Sha'ul replied, "I'm only a man from Binyamin, the smallest tribe in Isra'el; and my family is the least important of all the families in the tribe of Binyamin! Why are you saying such a thing to me?"

1 Samuel 9:22 Sh'mu'el took Sha'ul and his servant, brought them into the room and had them sit in the place reserved for the most important of the invited guests, who numbered about thirty persons.

1 Samuel 9:23 Sh'mu'el instructed the cook, "Serve the portion I gave you and told you to set aside."

1 Samuel 9:24 The cook took the thigh and the adjoining meat and served it to Sha'ul. Sh'mu'el said, "Here, this is what remains! Put it in front of you and eat- it was kept especially for you until the right time; because I said, 'I have invited the people.'" So Sha'ul dined with Sh'mu'el that day.

1 Samuel 9:25 On coming down from the high place to the city, he spoke with Sha'ul on the roof.

1 Samuel 9:26 They got up early. About daybreak, Sh'mu'el called out to Sha'ul on the roof, "Get up, so I can send you on your way." Sha'ul got up, and both of them- he and Sh'mu'el- went out.

1 Samuel 9:27 As they were going down, at the edge of the city, Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead"; so the servant went on. "But you, stand still now, because I want you to hear what God has said."

1 Samuel 10:1 Then Sh'mu'el took a flask of oil he had prepared and poured it on Sha'ul's head. He kissed him and said, "ADONAI has anointed you to be prince over his inheritance.

1 Samuel 10:2 After you leave me today, you will find two men by Rachel's Tomb, in the territory of Binyamin at Tzeltzah. They will tell you that the donkeys you were searching for have been found, and that your father has stopped thinking about the donkeys and is anxious over you and asking, 'What am I to do about my son?'"

1 Samuel 10:3 Go on from there, and you will come to the Oak of Tavor. Three men will meet you there on their way up to God at Beit-El.

One of them will be carrying three kids, another three loaves of bread and the third a skin of wine.

1 Samuel 10:4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you are to accept from them.

1 Samuel 10:5 After that, you will come to Giv'ah of God, where the P'lishtim are garrisoned. On arrival at the city there, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place, preceded by lutes, tambourines, flutes and lyres; and they will be prophesying.

1 Samuel 10:6 Then the Spirit of ADONAI will fall on you; you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man!

1 Samuel 10:7 When these signs come over you, just do whatever you feel like doing, because God is with you.

1 Samuel 10:8 Then you are to go down ahead of me to Gilgal, and there I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and present sacrifices as peace offerings. Wait there seven days, until I come to you and tell you what to do."

1 Samuel 10:9 As it happened, as soon as he had turned his back to leave Sh'mu'el, God gave him another heart; and all those signs took place that day.

1 Samuel 10:10 When they arrived at the hill, and there in front of him was a group of prophets, the Spirit of God fell on him and he prophesied along with them.

1 Samuel 10:11 When those who knew him from before saw him there, prophesying with the prophets, they asked each other, "What's happened to Kish's son? Is Sha'ul a prophet, too?"

1 Samuel 10:12 Someone in the crowd answered, "Must prophets' fathers be special?" So it became an expression- "Is Sha'ul a prophet, too?"

1 Samuel 10:13 When he had finished prophesying, he arrived at the high place.

1 Samuel 10:14 Sha'ul's uncle said to him and his servant, "Where did you go?" He answered, "To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they hadn't been found, we went to Sh'mu'el."

1 Samuel 10:15 "Tell me, please," said Sha'ul's uncle, "what Sh'mu'el said to you."

1 Samuel 10:16 Sha'ul answered his uncle, "He told us that the donkeys had been found," but said nothing to him about the matter of his being made king.

1 Samuel 10:17 Sh'mu'el summoned the people to ADONAI in Mitzpah.

1 Samuel 10:18 He said to the people of Isra'el, "Here is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: 'I brought Isra'el up from Egypt. I rescued you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.’

1 Samuel 10:19 But today you have rejected your God, who himself saves you from all your disasters and distress. You have said to him, ‘No! Put a king over us!’ So now, present yourselves before ADONAI by your tribes and families.”

1 Samuel 10:20 So Sh’mu’el had all the tribes come forward, and the tribe of Binyamin was chosen.

1 Samuel 10:21 He had the tribe of Binyamin come forward by families, and the family of the Matri was chosen, and Sha’ul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he couldn’t be found.

1 Samuel 10:22 They asked ADONAI, “Has the man come here?” ADONAI answered, “There he is, hiding, in among the equipment.”

1 Samuel 10:23 They ran and brought him from there, and when he stood among the people he was head and shoulders taller than anyone around.

1 Samuel 10:24 Sh’mu’el said to all the people, “Do you see the man ADONAI has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?” Then all the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

1 Samuel 10:25 Sh’mu’el told the people what kinds of rulings should be made in the kingdom, then wrote it on a scroll and set it down before ADONAI. After that, he sent all the people away, everyone to his own home.

1 Samuel 10:26 Sha’ul too went home to Giv’ah, accompanied by warriors whose hearts God had touched.

1 Samuel 10:27 True, there were some scoundrels who said, “How can this man save us?” They showed him no respect and brought him no gift, but he held his peace.

1 Samuel 11:1 Then Nachash the ‘Amoni came up and set up camp to fight Yavesh-Gil’ad. All the men of Yavesh said to Nachash, “If you will make a treaty with us, we will be your subjects.”

1 Samuel 11:2 Nachash the ‘Amoni replied, “I’ll do it on this condition: that all your right eyes be gouged out and thus bring disgrace on all of Isra’el.”

1 Samuel 11:3 The leaders of Yavesh answered him, “Give us seven days’ grace to send messengers throughout Isra’el’s territory; then, if no one will rescue us, we will surrender to you.”

1 Samuel 11:4 The messengers came to Giv’ah, where Sha’ul lived, and said these words in the hearing of the people; and all the people cried out and wept.

1 Samuel 11:5 As this was going on, Sha’ul came, following the oxen out of the field. Sha’ul asked, “What’s wrong with the people to make them cry like that?” They told him what the men from Yavesh had said.

1 Samuel 11:6 The Spirit of God fell on Sha’ul when he heard this; blazing furiously with anger,

1 Samuel 11:7 he seized a pair of oxen and cut them in pieces; then he sent them throughout the territory of Isra’el with messengers saying, “Anyone who doesn’t come and follow Sha’ul and Sh’mu’el, this is what will be done to his oxen!” The fear of ADONAI fell on the people, and they came out with united hearts.

1 Samuel 11:8 He reviewed them in Bezek; there were 300,000 from the people of Isra’el; the men of Y’hudah numbered 30,000.

1 Samuel 11:9 To the messengers that had come they said, “Tell the men of Yavesh-Gil’ad, ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have been rescued.’“ The messengers returned and told the men of Yavesh; they were overjoyed.

1 Samuel 11:10 Then the men of Yavesh said [[to Nachash]], “Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you can do with us whatever you like.”

1 Samuel 11:11 The next day Sha’ul divided the people into three companies. Then they entered the camp of the ‘Amoni during the morning watch and kept attacking until the heat of the day, until those who remained were so scattered that no two of them were left together.

1 Samuel 11:12 The people said to Sh’mu’el, “Who are the men who said, ‘Is Sha’ul to rule over us?’ Hand them over to us, so we can put them to death.”

1 Samuel 11:13 But Sha’ul said, “No one will be put to death today, because today ADONAI has rescued Isra’el.”

1 Samuel 11:14 Then Sh’mu’el said to the people, “Come, let’s go to Gilgal and inaugurate the kingship there.

1 Samuel 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal; and there in Gilgal, before ADONAI, they made Sha’ul king. They presented sacrifices as peace offerings before ADONAI there, and there Sha’ul and all the people of Isra’el celebrated with great joy.

1 Samuel 12:1 Sh’mu’el said to all Isra’el, “Here, I have done everything you asked me to do- I have made a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:2 There is the king, walking ahead of you; but I am old and gray-headed. There are my sons with you, and I have walked at your head from when I was a boy until today.

1 Samuel 12:3 So here I am; now is the time to witness against me before ADONAI and before his anointed king. Does any of you think I have taken your ox or donkey, defrauded or oppressed you, or accepted a bribe to deprive you of justice? Tell me, and I will restore it to you.”

1 Samuel 12:4 They answered, “You haven’t defrauded or oppressed us, and you have accepted nothing from anyone.”

1 Samuel 12:5 He said, “ADONAI is witness against you, and his anointed king is witness against you today, that you have found nothing in my hands?” They replied, “He is witness.”

1 Samuel 12:6 Sh’mu’el said to the people, “It was ADONAI who appointed Moshe and Aharon and who brought your ancestors up from the land of Egypt.

1 Samuel 12:7 Now, hold still; because I am going to enter into judgment with you before ADONAI regarding all the righteous acts of ADONAI that he did for you and your ancestors.

1 Samuel 12:8 “After Ya’akov had entered Egypt, your ancestors cried to ADONAI; and ADONAI sent Moshe and Aharon, who brought your ancestors out of Egypt and had them live here in this place.

1 Samuel 12:9 But they forgot ADONAI their God; so he handed them over to Sisra, commander of the army of Hatzor, and to the P’lishtim, and to the king of Mo’av; and they fought against them.

1 Samuel 12:10 But they cried to ADONAI and said, ‘We sinned by abandoning ADONAI and serving the [ba’alim] and [‘ashtarot.] But now, if you rescue us from the power of our enemies, we will serve you.’

1 Samuel 12:11 So ADONAI sent Yeruba’al, B’dan, Yiftach and Sh’mu’el and rescued you from the power of our enemies on every side, and you lived securely.

1 Samuel 12:12 When you saw that Nachash the king of the people of ‘Amon was attacking you, you said to me, “No, we want a king to rule over us”- when ADONAI your God was your king.

1 Samuel 12:13 Now, here’s the king you have chosen, the one you asked for. See, ADONAI has put a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:14 If you will fear ADONAI, serve him, obey what he says and not rebel against ADONAI’s orders- if both you and the king ruling you remain followers of ADONAI your God- [[then things will go well for you.]]

1 Samuel 12:15 But if you refuse to obey what ADONAI says and rebel against ADONAI’s orders, then ADONAI will oppress both you and your leaders.

1 Samuel 12:16 “Now therefore, hold still; and see the great deed which ADONAI will perform before your very eyes.

1 Samuel 12:17 Now is wheat harvest time, isn’t it? I am going to call on ADONAI to send thunder and rain. Then you will understand and see how wicked from ADONAI’s viewpoint is the thing you have done in asking for a king.”

1 Samuel 12:18 Sh’mu’el called to ADONAI, and ADONAI sent thunder and rain that day. Then all the people became very much afraid of ADONAI and Sh’mu’el.

1 Samuel 12:19 All the people said to Sh'mu'el, "Pray to ADONAI your God for your servants, so that we won't die; because to all our other sins now we've added this evil as well, asking for a king over us."

1 Samuel 12:20 Sh'mu'el answered the people, "Don't be afraid. You have indeed done all this evil; yet now, just don't turn away from following ADONAI; but serve ADONAI with all your heart.

1 Samuel 12:21 Don't turn to the side; because then you would go after useless things that can neither help nor rescue, they are so futile.

1 Samuel 12:22 For the sake of his great reputation, ADONAI will not abandon his people; because it has pleased ADONAI to make you a people for himself.

1 Samuel 12:23 As for me, far be it from me to sin against ADONAI by ceasing to pray for you! Rather, I will continue instructing you in the good and right way.

1 Samuel 12:24 Only fear ADONAI, and serve him faithfully with all your heart; for think what great things he has done for you!

1 Samuel 12:25 However, if you insist on doing wicked things, you will be swept away- both you and your king!"

1 Samuel 13:1 Sha'ul was- years old* when he began his reign, and he had ruled Isra'el for two years,

1 Samuel 13:2 when he chose three thousand of Isra'el's men. Two thousand of them were with Sha'ul in Mikhmas and in the hills of Beit-El, and a thousand were with Y'honatan in Giv'at-Binyamin. The rest of the people he sent back to their respective tents.

1 Samuel 13:3 Y'honatan assassinated the governor of the P'lishtim in Geva. The P'lishtim heard of it; so Sha'ul had the [shofar] sounded throughout the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

1 Samuel 13:4 All Isra'el heard that Sha'ul had assassinated the governor of the P'lishtim and thus made Isra'el a stench in the nostrils of the P'lishtim. So the people rallied behind Sha'ul in Gilgal;

1 Samuel 13:5 while the P'lishtim assembled themselves together to make war on Isra'el- 30,000 chariots, 6,000 horsemen and an army as large as the number of sand grains on the seashore. They came up and pitched camp at Mikhmas, east of Beit-Aven.

1 Samuel 13:6 The men of Isra'el saw that their options were limited and that the people felt so hard pressed that they were hiding themselves in caves, thickets, crevices, watchtowers and cisterns;

1 Samuel 13:7 while some of the Hebrews crossed the Yarden to the territory of Gad and Gil'ad. But Sha'ul was still in Gilgal, where all the people were eager to follow him.

1 Samuel 13:8 He waited seven days, as Sh'mu'el had instructed; but Sh'mu'el didn't come to Gilgal; so the army began to drift away from him.

1 Samuel 13:9 Sha'ul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings," and he offered the burnt offering.

1 Samuel 13:10 As soon as he had finished sacrificing the burnt offering, there was Sh'mu'el- he had come, and Sha'ul went out to meet and greet him.

1 Samuel 13:11 Sh'mu'el said, "What have you done?" Sha'ul answered, "I saw that the army was drifting away from me, that you hadn't come during the time appointed and that the P'lishtim had assembled at Mikhmas.

1 Samuel 13:12 I said, 'Now the P'lishtim will fall on me at Gilgal, and I haven't asked the favor of ADONAI,' so I forced myself and offered the burnt offering."

1 Samuel 13:13 Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "You did a foolish thing. You didn't observe the [mitzvah] of ADONAI, which he gave you. If you had, ADONAI would have set up your kingship over Isra'el forever.

1 Samuel 13:14 But as it is, your kingship will not be established. ADONAI has sought for himself a man after his own heart, and ADONAI has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you did not observe what ADONAI ordered you to do."

1 Samuel 13:15 Then Sh'mu'el left Gilgal and went up to Giv'at-Binyamin. Sha'ul counted how many were still there with him, about 600 men.

1 Samuel 13:16 Sha'ul, Y'honatan his son and the men with him took up quarters at Giv'at-Binyamin, while the P'lishtim remained in camp at Mikhmas.

1 Samuel 13:17 Then raiding parties began coming out from the camp of the P'lishtim, three of them: one group turned toward the road leading to 'Ofrah in the territory of Shu'al;

1 Samuel 13:18 another group took the road toward Beit-Horon; and another company took the road toward the desert through the territory overlooking [Vadi] Tzvo'im.

1 Samuel 13:19 Now there was no metalsmith to be found anywhere in all the land of Isra'el, because the P'lishtim had said, "We don't want the Hebrews making themselves swords or spears."

1 Samuel 13:20 So whenever any of the people of Isra'el wanted to sharpen his hoe, plowshare, axe or pick, he had to go down to the P'lishtim,

1 Samuel 13:21 where the exorbitant prices were two-thirds of a [shekel] for filing a pick or plowshare and one-third of a [shekel] for filing an axe or setting an oxgoad in its handle.

1 Samuel 13:22 Thus when the time came to fight, no one in the army of Sha'ul and Y'honatan was equipped with either sword or spear; although Sha'ul and Y'honatan his son did have them.

1 Samuel 13:23 A garrison of the P'lishtim had gone out to the pass of Mikhmas.

1 Samuel 14:1 One day Y'honatan the son of Sha'ul said to the young man carrying his armor, “Come, let's go across to the garrison of the P'lishtim on the other side. But he didn't tell his father.

1 Samuel 14:2 Sha'ul was waiting at the far edge of Giv'ah under the pomegranate tree in Migron; the force with him numbered about 600 men.

1 Samuel 14:3 Achiyah the son of Achituv, I-Khavod's brother, the son of Pinchas the son of 'Eli, the [cohen] of ADONAI in Shiloh, was carrying a ritual vest[.] No one knew that Y'honatan had gone.

1 Samuel 14:4 Between the passes by which Y'honatan was trying to cross to the garrison of the P'lishtim, there was a rocky spur on one side and another rocky spur on the other side; the name of the one was Botzetz, and of the other, Seneh.

1 Samuel 14:5 The one spur rose up on the north, in front of Mikhmas, and the other on the south, in front of Geva.

1 Samuel 14:6 Y'honatan said to his armor-bearer, “Come on, let's go across to the garrison of these uncircumcised people. Maybe ADONAI will do something for us, since ADONAI can rescue with a few people as easily as with many.”

1 Samuel 14:7 His armor-bearer replied, “Do everything you think you should; I'm with you, whatever you decide.”

1 Samuel 14:8 Y'honatan said, “Here, we'll cross over to those men and let them know we're there.

1 Samuel 14:9 If they say, 'Wait till we come to you,' we'll stand still where we are and not go up to them.

1 Samuel 14:10 But if they say, 'Come up to us,' we'll go on up; and that will be the sign that ADONAI has given us victory over them.”

1 Samuel 14:11 So both of them let their presence be known to the garrison of the P'lishtim; and the P'lishtim said, “Look, some Hebrews coming out of the holes they've been hiding in!”

1 Samuel 14:12 Then the men of the garrison said to Y'honatan and his armor-bearer, “Come up to us; we want to show you something.” Y'honatan told his armor-bearer, “Come on up after me, for ADONAI has handed them over to Isra'el.”

1 Samuel 14:13 Y'honatan climbed up, using his hands as well as his feet, with his armor-bearer behind him. The P'lishtim fell before Y'honatan, and his armor-bearer following him finished them off.

1 Samuel 14:14 That first slaughter, of about twenty men, was accomplished by Y'honatan and his armor bearer in a space only half as long as one side of the area a pair of oxen could plow in a day [[about 200 yards]].

1 Samuel 14:15 There was panic in the field camp among all the P'lishtim; likewise, the garrison and the raiding party panicked. Besides all this, there was an earthquake; thus it grew into panic caused by God.

1 Samuel 14:16 Sha'ul's men on watch in Giv'at-Binyamin could see the enemy camp scattering and running in all directions.

1 Samuel 14:17 Sha'ul ordered the forces with him to call the roll and see who was missing. So they called the roll, and found Y'honatan and his armor-bearer not present.

1 Samuel 14:18 Sha'ul told Achiyah, "Bring the ark of God here"; for at that time the ark of God was with the people of Isra'el.

1 Samuel 14:19 But while Sha'ul was talking to the [cohen], the uproar in the camp of the P'lishtim continued and kept getting louder. Sha'ul said to the [cohen], "Put your hand down."

1 Samuel 14:20 Sha'ul and the entire force with him assembled and went to battle, but they found the P'lishtim all fighting each other in utter confusion.

1 Samuel 14:21 The Hebrews from the surrounding countryside who had previously been with the P'lishtim and had gone up with them into the camp deserted and went over to Isra'el with Sha'ul and Y'honatan.

1 Samuel 14:22 Likewise, on hearing that the P'lishtim were fleeing, all the men of Isra'el who had hidden themselves in the hills of Efrayim pursued them in battle.

1 Samuel 14:23 So ADONAI saved Isra'el that day, and the battle spread as far as Beit-Aven.

1 Samuel 14:24 Isra'el's soldiers had been driven to exhaustion that day; but Sha'ul issued this warning to the people: "A curse on any man who eats any food until evening, when I will have finished taking vengeance on my enemies." So none of the people even tasted food.

1 Samuel 14:25 Now the people came to a forest where there was a honeycomb on the ground.

1 Samuel 14:26 When the people had entered the forest, they saw there the honeycomb with honey dripping out; but no one put his hand to his mouth, because the people feared the oath.

1 Samuel 14:27 But Y'honatan hadn't heard his father charging the people with the oath, so he put out the end of the staff in his hand, dipped it in the honeycomb and raised it to his mouth; whereupon his eyes lit up.

1 Samuel 14:28 But one of the people said in response, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, 'A curse on any man who eats any food today'; even though the people are fainting with hunger."

1 Samuel 14:29 Y'honatan answered, "My father has brought trouble to the land. Just look how my eyes have lit up because I tasted a little of this honey.

1 Samuel 14:30 How much greater would the slaughter of the P'lishtim have been today, then, if the people had eaten freely of the spoil they found with their enemies!"

1 Samuel 14:31 That day they had attacked the P'lishtim from Mikhmas to Ayalon; but the people were very exhausted.

1 Samuel 14:32 So the people rushed at the spoil, seizing sheep, cows and calves, slaughtering them on the ground, and eating the flesh with the blood.

1 Samuel 14:33 Sha'ul was told, "Look how the people are sinning against ADONAI, eating with the blood." He said, "You have not kept faith! Roll a big stone to me immediately!

1 Samuel 14:34 Now," Sha'ul said, "go around among the people and tell them, 'Each of you is to bring his cow and his sheep and slaughter them here. Then eat. Don't sin against ADONAI by eating with the blood." So each person brought his animal with him that evening and killed it there.

1 Samuel 14:35 Sha'ul erected an altar to ADONAI; it was the first altar that he erected to ADONAI.

1 Samuel 14:36 Sha'ul said, "Let's go after the P'lishtim by night. We'll plunder them until dawn; we won't leave one of them alive." They answered, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the [cohen] said, "Let's approach God here."

1 Samuel 14:37 Sha'ul consulted God: "Should I go down in pursuit of the P'lishtim? Will you hand them over to Isra'el?" But he didn't answer him that day.

1 Samuel 14:38 Sha'ul said, "Come here, all you heads of the people. Think carefully: who has committed this sin today?

1 Samuel 14:39 For, as ADONAI Isra'el's deliverer lives, even if it proves to be Y'honatan my son, he must be put to death." But no one among all the people answered him.

1 Samuel 14:40 Then he said to all Isra'el, "You be on one side, and I and Y'honatan my son will be on the other side." The people replied to Sha'ul, "Do what seems good to you."

1 Samuel 14:41 Sha'ul said to ADONAI the God of Isra'el, "Who is right?" Y'honatan and Sha'ul were chosen by lot, and the people went free.

1 Samuel 14:42 Sha'ul said, "Cast lots between me and Y'honatan my son." Y'honatan was chosen.

1 Samuel 14:43 Then Sha'ul said to Y'honatan, "Tell me what you did." Y'honatan told him, "Yes, I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff in my hand. Here I am; I'm ready to die."

1 Samuel 14:44 Sha'ul said, "May God do the same to me and more also if you are not put to death, Y'honatan!"

1 Samuel 14:45 But the people said to Sha’ul, “Must Y’honatan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Isra’el? Heaven forbid! As ADONAI lives, not one hair of his head will fall to the ground; because he worked with God today!” In this way the people rescued Y’honatan, so that he didn’t die.

1 Samuel 14:46 Then Sha’ul stopped pursuing the P’lishtim, and the P’lishtim returned to their own territory.

1 Samuel 14:47 So Sha’ul took over the rulership of Isra’el. He fought against all his enemies on every side- against Mo’av, the people of ‘Amon, Edom, the kings of Tzovah and the P’lishtim. No matter which way he turned, he defeated them.

1 Samuel 14:48 He demonstrated his strength by attacking ‘Amalek, and he saved Isra’el from the power of those who were plundering them.

1 Samuel 14:49 The sons of Sha’ul were Y’honatan, Yishvi and Malkishua, while the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the older, Merav, and of the younger, Mikhal.

1 Samuel 14:50 Sha’ul’s wife was named Achino’am the daughter of Achima’atz; the commander of his army was named Avner the son of Ner, Sha’ul’s uncle.

1 Samuel 14:51 Kish was the father of Sha’ul, and Ner the father of Avner was the son of Avi’el.

1 Samuel 14:52 As long as Sha’ul lived there was bitter war against the P’lishtim. Whenever Sha’ul saw any strong or courageous man, he recruited him into his service.

1 Samuel 15:1 Sh’mu’el said to Sha’ul, “ADONAI sent me to anoint you king over his people, over Isra’el. Now listen to what ADONAI has to say.

1 Samuel 15:2 Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: ‘I remember what ‘Amalek did to Isra’el, how they fought against Isra’el when they were coming up from Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:3 Now go and attack ‘Amalek, and completely destroy everything they have. Don’t spare them, but kill men and women, children and babies, cows and sheep, camels and donkeys.’“

1 Samuel 15:4 Sha’ul summoned the people and reviewed them in T’la’im- 200,000 foot soldiers, with another 10,000 men from Y’hudah.

1 Samuel 15:5 Sha’ul arrived at the city of ‘Amalek and lay in wait in the valley.

1 Samuel 15:6 Sha’ul said to the Keni, “Go away, withdraw, leave your homes there with the ‘Amaleki. Otherwise, I might destroy you along with them, even though you were kind to all the people of Isra’el when they came out of Egypt. So the Keni went away from among the ‘Amaleki.

1 Samuel 15:7 Then Sha'ul attacked 'Amalek, starting at Havilah and continuing toward Shur, at the border of Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:8 He took Agag the king of 'Amalek alive; but he completely destroyed the people, putting them to the sword.

1 Samuel 15:9 However, Sha'ul and the people spared Agag, along with the best of the sheep and cattle, and even the second best, also the lambs, and everything that was good- they weren't inclined to destroy these things. But everything that was worthless or weak they completely destroyed.

1 Samuel 15:10 Then the word of ADONAI came to Sh'mu'el:

1 Samuel 15:11 "I regret setting up Sha'ul as king, because he has turned back from following me and hasn't obeyed my orders." This made Sh'mu'el very sad, so that he cried to ADONAI all night.

1 Samuel 15:12 Sh'mu'el got up early in the morning to meet Sha'ul; however, Sh'mu'el was told, "Sha'ul came to Karmel to set up a monument for himself there, but now he has left and is on his way down to Gilgal."

1 Samuel 15:13 Sh'mu'el went to Sha'ul; Sha'ul said to him, "May ADONAI bless you! I have done what ADONAI ordered."

1 Samuel 15:14 But Sh'mu'el answered, "If so, why do I hear sheep bleating and cows mooing?"

1 Samuel 15:15 Sha'ul said, "They brought them from the 'Amaleki, because the people spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to ADONAI your God. But we completely destroyed the rest."

1 Samuel 15:16 Then Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "Stop! I'm going to tell you what ADONAI said to me last night." He said, "Speak."

1 Samuel 15:17 Sh'mu'el then said, "You may be small in your own sight, but you are head of the tribes of Isra'el- ADONAI anointed you king over Isra'el!

1 Samuel 15:18 Now ADONAI sent you on a mission and told you, 'Go and completely destroy 'Amalek, those sinners; keep making war on them until they have been exterminated.

1 Samuel 15:19 Why did you seize the spoil instead of paying attention to what ADONAI said? From ADONAI's viewpoint, you have done an evil thing."

1 Samuel 15:20 Sha'ul said to Sh'mu'el, "I did too pay attention to what ADONAI said, and I carried out the mission on which ADONAI sent me. I brought back Agag the king of 'Amalek, and I completely destroyed 'Amalek.

1 Samuel 15:21 But the people took some of the spoil, the best of the sheep and cattle set aside for destruction, to sacrifice to ADONAI your God in Gilgal."

1 Samuel 15:22 Sh'mu'el said, "Does ADONAI take as much pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying what ADONAI says? Surely obeying is better than sacrifice, and heeding orders than the fat of rams.

1 Samuel 15:23 "For rebellion is like the sin of sorcery, stubbornness like the crime of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of ADONAI, he too has rejected you as king."

1 Samuel 15:24 Sha'ul said to Sh'mu'el, "I have sinned. I violated the order of ADONAI and your words too, because I was afraid of the people and listened to what they said.

1 Samuel 15:25 Now, please, pardon my sin; and come back with me, so that I can worship ADONAI."

1 Samuel 15:26 But Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "I will not go back with you, because you have rejected the word of ADONAI, and ADONAI has rejected you as king over Isra'el."

1 Samuel 15:27 As Sh'mu'el was turning around to leave, he took hold of the hem of his cloak, and it tore.

1 Samuel 15:28 Sh'mu'el said to him, "ADONAI has torn the kingdom of Isra'el away from you today and given it to a fellow countryman of yours who is better than you.

1 Samuel 15:29 Moreover, the Eternal One of Isra'el will not lie or change his mind, because he isn't a mere human being subject to changing his mind."

1 Samuel 15:30 Then Sha'ul said, "I have sinned; but in spite of that, please show me respect now before the leaders of my people and before Isra'el by coming back with me, so that I can worship ADONAI your God."

1 Samuel 15:31 So Sh'mu'el followed Sha'ul back, and Sha'ul worshipped ADONAI.

1 Samuel 15:32 Then Sh'mu'el said, "Bring Agag the king of 'Amalek here to me. Agag came to him in chains and said, "Without doubt, mine will be a bitter death."

1 Samuel 15:33 Sh'mu'el said, "Just as your sword has left women childless, so will your mother be left childless among women." Then Sh'mu'el cut Agag in pieces before ADONAI in Gilgal.

1 Samuel 15:34 Sh'mu'el returned to Ramah, and Sha'ul went up to his house in Giv'at-Sha'ul.

1 Samuel 15:35 Never again did Sh'mu'el see Sha'ul, until the day he died. But Sh'mu'el grieved over Sha'ul, and ADONAI regretted that he had made Sha'ul king over Isra'el.

1 Samuel 16:1 ADONAI said to Sh'mu'el, "How much longer are you going to go on grieving for Sha'ul, now that I have rejected him as king over Isra'el? Fill your horn with oil, and set out; I will send you to Yishai the Beit-Lachmi, because I have chosen myself a king from among his sons."

1 Samuel 16:2 Sh'mu'el said, "How can I go? If Sha'ul hears of it, he will have me killed." ADONAI said, "Take a female cow with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to ADONAI.'

1 Samuel 16:3 Summon Yishai to the sacrifice. I will tell you what to do, and you are to anoint for me the person I point out to you."

1 Samuel 16:4 Sh'mu'el did what ADONAI said and arrived at Beit-Lechem. The leaders of the city came trembling to meet him and asked, "Are you coming in peace?"

1 Samuel 16:5 He answered, "In peace. I have come to sacrifice to ADONAI. Consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." He consecrated Yishai and his sons and summoned them to the sacrifice.

1 Samuel 16:6 When they had come, he looked at Eli'av and said, "This has to be ADONAI's anointed one, here before him."

1 Samuel 16:7 But ADONAI said to Sh'mu'el, "Don't pay attention to how he looks or how tall he is, because I have rejected him. ADONAI doesn't see the way humans see- humans look at the outward appearance, but ADONAI looks at the heart."

1 Samuel 16:8 Then Yishai called Avinadav and presented him to Sh'mu'el; but he said, "ADONAI hasn't chosen this one either."

1 Samuel 16:9 Yishai presented Shammah; again Sh'mu'el said, "ADONAI hasn't chosen this one either."

1 Samuel 16:10 Yishai presented seven of his sons to Sh'mu'el; but Sh'mu'el told Yishai, "ADONAI has not chosen these.

1 Samuel 16:11 Are all your sons here?" Sh'mu'el asked Yishai. He replied, "There is still the youngest; he's out there tending the sheep." Sh'mu'el said to Yishai, "Send and bring him back, because we won't sit down to eat until he gets here."

1 Samuel 16:12 He sent and brought him in. With ruddy cheeks, red hair and bright eyes, he was a good-looking fellow. ADONAI said, "Stand up and anoint him; he's the one."

1 Samuel 16:13 Sh'mu'el took the horn of oil and anointed him there in his brothers' presence. From that day on, the Spirit of ADONAI would fall upon David with power. So Sh'mu'el set out and went to Ramah.

1 Samuel 16:14 Now the Spirit of ADONAI had left Sha'ul; instead, an evil spirit from ADONAI would suddenly come over him.

1 Samuel 16:15 Sha'ul's servants said to him, "Do you notice that there's an evil spirit from God that suddenly comes over you?

1 Samuel 16:16 Let our lord now command your servants who are here with you to look for a man who knows how to play the lyre. Then, if the evil spirit from God comes over you, he will play; and it will do you good."

1 Samuel 16:17 Sha'ul said to his servants, "Find me a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

1 Samuel 16:18 One of the young men answered, "Here, I've seen one of the sons of Yishai the Beit-Lachmi who knows how to play. He's a brave soldier, he can fight, he chooses his words carefully and he's pleasant-looking. Besides, ADONAI is with him."

1 Samuel 16:19 So Sha'ul sent messengers to Yishai saying, "Send me David your son, who is out with the sheep."

1 Samuel 16:20 Yishai took a donkey, loaded it with bread, a bottle of wine and a kid, and sent them with David his son to Sha'ul.

1 Samuel 16:21 David came to Sha'ul and presented himself to him. Sha'ul took a great liking to him and made him his armor-bearer.

1 Samuel 16:22 Sha'ul sent a message to Yishai: "Please let David stay in my service, because I'm pleased with him."

1 Samuel 16:23 So it was that whenever the [[evil]] spirit from God came over Sha'ul, David would take the lyre and play it, with the result that Sha'ul would find relief and feel better, as the evil spirit left him.

1 Samuel 17:1 The P'lishtim rallied their troops for war, assembling at Sokhoh in Y'hudah and setting up camp between Sokhoh and 'Azekah in Efes-Damim.

1 Samuel 17:2 Sha'ul and the men of Isra'el assembled, set up camp in the Elah Valley and drew up their battle line opposite the P'lishtim.

1 Samuel 17:3 The P'lishtim occupied a position on one hill and Isra'el a position on another hill, with a valley between them.

1 Samuel 17:4 There came out a champion from the camp of the P'lishtim named Golyat, from Gat, who was nine feet nine inches tall.

1 Samuel 17:5 He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he wore a bronze armor plate weighing 120 pounds.

1 Samuel 17:6 He had bronze armor protecting his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders.

1 Samuel 17:7 The shaft of his spear was as big as a weaver's beam, and the iron spearhead weighed fifteen pounds. His shield-bearer went ahead of him.

1 Samuel 17:8 He stood and yelled at the armies of Isra'el, "Why come out and draw up a battle line? I'm a P'lishti, and you are servants of Sha'ul, so choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

1 Samuel 17:9 If he can fight me and kill me, we'll be your slaves; but if I beat him and kill him, you will become slaves and serve us."

1 Samuel 17:10 The P'lishti added, "I challenge Isra'el's armies today- give me a man, and we'll fight it out!"

1 Samuel 17:11 When Sha'ul and all Isra'el heard those words of the P'lishti, they were shaken and terrified.

1 Samuel 17:12 Now David was the son of that Efrati from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah named Yishai. He had eight sons; and in the time of Sha'ul he was old- the years had taken their toll.

1 Samuel 17:13 Yishai's three oldest sons had followed Sha'ul to battle; the names of his three sons who went to battle were Eli'av the firstborn, next to him Avinadav, and the third Shammah.

1 Samuel 17:14 David was the youngest; the three oldest followed Sha'ul.

1 Samuel 17:15 David went back and forth from Sha'ul to pasture his father's sheep at Beit-Lechem.

1 Samuel 17:16 Meanwhile, the P'lishti approached with his challenge every morning and evening for forty days.

1 Samuel 17:17 Yishai said to David his son, "Please take your brothers five bushels of this roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread; hurry, and carry them to your brothers at the camp.

1 Samuel 17:18 Also bring these ten cheeses to their field officer. Find out if your brothers are well, and bring back some token from them.

1 Samuel 17:19 Sha'ul and your brothers, with all the army of Isra'el, are in the Elah Valley, fighting the P'lishtim."

1 Samuel 17:20 David got up early in the morning, left the sheep with a helper, took his load and set out, as Yishai had ordered him. He arrived at the barricade of the camp just as the troops were going out to their battle stations and shouting the war cry.

1 Samuel 17:21 Isra'el and the P'lishtim had set up their battle lines facing each other.

1 Samuel 17:22 David left his equipment in charge of the equipment guard, ran to the troops, went to his brothers and asked if they were well.

1 Samuel 17:23 As he was talking with them, there came the champion, the P'lishti from Gat named Golyat, from the ranks of the P'lishtim, saying the same words as before; and David heard them.

1 Samuel 17:24 When the soldiers from Isra'el saw the man, they all ran away from him, terrified.

1 Samuel 17:25 The soldiers from Isra'el said [[to each other]], "You saw that man who just came up? He has come to challenge Isra'el. To whoever kills him, the king will give a rich reward; he'll also give him his daughter and exempt his father's family from all service and taxes in Isra'el."

1 Samuel 17:26 David said to the men standing with him, "What reward will be given to the man who kills this P'lishti and removes this disgrace from Isra'el? Who is this uncircumcised P'lishti anyway, that he challenges the armies of the living God?"

1 Samuel 17:27 The people answered with what they had been saying, adding, "That's what will be done for the man who kills him."

1 Samuel 17:28 Eli'av his oldest brother heard when David spoke to the men, and it made Eli'av angry at him. He asked, "Why did you come down here? With whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is! You just came down to watch the fighting."

1 Samuel 17:29 David said, "What have I done now? I only asked a question."

1 Samuel 17:30 He turned away from him to someone else and asked the same question, and the people gave him the same answer.

1 Samuel 17:31 David's words were overheard and told to Sha'ul, who summoned him.

1 Samuel 17:32 David said to Sha'ul, "No one should lose heart because of him; your servant will go and fight this P'lishti."

1 Samuel 17:33 Sha'ul said to David, "You can't go to fight this P'lishti- you're just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth!"

1 Samuel 17:34 David answered Sha'ul, "Your servant used to guard his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear would come and grab a lamb from the flock,

1 Samuel 17:35 I would go after it, hit it, and snatch the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned on me, I would catch it by the jaw, smack it and kill it.

1 Samuel 17:36 Your servant has defeated both lions and bears, and this uncircumcised P'lishti will be like one of them, because he has challenged the armies of the living God."

1 Samuel 17:37 Then David said, "ADONAI, who rescued me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will rescue me from the paw of this P'lishti!" Sha'ul said to David, "Go; may ADONAI be with you."

1 Samuel 17:38 Sha'ul dressed David in his own armor- he put a bronze helmet on his head and gave him armor plate to wear.

1 Samuel 17:39 David buckled his sword on his armor and tried to walk, but he wasn't used to such equipment. David said to Sha'ul, "I can't move wearing these things, because I'm not used to them." So David took them off.

1 Samuel 17:40 Then he took his stick in his hand and picked five smooth stones from the riverbed, putting them in his shepherd's bag, in his pouch. Then, with his sling in his hand, he approached the P'lishti.

1 Samuel 17:41 The P'lishti, with his shield-bearer ahead of him, came nearer and nearer to David.

1 Samuel 17:42 The P'lishti looked David up and down and had nothing but scorn for what he saw- a boy with ruddy cheeks, red hair and good looks.

1 Samuel 17:43 The P'lishti said to David, "Am I a dog? Is that why you're coming at me with sticks?"- and the P'lishti cursed David by his god.

1 Samuel 17:44 Then the P'lishti said to David, "Come here to me, so I can give your flesh to the birds in the air and the wild animals."

1 Samuel 17:45 David answered the P'lishti, "You're coming at me with a sword, a spear and a javelin. But I'm coming at you in the name of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of the armies of Isra'el, whom you have challenged.

1 Samuel 17:46 Today ADONAI will hand you over to me. I will attack you, lop your head off, and give the carcasses of the army of the P'lishtim to the birds in the air and the animals in the land. Then all the land will know that there is a God in Isra'el,

1 Samuel 17:47 and everyone assembled here will know that ADONAI does not save by sword or spear. For this is ADONAI's battle, and he will hand you over to us."

1 Samuel 17:48 When the P'lishti got up, approached and came close to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the army to meet the P'lishti.

1 Samuel 17:49 David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, and hurled it with his sling. It struck the P'lishti in his forehead and buried itself in his forehead, so that he fell face down on the ground.

1 Samuel 17:50 Thus David defeated the P'lishti with a sling and a stone, striking the P'lishti and killing him; but David had no sword in his hand.

1 Samuel 17:51 Then David ran and stood over the P'lishti, took his sword, drew it out of its sheath, and finished killing him, cutting off his head with it. When the P'lishtim saw that their hero was dead, they fled.

1 Samuel 17:52 The men of Isra'el and Y'hudah got up, shouting, and pursued the P'lishtim all the way to Gat and the gates of 'Ekron. The wounded P'lishtim fell down all along the road from Sha'arayim to Gat and 'Ekron.

1 Samuel 17:53 After chasing the P'lishtim, the army of Isra'el returned and plundered their camp.

1 Samuel 17:54 David took the head of the P'lishti and brought it to Yerushalayim, but he put the armor of the P'lishti in his tent.

1 Samuel 17:55 When Sha'ul saw David go out to fight the P'lishti, he said to Avner, the army's commander, "Avner, whose son is this boy?" "By your life, O king," Avner replied, "I don't know."

1 Samuel 17:56 The king said, "Find out whose son this boy is."

1 Samuel 17:57 As David returned from killing the P'lishti, Avner took him and brought him to Sha'ul with the head of the P'lishti in his hand.

1 Samuel 17:58 Sha'ul asked him, "Young man, whose son are you?" David answered, "I am the son of your servant Yishai the Beit-Lachmi."

1 Samuel 18:1 By the time David had finished speaking to Sha'ul, Y'honatan found himself inwardly drawn by David's character, so that Y'honatan loved him as he did himself.

1 Samuel 18:2 That day, Sha'ul took David into his service and would not let him go home to his father's house any more.

1 Samuel 18:3 Y'honatan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as he did himself.

1 Samuel 18:4 Y'honatan removed the cloak he was wearing and gave it to David, his armor too, including his sword, bow and belt.

1 Samuel 18:5 David would go out, and no matter where Sha'ul sent him, he was successful. Sha'ul put him in charge of the fighting men; all the people thought it good, and so did Sha'ul's servants.

1 Samuel 18:6 As David and the others were returning from the slaughter of the P'lishti, the women came out of all the cities of Isra'el to meet King Sha'ul, singing and dancing joyfully with tambourines and three-stringed instruments.

1 Samuel 18:7 In their merrymaking the women sang, "Sha'ul has killed his thousands, but David his tens of thousands."

1 Samuel 18:8 Sha'ul became very angry, because this song displeased him. He said, "They give David credit for tens of thousands, but me they give credit for only thousands. Now all he lacks is the kingdom!"

1 Samuel 18:9 From that day on, Sha'ul viewed David with suspicion.

1 Samuel 18:10 The following day an evil spirit from God came powerfully over Sha'ul, so that he fell into a frenzy in the house. David was there, playing his lyre as on other occasions. This time Sha'ul had his spear in his hand;

1 Samuel 18:11 and he threw the spear, thinking, "I will pin David to the wall!" But David dodged out of the way twice.

1 Samuel 18:12 Sha'ul became afraid of David, because ADONAI was with him and had left Sha'ul.

1 Samuel 18:13 Therefore Sha'ul put him at a distance from himself by making him commander over a thousand; his goings and comings became public knowledge.

1 Samuel 18:14 David had great success in all his ways; ADONAI was with him.

1 Samuel 18:15 When Sha'ul saw how very successful he was, he became afraid of him.

1 Samuel 18:16 But all Isra'el and Y'hudah loved David, because they knew about all his campaigns.

1 Samuel 18:17 Sha'ul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merav. I will give her to you as your wife; only continue displaying your courage for me, and fight ADONAI's battles." Sha'ul was thinking, "I don't dare touch him, so let the P'lishtim do away with him."

1 Samuel 18:18 David's response to Sha'ul was, "Who am I, that I should become the king's son-in-law? I don't have any kind of a life, and my father's family has no rank in Isra'el."

1 Samuel 18:19 However, when it was time for Merav Sha'ul's daughter to be given to David, she was given to Adri'el the Mecholati as his wife.

1 Samuel 18:20 But Mikhal Sha'ul's daughter fell in love with David. They told Sha'ul, and it pleased him.

1 Samuel 18:21 Sha'ul said, "I'll give her to him, so that she can entrap him, and the P'lishtim can do away with him." So Sha'ul said to David, "Today you will become my son-in-law through the second [[daughter]]."

1 Samuel 18:22 Sha'ul ordered his servants to speak privately with David and say, "Look, the king is pleased with you, and all his servants like you; so become the king's son-in-law."

1 Samuel 18:23 Sha'ul's servants said this to David; but David replied, "Do you think being the king's son-in-law is something to be treated so casually, given that I'm a poor man without social standing?"

1 Samuel 18:24 Sha'ul's servants reported back to him how David had responded.

1 Samuel 18:25 Sha'ul said, "Here's what you are to say to David: 'The king doesn't want any dowry; he wants a hundred foreskins of the P'lishtim, so that he can have vengeance on the king's enemies." For Sha'ul was hoping to have David killed by the P'lishtim.

1 Samuel 18:26 When his servants said these words to David, it pleased David to become the king's son-in-law. Even before the time [[for him to be married]],

1 Samuel 18:27 David got up and set out, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the P'lishtim. He brought their foreskins and gave all of them to the king in order to become the king’s son-in-law. Then Sha’ul gave him Mikhal his daughter as his wife.

1 Samuel 18:28 Sha’ul saw and understood that ADONAI was with David and that Mikhal Sha’ul’s daughter loved him.

1 Samuel 18:29 This only made Sha’ul the more afraid of David, so that Sha’ul became David’s enemy for the rest of his life.

1 Samuel 18:30 The leaders of the P’lishtim would attack; but whenever they attacked, David was more successful than any of Sha’ul’s servants; so that David acquired a great reputation.

1 Samuel 19:1 Sha’ul told Y’honatan his son and all his servants that they should have David killed. But because Y’honatan was very fond of David,

1 Samuel 19:2 he told him, “My father Sha’ul is out to have you killed. Therefore you must be very cautious tomorrow morning. Find a well-concealed place to hide in.

1 Samuel 19:3 I will go out and stand next to my father in the countryside where you’re hiding. I will talk with my father about you; and if I learn anything, I’ll tell you.”

1 Samuel 19:4 Y’honatan spoke well of David to Sha’ul his father and said to him, “The king shouldn’t sin against his servant David, because he hasn’t sinned against you. On the contrary, his work for you has been very good indeed.

1 Samuel 19:5 He put his life in his hands to attack the P’lishtim, and ADONAI accomplished a great victory for all Isra’el. You yourself saw it, and you were happy about it. So why do you want to sin against innocent blood by killing David without any reason?”

1 Samuel 19:6 Sha’ul heeded Y’honatan’s advice and swore, “As ADONAI lives, he will not be put to death.”

1 Samuel 19:7 Y’honatan called David and told him all these things. Then Y’honatan brought David to Sha’ul to be in attendance on the king, as before.

1 Samuel 19:8 War broke out again, and David went and fought the P’lishtim. He defeated them with a great slaughter, and they fled before him.

1 Samuel 19:9 Then an evil spirit from ADONAI came upon Sha’ul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. David was playing his lyre,

1 Samuel 19:10 when Sha’ul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear. But he dodged it and moved out of Sha’ul’s way, so that the spear stuck in the wall. David fled, so that night he escaped.

1 Samuel 19:11 But Sha’ul sent messengers to David’s house to watch for him and kill him in the morning. Mikhal David’s wife told him, “If you don’t save your life tonight, tomorrow you’ll be dead.”

1 Samuel 19:12 So Mikhal let David down through the window; and he left, fled and escaped.

1 Samuel 19:13 Mikhal took the household idol, laid it on the bed, put a goat’s-hair quilt at its head and covered it with a cloth.

1 Samuel 19:14 When Sha’ul sent messengers to capture David, she said, “He’s ill.”

1 Samuel 19:15 Sha’ul sent the messengers to see David with the order, “Bring him up to me, bed and all, so that I can kill him.”

1 Samuel 19:16 But when the messengers entered, there before them was the household idol in the bed, with the goat’s-hair quilt at its head.

1 Samuel 19:17 Sha’ul asked Mikhal, “Why did you deceive me this way and let my enemy go and escape?” Mikhal answered Sha’ul, “He threatened me, ‘Let me go, or I’ll kill you.’“

1 Samuel 19:18 David fled and escaped, then came to Sh’mu’el in Ramah and told him everything Sha’ul had done to him. So he and Sh’mu’el went and stayed in the prophets’ dormitory.

1 Samuel 19:19 The news reached Sha’ul that David had been seen at the prophets’ dormitory in Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:20 Sha’ul sent messengers to capture David. But when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, with Sh’mu’el standing and leading them, the Spirit of God fell on Sha’ul’s messengers; and they too began prophesying.

1 Samuel 19:21 When Sha’ul was told, he sent other messengers; but they too began prophesying. Sha’ul sent messengers a third time, and they also prophesied.

1 Samuel 19:22 Then he himself went to Ramah. When he arrived at the big cistern in Sekhu, he asked, “Where are Sh’mu’el and David?” Someone answered, “They’re at the prophets’ dormitory in Ramah.”

1 Samuel 19:23 While on his way to the prophets’ dormitory in Ramah, the Spirit of God fell on him too; and he went on, prophesying, until he arrived at the prophets’ dormitory in Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:24 He also stripped off his clothes, prophesied in Sh’mu’el’s presence and lay there naked all that day and all that night. Hence it continues to be an expression, “Is Sha’ul a prophet, too?”

1 Samuel 20:1 David fled from the prophets’ dormitory in Ramah, returned to Y’honatan and said, “What have I done? Where have I gone wrong? What sin have I committed that makes your father want to take my life?”

1 Samuel 20:2 Y’honatan replied, “Heaven forbid! You’re not going to die! Look, my father does nothing important or unimportant without telling me first; so why should my father hide this from me? It just won’t happen!”

1 Samuel 20:3 In response David swore, “Your father knows very well that you have made me your friend. This is why he will say, ‘Y’honatan must not know this, or he will be unhappy.’ As truly as ADONAI lives, and as truly as you are alive, there is only a step between me and death.”

1 Samuel 20:4 Y’honatan said to David, “Anything you want me to do for you, I’ll do.”

1 Samuel 20:5 David answered Y’honatan, “Look, tomorrow is [Rosh-Hodesh], and I ought to be dining with the king. Instead, let me go and hide myself in the countryside until evening of the third day.

1 Samuel 20:6 If your father misses me at all, say, ‘David begged me to let him hurry to Beit-Lechem, his city; because it’s the annual sacrifice there for his whole family.’

1 Samuel 20:7 If he says, ‘Very good,’ then your servant will be all right. But if he gets angry, you will know that he has planned something bad.

1 Samuel 20:8 Therefore show kindness to your servant, for you bound your servant to yourself by a covenant before [ADONAI.] But if I have done something wrong, kill me yourself! Why turn me over to your father?”

1 Samuel 20:9 Y’honatan said, “Heaven forbid! If I ever were to learn that my father had definitely decided to do you harm, wouldn’t I tell you?”

1 Samuel 20:10 Then David asked Y’honatan, “Who will tell me in the event your father gives you a harsh answer?”

1 Samuel 20:11 Y’honatan said to David, “Come, let’s go out in the countryside.” They went out, both of them, to the countryside.

1 Samuel 20:12 Y’honatan said to David, “ADONAI, the God of Isra’el [[is witness]]: after I have sounded out my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, then, if things look good for David, I will send and let you know.

1 Samuel 20:13 But if my father intends to do you harm, may ADONAI do as much and more to me if I don’t let you know and send you away, so that you can go in peace. And may ADONAI be with you, just as he used to be with my father.

1 Samuel 20:14 However, you are to show me ADONAI’s kindness not only while I am alive, so that I do not die;

1 Samuel 20:15 but also, after ADONAI has eliminated every one of David’s enemies from the face of the earth, you are to continue showing kindness to my family forever.”

1 Samuel 20:16 Thus Y’honatan made a covenant with the family of David, adding, “May ADONAI seek its fulfillment even through David’s enemies.”

1 Samuel 20:17 Y'honatan had David swear it again, because of the love he had for him- he loved him as he loved himself.

1 Samuel 20:18 Y'honatan said to him, "Tomorrow is [Rosh-Hodesh], and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

1 Samuel 20:19 The third day, hide yourself well in the same place as you did before; stay by the Departure Stone.

1 Samuel 20:20 I will shoot three arrows to one side, as if I were shooting at a target.

1 Samuel 20:21 Then I will send my boy to recover them. If I tell the boy, 'They're here on this side of you, take them,' then come- it means that everything is peaceful for you; as ADONAI lives, there's nothing wrong.

1 Samuel 20:22 But if I tell the boy, 'The arrows are out there, beyond you,' then get going, because ADONAI is sending you away.

1 Samuel 20:23 As for the matter we discussed earlier, ADONAI is between you and me forever."

1 Samuel 20:24 So David hid himself in the countryside. When [Rosh-Hodesh] came, the king sat down to eat his meal.

1 Samuel 20:25 The king sat at his usual place by the wall. Y'honatan stood up, and Avner sat next to Sha'ul, but David's place was empty.

1 Samuel 20:26 However, Sha'ul didn't say anything that day; because he thought, "Something has happened to him, he is unclean. Yes, that's it, he isn't clean."

1 Samuel 20:27 The day after [Rosh-Hodesh], the second day, David's place was empty; and Sha'ul said to Y'honatan his son, "Why hasn't Yishai's son come to the meal either yesterday or today?"

1 Samuel 20:28 Y'honatan answered Sha'ul, "David begged me to let him go to Beit-Lechem.

1 Samuel 20:29 He said, 'Please let me go, because our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother demanded that I come. So now, if you look on me favorably, please let me get away and see my brothers.' That's why he hasn't come to the king's table."

1 Samuel 20:30 At that Sha'ul flew into a rage at Y'honatan and said, "You crooked rebel! Don't I know that you've made this son of Yishai your best friend? You don't care that you're shaming yourself and dishonoring your mother, do you?

1 Samuel 20:31 Because as long as the son of Yishai lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be secure. Now send and bring him here to me- he deserves to die."

1 Samuel 20:32 Y'honatan answered Sha'ul his father, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

1 Samuel 20:33 But Sha'ul threw his spear at him, aiming to kill; Y'honatan could no longer doubt that his father was determined to put David to death.

1 Samuel 20:34 Y'honatan got up from the table in a fury, and he ate no food the second day of the month, both because he was upset over David and because his father had put him to shame.

1 Samuel 20:35 The next morning Y'honatan went out into the country at the time he had arranged with David, taking with him a young boy.

1 Samuel 20:36 He told the boy, "Now run and find the arrows I'm about to shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

1 Samuel 20:37 When the boy reached the place where the arrow was that Y'honatan had shot, Y'honatan shouted at the boy, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?"

1 Samuel 20:38 Y'honatan continued shouting after the boy, "Quick! Hurry! Don't just stand there!" Y'honatan's boy gathered the arrows and returned to his master,

1 Samuel 20:39 but the boy didn't understand anything about the matter- only Y'honatan and David understood.

1 Samuel 20:40 Y'honatan gave his weapons to his boy and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

1 Samuel 20:41 As soon as the boy had gone, David got up from a place south of the stone, fell face down on the ground and prostrated himself three times; and they kissed one another and wept each with the other until it became too much for David.

1 Samuel 20:42 Y'honatan said to David, "Go in peace; because we have sworn, both of us, in the name of ADONAI, that ADONAI will be between me and you, and between my descendants and yours, forever."

1 Samuel 21:1 So David got up and left, and Y'honatan went back to the city.

1 Samuel 21:2 David went to see Achimelekh the [cohen] in Nov. Achimelekh came trembling to meet David and asked, "Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?"

1 Samuel 21:3 David said to Achimelekh the [cohen], "The king has sent me on a mission and told me not to let anyone know its purpose or what I've been ordered to do. I've arranged a place where the guards are to meet me.

1 Samuel 21:4 Now, what do you have on hand? If you can spare five loaves of bread, give them to me, or whatever there is."

1 Samuel 21:5 The [cohen] answered David, "I don't have any regular bread; however, there is consecrated bread- but only if the guards have abstained from women.

1 Samuel 21:6 David answered the [cohen], “Of course women have been kept away from us, as on previous campaigns. Whenever I go out on campaign, the men’s gear is clean, even if it’s an ordinary trip. How much more, then, today, when they will be putting something consecrated in their packs!”

1 Samuel 21:7 So the [cohen] gave him consecrated bread, because there was no bread there other than the showbread that had been removed from before ADONAI to be replaced by freshly baked bread on the day the old bread was removed.

1 Samuel 21:8 One of the servants of Sha’ul happened to be there that day, detained before ADONAI. His name was Do’eg the Edomi, the head of Sha’ul’s shepherds.

1 Samuel 21:9 David said to Achimelekh, “Perhaps you have here with you a spear or a sword? I brought neither my sword nor my other weapons, because the king’s mission was urgent.”

1 Samuel 21:10 The [cohen] said, “The sword of Golyat the P’lishti you killed in the Elah Valley, is over there behind the ritual vest, wrapped in a cloth. If you want it, take it; it’s the only one here.” David said, “There’s nothing like it; give it to me.”

1 Samuel 21:11 The same day, David took flight from Sha’ul and went to Akhish king of Gat.

1 Samuel 21:12 The servants of Akhish said to him, “Isn’t this David, king of the land? Weren’t they dancing and singing to each other, ‘Sha’ul has killed his thousands, but David his tens of thousands’?”

1 Samuel 21:13 These remarks were not lost on David, and he became very much afraid of Akhish king of Gat.

1 Samuel 21:14 So, as they were watching, he changed his behavior and acted like a madman when they had hold of him, scratching marks on the doors of the city gate and drooling down his beard.

1 Samuel 21:15 Akhish said to his servants, “Here, you see that the man is [meshugga]; why bring him to me?

1 Samuel 21:16 Am I short of [meshugga’im]? Is that why you’ve brought this one to go crazy on me? Must I have this one in my house?”

1 Samuel 22:1 David left there and took refuge in the Cave of ‘Adulam. When his brothers and the rest of his father’s family heard of it, they went down to see him there.

1 Samuel 22:2 Then all the people in distress, in debt or embittered began gathering around him, and he became their leader; there were about four hundred with him.

1 Samuel 22:3 David went from there to Mitzpeh of Mo’av and said to the king of Mo’av, “Please let my father and mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me.”

1 Samuel 22:4 He presented them to the king of Mo'av, and they lived with him as long as David remained in his stronghold.

1 Samuel 22:5 But the prophet Gad said to David, "Don't stay in the stronghold. Leave, and go to the land of Y'hudah." So David left and went to the Forest of Heret.

1 Samuel 22:6 Sha'ul heard that David and the men with him had been located. Sha'ul was sitting in Giv'ah, under the tamarisk tree on the hill, with his spear in his hand and all his servants standing around him.

1 Samuel 22:7 Sha'ul said to his servants standing around him, "Listen, you men of Binyamin! Is Yishai's son going to give any of you fields and vineyards? Is he going to make you all commanders of thousands and hundreds?

1 Samuel 22:8 Is this why you have all conspired against me, why none of you told me when my son went in league with Yishai's son? None of you is concerned about me! Otherwise you would have told me that my son had incited my servant to become my enemy, as he is now."

1 Samuel 22:9 Then Do'eg the Edomi, who had been put in charge of Sha'ul's servants, answered, "I saw Yishai's son come to Nov, to Achimelekh the son of Achituv.

1 Samuel 22:10 He consulted ADONAI for him, gave him food and gave him the sword of Golyat the P'lishti."

1 Samuel 22:11 The king sent to summon Achimelekh the [cohen] the son of Achituv, along with all his father's family, the [cohanim] in Nov; and all of them went to the king.

1 Samuel 22:12 Sha'ul said, "Listen here, you son of Achituv!" He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

1 Samuel 22:13 Sha'ul said to him, "Why did you conspire against me, you and Yishai's son? By giving him bread and a sword and consulting God for him, you helped him rebel against me and become my enemy, which he now is!"

1 Samuel 22:14 Achimelekh answered the king, "Is there anyone among all your servants more trustworthy than David? He's the king's son-in-law, he carries out your every request, your household honors him.

1 Samuel 22:15 I didn't start consulting God for him just today. Heaven forbid! The king shouldn't accuse me or my father's family of anything! Your servant knows nothing at all about any of this!"

1 Samuel 22:16 But the king said, "You must die, you and your father's whole family."

1 Samuel 22:17 Then the king told the guards standing around him, "Go around, and kill the [cohanim] of ADONAI, because they are siding with David, and because they knew he was escaping, yet they didn't tell me.” But the king’s servants refused to lift their hands against the [cohanim] of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 22:18 So the king said to Do’eg, “You go around and kill the [cohanim]!” Do’eg the Edomi went around and fell on the [cohanim]; that day he killed eighty-five persons wearing linen ritual vests[.]

1 Samuel 22:19 He also attacked Nov, the city of the [cohanim], with the sword; he put to the sword both men and women, children and babies, cattle, donkeys and sheep.

1 Samuel 22:20 One of the sons of Achimelekh the son of Achituv, named Avyatar, escaped and fled to join David.

1 Samuel 22:21 Avyatar told David that Sha’ul had killed the [cohanim] of ADONAI.

1 Samuel 22:22 David said to Avyatar, “I knew it! That day, when Do’eg the Edomi was there, I knew he would tell Sha’ul. I caused the death of every person in your father’s family.

1 Samuel 22:23 Stay with me; don’t be afraid; because the one who is seeking my life seeks yours too. You’ll be safe with me.”

1 Samuel 23:1 David was told, “The P’lishtim are fighting Ke’ilah and plundering the threshing-floors.”

1 Samuel 23:2 David consulted ADONAI, asking, “Should I go and attack these P’lishtim?” ADONAI answered David, “Go, and attack the P’lishtim, and save Ke’ilah.”

1 Samuel 23:3 David’s men said to him, “Look, we’re already afraid here in Y’hudah. How much more, then, if we go to Ke’ilah to fight the armies of the P’lishtim!”

1 Samuel 23:4 David consulted ADONAI again; and ADONAI answered him, “Set out, and go down to Ke’ilah, because I will hand the P’lishtim over to you.”

1 Samuel 23:5 David and his men went to Ke’ilah and fought the P’lishtim. They defeated them in a great slaughter and led away their livestock. Thus David saved the inhabitants of Ke’ilah.

1 Samuel 23:6 When Avyatar the son of Achimelekh fled to David in Ke’ilah, he had brought a ritual vest with him.

1 Samuel 23:7 Now Sha’ul, on being informed that David had gone to Ke’ilah, had said, “God has put him into my hands. He’s trapped himself by entering a town with gates and bars.”

1 Samuel 23:8 So Sha’ul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Ke’ilah and besiege David and his men.

1 Samuel 23:9 David knew that Sha’ul was plotting something against him, so he told Avyatar the [cohen], “Bring the ritual vest here.”

1 Samuel 23:10 Then David said, “ADONAI God of Isra’el, your servant has certainly heard that Sha’ul intends to come to Ke’ilah and destroy the city just to get me.

1 Samuel 23:11 Will the men of Ke’ilah turn me over to him? Will Sha’ul come down, as your servant has heard? ADONAI God of Isra’el, please tell your servant!” ADONAI said, “He will come down.”

1 Samuel 23:12 Then David asked, “Will the men of Ke’ilah hand me and my men over to Sha’ul?” ADONAI said, “They will hand you over.”

1 Samuel 23:13 So David and his men, now around six hundred, got up, left Ke’ilah and went wherever they could. It was told Sha’ul that David had escaped from Ke’ilah, so he called off the expedition.

1 Samuel 23:14 David stayed in the desert strongholds, remaining in the hills of the Zif Desert. Sha’ul kept trying to find him, but God did not hand him over to him.

1 Samuel 23:15 David saw that Sha’ul had mounted another expedition to seek his life. David was then at Horesh in the Zif Desert.

1 Samuel 23:16 Y’honatan Sha’ul’s son set out and went to David at Horesh to encourage him in God.

1 Samuel 23:17 He said to him, “Don’t be afraid, because my father’s forces will not find you; you will be king over Isra’el, and I will be second to you. Sha’ul my father knows this, too.”

1 Samuel 23:18 Then the two of them made a covenant in the presence of ADONAI, after which David stayed at Horesh and Y’honatan returned home.

1 Samuel 23:19 The people of Zif came to Sha’ul in Giv’ah and said, “David is hiding himself with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on Hakhilah Hill, south of Yeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:20 So now, king, since you’ve wanted so much to come down, come down! Our part will be to turn him over to you.”

1 Samuel 23:21 Sha’ul said, “May ADONAI bless you for showing me compassion!

1 Samuel 23:22 Please go and make still more certain exactly where he is and who has seen him there, because I’ve been told that he’s very tricky.

1 Samuel 23:23 So look closely, find out where all his hiding-places are, and come back when you’re sure. Then I will go with you, and if he is there in that territory, I’ll search till I find him among all the thousands of Y’hudah.”

1 Samuel 23:24 They set out and went to Zif before Sha’ul. But David and his men had gone on to the Ma’on Desert, in the ‘Aravah south of Yeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:25 Sha’ul and his men went searching for him. David was told, so he came down to the rock and stayed in the Ma’on Desert. When Sha’ul heard that, he pursued David in the Ma’on Desert.

1 Samuel 23:26 Sha’ul went along one side of the mountain, while David and his men went along the other. David was hurrying to get away from Sha’ul, while Sha’ul and his men were trying to surround David and his men in order to capture them.

1 Samuel 23:27 But then a messenger came to Sha’ul, saying, “Hurry, come, because the P’lishtim are invading the country!”

1 Samuel 23:28 So Sha’ul stopped chasing David and went to fight the P’lishtim. Therefore they called that place Sela-Hamachlekot [[rock of divisions]].

1 Samuel 24:1 From there David went up and lived in the strongholds of ‘Ein-Gedi.

1 Samuel 24:2 When Sha’ul returned from pursuing the P’lishtim, he was told that David was in the desert at ‘Ein-Gedi.

1 Samuel 24:3 Sha’ul took three thousand men chosen from all Isra’el and went searching for David and his men on the cliffs where the mountain goats are.

1 Samuel 24:4 Near some sheep pens along the way was a cave, and Sha’ul went inside to relieve himself. It happened that David and his men were sitting in the recesses at the back of the cave;

1 Samuel 24:5 and David’s men said to him, “Look! The day has come that ADONAI told you about when he said to you, ‘I will turn your enemy over to you, and you will do to him whatever seems good to you.’“ Then David stole over unobserved and cut off the corner of Sha’ul’s cloak.

1 Samuel 24:6 But after doing this, David felt remorse over cutting Sha’ul’s garment.

1 Samuel 24:7 He said to his men, “ADONAI forbid that I should do such a thing to my lord, ADONAI’s anointed, as raise my hand against him! After all, he is ADONAI’s anointed.”

1 Samuel 24:8 By saying this, David stopped his men and would not let them do anything to Sha’ul. Sha’ul got up, left the cave and went on his way.

1 Samuel 24:9 Then David too got up and went outside the cave, where he called after Sha’ul, “My lord the king!” When Sha’ul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

1 Samuel 24:10 David said to Sha’ul, “Why do you listen to people who say, ‘David is out to harm you?’

1 Samuel 24:11 Here, today you have seen with your own eyes that ADONAI put you in my power there in the cave. Some of my men said I should kill you, but I spared you; I said, 'I won't raise my hand against my lord, because he is ADONAI's anointed.'

1 Samuel 24:12 Moreover, my father, look! Here in my hand you see the corner of your cloak. By the fact that I only cut off a piece of your cloak and didn't kill you, you can see and understand that I have no plan to do harm or rebel, and that I haven't sinned against you- even though you are seeking every chance you get to take my life.

1 Samuel 24:13 May ADONAI judge between you and me, and may ADONAI avenge me on you! But I will not lay a hand on you-

1 Samuel 24:14 as the old saying has it, 'Out of the wicked comes wickedness, but I will not lay a hand on you.'

1 Samuel 24:15 The king of Isra'el has come on a campaign- after whom? Whom are you chasing? A dead dog! A single flea!

1 Samuel 24:16 ADONAI be the judge; let him decide between you and me. May he take my side and rescue me from your power!"

1 Samuel 24:17 After David had finished speaking to Sha'ul, Sha'ul said, "Is that your voice, my son David?" Then Sha'ul cried out and wept;

1 Samuel 24:18 and he said to David, "You are more righteous than I, because you have treated me well, while I have been treating you badly.

1 Samuel 24:19 You have made it clear to me today that you have done me good; for when ADONAI put my fate in your hands, you didn't kill me.

1 Samuel 24:20 A man finds his enemy and lets him go unharmed?! May ADONAI reward you well for what you did to me today.

1 Samuel 24:21 Now I'm certain that you will indeed become king, and that the kingship of Isra'el will be established in your hands.

1 Samuel 24:22 So swear to me by ADONAI that you will not kill my descendants after I die or blot out my name from my father's family."

1 Samuel 24:23 David swore to Sha'ul, and Sha'ul went home, but David and his men went back up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25:1 Sh'mu'el died. All of Isra'el assembled to mourn him and bury him at his home in Ramah. Then David set out and went down to the Pa'ran Desert.

1 Samuel 25:2 Now there was a man in Ma'on who had property in Karmel. He was very rich, having three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Karmel.

1 Samuel 25:3 The man's name was Naval, and his wife was named Avigayil. The woman was intelligent and attractive, but the man was surly and mean in his actions; he belonged to the clan of Kalev.

1 Samuel 25:4 David, there in the desert, heard that Naval was shearing his sheep.

1 Samuel 25:5 David sent off ten young men with these orders: “Go up to Naval in Karmel, and bring him greetings from me.

1 Samuel 25:6 Say, ‘Long life and [shalom] to you, [shalom] to your household, and [shalom] to everything that is yours!

1 Samuel 25:7 I’ve heard that you now have shearers. Your shepherds were with us [[for a while]], we did them no harm, and they found nothing missing all the time they were in Karmel.

1 Samuel 25:8 Ask your own men; they’ll tell you. Therefore, receive my men favorably, since we have come on a festive day. Please give what you can to your servants and to your son David.’“

1 Samuel 25:9 On arrival, David’s men said all these things to Naval in David’s name. When they had finished,

1 Samuel 25:10 Naval answered David’s servants, “Who is David? Who is the son of Yishai? There are many servants nowadays running away from their masters.

1 Samuel 25:11 Am I supposed to take my bread, my water and my meat that I slaughtered for my shearers and give it to men coming from who knows where?”

1 Samuel 25:12 So David’s men turned around, went back and came and told him everything Naval had said.

1 Samuel 25:13 David said to his men, “Buckle your swords on, all of you!” Each one buckled on his sword, David too; and there went up after David about four hundred men, while two hundred stayed with the equipment.

1 Samuel 25:14 But one of Naval’s men told Avigayil his wife, “David sent messengers from the desert to greet our master, and he flew on them in a rage,

1 Samuel 25:15 even though the men had been very good to us- they didn’t harm us, and we found nothing missing during the entire time we went with them, while we were out in the countryside.

1 Samuel 25:16 They served as a wall protecting us day and night all the time we were with them caring for the sheep.

1 Samuel 25:17 So now decide what you are going to do, for clearly harm is on its way to our master and all his household, but he’s so mean that no one can tell him anything.”

1 Samuel 25:18 Avigayil wasted no time in taking 200 loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already prepared, six quarts of roasted grain, a hundred clusters of raisins and 200 fig cakes, and having them loaded on donkeys.

1 Samuel 25:19 Then she said to her young men, “Go on ahead of me, and I’ll come along after you.” But she didn’t tell her husband Naval.

1 Samuel 25:20 She was riding her donkey down past the hiding-place in the mountain, when David and his men descended toward her, and she met them.

1 Samuel 25:21 David had said, “What a waste it has been guarding everything this fellow has in the desert, so that nothing of his was missing! He has repaid me bad for good!”

1 Samuel 25:22 Then he swore, “May God do the same and more to David’s enemies if I leave alive even one male of everything he owns.”

1 Samuel 25:23 When Avigayil saw David, she hurried to dismount from her donkey, fell on her face in front of David and bowed down to the ground.

1 Samuel 25:24 Having fallen at his feet, she said, “It’s all my fault, my lord, all my fault! Please let your servant speak in your ears, and listen to what your servant says.

1 Samuel 25:25 Please! My lord shouldn’t pay any attention to this worthless fellow Naval, because he’s just like his name- ‘[Naval]’ means ‘boor,’ and his boorishness stays with him. But I, your servant, did not see my lord’s men, whom you sent.

1 Samuel 25:26 Therefore, my lord, as ADONAI lives, and as you live, inasmuch as ADONAI has kept you from the guilt of shedding blood and from taking vengeance into your own hands- therefore, may your enemies and anyone seeking your harm be [[as worthless]] as Naval.

1 Samuel 25:27 Meanwhile, let this present which your servant has brought to my lord be given to the men in my lord’s service.

1 Samuel 25:28 And please forgive the offense your servant has caused; because ADONAI will certainly establish my lord’s dynasty, for my lord fights ADONAI’s battles, and nothing bad has been found in you all your life long.

1 Samuel 25:29 Even if someone comes along searching for you and seeking your life, your life will be bound in the bundle of life with ADONAI your God. But the lives of your enemies he will fling away as if from the pouch of a slingshot.

1 Samuel 25:30 Then, when ADONAI has done all the good to my lord that he has said about you and made you ruler over Isra’el,

1 Samuel 25:31 what happens here will not have become an obstacle to you or a cause for remorse to my lord, neither that you shed blood without cause nor that my lord took vengeance into his own hands. Finally, when ADONAI has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant.”

1 Samuel 25:32 David said to Avigayil, “Blessed be ADONAI the God of Isra’el, who sent you today to meet me;

1 Samuel 25:33 and blessed be your tactfulness, and blessed be yourself for having kept me today from the guilt of shedding blood and taking vengeance into my own hands.

1 Samuel 25:34 For as ADONAI the God of Isra'el, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you hadn't rushed to meet me, not even one male would have been left to Naval by morning!"

1 Samuel 25:35 So David received from her what she had brought him, then said to her, "Go up in peace to your home. I have listened to what you said and granted your request."

1 Samuel 25:36 Avigayil came to Naval; there he was in his house, holding a feast fit for a king. He was in high spirits, because he was very drunk. So she told him nothing whatever until the next morning.

1 Samuel 25:37 In the morning, when he was sober and his wife told him what had happened, he had a stroke and became as motionless as a stone.

1 Samuel 25:38 Some ten days later ADONAI struck Naval, and he died.

1 Samuel 25:39 When David heard that Naval was dead, he said, "Blessed be ADONAI for having taken my side in the matter of Naval's insult and for having prevented his servant from doing anything bad. On the contrary, ADONAI has caused Naval's bad deeds to return on his own head." Then David sent a message that he wanted to make Avigayil his own wife.

1 Samuel 25:40 When David's servants reached Avigayil in Karmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to bring you to him to be his wife."

1 Samuel 25:41 She got up, bowed with her face to the ground, and said, "Your servant is here to serve you, to wash the feet of my lord's servants."

1 Samuel 25:42 Avigayil then hurried, set out and rode off on a donkey, with five of her female servants following her; she went after David's messengers; and she became his wife.

1 Samuel 25:43 David also took Achino'am of Yizre'el; both of them became his wives.

1 Samuel 25:44 Meanwhile, Sha'ul had given Mikhal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Layish, who came from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26:1 The people from Zif went to Sha'ul in Giv'ah and said, "David is hiding himself on Hakhilah Hill, across from Yeshimon."

1 Samuel 26:2 Then Sha'ul set out and went down to the Zif Desert with three thousand men chosen from Isra'el, to search for David in the Zif Desert.

1 Samuel 26:3 Sha’ul pitched camp on Hakhilah Hill, across from Yeshimon, near the road. David was staying in the desert, and he saw that Sha’ul was coming into the desert after him.

1 Samuel 26:4 So David dispatched spies and determined that Sha’ul had definitely come.

1 Samuel 26:5 David set out and went to where Sha’ul had pitched his camp. He saw where Sha’ul and Avner the son of Ner, the commander of his army, were sleeping. Sha’ul was lying inside the barricade with the troops asleep all around him.

1 Samuel 26:6 David said to Achimelekh the Hitti and Avishai the son of Tz’ruyah, Yo’av’s brother, “Who will go down with me to Sha’ul in the camp?” Avishai said, “I will go down with you.”

1 Samuel 26:7 So David and Avishai went to the soldiers by night. Sha’ul was lying there asleep inside the barricade. His spear was stuck in the ground next to his head, with Avner and the troops asleep all around him.

1 Samuel 26:8 Avishai said to David, “God has handed your enemy over to you today; so now, please, let me pin him to the ground with just one stroke of the spear. I won’t strike him a second time.”

1 Samuel 26:9 But David said to Avishai, “Don’t destroy him! Nobody can raise his hand against ADONAI’s anointed without becoming guilty!”

1 Samuel 26:10 David then added, “As ADONAI lives, ADONAI will strike him down, or the day will come for him to die, or he will go down to battle and be swept away.

1 Samuel 26:11 ADONAI forbid that I should raise my hand against ADONAI’s anointed! But now, we’ll take the spear by his head and the jug of water, and get out of here.”

1 Samuel 26:12 So David took the spear and the water jug from Sha’ul’s head and got away. Nobody saw or knew about it, and no one awoke, because they were all asleep- a deep sleep from ADONAI had fallen over them.

1 Samuel 26:13 David crossed to the other side and climbed to the top of the distant ridge, leaving a considerable space between them.

1 Samuel 26:14 Then David called out to the troops and to Avner the son of Ner. “Avner! Aren’t you going to answer?” Avner answered, “Who are you, calling to the king?”

1 Samuel 26:15 David said to Avner, “Aren’t you the brave one! Who is there in Isra’el to compare with you? So why haven’t you kept watch over your lord the king? Someone came in to kill the king, your lord!

1 Samuel 26:16 It’s not good, what you’ve done! As ADONAI lives, you deserve to die; because you didn’t keep watch over your lord,

ADONAI's anointed. And now, see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was next to his head!"

1 Samuel 26:17 Sha'ul recognized David's voice and said, "Is that your voice, my son David?" David said, "It is my voice, my lord king!"

1 Samuel 26:18 and continued, "Why is my lord chasing his servant? What have I done? What evil am I planning?

1 Samuel 26:19 Please, now, may my lord the king hear what his servant is saying. If it is ADONAI who has stirred you up against me, let him receive an offering. But if it's human beings, then a curse on them before ADONAI!- because, as things stand today, they have driven me out, so that I can no longer share in ADONAI's inheritance- they've said, 'Go, serve other gods!'

1 Samuel 26:20 Now don't let my blood fall on the ground away from the presence of ADONAI. The king of Isra'el has gone out in search of a single flea, as if he were hunting partridge in the mountains!"

1 Samuel 26:21 Then Sha'ul said, "I have sinned. Come back, my son David. I won't harm you any longer, because you regarded my life as precious today. Yes, I have behaved like a fool. I was altogether in the wrong."

1 Samuel 26:22 David answered, "Here is the king's spear. Send one of the men over to bring it back.

1 Samuel 26:23 ADONAI will give every person a reward suited to his uprightness and faithfulness. ADONAI put you in my power today, but I would not raise my hand against ADONAI's anointed.

1 Samuel 26:24 Look: just as I put great value on your life today, so may my life be given great value by [ADONAI.] May he deliver me from every kind of trouble!"

1 Samuel 26:25 Sha'ul answered David, "Blessings on you, my son David! No question that you will accomplish everything you set out to do!" So David went on his way, and Sha'ul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27:1 But David said to himself, "One day Sha'ul will sweep me away. The best thing for me to do is to escape into the territory of the P'lishtim. Then Sha'ul will give up trying to find me here or there in Isra'el's territory, and at last I'll be free of him."

1 Samuel 27:2 So David set out with his six hundred men and passed on to Akhish the son of Ma'okh, king of Gat.

1 Samuel 27:3 David lived with Akhish, he and his men, each man with his household- including David with his two wives Achino'am from Yizre'el and Avigayil from Karmel, Naval's widow.

1 Samuel 27:4 Sha'ul was told that David had escaped to Gat, whereupon he stopped searching for him.

1 Samuel 27:5 David said to Akhish, “If you are now favorably disposed toward me, let me have a place to live in one of the cities in the countryside. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

1 Samuel 27:6 That very day Akhish gave him Ziklag, and that’s why to this day Ziklag belongs to the kings of Y’hudah.

1 Samuel 27:7 After David had been living in the country of the P’lishtim for a year and four months,

1 Samuel 27:8 he and his men began going up and raiding the G’shuri, the Gizri and the ‘Amaleki (from ancient times these people had lived in the land in the direction of Shur, all the way to Egypt).

1 Samuel 27:9 David would attack the land, leaving alive neither men nor women, but taking the sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels and clothing. Then he would return and go to Akhish.

1 Samuel 27:10 Akhish would ask, “Where were you raiding today?” and David would answer, “Against the Negev of Y’hudah,” or “Against the Negev of the Yerachme’eli,” or “Against the Negev of the Keni.”

1 Samuel 27:11 The reason David spared neither men nor women to be brought to Gat is that he thought, “We don’t want them telling on us, saying, ‘David did so-and-so.’“ That’s how he conducted his raids for as long as he lived in the country of the P’lishtim.

1 Samuel 27:12 And Akhish believed him; he said, “David has caused his own people Isra’el to despise him utterly; he will be my servant forever.”

1 Samuel 28:1 In due time the P’lishtim assembled their armies for war against Isra’el. Akhish told David, “You know, of course, that you and your men will join me and the army in battle.”

1 Samuel 28:2 David answered Akhish, “I see that you already know what your servant will do.” Akhish said to David, “For that answer, I am making you my personal bodyguard for life.”

1 Samuel 28:3 Now Sh’mu’el was dead; all Isra’el had mourned him and buried him in his city, Ramah. Also Sha’ul had expelled from the land those who tell the future by communicating with the dead or with a demonic spirit.

1 Samuel 28:4 The P’lishtim assembled; then they went and pitched camp at Shunem; while Sha’ul gathered all Isra’el together and pitched camp at Gilboa.

1 Samuel 28:5 When Sha’ul saw the army of the P’lishtim, he became afraid- it struck terror in his heart.

1 Samuel 28:6 But when he consulted ADONAI, ADONAI didn’t answer him- not by dreams, not by [urim] and not by prophets.

1 Samuel 28:7 Then Sha’ul said to his servants, “Try to find a woman who tells the future by communicating with the dead; I want to go and consult with her.” His servants answered him, “Yes, there’s a woman in ‘Ein-Dor who tells the future by communicating with the dead.”

1 Samuel 28:8 So Sha’ul disguised himself by wearing different clothing, went with two men, came to the woman by night and said, “Tell me the future, please. Bring up from the dead the person I name to you.”

1 Samuel 28:9 The woman answered, “Here, you know what Sha’ul did, how he expelled from the land those who tell the future by communicating with the dead or with a demonic spirit. Why are you trying to entrap me into causing my own death?”

1 Samuel 28:10 But Sha’ul swore to her by ADONAI, “As ADONAI lives, you will not be punished for doing this.”

1 Samuel 28:11 Then the woman asked, “Whom should I bring up for you?” He said, “Bring up for me Sh’mu’el.”

1 Samuel 28:12 When the woman saw Sh’mu’el, she let out a shriek. Then the woman said to Sha’ul, “Why have you deceived me? You yourself are Sha’ul!”

1 Samuel 28:13 The king replied, “Don’t be afraid. Just tell me what you see.” The woman said to Sha’ul, “I see a god-like being coming up out of the earth.”

1 Samuel 28:14 He asked her, “What does he look like?” She said, “An old man is coming up; he’s wearing a cloak.” Sha’ul realized it was Sh’mu’el, so he bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

1 Samuel 28:15 Sh’mu’el asked Sha’ul, “Why have you disturbed me and brought me up?” Sha’ul answered, “I’m very upset; because the P’lishtim are making war against me; and God has left me and doesn’t answer me any more, neither by prophets nor by dreams. This is why I’ve called you, so that you can let me know what to do.”

1 Samuel 28:16 Sh’mu’el said, “Why ask me, if ADONAI has left you and become your enemy?

1 Samuel 28:17 ADONAI has done for himself what he foretold through me- ADONAI has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to your fellow countryman David,

1 Samuel 28:18 because you didn’t obey what ADONAI said and execute his furious anger toward ‘Amalek. That’s why ADONAI is doing this to you today.

1 Samuel 28:19 ADONAI is giving Isra’el as well as yourself over into the power of the P’lishtim, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. ADONAI will hand over Isra’el’s army to the power of the P’lishtim.”

1 Samuel 28:20 Sha’ul immediately fell full length on the ground and became terribly frightened because of what Sh’mu’el had said. He had no strength left in him, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night.

1 Samuel 28:21 The woman approached Sha'ul, saw that he was panic-stricken and said to him, "Here, your servant listened to what you said; I put my life in my hands and did what you requested me to do.

1 Samuel 28:22 Now therefore, please, you listen to what your servant says: let me put a little food in front of you; then eat, so you will have some strength when you go on your way."

1 Samuel 28:23 But he refused and said, "I won't eat." Then his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded what they said. He got up off the ground and sat on the bed.

1 Samuel 28:24 The woman had a fattened calf in the house; she hurried to slaughter it; then she took flour, kneaded it and baked [matzah] with it.

1 Samuel 28:25 She served it to Sha'ul and his servants, and they ate. Afterwards, they got up; and they went away that night.

1 Samuel 29:1 The P'lishtim gathered all their army together at Afek, while Isra'el's army pitched camp by the spring in Yizre'el.

1 Samuel 29:2 The leaders of the P'lishtim were passing by with their hundreds and thousands; David and his men were bringing up the rear with Akhish.

1 Samuel 29:3 The chiefs of the P'lishtim asked, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" Akhish answered the chiefs of the P'lishtim, "This is David, who was a servant of Sha'ul, king of Isra'el. He's been with me now for well over a year, and I haven't found anything wrong with him between the time he deserted to me and now."

1 Samuel 29:4 But the chiefs of the P'lishtim became angry and said to him, "Have the man return and go back to the place you set aside for him. Don't let him go into battle with us, because on the battlefield he might become our enemy. What better way could there be for him to get reconciled with his lord than by [[cutting off]] the heads of our men?

1 Samuel 29:5 This is David! They used to dance and sing about him, 'Sha'ul has killed his thousands, but David his tens of thousands'!"

1 Samuel 29:6 So Akhish summoned David and said to him, "As ADONAI lives, you have been upright; and I myself would be more than pleased to have you go on campaign with me; because I haven't found anything wrong with you between the day you arrived and now. However, the chiefs don't trust you.

1 Samuel 29:7 Therefore, now, go on back; and go in peace, so as not to do what appears bad to the chiefs of the P'lishtim.

1 Samuel 29:8 David said to Akhish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant during the time I've been with you that disqualifies me from going and fighting against the enemies of my lord the king?"

1 Samuel 29:9 Akhish answered David, “I know that you are as good, from my point of view, as an angel of God. Nevertheless, the chiefs of the P’lishtim have said, ‘He is not to go up with us to the battlefield.’

1 Samuel 29:10 So get up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who came with you; and as soon as you are up and it gets light, leave.”

1 Samuel 29:11 David got up early in the morning, he and his men, to leave and go back into the land of the P’lishtim; while the P’lishtim continued up to Yizre’el.

1 Samuel 30:1 Three days later, when David and his men arrived in Ziklag, they found that the ‘Amaleki had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had sacked Ziklag and burned it down;

1 Samuel 30:2 and they had taken captive the women and everyone there, great and small. They hadn’t killed anyone but had carried them off as they went on their way.

1 Samuel 30:3 So when David and his men arrived at the city, there it was, burned down, with their wives, sons and daughters taken captive.

1 Samuel 30:4 Then David and the people with him cried aloud until they had no more power to cry.

1 Samuel 30:5 David’s two wives had been taken captive- Achino’am from Yizre’el and Avigayil the widow of Naval from Karmel.

1 Samuel 30:6 David was in serious trouble: the people were talking about stoning him to death, because all the people were in such deep grief, each man over his sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in ADONAI his God.

1 Samuel 30:7 David said to Avyatar the [cohen], the son of Achimelekh, “Please bring the ritual vest here to me.” Avyatar brought the vest to David.

1 Samuel 30:8 Then David consulted ADONAI. He asked, “Should I go in pursuit of these raiders? Will I catch up with them?” And [[ADONAI]] answered him, “Go in pursuit, because you will overtake them and recover everyone and everything.”

1 Samuel 30:9 So David went, he and the six hundred men with him. They came to [Vadi] B’sor, where those who were to stay behind waited.

1 Samuel 30:10 Then David continued in pursuit with four hundred men, while two hundred too exhausted to cross [Vadi] B’sor stayed behind.

1 Samuel 30:11 They found an Egyptian in the countryside and brought him to David. They gave him some bread to eat and water to drink;

1 Samuel 30:12 they also gave him a lump of dried figs and two bunches of raisins. After eating, he revived; because he hadn't eaten anything or drunk any water for three days and nights.

1 Samuel 30:13 David asked him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" He answered, "I'm an Egyptian boy, the slave of an 'Amaleki. My master abandoned me three days ago, because I got sick.

1 Samuel 30:14 We raided the Negev of the K'reti, the Negev of Y'hudah and the Negev of Kalev; and we burned down Ziklag."

1 Samuel 30:15 David asked him, "Will you lead me down to this raiding party?" He said, "If you will swear by God to me that you won't kill me or hand me back to my master, I will lead you down to the raiders."

1 Samuel 30:16 He led them down, and there they were, spread out all over the ground, eating, drinking and celebrating how much spoil they had taken from the territory of the P'lishtim and the territory of Y'hudah.

1 Samuel 30:17 David attacked them from dawn until the evening of the next day. Not one of them escaped, except for 400 young men who jumped on camels and got away.

1 Samuel 30:18 David recovered all that the 'Amaleki had taken; he also rescued his two wives.

1 Samuel 30:19 They found nothing missing, big or little- not sons, not daughters, not plundered goods or anything else they had taken- David brought it all back.

1 Samuel 30:20 David took all the flocks and herds and drove them ahead of their own livestock, announcing, "This is David's spoil."

1 Samuel 30:21 David came to where the two hundred men were who had been too exhausted to follow him, whom they had let stay at [Vadi] B'sor. They came out to meet David and the people with him. When David approached them he greeted them.

1 Samuel 30:22 But some of the men who had gone with David were evil men, scoundrels; and they said, "They didn't go with us, so we're not giving them any of the property we've recovered. Each man can take his wife and children and leave."

1 Samuel 30:23 Then David said, "No, my brothers, don't do this with the goods ADONAI has given us. He protected us, and he handed the raiding party over to us.

1 Samuel 30:24 Anyhow, no one agrees with you about this. No, the share of someone who stays with the equipment will be the same as the share of someone who goes out and fights- they will share equally."

1 Samuel 30:25 It has been that way from that day on; he established it as a ruling for Isra'el to this day.

1 Samuel 30:26 When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the leaders of Y'hudah who were his friends with a note, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of ADONAI."

1 Samuel 30:27 He sent such gifts to those in Beit-El, to those in Ramot, to those in Yatir,

1 Samuel 30:28 to those in 'Aro'er, to those in Sifmot, to those in Esht'moa,

1 Samuel 30:29 to those in Rakhal, to those in Yerachme'eli, to those in the cities of the Keni,

1 Samuel 30:30 to those in Hormah, to those in Kor-'Ashan, to those in 'Atakh,

1 Samuel 30:31 to those in Hevron, and to all the places where David and his men had frequently visited.

1 Samuel 31:1 Now the P'lishtim pressed their attack on Isra'el. The men of Isra'el fled before the P'lishtim, leaving their dead on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:2 The P'lishtim pursued and overtook Sha'ul and his sons; and the P'lishtim killed Y'honatan, Avinadav and Malkishua, the sons of Sha'ul.

1 Samuel 31:3 The fighting went hard against Sha'ul; then the archers overtook and wounded him, so that he was in agony.

1 Samuel 31:4 Sha'ul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it. Otherwise these uncircumcised men will come, run me through and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer refused, he was too frightened. So Sha'ul took his sword and fell on it.

1 Samuel 31:5 When his armor-bearer saw that Sha'ul was dead, he too fell on his own sword and died with him.

1 Samuel 31:6 Thus Sha'ul, his three sons, his armor-bearer and all his men died that same day together.

1 Samuel 31:7 When the men of Isra'el who were on the other side of the valley and those who were on the far side of the Yarden saw that the men of Isra'el had fled and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; then the P'lishtim came and lived in them.

1 Samuel 31:8 The following day, when the P'lishtim came to strip the dead, they found Sha'ul and his three sons lying dead on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:9 They cut off his head, stripped off his armor and sent these all over the territory of the P'lishtim to carry the news to the temples of their idols and to the people.

1 Samuel 31:10 Then they put his armor in the temple for the ['ashtarot] and fastened his body to the wall of Beit-Sh'an.

1 Samuel 31:11 When the people living in Yavesh-Gil’ad heard what the P’lishtim had done to Sha’ul,

1 Samuel 31:12 all their warriors set out, traveling all night. They took the body of Sha’ul and the bodies of his sons off the wall of Beit-Sh’an, returned to Yavesh and burned them there.

1 Samuel 31:13 Then they took their bones, buried them under the tamarisk tree in Yavesh and fasted seven days.

2 Samuel

1:1 Sha’ul had died, and David had been two days in Ziklag after returning from the slaughter of the ‘Amaleki.

2 Samuel 1:2 On the third day, there came a man from Sha’ul’s camp with his clothes torn and earth on his head. He approached David, fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

2 Samuel 1:3 David said to him, “Where are you coming from?” “I escaped from the camp of Isra’el,” he replied.

2 Samuel 1:4 “Tell me, please, how did things go?” asked David. “The people have fled the battle,” he answered, “and many of them are wounded or dead. Sha’ul and Y’honatan his son are dead too.”

2 Samuel 1:5 David asked the young man who had told him this, “How do you know that Sha’ul and Y’honatan his son are dead?”

2 Samuel 1:6 The young man who had told him said, “I happened to be on Mount Gilboa when I saw Sha’ul leaning on his spear. The chariots and cavalry were bearing down on him.

2 Samuel 1:7 He looked behind him, saw me and called to me. I answered, ‘Here I am.’

2 Samuel 1:8 He said to me, ‘Who are you?’ and I answered, ‘I’m an ‘Amaleki’

2 Samuel 1:9 He said to me, ‘I’m in agony, and I’m going to die, but I’m still alive. So please, stand next to me; and kill me.’

2 Samuel 1:10 So I stood next to him and killed him, because I was sure he was so badly wounded that he couldn’t live. I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet on his arm and have brought them here to my lord.”

2 Samuel 1:11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and likewise all the men who were with him.

2 Samuel 1:12 They wailed and cried, and they fasted until evening for Sha’ul, for Y’honatan his son, for ADONAI’s people and for the house of Isra’el; because they had fallen by the sword.

2 Samuel 1:13 David said to the young man who had told him, “Where are you from?” He answered, “I’m the son of a [[resident]] foreigner, an ‘Amaleki.”

2 Samuel 1:14 David asked him, “How is it that you weren’t afraid to raise your hand to destroy ADONAI’s anointed?”

2 Samuel 1:15 David called one of his young men and said, “Go over to him, and kill him.” The man struck him down, and he died.

2 Samuel 1:16 David said to him, “Your blood is on your own head. Your own mouth convicted you when you said, ‘I killed ADONAI’s anointed.’“

2 Samuel 1:17 Then David pronounced this lament over Sha’ul and over Y’honatan his son,

2 Samuel 1:18 in order to teach the people of Y’hudah [[not to underestimate]] archery (the lament has been written down in the book of Yashar):

2 Samuel 1:19 “Your glory, Isra’el, lies dead on your high places! How the heroes have fallen!

2 Samuel 1:20 Don’t speak of it in Gat; don’t proclaim it in the streets of Ashkelon; then the daughters of the P’lishtim won’t rejoice, the daughters of the uncircumcised won’t gloat.

2 Samuel 1:21 “Mountains of Gilboa- may there be on you no dew, no rain, no fields with good crops; because there the shields of the heroes were dishonored, the shield of Sha’ul was no longer rubbed with oil.

2 Samuel 1:22 “From the blood of the dead, from the flesh of heroes, the bow of Y’honatan did not retreat or the sword of Sha’ul return unsatisfied.

2 Samuel 1:23 Sha’ul and Y’honatan, loved and gracious while alive, were not separated even in death; they were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

2 Samuel 1:24 “Daughters of Isra’el, weep over Sha’ul! He clothed you luxuriously in scarlet and put gold jewelry on your clothing.

2 Samuel 1:25 “How the heroes have fallen in the heat of battle, Y’honatan killed on your high places!

2 Samuel 1:26 I grieve for you, my brother Y’honatan, you meant so much to me! Your love for me was deeper than the love of women.

2 Samuel 1:27 How the heroes have fallen and the weapons of war perished”

2 Samuel 2:1 After this, David consulted ADONAI; he asked, “Should I go up into any of the cities of Y’hudah?” ADONAI said to him, “Go up.” David asked, “Where should I go up?” He said, “To Hevron.”

2 Samuel 2:2 So David went up there with his two wives Achino’am from Yizre’el and Avigayil the widow of Naval from Karmel.

2 Samuel 2:3 David brought the men up with him, each with his household; and they lived in the cities of Hevron.

2 Samuel 2:4 Then the men of Y’hudah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Y’hudah. They informed David that the men of Yavesh-Gil’ad were the ones who had buried Sha’ul.

2 Samuel 2:5 So David sent messengers to the men of Yavesh-Gil’ad with this message: “May you be blessed by ADONAI, because you showed this kindness to your lord, Sha’ul, and buried him.

2 Samuel 2:6 Now may ADONAI show kindness and truth to you; and I too will show you favor because you have done this.

2 Samuel 2:7 Be strong, and be brave. Sha’ul your lord is dead, but the house of Y’hudah have anointed me king over them.”

2 Samuel 2:8 Avner the son of Ner, commander of Sha’ul’s army, had taken Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul, brought him over to Machanayim,

2 Samuel 2:9 and made him king over Gil’ad, the Ashuri, Yizre’el, Efrayim, Binyamin and all Isra’el.

2 Samuel 2:10 Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul was forty years old when he began to rule over Isra’el, and he ruled for two years. But the house of Y’hudah followed David.

2 Samuel 2:11 David was king in Hevron over the house of Y’hudah for seven years and six months.

2 Samuel 2:12 Avner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul went out from Machanayim to Giv’on;

2 Samuel 2:13 while Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah and David’s servants also went out; and they met together by the pool at Giv’on. One group sat down on one side of the pool and the other on the other side.

2 Samuel 2:14 Avner said to Yo’av, “If it’s all right with you, let’s have the young men get up and fight it out between themselves, while we watch.” Yo’av said, “Yes, let them.”

2 Samuel 2:15 So they got up and paired off, twelve for Binyamin and Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul, and twelve of David’s servants.

2 Samuel 2:16 Each one grabbed his partner by the head and drove his sword into his side, so that they fell down together. For this reason that place was named Helkat-Hatzurim [[field of blades]]; it is in Giv’on.

2 Samuel 2:17 The battle that day was very fierce; Avner and the men of Isra’el were beaten by David’s servants.

2 Samuel 2:18 The three sons of Tz’ruyah were there, Yo’av, Avishai and ‘Asah’el. ‘Asah’el was as fleet-footed as a gazelle in an open field.

2 Samuel 2:19 ‘Asah’el chased Avner, going straight for him, veering neither right nor left.

2 Samuel 2:20 Avner looked behind him and asked, “Is that you, ‘Asah’el?” “Yes, it is,” he answered.

2 Samuel 2:21 Avner said to him, “Turn off to your right or your left, catch one of the young men and take his armor.” But ‘Asah’el wouldn’t turn aside and kept following him.

2 Samuel 2:22 Avner said again to ‘Asah’el, “Turn aside and stop following me! Why should I kill you? If I did, how could I look your brother Yo’av in the eye?”

2 Samuel 2:23 But he still refused to turn aside; so Avner stabbed him in the groin with the back end of the spear, so that the shaft protruded behind him. He fell down and died on the spot. Everyone who came to the place where ‘Asah’el lay dead stopped there.

2 Samuel 2:24 Yo’av and Avishai continued in pursuit of Avner; the sun went down when they arrived at Amah Hill, across from Giach along the Giv’on Desert road.

2 Samuel 2:25 The people of Binyamin gathered themselves together into a phalanx behind Avner and stood on top of a hill.

2 Samuel 2:26 Then Avner called out to Yo’av, “Must the sword go on devouring forever? Don’t you know that in the end it can produce only bitterness? How long will it be, then, before you tell the people to quit pursuing their brothers?”

2 Samuel 2:27 Yo’av said, “As God lives, if you hadn’t said something, there is no doubt that the people would have kept following their brothers all night long.”

2 Samuel 2:28 Then Yo’av sounded the [shofar], and with that the people halted. They stopped pursuing Isra’el, and they stopped fighting.

2 Samuel 2:29 Avner and his men went through the ‘Aravah all that night; they crossed the Yarden, went through all of Bitron and arrived at Machanayim.

2 Samuel 2:30 Yo’av returned from following Avner. When he brought the troops together for review, nineteen of David’s servants were missing, along with ‘Asah’el.

2 Samuel 2:31 But David’s servants had killed 360 of Avner’s men of Binyamin.

2 Samuel 2:32 They took ‘Asah’el and buried him in his father’s tomb in Beit-Lechem. Then Yo’av and his men marched all night, so that they reached Hevron at daybreak.

2 Samuel 3:1 The war between the house of Sha’ul and the house of David dragged on, but David grew stronger, while the house of Sha’ul became weaker.

2 Samuel 3:2 Sons were born to David in Hevron. His firstborn was Amnon, whose mother was Achino’am from Yizre’el;

2 Samuel 3:3 his second, Kil’av, whose mother was Avigayil the widow of Naval from Karmel; the third, Avshalom, whose mother was Ma’akhah the daughter of Talmai king of G’shur;

2 Samuel 3:4 the fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggit; the fifth, Sh’fatyah the son of Avital;

2 Samuel 3:5 and the sixth, Yitre’am, whose mother was ‘Eglah David’s wife. These were born to David in Hevron.

2 Samuel 3:6 During the war that was going on between the house of Sha’ul and the house of David, Avner strengthened his position in the house of Sha’ul.

2 Samuel 3:7 Sha’ul had had a concubine named Ritzpah, the daughter of Ayah; and [[Ish-Boshet]] challenged Avner: “Why did you go and sleep with my father’s concubine?”

2 Samuel 3:8 These words of Ish-Boshet’s enraged Avner. “What am I,” he shouted, “[[that you treat me with such contempt]]? A dog’s head in Y’hudah? Till this moment I have shown only kindness to the house of Sha’ul your father, and to his brothers and to his friends; and I haven’t handed you over to David. Yet you choose today to pick a fight with me over this woman!

2 Samuel 3:9 May God bring terrible curses on Avner and worse ones yet if I don’t accomplish what ADONAI swore to David-

2 Samuel 3:10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Sha’ul and set up the throne of David over Isra’el and Y’hudah, from Dan all the way to Be’er-Sheva!”

2 Samuel 3:11 Ish-Boshet couldn’t answer Avner a word, because he was afraid of him.

2 Samuel 3:12 Avner immediately sent envoys to David with this message: “Who is going to control the land? If you make yourself my ally, I will use my power to bring all Isra’el over to you.”

2 Samuel 3:13 David sent this reply: “Very well, I will be your ally-on one condition: you will not come into my presence unless at the same time you bring with you Mikhal Sha’ul’s daughter.”

2 Samuel 3:14 David sent messengers to say to Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul, “Give me back my wife Mikhal. I betrothed her to myself for 100 foreskins of the P’lishtim.”

2 Samuel 3:15 Ish-Boshet sent and took her from her husband Palti’el the son of Layish.

2 Samuel 3:16 Her husband went with her, crying as he went, and followed her to Bachurim. But when Avner told him, “Go back,” he returned.

2 Samuel 3:17 Then Avner conferred with the leaders of Isra’el. He said, “In the past, you wanted David to be king over you.

2 Samuel 3:18 So now, do it. For ADONAI has said of David, ‘Through my servant David I will rescue my people Isra’el from the power of the P’lishtim and from the power of all their enemies.’“

2 Samuel 3:19 Avner also spoke with the people of Binyamin. Then Avner went to Hevron and reported to David everything that had been agreed to by Isra’el and the house of Binyamin.

2 Samuel 3:20 When Avner came to David in Hevron he brought twenty men with him. David held a feast for Avner and his men.

2 Samuel 3:21 Avner said to David, “I must get up and go to gather all Isra’el to my lord the king, so that they can make a covenant with you. Then you will be able to rule over everything your heart desires.” David sent Avner off, giving him safe conduct.

2 Samuel 3:22 Just then David’s men and Yo’av returned from a raid, bringing a lot of plunder with them. But Avner was not with David in Hevron, because he had sent him off under safe conduct.

2 Samuel 3:23 When Yo’av and all his army had arrived, Yo’av was told, “Avner the son of Ner came to the king, but he sent him off, and he has left under safe conduct.”

2 Samuel 3:24 Yo’av went to the king and said, “What have you done? Here, Avner came to you, and you sent him away, and now he’s gone! Why?

2 Samuel 3:25 You know Avner the son of Ner- he came only to deceive you, to learn what campaigns you’re planning and to find out everything you’re doing!”

2 Samuel 3:26 After leaving David, Yo’av sent messengers after Avner, and they brought him back from the water cistern at Sirah without David’s knowledge.

2 Samuel 3:27 Upon Avner’s return to Hevron, Yo’av took him aside into the space between the outer and inner city gates as if to speak with him privately; and there he struck him in the groin, so that he died- thus avenging the death of ‘Asah’el his brother.

2 Samuel 3:28 Afterwards, when David heard of it, he said, “I and my kingdom are forever innocent of the death of Avner the son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:29 Let it fall on the head of Yo’av and all his father’s family. May Yo’av’s family always have someone with a hemorrhage or [tzara’at], or who has to walk with a cane, or who dies by the sword or who lacks food.”

2 Samuel 3:30 Thus Yo’av and Avishai his brother killed Avner, because he had killed their brother ‘Asah’el during the battle in Giv’on.

2 Samuel 3:31 But David said to Yo’av and all those with him, “Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn over Avner.” King David himself walked behind the body as it was carried.

2 Samuel 3:32 They buried Avner at Hevron; the king wept aloud at Avner’s grave, and all the people wept.

2 Samuel 3:33 The king sang this lament over Avner: “Should Avner have died like a thug?

2 Samuel 3:34 Your hands weren’t tied, your feet weren’t fettered; you fell like one who falls at the hands of criminals.” Then all the people wept over him more than ever.

2 Samuel 3:35 All the people came to David and tried to make him eat some bread while it was still daytime; but David swore, “May God bring terrible curses on me and worse ones yet if I taste bread or anything else until the sun goes down.”

2 Samuel 3:36 All the people took note of this, and it pleased them; whatever the king did pleased all the people.

2 Samuel 3:37 So that day, all the people and all Isra’el understood that the king had had no part in the killing of Avner the son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:38 The king said to his servants, “You realize that a leader, a great man, has fallen today in Isra’el.

2 Samuel 3:39 Even though I have just been anointed king, I feel weak today; and these men, the sons of Tz’ruyah, are too brutal for me. May ADONAI repay the criminal as his crime deserves!”

2 Samuel 4:1 When Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul heard that Avner had died in Hevron, his courage failed; and all Isra’el became alarmed.

2 Samuel 4:2 Sha’ul’s son had two men who were captains of raiding parties, one called Ba’anah and the other Rekhav, sons of Rimmon the Be’eroti, of the people of Binyamin (for Be’erot is counted as part of Binyamin,

2 Samuel 4:3 even though the Be’erotim fled to Gittayim and have lived as foreigners there to this day).

2 Samuel 4:4 Now Y’honatan the son of Sha’ul’s had a son, and he was lame in both legs. He had been five years old when the news about Sha’ul and Y’honatan came from Yizre’el. His nurse had gathered him up and fled; but as she was hurrying to get away, he fell and became lame. His name was M’fivoshet.

2 Samuel 4:5 The sons of Rimmon the Be’eroti, Rekhav and Ba’anah went and arrived during the heat of the day at the home of Ish-Boshet as he was taking his afternoon rest.

2 Samuel 4:6 They went right into the house, as if they were coming to get wheat, and stabbed him in the groin; then Rekhav and Ba’anah his brother escaped.

2 Samuel 4:7 They entered the house as he lay on his bed in his bedroom, stabbed him and killed him; then they beheaded him, took his head and fled all night along the road through the ‘Aravah.

2 Samuel 4:8 They brought the head of Ish-Boshet to David in Hevron and said to the king, “Here is the head of Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul your enemy, who wanted to take your life. Today ADONAI has taken revenge on Sha’ul and his son for the sake of my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 4:9 But David answered Rekhav and Ba’anah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Be’eroti, “As ADONAI lives, who has rescued me from every kind of difficulty,

2 Samuel 4:10 when someone told me, ‘Here, Sha’ul is dead,’ thinking to himself that he was bringing good news, I didn’t reward him for his news but seized him and killed him in Ziklag.

2 Samuel 4:11 How much more, when criminals have killed an innocent man in his own house on his own bed, shouldn’t I hold you responsible for his death and rid the earth of you?”

2 Samuel 4:12 David then gave the order to his men, and they put them to death, cutting off their hands and feet and hanging them up next to the pool at Hevron. But they took the head of Ish-Boshet and buried it in Avner’s grave at Hevron.

2 Samuel 5:1 Then all the tribes of Isra’el came to David in Hevron and said, “Here, we are your own flesh and bone.

2 Samuel 5:2 In the past, when Sha’ul was king over us, it was you who led Isra’el’s military campaigns; and ADONAI said to you, ‘You will shepherd my people Isra’el, and you will be chief over Isra’el.’“

2 Samuel 5:3 So all the leaders of Isra’el came to the king in Hevron, and King David made a covenant with them in Hevron in the presence of ADONAI. Then they anointed David king over Isra’el.

2 Samuel 5:4 David was thirty years old when he began his rule, and he ruled forty years.

2 Samuel 5:5 In Hevron he ruled over Y’hudah seven years and six months; then in Yerushalayim he ruled thirty-three years over all Isra’el and Y’hudah.

2 Samuel 5:6 The king and his men went to Yerushalayim to attack the Y’vusi, the inhabitants of that region. They taunted David, “You won’t get in here! Even the blind and the lame could fend you off!”- in other words, they were thinking, “David will never get in here.”

2 Samuel 5:7 Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Tziyon, also known [[now]] as the City of David.

2 Samuel 5:8 What David said on that day was, “In order to attack the Y’vusi, you have to climb up [[from the spring outside the city]] through the water tunnel. Then you can do away with those [[so-called]] ‘lame and blind’“ (whom David despises- hence the expression, “The ‘blind and lame’ keep him from entering the house”).

2 Samuel 5:9 David lived in the stronghold and called it the City of David. Then David built up the city around it, starting at the Millo [[earth rampart]] and working inward.

2 Samuel 5:10 David grew greater and greater, because ADONAI the God of Armies was with him.

2 Samuel 5:11 Hiram king of Tzor sent envoys to David with cedar logs, and with them were carpenters and stonemasons; and they built David a palace.

2 Samuel 5:12 David then knew that ADONAI had set him up as king over Isra'el and increased his royal power for the sake of his people.

2 Samuel 5:13 David took for himself more concubines and wives in Yerushalayim after coming from Hevron, so that still more sons and daughters were born to David.

2 Samuel 5:14 Here are the names of those born to him in Yerushalayim: Shamua, Shovav, Natan, Shlomo,

2 Samuel 5:15 Yivchar, Elishua, Nefeg, Yafia,

2 Samuel 5:16 Elishama, Elyada and Elifelet.

2 Samuel 5:17 When the P'lishtim heard that David had been anointed king over Isra'el, all the P'lishtim went up in search of David. On learning of it, David went down to the stronghold.

2 Samuel 5:18 The P'lishtim came and deployed in the Refa'im Valley.

2 Samuel 5:19 David consulted ADONAI, asking, "Should I attack the P'lishtim? Will you hand them over to me?" ADONAI answered David, "Attack; I will certainly hand the P'lishtim over to you."

2 Samuel 5:20 So David went to Ba'al-P'ratzim and defeated them there. He said, "ADONAI has broken through my enemies for me like a river breaking through its banks." This is why he called the place Ba'al-P'ratzim [[Lord of breaking through]].

2 Samuel 5:21 The P'lishtim had left their idols there, so David and his men took them away.

2 Samuel 5:22 The P'lishtim came up again and deployed in the Refa'im Valley.

2 Samuel 5:23 When David consulted ADONAI, he said, "Don't attack! Circle behind them, and engage them opposite the balsam trees.

2 Samuel 5:24 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, advance; because then ADONAI has gone out ahead of you to defeat the army of the P'lishtim."

2 Samuel 5:25 David did exactly as ADONAI had ordered him to do and pursued his attack on the P'lishtim from Geva all the way to Gezer.

2 Samuel 6:1 Again David summoned all the picked troops of Isra'el, 30,000 men.

2 Samuel 6:2 Then David, taking along the entire force he had with him then, set out for Ba'alei-Y'hudah to bring up from there the ark of God, which bears the Name, the name of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] enthroned above the [k'ruvim].

2 Samuel 6:3 They set the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Avinadav on the hill, with ‘Uzah and Achyo, the sons of Avinadav, driving the new cart.

2 Samuel 6:4 They led it from the house of Avinadav on the hill, with the ark of God; Achyo walked in front of the ark.

2 Samuel 6:5 David and the whole house of Isra’el celebrated in the presence of ADONAI with all kinds of musical instruments made of cypress-wood, including lyres, lutes, tambourines, rattles and cymbals.

2 Samuel 6:6 When they arrived at Nakhon’s threshing-floor, the oxen stumbled; and ‘Uzah put out his hand to steady the ark of God.

2 Samuel 6:7 But ADONAI’s anger blazed up against ‘Uzah, and God struck him down on the spot for his offense, so that he died there by the ark of God.

2 Samuel 6:8 It upset David that ADONAI had broken out against ‘Uzah; that place has been called Peretz-’Uzah [[breaking-out of ‘Uzah]] ever since.

2 Samuel 6:9 David was frightened of ADONAI that day; he asked, “How can the ark of ADONAI come to me?”

2 Samuel 6:10 So David would not bring the ark of ADONAI into the City of David; rather, David took it over to the house of ‘Oved-Edom the Gitti.

2 Samuel 6:11 The ark of ADONAI stayed in the house of ‘Oved-Edom the Gitti for three months; and ADONAI blessed ‘Oved-Edom and all his household.

2 Samuel 6:12 King David was told, “ADONAI has blessed the house of ‘Oved-Edom and everyone who belongs to him, thanks to the ark of God.” So David went and joyously brought the ark of God up from the house of ‘Oved-Edom into the City of David.

2 Samuel 6:13 When those bearing the ark of ADONAI had gone only six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened sheep.

2 Samuel 6:14 Then David danced and spun around with abandon before ADONAI, wearing a linen ritual vest.

2 Samuel 6:15 So David and all the house of Isra’el brought up the ark of ADONAI with shouting and the sound of the [shofar.]

2 Samuel 6:16 As the ark of ADONAI entered the City of David, Mikhal the daughter of Sha’ul, watching from the window, saw King David leaping and spinning before ADONAI; and she was filled with contempt for him.

2 Samuel 6:17 They brought the ark of ADONAI in and put it in its place inside the tent that David had set up for it. David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before ADONAI.

2 Samuel 6:18 When David had finished offering the burnt offering and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot.]

2 Samuel 6:19 Then he distributed to all the people of Isra'el, to everyone there, both men and women, a loaf of bread, a portion of meat and a raisin cake, after which the people all left for their homes.

2 Samuel 6:20 When David returned to bless his household, Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul came out to meet him and said, "Such honor the king of Isra'el earned for himself today- exposing himself before his servants' slave-girls like some vulgar exhibitionist!"

2 Samuel 6:21 David answered Mikhal, "In the presence of ADONAI [-] who chose me over your father and over everyone in his family to make me chief over ADONAI's people, over Isra'el- I will celebrate in the presence of ADONAI!

2 Samuel 6:22 I will make myself still more contemptible than that, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes, but those slave-girls you mentioned will honor me!"

2 Samuel 6:23 Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul remained childless until the day she died.

2 Samuel 7:1 After the king had been living in his palace awhile and ADONAI had given him rest from all his surrounding enemies,

2 Samuel 7:2 the king said to Natan the prophet, "Here, I'm living in a cedar-wood palace; but the ark of God is kept in a tent!"

2 Samuel 7:3 Natan said to the king, "Go, do everything that is in your heart, for ADONAI is with you."

2 Samuel 7:4 But that same night the word of ADONAI came to Natan:

2 Samuel 7:5 "Go and tell my servant David that this is what ADONAI says: 'You are going to build me a house to live in?

2 Samuel 7:6 Since the day I brought the people of Isra'el out of Egypt until today, I never lived in a house; rather, I traveled in a tent and a tabernacle.

2 Samuel 7:7 Everywhere I traveled with all the people of Isra'el, did I ever speak a word to any of the tribes of Isra'el, whom I ordered to shepherd my people Isra'el, asking, "Why haven't you built me a cedar-wood house?"'

2 Samuel 7:8 "Therefore say this to my servant David that this is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: 'I took you from the sheep-yards, from following the sheep, to make you chief over my people, over Isra'el.

2 Samuel 7:9 I have been with you wherever you went; I have destroyed all your enemies ahead of you; and I am making your reputation great, like the reputations of the greatest people on earth.

2 Samuel 7:10 I will assign a place to my people Isra'el; I will plant them there, so that they can live in their own place without being disturbed any more. The wicked will no longer oppress them, as they did at the beginning,

2 Samuel 7:11 and as they did from the time I ordered judges to be over my people Isra'el; instead, I will give you rest from all your enemies. "'Moreover, ADONAI tells you that ADONAI will make you a house.

2 Samuel 7:12 When your days come to an end and you sleep with your ancestors, I will establish one of your descendants to succeed you, one of your own flesh and blood; and I will set up his rulership.

2 Samuel 7:13 He will build a house for my name, and I will establish his royal throne forever.

2 Samuel 7:14 I will be a father for him, and he will be a son for me. If he does something wrong, I will punish him with a rod and blows, just as everyone gets punished;

2 Samuel 7:15 nevertheless, my grace will not leave him, as I took it away from Sha'ul, whom I removed from before you.

2 Samuel 7:16 Thus your house and your kingdom will be made secure forever before you; your throne will be set up forever.'"

2 Samuel 7:17 Natan told David all of these words and described this entire vision.

2 Samuel 7:18 Then David went in, sat before ADONAI and said, "Who am I, [Adonai ELOHIM]; and what is my family, that has caused you to bring me this far?

2 Samuel 7:19 Yet in your view, [Adonai ELOHIM], even this was too small a thing; so you have even said that your servant's dynasty will continue on into the distant future. This is [[indeed]] a teaching for a man, [Adonai ELOHIM] [-]

2 Samuel 7:20 what more can David say to you? For you know your servant intimately, [Adonai ELOHIM.]

2 Samuel 7:21 It is for the sake of your word and in accordance with your own heart that you have done all this greatness and revealed it to your servant.

2 Samuel 7:22 Therefore, you are great, ADONAI, God; for there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you- everything we have heard confirms that.

2 Samuel 7:23 Who can be compared with your people, with Isra'el? What other nation on earth did God set out to redeem and make into a people for himself? You made yourself a reputation by doing for your land things that even for you are great and terrifying, for the sake of your people whom you redeemed for yourself from Egypt and from other nations and from their gods.

2 Samuel 7:24 You set up your people for yourself as your people forever; and you, ADONAI, became their God.

2 Samuel 7:25 So now, ADONAI, God, establish forever the word you have spoken to your servant and his house; do what you have promised.

2 Samuel 7:26 May your name be magnified forever, so that it will be said, ‘ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] is God over Isra’el, and the dynasty of your servant David will be set up in your presence.’

2 Samuel 7:27 You, ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], God of Isra’el, have disclosed to your servant, ‘I will build you a house.’ This is why your servant has the courage to pray this prayer to you.

2 Samuel 7:28 Now, [Adonai ELOHIM], you alone are God; your words are truth; and you have made this wonderful promise to your servant.

2 Samuel 7:29 So may it please you to bless the family of your servant and thereby cause it to continue forever in your presence. For you, [Adonai ELOHIM], have said it. May your servant’s family be blessed forever by your blessing.”

2 Samuel 8:1 Some time afterwards, David attacked the P’lishtim and subdued them; David took Meteg-Amah out of the hands of the P’lishtim.

2 Samuel 8:2 He also defeated Mo’av; making them lie down on the ground, he measured them with a length of cord; for every two lengths to be put to death he designated one length to be kept alive. The people of Mo’av became subjects of David and paid tribute.

2 Samuel 8:3 David, on his way to establish his dominion as far as the Euphrates River, also defeated Hadad’ezer the son of Rechov king of Tzovah.

2 Samuel 8:4 David captured 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers. He reserved enough horses for 100 chariots and disabled the rest.

2 Samuel 8:5 When people of Aram from Dammesek came to the aid of Hadad’ezer king of Tzovah, David killed 22,000 men of Aram.

2 Samuel 8:6 Then David put garrisons among the people of Aram in Dammesek; Aram became subject to David and paid tribute. ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:7 David took the gold shields which Hadad’ezer’s servants were wearing and brought them to Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 8:8 From Betach and Berotai, cities of Hadad’ezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze.

2 Samuel 8:9 When To’i king of Hamat heard that David had defeated Hadad’ezer’s entire army,

2 Samuel 8:10 To'i sent Yoram his son to King David to greet and congratulate him on fighting and defeating Hadad'ezer, for Hadad'ezer had been at war with To'i. Yoram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold and articles of bronze,

2 Samuel 8:11 which King David dedicated to ADONAI, along with the silver and gold that he dedicated from all the nations he conquered-

2 Samuel 8:12 Aram, Mo'av, the people of 'Amon, the P'lishtim, 'Amalek, and the spoil taken from Hadad'ezer son of Rechov, king of Tzovah.

2 Samuel 8:13 David gained more fame on returning from killing 18,000 men from Aram in the Salt Valley.

2 Samuel 8:14 David stationed garrisons in Edom; he put garrisons throughout all of Edom, and all the people of Edom became subject to him. ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:15 David ruled over all Isra'el; David administered law and justice for all his people.

2 Samuel 8:16 Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah was commander of the army, Y'hoshafat the son of Achilud was chief adviser,

2 Samuel 8:17 Tzadok the son of Achituv and Achimelekh the son of Evyatar were [cohanim], S'rayah was secretary,

2 Samuel 8:18 B'nayahu the son of Y'hoyada was in charge of the K'reti and P'leti [[serving as the king's bodyguards]], and David's sons were [cohanim.]

2 Samuel 9:1 David inquired, "Is there anyone still alive from the family of Sha'ul, to whom, for Y'honatan's sake, I can show kindness?"

2 Samuel 9:2 In Sha'ul's household there had been a servant named Tziva, and they summoned him to David. The king asked him, "Are you Tziva?" and he answered, "At your service."

2 Samuel 9:3 The king said, "Is there anyone still alive from the family of Sha'ul, to whom I can show God's grace?" Tziva said to the king, "There is still Y'honatan's son with the lame legs."

2 Samuel 9:4 The king said to him, "Where is he?" and Tziva answered, "He's there in the house of Makhir the son of 'Ammi'el, in Lo-D'var."

2 Samuel 9:5 King David sent and took him from the house of Makhir the son of 'Ammi'el in Lo-D'var.

2 Samuel 9:6 M'fivoshet the son of Y'honatan, the son of Sha'ul, came to David, fell on his face and prostrated himself. David said, "M'fivoshet!" and he answered, "Here is your servant!"

2 Samuel 9:7 David said to him, "Don't be afraid, for I am determined to be kind to you for the sake of Y'honatan your father. I will restore to you all the land of Sha’ul your [[grand]]father, and you will always eat at my table.”

2 Samuel 9:8 He prostrated himself and said, “What is your servant that makes you pay such attention to a dead dog like me?”

2 Samuel 9:9 The king called to Tziva, Sha’ul’s servant, and said to him, “I have given everything Sha’ul and his family owned to your master’s [[grand]]son.

2 Samuel 9:10 You are to work the land for him, you, your sons and your slaves. Harvest the crops, so that your master’s [[grand]]son will have food to feed his family; but M’fivoshet your master’s [[grand]]son will always eat at my table.” Tziva had fifteen sons and twenty slaves.

2 Samuel 9:11 Tziva said to the king, “Your servant will do everything my lord the king commands his servant, although M’fivoshet has been eating at my table as one of the king’s descendants.”

2 Samuel 9:12 M’fivoshet had a young son whose name was Mikha. Everyone living in Tziva’s house was a servant of M’fivoshet.

2 Samuel 9:13 But M’fivoshet lived in Yerushalayim; he always ate at the king’s table, and he was lame in both legs.

2 Samuel 10:1 Some time later, when the king of the people of ‘Amon died, his son Hanun became king in his place.

2 Samuel 10:2 David said, “I will show grace to Hanun the son of Nachash, as his father showed grace to me.” So David sent his servants to pass him a message of comfort concerning his father. David’s servants entered the territory of the people of ‘Amon;

2 Samuel 10:3 but the leaders of the people of ‘Amon said to Hanun their lord, “Do you really think David is honoring your father by sending people to comfort you? Hasn’t David actually sent his servants to you in order to look the city over, reconnoiter it and overthrow it?”

2 Samuel 10:4 So Hanun took David’s servants, shaved off half their beards, cut off their clothes halfway up, at their buttocks, and then sent them away.

2 Samuel 10:5 On hearing how they had been treated, David sent a delegation to meet them, because the men had been deeply humiliated. The king said, “Stay in Yericho until your beards have grown back, and then return.”

2 Samuel 10:6 Aware that they were utterly abhorrent to David, the people of ‘Amon sent and hired 20,000 Aram foot soldiers from Beit-Rechov and Tzovah, the king of Ma’akhah with 1,000 men, and 12,000 soldiers from Tov.

2 Samuel 10:7 When David heard of it, he sent Yo’av with his entire army of trained soldiers.

2 Samuel 10:8 The army of ‘Amon came out and went into battle formation at the entrance to the city gate; the men of Aram from Tzovah and Rechov and the men of Tov and Ma'akhah were by themselves in the open countryside.

2 Samuel 10:9 When Yo'av saw that he would be fighting on two fronts, ahead and behind, he chose the best troops of Isra'el to deploy against Aram;

2 Samuel 10:10 while the rest of the army he put under the command of Avishai his brother to deploy against the army of 'Amon.

2 Samuel 10:11 He said, "If Aram is too strong for me, you help me; but if the army of 'Amon is too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

2 Samuel 10:12 Take courage, and let's be strong for the sake of our people and the cities of our God. May ADONAI do what seems good to him."

2 Samuel 10:13 So Yo'av and the people with him went to battle Aram, and they fled before him.

2 Samuel 10:14 When the people of 'Amon saw that Aram had fled, they likewise fled before Avishai and retreated into the city. Yo'av returned from the people of 'Amon and went to Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 10:15 When Aram saw that Isra'el had gotten the better of them, they gathered themselves together.

2 Samuel 10:16 Hadad'ezer sent and brought out the people of Aram who lived beyond the [[Euphrates]] River. They came to Heilam with Shovakh the commander of Hadad'ezer's army at their head.

2 Samuel 10:17 It was reported to David; so he gathered all Isra'el together, crossed the Yarden and came to Heilam. Aram deployed themselves against David and fought him.

2 Samuel 10:18 But Aram fled before Isra'el; David killed 700 chariot-drivers and 40,000 horsemen from Aram, and he struck Shovakh the commander of their army, so that he died there.

2 Samuel 10:19 When all Hadad'ezer's vassal kings saw that they had been defeated by Isra'el, they made peace with Isra'el and became their subjects. So Aram was afraid to help the people of 'Amon any more.

2 Samuel 11:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, David sent out Yo'av, his servants who were with him and all Isra'el. They ravaged the people of 'Amon and laid siege to Rabbah. But David stayed in Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 11:2 Once, after his afternoon nap, David got up from his bed and went strolling on the roof of the king's palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing, who was very beautiful.

2 Samuel 11:3 David made inquiries about the woman and was told that she was Bat-Sheva the daughter of Eli'am, the wife of Uriyah the Hitti.

2 Samuel 11:4 David sent messengers to get her, and she came to him, and he went to bed with her (for she had been purified from her uncleanness). Then she returned to her house.

2 Samuel 11:5 The woman conceived; and she sent a message to David, “I am pregnant.”

2 Samuel 11:6 David sent this order to Yo’av: “Send me Uriyah the Hitti.” Yo’av sent Uriyah to David.

2 Samuel 11:7 When Uriyah had come to him, David asked him how Yo’av was doing, how the people were feeling and how the war was going.

2 Samuel 11:8 Then David said to Uriyah, “Go down to your house and wash your feet.” Uriyah left the king’s palace and was followed by a present of food from the king.

2 Samuel 11:9 But Uriyah slept at the door of the king’s palace with all the servants of his lord and didn’t go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:10 When they told David, “Uriyah didn’t go down to his house,” David said to Uriyah, “Haven’t you just arrived from a journey? Why didn’t you go down to your house?”

2 Samuel 11:11 Uriyah answered David, “The ark, Isra’el and Y’hudah stay in tents; and my lord Yo’av and the servants of my lord are camping in the countryside. So should I go into my house to eat and drink and go to bed with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing!”

2 Samuel 11:12 David said to Uriyah, “Stay here today also; tomorrow I will let you leave.” So Uriyah stayed in Yerushalayim that day and the following day.

2 Samuel 11:13 David summoned him, ate and drank with him, and got him drunk. But in the evening he went out and lay on his bed with his lord’s servants and did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Yo’av and sent it with Uriyah.

2 Samuel 11:15 In the letter he wrote, “Put Uriyah on the front lines of the fiercest fighting; then pull back from him, so that he will be wounded and killed.”

2 Samuel 11:16 So while Yo’av had the city under siege, he assigned Uriyah to the place where he knew the toughest defenders were.

2 Samuel 11:17 The men of the city went out and fought Yo’av; a number of people fell, including some of David’s servants, with Uriyah the Hitti among the dead.

2 Samuel 11:18 Yo’av sent a message to David reporting all the news concerning the war,

2 Samuel 11:19 and he instructed the messenger, “When you have finished telling the king all the news about the war,

2 Samuel 11:20 he may become angry and ask you, 'Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn't you know they would shoot from the wall?

2 Samuel 11:21 Didn't you think about the person who struck Avimelekh the son of Yerubeshet, that a woman threw an upper millstone down on him from the wall, so that he died at Tevetz? Why did you go so near the wall?' If he says this, tell him, 'Your servant Uriyah is dead also.'"

2 Samuel 11:22 So the messenger left, and on arrival he told David all that Yo'av had sent him to say.

2 Samuel 11:23 The messenger said to David, "The men were overpowering us and came out after us into the countryside. But we chased them back all the way to the entrance of the city gate.

2 Samuel 11:24 The archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king's servants are dead; also your servant Uriyah the Hitti is dead."

2 Samuel 11:25 David said to the messenger, "Tell Yo'av, 'Don't let this matter get you down- the sword devours in one way or another. Intensify your battle against the city, and overthrow it.' And encourage him."

2 Samuel 11:26 When the wife of Uriyah heard that Uriyah her husband was dead, she mourned her husband.

2 Samuel 11:27 When the mourning was over, David sent and took her home to his palace, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But ADONAI saw what David had done as evil.

2 Samuel 12:1 ADONAI sent Natan to David. He came and said to him, "In a certain city there were two men, one rich, the other poor.

2 Samuel 12:2 The rich man had vast flocks and herds;

2 Samuel 12:3 but the poor man had nothing, except for one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and reared. It had grown up with him and his children; it ate from his plate, drank from his cup, lay on his chest- it was like a daughter to him.

2 Samuel 12:4 One day a traveler visited the rich man, and instead of picking an animal from his own flock or herd to cook for his visitor, he took the poor man's lamb and cooked it for the man who had come to him."

2 Samuel 12:5 David exploded with anger against the man and said to Natan, "As ADONAI lives, the man who did this deserves to die!

2 Samuel 12:6 For doing such a thing, he has to pay back four times the value of the lamb- and also because he had no pity."

2 Samuel 12:7 Natan said to David, "You are the man. "Here is what ADONAI, the God of Isra'el says: 'I anointed you king over Isra'el. I rescued you from the power of Sha'ul.

2 Samuel 12:8 I gave you your master’s house and your master’s wives to embrace. I gave you the house of Isra’el and the house of Y’hudah. And if that had been too little, I would have added to you a lot more.

2 Samuel 12:9 “‘So why have you shown such contempt for the word of ADONAI and done what I see as evil? You murdered Uriyah the Hitti with the sword and taken his wife as your own wife; you put him to death with the sword of the people of ‘Amon.

2 Samuel 12:10 Now therefore, the sword will never leave your house- because you have shown contempt for me and taken the wife of Uriyah the Hitti as your own wife.’

2 Samuel 12:11 Here is what ADONAI says: ‘I will generate evil against you out of your own household. I will take your wives before your very eyes and give them to your neighbor; he will go to bed with your wives, and everyone will know about it.

2 Samuel 12:12 For you did it secretly, but I will do this before all Isra’el in broad daylight.’“

2 Samuel 12:13 David said to Natan, “I have sinned against ADONAI.” Natan said to David, “ADONAI also has taken away your sin. You will not die.

2 Samuel 12:14 However, because by this act you have so greatly blasphemed ADONAI, the child born to you must die.”

2 Samuel 12:15 Then Natan returned to his house. ADONAI struck the child that Uriyah’s wife had borne to David, and it became very ill.

2 Samuel 12:16 David prayed to God on behalf of the child; David fasted, then came and lay all night on the ground.

2 Samuel 12:17 The court officials got up and stood next to him trying to get him off the ground, but he refused, and he wouldn’t eat food with them.

2 Samuel 12:18 On the seventh day, the child died. The servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, because they said, “While the child was still alive, we spoke to him, and he didn’t listen to us; if we tell him now that the child is dead, he may do himself some harm.”

2 Samuel 12:19 But when David saw his servants whispering to each other, he suspected that the child was dead. David asked his servants, “Is the child dead?” and they answered, “He is dead.”

2 Samuel 12:20 Then David got up off the ground, washed, anointed himself and changed his clothes. He went into the house of ADONAI and worshipped; then he went to his own palace; and when he asked for food, they served it to him; and he ate.

2 Samuel 12:21 His servants asked him, “What are you doing? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive; but now that the child is dead, you get up and eat food!”

2 Samuel 12:22 He answered, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; because I thought, ‘Maybe ADONAI will show his grace to me and let the child live.’

2 Samuel 12:23 But now that he’s dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.”

2 Samuel 12:24 David comforted his wife Bat-Sheva, came to her and went to bed with her; she gave birth to a son and named him Shlomo. ADONAI loved him

2 Samuel 12:25 and sent through Natan the prophet to have him named Y’didyah [[loved by God]], for ADONAI’s sake.

2 Samuel 12:26 Yo’av fought against Rabbah of the people of ‘Amon and took the royal city.

2 Samuel 12:27 Yo’av sent people to David with this message: “I have fought against Rabbah and captured its water supply.

2 Samuel 12:28 Therefore, assemble the rest of the people; lay siege to the city; and capture it. Otherwise, I will capture the city; and it will be named after me!”

2 Samuel 12:29 David assembled all the people, went to Rabbah, fought against it and captured it.

2 Samuel 12:30 He took the crown off Malkam’s head; it weighed sixty-six pounds, with its gold and precious stones; and it was placed on David’s head. He carried off great quantities of spoil from the city.

2 Samuel 12:31 In addition, he expelled the people who were in it and set them to work with saws, iron harrows and iron axes, or had them cross over to work in the brick factory. This is what he did to all the cities of the people of ‘Amon. Then David and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 13:1 Now Avshalom the son of David had a beautiful sister named Tamar. Some time after the previous events, Amnon the son of David fell in love with her.

2 Samuel 13:2 Amnon became so obsessed with his sister Tamar that he became ill, for she was a virgin, and Amnon thought it would be impossible to approach her.

2 Samuel 13:3 But Amnon had a friend named Yonadav the son of Shim’ah David’s brother; and Yonadav was a very shrewd fellow.

2 Samuel 13:4 He asked him, “Why, son of the king, are you growing thinner every day? Won’t you tell me?” Amnon answered him, “I’m in love with Tamar, my brother Avshalom’s sister.”

2 Samuel 13:5 Yonadav said to him, “Lie down on your bed, and pretend you’re sick. When your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food to eat, and have her prepare the food where I can watch. I’ll eat what she serves me.”

2 Samuel 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended he was sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes here where I can watch, and I’ll eat what she serves me.”

2 Samuel 13:7 David sent this instruction home to Tamar: “Go now to your brother Amnon’s house, and prepare him some food.”

2 Samuel 13:8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon’s house; he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes while he watched, and baked the cakes.

2 Samuel 13:9 Then she took the pan and turned them out in front of him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, “Have everyone leave me”; and everyone left him.

2 Samuel 13:10 Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the room, so that I can have you serve me. Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother.

2 Samuel 13:11 But when she brought them near, so that he could eat, he grabbed her and said to her, “Come to bed with me, my sister.”

2 Samuel 13:12 “No, my brother,” she answered him, “don’t force me! Things like this aren’t done in Isra’el; don’t behave so disgracefully!

2 Samuel 13:13 Where could I go with such shame? And as for you, you will be regarded as one of Isra’el’s vulgar brutes. Now therefore, please! Speak to the king, because he won’t keep me from you.”

2 Samuel 13:14 However, he wouldn’t listen to her; and since he was stronger than she, he overpowered her and raped her.

2 Samuel 13:15 But then he was filled with utter revulsion for her-his hatred of her was even greater than the love he had had for her before. Amnon said to her, “Get up, and get out of here!”

2 Samuel 13:16 “No,” she objected, “because throwing me out like this is an even worse thing than what you’ve already done to me!” But he wouldn’t listen to her;

2 Samuel 13:17 he called his personal servant and said, “Get rid of this woman for me! Throw her out, and lock the door after her!”

2 Samuel 13:18 She was wearing a long-sleeved robe (this was how they used to dress the king’s daughters who were virgins). His servant took her out and locked the door after her.

2 Samuel 13:19 Tamar put ashes on her head, tore her long-sleeved robe that she was wearing, laid her hand on her head and went off, crying aloud as she went.

2 Samuel 13:20 Avshalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now, my sister, keep quiet; because he’s your brother. Don’t take the matter to heart.” But Tamar remained desolate in her brother Avshalom’s house.

2 Samuel 13:21 When King David heard about all these things, he became very angry.

2 Samuel 13:22 As for Avshalom, he refused to say a word to Amnon, either good or bad; for Avshalom hated Amnon for having raped his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:23 Two years later, when Avshalom had sheep-shearers in Ba’al-Hatzor, near Efrayim, Avshalom invited all the king’s sons.

2 Samuel 13:24 Avshalom went to the king and said, “Your servant has sheep-shearers; please let the king and his servants come along with your servant.”

2 Samuel 13:25 The king replied to Avshalom, “No, my son, let’s not all go- we don’t want to be a burden to you.” Avshalom pressed him, but he wouldn’t go; however he gave him his blessing.

2 Samuel 13:26 Then Avshalom said, “If you won’t go, then please let my brother Amnon go with us.” The king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

2 Samuel 13:27 But Avshalom kept pressing him, so he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

2 Samuel 13:28 Avshalom ordered his servants, “Pay close attention: when Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine, and I say to you, ‘Kill Amnon,’ then strike him down. Don’t be afraid- I’m the one ordering you to do it- but take courage, and be bold.”

2 Samuel 13:29 Avshalom’s servants did to Amnon as Avshalom had ordered. At this, all the king’s sons jumped up, mounted their mules and fled.

2 Samuel 13:30 While they were on their way, the news came to David that Avshalom had killed all the king’s sons, and not one of them was left alive.

2 Samuel 13:31 The king got up, tore his clothes and lay on the ground, while all his servants stood by with their clothes torn too.

2 Samuel 13:32 But then Yonadav, the son of Shim’ah, David’s brother, spoke up; he said, “My lord shouldn’t think they have killed all the young men, the king’s sons. Only Amnon is dead; for Avshalom has meant to do this ever since the day he raped his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:33 So my lord the king shouldn’t take it as seriously as if all the king’s sons are dead; only Amnon is dead.”

2 Samuel 13:34 However, Avshalom took flight. The young man keeping watch looked up and saw many people coming along the road behind him on the hillside.

2 Samuel 13:35 Yonadav said to the king, “Here, the king’s sons have come; it’s just as your servant said.”

2 Samuel 13:36 The moment he finished speaking, the king’s sons came, cried out and wept; and the king too, with all his servants, cried out in great pain.

2 Samuel 13:37 Avshalom fled and went to Talmai the son of ‘Ammihud, king of G’shur. David mourned for his son every day.

2 Samuel 13:38 So Avshalom fled, went to G’shur and stayed there three years.

2 Samuel 13:39 But as King David became reconciled to the death of his son Amnon, he was increasingly filled with longing to see Avshalom.

2 Samuel 14:1 Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah perceived that the king missed Avshalom;

2 Samuel 14:2 so Yo’av sent to T’koa, brought from there a clever woman and said to her, “Please, pretend you’re a mourner. Put on mourning clothes, and don’t anoint yourself with oil, but appear to be a woman who has mourned for the dead a long time.

2 Samuel 14:3 Go in to the king and speak to him in this fashion- “ and then Yo’av told her just what to say.

2 Samuel 14:4 When the woman of T’koa spoke to the king, she fell down with her face to the ground, prostrating herself, and said, “King, help!”

2 Samuel 14:5 The king said to her, “What’s the trouble?” She answered, “I’m a widow. After my husband died,

2 Samuel 14:6 my two sons were out in the field; and they got into a fight with each other. There was no one to separate them, and one hit the other and killed him.

2 Samuel 14:7 Now the whole family has come against me, your servant; they’re saying, ‘Hand over the one who hit his brother, so that we can put him to death for killing his brother.’ They want to destroy the heir as well and thus quench my one remaining coal; then my husband will have neither name nor survivor anywhere on earth.”

2 Samuel 14:8 The king said to the woman, “Go back home; I myself will decide what to do about you.”

2 Samuel 14:9 The woman of T’koa said to the king, “My lord, king, let the guilt be on me and my father’s family; the king and his throne be guiltless.”

2 Samuel 14:10 The king answered, “If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me; and he won’t bother you any more.”

2 Samuel 14:11 “Please,” she said, “let the king swear by ADONAI your God that the blood avengers won’t do any more destroying, so they won’t destroy my son.” He said, “As ADONAI lives, not one of your son’s hairs will fall to the ground.”

2 Samuel 14:12 Then the woman said, “Please allow your servant to say something else to my lord the king.” “Go on,” he replied.

2 Samuel 14:13 The woman said, “Why is it, then, that you have produced a situation exactly like this against God’s people? By saying what you have said, the king has virtually incriminated himself- in that the king does not bring home again the son he banished.

2 Samuel 14:14 For we will all die someday; we’ll be like water spilled on the ground that can’t be gathered up again; and God makes no exception for anyone. The king should think of some way to keep the son he banished from being forever an outcast.

2 Samuel 14:15 Now the reason I came to speak about this matter to my lord the king is that the people were intimidating me; so your servant said, ‘I will speak now to the king; maybe the king will do what his servant is asking.

2 Samuel 14:16 For the king will listen and rescue his servant from the hands of those who would destroy me and my son together from our share of God’s inheritance.’

2 Samuel 14:17 Then your servant said, ‘Please let my lord the king say something that will give me relief; for my lord the king is like an angel of God in discerning good from bad- and may ADONAI your God be with you.’“

2 Samuel 14:18 The king then answered the woman: “I’m going to ask you a question, and please don’t hide anything from me.” The woman said, “Let my lord the king now speak.”

2 Samuel 14:19 The king asked, “Did Yo’av put you up to this?” The woman answered, “As you live, my lord the king, when my lord the king speaks, no one can avoid the issue by turning either right or left. Yes, it was your servant Yo’av who had me do this, and he put in my mouth every word you have heard your servant say.

2 Samuel 14:20 Your servant Yo’av did this in order to bring about some change in the situation. But my lord is wise, he has the wisdom of an angel of God when it comes to understanding anything going on in the land.”

2 Samuel 14:21 The king said to Yo’av, “All right, I am granting this request. Go, and bring back young Avshalom.”

2 Samuel 14:22 Yo’av fell to the ground on his face, prostrating himself, and blessed the king; Yo’av said, “Today your servant knows that I have won your favor, my lord, king, because the king has done what your servant requested.”

2 Samuel 14:23 Then Yo’av got up, went to G’shur and brought Avshalom to Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 14:24 However, the king said, “Let him return to his own house, but he is not to appear in my presence.” So Avshalom returned to his own house and did not appear before the king.

2 Samuel 14:25 Now in all Isra’el there was no one more praised for his beauty than Avshalom- there was no defect on him from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

2 Samuel 14:26 He would cut his hair only once a year, at the end of the year; and the only reason he cut it then was because it weighed him down. He weighed the hair from his head at 200 [shekel]s (using the royal weight) [[about five pounds]].

2 Samuel 14:27 To Avshalom were born three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.

2 Samuel 14:28 Avshalom lived two years in Yerushalayim without appearing before the king.

2 Samuel 14:29 Then Avshalom summoned Yo’av, planning to send him to the king; but he refused to come to him. He summoned him a second time, but he still wouldn’t come.

2 Samuel 14:30 So he said to his servants, “See, Yo’av’s field is close to mine, and he has barley there; go, and set it on fire.” Avshalom’s servants set the field on fire.

2 Samuel 14:31 Then Yo’av got up, went to Avshalom at his house and asked him, “Why did your servants set my field on fire?”

2 Samuel 14:32 Avshalom answered Yo’av, “Look, I sent a message to you to come here, so that I could send you to the king to ask, ‘Why did I come from G’shur? It would have been better for me if I had stayed there. So now, let me appear before the king; and if I’m guilty of anything, he can kill me.’“

2 Samuel 14:33 Yo’av went to the king and told him; and when he had called for Avshalom, he went to the king and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Avshalom.

2 Samuel 15:1 Some time later, Avshalom prepared himself a chariot and horses, with fifty men to run ahead of him.

2 Samuel 15:2 He would get up early and stand by the road leading to the city gate; and if someone had a case that was to come before the king for judgment, Avshalom would call to him and ask, “What city are you from?” and he would answer, “Your servant is from the such-and-such tribe in Isra’el.”

2 Samuel 15:3 Avshalom would say to him, “Look, your cause is good and just; but the king hasn’t deputized anyone to hear your case.”

2 Samuel 15:4 Then Avshalom would continue, “Now if I were made judge in the land, anyone with a suit or other cause could come to me, and I would see that he gets justice!”

2 Samuel 15:5 Moreover, whenever any man came close to prostrate himself before him, he would put out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him.

2 Samuel 15:6 This is how Avshalom behaved toward anyone in Isra'el who came to the king for judgment, and in this way Avshalom stole the hearts of the people of Isra'el.

2 Samuel 15:7 At the end of forty years, Avshalom said to the king, "Please let me go to Hevron and fulfill the vow I made to ADONAI.

2 Samuel 15:8 Your servant made a vow while I was staying at G'shur in Aram to the effect that if ADONAI would bring me back to Yerushalayim, then I would serve ADONAI."

2 Samuel 15:9 The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he set out and went to Hevron.

2 Samuel 15:10 But Avshalom sent spies through all the tribes of Isra'el to say, "The moment you hear the sound of the [shofar], then start proclaiming, 'Avshalom is king in Hevron.'"

2 Samuel 15:11 With Avshalom went 200 men from Yerushalayim who had been invited; they went innocently, knowing nothing about the scheme.

2 Samuel 15:12 Avshalom sent for Achitofel the Giloni, David's counselor, to come from his town Giloh and be with him while offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy grew strong, because the number of people favoring Avshalom kept increasing.

2 Samuel 15:13 A messenger came to David saying, "The men of Isra'el have aligned themselves with Avshalom."

2 Samuel 15:14 David said to all his servants with him in Yerushalayim, "Get up! We must flee! Otherwise none of us will escape from Avshalom. Hurry, and leave; or he will soon overtake us, attack us and put the city to the sword."

2 Samuel 15:15 The king's servants said to the king, "Here, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king decides."

2 Samuel 15:16 So the king set out, and all his household after him. The king left ten women who were concubines to care for the palace.

2 Samuel 15:17 The king set out with all the people after him, but they waited at the last house

2 Samuel 15:18 for all his servants to pass by him in review; all the K'reti and P'leti and all the Gittim

2 Samuel 15:19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gitti, "You too? Why are you going with us? Go back, and stay with your king, since you are both a foreigner and in exile from your own place.

2 Samuel 15:20 You arrived only yesterday; should I ask you to wander around with us? There's no telling where I may go. Return, and take your kinsmen back with you. Grace and truth be with you."

2 Samuel 15:21 But Ittai answered the king, "As ADONAI lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, your servant will be there too."

2 Samuel 15:22 "Go, move along," said David to Ittai; and Ittai the Gitti moved on, accompanied by all his men and the little ones with him.

2 Samuel 15:23 The whole country wept and wailed as all the people left. When the king crossed [Vadi] Kidron, all the people crossed, too, heading toward the desert road.

2 Samuel 15:24 Tzadok also came, accompanied by all the [L'vi'im] bearing the ark for the covenant of God. They set the ark of God down, but Evyatar went up until all the people had finished leaving the city.

2 Samuel 15:25 The king said to Tzadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in ADONAI's sight, he will bring me back and show me both it and the place where it is kept.

2 Samuel 15:26 But if he says, 'I am displeased with you,' then- here I am; let him do to me whatever seems good to him."

2 Samuel 15:27 The king then said to Tzadok the [cohen], "Do you see? Return to the city in peace, your two sons with you- Achima'atz your own son and Y'honatan the son of Evyatar.

2 Samuel 15:28 I will wait on the desert plains until a message with new information comes from you."

2 Samuel 15:29 So Tzadok and Evyatar carried the ark of God back to Yerushalayim and stayed there.

2 Samuel 15:30 David continued up the road to the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went up, head covered and barefoot; and all the people with him had their heads covered and wept as they went up.

2 Samuel 15:31 One of them told David, "Achitofel is among the conspirators with Avshalom." David said, "ADONAI, please! Turn Achitofel's advice into foolishness!"

2 Samuel 15:32 When David reached the top of the ascent, where it was customary to worship God, Hushai the Arki came to meet him with his tunic torn and earth on his head.

2 Samuel 15:33 David said to him, "If you go on with me, you will become a burden to me.

2 Samuel 15:34 But if you go back to the city and tell Avshalom, 'King, I will be your servant; just as I was your father's servant in the past, so I will now be your servant'- then you will be able to frustrate Achitofel's advice for me.

2 Samuel 15:35 You have Tzadok and Evyatar the [cohanim] there with you. So whatever you hear from the king’s house, you tell to Tzadok and Evyatar the [cohanim].

2 Samuel 15:36 Their two sons, Achima’atz the son of Tzadok and Y’honatan the son of Evyatar, are there with them; through them send me everything you hear.”

2 Samuel 15:37 So Hushai David’s friend came into the city when Avshalom was about to enter Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 16:1 When David had gone a little past the summit, there was Tziva, the servant of M’fivoshet, who met him with a pair of donkeys saddled and on them 200 loaves of bread, 100 bunches of raisins, 100 pieces of summer fruit and a skin of wine.

2 Samuel 16:2 The king said to Tziva, “What do you mean by these?” Tziva replied, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride on; the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat; and the wine is for those who collapse in the desert to drink.”

2 Samuel 16:3 The king asked, “Where is your master’s [[grand]]son?” Tziva answered the king, “He’s staying in Yerushalayim, because he said, ‘Today the house of Isra’el will restore my father’s kingship to me.’“

2 Samuel 16:4 The king said to Tziva, “Everything that belongs to M’fivoshet is now yours.” Tziva answered, “I bow down before you; may I find favor in your sight, my lord, king.”

2 Samuel 16:5 When King David arrived at Bachurim, there came out from there a man from Sha’ul’s family named Shim’i the son of Gera; and he came out pronouncing curses

2 Samuel 16:6 and throwing stones at David and all King David’s servants; even though all the people, including his bodyguard, surrounded him right and left.

2 Samuel 16:7 When Shim’i cursed, he said, “Get out of here! Get out of here, you killer, you good-for-nothing!

2 Samuel 16:8 ADONAI has brought back on you all the blood of the house of Sha’ul. You usurped his kingship, but ADONAI has handed over the kingdom to Avshalom your son. Now your own evil has overtaken you, because you are a man of blood!”

2 Samuel 16:9 Avishai the son of Tz’ruyah said to the king, “Why allow this dead dog to curse my lord the king? Just let me go over and remove his head!”

2 Samuel 16:10 The king said, “Do you sons of Tz’ruyah and I have anything in common? Let him curse. If ADONAI tells him, ‘Curse David,’ who has the right to ask, ‘Why are you doing it?’“

2 Samuel 16:11 David then said to Avishai and all his servants, “Look, my own son, who came from my own body, seeks my life. So how much more now this Binyamini! Let him alone; and let him curse, if ADONAI told him to.

2 Samuel 16:12 Maybe ADONAI will notice how I'm treating him, and ADONAI will reward me with good instead of his curses."

2 Samuel 16:13 So David and his men went on their way, while on the opposite hillside Shim'i kept pace with him, cursing, throwing stones and flinging dust as he went.

2 Samuel 16:14 The king and all the people with him arrived exhausted, so he rested there.

2 Samuel 16:15 Meanwhile Avshalom and all the people, the men of Isra'el, came to Yerushalayim; Achitofel was with him.

2 Samuel 16:16 Hushai the Arki, David's friend, came to Avshalom and said to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

2 Samuel 16:17 Avshalom asked Hushai, "Is this how you show kindness to your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?"

2 Samuel 16:18 Hushai replied, "No, but whomever ADONAI and this people and all the men of Isra'el choose, his I will be; and with him I will stay.

2 Samuel 16:19 Moreover, whom should I serve? Shouldn't I serve in the presence of his son? Just as I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

2 Samuel 16:20 Avshalom said to Achitofel, "Give your advice as to what we should do."

2 Samuel 16:21 Achitofel answered Avshalom, "Go in, and sleep with your father's concubines, the ones he left to take care of the palace. All Isra'el will hear that your father utterly despises you, and this will strengthen the position of all those who are on your side."

2 Samuel 16:22 So they set up a tent for Avshalom on the roof of the palace; and Avshalom went in to sleep with his father's concubines in the sight of all Isra'el.

2 Samuel 16:23 In those days Achitofel's advice was regarded as highly as if someone had sought out the word of God; it was this way with Achitofel's advice both to David and to Avshalom.

2 Samuel 17:1 Achitofel said to Avshalom, "Let me now choose 12,000 men, and I will pursue David tonight.

2 Samuel 17:2 I'll fall on him unexpectedly when he's tired and powerless. I'll frighten him, all the people with him will flee, and I'll attack only the king.

2 Samuel 17:3 Then I will bring back to you all the people; and when they have all returned, except the one you are seeking, all the people will be at peace."

2 Samuel 17:4 What he said pleased Avshalom and all the leaders of Isra’el.

2 Samuel 17:5 Then Avshalom said, “Now call also Hushai the Arki, and let’s give equal hearing to what he has to say.”

2 Samuel 17:6 When Hushai appeared before Avshalom, Avshalom said to him, “Achitofel has said such-and-such. Should we do what he says? If not, you tell us.”

2 Samuel 17:7 Hushai said to Avshalom, “The advice Achitofel has given this time is not good.

2 Samuel 17:8 You know,” continued Hushai, “that your father and his men are powerful men, and that they are as bitter as a bear deprived of her cubs in the wild. Moreover, your father is a military man, and he won’t camp with the rest of the people-

2 Samuel 17:9 right now he’s hidden in a pit or somewhere. So what will happen is this: when they begin their attack, and whoever hears about it says, ‘A slaughter is taking place among Avshalom’s followers,’

2 Samuel 17:10 then even the strongest among them, someone whose courage is that of a lion, will completely collapse! For all Isra’el knows that your father is a powerful man, and those with him are powerful men.

2 Samuel 17:11 Rather, I advise that you summon all Isra’el to come to you, from Dan to Be’er-Sheva, numbering as many as sand grains on the seashore; and then you go to battle, yourself.

2 Samuel 17:12 In this way we’ll come upon him wherever he is, and we’ll fall on him as the dew falls on the ground; of him and all the men with him we won’t leave even one alive.

2 Samuel 17:13 If he withdraws into a city, then all Isra’el will bring up ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the riverbed until not even a pebble is left.”

2 Samuel 17:14 Avshalom and all the men of Isra’el said, “The advice of Hushai the Arki is better than the advice of Achitofel”- for ADONAI had determined to frustrate the good advice of Achitofel, so that ADONAI could bring disaster on Avshalom.

2 Samuel 17:15 Then Hushai said to Tzadok and Evyatar the [cohanim], “Achitofel gave such-and-such advice to Avshalom and the leaders of Isra’el, but I advised so and so.

2 Samuel 17:16 Now therefore send quickly and tell David, “Don’t stay tonight in the desert plains; but, whatever it takes, move on from there! Otherwise, the king and all the people with him will be engulfed.”

2 Samuel 17:17 Y’honatan and Achima’atz were staying at ‘Ein-Rogel; a female servant was to go and tell them, and they in turn were to go and tell King David- for it would not do to have them seen entering the city.

2 Samuel 17:18 But a boy saw them and told Avshalom; so both of them took off quickly and came to the house of a man in Bachurim who had a cistern in his courtyard; and they went down into it.

2 Samuel 17:19 His wife spread a covering over the cistern's opening and scattered drying grain on it, so that nothing showed.

2 Samuel 17:20 Avshalom's servants came to the woman at the house and asked, "Where are Achima'atz and Y'honatan?" The woman answered them, "They've crossed the stream." After searching and not finding them, they returned to Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 17:21 After they had left, the two climbed out of the cistern and went and told King David, "Get up and cross the river, because Achitofel has given such-and-such advice against you."

2 Samuel 17:22 David and all the people with him got up and crossed the Yarden; by dawn every one of them had crossed the Yarden.

2 Samuel 17:23 When Achitofel saw that his advice was not being followed, he saddled his donkey, set out, and went home to his own city. After setting his house in order, he hanged himself; he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

2 Samuel 17:24 David had reached Machanayim by the time Avshalom and all the men of Isra'el crossed the Yarden.

2 Samuel 17:25 Avshalom had put 'Amasa in charge of the army in place of Yo'av. 'Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Yitra the Isra'eli, who had had sexual relations with Avigal the daughter of Nachash, Tz'ruyah's sister and Yo'av's mother.

2 Samuel 17:26 Isra'el and Avshalom pitched camp in the land of Gil'ad.

2 Samuel 17:27 After David had arrived in Machanayim, Shovi the son of Nachash, from Rabbah of the people of 'Amon; Machir the son of 'Ammi'el from Lo-D'var and Barzillai the Gil'adi from Roglim

2 Samuel 17:28 brought beds, basins, clay pots, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, roasted millet,

2 Samuel 17:29 honey, curdled milk, sheep and cheese made of cow's milk for David and the people with him to eat; because they said, "These people are hungry, tired and thirsty from the desert."

2 Samuel 18:1 David took a census of the people who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and of hundreds.

2 Samuel 18:2 Then David dispatched the people, a third of them under the command of Yo'av, a third under Avishai the son of Tz'ruyah, Yo'av's brother, and a third under Ittai the Gitti; and the king said to the people, "I will also go out with you, myself."

2 Samuel 18:3 But the people replied, "Don't go out; because if we flee, they won't care about us. Even if half of us die, they won't care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; so it is better now that you stay in the city and be ready if we need help.”

2 Samuel 18:4 The king answered them, “I will do whatever you think best.” So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

2 Samuel 18:5 The king gave orders to Yo’av, Avishai and Ittai, “For my sake, deal gently with young Avshalom.” All the people were listening when the king gave all the commanders this order concerning Avshalom.

2 Samuel 18:6 So the people went out into the field against Isra’el; the battle took place in the forest of Efrayim.

2 Samuel 18:7 The people of Isra’el were defeated there by David’s servants; there was a terrible slaughter that day of 20,000 men.

2 Samuel 18:8 For the battle there was spread all over the countryside; the forest devoured more people that day than did the sword.

2 Samuel 18:9 Avshalom happened to meet some of David’s servants. Avshalom was riding his mule, and as the mule walked under the thick branches of a big terebinth tree, his head got caught in the terebinth, so that he was left hanging between earth and sky, as the mule went on from under him.

2 Samuel 18:10 Someone saw it and told Yo’av, “I saw Avshalom hanging in a terebinth.”

2 Samuel 18:11 Yo’av asked the man who told him, “Here now, you saw it; so why didn’t you strike him to the ground then and there? I would have had to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt besides.”

2 Samuel 18:12 The man replied to Yo’av, “Even if I were to get a thousand pieces of silver, I still wouldn’t raise my hand against the son of the king! After all, while we were listening, the king ordered you, Avishai and Ittai, ‘Be careful that no one touches young Avshalom.’

2 Samuel 18:13 Or, if I had pretended that I didn’t know, the king would have known otherwise anyway; and you wouldn’t have interceded for me either.”

2 Samuel 18:14 Yo’av said, “I can’t waste time arguing with you!” He took three darts in his hand and rammed them through Avshalom’s heart while he was still alive, hanging from the terebinth.

2 Samuel 18:15 Then Yo’av’s ten young armor-bearers surrounded Avshalom, struck him and killed him.

2 Samuel 18:16 Yo’av sounded the [shofar], and the people returned from pursuing Isra’el, because Yo’av held back the troops.

2 Samuel 18:17 They took Avshalom and threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled a big heap of stones over him. All Isra’el fled, each one to his tent.

2 Samuel 18:18 In his own lifetime Avshalom had taken and raised for himself the pillar which stands in the King's Valley; because he said, "I don't have a son to preserve the memory of my name." So he named the pillar after himself, and it's called Avshalom's Monument to this day.

2 Samuel 18:19 Then Achima'atz the son of Tzadok said, "Let me run now and bring news to the king that ADONAI has judged in his favor by releasing him from his enemies."

2 Samuel 18:20 Yo'av said to him, "You are not to be the one to bring the news today; you can convey news another day; but today you will not bring news, because the king's son is dead."

2 Samuel 18:21 Then Yo'av said to the Ethiopian, "Go, tell the king what you saw." The Ethiopian bowed to Yo'av, then ran off.

2 Samuel 18:22 But Achima'atz the son of Tzadok said again to Yo'av, "Come what may, please let me also run after the Ethiopian." Yo'av answered, "Why do you want to run, my son? You won't receive any reward for bringing the news."

2 Samuel 18:23 "I don't care- whatever happens, I want to run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Achima'atz ran by the road through the desert flats and outran the Ethiopian.

2 Samuel 18:24 David was sitting between the two gates. A watchman went up to the roof of the gate and out onto the wall, raised his eyes, looked, and saw there a man running by himself.

2 Samuel 18:25 The watchman cried out and told the king. The king said, "If he's alone, he has good news to tell." As he ran along and came close,

2 Samuel 18:26 the watchman saw another man running and called to the gatekeeper, "There's another man running by himself." The king said, "He too must have good news."

2 Samuel 18:27 The watchman said, "The first one runs like Achima'atz the son of Tzadok." The king said, "He's a good man, he comes with good news."

2 Samuel 18:28 Achima'atz called to the king, "[Shalom]," prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Blessed be ADONAI your God, who has handed over the men who rebelled against my lord the king."

2 Samuel 18:29 The king asked, "Is everything all right with young Avshalom?" Achima'atz answered, "When Yo'av sent the king's servant and me your servant, I saw a big commotion; but I didn't know what it was."

2 Samuel 18:30 The king said, "Go, and stand over there." So he went and stood there.

2 Samuel 18:31 Then up came the Ethiopian, and the Ethiopian said, “There’s good news for my lord the king, for ADONAI has judged in your favor and rid you of all those who rebelled against you.”

2 Samuel 18:32 The king asked the Ethiopian, “Is everything all right with young Avshalom?” The Ethiopian answered, “May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rebel against you in order to harm you be as that young man is.”

2 Samuel 19:1 Trembling, the king went up to the room over the gate, weeping and crying, “Oh, my son Avshalom! My son! My son Avshalom! If only I had died instead of you! Oh, Avshalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:2 Yo’av was told, “The king is weeping, mourning for Avshalom.”

2 Samuel 19:3 Thus the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day that the king was grieving for his son;

2 Samuel 19:4 so that the people entered the city furtively that day, the way that people who are ashamed creep away when fleeing a battlefield.

2 Samuel 19:5 Meanwhile, the king covered his face and cried aloud, “Oh, my son Avshalom! Oh, Avshalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:6 Yo’av went inside to the king and said, “Today you made all your servants feel ashamed. They saved your life today, and the lives of your sons, daughters, wives and concubines.

2 Samuel 19:7 But you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. Today you said that princes and servants mean nothing to you- for I can see today that it would have pleased you more if Avshalom had lived today, and we had all died!

2 Samuel 19:8 Now get up, go out and speak heart-to-heart with your servants. For I swear by ADONAI that if you don’t go out, not one man will stay here with you tonight- and that will be worse for you than all the misfortunes you have suffered from your youth until now.”

2 Samuel 19:9 So the king got up and sat in the city gateway; and when all the people were told, “Now the king is sitting in the gate,” they came before the king. Meanwhile, Isra’el had fled, each man to his tent;

2 Samuel 19:10 and throughout all the tribes of Isra’el there was dissension among all the people. They were saying, “The king delivered us from the power of our enemies, and he saved us from the power of the P’lishtim; but now he has fled the land to escape Avshalom.

2 Samuel 19:11 However, Avshalom, whom we anointed to rule us, is dead in battle. So now, why doesn’t anyone suggest bringing the king back?”

2 Samuel 19:12 King David sent this message to Tzadok and Evyatar the [cohanim]: “Ask the leaders of Y’hudah, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his palace? The king has already heard that all Isra’el wants to return him to his palace.

2 Samuel 19:13 You are my kinsmen, my flesh and bone; so why are you the last to bring back the king?’

2 Samuel 19:14 Also tell ‘Amasa, ‘You are my flesh and bone. May God bring terrible curses on me and worse ones yet if from now on you are not permanent commander of my army instead of Yo’av.”

2 Samuel 19:15 Thus he turned the hearts of all the men of Y’hudah around as if they were one man, so that they sent a message to the king, “Come back, you and all your servants!”

2 Samuel 19:16 The king started back and arrived at the Yarden, while Y’hudah came to Gilgal in order to meet the king and bring the king over the Yarden.

2 Samuel 19:17 Shim’i the son of Gera, the Binyamini from Bachurim, hurried and came down with the men of Y’hudah to meet King David.

2 Samuel 19:18 There were a thousand men of Binyamin with him, also Tziva the servant of the house of Sha’ul with his fifteen sons and twenty servants; and they rushed into the Yarden ahead of the king

2 Samuel 19:19 to ferry the king’s household across and do whatever else the king wanted done. Shim’i the son of Gera fell down before the king when he was ready to cross the Yarden

2 Samuel 19:20 and said to the king, “May my lord not hold me guilty of a crime. Don’t remember the wrong your servant did on the day my lord the king left Yerushalayim. May the king not take it to heart!

2 Samuel 19:21 For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, look- I am the first one of all the house of Yosef to come today and go down to meet my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 19:22 Avishai the son of Tz’ruyah answered, “Shouldn’t Shim’i be put to death for this? After all, he cursed ADONAI’s anointed ruler!”

2 Samuel 19:23 But David said, “What do I have in common with you, you sons of Tz’ruyah? Why have you become my adversaries today? Should anyone in Isra’el be put to death today? Don’t I know that today I am king over Isra’el?”

2 Samuel 19:24 Then the king said to Shim’i, “You will not be put to death,” and the king swore it to him.

2 Samuel 19:25 M’fivoshet the son of Sha’ul came down to meet the king. He hadn’t cared for his legs, trimmed his beard or washed his clothes from the day the king had left until the day he came home in peace.

2 Samuel 19:26 When he came to Yerushalayim to meet the king, the king said to him, “Why didn’t you go with me, M’fivoshet?”

2 Samuel 19:27 He answered, “My lord king, my servant deceived me. I your servant had said, ‘I will saddle a donkey for myself to ride on and go with the king,’ since your servant is lame.

2 Samuel 19:28 But he slandered me your servant to my lord the king. However, my lord the king is like an angel of God; so do whatever seems right to you.

2 Samuel 19:29 For all my father’s household deserved death at the hand of my lord the king; nevertheless you placed your servant with those who eat at your own table. I deserve nothing more; so why should I come crying any more to the king?”

2 Samuel 19:30 The king said to him, “Why speak any more about these matters of yours? I say: you and Tziva, divide the land.”

2 Samuel 19:31 M’fivoshet said to the king, “Indeed, let him take it all; for me it’s enough that my lord the king has come home in peace.”

2 Samuel 19:32 Barzillai the Gil’adi had come down from Roglim and passed on to the Yarden with the king to bring him across the Yarden.

2 Samuel 19:33 Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years old; he had provided for the king’s needs when he was staying at Machanayim; for he was a wealthy man.

2 Samuel 19:34 The king said to Barzillai, “Come on across with me, and I will provide for your needs with me in Yerushalayim.”

2 Samuel 19:35 Barzillai said to the king, “How much longer can I live, that I should go up with the king to Yerushalayim?

2 Samuel 19:36 I am now eighty years old. Can I tell good from bad? Can your servant even taste what he eats or drinks? Can I hear the voice of men and women singing any more? Why should your servant burden my lord the king?

2 Samuel 19:37 Your servant only wants to cross the Yarden with the king; why should the king reward this so generously?

2 Samuel 19:38 Please, just let your servant go back and die in my own city, near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Khimham; let him cross with my lord the king; and do for him whatever seems good to you.”

2 Samuel 19:39 The king answered, “Khimham will cross with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you. Whatever you ask of me, I will do for you.”

2 Samuel 19:40 So all the people crossed the Yarden; and the king crossed too. The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him; then he returned to his home.

2 Samuel 19:41 The king crossed over to Gilgal, and Khimham crossed with him. All the people of Y’hudah brought the king across, as did half the people of Isra’el.

2 Samuel 19:42 Now all the men of Isra’el came to the king and said to him, “Why have our kinsmen, the men of Y’hudah, stolen you away and brought the king and his household across the Yarden, and all David’s men with him?”

2 Samuel 19:43 All the men of Y’hudah answered the men of Isra’el, “Because the king is our close relative. Why are you angry about this? Have we eaten anything at the king’s expense? Has any gift been given to us?”

2 Samuel 19:44 The men of Isra’el answered the men of Y’hudah, “We have ten shares in the king; also we have more right in David than you. So why did you despise us? Weren’t we the first to suggest bringing our king back?” But the men of Y’hudah spoke more vehemently than the men of Isra’el.

2 Samuel 20:1 There happened to be there a scoundrel whose name was Sheva the son of Bikhri, a Binyamini. He sounded the [shofar] and said, “We have no share in David, no inheritance in the son of Yishai; so, Isra’el, every man to his tent!”

2 Samuel 20:2 All the men of Isra’el left off following David and went after Sheva the son of Bikhri. But the men of Y’hudah stuck with their king, from the Yarden to Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 20:3 When David arrived at his palace in Yerushalayim, the king took the ten women who were his concubines, whom he had left to care for the palace, and put them under guard. He provided for their needs but never slept with them again. They were kept in confinement until the day of their death, living like widows with their husband still alive.

2 Samuel 20:4 The king said to ‘Amasa, “Summon the men of Y’hudah to come to me within three days; and you, be here too.”

2 Samuel 20:5 ‘Amasa went to summon the men of Y’hudah but took longer than the time he had been given.

2 Samuel 20:6 David said to Avishai, “Sheva the son of Bikhri is going to do us more harm than Avshalom. Take your lord’s servants and pursue him, so that he won’t take over fortified cities and escape us.”

2 Samuel 20:7 With him went Yo’av’s men, the K’reti, the P’leti and all the experienced soldiers; they left Yerushalayim in pursuit of Sheva the son of Bikhri.

2 Samuel 20:8 On arrival at the big rock in Giv’on, ‘Amasa came to meet them. Yo’av was wearing his battle clothes, over which he had girded a belt with a sheathed sword; but as he came forward it fell out.

2 Samuel 20:9 Yo’av said to ‘Amasa, “Is it going well with you, my brother? Then, with his right hand, Yo’av took ‘Amasa by the beard to kiss him.

2 Samuel 20:10 ‘Amasa took no notice of the sword in Yo’av’s hand, so Yo’av stabbed him in the groin. His insides poured out on the ground, and he died without being stabbed a second time. Yo’av and Avishai his brother continued in pursuit of Sheva the son of Bikhri.

2 Samuel 20:11 One of Yo’av’s young men standing by Yo’av said, “Whoever is on Yo’av’s side, whoever is for David- let him follow Yo’av.”

2 Samuel 20:12 ‘Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road; so that as the troops came up, they all halted there. When the man saw that all the people were standing still, he dragged ‘Amasa off the road into the field and threw a cloak over him.

2 Samuel 20:13 Once he had been removed from the road, all the troops went on after Yo’av, to pursue Sheva the son of Bikhri.

2 Samuel 20:14 Sheva went through all the tribes of Isra’el, to Avel and Beit-Ma’akhah, and to all the Berim; they assembled and followed him.

2 Samuel 20:15 Yo’av’s troops came and put him under siege in Avel of Beit-Ma’akhah- they put up a ramp in the moat against the city wall; and all the people with Yo’av battered the wall in order to bring it down.

2 Samuel 20:16 Then a wise woman in the city shouted, “Listen! Listen! Please tell Yo’av, ‘Come over here, so that I can speak with you.’“

2 Samuel 20:17 He approached her, and the woman asked, “Are you Yo’av?” He answered, “I am.” She said to him, “Listen to what your servant has to say.” He answered, “I’m listening.”

2 Samuel 20:18 Then she said, “In the old days they used to say, ‘They will ask advice at Avel’; and that would end the discussion.

2 Samuel 20:19 We are among those in Isra’el who are peaceful and faithful. Why are you destroying a city and a mother in Isra’el? Why swallow up the inheritance of ADONAI?”

2 Samuel 20:20 Yo’av answered, “Heaven forbid! Heaven forbid that I should swallow or destroy anything!

2 Samuel 20:21 That’s not how it is. Rather, a man from the hills of Efrayim, Sheva the son of Bikhri, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Just turn him over to me, and I will leave the city.” The woman said to Yo’av, “All right, his head will be thrown to you over the wall.”

2 Samuel 20:22 Then the woman went to all the people with her wise plan. They cut off the head of Sheva the son of Bikhri and threw it out to Yo’av. So he sounded the [shofar], and they left the city, sending each man to his tent; while Yo’av returned to the king in Yerushalayim.

2 Samuel 20:23 Once again Yo'av was commander over the whole army of Isra'el, while B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada was over the K'reti and P'leti,

2 Samuel 20:24 Adoram was in charge of forced labor, Y'hoshafat the son of Achilud was secretary of state,

2 Samuel 20:25 Sh'va was recorder, Tzadok and Evyatar were [cohanim],

2 Samuel 20:26 and 'Ira the Ya'iri was David's [cohen].

2 Samuel 21:1 In David's time there was a famine that lasted three years, and David consulted ADONAI. ADONAI said, "It is because of Sha'ul and his bloodstained house, because he put to death the people of Giv'on."

2 Samuel 21:2 The king summoned the Giv'onim and said to them- these Giv'onim were not part of the people of Isra'el but from the remnant of the Emori; and the people of Isra'el had sworn to them; but Sha'ul, in his zeal for the people of Isra'el and Y'hudah, had sought to exterminate them-

2 Samuel 21:3 David said to the Giv'onim, "What should I do for you? With what should I make atonement, so that you will be able to bless ADONAI's heritage?"

2 Samuel 21:4 The Giv'onim said to him, "Our dispute with Sha'ul can't be resolved with silver or gold; and we don't have the right to put anyone in Isra'el to death." He said, "So, what do you say that I should do for you?"

2 Samuel 21:5 They answered the king, "The man who ruined us, who schemed against us so that we would cease to exist anywhere in Isra'el's territory-

2 Samuel 21:6 have seven of his male descendants handed over to us, and we will put them to death by hanging before ADONAI in Giv'ah of Sha'ul, whom ADONAI chose." The king said, "I will hand them over."

2 Samuel 21:7 But the king spared M'fivoshet, the son of Y'honatan the son of Sha'ul, because of the oath before ADONAI between David and Y'honatan the son of Sha'ul.

2 Samuel 21:8 The king took the two sons of Ritzpah the daughter of Ayah, whom she bore to Sha'ul, Armoni and M'fivoshet; and the five sons of Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul, whom she bore to Adri'el the son of Barzillai the Mecholati;

2 Samuel 21:9 and handed them over to the Giv'onim, who hanged them on the hill before ADONAI. All seven died; they were put to death during the first days of the harvest season, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

2 Samuel 21:10 Ritzpah the daughter of Ayah took sackcloth, spread it out toward a cliff for herself and stayed there from the beginning of the harvest until water was poured out on the bodies from the sky, not letting the birds land on them during the day or the wild animals at night.

2 Samuel 21:11 David was told what Ritzpah the daughter of Ayah, the concubine of Sha'ul, had done.

2 Samuel 21:12 So David went and took the bones of Sha'ul and the bones of Y'honatan his son from the men of Yavesh-Gil'ad, who had stolen them from the open square of Beit-Sh'an, where the P'lishtim had hanged them at the time the P'lishtim had killed Sha'ul at Gilboa;

2 Samuel 21:13 and he brought up from there the bones of Sha'ul and the bones of Y'honatan his son. They also gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

2 Samuel 21:14 Then they buried the bones of Sha'ul and Y'honatan his son in the territory of Binyamin in Tzela, in the tomb of Kish his father; they did everything the king ordered. Only after that was God prevailed on to show mercy to the land.

2 Samuel 21:15 Once again the P'lishtim made war on Isra'el. David went down with his servants and fought against the P'lishtim, but David began to get tired.

2 Samuel 21:16 Yishbi-B'nov, one of the sons of the giant, said that he would kill David; his spear weighed seven pounds, and he was wearing new armor.

2 Samuel 21:17 But Avishai the son of Tz'ruyah came to David's rescue by striking the P'lishti and killing him. Then David's men swore to him, "You must no longer go out with us to battle, in order not to quench the lamp of Isra'el."

2 Samuel 21:18 A while after this there was again war with the P'lishtim, at Gov. Sibkhai the Hushati killed Saf, one of the sons of the giant.

2 Samuel 21:19 There was more war with the P'lishtim at Gov; and Elchanan the son of Ya'arei-Orgim, the Beit-Lachmi, killed Golyat the Gitti, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's beam.

2 Samuel 21:20 There was again war at Gat, where there was a belligerent man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot- twenty-four in all- and he too was a son of the giant.

2 Samuel 21:21 When he mocked Isra'el, Y'honatan the son of Shim'ah David's brother killed him.

2 Samuel 21:22 These four were sons of the giant in Gat; they fell at the hands of David and his servants.

2 Samuel 22:1 David said the words of this song to ADONAI on the day ADONAI delivered him from the power of all his enemies and from the power of Sha'ul.

2 Samuel 22:2 He said: “ADONAI is my Rock, my fortress and deliverer,

2 Samuel 22:3 the God who is my Rock, in whom I find shelter, my shield, the power that saves me, my stronghold and my refuge. My savior, you have saved me from violence.

2 Samuel 22:4 I call on ADONAI, who is worthy of praise; and I am saved from my enemies.

2 Samuel 22:5 “For death’s breakers were closing over me, the floods of B’liya’al terrified me,

2 Samuel 22:6 the ropes of Sh’ol were wrapped around me, the snares of death lay there before me.

2 Samuel 22:7 In my distress I called to ADONAI; yes, I called to my God. Out of his temple he heard my voice, and my cry entered his ears.

2 Samuel 22:8 “Then the earth quaked and shook, the foundations of heaven trembled. They were shaken because he was angry.

2 Samuel 22:9 Smoke arose in his nostrils; and from his mouth, devouring fire, with coals blazing from it.

2 Samuel 22:10 He lowered heaven and came down with thick darkness under his feet.

2 Samuel 22:11 He rode on a [keruv] and flew, he was seen on the wings of the wind.

2 Samuel 22:12 He made darkness his canopy around him, thick clouds in the skies dense with water.

2 Samuel 22:13 From the brightness before him, fiery coals flamed out.

2 Samuel 22:14 “ADONAI thundered from heaven, [Ha’Elyon] sounded his voice.

2 Samuel 22:15 He sent out arrows and scattered them; with lightning he routed them.

2 Samuel 22:16 The channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were exposed at ADONAI’s rebuke, at the blast of breath from his nostrils.

2 Samuel 22:17 “He sent from on high, he took me and pulled me out of deep water;

2 Samuel 22:18 he rescued me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me, for they were stronger than I.

2 Samuel 22:19 They came against me on my day of calamity, but ADONAI was my support.

2 Samuel 22:20 “He brought me out to an open place; he rescued me, because he took pleasure in me.

2 Samuel 22:21 ADONAI rewarded me for my uprightness, he repaid me because my hands were clean.

2 Samuel 22:22 “For I have kept the ways of ADONAI, I have not done evil by leaving my God;

2 Samuel 22:23 for all his rulings were before me, I did not depart from his regulations.

2 Samuel 22:24 I was pure-hearted toward him and kept myself from my sin.

2 Samuel 22:25 “Hence ADONAI repaid me for my uprightness, according to my purity in his view.

2 Samuel 22:26 With the merciful, you are merciful; with the champion of purity, you are pure;

2 Samuel 22:27 with the honest, you are honest; but with the crooked you are cunning.

2 Samuel 22:28 People afflicted, you save; but when your eyes are on the haughty, you humble them.

2 Samuel 22:29 “For you, ADONAI, are my lamp; ADONAI lights up my darkness.

2 Samuel 22:30 With you I can run through a whole troop of men, with my God I can leap a wall.

2 Samuel 22:31 “As for God, his way is perfect, the word of ADONAI has been tested by fire; he shields all who take refuge in him.

2 Samuel 22:32 For who is God but ADONAI, and who is a Rock but our God?

2 Samuel 22:33 “God is my strength and protection; he makes my way go straight.

2 Samuel 22:34 He makes me swift and sure-footed as a deer and enables me to stand on my high places.

2 Samuel 22:35 He trains my hands for war until my arms can bend a bow of bronze;

2 Samuel 22:36 You give me your shield, which is salvation; your answers make me great.

2 Samuel 22:37 You lengthen the steps I can take, yet my ankles do not turn.

2 Samuel 22:38 “I pursued my enemies and wiped them out, without turning back until they were destroyed.

2 Samuel 22:39 I destroyed them, crushed them; they can’t get up; they have fallen under my feet.

2 Samuel 22:40 “For you braced me with strength for the battle and bent down my adversaries beneath me.

2 Samuel 22:41 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, so that I could destroy those who hate me.

2 Samuel 22:42 “They looked, but there was no one to help, even to ADONAI, but he didn’t answer.

2 Samuel 22:43 I pulverized them like dust on the ground, pounded and stamped on them like mud in the streets.

2 Samuel 22:44 “You also freed me from the quarrels of my people. You kept me to be the head of the nations; a people I did not know now serve me.

2 Samuel 22:45 Foreigners come cringing to me; the moment they hear of me, they obey me.

2 Samuel 22:46 Foreigners lose heart as they stagger from their fortresses.

2 Samuel 22:47 “ADONAI is alive! Blessed is my Rock! Exalted be God, the Rock of my salvation,

2 Samuel 22:48 the God who gives me vengeance and makes peoples submit to me.

2 Samuel 22:49 He brings me out from my enemies. You raise me over those who rebel against me, you rescue me from violent men.

2 Samuel 22:50 “So I give thanks to you, ADONAI, among the nations; I sing praises to your name.

2 Samuel 22:51 He is a tower of salvation for his king; he displays grace to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.”

2 Samuel 23:1 Here are David’s last words: “This is the speech of David the son of Yishai, the speech of the man who has been raised up, the one anointed by the God of Ya’akov, the sweet singer of Isra’el.

2 Samuel 23:2 “The Spirit of ADONAI spoke through me, his word was on my tongue.

2 Samuel 23:3 The God of Isra’el spoke; the Rock of Isra’el said to me, ‘A ruler over people must be upright, ruling in the fear of God;

2 Samuel 23:4 like the morning light at sunrise on a cloudless day that makes the grass on the earth sparkle after a rain.’

2 Samuel 23:5 “For my house stands firm with God- he made an everlasting covenant with me. It is in order, fully assured, that he will bring to full growth all my salvation and every desire.

2 Samuel 23:6 “But the ungodly are like thorn bushes to be pushed aside, every one of them. They cannot be taken in one’s hand;

2 Samuel 23:7 To touch them one uses pitchfork or spear-shaft, and then only to burn them where they lie.”

2 Samuel 23:8 Following are the names of David’s warrior-heroes: Yoshev-Bashevet the Tach’kmoni, chief of the three, also known as ‘Adino the ‘Etzni; he is the one who came against 800 men, whom he killed in a single encounter.

2 Samuel 23:9 After him was El’azar the son of Dodo the son of Achochi, one of the three warriors with David when they put their lives in jeopardy against the P’lishtim who were there assembled for battle, while the men of Isra’el had gone away.

2 Samuel 23:10 He stood firm and attacked the P’lishtim until his hand went into spasm, so that he couldn’t let go of his sword. ADONAI accomplished a great victory that day; but the people didn’t return until he had finished, and then only to plunder the bodies of the dead.

2 Samuel 23:11 After him was Shammah the son of Age the Harari. The P’lishtim had assembled at Lechi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the P’lishtim.

2 Samuel 23:12 But he stood in the middle of the plot and defended it, killing the P’lishtim; and ADONAI brought about a great victory.

2 Samuel 23:13 During harvest season three of the thirty leaders went down and came to David at the cave of ‘Adulam when a company of P’lishtim had set up camp in the Refa’im Valley.

2 Samuel 23:14 At that time David was in the fortress, and the garrison of the P’lishtim was in Beit-Lechem.

2 Samuel 23:15 David had a craving and said, “I wish someone could give me water to drink from the well by the gate of Beit-Lechem!”

2 Samuel 23:16 The three warrior-heroes broke through the army of the P’lishtim, drew water from the well by the gate of Beit-Lechem, took it and brought it to David. But he wouldn’t drink it. Instead, he poured it out to ADONAI

2 Samuel 23:17 and said, “ADONAI! Heaven forbid that I should do such a thing! Am I to drink the blood of men who went and put their lives in jeopardy?”- and he would not consent to drink it. These are the things the three warrior-heroes did.

2 Samuel 23:18 Avishai the brother of Yo’av, the son of Tz’ruyah, was chief of these three. He raised his spear against 300 men and killed them; thus he had a reputation even among the three.

2 Samuel 23:19 He had the most honor of these three and was therefore made their leader; however, he did not achieve the status of the first three.

2 Samuel 23:20 B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada, the son of a valiant man of Kavtze’el, was a man of many exploits. He struck down two lion-hearted men of Mo’av. One day when it was snowing, he went down into a pit and killed a lion.

2 Samuel 23:21 Here is how he killed an Egyptian, a man of intimidating appearance: the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, and he went down to him with only a stick, seized the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

2 Samuel 23:22 These are things that B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada did that earned him a name among the three warrior-heroes.

2 Samuel 23:23 He had more honor than the thirty, but he did not achieve the status of the first three. David put him in command of his personal guard.

2 Samuel 23:24 'Asah'el the brother of Yo'av was one of the thirty, Elchanan the son of Dodo of Beit-Lechem,

2 Samuel 23:25 Shammah the Harodi, Elika the Harodi,

2 Samuel 23:26 Heletz the Palti, 'Ira son of 'Ikesh from T'koa,

2 Samuel 23:27 Avi'ezer from 'Anatot, M'vunai the Hushati,

2 Samuel 23:28 Tzalmon the Achochi, Mahrai the N'tofati,

2 Samuel 23:29 Helev the son of Ba'anah the N'tofati, Ittai the son of Rivai from Giv'ah, of the people of Binyamin,

2 Samuel 23:30 B'nayahu from Pir'aton, Hiddai from the [vadi]s of Ga'ash,

2 Samuel 23:31 Avi-'Alvon the 'Arvati, 'Azmavet the Barchumi,

2 Samuel 23:32 Elyachba the Sha'alvoni, of the sons of Yashen, Y'honatan,

2 Samuel 23:33 Shammah the Harari, Achi'am the son of Sharar the Arari,

2 Samuel 23:34 Elifelet the son of Achasbai the son of the Ma'akhati, Eli'am the son of Achitofel from Giloh,

2 Samuel 23:35 Hetzrai from Karmel, Pa'arai the Arbi,

2 Samuel 23:36 Yig'al the son of Natan of Tzovah, Bani the Gadi,

2 Samuel 23:37 Tzelek the 'Amoni, Nachrai the Be'eroti, armor-bearer for Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah,

2 Samuel 23:38 'Ira the Yitri, Garev the Yitri, and

2 Samuel 23:39 Uriyah the Hitti- thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24:1 The anger of ADONAI blazed up against Isra'el, so he moved David to act against them by saying, "Go, take a census of Isra'el and Y'hudah."

2 Samuel 24:2 The king said to Yo'av the commander of the army, who was with him, "Go systematically through all the tribes of Isra'el, from Dan to Be'er-Sheva; and take a census of the population; so that I can know how many people there are."

2 Samuel 24:3 Yo'av said to the king, "May ADONAI your God add to the people a hundredfold, no matter how many there are; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king take pleasure in doing this?"

2 Samuel 24:4 However, the king’s word prevailed against Yo’av and the army officers. So Yo’av and the army officers went out from the king’s presence to take a census of the people of Isra’el.

2 Samuel 24:5 They crossed the Yarden and pitched camp in ‘Aro’er, to the south of the city in the [Vadi] of Gad; went on to Ya’zer;

2 Samuel 24:6 came to Gil’ad and continued to the land of Tachtim-Hodshi. Then they arrived at Dan-Ya’an, went around to Tzidon

2 Samuel 24:7 and came to the stronghold of Tzor. They went on to the cities of the Hivi and of the Kena’ani, and finished in the south of Y’hudah, at Be’er-Sheva.

2 Samuel 24:8 When they were done going through all the land, they came back to Yerushalayim; it had taken nine months and twenty days.

2 Samuel 24:9 Yo’av reported the results of the census to the king: there were in Isra’el 800,000 valiant men who could handle a sword, while the men of Y’hudah numbered 500,000.

2 Samuel 24:10 But after he had taken the census, David was conscience-stricken. David said to ADONAI, “I have greatly sinned in what I have done. But now, ADONAI, please! Put aside your servant’s sin, for I have done a very foolish thing.”

2 Samuel 24:11 When David got up in the morning, this word of ADONAI came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer:

2 Samuel 24:12 “Go and say to David that this is what ADONAI says: ‘I am giving you a choice of three punishments. Choose one of them, and I will execute it against you.”

2 Samuel 24:13 Gad came to David and told him; he said: “Do you want seven years of famine in your land? or do you want to flee before your enemies for three months while they pursue you? or do you want three days of plague in your land? Think about it, and tell me what to answer the one who sent me.”

2 Samuel 24:14 David said to Gad, “This is very hard for me. Let us fall into the hand of ADONAI, because his mercies are great, rather than have me fall into the hand of man.”

2 Samuel 24:15 So ADONAI sent a plague on Isra’el from that morning until the end of the specified time; 70,000 of the people died between Dan and Be’er-Sheva.

2 Samuel 24:16 But when the angel stretched out his hand toward Yerushalayim to destroy it, ADONAI changed his mind about causing such distress and said to the angel destroying the people, “Enough! Now withdraw your hand.” The angel of ADONAI was at the threshing-floor of Aravnah the Y’vusi.

2 Samuel 24:17 David spoke to ADONAI when he saw the angel striking the people; he said, “Here, I have sinned, I have done wrong. But these sheep, what have they done? Please! Let your hand be against me and against my father's family!"

2 Samuel 24:18 Gad came to David that day and said to him, "Go, set up an altar to ADONAI on the threshing-floor of Aravnah the Y'vusi."

2 Samuel 24:19 David went up and did what Gad had said, as ADONAI had ordered.

2 Samuel 24:20 Aravnah looked out and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. Aravnah went out and prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.

2 Samuel 24:21 Then Aravnah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy your threshing-floor, in order to build an altar to ADONAI, so that the plague will be lifted from the people."

2 Samuel 24:22 Aravnah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up anything that seems good to him. Here are the oxen for the burnt offering; you can use the threshing-sledges and the yokes for the oxen as firewood.

2 Samuel 24:23 All this, O king, Aravnah gives to the king." Then Aravnah said to the king, "May ADONAI your God accept you."

2 Samuel 24:24 But the king said to Aravnah, "No; I insist on buying it from you at a price. I refuse to offer to ADONAI my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for one-and-a-quarter pounds of silver [shekel]s.

2 Samuel 24:25 Then David built an altar to ADONAI there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. After this, ADONAI took pity on the land and lifted the plague from Isra'el.

1 Kings

1:1 King David grew old, the years took their toll, and he couldn't get warm even when they covered him with bedclothes.

1 Kings 1:2 His servants said to him, "Let us try to find a young virgin for my lord the king. She can wait on the king and be a companion for him, and she can lie next to you, so that my lord the king will get some heat."

1 Kings 1:3 After looking through all of Isra'el's territory for a beautiful girl, they found Avishag the Shunamit and brought her to the king.

1 Kings 1:4 The girl was very beautiful and became a companion for the king. She took care of him, but the king did not have sexual relations with her.

1 Kings 1:5 Adoniyah the son of Haggit was beginning to claim that he would be king; to this end he organized chariots and horsemen, with fifty men to run ahead of him.

1 Kings 1:6 (His father had never in his life confronted him by asking, “Why are you behaving this way?” Moreover, he was a very handsome man; he was born next after Avshalom.)

1 Kings 1:7 He conferred with Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah and Evyatar the [cohen]; and they both supported Adoniyah.

1 Kings 1:8 But Tzadok the [cohen], B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada, Natan the prophet, Shim’i, Re’i and David’s elite guard were not on Adoniyah’s side.

1 Kings 1:9 One day Adoniyah killed sheep, oxen and fattened calves at the Stone of Zochelet, by ‘Ein-Rogel. He summoned all his brothers the king’s sons, and all the men of Y’hudah the king’s servants;

1 Kings 1:10 but he did not summon Natan the prophet, B’nayah, the elite guard or Shlomo his brother.

1 Kings 1:11 Natan went to Bat-Sheva the mother of Shlomo and said, “Haven’t you heard that Adoniyah the son of Haggit has become king without the knowledge of David our lord?

1 Kings 1:12 Now, come, please let me give you advice, so that you can save both your own life and that of your son Shlomo.

1 Kings 1:13 Go, get in to see King David, and say to him, ‘My lord, king, didn’t you swear to your servant, “Your son Shlomo will be king after me; he will sit on my throne”? So why is Adoniyah king?’

1 Kings 1:14 Right then, while you are still talking with the king, I will also come in after you and confirm what you are saying.”

1 Kings 1:15 Bat-Sheva went in to the king in his room. (The king was very old; Avishag the Shunamit was in attendance on the king.)

1 Kings 1:16 Bat-Sheva bowed, prostrating herself to the king. The king asked, “What do you want?”

1 Kings 1:17 She answered him, “My lord, you swore by ADONAI your God to your servant, ‘Your son Shlomo will be king after me; he will sit on my throne.’

1 Kings 1:18 But now, here is Adoniyah ruling as king; and you, my lord the king, don’t know anything about it.

1 Kings 1:19 He has killed oxen, fattened calves and sheep in great numbers; and he has summoned all the sons of the king, Evyatar the [cohen] and Yo’av the commander of the army; but he didn’t summon Shlomo your servant.

1 Kings 1:20 As for you, my lord the king, all Isra’el is watching you; they are waiting for you to tell them who is to sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

1 Kings 1:21 If you don’t, then, when my lord the king sleeps with his ancestors, I and my son Shlomo will be considered criminals.”

1 Kings 1:22 Right then, while she was still talking with the king, Natan the prophet entered.

1 Kings 1:23 They told the king, “Natan the prophet is here.” After coming into the king’s presence, he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.

1 Kings 1:24 Natan said, “My lord king, did you say, ‘Adoniyah is to be king after me; he will sit on my throne’?

1 Kings 1:25 For he has gone down today and killed oxen, fattened calves and sheep in great numbers; and he has summoned all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army and Evyatar the [cohen]; right now they are eating and drinking in his presence and proclaiming, ‘Long live King Adoniyah!’

1 Kings 1:26 But he didn’t summon me your servant, or Tzadok the [cohen], or B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada or your servant Shlomo.

1 Kings 1:27 Is this authorized by my lord the king without your having told your servant who would sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

1 Kings 1:28 King David answered by saying, “Summon Bat-Sheva to me.” She entered the king’s presence and stood before the king.

1 Kings 1:29 Then the king swore an oath: “As ADONAI lives, who has delivered me from all adversity,

1 Kings 1:30 as I swore to you by ADONAI the God of Isra’el, ‘Your son Shlomo will be king after me; he will sit on my throne in my place,’ so will I do today.”

1 Kings 1:31 Bat-Sheva bowed with her face to the ground, prostrating herself to the king, and said, “Let my lord King David live forever.”

1 Kings 1:32 King David said, “Summon Tzadok the [cohen], Natan the prophet and B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada.” They came before the king.

1 Kings 1:33 The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, have Shlomo my son ride on my own mule and bring him down to Gichon.

1 Kings 1:34 There Tzadok the [cohen] and Natan the prophet are to anoint him king over Isra’el. Sound the [shofar] and say, “Long live King Shlomo!”

1 Kings 1:35 Then escort him back; he is to come and sit on my throne; for he is to take my place as king. I have appointed him to rule over Isra’el and Y’hudah.”

1 Kings 1:36 B’nayah responded to the king by saying, “[Amen]! May ADONAI, the God of my lord the king, confirm it!

1 Kings 1:37 Just as ADONAI has been with my lord the king, so may he be with Shlomo and make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!”

1 Kings 1:38 So Tzadok the [cohen], Natan the prophet, B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada and the K’reti and P’leti went down, had Shlomo ride on King David’s mule and brought him to Gichon.

1 Kings 1:39 Tzadok the [cohen] took the horn of olive oil out of the tent and anointed Shlomo. They sounded the [shofar], and all the people shouted, “Long live King Shlomo!”

1 Kings 1:40 All the people escorted him back, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the earth shook with the sound.

1 Kings 1:41 Adoniyah and all his guests heard it while they were finishing their meal; but it was Yo’av who, when he heard the blast on the [shofar], asked, “That noise- what’s the meaning of this uproar in the city?”

1 Kings 1:42 While he was still speaking, there came Yonatan the son of Evyatar the [cohen]. Adoniyah said, “Come in! You’re a worthy man, so you must be bringing good news!”

1 Kings 1:43 Yonatan answered Adoniyah, “The truth is, our lord King David has made Shlomo king.

1 Kings 1:44 Moreover, the king sent with him Tzadok the [cohen], Natan the prophet, B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada and the K’reti and P’leti; they had him ride on the king’s mule;

1 Kings 1:45 and Tzadok the [cohen] and Natan the prophet anointed him king in Gichon. Then they escorted him back from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar; this is the noise you’ve been hearing.

1 Kings 1:46 Moreover, Shlomo is now sitting on the throne of the kingdom.

1 Kings 1:47 More than that, the king’s servants came and blessed our lord King David with these words: ‘May God make the name of Shlomo better than your name and his throne greater than your throne,’ after which the king bowed down on the bed.

1 Kings 1:48 Finally, the king said, ‘Blessed be ADONAI the God of Isra’el, who has given someone to sit on my throne today, when my own eyes can see it.’“

1 Kings 1:49 At this all Adoniyah’s guests grew frightened; they got up, everyone going his own way.

1 Kings 1:50 Adoniyah too was afraid because of Shlomo; he got up, went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 1:51 Shlomo was told, “Here, Adoniyah is terrified of King Shlomo; he has grabbed hold of the horns of the altar and is saying,

‘First let King Shlomo swear to me that he will not have his servant executed.’“

1 Kings 1:52 Shlomo said, “If he will demonstrate that he is a worthy man, not a hair of his will fall to the earth. But if he is found making trouble, he will die.”

1 Kings 1:53 So King Shlomo sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and prostrated himself before King Shlomo; and Shlomo said to him, ‘Go on home.’“

1 Kings 2:1 The time came near for David to die; so he commissioned Shlomo his son as follows:

1 Kings 2:2 “I am going the way of all the earth. Therefore, be strong; show yourself a man.

1 Kings 2:3 Observe the charge of ADONAI your God to go in his ways and keep his regulations, [mitzvot], rulings and instructions in accordance with what is written in the [Torah] of Moshe; so that you will succeed in all you do and wherever you go.

1 Kings 2:4 If you do, ADONAI will fulfill what he promised me when he said, ‘If your children pay attention to how they live, conducting themselves before me honestly with all their heart and being, you will never lack a man on the throne of Isra’el.’

1 Kings 2:5 “Moreover, you are aware of what Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah did to me, that is, what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Isra’el, Avner the son of Ner and ‘Amasa the son of Yeter- he killed them, shedding the blood of war in peacetime, putting the blood of war on the belt around his waist and the shoes on his feet.

1 Kings 2:6 Therefore, act according to your wisdom; don’t let his gray head go down to the grave in peace.

1 Kings 2:7 “But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gil’adi. Include them with those who eat at your table, because they came and stood with me when I was fleeing from Avshalom your brother.

1 Kings 2:8 “Finally, you have with you Shim’i the son of Gera the Binyamini, from Bachurim. He laid a terrible curse on me when I was on my way to Machanayim; but he came down to meet me at the Yarden; so I swore to him by ADONAI that I would not have him put to death with the sword.

1 Kings 2:9 Now, however, you should not let him go unpunished. You are a wise man, and you will know what you should do to him- you will bring his gray head down to the grave with blood.”

1 Kings 2:10 Then David slept with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David.

1 Kings 2:11 David had ruled Isra’el for forty years- seven years in Hevron and thirty-three years in Yerushalayim.

1 Kings 2:12 Shlomo sat on the throne of David his father; and his rule had become firmly established,

1 Kings 2:13 when Adoniyah the son of Haggit came to Bat-Sheva the mother of Shlomo. She asked, “Have you come as a friend?” He answered, “Yes, as a friend.”

1 Kings 2:14 Then he continued, “I have something to say to you.” She said, “Go on.”

1 Kings 2:15 He said, “You know that the kingdom should have been mine, that all Isra’el was looking to me to be their ruler. No matter; the kingdom has turned around and become my brother’s, because ADONAI gave it to him.

1 Kings 2:16 But now I ask one favor of you; don’t deny me.” “Go on,” she said.

1 Kings 2:17 He said, “Please speak to Shlomo the king- for he won’t say ‘No’ to you- and ask him to give me Avishag the Shunamit as my wife.”

1 Kings 2:18 Bat-Sheva said, “All right, I will speak to the king on your behalf.”

1 Kings 2:19 So Bat-Sheva went to King Shlomo to speak to him on behalf of Adoniyah. The king rose to meet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat down on his throne and had a throne set up for the king’s mother, so that she sat at his right.

1 Kings 2:20 She said, “I am asking one small favor of you; don’t deny me.” The king said to her, “Ask, mother; I won’t deny you.”

1 Kings 2:21 She said, “Let Avishag the Shunamit be given to Adoniyah your brother as his wife.”

1 Kings 2:22 King Shlomo answered his mother, “Why are you asking Avishag the Shunamit for Adoniyah? Ask the kingdom for him too! After all, he’s my older brother! Yes, for him, and for Evyatar the [cohen] and for Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah!”

1 Kings 2:23 Then King Shlomo swore by ADONAI, “May God do terrible things to me and worse if Adoniyah hasn’t condemned himself to death with this request!

1 Kings 2:24 Now therefore, as ADONAI lives, who has established me, put me on the throne of David my father and set up a dynasty for me, as he promised, Adoniyah will certainly be put to death today.”

1 Kings 2:25 King Shlomo commissioned B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada, and he struck him down, so that he died.

1 Kings 2:26 To Evyatar the [cohen] the king said, “You, get yourself to ‘Anatot, to your own fields. You deserve to die; but I won’t put you to death just now; since you did carry the ark of [Adonai ELOHIM] before David my father; and you suffered together with my father in everything he suffered.”

1 Kings 2:27 So Shlomo forced Evyatar out of his task as [cohen] to ADONAI, so that what ADONAI had said in Shiloh about the family of ‘Eli might be fulfilled.

1 Kings 2:28 When the news came to Yo’av, he fled to the tent of ADONAI and took hold of the horns of the altar; for Yo’av had given his support to Adoniyah, even though he had not supported Avshalom.

1 Kings 2:29 King Shlomo was told, “Yo’av has fled to the tent of ADONAI; he’s there by the altar.” Shlomo sent B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada with the order, “Go, strike him down.”

1 Kings 2:30 B’nayah came to the tent of ADONAI and said to him, “The king says: leave!” He answered, “No, I’d rather die here.” B’nayah brought the message back to the king, “This is what Yo’av said to me.”

1 Kings 2:31 The king answered him, “Do what he said- strike him down, and bury him. In this way you will take away from me and my father’s family the blood which Yo’av shed for no reason.

1 Kings 2:32 ADONAI will bring his blood back on his own head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he- he killed them with the sword without my father David’s awareness: Avner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Isra’el, and ‘Amasa the son of Yeter, commander of the army of Y’hudah.

1 Kings 2:33 In this way their blood will return on the head of Yo’av and his descendants forever; but for David, his descendants, his family and his throne there will be peace forever from ADONAI.”

1 Kings 2:34 So B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada went up, struck him down and killed him; he was buried in his own house in the desert.

1 Kings 2:35 The king put B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada in charge of the army instead of him, and the king replaced Evyatar with Tzadok the [cohen].

1 Kings 2:36 The king summoned Shim’i and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Yerushalayim, and live there; don’t go outside the city walls.

1 Kings 2:37 Know for a fact that on the day you go out and cross [Vadi] Kidron, you will certainly die; your blood will be on your own head.”

1 Kings 2:38 Shim’i answered the king, “What you have said is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do.” So Shim’i lived in Yerushalayim for a long time.

1 Kings 2:39 But after three years, two of Shim’i’s slaves ran away and went to Akhish son of Ma’akhah, king of Gat. They told Shim’i, “Your slaves are in Gat.”

1 Kings 2:40 So Shim’i set out, saddled his donkey and went to Akhish in Gat to look for his slaves; then Shim’i returned, bringing his slaves from Gat.

1 Kings 2:41 Shlomo was told that Shim'i had gone from Yerushalayim to Gat and back.

1 Kings 2:42 The king summoned Shim'i and said to him, "Didn't I have you swear by ADONAI and forewarn you by telling you, 'Know for a fact that on the day you leave and go anywhere outside the city, you will certainly die'? and you answered me, 'What you're saying is good; I hear it.'

1 Kings 2:43 Why, then, haven't you kept the oath of ADONAI and the [mitzvah] I charged you with?"

1 Kings 2:44 Moreover, the king said to Shim'i, "You know in your own heart all the terrible things you did to David my father; therefore ADONAI will bring back your wickedness on your own head.

1 Kings 2:45 But King Shlomo will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before ADONAI forever."

1 Kings 2:46 So the king gave the order to B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada, and he went out and struck him down, so that he died. Thus the kingdom was established in Shlomo's hands.

1 Kings 3:1 Shlomo formed an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt by marrying Pharaoh's daughter. He brought her into the City of David, [[where she lived]] until he had finished building his own palace, the house of ADONAI and the wall around Yerushalayim.

1 Kings 3:2 The people, however, were still sacrificing on the high places, because no house had yet been built for the name of [ADONAI.]

1 Kings 3:3 Shlomo loved ADONAI, living according to the regulations set forth by David his father; nevertheless, he sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.

1 Kings 3:4 One time the king went to Giv'on to sacrifice there, because that was the main high place. Shlomo offered a thousand burnt offerings on the altar there.

1 Kings 3:5 At Giv'on ADONAI appeared to Shlomo in a dream at night; God said, "Tell me what I should give you."

1 Kings 3:6 Shlomo said, "You showed your servant David my father much grace, as he lived before you honestly and righteously, having an upright heart with you. You preserved this great grace for him by giving him a son to sit on his throne, as is the case today.

1 Kings 3:7 So now, ADONAI my God, you have made your servant king in the place of David my father; but I am a mere child- I don't know how to lead!

1 Kings 3:8 Moreover your servant is among your people, whom you chose, a great people so numerous that they cannot be counted.

1 Kings 3:9 Therefore, give your servant an understanding heart able to administer justice to your people, so that I can discern between good and bad- for who is equal to judging this great people of yours?"

1 Kings 3:10 What Shlomo had said in making this request pleased [Adonai].

1 Kings 3:11 God said to him, “Because you have made this request instead of asking long life or riches for yourself, or your enemies’ death, but rather asked for yourself understanding to discern justice;

1 Kings 3:12 I am doing what you requested. I am giving you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has never been anyone like you, nor will there ever again be anyone like you.

1 Kings 3:13 I am also giving you what you didn’t ask for, riches and honor greater than that of any other king throughout your life.

1 Kings 3:14 More than that, if you will live according to my ways, obeying my laws and [mitzvot] like your father David, I will give you a long life.”

1 Kings 3:15 Shlomo awoke and found it had been a dream. But he went to Yerushalayim, stood before the ark for the covenant of ADONAI and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. He also made a feast for all his servants.

1 Kings 3:16 After this, there came to the king two women who were prostitutes. After presenting themselves to him,

1 Kings 3:17 one of the women said, “My lord, I and this woman live in the same house; and when she was in the house, I gave birth to a baby.

1 Kings 3:18 Three days after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. We were there together; there was no one else with us in the house except the two of us.

1 Kings 3:19 During the night this woman’s child died, because she rolled over on top of it.

1 Kings 3:20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from next to me, while your servant was sleeping, and put it in her arms; and she laid her dead child in my arms.

1 Kings 3:21 When I awoke in the morning to feed my child from my breast, there it was, dead. But when I took a closer look later in the morning, why, it wasn’t my son at all- not the one I gave birth to!”

1 Kings 3:22 The other woman broke in, “No! The living one is my son, and the dead one is your son!” The first one said, “No! The dead one is your son and the living one is my son!” This is how they spoke in the presence of the king.

1 Kings 3:23 Then the king said, “This woman says, ‘The living one is my son; your son is the dead one’; while the other says, ‘No, the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.’

1 Kings 3:24 Bring me a sword,” said the king. They brought a sword to the king.

1 Kings 3:25 The king said, “Cut the living child in two; give half to the one and half to the other.”

1 Kings 3:26 At this, the woman to whom the living child belonged addressed the king, because she felt so strongly toward her son: “Oh, my lord, give her the living child; you mustn’t kill it!” But the other one said, “It will be neither yours nor mine. Divide it up!”

1 Kings 3:27 Then the king answered, “Give the living child to the first woman, don’t kill it, because she is its mother.”

1 Kings 3:28 All Isra’el heard of the decision the king had made and held the king in awe, for they saw that God’s wisdom was in him, enabling him to render justice properly.

1 Kings 4:1 King Shlomo was king over all Isra’el,

1 Kings 4:2 and these were his high officials: ‘Azaryah the son of Tzadok, the [cohen];

1 Kings 4:3 Elichoref and Achiyah the sons of Shisha, secretaries; Y’hoshafat the son of Achilud, secretary of state;

1 Kings 4:4 B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada, commander of the army; Tzadok and Evyatar, [cohanim];

1 Kings 4:5 ‘Azaryah the son of Natan, chief administrator; Zavud the son of Natan, the king’s trusted counselor;

1 Kings 4:6 Achishar, in charge of the palace; Adoniram the son of ‘Avda, in charge of forced labor.

1 Kings 4:7 Shlomo had twelve officers over all Isra’el who were in charge of providing food and supplies for the king and his household; each one was in charge of provisions for one month out of the year.

1 Kings 4:8 They were: the son of Hur, in the hills of Efrayim;

1 Kings 4:9 the son of Deker, in Makatz, Sha’albim, Beit-Shemesh and Eilon-Beit-Hanan;

1 Kings 4:10 the son of Hesed, in Arubot; he also had charge of Sokhoh and all the territory of Hefer;

1 Kings 4:11 the son of Avinadav, in all the area of Dor; he had Tafat the daughter of Shlomo as his wife;

1 Kings 4:12 Ba’ana the son of Achilud, in Ta’anakh, Megiddo, and all Beit-Sh’an by Tzartan below Yizre’el, from Beit-Sh’an to Avel-M’cholah, as far as beyond Yokme’am;

1 Kings 4:13 the son of Gever, in Ramot-Gil’ad; he was in charge of the villages of Ya’ir the son of M’nasheh in Gil’ad and in charge of the region of Argov in Bashan, sixty large cities with walls and bronze bars;

1 Kings 4:14 Achinadav the son of ‘Iddo, in Machanayim;

1 Kings 4:15 Achima’atz, in Naftali; he also took Basmat the daughter of Shlomo as his wife;

1 Kings 4:16 Ba’ana the son of Hushai, in Asher and in Alot;

1 Kings 4:17 Y’hoshafat the son of Paruach, in Yissakhar;

1 Kings 4:18 Shim’i the son of Ela, in Binyamin; and

1 Kings 4:19 Gever the son of Uri, in the land of Gil’ad, the country of Sichon king of the Emori and ‘Og king of Bashan. Over all these, there was one administrator in the land.

1 Kings 4:20 Y’hudah and Isra’el were as numerous as sand grains on the seashore; they ate, drank and enjoyed themselves.

1 Kings 5:1 Shlomo ruled over all the kingdoms from the [[Euphrates]] River through the land of the P’lishtim to the border of Egypt; they paid tribute and served Shlomo as long as he lived.

1 Kings 5:2 Shlomo’s provisions for one day consisted of 150 bushels of fine flour, 310 bushels of meal,

1 Kings 5:3 ten fattened oxen, twenty pasture-fed oxen and one hundred sheep, in addition to deer, gazelles, roebucks and fattened poultry.

1 Kings 5:4 For he ruled all the area this side of the [[Euphrates]] River, from Tifsach to ‘Azah. He was over all the kings on this side of the River; and he had peace all around him, on every side.

1 Kings 5:5 From Dan to Be’er-Sheva, Y’hudah and Isra’el lived securely, every man under his vine and fig tree, throughout the lifetime of Shlomo.

1 Kings 5:6 Shlomo also had 40,000 stalls for the horses used with his chariots and 12,000 horsemen.

1 Kings 5:7 Those officers [[named above]] supplied food and other materials for King Shlomo and for everyone for whom Shlomo provided. Each was responsible for his month’s supplies; they saw to it that nothing was lacking.

1 Kings 5:8 They also made sure there was barley and straw where it was needed for the horses and draft animals; each filled his quota.

1 Kings 5:9 God gave Shlomo exceptional wisdom and understanding, as well as a heart as vast as the sandy beach by the sea.

1 Kings 5:10 Shlomo’s wisdom surpassed the wisdom of the people from the east and all the wisdom of Egypt.

1 Kings 5:11 For he was wiser than everyone- wiser than Eitan the Ezrachi and wiser than Heiman, Kalkol and Darda the sons of Machol; so that his fame spread to all the surrounding nations.

1 Kings 5:12 He composed 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs.

1 Kings 5:13 He could discuss trees, from the cedar in the L’vanon to the hyssop growing out of the wall; he could discuss wild animals, poultry, reptiles and fish.

1 Kings 5:14 People from all nations came to hear the wisdom of Shlomo, including kings from all over the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings 5:15 Hiram king of Tzor sent his servants to Shlomo, because he had heard that they had anointed him king in his father's place, and Hiram had always loved David.

1 Kings 5:16 Shlomo returned this message to Hiram:

1 Kings 5:17 "You know that David my father wasn't able to build a house for the name of ADONAI his God, because of the wars that beset him from every side, until ADONAI put his enemies under the soles of my feet.

1 Kings 5:18 But now ADONAI my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor calamity.

1 Kings 5:19 So now I intend to build a house for the name of ADONAI my God, in keeping with what ADONAI said to David my father, 'Your son, whom I will put on your throne in your place, will be the one to build the house for my name.'

1 Kings 5:20 Therefore, order your people to cut down cedar trees from the L'vanon for me. My servants will be with your servants. I will pay your servants according to everything you say; for you know that we have no one among us as skilled in felling trees as the Tzidonim."

1 Kings 5:21 When Hiram heard Shlomo's message, he was very happy and said, "Blessed be ADONAI today, who has given David a wise son to rule this great people."

1 Kings 5:22 Then Hiram sent Shlomo this message: "I have heard the message you sent me, and I will do everything you want concerning cedar logs and cypress logs.

1 Kings 5:23 My servants will bring them down from the L'vanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to whatever place you tell me and will have them broken up there, and you will receive them. You will compensate me by providing food for my household."

1 Kings 5:24 So Hiram gave Shlomo all the cedar logs and cypress logs he wanted;

1 Kings 5:25 and Shlomo gave Hiram 100,000 bushels of wheat as food for his household and a thousand gallons of oil from pressed olives- this is what Shlomo gave Hiram each year.

1 Kings 5:26 ADONAI gave Shlomo wisdom, as he had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Shlomo- the two of them formed an alliance together.

1 Kings 5:27 King Shlomo conscripted 30,000 men from all Isra'el for forced labor.

1 Kings 5:28 He sent them to the L'vanon in monthly relays of 10,000; they would stay a month in the L'vanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.

1 Kings 5:29 Shlomo had 70,000 men to carry loads and another 80,000 stonecutters in the hills,

1 Kings 5:30 besides Shlomo's 3,300 supervisors who were in charge of the people doing the work.

1 Kings 5:31 The king gave orders; and they quarried large stones, expensive stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stone.

1 Kings 5:32 Shlomo's and Hiram's builders, along with the men from G'val, worked the stones and prepared the timber and stones for building the house.

1 Kings 6:1 It was in the 480th year after the people of Isra'el had left the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Shlomo's reign over Isra'el, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of ADONAI.

1 Kings 6:2 The house which King Shlomo built for ADONAI was 105 feet long, thirty-five feet wide and fifty-two-and-a-half feet high.

1 Kings 6:3 The hall fronting the temple of the house was thirty-five feet long, the same as the width of the house itself, so that its seventeen-and-a-half-foot width extended frontward from the house.

1 Kings 6:4 The windows he made for the house were wide on the inside and narrow on the outside.

1 Kings 6:5 Against the wall of the house he built an annex all the way around; it went all the way around the walls of the house, including both the temple and the sanctuary.

1 Kings 6:6 The lowest floor of the annex was eight-and-three-quarters feet wide, the middle floor ten-and-a-half feet wide and the third floor twelve-and-a-quarter feet wide; for he had made the outer part of the wall of the house step-shaped, so that the beams of the annex would not have to be attached to the house walls.

1 Kings 6:7 For the house, when under construction, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; so that no hammer, chisel or iron tool of any kind was heard in the house while it was being built.

1 Kings 6:8 The entrance to the lowest floor was on the south side of the house; a spiral staircase went up to the middle floor and on to the third.

1 Kings 6:9 So he built the house, and after finishing it, he put its roof on- cedar planks over beams.

1 Kings 6:10 Each floor of the annex surrounding the house was eight-and-three-quarters feet high and was attached to the house with beams of cedar.

1 Kings 6:11 Then this word of ADONAI came to Shlomo:

1 Kings 6:12 “Concerning this house which you are building: if you will live according to my regulations, follow my rulings and observe all my [mitzvot] and live by them, then I will establish with you my promise that I made to David your father-

1 Kings 6:13 I will live in it among the people of Isra’el, and I will not abandon my people Isra’el.”

1 Kings 6:14 So Shlomo finished building the house.

1 Kings 6:15 The insides of the walls of the house he built with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the joists of the ceiling he covered them on the inside with wood, and he covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

1 Kings 6:16 The thirty-five-foot back portion of the house he built with boards of cedar from the floor to the joists and reserved this part of the house to be a sanctuary, the Especially Holy Place;

1 Kings 6:17 while the rest of the house, that is, the temple in front, was seventy feet long.

1 Kings 6:18 The cedar covering the house was carved with gourds and open flowers; all was cedar; no stone was visible.

1 Kings 6:19 In the inner part of the house he set up the sanctuary, so that the ark for the covenant of ADONAI could be placed there.

1 Kings 6:20 This sanctuary was thirty-five feet long, wide and high; and it was overlaid with pure gold. In front of it he set an altar, which he covered with cedar.

1 Kings 6:21 Shlomo overlaid the interior of the house with pure gold and had chains of gold placed before the sanctuary, which itself he overlaid with gold.

1 Kings 6:22 The entire house he overlaid with gold until it was completely covered with it. He also overlaid with gold the entire altar that belonged to the sanctuary.

1 Kings 6:23 Inside the sanctuary he made two [k’ruvim] of olive-wood, each seventeen-and-a-half feet high.

1 Kings 6:24 Each of the two wings of one of the [k’ruvim] was eight-and-three quarters feet long, so that the distance from the end of one wing to the end of the other was seventeen-and-a-half feet.

1 Kings 6:25 Likewise the [[wingspread of the]] other [keruv] was seventeen-and-a-half feet; both [k’ruvim] were identical in shape and size.

1 Kings 6:26 The height of the one [keruv] was seventeen-and-a-half feet, likewise that of the other.

1 Kings 6:27 He set the [k’ruvim] in the inner house; the wings of the [k’ruvim] were stretched out, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other [keruv] touched the other wall; their wings touched each other in the middle of the house.

1 Kings 6:28 He overlaid the [k'ruvim] with gold.

1 Kings 6:29 All around the walls of the house, both inside the sanctuary and outside it, he carved figures of [k'ruvim], palm trees and open flowers.

1 Kings 6:30 He overlaid the floor of the house with gold, both inside the sanctuary and outside it.

1 Kings 6:31 For the entrance to the sanctuary he made doors of olive-wood, set within a five-sided door-frame.

1 Kings 6:32 On the two olive-wood doors he carved figures of [k'ruvim], palm trees and open flowers. He overlaid the doors with gold, forcing the gold into the shapes of the [k'ruvim] and palm trees as well.

1 Kings 6:33 For the entrance to the temple he also made doorposts of olive-wood, set within a rectangular door-frame,

1 Kings 6:34 and two doors of cypress-wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, as were the two leaves of the other.

1 Kings 6:35 On them he carved [k'ruvim], palm trees and open flowers, overlaying them with gold fitted to the carved work.

1 Kings 6:36 He built the inner courtyard with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.

1 Kings 6:37 The foundation of the house of ADONAI was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv.

1 Kings 6:38 In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, all parts of the house were completed exactly as designed. Thus he was seven years building it.

1 Kings 7:1 Shlomo built a palace for himself, taking thirteen years to finish it.

1 Kings 7:2 For he built the House of the L'vanon Forest 175 feet long, eighty-seven-and-a-half feet wide and fifty-two-and-a-half feet high, on four rows of cedar posts, with cedar beams on the posts.

1 Kings 7:3 It had a roof made of cedar and supported by beams lying on forty-five posts, fifteen in a row.

1 Kings 7:4 There were three rows of window openings, placed so that the windows on facing walls were opposite each other at all three levels.

1 Kings 7:5 All the doors and doorways were rectangular and opposite each other at all three levels.

1 Kings 7:6 He made the columned hall eighty-seven-and-a-half feet long and fifty-two-and-a-half feet wide, with a columned, corniced porch in front of it.

1 Kings 7:7 He made the Hall of the Throne his place for dispensing justice, that is, the Hall of Judgment; it was covered with cedar from floor to ceiling.

1 Kings 7:8 His own living quarters, in the other courtyard, set back from the Hall, were similarly designed. He also made a house like this Hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Shlomo had taken as his wife.

1 Kings 7:9 All these buildings were made of expensive stone blocks, cut to measure and finished by saws on the inner surfaces as well as the outer ones. These stones were used from the foundation to the eaves and outward from the buildings all the way to the Great Courtyard.

1 Kings 7:10 The foundation was of expensive stone blocks, very large ones- stones fourteen to eighteen feet long.

1 Kings 7:11 Above these were costly stones, cut to measure, and cedar-wood.

1 Kings 7:12 The surrounding Great Courtyard had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams like the inner courtyard of the house of ADONAI and the courtyard by the hall of the house.

1 Kings 7:13 King Shlomo sent for Hiram and brought him from Tzor.

1 Kings 7:14 He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naftali, but his father was from Tzor, a bronze-worker filled with wisdom, understanding and skill for all kinds of bronze craftsmanship. He came to King Shlomo and did all his bronzework.

1 Kings 7:15 He made the two bronze columns, each one thirty-one-and-a-half feet high and twenty-one feet in circumference.

1 Kings 7:16 He made two capitals of melted bronze to set on the tops of the columns; each capital was eight-and-three-quarters feet high;

1 Kings 7:17 he also made checker-work nets and chained wreaths, seven for the top of each capital.

1 Kings 7:18 When he made the columns, he made two rows of pomegranates to put at the top of each column around the netting covering its capital.

1 Kings 7:19 The capitals on the columns in the hall had shapes like lilies and were seven feet high.

1 Kings 7:20 As for the capitals on the two columns, there were 200 pomegranates in rows around each capital near the molding by the netting.

1 Kings 7:21 He erected the columns in the hall of the temple; on erecting the right column he gave it the name "Yakhin," and on erecting the left column he named it "Bo'az."

1 Kings 7:22 On the tops of the columns were shapes like lilies; thus the work of the columns was finished.

1 Kings 7:23 He made the cast metal “Sea” circular, seventeen-and-a-half feet from rim to rim, eight-and-three quarter feet high and fifty-two-and-a-half feet in circumference.

1 Kings 7:24 Under its rim, three hundred gourds encircled it in two rows; they were cast when the Sea was cast.

1 Kings 7:25 It rested on twelve oxen, three looking north, three looking west, three looking south and three looking east, all with their hindquarters toward the center. The Sea was set on top of them.

1 Kings 7:26 It was a handbreadth thick, its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; and its capacity was 11,000 gallons.

1 Kings 7:27 He made ten bronze trolleys, each one seven feet long, seven feet wide, and five-and-a-quarter feet high.

1 Kings 7:28 They were designed with panels that were set between the corner-posts,

1 Kings 7:29 and on the panels between the corner-posts were lions, oxen and [k’ruvim.] The corner-posts above were similarly designed. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hammered work.

1 Kings 7:30 Every trolley had four bronze wheels and bronze axles, and its four legs each had cast supports which were under the basin, with wreaths next to each.

1 Kings 7:31 The opening of the stand into which the basin was inserted was eighteen inches high; the stand was round, resembling a pedestal, and it was two-and-a-half feet in diameter. On the stand were carvings, and the outside was square, not round.

1 Kings 7:32 The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles for the wheels were attached to the trolleys; each wheel was two-and-a-half feet.

1 Kings 7:33 The wheels were made like chariot wheels; their axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all cast metal.

1 Kings 7:34 There were four supports at the four corners of each trolley; the supports were attached to the trolley itself.

1 Kings 7:35 In the top of the trolley was a circular support ten-and-a-half inches high, and the trolley’s corner-posts and panels were attached to its top.

1 Kings 7:36 On the sides of the panels and on its corners he carved [k’ruvim], lions and palm trees, according to the amount of space each required, with wreaths surrounding.

1 Kings 7:37 According to this design he made the ten trolleys; all of them were cast from a single mold, so that they had the same size and shape.

1 Kings 7:38 He made ten bronze basins; each basin’s capacity was 220 gallons and had a diameter of seven feet; there was a basin for each of the ten trolleys.

1 Kings 7:39 He arranged five of the trolleys on the right side of the house and five on the left side. The Sea he placed on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.

1 Kings 7:40 Hiram made the ash pots, shovels and sprinkling basins. With that, Hiram completed all the work he had done for King Shlomo in the house of ADONAI-

1 Kings 7:41 the two columns, the two moldings of the capitals on top of the columns, the two nettings covering the two moldings of the capitals atop the columns,

1 Kings 7:42 the 400 pomegranates for the two nettings, two rows of pomegranates for each netting, to cover the two moldings of the capitals atop the columns,

1 Kings 7:43 the ten trolleys, the ten basins on the trolleys,

1 Kings 7:44 the one Sea, the twelve oxen under the Sea,

1 Kings 7:45 the ash pots, the shovels and the sprinkling basins. All these articles that Hiram made for King Shlomo in the house of ADONAI were of burnished bronze.

1 Kings 7:46 The king cast them in the plain of the Yarden, in the clay ground between Sukkot and Tzartan.

1 Kings 7:47 Shlomo did not weigh any of these objects, because there were so many of them; thus the total weight of the bronze could not be determined.

1 Kings 7:48 Shlomo made all the objects that were inside the house of ADONAI: the gold altar; the table of gold on which the showbread was displayed;

1 Kings 7:49 the [menorah]s- five on the right and five on the left in front of the sanctuary- of pure gold; the flowers, lamps and tongs of gold;

1 Kings 7:50 the cups, snuffers, basins, incense pans and fire pans of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both those for the doors of the inner house, the Especially Holy Place, and those for the doors of the house, that is, of the temple.

1 Kings 7:51 Thus all the work that King Shlomo did in the house of ADONAI was finished. After this, Shlomo brought in the gifts which David his father had dedicated- the silver, the gold and the utensils- and put them in the treasuries of the house of ADONAI.

1 Kings 8:1 Then Shlomo assembled all the leaders of Isra’el, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the paternal clans of the people of Isra’el, to King Shlomo in Yerushalayim, to bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI out of the City of David, also known as Tziyon.

1 Kings 8:2 All the men of Isra’el assembled before King Shlomo at the festival in the month of Etanim, the seventh month.

1 Kings 8:3 All the leaders of Isra’el came. The [cohanim] took the ark

1 Kings 8:4 and brought up the ark of ADONAI, the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils that were in the tent; these are what the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] brought up.

1 Kings 8:5 King Shlomo and the whole community of Isra’el assembled in his presence were with him in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen in numbers beyond counting or recording.

1 Kings 8:6 The [cohanim] brought the ark for the covenant of ADONAI in to its place inside the sanctuary of the house, to the Especially Holy Place, under the wings of the [k’ruvim].

1 Kings 8:7 For the [k’ruvim] spread out their wings over the place for the ark, covering the ark and its poles from above.

1 Kings 8:8 The poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day.

1 Kings 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moshe put there at Horev, when ADONAI made the covenant with the people of Isra’el at the time of their leaving the land of Egypt.

1 Kings 8:10 When the [cohanim] came out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the house of ADONAI,

1 Kings 8:11 so that, because of the cloud, the [cohanim] could not stand up to perform their service; for the glory of ADONAI filled the house of ADONAI.

1 Kings 8:12 Shlomo said, “ADONAI said he would live in thick darkness.

1 Kings 8:13 But I have built you a magnificent house, a place where you can live forever.”

1 Kings 8:14 Then the king turned around and blessed the whole community of Isra’el. The whole community of Isra’el stood

1 Kings 8:15 as he said: “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, who spoke to my father David with his mouth and fulfilled his promise with his hand. He said,

1 Kings 8:16 ‘Since the day I brought my people Isra’el out of Egypt, I chose no city from any of the tribes of Isra’el in which to build a house, so that my name might be there; but I did choose David to be over my people Isra’el.’

1 Kings 8:17 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of ADONAI the God of Isra’el;

1 Kings 8:18 but ADONAI said to David my father, ‘Although it was in your heart to build a house for my name, and you did well that it was in your heart,

1 Kings 8:19 nevertheless you will not build the house. Rather, you will father a son, and it will be he who will build the house for my name.’

1 Kings 8:20 Now ADONAI has fulfilled this spoken word of his; for I have succeeded my father and sit on the throne of Isra’el, as ADONAI promised; and I have built the house for the name of ADONAI the God of Isra’el.

1 Kings 8:21 And there I have made a place for the ark containing the covenant of ADONAI, which he made with our ancestors when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

1 Kings 8:22 Then Shlomo stood before the altar of ADONAI in the presence of the whole community of Isra’el, spread out his hands toward heaven,

1 Kings 8:23 and said, “ADONAI, God of Isra’el, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below. You keep covenant with your servants and show them grace, provided they live in your presence with all their heart.

1 Kings 8:24 You have kept your promise to your servant David, my father; you spoke with your mouth and fulfilled it with your hand; so it is today.

1 Kings 8:25 Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Isra’el, keep what you promised to your servant David, my father, when you said, ‘You will never lack a man in my presence to sit on the throne of Isra’el, if only your children are careful about what they do, so that they live in my presence, just as you have lived in my presence.’

1 Kings 8:26 Now therefore, God of Isra’el, please let your word, which you spoke to your servant David, my father, be confirmed.

1 Kings 8:27 “But can God actually live on the earth? Why, heaven itself, even the heaven of heavens, cannot contain you; so how much less this house I have built?

1 Kings 8:28 Even so, ADONAI my God, pay attention to your servant’s prayer and plea, listen to the cry and prayer that your servant is praying before you today,

1 Kings 8:29 that your eyes will be open toward this house night and day- toward the place concerning which you said, ‘My name will be there’- to listen to the prayer your servant will pray toward this place.

1 Kings 8:30 Yes, listen to the plea of your servant, and also that of your people Isra’el when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven where you live; and when you hear, forgive!

1 Kings 8:31 “If a person sins against a fellow member of the community, and he is made to swear under oath, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house;

1 Kings 8:32 then hear in heaven, act, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, so that his way of life devolves on his own head, and vindicating the one who is right, giving him what his righteousness deserves.

1 Kings 8:33 “When your people Isra’el sin against you and in consequence are defeated by an enemy; then if they turn back to you, acknowledge your name, and pray and make their plea to you in this house;

1 Kings 8:34 hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your people Isra’el, and bring them back to the land you gave to their ancestors.

1 Kings 8:35 “When they sin against you, and in consequence the sky is shut, so that there is no rain; then, if they pray toward this place, acknowledge your name and turn from their sin when you have brought them low;

1 Kings 8:36 hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your servants and of your people Isra’el- since you keep teaching them the good way by which they should live- and send down rain on your land, which you have given your people as their inheritance.

1 Kings 8:37 “If there is famine in the land, or blight, windstorm, mildew, locusts or shearer-worms; or if their enemy comes to the land and besieges them in any of their cities- no matter what kind of plague or sickness it is;

1 Kings 8:38 then, regardless of what prayer or plea anyone among all your people Isra’el makes- for each individual will know what is plagueing his own conscience- and the person spreads out his hands toward this house;

1 Kings 8:39 hear in heaven where you live, and forgive, and act, and, since you know what is in each one’s heart, give each person what his conduct deserves (because you, and only you, know all human hearts),

1 Kings 8:40 so that they will fear you throughout the time they live in the land you gave our ancestors.

1 Kings 8:41 “Also the foreigner who does not belong to your people Isra’el- when he comes from a distant country because of your reputation

1 Kings 8:42 (for they will hear of your great reputation, your mighty hand and your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house;

1 Kings 8:43 then hear in heaven where you live, and act in accordance with everything about which the foreigner is calling to you; so that all the peoples of the earth will know your name and fear you, as does your people Isra’el, and so that they will know that this house which I have built bears your name.

1 Kings 8:44 “If your people go out to fight against their enemy, no matter by which way you send them, and they pray to ADONAI toward the city you chose, toward the house I built for your name;

1 Kings 8:45 then, in heaven, hear their prayer and plea, and uphold their cause.

1 Kings 8:46 “If they sin against you- for there is no one who doesn’t sin- and you are angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, so that they carry them off captive to the land of their enemy, whether far away or nearby;

1 Kings 8:47 then, if they come to their senses in the land where they have been carried away captive, turn back and make their plea to you in the land of those who carried them off captive, saying, ‘We sinned, we acted wrongly, we behaved wickedly,’

1 Kings 8:48 if, in the land of their enemies who carried them off captive, they return to you with all their heart and being and pray to you toward their own land, which you gave to their ancestors, toward the city you chose and toward the house I have built for your name;

1 Kings 8:49 then, in heaven where you live, hear their prayer and plea, uphold their cause,

1 Kings 8:50 and forgive your people who have sinned against you- forgive their transgressions which they have committed against you, and give them compassion in the sight of their captors, so that they will show compassion toward them;

1 Kings 8:51 for they are your people, your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of the flames of the iron furnace.

1 Kings 8:52 “May your eyes be open to the plea of your servant and to the plea of your people Isra’el, so that you will hear them whenever they cry out to you.

1 Kings 8:53 For you made a distinction between them and all the peoples of the earth by making them your inheritance, as you said through Moshe your servant when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, [Adonai ELOHIM].”

1 Kings 8:54 When Shlomo had finished praying all this prayer and plea to ADONAI, he got up from in front of the altar of ADONAI, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven,

1 Kings 8:55 stood up, and raised his voice to bless the whole community of Isra’el. He said,

1 Kings 8:56 “Blessed be ADONAI, who has given rest to his people Isra’el, in accordance with everything he promised. Not one word has failed of his good promise, which he made through Moshe his servant.

1 Kings 8:57 May ADONAI our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors. May he never leave us or abandon us.

1 Kings 8:58 In this way he will incline our hearts toward him, so that we will live according to his ways and observe his [mitzvot], laws and rulings which he ordered our fathers to obey.

1 Kings 8:59 May these words of mine, which I have used in my plea before ADONAI, be present with ADONAI our God day and night, so that he will uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Isra’el day by day.

1 Kings 8:60 Then all the peoples of the earth will know that ADONAI is God; there is no other.

1 Kings 8:61 So be wholehearted with ADONAI our God, living by his laws and observing his [mitzvot], as you are doing today.”

1 Kings 8:62 Then the king, together with all Isra’el, offered sacrifices before ADONAI.

1 Kings 8:63 For the sacrifice of peace offerings which Shlomo offered to ADONAI, he offered 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people of Isra’el dedicated the house of ADONAI.

1 Kings 8:64 The same day, the king consecrated the center of the courtyard in front of the house of ADONAI, because he had to offer the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings there. For the bronze altar before ADONAI was too small to receive the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings.

1 Kings 8:65 So Shlomo celebrated the festival at that time. All Isra’el, a huge gathering [[that had come all the way]] from the entrance of Hamat to the [Vadi] [[of Egypt]], celebrated with him before ADONAI our God for seven days and then for seven more days- fourteen days in all.

1 Kings 8:66 On the eighth day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and returned to their tents full of joy and glad of heart for all the goodness ADONAI had shown to David his servant and to Isra’el his people.

1 Kings 9:1 After Shlomo had finished building the house of ADONAI, the royal palace and everything else he wanted to build for himself,

1 Kings 9:2 ADONAI appeared to Shlomo a second time, as he had appeared to him in Giv’on.

1 Kings 9:3 ADONAI said to him, “I have heard your prayer and your plea that you made before me: I am consecrating this house which you built and placing my name there forever; my eyes and heart will always be there.

1 Kings 9:4 As for you, if you will live in my presence, as did David your father, in pureness of heart and uprightness, doing everything I have ordered you to do, and observing my laws and rulings;

1 Kings 9:5 then I will establish the throne of your rulership over Isra'el forever, just as I promised David your father when I said, 'You will never lack a man on the throne of Isra'el.'

1 Kings 9:6 But if you turn away from following me, you or your children, and do not observe my [mitzvot] and regulations which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, worshipping them;

1 Kings 9:7 then I will cut off Isra'el from the land I have given them. This house, which I consecrated for my name, I will eject from my sight; and Isra'el will become an example to avoid and an object of scorn among all peoples.

1 Kings 9:8 This house, now so exalted- everyone passing by will gasp in shock at the sight of it and will ask, 'Why has ADONAI done this to this land and to this house?'

1 Kings 9:9 But the answer will be, 'It's because they abandoned ADONAI their God, who brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt, and took hold of other gods, worshipping and serving them; this is why ADONAI brought all these calamities on them.'"

1 Kings 9:10 At the end of twenty years, during which time Shlomo had built the two buildings, the house of ADONAI and the royal palace,

1 Kings 9:11 King Shlomo gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of the Galil (recall that Hiram the king of Tzor had supplied Shlomo with cedar and cypress logs and with all the gold Shlomo wanted).

1 Kings 9:12 Hiram came over from Tzor to see the cities Shlomo had given him, but he was not satisfied with them.

1 Kings 9:13 He said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" So they have been called the land of Kabul [[good for nothing]] till this day.

1 Kings 9:14 (Hiram had sent the king four tons of gold.)

1 Kings 9:15 Following is the account of the forced labor levied by King Shlomo for building the house of ADONAI, his own palace, the Millo, the wall of Yerushalayim, and the cities of Hatzor, Megiddo and Gezer.

1 Kings 9:16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, taken Gezer, burned it to the ground and killed the Kena'ani living in the city; then he had given it as a dowry for his daughter, Shlomo's wife.

1 Kings 9:17 So Shlomo rebuilt Gezer; he also built Lower Beit-Horon,

1 Kings 9:18 Ba'alat, Tadmor in the desert, in the land,

1 Kings 9:19 as well as all the cities that Shlomo had for storing supplies, the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horsemen, and the other buildings Shlomo wanted to build for himself in Yerushalayim, in the L'vanon and throughout the land he ruled.

1 Kings 9:20 All the people still left from the Emori, Hitti, P'rizi, Hivi, and Y'vusi, who were not part of the people of Isra'el,

1 Kings 9:21 that is, their descendants remaining after them in the land, whom the people of Isra'el were not able to destroy completely-from them Shlomo levied his forced laborers; as it is to this day.

1 Kings 9:22 But Shlomo did not raise any of his forced labor from the people of Isra'el; rather, they were the soldiers, his servants, administrators and commanders, and the officials in charge of his chariots and horsemen.

1 Kings 9:23 There were 550 chief officers over Shlomo's work, in charge of the workers.

1 Kings 9:24 Pharaoh's daughter came up from the City of David to her house, which Shlomo had built for her. After that he built the Millo.

1 Kings 9:25 Three times a year Shlomo offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for ADONAI, offering incense with them on the altar before ADONAI. So he finished the house.

1 Kings 9:26 King Shlomo built a fleet of ships in 'Etzyon-Gever, by Elot on the shore of the Sea of Suf in the land of Edom.

1 Kings 9:27 Hiram sent some of his own servants, experienced sailors who understood the sea, to serve with Shlomo's servants.

1 Kings 9:28 They went to Ofir and took from there gold, fourteen tons of it, which they brought back to King Shlomo.

1 Kings 10:1 When the queen of Sh'va heard what was being said about Shlomo because of the name of ADONAI, she came to test him with difficult questions.

1 Kings 10:2 She arrived in Yerushalayim accompanied by a very great retinue, including camels bearing spices and gold in great abundance, and precious stones. When she appeared before Shlomo she spoke with him about everything on her heart,

1 Kings 10:3 and Shlomo answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king that he could not explain to her.

1 Kings 10:4 After the queen of Sh'va had seen all Shlomo's wisdom, the palace he had built,

1 Kings 10:5 the food at his table, the manner of seating his officials, the manner in which his staff served him, how they were dressed, his personal servants and his burnt offering which he offered in the house of ADONAI, it left her breathless.

1 Kings 10:6 She said to the king, "What I heard in my own country about your deeds and your wisdom is true,

1 Kings 10:7 but I couldn't believe the report until I came and saw for myself. Actually, they didn't tell me even the half of it- your wisdom and prosperity surpass the reports I heard.

1 Kings 10:8 How happy your people must be, how happy these servants of yours who are always here attending you and get to hear your wisdom!

1 Kings 10:9 Blessed be ADONAI your God, who took pleasure in you to put you on the throne of Isra'el. Because of ADONAI's eternal love for Isra'el, he has made you king, to administer judgment and justice fairly."

1 Kings 10:10 Then she gave the king four tons of gold, a huge amount of spices, and precious stones; never again did there arrive such an abundance of spices as those the queen of Sh'va gave to King Shlomo.

1 Kings 10:11 Hiram's fleet which had brought gold from Ofir now brought in from Ofir a large quantity of sandalwood and precious stones.

1 Kings 10:12 The king used the sandalwood to make columns for the house of ADONAI and for the royal palace, and also lyres and lutes for the singers. No sandalwood like it has come or been seen to this day.

1 Kings 10:13 King Shlomo gave the queen of Sh'va everything she wanted, whatever she asked, in addition to the presents he gave her on his own initiative. After this, she returned and went back to her own country, she and her servants.

1 Kings 10:14 The weight of the gold Shlomo received annually came to twenty-two tons of gold,

1 Kings 10:15 besides that which came from sales taxes, customs duties and assessments collected by all the kings of the mixed peoples and by the district governors.

1 Kings 10:16 King Shlomo made 200 large shields of hammered gold; fifteen pounds of gold went into one shield.

1 Kings 10:17 He made 300 more shields of hammered gold, with three-and-three-quarters pounds going into one shield; the king put these in the House of the L'vanon Forest.

1 Kings 10:18 The king also made a large throne of ivory and overlaid it with the finest gold.

1 Kings 10:19 The throne had six steps, a back with a rounded top, arms on either side of the seat, two lions standing beside the arms,

1 Kings 10:20 and twelve more lions standing on each side of the six steps. Nothing like it had ever been made in any kingdom.

1 Kings 10:21 All King Shlomo's drinking vessels were of gold; and all the utensils in the House of the L'vanon Forest were of pure gold; none was of silver, for in Shlomo's time it was regarded as having little value.

1 Kings 10:22 The king had a fleet of large “Tarshish” ships along with Hiram’s fleet; once every three years the “Tarshish” fleet came in, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

1 Kings 10:23 So King Shlomo surpassed all the kings on earth in both wealth and wisdom.

1 Kings 10:24 All the earth sought to have an audience with Shlomo, in order to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

1 Kings 10:25 Each one brought his present- articles of silver, articles of gold, clothing, armor, spices, horses and mules; and this continued year after year.

1 Kings 10:26 Shlomo amassed chariots and horsemen; he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen; he assigned them to the chariot cities and to the king in Yerushalayim.

1 Kings 10:27 The king made silver in Yerushalayim as common as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as sycamore-fig trees are in the Sh’felah.

1 Kings 10:28 Shlomo’s horses had been brought from Egypt and from Keveh, with the king’s agents having bought them from the dealers in Keveh at the going price.

1 Kings 10:29 A chariot from Egypt cost fifteen pounds of silver [shekel]s and a horse three-and-three quarters pounds [[of [shekel]s]]; all the kings of the Hittim and the kings of Aram purchased them at these prices through Shlomo’s agents.

1 Kings 11:1 King Shlomo loved many foreign women besides the daughter of Pharaoh. There were women from the Mo’avi, ‘Amoni, Edomi, Tzidoni and Hitti-

1 Kings 11:2 nations about which ADONAI had said to the people of Isra’el, “You are not to go among them or they among you, because they will turn your hearts away toward their gods.” But Shlomo was deeply attached to them by his love.

1 Kings 11:3 He had 700 wives, all princesses, and 300 concubines; and his wives turned his heart away.

1 Kings 11:4 For when Shlomo became old, his wives turned his heart away toward other gods; so that he was not wholehearted with ADONAI his God, as David his father had been.

1 Kings 11:5 For Shlomo followed ‘Ashtoret the goddess of the Tzidoni and Milkom the abomination of the ‘Amoni.

1 Kings 11:6 Thus Shlomo did what was evil in ADONAI’s view and did not fully follow ADONAI, as David his father had done.

1 Kings 11:7 Shlomo built a high place for K’mosh the abomination of Mo’av on the hill on front of Yerushalayim, and another for Molekh the abomination of the people of ‘Amon.

1 Kings 11:8 This is what he did for all his foreign wives, who then offered and sacrificed to their gods.

1 Kings 11:9 So ADONAI grew angry with Shlomo, because his heart had turned away from ADONAI the God of Isra'el, who had appeared to him twice

1 Kings 11:10 and given him orders concerning this matter that he should not follow other gods. But he didn't obey ADONAI's orders.

1 Kings 11:11 So ADONAI said to Shlomo, "Since this is what has been in your mind, and you haven't kept my covenant and my regulations which I ordered you to obey, I will tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant.

1 Kings 11:12 However, for David your father's sake I won't do it while you are alive, but I will tear it away from your son.

1 Kings 11:13 Even then, I won't tear away all the kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Yerushalayim, which I have chosen."

1 Kings 11:14 Then ADONAI raised up an adversary against Shlomo, Hadad the Edomi, of the royal line of Edom.

1 Kings 11:15 Back when David had been in Edom, and Yo'av the commander of the army had gone up to bury the dead, having killed every male in Edom

1 Kings 11:16 (for Yo'av and all Isra'el had stayed there six months, until he had eliminated every male in Edom),

1 Kings 11:17 Hadad had fled, he and a number of Edomi servants of his father's with him, and gone into Egypt; at the time Hadad had been but a small boy.

1 Kings 11:18 On their way, they passed through Midyan and arrived in Pa'ran, took with them men from Pa'ran, and went on into Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt. He gave Hadad a house, saw to it that he had food and gave him land.

1 Kings 11:19 Hadad became a great favorite of Pharaoh, so that he gave him his own wife's sister in marriage, that is, the sister of Tachp'neis the queen.

1 Kings 11:20 The sister of Tachp'neis bore him G'nuvat his son, and Tachp'neis brought him up in Pharaoh's own house, so that G'nuvat was in Pharaoh's house along with Pharaoh's sons.

1 Kings 11:21 When Hadad in Egypt heard that David slept with his ancestors and Yo'av the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me leave, so that I can return to my own country."

1 Kings 11:22 Pharaoh asked him, "But what have you lacked with me that makes you want just now to go to your own country?" "Nothing in particular," he replied, "but let me leave, anyway."

1 Kings 11:23 God raised up another adversary against Shlomo, Rezon the son of Elyada, who had fled from his lord Hadad’ezer king of Tzovah

1 Kings 11:24 when David killed the men from Tzovah. Rezon rallied men to himself and became the leader of a band of marauders; they went to Dammesek and settled there, while he became king of Dammesek.

1 Kings 11:25 He remained an adversary as long as Shlomo lived, causing difficulties in addition to those of Hadad. He detested Isra’el and ruled Aram.

1 Kings 11:26 Also Yarov’am the son of N’vat, an Efrati from Tz’redah, whose mother’s name was Tz’ru’ah, one of Shlomo’s servants, rebelled against the king.

1 Kings 11:27 Here is the reason he rebelled against the king: Shlomo was building the Millo and closing the breach in [[the wall of]] the City of David his father.

1 Kings 11:28 Now this Yarov’am was a strong, energetic man; and Shlomo, seeing how serious the young man was, made him supervisor over all the work being done by the tribe of Yosef.

1 Kings 11:29 Once, during this period, when Yarov’am had gone out of Yerushalayim, the prophet Achiyah from Shiloh spotted him traveling. Achiyah was wearing a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in open country.

1 Kings 11:30 Achiyah took hold of his new cloak that he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.

1 Kings 11:31 Then he said to Yarov’am, “Take ten pieces for yourself! For here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘I am going to tear the kingdom out of Shlomo’s hand, and I will give ten tribes to you.

1 Kings 11:32 But he will keep one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Yerushalayim, the city I have chosen from all the tribes of Isra’el.

1 Kings 11:33 I will do this because they have abandoned me and worshipped ‘Ashtoret the goddess of the Tzidoni, K’mosh the god of Mo’av and Milkom the god of the people of ‘Amon. They haven’t lived according to my ways, so that they could do what was right in my view and obey my regulations and rulings, as did David his father.

1 Kings 11:34 Nevertheless, I will not take the entire kingdom away from him; but I will make him prince as long as he lives, for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose, because he obeyed my [mitzvot] and regulations.

1 Kings 11:35 However, I will take the kingdom away from his son and give ten tribes of it to you.

1 Kings 11:36 To his son I will give one tribe, so that David my servant will always have a light burning before me in Yerushalayim, the city I chose for myself as the place to put my name.

1 Kings 11:37 I will take you, and you will rule over everything you want; you will be king over Isra'el.

1 Kings 11:38 Now if you will listen to all that I order you, live according to my ways and do what is right in my view, so that you observe my regulations and [mitzvot], as David my servant did; then I will be with you, and I will build you a lasting dynasty, as I built for David; and I will give Isra'el to you.

1 Kings 11:39 For this [[offense]] I will trouble David's descendants, but not forever."

1 Kings 11:40 Because of this Shlomo tried to kill Yarov'am; but Yarov'am roused himself, fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and stayed in Egypt until the death of Shlomo.

1 Kings 11:41 Other activities of Shlomo, all he accomplished and his wisdom are recorded in the Annals of Shlomo.

1 Kings 11:42 The length of Shlomo's reign in Yerushalayim over all Isra'el was forty years.

1 Kings 11:43 Then Shlomo slept with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David his father, and Rechav'am his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 12:1 Rechav'am went to Sh'khem, where all Isra'el had come to proclaim him king.

1 Kings 12:2 When Yarov'am the son of N'vat heard of it- for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from Shlomo; so Yarov'am was living in Egypt;

1 Kings 12:3 but they sent and summoned him- Yarov'am and the whole community of Isra'el came and said to Rechav'am,

1 Kings 12:4 "Your father laid a harsh yoke on us. But if you will lighten the harsh service we had to render your father and ease his heavy yoke that he put on us, we will serve you."

1 Kings 12:5 He said to them, "Leave me alone for three days, then come back to me." So the people left.

1 Kings 12:6 King Rechav'am consulted the older men who had been in attendance on Shlomo his father during his lifetime and asked, "What advice would you give me as to how to answer these people?"

1 Kings 12:7 They said to him, "If you will start today being a servant to these people- if you will serve them, be responsive to them and give them favorable consideration, then they will be your servants forever."

1 Kings 12:8 But he didn’t take the advice the older men gave him; instead he consulted the young men he had grown up with, who were now his attendants.

1 Kings 12:9 He asked them, “What advice would you give me, so that we can give an answer to these people who said to me, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father laid on us’?”

1 Kings 12:10 The young men he had grown up with said to him, “These people who said to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy; but you, make it lighter for us’- here’s the answer you should give them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist!

1 Kings 12:11 Yes, my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but I will make it heavier! My father controlled you with whips, but I will control you with scorpions!’“

1 Kings 12:12 So Yarov’am and all the people came to Rechav’am the third day, as the king had requested by saying, “Come to me again the third day”;

1 Kings 12:13 and the king answered the people harshly. Abandoning the advice the older men had given him,

1 Kings 12:14 he addressed them according to the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke! My father controlled you with whips, but I will control you with scorpions!”

1 Kings 12:15 So the king didn’t listen to the people; and that was something ADONAI brought about, so that he could fulfill his word, which ADONAI had spoken through Achiyah from Shiloh to Yarov’am the son of N’vat.

1 Kings 12:16 When all Isra’el saw that the king wasn’t listening to them, the people answered the king, “Do we have any share in David? We have no heritage in the son of Yishai! Go to your tents, Isra’el! Care for your own house, David!” So Isra’el left for their tents.

1 Kings 12:17 But as for the people of Isra’el living in the cities of Y’hudah, Rechav’am ruled over them.

1 Kings 12:18 King Rechav’am then sent Adoram, who was in charge of forced labor; but all Isra’el stoned him to death. King Rechav’am managed to mount his chariot and flee to Yerushalayim.

1 Kings 12:19 Isra’el has been in rebellion against the dynasty of David to this day.

1 Kings 12:20 On hearing that Yarov’am had returned, all Isra’el summoned him to the assembly and proclaimed him king over all Isra’el. No one followed the dynasty of David except the tribe of Y’hudah.

1 Kings 12:21 When Rechav’am arrived in Yerushalayim, he assembled all the house of Y’hudah and the tribe of Binyamin, 180,000 select soldiers, to fight the house of Isra'el and bring the rulership back to Rechav'am the son of Shlomo.

1 Kings 12:22 But this word from God came to Sh'ma'yah the man of God:

1 Kings 12:23 "Speak to Rechav'am the son of Shlomo, king of Y'hudah, to all the house of Y'hudah and Binyamin and to the rest of the people; tell them

1 Kings 12:24 that this is what ADONAI says: 'You are not to go up and fight your brothers the people of Isra'el! Every man is to go back home, because this is my doing.'" They paid attention to the word of ADONAI and turned back, as ADONAI had told them to do.

1 Kings 12:25 Then Yarov'am built up Sh'khem in the hills of Efrayim and lived there. After that, he left and built up P'nu'el.

1 Kings 12:26 Nevertheless Yarov'am said to himself, "Now the rulership will return to the house of David.

1 Kings 12:27 For if these people continue going up to offer sacrifices in the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim, their hearts will turn back to their lord, Rechav'am king of Y'hudah. Then they will kill me and return to Rechav'am king of Y'hudah."

1 Kings 12:28 After seeking advice, the king made two calves of gold and said to the people, "You have been going up to Yerushalayim long enough! Here are your gods, Isra'el, who brought you out of the land of Egypt!"

1 Kings 12:29 He placed one in Beit-El and the other in Dan,

1 Kings 12:30 and the affair became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one [[in Beit-El and]] all the way to Dan [[to worship the other]].

1 Kings 12:31 He also set up temples on the high places and made [cohanim] from among all the people, even though they were not descended from Levi.

1 Kings 12:32 Yarov'am instituted a festival in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, similar to the festival held in Y'hudah; he went up to the altar in Beit-El to sacrifice to the calves he had made; and he placed in Beit-El the [cohanim] he had appointed for the high places.

1 Kings 12:33 He went up to the altar which he had set up in Beit-El on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had chosen on his own, and instituted a festival for the people of Isra'el; he went up to the altar to burn incense.

1 Kings 13:1 Just then, as Yarov'am was standing by the altar to burn incense, a man of God came out of Y'hudah, directed to Beit-El by a word from ADONAI.

1 Kings 13:2 And by the word from ADONAI he cried out against the altar: "Altar, altar, here is what ADONAI says: 'A son will be born to the house of David; his name will be Yoshiyahu; and on you he will sacrifice the [cohanim] of the high places who burn incense on you! They will burn human bones on you!’“

1 Kings 13:3 That same day he also gave a sign: “Here is the sign which ADONAI has decreed: “‘The altar will be split apart; the ashes on it will be scattered about.’“

1 Kings 13:4 When the king heard what the man of God said, how he denounced the altar in Beit-El, Yarov’am took his hand away from the altar and said, “Seize him!” But his hand, the one he had stretched out against him, shriveled up; so that he could not draw it back to himself.

1 Kings 13:5 Also the altar was split apart, and the ashes scattered from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of ADONAI.

1 Kings 13:6 The king then responded to the man of God. “Ask now the favor of ADONAI your God,” he said, “and pray for me, that my hand will be restored to me.” The man of God prayed to ADONAI, and the king’s hand was restored to him and became as it had been before.

1 Kings 13:7 The king then said to the man of God, “Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.

1 Kings 13:8 But the man of God replied to the king, “Even if you give me half your household, I will not accept your hospitality; nor will I eat food or drink water in this place.

1 Kings 13:9 For this is the order I received through the word of ADONAI: ‘Don’t eat food or drink water, and don’t return by the road you took when you came.’“

1 Kings 13:10 So he went another way and did not return by the road by which he had come to Beit-El.

1 Kings 13:11 Now there lived an old prophet in Beit-El; and one of his sons came and told him all the things the man of God had done that day in Beit-El; also they told their father what he had said to the king.

1 Kings 13:12 Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” For his sons had seen what road the man of God from Y’hudah had taken.

1 Kings 13:13 He then said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him; and, riding on it,

1 Kings 13:14 he went after the man of God. He found him sitting under a pistachio tree and said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Y’hudah?” He answered, “I am.”

1 Kings 13:15 Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat some food.”

1 Kings 13:16 He replied, “I cannot return with you or partake of your hospitality, nor will I eat food or drink water with you in this place;

1 Kings 13:17 because it was said to me by the word of ADONAI, 'You are not to eat food or drink water there, and you are not to go back by the way you came.'"

1 Kings 13:18 The other said to him, "I too am a prophet, just like you; and an angel spoke to me by the word of ADONAI and said, 'Bring him back with you to your house, so that he can eat food and drink water.'" But he was lying to him.

1 Kings 13:19 So he went back with him and did eat food and drink water in his house.

1 Kings 13:20 As they were sitting at the table, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet who had brought him back;

1 Kings 13:21 and he cried to the man of God who had come from Y'hudah, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Since you rebelled against the word of ADONAI and didn't obey the [mitzvah] ADONAI your God gave you,

1 Kings 13:22 but came back and ate food and drank water in the place where he warned you not to eat food or drink water, your corpse will not arrive at the tomb of your ancestors."

1 Kings 13:23 After he had eaten food and drunk, he saddled the donkey for the prophet he had brought back.

1 Kings 13:24 But after he had gone, a lion encountered the man of God on the road and killed him. His corpse lay there in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing next to it.

1 Kings 13:25 In time, people passed by and saw the corpse lying in the road with the lion standing next to it; and they came and told about it in the city where the old prophet lived.

1 Kings 13:26 When the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard about it, he said, "It is the man of God who rebelled against the word of ADONAI; this is why ADONAI handed him over to the lion to tear him to pieces and kill him, in keeping with the word ADONAI spoke to him."

1 Kings 13:27 To his sons he said, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they saddled it.

1 Kings 13:28 He went and found his corpse lying in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing next to the corpse; the lion had neither eaten the corpse nor attacked the donkey.

1 Kings 13:29 The prophet picked up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey and brought it back to the city where he lived, to mourn and bury him.

1 Kings 13:30 He laid the corpse in his own burial cave, and they mourned him- "Oh! My brother!"

1 Kings 13:31 After burying him he said to his sons, “When I die, put me in the burial cave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones next to his bones.

1 Kings 13:32 For the thing he cried by the word of ADONAI against the altar in Beit-El and against all the temples on the high places near the cities of Shomron will surely happen.”

1 Kings 13:33 After this, Yarov’am did not turn back from his evil way but continued appointing [cohanim] for the high places from among all the people; he consecrated anyone who wanted to be a [cohen] of the high places.

1 Kings 13:34 This brought sin to the house of Yarov’am that would eventually cut it off and destroy it from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14:1 At this time, Aviyah the son of Yarov’am fell ill.

1 Kings 14:2 Yarov’am said to his wife, “Please come, and disguise yourself, so that you won’t be recognized as Yarov’am’s wife, and go to Shiloh. Achiyah the prophet is there, the one who said that I would be king over these people.

1 Kings 14:3 Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes and a jug of honey; and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

1 Kings 14:4 Yarov’am’s wife did this; she set out, went to Shiloh and arrived at the house of Achiyah. Now Achiyah could not see, because his eyes were dim with age.

1 Kings 14:5 ADONAI had told Achiyah, “Yarov’am’s wife is on her way to you to ask about her son, who is ill. You are to tell her thus and thus; moreover, when she comes, she will be pretending she is another woman.”

1 Kings 14:6 When Achiyah heard the sound of her feet as she came in the door, he said, “Enter, wife of Yarov’am! Why pretend you are someone else? I’ve been given bad news for you.

1 Kings 14:7 Go, tell Yarov’am that this is what ADONAI says: ‘I raised you up from among the people, made you prince over my people Isra’el,

1 Kings 14:8 tore the kingdom away from the dynasty of David and gave it to you. In spite of this, you have not been like my servant David, who obeyed my [mitzvot] and followed me with all his heart, so that he could do only what I regarded as right.

1 Kings 14:9 Rather, you have committed more evil than anyone before you! You went and made other gods for yourself and images of cast metal to make me angry, but me you shoved behind your back!

1 Kings 14:10 Therefore, I will now bring disaster on the house of Yarov’am. I will cut off every male of Yarov’am’s line, whether a slave or free in Isra’el; I will sweep away the house of Yarov’am as completely as when someone sweeps away dung until it’s all gone.

1 Kings 14:11 If someone from the line of Yarov'am dies in the city, the dogs will eat him; if he dies in the countryside, the vultures will eat him. For ADONAI has said it.'

1 Kings 14:12 So get up and go home; when your feet enter the city, the boy will die.

1 Kings 14:13 All Isra'el will mourn him, and they will bury him; he is the only one of Yarov'am's line who will lie in a grave, because he alone in the house of Yarov'am has in him an element of good toward ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

1 Kings 14:14 Moreover, ADONAI will raise up for himself a king over Isra'el who at that time will cut off the house of Yarov'am. And what will God do now?

1 Kings 14:15 ADONAI will strike Isra'el until it shakes like a reed in the water; he will uproot Isra'el from this good land, which he gave to their ancestors, and scatter them beyond the [[Euphrates]] River; because they made sacred poles for themselves, thus making ADONAI angry.

1 Kings 14:16 He will give up on Isra'el because of the sins of Yarov'am, which he committed himself, and with which he made Isra'el sin as well."

1 Kings 14:17 Yarov'am's wife got up, left and went to Tirtzah. The moment she reached the threshold of the house, the boy died.

1 Kings 14:18 All Isra'el buried him and mourned him, in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken through his servant Achiyah the prophet.

1 Kings 14:19 Other activities of Yarov'am, how he fought and how he ruled are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

1 Kings 14:20 Yarov'am's reign lasted twenty-two years; then he slept with his ancestors, and Nadav his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 14:21 Rechav'am the son of Shlomo was reigning in Y'hudah. Rechav'am was forty-one years old when he began to rule; and he ruled seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city ADONAI had chosen from all the tribes of Isra'el to bear his name; his mother's name was Na'amah the 'Amonit.

1 Kings 14:22 Y'hudah did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; they made him angry because of their sins, which were worse than any their ancestors had committed.

1 Kings 14:23 For they erected high places, standing-stones and sacred poles on every high hill and under every green tree.

1 Kings 14:24 Also there were male and female cult-prostitutes in the land attached to these shrines, doing all the disgusting things which the nations did that ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el.

1 Kings 14:25 In the fifth year of King Rechav’am, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerushalayim.

1 Kings 14:26 He took the treasures in the house of ADONAI and the treasures in the royal palace- he took everything, including all the gold shields Shlomo had made.

1 Kings 14:27 To replace them, King Rechav’am made shields of bronze, which he entrusted to the commanders of the contingent guarding the gate to the royal palace.

1 Kings 14:28 Whenever the king went to the house of ADONAI, the guard would get the shields; later they would return them to the guardroom.

1 Kings 14:29 Other activities of Rechav’am and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

1 Kings 14:30 But there was continual war between Rechav’am and Yarov’am.

1 Kings 14:31 Rechav’am slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David; his mother’s name was Na’amah the ‘Amonit. Then Aviyam his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 15:1 It was in the eighteenth year of King Yarov’am the son of N’vat that Aviyam began his reign over Y’hudah.

1 Kings 15:2 He ruled three years in Yerushalayim; his mother’s name was Ma’akhah the daughter of Avishalom.

1 Kings 15:3 He committed all the sins his father had committed before him; he was not wholehearted with ADONAI his God, as David his forefather had been.

1 Kings 15:4 Nevertheless, for David’s sake ADONAI his God gave him a lamp burning in Yerushalayim by establishing his son after him and making Yerushalayim secure.

1 Kings 15:5 For David had done what was right from ADONAI’s perspective; he had not turned away from anything he had ordered him to do, as long as he lived, except in the matter of Uriyah the Hitti.

1 Kings 15:6 There was war between Rechav’am and Yarov’am as long as he lived.

1 Kings 15:7 Other activities of Aviyam and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah. But there was war between Aviyam and Yarov’am.

1 Kings 15:8 Aviyam slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 15:9 It was in the twentieth year of Yarov’am king of Isra’el that Asa began his reign over Y’hudah.

1 Kings 15:10 He ruled forty-one years in Yerushalayim; his [[grand]]mother’s name was Ma’akhah the daughter of Avishalom.

1 Kings 15:11 Asa did what was right from the perspective of ADONAI, as David his ancestor had done.

1 Kings 15:12 He rid the land of cult-prostitutes and removed all the idols his ancestors had made.

1 Kings 15:13 He also deposed Ma'akhah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a disgusting image as an [asherah]. Asa cut down this image of hers and burned it in [Vadi] Kidron.

1 Kings 15:14 But the high places were not removed. Nevertheless, Asa was wholehearted with ADONAI throughout his life.

1 Kings 15:15 He brought into the house of ADONAI all the articles his father had consecrated, also the things he himself had consecrated- silver, gold and utensils.

1 Kings 15:16 There was war between Asa and Ba'sha king of Isra'el as long as they both lived.

1 Kings 15:17 Ba'sha attacked Y'hudah, and he fortified Ramah to prevent anyone's leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Y'hudah.

1 Kings 15:18 Then Asa took all the silver and gold left among the treasures of the house of ADONAI and among the treasures of the royal palace; and, entrusting them to his servants, King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tavrimmon, the son of Hezyon, king of Aram, who lived in Dammesek, with this message:

1 Kings 15:19 "There is a covenant between me and you, which existed already between my father and your father. Here, I am sending you a present of silver and gold; go, and break your covenant with Ba'sha king of Isra'el, so that he will leave me alone."

1 Kings 15:20 Ben-Hadad did as King Asa asked- he sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Isra'el, attacking 'Iyon, Dan, Avel-Beit-Ma'akhah, all of Kinn'rot and all the land of Naftali.

1 Kings 15:21 As soon as Ba'sha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and stayed in Tirtzah.

1 Kings 15:22 King Asa then issued a proclamation requiring every man in Y'hudah, with no exception, to come and carry off the stones and timber Ba'sha had used to fortify Ramah. With them King Asa fortified Geva of Binyamin and Mitzpah.

1 Kings 15:23 The other activities of Asa, all his power, all his accomplishments and the cities he fortified are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. But in his old age he suffered from a disease in his legs.

1 Kings 15:24 Asa slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David his ancestor. Then Y'hoshafat his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 15:25 It was in the second year of Asa king of Y’hudah that Nadav the son of Yarov’am began his reign over Isra’el, and he ruled Isra’el two years.

1 Kings 15:26 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of his father and the sin through which he had made Isra’el sin.

1 Kings 15:27 Ba’sha the son of Achiyah, from the descendants of Yissakhar, conspired against him; and Ba’sha attacked him at Gib’ton, which belonged to the P’lishtim; for at the time Nadav and all Isra’el were besieging Gib’ton.

1 Kings 15:28 It was in the third year of Asa king of Y’hudah that Ba’sha killed Nadav and became king in his place.

1 Kings 15:29 As soon as he had become king he killed off the entire house of Yarov’am, destroying every living soul and leaving not one survivor. This was in keeping with what ADONAI had said through his servant Achiyah from Shiloh;

1 Kings 15:30 it was the punishment for the sins Yarov’am had committed and through which he had made Isra’el sin, thereby angering ADONAI the God of Isra’el.

1 Kings 15:31 Other activities of Nadav and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

1 Kings 15:32 There was war between Asa and Ba’sha king of Isra’el as long as they both lived.

1 Kings 15:33 It was in the third year of Asa king of Y’hudah that Ba’sha the son of Achiyah began his reign over all Isra’el in Tirtzah, and his rule lasted twenty-four years.

1 Kings 15:34 He did what was wrong from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of Yarov’am and committing the sin through which he had made Isra’el sin.

1 Kings 16:1 The word of ADONAI came to Yehu the son of Hanani against Ba’sha:

1 Kings 16:2 “I raised you up out of the dust and made you prince over my people Isra’el. But you have lived in the same way as Yarov’am and caused my people Isra’el to sin, so that their sinning has made me angry.

1 Kings 16:3 Therefore I will sweep away Ba’sha and his house completely; I will make your house like the house of Yarov’am the son of N’vat.

1 Kings 16:4 If someone from the line of Ba’sha dies in the city, the dogs will eat him; if he dies in the countryside, the vultures will eat him.”

1 Kings 16:5 Other activities of Ba’sha, his accomplishments and his power are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

1 Kings 16:6 Ba'sha slept with his ancestors, and Elah his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 16:7 Through the prophet Yehu the son of Hanani the word of ADONAI was proclaimed against Ba'sha and his house both because he did so much evil from ADONAI's perspective, angering him with his actions and becoming like the house of Yarov'am, and because he killed [[Nadav]].

1 Kings 16:8 It was in the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Elah the son of Ba'sha began his reign over all Isra'el in Tirtzah, and he ruled for two years.

1 Kings 16:9 His servant Zimri, commander of half of his chariots, plotted against him. Finally, one time when Elah was in Tirtzah, drinking himself senseless in the house of Artza, administrator of the palace in Tirtzah,

1 Kings 16:10 Zimri entered, struck him down and killed him. This was in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Y'hudah; Zimri then took Elah's place as king.

1 Kings 16:11 At the beginning of his reign, as soon as he took over the throne, he killed off the entire house of Ba'sha; he left not a single male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends.

1 Kings 16:12 Thus Zimri eliminated all the house of Ba'sha, in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken against Ba'sha through Yehu the prophet. This word had been spoken

1 Kings 16:13 because of all of Ba'sha's sins and the sins of Elah his son, which they committed and with which they made Isra'el sin, thereby angering ADONAI the God of Isra'el with their worthless idols.

1 Kings 16:14 Other activities of Elah and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

1 Kings 16:15 It was in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Zimri ruled for seven days in Tirtzah. At that time, the army was besieging Gib'ton, which belonged to the P'lishtim.

1 Kings 16:16 The troops in their camp heard it said that Zimri had plotted and killed the king, whereupon that same day, there in the camp, all Isra'el made 'Omri, the commander of the army, king over Isra'el.

1 Kings 16:17 'Omri and all Isra'el with him withdrew from Gib'ton and besieged Tirtzah.

1 Kings 16:18 When Zimri saw that the city had been captured, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and burned down the royal palace over him, so that he died.

1 Kings 16:19 This came about because of the sins he committed in doing what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, in living as Yarov'am had lived, and in sinning by making Isra'el sin.

1 Kings 16:20 Other activities of Zimri and his conspiracy are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

1 Kings 16:21 At this point the people of Isra'el divided into two factions. Half of the people went after Tivni the son of Ginat to make him king, while the other half followed 'Omri.

1 Kings 16:22 But the faction supporting 'Omri won out over that of Tivni the son of Ginat; so Tivni died, and 'Omri became king.

1 Kings 16:23 It was in the thirty-first year of Asa king of Y'hudah that 'Omri began his reign over Isra'el, and he ruled for twelve years, six of them in Tirtzah.

1 Kings 16:24 He bought Mount Shomron from Shemer for 132 pounds of silver. On the mountain he built a city, which he named Shomron after Shemer, who had owned the mountain.

1 Kings 16:25 'Omri did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, outdoing all his predecessors in wickedness;

1 Kings 16:26 for he lived entirely in the manner of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, committing the sins with which he made Isra'el sin, thereby angering ADONAI the God of Isra'el with their worthless idols.

1 Kings 16:27 Other activities of 'Omri and the power he demonstrated are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

1 Kings 16:28 Then 'Omri slept with his ancestors and was buried in Shomron, and Ach'av his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 16:29 It was in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Ach'av the son of 'Omri began his rule over Isra'el; Ach'av the son of 'Omri ruled twenty-two years over Isra'el in Shomron.

1 Kings 16:30 Ach'av the son of 'Omri did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, outdoing all his predecessors [[in wickedness]].

1 Kings 16:31 But then, as if it had been a trifling thing for him to commit the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, he took as his wife Izevel the daughter of Etba'al king of the Tzidonim, and went and served Ba'al and worshipped him.

1 Kings 16:32 He erected an altar for Ba'al in the house of Ba'al, which he had built in Shomron.

1 Kings 16:33 Ach'av also set up the [asherah]; indeed, Ach'av did more to anger ADONAI the God of Isra'el, than all the kings of Isra'el preceding him.

1 Kings 16:34 It was during his time that Hi'el of Beit-El rebuilt Yericho. He laid its foundation at the cost of his firstborn son Aviram and erected its gates at the cost of his youngest son S'guv. This was in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken through Y'hoshua the son of Nun.

1 Kings 17:1 Eliyahu from Tishbe, an inhabitant of Gil'ad, said to Ach'av, “As ADONAI the God of Isra'el lives, before whom I stand, there will be neither rain nor dew in the years ahead unless I say so.”

1 Kings 17:2 Then the word of ADONAI came to him:

1 Kings 17:3 “Leave here, turn to the east, and hide in [Vadi] K'rit near the Yarden.

1 Kings 17:4 You are to drink from the stream, and I have ordered the ravens to feed you there.”

1 Kings 17:5 So he went and acted according to the word of ADONAI [-] he went and lived in [Vadi] K'rit near the Yarden.

1 Kings 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the stream.

1 Kings 17:7 After a while the stream dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

1 Kings 17:8 Then this word of ADONAI came to him:

1 Kings 17:9 “Get up; go to Tzarfat, a village in Tzidon; and live there. I have ordered a widow there to provide for you.”

1 Kings 17:10 So he set out and went to Tzarfat. On reaching the gate of the city, he saw a widow there gathering sticks. He called out to her, “Please bring a little water in a container for me to drink.”

1 Kings 17:11 As she was going to get it, he called after her, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.”

1 Kings 17:12 She answered, “As ADONAI your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a pot and a little oil in the jug. Here I am, gathering a couple sticks of wood, so that I can go and cook it for myself and my son. After we have eaten that, we will die.”

1 Kings 17:13 Eliyahu said to her, “Don't be afraid. Go; and do what you said; but first, use a little of it to make me a small loaf of bread; and bring it out to me. After that, make food for yourself and your son.

1 Kings 17:14 For this is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el, says: ‘The pot of meal will not get used up, nor will there fail to be oil in the jug, until the day ADONAI sends rain down on the land.’“

1 Kings 17:15 She went and acted according to what Eliyahu had said; and she, he and her household had food to eat for a long time.

1 Kings 17:16 The pot of meal did not get used up, nor did there fail to be oil in the jug, in fulfillment of the word of ADONAI spoken through Eliyahu.

1 Kings 17:17 A while later, the son of the woman whose house it was fell ill; his illness grew increasingly serious until his breathing stopped.

1 Kings 17:18 She said to Eliyahu, “What do you have against me, you man of God? Did you come to me just to remind me how sinful I am by killing my son?”

1 Kings 17:19 “Give me your son,” he said to her. Taking him from her lap, he carried him into the room upstairs where he was staying and laid him on his own bed.

1 Kings 17:20 Then he cried out to ADONAI: “ADONAI my God! Have you brought also this misery on the widow I’m staying with by killing her son?”

1 Kings 17:21 He stretched himself out on the child three times and cried out to ADONAI: “ADONAI my God, please! Let this child’s soul come back into him!”

1 Kings 17:22 ADONAI heard Eliyahu’s cry, the child’s soul came back into him, and he revived.

1 Kings 17:23 Eliyahu took the child, brought him down from the upstairs room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Eliyahu said, “See? Your son is alive.”

1 Kings 17:24 The woman replied to Eliyahu, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of ADONAI that you speak is the truth.”

1 Kings 18:1 A long time passed. Then, in the third year, the word of ADONAI came to Eliyahu: “Go, present yourself to Ach’av, and I will send rain down on the land.”

1 Kings 18:2 When Eliyahu went to present himself to Ach’av, the famine in Shomron had become severe.

1 Kings 18:3 Ach’av called ‘Ovadyah, who was in charge of the palace. Now ‘Ovadyah greatly revered ADONAI;

1 Kings 18:4 for example, when Izevel was murdering ADONAI’s prophets, ‘Ovadyah took a hundred prophets, hid them in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with food and water.

1 Kings 18:5 Ach’av said to ‘Ovadyah, “Go throughout the land, and check all the springs and [vadi]s; maybe we can find grass somewhere, so that we can keep the horses and mules alive and not lose all the animals.”

1 Kings 18:6 So they divided between them the territory to be visited; Ach’av went one way by himself, and ‘Ovadyah went another way by himself.

1 Kings 18:7 ‘Ovadyah was on the road when suddenly Eliyahu encountered him. ‘Ovadyah recognized him, fell on his face and said, “Is it really you, my lord Eliyahu?”

1 Kings 18:8 He answered, “Yes, it is I; go, tell your master, ‘Eliyahu is here.’“

1 Kings 18:9 ‘Ovadyah replied, “How have I sinned, that you would hand your servant over to Ach’av to kill me?

1 Kings 18:10 As ADONAI your God lives, there can’t be a single nation or kingdom where my master hasn’t sent to search you out; and in each kingdom or nation where they said, ‘He isn’t here,’ he made them take an oath that they hadn’t found you.

1 Kings 18:11 Now you say, ‘Go tell your master, “Eliyahu is here.”‘

1 Kings 18:12 But as soon as I leave you, the Spirit of ADONAI will carry you off to I don’t know where; so that when I come and tell Ach’av, and he can’t find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have revered ADONAI from my youth-

1 Kings 18:13 wasn’t my lord told what I did when Izevel killed ADONAI’s prophets, how I hid a hundred of ADONAI’s prophets by fifties in caves and supplied their food and water?

1 Kings 18:14 Now you say, ‘Go tell your master, “Look, Eliyahu is here.”‘ Why, he’ll kill me!”

1 Kings 18:15 Eliyahu said, “As [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] lives, before whom I stand, I will present myself to him today.”

1 Kings 18:16 So ‘Ovadyah went, found Ach’av and told him; and Ach’av went to meet Eliyahu.

1 Kings 18:17 When Ach’av saw Eliyahu, Ach’av said to him, “Is it really you, you troubler of Isra’el?”

1 Kings 18:18 He answered, “I haven’t troubled Isra’el, you have, you and your father’s house, by abandoning ADONAI’s [mitzvot] and following the [ba’alim].

1 Kings 18:19 Now order all Isra’el to assemble before me on Mount Karmel, along with the 450 prophets of Ba’al and the 400 prophets of the [asherah] who eat at Izevel’s table.”

1 Kings 18:20 Ach’av sent word to all the people of Isra’el and assembled the prophets together on Mount Karmel.

1 Kings 18:21 Eliyahu stepped forward before all the people and said, “How long are you going to jump back and forth between two positions? If ADONAI is God, follow him; but if it’s Ba’al, follow him!” The people answered him not a word.

1 Kings 18:22 Then Eliyahu said to the people, “I, I alone, am the only prophet of ADONAI who is left, while Ba’al’s prophets number 450.

1 Kings 18:23 Let them give us two young bulls, and they can choose the bull they want for themselves. Then let them cut it in pieces and lay it on the wood but put no fire under it. I will prepare the other bull, lay it on the wood and put no fire under it.

1 Kings 18:24 Then, you, call on the name of your god; and I will call on the name of ADONAI; and the God who answers with fire, let him be God!” All the people answered, “Good idea! Agreed!”

1 Kings 18:25 Then Eliyahu said to the prophets of Ba’al, “Choose one bull for yourselves, and prepare it first; because there are many of you. Then call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it.”

1 Kings 18:26 They took the bull that was given to them, prepared it and called on the name of Ba’al from morning till noon- “Ba’al! Answer us!” But no voice was heard; and no one answered, as they jumped around on the altar they had made.

1 Kings 18:27 Around noon Eliyahu began ridiculing them: “Shout louder! After all, he’s a god, isn’t he? Maybe he’s daydreaming, or he’s on the potty, or he’s away on a trip. Maybe he’s asleep, and you have to wake him up.”

1 Kings 18:28 So they shouted louder and slashed themselves with swords and knives, as their custom was, until blood gushed out all over them.

1 Kings 18:29 By now it was afternoon, and they went on ranting and raving until it was time for the evening offering. But no voice came, no one answered, no one paid any attention.

1 Kings 18:30 Then Eliyahu said to all the people, “Come here to me.” All the people came up to him, as he set about repairing the altar of ADONAI that had been broken down.

1 Kings 18:31 Eliyahu took twelve stones, in keeping with the number of tribes of the sons of Ya’akov, to whom the word of ADONAI had come, saying, “Your name is to be Isra’el.”

1 Kings 18:32 With the stones he built an altar in the name of ADONAI. Then he dug a trench around the altar large enough for half a bushel of grain.

1 Kings 18:33 He arranged the wood, cut up the bull and laid it on the wood.

1 Kings 18:34 Then he said, “Fill four pots with water, and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.” They did it. “Do it again,” he said, and they did it again. “Do it a third time,” he said, and they did it a third time.

1 Kings 18:35 By now the water was flowing around the altar, and it had filled the trench.

1 Kings 18:36 Then, when it came time for offering the evening offering, Eliyahu the prophet approached and said, “ADONAI, God of Avraham, Yitz’chak and Isra’el, let it be known today that you are God in Isra’el, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word.

1 Kings 18:37 Hear me, ADONAI, hear me, so that this people may know that you, ADONAI, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back to you.”

1 Kings 18:38 Then the fire of ADONAI fell. It consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones and the dust; and it licked up the water in the trench.

1 Kings 18:39 When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, “ADONAI is God! ADONAI is God!”

1 Kings 18:40 Eliyahu said to them, “Seize the prophets of Ba’al! Don’t let one of them escape!” They seized them; and Eliyahu brought them down to [Vadi] Kishon and killed them there.

1 Kings 18:41 Then Eliyahu said to Ach’av, “Get up, eat, and drink, because I hear the sound of heavy rain.”

1 Kings 18:42 Ach’av went up to eat and drink, while Eliyahu went up to the top of the Karmel. He bowed down to the ground and put his face between his knees.

1 Kings 18:43 “Now,” he said to his servant, “go up, and look out toward the sea.” He went up, looked, and said, “There’s nothing there.” Seven times he said, “Go again.”

1 Kings 18:44 The seventh time, the servant said, “Now there’s a cloud coming up out of the sea, no bigger than a man’s hand.” Eliyahu said, “Go up, and say to Ach’av, ‘Prepare your chariot, and get down the mountain before the rain stops you!”

1 Kings 18:45 A little later, the sky grew black with clouds and wind; and heavy rain began falling; as Ach’av, riding in his chariot, made for Yizre’el.

1 Kings 18:46 The hand of ADONAI was on Eliyahu; he tucked up his clothing and ran ahead of Ach’av to the entrance of Yizre’el.

1 Kings 19:1 Ach’av told Izevel everything Eliyahu had done and how he had put all the prophets to the sword.

1 Kings 19:2 Then Izevel sent a messenger to say to Eliyahu, “May the gods do terrible things to me and worse ones besides if by this time tomorrow I haven’t taken your life, just as you took theirs!”

1 Kings 19:3 On seeing that, he got up and fled for his life. When he arrived in Be’er-Sheva, in Y’hudah, he left his servant there;

1 Kings 19:4 but he himself went a day farther into the desert, until he came to a broom tree. He sat down under it and prayed for his own death. “Enough!” he said. “Now, ADONAI, take my life. I’m no better than my ancestors.”

1 Kings 19:5 Then he lay down under the broom tree and went to sleep. Suddenly, an angel touched him and said to him, “Get up and eat!”

1 Kings 19:6 He looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on the hot stones and a jug of water. He ate and drank, then lay down again.

1 Kings 19:7 The angel came again, a second time, touched him and said, “Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you.”

1 Kings 19:8 He got up, ate and drank, and, on the strength of that meal, traveled forty days and nights until he reached Horev the mountain of God.

1 Kings 19:9 There he went into a cave and spent the night. Then the word of ADONAI came to him; he said to him, “What are you doing here, Eliyahu?”

1 Kings 19:10 He answered, “I have been very zealous for ADONAI the God of armies, because the people of Isra’el have abandoned your covenant, broken down your altars and killed your prophets with the sword. Now I’m the only one left, and they’re coming after me to kill me too.”

1 Kings 19:11 He said, “Go outside, and stand on the mountain before ADONAI”; and right then and there, ADONAI went past. A mighty blast of wind tore the mountains apart and broke the rocks in pieces before ADONAI, but ADONAI was not in the wind. After the wind came an earthquake, but ADONAI was not in the earthquake.

1 Kings 19:12 After the earthquake, fire broke out; but ADONAI was not in the fire. And after the fire came a quiet, subdued voice.

1 Kings 19:13 When Eliyahu heard it, he covered his face with his cloak, stepped out and stood at the entrance to the cave. Then a voice came to him and said, “What are you doing here, Eliyahu?”

1 Kings 19:14 He answered, “I have been very zealous for ADONAI the God of armies; because the people of Isra’el have abandoned your covenant, broken down your altars and killed your prophets with the sword. Now I’m the only one left, and they’re after me to kill me too.”

1 Kings 19:15 ADONAI said to him, “Go back by way of the Dammesek Desert. When you get there, anoint Haza’el to be king over Aram.

1 Kings 19:16 Also anoint Yehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Isra’el, and anoint Elisha the son of Shafat of Avel-M’cholah to be prophet after you.

1 Kings 19:17 Yehu will kill whoever escapes the sword of Haza’el, and Elisha will kill whoever escapes the sword of Yehu.

1 Kings 19:18 Still, I will spare seven thousand in Isra’el, every knee that hasn’t bent down before Ba’al and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

1 Kings 19:19 So he left and found Elisha the son of Shafat. He was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he himself was behind the twelfth. Eliyahu went over to him and threw his cloak on him.

1 Kings 19:20 He left the oxen, ran after Eliyahu and said, “Please let me kiss my father and mother good-bye; then I will follow you.” He answered, “Go; but return, because of what I did to you.”

1 Kings 19:21 Elisha stopped following him. Then he took the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them, cooked their meat over the wooden yokes of the oxen and gave it to the people to eat. Then he got up, went after Eliyahu and became his servant.

1 Kings 20:1 Now Ben-Hadad the king of Aram rallied his whole army; with him were thirty-two kings, besides horses and chariots. Then he marched on Shomron and laid siege to it.

1 Kings 20:2 He sent messengers inside the city to Ach’av king of Isra’el

1 Kings 20:3 to say to him, “Here is the message from Ben-Hadad: ‘Your silver and gold are mine, also your wives and your best children are mine.’“

1 Kings 20:4 The king of Isra’el answered, “Just as you say, my lord, king; I am yours, along with everything I own.”

1 Kings 20:5 The messengers returned and said, “Here is Ben-Hadad’s response: ‘I sent you a message to hand over your silver, gold, wives and children to me.

1 Kings 20:6 But I am going to send my servants to you tomorrow around this time; they will ransack your house and the houses of your servants; and whatever they see that they like they will seize and remove.’“

1 Kings 20:7 Then the king of Isra’el summoned all the leaders of the land and said, “Please take notice! Do you see how this man is trying to make trouble? First he demanded my wives, children, silver and gold; and I denied him nothing.”

1 Kings 20:8 All the leaders and all the people said to him, “Don’t listen, and don’t agree.”

1 Kings 20:9 So he said to Ben-Hadad’s messengers, “Tell my lord the king, ‘I will do all that you asked of me the first time, but this I cannot do.” The messengers left and brought word back to him.

1 Kings 20:10 Ben-Hadad then sent this message to him: “May the gods do terrible things to me and worse ones as well if there’s enough dust in Shomron to give each of my followers a handful!”

1 Kings 20:11 The king of Isra’el answered, “Tell him: ‘He who is putting on his armor shouldn’t boast as if he were taking it off!’“

1 Kings 20:12 It happened that Ben-Hadad received this message when he was drinking, he and his kings, in the field-barracks. He ordered his servants: “Take up your battle positions!” So they got ready to attack the city.

1 Kings 20:13 At that moment a prophet approached Ach’av king of Isra’el and said, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Have you seen this vast army? I am going to give you victory over them today. Then you will know that I am ADONAI!’“

1 Kings 20:14 Ach’av asked, “Who will defeat them?” He answered, “This is what ADONAI says: ‘The young men who serve the district governors.’“ He asked, “Who will start the fighting?” and he answered, “You will.”

1 Kings 20:15 He counted the district governors’ young men; there were 232. After that, he counted all the people, all the people of Isra’el; there were 7,000.

1 Kings 20:16 They set out at noon. Ben-Hadad was drinking himself senseless in the field-barracks, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who were his allies.

1 Kings 20:17 The district governors’ men went out first. Ben-Hadad sent for information, and they reported, “Men have come out from Shomron.”

1 Kings 20:18 He said, “Whether they have come out for peace or for war, take them alive.”

1 Kings 20:19 So the district governors’ men left the city, followed by the army;

1 Kings 20:20 and each one killed his man. Aram fled, and Isra’el pursued them. Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of the cavalry.

1 Kings 20:21 The king of Isra’el went out and attacked the horses and chariots, inflicting a massive defeat on Aram.

1 Kings 20:22 Afterwards, the prophet approached the king of Isra’el and said to him, “Go, regroup your forces, and think carefully what to do, for next year at this time the king of Aram will renew his attack.”

1 Kings 20:23 Meanwhile, the servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their God is a God of the hills; that’s why they were stronger than we were. But if we fight them on level ground, we will certainly be stronger than they are.

1 Kings 20:24 Also do this: remove all the kings from their commands, and put professional officers in their place.

1 Kings 20:25 Then recruit an army as big as the army you lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. We will attack them on level ground, and we will certainly be stronger than they.” He heeded what they said and acted accordingly.

1 Kings 20:26 At the same time the following year, Ben-Hadad mustered the army of Aram and went up to Afek to attack Isra’el.

1 Kings 20:27 The army of Isra’el, already mobilized and supplied, went to meet them; but the army of Isra’el, encamped opposite them, looked like two herds of goats; while Aram filled the land.

1 Kings 20:28 At this point, a man of God approached and said to the king of Isra’el, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Because Aram said that ADONAI is a God of the hills but not a God of the valleys, I will hand over to you this entire huge army. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.’“

1 Kings 20:29 They remained in camp opposite each other for seven days. On the seventh day, the battle began; and the people of Isra’el killed 100,000 soldiers of Aram in a single day.

1 Kings 20:30 The rest fled to Afek, into the city; and the wall fell on 27,000 of the men who were left. Ben-Hadad fled into the city and took refuge in an inside room.

1 Kings 20:31 His servants said to him, “Here now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Isra’el are merciful kings. If it’s all right with you, let’s put sackcloth around our waists and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Isra’el. Maybe he will spare your life.”

1 Kings 20:32 So they put sackcloth around their waists and ropes on their heads, went to the king of Isra’el and said, “Your servant Ben-Hadad says, ‘Please spare my life.’“ And he answered, “He’s still alive? He is my brother.”

1 Kings 20:33 The men took this as a promising indication and seized on it to say, “Yes, Ben-Hadad is your brother.” Then Ach’av said, “Go, and bring him here.” Ben-Hadad went out to him, and Ach’av had him climb up into his chariot.

1 Kings 20:34 Ben-Hadad said to him, “I will return the cities my father took from your father. Also you can set up markets for trade in Dammesek, as my father did in Shomron.” “If you put this covenant in writing,” said Ach’av, “I will set you free.” So he made a covenant with him and set him free.

1 Kings 20:35 One of the members of the prophets’ guild said to another one, by the word of ADONAI, “Hit me!” But the man refused to hit him.

1 Kings 20:36 Then he said to him, “Because you didn’t listen to the voice of ADONAI, the moment you leave me, a lion will kill you.” No sooner had he left him than a lion found him and killed him.

1 Kings 20:37 The prophet went to another man and said, “Hit me!” The man struck him a blow and wounded him.

1 Kings 20:38 The prophet left and waited for the king by the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.

1 Kings 20:39 As the king passed by, he called out to the king and said, “Your servant was on his way into the thick of the fighting when someone turned, brought a man to me and said, ‘Guard this man! If he is missing, you will pay for his life with yours; or else you will pay sixty-six pounds of silver.’

1 Kings 20:40 But while your servant was busy with one thing and another, he disappeared.” The king of Isra’el said to him, “So that is your sentence; you have pronounced it on yourself.”

1 Kings 20:41 Quickly he removed the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Isra’el recognized him as one of the prophets.

1 Kings 20:42 Then he said to the king, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Because you have let escape the man I had given over to be destroyed, you will pay with your life for his life and with your people for his people.’“

1 Kings 20:43 The king of Isra’el returned home to Shomron resentful and depressed.

1 Kings 21:1 A while later, an incident occurred involving Navot the Yizre’eli. He owned a vineyard in Yizre’el, right next to the palace of Ach’av king of Shomron.

1 Kings 21:2 Ach’av spoke to Navot and said, “Give me your vineyard, so that I can have it as my vegetable garden, because it’s close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard; or, if you prefer, I will give you its monetary value.”

1 Kings 21:3 But Navot said to Ach’av, “ADONAI forbid that I should give you my ancestral heritage!”

1 Kings 21:4 Ach’av went home resentful and depressed at what Navot the Yizre’eli had said to him, since he had said, “I won’t give you my ancestral heritage.” He lay down on his bed, turned his face away and refused to eat.

1 Kings 21:5 Izevel his wife went and said to him, “Why are you so depressed that you refuse to eat?”

1 Kings 21:6 He answered her, “Because I spoke to Navot the Yizre’eli and said to him, “Sell me your vineyard for money; or else, if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it”; but he answered, “I won’t give you my vineyard.”

1 Kings 21:7 “Are you the king of Isra’el or not?” asked his wife Izevel. “Get up, eat some food, and cheer up! I will give you the vineyard of Navot the Yizre’eli.”

1 Kings 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ach’av’s name, sealed them with his seal and sent the letters to the leaders and notables of the city where Navot lived.

1 Kings 21:9 In the letters she wrote, “Proclaim a fast, and give Navot the seat of honor among the people.

1 Kings 21:10 Have two good-for-nothing men sit opposite him, and have them accuse him publicly of cursing God and the king. Then take him outside and stone him to death.”

1 Kings 21:11 The leaders and notables of the city he lived in did as Izevel had written in the letters she sent to them.

1 Kings 21:12 They proclaimed a fast and gave Navot the seat of honor among the people.

1 Kings 21:13 The two good-for-nothing men came in and sat opposite him, and these scoundrels publicly accused Navot, saying, “Navot cursed God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death,

1 Kings 21:14 then sent a message to Izevel, “Navot has been stoned to death.”

1 Kings 21:15 When Izevel heard that Navot had been stoned to death, she said to Ach’av, “Get up, and take possession of the vineyard that Navot the Yizre’eli refused to sell you, because Navot is no longer alive; he is dead.”

1 Kings 21:16 When Ach’av heard that Navot was dead, he set out to go down to the vineyard of Navot the Yizre’eli, to take possession of it.

1 Kings 21:17 But the word of ADONAI came to Eliyahu from Tishbe:

1 Kings 21:18 “Get up, go down to meet Ach’av king of Isra’el, who lives in Shomron. Right now he is in the vineyard of Navot; he has gone down there to take possession of it.

1 Kings 21:19 This is what you are to say to him: ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “You have committed murder, and now you are stealing the victim’s property!” ‘ Also say to him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “In the very place where dogs licked up the blood of Navot, dogs will lick up your blood- yours!” ‘“

1 Kings 21:20 Ach’av said to Eliyahu, “My enemy! You’ve found me!” He answered, “Yes, I have found you; because you have given yourself over to do what is evil from ADONAI’s perspective.

1 Kings 21:21 ‘Here,’ [[says ADONAI,]] ‘I am bringing disaster on you! I will sweep you away completely; I will cut off from Ach’av every male, whether a slave or free in Isra’el.

1 Kings 21:22 I will make your house like the house of Yarov’am the son of N’vat and like the house of Ba’sha the son of Achiyah for provoking my anger and leading Isra’el into sin.’

1 Kings 21:23 ADONAI also said this about Izevel: ‘The dogs will eat Izevel by the wall around Yizre’el.

1 Kings 21:24 If someone from the line of Ach’av dies in the city, the dogs will eat him; if he dies in the countryside, the vultures will eat him.’“

1 Kings 21:25 Truly, there was never anyone like Ach’av. Stirred up by his wife Izevel, he gave himself over to do what is evil from ADONAI’s perspective.

1 Kings 21:26 His behavior in following idols was grossly abominable; he did everything the Emori had done, whom ADONAI expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el.

1 Kings 21:27 Ach'av, on hearing these words, tore his clothes, put sackcloth on himself and fasted. He slept in the sackcloth and went about dejectedly.

1 Kings 21:28 Then the word of ADONAI came to Eliyahu from Tishbe:

1 Kings 21:29 "Do you see how Ach'av has humbled himself before me? Since he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring this evil during his lifetime; but during his son's lifetime I will bring the evil on his house."

1 Kings 22:1 For three years there was no war between Aram and Isra'el.

1 Kings 22:2 Then, in the third year, Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah came down to the king of Isra'el.

1 Kings 22:3 The king of Isra'el said to his servants, "Are you aware that Ramot-Gil'ad belongs to us; yet, we're doing nothing to recover it from the king of Aram?"

1 Kings 22:4 He said to Y'hoshafat, "Will you go with me to attack Ramot-Gil'ad?" Y'hoshafat answered the king of Isra'el, "I'm with you all the way; think of my troops and horses as yours."

1 Kings 22:5 But Y'hoshafat said to the king of Isra'el, "First, we should seek the word of ADONAI."

1 Kings 22:6 So the king of Isra'el assembled the prophets, about 400 men. "Should I attack Ramot-Gil'ad?" he asked them, "Or should I hold off?" They said, "Attack! [Adonai] will hand it over to the king."

1 Kings 22:7 But Y'hoshafat said, "Besides these, isn't there a prophet of ADONAI here that we can consult?"

1 Kings 22:8 The king of Isra'el said to Y'hoshafat, "Yes, there is still one man through whom we can consult ADONAI, Mikhay'hu the son of Yimlah; but I hate him, because he doesn't prophesy good things for me, but bad!" Y'hoshafat replied, "The king shouldn't say such a thing."

1 Kings 22:9 Then the king of Isra'el called an officer and said, "Quickly! Bring Mikhay'hu the son of Yimlah."

1 Kings 22:10 Now the king of Isra'el and Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah were each sitting on his throne, dressed in their royal robes, on a threshing-floor at the entrance to the gate of Shomron; and all the prophets were there, prophesying in their presence.

1 Kings 22:11 Tzidkiyah the son of Kena'anah had made himself some horns out of iron and said, "This is what ADONAI says: 'With these you will gore Aram until they are destroyed.'"

1 Kings 22:12 All the prophets prophesied the same thing: “Go up and attack Ramot-Gil’ad. You will succeed, for ADONAI will hand it over to the king.”

1 Kings 22:13 The messenger who had gone to call Mikhay’hu said to him, “Here, now, the prophets are unanimously predicting success for the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them- say something good.”

1 Kings 22:14 But Mikhay’hu answered, “As ADONAI lives, whatever ADONAI says to me is what I will say.”

1 Kings 22:15 When he reached the king, the king asked him, “Mikhay’hu, should we go up and attack Ramot-Gil’ad; or should we hold off?” He answered, “Go up, you will succeed, ADONAI will hand it over to the king.”

1 Kings 22:16 The king said to him, “How many times do I have to warn you to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of ADONAI?”

1 Kings 22:17 Then he said, “I saw all Isra’el scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd; and ADONAI said, ‘These men have no leader; let everyone go home in peace.’“

1 Kings 22:18 The king of Isra’el said to Y’hoshafat, “Didn’t I tell you that he wouldn’t prophesy good things about me, but bad?”

1 Kings 22:19 Mikhay’hu continued: “Therefore hear the word of ADONAI. I saw ADONAI sitting on his throne with the whole army of heaven standing by him on his right and on his left.

1 Kings 22:20 ADONAI asked, ‘Who will entice Ach’av to go up to his death at Ramot-Gil’ad?’ One of them said, ‘Do it this way,’ and another, ‘Do it that way.’

1 Kings 22:21 Then a spirit stepped up, stood in front of ADONAI and said, ‘I will entice him.’

1 Kings 22:22 ADONAI asked, ‘How?’ and he answered, ‘I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ ADONAI said, ‘You will succeed in enticing him. Go, and do it.’

1 Kings 22:23 So now ADONAI has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours; meanwhile, ADONAI has ordained disaster for you.”

1 Kings 22:24 Then Tzidkiyah the son of Kena’anah came up, slapped Mikhay’hu in the face and said, “And how did the Spirit of ADONAI leave me to speak to you?”

1 Kings 22:25 Mikhay’hu said, “You’ll find out the day you go into an inside room, trying to hide.”

1 Kings 22:26 The king of Isra’el said, “Seize Mikhay’hu, and take him back to Amon the governor of the city and Yo’ash the king’s son.

1 Kings 22:27 Say, ‘The king says to put this man in prison; and feed him only bread and water, and not much of that, until I return in peace.’“

1 Kings 22:28 Mikhay’hu said, “If you return in peace at all, ADONAI has not spoken through me!” Then he added, “Did you hear me, you peoples, all of you?”

1 Kings 22:29 So the king of Isra’el and Y’hoshafat the king of Y’hudah went up to Ramot-Gil’ad.

1 Kings 22:30 The king of Isra’el said to Y’hoshafat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you, put on your robes.” So the king of Isra’el disguised himself and went into battle.

1 Kings 22:31 Now the king of Aram had ordered the thirty-two chariot commanders, “Don’t attack anyone of either high or low rank, only the king of Isra’el.”

1 Kings 22:32 So when the chariot commanders saw Y’hoshafat they said, “This must be the king of Isra’el,” and turned to attack him. But Y’hoshafat gave a yell,

1 Kings 22:33 so that the chariot commanders saw that he wasn’t the king of Isra’el and stopped pursuing him.

1 Kings 22:34 However, one soldier shot an arrow at random and struck the king of Isra’el between his lower armor and his breastplate. So the king said to his chariot-driver, “Turn the reins, and take me out of the fighting; I’m collapsing from my wounds.”

1 Kings 22:35 But the fighting grew fiercer that day; and they propped the king upright in his chariot facing Aram until he died, in the evening, with the blood streaming from his wound onto the floor of the chariot.

1 Kings 22:36 Around sundown, a cry spread through the ranks: “Every man to his own town! Every man to his own land!”

1 Kings 22:37 So the king died and was brought to Shomron, and they buried the king in Shomron.

1 Kings 22:38 They washed the chariot at the Pool of Shomron where the prostitutes bathed, and the dogs licked up his blood, in keeping with the word ADONAI had spoken.

1 Kings 22:39 Other activities of Ach’av’s reign, all his accomplishments, the ivory palace he built and all the cities he built are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

1 Kings 22:40 So Ach’av slept with his ancestors, and Achazyah his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 22:41 Y’hoshafat the son of Asa began his reign over Y’hudah in the fourth year of Ach’av king of Isra’el.

1 Kings 22:42 Y'hoshafat was thirty-five years old when he began to rule, and he ruled twenty-five years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was 'Azuvah the daughter of Shilchi.

1 Kings 22:43 He lived in the manner of Asa his father and did not turn away from it, doing what was right from ADONAI's perspective;

1 Kings 22:44 although the high places were not taken away- the people still sacrificed and presented offerings on the high places.

1 Kings 22:45 Y'hoshafat made peace with the king of Isra'el.

1 Kings 22:46 Other activities of Y'hoshafat, all his power that he demonstrated and how he made war are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

1 Kings 22:47 He rid the land of the male and female cult-prostitutes remaining from the time of his father Asa.

1 Kings 22:48 There had previously been no king in Edom, but now a deputy was made king.

1 Kings 22:49 Y'hoshafat built some large "Tarshish" ships to go to Ofir for gold, but they didn't make the voyage, because they were wrecked at 'Etzyon-Gever.

1 Kings 22:50 Achazyah the son of Ach'av suggested to Y'hoshafat that his men should go to sea with Y'hoshafat's men, but Y'hoshafat would not agree.

1 Kings 22:51 So Y'hoshafat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David his ancestor, and Y'horam his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 22:52 Achazyah the son of Ach'av began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron in the seventeenth year of Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah, and he ruled two years over Isra'el.

1 Kings 22:53 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, living in the manner of his father, his mother and Yarov'am the son of N'vat, by which he led Isra'el into sin.

1 Kings 22:54 He also served Ba'al and worshipped him; and he made ADONAI the God of Isra'el angry, in keeping with everything his father had done.

2 Kings

1:1 After Ach'av's death Mo'av rebelled against Isra'el.

2 Kings 1:2 When Achazyah fell through a latticed window of his upper room in Shomron and lay injured, he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, consult Ba'al-Z'vuv the god of 'Ekron, and ask whether I will recover from this injury."

2 Kings 1:3 But an angel of ADONAI said to Eliyahu from Tishbe, "Get up, and intercept the messengers of the king of Shomron, and ask them, ‘Is it because there’s no God in Isra’el that you’re on your way to consult Ba’al-Z’vuv the god of ‘Ekron?

2 Kings 1:4 Therefore ADONAI says, “You will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will certainly die.”‘“ Then Eliyahu left.

2 Kings 1:5 The messengers returned to Achazyah, and he asked them, “Why have you come back?”

2 Kings 1:6 They answered him, “A man came to meet us. He told us to go and return to the king who sent us, and tell him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “Is it because there’s no God in Isra’el that you’re sending to consult Ba’al-Z’vuv the god of ‘Ekron? Therefore you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will certainly die.”‘“

2 Kings 1:7 He asked them, “The man who came to meet you and told you these things, what kind of a man was he?”

2 Kings 1:8 “He was a hairy man,” they answered him, “with a leather belt around his waist.” He said, “It was Eliyahu from Tishbe.”

2 Kings 1:9 Then the king sent a commander of fifty to Eliyahu, together with his fifty men. Eliyahu was sitting at the top of a hill. The commander climbed up to him and said, “Man of God, the king says to come down.”

2 Kings 1:10 Eliyahu answered the commander of fifty, “If I am in fact a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and burn you up, along with your fifty men.” Fire came down from heaven, and it burned up him and his fifty men.

2 Kings 1:11 The king sent him another commander of fifty, together with his fifty men. He said to him, “Man of God, the king says, ‘Come down immediately!’“

2 Kings 1:12 Eliyahu answered them, “If I am in fact a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and burn you up, along with your fifty men.” Fire came down from heaven, and it burned up him and his fifty men.

2 Kings 1:13 The king sent a third commander of fifty, with his fifty men. The third commander of fifty climbed up, approached Eliyahu and fell on his knees before him. He pleaded with him: “Man of God, please! Have some regard for my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours!

2 Kings 1:14 I know that fire came down from heaven and burned up the two other commanders with their fifty men; but now, have some regard for my life.”

2 Kings 1:15 The angel of ADONAI said to Eliyahu, “Go down with him; don’t be afraid of him.” So he got up and went down with him to the king.

2 Kings 1:16 Eliyahu said to the king, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘You sent messengers to consult Ba’al-Z’vuv the god of ‘Ekron. Is it because there’s no God in Isra’el you can consult? Therefore, you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will certainly die.’“

2 Kings 1:17 So he died, in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken through Eliyahu. Y’horam began to rule in place of him during the second year of Y’horam the son of Y’hoshafat king of Y’hudah, because he had no son.

2 Kings 1:18 Other activities of Achazyah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Kings 2:1 The time came for ADONAI to take Eliyahu up into heaven in a whirlwind. Eliyahu and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal,

2 Kings 2:2 when Eliyahu said to Elisha, “Please wait here, because ADONAI has sent me all the way to Beit-El.” But Elisha said, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Beit-El.

2 Kings 2:3 The guild prophets of Beit-El came out to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that ADONAI is taking your master away from you today?” “Yes, I know,” he answered; “say no more.”

2 Kings 2:4 Eliyahu said to him, “Elisha, please wait here, because ADONAI has sent me to Yericho.” He replied, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Yericho.

2 Kings 2:5 The guild prophets of Yericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that ADONAI is taking your master away from you today?” “Yes, I know,” he answered; “say no more.”

2 Kings 2:6 Eliyahu said to him, “Please wait here, because ADONAI has sent me to the Yarden.” He replied, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on.

2 Kings 2:7 Fifty of the guild prophets went and stood watching them from a distance, while they stood by the Yarden.

2 Kings 2:8 Then Eliyahu took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it; and the water divided itself to the left and to the right; so that they crossed on dry ground.

2 Kings 2:9 After they had crossed, Eliyahu said to Elisha, “Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken away from you.” Elisha said, “Please! Let a double share of your spirit be on me!”

2 Kings 2:10 He replied, “You have requested a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, you will get what you asked for; but if not, you won’t.”

2 Kings 2:11 Suddenly, as they were walking on and talking, there appeared a fiery chariot with horses of fire; and as it separated the two of them from each other, Eliyahu went up into heaven in a whirlwind.

2 Kings 2:12 Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Isra’el!” Then he lost sight of him. Seizing his clothes, he tore them in half.

2 Kings 2:13 Then he picked up Eliyahu's cloak, which had fallen off him. Standing on the bank of the Yarden,

2 Kings 2:14 he took the cloak that had fallen off Eliyahu, struck the water and said, "Where is ADONAI, the God of Eliyahu?" But when he actually did strike the water, it divided itself to the left and to the right; then Elisha crossed over.

2 Kings 2:15 When the guild prophets of Yericho saw him in the distance, they said, "The spirit of Eliyahu does rest on Elisha." Advancing to meet him, they prostrated themselves on the ground before him

2 Kings 2:16 and said to him, "Here now, your servants include fifty strong men. Please let them go and look for your master, in the event that the Spirit of ADONAI has taken him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley." He answered, "Don't send them."

2 Kings 2:17 But they kept pressing him until finally, embarrassed, he said to send them. So they sent fifty men. For three days they searched, but they didn't find him.

2 Kings 2:18 On returning to him where he was waiting in Yericho, he said to them, "I told you not to go, didn't I?"

2 Kings 2:19 The men of the city said to Elisha, "My lord can see that this is a pleasant city to live in; but the water is bad, so that the ground is causing miscarriages."

2 Kings 2:20 "Bring me a new jug," he said, "and put salt in it." They brought it to him.

2 Kings 2:21 He went out to the source of the water, threw salt into it and said, "This is what ADONAI says: 'I have healed this water; it will no longer cause death or miscarrying.'"

2 Kings 2:22 The water was healed and has remained healed to this day, in keeping with Elisha's spoken word.

2 Kings 2:23 Elisha left to go up to Beit-El. As he was on his way up the road, some boys came out of the town and began making fun of him. "Go on up, baldy! Go on up, baldy!"

2 Kings 2:24 He looked behind him, saw them and put a curse on them in the name of ADONAI; whereupon two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys.

2 Kings 2:25 He went on from there to Mount Karmel and then returned to Shomron.

2 Kings 3:1 Y'horam the son of Ach'av began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron during the eighteenth year of Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah, and he ruled for twelve years.

2 Kings 3:2 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; but he was not as bad as his father and mother, because he got rid of Ba'al's standing-stone which his father had made.

2 Kings 3:3 Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, with which he had led Isra'el into sin; he never turned away from them.

2 Kings 3:4 Mesha king of Mo'av was a sheep-breeder, and he used to send the king of Isra'el the wool of 100,000 lambs and of 100,000 rams as tribute.

2 Kings 3:5 But after Ach'av died, the king of Mo'av rebelled against the king of Isra'el.

2 Kings 3:6 Y'horam left Shomron and mustered all Isra'el.

2 Kings 3:7 He also went and sent this word to Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah: "The king of Mo'av has rebelled against me. Will you join me in attacking Mo'av?" He answered, "I will join in the attack- I'm with you all the way; think of my people and horses as yours.

2 Kings 3:8 Which route should we take?" he added. "The road through the desert of Edom," answered Y'horam.

2 Kings 3:9 So the king of Isra'el set out, along with the king of Y'hudah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout journey of seven days, there was no water for either the army or the animals following them.

2 Kings 3:10 "This is terrible!" exclaimed the king of Isra'el. "Has ADONAI called these three kings together only to hand them over to Mo'av?"

2 Kings 3:11 But Y'hoshafat said, "Isn't there a prophet of ADONAI here through whom we can consult ADONAI?" One of the servants of the king of Isra'el answered, "Elisha the son of Shafat is here, the one who used to pour water on Eliyahu's hands."

2 Kings 3:12 Y'hoshafat said, "The word of ADONAI is with him." So the king of Isra'el, Y'hoshafat and the king of Edom went down to consult him.

2 Kings 3:13 Elisha said to the king of Isra'el, "What do you and I have in common? Go, consult your father's prophets and your mother's prophets!" But the king of Isra'el answered him, "No, because ADONAI has called these three kings together to hand them over to Mo'av."

2 Kings 3:14 Elisha said, "As [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] lives, before whom I stand, if I didn't respect the fact that Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah is here, I wouldn't even look in your direction or take notice of you.

2 Kings 3:15 But now, bring me a musician." As the musician played, the hand of ADONAI fell on Elisha;

2 Kings 3:16 and he said, "ADONAI says to dig until this valley is full of trenches.

2 Kings 3:17 For here is what ADONAI says: 'You won't see wind, and you won't see rain. Nevertheless the valley will be filled with water; and you will drink- you, your cattle and your other animals.

2 Kings 3:18 That's an easy thing to do, from ADONAI's perspective. He will also hand Mo'av over to you.

2 Kings 3:19 You will conquer every fortified city and every choice town, you will chop down every good tree, stop up every well and ruin every good field with stones."

2 Kings 3:20 The next morning, around the time for making the offering, water came from the direction of Edom, and the countryside was filled with water.

2 Kings 3:21 When all Mo'av heard that the kings had come up to attack them, every man was summoned, from the youngest capable of bearing arms to older ones, and stationed on the border.

2 Kings 3:22 They rose early in the morning, when the sun was shining on the water. Mo'av, when they saw the water in the distance looking as red as blood,

2 Kings 3:23 said, "That's blood! The kings must have quarreled, and their soldiers killed each other. Mo'av! To the plunder!"

2 Kings 3:24 When they arrived at the camp of Isra'el, Isra'el launched an attack, so that Mo'av fled before them. But they advanced on Mo'av and struck it.

2 Kings 3:25 They made ruins of the cities. Each man threw his stone on every good field, covering it. They stopped up all the wells. They chopped down all the good trees. Finally, all that remained was Kir-Hareset behind its stone wall, with the slingers surrounding and attacking it.

2 Kings 3:26 When the king of Mo'av saw that the fighting was too much for him, he took with him 700 men armed with swords and tried to break through to the king of Edom; but they couldn't do it.

2 Kings 3:27 Then he took his firstborn son, who was to have succeeded him as king, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. Following this, such great anger came upon Isra'el that they left him and went back to their own land.

2 Kings 4:1 The wife of one of the guild prophets complained to Elisha. "Your servant my husband died," she said, "and you know that he feared ADONAI. Now a creditor has come to take my two children as his slaves."

2 Kings 4:2 Elisha asked her, "What should I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She answered, "Your servant has nothing in the house but a flask of oil."

2 Kings 4:3 Then he said, "Go, and borrow containers from all your neighbors, empty containers; and don't borrow just a few!

2 Kings 4:4 Then go in; shut the door, with you and your sons inside; and pour oil into all those containers; and as they are filled, put them aside."

2 Kings 4:5 So she left him and shut the door on herself and her sons. They brought her the containers while she poured.

2 Kings 4:6 When the containers were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another container”; but he answered, “There isn’t another container.” Then the oil stopped flowing.

2 Kings 4:7 She came and told the man of God; and he said, “Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; then you and your sons can live on what’s left.”

2 Kings 4:8 One day Elisha visited Shunem, and a well-to-do woman living there pressed him to stay and eat a meal. After this, whenever he came through, he stopped there for a meal.

2 Kings 4:9 She said to her husband, “I can see that this is a holy man of God who keeps stopping at our place.

2 Kings 4:10 Please, let’s build him a little room on the roof. We’ll put a bed and a table in it for him, and a stool and a candlestick. Then, whenever he comes to visit us, he can stay there.”

2 Kings 4:11 One day Elisha came to visit there, and he went into the upper room to lie down.

2 Kings 4:12 He said to Geichazi his servant, “Call this Shunamit.” He called her; and when she arrived,

2 Kings 4:13 he said to him, “Tell her this: ‘You have shown us so much hospitality! What can I do to show my appreciation? Do you want me to say anything to the king for you? or to the commander of the army?” She answered, “I’m happy living as I do, among my own people.”

2 Kings 4:14 He said, “What, then, is to be done for her?” Geichazi answered, “There’s one thing- she doesn’t have a son; and her husband is old.

2 Kings 4:15 Elisha said, “Call her.” After he called her, she stood in the doorway.

2 Kings 4:16 He said, “Next year, when the season comes around, you will be holding a son.” “No, my lord,” she answered. “Man of God, don’t lie to your servant!”

2 Kings 4:17 But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son the following year when the season came around, just as Elisha had said to her.

2 Kings 4:18 When the child was old enough, he went out one day to be with his father, who was with the reapers.

2 Kings 4:19 Suddenly he cried out to his father, “My head! My head hurts!” He said to his servant, “Carry him back to his mother.”

2 Kings 4:20 When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he lay on her lap until noon; and then he died.

2 Kings 4:21 She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door on him and went out.

2 Kings 4:22 She called to her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants with a donkey. I must get to the man of God as fast as I can; I’ll come straight back.”

2 Kings 4:23 He asked, “Why are you going to him today? It isn’t [Rosh-Hodesh] and it isn’t [Shabbat].” She said, “It’s all right.”

2 Kings 4:24 Then she saddled the donkey and ordered her servant, “Drive as fast as you can; don’t slow down for me unless I say so.”

2 Kings 4:25 She set out and came to the man of God on Mount Karmel. When the man of God saw her in the distance, he said to Geichazi his servant, “Look, here comes that Shunamit.

2 Kings 4:26 Run now to meet her, and ask her, “Is everything all right with you? with your husband? with the child?” She answered, “Everything is all right.”

2 Kings 4:27 But when she reached the man of God on the hill, she grabbed his feet. Geichazi came up to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone. She is in great distress, but ADONAI has hidden from me what it is, he hasn’t told me.”

2 Kings 4:28 Then she said, “Did I ask my lord for a son? Didn’t I say not to deceive me?”

2 Kings 4:29 Then Elisha said to Geichazi, “Get dressed for action, take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, don’t greet him; if anyone greets you, don’t answer; and lay my staff on the child’s face.”

2 Kings 4:30 The mother of the child said, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you. He got up and followed her.

2 Kings 4:31 Geichazi went on ahead of them and laid the staff on the child’s face, but there was no sound or sign of life. So he went back to Elisha and told him, “The child didn’t wake up.”

2 Kings 4:32 When Elisha reached the house, there the child was, dead and laid on the bed.

2 Kings 4:33 He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to ADONAI.

2 Kings 4:34 Then he got up on the bed and lay on top of the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands. As he stretched himself out on the child, its flesh began to grow warm.

2 Kings 4:35 Then he went down, walked around in the house awhile, went back up and stretched himself out on the child again. The child sneezed seven times, then opened his eyes.

2 Kings 4:36 Elisha called Geichazi and said, “Call this Shunamit.” So he called her; and when she came in to him, he said, “Pick up your son.”

2 Kings 4:37 She entered, fell at his feet and prostrated herself on the floor. Then she picked up her son and went out.

2 Kings 4:38 Elisha went back to Gilgal. At the time, there was a famine in the land. The guild prophets were sitting before him, and he said to his servant, “Put the big pot on the fire, and boil some soup for the prophets.”

2 Kings 4:39 One of them went out to the field to gather vegetables and came upon a wild vine, from which he filled the front of his cloak with wild squash. On returning he cut them up and put them into the stew; they didn’t know what they were.

2 Kings 4:40 Then they poured it out for the men to eat; but on tasting it, they cried, “Man of God! There’s death in that pot!” And they couldn’t eat it.

2 Kings 4:41 But he said, “Bring some flour.” He threw it in the pot, then said, “Pour it out for the people to eat.” This time there was nothing harmful in the pot.

2 Kings 4:42 A man came from Ba’al-Shalishah bringing the man of God twenty loaves of bread made from the barley firstfruits and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, “Give this to the people to eat.”

2 Kings 4:43 His servant said, “How am I to serve this to a hundred men?” But he said, “Give it to the people to eat; for ADONAI says that they will eat and have some left over.”

2 Kings 4:44 So he served them, and they ate and had some left over, as ADONAI had said.

2 Kings 5:1 Na’aman, commander of the king of Aram’s army, was highly respected and esteemed by his master; because through him ADONAI had brought victory to Aram. But although he was a brave warrior, he also suffered from [tzara’at].

2 Kings 5:2 Now on one of their raids into Isra’el’s territory, Aram carried away captive a little girl, who became a servant for Na’aman’s wife.

2 Kings 5:3 She said to her mistress, “I wish my lord could go to the prophet in Shomron! He could heal his [tzara’at].”

2 Kings 5:4 Na’aman went in and told his lord, “The girl from the land of Isra’el said such-and-such.”

2 Kings 5:5 The king of Aram said, “Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Isra’el.” He set out, taking with him 660 pounds of silver, 6,000 pieces of gold and ten changes of clothes.

2 Kings 5:6 He brought the king of Isra’el the letter, which said, “When this letter reaches you, you will see that I have sent my servant Na’aman to you, so that you can heal his [tzara’at].”

2 Kings 5:7 When the king of Isra’el finished reading the letter, he tore his clothes. “Am I God, able to kill and make alive,” he asked, “so that he sends me a man to heal of [tzara’at]? You can see that he is only seeking an excuse to quarrel with me.”

2 Kings 5:8 But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Isra’el had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king: “Why did you tear your clothes? Just have him come to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Isra’el.”

2 Kings 5:9 So Na’aman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha’s house.

2 Kings 5:10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, who said, “Go, and bathe in the Yarden seven times. Your skin will become as it was, and you will be clean.”

2 Kings 5:11 But Na’aman became angry and left, saying, “Here now! I thought for certain that he would come out personally, that he would stand, call on the name of ADONAI his God and wave his hand over the diseased place and thus heal the person with [tzara’at].

2 Kings 5:12 Aren’t Amanah and Parpar, the rivers of Dammesek, better than all the water in Isra’el? Why can’t I bathe in them and be clean?” So he turned and went off in a rage.

2 Kings 5:13 But his servants approached him and said, “My father! If the prophet had asked you to do something really difficult, wouldn’t you have done it? So, doesn’t it make even more sense to do what he says, when it’s only, ‘Bathe, and be clean’?”

2 Kings 5:14 So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Yarden, as the man of God had said to do; and his skin was restored and became like the skin of a child; and he became clean.

2 Kings 5:15 Then, with his whole retinue, he returned to the man of God, went and stood before him, and said, “Well, I’ve learned that there is no God in all the earth except in Isra’el; therefore, please accept a present from your servant.”

2 Kings 5:16 But Elisha answered, “As ADONAI lives, before whom I stand, I will not accept it.” And despite his urging him to take it, he refused.

2 Kings 5:17 So Na’aman said, “If you won’t take it, then please let your servant be given as much earth as two mules can carry; because from now on, your servant will offer neither burnt offerings nor sacrifices to other gods, but only to ADONAI.

2 Kings 5:18 Except this, and may ADONAI forgive your servant for it: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon- when I bow down, may ADONAI forgive your servant for this."

2 Kings 5:19 Elisha said to him, "Go in peace." Na'aman had gone only a short distance from him,

2 Kings 5:20 when Geichazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, "Here, my master has made it easy on this Arami Na'aman by not accepting from him what he brought. As ADONAI lives, I'll run after him and get at least something from him."

2 Kings 5:21 So Geichazi hurried off after Na'aman. When Na'aman saw someone running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him and asked, "Is everything all right?"

2 Kings 5:22 "Yes," he replied. "My master sent me with this message: 'Two young men have just now come to me, guild prophets from the hills of Efrayim. Would you be kind enough to give them a talent of silver [[sixty-six pounds]] and two changes of clothes?"

2 Kings 5:23 "By all means, take two talents!" said Na'aman, pressing him. He tied up the two talents of silver in two bags and gave them, with the two changes of clothes, to two of his servants, who carried them ahead of Geichazi.

2 Kings 5:24 On reaching the hill, he took the bags from them and put them away in the house. Then he let the men go, and they left.

2 Kings 5:25 He went in and stood before his master. Elisha asked, "Where have you been, Geichazi?" "Your servant hasn't gone anywhere," he said.

2 Kings 5:26 Elisha said to him, "Wasn't my heart there with you when the man left his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to receive silver and clothing- and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and oxen and male and female slaves?

2 Kings 5:27 Therefore Na'aman's [tzara'at] will cling to you and your descendants forever." He left Elisha's presence with [tzara'at] as white as snow.

2 Kings 6:1 The guild prophets said to Elisha, "As you can see, the place where we are living in order to be with you is too small for us.

2 Kings 6:2 Please allow us to go to the Yarden; each of us will collect a log there, and we'll build a place there for us to live." He answered, "Go ahead."

2 Kings 6:3 But one of them said, "Please, won't you come with your servants?" He answered, "All right, I will";

2 Kings 6:4 so he went with them. When they arrived at the Yarden, they cut down trees;

2 Kings 6:5 but as one was felling a tree trunk, the head of his axe fell in the water. "Oh, no!" he cried. "My master, it was a borrowed one!"

2 Kings 6:6 The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” He showed him the place. Then Elisha cut a stick, threw it in there, and the iron axe-head floated to the surface.

2 Kings 6:7 “Lift it out,” he said. So he put out his hand and took it.

2 Kings 6:8 Now the king of Aram went to war against Isra’el; and in consulting his servants he said, “I’ll set up my ambush camp in such-and-such a place.”

2 Kings 6:9 The man of God sent this message to the king of Isra’el: “Be careful not to go past such-and-such a place, because Aram will attack there.”

2 Kings 6:10 So the king of Isra’el sent men to the place the man of God had told him and warned him about, and he took special precautions there. This happened more than once or twice,

2 Kings 6:11 and it greatly upset the king of Aram. He called his servants and said to them, “Tell me which of you is betraying us to the king of Isra’el?”

2 Kings 6:12 One of his servants replied, “It’s not that, my lord, king. Rather, Elisha, the prophet who is in Isra’el, tells the king of Isra’el the words you speak privately in your own bedroom!”

2 Kings 6:13 He said, “Go and see where he is, so that I can send and bring him here.” They told him, “He’s in Dotan.”

2 Kings 6:14 So he sent horses, chariots and a large army there; they came by night and surrounded the city.

2 Kings 6:15 The servant of the man of God got up early in the morning; on going outside, he saw an army with horses and chariots surrounding the city. His servant said to him, “Oh, my master, this is terrible! What are we going to do?”

2 Kings 6:16 He answered, “Don’t be afraid- those who are with us outnumber those who are with them!”

2 Kings 6:17 Elisha prayed, “ADONAI, I ask you to open his eyes, so that he can see.” Then ADONAI opened the young man’s eyes, and he saw: there before him, all around Elisha, the mountain was covered with horses and fiery chariots.

2 Kings 6:18 When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to ADONAI, “Please strike these people blind”; and he struck them blind, as Elisha had asked.

2 Kings 6:19 Next, Elisha told them, “You’ve lost your way, and this isn’t even the right city. Follow me, and I’ll take you to the man you’re looking for.” Then he led them to Shomron.

2 Kings 6:20 On their arrival in Shomron, Elisha said, “ADONAI, open the eyes of these men, so that they can see.” ADONAI opened their eyes, and they saw: there they were, in the middle of Shomron.

2 Kings 6:21 When the king of Isra'el saw them, he asked Elisha, “My father, should I attack them? Should I attack them?”

2 Kings 6:22 He answered, “Don't attack them! You wouldn't even attack prisoners you had captured with your own sword and bow, would you? So give them food to eat and water to drink, and let them return to their master.”

2 Kings 6:23 So he provided well for them; and after they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away; and they returned to their master. After that, no more raiding parties entered the land of Isra'el from Aram.

2 Kings 6:24 But some time afterwards, Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army, went up and laid siege to Shomron.

2 Kings 6:25 At the time, there was a severe famine in Shomron; and they maintained their siege until a donkey's head sold for eighty pieces of silver and half a pint of doves' dung for five pieces of silver.

2 Kings 6:26 As the king of Isra'el was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, “Help, my lord, king!”

2 Kings 6:27 He said, “If ADONAI isn't helping you, how do you expect me to help you? There isn't any grain, and there isn't any wine.”

2 Kings 6:28 Then the king asked her, “What's troubling you?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give me your son, so that we can eat him today; and we'll eat my son tomorrow.’

2 Kings 6:29 So we boiled my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, ‘Give your son, so that we can eat him,’ but she has hidden her son.”

2 Kings 6:30 When the king heard what the woman said, he tore his clothes. At the time, he was passing by on the wall; and when the people looked, they saw him there with sackcloth against his skin.

2 Kings 6:31 Then he said, “May God do terrible things to me, and worse ones too, if the head of Elisha the son of Shafat remains on his body by day's end.”

2 Kings 6:32 Elisha was sitting in his house, and the leaders were sitting there with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the leaders, “Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to remove my head? Look, when the messenger comes, close the door and keep it shut against him. You can hear his master's footsteps following right behind him!”

2 Kings 6:33 While he was still speaking, the messenger arrived with this message from the king: “Here, this evil is from ADONAI. Why should I wait for ADONAI any longer?”

2 Kings 7:1 Elisha answered, “Listen to the word of ADONAI. Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Tomorrow, by this time, six quarts of fine flour will sell for only a [shekel], and half a bushel of barley for a [shekel] [[in the market]] at the gate to Shomron.”

2 Kings 7:2 The servant on whose arm the king was leaning answered the man of God: “Why, this couldn’t happen even if ADONAI made windows in heaven!” Elisha answered, “All right, you yourself will see it with your own eyes; but you won’t eat any of it!”

2 Kings 7:3 Now there were four men with [tzara’at] at the entrance to the city gate, and they said to each other, “Why should we sit here till we die?

2 Kings 7:4 If we say, ‘We’ll enter the city, then the city has been struck by the famine, so we’ll die there. And if we sit still here, we’ll also die. So let’s go and surrender to the army of Aram; if they spare our lives, we will live; and if they kill us, we’ll only die.”

2 Kings 7:5 They got up during the twilight to go to the camp of Aram. But when they reached the outskirts of the camp of Aram, they saw no one!

2 Kings 7:6 For ADONAI had caused the army of Aram to hear the sound of chariots and horses; it sounded like a huge army; and they said to each other, “The king of Isra’el must have hired the kings of the Hitti and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us.”

2 Kings 7:7 So they jumped up and fled in the twilight, leaving their tents, horses, donkeys and the whole camp just as it was, and ran for their lives.

2 Kings 7:8 When these men with [tzara’at] reached the outskirts of the camp, they entered one of the tents, ate and drank; then took some silver, gold and clothing; and went and hid it. Next they returned and entered another tent, took stuff from there, and went and hid it.

2 Kings 7:9 But finally they said to each other, “What we are doing is wrong. At a time of good news like this, we shouldn’t keep it to ourselves. If we wait even till morning, we will earn only punishment; so come on, let’s go and tell the king’s household.”

2 Kings 7:10 So they came and shouted to the gatekeepers of the city and told them the news: “We went to the camp of Aram, and no one was there, no human voice- just the horses and donkeys tied up, and the tents left in place.”

2 Kings 7:11 The gatekeepers called and told it to the king’s household inside.

2 Kings 7:12 Then the king got up in the night; he said to his servants, “I’ll tell you what Aram has done to us. They know that we’re hungry, so they’ve gone outside the camp and hidden in the countryside, saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we’ll take them alive and then get inside the city.’“

2 Kings 7:13 One of his servants answered, “I suggest letting some men take five of the remaining horses that are left in the city- they’re like everything else in Isra'el that remains, like everything else in Isra'el, practically finished- and we'll send and see."

2 Kings 7:14 So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the army of Aram, saying, "Go, and see."

2 Kings 7:15 They went after them all the way to the Yarden, and found the entire distance strewn with clothing and other articles Aram had thrown away in their haste. The messengers returned and told the king.

2 Kings 7:16 Then the people went out and ransacked the camp of Aram- with the result that six quarts of fine flour was sold for only a [shekel] and half a bushel of barley for a [shekel], in keeping with what ADONAI had said.

2 Kings 7:17 The king put the servant on whose arm he had leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him down in the gateway, so that he died, as the man of God had said he would, who spoke when the king came to him.

2 Kings 7:18 For the man of God had said to the king, "Tomorrow by this time six quarts of barley will sell for only a [shekel] and half a bushel of fine flour for a [shekel] [[in the market]] at the gate of Shomron";

2 Kings 7:19 the servant had answered the man of God, "Why, this couldn't happen even if ADONAI made windows in heaven!" and Elisha had said, "All right, you yourself will see it with your own eyes; but you won't eat any of it!"

2 Kings 7:20 That is exactly what happened to him, because the people trampled him down in the gateway, so that he died.

2 Kings 8:1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Move away, you and your household, and stay wherever you can; because ADONAI has called for a famine; and it will be on the land for seven years."

2 Kings 8:2 The woman acted at once and did as the man of God had said- she went with her household and stayed in the land of the P'lishtim for seven years.

2 Kings 8:3 At the end of seven years the woman returned from the land of the P'lishtim and sought an audience with the king to claim her house and land.

2 Kings 8:4 The king was talking with Geichazi the servant of the man of God. "Tell me," he said, "all the great things Elisha has done."

2 Kings 8:5 Just as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead person to life, at that very moment the woman whose son he had restored to life came to the king with her claim for her house and land. Geichazi said, "My lord, king, this is the woman; and this is her son, the one Elisha restored to life."

2 Kings 8:6 On being asked by the king, the woman verified it. At this, the king appointed a special officer and charged him, “Restore everything that belongs to her, including the income her fields have produced from the day she left them until now.”

2 Kings 8:7 Elisha went to Dammesek. Ben-Hadad the king of Aram was ill; and he was told, “The man of God has come here.”

2 Kings 8:8 The king said to Haza’el, “Take with you a gift, go meet the man of God and consult ADONAI through him; ask if I will recover from this illness.”

2 Kings 8:9 Haza’el went to meet him, taking with him a gift that included everything good Dammesek had, forty camel-loads. He came, stood before him and said, “Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you; he asks, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’“

2 Kings 8:10 Elisha answered, “Go and say to him, ‘You will surely recover’- even though ADONAI has shown me that he will surely die.”

2 Kings 8:11 Then the man of God fixed his gaze on him for so long that Haza’el became embarrassed; finally Elisha began to cry.

2 Kings 8:12 Haza’el asked, “Why is my lord crying?” He answered, “Because I know the disasters you will bring on the people of Isra’el- you will set their fortresses on fire, you will kill their young men with the sword, you will dash their little ones to pieces and rip their pregnant women apart.”

2 Kings 8:13 Haza’el said, “But what is your servant? Nothing but a dog! How could he do anything of such magnitude?” Elisha answered, “ADONAI has shown me that you will be king over Aram.”

2 Kings 8:14 Then he left Elisha and returned to his master, who asked him, “What did Elisha say to you?” “He told me you would surely recover.”

2 Kings 8:15 The next day he took a blanket, dipped it in water and spread it on his face, so that he died; and Haza’el took his place as king.

2 Kings 8:16 It was when Yoram the son of Ach’av king of Isra’el was in the fifth year of his reign that Y’horam the son of Y’hoshafat began his rule over Y’hudah.

2 Kings 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he began to rule, and he ruled eight years in Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 8:18 He lived after the example of the kings of Isra’el, as did the house of Ach’av; because he had married Ach’av’s daughter; he did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective.

2 Kings 8:19 However, ADONAI was unwilling to destroy Y’hudah, because of his servant David; inasmuch as he had promised to give him and his children a lamp that would burn forever.

2 Kings 8:20 During his time Edom revolted against Y’hudah and set up its own king.

2 Kings 8:21 In response, Yoram crossed to Tza’ir with all his chariots. At night he and his chariot commanders set out and attacked Edom who had surrounded him; then the people fled to their tents.

2 Kings 8:22 Nevertheless, since that day Edom has remained free of Y’hudah’s domination. Livnah revolted at the same time.

2 Kings 8:23 Other activities of Yoram and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 8:24 Yoram slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David, and Achazyah his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 8:25 It was in the twelfth year of Yoram the son of Ach’av king of Isra’el that Achazyah the son of Y’horam king of Y’hudah began his reign.

2 Kings 8:26 Achazyah was twenty-two years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for one year in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was ‘Atalyahu the daughter of ‘Omri king of Isra’el.

2 Kings 8:27 He lived after the example of the house of Ach’av; he did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, as had the house of Ach’av; for he was a son-in-law in the house of Ach’av.

2 Kings 8:28 With Yoram the son of Ach’av he went to war against Haza’el king of Aram at Ramot-Gil’ad, and the Aramim wounded Yoram.

2 Kings 8:29 King Yoram returned to Yizre’el to be healed of the wounds which the Aramim had inflicted on him at Ramah while fighting Haza’el king of Aram. Achazyah the son of Y’horam, king of Y’hudah, went down to visit Yoram the son of Ach’av in Yizre’el, because he was not feeling well.

2 Kings 9:1 Elisha the prophet summoned one of the guild prophets and said to him, “Prepare for traveling, take this flask of oil in your hand and go to Ramot-Gil’ad.

2 Kings 9:2 When you get there, look for Yehu the son of Y’hoshafat, the son of Nimshi. Enter, have him step away from his companions, and take him to an inside room.

2 Kings 9:3 Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, ‘This is what ADONAI says: “I have anointed you king over Isra’el.”‘ After that, open the door; and get away from there as fast as you can.”

2 Kings 9:4 So the young prophet left for Ramot-Gil’ad.

2 Kings 9:5 When he arrived, he found the senior army officers sitting there. He said, “I have a message for you, commander.” Yehu asked, “For which one of us?” “For you, commander,” he said.

2 Kings 9:6 Yehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on his head and said to him, “This is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘I have anointed you king over the people of ADONAI, over Isra’el.

2 Kings 9:7 You will attack the house of Ach’av your master, so that I can avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and of all the servants of ADONAI, blood shed by Izevel.

2 Kings 9:8 The entire house of Ach’av will perish; I will cut off from Ach’av every male, whether a slave or free in Isra’el.

2 Kings 9:9 I will make the house of Ach’av like the house of Yarov’am the son of N’vat and like the house of Ba’sha the son of Achiyah.

2 Kings 9:10 Moreover, the dogs will eat Izevel in the dumping-ground of Yizre’el, and there will be no one to bury her.’“ Then he opened the door and fled.

2 Kings 9:11 Yehu returned to the servants of his lord, and one of them said to him, “Is everything all right? Why did this [meshugga] come to you?” He answered them, “You know the kind and how they babble.”

2 Kings 9:12 They said, “You’re being evasive. Come on, tell us the truth.” Then he said, “This is exactly what he said to me and how he said it: ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “I have anointed you king over Isra’el.”’“

2 Kings 9:13 At this, they hurried each one to take his cloak and put it under Yehu at the top of the stairs. Then they blew the [shofar] and proclaimed, “Yehu is king!”

2 Kings 9:14 Yehu the son of Y’hoshafat, the son of Nimshi, formed a conspiracy against Yoram. (At the time, Yoram was guarding Ramot-Gil’ad, he and all Isra’el, because of Haza’el king of Aram;

2 Kings 9:15 but Yoram himself had returned to Yizre’el to recover from the wounds Aram had inflicted on him when fighting Haza’el king of Aram.) “If you agree,” said Yehu, “then don’t allow anyone to leave town and take the news to Yizre’el.”

2 Kings 9:16 So Yehu, riding in a chariot, went to Yizre’el, for Yoram was laid up there. Achazyah king of Y’hudah had come down to visit Yoram.

2 Kings 9:17 The lookout standing on the watchtower in Yizre’el saw Yehu’s troops approaching and said, “I see some troops coming.” Yoram said, “Have a horseman go to meet him and ask, “Are you coming in peace?”

2 Kings 9:18 So a man on horseback went to meet him and said, “The king asks if you are coming in peace.” Yehu answered, “Peace? What business is that of yours? Turn around, and get behind me!” The watchman reported, “The messenger reached them, but he isn’t coming back.”

2 Kings 9:19 So he sent out a second man on horseback, who, on coming to him, said, “The king asks if you are coming in peace.” Yehu answered, “Peace? What business is that of yours? Turn around, and get behind me!”

2 Kings 9:20 The watchman reported, “He reached them, but he isn’t coming back. Also, it looks like the driving of Yehu Nimshi’s [[grand]]son-he’s driving like a maniac!”

2 Kings 9:21 “Harness my chariot!” ordered Yoram. They got it ready. Then Yoram king of Isra’el and Achazyah king of Y’hudah, each in his chariot, went out to meet Yehu. They met him in the field of Navot the Yizre’eli.

2 Kings 9:22 When Yoram saw Yehu he said, “Are you coming in peace, Yehu?” He answered, “Peace? With your mother Izevel continuing all her cult prostitution and witchcraft? What a question!”

2 Kings 9:23 Yoram wheeled around and fled, shouting, “Treachery, Achazyah!”

2 Kings 9:24 Yehu drew his bow with all his strength and struck Yoram between the shoulder-blades; the arrow went through his heart, and he collapsed in his chariot.

2 Kings 9:25 “Pick him up,” said Yehu to Bidkar his servant, “and throw him into the field of Navot the Yizre’eli; for remember how, when you and I were riding together after Ach’av his father, ADONAI pronounced this sentence against him:

2 Kings 9:26 ‘ADONAI says: “Yesterday I saw the blood of Navot and the blood of his sons.” ADONAI also says: “I will pay you back in this field.”‘ Therefore, pick him up; and throw him into the field, in keeping with what ADONAI said.”

2 Kings 9:27 But when Achazyah the king of Y’hudah saw this, he fled on the road past Beit-HaGan. Yehu pursued him and ordered, “Strike him too in his chariot!” [[So they struck him]] at the Gur ascent, near Yivle’am. He fled to Megiddo, but there he died.

2 Kings 9:28 His servants carried him in a chariot to Yerushalayim and buried him in his tomb with his ancestors in the City of David.

2 Kings 9:29 It was in the eleventh year of Yoram the son of Ach’av that Achazyah had begun his rule over Y’hudah.

2 Kings 9:30 When Yehu reached Yizre’el, and Izevel heard of it, she put on eye make-up, fixed her hair and looked out the window.

2 Kings 9:31 As Yehu came through the city gate, she asked, “Are you here in peace, you Zimri, you murderer of your master?”

2 Kings 9:32 Looking up at the window he said, “Who is on my side? Who?” Two or three officers looked out toward him.

2 Kings 9:33 He said, “Throw her down!” So they threw her down. Some of her blood splashed onto the wall and the horses, and she was trampled underfoot.

2 Kings 9:34 He went in, ate and drank, and then said, “Deal with this accursed woman- bury her, because she’s a king’s daughter.”

2 Kings 9:35 They went to bury her but found no more of her than her skull, feet and hands.

2 Kings 9:36 So they came back and told him. He said, “This is what ADONAI said through his servant Eliyahu from Tishbe: ‘In the field of Yizre’el the dogs will eat the flesh of Izevel;

2 Kings 9:37 Izevel’s corpse in the field of Yizre’el will be like dung on the ground, unrecognizable as Izevel.’“

2 Kings 10:1 There were seventy descendants of Ach’av in Shomron. Yehu wrote letters and sent them to Shomron to the rulers of Yizre’el, to the leaders, and to the guardians of Ach’av’s sons. The letters said,

2 Kings 10:2 “You have with you your master’s sons, also chariots and horses, as well as fortified cities and armor. So, as soon as this letter reaches you,

2 Kings 10:3 choose the best and most suitable of your master’s sons, set him on his father’s throne and fight for your master’s dynasty.”

2 Kings 10:4 They were panic-stricken and said, “If the other two kings couldn’t withstand him, how will we?”

2 Kings 10:5 So the administrator of the palace, the governor of the city, the leaders and the children’s guardians sent this message to Yehu: “We are your servants. We will do everything you ask us to; we won’t appoint anyone king. Do as you see fit.”

2 Kings 10:6 He wrote a second letter to them, which said, “If you are on my side, and if you are ready to obey my orders, then bring the heads of your master’s sons to me in Yizre’el by this time tomorrow.” Now the seventy sons of the king were with the prominent men who had raised them.

2 Kings 10:7 When the letter reached them, they seized the king’s sons and killed them, all seventy of them, put their heads in baskets and sent them to Yehu in Yizre’el.

2 Kings 10:8 A messenger came and told him, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons.” He said, “Leave them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning.”

2 Kings 10:9 When morning came, he went out, stood before the people and said, “You are not responsible [[for the deaths of these men]]. Yes, I conspired against my master and killed him. But who killed all these?

2 Kings 10:10 Understand, then, that no part of ADONAI’s word which ADONAI spoke concerning the dynasty of Ach’av falls to the ground; because ADONAI has done what he said through his servant Eliyahu.”

2 Kings 10:11 So Yehu killed everyone who remained from the house of Ach’av in Yizre’el, all his leading men, his close friends and his [cohanim], until not one of them was left alive.

2 Kings 10:12 Then he set out and went to Shomron. On the way he reached a shearing shed for shepherds,

2 Kings 10:13 where he encountered relatives of Achazyah king of Y'hudah. "Who are you?" he asked. "We're relatives of Achazyah," they answered, "and we're going down to pay our respects to the families of the king and of the queen mother."

2 Kings 10:14 "Take them alive," said Yehu. They took them alive, forty-two men, slaughtered them and threw them into the shearing shed's pit; he spared not one of them.

2 Kings 10:15 On leaving there, he happened upon Y'honadav the son of Rekhav coming toward him. He greeted him and said to him, "Are you wholeheartedly with me, as I am with you?" "Yes," answered Y'honadav. "If so, give me your hand." He gave him his hand, and Yehu took him up into the chariot.

2 Kings 10:16 He said, "Come with me, and see how zealous I am for ADONAI." So they had him ride in his chariot.

2 Kings 10:17 On arriving in Shomron he put to death everyone that Ach'av still had in Shomron, until he had destroyed him, in keeping with the word of ADONAI which he had spoken to Eliyahu.

2 Kings 10:18 Next, Yehu assembled all the people and said to them, "Ach'av served Ba'al in limited measure, but Yehu will serve him with full zeal.

2 Kings 10:19 Therefore summon all the prophets of Ba'al to me, all his worshippers and all his priests. None of them is to be missing, because I am going to offer a great sacrifice to Ba'al; whoever is missing will not remain alive." But Yehu was setting a trap, in order to destroy the worshippers of Ba'al.

2 Kings 10:20 Yehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Ba'al," and they did so.

2 Kings 10:21 Yehu sent throughout all Isra'el, and all the worshippers of Ba'al came, so that there was not one man left that didn't come. They entered the temple of Ba'al, and the temple of Ba'al was filled from one end to the other.

2 Kings 10:22 To the man in charge of the wardrobe he said, "Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Ba'al"; and he brought them clothes.

2 Kings 10:23 Yehu and Y'honadav the son of Rekhav entered the house of Ba'al and said to the worshippers of Ba'al, "Search to see that none of the servants of ADONAI is here with you, only worshippers of Ba'al."

2 Kings 10:24 Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. But Yehu had chosen eighty men to remain outside. He said, "If any of the men I am about to put in your hands escapes, it will be your life for his."

2 Kings 10:25 As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Yehu said to the guards and officers, “Go in, and kill them; don’t let one of them get out.” So they killed them with the sword; then, after the guards and officers had thrown their bodies outside, they went into the temple of Ba’al’s inner shrine,

2 Kings 10:26 brought out the pillars in the temple of Ba’al and burned them.

2 Kings 10:27 Finally, they broke down Ba’al’s standing-stone and demolished the temple of Ba’al, converting it into a latrine, which it still is today.

2 Kings 10:28 Thus Yehu rid Isra’el of Ba’al.

2 Kings 10:29 However, Yehu did not turn away from the sins of Yarov’am the son of N’vat, with which he had led Isra’el into sin, the gold calves that were in Beit-El and Dan.

2 Kings 10:30 ADONAI said to Yehu, “Because you did well in accomplishing what is right from my perspective, and have done to the house of Ach’av everything that was in my heart, your descendants down to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Isra’el.”

2 Kings 10:31 But Yehu made no effort to live wholeheartedly according to the [Torah] of ADONAI the God of Isra’el and did not turn away from the sins of Yarov’am, with which he had led Isra’el into sin.

2 Kings 10:32 It was during that period that ADONAI began to dismember Isra’el. Haza’el attacked them throughout the territory of Isra’el

2 Kings 10:33 east of the Yarden- all the land of Gil’ad, the Gadi, Re’uveni and M’nashi, from ‘Aro’er by the Arnon River, including Gil’ad and Bashan.

2 Kings 10:34 Other activities of Yehu, all his accomplishments and all his power are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Kings 10:35 Yehu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Shomron. Then Y’ho’achaz his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 10:36 Yehu ruled over Isra’el in Shomron for twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11:1 When ‘Atalyah the mother of Achazyah saw that her son was dead, she set about destroying the entire royal family.

2 Kings 11:2 But Y’hosheva the daughter of King Yoram, sister of Achazyah, took Yo’ash the son of Achazyah and stole him away from among the princes who were being slaughtered. She took him and his nurse, sequestered them in a bedroom, and hid them from ‘Atalyah, so that he was not killed.

2 Kings 11:3 He remained hidden with his nurse in the house of ADONAI for six years; during this time ‘Atalyah ruled the land.

2 Kings 11:4 In the seventh year Y'hoyada summoned the captains of hundred-man platoons, of both the Kari and the guard. He brought them into the house of ADONAI, made an agreement with them and had them swear to it in the house of ADONAI. Then he showed them the king's son

2 Kings 11:5 and gave them this instruction: "Here is what you are to do: of you who come on duty on [Shabbat], a third [[normally]] guards the royal palace,

2 Kings 11:6 a third is at the Sur Gate and a third is at the gate behind the guards. [[The first third]] is to continue guarding the palace and serve as a barrier,

2 Kings 11:7 while the other two groups of you who come on duty on [Shabbat] will guard the house of ADONAI, where the king is.

2 Kings 11:8 You are to surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who penetrates the ranks is to be killed. Stay with the king whenever he leaves or enters."

2 Kings 11:9 The captains over hundreds did exactly as Y'hoyada the [cohen] ordered. Each took his men, those coming on duty on [Shabbat] and those going off duty on [Shabbat], and came to Y'hoyada the [cohen].

2 Kings 11:10 The [cohen] issued to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David's and were kept in the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 11:11 The guards then took positions, each man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, alongside the altar, alongside [[the exterior of]] the house and around the king.

2 Kings 11:12 Then he brought out the king's son, crowned him, gave him [[a copy of]] the testimony and thus made him king; they anointed him, clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

2 Kings 11:13 When 'Atalyah heard the shouting of the guard and the people, she entered the house of ADONAI where the people were,

2 Kings 11:14 looked and saw the king standing there on the platform, in keeping with the rule, with the leaders and trumpeters next to the king. All the people of the land were celebrating and blowing the trumpets. At this 'Atalyah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

2 Kings 11:15 Y'hoyada the [cohen] ordered the captains of hundreds, the army officers, "Escort her out past the ranks [[of guards]]; but anyone who follows her, kill with the sword." For the [cohen] had said, "She must not be put to death in the house of ADONAI."

2 Kings 11:16 So they took her by force and led her through the horses' entry to the royal palace, and there she was put to death.

2 Kings 11:17 Y'hoyada made a covenant between ADONAI, the king and the people, that they would be ADONAI's people, and [[a covenant]] between the king and the people.

2 Kings 11:18 Then all the people of the land went to the house of Ba'al and broke it down; they completely smashed its altars and images and killed Mattan the priest of Ba'al in front of the altars. Next, the [cohen] appointed officers over the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 11:19 He took the captains of hundreds, the Kari, the guards and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of ADONAI, going by way of the gate of the guards to the royal palace. There he sat on the throne of the kings.

2 Kings 11:20 All the people of the land celebrated, and at last the city was quiet. That is how they killed 'Atalyah with the sword at the royal palace.

2 Kings 12:1 Y'ho'ash was seven years old when he began his reign.

2 Kings 12:2 It was in the seventh year of Yehu that Y'ho'ash began to rule, and he ruled forty years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Tzivyah, from Be'er-Sheva.

2 Kings 12:3 Y'ho'ash did what was right from ADONAI's perspective throughout the lifetime of Y'hoyada the [cohen], who instructed him.

2 Kings 12:4 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and presented offerings on the high places.

2 Kings 12:5 Y'ho'ash said to the [cohanim], "All the funds for sacred purposes which are brought to the house of ADONAI- the half-[shekel] tax, the taxes on persons in a man's household, and all the offerings anyone voluntarily brings to the house of ADONAI-

2 Kings 12:6 the [cohanim] are to receive from whoever personally makes contributions to them; and they are to use these funds to repair the damaged parts of the house, wherever damage is found.

2 Kings 12:7 But twenty-three years into the reign of King Y'ho'ash, the [cohanim] had still not repaired the damaged places in the house.

2 Kings 12:8 So King Y'ho'ash summoned Y'hoyada the [cohen] and the other [cohanim] and said to them, "Why aren't you repairing the damaged places in the house? Therefore, you are no longer to take money from those who contribute it personally to you; you must hand it over to be used for repairing the damage in the house."

2 Kings 12:9 The [cohanim] agreed not to receive money from the people, and they would no longer be responsible for repairing the damage to the house.

2 Kings 12:10 Then Y'hoyada the [cohen] took a chest, drilled a hole in its lid and set it by the altar, on the right, as one enters the house of ADONAI; and the [cohanim] in charge of the entry put in it all the money brought into the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 12:11 When they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king’s secretary and the [cohen hagadol] would come up, count the money found in the house of ADONAI and put it in bags.

2 Kings 12:12 Then they would give the weighed-out money to those supervising the work in the house of ADONAI, who would use it to pay the carpenters and construction-workers doing the work in the house of ADONAI,

2 Kings 12:13 on masons, stone-workers, timber, worked stone and everything else needed for repairing the damaged places in the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 12:14 But none of the money brought into the house of ADONAI was used to make silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets or other articles of gold or silver for the house of ADONAI;

2 Kings 12:15 because they gave the money to those doing the work, thus restricting its use to repairing the damage in the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 12:16 Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the supervisors given the money to pay the workers, because they dealt honestly.

2 Kings 12:17 Money from guilt offerings and sin offerings, however, was not brought into the house of ADONAI; it went to the [cohanim].

2 Kings 12:18 Haza’el king of Aram went up and fought against Gat; and after capturing it, Haza’el made his decision to attack Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 12:19 Y’ho’ash king of Y’hudah took all the consecrated articles that Y’hoshafat, Y’horam and Achazyah, his ancestors, kings of Y’hudah, had dedicated, as well as his own consecrated articles and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of ADONAI and of the royal palace, and sent them to Haza’el king of Aram, who then withdrew from Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 12:20 Other activities of Yo’ash and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 12:21 Then his servants got together, formed a conspiracy and murdered Yo’ash at Beit-Millo on the way down to Sila.

2 Kings 12:22 His servants Yozakhar the son of Shim’at and Y’hozavad the son of Shomer struck him, so that he died. They buried him with his ancestors in the City of David, and Amatzyah his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 13:1 It was in the twenty-third year of Yo’ash the son of Achazyah, king of Y’hudah, that Y’ho’achaz the son of Yehu began his reign over Isra’el in Shomron; he ruled for seventeen years.

2 Kings 13:2 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective; he followed the sins of Yarov’am the son of N’vat, who made Isra’el sin; and he never ceased committing those sins.

2 Kings 13:3 ADONAI's anger burned against Isra'el, and he kept handing them over to Haza'el king of Aram and Ben-Hadad the son of Haza'el.

2 Kings 13:4 But Y'ho'achaz pleaded to ADONAI, and ADONAI listened to him, because he saw the oppression the king of Aram was inflicting on Isra'el.

2 Kings 13:5 So ADONAI gave Isra'el a savior who freed them from the grip of Aram, so that the people of Isra'el could live in their tents, as they had before.

2 Kings 13:6 Despite that, instead of turning from the sins of the house of Yarov'am, who made Isra'el sin, they continued to live in this sinful way. Moreover, the [asherah] continued to stand in Shomron.

2 Kings 13:7 The king of Aram destroyed Y'ho'achaz's army, making them like chaff when grain is threshed, except for fifty horsemen, ten chariots and 10,000 foot soldiers.

2 Kings 13:8 Other activities of Y'ho'achaz, all his accomplishments and his power are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

2 Kings 13:9 Y'ho'achaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Shomron. Then Yo'ash his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 13:10 It was in the thirty-seventh year of Yo'ash king of Y'hudah that Yo'ash the son of Y'ho'achaz began his rule over Isra'el in Shomron; he ruled for sixteen years.

2 Kings 13:11 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective and did not turn from all the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin; on the contrary, he lived in this sinful way.

2 Kings 13:12 Other activities of Yo'ash, all his accomplishments and his power in fighting Amatzyah king of Y'hudah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

2 Kings 13:13 Yo'ash slept with his ancestors, and Yarov'am occupied his throne. Yo'ash was buried in Shomron with the kings of Isra'el.

2 Kings 13:14 Elisha was now ill with the disease from which he would eventually die. Yo'ash the king of Isra'el came down to visit him and wept over him; he said, "My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Isra'el!"

2 Kings 13:15 Elisha said to him, "Bring a bow and arrows"; and he brought him a bow and arrows.

2 Kings 13:16 He said to the king of Isra'el, "Put your hand on the bow"; and he put his hand on it. Then Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands

2 Kings 13:17 and said, "Open the east window." He opened it. Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. He said, "ADONAI's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory against Aram! You will defeat Aram completely at Afek!”

2 Kings 13:18 He said, “Take the arrows”; and he took them. He told the king of Isra’el, “Strike the ground.” He struck three times, then stopped.

2 Kings 13:19 The man of God became angry with him; he said, “You should have struck five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram completely. As it is, you will defeat Aram only three times.”

2 Kings 13:20 Elisha died, and they placed him in a burial cave. Now the raiding parties of Mo’av used to make yearly incursions into the land at the start of the year.

2 Kings 13:21 Once it happened that just as they were burying a man, they spotted a raiding party; so they threw the man’s body into Elisha’s burial cave; and the moment the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

2 Kings 13:22 Haza’el king of Aram oppressed Isra’el throughout the lifetime of Y’ho’achaz;

2 Kings 13:23 but ADONAI was gracious, took pity on them and looked on them with favor, because of his covenant with Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov. He was not willing to destroy them, and to this day he has not banished them from his presence.

2 Kings 13:24 Haza’el king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 13:25 Then Y’ho’ash the son of Y’ho’achaz captured from Ben-Hadad the son of Haza’el the cities which he had captured in war from Y’ho’achaz his father. Three times Yo’ash defeated him, thus recovering the cities of Isra’el.

2 Kings 14:1 It was in the second year of Yo’ash son of Y’ho’achaz king of Isra’el that Amatzyah the son of Yo’ash king of Y’hudah began his reign.

2 Kings 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Y’ho’adan, from Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 14:3 He did what was right from ADONAI’s perspective, although not like David his ancestor; he lived the same way as his father Yo’ash.

2 Kings 14:4 However, the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and offered on the high places.

2 Kings 14:5 As soon as he had the kingdom firmly under his control, he put to death the servants of his who had murdered the king his father.

2 Kings 14:6 But he did not put the children of the murderers to death, because of what is written in the scroll of the [Torah] of Moshe, as

ADONAI ordered when he said, “Fathers are not to be executed for the children, nor are children to be executed for the fathers; every person will be executed for his own sin.”

2 Kings 14:7 He slaughtered 10,000 men of Edom in the Salt Valley and captured Sela in the war, renaming it Yokte’el, as it is today.

2 Kings 14:8 Then Amatzyah sent messengers to Y’ho’ash the son of Y’ho’achaz, son of Yehu, king of Isra’el, with this challenge: “Come on, let’s have it out face-to-face.”

2 Kings 14:9 Y’ho’ash the king of Isra’el sent this reply to Amatzyah king of Y’hudah: “Once, in the L’vanon, the thistle sent a message to the cedar: ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ But a wild animal passed by the thistle and squashed it.

2 Kings 14:10 True, you have defeated Edom, and now you’re ambitious. So enjoy the glory, but stay home! Why provoke calamity, to your own ruin, yours and Y’hudah’s too?”

2 Kings 14:11 But Amatzyah wouldn’t listen. So Y’ho’ash king of Isra’el went up; and he and Amatzyah king of Y’hudah had it out face-to-face at Beit-Shemesh, which belongs to Y’hudah.

2 Kings 14:12 Y’hudah was defeated by Isra’el, and every man fled to his tent.

2 Kings 14:13 Y’ho’ash king of Isra’el took Amatzyah king of Y’hudah, the son of Y’ho’ash the son of Achazyah, prisoner at Beit-Shemesh. Then he went to Yerushalayim and demolished the wall of Yerushalayim between the Gate of Efrayim and the Corner Gate, a section 600 feet long.

2 Kings 14:14 He took all the gold and silver, all the articles he could find in the house of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace, and hostages; then he returned to Shomron.

2 Kings 14:15 Other activities of Y’ho’ash that he did, his power and how he fought Amatzyah king of Y’hudah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Kings 14:16 Y’ho’ash slept with his ancestors and was buried in Shomron with the kings of Isra’el. Then Yarov’am took his place as king.

2 Kings 14:17 Amatzyah the son of Yo’ash king of Y’hudah lived another fifteen years after the death of Y’ho’ash son of Y’ho’achaz, king of Isra’el.

2 Kings 14:18 Other activities of Amatzyah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 14:19 Because of a conspiracy formed against him in Yerushalayim, Amatzyah fled to Lakhish; but they followed him to Lakhish and killed him there.

2 Kings 14:20 They brought his body back on horses, and he was buried in Yerushalayim with his ancestors in the City of David.

2 Kings 14:21 Then all the people of Y’hudah took ‘Azaryah at the age of sixteen and made him king in place of his father Amatzyah.

2 Kings 14:22 ‘Azaryah recovered Eilat for Y’hudah and rebuilt it; after that the king [[Amatzyahu]] slept with his ancestors.

2 Kings 14:23 It was in the fifteenth year of Amatzyah the son of Yo’ash, king of Y’hudah, that Yarov’am the son of Yo’ash, king of Isra’el, began to reign in Shomron; and he ruled for forty-one years.

2 Kings 14:24 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective; he did not turn from all the sins of Yarov’am the son of N’vat, who made Isra’el sin.

2 Kings 14:25 He recovered the territory of Isra’el between the entrance of Hamat and the sea of the ‘Aravah, in keeping with the word of ADONAI the God of Isra’el, which he spoke through his servant Yonah the son of Amitai, the prophet from Gat-Hefer.

2 Kings 14:26 For ADONAI saw how bitterly Isra’el had suffered, with no one left, either slave or free, and no one coming to Isra’el’s aid.

2 Kings 14:27 ADONAI did not threaten to blot out the name of Isra’el from under heaven, but saved them through Yarov’am the son of Yo’ash.

2 Kings 14:28 Other activities of Yarov’am, all his accomplishments, all his power, how he conducted war and how he recovered Dammesek and Hamat for Y’hudah in Isra’el are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Kings 14:29 Yarov’am slept with his ancestors the kings of Isra’el, and Z’kharyah took his place as king.

2 Kings 15:1 It was in the twenty-seventh year of Yarov’am king of Isra’el that ‘Azaryah the son of Amatzyah, king of Y’hudah, began his reign.

2 Kings 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for fifty-two years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Y’kholyahu, from Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 15:3 He did what was right from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of everything his father Amatzyah had done.

2 Kings 15:4 However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and offered on the high places.

2 Kings 15:5 ADONAI struck the king, so that he had [tzara’at] until his dying day, so that he lived in a separate house, while Yotam the king’s son ran the king’s household and was regent over the people of the land.

2 Kings 15:6 Other activities of ‘Azaryah and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 15:7 So ‘Azaryah slept with his ancestors the kings of Isra’el, and they buried him with his ancestors in the City of David. Then Yotam his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 15:8 It was in the thirty-eighth year of ‘Azaryah king of Y’hudah that Z’kharyah the son of Yarov’am began his reign over Isra’el in Shomron; he ruled for six months.

2 Kings 15:9 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, just as his ancestors had done; he did not turn from all the sins of Yarov’am the son of N’vat, who made Isra’el sin.

2 Kings 15:10 Shalum the son of Yavesh formed a conspiracy against him. He struck him in the presence of the people and killed him; then he took his place as king.

2 Kings 15:11 Other activities of Z’kharyah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Kings 15:12 The word of ADONAI which he had spoken to Yehu was, “Your descendants down to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Isra’el”; and that is exactly what happened.

2 Kings 15:13 Shalum the son of Yavesh began his reign in the thirty-ninth year of ‘Uziyah king of Y’hudah; he ruled in Shomron for only a month.

2 Kings 15:14 Menachem the son of Gadi went up from Tirtzah, came to Shomron, struck Shalum the son of Yavesh in Shomron and killed him. Then he took his place as king.

2 Kings 15:15 Other activities of Shalum and the conspiracy he formed are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el

2 Kings 15:16 From Tirtzah Menachem attacked Tifsach, all the people in it and its territory, because they had not opened their gates to him. So he sacked the city and ripped apart all its pregnant women.

2 Kings 15:17 It was in the thirty-ninth year of ‘Azaryah king of Y’hudah that Menachem the son of Gadi began his reign over Isra’el; he ruled ten years in Shomron.

2 Kings 15:18 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective; throughout his life he did not turn from the sins of Yarov’am the son of N’vat, who made Isra’el sin.

2 Kings 15:19 Pul the king of Ashur invaded the land. Menachem gave Pul thirty-three tons of silver, so that he would confirm Menachem’s hold on the kingdom.

2 Kings 15:20 He did this by taxing the wealthy men in Isra’el; from each he required one-and-a-quarter pounds of silver to give to the king of Ashur. Then the king of Ashur turned around and left the land.

2 Kings 15:21 Other activities of Menachem and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Kings 15:22 Menachem slept with his ancestors, and P'kachyah his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 15:23 It was in the fiftieth year of 'Azaryah king of Y'hudah that P'kachyah the son of Menachem began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron; he ruled for two years.

2 Kings 15:24 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; he did not turn from the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

2 Kings 15:25 Pekach the son of Remalyahu, one of his commanders, conspired against him. With Argov, Aryeh and fifty men from Gil'ad, he assassinated him in the palace stronghold in Shomron. After killing him, he took his place as king.

2 Kings 15:26 Other activities of P'kachyah and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

2 Kings 15:27 It was in the fifty-second year of 'Azaryah king of Y'hudah that Pekach the son of Remalyah began to reign over Isra'el in Shomron; his reign lasted twenty years.

2 Kings 15:28 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; he did not turn from the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

2 Kings 15:29 During the time of Pekach king of Isra'el, Tiglat-Pil'eser king of Ashur came and conquered 'Iyon, Avel-Beit-Ma'akhah, Yanoach, Kedesh, Hatzor, Gil'ad, and the Galil- all the land of Naftali- and took them captive to Ashur.

2 Kings 15:30 Hoshea the son of Elah conspired against Pekach the son of Remalyah, struck him, killed him and took his place as king in the twentieth year of Yotam the son of 'Uziyah.

2 Kings 15:31 Other activities of Pekach and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

2 Kings 15:32 It was in the second year of Pekach the son of Remalyah, king of Isra'el, that Yotam the son of 'Uziyah king of Y'hudah began his reign.

2 Kings 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Yerusha the daughter of Tzadok.

2 Kings 15:34 He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything his father 'Uziyah had done.

2 Kings 15:35 However, the high places were not taken away; and the people still sacrificed and offered on the high places. He built the Upper Gate of the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 15:36 Other activities of Yotam and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

2 Kings 15:37 It was during this period that ADONAI began sending against Y'hudah Retzin the king of Aram and Pekach the son of Remalyah.

2 Kings 15:38 Yotam slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David his ancestor. Then Achaz his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 16:1 It was in the seventeenth year of Pekach the son of Remalyah that Achaz the son of Yotam king of Y'hudah began his reign.

2 Kings 16:2 Achaz was twenty years old when he began to rule, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. But he did not do what was right from the perspective of ADONAI his God, as David his ancestor had done.

2 Kings 16:3 Rather, he lived in the manner of the kings of Isra'el; he even made his son pass through fire [[as a sacrifice]], in keeping with the abominable practices of the pagans, whom ADONAI had thrown out ahead of the people of Isra'el.

2 Kings 16:4 He also sacrificed and offered on the high places, on the hills and under any green tree.

2 Kings 16:5 Then Retzin king of Aram and Pekach son of Remalyah, king of Isra'el, came up to fight against Yerushalayim. They put Achaz under siege, but they could not overcome him.

2 Kings 16:6 It was at that time that Retzin king of Aram recovered Eilat for Aram and drove the Judeans from Eilat; whereupon people from Edom came to Eilat to live, as they do to this day.

2 Kings 16:7 Then Achaz sent messengers to Tiglat-Pil'eser king of Ashur with this message: “I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me from the king of Aram and the king of Isra'el, who are attacking me.”

2 Kings 16:8 Achaz took the silver and gold that was in the house of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as a present to the king of Ashur.

2 Kings 16:9 The king of Ashur heeded him- the king of Ashur attacked Dammesek and captured it; then he carried its people captive to Kir and killed Retzin.

2 Kings 16:10 When King Achaz went to Dammesek to meet Tiglat-Pil'eser king of Ashur and saw the altar that was in Dammesek, he sent a drawing and model of the altar to Uriyah the [cohen], with details of its construction and decoration.

2 Kings 16:11 Then Uriyah the [cohen] built an altar exactly according to the design King Achaz had sent from Dammesek; Uriyah the [cohen] had it ready by the time King Achaz returned from Dammesek.

2 Kings 16:12 When the king arrived from Dammesek he saw the altar, and the king approached the altar and offered on it.

2 Kings 16:13 He offered his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured out his drink offering and splashed the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

2 Kings 16:14 The bronze altar, which was before ADONAI, he brought from in front of the house, from between his own altar and the house of ADONAI, and put it on the north side of his own altar.

2 Kings 16:15 Then King Achaz instructed Uriyah the [cohen] as follows: “Henceforth, it is on the large altar that you are to offer the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, together with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering and their drink offerings; and you are to splash all the blood of the burnt offering against it and all the blood of the sacrifice. As for the bronze altar, I will take care of that.”

2 Kings 16:16 Uriyah the [cohen] acted in accordance with everything King Achaz ordered.

2 Kings 16:17 King Achaz removed the panels of the trolleys and took the basins off them; he took the Sea off the bronze oxen supporting it and set it on the stone pavement;

2 Kings 16:18 and, because of the king of Ashur, he removed from the house of ADONAI the colonnade used on [Shabbat] that had been built for it and the king’s entranceway outside it.

2 Kings 16:19 Other activities of Achaz and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 16:20 Achaz slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then Hizkiyahu his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 17:1 It was in the twelfth year of Achaz king of Y’hudah that Hoshea the son of Elah began his reign over Isra’el in Shomron; he ruled for nine years.

2 Kings 17:2 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, although he wasn’t as bad as the kings of Isra’el who had preceded him.

2 Kings 17:3 Shalman’eser king of Ashur advanced against Hoshea, and Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute.

2 Kings 17:4 But the king of Ashur found that Hoshea was conspiring [[against him]]- he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt and not paid his tribute to the king of Ashur, as he had previously done every year. For this the king of Ashur imprisoned him, putting him in chains.

2 Kings 17:5 Then the king of Ashur invaded all the land, advanced on Shomron and put it under siege for three years.

2 Kings 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Ashur captured Shomron. He carried Isra’el away captive to Ashur, resettling them in Halach, in Havor on the Gozan River and in the cities of the Medes.

2 Kings 17:7 This came about because the people of Isra'el had sinned against ADONAI their God, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, out from under the domination of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They feared other gods

2 Kings 17:8 and lived by the customs of the nations that ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el and by those of the kings of Isra'el.

2 Kings 17:9 The people of Isra'el secretly did things that were not right, according to ADONAI their God. They built high places for themselves wherever they lived, from the watchtower to the fortified city.

2 Kings 17:10 They set up standing-stones and sacred poles for themselves on any high hill and under any green tree.

2 Kings 17:11 Then they would make offerings on all the high places, like the nations ADONAI had expelled ahead of them, and would do wicked things to provoke the anger of ADONAI;

2 Kings 17:12 moreover, they served idols, something ADONAI had expressly told them not to do.

2 Kings 17:13 ADONAI had warned Isra'el and Y'hudah in advance through every prophet and seer, "Turn from your evil ways; and obey my [mitzvot] and regulations, in accordance with the entire [Torah] which I ordered your ancestors to keep and which I sent to you through my servants the prophets."

2 Kings 17:14 Nevertheless, they refused to listen but made themselves as stubborn as their ancestors, who did not put their trust in ADONAI their God.

2 Kings 17:15 Thus they rejected his laws; his covenant, which he had made with their ancestors; and the solemn warnings he had given them. Instead they pursued worthless things and became worthless themselves, imitating the nations around them, whom ADONAI had ordered them not to emulate.

2 Kings 17:16 They abandoned all the [mitzvot] of ADONAI their God. They made cast metal images for themselves, two calves. They made an [asherah]. They worshipped the whole army of heaven. They served Ba'al.

2 Kings 17:17 They had their sons and daughters pass through fire [[as a sacrifice]]. They used divination and magic spells. And they gave themselves over to do what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, thereby provoking him;

2 Kings 17:18 so that ADONAI, by now very angry with Isra'el, removed them from his sight. None was left except the tribe of Y'hudah alone.

2 Kings 17:19 (However, neither did Y'hudah obey the [mitzvot] of ADONAI their God; rather they lived according to the customs of Isra'el.)

2 Kings 17:20 Yes, ADONAI came to despise all the descendants of Isra’el. He caused them trouble and handed them over to plunderers, until finally he threw them out of his sight.

2 Kings 17:21 He tore Isra’el away from the house of David. They made Yarov’am the son of N’vat king; and Yarov’am drew Isra’el away from following ADONAI and made them commit a great sin.

2 Kings 17:22 The people of Isra’el followed the example of all the sins that Yarov’am had committed and did not turn away from them,

2 Kings 17:23 until ADONAI removed Isra’el out of his sight, as he had said he would through all his servants the prophets. Thus Isra’el was carried away captive from their own land to Ashur, and it remains so to this day.

2 Kings 17:24 The king of Ashur brought people from Bavel, Kutah, ‘Ava, Hamat and S’farvayim and settled them in the cities of Shomron in place of the people of Isra’el; they took possession of Shomron and lived in its cities.

2 Kings 17:25 When they first came to live there, they did not fear ADONAI. Therefore ADONAI sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

2 Kings 17:26 So they said to the king of Ashur, “The nations you carried away and settled in the cities of Shomron are not familiar with the rules for worshipping the God of the land. Therefore he has sent lions among them; and they are there, killing them; because they’re not familiar with the rules for worshipping the God of the land.”

2 Kings 17:27 In response, the king of Ashur gave this order: “Take back one of the [cohanim] you brought from there. Have him go and live there, and have him teach them the rules for worshipping the God of the land.”

2 Kings 17:28 So one of the [cohanim] they had carried away captive from Shomron came and lived in Beit-El, and he taught them how they should fear ADONAI.

2 Kings 17:29 Nevertheless, every nation made gods of their own and put them in the temples on the high places which the Shomronim had made, every nation in the cities where they lived.

2 Kings 17:30 Thus the people from Bavel made Sukkot-B’not, those from Kutah made Nergal, those from Hamat made Ashima,

2 Kings 17:31 the ‘Avim made Nivchaz and Tartak, and the S’farvim burned up their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adramelekh and ‘Anamelekh the gods of S’farvayim.

2 Kings 17:32 So they feared ADONAI, while at the same time they appointed for themselves priests from among themselves to preside at the high places, and they would sacrifice for them in the temples on the high places.

2 Kings 17:33 They both feared ADONAI and served their own gods in the manner customary among the nations from which they had been taken away.

2 Kings 17:34 To this day they continue to follow their former [[pagan]] customs. They do not fear ADONAI. They do not follow the regulations, rulings, [Torah] or [mitzvah] which ADONAI ordered the descendants of Ya'akov, to whom he gave the name Isra'el,

2 Kings 17:35 with whom ADONAI had made a covenant and charged them, "Do not fear other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them.

2 Kings 17:36 On the contrary, you are to fear ADONAI, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm. Worship him, and sacrifice to him.

2 Kings 17:37 You are to observe forever the laws, rulings, [Torah] and [mitzvah] which he wrote for you. You are not to fear other gods,

2 Kings 17:38 and you are not to forget the covenant I made with you. No, you must not fear other gods

2 Kings 17:39 but must fear ADONAI your God; then he will rescue you from the power of all your enemies."

2 Kings 17:40 However, they didn't listen, but followed their old [[pagan]] practices.

2 Kings 17:41 So these nations mixed fearing ADONAI with serving their carved idols; likewise their children; and to this day, their descendants do the same as their ancestors did.

2 Kings 18:1 It was in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Isra'el, that Hizkiyahu the son of Achaz, king of Y'hudah, began his reign.

2 Kings 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Avi the daughter of Z'kharyah.

2 Kings 18:3 He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything David his ancestor had done.

2 Kings 18:4 He removed the high places, smashed the standing-stones, cut down the [asherah] and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moshe had made; because in those days the people of Isra'el were making offerings to it, calling it N'chushtan.*

2 Kings 18:5 He put his trust in ADONAI the God of Isra'el; after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Y'hudah, nor had there been among those before him.

2 Kings 18:6 For he clung to ADONAI and did not leave off following him, but obeyed his [mitzvot], which ADONAI had given Moshe.

2 Kings 18:7 So ADONAI was with him. Wherever he went out to battle, he did well. He rebelled against the king of Ashur and refused to be his vassal.

2 Kings 18:8 He drove the P'lishtim back to 'Azah and laid waste to their territory from the watchtower to the fortified city.

2 Kings 18:9 It was in the fourth year of King Hizkiyahu, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Isra'el, that Shalman'eser king of Ashur advanced against Shomron and laid siege to it.

2 Kings 18:10 At the end of three years they captured it- that is, Shomron was captured in the sixth year of Hizkiyahu, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Isra'el.

2 Kings 18:11 The king of Ashur carried Isra'el away captive to Ashur and settled them in Halach, in Havor on the Gozan River and in the cities of the Medes.

2 Kings 18:12 This happened because they did not heed the voice of ADONAI their God, but violated his covenant, everything that Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered them to do, and would neither hear it nor do it.

2 Kings 18:13 In the fourteenth year of King Hizkiyahu, Sancheriv king of Ashur advanced against all the fortified cities of Y'hudah and captured them.

2 Kings 18:14 Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah sent this message to the king of Ashur at Lakhish: "I have done wrong. If you will go away from me, I will pay whatever penalty you impose on me." The king of Ashur imposed on Hizkiyahu a penalty of ten tons of silver and a ton of gold.

2 Kings 18:15 Hizkiyahu gave him all the silver that could be found in the house of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace.

2 Kings 18:16 It was at that time that Hizkiyahu stripped the gold from the doors of the sanctuary of ADONAI and from the doorposts which Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah himself had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Ashur.

2 Kings 18:17 From Lakhish the king of Ashur sent Tartan, Rav-Saris and Rav-Shakeh to King Hizkiyahu in Yerushalayim with a large army. They advanced and came to Yerushalayim. Upon arrival, they came and positioned themselves by the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, which is by the road to the Launderers' Field.

2 Kings 18:18 They summoned the king, but those answering the call were Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo'ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister.

2 Kings 18:19 Rav-Shakeh addressed them: "Tell Hizkiyahu: 'Here is what the great king, the king of Ashur, says: "What makes you so confident?

2 Kings 18:20 Do you think that mere spoken words constitute strategy and strength for battle? In whom, then, are you trusting when you rebel against me like this?

2 Kings 18:21 Now look! Relying on Egypt is like using a broken stick as a staff- when you lean on it, it punctures your hand. That's what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like for anyone who puts his trust in him.

2 Kings 18:22 But if you tell me, 'We trust in ADONAI our God,' then isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hizkiyahu has removed, telling Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, 'You must worship before this altar in Yerushalayim'?

2 Kings 18:23 All right, then, make a wager with my lord the king of Ashur: I will give you two thousand horses if you can find enough riders for them.

2 Kings 18:24 How then can you repulse even one of my master's lowest-ranked army officers? Yet you are relying on Egypt for chariots and riders!

2 Kings 18:25 Do you think I have come up to this place to destroy it without ADONAI's approval? ADONAI said to me, 'Attack this land, and destroy it'!"“

2 Kings 18:26 Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, Shevnah and Yo'ach said to Rav-Shakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it; don't speak with us in Hebrew while the people on the wall are listening."

2 Kings 18:27 But Rav-Shakeh answered them, "Did my master send me to deliver my message just to your master and yourselves? Didn't he send me to address the men sitting on the wall, who, like you, are going to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

2 Kings 18:28 Then Rav-Shakeh stood up and, speaking loudly in Hebrew, said: "Hear what the great king, the king of Ashur, says!

2 Kings 18:29 This is what the king says: 'Don't let Hizkiyahu deceive you, because he won't be able to save you from the power of the king of Ashur.

2 Kings 18:30 And don't let Hizkiyahu make you trust in ADONAI by saying, "ADONAI will surely save us; this city will not be given over to the king of Ashur."

2 Kings 18:31 Don't listen to Hizkiyahu.' For this is what the king of Ashur says: 'Make peace with me, surrender to me. Then every one of you can eat from his vine and fig tree and drink the water in his own cistern;

2 Kings 18:32 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land with grain and wine, a land with bread and vineyards, a land with olive trees and honey; so that you can live and not die. So don't listen to Hizkiyahu; he is only deluding you when he says, “ADONAI will save us.”

2 Kings 18:33 Has any god of any nation ever saved his land from the power of the king of Ashur?

2 Kings 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamat and Arpad? Where are the gods of S’farvayim, Hena and ‘Ivah? Did they save Shomron from my power?

2 Kings 18:35 Where is the god of any country that has saved its country from my power, so that ADONAI might be able to save Yerushalayim from my power?’“

2 Kings 18:36 But the people kept still and didn’t answer him so much as a word; for the king’s order was, “Don’t answer him.”

2 Kings 18:37 Then Elyakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo’ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister went to Hizkiyahu with their clothes torn and reported to him what Rav-Shakeh had said.

2 Kings 19:1 On hearing it, King Hizkiyahu tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth and entered the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 19:2 He sent Elyakim, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and the leading [cohanim], covered with sackcloth, to Yesha’yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz.

2 Kings 19:3 They said to him, “This is what Hizkiyahu says: ‘Today is a day of trouble, rebuke and disgrace. Children are ready to be born, but there is no strength to bring them to birth.

2 Kings 19:4 Maybe ADONAI your God will hear all the words of Rav-Shakeh, whom his master the king of Ashur has sent to taunt the living God, and will rebuke the message which ADONAI your God has heard. So pray for the remnant that is left.”

2 Kings 19:5 When King Hizkiyahu’s servants came to Yesha’yahu,

2 Kings 19:6 he said to them, “Tell your master that this is what ADONAI says: ‘Don’t be afraid of the words you heard the servants of the king of Ashur use to insult me.

2 Kings 19:7 I will put a spirit in him that will make him hear a rumor and return to his own land; then I will cause him to die by the sword in his own land.’“

2 Kings 19:8 Rav-Shakeh returned and, having heard that the king of Ashur had left Lakhish, found him making war with Livnah.

2 Kings 19:9 Then, on hearing it said that Tirhakah king of Ethiopia was on his way to fight him, the king of Ashur sent messengers to Hizkiyahu, telling them,

2 Kings 19:10 “This is what you are to say to Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah: ‘Don’t let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying, “Yerushalayim will not be handed over to the power of the king of Ashur.”

2 Kings 19:11 You have heard what the kings of Ashur have done to all lands- they have completely destroyed them. So how will you be delivered?

2 Kings 19:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them? No, my ancestors destroyed them- Gozan, Haran, Retzef and the people of ‘Eden who were in Tel’asar.

2 Kings 19:13 Where is the king of Hamat? the king of Arpad? the king of the city of S’farvayim, of Hena and ‘Ivah?’“

2 Kings 19:14 Hizkiyahu took the letter from the messengers’ hands and read it. Then Hizkiyahu went up to the house of ADONAI and spread it out before ADONAI.

2 Kings 19:15 Hizkiyahu prayed as follows in the presence of ADONAI: “ADONAI God of Isra’el, who dwells above the [k’ruvim]! You alone are God of all the kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth.

2 Kings 19:16 Turn your ear, ADONAI, and hear! Open your eyes, ADONAI, and see! Hear the words that Sancheriv sent to taunt the living God.

2 Kings 19:17 It is true, ADONAI, that the kings of Ashur have laid waste the nations and their lands

2 Kings 19:18 and have thrown their gods into the fire. For those were non-gods, merely the product of people’s hands, wood and stone; this is why they could destroy them.

2 Kings 19:19 Now therefore, ADONAI our God, please save us from his power- so that all the kingdoms on earth will know that you are ADONAI, God- you only.”

2 Kings 19:20 Then Yesha’yahu the son of Amotz sent this message to Hizkiyahu: “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘You prayed to me against Sancheriv king of Ashur, and I have heard you.’

2 Kings 19:21 Here is ADONAI’s answer concerning him: ‘The virgin daughter of Tziyon despises you; she laughs you to scorn. The daughter of Yerushalayim shakes her head at you.

2 Kings 19:22 Whom have you taunted and insulted? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? The Holy One of Isra’el!

2 Kings 19:23 “‘Through your messengers you taunted [Adonai]. You said, “With my many chariots I have ascended the mountain heights even in the far reaches of the L’vanon. I cut down its tall cedars and its best cypresses. I reached its remotest corners and its best forests.

2 Kings 19:24 I dug [[wells]] in foreign lands, and I drank the water. The soles of my [[soldiers’]] feet dried up all the rivers of Egypt.”

2 Kings 19:25 "'Haven't you heard? Long ago I made it; in antiquity I produced it; and now I am making it happen: you are turning fortified cities into heaps of ruins;

2 Kings 19:26 while their inhabitants, shorn of power, are disheartened and ashamed, weak as grass, frail as plants, like grass on the rooftops or grain scorched by the east wind.

2 Kings 19:27 "'But I know when you sit, when you leave, when you enter- and when you rage against me.

2 Kings 19:28 And because of your rage against me, because of your pride that has reached my ears, I am putting my hook in your nose and my bridle on your lips; and I will make you return by the way on which you came.

2 Kings 19:29 "'This will be the sign for you: this year, you will eat the grain that grows of itself; the second year, you will eat what grows from that; but in the third year, you will sow, reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

2 Kings 19:30 "'Meanwhile, the remnant of the house of Y'hudah that has escaped will again take root downward and bear fruit upward;

2 Kings 19:31 for a remnant will go out from Yerushalayim, those escaping will go out from Mount Tziyon. The zeal of [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] will accomplish this.'

2 Kings 19:32 "Therefore this is what ADONAI says concerning the king of Ashur: 'He will not come to this city or even shoot an arrow there; he will not confront it with a shield or erect earthworks against it.

2 Kings 19:33 By the way he came he will return; he will not come to this city,' says ADONAI.

2 Kings 19:34 'For I will defend this city and save it, both for my own sake and for my servant David's sake.'"

2 Kings 19:35 That night the angel of ADONAI went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of Ashur. Early the next morning, there they were, all of them, corpses- dead.

2 Kings 19:36 So Sancheriv king of Ashur left, went and returned to live in Ninveh.

2 Kings 19:37 One day, as he was worshipping in the temple of Nisrokh his god, [[his sons]] Adramelekh and Shar'etzer struck him with the sword and escaped into the land of Ararat. So his son Esar-Hadon took his place as king.

2 Kings 20:1 Around this time, Hizkiyahu became ill to the point of death. Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz, came and said to him, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not live.'"

2 Kings 20:2 Hizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall and prayed to ADONAI:

2 Kings 20:3 “I plead with you, ADONAI, remember now how I have lived before you truly and wholeheartedly, and how I have done what you see as good.” And he cried bitter tears.

2 Kings 20:4 Before Yesha’yahu had left the city’s middle courtyard, the word of ADONAI came to him:

2 Kings 20:5 “Go back, and tell Hizkiyahu the prince of my people, that this is what ADONAI, the God of David your ancestor, says: ‘I have heard your prayer and seen your tears, and I will heal you. On the third day, you are to go up to the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 20:6 I will add fifteen years to your life. Also I will rescue you and this city from the power of the king of Ashur; I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.’“

2 Kings 20:7 Then Yesha’yahu said, “Prepare a fig-plaster.” They brought it and laid it on the inflammation, so that he would recover.

2 Kings 20:8 Hizkiyahu said to Yesha’yahu, “What sign will there be that ADONAI will heal me and that I will be able to go up to the house of ADONAI on the third day?”

2 Kings 20:9 Yesha’yahu said, “Here is the sign for you from ADONAI that ADONAI will do what he said: do you want the shadow [[of the sundial]] to go forward ten intervals or backward ten intervals?

2 Kings 20:10 Hizkiyahu answered, “It’s easy for the shadow to go down ten intervals. No, let the shadow return backward ten intervals.”

2 Kings 20:11 Yesha’yahu called out to ADONAI, and he brought the shadow on the sundial of Achaz ten intervals backward after it had gone down that far.

2 Kings 20:12 B’rodakh-Bal’adan the son of Bal’adan, king of Bavel, heard that Hizkiyahu had been ill, so he sent a letter and a gift to him.

2 Kings 20:13 Hizkiyahu listened to [[the messengers]] and showed them the building where he kept his treasures, including the silver, gold, spices and precious oils; also the building where he kept his armor; and everything in his treasury- there was nothing in his palace or in his entire domain that Hizkiyahu did not show them.

2 Kings 20:14 Then Yesha’yahu the prophet came to King Hizkiyahu and asked him, “What did these men say? Where did they come from?” Hizkiyahu answered, “They came from a distant country, Bavel.”

2 Kings 20:15 Yesha’yahu asked, “What have they seen in your palace?” “They have seen everything in my palace,” said Hizkiyahu. “There isn’t a thing among my treasures that I haven’t shown them.”

2 Kings 20:16 Yesha’yahu said to Hizkiyahu, “Hear what ADONAI says:

2 Kings 20:17 ‘The day will come when everything in your palace, along with everything your ancestors stored up until today, will be carried off to Bavel. Nothing will be left,’ says ADONAI.

2 Kings 20:18 'They will carry off some of your descendants, your own offspring; and they will be made eunuchs serving in the palace of the king of Bavel.'"

2 Kings 20:19 Hizkiyahu said to Yesha'yahu, "The word of ADONAI which you have just told me is good." He thought, "Isn't it, though, if peace and truth continue at least through my lifetime?"

2 Kings 20:20 Other activities of Hizkiyahu, his power and how he built the pool and aqueduct to bring water into the city are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

2 Kings 20:21 Then Hizkiyahu slept with his ancestors, and M'nasheh his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 21:1 M'nasheh was twelve years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-five years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Heftzibah.

2 Kings 21:2 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, following the disgusting practices of the nations whom ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el.

2 Kings 21:3 For he rebuilt the high places Hizkiyahu his father had destroyed; he erected altars for Ba'al and made an [asherah], as had Ach'av king of Isra'el; and he worshipped all the army of heaven and served them.

2 Kings 21:4 He erected altars in the house of ADONAI, about which ADONAI had said, "In Yerushalayim I will put my name."

2 Kings 21:5 He erected altars for all the army of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 21:6 He made his son pass through the fire [[as a sacrifice]]. He practiced soothsaying and divination and appointed mediums and persons who used spirit guides. He did much that was evil from ADONAI's perspective, thus provoking him to anger.

2 Kings 21:7 He set the carved image for the [asherah] he had made in the house concerning which ADONAI had told David and Shlomo his son, "In this house and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Isra'el, I will put my name forever.

2 Kings 21:8 Also I will not have the feet of Isra'el wander any longer out of the land which I gave their ancestors- if only they will take heed to obey every order I have given them and live in accordance with all the [Torah] that my servant Moshe ordered them to obey."

2 Kings 21:9 But they did not take heed; and M'nasheh misled them into doing even worse things than the nations ADONAI had destroyed ahead of the people of Isra'el.

2 Kings 21:10 ADONAI spoke this message through his servants the prophets:

2 Kings 21:11 “Because M’nasheh king of Y’hudah has done these disgusting things; because he has done things more wicked than anything the Emori, who were there before him, did; also because with his idols he made Y’hudah sin;

2 Kings 21:12 therefore here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el, says: ‘I am going to bring such calamity on Yerushalayim and Y’hudah that the ears of all who hear of it will tingle.

2 Kings 21:13 I will measure Yerushalayim with the same measuring cord that I used over Shomron, the same plumbline as for the house of Ach’av. I will scour Yerushalayim clean just as one scours a plate, scouring it and then turning it upside down.

2 Kings 21:14 I will abandon the remnant of my heritage, delivering them into the power of their enemies- they will become prey and plunder for all their enemies;

2 Kings 21:15 because they have done what is evil from my perspective and have provoked me to anger from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt to this very day.’“

2 Kings 21:16 Moreover, M’nasheh shed so much innocent blood that he flooded Yerushalayim from one end to the other- this in addition to his sin through which he caused Y’hudah to sin by doing what is evil from ADONAI’s perspective.

2 Kings 21:17 Other activities of M’nasheh, all his accomplishments and the sin he committed are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 21:18 Then M’nasheh slept with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his own house, the Garden of ‘Uza; and Amon his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for two years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Meshulemet the daughter of Harutz from Yotvah.

2 Kings 21:20 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, as had M’nasheh his father.

2 Kings 21:21 He followed entirely the manner of life of his father, serving the idols that his father served and worshipping them.

2 Kings 21:22 He abandoned ADONAI, the God of his ancestors, and did not live in ADONAI’s way.

2 Kings 21:23 Amon’s servants conspired against him and put the king to death in his own palace.

2 Kings 21:24 But the people of the land put to death all those who had been part of the conspiracy against King Amon. Then the people of the land made Yoshiyahu his son king in place of him.

2 Kings 21:25 Other activities of Amon and all he acomplished are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 21:26 Amon was buried in his tomb in the Garden of Uza, and Yoshiyahu his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 22:1 Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for thirty-one years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Y'didah the daughter of 'Adayah from Botzkat.

2 Kings 22:2 He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, living entirely in the manner of David his ancestor and turning away neither to the right nor to the left.

2 Kings 22:3 In the eighteenth year of King Yoshiyahu, the king sent Shafan the son of Atzalyahu, the son of Meshulam, the secretary, to the house of ADONAI after instructing him,

2 Kings 22:4 "Go up to Hilkiyahu the [cohen] [hagadol], and have him total the money that has been brought into the house of ADONAI, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

2 Kings 22:5 Then have them give it to the supervisors of the work being done in the house of ADONAI; they in turn are to use it to pay the laborers in the house of ADONAI to repair damaged places in the building-

2 Kings 22:6 the carpenters, construction-workers and stonemasons- and to purchase timber and worked stone for doing the repairs on the building."

2 Kings 22:7 However, they did not require an accounting from the supervisors given the money to spend, because they dealt honestly.

2 Kings 22:8 Hilkiyahu the [cohen hagadol] said to Shafan the secretary, "I have found the scroll of the [Torah] in the house of ADONAI." Hilkiyah gave the scroll to Shafan, who read it.

2 Kings 22:9 Then Shafan the secretary went back to the king and gave the king this report: "Your servants have poured out the money found in the house and handed it over to the people supervising the work in the house of ADONAI."

2 Kings 22:10 Shafan the secretary also told the king, "Hilkiyah the [cohen hagadol] gave me a scroll." Then Shafan read it aloud before the king.

2 Kings 22:11 After the king had heard what was written in the scroll of the [Torah], he tore his clothes.

2 Kings 22:12 Then the king issued this order to Hilkiyah the [cohen], Achikam the son of Shafan, 'Akhbor the son of Mikhayah, Shafan the secretary and 'Asayah the king's servant:

2 Kings 22:13 "Go; and consult ADONAI for me, for the people and for all Y'hudah in regard to what is written in this scroll which has been found. For ADONAI must be furious at us, since our ancestors did not listen to the words written in this scroll and didn't do everything written there that concerns us."

2 Kings 22:14 So Hilkiyahu the [cohen], Achikam, Akhbor, Shafan and ‘Asayah went to Huldah the prophet, the wife of Shalum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harchas, keeper of the wardrobe- she lived in the Second Quarter of Yerushalayim- and spoke with her.

2 Kings 22:15 She told them, “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says to tell the man who sent you to me

2 Kings 22:16 that ADONAI says this: ‘I am going to bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, every word in the scroll the king of Y’hudah has read;

2 Kings 22:17 because they have abandoned me and offered to other gods, in order to provoke me with everything they do. Therefore my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.’

2 Kings 22:18 But you are to tell the king of Y’hudah, who sent you to consult ADONAI, that ADONAI the God of Isra’el also says this: ‘In regard to the words you have heard,

2 Kings 22:19 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before ADONAI when you heard what I said against this place and its inhabitants- that they would become an object of astonishment and cursing- and have torn your clothes and cried before me, I have also heard you, says ADONAI.

2 Kings 22:20 Therefore I will gather you to your ancestors, you will go to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the calamity I am going to bring on this place.’“ So they brought word back to the king.

2 Kings 23:1 Then the king summoned all the leaders of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim, and they assembled with him.

2 Kings 23:2 The king went up to the house of ADONAI with all the men of Y’hudah, all those living in Yerushalayim, the [cohanim], the prophets and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing everything written in the scroll of the covenant that had been found in the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 23:3 The king stood on the platform and made a covenant in the presence of ADONAI to live following ADONAI, observing his [mitzvot], instructions and regulations wholeheartedly and with all his being, so as to confirm the words of the covenant written in this scroll. All the people stood, pledging themselves to keep the covenant.

2 Kings 23:4 Then the king ordered Hilkiyahu the [cohen hagadol], the [cohanim] of the second rank and the doorkeepers to remove from the sanctuary of ADONAI all the articles that had been made for Ba’al, for the [asherah] and for the entire army of heaven; and he burned them up outside Yerushalayim in the fields of Kidron and carried their ashes to Beit-El.

2 Kings 23:5 He deposed the idolatrous priests the kings of Y’hudah had ordained to offer on the high places by the cities of Y’hudah and in the places surrounding Yerushalayim; he also deposed those who offered to Ba'al, the sun, the moon, the constellations and the whole army of heaven.

2 Kings 23:6 He took the [asherah] from the house of ADONAI to [Vadi] Kidron outside Yerushalayim and burned it in [Vadi] Kidron, stamped the ashes to powder and threw the powder onto the burial-ground for the common people.

2 Kings 23:7 He smashed the houses of the cult prostitutes that were in the house of ADONAI, where the women also wove garments for the [asherah].

2 Kings 23:8 He removed the [cohanim] from the cities of Y'hudah; then, from Geva to Be'er-Sheva, he desecrated the high places where the [cohanim] had been making offerings. He also smashed the High Places of the Gates that were at the entrance of the Gate of Y'hoshua the governor of the city, on the left as one enters the city.

2 Kings 23:9 But although the [cohanim] who had been at the high places did not come up to the altar of ADONAI in Yerushalayim, nevertheless they did share [matzah] with their kinsmen.

2 Kings 23:10 He desecrated the Tofet fire pit in the Ben-Hinnom Valley, so that no one could cause his son or daughter to pass through fire [[as a sacrifice]] to Molekh.

2 Kings 23:11 He confiscated the horses which the kings of Y'hudah had given to the sun, at the entrance to the house of ADONAI near the room of the officer N'tan-Melekh, in the side-courtyard; and he burned up the chariots of the sun.

2 Kings 23:12 The king smashed the altars on the roof of the upper room of Achaz, which the kings of Y'hudah had made, and the altars which M'nasheh had made in the two courtyards of the house of ADONAI. He broke them into pieces and threw the rubble into [Vadi] Kidron.

2 Kings 23:13 The king desecrated the high places facing Yerushalayim south of the Mount of Destruction, which Shlomo the king of Isra'el had built for 'Ashtoret the abomination of the Tzidonim, K'mosh the abomination of Mo'av and Milkom the abomination of the people of 'Amon.

2 Kings 23:14 He smashed the standing-stones, chopped down the sacred poles and covered their remains with human bones.

2 Kings 23:15 He smashed the altar that was at Beit-El and the high place made by Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who caused Isra'el to sin. Yes, he smashed that altar and the high place; he burned the high place, stamped the ashes to powder, and burned up the [asherah].

2 Kings 23:16 Then, as Yoshiyahu was turning around, he noticed the burial caves that were there on the mountain; so he sent and had the bones taken out of the burial caves and burned them on the altar, thus desecrating it, in keeping with the word of ADONAI which the man of God had proclaimed, foretelling that these things would happen.

2 Kings 23:17 Then he asked, “This monument here that I’m looking at, what is it?” The men of the city told him, “It marks the burial cave of the man of God who came from Y’hudah and foretold the very things you have done to the altar of Beit-El.”

2 Kings 23:18 He replied, “Let him be; no one is to move his bones.” So they left his bones undisturbed, along with the bones of the prophet who had come from Shomron.

2 Kings 23:19 Yoshiyahu also removed all the shrines of the high places in the cities of Shomron, which the kings of Isra’el had made in order to provoke [[ADONAI]] to anger, and treated them the same as in Beit-El.

2 Kings 23:20 He put to death all the priests of those high places on the altars there, then burned human bones on them. Finally he returned to Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 23:21 The king issued this order to all the people: “Observe [Pesach] to ADONAI your God, as written in this scroll of the covenant.”

2 Kings 23:22 For [Pesach] had not been so observed since the days when the judges ruled Isra’el- not during the times of any of the kings of Isra’el or of the kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 23:23 But in the eighteenth year of King Yoshiyahu this [Pesach] was observed to ADONAI in Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 23:24 Yoshiyahu got rid of the mediums and the people using spirit guides, as well as the household gods, the idols and all the disgusting things spotted anywhere in Y’hudah and Yerushalayim. He did this in order to establish the words of the [Torah] written in the scroll Hilkiyahu the [cohen] had found in the house of ADONAI.

2 Kings 23:25 No previous king was like him; because he turned to ADONAI with all his heart, with all his being and with all his power, in accordance with all the [Torah] of Moshe; nor did any king like him arise afterwards.

2 Kings 23:26 Nevertheless, ADONAI did not turn away from his fiercely raging, furious anger that burned against Y’hudah because of all the things M’nasheh had done to provoke him.

2 Kings 23:27 ADONAI said, “Just as I removed Isra’el, I will also remove Y’hudah out of my sight; and I will reject this city, which I chose, Yerushalayim, and the house concerning which I said, ‘My name will be there.’“

2 Kings 23:28 Other activities of Yoshiyahu and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

2 Kings 23:29 During his time Pharaoh N’khoh king of Egypt went up toward the Euphrates River to attack the king of Ashur. King Yoshiyahu went out to oppose him; but at Megiddo, Pharaoh spotted Yoshiyahu and killed him.

2 Kings 23:30 His servants carried his dead body from Megiddo to Yerushalayim in a chariot and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Y’ho’achaz the son of Yoshiyahu, anointed him, and made him king in his father’s place.

2 Kings 23:31 Y’ho’achaz was twenty-three years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for three months in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu from Livnah.

2 Kings 23:32 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of everything his ancestors had done.

2 Kings 23:33 Pharaoh N’khoh imprisoned him at Rivlah in the land of Hamat, so that he would not be able to rule in Yerushalayim. He also imposed a penalty on the land of three-and-a-quarter tons of silver and sixty-six pounds of gold.

2 Kings 23:34 Then Pharaoh N’khoh made Elyakim the son of Yoshiyahu king in place of Yoshiyahu his father and changed his name to Y’hoyakim. He also carried Y’ho’achaz off to Egypt, where he died.

2 Kings 23:35 Y’hoyakim remitted the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but in order to pay the money Pharaoh demanded, he had to levy a tax on the land. He taxed the people of the land, each according to his means, to pay the silver and gold to Pharaoh N’khoh.

2 Kings 23:36 Y’hoyakim was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Z’vudah the daughter of P’dayah, from Rumah.

2 Kings 23:37 He did what was evil from the perspective of ADONAI, following the example of everything his ancestors had done.

2 Kings 24:1 It was in Y’hoyakim’s time that N’vukhadnetzar king of Bavel invaded. Y’hoyakim became his vassal for three years, but then he turned against him and rebelled.

2 Kings 24:2 ADONAI sent against him raiding parties from the Kasdim, Aram, Mo’av and the people of ‘Amon; he sent them against Y’hudah to destroy it, in keeping with the word of ADONAI which he had spoken through his servants the prophets.

2 Kings 24:3 Yes, it was at ADONAI’s order that this happened to Y’hudah, in order to remove them from his sight because of the sins of M’nasheh and all he had done,

2 Kings 24:4 and also because of the innocent blood he had shed-for he had flooded Yerushalayim with innocent blood, and ADONAI was unwilling to forgive.

2 Kings 24:5 Other activities of Y'hoyakim and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

2 Kings 24:6 Then Y'hoyakim slept with his ancestors, and Y'hoyakhin his son took his place as king.

2 Kings 24:7 The king of Egypt did not leave his own land any more, because the king of Bavel had captured all the territory of the king of Egypt between the [Vadi] of Egypt and the Euphrates River.

2 Kings 24:8 Y'hoyakhin was eighteen years old when he began his reign, and he ruled in Yerushalayim for three months. His mother's name was N'chushta the daughter of Elnatan, from Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 24:9 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything his father had done.

2 Kings 24:10 It was then that the officers of N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel marched on Yerushalayim and laid siege to the city.

2 Kings 24:11 N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel himself went to the city while it was under siege;

2 Kings 24:12 and Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah went out to meet the king of Bavel- he, his mother, and his servants, princes and officers; and the king of Bavel took him captive in the eighth year of his reign.

2 Kings 24:13 He also carried away from there all the treasures in the house of ADONAI and the treasures in the royal palace. He cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Shlomo king of Isra'el had made in the temple of ADONAI, as ADONAI had said would happen.

2 Kings 24:14 He carried all Yerushalayim away captive- all the princes, all the bravest soldiers- 10,000 captives; also all the craftsmen and metalworkers. No one was left but the poorest people of the land.

2 Kings 24:15 Y'hoyakhin he carried off to Bavel; likewise he carried off the king's mother, the king's wives, his officers and the main leaders of the land from Yerushalayim into captivity in Bavel.

2 Kings 24:16 All the strong men- 7,000 of them, as well as 1,000 craftsmen and metalsmiths, all of them strong and trained for war- the king of Bavel brought captive to Bavel.

2 Kings 24:17 The king of Bavel made Matanyah, Y'hoyakhin's father's brother, king in place of Y'hoyakhin and changed his name to Tzidkiyahu.

2 Kings 24:18 Tzidkiyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu, from Livnah.

2 Kings 24:19 He did what was evil from the perspective of ADONAI, following the example of everything Y'hoyakim had done.

2 Kings 24:20 And it was because of ADONAI's anger that all these things happened to Yerushalayim and Y'hudah, until he had thrown them out of his presence. Tzidkiyahu rebelled against the king of Bavel;

2 Kings 25:1 so in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel marched against Yerushalayim with his entire army. He set up camp against it and built siege towers against it on every side.

2 Kings 25:2 The city remained under siege into the eleventh year of King Tzidkiyahu.

2 Kings 25:3 On the ninth day of the [[fourth]] month, when the famine in the city was so severe that there was no food for the people of the land,

2 Kings 25:4 they broke through into the city. All the soldiers [[fled]] by night through the gate between the two walls, near the king's garden. Because the Kasdim were surrounding the city, the king took the route through the 'Aravah.

2 Kings 25:5 But the army of the Kasdim went in pursuit of the king and overtook him on the plains near Yericho; all his troops deserted him.

2 Kings 25:6 Then they took the king and brought him up to the king of Bavel in Rivlah, where they passed judgment on him.

2 Kings 25:7 They slaughtered his sons before his eyes. Then they put out Tzidkiyahu's eyes, bound him in chains and carried him off to Bavel.

2 Kings 25:8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was also the nineteenth year of King N'vukhadnetzar, king of Bavel, N'vuzar'adan, the commander of the guard and an officer of the king of Bavel, entered Yerushalayim.

2 Kings 25:9 He burned down the house of ADONAI, the royal palace and all the houses in Yerushalayim- every notable person's house he burned to the ground.

2 Kings 25:10 The whole army of the Kasdim, who were with the commander of the guard, broke down the walls of Yerushalayim on every side.

2 Kings 25:11 N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard then deported the remaining population of the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Bavel and the rest of the common people.

2 Kings 25:12 But the commander of the guard left behind some of the poor people of the land to be vineyard-workers and farmers.

2 Kings 25:13 The Kasdim smashed the bronze columns in the house of ADONAI, also the trolleys and bronze Sea that were in the house of ADONAI, and carried their bronze to Bavel.

2 Kings 25:14 They also took away the pots, shovels, snuffers, pans, and all the bronze articles that had been used for worship.

2 Kings 25:15 The commander of the guard took the censers, the sprinkling bowls, everything made of gold and everything made of silver.

2 Kings 25:16 The bronze in the two columns, the one Sea and the bases, all of which Shlomo had made for the house of ADONAI, was more than could be weighed.

2 Kings 25:17 The height of one column was thirty-one-and-a-half feet; on it was a capital of bronze five-and-a-quarter feet high, with netting and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze; the second column was similar, also with netting.

2 Kings 25:18 The commander of the guard took [[prisoner]] S'rayah the chief [cohen], Z'kharyah the second-ranking [cohen] and three doorkeepers.

2 Kings 25:19 From the city he took an official in charge of the soldiers, five close associates of the king who had been found in the city, the army commander's secretary in charge of military conscription, and sixty of the common people found in the city.

2 Kings 25:20 N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Bavel in Rivlah.

2 Kings 25:21 There in Rivlah, in the land of Hamat, the king of Bavel had them put to death. Thus Y'hudah was carried away captive out of his land.

2 Kings 25:22 N'vukhadnetzar king of Babylon appointed G'dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, governor over the people remaining behind in the land of Y'hudah after he left.

2 Kings 25:23 When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Bavel had made G'dalyahu governor, they came to G'dalyahu in Mitzpah- Yishma'el the son of N'tanyah, Yochanan the son of Kareach, S'rayah the son of Tanchumet the N'tofati and Ya'azanyahu the son of the Ma'akhati- they and their men.

2 Kings 25:24 Taking an oath, G'dalyahu said to them, "Don't be afraid of the servants of the Kasdim. Just live in the land and serve the king of Bavel, and things will go well for you."

2 Kings 25:25 But in the seventh month Yishma'el the son of N'tanyah, the son of Elishama, of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated G'dalyah and the Judeans and Kasdim who were with him in Mitzpah.

2 Kings 25:26 In the wake of this, all kinds of people, great and small, as well as the army officers, set out and went to Egypt; because they were afraid of the Kasdim.

2 Kings 25:27 In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Eveel-M'rodakh began his reign as king of Bavel; and in his first year he commuted the sentence of Y’hoyakhin king of Y’hudah and released him from prison.

2 Kings 25:28 He treated him with kindness and gave him a throne higher than those of the other kings there with him in Bavel.

2 Kings 25:29 So Y’hoyakhin no longer had to wear prison clothes; moreover, he was provided with food as long as he lived;

2 Kings 25:30 and he was granted a daily allowance by the king to spend on his other needs for as long as he lived.

1 Chronicles

1:1 Adam, Shet, Enosh,

1 Chronicles 1:2 Keinan, Mahalal’el, Yered,

1 Chronicles 1:3 Hanokh, Metushelach, Lemekh,

1 Chronicles 1:4 Noach; Shem, Ham and Yefet.

1 Chronicles 1:5 The sons of Yefet: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Yavan, Tuval, Meshekh and Tiras.

1 Chronicles 1:6 The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Difat and Togarmah.

1 Chronicles 1:7 The sons of Yavan: Elishah, Tarshishah, Kittim and Rodanim.

1 Chronicles 1:8 The sons of Ham: Kush, Mitzrayim, Put and Kena’an.

1 Chronicles 1:9 The sons of Kush: S’va, Havilah, Savta, Ra’ma and Savt’kha. The sons of Ra’ma: Sh’va and D’dan.

1 Chronicles 1:10 Kush fathered Nimrod, who was the first powerful ruler on earth.

1 Chronicles 1:11 Mitzrayim fathered Ludim, ‘Anamim, L’havim, Naftuchim,

1 Chronicles 1:12 Patrusim, Kasluchim (from whom came the P’lishtim) and Kaftorim.

1 Chronicles 1:13 Kena’an was the father of Tzidon his firstborn, and also of Het,

1 Chronicles 1:14 the Y’vusi, the Emori, the Girgashi,

1 Chronicles 1:15 the Hivi, the ‘Arki, the Sini,

1 Chronicles 1:16 the Arvadi, the Tz’mari and the Hamati.

1 Chronicles 1:17 The sons of Shem: ‘Elam, Ashur, Arpakhshad, Lud, Aram, ‘Utz, Hul, Geter and Meshekh.

1 Chronicles 1:18 Arpakhshad fathered Shelach, Shelach fathered ‘Ever,

1 Chronicles 1:19 and to ‘Ever were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg [[division]], because it was during his lifetime that the earth was divided; and his brother’s name was Yoktan.

1 Chronicles 1:20 Yoktan fathered Almodad, Shelef, Hatzar-Mavet, Yerach,

1 Chronicles 1:21 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

1 Chronicles 1:22 ‘Eival, Avima’el, Sh’va,

1 Chronicles 1:23 Ofir, Havilah and Yovav; these were all sons of Yoktan.

1 Chronicles 1:24 Shem, Arpakhshad, Shelach,

1 Chronicles 1:25 ‘Ever, Peleg, Re’u,

1 Chronicles 1:26 S’rug, Nachor, Terach,

1 Chronicles 1:27 Avram (also called Avraham).

1 Chronicles 1:28 The sons of Avraham: Yitz’chak and Yishma’el.

1 Chronicles 1:29 Here are their descendants: Yishma’el’s firstborn N’vayot; then Kedar, Adbe’el, Mivsam,

1 Chronicles 1:30 Mishma, Dumah, Masa, Hadad, Teima,

1 Chronicles 1:31 Y’tur, Nafish and Kedem. These are the sons of Yishma’el.

1 Chronicles 1:32 The sons of K’turah Avraham’s concubine: she bore Zimran, Yokshan, Medan, Midyan, Yishbak and Shuach. The sons of Yokshan: Sh’va and D’dan.

1 Chronicles 1:33 The sons of Midyan: ‘Eifah, ‘Efer, Hanokh, Avida and Elda’ah. These were all descendants of K’turah.

1 Chronicles 1:34 Avraham fathered Yitz’chak. The sons of Yitz’chak: ‘Esav and Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 1:35 The sons of ‘Esav: Elifaz, Re’u’el, Ye’ush, Ya’lam and Korach.

1 Chronicles 1:36 The sons of Elifaz: Teman, Omar, Tzefi, Ga’tam, K’naz, Timna and ‘Amalek.

1 Chronicles 1:37 The sons of Re’u’el: Nachat, Zerach, Shamah and Mizah.

1 Chronicles 1:38 The sons of Se’ir: Lotan, Shoval, Tziv’on, ‘Anah, Dishon, Etzer and Dishan.

1 Chronicles 1:39 The sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam; the sister of Lotan was Timna.

1 Chronicles 1:40 The sons of Shoval: ‘Alyan, Manachat, ‘Eival, Sh’fi and Onam. The sons of Tziv’on: Ayah and ‘Anah.

1 Chronicles 1:41 The son of ‘Anah: Dishon. The sons of Dishon: Hamran, Eshban, Yitran and K’ran.

1 Chronicles 1:42 The sons of Etzer: Bilhan, Za’avan and Ya’akan. The sons of Dishan: ‘Utz and Aran.

1 Chronicles 1:43 Following are the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king ruled over the people of Isra’el: Bela the son of B’or; the name of his city was Dinhavah.

1 Chronicles 1:44 After Bela died, Yovav the son of Zerach from Botzrah took his place as king.

1 Chronicles 1:45 After Yovav died, Husham from the land of the Temani took his place as king.

1 Chronicles 1:46 After Husham died, Hadad the son of B’dad, who attacked Midyan on the plains of Mo’av, took his place as king; the name of his city was ‘Avit.

1 Chronicles 1:47 After Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah took his place as king.

1 Chronicles 1:48 After Samlah died, Sha’ul from Rechovot-by-the-River took his place as king.

1 Chronicles 1:49 After Sha’ul died, Ba’al-Hanan the son of ‘Akhbor took his place as king.

1 Chronicles 1:50 After Ba’al-Hanan died, Hadad took his place as king; the name of his city was Pa’i; his wife’s name was M’heitav’el the daughter of Matred the daughter of Mei-Zahav.

1 Chronicles 1:51 Then Hadad died. The chieftains of Edom were: the chieftains of Timnah, ‘Alvah, Y’tet,

1 Chronicles 1:52 Oholivamah, Elah, Pinon,

1 Chronicles 1:53 Kenaz, Teman, Mivtzar,

1 Chronicles 1:54 Magdi’el and ‘Iram. These were the chieftains of Edom.

1 Chronicles 2:1 These are the sons of Isra’el: Re’uven, Shim’on, Levi, Y’hudah, Yissakhar, Z’vulun,

1 Chronicles 2:2 Dan, Yosef, Binyamin, Naftali, Gad and Asher.

1 Chronicles 2:3 The sons of Y’hudah: ‘Er, Onan and Shelah; the mother of these three was Bat-Shua the Kena’anit. ‘Er, Y’hudah’s firstborn, was wicked from ADONAI’s perspective, so he killed him.

1 Chronicles 2:4 Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Peretz and Zerach; thus Y’hudah had five sons altogether.

1 Chronicles 2:5 The sons of Peretz: Hetzron and Hamul.

1 Chronicles 2:6 The sons of Zerach: Zimri, Eitan, Heiman, Kalkol and Dara- five of them altogether.

1 Chronicles 2:7 The sons of Karmi: ‘Akhar [[troubler]], who troubled Isra’el by violating the rule concerning things set aside to be destroyed.

1 Chronicles 2:8 The son of Eitan: ‘Azaryah.

1 Chronicles 2:9 The sons born to Hetzron: Yerachme’el, Ram and K’luvai.

1 Chronicles 2:10 Ram fathered ‘Amminadav; ‘Amminadav fathered Nachshon prince of the descendants of Y’hudah;

1 Chronicles 2:11 Nachshon fathered Salma; Salma fathered Bo’az;

1 Chronicles 2:12 Bo’az fathered ‘Oved; ‘Oved fathered Yishai;

1 Chronicles 2:13 and Yishai fathered Eli’av his firstborn, Avinadav second, Shim’a third,

1 Chronicles 2:14 N’tan’el fourth, Radai fifth,

1 Chronicles 2:15 Otzem sixth, David seventh,

1 Chronicles 2:16 and their sisters Tz’ruyah and Avigayil. The sons of Tz’ruyah: Avshai, Yo’av and ‘Asah’el, three of them.

1 Chronicles 2:17 Avigayil was the mother of ‘Amasa; the father of ‘Amasa was Yeter the Yishma’eli.

1 Chronicles 2:18 Kalev the son of Hetzron fathered sons with ‘Azuvah his wife (and with Yeri’ot); these were her sons: Yesher, Shovav and Ardon.

1 Chronicles 2:19 After ‘Azuvah died, Kalev married Efrat, who bore him Hur.

1 Chronicles 2:20 Hur fathered Uri, and Uri fathered B’tzal’el.

1 Chronicles 2:21 Afterwards, Hetzron had sexual relations with the daughter of Machir the father of Gil’ad; he married her when he was sixty years old, and she bore him S’guv.

1 Chronicles 2:22 S’guv fathered Ya’ir, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gil’ad.

1 Chronicles 2:23 (But G’shur and Aram took Havot-Ya’ir away from them, along with K’nat and its villages- sixty cities.) All these were descendants of Machir the father of Gil’ad.

1 Chronicles 2:24 After Hetzron died in Kalev-Efratah, Aviyah Hetzron’s wife bore him Ash’chur the father of T’koa.

1 Chronicles 2:25 The sons of Yerachme’el Hetzron’s firstborn: Ram the firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Otzem and Achiyah.

1 Chronicles 2:26 Yerachme’el had another wife, whose name was ‘Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

1 Chronicles 2:27 The sons of Ram the firstborn son of Yerachme’el: Ma’atz, Yamin and ‘Eker.

1 Chronicles 2:28 The sons of Onam: Shamai and Yada. The sons of Shamai: Nadav and Avishur.

1 Chronicles 2:29 Avishur’s wife was named Avichayil, and she bore him Achban and Molid.

1 Chronicles 2:30 The sons of Nadav: Seled and Apayim. Seled died without having any children.

1 Chronicles 2:31 The son of Apayim: Yish’i. The son of Yish’i: Sheshan. The son of Sheshan: Achlai.

1 Chronicles 2:32 The sons of Yada the brother of Shamai: Yeter and Yonatan. Yeter died without having any children.

1 Chronicles 2:33 The sons of Yonatan: Pelet and Zaza. These were the descendants of Yerachme’el.

1 Chronicles 2:34 Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Yarcha;

1 Chronicles 2:35 Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to Yarcha his servant, and she bore him ‘Atai.

1 Chronicles 2:36 ‘Atai fathered Natan, Natan fathered Zavad,

1 Chronicles 2:37 Zavad fathered Eflal, Eflal fathered ‘Oved,

1 Chronicles 2:38 ‘Oved fathered Yehu, Yehu fathered ‘Azaryah,

1 Chronicles 2:39 ‘Azaryah fathered Heletz, Heletz fathered El’asah,

1 Chronicles 2:40 El’asah fathered Sismai, Sismai fathered Shalum,

1 Chronicles 2:41 Shalum fathered Y’kamyah and Y’kamyah fathered Elishama.

1 Chronicles 2:42 The sons of Kalev the brother of Yerachme’el: Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Zif; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hevron.

1 Chronicles 2:43 The sons of Hevron: Korach, Tapuach, Rekem and Shema.

1 Chronicles 2:44 Shema fathered Racham the father of Yorke’am, and Rekem fathered Shamai.

1 Chronicles 2:45 The son of Shamai was Ma’on, and Ma’on was the father of Beit-Tzur.

1 Chronicles 2:46 ‘Eifah, Kalev’s concubine, bore Haran, Motza and Gazez; and Haran fathered Gazez.

1 Chronicles 2:47 The sons of Yahdai: Regem, Yotam, Geshan, Pelet, ‘Eifah and Sha’af.

1 Chronicles 2:48 Ma’akhah, Kalev’s concubine, bore Shever and Tirchanah.

1 Chronicles 2:49 [[The wife of]] Sha’af the father of Madmanah bore Sh’va the father of Machbenah and the father of Giv’a. The daughter of Kalev was ‘Akhsah.

1 Chronicles 2:50 These were the descendants of Kalev. The sons of Hur the firstborn of Efratah: Shoval the father of Kiryat-Ye’arim,

1 Chronicles 2:51 Salma the father of Beit-Lechem and Haref the father of Beit-Gader.

1 Chronicles 2:52 Shoval the father of Kiryat-Ye’arim had sons: HaRo’eh and half of the [[inhabitants of]] M’nuchot.

1 Chronicles 2:53 The families of Kiryat-Ye’arim: the Yitri, the Puti, the Shumati and the Mishra’i; from them came the Tzor’ati and the Eshta’uli.

1 Chronicles 2:54 The sons of Salma: Beit-Lechem, the N’tofati, ‘Atrot-Beit-Yo’av, half of the Manachati, the Tzor’i,

1 Chronicles 2:55 the families of scribes that lived in Ya’betz, the Tir’atim, the Shim’atim and the Sukhatim. These are the Kinim, who came from Hamat, father of the house of Rekhav.

1 Chronicles 3:1 These were the sons born to David in Hevron: the firstborn was Amnon, whose mother was Achino’am from Yizre’el; the second, Dani’el, whose mother was Avigayil from Karmel;

1 Chronicles 3:2 the third, Avshalom, the son of Ma’akhah the daughter of Talmai king of G’shur; the fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggit;

1 Chronicles 3:3 the fifth, Sh’fatyah, whose mother was Avital; and the sixth, Yitre’am, whose mother was his wife ‘Eglah.

1 Chronicles 3:4 Six were born to David in Hevron. He ruled there seven years and six months; then he ruled in Yerushalayim thirty-three years.

1 Chronicles 3:5 These were born to him in Yerushalayim: Shim’a, Shovav, Natan, Shlomo, four whose mother was Bat-Shua the daughter of ‘Ammi’el;

1 Chronicles 3:6 and nine others- Yivchar, Elishama, Elifelet,

1 Chronicles 3:7 Nogah, Nefeg, Yafia,

1 Chronicles 3:8 Elishama, Elyada and Elifelet.

1 Chronicles 3:9 All these were sons of David, apart from the sons of the concubines; Tamar was their sister.

1 Chronicles 3:10 Shlomo’s son was Rechav’am, his son Aviyah, his son Asa, his son Y’hoshafat,

1 Chronicles 3:11 his son Yoram, his son Achazyah, his son Yo’ash,

1 Chronicles 3:12 his son Amatzyah, his son ‘Azaryah, his son Yotam,

1 Chronicles 3:13 his son Achaz, his son Hizkiyahu, his son M’nasheh,

1 Chronicles 3:14 his son Amon and his son Yoshiyahu.

1 Chronicles 3:15 The sons of Yoshiyahu: Yochanan the firstborn, Y’hoyakim the second, Tzedekyah the third, and Shalum the fourth.

1 Chronicles 3:16 The sons of Y’hoyakim: Y’khonyah his son, and Tzedekyah his son.

1 Chronicles 3:17 The sons of Y’khonyah, also called Asir: Sh’alti’el his son;

1 Chronicles 3:18 also Malkiram, P'dayah, Shen'atzar, Y'kamyah, Hoshama and N'davyah.

1 Chronicles 3:19 The sons of P'dayah: Z'rubavel and Shim'i. The children of Z'rubavel: Meshulam, Hananyah and Shlomit their sister;

1 Chronicles 3:20 also Hashuvah, Ohel, Berekhyah, Hasadyah and Yushav-Hesed- five.

1 Chronicles 3:21 The sons of Hananyah: P'latyah and Yesha'yah. His son was Refayah. His son was Arnan. His son was 'Ovadyah. And his son was Sh'khanyah.

1 Chronicles 3:22 The sons of Sh'khanyah: Sh'ma'yah and the sons of Sh'ma'yah- Hatush, Yig'al, Bariach, Ne'aryah and Shafat- six.

1 Chronicles 3:23 The sons of Ne'aryah: Elyo'einai, Hizkiyah and 'Azrikam- three.

1 Chronicles 3:24 The sons of Elyo'einai: Hodavyahu, Elyashiv, P'layah, 'Akuv, Yochanan, D'layah and 'Anani- seven.

1 Chronicles 4:1 The descendants of Y'hudah: Peretz, Hetzron, Karmi, Hur and Shoval.

1 Chronicles 4:2 Re'ayah the son of Shoval fathered Yachat; Yachat fathered Achumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Tzor'ati.

1 Chronicles 4:3 These are [[the sons]] of the father of 'Eitam: Yizre'el, Yishma and Yidbash; their sister's name was Hatzlelponi.

1 Chronicles 4:4 P'nu'el fathered Geder, and 'Ezer fathered Hushah. These are the sons of Hur the firstborn of Efratah, the father of Beit-Lechem.

1 Chronicles 4:5 Ashur the father of T'koa had two wives, Hel'ah and Na'arah.

1 Chronicles 4:6 Na'arah bore him Achuzam, Hefer, Teimni and Achashtari; these were the sons of Na'arah.

1 Chronicles 4:7 The sons of Hel'ah were Tzeret, Tzochar and Etnan.

1 Chronicles 4:8 Kotz fathered 'Anuv, Tzovevah and the families of Acharchel the son of Harum.

1 Chronicles 4:9 Ya'betz was honored more than his brothers; his mother called him Ya'betz, she explained, "because I bore him in pain <N1>."

1 Chronicles 4:10 Ya'betz called on the God of Isra'el: "Please bless me by enlarging my territory. May your hand be with me! Keep me from harm, so that it will not cause me pain <N1>." God granted his request.

1 Chronicles 4:11 K'luv the brother of Shuchah fathered M'chir, who fathered Eshton.

1 Chronicles 4:12 Eshton fathered Beit-Rafa, Paseach and T'chinah the father of 'Ir-Nachash. These are the men of Rekhah.

1 Chronicles 4:13 The sons of K'naz: 'Otni'el and S'rayah. The son of 'Otni'el: Hatat.

1 Chronicles 4:14 M'onotai fathered 'Ofrah, and S'rayah fathered Yo'av the father of Gei-Harashim; for they were craftsmen <N1>.

1 Chronicles 4:15 The sons of Kalev the son of Y'funeh: 'Iru, Elah and Na'am. The son of Elah: K'naz.

1 Chronicles 4:16 The sons of Yehallel'el: Zif, Zifah, Tirya and Asar'el.

1 Chronicles 4:17 The sons of 'Ezrah: Yeter, Mered, 'Efer and Yalon. These are the sons of Bityah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took as his wife: she conceived Miryam, Shamai and Yishbach the father of Esht'moa; while his Jewish wife bore Yered the father of G'dor, Hever the father of Sokho and Y'kuti'el the father of Zanoach.

1 Chronicles 4:18

1 Chronicles 4:19 The sons of the wife of Hodiyah the sister of Nacham were the father of Ke'ilah the Garmi and Esht'moa the Ma'akhati.

1 Chronicles 4:20 The sons of Shimon: Amnon, Rinah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon. The sons of Yish'i: Zochet and Ben-Zochet.

1 Chronicles 4:21 The sons of Shelah the son of Y'hudah: 'Er the father of Lekha, La'adah the father of Mareshah and the clans of fine-linen-workers at Beit-Ashbea,

1 Chronicles 4:22 Yokim, the men of Kozeva, Saraf the ruler in Mo'av, and Yashuvi-Lechem (the records are ancient).

1 Chronicles 4:23 These were potters and inhabitants of N'ta'im and G'derah; they lived there, occupied with the king's work.

1 Chronicles 4:24 The sons of Shim'on: N'mu'el, Yamin, Yariv, Zerach and Sha'ul.

1 Chronicles 4:25 His son was Shalum, his son was Mivsam, and his son was Mishma.

1 Chronicles 4:26 The descendants of Mishma: his son Hamu'el, his son Zakur, his son Shim'i.

1 Chronicles 4:27 Shim'i had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children, so their clans did not increase like those of Y'hudah.

1 Chronicles 4:28 They lived at Be'er-Sheva, Moladah, Hatzar-Shu'al,

1 Chronicles 4:29 Bilhah, 'Etzem, Tolad,

1 Chronicles 4:30 B'tu'el, Hormah, Ziklag,

1 Chronicles 4:31 Beit-Markavot, Hatzar-Susim, Beit-Bir'i and Sha'arayim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

1 Chronicles 4:32 Their villages were ‘Eitam, ‘Ayin, Rimmon, Tokhen and ‘Ashan, five cities,

1 Chronicles 4:33 along with all the villages surrounding these cities, as far as Ba’al. These are the places where they lived, and they have their official genealogy.

1 Chronicles 4:34 Meshovav, Yamlekh, Yoshah the son of Amatzyah,

1 Chronicles 4:35 Yo’el, Yehu the son of Yoshivyah the son of S’rayah the son of ‘Asi’el,

1 Chronicles 4:36 Elyo’einai, Ya’akovah, Y’shochayah, ‘Asayah, ‘Adi’el, Y’simi’el, B’nayah,

1 Chronicles 4:37 Ziza the son of Shif’i the son of Alon the son of Y’da’yah the son of Shimri the son of Sh’ma’yah-

1 Chronicles 4:38 these mentioned by name were princes in their clans, and their fathers’ houses increased greatly.

1 Chronicles 4:39 Seeking pasture for their flocks they went to the entrance of Geder, as far as the east side of the valley.

1 Chronicles 4:40 They found rich, good pastures; and the land was spacious, quiet and peaceful. Those who had lived there previously belonged to Ham.

1 Chronicles 4:41 Those whose names are written above came during the time of Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah; they attacked their tents and the Me’unim who were found there, destroyed them completely, and have lived there in place of them to this day; because there was pasture there for their flocks.

1 Chronicles 4:42 Some 500 of them who were descendants of Shim’on went to Mount Se’ir under the leadership of P’latyah, Ne’aryah, Refayah and Uzi’el the sons of Yish’i.

1 Chronicles 4:43 They attacked the remnant of ‘Amalek who had escaped and have lived there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5:1 The sons of Re’uven the firstborn of Isra’el- he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father’s bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Yosef the son of Isra’el, though not in such a way as for him to be regarded in the genealogy as the firstborn.

1 Chronicles 5:2 For Y’hudah became greater than his brothers, inasmuch as the ruler came from him; nevertheless, the birthright went to Yosef.

1 Chronicles 5:3 So these are the sons of Re’uven the firstborn of Isra’el: Hanokh, Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi.

1 Chronicles 5:4 The descendants of Yo’el: his son Sh’ma’yah, his son Gog, his son Shim’i,

1 Chronicles 5:5 his son Mikhah, his son Re’ayah, his son Ba’al,

1 Chronicles 5:6 and his son Be'erah. Tilgat-Piln'eser king of Ashur carried him away captive; he was leader of the Re'uveni.

1 Chronicles 5:7 His brothers, by their clans, as listed in their genealogical records were: Ye'i'el the leader, Z'kharyah

1 Chronicles 5:8 and Bela the son of 'Azaz the son of Sh'ma the son of Yo'el. He lived in 'Aro'er, with territory extending to N'vo and Ba'al-M'on;

1 Chronicles 5:9 while to the east he occupied territory that extended to the beginning of the desert as one comes from the Euphrates River; because their cattle multiplied in the land of Gil'ad.

1 Chronicles 5:10 In the time of Sha'ul they went to war with the Hagri'im; after defeating them they occupied their tents throughout all the territory east of Gil'ad.

1 Chronicles 5:11 The descendants of Gad lived across from them, in the territory from Bashan to Salkhah:

1 Chronicles 5:12 Yo'el was the leader, Shafam second, then Yanai and Shafat in Bashan.

1 Chronicles 5:13 The houses of their fathers' brothers were: Mikha'el, Meshulam, Sheva, Yorai, Ya'kan, Zia and 'Ever- seven altogether.

1 Chronicles 5:14 These are the sons of Avichayil the son of Huri the son of Yaroach the son of Gil'ad the son of Mikha'el the son of Yeshishai the son of Yachdo the son of Buz;

1 Chronicles 5:15 Achi the son of 'Avdi'el the son of Guni was leader of their fathers' house.

1 Chronicles 5:16 They lived in Gil'ad, in Bashan, in its towns and in all the pasture lands of the plain as far as their borders.

1 Chronicles 5:17 All these were listed in genealogies during the times of Yotam king of Y'hudah and Yarov'am king of Isra'el.

1 Chronicles 5:18 The descendants of Re'uven, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M'nasheh included 44,760 brave men who were available for warfare, able to take up shield and sword, shoot with the bow, or make use of other war skills.

1 Chronicles 5:19 These made war with the Hagri'im, Y'tur, Nafish and Nodav.

1 Chronicles 5:20 They received help against them, so that the Hagri'im and all who were allied with them suffered defeat at their hands; because they cried out to God while they were fighting, and he did as they requested, because they put their trust in him.

1 Chronicles 5:21 From their livestock they carried off 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep and 2,000 donkeys; they also took captive 100,000 persons.

1 Chronicles 5:22 Many were slaughtered, because the war was of God, and they lived in their territory until the captivity.

1 Chronicles 5:23 The descendants of the half-tribe of M’nasheh lived and increased in the territory from Bashan to Ba’al-Hermon, S’nir and Mount Hermon.

1 Chronicles 5:24 The leaders of their fathers’ houses were: ‘Efer, Yish’i, Eli’el, ‘Azri’el, Yirmeyah, Hodavyah and Yachdi’el, strong, brave, famous men, leaders of their fathers’ houses.

1 Chronicles 5:25 But they broke faith with the God of their ancestors and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed ahead of them.

1 Chronicles 5:26 So the God of Isra’el stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Ashur and the spirit of Tilgat-Piln’eser king of Ashur; and he carried them away as captives- the Re’uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M’nasheh- and brought them to Halach, Havor, Hara and to the Gozan River, where they are to this day.

1 Chronicles 5:27 The sons of Levi: Gershon, K’hat and M’rari.

1 Chronicles 5:28 The sons of K’hat: ‘Amram, Yitz’har, Hevron and ‘Uzi’el.

1 Chronicles 5:29 The children of ‘Amram: Aharon, Moshe and Miryam. The sons of Aharon: Nadav, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar.

1 Chronicles 5:30 El’azar fathered Pinchas, Pinchas fathered Avishua,

1 Chronicles 5:31 Avishua fathered Buki, Buki fathered ‘Uzi,

1 Chronicles 5:32 ‘Uzi fathered Z’rachyah, Z’rachyah fathered M’rayot,

1 Chronicles 5:33 M’rayot fathered Amaryah, Amaryah fathered Achituv,

1 Chronicles 5:34 Achituv fathered Tzadok, Tzadok fathered Achima’atz,

1 Chronicles 5:35 Achima’atz fathered ‘Azaryah, ‘Azaryah fathered Yochanan,

1 Chronicles 5:36 and Yochanan fathered ‘Azaryah. He functioned as [cohen] in the house that Shlomo built in Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 5:37 ‘Azaryah fathered Amaryah, Amaryah fathered Achituv,

1 Chronicles 5:38 Achituv fathered Tzadok, Tzadok fathered Shalum,

1 Chronicles 5:39 Shalum fathered Hilkiyah, Hilkiyah fathered ‘Azaryah,

1 Chronicles 5:40 ‘Azaryah fathered S’rayah, S’rayah fathered Y’hotzadak,

1 Chronicles 5:41 and Y'hotzadak went into captivity when ADONAI carried Y'hudah and Yerushalayim away at the hands of N'vukhadnetzar.

1 Chronicles 6:1 The sons of Levi: Gershom, K'hat and M'rari.

1 Chronicles 6:2 These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Livni and Shim'i.

1 Chronicles 6:3 The sons of K'hat: 'Amram, Yitz'har, Hevron and 'Uzi'el.

1 Chronicles 6:4 The sons of M'rari: Machli and Mushi. These are the families of the [L'vi'im] according to father's clans:

1 Chronicles 6:5 [[The descendants]] of Gershom: his son Livni, his son Yachat, his son Zimah,

1 Chronicles 6:6 his son Yo'ach, his son 'Iddo, his son Zerach, his son Ye'atrai.

1 Chronicles 6:7 The descendants of K'hat: his son 'Amminadav, his son Korach, his son Asir,

1 Chronicles 6:8 his son Elkanah, his son Evyasaf, his son Asir,

1 Chronicles 6:9 his son Tachat, his son Uri'el, his son 'Uziyah and his son Sha'ul.

1 Chronicles 6:10 The sons of Elkanah: 'Amasai and Achimot.

1 Chronicles 6:11 As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah: his son Tzofai, his son Nachat,

1 Chronicles 6:12 his son Eli'av, his son Yerocham and his son Elkanah.

1 Chronicles 6:13 The sons of Sh'mu'el: Vashni the firstborn, then Aviyah.

1 Chronicles 6:14 The descendants of M'rari: Machli, his son Livni, his son Shim'i, his son 'Uzah,

1 Chronicles 6:15 his son Shim'a, his son Hagiyah and his son 'Asayah.

1 Chronicles 6:16 David appointed them to be in charge of the service of song in the house of ADONAI after the ark had found a permanent resting place.

1 Chronicles 6:17 They served as singers before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, until Shlomo had built the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim; and they carried out their tasks in a prescribed order.

1 Chronicles 6:18 Those who carried out these tasks and their descendants were- starting with descendants of the K'hati- Heman the singer, the son of Yo'el the son of Sh'mu'el,

1 Chronicles 6:19 the son of Elkanah, the son of Yerocham, the son of Eli'el, the son of Toach,

1 Chronicles 6:20 the son of Tzuf, the son of Elkanah, the son of Machat, the son of ‘Amasai,

1 Chronicles 6:21 the son of Elkanah, the son of Yo’el, the son of ‘Azaryah, the son of Tz’fanyah,

1 Chronicles 6:22 the son of Tachat, the son of Asir, the son of Evyasaf, the son of Korach,

1 Chronicles 6:23 the son of Yitz’har, the son of K’hat, the son of Levi, the son of Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 6:24 His brother Asaf, who stood on his right, was Asaf the son of Berekhyah, the son of Shim’a,

1 Chronicles 6:25 the son of Mikha’el, the son of Ba’aseyah, the son of Malkiyah,

1 Chronicles 6:26 the son of Etni, the son of Zerach the son of ‘Adayah,

1 Chronicles 6:27 the son of Eitan, the son of Zimah, the son of Shim’i,

1 Chronicles 6:28 the son of Yachat, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

1 Chronicles 6:29 On the left were their kinsmen the descendants of M’rari: Eitan the son of Kishi, the son of ‘Avdi, the son of Malukh,

1 Chronicles 6:30 the son of Hashavyah, the son of Amatzyah, the son of Hilkiyah,

1 Chronicles 6:31 the son of Amtzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer,

1 Chronicles 6:32 the son of Machli, the son of Mushi, the son of M’rari, the son of Levi.

1 Chronicles 6:33 Their kinsmen the [L’vi’im] were put in charge of all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

1 Chronicles 6:34 But Aharon and his sons were the ones who offered on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense for all the service of the Especially Holy Place and to make atonement for Isra’el, in keeping with all that Moshe the servant of God had ordered to be done.

1 Chronicles 6:35 These are the descendants of Aharon: his son El’azar, his son Pinchas, his son Avishua,

1 Chronicles 6:36 his son Buki, his son ‘Uzi, his son Z’rachyah,

1 Chronicles 6:37 his son M’rayot, his son Amaryah, his son Achituv,

1 Chronicles 6:38 his son Tzadok and his son Achima’atz.

1 Chronicles 6:39 These were the settlements of the descendants of Aharon according to the territories assigned them: to the descendants of Aharon, of the clans of the K'hati- for the first lot fell to them-

1 Chronicles 6:40 they gave Hevron in the land of Y'hudah with the open land surrounding it,

1 Chronicles 6:41 but the fields and the dependent villages of the city they gave to Kalev the son of Y'funeh.

1 Chronicles 6:42 To the descendants of Aharon they gave the city of refuge Hevron, also Livnah with its surrounding open land, Yatir, Esht'moa with its surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:43 Hilen with its surrounding open land, D'vir with its surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:44 'Ashan with its surrounding open land, Beit-Shemesh with its surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:45 and out of the tribe of Binyamin: Geva with its surrounding open land, 'Alemet with its surrounding open land and 'Anatot with its surrounding open land. All the cities for all their clans amounted to thirteen cities.

1 Chronicles 6:46 The rest of the descendants of K'hat were assigned by lot, clan by clan, ten cities from the half-tribe of M'nasheh.

1 Chronicles 6:47 The descendants of Gershom were assigned, clan by clan, thirteen cities from the tribes of Yissakhar, Asher, Naftali and M'nasheh in Bashan.

1 Chronicles 6:48 To the descendants of M'rari were assigned by lot, clan by clan, twelve cities from the tribes of Re'uven, Gad and Z'vulun.

1 Chronicles 6:49 So the people of Isra'el gave the [L'vi'im] these cities with the surrounding open land.

1 Chronicles 6:50 From the tribes of the descendants of Y'hudah, Shim'on and Binyamin they assigned these cities mentioned by name.

1 Chronicles 6:51 Some of the clans of the descendants of K'hat were given cities in territory from the tribe of Efrayim.

1 Chronicles 6:52 They gave them the city of refuge Sh'khem in the hills of Efrayim with the surrounding open land, also Gezer with the surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:53 Yokme'am with the surrounding open land, Beit-Horon with the surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:54 Ayalon with the surrounding open land, and Gat-Rimmon with the surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:55 and out of the half-tribe of M'nasheh: 'Aner with the surrounding open land and Bil'am with the surrounding open land, for the rest of the clans of the descendants of K'hat.

1 Chronicles 6:56 The descendants of Gershom were given, from the clans of the half-tribe of M'nasheh: Golan in Bashan with the surrounding open land and 'Ashtarot with the surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:57 and from the tribe of Yissakhar: Kedesh with the surrounding open land, Davrat with the surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:58 Ramot with the surrounding open land and 'Anem with the surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:59 and from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with the surrounding open land, 'Avdon with the surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:60 Hukok with the surrounding open land and Rechov with the surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:61 and from the tribe of Naftali: Kedesh in the Galil with the surrounding open land, Hamon with the surrounding open land and Kiryatayim with the surrounding open land.

1 Chronicles 6:62 To the rest [[of the [L'vi'im]]], the descendants of M'rari, were given, from the tribe of Z'vulun: Rimmono with the surrounding open land and Tavor with the surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:63 and beyond the Yarden at Yericho, on the east side of the Yarden, they were given, from the tribe of Re'uven: Betzer in the desert with the surrounding open land, Yahatz with the surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:64 K'demot with the surrounding open land and Mefa'at with the surrounding open land;

1 Chronicles 6:65 and from the tribe of Gad: Ramot in Gil'ad with the surrounding open land, Machanayim with the surrounding open land,

1 Chronicles 6:66 Heshbon with the surrounding open land and Ya'zer with the surrounding open land.

1 Chronicles 7:1 The sons of Yissakhar were: Tola, Pu'ah, Yashuv and Shimron- four.

1 Chronicles 7:2 The sons of Tola were: 'Uzi, Refayah, Yeri'el, Yachmai, Yivsam and Sh'mu'el. They were heads of their fathers' clans, descended from Tola; they were strong, brave men in their generations. In the time of David they numbered 22,600.

1 Chronicles 7:3 The son of 'Uzi was Yizrachyah, and the sons of Yizrachyah were: Mikha'el, 'Ovadyah, Yo'el and Yishiyah- five, all of them leaders.

1 Chronicles 7:4 With them, by their generations, in their fathers' clans, were army troops organized for war, 36,000 of them, because they had many women and children.

1 Chronicles 7:5 Their kinsmen among all the clans of Yissakhar, strong, brave men, numbered 87,000, listed in genealogical records.

1 Chronicles 7:6 [[The sons of]] Binyamin were: Bela, Bekher and Y'dia'el- three.

1 Chronicles 7:7 The sons of Bela were: Etzbon, 'Uzi, 'Uzi'el, Yerimot and 'Iri- five; they were leaders of fathers' clans, strong, brave men. They numbered 22,034, listed in genealogical records.

1 Chronicles 7:8 The sons of Bekher were: Z'mirah, Yo'ash, Eli'ezer, Elyo'enai, 'Omri, Yeremot, Aviyah, 'Anatot and 'Alemet; all these were sons of Bekher.

1 Chronicles 7:9 Listed in genealogical records by generations under leaders of fathers' clans, who were strong, brave men, were 20,200.

1 Chronicles 7:10 The son of Y'dia'el was Bilhan. The sons of Bilhan were: Ye'ush, Binyamin, Ehud, Kena'anah, Zeitan, Tarshish and Achishachar.

1 Chronicles 7:11 All these were descendants of Y'dia'el, leaders of their fathers' clans, who were brave, strong men; they numbered 17,200, all fit to fight with the army.

1 Chronicles 7:12 [[More descendants of Binyamin:]] Shupim, Hupim, the sons of 'Ir. Hushim, the son of another [[of Isra'el's sons, namely, Dan]].

1 Chronicles 7:13 The sons of Naftali were: Yachtzi'el, Guni, Yetzer, Shalum, the sons of Bilhah.

1 Chronicles 7:14 The descendants of M'nasheh: his concubine the woman from Aram bore Makhir the father of Gil'ad; Asri'el [[Gil'ad's son]] was descended from her.

1 Chronicles 7:15 Makhir's wife was from the families of Hupim and Shupim, and his sister's name was Ma'akhah. M'nasheh's second son was Tz'lof'chad, and Tz'lof'chad had daughters.

1 Chronicles 7:16 Ma'akhah the wife of Makhir bore a son whom she named Peresh, the name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rekem.

1 Chronicles 7:17 The son of Ulam was B'dan. These were the descendants of Gil'ad the son of Makhir the son of M'nasheh.

1 Chronicles 7:18 His sister Hammolekhet [[the governor]] bore Ish-Hod, Avi'ezer and Machlah.

1 Chronicles 7:19 The sons of Sh'mida were Achyan, Sh'khem, Lik'chi and Ani'am.

1 Chronicles 7:20 The descendants of Efrayim were: Shutelach, his son Bered, his son Tachat, his son El'adah, his son Tachat,

1 Chronicles 7:21 his son Zavad and his son Shutelach; also 'Ezer and El'ad, whom the men of Gat born in the land killed when they came down to raid their cattle.

1 Chronicles 7:22 Efrayim their father mourned for a long time, and his kinsmen came to comfort him.

1 Chronicles 7:23 Then he had sexual relations with his wife, and she conceived and bore a son whom he called B’ri’ah [[in calamity]], because his household had suffered a calamity.

1 Chronicles 7:24 His daughter was She’erah, who built upper and lower Beit-Horon and Uzen-She’erah.

1 Chronicles 7:25 Refach was his son, and Reshef, then his son Telach, his son Tachan

1 Chronicles 7:26 his son La’dan, his son ‘Ammihud, his son Elishama,

1 Chronicles 7:27 his son Nun and his son Y’hoshua.

1 Chronicles 7:28 Their possessions and settlements were Beit-El with its towns; Na’aran to the east; and to the west, Gezer with its towns; also Sh’khem with its towns, as far as ‘Ayah and its towns;

1 Chronicles 7:29 and, near the territory of the descendants of M’nasheh, Beit-Sh’an with its towns, Ta’nakh with its towns, Megiddo with its towns and Dor with its towns. In these places lived the descendants of Yosef the son of Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 7:30 The children of Asher were: Yimnah, Yishvah, Yishvi, B’ri’ah and their sister Serach.

1 Chronicles 7:31 The sons of B’ri’ah were: Hever and Malki’el, who fathered Birzayit.

1 Chronicles 7:32 Hever fathered Yaflet, Shomer, Hotam and their sister Shua.

1 Chronicles 7:33 The sons of Yaflet were: Pasakh, Bimhal and ‘Ashvat; these were the sons of Yaflet.

1 Chronicles 7:34 The sons of Shemer were: Achi, Rohgah, Hubah and Aram.

1 Chronicles 7:35 The sons of his brother Helem were: Zofach, Yimnah, Shelesh and ‘Amal.

1 Chronicles 7:36 The sons of Zofach were: Suach, Harnefer, Shu’al, Beri, Yimrah,

1 Chronicles 7:37 Betzer, Hod, Shama, Shilshah, Yitran and Be’era.

1 Chronicles 7:38 The sons of Yeter were: Y’funeh, Pispah and Ara.

1 Chronicles 7:39 The sons of ‘Ula were: Arach, Hani’el and Ritzya.

1 Chronicles 7:40 All these were descendants of Asher, leaders of their fathers’ clans, elite, strong, brave men, the most important of the princes. Those fit for battle service, listed in genealogies, numbered 26,000 men.

1 Chronicles 8:1 Binyamin fathered Bela his firstborn son; his second, Ashbel; his third, Achrach;

1 Chronicles 8:2 his fourth, Nochah; and his fifth, Rafa.

1 Chronicles 8:3 Bela had sons: Adar, Gera, Avihud,

1 Chronicles 8:4 Avishua, Na'aman, Achoach,

1 Chronicles 8:5 Gera, Sh'fufan and Huram.

1 Chronicles 8:6 These are the sons of Ehud, the heads of fathers' clans among the inhabitants of Geva (they were carried away captive to Manachat;

1 Chronicles 8:7 those who carried them off were Na'aman, Achiyah and Gera): he fathered 'Uzah and Achichud.

1 Chronicles 8:8 Shacharayim fathered children on the plains of Mo'av; after sending away his wives Hushim and Ba'ara,

1 Chronicles 8:9 it was through his wife Hodesh that he fathered: Yovav, Tzivya, Mesha, Malkam,

1 Chronicles 8:10 Ye'utz, Sokhya and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of clans.

1 Chronicles 8:11 Through Hushim he fathered Avituv and Elpa'al.

1 Chronicles 8:12 The sons of Elpa'al: 'Ever, Mish'am, Shemed- he built Ono and Lod with its towns-

1 Chronicles 8:13 and B'ri'ah and Shema- they were heads of fathers' clans among the inhabitants of Ayalon, who drove away the people living in Gat.

1 Chronicles 8:14 Achyo, Shashak, Yeremot,

1 Chronicles 8:15 Z'vadyah, 'Arad, 'Eder,

1 Chronicles 8:16 Mikha'el, Yishpah and Yocha were the sons of B'ri'ah.

1 Chronicles 8:17 Z'vadyah, Meshulam, Hizki, Hever,

1 Chronicles 8:18 Yishm'rai, Yizli'ah and Yovav were the sons of Elpa'al.

1 Chronicles 8:19 Yakim, Zikhri, Zavdi,

1 Chronicles 8:20 Eli'einai, Tziltai, Eli'el,

1 Chronicles 8:21 'Adayah, B'rayah and Shimrat were the sons of Shim'i.

1 Chronicles 8:22 Yishpan, 'Eved, Eli'el,

1 Chronicles 8:23 'Avdon, Zikhri, Hanan,

1 Chronicles 8:24 Hananyah, 'Eilam, 'Anatotyah,

1 Chronicles 8:25 Yifdeyah and P'nu'el were the sons of Shashak.

1 Chronicles 8:26 Shamsh'rai, Sh'charyah, 'Atalyah,

1 Chronicles 8:27 Ya’areshyah, Eliyah and Zikhri were the sons of Yerocham.

1 Chronicles 8:28 These were leaders of fathers’ houses through all their generations, leading men who lived in Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 8:29 In Giv’on lived the father of Giv’on, whose wife’s name was Ma’akhah;

1 Chronicles 8:30 and his firstborn son ‘Avdon, Tzur, Kish, Ba’al, Nadav,

1 Chronicles 8:31 G’dor, Achyo and Zekher.

1 Chronicles 8:32 Miklot fathered Shim’ah. In contrast with some of their kinsmen, they and their families lived in Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 8:33 Ner fathered Kish; Kish fathered Sha’ul; and Sha’ul fathered Y’honatan, Malkishua, Avinadav and Eshba’al.

1 Chronicles 8:34 The son of Y’honatan was M’riv-Ba’al, and M’riv-Ba’al fathered Mikhah.

1 Chronicles 8:35 The sons of Mikhah: Piton, Melekh, Ta’rea and Achaz.

1 Chronicles 8:36 Achaz fathered Y’ho’adah; Y’ho’adah fathered ‘Alemet, ‘Azmavet and Zimri; Zimri fathered Motza;

1 Chronicles 8:37 and Motza fathered Bin’a. His son was Rafah, his son was El’asah and his son was Atzel.

1 Chronicles 8:38 Atzel had six sons, whose names were: ‘Azrikam, Bokhru, Yishma’el, Sh’aryah, ‘Ovadyah and Hanan; all these were sons of Atzel.

1 Chronicles 8:39 The sons of his brother ‘Eshek: Ulam his firstborn, Ye’ush the second and Elifelet the third.

1 Chronicles 8:40 The sons of Ulam were strong, brave men, archers; they had many children and grandchildren, a hundred and fifty. All these were descendants of Binyamin.

1 Chronicles 9:1 So all Isra’el was listed by genealogies, and these were recorded in the book of the kings of Isra’el. Then Y’hudah was carried away captive to Bavel because of their unfaithfulness.

1 Chronicles 9:2 The first people to return to their possessions in the cities were the Isra’elim, the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im] and the temple servants.

1 Chronicles 9:3 In Yerushalayim lived some descendants of Y’hudah, some descendants of Binyamin and some descendants of Efrayim and of M’nasheh:

1 Chronicles 9:4 ‘Utai the son of ‘Ammihud, the son of ‘Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, from the descendants of Peretz the son of Y’hudah.

1 Chronicles 9:5 Of the Shiloni: ‘Asayah the firstborn and his sons.

1 Chronicles 9:6 Of the descendants of Zerach: Ye'u'el and their kinsmen, 690.

1 Chronicles 9:7 Of the descendants of Binyamin: Salu the son of Meshulam the son of Hodavyah the son of Hasnu'ah,

1 Chronicles 9:8 Yivneyah the son of Yerocham, Elah the son of 'Uzi the son of Mikhri, Meshulam the son of Sh'fatyah the son of Re'u'el the son of Yivneyah,

1 Chronicles 9:9 and their kinsmen, according to their generations-altogether 956. All these men were leaders of fathers' clans.

1 Chronicles 9:10 Of the [cohanim]: Y'da'yah, Y'hoyariv, Yakhin,

1 Chronicles 9:11 'Azaryah the son of Hilkiyah the son of Meshulam the son of Tzadok the son of M'rayot the son of Achituv the ruler of the house of God,

1 Chronicles 9:12 'Adayah the son of Yerocham the son of Pash'chur the son of Malkiyah, Ma'asai the son of 'Adi'el the son of Yachzerah the son of Meshulam the son of Meshilmit the son of Immer,

1 Chronicles 9:13 and their kinsmen, leaders of their fathers' clans, 1,760 very competent men available for serving in the house of God.

1 Chronicles 9:14 Of the [L'vi'im]: Sh'ma'yah the son of Hashuv the son of 'Azrikam the son of Hashavyah, from the descendants of M'rari;

1 Chronicles 9:15 Bakbakar; Heresh; Galal; Matanyah the son of Mikha the son of Zikhri the son of Asaf;

1 Chronicles 9:16 'Ovadyah the son of Sh'ma'yah the son of Galal the son of Y'dutun; and Berekhyah the son of Asa the son of Elkanah, who lived in the towns of the N'tofati.

1 Chronicles 9:17 The gatekeepers: Shalum, 'Akuv, Talmon, Achiman and their kinsmen; Shalum was the chief.

1 Chronicles 9:18 Previously they had guarded the king's gate to the east; they were gatekeepers for the camp of the descendants of Levi.

1 Chronicles 9:19 Shalum the son of Kore the son of Evyasaf the son of Korach and his kinsmen from his father's clan the Korchim were in charge of the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tent. Their ancestors had been in charge of the camp of ADONAI, keepers of the entryway.

1 Chronicles 9:20 Pinchas the son of El'azar had been ruler over them long before; ADONAI had been with him.

1 Chronicles 9:21 Z'kharyah the son of Meshelemyah guarded the entryway to the tent of meeting.

1 Chronicles 9:22 All these chosen to be gatekeepers numbered 212. Their genealogies were recorded in their towns; they had been appointed to their positions by David and Sh'mu'el the seer.

1 Chronicles 9:23 They and their descendants supervised the gates of the house of ADONAI, that is, the house of the tent, by periods of duty.

1 Chronicles 9:24 The gatekeepers served on the four sides, east, west, north and south.

1 Chronicles 9:25 From time to time their kinsmen had to come in from their towns to help them for seven days.

1 Chronicles 9:26 For the four chief gatekeepers were on permanent duty; they were the [L'vi'im] in charge of accommodations and supplies in the house of God.

1 Chronicles 9:27 They spent their nights in the vicinity of the house of God, because they were in charge of it; they were responsible for opening it up each morning.

1 Chronicles 9:28 Some of [[the [L'vi'im]]] were in charge of the articles used for the service; they had to keep records of them when bringing them in and out.

1 Chronicles 9:29 Others were in charge of the equipment, the holy utensils, the fine flour, the wine, the olive oil, the frankincense and the spices.

1 Chronicles 9:30 Some of the sons of the [cohanim] mixed together the ingredients for the perfumes.

1 Chronicles 9:31 Mattityah, one of the [L'vi'im], who was the firstborn of Shalum the Korchi, was permanently in charge of baking operations.

1 Chronicles 9:32 Some of their kinsmen, from the descendants of the K'hati, were in charge of preparing the showbread every [Shabbat].

1 Chronicles 9:33 Also there were the singers, heads of fathers' clans among the [L'vi'im]. They lived in the accommodations and were free from other kinds of service, for they were employed in their own work day and night.

1 Chronicles 9:34 These were heads of fathers' clans among the [L'vi'im], according to their generations, and they were leaders; they lived in Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 9:35 In Giv'on lived the father of Giv'on, Ye'i'el, whose his wife's name was Ma'akhah;

1 Chronicles 9:36 and his firstborn son 'Avdon, Tzur, Kish, Ba'al, Ner, Nadav,

1 Chronicles 9:37 G'dor, Achyo, Z'kharyah and Miklot.

1 Chronicles 9:38 Miklot fathered Shim'am. In contrast with some of their kinsmen, they and their families lived in Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 9:39 Ner fathered Kish; Kish fathered Sha'ul; and Sha'ul fathered Y'honatan, Malkishua, Avinadav and Eshba'al.

1 Chronicles 9:40 The son of Y'honatan was M'riv-Ba'al, and M'riv-Ba'al fathered Mikhah.

1 Chronicles 9:41 The sons of Mikhah were: Piton, Melekh and Ta'rea.

1 Chronicles 9:42 Achaz fathered Ya'ra; Ya'ra fathered 'Alemet, 'Azmavet and Zimri; Zimri fathered Motza;

1 Chronicles 9:43 and Motza fathered Bin'a. His son was Rafah, his son El'asah and his son Atzel.

1 Chronicles 9:44 Atzel had six sons, whose names were: 'Azrikam, Bokhru, Yishma'el, Sh'aryah, 'Ovadyah and Hanan; all these were sons of Atzel.

1 Chronicles 10:1 Now the P'lishtim pressed their attack on Isra'el; and the men of Isra'el fled before the P'lishtim, leaving their dead on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:2 The P'lishtim pursued Sha'ul; overtook him and his sons; and the P'lishtim killed Y'honatan, Avinadav and Malkishua, the sons of Sha'ul.

1 Chronicles 10:3 The fighting went hard against Sha'ul; then the archers overtook and wounded him, so that he was in agony.

1 Chronicles 10:4 Sha'ul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it. Otherwise, these uncircumcised men will come and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer refused; he was too frightened. So Sha'ul took his sword and fell on it.

1 Chronicles 10:5 When his armor-bearer saw that Sha'ul was dead, he too fell on his own sword and died.

1 Chronicles 10:6 Thus Sha'ul, his three sons and all his household died together.

1 Chronicles 10:7 When all the men of Isra'el who were in the valley saw them fleeing and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled; then the P'lishtim came and lived in them.

1 Chronicles 10:8 The following day, when the P'lishtim came to strip the dead, they found Sha'ul and his sons lying dead on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:9 They stripped him, then took his head and his armor and sent them all over the territory of the P'lishtim to carry the news to their idols and to the people.

1 Chronicles 10:10 They put his armor in the temple of their gods and fastened his skull to the temple of Dagon.

1 Chronicles 10:11 When everyone in Yavesh-Gil'ad heard all that the P'lishtim had done to Sha'ul,

1 Chronicles 10:12 all their warriors set out, took away the body of Sha'ul and the bodies of his sons, brought them to Yavesh, buried their bones under the pistachio tree in Yavesh and fasted seven days.

1 Chronicles 10:13 So Sha'ul died for the transgression he committed against ADONAI, because of the word of ADONAI that he did not keep and because he sought the counsel of a spirit

1 Chronicles 10:14 instead of consulting ADONAI. Therefore ADONAI put him to death and turned the rulership over to David the son of Yishai.

1 Chronicles 11:1 Then all Isra'el gathered themselves to David in Hevron and said, "Here, we are your own flesh and bone.

1 Chronicles 11:2 In the past, even when Sha'ul was king, it was you who led Isra'el's military campaigns; and ADONAI your God said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Isra'el, and you will be chief over my people Isra'el.'"

1 Chronicles 11:3 So all the leaders of Isra'el came to the king in Hevron; and David made a covenant with them in Hevron in the presence of ADONAI. Then they anointed David king over Isra'el, as ADONAI had said through Sh'mu'el.

1 Chronicles 11:4 David and all Isra'el went to Yerushalayim, also known as Y'vus; and the Y'vusi, the inhabitants of that region, were there.

1 Chronicles 11:5 The inhabitants of Y'vus taunted David by saying, "You won't get in here!" Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Tziyon, also known now as the City of David.

1 Chronicles 11:6 David said, "Whoever attacks the Y'vusi first will be commander-in-chief." Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah attacked first and was made commander.

1 Chronicles 11:7 David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David.

1 Chronicles 11:8 David built up the city around it, starting at the Millo [[earth rampart]] and going on around; while Yo'av repaired the rest of the city.

1 Chronicles 11:9 David grew greater and greater, because [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] was with him.

1 Chronicles 11:10 These are David's chief warriors, who, under his rulership, joined forces with him and with all Isra'el to make him king, as ADONAI had said concerning Isra'el;

1 Chronicles 11:11 here is the list of David's warrior-heroes: Yashov'am son of a Hakhmoni, the chief officer; he is the one who raised his spear against 300 men and killed them in a single encounter.

1 Chronicles 11:12 After him was El'azar the son of Dodo the Achochi, one of the three warriors.

1 Chronicles 11:13 He was with David at Pas-Damim, where the P'lishtim had assembled for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley; and when the people fled from the P'lishtim,

1 Chronicles 11:14 they stood in the middle of the plot and defended it, killing the P'lishtim; and ADONAI saved them with a great victory.

1 Chronicles 11:15 Three of the thirty leaders went down to the rock and came to David during harvest season at the cave of 'Adulam when the army of the P'lishtim had set up camp in the Refa'im Valley.

1 Chronicles 11:16 At that time David was in the fortress, and the garrison of the P'lishtim was in Beit-Lechem.

1 Chronicles 11:17 David had a craving and said, "I wish someone could give me water to drink from the well by the gate of Beit-Lechem!"

1 Chronicles 11:18 The three broke through the army of the P'lishtim, drew water from the well by the gate of Beit-Lechem, took it and brought it to David. But David would not drink it; instead, he poured it out to ADONAI

1 Chronicles 11:19 and said, "My God forbid that I should do such a thing! Am I to drink the blood of these men who went and put their lives in jeopardy? They risked their lives to bring it!"- and he would not consent to drink it. These are the things the three warrior-heroes did.

1 Chronicles 11:20 Avishai the brother of Yo'av was chief of these three. He raised his spear against 300 men and killed them; thus he had a reputation even among the three.

1 Chronicles 11:21 Of the three in the second rank he had the most honor and was therefore made their leader; however, he did not achieve the status of the first three.

1 Chronicles 11:22 B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada, the son of a valiant man of Kavtze'el, was a man of many exploits. He struck down two lion-hearted men of Mo'av. One day when it was snowing, he went down into a pit and killed a lion.

1 Chronicles 11:23 Here is how he killed an Egyptian, a man who was very tall, seven-and-a-half feet: the Egyptian had a spear in his hand the size of a weaver's beam; he went down to him with only a stick, seized the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

1 Chronicles 11:24 These are things that B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada did that earned him a name among the three warrior-heroes.

1 Chronicles 11:25 He had more honor than the thirty, but he did not achieve the status of the first three. David put him in command of his personal guard.

1 Chronicles 11:26 There were also these warrior-heroes: 'Asah'el the brother of Yo'av, Elchanan the son of Dodo, from Beit-Lechem,

1 Chronicles 11:27 Shammah the Harori, Heletz the P'loni,

1 Chronicles 11:28 ‘Ira son of ‘Ikesh from T’koa, Avi’ezer from ‘Anatot,

1 Chronicles 11:29 Sibkhai the Hushati, ‘Ilai the Achochi,

1 Chronicles 11:30 Mahrai the N’tofati, Heled the son of Ba’anah the N’tofati,

1 Chronicles 11:31 Ittai the son of Rivai from Giv’ah, from the descendants of Binyamin, B’nayahu from Pir’aton,

1 Chronicles 11:32 Hurai from the [vadi]s of Ga’ash, Avi’el the ‘Arvati,

1 Chronicles 11:33 ‘Azmavet the Bacharumi Elyachba the Sha’alvoni,

1 Chronicles 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizoni, Y’honatan the son of Shageh the Harari,

1 Chronicles 11:35 Achi’am the son of Sakhar the Harari, Elifal the son of Ur,

1 Chronicles 11:36 Hefer the M’kherati, Achiyah the P’loni,

1 Chronicles 11:37 Hetzro the Karmeli, Na’arai the son of Ezbai

1 Chronicles 11:38 Yo’el the brother of Natan, Mivchar the son of Hagri,

1 Chronicles 11:39 Tzelek the ‘Amoni, Nachrai the Be’eroti, armor-bearer of Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah,

1 Chronicles 11:40 ‘Ira the Yitri, Garev the Yitri,

1 Chronicles 11:41 Uriyah the Hitti, Zavad the son of Achlai,

1 Chronicles 11:42 ‘Adina the son of Shiza the Re’uveni, a leader among the Re’uveni, and thirty with him,

1 Chronicles 11:43 Hanan the son of Ma’akhah, Yoshafat the Mitni,

1 Chronicles 11:44 ‘Uziyah the ‘Asht’rati Shama and Ye’i’el the sons of Hotam the ‘Aro’eri,

1 Chronicles 11:45 Y’dia’el the son of Shimri, Yocha his brother, the Titzi,

1 Chronicles 11:46 Eli’el from Machavim, Yerivai and Yoshavyah the sons of Elna’am, Yitmah the Mo’avi,

1 Chronicles 11:47 Eli’el, ‘Oved, and Ya’asi’el from M’tzovayah.

1 Chronicles 12:1 Following are the men who joined David at Ziklag while he was still being kept away from Sha’ul the son of Kish; they were among the warriors who helped him fight his battles.

1 Chronicles 12:2 They were archers who could use either hand to sling stones or shoot arrows from a bow; they were Sha’ul’s kinsmen from Binyamin.

1 Chronicles 12:3 Their leader was Achi’ezer, then Yo’ash, the sons of Sh’ma’ah the Giv’ati, Y’zi’el, Pelet, the sons of ‘Azmavet, B’rakhah, Yehu from ‘Anatot,

1 Chronicles 12:4 Yishma’yah the Giv’oni, one of the strongest of the thirty and commander of the thirty,

1 Chronicles 12:5 Yirmeyah, Yachzi’el, Yochanan, Yozavad from G’derah,

1 Chronicles 12:6 El’uzai, Yerimot, B’alyah, Sh’maryah, Sh’fatyah the Harufi,

1 Chronicles 12:7 Elkanah, Yishiyahu, ‘Azar’el, Yo’ezer, Yashov’am the Korchi,

1 Chronicles 12:8 and Yo’elah and Z’vadyah the sons of Yerocham from G’dor.

1 Chronicles 12:9 From the Gadi a number of strong, brave, trained fighting men defected to David at the fortress in the desert. They could handle shield and spear, they were as fierce as lions, and they were as fast as deer on the hills:

1 Chronicles 12:10 ‘Ezer was the leader, ‘Ovadyah was second, Eli’av third,

1 Chronicles 12:11 Mishmanah fourth, Yirmeyah fifth,

1 Chronicles 12:12 ‘Atai sixth, Eli’el seventh,

1 Chronicles 12:13 Yochanan eighth, Elzavad ninth,

1 Chronicles 12:14 Yirmeyah tenth, and Makhbanai eleventh.

1 Chronicles 12:15 These descendants of Gad were army commanders; the least of them was worth a hundred, and the greatest worth a thousand.

1 Chronicles 12:16 These are the men who crossed the Yarden during the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks, and drove out all those who lived in the valleys, both to the east and to the west.

1 Chronicles 12:17 From the descendants of Binyamin and Y’hudah a number came to David at the fortress.

1 Chronicles 12:18 When David went out to meet them, he said, “If you are coming to me in peace to help me, my heart will be bonded to yours. But if you are coming to betray me to my enemies, then, since I have done nothing wrong, may the God of our fathers see it and judge.”

1 Chronicles 12:19 Then the Spirit covered ‘Amasai the chief commander, and he said: “We are yours, David; on your side, son of Yishai! Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helpers; for your God helps you.” David welcomed them and made them senior officers.

1 Chronicles 12:20 From M’nasheh some defected to David when he was about to go with the P’lishtim to fight against Sha’ul; but they ended up not helping them; because the rulers of the P’lishtim, after consultation, sent David away, saying, “He will defect to his master Sha’ul at the cost of our heads.”

1 Chronicles 12:21 As he was on his way to Ziklag, those who defected to him from M’nasheh included ‘Adnach, Yozavad, Y’dia’el, Mikha’el, Yozavad, Elihu and Tziltai, commanders of thousands from M’nasheh.

1 Chronicles 12:22 They helped David against the raiding band, for they were all strong, brave men who were commanders in the army.

1 Chronicles 12:23 Indeed, reinforcements to assist David reached him daily, until there was a great army, like the army of God.

1 Chronicles 12:24 Following are the numbers of those who came armed for war to David in Hevron, in order to transfer to him the kingdom of Sha’ul, according to what ADONAI had said.

1 Chronicles 12:25 The descendants of Y’hudah bearing shields and spears numbered 6,800, armed for war.

1 Chronicles 12:26 Of the descendants of Shim’on, strong, brave men for war, there were 7,100.

1 Chronicles 12:27 Of the descendants of Levi, there were 4,600.

1 Chronicles 12:28 Y’hoyada was the leader of the house of Aharon, and with him were 3,700;

1 Chronicles 12:29 also Tzadok, a young man, strong and brave, with twenty-two commanders from his father’s family.

1 Chronicles 12:30 Of the descendants of Binyamin the kinsmen of Sha’ul, there were 3,000; for up until then, the majority of them had remained loyal to the house of Sha’ul.

1 Chronicles 12:31 Of the descendants of Efrayim, there were 20,800 strong, brave men, well known in their fathers’ families.

1 Chronicles 12:32 Of the half-tribe of M’nasheh, 18,000 were designated by name to come and make David king.

1 Chronicles 12:33 Of the descendants of Yissakhar, men who understood the times and knew what Isra’el ought to do, there were 200 leaders, and all their kinsmen were under their command.

1 Chronicles 12:34 Of Z’vulun, 50,000 men were fit for military service, experienced in war and able to use all kinds of weapons; they were brave, and none was doubleminded.

1 Chronicles 12:35 Of Naftali, there were 1,000 officers, and with them 37,000 troops having shields and spears.

1 Chronicles 12:36 Of Dan, 28,600 were experienced in war.

1 Chronicles 12:37 Of Asher, 40,000 men were fit for military service and experienced in war.

1 Chronicles 12:38 On the other side of the Yarden, from the Re’uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M’nasheh, there were 120,000 with all kinds of weapons for battle.

1 Chronicles 12:39 All these soldiers who were experienced in war came to Hevron wholeheartedly to make David king over all Isra’el, and all the rest from Isra’el were single-hearted in wanting to make David king.

1 Chronicles 12:40 They remained there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had prepared for them.

1 Chronicles 12:41 Moreover, those who were near them- and even those as far as Yissakhar, Z’vulun and Naftali- brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen: baked goods, fig cakes, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, and oxen and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 13:1 David consulted with the commanders of thousands and of hundreds- with every leader.

1 Chronicles 13:2 Then David said to the entire assembly of Isra’el, “If it seems good to you, and if it is the will of ADONAI our God, let’s send messengers to the rest of our kinsmen in the land of Isra’el, and also to the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] in their cities with surrounding open land, asking them to join us;

1 Chronicles 13:3 and let’s bring back the ark of our God to ourselves, since we didn’t go after it when Sha’ul was king.”

1 Chronicles 13:4 The whole assembly said they would do this, for in the view of all the people it seemed right.

1 Chronicles 13:5 So David summoned all Isra’el to come together, from Shichor in Egypt all the way to the entrance of Hamat, to bring the ark of God from Kiryat-Ye’arim.

1 Chronicles 13:6 David went up with all Isra’el to Ba’alah, that is, Kiryat-Ye’arim, which belonged to Y’hudah, to bring up from there the ark of God, ADONAI, who is enthroned above the [k’ruvim], bearing the Name.

1 Chronicles 13:7 They set the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Avinadav, with ‘Uza and Achyo, the sons of Avinadav, driving the cart.

1 Chronicles 13:8 David and all Isra’el celebrated in the presence of God with all their strength, with songs, lyres, lutes, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

1 Chronicles 13:9 When they arrived at Kidon’s threshing-floor, the oxen stumbled; and ‘Uza put out his hand to steady the ark.

1 Chronicles 13:10 But ADONAI’s anger blazed up against ‘Uza, and he struck him down, because he had put out his hand and touched the ark, so that he died there before God.

1 Chronicles 13:11 It upset David that ADONAI had broken out against ‘Uza; that place has been called Peretz-’Uza [[breaking-out of ‘Uza]] ever since.

1 Chronicles 13:12 That day, God frightened David; he asked, “How can I bring the ark of God to me?”

1 Chronicles 13:13 So David didn’t bring the ark into the City of David; rather, David carried it aside into the house of ‘Oved-’Edom the Gitti.

1 Chronicles 13:14 The ark of God stayed with the family of ‘Oved-’Edom the Gitti in his house for three months; and ADONAI blessed the household of ‘Oved-’Edom and all he had.

1 Chronicles 14:1 Huram king of Tzor sent envoys to David with cedar logs, and with them stonemasons and carpenters, to build him a palace.

1 Chronicles 14:2 David then knew that ADONAI had set him up as king over Isra’el; because, for the sake of his people Isra’el, his royal power had been greatly increased.

1 Chronicles 14:3 David took more concubines and wives in Yerushalayim, and David became father of more sons and daughters.

1 Chronicles 14:4 Here are the names of the children born to him in Yerushalayim: Shamua, Shovav, Natan, Shlomo,

1 Chronicles 14:5 Yivchar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1 Chronicles 14:6 Nogah, Nefeg, Yafia,

1 Chronicles 14:7 Elishama, Be’elyada and Elifelet.

1 Chronicles 14:8 When the P’lishtim heard that David had been anointed king over all Isra’el, all the P’lishtim went up in search of David. On hearing of it, David went to attack them.

1 Chronicles 14:9 Now the P’lishtim came and made a raid in the Refa’im Valley.

1 Chronicles 14:10 David consulted God, asking, “Should I attack the P’lishtim? Will you hand them over to me?” ADONAI answered David, “Attack; I will hand them over to you.”

1 Chronicles 14:11 So they went up to Ba’al-P’ratzim, and David defeated them there. David said, “God has broken through my enemies by my power like a river breaking through its banks.” This is why they called the place Ba’al-P’ratzim [[Lord of breaking through]].

1 Chronicles 14:12 The P’lishtim had left their gods there, so David gave an order, and they were burned up completely.

1 Chronicles 14:13 The P’lishtim came up again and raided the valley.

1 Chronicles 14:14 David consulted God again, but God told him, “Don’t attack them! Turn away from them, and engage them opposite the balsam trees.

1 Chronicles 14:15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move out, and attack; because God has gone out ahead of you to defeat the army of the P’lishtim.”

1 Chronicles 14:16 David did as God had ordered him to do and pursued his attack on the army of the P’lishtim from Giv’on to Gezer.

1 Chronicles 14:17 So David’s reputation spread to all countries, and ADONAI brought the fear of him on all nations.

1 Chronicles 15:1 David erected buildings for himself in the City of David, prepared a place for the ark of God, and set up a tent for it.

1 Chronicles 15:2 Then David said, “No one but the [L’vi’im] should carry the ark of God, because ADONAI chose them to carry the ark of ADONAI and to serve him forever.”

1 Chronicles 15:3 David assembled all Isra’el in Yerushalayim to bring the ark of ADONAI up to its place, which he had prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:4 David gathered together the descendants of Aharon and the [L’vi’im]:

1 Chronicles 15:5 from the descendants of K’hat: Uri’el the chief, and 120 of his kinsmen;

1 Chronicles 15:6 from the descendants of M’rari: ‘Asayah the chief, and 220 of his kinsmen;

1 Chronicles 15:7 from the descendants of Gershom: Yo’el the chief, and 130 of his kinsmen;

1 Chronicles 15:8 from the descendants of Elitzafan: Sh’ma’yah the chief, and 200 of his kinsmen;

1 Chronicles 15:9 from the descendants of Hevron: Eli’el the chief, and eighty of his kinsmen;

1 Chronicles 15:10 and from the descendants of ‘Uzi’el: ‘Amminadav the chief, and 112 of his kinsmen.

1 Chronicles 15:11 David called for Tzadok and Evyatar the [cohanim] and for the [L’vi’im-] Uri’el, ‘Asayah, Yo’el, Sh’ma’yah, Eli’el and ‘Amminadav-

1 Chronicles 15:12 and said to them, “You are the clan leaders of the [L’vi’im]. Consecrate yourselves, both you and your kinsmen, to bring the ark of ADONAI the God of Isra’el up to the place I have prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:13 It’s because you weren’t there the first time that ADONAI our God broke out against us. We didn’t seek him out according to the rule.”

1 Chronicles 15:14 So the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of ADONAI the God of Isra’el;

1 Chronicles 15:15 and the [L’vi’im] carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles on it, as Moshe had ordered, according to what ADONAI had said.

1 Chronicles 15:16 David spoke to the chief of the [L’vi’im] to appoint their kinsmen to be singers making use of musical instruments- lutes, lyres and cymbals- to play loudly and raise sounds of joy.

1 Chronicles 15:17 So the [L’vi’im] appointed Heman the son of Yo’el; of his kinsmen, Asaf the son of Berekhyahu; of the descendants of M’rari their kinsmen, Eitan the son of Kushayahu;

1 Chronicles 15:18 and with them their second-degree kinsmen Z’kharyahu, Ben, Ya’azi’el, Sh’miramot, Yechi’el, ‘Uni, Eli’av, B’nayahu, Ma’aseiyahu, Mattityahu, Elif’lehu, Mikneyahu, with ‘Oved-Edom and Ye’i’el the gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 15:19 The singers Heman, Asaf and Eitan were appointed to sound the bronze cymbals.

1 Chronicles 15:20 Z’kharyahu, ‘Azi’el, Sh’miramot, Yechi’el, ‘Uni, Eli’av, Ma’aseiyahu and B’nayahu were to play the lutes for [‘alamot] [[high-pitched music?]].

1 Chronicles 15:21 Mattityahu, Elif’lehu, Mikneyahu, ‘Oved-Edom, Ye’i’el and ‘Azazyahu were to play lyres to lead the [sh’minit] [[low-pitched music?]].

1 Chronicles 15:22 K’nanyahu, chief of the [L’vi’im], was in charge of the singing; he was put in charge of the singing because he was skillful at it.

1 Chronicles 15:23 Berekhyahu and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:24 Sh’vanyahu, Yoshafat, N’tan’el, ‘Amasai, Z’kharyahu, B’nayahu and Eli’ezer the [cohanim] blew the trumpets in front of the ark of God. ‘Oved-Edom and Yechiyah were gatekeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:25 So David, the leaders of Isra’el and the commanders over thousands went to bring up the ark for the covenant of ADONAI out from the house of ‘Oved-Edom with joy.

1 Chronicles 15:26 Since God was helping the [L’vi’im] who were carrying the ark for the covenant of ADONAI, they sacrificed seven young bulls and seven rams.

1 Chronicles 15:27 David, all the [L’vi’im] bearing the ark, the singers and K’nanyah the music leader for the singers were all wearing linen cloaks; and David was also wearing a linen ritual vest.

1 Chronicles 15:28 So all Isra’el brought up the ark for the covenant of ADONAI with shouting; blowing on [shofar]s and trumpets; and cymbals sounding with lutes and lyres.

1 Chronicles 15:29 As the ark for the covenant of ADONAI entered the City of David, Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul, watching from the window, saw King David dancing and celebrating; and she was filled with contempt for him.

1 Chronicles 16:1 They brought the ark of God in and put it in the tent that David had set up for it; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

1 Chronicles 16:2 When David had finished offering the burnt offering and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of [ADONAI.]

1 Chronicles 16:3 Then he distributed to everyone in Isra'el, to everyone there, both men and women, a loaf of bread, a portion of meat and a raisin cake.

1 Chronicles 16:4 He appointed certain [L'vi'im] to serve in front of the ark of ADONAI, to celebrate, and to thank and praise ADONAI the God of Isra'el:

1 Chronicles 16:5 Asaf, the leader; assisting him, Z'kharyah; then Ye'i'el, Sh'miramot, Yechi'el, Mattityahu, Eli'av, B'nayahu, 'Oved-Edom and Ye'i'el playing lutes and lyres, while Asaf played cymbals.

1 Chronicles 16:6 B'nayah and Yachzi'el the [cohanim] blew the trumpets continually before the ark for the covenant of God.

1 Chronicles 16:7 It was on that same day that David first ordered that thanks be given to ADONAI through Asaf and his kinsmen:

1 Chronicles 16:8 Give thanks to ADONAI! Call on his name! Make his deeds known among the peoples.

1 Chronicles 16:9 Sing to him, sing praises to him! Talk about all his wonders.

1 Chronicles 16:10 Glory in his holy name; let those seeking ADONAI have joyful hearts.

1 Chronicles 16:11 Seek ADONAI and his strength; always seek his presence.

1 Chronicles 16:12 Remember the wonders he has done, his signs and his spoken judgments.

1 Chronicles 16:13 You descendants of Isra'el his servant, you offspring of Ya'akov, his chosen ones:

1 Chronicles 16:14 he is ADONAI our God, His judgments are everywhere on earth.

1 Chronicles 16:15 Remember his covenant forever, the word he commanded to a thousand generations,

1 Chronicles 16:16 the covenant he made with Avraham; the oath he swore to Yitz'chak

1 Chronicles 16:17 and established as a law for Ya’akov, for Isra’el as an everlasting covenant:

1 Chronicles 16:18 “To you I will give the land of Kena’an as your allotted heritage.”

1 Chronicles 16:19 When you were but few in number, and not only few, but aliens there too,

1 Chronicles 16:20 wandering from nation to nation, from this kingdom to that people,

1 Chronicles 16:21 he allowed no one to oppress them. Yes, for their sakes he rebuked even kings:

1 Chronicles 16:22 “Don’t touch my anointed ones or do my prophets harm!”

1 Chronicles 16:23 Sing to ADONAI, all the earth! Proclaim his victory day after day!

1 Chronicles 16:24 Declare his glory among the nations, his wonders among all peoples!

1 Chronicles 16:25 For ADONAI is great, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared more than all gods.

1 Chronicles 16:26 For all the gods of the peoples are nothing, but ADONAI made the heavens.

1 Chronicles 16:27 In his presence are honor and majesty; in his place, strength and joy.

1 Chronicles 16:28 Give ADONAI his due, you families from the peoples, give ADONAI his due of glory and strength;

1 Chronicles 16:29 give ADONAI the glory due to his name; bring an offering, and come into his presence. Worship ADONAI in splendid, holy attire.

1 Chronicles 16:30 Tremble before him, all the earth! The world is firmly established, immovable.

1 Chronicles 16:31 Let the heavens rejoice; let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, “ADONAI is king!”

1 Chronicles 16:32 Let the sea roar, and everything in it; let the fields exult, and all that is in them.

1 Chronicles 16:33 Then the trees in the forest will sing before ADONAI, because he has come to judge the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:34 Give thanks to ADONAI; for he is good, for his grace continues forever.

1 Chronicles 16:35 Say: “Save us, God who can save us! Gather and rescue us from the nations; so that we can thank your holy name and glory in praising you.

1 Chronicles 16:36 Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, from eternity past to eternity future!" All the people said, "[Amen]!" and praised ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 16:37 So, there before the ark for the covenant of ADONAI, David left Asaf and his kinsmen to perform the service regularly before the ark, as each day's work required;

1 Chronicles 16:38 also 'Oved-Edom with their kinsmen, sixty-eight of them- 'Oved-Edom the son of Y'dutun and Hosah were gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 16:39 He left Tzadok the [cohen] with his kinsmen before the tabernacle of ADONAI at the high place in Giv'on

1 Chronicles 16:40 to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI every morning and evening on the altar for burnt offerings, according to everything written in the [Torah] of ADONAI, which he gave to Isra'el.

1 Chronicles 16:41 With them were Heman and Y'dutun and the rest who were chosen and assigned by name to give thanks to ADONAI, because his grace continues forever.

1 Chronicles 16:42 With them were Heman and Y'dutun to play trumpets and cymbals, also instruments for the songs about God; while the sons of Y'dutun were assigned to the gate.

1 Chronicles 16:43 Then the people all left for their homes, and David returned to bless his household.

1 Chronicles 17:1 After David had been living in his palace awhile, he said to Natan the prophet, "Here, I'm living in a cedar-wood palace; but the ark for the covenant of ADONAI is kept under a tent!"

1 Chronicles 17:2 Natan said to David, "Go, do everything that is in your heart, for God is with you."

1 Chronicles 17:3 But that same night the word of God came to Natan:

1 Chronicles 17:4 "Go, and tell David my servant that this is what ADONAI says: 'You are not to build me a house to live in,

1 Chronicles 17:5 because from the day I brought up Isra'el until today, I never lived in a house; rather, I've gone from tent to tent and from one tabernacle to another.

1 Chronicles 17:6 Everywhere I traveled with all Isra'el, did I ever speak a word to any of the judges of Isra'el, whom I ordered to shepherd my people Isra'el, asking, "Why haven't you built me a cedar-wood house?"'

1 Chronicles 17:7 "Therefore say to my servant David that this is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: 'I took you from the sheep-yards, from following the sheep, to make you chief over my people Isra'el.

1 Chronicles 17:8 I have been with you wherever you went, I have destroyed all your enemies ahead of you; and I am making your reputation like the reputations of the greatest people on earth.

1 Chronicles 17:9 I will assign a place to my people Isra'el; I will plant them there, so that they can live in their own place without being disturbed any more. The wicked will no longer devastate them, as they did at the beginning,

1 Chronicles 17:10 and as they did from the time I ordered judges to be over my people Isra'el; instead, I will subdue all your enemies. "'Moreover, I tell you that ADONAI will make you a house.

1 Chronicles 17:11 When your days come to an end and you go to be with your ancestors, I will establish one of your descendants to succeed you, one of your own sons; and I will set up his rulership.

1 Chronicles 17:12 He will build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

1 Chronicles 17:13 I will be a father for him, and he will be a son for me; I will not take my grace away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor.

1 Chronicles 17:14 Rather, I will maintain him in my house and in my kingdom forever; and his throne will be set up forever.'"

1 Chronicles 17:15 Natan told David all of these words and described this entire vision.

1 Chronicles 17:16 Then David went in, sat before ADONAI and said, "Who am I, ADONAI, God, and what is my family, that has caused you to bring me this far?

1 Chronicles 17:17 Yet in your view, God, even this was but a small thing; so you have said that your servant's dynasty will continue on into the distant future. You have regarded me, ADONAI, God, as a man of high rank.

1 Chronicles 17:18 What more can David say to you about the honor you are bestowing on your servant? For you know your servant intimately.

1 Chronicles 17:19 ADONAI, it is for your servant's sake and in accordance with your own heart that you have done all this greatness and revealed all these great things.

1 Chronicles 17:20 ADONAI, there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you- everything we have heard confirms that.

1 Chronicles 17:21 Who can be compared with your people Isra'el? What other nation on earth did God set out to redeem and turn into a people for himself? You made yourself a reputation by doing great and terrifying things, as you drove out the nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt.

1 Chronicles 17:22 For you made your people Isra'el your people forever; and you, ADONAI, became their God.

1 Chronicles 17:23 So now, ADONAI, let the word that you spoke concerning your servant and his house be confirmed forever; do what you have promised.

1 Chronicles 17:24 May your name be confirmed and magnified forever; so that it will be said, 'ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is the God of Isra'el and the God for Isra'el, and the dynasty of David your servant will be set up in your presence.'

1 Chronicles 17:25 For you, my God, have disclosed to your servant that you will build him a house. This is why your servant has the courage to pray to you.

1 Chronicles 17:26 Now, ADONAI, you are God; and you have made this wonderful promise to your servant;

1 Chronicles 17:27 and now it has pleased you to bless the family of your servant and thereby cause it to continue forever in your presence. For you, ADONAI, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

1 Chronicles 18:1 Some time afterwards, David attacked the P'lishtim and subdued them; David took Gat and its villages out of the hands of the P'lishtim.

1 Chronicles 18:2 He also defeated Mo'av, so that the people of Mo'av became subjects of David and paid tribute.

1 Chronicles 18:3 David, on his way to establish his dominion as far as the Euphrates River, also defeated Hadar'ezer king of Tzovah near Hamat.

1 Chronicles 18:4 David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers. He reserved enough horses for 100 chariots and disabled the rest.

1 Chronicles 18:5 When the people of Aram from Dammesek came to the aid of Hadar'ezer king of Tzovah, David killed 22,000 men of Aram.

1 Chronicles 18:6 Then David put [[garrisons]] among the people of Aram in Dammesek; Aram became subject to David and paid tribute. ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went.

1 Chronicles 18:7 David took the gold shields which Hadar'ezer's servants were wearing and brought them to Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 18:8 From Tivchat and Kun, cities of Hadar'ezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze, which Shlomo used to make the bronze "Sea," the columns and various bronze articles.

1 Chronicles 18:9 When To'u king of Hamat heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadar'ezer king of Tzovah,

1 Chronicles 18:10 he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet and congratulate him on fighting and defeating Hadar'ezer- for

Hadar’ezer had been at war with To’u- and [[he sent]] all kinds of articles made of silver, gold and bronze,

1 Chronicles 18:11 which King David dedicated to ADONAI, along with the silver and gold that he had carried off from all the nations- from Edom, Mo’av, the people of ‘Amon, the P’lishtim and ‘Amalek.

1 Chronicles 18:12 Moreover, Avishai the son of Tz’ruyah killed 18,000 men from Edom in the Salt Valley.

1 Chronicles 18:13 David stationed garrisons in Edom, and all the people of Edom became subject to him. ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went.

1 Chronicles 18:14 David ruled over all Isra’el; he administered law and justice for all his people.

1 Chronicles 18:15 Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah was commander of the army, Y’hoshafat the son of Achilud was chief adviser,

1 Chronicles 18:16 Tzadok the son of Achituv and Avimelekh the son of Evyatar were [cohanim], Shavsha was secretary,

1 Chronicles 18:17 B’nayahu the son of Y’hoyada was in charge of the K’reti and P’leti [[serving as the king’s bodyguards]], and David’s sons were the king’s chief personal advisers.

1 Chronicles 19:1 Some time later, when Nachash the king of the people of ‘Amon died, his son became king in his place.

1 Chronicles 19:2 David said, “I will be kind to Hanun the son of Nachash, because his father showed grace to me.” So David sent messengers to comfort him about his father. David’s servants entered the territory of the people of ‘Amon to go to Hanun and comfort him;

1 Chronicles 19:3 but the leaders of the people of ‘Amon said to Hanun, “Do you really think David is honoring your father by sending people to comfort you? Haven’t his servants come to you in order to look the city over, overthrow it and reconnoiter the land?”

1 Chronicles 19:4 So Hanun took David’s servants, shaved them, cut off their clothes halfway up, at their hips, and then sent them away.

1 Chronicles 19:5 Some people reported to David how the men had been treated. He sent a delegation to meet them, because the men had been deeply humiliated. The king said, “Stay in Yericho until your beards have grown back, and then return.”

1 Chronicles 19:6 Aware that they had made themselves utterly abhorrent to David, Hanun and the people of ‘Amon sent thirty-three tons of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Aram-Naharayim, Aram-Ma’akhah and Tzovah.

1 Chronicles 19:7 They hired 32,000 chariots, as well as the king of Ma’akhah with his people, who came and pitched their camp in front of Meidva. Then the people of ‘Amon assembled themselves from their cities and went out to fight.

1 Chronicles 19:8 When David heard of it, he sent Yo’av with his entire army of trained soldiers.

1 Chronicles 19:9 The army of ‘Amon came out and went into battle formation at the city gate, while the kings who had come were alone in the countryside.

1 Chronicles 19:10 When Yo’av saw that he would be fighting on two fronts, ahead and behind, he chose the best troops of Isra’el to deploy against Aram;

1 Chronicles 19:11 while the rest of the army he put under the command of Avishai his brother to deploy against the army of ‘Amon.

1 Chronicles 19:12 He said, “If Aram is too strong for me, you help me; but if the army of ‘Amon is too strong for you, then I will help you.

1 Chronicles 19:13 Take courage, and let’s be strong for the sake of our people and the cities of our God. May ADONAI do what seems good to him.”

1 Chronicles 19:14 So Yo’av and the people with him went to engage Aram in battle, and they fled before him.

1 Chronicles 19:15 When the people of ‘Amon saw that Aram had fled, they likewise fled before Avishai his brother and retreated into the city. Then Yo’av went to Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 19:16 When Aram saw that Isra’el had gotten the better of them, they sent messengers and brought out the people of Aram who lived beyond the [[Euphrates]] River, with Shofakh the commander of Hadar’ezer’s army at their head.

1 Chronicles 19:17 It was reported to David; so he gathered all Isra’el together and crossed the Yarden to engage them. David deployed his forces for battle against Aram; and after he had done so, fought them.

1 Chronicles 19:18 But Aram fled before Isra’el; David killed 7,000 chariot-drivers and 40,000 foot soldiers from Aram; and he killed Shofakh the commander of the army.

1 Chronicles 19:19 When all Hadar’ezer’s servants saw that they had been defeated by Isra’el, they made peace with David and became his subjects; and Aram would no longer help the people of ‘Amon.

1 Chronicles 20:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, Yo’av led the army out in force and laid waste to the country of the people of ‘Amon; then he came and laid siege to Rabbah. But David stayed in Yerushalayim, while Yo’av attacked Rabbah and destroyed it.

1 Chronicles 20:2 David took the crown off Malkam’s head and found it to weigh sixty-six pounds, with its gold and precious stones; and it was placed on David’s head. He carried off great quantities of spoil from the city.

1 Chronicles 20:3 In addition, he brought out the people who were in it and set them to work with saws, iron harrows and axes. This is what he did to all the cities of the people of ‘Amon. Then David and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 20:4 A while after this there was war at Gezer with the P’lishtim. Sibkhai the Hushati killed Sipai, one of the giants, and they were defeated.

1 Chronicles 20:5 There was more war with the P’lishtim; and Elchanan the son of Ya’ir killed Lachmi the brother of Golyat the Gitti, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver’s beam.

1 Chronicles 20:6 There was again war at Gat, where there was a very tall man whose fingers and toes numbered twenty-four, six [[fingers on each hand]] and six [[toes on each foot]]; and he too was a son of the giant.

1 Chronicles 20:7 When he mocked Isra’el, Y’honatan the son of Shim’a David’s brother killed him.

1 Chronicles 20:8 These were sons of the giant in Gat; they fell at the hands of David and his servants.

1 Chronicles 21:1 The Adversary <N1> now rose up against Isra’el and incited David to take a census of Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 21:2 David said to Yo’av and the leaders of the people, “Go, take a census of Isra’el from Be’er-Sheva to Dan; then report to me, so that I can know how many of them there are.”

1 Chronicles 21:3 Yo’av said, “May ADONAI make his people a hundred times as many as they are now! But, my lord the king, aren’t they all my lord’s servants in any case? Why does my lord the king require this? Why should he bring guilt upon Isra’el?”

1 Chronicles 21:4 Nevertheless, the king’s word prevailed against Yo’av. So Yo’av left and went through all Isra’el, after which he came to Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 21:5 Yo’av reported the results of the census to David: in Isra’el were 1,100,000 men who could handle a sword, while Y’hudah had 470,000 men who could handle a sword.

1 Chronicles 21:6 But he didn’t count Levi and Binyamin among them, because the king’s order was hateful to Yo’av.

1 Chronicles 21:7 God was displeased with this and therefore punished Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 21:8 David said to God, “I have greatly sinned by doing this. But now, please! Put aside your servant’s sin, for I have done a very foolish thing.”

1 Chronicles 21:9 ADONAI spoke to Gad, David’s seer:

1 Chronicles 21:10 “Go and tell David that ADONAI says, ‘I am offering you a choice of three punishments: choose one of them, and I will execute it against you.’“

1 Chronicles 21:11 Gad came to David and said to him, “Take your choice:

1 Chronicles 21:12 three years of famine; or three months of being swept away by your enemies, while your enemies’ sword overwhelms you; or three days of ADONAI’s sword- plague in the land, with the angel of ADONAI destroying everywhere in Isra’el’s territory. Now think about what answer I should give to the one who sent me.”

1 Chronicles 21:13 David said to Gad, “This is very hard for me. Let me fall into the hand of ADONAI, because his mercies are very great, rather than have me fall into the hand of man.”

1 Chronicles 21:14 So ADONAI sent a plague on Isra’el; 70,000 of the people of Isra’el died.

1 Chronicles 21:15 God also sent an angel to destroy Yerushalayim, but when he was about to carry out the destruction, ADONAI saw it and changed his mind about causing such distress; so he said to the destroying angel, “Enough! Now withdraw your hand.” The angel of ADONAI was standing at the threshing-floor of Ornan the Y’vusi.

1 Chronicles 21:16 David raised his eyes and saw the angel of ADONAI standing between the earth and the sky, and in his hand was a drawn sword stretched out over Yerushalayim. Then David and the leaders, wearing sackcloth, fell on their faces.

1 Chronicles 21:17 David said to God, “Wasn’t it I who ordered the census of the people? Yes, I am the one who has sinned and done something very wicked. But these sheep, what have they done? Please! Let your hand be against me and my father’s family, but not against your people, striking them with this plague!”

1 Chronicles 21:18 Then the angel of ADONAI ordered Gad to tell David to go and set up an altar to ADONAI on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Y’vusi.

1 Chronicles 21:19 David went up at Gad’s word, spoken in ADONAI’s name.

1 Chronicles 21:20 Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. As Ornan was threshing wheat,

1 Chronicles 21:21 David approached Ornan. When Ornan looked and saw David, he went out from the threshing-floor and prostrated himself before David with his face to the ground.

1 Chronicles 21:22 Then David said to Ornan, “Let me have the parcel with this threshing-floor, so that I can build on it an altar to ADONAI- I will pay you its full value- so that the plague will be lifted from the people.”

1 Chronicles 21:23 Ornan said to David, “Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do what seems good to him. I’m giving you the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing-sledges for firewood and the wheat for the grain offering- I'm giving it all."

1 Chronicles 21:24 But King David said to Ornan, "No; I insist on buying it from you at the full price. I refuse to take what is yours for ADONAI or offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing."

1 Chronicles 21:25 So David bought the place from Ornan for 600 [shekel]s of gold by weight [[fifteen pounds]].

1 Chronicles 21:26 Then David built an altar to ADONAI there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on ADONAI, who answered him from heaven by fire on the altar for burnt offerings.

1 Chronicles 21:27 ADONAI gave an order to the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

1 Chronicles 21:28 When David saw that ADONAI had answered him at the threshing-floor of Ornan the Y'vusi, he sacrificed there.

1 Chronicles 21:29 For at that time the tabernacle of ADONAI, which Moshe had made in the desert, together with the altar for burnt offerings, were in the high place at Giv'on.

1 Chronicles 21:30 But David could not go into its presence to consult God, because the sword of the angel of ADONAI had struck him with terror.

1 Chronicles 22:1 Then David said, "This is the house of ADONAI, God; and this is the altar Isra'el is to use for burnt offerings."

1 Chronicles 22:2 David ordered that the foreigners in the land of Isra'el should be assembled, and he appointed stone-workers to shape stones for building the house of God.

1 Chronicles 22:3 David prepared a large store of iron from which to make nails and clamps for the gateway doors and, a quantity of bronze too great to weigh,

1 Chronicles 22:4 and cedar logs beyond numbering- because the Tzidonim and the people from Tzor brought cedar logs in abundance to David.

1 Chronicles 22:5 David said, "Shlomo my son is young and inexperienced, while the house to be built for ADONAI must be so magnificent and splendid that its fame and glory will be known in every country; so I will make preparations for him." Therefore David made extensive preparations before his death.

1 Chronicles 22:6 Then he summoned Shlomo his son and charged him to build a house for ADONAI, the God of Isra'el.

1 Chronicles 22:7 "My son," said David to Shlomo, "my heart was set on building a house for the name of ADONAI my God.

1 Chronicles 22:8 But a message from ADONAI came to me, 'You have shed much blood and fought great wars. You are not to build a house for my name, because you have shed so much blood on the earth in my sight.

1 Chronicles 22:9 But you will have a son who will be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies that surround him; for his name is to be Shlomo, and during his reign I will give peace <N1> and quiet to Isra'el.

1 Chronicles 22:10 It is he who will build a house for my name. He will be my son and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Isra'el forever.'

1 Chronicles 22:11 "Now, my son, may ADONAI be with you and give you success as you build the house of ADONAI your God, in keeping with what he said about you.

1 Chronicles 22:12 May ADONAI give you common sense and understanding, and may he give you his orders concerning Isra'el, so that you will observe the [Torah] of ADONAI your God.

1 Chronicles 22:13 Then you will succeed, if you take care to obey the laws and rulings that ADONAI ordered Moshe concerning Isra'el. Be strong, be bold; don't be afraid or become discouraged!

1 Chronicles 22:14 "Now look: despite my difficulties, I have prepared for the house of ADONAI 3,300 tons of gold, 33,000 tons of silver, and so much bronze and iron that it can't be weighed. I've also prepared timber and stone, and you can add to it.

1 Chronicles 22:15 Moreover, you have plenty of workers- quarrymen, stone-workers, lumbermen, and all kinds of skilled craftsmen to do whatever has to be done with

1 Chronicles 22:16 the gold, silver, bronze and iron- they're beyond number. So get up, and get to work! And may ADONAI be with you."

1 Chronicles 22:17 David also ordered all the leaders of Isra'el to help Shlomo his son:

1 Chronicles 22:18 "Isn't ADONAI your God with you? Hasn't he given you rest on every side? For he has put the inhabitants of the land under my power- the land has been subdued before ADONAI and his people.

1 Chronicles 22:19 Now set your heart and being on seeking ADONAI your God. Get up, and build the sanctuary for ADONAI, God. Then you can bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI and the holy articles of God into the house that will be built for the name of ADONAI."

1 Chronicles 23:1 David had now grown old; he had lived many years; so he made Shlomo his son king over Isra'el.

1 Chronicles 23:2 Then he assembled all the leaders of Isra'el, with the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im].

1 Chronicles 23:3 A census of [L'vi'im] thirty years old and over was taken, and their number came to 38,000.

1 Chronicles 23:4 Of these, 24,000 were to oversee the work on the house of ADONAI, while 6,000 were officials and judges,

1 Chronicles 23:5 4,000 were gatekeepers, and 4,000 sang praise to ADONAI “with the instruments I made for the purpose of singing praise.”

1 Chronicles 23:6 David organized them into divisions named after the sons of Levi- Gershon, K’hat and M’rari.

1 Chronicles 23:7 For the Gershuni: La’dan and Shim’i.

1 Chronicles 23:8 The sons of La’dan: Yechi’el the chief, Zetam and Yo’el- three.

1 Chronicles 23:9 The sons of Shim’i: Shlomit, Hazi’el and Haran- three. These were the heads of the clans of La’dan.

1 Chronicles 23:10 The sons of Shim’i: Yachat, Zina Ye’ush and B’ri’ah. These four were the sons of Shim’i.

1 Chronicles 23:11 Yachat was the chief and Zizah the second, then Ye’ush and B’ri’ah, who did not have many descendants and were therefore counted as one clan.

1 Chronicles 23:12 The sons of K’hat: ‘Amram, Yitz’har, Hevron and ‘Uzi’el- four.

1 Chronicles 23:13 The sons of ‘Amram: Aharon and Moshe. Aharon was set apart to be consecrated as especially holy, he and his sons forever; so that they might bring offerings before ADONAI, perform the service for him and bless in his name forever.

1 Chronicles 23:14 But as for Moshe the man of God, his sons are included with the tribe of Levi.

1 Chronicles 23:15 The sons of Moshe: Gershom and Eli’ezer.

1 Chronicles 23:16 The sons of Gershom: Sh’vu’el the chief.

1 Chronicles 23:17 The sons of Eli’ezer were: Rechavyah the chief. Eli’ezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rechavyah were very numerous.

1 Chronicles 23:18 The sons of Yitz’har: Shlomit the chief.

1 Chronicles 23:19 The sons of Hevron: Yeriyahu the chief, Amaryah the second, Yachzi’el the third and Y’kam’am the fourth.

1 Chronicles 23:20 The sons of ‘Uzi’el: Mikhah the chief and Yishiyah the second.

1 Chronicles 23:21 The sons of M’rari: Machli and Mushi. The sons of Machli: El’azar and Kish.

1 Chronicles 23:22 El’azar died without having sons, but daughters only; their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

1 Chronicles 23:23 Mushi had three sons- Machli, ‘Eder and Yeremot.

1 Chronicles 23:24 These were the descendants of Levi, according to their clans, the heads of clans according to their listing in the register, who did the work for the service of the house of ADONAI, those twenty years old and over.

1 Chronicles 23:25 For David said, “ADONAI the God of Isra’el has given rest to his people, and he lives in Yerushalayim forever.

1 Chronicles 23:26 The [L’vi’im] will no longer have to carry the tabernacle and all the equipment that goes with it for its service.”

1 Chronicles 23:27 For, according to David’s last instructions, the descendants of Levi twenty years old and over were to be counted.

1 Chronicles 23:28 Their role was to assist the descendants of Aharon with the service of the house of ADONAI in the courtyards and rooms, and with purification of all the holy articles- in other words, with the work needed to minister in the house of God.

1 Chronicles 23:29 They were to assist with the showbread and the finely ground flour needed for grain offerings, no matter whether of [matzah], pan-baked bread or mixed with oil, and no matter what shape or size.

1 Chronicles 23:30 They were to stand every morning to sing thanks and praises to ADONAI, and likewise every evening.

1 Chronicles 23:31 They were to be present regularly before ADONAI whenever burnt offerings were offered to ADONAI on [Shabbat], at [Rosh-Hodesh], and at the other designated times, in the numbers required by the rules for sacrifices.

1 Chronicles 23:32 Finally, for the service in the house of ADONAI they were to perform their duties in relation to the tent of meeting, the Holy Place and their kinsmen the descendants of Aharon.

1 Chronicles 24:1 The divisions of the descendants of Aharon were as follows: The sons of Aharon: Nadav, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar.

1 Chronicles 24:2 But Nadav and Avihu died before their father and had no children; therefore El’azar and Itamar functioned as the [cohanim].

1 Chronicles 24:3 David, together with Tzadok from the descendants of El’azar, and Achimelekh from the descendants of Itamar, arranged them in divisions for service.

1 Chronicles 24:4 There were more men who were chiefs found among the descendants of El’azar than among the descendants of Itamar; therefore there were sixteen divisions of the descendants of El’azar, headed by clan leaders, and eight divisions of the descendants of Itamar, according to their clans.

1 Chronicles 24:5 They were assigned [[periods of service]] by lot, the one group equally with the other, since both the descendants of El’azar and the descendants of Itamar had officers of the sanctuary and officers of God.

1 Chronicles 24:6 Sh’ma’yah the son of N’tan’el the secretary, one of the [L’vi’im], recorded them in the presence of the king, the officers, Tzadok the [cohen], Achimelekh the son of Evyatar, and the clan leaders of the [cohanim] and of the [L’vi’im-] with two clan divisions taken from El’azar for each one from Itamar.

1 Chronicles 24:7 The first lot drawn was for Y’hoyariv, the second for Y’da’yah,

1 Chronicles 24:8 the third for Harim, the fourth for S’orim,

1 Chronicles 24:9 the fifth for Malkiyah, the sixth for Miyamin,

1 Chronicles 24:10 the seventh for Hakotz, the eighth for Aviyah,

1 Chronicles 24:11 the ninth for Yeshua, the tenth for Sh’khanyahu,

1 Chronicles 24:12 the eleventh for Elyashiv, the twelfth for Yakim,

1 Chronicles 24:13 the thirteenth for Hupah, the fourteenth for Yeshev’av,

1 Chronicles 24:14 the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer,

1 Chronicles 24:15 the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for HaPitzetz

1 Chronicles 24:16 the nineteenth for P’tachyah, the twentieth for Yechezk’el,

1 Chronicles 24:17 the twenty-first for Yakhin, the twenty-second for Gamul,

1 Chronicles 24:18 the twenty-third for D’layahu, and the twenty-fourth for Ma’azyahu.

1 Chronicles 24:19 These are the divisions and the sequence in which they served in the house of ADONAI, in accordance with the rule they were given through Aharon their ancestor, as ADONAI the God of Isra’el had ordered him.

1 Chronicles 24:20 The rest of the descendants of Levi: of the descendants of ‘Amram, Shuva’el; of the descendants of Shuva’el, Yechd’yah.

1 Chronicles 24:21 Of Rechavyahu: of the descendants of Rechavyahu, Yishiyah the chief.

1 Chronicles 24:22 Of the Yitz’hari, Shlomot; of the descendants of Shlomot, Yachat.

1 Chronicles 24:23 Of the sons [[of Hevron]]: Yeriyahu, Amaryahu second, Yachzi’el third and Y’kam’am fourth.

1 Chronicles 24:24 The descendants of ‘Uzi’el: Mikhah; of the descendants of Mikhah, Shamir.

1 Chronicles 24:25 The brother of Mikhah: Yishiyah; of the descendants of Yishiyah, Z'kharyahu.

1 Chronicles 24:26 The sons of M'rari: Machli and Mushi. The descendants of his son Ya'aziyahu,

1 Chronicles 24:27 that is, the descendants of M'rari through his descendant Ya'aziyahu: Shoham, Zakur and 'Ivri.

1 Chronicles 24:28 Of Machli: El'azar, who had no sons.

1 Chronicles 24:29 Of Kish: the descendants of Kish, Yerachme'el.

1 Chronicles 24:30 And the sons of Mushi: Machli, 'Eder and Yerimot. These were the descendants of the [L'vi'im] according to their clans.

1 Chronicles 24:31 These likewise cast lots, as had their kinsmen the descendants of Aharon, in the presence of David the king, Tzadok, Achimelekh, and the clan leaders of the [cohanim] and of the [L'vi'im]; with the senior and junior clans casting lots equally.

1 Chronicles 25:1 For the service, David and the army commanders selected some of the descendants of Asaf, of Heman and of Y'dutun to prophesy with lyres, lutes and cymbals. The list of those doing this work, according to the type of work performed was:

1 Chronicles 25:2 Of the descendants of Asaf: Zakur, Yosef, N'tanyah and Asar'elah; the sons of Asaf were with Asaf, who prophesied according to the direction of the king.

1 Chronicles 25:3 Of Y'dutun, the descendants of Y'dutun: G'dalyahu, Tzeri, Yesha'yahu, Hashavyahu, Mattityahu- six, with their father Y'dutun, who, accompanied by the lyre, prophesied thanks and praise to ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 25:4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukiyahu, Mattanyahu, 'Uzi'el, Sh'vu'el, Yerimot, Hananyah, Hanani, Eli'atah, Gidalti, Romamti-'ezer, Yoshb'kashah, Maloti, Hotir and Machzi'ot;

1 Chronicles 25:5 all these sons of Heman, the king's seer in matters pertaining to God, were there to exalt [[God]]. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

1 Chronicles 25:6 They were all with their fathers Asaf, Y'dutun and Heman to sing with cymbals, lutes and lyres in the house of ADONAI, serving in the house of God under the direction of the king.

1 Chronicles 25:7 Their number, together with their kinsmen who had been instructed in singing to ADONAI, was 288, all well trained.

1 Chronicles 25:8 Whether great or small, teacher or [talmid], they cast lots for their term of duty.

1 Chronicles 25:9 The first lot for Asaf fell to Yosef, the second to G'dalyah; he, his brothers and his sons numbered twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:10 the third to Zakur, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:11 the fourth to Izri, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:12 the fifth to N'tanyahu, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:13 the sixth to Bukiyahu, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:14 the seventh to Y'sar'elah, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:15 the eighth to Yesha'yahu, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:16 the ninth to Mattanyahu, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:17 the tenth to Shim'i, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:18 the eleventh to 'Azar'el, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:19 the twelfth to Hashavyah, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:20 the thirteenth to Shuva'el, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:21 the fourteenth to Mattityahu, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:22 the fifteenth to Yeremot, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:23 the sixteenth to Hananyahu, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:24 the seventeenth to Yoshb'kashah, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:25 the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:26 the nineteenth to Maloti, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:27 the twentieth to Eli'atah, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:28 the twenty-first to Hotir, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:29 the twenty-second to Gidalti, his sons and brothers, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:30 the twenty-third to Machzi'ot, his sons and brothers, twelve; and

1 Chronicles 25:31 the twenty-fourth to Romamti-'ezer, his sons and brothers, twelve.

1 Chronicles 26:1 The divisions of the gatekeepers: Of the Korchim: Meshelemyahu the son of Kore, of the descendants of Asaf.

1 Chronicles 26:2 Meshelemyahu had sons: Z'kharyahu the firstborn, Y'dia'el the second, Z'vadyahu the third, Yatni'el the fourth,

1 Chronicles 26:3 'Eilam the fifth, Y'hochanan the sixth and Ely'ho'einai the seventh.

1 Chronicles 26:4 'Oved-Edom had sons: Sh'ma'yah the firstborn, Y'hozavad the second son, Yo'ach the third, Sakhar the fourth, N'tan'el the fifth,

1 Chronicles 26:5 'Ammi'el the sixth, Yissakhar the seventh, and Pe'ultai the eighth; for God blessed him.

1 Chronicles 26:6 To his son Sh'ma'yah were born sons who ruled over their father's clan, because they were strong, brave men.

1 Chronicles 26:7 The sons of Sh'ma'yah: 'Otni, Refa'el and his brothers 'Oved and Elzavad, valiant men; also Elihu and S'makhyahu.

1 Chronicles 26:8 These were all from the sons of 'Oved-Edom, they and their sons and brothers, men of ability and strength for service, sixty-two from 'Oved-Edom.

1 Chronicles 26:9 Meshelemyahu had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen.

1 Chronicles 26:10 Hosah, from the descendants of M'rari, had sons: Shimri the chief, for although he was not the firstborn, nevertheless his father made him the chief;

1 Chronicles 26:11 Hilkiyahu the second, T'valyahu the third and Z'kharyahu the fourth; all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen.

1 Chronicles 26:12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, under their chief men, had duties, just as their kinsmen did, serving in the house of ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 26:13 Great or small, they cast lots according to their clans for every gate.

1 Chronicles 26:14 The lot for the east gate fell to Shelemyahu. Then they cast lots for his son Z'kharyahu, a sensible adviser, and he was allotted the north gate.

1 Chronicles 26:15 'Oved-Edom was allotted the south gate and his sons the storehouse.

1 Chronicles 26:16 Shupim and Hosah were allotted the west gate and the Shallekhet Gate at the highway that goes up, with corresponding guards.

1 Chronicles 26:17 For the east there were six [L'vi'im], for the north four a day, for the south four a day, for the Storehouse two and two,

1 Chronicles 26:18 while for the courtyard to the west there were four at the highway and two at the courtyard itself.

1 Chronicles 26:19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers, consisting of descendants of the Korchim and descendants of M’rari.

1 Chronicles 26:20 Of the [L’vi’im], Achiyah was responsible for the stores in the house of God and the stores of holy articles.

1 Chronicles 26:21 The sons of La’dan, the descendants of the Gershuni belonging to La’dan, the heads of clans belonging to La’dan the Gershuni: Yechi’eli;

1 Chronicles 26:22 and the sons of Yechi’eli: Zetam and Yo’el his brother, over the stores in the house of ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 26:23 Of the ‘Amrami, of the Yitz’hari, of the Hevroni, of the ‘Uzi’eli,

1 Chronicles 26:24 Sh’vu’el the descendant of Gershom, the son of Moshe, was in charge of the stores.

1 Chronicles 26:25 His kinsmen: from Eli’ezer: Rechavyahu his son, Yesha’yahu his son, Yoram his son, Zikhri his son and Shlomit his son.

1 Chronicles 26:26 This Shlomit and his kinsmen were in charge of all the stores of the dedicated things that David the king, the clan heads, the captains over thousands and hundreds and the commanders of the army had dedicated.

1 Chronicles 26:27 From the spoil won in wars they had dedicated these things to repair the house of ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 26:28 Also included was all that Sh’mu’el the seer, Sha’ul the son of Kish, Avner the son of Ner and Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah had dedicated. In short, if anyone had dedicated anything, Shlomit and his brothers were in charge of it.

1 Chronicles 26:29 Of the Yitz’hari: K’nanyahu and his sons were assigned to be over Isra’el in regard to outside business as officers and judges.

1 Chronicles 26:30 Of the Hevroni: Hashavyah and his kinsmen, 1,700 valiant men, had the oversight of Isra’el west of the Yarden in regard to all the business of ADONAI and the service of the king.

1 Chronicles 26:31 Yeriyah was chief of the Hevroni according to their generations by clans. In the fortieth year of David’s reign the Hevroni were sought out, and there were found among them strong, brave men at Ya’zer in Gil’ad.

1 Chronicles 26:32 King David appointed 2,700 of his kinsmen, valiant men and clan leaders, as overseers over the Re’uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of the M’nashi for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

1 Chronicles 27:1 The people of Isra’el, registered according to their clan leaders, were drafted for army duty under captains of thousands and of hundreds, and officers serving the king, in divisions of 24,000 each, for month-long terms of duty covering all the months of the year.

1 Chronicles 27:2 Over the first division, for the first month, was Yashov'am the son of Zavdi'el; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:3 He was from the descendants of Peretz and was in charge of all the army captains during the first month.

1 Chronicles 27:4 Over the division for the second month was Dodai the Achochi; Miklot was the chief officer of his division; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:5 The third army commander, for the third month, was B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada the chief [cohen]; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:6 This is the same B'nayah who was one of the thirty heroes and was over the thirty; his son 'Ammizavad was in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:7 The fourth commander, for the fourth month, was 'Asah'el the brother of Yo'av, with Z'vadyah his son after him; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:8 The fifth commander, for the fifth month, was Shamhut from Yizrach; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:9 The sixth commander, for the sixth month, was 'Ira the son of 'Ikesh from T'koa; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:10 The seventh commander, for the seventh month, was Heletz the P'loni, from the descendants of Efrayim; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:11 The eighth commander, for the eighth month, was Sibkhai the Hushati, from the Zarchi; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:12 The ninth commander, for the ninth month, was Avi'ezer from 'Anatot, from the Ben-Y'mini; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:13 The tenth commander, for the tenth month, was Mahrai, the N'tofati, from the Zarchi; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:14 The eleventh commander, for the eleventh month, was B'nayah from Pir'aton, from the descendants of Efrayim; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:15 The twelfth commander, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the N'tofati, from 'Otni'el; there were 24,000 in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:16 Over the the tribes of Isra'el: leader of the Re'uveni: Eli'ezer the son of Zikhri; of the Shim'oni: Sh'fatyah the son of Ma'akhah;

1 Chronicles 27:17 of Levi: Hashavyah the son of K'mu'el; of Aharon: Tzadok;

1 Chronicles 27:18 of Y’hudah: Elihu, one of David’s brothers; of Yissakhar: ‘Omri the son of Mikha’el;

1 Chronicles 27:19 of Z’vulun: Yishma’yahu the son of ‘Ovadyah; of Naftali: Yerimot the son of ‘Azri’el;

1 Chronicles 27:20 of the descendants of Efrayim: Hoshea the son of ‘Azazyahu; of the half-tribe of M’nasheh: Yo’el the son of P’dayah;

1 Chronicles 27:21 of the half-tribe of M’nasheh in Gil’ad: Yiddo the son of Z’kharyahu; of Binyamin: Ya’asi’el the son of Avner;

1 Chronicles 27:22 of Dan: ‘Azar’el the son of Yerocham. These were the commanders of the tribes of Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 27:23 But David did not include in the registration those twenty years old or less, because ADONAI had said he would increase Isra’el’s numbers like the stars in the sky.

1 Chronicles 27:24 Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah began a census of these, but he did not finish, and wrath came upon Isra’el because of this; moreover the number was not entered into the Annals of King David.

1 Chronicles 27:25 In charge of the king’s supplies was ‘Azmavet the son of ‘Adi’el. In charge of the supplies in the countryside, the cities, the villages and the fortresses was Y’honatan the son of ‘Uziyahu.

1 Chronicles 27:26 In charge of farmers working the land was ‘Ezri the son of K’luv.

1 Chronicles 27:27 In charge of the vineyards was Shim’i the Ramati, while Zavdi the Shifmi was responsible for the produce from the vineyards for the wine-cellars.

1 Chronicles 27:28 In charge of the olive and sycamore-fig trees in the Sh’felah was Ba’al-Hanan from G’derah, while Yo’ash was put over the storehouses for olive oil.

1 Chronicles 27:29 In charge of the herds of livestock feeding in the Sharon was Shirtai from the Sharon, while Shafat the son of Adlai was put over herds in the valleys.

1 Chronicles 27:30 Ovil the Yishma’eli was put over the camels, Yechd’yahu the Meronoti over the donkeys

1 Chronicles 27:31 and Yaziz the Hagri over the flocks [[of sheep and goats]]. All of these were responsible for King David’s property.

1 Chronicles 27:32 Y’honatan David’s uncle was an adviser, a man of understanding and a secretary. Yechi’el the son of Hachmoni took care of the king’s sons.

1 Chronicles 27:33 Achitofel was an adviser to the king. Hushai the Archi was the king’s confidant;

1 Chronicles 27:34 and after Achitofel were Y’hoyada the son of B’nayah and Evyatar. Yo’av was commander of the king’s army.

1 Chronicles 28:1 David assembled in Yerushalayim all the leaders of Isra’el- the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of the divisions serving the king, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and the supervisors over the property and livestock of the king, along with his sons, the officials, the warrior-heroes, and anyone else who was a leader.

1 Chronicles 28:2 Then David the king rose to his feet and said: “My kinsmen and my people! Listen to me! I set my heart on building a house where the ark for the covenant of ADONAI could remain at rest. It would have been God’s footstool, and I prepared to build it.

1 Chronicles 28:3 But God said to me, ‘You are not to build a house for my name, because you are a man of war, you have shed blood.’

1 Chronicles 28:4 However, ADONAI the God of Isra’el chose me out of my father’s whole family to be king over Isra’el forever; for he chose Y’hudah to be the leader; and in the house of Y’hudah, in the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, it was his pleasure to make me king over all Isra’el;

1 Chronicles 28:5 and of all my sons- for ADONAI has given me many sons- he has chosen Shlomo my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of ADONAI over Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 28:6 “Moreover, he said to me, ‘Shlomo your son will build my house and courtyards, for I have chosen him to be a son to me, and I will be a father to him.

1 Chronicles 28:7 I will establish his kingdom forever, if he uses his strength to obey my [mitzvot] and abide by my rulings, as [[he is doing]] currently.’

1 Chronicles 28:8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Isra’el, the community of ADONAI, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek out all the [mitzvot] of ADONAI your God, so that you may continue to possess this good land and leave it as an inheritance to your descendants after you forever.

1 Chronicles 28:9 “As for you, Shlomo my son, know the God of your father. Serve him wholeheartedly and with desire in your being; for ADONAI searches all hearts and understands all the inclinations of people’s thoughts. If you seek him, he will let himself be found by you; but if you abandon him, he will reject you forever.

1 Chronicles 28:10 See now that ADONAI has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; so be strong, and do it!”

1 Chronicles 28:11 Then David gave Shlomo his son the designs for the hall [[of the temple]], its buildings, its supply areas, its upper rooms, its inside rooms, and the place for the ark-cover;

1 Chronicles 28:12 also the designs for everything he had been given by the Spirit- for the courtyards of the house of ADONAI, for all the rooms surrounding it, for the storehouses in the house of God, for the storehouses for the holy articles,

1 Chronicles 28:13 and for the areas set aside for the [cohanim] and the [L'vi'im]; [[arrangements]] for the work involved in the service of the house of ADONAI and for all the articles needed for the service of the house of ADONAI;

1 Chronicles 28:14 [[lists]] of the weights of gold needed for the gold items to be used for various purposes, and the weights of silver needed for the silver items to be used for various purposes-

1 Chronicles 28:15 the weight of the gold needed for the gold [menorah]s, the weight needed for each [menorah] and for its lamps; and for the [menorah]s of silver, the weight of silver needed for each [menorah] and for its lamps, according to the way each [menorah] was to be used;

1 Chronicles 28:16 also the gold by weight for the tables for the showbread, for each table; and silver for the tables made of silver;

1 Chronicles 28:17 the gold for the pure gold forks, basins and jars, and for the gold bowls by weight for each bowl; also for the silver bowls by weight for each bowl;

1 Chronicles 28:18 and for the incense altar, refined gold by weight; and gold for the design of the chariot and the [k'ruvim] with their wings spread out to cover the ark for the covenant of ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 28:19 “All this is in writing, as ADONAI, with his hand on me, has given me good sense in working out these detailed plans.”

1 Chronicles 28:20 Then David said to Shlomo his son, “Be strong, be bold, and do it! Don't be afraid or become discouraged! For ADONAI, God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or abandon you until all the work for the service in the house of ADONAI has been finished.

1 Chronicles 28:21 See, there are the divisions of the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] for all the service in the house of God. For every kind of work, you will have with you every man who is willing and skilled, for every kind of service. Also the captains and all the people will be completely at your disposal.”

1 Chronicles 29:1 To the whole community, David the king said, “Shlomo my son is the only one God has chosen. But he is still young and inexperienced, whereas the work to be done is great; because the palace is not for anyone human, but for ADONAI, God.

1 Chronicles 29:2 Now I have used all my strength to prepare for the house of my God the gold needed for the articles of gold, the silver for the articles of silver, the bronze for the articles of bronze, the iron for the articles of iron, the wood for the articles of wood, onyx stones, gemstones to be set, brilliant stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, as well as marble in abundance.

1 Chronicles 29:3 In addition, because my desire is set on the house of my God, since I have my own supply of gold and silver, I herewith give it to the house of my God- over and above everything I have prepared for the holy house-

1 Chronicles 29:4 ninety-nine tons of gold from the gold of Ofir and 231 tons of refined silver to be used for overlaying the walls of the houses.

1 Chronicles 29:5 The gold is for whatever is to be made of gold, and the silver is for whatever is to be made of silver; and they may be used for anything to be made by craftsmen. Therefore, who offers willingly to consecrate himself today to ADONAI?”

1 Chronicles 29:6 Then the clan leaders, the leaders of the tribes of Isra’el, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, along with the supervisors over the king’s work offered willingly.

1 Chronicles 29:7 They gave for the service of the house of God 165 tons of gold, 330 tons of silver, 594 tons of bronze and 3,300 tons of iron.

1 Chronicles 29:8 Those who had precious stones gave them to the storehouse of the house of ADONAI, supervised by Yechi’el the Gershuni.

1 Chronicles 29:9 The people were filled with joy, because they had given willingly- wholeheartedly they had given willingly to ADONAI; and David the king too was completely filled with joy,

1 Chronicles 29:10 as he blessed ADONAI before the entire community: “Blessed be you, ADONAI, the God of Isra’el our father, forever and ever.

1 Chronicles 29:11 Yours, ADONAI, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory and the majesty; for everything in heaven and on earth is yours. The kingdom is yours, ADONAI; and you are exalted as head over all.

1 Chronicles 29:12 Riches and honor come from you, you rule everything, in your hand is power and strength, you have the capacity to make great and to give strength to all.

1 Chronicles 29:13 Therefore, our God, we thank you and praise your glorious name.

1 Chronicles 29:14 “But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to give so willingly in this way? For all things come from you, so that we have given you what is already yours.

1 Chronicles 29:15 For in your presence we are temporary residents, just passing through, as all our ancestors were- our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope.

1 Chronicles 29:16 ADONAI our God, all these supplies that we have prepared in order to build you a house for your holy name come from your own hand, all of it is already yours.

1 Chronicles 29:17 I know also, my God, that you test the heart and take pleasure in integrity. As for myself, I have given all these things willingly, in the integrity of my heart; and now, with joy, I have seen your people who are present here give willingly to you.

1 Chronicles 29:18 ADONAI, God of Avraham, Yitz’chak and Isra’el our ancestors, guard forever the inclinations of the thoughts in the hearts of your people; direct their hearts to you;

1 Chronicles 29:19 and give to Shlomo my son wholeheartedness to obey your [mitzvot], instructions and rules, to do all these things, and to build the palace for which I have made provision.”

1 Chronicles 29:20 Then David said to all the community, “Now bless ADONAI your God.” All the community blessed ADONAI, the God of their ancestors, bowing their heads and prostrating themselves before ADONAI and before the king.

1 Chronicles 29:21 On the following day they presented sacrifices to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings to ADONAI- a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings- and sacrifices in abundance for all Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 29:22 They ate and drank before ADONAI that day with great joy. Then, for the second time, they made Shlomo the son of David king, anointing him before ADONAI to be king, and Tzadok to be [cohen].

1 Chronicles 29:23 Shlomo sat on the throne of ADONAI as king in place of David his father and prospered, and all Isra’el obeyed him.

1 Chronicles 29:24 All the leaders, the warrior-heroes and likewise the sons of King David submitted themselves to Shlomo the king.

1 Chronicles 29:25 ADONAI gave Shlomo exceedingly great power, in full view of all Isra’el, and bestowed on him royal majesty such as had not been seen on any king before him in Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 29:26 Now David the son of Yishai ruled over all Isra’el.

1 Chronicles 29:27 The duration of his reign over Isra’el was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hevron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Yerushalayim.

1 Chronicles 29:28 Then he died, at a ripe old age, full of years, riches and honor; and Shlomo his son reigned in his place.

1 Chronicles 29:29 The activities of David the king, from first to last, are written in the records of Sh’mu’el the seer, Natan the prophet and Gad the seer,

1 Chronicles 29:30 with all his reign and his power, and the events that he, Isra’el and the kingdoms of other countries experienced.

2 Chronicles

1:1 Shlomo the son of David grew stronger in his rulership; ADONAI his God was with him, making him greater and greater.

2 Chronicles 1:2 Shlomo spoke to all Isra'el- to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges and to every leader in all Isra'el, the heads of clans.

2 Chronicles 1:3 Shlomo and the whole community with him went to the high place at Giv'on, because in that place was God's tent of meeting, which Moshe the servant of ADONAI had made in the desert.

2 Chronicles 1:4 But the ark of God David had brought up from Kiryat-Ye'arim to the place he had prepared for it- he had set up a tent for it in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 1:5 The bronze altar crafted by B'tzal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had been placed before the tabernacle of ADONAI; and there Shlomo and the community consulted him.

2 Chronicles 1:6 On the bronze altar at the tent of meeting Shlomo offered a thousand burnt offerings before ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 1:7 That night God appeared to Shlomo and said to him, "Tell me what I should give you."

2 Chronicles 1:8 Shlomo said to God, "You showed much grace to your servant David my father and have made me king in his place.

2 Chronicles 1:9 Now, ADONAI, God, you have been faithful to your promise to David my father; for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the grains of dust on the earth.

2 Chronicles 1:10 So now, give me wisdom and knowledge; so that I will be able to lead this people. For who is equal to judging this great people of yours?"

2 Chronicles 1:11 God said to Shlomo, "Because you set your heart on this- because, instead of asking for riches, wealth, honor, the death of those who hate you, or long life, you asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself, so that you would be able to judge my people, over whom I made you king-

2 Chronicles 1:12 not only are wisdom and knowledge being given to you, but I will also give you riches, wealth and honor such as no king before you has ever had; and no king after you will have as much."

2 Chronicles 1:13 So Shlomo came away from the high place at Giv'on, from in front of the tent of meeting, to Yerushalayim; and he ruled over Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 1:14 Shlomo amassed chariots and horsemen; he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen; he placed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 1:15 The king made silver and gold in Yerushalayim as common as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as sycamore-fig trees in the Sh’felah.

2 Chronicles 1:16 Shlomo’s horses had been brought from Egypt and from Keve, with the king’s agents having bought them from the dealers in Keve at the going price.

2 Chronicles 1:17 A chariot brought from Egypt cost fifteen pounds of silver [shekel]s and a horse three-and-three quarters pounds [[of [shekel]s]]; all the kings of the Hittim and the kings of Aram purchased them at these prices through Shlomo’s agents.

2 Chronicles 1:18 Shlomo then decided to build a house for the name of ADONAI and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:1 Shlomo enlisted 70,000 men who carried loads, another 80,000 men who were stonecutters in the hills and 3,600 supervising them.

2 Chronicles 2:2 Then Shlomo sent this message to Huram the king of Tzor: “[[Deal with me]] as you dealt with David my father when you sent him cedar logs, so that he could build himself a palace to live in.

2 Chronicles 2:3 Here, I am about to build a house for the name of ADONAI my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before Him incense made of sweet spices; the house will also be for the continuing showbread and for the burnt offerings presented every morning and evening, on the [shabbat]s, at every [Rosh-Hodesh], and at the designated times of ADONAI our God. This is a perpetual regulation for Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 2:4 The house I will build will be great, because our God is greater than all gods.

2 Chronicles 2:5 But who is equal to building him a house? Why, heaven itself, even the heaven of heavens, cannot contain him; so who am I to build him a house, except to offer sacrifices before him?

2 Chronicles 2:6 “Now, therefore, send me a man skilled at working with gold, silver, bronze and iron; dealing with purple, crimson, and blue dyed materials; and capable of doing all kinds of engraving. He will be with the skilled craftsmen I have with me in Y’hudah and Yerushalayim, whom David my father provided.

2 Chronicles 2:7 Also send me cedar, cypress and sandalwood logs from the L’vanon; for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting timber in the L’vanon. I will have my servants work together with your servants

2 Chronicles 2:8 to prepare me an abundant supply of timber, for the house I am about to build must be magnificent and wonderful.

2 Chronicles 2:9 I will give your servants, the woodcutters who cut the timber, 100,000 bushels of cracked wheat, 100,000 bushels of barley, 100,000 gallons of wine, and 100,000 gallons of olive oil."

2 Chronicles 2:10 Huram the king of Tzor wrote this answer and sent it to Shlomo: "Because the Lord loves his people, he has made you king over them."

2 Chronicles 2:11 Huram continued, "Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, who made heaven and earth, who has given David the king a wise, knowledgeable son with common sense to build a house for ADONAI and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:12 Now I am sending a man of skill and understanding, my master craftsman Huram,

2 Chronicles 2:13 the son of a woman who was one of the daughters of Dan, while his father was a man from Tzor. He is skilled in working gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and timber, as well as purple and blue dyed materials, fine linen and crimson material; he can do any kind of engraving; and he can make all the equipment necessary to accomplish any task assigned to him, with the help of your craftsmen and those of my lord David your father.

2 Chronicles 2:14 Therefore let my lord send his servants the wheat, barley, oil and wine he has spoken of;

2 Chronicles 2:15 and we will cut wood from the L'vanon, as much as you need; we will float it to you as rafts by sea to Yafo, and you will take it up to Yerushalayim."

2 Chronicles 2:16 Shlomo took a census of all the foreigners in the land of Isra'el, following the pattern of the census of David his father; they were found to number 153,600.

2 Chronicles 2:17 He appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads, 80,000 to be stonecutters in the hills and 3,600 as supervisors to assign the people their work.

2 Chronicles 3:1 Then Shlomo began to build the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim on Mount Moriyah, where ADONAI had appeared to David his father. Provision had been made for this at the place David had chosen, the threshing-floor of Ornan the Y'vusi.

2 Chronicles 3:2 He began building in the fourth year of his reign, on the second day of the second month.

2 Chronicles 3:3 These are the foundations Shlomo laid for building the house of God: the length in old-standard cubits was sixty cubits [] and the width twenty cubits [[thirty-five feet]].

2 Chronicles 3:4 The length of the hall fronting the house was the same as the house's width, thirty-five feet and the height 210 [[feet]]; and he overlaid it with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 3:5 The larger house he covered with cypress-wood, which he overlaid with fine gold and embossed with palm trees and chains.

2 Chronicles 3:6 He also decorated the building with precious stones and gold from Parvayim,

2 Chronicles 3:7 overlaying the house and its beams, thresholds, walls and doors with gold and carving [k’ruvim] on the walls.

2 Chronicles 3:8 Then he made the Especially Holy Place; its length matched the width of the house, thirty-five feet, and its width was thirty-five feet[.] He overlaid it with twenty tons of fine gold.

2 Chronicles 3:9 The weight of the nails was one-and-a-quarter pounds of gold, and he overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:10 Inside the Especially Holy Place he made two [k’ruvim] of cast metal, and they overlaid them with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:11 The wings of the [k’ruvim] were thirty-five feet long- the wing of the one [keruv] was eight-and-three-quarters feet long and touched the wall of the house; the other wing was also eight-and-three-quarters feet long, so that it touched the wing of the other [keruv].

2 Chronicles 3:12 The wing of the other [keruv] was eight-and-three-quarters feet long, touching the wall of the house; and the other wing was also eight-and-three-quarters feet long, touching the wing of the first [keruv].

2 Chronicles 3:13 The wings of these [k’ruvim] spread out over thirty-five feet[.] They stood on their feet with their faces turned inward.

2 Chronicles 3:14 He made the curtain of blue, purple and crimson material and of fine linen, with a design of [k’ruvim] worked into it.

2 Chronicles 3:15 In front of the house he made two columns sixty-one-and-a-quarter feet high, with a capital of eight-and-three-quarters feet on top of each.

2 Chronicles 3:16 He made chains in the sanctuary and added them to the tops of the columns, and he made a hundred pomegranates and attached them to the chains.

2 Chronicles 3:17 He erected the columns in front of the temple, one on the right and the other on the left; the one on the right he called Yakhin, and the one on the left he called Bo’az.

2 Chronicles 4:1 He made an altar of bronze thirty-five feet long, thirty-five feet wide and seventeen-and-a-half feet high.

2 Chronicles 4:2 He made the cast metal “Sea” circular, seventeen-and-a-half feet from rim to rim, eight-and-three quarters feet high and fifty-two-and-a-half feet in circumference.

2 Chronicles 4:3 Below the rim a ring of ox-like figures encircled it, ten for every twenty-one inches all the way around the Sea. The oxen were in two rows; they were cast when the Sea was cast.

2 Chronicles 4:4 It rested on twelve oxen, three looking north, three looking west, three looking south and three looking east, all with their hindquarters toward the center. The Sea was set on top of them.

2 Chronicles 4:5 It was a handbreadth thick, its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; and its capacity was 16,500 gallons.

2 Chronicles 4:6 He also made ten basins for washing and put five on the right and five on the left. Items needed for the burnt offerings would be cleansed in these, but the Sea was for the [cohanim] to wash in.

2 Chronicles 4:7 He made the ten [menorah]s of gold in accordance with their specifications and set them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.

2 Chronicles 4:8 He also made ten tables and put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold.

2 Chronicles 4:9 He made the courtyard for the [cohanim] and the great courtyard, also the doors to the courtyard, which he overlaid with bronze.

2 Chronicles 4:10 The Sea he placed on the right side [[of the house]], toward the southeast.

2 Chronicles 4:11 Huram made the ash pots, shovels and sprinkling basins. With that, Huram completed the work he had been doing for King Shlomo in the house of God-

2 Chronicles 4:12 the two columns, the two moldings, the two capitals on top of the columns, the two nettings covering the two moldings of the capitals atop the columns,

2 Chronicles 4:13 and the 400 pomegranates for the two nettings, two rows of pomegranates for each netting, to cover the two moldings of the capitals atop the columns.

2 Chronicles 4:14 He also made the trolleys, the basins on the trolleys,

2 Chronicles 4:15 the one Sea, the twelve oxen under it,

2 Chronicles 4:16 the ash pots, the shovels, the forks and all the other equipment for it. All these articles that Huram the master craftsman made for King Shlomo in the house of ADONAI were of brilliant bronze.

2 Chronicles 4:17 The king cast them in the plain of the Yarden, in the clay ground between Sukkot and Tz'redah.

2 Chronicles 4:18 Shlomo made so many of these objects that the total weight of the bronze could not be determined.

2 Chronicles 4:19 Shlomo made all the objects that were inside the house of God: the gold altar; the table on which the showbread was displayed;

2 Chronicles 4:20 the [menorah]s with their lamps to burn in front of the sanctuary as specified, of pure gold;

2 Chronicles 4:21 the flowers, lamps and tongs of gold, solid gold;

2 Chronicles 4:22 and the snuffers, bowls, cups and fire pans of pure gold. As for the entryway to the house, the inner doors for the Especially Holy Place and the doors of the house (that is, of the temple) were of gold.

2 Chronicles 5:1 Thus all the work that Shlomo did for the house of ADONAI was finished. Then Shlomo brought in the gifts which David his father had consecrated- the silver, the gold and all the utensils- and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

2 Chronicles 5:2 Shlomo assembled all the leaders of Isra'el and all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the paternal clans of the people of Isra'el, to Yerushalayim, to bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI out of the City of David, also known as Tziyon.

2 Chronicles 5:3 All the people of Isra'el assembled before the king at the festival in the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 5:4 All the leaders of Isra'el came. The [L'vi'im] took the ark

2 Chronicles 5:5 and brought up the ark, the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils that were in the tent; these are what the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] brought up.

2 Chronicles 5:6 King Shlomo and the whole community of Isra'el who had assembled in his presence were in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen in numbers beyond counting or recording.

2 Chronicles 5:7 The [cohanim] brought the ark for the covenant of ADONAI in to its place inside the sanctuary of the house, to the Especially Holy Place, under the wings of the [k'ruvim].

2 Chronicles 5:8 For the [k'ruvim] spread out their wings over the place for the ark, covering the ark and its poles from above.

2 Chronicles 5:9 The poles were so long that their ends could be seen [[extending]] from the ark into the sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day.

2 Chronicles 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets Moshe put there at Horev, when ADONAI made the covenant with the people of Isra'el at the time of their leaving Egypt.

2 Chronicles 5:11 When the [cohanim] came out of the Holy Place (for all the [cohanim] who were present had consecrated themselves; they didn’t keep to their divisions;

2 Chronicles 5:12 also the [L’vi’im] who were the singers, all of them- Asaf, Heman, Y’dutun and their sons and relatives- dressed in fine linen, with cymbals, lutes and lyres, stood on the east side of the altar; and with them 120 [cohanim] sounding trumpets),

2 Chronicles 5:13 then, when the trumpeters and singers were playing in concord, to be heard harmoniously praising and thanking ADONAI, and they lifted their voices together with the trumpets, cymbals and other musical instruments to praise ADONAI: “for he is good, for his grace continues forever”- then, the house, the house of ADONAI, was filled with a cloud;

2 Chronicles 5:14 so that because of the cloud, the [cohanim] could not stand up to perform their service; for the glory of ADONAI filled the house of God.

2 Chronicles 6:1 Shlomo said, “ADONAI said he would live in thick darkness.

2 Chronicles 6:2 But I have built you a magnificent house, a place where you can live forever.”

2 Chronicles 6:3 Then the king turned around and blessed the whole community of Isra’el. The whole community of Isra’el stood

2 Chronicles 6:4 as he said, “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, who spoke to my father David with his mouth and fulfilled his promise with his hand. He said,

2 Chronicles 6:5 ‘Since the day I brought my people out of Egypt, I chose no city from any of the tribes of Isra’el to build a house, so that my name might be there; nor did I choose anyone to be the leader of my people Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 6:6 But now I have chosen Yerushalayim, so that my name can be there; and I have chosen David to be over my people Isra’el.’

2 Chronicles 6:7 It was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of ADONAI the God of Isra’el;

2 Chronicles 6:8 but ADONAI said to David my father, ‘Although it was in your heart to build a house for my name, and you did well that it was in your heart,

2 Chronicles 6:9 nevertheless you will not build the house. Rather, you will father a son, and it will be he who will build the house for my name.’

2 Chronicles 6:10 Now ADONAI has fulfilled this spoken word of his; for I have succeeded my father and sit on the throne of Isra’el, as ADONAI promised; and I have built the house for the name of ADONAI the God of Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 6:11 And there I have placed the ark containing the covenant of ADONAI, which he made with the people of Isra’el.”

2 Chronicles 6:12 Then he stood before the altar of ADONAI in the presence of the whole community of Isra’el, spread out his hands-

2 Chronicles 6:13 for Shlomo had made a bronze platform eight-and-three quarters feet long, eight-and-three-quarters feet wide and five-and-a-quarter feet high and had set it up in the middle of the courtyard. He stood on it, then got down on his knees before the whole community, spread out his hands toward heaven,

2 Chronicles 6:14 and said, “ADONAI, God of Isra’el, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth. You keep covenant with your servants and show them grace, provided they live in your presence with all their heart.

2 Chronicles 6:15 You have kept your promise to your servant David, my father; you spoke with your mouth and fulfilled it with your hand; so it is today.

2 Chronicles 6:16 Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Isra’el, keep what you promised to your servant David, my father, when you said, ‘You will never lack a man in my presence to sit on the throne of Isra’el, if only your children are careful about what they do, so that they live by my [Torah], just as you have lived in my presence.’

2 Chronicles 6:17 Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Isra’el, please let your word, which you spoke to your servant David, my father, be confirmed.

2 Chronicles 6:18 “But can God actually live with human beings on the earth? Why, heaven itself, even the heaven of heavens, cannot contain you; so how much less this house I have built?

2 Chronicles 6:19 Even so, ADONAI my God, pay attention to your servant’s prayer and plea, listen to the cry and prayer that your servant is praying before you,

2 Chronicles 6:20 that your eyes will be open toward this house day and night- toward the place where you said you would put your name- to listen to the prayer your servant will pray toward this place.

2 Chronicles 6:21 Yes, listen to the pleas of your servant, and also those of your people Isra’el when they pray toward this place. Hear from where you live, from heaven; and when you hear, forgive!

2 Chronicles 6:22 “If a person sins against a fellow member of the community, and he is made to swear under oath, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house;

2 Chronicles 6:23 then hear from heaven, act and judge your servants, paying back the wicked, so that his way of life devolves on his own head, and vindicating the one who is right, giving him what his righteousness deserves.

2 Chronicles 6:24 “If your people Isra’el sin against you and in consequence are defeated by an enemy; then if they turn back to you, acknowledge your name, and pray and make their plea to you in this house,

2 Chronicles 6:25 hear from heaven, forgive the sin of your people Isra’el, and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 6:26 “When they sin against you, and in consequence the sky is shut, so that there is no rain; then if they pray toward this place, acknowledge your name and turn from their sin when you have brought them low;

2 Chronicles 6:27 hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your servants and of your people Isra’el- since you keep teaching them the good way by which they should live- and send down rain on your land, which you have given your people as their inheritance.

2 Chronicles 6:28 “If there is famine in the land, or blight, windstorm, mildew, locusts or shearer-worms; or if their enemies besiege them in any of their cities- no matter what kind of plague or sickness it is;

2 Chronicles 6:29 then, regardless of what prayer or plea anyone among all your people Isra’el makes- for each individual will know his own plague and his own pain- and the person spreads out his hands toward this house;

2 Chronicles 6:30 then hear from heaven where you live, and forgive; also, since you know what is in each one’s heart, give each person what his conduct deserves (because you, and only you, know human hearts),

2 Chronicles 6:31 so that they will fear you and therefore live according to your ways throughout the time they live in the land you gave our ancestors.

2 Chronicles 6:32 “Also the foreigner who does not belong to your people Isra’el- when he comes from a distant country because of your great reputation, your mighty hand and your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house;

2 Chronicles 6:33 then hear from heaven, from where you live; and act in accordance with everything about which the foreigner is calling to you; so that all the peoples of the earth will know your name and fear you, as does your people Isra’el, and so that they will know that this house which I have built bears your name.

2 Chronicles 6:34 “If your people go out to fight their enemies, no matter by which way you send them, and they pray to you toward the city you chose and the house I built for your name;

2 Chronicles 6:35 then, from heaven, hear their prayer and plea, and uphold their cause.

2 Chronicles 6:36 “If they sin against you- for there is no one who doesn’t sin- and you are angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, so that they carry them off captive to a land far away or nearby;

2 Chronicles 6:37 then, if they come to their senses in the land where they have been carried away captive, turn back and make their plea to you in the land where they are being held captive, saying, ‘We sinned, we acted wrongly, we behaved wickedly,’

2 Chronicles 6:38 if, in the land where they were brought and are being held captive, they return to you with all their heart and being and pray to you toward their own land, which you gave to their ancestors, toward the city you chose and toward the house I have built for your name;

2 Chronicles 6:39 then, from heaven, from where you live, hear their prayer and pleas, uphold their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

2 Chronicles 6:40 “Now, my God, please, let your eyes be open, and let your ears pay attention to the prayer being made in this place.

2 Chronicles 6:41 “Now go up, ADONAI, God, to your place of rest, you and the ark through which you give strength. “May your [cohanim], ADONAI, God, be clothed with salvation; may those loyal to you take joy in good.

2 Chronicles 6:42 “ADONAI, God, don’t turn away the face of your anointed one; remember the mercies of your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7:1 When Shlomo had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of ADONAI filled the house,

2 Chronicles 7:2 so that the [cohanim] could not enter the house of ADONAI; because the glory of ADONAI filled ADONAI’s house.

2 Chronicles 7:3 All the people of Isra’el saw when the fire came down, and the glory of ADONAI was on the house; they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the flooring; prostrating themselves, they gave thanks to ADONAI, “for he is good, for his grace continues forever.”

2 Chronicles 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 7:5 King Shlomo offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

2 Chronicles 7:6 The [cohanim] stood at their appointed stations, while the [L’vi’im] used the instruments that David the king had provided for making music to ADONAI in order to “give thanks to ADONAI, for his grace continues forever,” by means of the praises David had composed. Opposite them the [cohanim] sounded trumpets; and all Isra’el stood up.

2 Chronicles 7:7 Shlomo also consecrated the center of the courtyard in front of the house of ADONAI; because he had to offer the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings there. For the bronze altar which Shlomo had made could not receive the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat.

2 Chronicles 7:8 So Shlomo celebrated the festival at that time for seven days, together with all Isra'el, an enormous gathering; [[they had come all the way]] from the entrance of Hamat to the [Vadi] [[of Egypt]].

2 Chronicles 7:9 On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, having observed the dedication of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days.

2 Chronicles 7:10 Then, on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their tents full of joy and glad of heart for all the goodness ADONAI had shown to David, to Shlomo and to Isra'el his people.

2 Chronicles 7:11 Thus Shlomo finished the house of ADONAI and the royal palace. Everything that Shlomo had set his heart on making in the house of ADONAI and in his own palace he accomplished successfully.

2 Chronicles 7:12 ADONAI appeared to Shlomo by night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.

2 Chronicles 7:13 If I shut up the sky, so that there is no rain; or if I order locusts to devour the land; or if I send an epidemic of sickness among my people;

2 Chronicles 7:14 then, if my people, who bear my name, will humble themselves, pray, seek my face and turn from their evil ways, I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin and heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears will pay attention to the prayer made in this place.

2 Chronicles 7:16 For now I have chosen and consecrated this house, so that my name can be there forever; my eyes and heart will always be there.

2 Chronicles 7:17 As for you, if you will live in my presence, as did David your father, doing everything I have ordered you to do, and keeping my laws and rulings;

2 Chronicles 7:18 then I will establish the throne of your rulership, as I covenanted with David your father when I said, 'You will never lack a man to be ruler in Isra'el.'

2 Chronicles 7:19 But if you turn away and abandon my regulations and [mitzvot] which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, worshipping them;

2 Chronicles 7:20 then I will pull them up by the roots out of the land I have given them. This house, which I consecrated for my name, I will eject from my sight; and I will make it an example to avoid and an object of scorn among all peoples.

2 Chronicles 7:21 This house, now so exalted- everyone passing by will be shocked at the sight of it and will ask, 'Why has ADONAI done this to this land and to this house?'

2 Chronicles 7:22 But the answer will be, 'It's because they abandoned ADONAI the God of their ancestors, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and took hold of other gods, worshipping and serving them; this is why [[ADONAI]] brought all these calamities on them.'"

2 Chronicles 8:1 At the end of twenty years, during which time Shlomo had built the house of ADONAI and his own palace,

2 Chronicles 8:2 Shlomo built up the cities which Huram had given to Shlomo and had the people of Isra'el live there.

2 Chronicles 8:3 Then Shlomo attacked Hamat-Tzovah and defeated it.

2 Chronicles 8:4 He built Tadmor in the desert and all the cities for storing supplies that he built in Hamat.

2 Chronicles 8:5 He also built Upper Beit-Horon and Lower Beit-Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates and bars;

2 Chronicles 8:6 Ba'alat; and all the cities that Shlomo had for storing supplies, all the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horsemen, and all the other buildings Shlomo wanted to build in Yerushalayim, in the L'vanon and throughout the land he ruled.

2 Chronicles 8:7 As for all the people still left from the Hitti, Emori, P'rizi, Hivi, and Y'vusi, who were not part of Isra'el,

2 Chronicles 8:8 from their descendants remaining after them in the land, whom the people of Isra'el did not exterminate- from them Shlomo levied [[his forced laborers]], as it is to this day.

2 Chronicles 8:9 But Shlomo did not raise any of his slaves from the people of Isra'el; rather, these were the soldiers, his chief commanders, and the officials in charge of his chariots and horsemen.

2 Chronicles 8:10 King Shlomo had 250 chief officers in charge of the people.

2 Chronicles 8:11 Shlomo brought up Pharaoh's daughter from the City of David to the house he had built for her; because he said, "No wife of mine is going to live in the house of David king of Isra'el, since the [[buildings]] where the ark of ADONAI has been are holy."

2 Chronicles 8:12 Then Shlomo offered burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of ADONAI that he had built in front of the vestibule,

2 Chronicles 8:13 as each day required, offering according to the [mitzvah] of Moshe on [Shabbat]s, at [Rosh-Hodesh] and at the designated times three times a year- the festivals of [Matzah], [Shavu'ot] and [Sukkot].

2 Chronicles 8:14 As David his father had ordered, he appointed the divisions of the [cohanim] for their service and the [L'vi'im] to their tasks- to praise and to perform their service in the presence of the [cohanim] according to each day's requirements. He also appointed the gatekeepers by their divisions to be at every gate, for David the man of God had so ordered.

2 Chronicles 8:15 They did not deviate from the king's order to the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] in any matter or in regard to the supplies.

2 Chronicles 8:16 All the work of Shlomo was organized in this way from the day ground was broken for the house of ADONAI until everything had been accomplished, and the house of ADONAI had been completed.

2 Chronicles 8:17 Shlomo went to 'Etzyon-Gever and Elot on the shore of the sea in the land of Edom.

2 Chronicles 8:18 Huram sent some of his servants with ships, and others that were experienced sailors who understood the sea; they went with Shlomo's servants to Ofir and took from there fifteen tons of gold, which they brought back to King Shlomo.

2 Chronicles 9:1 When the queen of Sh'va heard what was being said about Shlomo, she came to test him with difficult questions in Yerushalayim, accompanied by a very great retinue, including camels bearing spices and gold in abundance, and precious stones. When she appeared before Shlomo, she spoke with him about everything on her heart;

2 Chronicles 9:2 and Shlomo answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king that he could not explain to her.

2 Chronicles 9:3 After the queen of Sh'va had seen Shlomo's wisdom, the palace he had built,

2 Chronicles 9:4 the food at his table, the manner of seating his officials, the manner in which his staff served him and how they were dressed, his personal servants and how they were dressed, and his manner of going up to the house of ADONAI, it left her breathless.

2 Chronicles 9:5 She said to the king, "What I heard in my own country about your deeds and your wisdom is true,

2 Chronicles 9:6 but I couldn't believe the report until I came and saw for myself. Actually, they didn't tell me even half of how great your wisdom is. In reality, you surpass the reports I heard.

2 Chronicles 9:7 How happy your people must be, how happy these servants of yours who are always here attending you and get to hear your wisdom!

2 Chronicles 9:8 Blessed be ADONAI your God, who took pleasure in you to put you on his throne, so that you could be king for ADONAI your God. Because of your God's love for Isra'el, to establish them forever, he has made you king over them, to administer law and judgment."

2 Chronicles 9:9 Then she gave the king four tons of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there had never been spices like those the queen of Sh'va gave to King Shlomo.

2 Chronicles 9:10 Huram's servants and Shlomo's servants, who had brought the gold from Ofir, now brought sandalwood and precious stones.

2 Chronicles 9:11 The king used the sandalwood to make walkways for the house of ADONAI and for the royal palace, also lyres and lutes for the singers. None like these had been seen before in the land of Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 9:12 King Shlomo gave the queen of Sh'va everything she wanted, whatever she asked, more than what she had brought to the king. After this, she returned and went back to her own country, she and her servants.

2 Chronicles 9:13 The weight of the gold Shlomo received annually came to twenty-two tons,

2 Chronicles 9:14 besides that which came from customs duties and sales taxes; also all the Arab kings and regional governors brought gold and silver to Shlomo.

2 Chronicles 9:15 King Shlomo made 200 large shields of hammered gold; fifteen pounds of hammered gold went into one shield.

2 Chronicles 9:16 He made 300 more shields of hammered gold, with seven-and-a-half pounds going into one shield; the king put these in the House of the L'vanon Forest.

2 Chronicles 9:17 The king also made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 9:18 The throne had six steps and a gold footstool; these were fastened to the throne. There were arms on either side of the seat, two lions standing beside the arms,

2 Chronicles 9:19 and twelve more lions standing on each side of the six steps. Nothing like it had ever been made in any kingdom.

2 Chronicles 9:20 All King Shlomo's drinking vessels were of gold; and all the utensils in the House of the L'vanon Forest were of pure gold; for in Shlomo's time, silver was regarded as having little value.

2 Chronicles 9:21 The king had ships that could go to Tarshish with Huram's servants; once every three years the "Tarshish" ships came in, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

2 Chronicles 9:22 So King Shlomo surpassed all the kings on earth in both wealth and wisdom.

2 Chronicles 9:23 All the kings on earth sought to have an audience with Shlomo, in order to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

2 Chronicles 9:24 Each one brought his present- articles of silver, articles of gold, clothing, armor, spices, horses and mules; and this continued year after year.

2 Chronicles 9:25 Shlomo also had 4,000 stalls of horses for his chariots and his 12,000 horsemen; he assigned them to the chariot cities and to the king in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 9:26 He ruled over all the kingdoms from the [[Euphrates]] River through the land of the P'lishtim to the border of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 9:27 The king made silver in Yerushalayim as common as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as sycamore-fig trees are in the Sh'felah.

2 Chronicles 9:28 They brought horses for Shlomo from Egypt and from all countries.

2 Chronicles 9:29 Other activities of Shlomo, from beginning to end, are written in the records of Natan the prophet, in the prophecy of Achiyah of Shiloh and in the visions of Ye'do the seer concerning Yarov'am the son of N'vat.

2 Chronicles 9:30 Shlomo reigned in Yerushalayim over all Isra'el for forty years.

2 Chronicles 9:31 Then Shlomo slept with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David his father, and Rechav'am his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 10:1 Rechav'am went to Sh'khem, where all Isra'el had come in order to proclaim him king.

2 Chronicles 10:2 When Yarov'am the son of N'vat heard of it, he returned from Egypt, where he had fled from Shlomo.

2 Chronicles 10:3 They sent and summoned him, so Yarov'am and all Isra'el came and said to Rechav'am,

2 Chronicles 10:4 “Your father laid a harsh yoke on us. But if you will lighten the harsh service we had to render your father and ease his heavy yoke that he put on us, we will serve you.”

2 Chronicles 10:5 He said to them, “Come back to me after three days.” So the people left.

2 Chronicles 10:6 King Rechav'am consulted the older men who had been in attendance on Shlomo his father during his lifetime and asked, “What advice would you give me as to how to answer these people?”

2 Chronicles 10:7 They said to him, “If you will treat these people kindly, pleasing them and giving them favorable consideration, they will be your servants forever.”

2 Chronicles 10:8 But he didn’t take the advice the older men gave him; instead he consulted the young men he had grown up with, who were now his attendants.

2 Chronicles 10:9 He said to them, “What advice would you give me, so that we can give an answer to these people who said to me, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father laid on us’?”

2 Chronicles 10:10 The young men he had grown up with said to him, “The people who said to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you, make it lighter for us’- here’s the answer you should give them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist!

2 Chronicles 10:11 Yes, my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but I will make it heavier! My father controlled you with whips, but I [[will control you]] with scorpions!’“

2 Chronicles 10:12 So Yarov’am and all the people came to Rechav’am the third day, as the king had requested by saying, “Come to me again the third day”;

2 Chronicles 10:13 and the king answered them harshly. Abandoning the advice of the older men, King Rechav’am

2 Chronicles 10:14 addressed them according to the advice of the young men and said, “I will make your yoke heavy, and I will add to it! My father controlled you with whips, but I will control you with scorpions!”

2 Chronicles 10:15 So the king didn’t listen to the people; and that was something God brought about, so that ADONAI could fulfill his word, which he had spoken through Achiyah from Shiloh to Yarov’am the son of N’vat.

2 Chronicles 10:16 When all Isra’el [[saw]] that the king wasn’t listening to them, the people answered the king, “Do we have any share in David? We have no heritage in the son of Yishai! Everyone to your tents, Isra’el! Care for your own house, David!” So all Isra’el left for their tents.

2 Chronicles 10:17 But as for the people of Isra’el living in the cities of Y’hudah, Rechav’am ruled over them.

2 Chronicles 10:18 King Rechav’am then sent Hadoram, who was in charge of forced labor; but the people of Isra’el stoned him to death. King Rechav’am managed to mount his chariot and flee to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 10:19 Isra’el has been in rebellion against the dynasty of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11:1 When Rechav’am arrived in Yerushalayim, he assembled the house of Y’hudah and Binyamin, 180,000 select soldiers, to fight Isra’el and bring the rulership back to Rechav’am.

2 Chronicles 11:2 But this word of ADONAI came to Sh’ma’yah the man of God:

2 Chronicles 11:3 “Speak to Rechav’am the son of Shlomo, king of Y’hudah, and to all Isra’el in Y’hudah and Binyamin; tell them

2 Chronicles 11:4 that this is what ADONAI says: ‘You are not to go up and fight your brothers! Every man is to go back home, because this is my doing.’“ They paid attention to the words of ADONAI and turned back from attacking Yarov’am.

2 Chronicles 11:5 Rechav’am lived in Yerushalayim and built cities for defense in Y’hudah-

2 Chronicles 11:6 he built Beit-Lechem, ‘Eitam, T’koa,

2 Chronicles 11:7 Beit-Tzur, Sokho, ‘Adulam,

2 Chronicles 11:8 Gat, Mareshah, Zif,

2 Chronicles 11:9 Adorayim, Lakhish, ‘Azekah,

2 Chronicles 11:10 Tzor’ah, Ayalon and Hevron; these are fortified cities in Y’hudah and Binyamin.

2 Chronicles 11:11 He fortified the strongholds, appointed captains in charge of them and supplied them with food, olive oil and wine.

2 Chronicles 11:12 In every city he put shields and spears, making them very strong. Y’hudah and Binyamin stuck with him.

2 Chronicles 11:13 The [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] from wherever they lived throughout all Isra’el made themselves available to Rechav’am.

2 Chronicles 11:14 The [L’vi’im] left their pasture lands and property and came to Y’hudah and Yerushalayim; since Yarov’am and his sons had thrown them out, not allowing them to function as [cohanim] for ADONAI,

2 Chronicles 11:15 and had appointed for himself [cohanim] for the high places and for the images of goat-demons and calves that he had made.

2 Chronicles 11:16 Those from all the tribes of Isra’el who had set their hearts on seeking ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, followed them to Yerushalayim to sacrifice to ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 11:17 For three years they strengthened the kingdom of Y’hudah and made Rechav’am the son of Shlomo strong, because for three years they followed the way of life of David and Shlomo.

2 Chronicles 11:18 Rechav’am married Machalat the daughter of Yerimot the son of David and Avichayil the daughter of Eli’av the son of Yishai;

2 Chronicles 11:19 and she became the mother of his sons Ye'ush, Sh'maryah and Zaham.

2 Chronicles 11:20 After her, he married Ma'akhah the daughter of Avshalom; she became the mother of Aviyah, 'Atai, Ziza and Shlomit.

2 Chronicles 11:21 Rechav'am loved Ma'akhah more than all his other wives and concubines- for he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines and was the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

2 Chronicles 11:22 Rechav'am appointed Aviyah the son of Ma'akhah chief, the leader of his brothers, because he intended to make him king.

2 Chronicles 11:23 He was wise in his treatment of his sons, sending all of them throughout the territory of Y'hudah and Binyamin, to every fortified city, providing them with plenty of supplies and seeking for them many wives.

2 Chronicles 12:1 But in time, after Rechav'am had consolidated his rulership and had become strong, he, and with him all Isra'el, abandoned the [Torah] of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 12:2 In the fifth year of King Rechav'am, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerushalayim, because they had acted faithlessly toward ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 12:3 He came out of Egypt with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen and a numberless army including Luvim, Suki'im and Ethiopians.

2 Chronicles 12:4 He captured the fortified cities of Y'hudah, then went to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 12:5 Now Sh'ma'yah the prophet came to Rechav'am and the leaders of Y'hudah who had gathered in Yerushalayim because of Shishak and said to them, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Because you have abandoned me, I have abandoned you to the hands of Shishak.’“

2 Chronicles 12:6 In response, the leaders of Isra'el and the king humbled themselves; they said, “ADONAI is right.”

2 Chronicles 12:7 When ADONAI saw that they had humbled themselves, this word of ADONAI came to Sh'ma'yah: “Because they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but will grant them a measure of deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Yerushalayim through Shishak.

2 Chronicles 12:8 However, they will become his slaves, so that they will come to appreciate the difference between serving me and serving earthly kingdoms.”

2 Chronicles 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerushalayim. He took the treasures in the house of ADONAI and the treasures in the royal palace- he took everything, including the gold shields Shlomo had made.

2 Chronicles 12:10 To replace them, King Rechav’am made shields of bronze, which he entrusted to the commanders of the contingent guarding the gate to the royal palace.

2 Chronicles 12:11 Whenever the king went to the house of ADONAI, the guard would come and get the shields; later they would return them to the guardroom.

2 Chronicles 12:12 After he humbled himself, the anger of ADONAI turned away from him, so that he did not altogether destroy him; moreover, some good things were found in Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 12:13 So King Rechav’am consolidated his rule in Yerushalayim. Rechav’am was forty-one years old when he began his reign; and he ruled seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city ADONAI had chosen from all the tribes of Isra’el to bear his name; his mother’s name was Na’amah the ‘Amonit.

2 Chronicles 12:14 He did what was evil, because he had not set his heart on seeking ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 12:15 The activities of Rechav’am from beginning to end are written in the genealogically organized histories of Sh’ma’yah the prophet and ‘Iddo the seer. But there were continual wars between Rechav’am and Yarov’am.

2 Chronicles 12:16 Rechav’am slept with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. Then Aviyah his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 13:1 It was in the eighteenth year of King Yarov’am that Aviyah began his reign over Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 13:2 He ruled three years in Yerushalayim; his mother’s name was Mikhayahu the daughter of Uri’el from Giv’ah. There was war between Aviyah and Yarov’am.

2 Chronicles 13:3 Aviyah joined the battle with an army of valiant soldiers, 400,000 select troops; while Yarov’am took the field against him with 800,000 select troops who were valiant, strong men.

2 Chronicles 13:4 Aviyah, standing on Mount Z’marayim, in the hills of Efrayim, cried, “Yarov’am and all Isra’el! Listen to me!

2 Chronicles 13:5 Don’t you know that ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, gave rulership over Isra’el to David forever, to him and his descendants, by a covenant of salt [[which is unbreakable]]?

2 Chronicles 13:6 Yet Yarov’am the son of N’vat, servant to Shlomo the son of David, rose in rebellion against his lord.

2 Chronicles 13:7 There rallied around him worthless brutes who were too strong for Rechav’am the son of Shlomo to withstand when he was young and inexperienced.

2 Chronicles 13:8 Now you expect to withstand the kingdom of ADONAI in the hands of the descendants of David. Yes, there are a great number of you, and you have with you the gold calves that Yarov'am made as gods for you.

2 Chronicles 13:9 Yes, you drove out the [cohanim] of ADONAI, the descendants of Aharon, and the [L'vi'im]; and you made yourselves priests as do the peoples in other countries, so that anyone who comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams can become a priest of those non-gods.

2 Chronicles 13:10 "But we are different. ADONAI is our God, and we have not abandoned him. We have [cohanim] performing the service for ADONAI, descendants of Aharon. With the [L'vi'im] doing their work,

2 Chronicles 13:11 they burn to ADONAI every morning and evening burnt offerings and sweet incense; they arrange the showbread on the pure table, and they prepare the gold [menorah] with its lamps to burn every evening. For we observe the order of ADONAI our God. But you have abandoned him.

2 Chronicles 13:12 "So look here! God is with us, leading us and his [cohanim] with the battle trumpets to sound an alarm against you. People of Isra'el! Don't fight against ADONAI, the God of your ancestors; because you will not succeed."

2 Chronicles 13:13 But Yarov'am prepared to ambush them from behind, so that the main body was ahead of Y'hudah, while the ambush was behind them.

2 Chronicles 13:14 Thus when Y'hudah looked back, the battle had to be fought in front of them and behind them. They cried to ADONAI, and the [cohanim] sounded the trumpets.

2 Chronicles 13:15 Then the men of Y'hudah gave forth a shout, and as the men of Y'hudah shouted, God struck Yarov'am and all Isra'el before Aviyah and Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 13:16 The people of Isra'el fled before Y'hudah, and God handed them over to them.

2 Chronicles 13:17 Aviyah and his army inflicted a great slaughter on them- 500,000 of Isra'el's select soldiers fell dead.

2 Chronicles 13:18 Thus the people of Isra'el were subdued that time, and the people of Y'hudah won the victory, because they relied on ADONAI the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 13:19 Aviyah pursued Yarov'am, taking from him the towns of Beit-El with its villages, Y'shanah with its villages and 'Efrayin with its villages.

2 Chronicles 13:20 Yarov'am did not recover his strength during the time of Aviyahu. Finally ADONAI struck him, and he died.

2 Chronicles 13:21 But Aviyahu grew strong; he married fourteen wives and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2 Chronicles 13:22 Other activities of Aviyah, together with his ways of doing things and his sayings, are recorded in the commentary of the prophet ‘Iddo.

2 Chronicles 13:23 Aviyah slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son became king in his place; during his time the land was quiet for ten years.

2 Chronicles 14:1 Asa did what was good and right from the perspective of ADONAI his God;

2 Chronicles 14:2 for he removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashing the standing-stones and chopping down the sacred poles.

2 Chronicles 14:3 He ordered Y’hudah to seek ADONAI, the God of their ancestors, and to obey the [Torah] and the [mitzvah].

2 Chronicles 14:4 He removed the high places and pillars for sun-worship from all the cities of Y’hudah, and under him the kingdom was quiet.

2 Chronicles 14:5 Because the land was quiet, and he had no war during those years, since ADONAI had given him rest, he built fortified cities in Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 14:6 “Let’s build these cities,” he said to Y’hudah; “we’ll surround them with walls, towers, gates and bars. The land is there for us to use, because we have sought ADONAI our God; we have sought him, and he has given us peace on every side.” So they built and prospered.

2 Chronicles 14:7 Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Y’hudah, equipped with shields and spears, and another 280,000 from Binyamin, with shields and bows; all were brave, strong men.

2 Chronicles 14:8 Zerach the Ethiopian came out to attack them with an army of one million and three hundred chariots. When he arrived at Mareshah,

2 Chronicles 14:9 Asa went out to fight him, and the forces were arranged for battle in the Tz’fat Valley at Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:10 Asa cried out to ADONAI his God, “ADONAI, there is no one besides yourself, strong or weak, who can help. Help us, ADONAI our God, because we are relying on you, and we are coming against this vast throng in your name. You are ADONAI our God; don’t let human beings stop you!”

2 Chronicles 14:11 So ADONAI struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Y’hudah, and the Ethiopians fled.

2 Chronicles 14:12 Asa and the army with him pursued them to G’rar, and the Ethiopians were defeated beyond recovery; they were shattered before ADONAI and his army, who carried off much spoil.

2 Chronicles 14:13 Then they attacked all the cities in the vicinity of G’rar, for a panic from ADONAI had overcome them. They plundered all the cities, for they were full of spoil.

2 Chronicles 14:14 They also attacked the tents of those tending the livestock and carried off sheep and camels in abundance. Then they returned to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 15:1 The Spirit of God came on ‘Azaryah the son of ‘Oded;

2 Chronicles 15:2 he went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Listen to me, Asa, and all Y’hudah and Binyamin! ADONAI is with you, as long as you are with him; if you seek him, you will find him; but if you abandon him, he will abandon you!

2 Chronicles 15:3 For a long time Isra’el was without the true God, without a [cohen] who could teach, and without [Torah].

2 Chronicles 15:4 But when, in their distress, they turned to ADONAI the God of Isra’el and sought him, they found him.

2 Chronicles 15:5 In those times people going about their business were insecure, and great disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands;

2 Chronicles 15:6 so that they were shattered to pieces, nation against nation and city against city, as God troubled them with every kind of distress.

2 Chronicles 15:7 But you, be strong, and don’t slack off; for your work will be rewarded.”

2 Chronicles 15:8 When Asa heard these words prophesied by ‘Oded the prophet, it gave him courage to throw the disgusting things out of the whole land of Y’hudah and Binyamin and out of the cities he had captured in the hills of Efrayim; he also renewed the altar of ADONAI which was in front of the vestibule of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 15:9 Then he gathered all Y’hudah and Binyamin, along with those from Efrayim, M’nasheh and Shim’on who were staying with him (for they had defected to him in large numbers upon seeing that ADONAI his God was with him).

2 Chronicles 15:10 They assembled together at Yerushalayim in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign.

2 Chronicles 15:11 That day they sacrificed to ADONAI 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep from the spoil they had brought;

2 Chronicles 15:12 and they entered into a covenant to seek ADONAI, the God of their ancestors, with all their heart and with all their being;

2 Chronicles 15:13 [[they also agreed]] that whoever refused to seek ADONAI the God of Isra’el should be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

2 Chronicles 15:14 They swore this to ADONAI in a loud voice, with shouting and blowing of trumpets and [shofar]s.

2 Chronicles 15:15 All Y'hudah was full of joy at this oath; for they had sworn with all their heart and had sought him with all their will; and they found him, and ADONAI gave them rest all around.

2 Chronicles 15:16 Asa the king also deposed Ma'akhah his [[grand]]mother from her position as queen mother, because she had made a disgusting image for an [asherah]. Asa cut down this image of hers, chopped it into tiny pieces and burned it in [Vadi] Kidron.

2 Chronicles 15:17 But the high places were not removed from Isra'el. Nevertheless, Asa was wholehearted throughout his life.

2 Chronicles 15:18 He brought into the house of God all the articles his father had consecrated, also the things he himself had consecrated-silver, gold and utensils.

2 Chronicles 15:19 There was no more war through the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 Chronicles 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Ba'asha king of Isra'el attacked Y'hudah, and he fortified Ramah to prevent anyone's leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 16:2 Then Asa removed silver and gold from the treasures of the house of ADONAI and the royal palace; and sent this message to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who lived in Dammesek:

2 Chronicles 16:3 “There is a covenant between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Here, I am sending you silver and gold; go, and break your covenant with Ba'asha king of Isra'el, so that he will leave me alone.”

2 Chronicles 16:4 Ben-Hadad did as King Asa had asked- he sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Isra'el, attacking ‘Iyon, Dan, Avel-Mayim and all the storage-cities of Naftali.

2 Chronicles 16:5 As soon as Ba'asha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and abandoned his work.

2 Chronicles 16:6 Asa the king took all Y'hudah and carried off the stones and timber which Ba'asha had used to fortify Ramah. With them he fortified Geva and Mitzpah.

2 Chronicles 16:7 It was around then that Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Y'hudah and said to him, “Because you relied on the king of Aram and didn't rely on ADONAI your God, the king of Aram's army has escaped from your power.

2 Chronicles 16:8 The army of the Ethiopians and Luvim was huge, wasn't it? How many chariots and horsemen did they have? Yet because you relied on ADONAI, he handed them over to you.

2 Chronicles 16:9 For the eyes of ADONAI move here and there throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong on behalf of those who are wholehearted toward him. You acted foolishly in this regard; for from now on, you will have war.”

2 Chronicles 16:10 But Asa became angry at the seer; in fact, because of his rage at him over this matter he threw him in prison. Moreover, at the same time, he mistreated some of the people.

2 Chronicles 16:11 The activities of Asa from beginning to end are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah and Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa suffered from a disease in his legs. It was a very serious disease, yet even with this disease he did not seek out ADONAI but turned to the physicians.

2 Chronicles 16:13 Asa slept with his ancestors, dying in the forty-first year of his reign.

2 Chronicles 16:14 They buried him in his own burial cave, which he had ordered cut for himself in the City of David. They laid him in a bed filled with sweet spices of various kinds, expertly compounded; and a very great fire was kindled in his honor.

2 Chronicles 17:1 Then Y’hoshafat his son became king in his place. He strengthened his position against Isra’el

2 Chronicles 17:2 by placing forces in all the fortified cities of Y’hudah, and by garrisoning troops in the territory of Y’hudah and in the cities of Efrayim that Asa his father had captured.

2 Chronicles 17:3 ADONAI was with Y’hoshafat, because he lived according to the first ways of his ancestor David, not seeking the [ba’alim],

2 Chronicles 17:4 but seeking the God of his father and living by his [mitzvot], not by what Isra’el did.

2 Chronicles 17:5 Therefore ADONAI consolidated his rulership; all Y’hudah brought presents to Y’hoshafat, so that he had wealth and honor in abundance.

2 Chronicles 17:6 In his heart he highly regarded ADONAI’s ways; moreover, he removed the high places and sacred poles from Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent his leading men Ben-Chayil, ‘Ovadyah, Z’kharyah, N’tan’el and Mikhayahu to teach in the cities of Y’hudah;

2 Chronicles 17:8 with them were the [L’vi’im] Sh’ma’yahu, N’tanyahu, Z’vadyahu, ‘Asah’el, Sh’miramot, Y’honatan, Adoniyahu, Tuviyahu and Tov-Adoniyah, the [L’vi’im]; and with them Elishama and Y’horam the [cohanim].

2 Chronicles 17:9 They taught in Y’hudah, having a scroll of the [Torah] of ADONAI with them; they circulated through all the cities of Y’hudah, teaching among the people.

2 Chronicles 17:10 A panic from ADONAI seized all the kingdoms in the lands surrounding Y'hudah, so that they did not make war against Y'hoshafat.

2 Chronicles 17:11 Some of the P'lishtim brought Y'hoshafat gifts and silver as tribute; the Arabs too brought him flocks- 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

2 Chronicles 17:12 So Y'hoshafat grew increasingly powerful. In Y'hudah he built fortresses and storage cities.

2 Chronicles 17:13 He had many projects in the cities of Y'hudah; and in Yerushalayim he had warriors, strong brave men.

2 Chronicles 17:14 Here is a listing of them by clans: from Y'hudah, the captains of thousands: 'Adnah the leader, and with him 300,000 strong, brave men;

2 Chronicles 17:15 next to him Y'hochanan the leader, and with him 280,000;

2 Chronicles 17:16 next to him 'Amasyah the son of Zikhri, who volunteered to serve ADONAI, and with him 200,000 strong, brave men.

2 Chronicles 17:17 From Binyamin: Elyada, a strong, brave man, and with him 200,000 equipped with bows and shields;

2 Chronicles 17:18 next to him Y'hozavad, and with him 180,000 prepared for war.

2 Chronicles 17:19 These served the king, in addition to those the king assigned to the fortified cities throughout all Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 18:1 Y'hoshafat had wealth and honor in abundance, and by marriage he allied himself with Ach'av.

2 Chronicles 18:2 After some years he went down to Ach'av in Shomron. Ach'av slaughtered sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramot-Gil'ad.

2 Chronicles 18:3 Ach'av king of Isra'el said to Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah, "Will you go with me to Ramot-Gil'ad?" He answered him, "I'm with you all the way; think of my troops as yours; we will join you in this war."

2 Chronicles 18:4 But Y'hoshafat said to the king of Isra'el, "First, we should seek the word of ADONAI."

2 Chronicles 18:5 So the king of Isra'el assembled the prophets, 400 men. "Should we attack Ramot-Gil'ad?" he asked them, "Or should I hold off?" They said, "Attack. God will hand it over to the king."

2 Chronicles 18:6 But Y'hoshafat said, "Besides these, isn't there a prophet of ADONAI here that we can consult?"

2 Chronicles 18:7 The king of Isra'el said to Y'hoshafat, "Yes, there is still one man through whom we can consult ADONAI; but I hate him, because he never prophesies anything good for me, only bad! It’s Mikhay’hu the son of Yimlah.” Y’hoshafat replied, “The king shouldn’t say such a thing.”

2 Chronicles 18:8 Then the king called an officer and said, “Quickly! Bring Mikhay’hu the son of Yimlah.”

2 Chronicles 18:9 Now the king of Isra’el and Y’hoshafat the king of Y’hudah were each sitting on his throne, dressed in their royal robes; they were sitting in a threshing-floor at the entrance to the gate of Shomron; and all the prophets were there, prophesying in their presence.

2 Chronicles 18:10 Tzidkiyah the son of Kena’anah had made himself some horns out of iron and said, “This is what ADONAI says: ‘With these you will gore Aram until they are destroyed.’“

2 Chronicles 18:11 All the prophets prophesied the same thing: “Go up and attack Ramot-Gil’ad. You will succeed, because ADONAI will hand it over to the king.”

2 Chronicles 18:12 The messenger who had gone to call Mikhay’hu said to him, “Here, now, the prophets are unanimously predicting success for the king. Please let your word be like one of theirs- say something good.”

2 Chronicles 18:13 But Mikhay’hu answered, “As ADONAI lives, whatever my God says is what I will say.”

2 Chronicles 18:14 When he reached the king, the king asked him, “Mikhay’hu, should we go up and attack Ramot-Gil’ad, or should we hold off?” He answered, “Go up, you will succeed, they will be handed over to you.”

2 Chronicles 18:15 The king said to him, “How many times do I have to warn you to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of ADONAI?”

2 Chronicles 18:16 Then he said, “I saw all Isra’el scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd; and ADONAI said, ‘These men have no leader; let everyone go home in peace.’“

2 Chronicles 18:17 The king of Isra’el said to Y’hoshafat, “Didn’t I tell you that he wouldn’t prophesy good things about me, but bad?”

2 Chronicles 18:18 Mikhay’hu continued: “Therefore, hear the word of ADONAI. I saw ADONAI sitting on his throne with the whole army of heaven standing on his right and on his left.

2 Chronicles 18:19 ADONAI asked, ‘Who will entice Ach’av king of Isra’el to go up to his death at Ramot-Gil’ad?’ One of them said, ‘Do it this way,’ and another, ‘Do it that way.’

2 Chronicles 18:20 Then a spirit stepped up, stood in front of ADONAI and said, ‘I will entice him.’ ADONAI asked, ‘How?’

2 Chronicles 18:21 He answered, ‘I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ ADONAI said, ‘You will succeed in enticing him. Go, and do it.’

2 Chronicles 18:22 So now ADONAI has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours; meanwhile, ADONAI has ordained disaster for you."

2 Chronicles 18:23 Then Tzidkiyah the son of Kena'anah came up, slapped Mikhay'hu in the face and said, "And how did the Spirit of ADONAI leave me to speak to you?"

2 Chronicles 18:24 Mikhay'hu said, "You'll find out the day you go into an inside room, trying to hide."

2 Chronicles 18:25 The king of Isra'el said, "Seize Mikhay'hu, and take him back to Amon the governor of the city and Yo'ash the king's son.

2 Chronicles 18:26 Say, 'The king says to put this man in prison; and feed him only bread and water, and not much of that, until I come back in peace.'"

2 Chronicles 18:27 Mikhay'hu said, "If you return in peace at all, ADONAI has not spoken through me!" Then he added, "Did you hear me, you peoples, all of you?"

2 Chronicles 18:28 So the king of Isra'el and Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah went up to Ramot-Gil'ad.

2 Chronicles 18:29 The king of Isra'el said to Y'hoshafat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you, put on your robes." So the king of Isra'el disguised himself and went into battle.

2 Chronicles 18:30 Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, "Don't attack anyone of either high or low rank, only the king of Isra'el."

2 Chronicles 18:31 So when the chariot commanders saw Y'hoshafat they said, "This is the king of Isra'el," and turned to attack him. But Y'hoshafat called out, and ADONAI came to his aid- God moved them to leave him alone,

2 Chronicles 18:32 so that when the chariot commanders saw that he wasn't the king of Isra'el, they stopped pursuing him.

2 Chronicles 18:33 However, one soldier shot an arrow at random and struck the king of Isra'el between his lower armor and the breastplate. The king said to his chariot-driver, "Turn the reins and take me out of the fighting; I'm collapsing from my wounds."

2 Chronicles 18:34 But the fighting grew fiercer that day; and although the king of Isra'el propped himself upright in his chariot facing Aram until evening, around sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19:1 Then Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah returned home to Yerushalayim in peace.

2 Chronicles 19:2 Yehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Y'hoshafat, "Should you help the wicked and befriend those who hate ADONAI? Because of this, ADONAI's anger is upon you.

2 Chronicles 19:3 Still, there is some good in you, in that you have removed the sacred poles from the land and have set your heart on seeking God."

2 Chronicles 19:4 So Y'hoshafat lived in Yerushalayim and again circulated among the people from Be'er-Sheva to the hills of Efrayim, bringing them back to ADONAI, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 19:5 He appointed judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Y'hudah, city by city,

2 Chronicles 19:6 and instructed the judges, "Think about what you are doing: you are not dispensing justice by merely human standards but on behalf of ADONAI; he is with you when you deliver a verdict.

2 Chronicles 19:7 Therefore, let the fear of ADONAI be upon you; be careful what you do; for ADONAI our God does not allow dishonesty, partiality or bribe-taking."

2 Chronicles 19:8 In Yerushalayim Y'hoshafat appointed some of the [L'vi'im], [cohanim] and clan heads of Isra'el to judge in matters concerning ADONAI and in civil cases. After they had returned to Yerushalayim,

2 Chronicles 19:9 he charged them, "Here is what you are to do faithfully and wholeheartedly, in fear of ADONAI:

2 Chronicles 19:10 when an issue comes before you from your brothers who live in their cities, whether it's a case involving bloodshed or a question as to which teaching, [mitzvah], law or ruling applies, you must warn them; so that they won't incur guilt toward ADONAI and thereby bring anger on both you and your kinsmen. Do this, and you won't incur guilt.

2 Chronicles 19:11 Amaryahu the chief [cohen] is over you in all matters concerning ADONAI, and Z'vadyahu the son of Yishma'el, chief of the house of Y'hudah, in all the king's matters. The officers of the [L'vi'im] are at your service. Be strong, and act, and may ADONAI be with the good."

2 Chronicles 20:1 Some time later, the people of Mo'av and the people of 'Amon with other 'Amonim came up to fight Y'hoshafat.

2 Chronicles 20:2 Y'hoshafat was told, "A huge army from beyond the [[Dead]] Sea, from Aram, is on its way to fight you; right now they are in Hatzatzon-Tamar" (that is, 'Ein-Gedi).

2 Chronicles 20:3 Y'hoshafat was frightened, so he determined to seek ADONAI. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Y'hudah,

2 Chronicles 20:4 and Y'hudah assembled to seek help from ADONAI; they came from all the cities of Y'hudah to seek ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 20:5 Standing in front of the new courtyard in the house of ADONAI, among those assembled from Y'hudah and Yerushalayim,

2 Chronicles 20:6 he said: "ADONAI, God of our ancestors, you alone are God in heaven. You rule all the kingdoms of the nations. In your hand are power and strength, so that no one can withstand you.

2 Chronicles 20:7 You, our God, drove out those living in the land ahead of your people Isra'el and gave it forever to the descendants of Avraham your friend.

2 Chronicles 20:8 They lived in it, built you a sanctuary in it for your name, and said,

2 Chronicles 20:9 'If calamity strikes us, such as war, judgment, disease or famine, we will stand before this house- that is, before you, since your name is in this house- and cry to you in our distress; and you will hear us and rescue us.'

2 Chronicles 20:10 "So now, see: the people of 'Amon, Mo'av and Mount Se'ir, whom you would not let Isra'el invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, so that they turned away from them and did not destroy them,

2 Chronicles 20:11 are now repaying us [[evil]]; they have come to throw us out of your possession, which you gave us as an inheritance.

2 Chronicles 20:12 Our God! Won't you execute judgment against them? For we haven't strength enough to defeat this huge horde coming against us, and we don't know what to do, but our eyes are on you."

2 Chronicles 20:13 All Y'hudah stood before ADONAI with their little ones, their wives and their children.

2 Chronicles 20:14 Then, in the middle of the assembly, the Spirit of ADONAI came upon Yachzi'el the son of Z'kharyahu, the son of B'nayah, the son of Ye'i'el, the son of Matanyah the [Levi], from the descendants of Asaf.

2 Chronicles 20:15 He said, "Listen, all Y'hudah, you who live in Yerushalayim and King Y'hoshafat: here is what ADONAI is saying to you: 'Don't be afraid or distressed by this great horde; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

2 Chronicles 20:16 Tomorrow, go down against them. They will be coming up by the ascent of Tzitz, and you will find them at the end of the [vadi], before the Yeru'el Desert.

2 Chronicles 20:17 You won't even need to fight this battle! Just take your positions, Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, stand still, and watch how ADONAI will deliver you! Don't be afraid or distressed; tomorrow, go out against them; for ADONAI is with you.'"

2 Chronicles 20:18 Y'hoshafat bowed his head with his face to the ground; while all Y'hudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim fell down before ADONAI, worshipping ADONAI;

2 Chronicles 20:19 and the [L'vi'im] from the descendants of the K'hati and the descendants of the Korchi, stood up and praised ADONAI the God of Isra'el at the top of their voices.

2 Chronicles 20:20 The next morning, they rose early and went out into the T'koa Desert. As they left, Y'hoshafat stood and said, "Listen to me, Y'hudah and you inhabitants of Yerushalayim! "Trust in ADONAI your God, and you will be safe. Trust in his prophets, and you will succeed."

2 Chronicles 20:21 After consulting with the people, he appointed those who would sing to ADONAI and praise the splendor of his holiness as they went out ahead of the army, saying, "Give thanks to ADONAI, for his grace continues forever."

2 Chronicles 20:22 Then, during the time when they were singing and praising, ADONAI brought a surprise attack against the people of 'Amon, Mo'av and Mount Se'ir who had come to fight Y'hudah; and they were defeated.

2 Chronicles 20:23 What happened was that the people of 'Amon and Mo'av began attacking those people who lived by Mount Se'ir, to kill and destroy them completely; and when they had finished off the people from Se'ir, they set to work slaughtering one another.

2 Chronicles 20:24 So when Y'hudah reached the watchtower overlooking the desert, they looked toward the horde; and there in front of them were corpses fallen to the ground; none had escaped.

2 Chronicles 20:25 Y'hoshafat and his army came to take the spoil from them and found among them personal property in abundance and corpses with precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves until they couldn't carry any more. They took three days just to collect the spoil, there was so much.

2 Chronicles 20:26 On the fourth day, they assembled in the Valley of B'rakhah [[blessing]], where they blessed ADONAI; hence that place is called the Valley of B'rakhah to this day.

2 Chronicles 20:27 Then they returned, everyone from Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, with Y'hoshafat leading them joyfully back to Yerushalayim; for ADONAI had caused them to rejoice over their enemies.

2 Chronicles 20:28 They came to Yerushalayim with lyres, lutes and trumpets and went to the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 20:29 A panic from God was on all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard that ADONAI had fought against the enemies of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 20:30 So Y’hoshafat’s rule was a quiet one, because his God gave him rest all around.

2 Chronicles 20:31 Y’hoshafat ruled over Y’hudah; he was thirty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled twenty-five years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was ‘Azuvah the daughter of Shilchi.

2 Chronicles 20:32 He lived in the manner of Asa his father and did not turn away from it, doing what was right from ADONAI’s perspective;

2 Chronicles 20:33 although the high places were not taken away, and the people had not yet set their hearts toward the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 20:34 Other activities of Y’hoshafat, from beginning to end, are written in the records of Yehu the son of Hanani, which have been inserted in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 20:35 It was after this that Y’hoshafat joined up with Achazyah king of Isra’el, who was acting very wickedly.

2 Chronicles 20:36 He joined together with him to build large ships capable of going to Tarshish; they made the ships in ‘Etzyon-Gever.

2 Chronicles 20:37 Then Eli’ezer the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Y’hoshafat: “Because you joined yourself with Achazyah, ADONAI is wrecking your project.” And the ships were wrecked, so that they couldn’t go to Tarshish.

2 Chronicles 21:1 Y’hoshafat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David, and Y’horam his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 21:2 He had brothers who were sons of Y’hoshafat- ‘Azaryah, Yechi’el, Z’kharyahu, ‘Azaryahu, Mikha’el and Sh’fatyahu; all these were sons of Y’hoshafat king of Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 21:3 Their father had given them lavish gifts of silver, gold and other items of value, as well as fortified cities in Y’hudah; but he had given the kingdom to Y’horam, because he was the firstborn.

2 Chronicles 21:4 But when Y’horam had taken control of his father’s kingdom and consolidated his rule, he put to the sword all his brothers and a number of the leading men in Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 21:5 He was thirty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled eight years in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 21:6 He lived after the example of the kings of Isra’el, as did the house of Ach’av; because he had married Ach’av’s daughter; he did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective.

2 Chronicles 21:7 However, ADONAI was unwilling to destroy the house of David, because of the covenant he had made with David; inasmuch as he had promised to give him and his children a lamp that would burn forever.

2 Chronicles 21:8 During his time Edom revolted against Y'hudah and set up its own king.

2 Chronicles 21:9 Then Y'horam crossed with his commanders and all his chariots. Under cover of night, he and his chariot commanders attacked and defeated Edom, who had surrounded him.

2 Chronicles 21:10 Nevertheless, since that day Edom has remained free of Y'hudah's domination. Livnah revolted against him at the same time, because he had abandoned ADONAI the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 21:11 Moreover, he built high places in the hills of Y'hudah, caused the people living in Yerushalayim to prostitute themselves and drew Y'hudah away.

2 Chronicles 21:12 A letter came to him from Eliyahu the prophet which said, "Here is what ADONAI, the God of David your ancestor, says: 'You have not lived by the examples of Y'hoshafat your father or Asa king of Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 21:13 Instead you have lived by the example of the kings of Isra'el and have caused Y'hudah and the people living in Yerushalayim to prostitute themselves, just as the house of Ach'av caused [[Isra'el]] to prostitute themselves. Moreover, you killed your brothers from your father's house, men better than you.

2 Chronicles 21:14 Because of all this, ADONAI is going to strike your people with a terrible disease, also your children, your wives and everything you have.

2 Chronicles 21:15 You will be very ill from a disease in your intestines, until your intestines protrude, because of the effects of this disease, day after day.'"

2 Chronicles 21:16 Then ADONAI aroused against Y'horam the spirit of the P'lishtim and of the Arabs near the Ethiopians;

2 Chronicles 21:17 and they came up to attack Y'hudah. They broke in and carried off all the personal property they could find in the royal palace, as well as his children and his wives; so that no son was left to him except Y'ho'achaz his youngest son.

2 Chronicles 21:18 After all this, ADONAI struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

2 Chronicles 21:19 In time, after two years, his intestines protruded because of his disease, and he suffered a most painful death. His people kindled no fire for him, as had been done for his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 21:20 He was thirty-two years old when he began his reign, he ruled in Yerushalayim for eight years, and he left without joy. They buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22:1 The people living in Yerushalayim made Achazyah his youngest son king in place of him, since the raiding party that had invaded the camp with the Arabs had killed all the older ones. So Achazyah the son of Y’horam king of Y’hudah reigned.

2 Chronicles 22:2 Achazyah was forty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for one year in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was ‘Atalyahu the daughter of ‘Omri.

2 Chronicles 22:3 He too lived after the example of the house of Ach’av, because his mother was his counselor in acting wickedly.

2 Chronicles 22:4 So he did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, as had the house of Ach’av; because, to his destruction, they were his counselors after his father died;

2 Chronicles 22:5 and he lived his life by their advice. With Y’horam the son of Ach’av, king of Isra’el, he went to war against Haza’el king of Aram at Ramot-Gil’ad, where the Aramim wounded Yoram.

2 Chronicles 22:6 He returned to Yizre’el to be healed of the wounds which they had inflicted on him at Ramah while fighting Haza’el king of Aram. Achazyah the son of Y’horam, king of Y’hudah, went down to visit Y’horam the son of Ach’av in Yizre’el, because he was not feeling well.

2 Chronicles 22:7 Through Achazyah’s visit to Yoram, God brought about his downfall. After he arrived, he accompanied Yoram against Yehu the son of Nimshi, whom ADONAI had anointed to cut off the house of Ach’av.

2 Chronicles 22:8 But it happened that when Yehu was executing judgment on the house of Ach’av, he found the leading men of Y’hudah and Achazyah’s nephews in attendance on Achazyah and killed them.

2 Chronicles 22:9 Then he went searching for Achazyah; they caught him where he had been hiding in Shomron, brought him to Yehu and killed him. But [[his subjects]] buried him, because they said, “He was the [[grand]]son of Y’hoshafat, who sought ADONAI with all his heart.” At this point there was no one in the house of Achazyah strong enough to rule the kingdom.

2 Chronicles 22:10 When ‘Atalyah the mother of Achazyah saw that her son was dead, she set about destroying the entire royal family of the house of Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 22:11 But Y’hoshav’at the daughter of the king took Yo’ash the son of Achazyah, stole him away from among the princes who were being slaughtered, and sequestered him and his nurse in a bedroom. Thus Y’hoshav’at the daughter of King Y’horam, wife of Y’hoyada the [cohen] and sister of Achazyah, hid him from ‘Atalyah, so that he was not killed.

2 Chronicles 22:12 He remained hidden with them in the house of God for six years; during this time ‘Atalyah ruled the land.

2 Chronicles 23:1 In the seventh year Y’hoyada took courage and formed a conspiracy with certain captains of hundred-man platoons-

‘Azaryah the son of Yerocham, Yishma’el the son of Y’hochanan, ‘Azaryah the son of ‘Oved, Ma’aseiyahu the son of ‘Adayahu and Elishafat the son of Zikhri.

2 Chronicles 23:2 They canvassed Y’hudah and gathered the [L’vi’im] from all the cities of Y’hudah, together with the clan heads of Isra’el, and came to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 23:3 The whole assembly made an agreement with the king in the house of God. [[Y’hoyada]] addressed them: “Here! The king’s son will reign, as ADONAI said in regard to the descendants of David!

2 Chronicles 23:4 Here is what you are to do: of you [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] who come on duty on [Shabbat], a third are to guard the gates,

2 Chronicles 23:5 a third the royal palace and a third the Gate of the Foundation; while all the people are to remain in the courtyards of the house of [ADONAI.]

2 Chronicles 23:6 No one is to enter the house of ADONAI except the [cohanim] and those [L’vi’im] who are actually performing the service. These may enter, because they are holy; but all the people are to observe ADONAI’s order.

2 Chronicles 23:7 The [L’vi’im] are to surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who enters the house is to be killed. Stay with the king whenever he enters or leaves.”

2 Chronicles 23:8 The [L’vi’im] and all Y’hudah did exactly as Y’hoyada the [cohen] ordered. Each took his men, those coming on duty on [Shabbat] and those going off duty on [Shabbat] (for Y’hoyada the [cohen] did not dismiss the divisions).

2 Chronicles 23:9 Y’hoyada the [cohen] issued to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields that had been King David’s and were kept in the house of God.

2 Chronicles 23:10 He then positioned all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, alongside the altar, alongside [[the exterior of]] the house and around the king.

2 Chronicles 23:11 Then they brought out the king’s son, crowned him, gave him [[a copy of]] the testimony and thus made him king. Y’hoyada and his sons anointed him, and they shouted, “Long live the king!”

2 Chronicles 23:12 When ‘Atalyah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she entered the house of ADONAI where the people were,

2 Chronicles 23:13 looked and saw the king standing there on his platform at the entrance, with the leaders and trumpeters next to the king. All the people of the land were celebrating and blowing the trumpets; while the singers with their musical instruments were leading songs of praise. At this, ‘Atalyah tore her clothes and cried, “Treason! Treason!”

2 Chronicles 23:14 Y’hoyada the [cohen] brought out the captains of hundreds who were in charge of the army and said to them, “Escort her out past the ranks [[of guards]]; but anyone who follows her, let him be put to the sword.” For the [cohen] had said, “Do not put her to death in the house of ADONAI.”

2 Chronicles 23:15 So they took her by force and led her by the horses’ entry to the king’s palace, and there they put her to death.

2 Chronicles 23:16 Y’hoyada made a covenant between himself, all the people and the king, that they would be ADONAI’s people.

2 Chronicles 23:17 Then all the people went to the house of Ba’al and broke it down; they smashed his altars and images and killed Mattan the priest of Ba’al in front of the altars.

2 Chronicles 23:18 Y’hoyada appointed officers for the house of ADONAI under the supervision of the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im], whom David had assigned turns of duty in the house of ADONAI, to offer the burnt offerings of ADONAI, as written in the [Torah] of Moshe, with rejoicing and singing in keeping with David’s orders.

2 Chronicles 23:19 He stationed guards at the gates of the house of ADONAI, so that no one who was unclean in any respect could enter.

2 Chronicles 23:20 He took the captains of hundreds, the men of rank, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of ADONAI, going through the Upper Gate to the royal palace, and seated the king on the royal throne.

2 Chronicles 23:21 All the people of the land celebrated, and at last the city was quiet. That is how they killed ‘Atalyah with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24:1 Yo’ash was seven years old when he began his reign, and he reigned forty years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Tzivyah, from Be’er-Sheva.

2 Chronicles 24:2 Yo’ash did what was right from ADONAI’s perspective throughout the lifetime of Y’hoyada the [cohen].

2 Chronicles 24:3 Y’hoyada chose two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

2 Chronicles 24:4 Some time later, Yo’ash decided to restore the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 24:5 He gathered the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] and said to them, “Go out to the cities of Y’hudah, and collect money each year from all Isra’el to repair the house of your God. See that you do this promptly.” But when the [L’vi’im] procrastinated,

2 Chronicles 24:6 the king summoned Y’hoyada the chief and said to him, “Why haven’t you demanded that the [L’vi’im] bring in from Y’hudah and Yerushalayim the tax prescribed by Moshe the servant of ADONAI and by the community of Isra'el, for the tent of the testimony?"

2 Chronicles 24:7 For the sons of that wicked 'Atalyahu had broken up the house of God, and they had given all the consecrated things belonging to the house of ADONAI to the [ba'alim].

2 Chronicles 24:8 Then, at the king's order, they made a box and placed it outside the entrance to the house of [ADONAI.]

2 Chronicles 24:9 They proclaimed throughout Y'hudah and Yerushalayim that the tax Moshe the servant of God had imposed on Isra'el in the desert should be brought in for ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 24:10 All the leaders and all the people were glad to bring in their contributions and put them in the box, until it was full.

2 Chronicles 24:11 When the box was brought to the king's officials by the [L'vi'im], and when they saw how much money there was, the king's secretary and the chief [cohen]'s official came and emptied the box; then they took it and returned it to its place. They did this daily, and they collected money in abundance.

2 Chronicles 24:12 The king and Y'hoyada gave it to those in charge of taking care of the house of ADONAI. They, in turn, hired stone-workers and carpenters to restore the house of ADONAI, also iron- and bronze-workers to repair the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 24:13 The workers got on with their tasks, so that the restoration progressed well, until they had returned the house of God to its earlier condition and strengthened it.

2 Chronicles 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Y'hoyada, and it was used to make equipment for the house of [ADONAI-] articles for ministry, buckets, fire pans, and utensils of gold and silver. So they offered burnt offerings in the house of ADONAI regularly throughout the time of Y'hoyada.

2 Chronicles 24:15 But Y'hoyada grew old; and when he was full of days, he died. He was 130 years old when he died.

2 Chronicles 24:16 They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had served Isra'el, God and his house well.

2 Chronicles 24:17 After Y'hoyada died, the leaders of Y'hudah came and prostrated themselves before the king. Then the king listened to them;

2 Chronicles 24:18 and they abandoned the house of ADONAI the God of their ancestors and served the sacred poles and the idols. In consequence of their guilt, [[God's]] anger fell on Y'hudah and Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 24:19 In spite of this, he sent them prophets to bring them back to ADONAI; they warned them, but they wouldn't pay attention.

2 Chronicles 24:20 The Spirit of God covered Z'kharyah the son of Y'hoyada the [cohen]; he stood above the people and addressed them: "Thus says God: 'Why are you transgressing the [mitzvot] of ADONAI and courting disaster? Because you have abandoned ADONAI, he has abandoned you."

2 Chronicles 24:21 But they conspired against him and stoned him to death at the order of the king in the courtyard of the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 24:22 Thus Yo'ash the king did not remember the kindness which Y'hoyada, [[Z'kharyah's]] father, had done for him, but put his son to death. As he was dying he said, "May ADONAI see this and take vengeance!"

2 Chronicles 24:23 The following spring, the army of Aram came up against him. They attacked Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, slaughtered all the people's leaders and sent all their spoil to the king of Dammesek.

2 Chronicles 24:24 Although the army of Aram attacked with only a small company of men, ADONAI handed over a very great army to them, because they had abandoned ADONAI the God of their ancestors. Thus they executed judgment against Yo'ash.

2 Chronicles 24:25 After they had left him- and they left him seriously wounded- his own servants conspired against him because he had shed the blood of the sons of Y'hoyada the [cohen]; and they killed him in his own bed. After he died, they buried him in the City of David, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 24:26 Those who conspired against him were Zavad the son of Shim'at the 'Amonit and Y'hozavad the son of Shimrit the Mo'avit.

2 Chronicles 24:27 As for his sons, the heavy tribute imposed on him, and the rebuilding of the house of God, they are recorded in the commentary of the Annals of the Kings. Then Amatzyahu his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 25:1 Amatzyahu was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Y'ho'adan, from Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 25:2 He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, but not wholeheartedly.

2 Chronicles 25:3 As soon as he had the kingdom firmly in his control, he put to death the servants of his who had assassinated the king his father.

2 Chronicles 25:4 But he did not put their children to death; rather, he acted according to what is written in the [Torah], in the scroll of Moshe, as ADONAI ordered when he said, "Fathers are not to die for the children, nor are the children to die for the fathers; every person will die for his own sin."

2 Chronicles 25:5 Amatzyahu assembled Y'hudah together and put them in order by clans under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds- all Y'hudah and Binyamin. He registered everyone twenty years old and older, and found that there were 300,000 select troops able to go to war, capable of using spears and shields.

2 Chronicles 25:6 He also hired 100,000 strong, brave men from Isra'el for three-and-a-third tons of silver.

2 Chronicles 25:7 But a man of God came to him and said, "King, don't let the army of Isra'el go with you; because ADONAI is not with Isra'el or with any of the people of Efrayim.

2 Chronicles 25:8 And if you do go, then no matter how fiercely you fight, God will cause you to fail before the enemy. For God has the power to help and to cause failure."

2 Chronicles 25:9 Amatzyahu said to the man of God, "But what do we do about the three-and-a-third tons [[of silver]] I paid for Isra'el's army?" The man of God answered, "ADONAI can give you far more than that!"

2 Chronicles 25:10 Then Amatzyahu separated out the battalion that had come to him from Efrayim and told them to go back home- which made their anger burn hotly against Y'hudah, and they returned home enraged.

2 Chronicles 25:11 Amatzyahu took courage, led his people out and went to the Salt Valley, where he killed 10,000 of the people of Se'ir.

2 Chronicles 25:12 The people of Y'hudah took another 10,000 away alive, brought them to the top of the Rock and threw them off the top of the Rock, so that they were all dashed to pieces.

2 Chronicles 25:13 Meanwhile, the men in the army that Amatzyahu had sent back and hadn't allowed to join him in battle fell on the cities of Y'hudah, all the way from Shomron to Beit-Horon, killed 3,000 of them and took much spoil.

2 Chronicles 25:14 After Amatzyahu returned from the slaughter of the people from Edom, he brought the gods of the people of Se'ir and set them up as his own gods, prostrating himself before them and offering incense to them.

2 Chronicles 25:15 As a result, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against Amatzyah, and he sent him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you sought out the gods of those people, when they couldn't even rescue their own people from you?"

2 Chronicles 25:16 But as [[the prophet]] was speaking to him, he interrupted him: "Were you made an adviser to the king? You had better stop before you get yourself killed!" So the prophet stopped, but he added, "I know that God is planning to destroy you for having done this and for refusing to listen to my advice."

2 Chronicles 25:17 Then, after taking counsel, Amatzyah king of Y'hudah sent a challenge to Yo'ash the son of Y'ho'achaz, the son of Yehu, king of Isra'el: "Come on, let's have it out face-to-face."

2 Chronicles 25:18 Yo'ash the king of Isra'el sent this reply to Amatzyah king of Y'hudah: "Once, in the L'vanon, the thistle sent a message to the cedar: 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But a wild animal passed by the thistle and squashed it.

2 Chronicles 25:19 You say you defeated Edom, which is true; so you're excited and itching for more glory. But now, stay home! Why provoke calamity, to your own ruin, yours and Y'hudah's too?"

2 Chronicles 25:20 But Amatzyah wouldn't listen. And this was from God, so that he could hand them over [[to their enemies]], because they had sought the gods of Edom.

2 Chronicles 25:21 So Yo'ash king of Isra'el went up; and he and Amatzyah king of Y'hudah had it out face-to-face at Beit-Shemesh, which belongs to Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 25:22 Y'hudah was defeated by Isra'el, and every man fled to his tent.

2 Chronicles 25:23 Yo'ash king of Isra'el took Amatzyah king of Y'hudah, the son of Yo'ash the son of Y'ho'achaz, prisoner at Beit-Shemesh. Then he brought him to Yerushalayim and demolished the wall of Yerushalayim between the Gate of Efrayim and the Corner Gate, a section 600 feet long.

2 Chronicles 25:24 [[He took]] all the gold and silver, all the articles he could find in the house of God, with 'Oved-Edom, and the treasures of the royal palace, together with hostages; then he returned to Shomron.

2 Chronicles 25:25 Amatzyahu the son of Yo'ash, king of Y'hudah, lived another fifteen years after the death of Yo'ash son of Y'ho'achaz king of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 25:26 Other activities of Amatzyah, from beginning to end, are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah and Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 25:27 From the time that Amatzyahu turned away from following ADONAI, they formed a conspiracy against him in Yerushalayim. So he fled to Lakhish; but they followed him to Lakhish and killed him there.

2 Chronicles 25:28 They brought his body back on horses and buried him with his ancestors in the City of Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 26:1 Meanwhile, all the people of Y'hudah had taken 'Uziyahu at the age of sixteen and made him king in place of his father Amatzyahu.

2 Chronicles 26:2 He recovered Eilot for Y'hudah and rebuilt it; it was after this that the king [[Amatzyahu]] slept with his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 26:3 ‘Uziyahu was sixteen years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-two years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Y’kholyahu, from Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 26:4 He did what was right from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of everything his father Amatzyahu had done.

2 Chronicles 26:5 He consulted God during the lifetime of Z’kharyahu, who understood visions of God; and as long as he consulted ADONAI, God gave him success.

2 Chronicles 26:6 He went out to fight the P’lishtim, breaking down the walls of Gat, Yavneh and Ashdod; and he built cities in the area of Ashdod and among the P’lishtim.

2 Chronicles 26:7 God helped him against the P’lishtim, against the Arabs living in Gur-Ba’al, and against the Me’unim.

2 Chronicles 26:8 The ‘Amonim brought tribute to ‘Uziyahu, and his fame spread abroad as far as the Egyptian frontier, since he kept growing stronger.

2 Chronicles 26:9 ‘Uziyahu built towers in Yerushalayim at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the Angle, and fortified them.

2 Chronicles 26:10 He built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns, because he had much livestock, likewise in the Sh’felah and the coastal plain. He had farmers and vineyard-workers in the hills and in the fertile lands, because he loved the soil.

2 Chronicles 26:11 ‘Uziyahu had a standing army of fit soldiers divided into units according to the census taken by the secretary Ye’i’el and the officer Ma’aseiyah, under the direction of Hananyah, one of the king’s officials.

2 Chronicles 26:12 The total number of clan heads over these strong, brave men was 2,600.

2 Chronicles 26:13 They directed a trained army of 307,500 fighting men, a strong force supporting the king in war against the enemy.

2 Chronicles 26:14 ‘Uziyahu equipped them, the whole army, with shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows and slingstones.

2 Chronicles 26:15 In Yerushalayim he built devices designed by experts for the towers and angles, from which to shoot arrows and lob large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was miraculously helped, until he became strong.

2 Chronicles 26:16 But when he was strong, he became arrogant, which caused him to become corrupt, so that he sinned against ADONAI his God by going into the temple of ADONAI to burn incense on the incense altar.

2 Chronicles 26:17 ‘Azaryahu the [cohen] went in after him, and with him were eighty of ADONAI’s [cohanim], brave men.

2 Chronicles 26:18 They stood up to ‘Uziyahu the king; they told him, “It isn’t your job, ‘Uziyahu, to burn incense to ADONAI! The job of burning incense belongs to the [cohanim], the descendants of Aharon, who have been consecrated. Get out of the sanctuary! You have trespassed, and ADONAI, God, will not honor you for this.”

2 Chronicles 26:19 This made ‘Uziyahu angry as he stood there with a censer in his hand ready to burn incense; and in his anger at the [cohanim], [tzara’at] broke out on his forehead right in front of the [cohanim] in the house of ADONAI beside the altar for incense.

2 Chronicles 26:20 ‘Azaryahu the chief [cohen] and all the [cohanim] stared at him- there he was, with [tzara’at] on his forehead! Quickly they threw him out of there; and indeed, he himself hurried to get out, because ADONAI had struck him.

2 Chronicles 26:21 ‘Uziyahu the king had [tzara’at] until his dying day; he lived in a separate house because he had [tzara’at], and was not allowed into the house of ADONAI. Meanwhile, Yotam the king’s son ran the king’s household and was regent over the people of the land.

2 Chronicles 26:22 Other activities of ‘Uziyahu, from beginning to end, were recorded by Yesha’yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz.

2 Chronicles 26:23 So ‘Uziyahu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him with his ancestors in the graveyard belonging to the kings, because they said, “He had [tzara’at].” Then Yotam his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 27:1 Yotam was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Yerushah the daughter of Tzadok.

2 Chronicles 27:2 He did what was right from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of everything his father ‘Uziyah had done, except that he did not enter the temple of ADONAI. Nevertheless, the people acted corruptly.

2 Chronicles 27:3 He built the Upper Gate of the house of ADONAI and added considerably to the wall of the ‘Ofel.

2 Chronicles 27:4 He built cities in the hills of Y’hudah, and in the wooded areas he built forts and towers.

2 Chronicles 27:5 He fought with the king of the people of ‘Amon and defeated them. That year the people of ‘Amon paid him tribute of three-and-a-third tons of silver, 50,000 bushels of wheat and 50,000 [[bushels]] of barley. The people of ‘Amon paid him the same amount the second and third years also.

2 Chronicles 27:6 Thus Yotam became strong, because he prepared his ways [[of doing things]] before ADONAI his God.

2 Chronicles 27:7 Other activities of Yotam, all his wars and his ways [[of doing things]] are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el and Y'hudah.

2 Chronicles 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 27:9 Yotam slept with his ancestors and they buried him in the City of David. Then Achaz his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 28:1 Achaz was twenty years old when he began his reign, and he ruled sixteen years in Yerushalayim. But he did not do what was right from the perspective of ADONAI, as David his ancestor had done.

2 Chronicles 28:2 Rather, he lived in the manner of the kings of Isra'el and made cast metal images for the [ba'alim].

2 Chronicles 28:3 Moreover, he made offerings in the Ben-Hinnom Valley and even burned up his own children as sacrifices, in keeping with the horrible practices of the pagans, whom ADONAI had thrown out ahead of the people of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 28:4 He also sacrificed and offered on the high places, on the hills and under any green tree.

2 Chronicles 28:5 Because of this, ADONAI his God handed him over to the king of Aram; they attacked him and carried off from his people a great number of captives, bringing them to Dammesek. In addition, he was handed over to the king of Isra'el, who inflicted on him a great massacre.

2 Chronicles 28:6 For Pekach the son of Remalyah killed in Y'hudah 120,000 men in one day, all of them brave men, because they had abandoned ADONAI, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 28:7 And Zikhri, a champion from Efrayim, killed Ma'aseiyah the king's son, 'Azrikam the administrator of the household and Elkanah, who was second only to the king.

2 Chronicles 28:8 The people of Isra'el took captive from their kinsmen 200,000 wives, sons and daughters; they also captured from them much spoil, which they brought to Shomron.

2 Chronicles 28:9 But a prophet of ADONAI named 'Oded was there; he went out to meet the army coming to Shomron and said to them, "Look, it's because ADONAI the God of your fathers was angry with Y'hudah that he has handed them over to you, and you have slaughtered them in a fury that has reached up to heaven.

2 Chronicles 28:10 Now you intend to force the people from Y'hudah and Yerushalayim into subjection as your slaves; but haven't you guilty deeds of your own that you committed against ADONAI your God?

2 Chronicles 28:11 Therefore listen to me now; and send the captives back, the people you have taken captive from your kinsmen; because the fierce anger of ADONAI is on you.”

2 Chronicles 28:12 At this, some of the leaders of the people of Efrayim- ‘Azaryahu the son of Y’hochanan, Berekhyahu the son of Meshilemot, Y’chizkiyah the son of Shalum and ‘Amasa the son of Hadlai- protested against those who were returning from the war,

2 Chronicles 28:13 saying to them, “Don’t bring the captives here, because you intend to do something that will bring guilt on us against ADONAI. It will only add to our sins and guilt, for our guilt is great, and there is fierce anger against Isra’el.”

2 Chronicles 28:14 So the armed soldiers left the captives and the spoil there with the leaders and the whole community;

2 Chronicles 28:15 while the men named above took charge of the captives and from the spoil clothed those among them who were inadequately clothed, giving them garments and shoes, providing them food and drink and anointing them with oil. After placing all the weak among them on donkeys, they brought them to Yericho, the City of Date-Palms, to their kinsmen; only then did they return to Shomron.

2 Chronicles 28:16 It was at that time that King Achaz sent to the kings of Ashur to help him.

2 Chronicles 28:17 For again the people from Edom had come, attacking Y’hudah and carrying off captives.

2 Chronicles 28:18 The P’lishtim too had invaded the cities in the Sh’felah and in the Negev of Y’hudah; they had captured Beit-Shemesh, Ayalon, G’derot, Sokho with its villages, Timnah with its villages and Gimzo with its villages; and they settled there.

2 Chronicles 28:19 For ADONAI brought Y’hudah low because of Achaz king of Isra’el, since he had caused disturbances in Y’hudah and acted very treacherously against ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 28:20 Tilgat-Piln’eser king of Ashur attacked and besieged Achaz instead of strengthening him-

2 Chronicles 28:21 even though Achaz had stripped the house of ADONAI and the palaces of the king and princes and had given the plunder to the king of Ashur, it didn’t help him at all.

2 Chronicles 28:22 During his time of distress this same King Achaz added to his treachery against ADONAI

2 Chronicles 28:23 by sacrificing to the gods of Dammesek, who had attacked him, reasoning, “The gods of the kings of Aram helped them, so I will sacrifice to them, and then they’ll help me.” But they became the ruin of him and of all Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 28:24 Achaz collected the equipment from the house of God, broke to pieces the equipment from the house of God and sealed the doors of the house of ADONAI; then he made himself altars in every corner of Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 28:25 In every city of Y'hudah he made high places for offering to other gods, thus provoking ADONAI the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 28:26 Other activities of Achaz and his ways [[of doing things]], from beginning to end, are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah and Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 28:27 Achaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city, in Yerushalayim; because they did not bring him to the tombs of the kings of Isra'el. Then Hizkiyahu his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 29:1 Hizkiyahu was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Aviyah the daughter of Z'kharyah.

2 Chronicles 29:2 He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything David his ancestor had done.

2 Chronicles 29:3 In the first month of the first year of his reign, he reopened the doors of the house of ADONAI and repaired them.

2 Chronicles 29:4 Then he brought in the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im], assembled them in the open space to the east,

2 Chronicles 29:5 and said to them, "Listen to me, [L'vi'im]: consecrate yourselves now, consecrate the house of ADONAI the God of your ancestors, and remove the filth from the Holy Place.

2 Chronicles 29:6 For our ancestors acted treacherously, they did what is evil from the perspective of ADONAI our God, they abandoned him, they turned their faces away from where ADONAI lives and turned their backs on him.

2 Chronicles 29:7 They sealed the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps and stopped burning incense and offering burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 29:8 "Because of this, ADONAI's anger has settled on Y'hudah and Yerushalayim; and he has made them an object of horror, astonishment and mocking- as you can see with your own eyes.

2 Chronicles 29:9 Here, our ancestors have fallen by the sword; and on this account our sons, daughters and wives have gone into captivity.

2 Chronicles 29:10 "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with ADONAI the God of Isra'el, so that his furious anger will turn away from us.

2 Chronicles 29:11 My sons, now is not a time for being negligent; for you are the ones ADONAI chose to stand before him and serve him as his ministers, offering him incense."

2 Chronicles 29:12 Then the [L'vi'im] set about the task- Machat the son of 'Amasai and Yo'el the son of 'Azaryahu from the descendants of the K'hati; of the sons of M'rari, Kish the son of 'Avdi and 'Azaryahu the son of Yehallel'el; of the Gershuni, Yo'ach the son of Zimah and 'Eden the son of Yo'ach;

2 Chronicles 29:13 of the descendants of Elitzafan, Shimri and Ye'i'el; of the descendants of Asaf, Z'kharyahu and Matanyahu;

2 Chronicles 29:14 of the descendants of Heman, Yechi'el and Shim'i; and of the descendants of Y'dutun, Sh'ma'yah and 'Uzi'el.

2 Chronicles 29:15 They gathered their kinsmen, consecrated themselves and, in keeping with the king's order and ADONAI's words, went in to cleanse the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 29:16 The [cohanim] went in to cleanse the inner part of the house of ADONAI; all the unclean things they found in the sanctuary of ADONAI they brought out into the courtyard of the house of ADONAI, where the [L'vi'im] took and carried them out to [Vadi] Kidron.

2 Chronicles 29:17 They began consecrating on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they reached the vestibule of [ADONAI.] Then they consecrated the house of ADONAI in eight more days; so that on the sixteenth day of the first month, they had finished.

2 Chronicles 29:18 Then they went to Hizkiyahu the king in [[the palace]] and said, "We have cleansed all the house of ADONAI, including the altar for burnt offerings, with all its equipment, and the table for the showbread, with all its equipment.

2 Chronicles 29:19 Moreover, we have reconditioned and consecrated all the articles that King Achaz threw out during his reign, when he was sinning; and they are there, in front of the altar of ADONAI."

2 Chronicles 29:20 Next morning, Hizkiyahu the king got up early, gathered the leading men of the city and went up to the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Y'hudah; and he ordered the [cohanim] to offer them on the altar of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 29:22 After slaughtering the bulls, the [cohanim] took the blood and splashed it against the altar. Next, they slaughtered the rams and splashed the blood against the altar and also slaughtered the lambs and splashed the blood against the altar.

2 Chronicles 29:23 After bringing the male goats for the sin offering close to the king and the assembly and laying their hands on them,

2 Chronicles 29:24 the [cohanim] slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar to make atonement for all Isra'el; for the king had ordered that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be for all Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 29:25 He stationed the [L'vi'im] in the house of ADONAI with cymbals, lyres and lutes, in keeping with the order of David, Gad the king's seer and Natan the prophet; for the [mitzvah] had come from ADONAI through his prophets.

2 Chronicles 29:26 The [L'vi'im] stood with the instruments of David and the [cohanim] with the trumpets.

2 Chronicles 29:27 Hizkiyahu ordered that the burnt offering should be offered on the altar. The moment the burnt offering began, the song of ADONAI also began, accompanied by the trumpets and the instruments of David king of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 29:28 The whole assembly prostrated themselves, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

2 Chronicles 29:29 When the offering was over, the king and everyone present with him bowed down and prostrated themselves.

2 Chronicles 29:30 Then Hizkiyahu the king and the leaders ordered the [L'vi'im] to sing praises to ADONAI, using the words of David and of Asaf the seer. They sang praises until they were filled with joy, and they bowed their heads and prostrated themselves.

2 Chronicles 29:31 Hizkiyahu responded by saying, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to ADONAI, come close, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of ADONAI. So the community brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were willing volunteered burnt offerings.

2 Chronicles 29:32 In all, the burnt offerings brought by the congregation totaled 70 bulls, 100 rams and 200 lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 29:33 The consecrated gifts amounted to 600 oxen and 3,000 sheep.

2 Chronicles 29:34 Only there weren't enough [cohanim] to skin and butcher all the burnt offerings, so their colleagues the [L'vi'im] assisted them until the work was finished and the [cohanim] had consecrated themselves (for the [L'vi'im] had been more diligent to consecrate themselves than the [cohanim]).

2 Chronicles 29:35 Besides the abundance of burnt offerings, there was the fat of the peace offerings and drink offerings for each burnt offering. Thus the service of the house of ADONAI was restored.

2 Chronicles 29:36 Hizkiyahu and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, since it had all happened so suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30:1 Then Hizkiyahu sent to all Isra'el and Y'hudah, and wrote letters also to Efrayim and M'nasheh, summoning them to the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim, to keep the [Pesach] to ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 30:2 For the king, his officials and the entire Yerushalayim community had agreed to keep the [Pesach] in the second month.

2 Chronicles 30:3 They had not been able to observe it at the proper time because the [cohanim] had not consecrated themselves in sufficient number; also the people had not assembled in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 30:4 The idea had seemed right to the king and to the whole community;

2 Chronicles 30:5 so they issued a decree that it should be proclaimed throughout all Isra'el, from Be'er-Sheva to Dan, that they should come to keep the [Pesach] to ADONAI the God of Isra'el at Yerushalayim; for only a few had been observing it as prescribed.

2 Chronicles 30:6 So runners went with the letters from the king and his officers throughout all Isra'el and Y'hudah. They conveyed the king's order: "People of Isra'el! Turn back to ADONAI, the God of Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov! Then he will return to those of you who remain, who escaped capture by the kings of Ashur.

2 Chronicles 30:7 Don't be like your ancestors, or like your kinsmen who sinned against ADONAI the God of their ancestors, with the result that he allowed them to become an object of horror, as you see.

2 Chronicles 30:8 Don't be stiffnecked now, as your ancestors were. Instead, yield yourselves to ADONAI; enter his sanctuary, which he has made holy forever; and serve ADONAI your God; so that his fierce anger will turn away from you.

2 Chronicles 30:9 For if you turn back to ADONAI, your kinsmen and children will find that those who took them captive will have compassion on them, and they will come back to this land. ADONAI your God is compassionate and merciful; he will not turn his face away from you if you return to him."

2 Chronicles 30:10 So the runners passed from city to city through the territory of Efrayim and M'nasheh, as far as Z'vulun; but the people laughed at them and made fun of them.

2 Chronicles 30:11 Nevertheless, some from Asher, M'nasheh and Z'vulun were humble enough to come to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 30:12 Also in Y'hudah the hand of God was at work, uniting their hearts to do what the king and the leaders had ordered in accordance with the word of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 30:13 Thus, many people assembled in Yerushalayim to keep the festival of [Matzot] in the second month, a huge crowd.

2 Chronicles 30:14 First they set about removing the altars that were in Yerushalayim, and they also removed all the altars for incense and threw them in [Vadi] Kidron.

2 Chronicles 30:15 Then they slaughtered the [Pesach] lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. Ashamed of themselves, the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] had consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings into the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 30:16 Now they stood at their stations, as prescribed in the [Torah] of Moshe the man of God; the [cohanim] splashed the blood given to them by the [L’vi’im].

2 Chronicles 30:17 For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves; therefore the [L’vi’im] were responsible for slaughtering the [Pesach] lambs and consecrating them to ADONAI on behalf of everyone who was not clean.

2 Chronicles 30:18 For a large number of the people, especially from Efrayim, M’nasheh, Yissakhar and Z’vulun, had not cleansed themselves but ate the [Pesach] lamb anyway, despite what is written. For Hizkiyahu had prayed for them, “May ADONAI, who is good, pardon

2 Chronicles 30:19 everyone who sets his heart on seeking God, ADONAI, the God of his ancestors, even if he hasn’t undergone the purification prescribed in connection with holy things.”

2 Chronicles 30:20 ADONAI heard Hizkiyahu and healed the people.

2 Chronicles 30:21 The people of Isra’el there in Yerushalayim observed the festival of [Matzot] for seven days with great joy; while every day the [L’vi’im] and [cohanim] praised ADONAI, singing to ADONAI with the accompaniment of loud instruments.

2 Chronicles 30:22 Hizkiyahu spoke encouragingly to all the [L’vi’im] who were well skilled in the service of ADONAI. Thus they ate throughout the festival for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings and giving thanks to ADONAI, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 30:23 Then the whole assembly decided to celebrate for yet another seven days, and they observed those seven days too with joy.

2 Chronicles 30:24 For Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah gave the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep for offerings, while the leaders gave the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and great numbers of [cohanim] consecrated themselves.

2 Chronicles 30:25 All the people who had assembled from Y’hudah rejoiced, as did the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im], those assembled from Isra’el, and the foreigners who had come from the territory of Isra’el or who lived in Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 30:26 So there was great joy in Yerushalayim; for since the time of Shlomo the son of David, king of Isra’el, there had been nothing like it in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 30:27 Then the [cohanim], who were [L’vi’im], stood up and blessed the people; [[ADONAI]] heard their voice, and their prayer came up to the holy place where he lives, heaven.

2 Chronicles 31:1 After all this was over, all Isra’el who were there went out to the cities of Y’hudah and smashed the standing-stones, chopped down the sacred poles, and broke down the high places and altars throughout Y’hudah, Binyamin, Efrayim and M’nasheh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the people of Isra’el returned to their own cities, each to his own possession.

2 Chronicles 31:2 Hizkiyahu re-established the divisions of the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] in accordance with the way the divisions had been before, with each man assigned his task, both the [cohanim] and the [L’vi’im], for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks and to praise at the gates of ADONAI’s camp.

2 Chronicles 31:3 He determined a portion of the king’s property to be given for the burnt offerings, that is, for the morning and evening burnt offerings and for burnt offerings on [Shabbat]s, [Rosh-Hodesh] and the designated times, as prescribed by the [Torah] of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 31:4 He also ordered the people living in Yerushalayim to contribute the portion meant for the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im], so that they would be submitting themselves to the [Torah] of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 31:5 As soon as the order was issued, the people of Isra’el gave in abundance from the firstfruits of the grain, wine, olive oil, honey and other agricultural produce; they brought the required tenth and more.

2 Chronicles 31:6 The people of Isra’el and Y’hudah living in the cities of Y’hudah also brought the required tenth of oxen and sheep and the required tenth of consecrated gifts that had been dedicated to ADONAI their God, and piled them in heaps.

2 Chronicles 31:7 They began accumulating these heaps in the third month and completed them in the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 31:8 When Hizkiyahu and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed ADONAI and his people Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 31:9 When Hizkiyahu asked the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] about the heaps,

2 Chronicles 31:10 ‘Azaryahu the chief [cohen], from the house of Tzadok, answered him, “Ever since the people began bringing offerings into the house of ADONAI, we have had enough to eat and plenty left over; for ADONAI has blessed his people, and what is left over is this massive supply.”

2 Chronicles 31:11 Then Hizkiyahu ordered storerooms prepared in the house of ADONAI. After preparing them,

2 Chronicles 31:12 they faithfully brought in the offerings, the required tenths and the consecrated things. Konanyahu the [Levi] was put in charge of them, with Shim'i his brother as his assistant.

2 Chronicles 31:13 Hizkiyahu the king and 'Azaryahu the ruler of the house of God appointed Yechi'el, 'Azazyahu, Nachat, 'Asah'el, Yerimot, Yozavad, Eli'el, Yismachyah, Machat and B'nayahu as supervisors to serve under Konanyah and Shim'i his brother.

2 Chronicles 31:14 Kore the son of Yimnah the [Levi], gatekeeper at the East Gate, was responsible for the voluntary offerings to God; he had to distribute the offerings made to ADONAI and the especially holy gifts.

2 Chronicles 31:15 Under him were 'Eden, Minyamin, Yeshua, Sh'ma'yahu, Amaryahu and Sh'khanyahu, in the cities of the [cohanim], faithfully making the distributions to their kinsmen by divisions, to great and small alike.

2 Chronicles 31:16 Every male three years and older entitled to enter the house of ADONAI was given his daily share for performing his duties according to his division, regardless of how he was recorded in the genealogies.

2 Chronicles 31:17 Likewise, those recorded in the genealogies of the [cohanim] by clans received shares, as did the [L'vi'im] twenty years and older who were performing their duties in their assigned divisions.

2 Chronicles 31:18 When shares were assigned, all their little ones, wives, sons and daughters were also recorded in the genealogies, throughout the entire community; for in their faithfulness to this task they consecrated themselves.

2 Chronicles 31:19 Finally, shares were assigned to the descendants of Aharon, the [cohanim], who lived in the pasture-lands surrounding their cities- in each city they were mentioned by name. Thus portions were distributed to all the males among the [cohanim] and to all whose genealogies showed that they belonged to the [L'vi'im].

2 Chronicles 31:20 This is what Hizkiyahu did throughout all Y'hudah. He accomplished things that were good, right and faithful before ADONAI his God.

2 Chronicles 31:21 Every project that he undertook in order to seek his God, whether in the service of the house of God or in connection with the [Torah] and the [mitzvot], he did with all his heart; and so he succeeded.

2 Chronicles 32:1 After these events and this faithfulness of [[Hizkiyahu's]], Sancheriv king of Ashur came, invaded Y'hudah and besieged the fortified cities, thinking that he would break in [[and capture]] them.

2 Chronicles 32:2 When Hizkiyahu saw that Sancheriv had come and intended to attack Yerushalayim,

2 Chronicles 32:3 he consulted his leading men and military advisers about sealing off the water in the springs outside the city. After gaining their support,

2 Chronicles 32:4 a large crowd was gathered to block all the springs and the stream flowing through the countryside. They reasoned, “Why should the kings of Ashur come and find an ample supply of water?”

2 Chronicles 32:5 Then, taking courage, he rebuilt all the broken sections of the wall, raised towers on it, built another wall outside that, strengthened the Millo in the City of David, and made a large quantity of spears and shields.

2 Chronicles 32:6 He appointed military commanders over the people, then gathered them before him in the open space at the city gate and spoke these words of encouragement to them:

2 Chronicles 32:7 “Be strong! Take courage! Don’t be afraid or distressed on account of the king of Ashur or all the horde he brings with him. For the One with us is greater than the one with him-

2 Chronicles 32:8 he has human strength, but we have ADONAI our God to help us and fight our battles!” The people took heart at the words of Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 32:9 After this, while Sancheriv and all his army were besieging Lakhish, he sent his envoys to Yerushalayim, to Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah and to all Y’hudah who were there in Yerushalayim, with this message:

2 Chronicles 32:10 “This is what Sancheriv king of Ashur says: ‘What gives you the confidence that you can endure a siege against Yerushalayim?

2 Chronicles 32:11 Hasn’t Hizkiyahu deluded you? Isn’t he condemning you to death by starvation and thirst when he says, “ADONAI our God will save us from the king of Ashur”?

2 Chronicles 32:12 Isn’t this the same Hizkiyahu who removed [[your God’s]] high places and altars and ordered Y’hudah and Yerushalayim to worship before one altar and offer sacrifices only on it?

2 Chronicles 32:13 Don’t you realize what I and my ancestors have done to all the peoples of the other countries? Were the gods of these nations able to do a thing to rescue their country from me?

2 Chronicles 32:14 Who of all the gods of those nations that my ancestors completely destroyed was able to rescue his people from me? How then will your God rescue you from me?

2 Chronicles 32:15 Don’t let Hizkiyahu mislead you or delude you this way, don’t believe him. For no god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to rescue his people from me or my ancestors; how much less will your God rescue you from me!’“

2 Chronicles 32:16 His envoys kept on speaking against ADONAI, God; and against his servant Hizkiyahu.

2 Chronicles 32:17 He also wrote a letter insulting ADONAI the God of Isra'el and speaking against him; it said, "Just as the gods of the nations of the other countries could not rescue their people from me, likewise Hizkiyahu's God will not rescue his people from me."

2 Chronicles 32:18 They were shouting loudly in the language of the Judeans to the people of Yerushalayim who were on the wall in order to terrify them and make them fearful, so that they could capture the city.

2 Chronicles 32:19 They spoke about the God of Yerushalayim in the same way as about the gods of the other peoples of the earth, which are merely human artifacts.

2 Chronicles 32:20 Because of this, Hizkiyahu the king and Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz, prayed and cried out to heaven.

2 Chronicles 32:21 Then ADONAI sent an angel, who cut down the valiant warriors, the leaders and the officers in the king of Ashur's camp, so that he had to return shamefaced to his own country. When he entered the house of his god, his own sons, whom he himself had fathered, put him to death with the sword there.

2 Chronicles 32:22 In this way ADONAI rescued Hizkiyahu and those living in Yerushalayim from Sancheriv the king of Ashur and from everyone, caring for them in every respect.

2 Chronicles 32:23 Many people brought gifts to ADONAI in Yerushalayim and items of value to Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah, so that from then on he was regarded highly by all the nations.

2 Chronicles 32:24 Around this time, Hizkiyahu became ill to the point of death. But he prayed to ADONAI, who answered him, even giving him a sign.

2 Chronicles 32:25 However, Hizkiyahu did not respond commensurately with the benefit done for him, because he had grown proud; thus he brought anger on himself and on Y'hudah and Yerushalayim as well.

2 Chronicles 32:26 But Hizkiyahu then humbled himself for his pride, both he and the people living in Yerushalayim, so that ADONAI's anger did not strike them during Hizkiyahu's lifetime.

2 Chronicles 32:27 Hizkiyahu had vast riches and great honor. He provided himself with storage places for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuable articles;

2 Chronicles 32:28 also storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine and olive oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock and pens for the flocks.

2 Chronicles 32:29 He provided cities for himself and purchased flocks and herds in abundance, for God had made him extremely wealthy.

2 Chronicles 32:30 It was this same Hizkiyahu who blocked the upper outlet of the Gichon Spring and diverted the water straight down on the west side of the City of David. Hizkiyahu succeeded in all that he did.

2 Chronicles 32:31 However, in the matter of the ambassadors from the princes of Bavel, who sent to him to learn of the marvel that had taken place in the land, God left him by himself, in order to test him, so that he might know everything that was in his heart.

2 Chronicles 32:32 Other activities of Hizkiyahu and his good deeds are recorded in the vision of Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz, and in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah and Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 32:33 Then Hizkiyahu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him by the path leading up to the tombs of the descendants of David. All Y'hudah and the people living in Yerushalayim honored him when he died, after which M'nasheh his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 33:1 M'nasheh was twelve years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-five years in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 33:2 He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, following the disgusting practices of the nations whom ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 33:3 For he rebuilt the high places which Hizkiyahu his father had smashed; he erected altars for the [ba'alim], made sacred poles and worshipped all the army of heaven and served them.

2 Chronicles 33:4 He erected altars in the house of ADONAI, concerning which ADONAI had said, “My name will be in Yerushalayim forever.”

2 Chronicles 33:5 He erected altars for all the army of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 33:6 He made his children pass through the fire [[as a sacrifice]] in the Ben-Hinnom Valley. He practiced soothsaying, divination and sorcery; and he appointed mediums and persons who used spirit guides. He did much that was evil from ADONAI's perspective, thus provoking him to anger.

2 Chronicles 33:7 He set the carved image of the idol he had made in the house of God, concerning which God had told David and Shlomo his son, “In this house and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Isra'el, I will put my name forever.

2 Chronicles 33:8 Also I will not remove the feet of Isra'el from the land I assigned your ancestors, if only they will take heed to obey every order I have given them, that is, all the [Torah], laws and rulings that came through Moshe.”

2 Chronicles 33:9 M’nasheh caused Y’hudah and the people of Yerushalayim to go astray, so that they did even worse things than the nations whom ADONAI destroyed ahead of the people of Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 33:10 ADONAI spoke to M’nasheh and to his people, but they paid no attention.

2 Chronicles 33:11 Therefore ADONAI brought against them the commanders of the king of Ashur’s army. They took M’nasheh captive with hooks, bound him in chains and carried him off to Bavel.

2 Chronicles 33:12 Then, when he was in distress, he began to appease the anger of ADONAI, abjectly humbling himself before the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 33:13 He prayed to him; and God was moved by his plea, paid attention to his entreaty and brought him back to Yerushalayim, to his kingly office. Then M’nasheh understood that ADONAI really is God.

2 Chronicles 33:14 After this he built an outer wall for the City of David on the west side of Gichon, in the valley, extending as far as the entrance at the Fish Gate; it encompassed the ‘Ofel, and he built it very high. He stationed army commanders in all the fortified cities of Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 33:15 He removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of ADONAI and all the altars he had built on the hill of the house of ADONAI and in Yerushalayim, and threw them out of the city.

2 Chronicles 33:16 He repaired the altar of ADONAI and offered on it sacrifices as peace offerings and for thanksgiving; and he ordered Y’hudah to serve ADONAI the God of Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 33:17 However, the people continued sacrificing on the high places, although only to ADONAI their God.

2 Chronicles 33:18 Other activities of M’nasheh, his prayer to his God and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of ADONAI the God of Isra’el are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 33:19 Also his prayer and how God was moved by his plea, all his sin and disloyalty, and the locations where he built high places and set up the sacred poles and carved images before he humbled himself are written in the History of the Seers.

2 Chronicles 33:20 Then M’nasheh slept with his ancestors and was buried at his own house, and Amon his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for two years in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 33:22 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, as had M’nasheh his father. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images that M’nasheh his father had made, and served them.

2 Chronicles 33:23 He did not humble himself before ADONAI, as M'nasheh his father had done; rather, this Amon kept adding to his guilt.

2 Chronicles 33:24 His servants conspired against him and put the king to death in his own palace.

2 Chronicles 33:25 But the people of the land put to death all those who had been part of the conspiracy against King Amon. Then the people of the land made Yoshiyahu his son king in place of him.

2 Chronicles 34:1 Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for thirty-one years in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 34:2 He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, living entirely in the manner of David his ancestor and turning away neither to the right nor to the left.

2 Chronicles 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, when he was still young, he began seeking after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year, he began cleansing Y'hudah and Yerushalayim from the high places, the sacred poles, and the carved and cast metal images.

2 Chronicles 34:4 In his presence they broke down the altars of the [ba'alim], and he chopped down the pillars for sun-worship mounted above them. He smashed the sacred poles and the carved and cast metal images, grinding them to dust, which he threw on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2 Chronicles 34:5 He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, thus cleansing Y'hudah and Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 34:6 He did likewise in the cities of M'nasheh, Efrayim, Shim'on and even as far as Naftali, in their surrounding ruins.

2 Chronicles 34:7 He broke down the altars, beat the sacred poles and carved images to powder and chopped down the pillars for sun-worship throughout all the land of Isra'el. Then he returned to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 34:8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, after he had cleansed the land and the house, he sent Shafan the son of Atzalyahu, Ma'aseiyah the governor of the city and Yo'ach the son of Yo'achaz the recorder to repair the house of ADONAI his God.

2 Chronicles 34:9 They went to Hilkiyahu the [cohen] [hagadol] and handed over to him the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the [L'vi'im] who guarded the doors had collected from M'nasheh, Efrayim, the rest of Isra'el and all Y'hudah and Binyamin. Then they returned to Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 34:10 They gave it to the supervisors of the work being done in the house of ADONAI; and those doing the work in the house of ADONAI used it to repair and restore the house-

2 Chronicles 34:11 that is, they gave it to the carpenters and construction-workers to purchase worked stone, timber for the crossbeams and roof beams for the houses which the kings of Y'hudah had destroyed.

2 Chronicles 34:12 The men did the work faithfully. Their supervisors were Yachat and 'Ovadyahu, [L'vi'im] from the descendants of M'rari, also Z'kharyah and Meshulam from the descendants of the K'hatim to give direction; and other [L'vi'im], all of whom could accompany singing with musical instruments.

2 Chronicles 34:13 They supervised those carrying the loads and everyone doing any kind of work; and there were also [L'vi'im] who were secretaries, officials and gatekeepers.

2 Chronicles 34:14 While bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of ADONAI, Hilkiyahu the [cohen] found the scroll of the [Torah] of ADONAI given by Moshe.

2 Chronicles 34:15 Hilkiyahu said to Shafan the secretary, "I have found the scroll of the [Torah] in the house of ADONAI." Hilkiyahu gave the scroll to Shafan.

2 Chronicles 34:16 Shafan the secretary brought the scroll to the king. Turning to the king, he gave him this report: "Your servants are doing everything you ordered them to do.

2 Chronicles 34:17 They have poured out the money found in the house of ADONAI and handed it over to the supervisors and workers."

2 Chronicles 34:18 Then Shafan the secretary told the king, "Hilkiyahu the [cohen hagadol] gave me a scroll." Shafan read it aloud before the king.

2 Chronicles 34:19 After the king had heard what was written in the [Torah], he tore his clothes.

2 Chronicles 34:20 Then the king issued this order to Hilkiyahu, Achikam the son of Shafan, 'Avdon the son of Mikhah, Shafan the secretary and 'Asayah the king's servant:

2 Chronicles 34:21 "Go, and consult ADONAI for me and for the people left in Isra'el and Y'hudah in regard to what is written in this scroll which has been found. For ADONAI must be furious at us, since our ancestors did not observe the word of ADONAI and do everything written in this scroll."

2 Chronicles 34:22 So Hilkiyahu and those the king had ordered went to Huldah the prophet, the wife of Shalum the son of Tok'hat, the son of Hasrat, keeper of the wardrobe- she lived in the Second Quarter of Yerushalayim- and spoke with her about this.

2 Chronicles 34:23 She told them, "ADONAI the God of Isra'el says to tell the man who sent you to me

2 Chronicles 34:24 that ADONAI says this: 'I am going to bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses written in the scroll they read to the king of Y'hudah;

2 Chronicles 34:25 because they have abandoned me and offered to other gods, in order to provoke me with everything they do. Therefore my anger is poured out on this place and will not be quenched.’

2 Chronicles 34:26 “But you are to tell the king of Y’hudah, who sent you to consult ADONAI, that ADONAI the God of Isra’el also says this: ‘In regard to the words you have heard,

2 Chronicles 34:27 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and its inhabitants- you humbled yourself before me, tore your clothes and cried before me- I have also heard you,’ says ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 34:28 ‘Here, I will gather you to your ancestors; you will go to your grave in peace; and your eyes will not see all the calamity I am going to bring on this place and its inhabitants.’“ So they brought back word to the king.

2 Chronicles 34:29 Then the king summoned and assembled all the leaders of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 34:30 The king went up to the house of ADONAI with all the men of Y’hudah, those living in Yerushalayim, the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im] and all the people, both great and small; and he read in their hearing everything written in the scroll of the covenant that had been found in the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 34:31 The king stood in his place and made a covenant in the presence of ADONAI to live following ADONAI, observing his [mitzvot], instructions and laws wholeheartedly and with all his being, so as to perform the words of the covenant written in this scroll.

2 Chronicles 34:32 Then, after he had all the people in Yerushalayim and Binyamin stand in affirmation of it, the inhabitants of Yerushalayim acted in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 34:33 Yoshiyahu removed all the abominable idols from all the territories belonging to the people of Isra’el, and he made everyone in Isra’el serve ADONAI their God. Throughout his lifetime, they did not stop following ADONAI, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 35:1 Yoshiyahu kept [Pesach] to ADONAI in Yerushalayim. They slaughtered the [Pesach] lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 Chronicles 35:2 He assigned the [cohanim] to their posts and encouraged them to perform the service of the house of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 35:3 To the [L’vi’im] who were teaching all Isra’el and were holy for ADONAI he said, “Put the holy ark in the house which Shlomo the son of David, king of Isra’el, built; after this, you will not have to carry it again. Now serve ADONAI your God and his people Isra’el.

2 Chronicles 35:4 Organize yourselves by clans and duty divisions according to the arrangement written down by David king of Isra'el and Shlomo his son.

2 Chronicles 35:5 Stand in the Holy Place according to the divisions of the clans of your kinsmen the ordinary people, with part of a clan of [L'vi'im] serving each clan [[of Isra'el]].

2 Chronicles 35:6 Then slaughter the [Pesach] lamb, consecrate yourselves, prepare what your kinsmen need, and act according to the word of ADONAI given through Moshe."

2 Chronicles 35:7 Yoshiyahu gave the ordinary people, to all who were present, 30,000 lambs and kids from the flock, all of them for [Pesach] offerings, and 3,000 bulls. These were from the king's personal property.

2 Chronicles 35:8 Also his leading men voluntarily gave to the people and to the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im]. Hilkiyah, Z'kharyahu and Yechi'el, the rulers of the house of God, gave the [cohanim] 2,600 [[lambs and kids]] and 300 oxen for [Pesach] offerings.

2 Chronicles 35:9 Konanyah, his brothers Sh'ma'yah and N'tan'el, and Hashavyah, Ye'i'el and Yozavad, the head [L'vi'im], gave the [L'vi'im] 5,000 [[lambs and kids]] and 500 oxen for [Pesach] offerings.

2 Chronicles 35:10 So the service was prepared; the [cohanim] stood at their posts; and the [L'vi'im] worked in their divisions, in keeping with the king's order.

2 Chronicles 35:11 They slaughtered the [Pesach] lamb; the [cohanim] splashed [[the blood, which they received from the [L'vi'im]]], and the [L'vi'im] skinned and butchered them.

2 Chronicles 35:12 They removed the portions to be burned, in order to give them to the divisions of the clans of the ordinary people to present to ADONAI, as written in the scroll of Moshe. They did the same with the oxen.

2 Chronicles 35:13 They roasted the [Pesach] lamb over fire, according to the rule; while they boiled the holy offerings in pots, kettles and pans and carried them quickly to all the ordinary people.

2 Chronicles 35:14 Afterwards, they prepared food for themselves and for the [cohanim]; because the [cohanim], the descendants of Aharon, were busy till nightfall offering the fat and the portions to be burned up; this is why the [L'vi'im] prepared food both for themselves and for the [cohanim] the descendants of Aharon.

2 Chronicles 35:15 The singers the sons of Asaf were at their posts, as ordered by David- Asaf, Heman and Y'dutun the king's seer. The gatekeepers were at every gate, and they did not need to leave their posts, because their brothers the [L'vi'im] prepared [[food]] for them.

2 Chronicles 35:16 Thus all the service of ADONAI was prepared the same day for observing [Pesach] and offering burnt offerings on the altar of ADONAI, in accordance with the order of King Yoshiyahu.

2 Chronicles 35:17 The people of Isra’el who were present observed the [Pesach] at that time and the festival of [Matzot] for seven days.

2 Chronicles 35:18 No [Pesach] like that had been kept in Isra’el since the days of Sh’mu’el the prophet, and none of the kings of Isra’el observe a [Pesach] such as Yoshiyahu observed, with the [cohanim], [L’vi’im], all Y’hudah, those of Isra’el who were present, and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 35:19 This [Pesach] was observed in the eighteenth year of Yoshiyahu.

2 Chronicles 35:20 After all this, and after Yoshiyahu had restored the house, N’kho king of Egypt went up to attack Kark’mish by the Euphrates River. King Yoshiyahu went out to oppose him;

2 Chronicles 35:21 but N’kho sent envoys to him with this message: “Do I have a conflict with you, king of Y’hudah? No, I am not coming today to attack you, but to attack the dynasty with whom I am at war. God has ordered to speed me along; so don’t meddle with God, who is with me; so that he won’t destroy you.”

2 Chronicles 35:22 Nevertheless, Yoshiyahu was determined to go after him. He disguised himself in order to fight against him and wouldn’t listen to what N’kho said, which was from the mouth of God. Then he went to fight in the Megiddo Valley.

2 Chronicles 35:23 There archers shot King Yoshiyahu. The king said to his servants, “Take me away, because I’m badly wounded.”

2 Chronicles 35:24 So his servants took him out of the chariot, transferred him to his second chariot and brought him to Yerushalayim. But he died, and he was buried in the tombs of his ancestors. All Y’hudah and Yerushalayim mourned Yoshiyahu.

2 Chronicles 35:25 Yirmeyahu composed a lament for Yoshiyahu; and all the men and women singers have sung of Yoshiyahu in their laments till this day. They made singing them a law in Isra’el, and they are recorded in the Laments.

2 Chronicles 35:26 Other activities of Yoshiyahu and all his good deeds in keeping with what is written in the [Torah] of ADONAI,

2 Chronicles 35:27 also his accomplishments from beginning to end, are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el and Y’hudah.

2 Chronicles 36:1 Then the people of the land took Y’ho’achaz the son of Yoshiyahu and made him king in his father’s place, in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 36:2 Y’ho’achaz was twenty-three years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for three months in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 36:3 But the king of Egypt deposed him in Yerushalayim and imposed a penalty on the land of three-and-a-third tons of silver and sixty-six pounds of gold.

2 Chronicles 36:4 Then the king of Egypt made Elyakim his brother king over Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, changing his name to Y'hoyakim; N'kho took Yo'achaz his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

2 Chronicles 36:5 Y'hoyakim was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim. He did what was evil from the perspective of ADONAI his God.

2 Chronicles 36:6 N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel attacked him and bound him in chains to carry him off to Bavel.

2 Chronicles 36:7 N'vukhadnetzar also carried the articles in the house of ADONAI away to Bavel and put them in his temple in Bavel.

2 Chronicles 36:8 Other activities of Y'hoyakim, including all the abominations he did publicly and those discovered later, are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el and Y'hudah. Then Y'hoyakhin his son took his place as king.

2 Chronicles 36:9 Y'hoyakhin was eight years old when he began his reign, and he ruled in Yerushalayim for three months and ten days. He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective.

2 Chronicles 36:10 In the spring, King N'vukhadnetzar sent and had him brought to Bavel together with the valuable articles from the house of ADONAI, and made Tzedekyah his brother king over Y'hudah and Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 36:11 Tzedekyah was twenty-one years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 36:12 He did what was evil from the perspective of ADONAI his God. He did not humble himself before Yirmeyahu the prophet speaking on behalf of ADONAI.

2 Chronicles 36:13 He also rebelled against King N'vukhadnetzar, who had made him swear loyalty to him by God; instead, he became stiffnecked and hardhearted, refusing to turn to ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

2 Chronicles 36:14 In addition, the chief [cohanim] and the people grew increasingly unfaithful, following all the abominable practices of the other nations; and they polluted the house of ADONAI, which he had consecrated in Yerushalayim.

2 Chronicles 36:15 Time after time, and frequently, ADONAI, the God of their ancestors, sent word to them through his messengers; because he had compassion on his people and on the place where he lived.

2 Chronicles 36:16 But they ridiculed God's messengers, treating his words with contempt and scoffing at his prophets, until the anger of ADONAI rose up against his people to the extent that there was no longer any remedy.

2 Chronicles 36:17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Kasdim, who put their young men to the sword in the house of their sanctuary. They had no compassion on either young men or young women, old men or gray-haired; God handed all of them over to him.

2 Chronicles 36:18 All the articles in the house of God, great and small; the supplies in the house of ADONAI; and the supplies of the king and his leading men- all these he brought to Bavel.

2 Chronicles 36:19 Then they burned down the house of God, broke down the wall of Yerushalayim, put to flames all its palaces and destroyed everything in it of worth.

2 Chronicles 36:20 Those who had escaped the sword he carried off to Bavel, and they became slaves to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia.

2 Chronicles 36:21 Thus was fulfilled the word of ADONAI spoken by Yirmeyahu, “until the land has been paid her [Shabbat]s”- for as long as it lay desolate, it kept [Shabbat], until seventy years had passed.

2 Chronicles 36:22 Now in the first year of Koresh king of Persia, so that the word of ADONAI spoken by Yirmeyahu might be fulfilled, ADONAI activated the spirit of Koresh king of Persia to proclaim throughout his entire kingdom, and put in writing as well:

2 Chronicles 36:23 “Here is what Koresh king of Persia says: ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms on earth, and he has charged me to build him a house in Yerushalayim, in Y’hudah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, may ADONAI his God be with him! He may go up....”

Ezra

1:1 In the first year of Koresh king of Persia, in order for the word of ADONAI prophesied by Yirmeyahu to be fulfilled, ADONAI stirred up the spirit of Koresh king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his whole kingdom, which he also put in writing, as follows:

Ezra 1:2 “Here is what Koresh king of Persia says: ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms on earth; and he has charged me to build him a house in Yerushalayim, in Y’hudah.

Ezra 1:3 Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him! He may go up to Yerushalayim, in Y’hudah, and build the house of ADONAI the God of Isra’el, the God who is in Yerushalayim.

Ezra 1:4 Let every survivor, no matter where he lives, be helped by his neighbors with silver, gold, goods and animals, in addition to the voluntary offering for the house of God in Yerushalayim.”

Ezra 1:5 The heads of fathers' clans in Y'hudah and Binyamin, along with the [cohanim], the [L'vi'im], and indeed all whose spirit God had stirred, set out to go up and rebuild the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim.

Ezra 1:6 All their neighbors supported them by giving them articles of silver, gold, goods, animals, and valuables, besides all their voluntary offerings.

Ezra 1:7 In addition, Koresh the king brought out the vessels from the house of ADONAI which N'vukhadnetzar had taken from Yerushalayim and put in the house of his god.

Ezra 1:8 Koresh king of Persia had Mitr'dat the treasurer bring them out and make an inventory of them for Sheshbatzar the prince of Y'hudah.

Ezra 1:9 The list was as follows: Gold basins 30 Silver basins 1,000 Knives 29

Ezra 1:10 Gold bowls 30 Silver bowls of a different kind 410 Other vessels 1,000

Ezra 1:11 In all there were 5,400 articles of gold and silver. Sheshbatzar took all of them along when the exiles were brought up from Bavel to Yerushalayim.

Ezra 2:1 Here is a list of the people of the province who had been exiled, carried off to Bavel by N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel, but who later returned from exile and went up to Yerushalayim and Y'hudah, each to his own city;

Ezra 2:2 they went with Z'rubavel, Yeshua, Nechemyah, S'rayah, Re'elyah, Mordekhai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rechum and Ba'anah. The number of men from the people of Isra'el:

Ezra 2:3 descendants of Par'osh 2,172

Ezra 2:4 descendants of Sh'fatyah 372

Ezra 2:5 descendants of Arach 775

Ezra 2:6 descendants of Pachat-Mo'av, from the descendants of Yeshua and Yo'av 2,812

Ezra 2:7 descendants of 'Eilam 1,254

Ezra 2:8 descendants of Zatu 945

Ezra 2:9 descendants of Zakkai 760

Ezra 2:10 descendants of Bani 642

Ezra 2:11 descendants of B'vai 623

Ezra 2:12 descendants of 'Azgad 1,222

Ezra 2:13 descendants of Adonikam 666

Ezra 2:14 descendants of Bigvai 2,056

Ezra 2:15 descendants of 'Adin 454

Ezra 2:16 descendants of Ater, of Y'chizkiyah 98

Ezra 2:17 descendants of Betzai 323

Ezra 2:18 descendants of Yorah 112

Ezra 2:19 descendants of Hashum 223

Ezra 2:20 descendants of Gibbar 95

Ezra 2:21 descendants of Beit-Lechem 123

Ezra 2:22 people of N'tofah 56

Ezra 2:23 people of 'Anatot 128

Ezra 2:24 descendants of 'Azmavet 42

Ezra 2:25 descendants of Kiryat-'Arim, K'firah and Be'erot 743

Ezra 2:26 descendants of Ramah and Geva 621

Ezra 2:27 people of Mikhmas 122

Ezra 2:28 people of Beit-El and 'Ai 223

Ezra 2:29 descendants of N'vo 52

Ezra 2:30 descendants of Magbish 156

Ezra 2:31 descendants of the other 'Eilam 1,254

Ezra 2:32 descendants of Harim 320

Ezra 2:33 descendants of Lod, Hadid and Ono 725

Ezra 2:34 descendants of Yericho 345

Ezra 2:35 descendants of S'na'ah 3,630

Ezra 2:36 The [cohanim]: descendants of Y'da'yah, of the house of Yeshua 973

Ezra 2:37 descendants of Immer 1,052

Ezra 2:38 descendants of Pash'chur 1,247

Ezra 2:39 descendants of Harim 1,017

Ezra 2:40 The [L'vi'im]: descendants of Yeshua and Kadmi'el, of the descendants of Hodavyah 74

Ezra 2:41 The singers: descendants of Asaf 128

Ezra 2:42 The descendants of the gatekeepers: descendants of Shalum, descendants of Ater, descendants of Talmon, descendants of 'Akuv, descendants of Hatita, and descendants of Shovai- in all, 139

Ezra 2:43 The temple servants: descendants of Tzicha, descendants of Hasufa, descendants of Taba'ot,

Ezra 2:44 descendants of Keros, descendants of Sia'ha descendants of Padon,

Ezra 2:45 descendants of L'vanah, descendants of Hagavah, descendants of 'Akuv,

Ezra 2:46 descendants of Hagav, descendants of Salmai, descendants of Hanan, Ezra 2:47 descendants of Giddel, descendants of Gachar, descendants of Re’ayah,

Ezra 2:48 descendants of Retzin, descendants of N’koda, descendants of Gazam,

Ezra 2:49 descendants of ‘Uza, descendants of Paseach, descendants of Besai,

Ezra 2:50 descendants of Asnah, descendants of Me’unim, descendants of N’fusim,

Ezra 2:51 descendants of Bakbuk, descendants of Hakufa, descendants of Harhur,

Ezra 2:52 descendants of Batzlut, descendants of M’chida, descendants of Harsha,

Ezra 2:53 descendants of Barkos, descendants of Sisra, descendants of Temach,

Ezra 2:54 descendants of N’tziach, and descendants of Hatifa.

Ezra 2:55 The descendants of Shlomo’s servants: descendants of Sotai, descendants of Hasoferet, descendants of P’ruda,

Ezra 2:56 descendants of Ya’alah, descendants of Darkon, descendants of Giddel,

Ezra 2:57 descendants of Sh’fatyah, descendants of Hatil, descendants of Pokheret-Hatzvayim, and descendants of Ami.

Ezra 2:58 All the temple servants and the descendants of Shlomo’s servants numbered 392

Ezra 2:59 The following went up from Tel-Melach, Tel-Harsha, K’ruv, Adan and Immer; but they could not state which fathers’ clan they or their children belonged to, [[so it was not clear]] whether they were from Isra’el:

Ezra 2:60 descendants of D’layah, descendants of Toviyah, and descendants of N’koda 652

Ezra 2:61 and of the descendants of the [cohanim]: descendants of Havayah, descendants of Hakotz, and descendants of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gil’adi and was named after them.

Ezra 2:62 These tried to locate their genealogical records, but they weren’t found. Therefore they were considered defiled and were not allowed to serve as [cohanim].

Ezra 2:63 The Tirshata told them not to eat any of the especially holy food until a [cohen] appeared who could consult the [urim] and [tumim].

Ezra 2:64 The entire assembly numbered 42,360-

Ezra 2:65 not including their male and female slaves, of whom there were 7,337. They also had 200 male and female singers.

Ezra 2:66 Their horses numbered 736; their mules, 245;

Ezra 2:67 their camels, 435; and their donkeys, 6,720.

Ezra 2:68 Some of the heads of fathers' clans, when they came to the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim, made voluntary offerings for rebuilding the house of God on its site.

Ezra 2:69 According to their means they gave into the treasury for the work 61,000 gold [darkmonim] [[about two-thirds of a ton]], 5,000 [manim] of silver [[just over three tons]], and a hundred tunics for the [cohanim.]

Ezra 2:70 So the [cohanim], the [L'vi'im], some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants lived in their towns and all Isra'el in their towns.

Ezra 3:1 When the seventh month arrived, after the people of Isra'el had resettled in the towns, the people gathered with one accord in Yerushalayim.

Ezra 3:2 Then Yeshua the son of Yotzadak with his fellow [cohanim], and Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el with his kinsmen, organized rebuilding the altar of the God of Isra'el; so that they could offer burnt offerings on it, as is written in the [Torah] of Moshe the man of God.

Ezra 3:3 They set up the altar on its former bases. Despite feeling threatened by the peoples of the [[surrounding]] countries; they offered on it burnt offerings to ADONAI, the morning and evening burnt offerings.

Ezra 3:4 They observed the festival of [Sukkot] as written, offering daily the number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day,

Ezra 3:5 and afterwards the regular burnt offering, the offerings for [Rosh-Hodesh] and those for all the designated times set apart for ADONAI, as well as those of everyone who volunteered a voluntary offering to ADONAI.

Ezra 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month, they began offering burnt offerings to ADONAI, even though the foundation of ADONAI's temple had not yet been laid.

Ezra 3:7 They also gave money for the stone-workers and carpenters, as well as food, drink and olive oil for the people of Tzidon and Tzor bringing cedar logs from the L'vanon to the sea and on to Yafo, in accordance with the authorization granted by Koresh king of Persia.

Ezra 3:8 In the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Yerushalayim, in the second month, Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el, Yeshua the son of Yotzadak, the rest of their kinsmen the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im], and all who had come out of exile to Yerushalayim began the project. They appointed the [L'vi'im] aged twenty and up to direct work in the house of ADONAI.

Ezra 3:9 Yeshua and his sons and brothers, Kadmi’el and his sons, and Y’hudah’s sons together directed the workers in the house of God; also the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their kinsmen the [L’vi’im].

Ezra 3:10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of ADONAI, the [cohanim] in their robes, with trumpets, and the [L’vi’im] the sons of Asaf, with cymbals, took their places to praise ADONAI, as David king of Isra’el had instructed.

Ezra 3:11 They sang antiphonally, praising and giving “thanks to ADONAI, for he is good, for his grace continues forever” toward Isra’el. All the people raised a great shout of praise to ADONAI, because the foundation of the house of ADONAI had been laid.

Ezra 3:12 But many of the [cohanim], [L’vi’im] and heads of fathers’ clans, the old men who had seen the first house standing on its foundation, wept out loud when they saw this house; while others shouted out loud for joy-

Ezra 3:13 so that the people couldn’t distinguish the noise of the joyful shouting from the noise of the people’s weeping; for the people were shouting so loudly that the noise could be heard at a great distance.

Ezra 4:1 When the enemies of Y’hudah and Binyamin heard that the people from the exile were building a temple to ADONAI the God of Isra’el,

Ezra 4:2 they approached Z’rubavel and the heads of fathers’ clans and said to them, “Let us build along with you; for we seek your God, just as you do; and we have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esar-Hadon king of Ashur, who brought us here.”

Ezra 4:3 But Z’rubavel, Yeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers’ clans in Isra’el answered them, “You and we have nothing in common that you should join us in building a house for our God. We will build by ourselves for ADONAI the God of Isra’el, as Koresh king of Persia ordered us to do.”

Ezra 4:4 Then the people of the land began discouraging the people of Y’hudah, in order to make them afraid to build.

Ezra 4:5 They also bribed officials to frustrate their plan throughout the lifetime of Koresh king of Persia and on into the reign of Daryavesh king of Persia.

Ezra 4:6 During the reign of Achashverosh, at the beginning of his reign, they brought a charge in writing against the people living in Y’hudah and Yerushalayim.

Ezra 4:7 Then, during the time of Artach’shashta, Bishlam, Mitr’dat, Tav’el and their other colleagues wrote Artach’shashta; the letter was written in Aramaic, using Aramaic script.

Ezra 4:8 Rechum the district governor and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Yerushalayim to Artach'shashta the king as follows:

Ezra 4:9 "From Rechum the district governor, Shimshai the secretary, their other colleagues, the judges, the officials, the Dina'im, the Afarsat'khim, the Tarp'lim, the Afarsim, the Ark'vim, the Bavlim, the Shushan'kayim, the Dehayim, the 'Elma'im, Ezra 4:10 the other nations whom the great and noble Asnapar deported and settled in Shomron, and the others who remain in the country beyond the [[Euphrates]] River."

Ezra 4:11 (This is the text of the letter they sent him.) "To Artach'shashta the king from his servants the people beyond the River:

Ezra 4:12 "Let the king know that the Judeans who left you to come to us in Yerushalayim are building this rebellious and wicked city. They have finished the walls and are now digging the foundations.

Ezra 4:13 So let the king know that if this city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, they will refuse to pay tribute, tax or toll; and this will reduce the royal revenue.

Ezra 4:14 Now, because we eat the king's salt, and it is not right for us to see the king dishonored, we therefore are sending to inform the king,

Ezra 4:15 so that a search can be made in the archives of your ancestors; in these archives you will find and ascertain that this city is indeed a rebellious city, the bane of kings and provinces, and that sedition has been fostered there since ancient times- which is why this city was destroyed.

Ezra 4:16 We submit to the king that if this city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, you will soon lose possession of all territories beyond the River."

Ezra 4:17 The king sent this answer: "To Rechum the district governor, Shimshai the secretary, their other colleagues living in Shomron, and the rest beyond the River: "[Shalom]!

Ezra 4:18 "The letter you sent us has now been translated for me.

Ezra 4:19 I ordered a search made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt against kings, that rebellion and sedition have been fostered there;

Ezra 4:20 also that there have been powerful kings over Yerushalayim who ruled all the territory beyond the River; and tribute, taxes and tolls were paid to them.

Ezra 4:21 "So now, order that these men stop work and that this city not be rebuilt until I order it.

Ezra 4:22 Take care not to neglect your duty; otherwise the harm may increase, to the damage of the king."

Ezra 4:23 When the text of King Artach'shashta's letter was read before Rechum, Shimshai the secretary and their colleagues, they hurried to Yerushalayim to the Judeans and stopped their work by force of arms.

Ezra 4:24 So the work on the house of God in Yerushalayim ceased; it remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of Daryavesh king of Persia.

Ezra 5:1 The prophets Hagai and Z'kharyah the son of 'Iddo prophesied to the Judeans in Yerushalayim and Y'hudah; they prophesied to them in the name of the God of Isra'el.

Ezra 5:2 Then Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el and Yeshua the son of Yotzadak began rebuilding the house of God in Yerushalayim; with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

Ezra 5:3 No sooner had they begun, when Tatnai the governor of the territory beyond the [[Euphrates]] River, Sh'tar-Boznai and their colleagues came and asked them, "Who gave you permission to rebuild this house and finish this wall?

Ezra 5:4 What are the names of the men putting up this building?"

Ezra 5:5 But the eye of their God was on the leaders of the Judeans, so they didn't stop them until the matter could come before Daryavesh and a reply in writing be received.

Ezra 5:6 Here is the text of the letter which Tatnai the governor of the territory beyond the River, Sh'tar-Boznai and their fellow officials beyond the River sent to Daryavesh the king;

Ezra 5:7 they sent him a letter in which it was written: "To Daryavesh the king, "Complete [shalom]!"

Ezra 5:8 "Let the king know that we went to the province of Y'hudah, to the house of the great God. It is being rebuilt with large stones, and timber is being set in the walls. This work is being done energetically, and it is making good progress under the direction

Ezra 5:9 of their leaders. We asked them, 'Who gave you permission to rebuild this house and finish this wall?'

Ezra 5:10 We also asked them their names, so that we could write you the names of the men in charge of them.

Ezra 5:11 "They gave us this answer: 'We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, built and finished by a great king of Isra'el.

Ezra 5:12 But because our ancestors provoked the God of heaven, he handed them over to N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel, the Kasdi; he destroyed this house and carried the people off to Bavel.

Ezra 5:13 But in the first year of Koresh king of Bavel, Koresh the king gave authorization to rebuild this house of God.

Ezra 5:14 Moreover, the gold and silver articles belonging to the house of God, which N’vukhadnetzar had removed from the temple in Yerushalayim and brought to the temple of Bavel, Koresh the king took out of the temple in Bavel; they were turned over to a man named Sheshbatzar, whom he had appointed governor.

Ezra 5:15 He said to him, “Take these articles, go, put them in the temple in Yerushalayim, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its original site.”

Ezra 5:16 So this same Sheshbatzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Yerushalayim; it has been under construction ever since, and it isn’t finished yet.

Ezra 5:17 “‘Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the royal treasury there in Bavel to determine whether a decree was issued by Koresh the king to rebuild this house of God in Yerushalayim; and let the king send us his decision concerning this matter.’“

Ezra 6:1 Daryavesh the king issued an order; and search was made in the archives building, where treasures were stored in Bavel;

Ezra 6:2 and there was found at Achm’ta, in the palace which is in the province of Media, a scroll on which was written the following: “Memorandum:

Ezra 6:3 “In the first year of Koresh the king, Koresh the king issued this decree: ‘Concerning the house of God in Yerushalayim, let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offer sacrifices; and let its foundations be firmly laid. Its height is to be ninety feet and its breadth ninety feet,

Ezra 6:4 with three rows of large stones and one row of new timber. The expenses are to be charged to the king’s treasury.

Ezra 6:5 Also let the gold and silver articles belonging to the house of God, which N’vukhadnetzar removed from the temple at Yerushalayim and brought to Bavel, be restored and returned to the temple in Yerushalayim, each item to its place; and you are to put them in the house of God.’

Ezra 6:6 “Therefore, Tatnai governor of the territory beyond the River, Sh’tar-Boznai and your colleagues the officials beyond the River, stay away from there!

Ezra 6:7 Let the work of this house of God alone. Let the governor of the Judeans and the leaders of the Judeans rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezra 6:8 “Moreover, I herewith issue this order concerning how you are to assist these leaders of the Judeans in rebuilding this house of God: the expenses of these men are to be defrayed promptly from the royal funds, from the taxes collected beyond the River, so that the work can continue.

Ezra 6:9 Whatever they need- young bulls, rams and lambs- for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine and olive oil, according to what the [cohanim] in Yerushalayim say, is to be given them daily without fail;

Ezra 6:10 so that they can offer sacrifices with a fragrant aroma to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Ezra 6:11 "I also order that if anyone defies this order, a beam is to be pulled from his house; and he is to be lifted up and impaled on it. His house is to be reduced to rubble.

Ezra 6:12 May the God who has caused his name to be there overthrow any king or people that tries to defy it and destroy this house of God in Yerushalayim. "I, Daryavesh, have issued this order. Let it be carried out to the letter."

Ezra 6:13 Then Tatnai the governor of the territory beyond the [[Euphrates]] River, Sh'tar-Boznai and their colleagues obeyed strictly; because Daryavesh the king had given the order to do so.

Ezra 6:14 The leaders of the Judeans made good progress with the rebuilding, thanks to the prophesying of Hagai the prophet and Z'kharyah the son of 'Iddo. They kept building until they were finished, in keeping with the command of the God of Isra'el and in accordance with the order of Koresh, Daryavesh and Artach'shashta king of Persia.

Ezra 6:15 This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of Daryavesh the king.

Ezra 6:16 The people of Isra'el, the [cohanim], the [L'vi'im] and the other people from the exile joyfully dedicated this house of God.

Ezra 6:17 At the dedication of this house of God they offered 100 young bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and, as a sin offering for all Isra'el, twelve male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Isra'el.

Ezra 6:18 Then they installed the [cohanim] in their divisions and the [L'vi'im] in their orders for the service of God in Yerushalayim, as written in the book of Moshe.

Ezra 6:19 The people from the exile kept [Pesach] on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Ezra 6:20 For the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] had purified themselves together; all of them were pure. So they slaughtered the [Pesach] lambs for all the people from the exile and for their kinsmen the [cohanim] and for themselves.

Ezra 6:21 The people of Isra'el who had returned from the exile and all those who had renounced the filthy practices of the nations living in the land in order to seek ADONAI the God of Isra'el, ate [[the [Pesach] lamb]]

Ezra 6:22 and joyfully kept the feast of [matzah] for seven days; for ADONAI had filled them with joy by turning the heart of the king of Ashur toward them, so that he assisted them in the work of the house of God, the God of Isra'el.

Ezra 7:1 After these events, during the reign of Artach'shashta king of Persia, 'Ezra the son of S'rayah, the son of 'Azaryah, the son of Hilkiyah,

Ezra 7:2 the son of Shalum, the son of Tzadok, the son of Achituv,

Ezra 7:3 the son of Amaryah, the son of 'Azaryah, the son of M'rayot,

Ezra 7:4 the son of Z'rachyah, the son of 'Uzi, the son of Buki,

Ezra 7:5 the son of Avishua, the son of Pinchas, the son of Eli'ezer, the son of Aharon the [cohen hagadol]-

Ezra 7:6 this 'Ezra went up from Bavel. He was a scribe, expert in the [Torah] of Moshe, which ADONAI the God of Isra'el had given; and the king granted him everything he asked for, since the hand of ADONAI his God was on him.

Ezra 7:7 In the seventh year of Artach'shashta the king, some of the people of Isra'el, and some of the [cohanim], [L'vi'im], singers, gatekeepers and temple servants went up to Yerushalayim.

Ezra 7:8 [['Ezra]] arrived at Yerushalayim in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

Ezra 7:9 He began going up to Yerushalayim from Bavel on the first day of the first month and arrived on the first day of the fifth month, since the good hand of his God was on him.

Ezra 7:10 For 'Ezra had set his heart on studying and practicing the [Torah] of ADONAI and teaching Isra'el the laws and rulings.

Ezra 7:11 Here is the letter that King Artach'shashta gave 'Ezra the [cohen] and [Torah]-teacher, the student of matters relating to ADONAI's [mitzvot] and his laws for Isra'el:

Ezra 7:12 "From: Artach'shashta, king of kings "To: 'Ezra the [cohen], scribe of the law of the God of heaven, etc.: "Herewith

Ezra 7:13 I decree that everyone in my realm who belongs to the people of Isra'el, including their [cohanim] and [L'vi'im], who, of his own free will, chooses to go with you to Yerushalayim, should go.

Ezra 7:14 You are being sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire how the law of your God, of which you have expert knowledge, is being applied in Y'hudah and Yerushalayim.

Ezra 7:15 You are also to bring with you the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have voluntarily offered to the God of Isra'el, whose dwelling is in Yerushalayim;

Ezra 7:16 together with all the silver and gold you receive throughout the province of Bavel and the voluntary offerings of the people and the [cohanim] that have been offered willingly for the house of their God in Yerushalayim.

Ezra 7:17 “You are to spend this money carefully on young bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and drink offerings; and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Yerushalayim.

Ezra 7:18 Whatever seems good to you and your kinsmen to do with the rest of the silver and gold, do it according to the will of your God.

Ezra 7:19 “The articles given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver to the God of Yerushalayim.

Ezra 7:20 “Whatever else may be needed for the house of your God that you have to supply, you may supply from the royal treasury.

Ezra 7:21 “I, Artach’shashta the king, herewith order all the treasurers in the territory beyond the [[Euphrates]] River to do carefully anything ‘Ezra the [cohen], scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you,

Ezra 7:22 up to three-and-a-third tons of silver, 500 bushels of wheat, 500 gallons of wine, 500 gallons of olive oil and unlimited amounts of salt.

Ezra 7:23 Whatever is ordered by the God of heaven is to be performed exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should wrath come against the realm of the king and his sons?

Ezra 7:24 Moreover, we herewith proclaim to you that it will be illegal to impose tribute, taxes or tolls on any of the [cohanim], [L’vi’im], singers, gatekeepers, servants or laborers in this house of God.

Ezra 7:25 “And you, ‘Ezra, making use of the wisdom you have from your God, are to appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people in the territory beyond the River, that is, all who know the laws of your God; and you are to teach those who don’t know them.

Ezra 7:26 Whoever refuses to obey the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him swiftly, whether it be death, banishment, confiscation of goods or imprisonment.”

Ezra 7:27 Blessed be ADONAI, the God of our ancestors, who has put such a thing as this in the heart of the king, to restore the beauty of the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim,

Ezra 7:28 and has extended mercy to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king’s most powerful officials. So I took courage, since the hand of ADONAI my God was on me, and I gathered together out of Isra’el key men to go up with me.

Ezra 8:1 These are the heads of their fathers’ clans, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Bavel during the reign of Artach’shashta the king:

Ezra 8:2 of the descendants of Pinchas: Gershom; of the descendants of Itamar: Dani’el; of the descendants of David: Hatush;

Ezra 8:3 of the descendants of Sh’khanyah: of the descendants of Par’osh: Z’kharyah, and with him 150 males officially registered;

Ezra 8:4 of the descendants of Pachat-Mo’av: Ely’ho’einai the son of Z’rachyah, and with him 200 males;

Ezra 8:5 of the descendants of Sh’khanyah: the son of Yachazi’el, and with him 300 males;

Ezra 8:6 of the descendants of ‘Adin: ‘Eved the son of Yonatan, and with him 50 males;

Ezra 8:7 of the descendants of ‘Eilam: Yesha’yah the son of ‘Atalyah, and with him 70 males;

Ezra 8:8 of the descendants of Sh’fatyah: Z’vadyah the son of Mikha’el, and with him 80 males;

Ezra 8:9 of the descendants of Yo’av: ‘Ovadyah the son of Yechi’el, and with him 218 males;

Ezra 8:10 of the descendants of Shlomit: the son of Yosifyah, and with him 160 males;

Ezra 8:11 of the descendants of Bevai: Z’kharyah the son of Bevai, and with him 28 males;

Ezra 8:12 of the descendants of ‘Azgad: Yochanan the son of HaKatan, and with him 110 males;

Ezra 8:13 of the descendants of Adonikam: the younger ones, whose names were Elifelet, Ye’i’el and Sh’ma’yah, and with them 60 males; and Ezra 8:14 of the descendants of Bigvai: ‘Utai and Zakur, and with them 70 males.

Ezra 8:15 I assembled them by the river that runs to Ahava, and we camped there three days. I reviewed the people and the [cohanim] but found no [L’vi’im] there.

Ezra 8:16 So I sent for Eli’ezer, Ari’el, Sh’ma’yah, Elnatan, Yariv, Elnatan, Natan, Z’kharyah and Meshulam, who were leaders, and also for Yoyariv and Elnatan, who were men of discernment.

Ezra 8:17 I gave them instructions for Iddo, the leading man in a place called Kasifya, and told them what to say to Iddo and his brother, who were in charge of Kasifya, so that they would bring us men to minister in the house of our God.

Ezra 8:18 Since the good hand of our God was on us, they brought us Ish-Sekhel from the descendants of Machli the son of Levi, the son of Isra’el; Sherevyah with eighteen of his sons and kinsmen;

Ezra 8:19 Hashavyah, with Yesha’yah, from the descendants of M’rari, and twenty of his kinsmen and their sons;

Ezra 8:20 and from the temple servants, whom David and the princes had assigned to serve the [L’vi’im], two hundred temple servants, all recorded by name.

Ezra 8:21 Then, there at the Ahava River, I proclaimed a fast; so that we could humble ourselves before our God and ask a safe journey of him for ourselves, our little ones and all our possessions.

Ezra 8:22 For I would have been ashamed to ask the king for a detachment of soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies along the road, since we had said to the king, “The hand of our God is on all who seek him, for good; but his power and fury is against all who abandon him.”

Ezra 8:23 So we fasted and asked our God for this, and he answered our prayer.

Ezra 8:24 Then I separated twelve of the chief [cohanim], along with Sherevyah, Hashavyah and ten of their kinsmen.

Ezra 8:25 I weighed out to them the silver, the gold and the utensils for the house of our God contributed by the king, his counselors, his princes and all Isra’el present there.

Ezra 8:26 I weighed out and handed over to them twenty-one-and-a-half tons of silver, three-and-a-third tons of silver articles, three-and-a-third tons of gold,

Ezra 8:27 twenty gold bowls weighing twenty-one pounds, and two vessels of fine burnished bronze as precious as gold.

Ezra 8:28 Then I told them, “You are consecrated to [ADONAI,] the articles are holy, and the silver and gold are a voluntary offering for ADONAI the God of your ancestors.

Ezra 8:29 Guard them carefully, until you weigh them before the chief [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] and the leaders of the fathers’ clans in Yerushalayim, in the rooms of the house of ADONAI.”

Ezra 8:30 So the [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] received the consignment of silver and gold and the articles to bring to Yerushalayim, to the house of our God.

Ezra 8:31 On the twelfth day of the first month, we left the Ahava River to go to Yerushalayim. The hand of our God was on us, and he protected us from enemies and surprise attacks along the road.

Ezra 8:32 In time, we arrived at Yerushalayim, where we rested for three days.

Ezra 8:33 On the fourth day, the silver, gold and articles were weighed in the house of our God and handed over to M’remot the son of Uriyah the [cohen]; with him was El’azar the son of Pinchas; and with them were Yozavad the son of Yeshua and No’adyah the son of Binui, who were [L’vi’im].

Ezra 8:34 The entire consignment was numbered and weighed, and at the same time the total weight was recorded.

Ezra 8:35 The exiles who had returned from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Isra’el- twelve young bulls for all Isra’el, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering; all this was a burnt offering for ADONAI.

Ezra 8:36 They also delivered the king's orders to the king's viceroys and governors beyond the [[Euphrates]] River; and these gave their support to the people and to the house of God.

Ezra 9:1 After these things had been done, the leaders approached me and said, "The people of Isra'el, the [cohanim] and the [L'vi'im] have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands and their disgusting practices- the Kena'ani, Hitti, P'rizi, Y'vusi, 'Amoni, Mo'avi, Egyptians and Emori.

Ezra 9:2 They have taken some of the women from these nations as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed has assimilated to the peoples of the lands; moreover, the officials and leaders have been the main offenders in this treachery."

Ezra 9:3 When I heard this, I tore my robe and tunic, pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat down in shock.

Ezra 9:4 All who trembled at the words of the God of Isra'el assembled around me when confronted with the treachery of these exiles; and I sat there in shock until the evening offering.

Ezra 9:5 At the evening offering, with my cloak and tunic torn, I got up from afflicting myself, fell on my knees, spread out my hands to ADONAI my God,

Ezra 9:6 and said, "My God, I am ashamed. I blush to lift my face to you, my God! For our sins tower over our heads; our guilt reaches up to heaven.

Ezra 9:7 Since the times of our ancestors, we have been deeply guilty; and because of our sins, we, our kings and our [cohanim] have been handed over to the kings of the lands, to the sword, to exile, to pillage and to disgrace, as is the case today.

Ezra 9:8 Now, for a brief moment, ADONAI our God has shown us the favor of allowing a remnant to escape and giving us a secure foothold in his holy place, in order for God to make things look brighter to us and revive us a little in our slavery.

Ezra 9:9 For we are slaves. Yet our God has not abandoned us in our slavery, but has caused the kings of Persia to extend grace to us, reviving us, so that we can rebuild the house of our God, repair its ruins, and have a wall of defense in Y'hudah and Yerushalayim.

Ezra 9:10 "But now, our God, what are we to say after this? For we have abandoned your [mitzvot],

Ezra 9:11 which you gave us through your servants the prophets when they said, 'The land which you are going to in order to take possession of it is a land defiled by the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, because of their disgusting practices, which have filled it with their filth from one end to the other.

Ezra 9:12 Therefore, you are not to give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons; and you are not to promote their peace or prosperity ever. Only in this way will you grow strong, enjoy the good things of the land and leave it as a lasting inheritance to your children.'

Ezra 9:13 Now, after all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds and our deep guilt- and even so, you, our God, have punished us less than our sins deserve and have given us a surviving remnant-

Ezra 9:14 are we to break your [mitzvot] again by making marriages with the peoples who have these disgusting practices? Won't you become so angry with us that you would destroy us completely, so that there would be no surviving remnant and no one who escapes?

Ezra 9:15 ADONAI, God of Isra'el! You are just; yet we have been left a surviving remnant that has escaped, as is the case today. Look, we are before you in our guilt; because of it, no one can stand in your presence."

Ezra 10:1 While 'Ezra was praying and making confession, weeping and prostrated before the house of God, a huge crowd of Isra'el's men, women and children gathered around him; and the people were weeping bitterly.

Ezra 10:2 Sh'khanyah the son of Yechi'el, one of the descendants of 'Eilam, spoke up and said to 'Ezra, "We have acted treacherously toward our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples of the land. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Isra'el.

Ezra 10:3 We should make a covenant with our God to send away all these wives, along with their children, in obedience to the advice of [Adonai] and of those who tremble at the [mitzvah] of our God; let us act in accordance with the [Torah].

Ezra 10:4 Stand up, and do your duty, for we are with you; take courage, and do it!"

Ezra 10:5 'Ezra stood up, and he made the chief [cohanim], the [L'vi'im] and all Isra'el swear that they would act according to what had been said; and they took the oath.

Ezra 10:6 'Ezra then left his place in front of the house of God and went to the room of Y'hochanan the son of Elyashiv. After going there, he neither ate food nor drank water; because he was mourning over the treachery of the exiles.

Ezra 10:7 A proclamation was issued throughout Y'hudah and Yerushalayim that all the exiles were to assemble in Yerushalayim;

Ezra 10:8 and that whoever didn't come within three days, in answer to the summons from the officials and leaders, would forfeit all he owned and himself be banished from the community of the exiles.

Ezra 10:9 All the men of Y’hudah and Binyamin assembled in Yerushalayim within the three days. It was the twentieth day of the ninth month. All the people sat in the open place in front of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain.

Ezra 10:10 ‘Ezra the [cohen] stood up and addressed them: “You have acted treacherously by marrying foreign women and have thus increased Isra’el’s guilt.

Ezra 10:11 Now, therefore, make confession to ADONAI, the God of your ancestors; and do what will please him by separating yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign women.”

Ezra 10:12 In response, the whole assembly cried aloud, “Yes, our duty is to do as you have said.

Ezra 10:13 But there are many people, and it’s the rainy season- we can’t stay out here in the open. Also, it isn’t the work of a day or two; for there are many of us who have committed this crime.

Ezra 10:14 Let our leaders represent the whole community; and let all those in our cities who have married foreign women appear at prearranged times, accompanied by the elders and judges of each city; until our God’s fierce anger over this has been turned away from us.”

Ezra 10:15 Only Yonatan the son of ‘Asah’el and Yachz’yah the son of Tikvah, supported by Meshulam and Shabtai the [Levi], opposed this.

Ezra 10:16 The exiles did as agreed. ‘Ezra the [cohen] chose heads of fathers’ clans by name, and they began their sessions to look into the matter on the first day of the tenth month.

Ezra 10:17 They finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.

Ezra 10:18 Among the [cohanim] were found these who had married foreign women: of the sons of Yeshua the son of Yotzadak and his brothers: Ma’aseiyah, Eli’ezer, Yariv and G’dalyah.

Ezra 10:19 They promised that they would send their wives away; and since they were guilty, they offered a ram from the flock for their guilt.

Ezra 10:20 Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Z’vadyah;

Ezra 10:21 of the sons of Harim: Ma’aseiyah, Eliyah, Sh’ma’yah, Yechi’el and ‘Uziyah;

Ezra 10:22 of the sons of Pash’chur: Elyo’einai, Ma’aseiyah, Yishma’el, N’tan’el, Yozavad and El’asah.

Ezra 10:23 Of the [L’vi’im]: Yozavad, Shim’i, K’layah (also known as K’lita), P’tachyah, Y’hudah and Eli’ezer.

Ezra 10:24 Of the singers: Elyashiv. Of the gatekeepers: Shalum, Telem and Uri.

Ezra 10:25 Of Isra’el: of the descendants of Par’osh: Ramyah, Yizziyah, Malkiyah, Miyamin, El’azar, Malkiyah and B’nayah;

Ezra 10:26 of the descendants of ‘Eilam: Mattanyah, Z’kharyah, Yechi’el, ‘Avdi, Yeremot and Eliyah;

Ezra 10:27 of the descendants of Zatu: Elyo’einai, Elyashiv, Mattanyah, Yeremot, Zavad and ‘Aziza;

Ezra 10:28 of the descendants of B’vai: Y’hochanan, Hananyah, Zabai and ‘Atlai;

Ezra 10:29 of the descendants of Bani: Meshulam, Malukh, ‘Adayah, Yashuv, Sh’al and Ramot;

Ezra 10:30 of the descendants of Pachat-Mo’av: ‘Adna, K’lal, B’nayah, Ma’aseiyah, Mattanyah, B’tzal’el, Binui and M’nasheh;

Ezra 10:31 of the descendants of Harim: Eli’ezer, Yishiyah, Malkiyah, Sh’ma’yah, Shim’on,

Ezra 10:32 Binyamin, Malukh, and Sh’maryah;

Ezra 10:33 of the descendants of Hashum: Matnai, Matatah, Zavad, Elifelet, Yeremai, M’nasheh and Shim’i;

Ezra 10:34 of the descendants of Bani: Ma’adai, ‘Amram, U’el,

Ezra 10:35 B’nayah, Bedyah, K’luhu,

Ezra 10:36 Vanyah, M’remot, Elyashiv,

Ezra 10:37 Mattanyah, Matnai, Ya’asai,

Ezra 10:38 Bani, Binui, Shim’i,

Ezra 10:39 Shelemyah, Natan, ‘Adayah,

Ezra 10:40 Makhnavdai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezra 10:41 ‘Azar’el, Shelemyah, Sh’maryah,

Ezra 10:42 Shalum, Amaryah and Yosef; and

Ezra 10:43 of the descendants of N’vo: Ye’i’el, Mattityah, Zavad, Z’vina, Yadai, Yo’el and B’nayah.

Ezra 10:44 All these had taken foreign wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had had children.

Nehemiah

1:1 The words of Nechemyah the son of Hakhalyah: It was in the month of Kislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the capital,

Nehemiah 1:2 that Hanani, one of my kinsmen, came out of Y’hudah with some men; and I asked them about the remnant of Judeans who had escaped the exile, and about Yerushalayim.

Nehemiah 1:3 They answered me, “The remnant of the exile left there in the province are in great distress and are held in contempt, the wall of Yerushalayim is in ruins, and its gates have been completely burned up.”

Nehemiah 1:4 On hearing this answer, I sat down and wept; I mourned for several days, fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 1:5 I said, “Please, ADONAI! God of heaven! You great and fearsome God, who keeps his covenant and extends grace to those who love him and observe his [mitzvot]!

Nehemiah 1:6 Let your ear now be attentive and your eyes be open, so that you will listen to the prayer of your servant, which I am praying before you these days, day and night, for the people of Isra’el your servants- even as I confess the sins of the people of Isra’el that we have committed against you. Yes, I and my father’s house have sinned.

Nehemiah 1:7 We have deeply offended you. We haven’t observed the [mitzvot], laws or rulings you ordered your servant Moshe.

Nehemiah 1:8 Remember, please, the word you gave through your servant Moshe, ‘If you break faith, I will scatter you among the peoples;

Nehemiah 1:9 but if you return to me, observe my [mitzvot] and obey them, then, even if your scattered ones are in the most distant part of heaven, nevertheless, I will collect them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen for bearing my name.’

Nehemiah 1:10 Now these are your servants, your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power and strong hand.

Nehemiah 1:11 [Adonai], please, let your ear now be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who take joy in fearing your name: please let your servant succeed today and win this man’s compassion”- for I was the king’s personal attendant.

Nehemiah 2:1 In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of Artach’shashta the king, it happened that I took the wine and brought it to the king. Prior to then I had never appeared sad in his presence.

Nehemiah 2:2 The king asked, “Why do you look so sad? You’re not sick, so this must be some deep inner grief.” At this, I became very fearful,

Nehemiah 2:3 as I said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why shouldn’t I look sad, when the city, the place where my ancestors’ tombs are, lies in ruins; and its gates are completely burned up?”

Nehemiah 2:4 The king asked me, “What is it that you want?” I prayed to the God of heaven,

Nehemiah 2:5 then said to the king, “If it pleases the king, if your servant has won your favor, send me to Y’hudah, to the city of my ancestors’ tombs, so that I can rebuild it.”

Nehemiah 2:6 With the queen sitting next to him, the king asked me, “How long is your trip going to take? When will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a time.

Nehemiah 2:7 I then said to the king, “If it pleases the king, have letters given to me for the governors of the territory beyond the [[Euphrates]] River, so that they will let me pass through until I reach Y'hudah;

Nehemiah 2:8 and also a letter for Asaf the supervisor of the royal forests, so that he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress belonging to the house, for the city wall and for the house I will be occupying." The king gave me these, according to the good hand of my God on me.

Nehemiah 2:9 I went to the governors of the territory beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. The king had sent with me an escort of army captains and cavalry.

Nehemiah 2:10 When Sanvalat the Horoni and Toviyah the servant, the 'Amoni, heard about this, they were very displeased that someone had come to promote the welfare of the people of Isra'el.

Nehemiah 2:11 So I reached Yerushalayim. After I had been there for three days,

Nehemiah 2:12 I got up during the night, I and a few men with me. I hadn't told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Yerushalayim; and I didn't take any animal with me except the animal on which I was riding.

Nehemiah 2:13 I went out by night through the Valley Gate, to the Dragon's Well and the Dung Gate, and inspected the places where the walls of Yerushalayim were broken down and where its gates had been burned down.

Nehemiah 2:14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but there was no room for the animal under me to pass.

Nehemiah 2:15 So I went up the valley in the dark and went on inspecting the wall; then I turned back, entered through the Valley Gate and returned,

Nehemiah 2:16 without the officials' knowing where I had gone or what I had done. Till then, I hadn't said anything about this to the Judeans, [cohanim], nobles, officials or anyone who would be responsible for the work.

Nehemiah 2:17 Afterwards, I said to them, "You see what a sad state we are in, how Yerushalayim lies in ruins, with it gates burned up. Come, let's rebuild the wall of Yerushalayim, so that we won't continue in disgrace."

Nehemiah 2:18 I also told them of the gracious hand of my God that had been on me, also what the king had said to me. They said, "Let's start building at once," and energetically set out to do this good work.

Nehemiah 2:19 When Sanvalat the Horoni, Toviyah the servant, the 'Amoni, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they began mocking us and jeering, "What is this you are doing? Are you going to rebel against the king?"

Nehemiah 2:20 But I answered them: “The God of heaven will enable us to succeed. Therefore we his servants will set about rebuilding. But you have no share, right or history to commemorate in Yerushalayim.”

Nehemiah 3:1 Then Elyashiv the [cohen hagadol] set out with his fellow [cohanim], and they rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set up its doors; they consecrated it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and on to the Tower of Hanan’el.

Nehemiah 3:2 Next to him the men from Yericho built. Next to him Zakur the son of Imri built.

Nehemiah 3:3 The sons of Hasna’ah rebuilt the Fish Gate; they installed its timber framework and set up its doors, along with its bolts and bars.

Nehemiah 3:4 Next to them M’remot the son of Uriyah, the son of Hakotz, made repairs. Next to them Meshulam the son of Berekhyah, the son of Mesheizav’el, made repairs. Next to them Tzadok the son of Ba’ana made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:5 Next to them the men from T’koa made repairs; but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work of their Lord.

Nehemiah 3:6 Yoyada the son of Paseach and Meshulam the son of B’sodyah made repairs to the Old City Gate; they installed its timber framework and set up its doors, along with its bolts and bars.

Nehemiah 3:7 Next to them M’latyah the Giv’oni, Yadon the Meronoti and the men from Giv’on and Mitzpah made repairs; they worked for the people associated with the governor of the territory beyond the [[Euphrates]] River.

Nehemiah 3:8 Next to them ‘Uzi’el the son of Harhayah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him Hananyah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs; they renovated Yerushalayim as far as the Broad Wall.

Nehemiah 3:9 Next to them Refayah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Yerushalayim, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:10 Next to him Y’dayah the son of Harumaf made repairs opposite his own house. Next to him Hatush the son of Hashavn’yah made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:11 Malkiyah the son of Harim and Hashuv the son of Pachat-Mo’av made repairs on another section and on the Tower of the Ovens.

Nehemiah 3:12 Next to him Shalum the son of HaLochesh, leader of half the district of Yerushalayim, he and his daughters, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:13 Hanun and the people living in Zanoach repaired the Valley Gate; they rebuilt it and set up its doors, along with its bolts and bars; and they rebuilt 1,500 feet of the wall, as far as the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 3:14 Malkiyah the son of Rechav, leader of the district of Beit-Hakerem, repaired the Dung Gate; he rebuilt it and set up its doors, along with its bolts and bars.

Nehemiah 3:15 Shalun the son of Kol-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mitzpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he rebuilt it, covered it and set up its doors, along with its bolts and bars; he also rebuilt the wall of the Pool of Shelach, by the royal garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

Nehemiah 3:16 After him Nechemyah the son of Azbuk, leader of half the district of Beit-Tzur, made repairs from the place opposite the tombs of David as far as the artificial pool and the soldiers' barracks.

Nehemiah 3:17 After him the [L'vi'im] made repairs: Rechum the son of Bani; next to him Hashavyah, leader of half the district of Ke'ilah, made repairs for his district.

Nehemiah 3:18 After him their colleagues, Bavai the son of Henadad, leader of half the district of Ke'ilah, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:19 Next to him 'Ezer the son of Yeshua, leader of Mitzpah, made repairs on another section, opposite the ascent to the armory at the Angle.

Nehemiah 3:20 After him Barukh the son of Zakkai worked diligently making repairs on another section, from the Angle to the door of the house of Elyashiv the [cohen hagadol].

Nehemiah 3:21 After him M'remot the son of Uriyah made repairs on another section, from the door of the house of Elyashiv to the end of the house of Elyashiv.

Nehemiah 3:22 After him the [cohanim] from the plain made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:23 After them Binyamin and Hashuv made repairs opposite their house. After them 'Azaryah the son of Ma'aseiyah, the son of 'Ananyah, made repairs next to his house.

Nehemiah 3:24 After him Binui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of 'Azaryah to the Angle and to the Corner.

Nehemiah 3:25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the Angle and the tower that projects out from the upper part of the royal palace near the Courtyard of the Guard. After him P'dayah the son of Par'osh made repairs

Nehemiah 3:26 (since the temple servants were living in the 'Ofel) as far as opposite the Water Gate to the east and the tower that projects out.

Nehemiah 3:27 After him the men from T'koa repaired another section, opposite the great tower that projects out and on to the wall of the 'Ofel.

Nehemiah 3:28 Above the Horse Gate the [cohanim] made repairs, each one opposite his own house.

Nehemiah 3:29 After them Tzadok the son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. After him Sh’ma’yah the son of Sh’khanyah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:30 After him Hananyah the son of Shelemyah and Hanun the sixth son of Tzalaf made repairs on another section. After him Meshulam the son of Berekhyah made repairs opposite his own room.

Nehemiah 3:31 After him Malkiyah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Mustering Gate and on to the upper room at the corner.

Nehemiah 3:32 Finally, between the upper room at the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:33 But when Sanvalat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he was furious. Greatly enraged, he ridiculed the Judeans;

Nehemiah 3:34 before his kinsmen and the army of Shomron he said, “What are these pathetic Judeans doing? Are they going to rebuild anything they want? Are they going to sacrifice? Are they going to finish today? Are they going to recover useful stones from the piles of rubble, burned rubble at that?”

Nehemiah 3:35 Toviyah the ‘Amoni was with him, and he said, “Whatever they’re building, why, if even a fox went up it, he’d knock their stone wall down!”

Nehemiah 3:36 Our God, listen! We are being treated with contempt. Turn back their jeers on their own heads; give them over to be plundered in a land of exile.

Nehemiah 3:37 Don’t cover their guilt, don’t let their sin be wiped out from before you; because they have insulted the builders to their face.

Nehemiah 3:38 So we kept building the wall, which was soon joined together and completed to half its height all the way around; because the people worked with a will.

Nehemiah 4:1 But when Sanvalat, Toviyah, the Arabs, the ‘Amonim and the Ashdodim heard that the repairs on the walls of Yerushalayim were going forward, and the breaks were being filled in, they became very angry.

Nehemiah 4:2 All of them together plotted to come and fight against Yerushalayim and thus throw us into confusion.

Nehemiah 4:3 However, we prayed to our God and, because of them, organized a watch against them day and night.

Nehemiah 4:4 Y’hudah was saying, “The strength of the people who carry loads away is starting to fail, and there is so much rubble that we can’t build the wall.”

Nehemiah 4:5 Our enemies were saying, “They won’t know or see anything, until we have already infiltrated them and begun killing them and stopping the work.”

Nehemiah 4:6 And even the Judeans living near them came and must have said to us ten times, “From every place you must come back to us.”

Nehemiah 4:7 So in the lower parts of the space behind the wall, I stationed men according to their families, with their swords, spears and bows.

Nehemiah 4:8 After inspecting them, I stood up and addressed the nobles, leaders and the rest of the people: “Don’t be afraid of them! Remember [Adonai], who is great and fearful; and fight for your brothers, sons, daughters, wives and homes.”

Nehemiah 4:9 When our enemies heard that the plot was known to us, and God had foiled their plans, we all returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

Nehemiah 4:10 From then on, half of my men would do the work; and half of them held the spears, shields, bows and armor; while the leaders stood guard behind the entire house of Y’hudah,

Nehemiah 4:11 as they continued building the wall. Those who carried loads held their loads with one hand and carried a weapon in the other.

Nehemiah 4:12 As for the construction-workers, each one had his sword sheathed at his side; that is how they built. The man to sound the alarm on the [shofar] stayed with me.

Nehemiah 4:13 I said to the nobles, the leaders and the rest of the people, “This is a great work, and it is spread out; we are separated on the wall, one far from another.

Nehemiah 4:14 But wherever you are, when you hear the sound of the [shofar], come to that place, to us. Our God will fight for us!”

Nehemiah 4:15 So we kept doing the work. Half of them held spears from daybreak until the stars appeared.

Nehemiah 4:16 Also at that time I told the people, “Let everyone with a servant stay the night within Yerushalayim, so that at night they can be a guard for us, even as they work during the day.”

Nehemiah 4:17 I, my kinsmen, my servants and my bodyguards never took off our clothes, and everyone who went to get water took his weapon.

Nehemiah 5:1 Then there arose a great outcry from the common people and their wives against their brothers the [[wealthier]] Judeans.

Nehemiah 5:2 Some of them said, “Counting our sons and daughters, there are a lot of us! Allow us to get grain for them, so that we can eat and stay alive.”

Nehemiah 5:3 There were also some who said, “We are mortgaging our fields, vineyards and homes in order to buy grain, because of the famine.”

Nehemiah 5:4 Yet others said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s taxes against our fields and vineyards.

Nehemiah 5:5 Now our flesh is no different from the flesh of our kinsmen, and our children are the same as their children; yet we are bringing our sons and daughters into bondage as slaves. Some of our daughters have gone into slavery already, and it’s beyond our power to do anything about it, because other men have our fields and vineyards.”

Nehemiah 5:6 When I heard their outcry and the reasons for it, I became very angry.

Nehemiah 5:7 I thought the matter over and then took issue with the nobles and rulers. I charged them, “You are lending against pledges, everyone to his brother”; and I summoned a great assembly to deal with them.

Nehemiah 5:8 I said to them, “We, to the limit of our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Judeans who sold themselves to the pagans. Now you are selling your own brothers, and we will have to buy them back!” They stayed silent; they couldn’t think of anything to say.

Nehemiah 5:9 I also said, “What you are doing is not good! You should be living in fear of our God, so that our pagan enemies won’t have grounds for deriding us.

Nehemiah 5:10 Moreover, my brothers and my servants, I too have loaned them money and grain. Please, let’s stop making it so burdensome to go into debt.

Nehemiah 5:11 Please! Today! Give them back their fields, vineyards, olive groves and homes; also the hundred pieces of silver and the grain, wine and olive oil you demand from them as interest.”

Nehemiah 5:12 They answered, “We will give it back. We will require nothing from them. Yes, we will do it, just as you say.” Then I called the [cohanim] and took an oath from them that they would do as they had promised.

Nehemiah 5:13 Shaking out the fold in my garment, I said, “May God thus shake every man from his house and from his work who fails to live up to this promise- may he be shaken out like this and made empty.” The whole assembly said, “[Amen]!” and praised ADONAI; and the people did as they had promised.

Nehemiah 5:14 Besides that, from the time I was appointed their governor in the land of Y’hudah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of Artach’shashta the king- that is, for twelve years- neither I nor my colleagues drew on the governor’s living allowance.

Nehemiah 5:15 The earlier governors, before me, had burdened the people, taxing them more than one-and-a-half pounds of silver [shekel]s for food and wine; and even their servants lorded it over the people. But I didn't, because I feared God.

Nehemiah 5:16 Moreover, I put all my energy into working on this wall. We didn't buy any land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

Nehemiah 5:17 There were 150 leaders and other Judeans who ate at my table, besides those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

Nehemiah 5:18 Every day one ox, six choice sheep, and fowl were prepared for me, and every ten days a supply of all kinds of wine. Yet in spite of all this, I never claimed the governor's allowance, because the people were already bearing the heavy burden of their labor.

Nehemiah 5:19 My God, remember favorably everything I have done for this people!

Nehemiah 6:1 When it was reported to Sanvalat, Toviyah, Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and that not a single gap was left in it- although up to that time I hadn't yet set up the doors in the gateways-

Nehemiah 6:2 Sanvalat and Geshem sent me a message which said, "Come, let's meet together in one of the villages of the Ono Valley." But they were planning to do me harm;

Nehemiah 6:3 so I sent them messengers with this message: "I'm too busy with important work to come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to come down to you?"

Nehemiah 6:4 They kept sending this sort of message to me- four times- and I answered them the same way.

Nehemiah 6:5 The fifth time, with the same purpose, Sanvalat sent his servant to me with an open letter in his hand,

Nehemiah 6:6 in which was written: "It is reported among the nations, and Geshem says it too, that you and the Judeans are planning a revolt, that this is why you are rebuilding the wall, and that you intend to be their king," and similar words;

Nehemiah 6:7 "moreover, that you have also appointed prophets to proclaim about you in Yerushalayim, 'There is a king in Y'hudah!' A report along these lines is now going to be made to the king. Come now, therefore, and let's discuss this."

Nehemiah 6:8 I sent him this answer; "Nothing like what you are saying is being done. You're making it all up in your head."

Nehemiah 6:9 They were all just trying to scare us, thinking, "This will sap their strength and keep them from working." But now, [[God,]] increase my strength!

Nehemiah 6:10 One day, when I went to the house of Sh’ma’yah the son of D’layah, the son of M’heitav’el, where he was confined, he said, “Let’s meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let’s shut the doors of the temple. For they are going to come and try to assassinate you; yes, they will come at night to kill you.”

Nehemiah 6:11 I replied, “Should a man like me run away? Can a man like me go into the temple to save his life? I refuse to go in.”

Nehemiah 6:12 Then I realized that God had not sent him, that he was making this prophecy against me, and that Toviyah and Sanvalat had bribed him to say it.

Nehemiah 6:13 He had been hired to frighten me into following his suggestion and thus sin, so that they would have material for their unfavorable report about me and could taunt me with it.

Nehemiah 6:14 My God, remember Toviyah and Sanvalat according to their deeds, also the prophet No’adyah and the other prophets trying to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 6:15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

Nehemiah 6:16 When all our enemies heard about it and the surrounding nations became afraid, our enemies’ self-esteem fell severely; because they realized that this work had been accomplished by our God.

Nehemiah 6:17 During this same period of time, the nobles of Y’hudah sent many letters to Toviyah, and Toviyah kept sending them replies.

Nehemiah 6:18 For there were many in Y’hudah who had sworn allegiance to him, because he was the son-in-law of Sh’khanyah the son of Arach, and his son Y’hochanan had taken as his wife the daughter of Meshulam the son of Berekhyah.

Nehemiah 6:19 They would even praise his good deeds in my presence, and they passed on my words to him. And Toviyah kept sending letters to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 7:1 After the wall had been rebuilt, and I had set up its doors, and the gatekeepers, singers and [L’vi’im] had been appointed,

Nehemiah 7:2 I put my kinsman Hanani in charge of Yerushalayim, along with Hananyah the commander of the citadel. For he was a faithful man, and he feared God more than most.

Nehemiah 7:3 I said to them, “The gates of Yerushalayim are not to be opened until the sun is hot; and while the gatekeepers are still on duty, have them shut the doors; and you, put up the bars. Appoint watchmen from among those living in Yerushalayim; assign each one his time to guard, and have each one serving near his own house.”

Nehemiah 7:4 The city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and the houses had not been rebuilt.

Nehemiah 7:5 My God put it in my heart to assemble the nobles, the leaders and the people, so that they could be registered according to their genealogies. I located the record of the genealogies of those who had come up at the beginning and found written in it:

Nehemiah 7:6 “Here is a list of the people of the province who had been exiled, carried off to Bavel by N’vukhadnetzar king of Bavel, but who later returned from exile and went up to Yerushalayim and Y’hudah, each to his own city;

Nehemiah 7:7 they went with Z’rubavel, Yeshua, Nechemyah, ‘Azaryah, Ra’amyah, Nachmani, Mordekhai, Bilshan, Misperet, Bigvai, N’chum and Ba’anah. “The number of men from the people of Isra’el:

Nehemiah 7:8 descendants of Par’osh 2,172

Nehemiah 7:9 descendants of Sh’fatyah 372

Nehemiah 7:10 descendants of Arach 652

Nehemiah 7:11 descendants of Pachat-Mo’av, from the descendants of Yeshua and Yo’av 2,818

Nehemiah 7:12 descendants of ‘Eilam 1,254

Nehemiah 7:13 descendants of Zatu 845

Nehemiah 7:14 descendants of Zakkai 760

Nehemiah 7:15 descendants of Binui 648

Nehemiah 7:16 descendants of B’vai 628

Nehemiah 7:17 descendants of ‘Azgad 2,322

Nehemiah 7:18 descendants of Adonikam 667

Nehemiah 7:19 descendants of Bigvai 2,067

Nehemiah 7:20 descendants of ‘Adin 655

Nehemiah 7:21 descendants of Ater, of Y’chizkiyah 98

Nehemiah 7:22 descendants of Hashum 328

Nehemiah 7:23 descendants of Betzai 324

Nehemiah 7:24 descendants of Harif 112

Nehemiah 7:25 descendants of Giv’on 95

Nehemiah 7:26 people of Beit-Lechem and N’tofah 188

Nehemiah 7:27 people of ‘Anatot 128

Nehemiah 7:28 people of Beit-’Azmavet 42

Nehemiah 7:29 people of Kiryat-Ye’arim, K’firah and Be’erot 743

Nehemiah 7:30 people of Ramah and Geva 621

Nehemiah 7:31 people of Mikhmas 122

Nehemiah 7:32 people of Beit-El and ‘Ai 123

Nehemiah 7:33 people from the other N’vo 52

Nehemiah 7:34 people from the other ‘Eilam 1,254

Nehemiah 7:35 descendants of Harim 320

Nehemiah 7:36 descendants of Yericho 345

Nehemiah 7:37 descendants of Lod, Hadid and Ono 721

Nehemiah 7:38 descendants of S’na’ah 3,930

Nehemiah 7:39 “The [cohanim]: descendants of Y’da’yah, of the house of Yeshua 973

Nehemiah 7:40 descendants of Immer 1,052

Nehemiah 7:41 descendants of Pash’chur 1,247

Nehemiah 7:42 descendants of Harim 1,017

Nehemiah 7:43 “The [L’vi’im]: descendants of Yeshua, of Kadmi’el, of the descendants of Hodvah 74

Nehemiah 7:44 “The singers: descendants of Asaf 148

Nehemiah 7:45 “The gatekeepers: descendants of Shalum, descendants of Ater, descendants of Talmon, descendants of ‘Akuv, descendants of Hatita, and descendants of Shovai 138

Nehemiah 7:46 “The temple servants: descendants of Tzicha, descendants of Hasufa, descendants of Taba’ot,

Nehemiah 7:47 descendants of Keros, descendants of Si’a, descendants of Padon,

Nehemiah 7:48 descendants of L’vanah, descendants of Hagava, descendants of Salmai,

Nehemiah 7:49 descendants of Hanan, descendants of Giddel, descendants of Gachar,

Nehemiah 7:50 descendants of Re’ayah, descendants of Retzin, descendants of N’koda,

Nehemiah 7:51 descendants of Gazam, descendants of ‘Uza, descendants of Paseach,

Nehemiah 7:52 descendants of Besai, descendants of Me’unim, descendants of N’fish’sim,

Nehemiah 7:53 descendants of Bakbuk, descendants of Hakufa, descendants of Harhur,

Nehemiah 7:54 descendants of Batzlit, descendants of M’chida, descendants of Harsha,

Nehemiah 7:55 descendants of Barkos, descendants of Sisra, descendants of Temach,

Nehemiah 7:56 descendants of N’tziach, and descendants of Hatifa.

Nehemiah 7:57 “The descendants of Shlomo’s servants: descendants of Sotai, descendants of Soferet, descendants of P’rida, Nehemiah 7:58 descendants of Ya’lah, descendants of Darkon, descendants of Giddel, Nehemiah 7:59 descendants of Sh’fatyah, descendants of Hatil, descendants of Pokheret-Hatzvayim, and descendants of Amon.

Nehemiah 7:60 “All the temple servants and the descendants of Shlomo’s servants numbered 392

Nehemiah 7:61 “The following went up from Tel-Melach, Tel-Harsha, K’ruv, Adon and Immer; but they could not state which fathers’ clan they and their children belonged to, [[so it was not clear]] whether they were from Isra’el:

Nehemiah 7:62 descendants of D’layah, descendants of Toviyah, and descendants of N’koda 642

Nehemiah 7:63 and of the [cohanim]: descendants of Havayah, descendants of Hakotz, and descendants of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gil’adi and was named after them.

Nehemiah 7:64 “These tried to locate their geneaolgical records, but they weren’t found. Therefore they were considered defiled and were not allowed to serve as [cohanim].

Nehemiah 7:65 The [Tirshata] told them not to eat any of the especially holy food until a [cohen] appeared who could consult the [urim] and [tumim].

Nehemiah 7:66 “The entire assembly numbered 42,360,

Nehemiah 7:67 not including their male and female slaves, of whom there were 7,337. They also had 245 male and female singers.

Nehemiah 7:68 Their horses numbered 736; their mules, 245;*

Nehemiah 7:69 their camels, 435; and their donkeys, 6,720.

Nehemiah 7:70 “Some from among the heads of fathers’ clans made contributions for the work. The [Tirshata] contributed to the treasury a thousand gold [darkmonim] [[twenty-one pounds]], fifty basins and 530 tunics for the [cohanim.]

Nehemiah 7:71 Some of the heads of fathers’ clans gave into the treasury for the work 20,000 gold [darkmonim] [] and 2,200 silver [manim] [[one-and-a-third tons]][.]

Nehemiah 7:72 The rest of the people gave 20,000 gold [darkmonim], 2,000 silver [manim] [[about one-and-a-quarter tons]] and sixty-seven tunics for the [cohanim].

Nehemiah 7:73 “So the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im], the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants and all Isra’el lived in their towns.” When the seventh month arrived, after the people of Isra’el had resettled in their towns,

Nehemiah 8:1 all the people gathered with one accord in the open space in front of the Water Gate and asked ‘Ezra the [Torah-]teacher to bring the scroll of the [Torah] of Moshe, which ADONAI had commanded Isra’el.

Nehemiah 8:2 ‘Ezra the [cohen] brought the [Torah] before the assembly, which consisted of men, women and all children old enough to understand. It was the first day of the seventh month.

Nehemiah 8:3 Facing the open space in front of the Water Gate, he read from it to the men, the women and the children who could understand from early morning until noon; and all the people listened attentively to the scroll of the [Torah].

Nehemiah 8:4 ‘Ezra the [Torah]-teacher stood on a wood platform which they had made for the purpose; beside him on his right stood Mattityah, Shema, ‘Anayah, Uriyah, Hilkiyah and Ma’aseiyah; while on his left were P’dayah, Misha’el, Malkiyah, Hashum, Hashbadanah, Z’kharyah and Meshulam.

Nehemiah 8:5 ‘Ezra opened the scroll where all the people could see him, because he was higher than all the people; when he opened it, all the people rose to their feet.

Nehemiah 8:6 ‘Ezra blessed ADONAI, the great God; and all the people answered, “[Amen]! [Amen]!” as they lifted up their hands, bowed their heads and fell prostrate before ADONAI with their faces to the ground.

Nehemiah 8:7 The [L’vi’im] Yeshua, Bani, Sherevyah, Yamin, ‘Akuv, Shabtai, Hodiyah, Ma’aseiyah, K’lita, ‘Azaryah, Yozavad, Hanan and P’layah explained the [Torah] to the people, while the people remained in their places.

Nehemiah 8:8 They read clearly from the scroll, in the [Torah] of God, translated it, and enabled them to understand the sense of what was being read.

Nehemiah 8:9 Nechemyah the [Tirshata], ‘Ezra the [cohen] and [Torah]-teacher and the [L’vi’im] who taught the people said to all the people, “Today is consecrated to ADONAI your God; don’t be mournful, don’t weep.” For all the people had been weeping when they heard the words of the [Torah].

Nehemiah 8:10 Then he said to them, “Go, eat rich food, drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those who can’t provide for themselves; for today is consecrated to our Lord. Don’t be sad, because the joy of ADONAI is your strength.”

Nehemiah 8:11 In this way the [L’vi’im] quieted the people, as they said, “Be quiet, for today is holy; don’t be sad.”

Nehemiah 8:12 Then the people went off to eat, drink, send portions and celebrate; because they had understood the words that had been proclaimed to them.

Nehemiah 8:13 On the second day, the heads of fathers' clans of all the people assembled with the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] before 'Ezra the [Torah]-teacher to study the words of the [Torah].

Nehemiah 8:14 They found written in the [Torah] that ADONAI had ordered through Moshe that the people of Isra'el were to live in [sukkot] during the feast of the seventh month;

Nehemiah 8:15 and that they were to announce and pass the word in all their cities and in Yerushalayim, "Go out to the mountains, and collect branches of olives, wild olives, myrtles, palms, and other leafy trees to make [sukkot], as prescribed."

Nehemiah 8:16 So the people went out, brought them and made [sukkot] for themselves, each one on the roof of his house, also in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the house of God, in the open space by the Water Gate and in the open space by the Efrayim Gate.

Nehemiah 8:17 The entire community of those who had returned from the exile made [sukkot] and lived in the[sukkot], for the people of Isra'el had not done this since the days of Yeshua the son of Nun. So there was very great joy.

Nehemiah 8:18 Also they read every day, from the first day until the last day, in the scroll of the [Torah] of God. They kept the feast for seven days; then on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.

Nehemiah 9:1 On the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Isra'el, wearing sackcloth and with dirt on them, assembled for a fast.

Nehemiah 9:2 Those descended from Isra'el separated themselves from all foreigners; then they stood up and confessed their own sins and the iniquities of their ancestors.

Nehemiah 9:3 Standing where they were, they read in the scroll of the [Torah] of ADONAI their God for one-quarter of the day. For another quarter they confessed and prostrated themselves before ADONAI their God.

Nehemiah 9:4 On the platform of the [L'vi'im] stood Yeshua, Bani, Kadmi'el, Sh'vanyah, Buni, Sherevyah, Bani and K'nani; they cried out loudly to ADONAI their God.

Nehemiah 9:5 Then the [L'vi'im] Yeshua, Kadmi'el, Bani, Hashavn'yah, Sherevyah, Hodiyah, Sh'vanyah and P'tachyah said, "Stand up, and bless ADONAI your God from everlasting to everlasting; let them say: "'Blessed be your glorious name, exalted above all blessing and praise!

Nehemiah 9:6 "'You are ADONAI, you alone. You made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their array, the earth and all the things that are in it, the seas and all that is in them; and you preserve them all. The army of heaven worships you.

Nehemiah 9:7 “‘You are ADONAI, the God who chose Avram, brought him out of Ur-Kasdim and gave him the name of Avraham.

Nehemiah 9:8 Finding that he was faithful to you, you made a covenant with him to give the land of the Kena’ani, the Hitti, Emori and P’rizi, the Y’vusi and the Girgashi, to give it to his descendants; and you have done what you promised, because you are just.

Nehemiah 9:9 “‘You saw the distress of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cry by the Sea of Suf.

Nehemiah 9:10 You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his servants and the people of the land; for you knew how arrogantly they treated them; and you won yourself a name which is yours to this day.

Nehemiah 9:11 You divided the sea ahead of them, so that they could pass through the sea on dry land; then you hurled their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into turbulent waters.

Nehemiah 9:12 “‘In a column of cloud you led them by day, and by night in a column of fire, so that they would have light ahead of them on the way that they were to go.

Nehemiah 9:13 “‘You descended on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them right rulings and true teachings, good laws and [mitzvot].

Nehemiah 9:14 You revealed to them your holy [Shabbat] and gave them [mitzvot], laws and the [Torah] through Moshe your servant.

Nehemiah 9:15 “‘For their hunger you gave them bread from heaven; for their thirst you brought forth for them water from the rock. You ordered them to enter and possess the land you had sworn with your hand to give them.

Nehemiah 9:16 “‘But they and our ancestors were arrogant; they stiffened their necks and ignored your [mitzvot];

Nehemiah 9:17 they refused to listen and paid no attention to the wonders you had done among them. No, they stiffened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a leader to return them to their slavery. But because you are a God of forgiveness, merciful, full of compassion, slow to grow angry and full of grace, you did not abandon them.

Nehemiah 9:18 Even when they cast themselves a metal calf, saying of it, “This is your god that brought you up from Egypt,” and committing other gross provocations;

Nehemiah 9:19 still, you, in your great compassion, did not abandon them in the desert. The column of cloud did not leave them by day; it kept leading them along the way. By night the column of fire kept showing them light and the path to take.

Nehemiah 9:20 You also gave your good Spirit to teach them, did not withhold [man] from their mouths and provided them water to quench their thirst.

Nehemiah 9:21 Yes, forty years you sustained them in the desert; they lacked nothing- their clothes did not wear out; their feet did not swell up.

Nehemiah 9:22 “‘You gave them kingdoms and peoples; you even gave them extra land, so that they took possession of the land of Sichon, also the land of the king of Heshbon and the land of ‘Og king of Bashan.

Nehemiah 9:23 You made their children as numerous as the countless stars in the sky. “‘Then you brought them into the land about which you had said to their fathers that they should go in and take possession of it.

Nehemiah 9:24 So the children went in and possessed the land, as you subdued ahead of them the Kena’ani living in the land, and handed them over to them, along with their kings and the peoples of the land, for them to do with as they wished.

Nehemiah 9:25 They took fortified cities and fertile land, possessed houses full of all kinds of good things, dug-out cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, fruit trees in plenty; so they ate their fill and grew robust, luxuriating in your great goodness.

Nehemiah 9:26 “‘Yet they disobeyed and rebelled against you, throwing your [Torah] behind their backs. They killed your prophets for warning them that they should return to you and committed other gross provocations.

Nehemiah 9:27 So you handed them over to the power of their adversaries, who oppressed them. Yet in the time of their trouble, when they cried out to you, you heard from heaven, and in keeping with your great compassion, you gave them saviors to save them from the power of their adversaries.

Nehemiah 9:28 But as soon as they had gotten some relief, they went back to do evil before you. So you left them in the power of their enemies, who came down hard on them. Yet when they returned and cried out to you, you heard from heaven many times and saved them, according to your compassion.

Nehemiah 9:29 You warned them, in order to bring them back to your [Torah]; yet they were arrogant. They paid no attention to your [mitzvot], but sinned against your rulings, which, if a person does them, he will have life through them. However, they stubbornly turned their shoulders, stiffened their necks and refused to hear.

Nehemiah 9:30 Many years you extended them mercy and warned them by your Spirit through your prophets; yet they would not listen. Therefore you handed them over to the peoples of the lands.

Nehemiah 9:31 Even so, in your great compassion, you didn't completely destroy them; nor did you abandon them, for you are a compassionate and merciful God.

Nehemiah 9:32 "'Now therefore, our God, great, mighty, fearsome God, who keeps both covenant and grace: let not all this suffering seem little to you that has come on us, our kings, our leaders, our [cohanim], our prophets, our ancestors, and on all your people, from the times of the kings of Ashur until this very day.

Nehemiah 9:33 There is no question that you are just in all that has come upon us; for you have treated us fairly. It is we who have acted wickedly.

Nehemiah 9:34 Our kings, our leaders, our [cohanim] and ancestors did not keep your [Torah], pay attention to your [mitzvot] or heed the warnings you gave them.

Nehemiah 9:35 Even when they ruled their own kingdom, even when you prospered them greatly, in the great, rich land you gave them, they did not serve you; nor did they turn from their wicked deeds.

Nehemiah 9:36 "'So here we are today, slaves. Yes, in the land you gave our ancestors, so that they could eat what it produces and enjoy its good- here we are in it, slaves!

Nehemiah 9:37 Its rich yield now goes to the kings you have set over us because of our sins; they have power over our bodies, they can do what they please to our livestock, and we are in great distress!

Nehemiah 10:1 "'In view of all this, we are making a binding covenant, putting it in writing and having it sealed by our leaders, our [L'vi'im] and our [cohanim].'"

Nehemiah 10:2 On the sealed document were the names of: Nechemyah the [Tirshata] the son of Hakhalyah, Tzedekyah,

Nehemiah 10:3 S'rayah, 'Azaryah, Yirmeyah,

Nehemiah 10:4 Pash'chur, Amaryah, Malkiyah,

Nehemiah 10:5 Hatush, Sh'vanyah, Malukh,

Nehemiah 10:6 Harim, M'remot, 'Ovadyah,

Nehemiah 10:7 Dani'el, Ginton, Barukh,

Nehemiah 10:8 Meshulam, Aviyah, Miyamin,

Nehemiah 10:9 Ma'azyah, Bilgai and Sh'ma'yah. These were the [cohanim].

Nehemiah 10:10 The [L'vi'im] were: Yeshua the son of Azanyah, Binui a descendant of Henadad, Kadmi'el,

Nehemiah 10:11 and their kinsmen Sh'vanyah, Hodiyah, K'lita, P'layah, Hanan,

Nehemiah 10:12 Mikha, Rechov, Hashavyah, Nehemiah 10:13 Zakur, Sherevyah, Sh’vanyah,

Nehemiah 10:14 Hodiyah, Bani and B’ninu.

Nehemiah 10:15 The leaders of the people: Par’osh, Pachat-Mo’av, ‘Eilam, Zatu, Bani,

Nehemiah 10:16 Buni, ‘Azgad, B’vai,

Nehemiah 10:17 Adoniyah, Bigvai, ‘Adin,

Nehemiah 10:18 Ater, Hizkiyah, ‘Azur,

Nehemiah 10:19 Hodiyah, Hashum, Betzai,

Nehemiah 10:20 Harif, ‘Anatot, Neivai,

Nehemiah 10:21 Magpi’ash, Meshulam, Hezir,

Nehemiah 10:22 Mesheizav’el, Tzadok, Yadua,

Nehemiah 10:23 P’latyah, Hanan, ‘Anayah,

Nehemiah 10:24 Hoshea, Hananyah, Hashuv,

Nehemiah 10:25 HaLochesh, Pilcha, Shovek,

Nehemiah 10:26 Rechum, Hashavnah, Ma’aseiyah,

Nehemiah 10:27 Achiyah, Hanan, ‘Anan,

Nehemiah 10:28 Malukh, Harim and Ba’anah.

Nehemiah 10:29 The rest of the people, the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im], the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the [Torah] of God, along with their wives, sons and daughters, everyone capable of knowing and understanding,

Nehemiah 10:30 joined their kinsmen and their leaders in swearing an oath, accompanied by a curse [[in case of noncompliance]], as follows: “We will live by God’s [Torah], given by Moshe the servant of God, and will perform and obey all the [mitzvot], rulings and laws of ADONAI our Lord.

Nehemiah 10:31 “We will not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land or take their daughters as wives for our sons.

Nehemiah 10:32 “If the peoples of the lands bring merchandise or food to sell on [Shabbat], we will not buy from them on [Shabbat] or on a holy day. “We will forego [[planting and harvesting our fields]] during the seventh year and collecting debts then.

Nehemiah 10:33 “We will impose on ourselves a yearly tax of one-third of a [shekel] [[one-seventh of an ounce of silver]] for the service of the house of our God,

Nehemiah 10:34 for the showbread, for the regular grain offering, for the regular burnt offering, for [[the offerings]] on [Shabbat], on [Rosh-Hodesh], at the designated times and at other holy times, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Isra’el, and for all the work connected with the house of our God.

Nehemiah 10:35 “We, the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im] and the people, will cast lots in connection with the wood offering, so that it will be brought to the house of our God according to our fathers’ clans, at specified times, year by year, and then be burned on the altar of ADONAI our God, as prescribed in the [Torah.]

Nehemiah 10:36 “Every year we will bring the firstfruits of our land and the firstfruits of all fruit from every kind of tree to the house of [ADONAI.]

Nehemiah 10:37 “We will also bring the firstborn of our sons and of our livestock, as prescribed in the [Torah], and the firstborn of our herds and flocks, to the house of our God, to the [cohanim] ministering in the house of our God.

Nehemiah 10:38 “We will bring the first of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every kind of tree, wine and olive oil to the [cohanim] in the storerooms of the house of our God, along with the tenths from our land for the [L’vi’im]; since they, the [L’vi’im], take the tenths in all the cities where we farm.

Nehemiah 10:39 The [cohen] the descendant of Aharon is to be with the [L’vi’im] when the [L’vi’im] take tenths. The [L’vi’im] will bring the tenth of the tenth to the house of our God, to the storerooms for supplies.

Nehemiah 10:40 For the people of Isra’el and the descendants of Levi are to bring the contribution of grain, wine and olive oil to the rooms where the equipment for the sanctuary, the ministering [cohanim], the gatekeepers and the singers are. We will not abandon the house of our God.”

Nehemiah 11:1 The leaders of the people took up residence in Yerushalayim; while the rest of the people cast lots to bring one-tenth of them to live in Yerushalayim the holy city, with the other nine-tenths in the other cities.

Nehemiah 11:2 The people blessed all those who volunteered to live in Yerushalayim.

Nehemiah 11:3 In the cities of Y’hudah, everyone lived on his own property- the people of Isra’el, the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im], the temple servants and the descendants of Shlomo’s servants. But the leaders of the province lived in Yerushalayim.

Nehemiah 11:4 Some of those living in Yerushalayim were from people of Y’hudah, and others were from people of Binyamin. Those from the people of Y’hudah were: ‘Atayah the son of ‘Uziyah, the son of Z’kharyah, the son of Amaryah, the son of Sh’fatyah, the son of Mahalal’el, from the descendants of Peretz;

Nehemiah 11:5 and Ma’aseiyah the son of Barukh, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the son of Hazayah, the son of ‘Adayah, the son of Yoyariv, the son of Z’kharyah, who belonged to the family of Shelah.

Nehemiah 11:6 The total number of descendants of Peretz living in Yerushalayim was 468 courageous men.

Nehemiah 11:7 These are the people of Binyamin: Salu the son of Meshulam, the son of Yo’ed, the son of P’dayah, the son of Kolayah, the son of Ma’aseiyah, the son of Iti’el, the son of Yesha’yah.

Nehemiah 11:8 After him: Gabai, Salai; 928 in all.

Nehemiah 11:9 Yo’el the son of Zikhri was their overseer, and Y’hudah the son of Hasnu’ah was second in charge of the city.

Nehemiah 11:10 From the [cohanim]: Y’da’yah the son of Yoyariv, Yakhin,

Nehemiah 11:11 S’rayah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshulam, the son of Tzadok, the son of M’rayot, the son of Achituv, the supervisor of the house of God,

Nehemiah 11:12 and their kinsmen who did the work for the house; in all 822; and ‘Adayah the son of Yerocham, the son of P’lalyah, the son of Amtzi, the son of Z’kharyah, the son of Pash’chur, the son of Malkiyah;

Nehemiah 11:13 with his kinsmen, heads of fathers’ clans, 242; and ‘Amash’sai the son of ‘Azar’el, the son of Achzai, the son of Meshillemot, the son of Immer;

Nehemiah 11:14 with his kinsmen, courageous men, 128; their overseer was Zavdi’el the son of HaG’dolim.

Nehemiah 11:15 From the [L’vi’im]: Sh’ma’yah the son of Hashuv, the son of ‘Azrikam, the son of Hashavyah, the son of Buni,

Nehemiah 11:16 and Shabtai and Yozavad, from the leaders of the [L’vi’im], who were in charge of external affairs for the house of God;

Nehemiah 11:17 and Matanyah the son of Mikha, the son of Zavdi, the son of Asaf, the leader who began the thanksgiving prayer; and Bakbukyah, the second among his kinsmen; and ‘Avda the son of Shamua, the son of Galal, the son of Y’dutun.

Nehemiah 11:18 All the [L’vi’im] in the holy city numbered 284.

Nehemiah 11:19 The gatekeepers: ‘Akuv, Talmon and their kinsmen, who kept watch at the gates, numbered 172.

Nehemiah 11:20 The rest of Isra’el, [[the rest of]] the [cohanim] and [[the rest of]] the [L’vi’im] were in all the cities of Y’hudah, each on his own property.

Nehemiah 11:21 The temple servants lived in the ‘Ofel; Tzicha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants.

Nehemiah 11:22 The overseer of the [L’vi’im] in Yerushalayim was ‘Uzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashavyah, the son of Matanyah, the son of Mikha, from the descendants of Asaf the singers; [[he was]] in charge of the work of the house of God.

Nehemiah 11:23 For they were subject to the king's orders; and there was a fixed schedule for the singers, assigning them their daily duties.

Nehemiah 11:24 P'tachyah the son of Mesheizav'el, from the descendants of Zerach the son of Y'hudah, was the king's deputy in all affairs concerning the people.

Nehemiah 11:25 As for the villages and their surrounding fields: some of the people of Y'hudah lived in Kiryat-Arba and its villages, in Divon and its villages, in Y'kabze'el and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:26 in Yeshua, in Moladah, in Beit-Pelet,

Nehemiah 11:27 in Hatzar-Shu'al and its villages, in Be'er-Sheva and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:28 in Ziklag, in M'khonah and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:29 in 'Ein-Rimmon, in Tzor'ah, in Yarmut,

Nehemiah 11:30 Zanoach, Adulam and their villages, in Lakhish and its surrounding fields, and in 'Azekah and its villages. Thus they occupied the territory from Be'er-Sheva as far as the Hinnom Valley.

Nehemiah 11:31 The people of Binyamin lived from Geva onward, in Mikhmas and 'Ayah, in Beit-El and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:32 and in 'Anatot, Nov, 'Ananyah,

Nehemiah 11:33 Hatzor, Ramah, Gittayim,

Nehemiah 11:34 Hadid, Tzvo'im, N'valat,

Nehemiah 11:35 Lud, Ono and Gei-Harashim.

Nehemiah 11:36 Of the [L'vi'im], some divisions from Y'hudah settled in Binyamin.

Nehemiah 12:1 These are the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] who went up with Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el, and Yeshua: S'rayah, Yirmeyah, 'Ezra,

Nehemiah 12:2 Amaryah, Malukh, Hatush,

Nehemiah 12:3 Sh'khanyah, Rechum, M'remot,

Nehemiah 12:4 'Iddo, Gintoi, Achiyah,

Nehemiah 12:5 Miyamin, Ma'adiyah, Bilgah,

Nehemiah 12:6 Sh'ma'yah, Yoyariv, Y'da'yah,

Nehemiah 12:7 Salu, 'Amok, Hilkiyah and Y'da'yah. These were the leaders of the [cohanim] and their kinsmen during the time of Yeshua.

Nehemiah 12:8 The [L'vi'im]: Yeshua, Binui, Kadmi'el, Sherevyah, Y'hudah and Mattanyah, who was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving, he and his kinsmen, Nehemiah 12:9 with Bakbukyah and 'Uni, their kinsmen, singing antiphonally with them in the service.

Nehemiah 12:10 Yeshua was the father of Yoyakim, Yoyakim was the father of Elyashiv, Elyashiv was the father of Yoyada, Nehemiah 12:11 Yoyada was the father of Yonatan, and Yonatan was the father of Yadua.

Nehemiah 12:12 In the days of Yoyakim these were the [cohanim] who were heads of fathers' clans: of S'rayah, M'rayah; of Yirmeyah, Hananyah;

Nehemiah 12:13 of 'Ezra, Meshulam; of Amaryah, Y'hochanan;

Nehemiah 12:14 of M'likhu, Yonatan; of Sh'vanyah, Yosef;

Nehemiah 12:15 of Harim, 'Adna; of M'rayot, Helkai;

Nehemiah 12:16 of 'Iddo, Z'kharyah; of Ginton, Meshulam;

Nehemiah 12:17 of Achiyah, Zikhri; of Minyamin, of Mo'adyah, Piltai;

Nehemiah 12:18 of Bilgai, Shamua; of Sh'ma'yah, Y'honatan;

Nehemiah 12:19 of Yoyariv, Matnai; of Y'da'yah, 'Uzi;

Nehemiah 12:20 of Salai, Kallai; of 'Amok, 'Ever;

Nehemiah 12:21 of Hilkiyah, Hashavyah; and of Y'da'yah, N'tan'el.

Nehemiah 12:22 As for the [L'vi'im], the heads of fathers' clans in the days of Elyashiv, Yoyada, Yochanan and Yadua were recorded; also the [cohanim], up to the reign of Daryavesh the Persian.

Nehemiah 12:23 The descendants of Levi who were heads of fathers' clans were recorded in the annals until the days of Yochanan the [[grand]]son of Elyashiv.

Nehemiah 12:24 The chiefs of the [L'vi'im] were Hashavyah, Sherevyah and Yeshua the son of Kadmi'el, with their kinsmen in an antiphonal choir, to praise and give thanks, in accordance with the order of David the man of God, choir opposite choir.

Nehemiah 12:25 Mattanyah, Bakbukyah, 'Ovadyah, Meshulam, Talmon and 'Akuv were the gatekeepers who guarded the supplies kept at the gates.

Nehemiah 12:26 This was in the days of Yoyakim the son of Yeshua, the son of Yotzadak, and in the days of Nechemyah the governor and of 'Ezra the [cohen] and [Torah]-teacher.

Nehemiah 12:27 At the dedication of the wall of Yerushalayim, they sought out the [L'vi'im] from wherever they had settled to bring them to Yerushalayim and celebrate the dedication with hymns of thanksgiving and with songs accompanied by cymbals, lutes and lyres.

Nehemiah 12:28 The trained singers assembled together from the area around Yerushalayim, the villages of the N'tofati, Nehemiah 12:29 Beit-Gilgal and the region of Geva and 'Azmavet; for the singers had built villages for themselves all around Yerushalayim.

Nehemiah 12:30 The [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] first purified themselves; then they purified the people, the gates and the wall;

Nehemiah 12:31 and after that I brought the leaders of Y'hudah up onto the wall and appointed two large choirs to give thanks and to walk in procession. One went to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 12:32 After them went Hosha'yah and half of the leaders of Y'hudah,

Nehemiah 12:33 together with 'Azaryah, 'Ezra, Meshulam,

Nehemiah 12:34 Y'hudah, Binyamin, Sh'ma'yah and Yirmeyah.

Nehemiah 12:35 With them were some of the sons of the [cohanim] carrying trumpets, namely, Z'kharyah the son of Yonatan the son of Sh'ma'yah, the son of Mattanyah, the son of Mikhayah, the son of Zakur, the son of Asaf,

Nehemiah 12:36 and his kinsmen, Sh'ma'yah, 'Azar'el, Milalai, Gilalai, Ma'ai, N'tan'el, Y'hudah and Hanani, who had the musical instruments of David the man of God. 'Ezra the [Torah]-teacher led them.

Nehemiah 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they went straight ahead up the steps to the City of David, where the wall goes up, passed above the house of David, and went on to the Water Gate on the east.

Nehemiah 12:38 The other thanksgiving choir, consisting of half the people, walked on the wall to meet them, with myself following. They went above the Tower of the Furnaces to the Broad Wall,

Nehemiah 12:39 above the Efrayim Gate, by the gate to the Old City, to the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hanan'el and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate, and halted at the Prison Gate.

Nehemiah 12:40 Thus stood the two choirs of those giving thanks in the house of God, with myself and half of the leaders with me.

Nehemiah 12:41 The [cohanim] there included Elyakim, Ma'aseiyah, Minyamin, Mikhayah, Elyo'einai, Z'kharyah and Hananyah carrying trumpets;

Nehemiah 12:42 also Ma'aseiyah, Sh'ma'yah, El'azar, 'Uzi, Y'hochanan, Malkiyah, 'Eilam and 'Ezer. The singers sang loudly, directed by Yizrachyah.

Nehemiah 12:43 With joy they offered great sacrifices that day, for God had made them celebrate with great joy. The women and children too rejoiced, so that the celebrating in Yerushalayim could be heard far off.

Nehemiah 12:44 At that time, men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for supplies, contributions, firstfruits and tenths, and to gather into them, from the fields belonging to the cities, the portions prescribed by the [Torah] for the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im]. For Y'hudah rejoiced over the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] who took their position

Nehemiah 12:45 carrying out the duties of their God and the duties of purification, as also did the singers and gatekeepers, in accordance with the order of David and of Shlomo his son.

Nehemiah 12:46 For back in the days of David and Asaf, there had been leaders for those singing the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Nehemiah 12:47 So in the days of Z'rubavel and in the days of Nechemyah, all Isra'el gave portions to the singers and gatekeepers as required daily. They set aside a portion for the [L'vi'im], who, in turn set aside a portion for the descendants of Aharon.

Nehemiah 13:1 It was also at that time, when they were reading in the scroll of Moshe, that it was found written that no 'Amoni or Mo'avi may ever enter the assembly of God,

Nehemiah 13:2 because they did not supply the people of Isra'el with food and water, but hired Bil'am against them to put a curse on them-although our God turned the curse into a blessing.

Nehemiah 13:3 On hearing the [Torah], they separated from Isra'el everyone of mixed ancestry.

Nehemiah 13:4 Also, prior to this, Elyashiv the [cohen], who had been put in charge of the storage rooms in the house of our God, and who was related by marriage to Toviyah,

Nehemiah 13:5 had prepared for him a large room where formerly they had stored the grain offerings, frankincense, equipment and the tenths of grain, wine and olive oil ordered to be given to the [L'vi'im], singers and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the [cohanim].

Nehemiah 13:6 During all this time I wasn't present in Yerushalayim; because in the thirty-second year of Artach'shashta king of Bavel, I went to see the king; then, after some time had passed, I asked permission from the king

Nehemiah 13:7 and returned to Yerushalayim, where I found out about the terrible thing Elyashiv had done for Toviyah by preparing a room for him in the courtyards of the house of our God.

Nehemiah 13:8 I was so furious that I threw all Toviyah's household goods out of the room.

Nehemiah 13:9 Then, at my order, they cleansed the rooms; and I brought back the equipment of the house of God, the grain offerings and frankincense.

Nehemiah 13:10 I also learned that the portions for the [L'vi'im] had not been given to them, so that the [L'vi'im] and singers who were supposed to be doing the work had deserted, each one to his own farm.

Nehemiah 13:11 I disputed with the leaders, demanding, "Why is the house of God abandoned?" I gathered the [L'vi'im] together and restored them to their stations;

Nehemiah 13:12 and then all Y'hudah brought the tenth of grain, wine and olive oil to the storerooms.

Nehemiah 13:13 To supervise the storerooms I appointed Shelemyah the [cohen], Tzadok the [Torah]-teacher and, from the [L'vi'im], P'dayah; assisting them was Hanan the son of Zakur, the son of Mattanyah; for these were considered reliable. Their duty was to make the distribution to their kinsmen.

Nehemiah 13:14 My God, remember me for this; don't wipe out my good deeds which I have done for the house of my God and for his service!

Nehemiah 13:15 During this time I saw in Y'hudah some people who were treading winepresses on [Shabbat], also bringing in heaps of grain and loading donkeys with it, likewise wine, grapes, figs and all kinds of loads; and they were bringing them into Yerushalayim on the day of [Shabbat]. On the day when they were planning to sell the food, I warned them not to.

Nehemiah 13:16 There were also living there people from Tzor who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on [Shabbat] to the people in Y'hudah and even in Yerushalayim.

Nehemiah 13:17 I disputed with the nobles of Y'hudah, demanding of them, "What is this terrible thing you are doing, profaning the day of [Shabbat]?

Nehemiah 13:18 Didn't your ancestors do this, and didn't our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you are bringing still more fury against Isra'el by profaning [Shabbat]!"

Nehemiah 13:19 So when the gates of Yerushalayim began to grow dark before [Shabbat], I ordered that the doors be shut; and I ordered that they not be reopened until after [Shabbat.] I put some of my servants in charge of the gates, to see to it that no loads be brought in on [Shabbat.]

Nehemiah 13:20 The merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Yerushalayim once or twice,

Nehemiah 13:21 until I warned them, "Why are you spending the night by the wall? Do it again, and I'll use force against you!" From then on they stopped coming on [Shabbat].

Nehemiah 13:22 Then I ordered the [L'vi'im] to purify themselves and come and guard the gates, in order to keep the day of [Shabbat] holy. My God, remember this too for me, and have mercy on me in keeping with the greatness of your grace!

Nehemiah 13:23 Also during this time I saw the Judeans who had married women from Ashdod, 'Amon and Mo'av;

Nehemiah 13:24 and their children, who spoke half in the language of Ashdod and couldn't speak in the language the Judeans spoke but only in the language of each people.

Nehemiah 13:25 I disputed with them and cursed them, and I beat some of them up and pulled out their hair. Then I made them swear by God, "You will not give your daughters as wives for their sons or take their daughters as wives for your sons or for yourselves.

Nehemiah 13:26 Wasn't it by doing these things that Shlomo king of Isra'el sinned? There was no king like him among many nations, and his God loved him, and God made him king over all Isra'el; nevertheless the foreign women caused even him to sin.

Nehemiah 13:27 Are we to give in to you and let you continue in this very great evil, breaking faith with our God by marrying foreign women?"

Nehemiah 13:28 One of the sons of Yoyada the son of Elyashiv, the [cohen] [hagadol], had become son-in-law to Sanvalat the Horoni; so I drove him out of my presence.

Nehemiah 13:29 My God, remember them; because they have defiled the office of [cohen] and the covenant of the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im].

Nehemiah 13:30 Thus I cleansed them of everything foreign, and I had the [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] resume their duties, each one in his appointed task.

Nehemiah 13:31 I also made provision for the delivery of wood at stated times, and for the firstfruits. My God, remember me favorably. 1

Esther

1:1

Esther 2:1 A while later, when King Achashverosh's anger had subsided, he remembered Vashti, what she had done and what had been decreed against her.

Esther 2:2 The king's servants attending him said, "A search should be made for young, good-looking virgins.

Esther 2:3 The king should appoint officials in all the provinces of the kingdom to gather all the young, good-looking virgins to the house for the harem, in Shushan the capital. They should be put under the care of Hegai the king's officer in charge of the women, and he should give them the cosmetics they require.

Esther 2:4 Then, the girl who seems best to the king should become queen instead of Vashti." This proposal pleased the king, so he acted accordingly.

Esther 2:5 There was in Shushan the capital a man who was a Jew, whose name was Mordekhai the son of Ya'ir, the son of Shim'i, the son of Kish, a Binyamini.

Esther 2:6 He had been exiled from Yerushalayim with the captives exiled with Y'khanyah king of Y'hudah, whom N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel had carried off.

Esther 2:7 He had raised Hadassah, that is, Ester, his uncle's daughter; because she had neither father nor mother. The girl was shapely and good-looking; after her father's and mother's death, Mordekhai had adopted her as his own daughter.

Esther 2:8 When the king's order and decree were proclaimed, and many girls assembled in Shushan the capital under the care of Hegai, Ester too was taken into the king's house and put under the care of Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

Esther 2:9 The girl pleased him and won his favor, so that he lost no time in giving her her cosmetics, her portions [[of special food]] and seven girls from the king's palace to attend her; he also promoted her and the girls attending her to the best place in the harem's quarters.

Esther 2:10 Ester did not disclose her people or family ties, because Mordekhai had instructed her not to tell anyone.

Esther 2:11 Every day Mordekhai would walk around in front of the courtyard of the harem's house in order to know how Ester was doing and what was happening to her.

Esther 2:12 Each girl had her turn to appear before King Achashverosh after she had undergone the full twelve-month preparation period prescribed for the women, consisting of a six-month treatment with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and other cosmetics for women.

Esther 2:13 Then, when the girl went to see the king, whatever she wanted would be given to her as she went from the harem's house to the king's palace.

Esther 2:14 She would go in the evening, and on the following day she would return to another part of the harem's house and be under the care of Sha'ashgaz the king's officer in charge of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless he was especially pleased with her and had her summoned by name.

Esther 2:15 When the turn came for Ester the daughter of Avichayil, whom Mordekhai had adopted as his own daughter, to appear before the king, she didn't ask for anything other than what Hegai the king's officer in charge of the harem advised. Yet Ester was admired by all who saw her.

Esther 2:16 She was brought to King Achashverosh in his royal palace in the tenth month, Tevet, during the seventh year of his reign.

Esther 2:17 The king liked Ester more than any of his wives; none of the other virgins obtained such favor and approval from him. So he put the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

Esther 2:18 The king then gave a great banquet in Ester's honor for all his officers and servants, decreed a holiday for the provinces and distributed gifts worthy of royal bounty.

Esther 2:19 When the girls would gather on other occasions, Mordekhai would sit at the King's Gate.

Esther 2:20 Ester had not yet revealed her family ties or her people, as Mordekhai had ordered her; for Ester continued obeying what Mordekhai told her to do, as she had when he was raising her.

Esther 2:21 On one of those occasions, when Mordekhai was sitting at the King's Gate, two of the king's officers, Bigtan and Teresh, from the group in charge of the private entryways, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Achashverosh.

Esther 2:22 But Mordekhai learned about it and told Ester the queen. Ester reported it to the king, crediting Mordekhai.

Esther 2:23 The matter was investigated, found to be true, and both were hanged on a stake. All this was recorded in the daily journal that was kept with the king.

Esther 3:1 Some time later King Achashverosh began to single out Haman the son of Hamdata the Agagi for advancement; eventually he gave him precedence over all his fellow officers.

Esther 3:2 All the king's servants at the King's Gate would kneel and bow down before Haman, because the king had so ordered. But Mordekhai would neither kneel nor bow down to him.

Esther 3:3 The king's servants at the King's Gate asked Mordekhai, "Why don't you obey the king's order?"

Esther 3:4 But after they had confronted him a number of times without his paying attention to them, they told Haman, in order to find out whether Mordekhai's explanation that he was a Jew would suffice to justify his behavior.

Esther 3:5 Haman was furious when he saw that Mordekhai was not kneeling and bowing down to him.

Esther 3:6 However, on learning what people Mordekhai belonged to, it seemed to him a waste to lay hands on Mordekhai alone. Rather, he decided to destroy all of Mordekhai's people, the Jews, throughout the whole of Achashverosh's kingdom.

Esther 3:7 In the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of Achashverosh, they began throwing [pur] (that is, they cast lots) before Haman every day and every month until the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

Esther 3:8 Then Haman said to Achashverosh, "There is a particular people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their laws are different from those of every other people; moreover, they don’t observe the king’s laws. It doesn’t befit the king to tolerate them.

Esther 3:9 If it please the king, have a decree written for their destruction; and I will hand over 330 tons of silver to the officials in charge of the king’s affairs to deposit in the royal treasury.”

Esther 3:10 The king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the son of Hamdata the Agagi, the enemy of the Jews.

Esther 3:11 The king said to Haman, “The money is given to you, and the people too, to do with as seems good to you.”

Esther 3:12 The king’s secretaries were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month. They wrote down all Haman’s orders to the king’s army commanders and governors in all the provinces and to the officials of every people, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language; everything was written in the name of King Achashverosh and sealed with the king’s signet ring.

Esther 3:13 Letters were sent by courier to all the royal provinces “to destroy, kill and exterminate all Jews, from young to old, including small children and women, on a specific day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to seize their goods as plunder.”

Esther 3:14 A copy of the document to be issued as a decree in every province was to be publicly proclaimed to all the peoples, so that they would be ready for that day.

Esther 3:15 At the king’s order the runners went out quickly, and the decree was issued in Shushan the capital. Then the king and Haman sat down for a drink together, but the city of Shushan was thrown into confusion.

Esther 4:1 When Mordekhai learned everything that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes and went out through the city, lamenting and crying bitterly.

Esther 4:2 He stopped before entering the King’s Gate, since no one was allowed to go inside the King’s Gate wearing sackcloth.

Esther 4:3 In every province reached by the king’s order and decree, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing, as many lay down on sackcloth and ashes.

Esther 4:4 When the girls and officials attending Ester came and informed her of this, the queen became deeply distressed. She sent clothes for Mordekhai to wear instead of his sackcloth, but he wouldn’t accept them.

Esther 4:5 So Ester summoned Hatakh, one of the king’s officials attending her, and instructed him to go to Mordekhai and find out what this was all about and why.

Esther 4:6 Hatakh went out to Mordekhai in the open space in front of the King’s Gate, Esther 4:7 and Mordekhai told him everything that had happened to him and exactly how much silver Haman had promised to put in the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

Esther 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the decree for their destruction issued in Shushan; so that he could show it to Ester, explain it to her, and then instruct her to approach the king, intercede with him and implore his favor on behalf of her people.

Esther 4:9 Hatakh returned and told Ester what Mordekhai had said.

Esther 4:10 Then Ester spoke to Hatakh and gave him this message for Mordekhai:

Esther 4:11 “All the king’s officials, as well as the people in the royal provinces, know that if anyone, man or woman, approaches the king in the inner courtyard without being summoned, there is just one law- he must be put to death- unless the king holds out the gold scepter for him to remain alive; and I haven’t been summoned to the king for the past thirty days.”

Esther 4:12 Upon being told what Ester had said, Mordekhai

Esther 4:13 asked them to give Ester this answer: “Don’t suppose that merely because you happen to be in the royal palace you will escape any more than the other Jews.

Esther 4:14 For if you fail to speak up now, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from a different direction; but you and your father’s family will perish. Who knows whether you didn’t come into your royal position precisely for such a time as this.”

Esther 4:15 Ester had them return this answer to Mordekhai:

Esther 4:16 “Go, assemble all the Jews to be found in Shushan, and have them fast for me, neither eating nor drinking for three days, night and day; also I and the girls attending me will fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish.”

Esther 4:17 Then Mordekhai went his way and did everything Ester had ordered him to do.

Esther 5:1 On the third day, Ester put on her royal robes and stood in the inner courtyard of the king’s palace, opposite the king’s hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the king’s hall, across from the entrance to the hall.

Esther 5:2 When the king saw Ester the queen standing in the courtyard, she won his favor; so the king extended the gold scepter in his hand toward Ester. Ester approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

Esther 5:3 “What is it you want, Queen Ester?” the king asked her. “Whatever your request, up to half the kingdom, it will be given to you.”

Esther 5:4 “If it is all right with the king,” answered Ester, “let the king and Haman come today to the banquet I have prepared for him.”

Esther 5:5 The king said, “Bring Haman quickly, so that what Ester has asked for can be done.” So the king and Haman came to the banquet Ester had prepared.

Esther 5:6 At the banquet of wine the king again said to Ester, “Whatever your request, you will be granted it; whatever you want, up to half the kingdom, it will be done.”

Esther 5:7 Then Ester answered, “My request, what I want, is this:

Esther 5:8 if I have won the king’s favor, if it pleases the king to grant my request and do what I want, let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them; and tomorrow I will do as the king has said.”

Esther 5:9 That day Haman went out happy and in good spirits. But when Haman saw Mordekhai at the King’s Gate, that he neither rose nor moved for him, Haman was infuriated with Mordekhai.

Esther 5:10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home, where he summoned and brought his friends and Zeresh his wife.

Esther 5:11 Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and everything connected with how the king had promoted him and given him precedence over the other officials and servants of the king.

Esther 5:12 “Indeed,” Haman added, “Ester the queen let nobody into the banquet with the king that she had prepared except myself; and tomorrow, too, I am invited by her, together with the king.

Esther 5:13 Yet none of this does me any good at all, as long as I keep seeing Mordekhai the Jew remaining seated at the King’s Gate.”

Esther 5:14 At this Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, “Have a gallows seventy-five feet high constructed, and in the morning speak to the king about having Mordekhai hanged on it. Then go in, and enjoy yourself with the king at the banquet.” Haman liked the idea, so he had a gallows made.

Esther 6:1 That night, the king couldn’t sleep; so he ordered the records of the daily journal brought, and they were read to the king.

Esther 6:2 It was found written that Mordekhai had told about Bigtana and Teresh, two of the king’s officers from the group in charge of the private entryways, who had conspired to assassinate King Achashverosh.

Esther 6:3 The king asked, “What honor or distinction was conferred on Mordekhai for this?” The king’s servants answered, “Nothing was done for him.”

Esther 6:4 The king then asked, “Who’s that in the courtyard?” For Haman had come into the outer courtyard of the king’s palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordekhai on the gallows he had prepared for him.

Esther 6:5 The king's servants told him, "It's Haman standing there in the courtyard." The king said, "Have him come in."

Esther 6:6 So Haman came in. The king said to him, "What should be done for a man that the king wants to honor?" Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king want to honor more than me?"

Esther 6:7 So Haman answered the king, "For a man the king wants to honor,

Esther 6:8 have royal robes brought which the king himself wears and the horse the king himself rides, with a royal crown on its head.

Esther 6:9 The robes and the horse should be handed over to one of the king's most respected officials, and they should put the robes on the man the king wants to honor and lead him on horseback through the streets of the city, proclaiming ahead of him, 'This is what is done for a man whom the king wants to honor.'"

Esther 6:10 The king said to Haman, "Hurry, and take the robes and the horse, as you said, and do this for Mordekhai the Jew, who sits at the King's Gate. Don't leave out anything you mentioned."

Esther 6:11 So Haman took the robes and the horse, dressed Mordekhai and led him riding through the streets of the city, as he proclaimed ahead of him, "This is what is done for a man whom the king wants to honor."

Esther 6:12 Then Mordekhai returned to the King's Gate; but Haman rushed home with his head covered in mourning.

Esther 6:13 After Haman had told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordekhai, before whom you have begun to fall, is a Jew, you will not get the better of him; on the contrary, your downfall before him is certain."

Esther 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king's officials came, hurrying to bring Haman to the banquet Ester had prepared.

Esther 7:1 So the king and Haman went to Queen Ester's banquet;

Esther 7:2 and the king again said to Ester at the wine banquet, "Whatever your request, Queen Ester, you will be granted it; whatever you want, up to half the kingdom, it will be done."

Esther 7:3 Ester the queen answered, "If I have won your favor, king, and if it pleases the king, then what I ask be given me is my own life and the lives of my people.

Esther 7:4 For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, killed, exterminated. If we had only been sold as men- and women-slaves, I would have remained quiet; since then [[our]] trouble would not have been worth the damage it would have caused the king [[to alter the situation]]."

Esther 7:5 King Achashverosh asked Ester the queen, “Who is he? Where is the man who dared to do such a thing?”

Esther 7:6 Ester said, “A ruthless enemy- it’s this wicked Haman!” Haman stood aghast, terrified before the king and queen.

Esther 7:7 In a rage, the king got up from the wine banquet and went out to the palace garden. But Haman remained, pleading with Ester the queen to spare his life; for he could see that the king had decided to do him in.

Esther 7:8 Haman had just fallen on the couch where Ester was, when the king returned from the palace garden to the wine banquet. He shouted, “Is he even going to rape the queen here in the palace, before my very eyes?” The moment these words left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

Esther 7:9 Harvonah, one of the king’s attendants, said, “Look! The gallows seventy-five feet high that Haman made for Mordekhai, who spoke only good for the king, is standing at Haman’s house.” The king said, “Hang him on it.”

Esther 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordekhai. Then the king’s anger subsided.

Esther 8:1 That same day King Achashverosh gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, to Ester the queen. Also Mordekhai appeared before the king, for Ester had revealed his relationship to her.

Esther 8:2 The king removed his signet ring, which he had taken back from Haman, and gave it to Mordekhai. Then Ester put Mordekhai in charge of Haman’s house.

Esther 8:3 Again Ester spoke to the king; she fell at his feet and begged him with tears to put an end to the mischief Haman the Agagi had caused by the scheme he had worked out against the Jews.

Esther 8:4 The king extended the gold scepter toward Ester. So Ester got up and stood in front of the king.

Esther 8:5 She said, “If it pleases the king, if I have won his favor, if the matter seem right to the king and if I have his approval, then let an order be written rescinding the letters devised by Haman the son of Hamdata the Agagi, which he wrote to destroy the Jews in all the royal provinces.

Esther 8:6 For how can I bear to see the disaster that will overcome my people? How can I endure seeing the extermination of my kinsmen?”

Esther 8:7 King Achashverosh said to Ester the queen and Mordekhai the Jew, “Listen! I gave Ester the house of Haman, and they hanged him on the gallows, because he threatened the lives of the Jews.

Esther 8:8 You should issue a decree in the king’s name for whatever you want concerning the Jews, and seal it with the king’s signet ring; because a decree written in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s ring can’t be rescinded by anyone.”

Esther 8:9 The king’s secretaries were summoned at that time, on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan; and a decree was written according to everything Mordekhai ordered concerning the Jews, to the army commanders, governors and officials of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, 127 provinces, to each province in its script and to each people in their language, also to the Jews in their script and language.

Esther 8:10 They wrote in the name of King Achashverosh and sealed it with the king’s signet ring; they sent the letters by couriers on horseback riding fast horses used in the king’s service and bred from the royal stock.

Esther 8:11 The letters said that the king had granted the Jews in every city the right “to assemble and defend their lives by destroying, killing and exterminating any forces of any people or province that would attack them, their little ones or their women or would try to seize their goods as plunder

Esther 8:12 on the designated day in any of the provinces of King Achashverosh, namely, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.”

Esther 8:13 A copy of the edict was to be issued as a decree in every province and proclaimed to all the peoples, and the Jews were to be ready on that day to take vengeance against their enemies.

Esther 8:14 Couriers riding fast horses used in the king’s service left quickly, pressed by the king’s order; and the decree was issued in Shushan the capital.

Esther 8:15 Meanwhile, Mordekhai left the king’s presence arrayed in royal blue and white, wearing a large gold crown and a robe of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan shouted for joy.

Esther 8:16 For the Jews, all was light, gladness, joy and honor.

Esther 8:17 In every province and city where the king’s order and decree arrived, the Jews had gladness and joy, a feast and a holiday. Many from the peoples of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews had overcome them.

Esther 9:1 The time approached for the king’s order and decree to be carried out, the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to overpower them. But, as it turned out, the opposite took place- the Jews overpowered those who hated them. Thus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar,

Esther 9:2 the Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Achashverosh to attack anyone who tried to do them harm; and no one was able to withstand them; because all the peoples were afraid of them.

Esther 9:3 All the officials of the provinces, the army commanders, the governors and those occupied with the king's affairs helped the Jews; because they were afraid of Mordekhai.

Esther 9:4 For Mordekhai had become a powerful person in the king's palace, and his fame had spread through all the provinces; Mordekhai continued to grow increasingly powerful.

Esther 9:5 The Jews put all their enemies to the sword; there was great slaughter and destruction, as they did whatever they wanted to those who hated them;

Esther 9:6 in Shushan the capital, the Jews slaughtered 500 men.

Esther 9:7 They put to death the ten sons of Haman the son of Hamdata, the enemy of the Jews- Parshandata, Dalfon, Aspata, Porata, Adalya, Aridata, Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizata. But they did not touch the spoil.

Esther 9:8

Esther 9:9

Esther 9:10

Esther 9:11 The same day, after the king had been told the number of those killed in Shushan the capital,

Esther 9:12 he said to Ester the queen, “If the Jews have slaughtered 500 men in Shushan the capital and the ten sons of Haman, what have they done in the rest of the royal provinces! Now, whatever your request, you will be granted it; whatever more you want, it will be done.”

Esther 9:13 Ester replied, “If it pleases the king, let the Jews in Shushan act again tomorrow in accordance with today's decree; also have Haman's ten sons hanged on the gallows.”

Esther 9:14 The king ordered these things done- a decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

Esther 9:15 So the Jews in Shushan assembled also on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed 300 men in Shushan, but they did not touch the spoil.

Esther 9:16 The other Jews, those in the royal provinces, had assembled, defended their lives and won rest from their enemies, killing 75,000 of those who hated them, but without touching the spoil,

Esther 9:17 on the thirteenth day of the month Adar. So on the fourteenth day of Adar they rested and made it a holiday for celebrating and rejoicing.

Esther 9:18 However, the Jews of Shushan assembled on both the thirteenth and fourteenth days of Adar, so it was on the fifteenth that they rested and made it a holiday for celebrating and rejoicing.

Esther 9:19 This is why the Jews of the villages, those who live in unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month of Adar a day for celebrating and rejoicing, a holiday and a time for sending each other portions [[of food]].

Esther 9:20 Mordekhai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of King Achashverosh, both near and far,

Esther 9:21 instructing them to observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and the fifteenth day, every year,

Esther 9:22 [[to commemorate]] the days on which the Jews obtained rest from their enemies and the month which for them was turned from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; they were to make them days of celebrating and rejoicing, sending portions [[of food]] to each other and giving gifts to the poor.

Esther 9:23 So the Jews took it upon themselves to continue what they had already begun to do, and as Mordekhai had written to them;

Esther 9:24 because Haman the son of Hamdata the Agagi, the enemy of the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had thrown [pur] (that is, “cast lots”) to crush and destroy them;

Esther 9:25 but when Ester came before the king, he ordered by letters that [[Haman’s]] wicked scheme, which he had plotted against the Jews, should recoil on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Esther 9:26 This is why these days have been called [Purim], after the word [pur]. Thus, because of everything written in this letter, and what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had come upon them,

Esther 9:27 the Jews resolved and took upon themselves, their descendants and all who might join them that without fail they would observe these two days in accordance with what was written in [[this letter]] and at the appointed time, every year;

Esther 9:28 and that these days would be remembered and observed throughout every generation, every family, every province and every city; and that these days of [Purim] would never cease among the Jews or their memory be lost by their descendants.

Esther 9:29 Then Ester the queen, the daughter of Avichayil, and Mordekhai the Jew, gave full written authority to confirm a second letter about [Purim].

Esther 9:30 He sent copies of it to all the Jews, to the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Achashverosh, ensuring their peace and security

Esther 9:31 and requiring the observance of these days of [Purim] at their designated times, as Mordekhai the Jew and Ester the queen had enjoined them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants concerning the matters of fasting and lamenting.

Esther 9:32 At Ester's order these matters of [Purim] were confirmed and put in writing in the book.

Esther 10:1 King Achashverosh laid tribute on the land, the coasts and the islands.

Esther 10:2 All the acts of his power and might, along with a full account of the high honor to which the king advanced Mordekhai, are written in the Annals of the Kings of Media and Persia.

Esther 10:3 For Mordekhai the Jew was second only to King Achashverosh; he was a great man among the Jews, popular with all his many countrymen. He sought the good of his people and interceded for the welfare of all their descendants.

Esther 11:1

Esther 12:1

Esther 13:1 These events took place in the time of Achashverosh, the Achashverosh who ruled over 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia.

Esther 13:2 It was in those days, when King Achashverosh sat on his royal throne in Shushan the capital,

Esther 13:3 in the third year of his reign, that he gave a banquet for all his officials and courtiers. The army of Persia and Media, the nobles and the provincial officials were in attendance.

Esther 13:4 He displayed the dazzling wealth of his kingdom and his great splendor for a long time, 180 days.

Esther 13:5 At the end of that time, the king gave a seven-day banquet in the courtyard of the royal palace garden for all the people, both great and small, there in Shushan the capital.

Esther 13:6 There were white cotton curtains and blue hangings fastened to silver rods, with cords of fine linen and purple; the columns were marble; the couches [[for reclining at table]] were of gold and silver on a mosaic flooring of malachite, marble, mother-of-pearl and onyx.

Esther 13:7 Drinks were served in gold goblets, with each goblet different from the others. There was royal wine in abundance, as befits royal bounty.

Esther 13:8 The drinking was not according to any fixed rule, for the king had ordered the stewards to serve each man what he wanted.

Esther 13:9 Also Vashti the queen gave a banquet for the women in the royal house belonging to King Achashverosh.

Esther 13:10 On the seventh day, when the king was in high spirits from the wine, he ordered Mehuman, Bizta, Harvona, Bigta, Avagta, Zetar and Karkas, the seven officers who attended him,

Esther 13:11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king with the royal crown, in order to show the people and the officials her beauty, for she was indeed a good-looking woman.

Esther 13:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the order of the king, which he had sent through his officers. This enraged the king- his anger blazed inside him.

Esther 13:13 As was the king's custom, he consulted sages well-versed in matters of law and justice.

Esther 13:14 With him were Karshna, Shetar, Admata, Tarshish, Meres, Marsna and Memukhan, the seven vice-regents of Persia and Media, who were part of the king's inner circle and were the most important officials in the kingdom.

Esther 13:15 [[The king asked the sages,]] "According to the law, what should we do to Queen Vashti, since she didn't obey the order of King Achashverosh conveyed by the officers?"

Esther 13:16 Memukhan presented the king and vice-regents this answer: "Vashti the queen has wronged not only the king, but also all the officials and all the peoples in all the provinces of King Achashverosh;

Esther 13:17 because this act of the queen's will become known to all the women, who will then start showing disrespect toward their own husbands; they will say, 'King Achashverosh ordered Vashti the queen to be brought before him, but she wouldn't come.'

Esther 13:18 Moreover, the noble ladies of Persia and Media who hear of the queen's conduct will mention it to all the king's officials, which will bring about no end of disrespect and discord.

Esther 13:19 If it pleases his majesty, let him issue a royal decree- and let it be written as one of the laws of the Persians and Medes, which are irrevocable- that Vashti is never again to be admitted into the presence of King Achashverosh, and that the king give her royal position to someone better than she.

Esther 13:20 When the edict made by the king is proclaimed throughout the length and breadth of the kingdom, then all wives will honor their husbands, whether great or small."

Esther 13:21 This advice pleased the king and the officials, so the king did what Memukhan had suggested-

Esther 13:22 he sent letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, that every man should be master in his own house and speak the language of his own people.

Job

1:1 There was a man in the land of ‘Utz whose name was Iyov. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil.

Job 1:2 Seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

Job 1:3 He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 pairs of oxen and 500 female donkeys, as well as a great number of servants; so that he was the wealthiest man in the east.

Job 1:4 It was the custom of his sons to give banquets, each on his set day in his own house; and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 After a cycle of banquets, Iyov would send for them to come and be consecrated; then he would get up early in the morning and offer burnt offerings for each of them, because Iyov said, “My sons might have sinned and blasphemed God in their thoughts.” This is what Iyov did every time.

Job 1:6 It happened one day that the sons of God came to serve ADONAI, and among them came the Adversary <N1>.

Job 1:7 ADONAI asked the Adversary, “Where are you coming from?” The Adversary answered ADONAI, “From roaming through the earth, wandering here and there.”

Job 1:8 ADONAI asked the Adversary, “Did you notice my servant Iyov, that there’s no one like him on earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and shuns evil?”

Job 1:9 The Adversary answered ADONAI, “Is it for nothing that Iyov fears God?

Job 1:10 You’ve put a protective hedge around him, his house and everything he has. You’ve prospered his work, and his livestock are spread out all over the land.

Job 1:11 But if you reach out your hand and touch whatever he has, without doubt he’ll curse you to your face!”

Job 1:12 ADONAI said to the Adversary, “Here! Everything he has is in your hands, except that you are not to lay a finger on his person.” Then the Adversary went out from the presence of ADONAI.

Job 1:13 One day when Iyov’s sons and daughters were eating and drinking in their oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:14 a messenger came to him and said, “The oxen were plowing, with the donkeys grazing near them,

Job 1:15 when a raiding party from Sh’va came and carried them off; they put the servants to the sword too, and I’m the only one who escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another one came and said, “Fire from God fell from the sky and burned up the sheep and the servants; it completely destroyed them, and I’m the only one who escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another one came and said, “The Kasdim, three bands of them, fell on the camels and carried them off; they put the servants to the sword too, and I’m the only one who escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, another one came and said, “Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:19 when suddenly a strong wind blew in from over the desert. It struck the four corners of the house, so that it fell on the young people; they are dead, and I’m the only one who escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:20 Iyov got up, tore his coat, shaved his head, fell down on the ground and worshipped;

Job 1:21 he said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will return there. ADONAI gave; ADONAI took; blessed be the name of ADONAI.”

Job 1:22 In all this Iyov neither committed a sin nor put blame on God.

Job 2:1 Another day came when the sons of God came to serve ADONAI, and among them came the Adversary to serve [ADONAI.]

Job 2:2 ADONAI asked the Adversary, “Where are you coming from?” The Adversary answered ADONAI, “From roaming through the earth, wandering here and there.”

Job 2:3 ADONAI asked the Adversary, “Did you notice my servant Iyov, that there’s no one like him on earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and shuns evil, and that he still holds on to his integrity, even though you provoked me against him to destroy him for no reason?”

Job 2:4 The Adversary answered ADONAI, “Skin for skin! A person will give up everything he has to save his life.

Job 2:5 But if you reach out your hand and touch his flesh and bone, without doubt he’ll curse you to your face!”

Job 2:6 ADONAI said to the Adversary, “Here! He is in your hands, except that you are to spare his life.”

Job 2:7 Then the Adversary went out from the presence of ADONAI and struck Iyov down with horrible infected sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

Job 2:8 He took a piece of a broken pot to scratch himself and sat down in the pile of ashes.

Job 2:9 His wife asked him, “Why do you still hold on to your integrity? Curse God, and die!”

Job 2:10 But he answered her, “You’re talking like a low-class woman! Are we to receive the good at God’s hands but reject the bad?” In all this Iyov did not say one sinful word.

Job 2:11 Now when Iyov’s three friends heard of all the calamities that had overwhelmed him, they all came. Each came from his own home- Elifaz from Teiman, Bildad from Shuach and Tzofar from Na’amah. They had agreed to meet together in order to come and offer him sympathy and comfort.

Job 2:12 When they saw him from a distance, they couldn’t even recognize him. They wept aloud, tore their coats and threw dust over their heads toward heaven.

Job 2:13 Then they sat down with him on the ground. For seven days and seven nights, no one spoke a word to him; because they saw how much he was suffering.

Job 2:14 At length, Iyov broke the silence and cursed the day of his [[birth]].

Job 3:1 Iyov said,

Job 3:2 “Perish the day I was born and the night that said, ‘A man is conceived.’

Job 3:3 May that day be darkness, may God on high not seek it, may no light shine on it,

Job 3:4 may gloom dark as death defile it, may clouds settle on it, may it be terrified by its own blackness.

Job 3:5 “As for that night, may thick darkness seize it, may it not be joined to the days of the year, may it not be numbered among the months;

Job 3:6 may that night be desolate, may no cry of joy be heard in it;

Job 3:7 may those who curse days curse it, those who[[se curses]] could rouse Livyatan;

Job 3:8 may the stars of its twilight be dark, may it look for light but get none, may it never see the shimmer of dawn-

Job 3:9 because it didn’t shut the doors of the womb I was in and shield my eyes from trouble.

Job 3:10 “If I had been stillborn, if I had died at birth,

Job 3:11 had there been no knees to receive me or breasts for me to suck.

Job 3:12 Then I would be lying still and in peace, I would have slept and been at rest,

Job 3:13 along with kings and their earthly advisers, who rebuilt ruins for themselves,

Job 3:14 or with princes who had [[plenty of]] gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Job 3:15 Or I could have been like a hidden, miscarried child that never saw light.

Job 3:16 “There the wicked cease their raging, there the weary are at rest,

Job 3:17 prisoners live at peace together without hearing a taskmaster’s yells.

Job 3:18 Great and small alike are there, and the slave is free of his master.

Job 3:19 “So why must light be given to the miserable and life to the bitter in spirit?

Job 3:20 They long for death, but it never comes; they search for it more than for buried treasure;

Job 3:21 when at last they find the grave, they are so happy they shout for joy.

Job 3:22 [[Why give light]] to a man who wanders blindly, whom God shuts in on every side?

Job 3:23 “My sighing serves in place of my food, and my groans pour out in a torrent;

Job 3:24 for the thing I feared has overwhelmed me, what I dreaded has happened to me.

Job 3:25 I have no peace, no quiet, no rest; and anguish keeps coming.”

Job 4:1 Then Elifaz the Teimani spoke up:

Job 4:2 “If one tries to speak to you, will you mind? Yet who could keep from speaking?

Job 4:3 You have given moral instruction to many, you have firmed up feeble hands,

Job 4:4 your words have supported those who were stumbling, and you have strengthened the weak-kneed.

Job 4:5 “But now it comes to you, and you are impatient; at the first touch, you are in shock.

Job 4:6 Isn’t your fear of God your assurance, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

Job 4:7 “Think back: what innocent person has perished? Since when are the upright destroyed?

Job 4:8 What I see is that those who plow sin and sow trouble reap just that.

Job 4:9 At a breath from God, they perish; at a blast from his anger, they are consumed.

Job 4:10 The lion may growl, the king lion may roar, but that old lion’s teeth are broken;

Job 4:11 so the lion succumbs from lack of prey, and the lion’s cubs are scattered.

Job 4:12 “For a word was stealthily brought to me, my ear caught only a whisper of it.

Job 4:13 In passing thoughts flashing through visions at night, when sleep lies heavy on people,

Job 4:14 a shiver of horror came over me; it made all my bones tremble.

Job 4:15 Then a spirit passed in front of my face; the hair of my flesh stood on end.

Job 4:16 It stood still, but I couldn’t make out its appearance; yet the form stayed there before my eyes. Then I heard a subdued voice:

Job 4:17 ‘Can a human be seen by God as righteous? Can a mortal be pure before his maker?

Job 4:18 [[God]] doesn’t trust his own servants, he finds fault even with his angels;

Job 4:19 much more those living in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust. They are crushed more easily than a worm;

Job 4:20 shattered between morning and evening; they perish forever, and no one takes notice.

Job 4:21 Their cord within them is pulled up; then they die, without ever gaining wisdom.’

Job 5:1 “Call if you like, but will anyone answer? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 For anger kills the fool, and envy slays the silly.

Job 5:3 I watch as a fool establishes roots, but I curse his home with sudden [[destruction]]-

Job 5:4 his children are far from help, publicly humiliated, with no one to rescue;

Job 5:5 the hungry eat up his harvest, taking it even from among thorns, while the thirsty are panting, eager to swallow his wealth.

Job 5:6 For misery does not come from the dust or trouble spring from the ground.

Job 5:7 No, people are born for trouble as surely as sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 “If I were you, I would seek God; I would make my plea to him.

Job 5:9 For God does great deeds beyond investigation, wonders beyond all reckoning.

Job 5:10 He gives rain to the earth, pours water down on the fields.

Job 5:11 He raises the lowly on high and lifts mourners to safety.

Job 5:12 He frustrates the schemes of the cunning, so that they achieve no success;

Job 5:13 trapping the crafty in their own tricks and foiling quickly the plans of the false.

Job 5:14 They meet with darkness during the day, groping at noon like at night.

Job 5:15 But he saves the poor from the sword, their mouth, and from the clutches of the strong;

Job 5:16 so the poor can hope again; and injustice shuts its mouth.

Job 5:17 “How happy the person whom God corrects! So don’t despise [Shaddai]’s discipline.

Job 5:18 For he wounds, but he bandages the sore; his hands may strike, but they also heal.

Job 5:19 He will rescue you from six disasters; yes, in seven no harm will touch you.

Job 5:20 In famine, he will save you from death, and in war, from the power of the sword.

Job 5:21 You will be shielded from the lash of the tongue, and you won’t have to fear destruction when it comes-

Job 5:22 you’ll be able to laugh at destruction and famine. Also you won’t have to fear wild animals,

Job 5:23 for you will be in league with the stones in the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 You will know that your tent is safe; you will look round your home and miss nothing.

Job 5:25 You will know that your descendants are many, your offspring like grass [[growing thick]] in the fields.

Job 5:26 You will come to your grave at a ripe old age, like a pile of grain that arrives in season.

Job 5:27 “We’ve looked into this, and that’s how it is; listen, and know that it’s for your own good.”

Job 6:1 Iyov responded:

Job 6:2 “I wish my frustration could be weighed, all my calamities laid on the scales!

Job 6:3 They would outweigh the sands of the seas! No wonder, then, that my words come out stammered!

Job 6:4 For the arrows of [Shaddai] find their mark in me, and my spirit is drinking in their poison; the terrors of God are arrayed against me.

Job 6:5 “Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass? Does an ox low when it has fodder?

Job 6:6 Can food without flavor be eaten without salt? Do egg whites have any taste?

Job 6:7 I refuse to touch them; such food makes me sick.

Job 6:8 “If only I could have my wish granted, and God would give me what I’m hoping for-

Job 6:9 that God would decide to crush me, that he would let his hand loose and cut me off!

Job 6:10 Then I would feel consoled; so that even in the face of unending pain, I would be able to rejoice; for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 “Have I enough strength to go on waiting? What end can I expect, that I should be patient?

Job 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Is my flesh made of bronze?

Job 6:13 Clearly, I have no help in myself; common sense has been driven from me.

Job 6:14 “A friend should be kind to an unhappy man, even to one who abandons [Shaddai].

Job 6:15 But my brothers are as deceptive as [vadi]s, as [vadi] streams that soon run dry;

Job 6:16 they may turn dark with ice and be hidden by piled-up snow;

Job 6:17 but as the weather warms up, they vanish; when it’s hot, they disappear.

Job 6:18 Their courses turn this way and that; they go up into the confusing waste and are lost.

Job 6:19 The caravans from Tema look for them, the travelers from Sh’va hope to find them;

Job 6:20 but they are disappointed, because they were confident; on arrival there, they are frustrated.

Job 6:21 “For now, you have become like that- just seeing my calamity makes you afraid.

Job 6:22 Did I say to you, ‘Give me something,’ or, ‘From your wealth, offer a bribe on my behalf,’

Job 6:23 or, ‘Save me from the enemy’s grip,’ or, ‘Redeem me from the clutches of oppressors’?

Job 6:24 “Teach me, and I will be silent. Make me understand how I am at fault.

Job 6:25 Honest words are forceful indeed, but what do your arguments prove?

Job 6:26 Do you think [[your own]] words constitute argument, while the speech of a desperate man is merely wind?

Job 6:27 I suppose you would even throw dice for an orphan or barter away your friend!

Job 6:28 “So now, I beg you, look at me! Would I lie to your face?

Job 6:29 Think it over, please; don’t let wrong be done. Think it over again: my cause is just.

Job 6:30 Am I saying something wrong? Can’t I recognize trouble when I taste it?

Job 7:1 “Human life on earth is like serving in the army; yes, we drudge through our days like a hired worker,

Job 7:2 like a slave longing for shade, like a worker thinking only of his wages.

Job 7:3 So I am assigned months of meaninglessness; troubled nights are my lot.

Job 7:4 When I lie down, I ask, ‘When can I get up?’ But the night is long, and I keep tossing to and fro until daybreak.

Job 7:5 My flesh is clothed with worms and dirt, my skin forms scabs that ooze pus.

Job 7:6 My days pass more swiftly than a weaver’s shuttle and come to their end without hope.

Job 7:7 “Remember that my life is but a breath; my eyes will never again see good times.

Job 7:8 The eye that now sees me will see me no more; while your eyes are on me, I will be gone.

Job 7:9 Like a cloud dissolving and disappearing, so he who descends to Sh’ol won’t come back up.

Job 7:10 He will not return again to his house, and his home will know him no more.

Job 7:11 “Therefore I will not restrain my mouth but will speak in my anguish of spirit and complain in my bitterness of soul.

Job 7:12 Am I the sea, or some sea monster, that you put a guard over me?

Job 7:13 When I think that my bed will comfort me, that my couch will relieve my complaint,

Job 7:14 then you terrify me with dreams and frighten me with visions.

Job 7:15 I would rather be strangled; death would be better than these bones of mine.

Job 7:16 I hate it! I won’t live forever, so leave me alone, for my life means nothing.

Job 7:17 “What are mere mortals, that you make so much of them? Why do you keep them on your mind?

Job 7:18 Why examine them every morning and test them every moment?

Job 7:19 Won’t you ever take your eyes off of me, at least long enough for me to swallow my spit?

Job 7:20 “Suppose I do sin- how do I harm you, you scrutinizer of humanity? Why have you made me your target, so that I am a burden to you?

Job 7:21 Why don’t you pardon my offense and take away my guilt? For soon I will lie down in the dust; you will seek me, but I will be gone.”

Job 8:1 Bildad the Shuchi spoke next:

Job 8:2 “How long will you go on talking like this? What you are saying is raging wind!

Job 8:3 Does God distort judgment? Does [Shaddai] pervert justice?

Job 8:4 If your children sinned against him, he left them to be victims of their own offense.

Job 8:5 “If you will earnestly seek God and plead for [Shaddai]’s favor,

Job 8:6 if you are pure and upright; then he will rouse himself for you and fulfill your needs.

Job 8:7 Then, although your beginnings were small, your future will be very great indeed.

Job 8:8 “Ask the older generation, and consider what their ancestors found out;

Job 8:9 for we who were born yesterday know nothing, our days on earth are but a shadow.

Job 8:10 They will teach you, they will tell you, they will say what is in their hearts:

Job 8:11 ‘Can papyrus grow except in a marsh? Can swamp grass flourish without water?

Job 8:12 While still green, before being cut down, it dries up faster than any other plant.

Job 8:13 Such are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of a hypocrite will perish-

Job 8:14 his confidence is mere gossamer, his trust a spider’s web.

Job 8:15 He can lean on his house, but it won’t stand; he can hold on to it, but it won’t last;

Job 8:16 [[for its destruction will come]] like the lush growth of a plant in the sun, its shoots may spread out all over its garden, Job 8:17 but meanwhile its roots cause the stone house to collapse, as it seizes hold of the rocks;

Job 8:18 someone who tears it away from its place denies he has ever seen it.

Job 8:19 Yes, this is the “joy” of the way [[of the godless]], and out of the dust will spring up others [[like him]].’

Job 8:20 “Look, God will not reject a blameless man; nor will he uphold wrongdoers.

Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

Job 8:22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will cease to exist.”

Job 9:1 Then Iyov responded:

Job 9:2 “Indeed, I know that this is so; but how can a human win a case against God?

Job 9:3 Whoever might want to argue with him could not answer him one [[question]] in a thousand.

Job 9:4 His heart is so wise, his strength so great- who can resist him and succeed?

Job 9:5 “He moves the mountains, although they don’t know it, when he overturns them in his anger.

Job 9:6 He shakes the earth from its place; its supporting pillars tremble.

Job 9:7 He commands the sun, and it fails to rise; he shuts up the stars under his seal.

Job 9:8 He alone spreads out the sky and walks on the waves in the sea.

Job 9:9 He made the Great Bear, Orion, the Pleiades and the hidden constellations of the south.

Job 9:10 He does great, unsearchable things, wonders beyond counting.

Job 9:11 He can go right by me, and I don’t see him; he moves past without my being aware of him.

Job 9:12 If he kills [[people]], who will ask why? Who will say to him, ‘What are you doing?’

Job 9:13 God will not withdraw his anger- even Rahav’s supporters submit to him.

Job 9:14 “How much less can I answer him and select my arguments against him!

Job 9:15 Even if I were right, I wouldn’t answer; I could only ask for mercy from my judge.

Job 9:16 If I summoned him, and he answered me, I still can’t believe he would listen to my plea.

Job 9:17 He could break me with a storm; he could multiply my wounds for no reason,

Job 9:18 to the point where I couldn’t even breathe- with such bitterness he could fill me!

Job 9:19 If it’s a matter of force, look how mighty he is; if justice, who can summon him to court?

Job 9:20 Even if I’m right, my own mouth will condemn me; if I’m innocent, it would pronounce me guilty.

Job 9:21 “I am innocent. Don’t I know myself? But I’ve had enough of this life of mine!

Job 9:22 So I say it’s all the same- he destroys innocent and wicked alike.

Job 9:23 When disaster brings sudden death, he laughs at the plight of the innocent.

Job 9:24 The earth has been given to the power of the wicked; he covers the faces of its judges- if it isn’t he, then who is it?

Job 9:25 My days pass on more swiftly than a runner; they flee without seeing anything good.

Job 9:26 They skim by like skiffs built of reeds, like an eagle swooping down on its prey.

Job 9:27 “If I say, ‘I’ll forget my complaining, I’ll put off my sad face and be cheerful,’

Job 9:28 then I’m still afraid of all my pain, and I know you will not hold me innocent.

Job 9:29 I will be condemned, so why waste my efforts?

Job 9:30 Even if I washed myself in melted snow and cleansed my hands with lye,

Job 9:31 you would plunge me into the muddy pit, till my own clothes would detest me.

Job 9:32 “For he is not merely human like me; there is no answer that I could give him if we were to come together in court.

Job 9:33 There is no arbitrator between us who could lay his hand on us both.

Job 9:34 If he would remove his rod from me and not let his terrors frighten me,

Job 9:35 then I would speak without fear of him; for when I’m alone, I’m not afraid.

Job 10:1 “I am just worn out. “By my life [[I swear]], I will never abandon my complaint; I will speak out in my soul’s bitterness.

Job 10:2 I will say to God, ‘Don’t condemn me! Tell me why you are contending with me.

Job 10:3 Do you gain some advantage from oppressing, from spurning what your own hands made, from shining on the schemes of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see as humans see?

Job 10:5 Are your days like the days of mortals? Are your years like human years,

Job 10:6 that you have to seek my guilt and search out my sin?

Job 10:7 You know that I won’t be condemned, yet no one can rescue me from your power.

Job 10:8 Your own hands shaped me, they made me; so why do you turn and destroy me?

Job 10:9 Please remember that you made me, like clay; will you return me to dust?

Job 10:10 Didn’t you pour me out like milk, then let me thicken like cheese?

Job 10:11 You clothed me with skin and flesh you knit me together with bones and sinews.

Job 10:12 You granted me life and grace; your careful attention preserved my spirit.

Job 10:13 “‘Yet you hid these things in your heart; I know what your secret purpose was-

Job 10:14 to watch until I would sin and then not absolve me of my guilt.

Job 10:15 If I am wicked, woe to me!- but if righteous, I still don’t dare raise my head, because I am so filled with shame, so soaked in my misery.

Job 10:16 You rise up to hunt me like a lion, and you keep treating me in such peculiar ways.

Job 10:17 You keep producing fresh witnesses against me, your anger against me keeps growing, your troops assail me, wave after wave.

Job 10:18 “‘Why did you bring me out of the womb? I wish I had died there where no eye could see me.

Job 10:19 I would have been as if I had never existed, I would have been carried from womb to grave.

Job 10:20 Aren’t my days few? So stop! Leave me alone, so I can cheer up a little Job 10:21 before I go to the place of no return, to the land of darkness and death-dark gloom, Job 10:22 a land of gloom like darkness itself, of dense darkness and utter disorder, where even the light is dark.'"

Job 11:1 Next Tzofar the Na'amati spoke up:

Job 11:2 "Shouldn't this torrent of words be answered? Does talking a lot make a person right?

Job 11:3 Is your babble supposed to put others to silence? When you mock, is no one to make you ashamed?

Job 11:4 "You claim that your teaching is pure; you tell [[God]], 'I am clean in your sight.'

Job 11:5 I wish that God would speak, would open his mouth to answer you,

Job 11:6 would tell you the secrets of wisdom, which is worth twice as much as common sense. Understand that God is demanding of you less than your guilt deserves.

Job 11:7 "Can you penetrate God's depths? Can you find out [Shaddai]'s limits?

Job 11:8 They're as high as heaven; what can you do? They're deeper than Sh'ol; what can you know?

Job 11:9 Their extent is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.

Job 11:10 If he passes through, puts in prison and assembles [[for judgment]], who can prevent him?

Job 11:11 For he knows when people are worthless; so if he sees iniquity, won't he look into it?

Job 11:12 "An empty man can gain understanding, even if he was born like a wild donkey.

Job 11:13 If you will set your heart right, if you will spread out your hands toward him,

Job 11:14 if you will put your iniquity at a distance and not let unrighteousness remain in your tents,

Job 11:15 then when you lift up your face, there will be no defect; you will be firm and free from fear.

Job 11:16 "For you will forget your misery; you'll remember it like a flood that passed through long ago;

Job 11:17 your life will be brighter than noon; even its darkness will be like morning.

Job 11:18 You will be confident, because there is hope; you will look around you and lie down secure;

Job 11:19 you will rest, and no one will make you afraid. Many will seek your favor;

Job 11:20 but the eyes of the wicked will fail [[to find comfort]]. They will find no way to escape, and their hope will turn to complete disappointment.”

Job 12:1 Iyov responded:

Job 12:2 “No doubt you are [[the only]] people [[that matter]]; and when you die, so will wisdom.

Job 12:3 But I too have a brain, as much as you, In no way am I inferior to you. Besides, who doesn’t know things like these?

Job 12:4 “Anyone who calls on God, and he answers him, becomes a laughingstock to his friends- they make fun of an innocent, blameless man.

Job 12:5 Those at ease have contempt for misfortune, for the blow that strikes somebody already staggering.

Job 12:6 The tents of robbers prosper, [[the homes of]] those who anger God are secure, those who carry their gods in their hands.

Job 12:7 “But ask the animals- they will teach you- and the birds in the air- they will tell you;

Job 12:8 or speak to the earth- it will teach you- and the fish in the sea will inform you:

Job 12:9 every one of them knows that the hand of ADONAI has done this!

Job 12:10 In his hand is the life of every living thing and the spirit of every human being.

Job 12:11 Shouldn’t the ear test words, just as the palate tastes food?

Job 12:12 Is wisdom [[only]] with aged men? discernment [[only]] with long life?

Job 12:13 “With God are wisdom and power; he has [[good]] counsel and understanding.

Job 12:14 When he breaks something down, it can’t be rebuilt; when he imprisons someone, he can’t be released.

Job 12:15 When he holds back water, there is drought; when he sends it out, it overruns the land.

Job 12:16 With him are strength and common sense; both the misled and those who mislead are his.

Job 12:17 He leads counselors away captive, he makes fools of judges.

Job 12:18 He removes authority from kings, then binds them up [[as prisoners]].

Job 12:19 He leads [cohanim] away captive and overthrows those long in power.

Job 12:20 Those who are trusted he deprives of speech, and he removes the discernment of the aged.

Job 12:21 He pours contempt on princes and loosens the belt of the strong.

Job 12:22 He discloses the deepest recesses of darkness and brings light into shadows dark as death.

Job 12:23 He makes nations great and destroys them; he enlarges nations, then leads them away.

Job 12:24 He removes understanding from a country’s leaders and makes them wander in trackless deserts.

Job 12:25 They grope in unlit darkness; he makes them stagger like drunks.

Job 13:1 “All this I have seen with my own eyes; with my own ears I have heard and understood it.

Job 13:2 Whatever you know, I know too; I am not inferior to you.

Job 13:3 However, it’s [Shaddai] I want to speak with; I want to prove my case to God.

Job 13:4 But you, what you do is whitewash with lies; you are all witch doctors!

Job 13:5 I wish you would just stay silent; for you, that would be wisdom!

Job 13:6 “Now listen to my reasoning, pay attention to how I present my dispute.

Job 13:7 Is it for God’s sake that you speak so wickedly? for him that you talk deceitfully?

Job 13:8 Do you need to take his side and plead God’s case for him?

Job 13:9 If he examines you, will all go well? Can you deceive him, as one man deceives another?

Job 13:10 If you are secretly flattering [[him]], he will surely rebuke you.

Job 13:11 Doesn’t God’s majesty terrify you? Aren’t you overcome with dread of him?

Job 13:12 Your maxims are garbage-proverbs; your answers crumble like clay.

Job 13:13 “So be quiet! Let me be! I’ll do the talking, come on me what may!

Job 13:14 Why am I taking my flesh in my teeth, taking my life in my hands?

Job 13:15 Look, he will kill me- I don’t expect more, but I will still defend my ways to his face.

Job 13:16 And this is what will save me- that a hypocrite cannot appear before him.

Job 13:17 “Listen closely, then, to my words; pay attention to what I am saying.

Job 13:18 Here, now, I have prepared my case; I know I am in the right.

Job 13:19 If anyone can contend with me, I will be quiet and die!

Job 13:20 “Only grant two things to me, God; then I won’t hide myself from your face-

Job 13:21 take your hand away from me, and don’t let fear of you frighten me.

Job 13:22 Then, if you call, I will answer. Or let me speak, and you, answer me!

Job 13:23 How many crimes and sins have I committed? Make me know my transgression and sin.

Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face and think of me as your enemy?

Job 13:25 Do you want to harass a wind-driven leaf? do you want to pursue a dry straw?

Job 13:26 Is this why you draw up bitter charges against me and punish me for the faults of my youth?

Job 13:27 You put my feet in the stocks, you watch me closely wherever I go, you trace out each footprint of mine-

Job 13:28 though [[my body]] decays like something rotten or like a moth-eaten garment.

Job 14:1 “A human being, born from a woman, lives a short, trouble-filled life.

Job 14:2 He comes up like a flower and withers away, flees like a shadow, doesn’t last.

Job 14:3 You fix your eyes on a creature like this? You drag him to court with you?

Job 14:4 Who can bring what is pure from something impure? No one!

Job 14:5 Since his days are fixed in advance, the number of his months is known to you, and you have fixed the limits which he can’t cross;

Job 14:6 look away from him, and let him be; so that, like a hired worker, he can finish his day in peace.

Job 14:7 “For a tree, there is hope that if cut down, it will sprout again, that its shoots will continue to grow.

Job 14:8 Even if its roots grow old in the earth and its stump dies in the ground,

Job 14:9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth branches like a young plant.

Job 14:10 But when a human being grows weak and dies, he expires; and then where is he?

Job 14:11 Just as water in a lake disappears, as a river shrinks and dries up;

Job 14:12 so a person lies down and doesn't arise- until the sky no longer exists; it will not awaken, it won't be roused from its sleep.

Job 14:13 "I wish you would hide me in Sh'ol, conceal me until your anger has passed, then fix a time and remember me!

Job 14:14 If a man dies, will he live again? I will wait all the days of my life for my change to come.

Job 14:15 You will call, and I will answer you; you will long to see what you made again.

Job 14:16 Whereas now you count each step of mine, then you will not keep watch for my sin.

Job 14:17 You will seal up my crime in a bag and cover over my iniquity.

Job 14:18 "Just as a mountain erodes and falls away, its rock is removed from its place,

Job 14:19 the water wears away its stones, and the floods wash away its soil, so you destroy a person's hope.

Job 14:20 You overpower him, and he passes on; you change his appearance and send him away.

Job 14:21 His children earn honor, but he doesn't know it; or they are brought low, but he doesn't notice.

Job 14:22 He feels pain only for his own flesh; he laments only for himself."

Job 15:1 Then Elifaz the Teimani spoke:

Job 15:2 "Should a wise man answer with hot-air arguments? Should he fill up his belly with the hot east wind?

Job 15:3 Should he reason with useless talk or make speeches that do him no good?

Job 15:4 "Why, you are abolishing fear of God and hindering prayer to him!

Job 15:5 Your iniquity is teaching you how to speak, and deceit is your language of choice.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, not I; your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 “Were you the firstborn of the human race, brought forth before the hills?

Job 15:8 Do you listen in on God’s secrets? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 What do you know that we don’t know? What discernment do you have that we don’t?

Job 15:10 With us are gray-haired men, old men, men much older than your father.

Job 15:11 Are the comfortings of God not enough for you, or a word that deals gently with you?

Job 15:12 Why does your heart carry you away, and why do your eyes flash angrily,

Job 15:13 so that you turn your spirit against God and let such words escape your mouth?

Job 15:14 “What is a human being, that he could be innocent, someone born from a woman, that he could be righteous?

Job 15:15 God doesn’t trust even his holy ones; no, even the heavens are not innocent in his view.

Job 15:16 How much less one loathesome and corrupt, a human being, who drinks iniquity like water.

Job 15:17 “I will tell you- hear me out! I will recount what I have seen;

Job 15:18 wise men have told it, and it wasn’t hidden from their fathers either,

Job 15:19 to whom alone the land was given- no foreigner passed among them.

Job 15:20 “The wicked is in torment all his life, for all the years allotted to the tyrant.

Job 15:21 Terrifying sounds are in his ears; in prosperity, robbers swoop down on him.

Job 15:22 He despairs of returning from darkness- he is destined to meet the sword.

Job 15:23 He wanders and looks for food, which isn’t there. He knows the day of darkness is ready, at hand.

Job 15:24 Distress and anguish overwhelm him, assaulting him like a king about to enter battle.

Job 15:25 “He raises his hand against God and boldly defies [Shaddai], Job 15:26 running against him with head held high and thickly ornamented shield.

Job 15:27 “He lets his face grow gross and fat, and the rest of him bulges with blubber;

Job 15:28 he lives in abandoned cities, in houses no one would inhabit, houses about to become ruins;

Job 15:29 therefore he will not remain rich, his wealth will not endure, his produce will not bend [[the grain stalks]] to the earth.

Job 15:30 “He will not escape from darkness. The flame will dry up his branches. By a breath from the mouth of [[God]], he will go away.

Job 15:31 Let him not rely on futile methods, thereby deceiving himself; for what he will receive in exchange will be only futility.

Job 15:32 This will be accomplished in advance of its day. His palm frond will not be fresh and green;

Job 15:33 he will be like a vine that sheds its unripe grapes, like an olive tree that drops its flowers.

Job 15:34 “For the community of the ungodly is sterile; fire consumes the tents of bribery.

Job 15:35 They conceive trouble and give birth to evil; their womb prepares deceit.”

Job 16:1 In response Iyov said:

Job 16:2 “I have heard this stuff so often! Such sorry comforters, all of you!

Job 16:3 Is there no end to words of wind? What provokes you to answer this way?

Job 16:4 “If I were in your place, I too could speak as you do- I could string phrases together against you and shake my head at you.

Job 16:5 I could ‘strengthen’ you with my mouth, with lip service I could ‘ease your grief.’

Job 16:6 If I speak, my own pain isn’t eased; and if I don’t speak, it still doesn’t leave.

Job 16:7 “But now he has worn me out; you have desolated this whole community of mine.

Job 16:8 Besides, you have shriveled me up; and this serves to witness against me. My being so thin rises up against me and testifies to my face.

Job 16:9 He tears me apart in his anger; he holds a grudge against me; he gnashes on me with his teeth. “My enemies look daggers at me.

Job 16:10 Wide-mouthed, they gape at me; with scorn, they slap my cheeks; they gather themselves together against me.

Job 16:11 “God delivers me to the perverse, throws me into the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 I was at peace, and he shook me apart. Yes, he grabbed me by the neck and dashed me to pieces. He set me up as his target-

Job 16:13 his archers surrounded me. He slashes my innards and shows no mercy, he pours my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 He breaks in on me again and again, attacking me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 “I sewed sackcloth together to cover my skin and laid my pride in the dust;

Job 16:16 my face is red from crying, and on my eyelids is a death-dark shadow.

Job 16:17 Yet my hands are free from violence, and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 “Earth, don’t cover my blood; don’t let my cry rest [[without being answered]].

Job 16:19 Even now, my witness is in heaven; my advocate is there on high.

Job 16:20 With friends like these as intercessors, my eyes pour out tears to God,

Job 16:21 that he would arbitrate between a man and God, just as one does for his fellow human being.

Job 16:22 For I have but few years left before I leave on the road of no return.

Job 17:1 “My spirit is broken, my days are quenched, I am marked for the grave.

Job 17:2 Mockers are all around me; my eye meets only their hostility.

Job 17:3 Be my guarantor, yourself! Who else will put up a pledge for me?

Job 17:4 For you have shut their minds to common sense; therefore you will not let them triumph.

Job 17:5 Should people share with their friends when their own children’s eyes are so sad?

Job 17:6 “He has made me a byword among the peoples, a creature in whose face they spit.

Job 17:7 I am nearly blind with grief, my limbs reduced to a shadow.

Job 17:8 The upright are perplexed at this, the innocent aroused against the hypocrites.

Job 17:9 Yet the righteous hold on to their way, and those with clean hands grow stronger and stronger.

Job 17:10 “But as for you all, turn around! Come back!- yet I won’t find a wise man among you.

Job 17:11 My days are over, my plans cut off, which I had cherished so;

Job 17:12 but they [[try to]] turn [[my]] night into day, [[saying,]] ‘Light is near!’- in the face of darkness.

Job 17:13 “If I hope for Sh’ol to be my house; if I spread my couch in the dark;

Job 17:14 if I say to the pit, ‘You are my father,’ and to worms, ‘You are my mother and sister,’

Job 17:15 then where is my hope? And that hope of mine, who will see it?

Job 17:16 Only those who go down with me to the bars of Sh’ol, when we rest together in the dust.”

Job 18:1 Bildad the Shuchi said,

Job 18:2 “When will you put an end to words? Think about it- then we’ll talk!

Job 18:3 Why are we thought of as cattle, stupid in your view?

Job 18:4 You can tear yourself to pieces in your anger, but the earth won’t be abandoned just for your sake; not even a rock will be moved from its place.

Job 18:5 “The light of the wicked will flicker and die, not a spark from his fire will shine,

Job 18:6 the light in his tent is darkened, the lamp over him will be snuffed out.

Job 18:7 His vigorous stride is shortened, his own plans make him trip and fall.

Job 18:8 For his own feet plunge him into a net, he wanders into its meshes.

Job 18:9 A trap grabs him by the heel, a snare catches hold of him.

Job 18:10 A noose is hidden for him in the ground; pitfalls lie in his path.

Job 18:11 Terrors overwhelm him on every side and scatter about his feet.

Job 18:12 “Trouble is hungry for him, calamity ready for his fall;

Job 18:13 disease eats away at his skin; the first stages of death devour him gradually.

Job 18:14 What he relied on will be torn from his tent, and he will be marched before the king of terrors.

Job 18:15 “What isn’t his at all will live in his tent; sulfur will be scattered on his home.

Job 18:16 His roots beneath him will dry up; above him, his branch will wither.

Job 18:17 Memory of him will fade from the land, while abroad his name will be unknown.

Job 18:18 He will be pushed from light into darkness and driven out of the world.

Job 18:19 “Without son or grandson among his people, no one will remain in his dwellings.

Job 18:20 Those who come after will be appalled at his fate, just as those there before were struck with horror.

Job 18:21 “This is how things are in the homes of the wicked, and this is the place of those who don’t know God.”

Job 19:1 Then Iyov answered:

Job 19:2 “How long will you go on making me angry, crushing me with words?

Job 19:3 You’ve insulted me ten times already; aren’t you ashamed to treat me so badly?

Job 19:4 Even if it’s true that I made a mistake, my error stays with me.

Job 19:5 “You may take a superior attitude toward me and cite my disgrace as proof against me;

Job 19:6 but know that it’s God who has put me in the wrong and closed his net around me.

Job 19:7 If I cry, ‘Violence!’ no one hears me; I cry aloud, but there is no justice.

Job 19:8 “He has fenced off my way, so that I can’t pass; he has covered my paths with darkness.

Job 19:9 He has stripped me of my glory and removed the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He tears every part of me down- I am gone; he uproots my hope like a tree.

Job 19:11 “Inflamed with anger against me, he counts me as one of his foes.

Job 19:12 His troops advance together, they make their way against me and encamp around my tent.

Job 19:13 “He has made my brothers keep their distance, those who know me are wholly estranged from me,

Job 19:14 my kinsfolk have failed me, and my close friends have forgotten me.

Job 19:15 Those living in my house consider me a stranger; my slave-girls too- in their view I’m a foreigner.

Job 19:16 I call my servant, and he doesn’t answer, even if I beg him for a favor!

Job 19:17 “My wife can’t stand my breath, I am loathsome to my own family.

Job 19:18 Even young children despise me- if I stand up, they start jeering at me.

Job 19:19 All my intimate friends abhor me, and those I loved have turned against me.

Job 19:20 My bones stick to my skin and flesh; I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 “Pity me, friends of mine, pity me! For the hand of God has struck me!

Job 19:22 Must you pursue me as God does, never satisfied with my flesh?

Job 19:23 I wish my words were written down, that they were inscribed in a scroll,

Job 19:24 that, engraved with iron and filled with lead, they were cut into rock forever!

Job 19:25 “But I know that my Redeemer lives, that in the end he will rise on the dust;

Job 19:26 so that after my skin has been thus destroyed, then even without my flesh, I will see God.

Job 19:27 I will see him for myself, my eyes, not someone else’s, will behold him. My heart grows weak inside me!

Job 19:28 “If you say, ‘How will we persecute him?’- the root of the matter is found in me.

Job 19:29 You had best fear the sword, for anger brings the punishment of the sword, so that you will know there is judgment!”

Job 20:1 Tzofar the Na’amati replied,

Job 20:2 “My thoughts are pressing me to answer; I feel such an urge to speak!

Job 20:3 I have heard reproof that outrages me, but a spirit past my understanding gives me a reply.

Job 20:4 “Don’t you know that ever since time began, ever since humans were placed on earth,

Job 20:5 that the triumph of the wicked is always short-lived, and the joy of the ungodly is gone in a moment?

Job 20:6 His pride may mount to the heavens, his head may touch the clouds;

Job 20:7 but he will vanish completely, like his own dung- those who used to see him will ask, ‘Where is he?’

Job 20:8 Like a dream he flies off and is not found again; like a vision in the night he is chased away.

Job 20:9 The eye which once saw him will see him no more, his place will not behold him again.

Job 20:10 His children will have to pay back the poor; his hands will restore their wealth.

Job 20:11 His bones may be filled with [[the vigor of]] his youth, but it will join him lying in the dust.

Job 20:12 “Wickedness may taste sweet in his mouth, he may savor and roll it around on his tongue,

Job 20:13 he may linger over it and not let it go but keep it there in his mouth-

Job 20:14 yet in his stomach his food goes bad, it works inside him like snake venom;

Job 20:15 the wealth he swallows he vomits back up; God makes him disgorge it.

Job 20:16 He sucks the poison of asps, the viper’s fangs will kill him.

Job 20:17 He will not enjoy the rivers, the streams flowing with honey and cream.

Job 20:18 He will have to give back what he toiled for; he won’t get to swallow it down- to the degree that he acquired wealth, he won’t get to enjoy it.

Job 20:19 “For he crushed and abandoned the poor, seizing houses he did not build,

Job 20:20 because his appetite would not let him rest, in his greed he let nothing escape;

Job 20:21 nothing is left that he did not devour; therefore his well-being will not last.

Job 20:22 With all needs satisfied, he will be in distress; the full force of misery will come over him.

Job 20:23 “This is what will fill his belly!- [[God]] will lay on him all his burning anger and make it rain over him, into his insides.

Job 20:24 If he flees from the weapon of iron, the bow of bronze will pierce him through-

Job 20:25 he pulls the arrow out of his back, the shining tip comes out from his innards; terrors come upon him.

Job 20:26 “Total darkness is laid up for his treasures, a fire fanned by no one will consume him, and calamity awaits what is left in his tent.

Job 20:27 The heavens will reveal his guilt, and the earth will rise up against him.

Job 20:28 The income of his household will be carried off; his goods will flow away on the day of his wrath.

Job 20:29 This is God’s reward for the wicked, the heritage God decrees for him.”

Job 21:1 Then Iyov responded:

Job 21:2 “Listen carefully to my words; let this be the comfort you give me.

Job 21:3 Bear with me as I speak; then, after I have spoken, you can go on mocking.

Job 21:4 “As for me, is my complaint merely to other people? Don’t I have grounds for being short-tempered?

Job 21:5 Look at me, and be appalled; cover your mouth with your hand!

Job 21:6 Whenever I recall it, I am in shock; my whole body shudders.

Job 21:7 “Why do the wicked go on living, grow old and keep increasing their power?

Job 21:8 They see their children settled with them, their posterity assured.

Job 21:9 Their houses are safe, with nothing to fear; God’s rod is not on them.

Job 21:10 Their bulls are fertile without fail, their cows get pregnant and don’t miscarry.

Job 21:11 They produce flocks of babies, and their children dance around.

Job 21:12 They sing with tambourines and lyres and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.

Job 21:13 They spend their days in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace.

Job 21:14 “Yet to God they said, ‘Leave us alone! We don’t want to know about your ways.

Job 21:15 What is [Shaddai], that we should serve him? What do we gain if we pray to him?’

Job 21:16 Isn’t their prosperity already theirs? The plans of the wicked are far from me.

Job 21:17 “How often is the lamp of the wicked put out? How often does their calamity come upon them? How often does [[God]] deal out pain in his anger, Job 21:18 to make them like straw in the wind, like chaff carried off by a storm?

Job 21:19 God lays up for their children [[the punishment for their]] iniquity. He should lay it on [[the wicked]] themselves, so that they can feel it!

Job 21:20 Let their own eyes see their own destruction and themselves drink the wrath of [Shaddai.]

Job 21:21 What joy can they have in their family after them, given that their months are numbered?

Job 21:22 “Can anyone teach God knowledge? After all, he judges those who are on high.

Job 21:23 One person dies in his full strength, completely at ease and content;

Job 21:24 his pails are full of milk, and the marrow in his bones is moist.

Job 21:25 Another dies with embittered heart, never having tasted happiness.

Job 21:26 They lie down alike in the dust, and the worm covers them both.

Job 21:27 “Look, I know what you are thinking and your plans to do me wrong.

Job 21:28 You ask, ‘Where is the great man’s house? Where is the tent where the wicked once lived?’

Job 21:29 Haven’t you ever questioned travelers? Don’t you accept their testimony

Job 21:30 that the evil man is saved on the day of disaster, rescued on the day of wrath?

Job 21:31 So who will confront him with his ways? Who will repay him for what he has done?

Job 21:32 For he is carried off to the grave, people keep watch over his tomb,

Job 21:33 the clods of the valley are sweet to him; so everyone follows his example, just as before him were countless others.

Job 21:34 “Why offer me such meaningless comfort? Of your answers, only the perfidy remains.”

Job 22:1 Next Elifaz the Teimani replied:

Job 22:2 “Can a human be of advantage to God? Can even the wisest benefit him?

Job 22:3 Does [Shaddai] gain if you are righteous? Does he profit if you make your ways blameless?

Job 22:4 “Is he rebuking you because you fear him? Is this why he enters into judgment with you?

Job 22:5 Isn’t it because your wickedness is great? Aren’t your iniquities endless?

Job 22:6 “For you kept your kinsmen’s goods as collateral for no reason, you stripped the poorly clothed of what clothing they have, Job 22:7 you didn't give water to the weary to drink, you withheld food from the hungry.

Job 22:8 As a wealthy man, an owner of land, and as a man of rank, who lives on it,

Job 22:9 you sent widows away empty-handed and left the arms of orphans crushed.

Job 22:10 "No wonder there are snares all around you, and sudden terror overwhelms you,

Job 22:11 or darkness, so that you can't see, and a flood of water that covers you up!

Job 22:12 "Isn't God in the heights of heaven, looking [[down even]] on the highest stars?

Job 22:13 Yet you say, 'What does God know? Can he see through thick darkness to judge?

Job 22:14 The clouds veil him off, so that he can't see; he just wanders around in heaven.'

Job 22:15 "Are you going to keep to the old way, the one the wicked have trodden,

Job 22:16 the ones snatched away before their time, whose foundations a flood swept away?

Job 22:17 They said to God, 'Leave us alone! What can [Shaddai] do to us?'

Job 22:18 Yet he himself had filled their homes with good things! (But the advice of the wicked is far away from me.)

Job 22:19 The righteous saw this and rejoiced; the innocent laughed them to scorn-

Job 22:20 'Indeed, our substance has not been not cut off, but the fire has consumed their wealth.'

Job 22:21 "Learn to be at peace with [[God]]; in this way good will come [[back]] to you.

Job 22:22 Please! Receive instruction from his mouth, and take his words to heart.

Job 22:23 If you return to [Shaddai], you will be built up. If you drive wickedness far from your tents,

Job 22:24 if you lay your treasure down in the dust and the gold of Ofir among the rocks in the [vadi]s,

Job 22:25 and let [Shaddai] be your treasure and your sparkling silver;

Job 22:26 then [Shaddai] will be your delight, you will lift up your face to God;

Job 22:27 you will entreat him, and he will hear you, and you will pay what you vowed;

Job 22:28 what you decide to do will succeed, and light will shine on your path;

Job 22:29 when someone is brought down, you will say, ‘It was pride, because [[God]] saves the humble.’

Job 22:30 “He delivers even the unclean; so if your hands are clean, you will be delivered.”

Job 23:1 Then Iyov answered:

Job 23:2 “Today too my complaint is bitter; my hand is weighed down because of my groaning.

Job 23:3 I wish I knew where I could find him; then I would go to where he is.

Job 23:4 I would state my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 I would know his answering words and grasp what he would tell me.

Job 23:6 Would he browbeat me with his great power? No, he would pay attention to me.

Job 23:7 There an upright person could reason with him; thus I might be forever acquitted by my judge.

Job 23:8 “If I head east, he isn’t there; if I head west, I don’t detect him,

Job 23:9 if I turn north, I don’t spot him; in the south he is veiled, and I still don’t see him.

Job 23:10 Yet he knows the way I take; when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.

Job 23:11 My feet have stayed in his footsteps; I keep to his way without turning aside.

Job 23:12 I don’t withdraw from his lips’ command; I treasure his words more than my daily food.

Job 23:13 “But he has no equal, so who can change him? What he desires, he does.

Job 23:14 He will accomplish what is decreed for me, and he has many plans like this.

Job 23:15 This is why I am terrified of him; the more I think about it, the more afraid I am-

Job 23:16 God has undermined my courage; [Shaddai] frightens me.

Job 23:17 Yet I am not cut off by the darkness; he has protected me from the deepest gloom.

Job 24:1 “Why are times not kept by [Shaddai]? Why do those who know him not see his days?

Job 24:2 There are those who move boundary markers; they carry off flocks and pasture them;

Job 24:3 they drive away the orphan’s donkey; as collateral, they seize the widow’s ox.

Job 24:4 They push the needy out of the way- the poor of the land are forced into hiding;

Job 24:5 like wild donkeys in the wilderness, they have to go out and scavenge food, [[hoping that]] the desert will provide food for their children.

Job 24:6 They must reap in fields that are not their own and gather late grapes in the vineyards of the wicked.

Job 24:7 They pass the night without clothing, naked, uncovered in the cold,

Job 24:8 wet with mountain rain, and hugging the rock for lack of shelter.

Job 24:9 “There are those who pluck orphans from the breast and [[those who]] take [[the clothes of]] the poor in pledge,

Job 24:10 so that they go about stripped, unclothed; they go hungry, as they carry sheaves [[of grain]];

Job 24:11 between these men’s rows [[of olives]], they make oil; treading their winepresses, they suffer thirst.

Job 24:12 Men are groaning in the city, the mortally wounded are crying for help, yet God finds nothing amiss!

Job 24:13 “There are those who rebel against the light- they don’t know its ways or stay in its paths.

Job 24:14 The murderer rises with the light to kill the poor and needy; while at night he is like a thief.

Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer too waits for twilight; he thinks, ‘No eye will see me’; but [[to be sure]], he covers his face.

Job 24:16 When it’s dark, they break into houses; in the daytime, they stay out of sight. [[None of them]] know the light.

Job 24:17 For to all of them deep darkness is like morning, for the terrors of deep darkness are familiar to them.

Job 24:18 “May they be scum on the surface of the water, may their share of land be cursed, may no one turn on the way of their vineyards,

Job 24:19 may drought and heat steal away their snow water and Sh’ol those who have sinned.

Job 24:20 May the womb forget them, may worms find them sweet, may they no longer be remembered- thus may iniquity be snapped like a stick.

Job 24:21 They devour childless women and give no help to widows.

Job 24:22 “Yet God keeps pulling the mighty along- they get up, even when not trusting their own lives.

Job 24:23 However, even if God lets them rest in safety, his eyes are on their ways.

Job 24:24 They are exalted for a little while; and then they are gone, brought low, gathered in like all others, shriveled up like ears of grain.

Job 24:25 “And even if it isn’t so now, still no one can prove me a liar and show that my words are worthless.”

Job 25:1 Bildad the Shuchi said,

Job 25:2 “Dominion and fear belong to him; he makes peace in his high places.

Job 25:3 Can his armies be numbered? On whom does his light not shine?

Job 25:4 How then can humans be righteous with God? How can those born of women be clean?

Job 25:5 Why, before him even the moon lacks brightness, and the stars themselves are not pure.

Job 25:6 How much less a human, who is merely a maggot, a mortal, who is only a worm?!”

Job 26:1 Then Iyov replied,

Job 26:2 “What great help you bring to the powerless! what deliverance to the arm without strength!

Job 26:3 Such wonderful advice for a man lacking wisdom! So much common sense you’ve expressed!

Job 26:4 Who helped you to say these words? Whose spirit is it, coming forth from you?

Job 26:5 “The ghosts of the dead tremble beneath the water, with its creatures.

Job 26:6 Sh’ol is naked before him; Abaddon lies uncovered.

Job 26:7 He stretches the north over chaos and suspends the earth on nothing.

Job 26:8 He binds up the water in his thick clouds, yet no cloud is torn apart by it.

Job 26:9 He shuts off the view of his throne by spreading his cloud across it.

Job 26:10 He fixed a circle on the surface of the water, defining the boundary between light and dark.

Job 26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble, aghast at his rebuke.

Job 26:12 He stirs up the sea with his power, and by his skill he strikes down Rahav.

Job 26:13 With his Spirit he spreads the heavens; his hand pierces the fleeing serpent.

Job 26:14 And these are but the fringes of his ways; how faint the echo we hear of him! But who is able to grasp the meaning of his thundering power?"

Job 27:1 Iyov continued his speech:

Job 27:2 "I swear by the living God, who is denying me justice, and by [Shaddai,] who deals with me so bitterly,

Job 27:3 that as long my life remains in me and God's breath is in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 my lips will not speak unrighteousness, or my tongue utter deceit.

Job 27:5 Far be it from me to say you are right; I will keep my integrity till the day I die.

Job 27:6 I hold to my righteousness; I won't let it go; my heart will not shame me as long as I live.

Job 27:7 "May my enemy meet the doom of the wicked; my foe the fate of the unrighteous.

Job 27:8 For what hope does the godless have from his gain when God takes away his life?

Job 27:9 Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

Job 27:10 Will he take delight in [Shaddai] and always call on God?

Job 27:11 "I am teaching you how God uses his power, not hiding what [Shaddai] is doing.

Job 27:12 Look, you all can see for yourselves; so why are you talking such empty nonsense?

Job 27:13 "This is God's reward for the wicked man, the heritage oppressors receive from [Shaddai]:

Job 27:14 if his sons become many, they go to the sword; and his children never have enough to eat.

Job 27:15 Those of his who remain are buried by plague, and their widows do not weep.

Job 27:16 Even if he piles up silver like dust and stores away clothing [[in mounds]] like clay-

Job 27:17 he may collect it, but the just will wear it, and the upright divide up the silver.

Job 27:18 He builds his house weak as a spider's web, as flimsy as a watchman's shack.

Job 27:19 He may lie down rich, but his wealth yields nothing; when he opens his eyes, it isn’t there.

Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; at night a whirlwind steals him away.

Job 27:21 The east wind carries him off, and he’s gone; it sweeps him far from his place.

Job 27:22 Yes, it hurls itself at him, sparing nothing; he does all he can to flee from its power.

Job 27:23 [[People]] clap their hands at him in derision and hiss him out of his home.

Job 28:1 “There are mines for silver and places where gold is refined;

Job 28:2 iron is extracted from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.

Job 28:3 Miners conquer the darkness and dig as far in as they can, to the ore in gloom and deep darkness.

Job 28:4 There where no one lives, they break open a shaft; the feet passing over are oblivious to them; far from people, suspended in space, they swing to and fro.

Job 28:5 “While the earth is [[peacefully]] yielding bread, underneath, it is being convulsed as if by fire;

Job 28:6 its rocks have veins of sapphire, and there are flecks of gold.

Job 28:7 Birds of prey don’t know that path, no falcon’s eye has seen it,

Job 28:8 the proud beasts have never set foot on it, no lion has ever passed over it.

Job 28:9 “[[The miner]] attacks the flint, overturns mountains at their roots,

Job 28:10 and cuts out galleries in the rock, all the while watching for something of value.

Job 28:11 He dams up streams to keep them from flooding, and brings what was hidden out into the light.

Job 28:12 “But where can wisdom be found? Where is the source of understanding?

Job 28:13 No one knows its value, and it can’t be found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The deep says, ‘It isn’t in me,’ and the sea says, ‘It isn’t with me.’

Job 28:15 It can’t be obtained with gold, nor can silver be weighed out to buy it.

Job 28:16 It can’t be purchased with choice gold from Ofir, or with precious onyx or sapphires.

Job 28:17 Neither gold nor glass can be compared with it; nor can it be exchanged for a bowl of fine gold,

Job 28:18 let alone coral or crystal; for indeed, the price of wisdom is above that of pearls.

Job 28:19 It can’t be compared with Ethiopian topaz, and it can’t be valued with pure gold.

Job 28:20 “So where does wisdom come from? where is the source of understanding,

Job 28:21 inasmuch as it is hidden from the eyes of all living and kept secret from the birds flying around in the sky?

Job 28:22 Destruction and Death say, ‘We have heard a rumor about it with our ears.’

Job 28:23 “God understands its way, and he knows its place.

Job 28:24 For he can see to the ends of the earth and view everything under heaven.

Job 28:25 When he determined the force of the wind and parceled out water by measure,

Job 28:26 when he made a law for the rain and cleared a path for the thunderbolts;

Job 28:27 then he saw [[wisdom]] and declared it, yes, he set it up and searched it out.

Job 28:28 And to human beings he said, ‘Look, fear of [Adonai] is wisdom! Shunning evil is understanding!’“

Job 29:1 Iyov went on speaking:

Job 29:2 “I wish I were as in the old days, back in the times when God watched over me;

Job 29:3 when his lamp shone over my head, and I walked through the dark by its light;

Job 29:4 as I was when I was young, and God’s counsel graced my tent.

Job 29:5 Then [Shaddai] was still with me, my children were around me;

Job 29:6 my steps were awash in butter, and the rocks poured out for me streams of olive oil.

Job 29:7 I would go out to the city gate and set up my seat in the open space;

Job 29:8 when young men saw me they would hide themselves, while the aged arose and stood;

Job 29:9 leaders refrained from speaking- they would lay their hands on their mouths;

Job 29:10 the voices of nobles were silenced; their tongues stuck to their palates.

Job 29:11 Any ear that heard me blessed me, any eye that saw me gave witness to me,

Job 29:12 for I delivered the poor when they cried for assistance, the orphan too, who had no one to help him.

Job 29:13 Those who had been about to die would bless me, and I made widows sing in their hearts for joy.

Job 29:14 I clothed myself with righteousness, and it clothed itself with me; my justice was like a robe and a crown.

Job 29:15 I was eyes for the blind, and I was feet for the lame.

Job 29:16 I was a father to the needy, and I investigated the problems of those I didn't know.

Job 29:17 I broke the jaws of the unrighteous and snatched the prey from his teeth.

Job 29:18 "I said, 'I will die with my nest, and I will live as long as a phoenix;

Job 29:19 my root will spread till it reaches water, and dew will stay all night on my branch;

Job 29:20 my glory will always be fresh, my bow always new in my hand.'

Job 29:21 "People would listen to me; they waited and were silent when I gave advice.

Job 29:22 After I spoke, they didn't talk back; my words were like drops [[of dew]] on them.

Job 29:23 They waited for me as if for rain, as if for spring rain, with their mouths open wide.

Job 29:24 When I joked with them, they couldn't believe it; and they never darkened the light on my face.

Job 29:25 I chose their way [[for them]], sitting as chief; I lived like a king in the army, like one who comforts mourners.

Job 30:1 "But now those younger than I hold me in derision, men whose fathers I wouldn't even have put with the dogs that guarded my sheep.

Job 30:2 What use to me was the strength in their hands? All their vigor had left them.

Job 30:3 Worn out by want and hunger, they gnaw the dry ground in the gloom of waste and desolation.

Job 30:4 They pluck saltwort and bitter leaves; these, with broom tree roots, are their food.

Job 30:5 They are driven away from society, with men shouting after them as after a thief,

Job 30:6 to live in gullies and [vadi]s, in holes in the ground and caves in the rocks.

Job 30:7 Among the bushes they howl like beasts and huddle among the nettles,

Job 30:8 irresponsible nobodies driven from the land.

Job 30:9 “Now I have become their song; yes, I am a byword with them.

Job 30:10 They loathe me, they stand aloof from me; they don’t hesitate to spit in my face!

Job 30:11 For God has loosened my bowstring and humbled me; they throw off restraint in my presence.

Job 30:12 At my right the street urchins attack, pushing me from place to place, besieging me with their ways of destruction,

Job 30:13 breaking up my path, furthering my calamity- even those who have no one to help them.

Job 30:14 They move in as through a wide gap; amid the ruin they roll on in waves.

Job 30:15 Terrors tumble over me, chasing my honor away like the wind; my [[hope of]] salvation passes like a cloud.

Job 30:16 “So now my life is ebbing away, days of grief have seized me.

Job 30:17 At night pain pierces me to the bone, so that I never rest.

Job 30:18 My clothes are disfigured by the force [[of my disease]]; they choke me like the collar of my coat.

Job 30:19 [[God]] has thrown me into the mud; I have become like dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 “I call out to you [[God]], but you don’t answer me; I stand up to plead, but you just look at me.

Job 30:21 You have turned cruelly against me; with your powerful hand you keep persecuting me.

Job 30:22 You snatch me up on the wind and make me ride it; you toss me about in the tempest.

Job 30:23 For I know that you will bring me to death, the house assigned to everyone living.

Job 30:24 “Surely [[God]] wouldn’t strike at a ruin, if in one’s calamity one cried out to him for help.

Job 30:25 Didn’t I weep for those who were in trouble? Didn’t I grieve for the needy?

Job 30:26 Yet when I hoped for good, what came was bad; when I expected light, what came was darkness.

Job 30:27 My insides are in turmoil; they can’t find rest; days of misery confront me.

Job 30:28 I go about in sunless gloom, I rise in the assembly and cry for help.

Job 30:29 I have become a brother to jackals and a companion of ostriches.

Job 30:30 My skin is black and falling off me, and my bones are burning with heat.

Job 30:31 So my lyre is tuned for mourning, my pipe to the voice of those who weep.

Job 31:1 “I made a covenant with my eyes not to let them lust after any girl.

Job 31:2 “What share does God give from above? What is the heritage from [Shaddai] on high?

Job 31:3 Isn’t it calamity to the unrighteous? disaster to those who do evil?

Job 31:4 Doesn’t he see my ways and count all my steps?

Job 31:5 “If I have gone along with falsehood, if my feet have hurried to deceit;

Job 31:6 then let me be weighed on an honest scale, so that God will know my integrity.

Job 31:7 “If my steps have wandered from the way, if my heart has followed my eyes, if the least dirt has stuck to my hands;

Job 31:8 then let me sow and someone else eat, let what grows from my fields be uprooted.

Job 31:9 “If my heart has been enticed toward a woman, and I have lain in wait at my neighbor’s door;

Job 31:10 then let my wife grind for another man, and let others kneel on her.

Job 31:11 For that would be a heinous act, a criminal offense,

Job 31:12 a fire that would burn to the depths of Abaddon, uprooting all I produce.

Job 31:13 “If I ever rejected my slave or slave-girl’s cause, when they brought legal action against me;

Job 31:14 then what would I do if God stood up? Were he to intervene, what answer could I give?

Job 31:15 Didn’t he who made me in the womb make them too? Didn’t the same one shape us both before our birth?

Job 31:16 “If I held back anything needed by the poor or made a widow’s eye grow dim [[with tears]],

Job 31:17 or ate my portion of food by myself, without letting the orphan eat any of it-

Job 31:18 No! From my youth he grew up with me as if with a father, and I have been her guide from my mother’s womb!-

Job 31:19 or if I saw a traveler needing clothing, someone in need who had no covering,

Job 31:20 who didn’t bless me from his heart for being warmed with the fleece from my sheep,

Job 31:21 or if I lifted my hand against an orphan, knowing that no one would dare charge me in court;

Job 31:22 then let my arm fall from its socket, and let my forearm be broken at the elbow!

Job 31:23 For calamity from God has always terrified me; before his majesty I could never do a thing [[like that]].

Job 31:24 “If I made gold my hope, if I said to fine gold, ‘You are my security,’

Job 31:25 if I took joy in my great wealth, in my having acquired so much;

Job 31:26 or if, on seeing the shining sun or the full moon as it moved through the sky,

Job 31:27 my heart was secretly seduced, so that I would wave them a kiss with my hand;

Job 31:28 then this too would be a criminal offense, for I would have been lying to God on high.

Job 31:29 “Did I rejoice at the destruction of him who hated me? Was I filled with glee when disaster overtook him?

Job 31:30 No, I did not allow my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse.

Job 31:31 “Was there anyone in my tent who didn’t say, ‘No one can find a single person whom he has not filled with his meat’?

Job 31:32 No stranger had to sleep in the street; I kept my house open to the traveler.

Job 31:33 “If I concealed my sins, as most people do, by hiding my wrongdoing in my heart,

Job 31:34 from fear of general gossip or dread of some family’s contempt. keeping silent and not going outdoors-

Job 31:35 I wish I had someone who would listen to me! Here is my signature; let [Shaddai] answer me! I wish I had the indictment my adversary has written!

Job 31:36 I would carry it on my shoulder; I would bind it on me like a crown.

Job 31:37 I would declare to him every one of my steps; I would approach him like a prince.

Job 31:38 “If my land cried out against me, if its furrows wept together,

Job 31:39 if I ate its produce without paying or made its owners despair;

Job 31:40 then let thistles grow instead of wheat and noxious weeds instead of barley! “The words of Iyov are finished.”

Job 32:1 So these three men stopped trying to answer Iyov, because he remained convinced of his own righteousness.

Job 32:2 But then the anger of Elihu the son of Barakh’el the Buzi, from the family of Ram, blazed up against Iyov for thinking he was right and God wrong.

Job 32:3 His anger also blazed up against his three friends, because they had found no answer to Iyov but condemned him anyway.

Job 32:4 Elihu had waited to speak to Iyov because they were older than he;

Job 32:5 however, when Elihu saw that these three had no answer, his anger flared up.

Job 32:6 Elihu the son of Barakh’el the Buzi said: “I am young, and you are old, so I held back from telling you my opinion.

Job 32:7 I said, ‘Age should speak; an abundance of years should teach wisdom.’

Job 32:8 But it is the spirit in a person, the breath from [Shaddai], that gives him understanding-

Job 32:9 it isn’t [[only]] the great who are wise or the aged who know how to judge.

Job 32:10 Therefore, I say, listen to me; I too will express my opinion.

Job 32:11 “Here, I waited for your words, I listened to your reasoning, as you were searching for what to say.

Job 32:12 I paid attention to you, but none of you convicted Iyov or refuted his arguments.

Job 32:13 So don’t say, ‘We found the wise course- Let God defeat him, not a human being.’

Job 32:14 For he did not direct his words against me, and I won’t answer him with your arguments.

Job 32:15 “They are confused, they don’t reply, words have failed them.

Job 32:16 But must I wait just because they don’t speak, just because they stand there, stuck for an answer?

Job 32:17 No, I will now give my answer; I too will express my opinion.

Job 32:18 For I am full of words; the spirit within me compels me.

Job 32:19 Yes, my insides feel like new wine under pressure, like new wineskins ready to burst.

Job 32:20 I must speak, to find relief; I will open my lips and answer.

Job 32:21 I will show no favor to anyone, and I will flatter no one;

Job 32:22 I don’t know how to flatter; if I did, my maker would soon put an end to me.

Job 33:1 “So, Iyov, please, hear my speech; listen to all my words.

Job 33:2 Look, I am opening my mouth; the words are on the tip of my tongue.

Job 33:3 I will say exactly what is on my mind; what my lips know, they will speak sincerely.

Job 33:4 It is the Spirit of God that made me, the breath of [Shaddai] that gives me life.

Job 33:5 So refute me, if you can; organize your words, take your stand!

Job 33:6 Look, before God I’m the same as you; I too am fashioned from clay.

Job 33:7 You don’t need to be afraid of me; my pressure on you will not be heavy.

Job 33:8 “You spoke within my hearing, and I heard what you said-

Job 33:9 ‘I am clean, without transgression; I am innocent, not guilty.

Job 33:10 Yet [[God]] finds pretexts for accusing me; he regards me as his enemy.

Job 33:11 He puts my feet in the stocks and watches wherever I go.’

Job 33:12 “But in this, you are wrong; I will answer you: God is greater than any mortal.

Job 33:13 Why do you strive against him? He will not defend his words-

Job 33:14 God speaks once, even twice, and still the hearer misses the point.

Job 33:15 “In a dream, in a vision at night, when slumber falls upon people, as they sleep in their beds,

Job 33:16 he opens people’s ears and seals the matter with a warning,

Job 33:17 to turn a person away from his action and protect a man from pride,

Job 33:18 so that he will keep himself away from the pit and from perishing by the sword.

Job 33:19 “He is also warned by pain when in bed, when all his bones are hurting;

Job 33:20 so that he detests bread as well as richer food.

Job 33:21 His flesh wastes away, till one can’t stand to look; his bones protrude and become unsightly.

Job 33:22 His soul comes close to the pit and his life to those who bring death.

Job 33:23 “If there is for him an angel, a mediator, one among a thousand, who can vouch for the man’s uprightness;

Job 33:24 then [[God]] is gracious to him and says, ‘Redeem him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom.’

Job 33:25 His flesh becomes fresher than that of a child, he returns to the days of his youth.

Job 33:26 He prays to God and is accepted by him, so that he sees [[God’s]] face with joy, and [[God]] repays the man for his righteousness.

Job 33:27 He declares before everyone, ‘I sinned; I perverted what was right, and it gained me nothing.

Job 33:28 [[God]] redeemed me from going into the pit, and now my life sees light.’

Job 33:29 God will accomplish all these things twice, even three times, with a man,

Job 33:30 to bring him back from the pit, so that he can enjoy the light of the living.

Job 33:31 “Pay attention, Iyov, listen to me; keep quiet, and I will keep speaking.

Job 33:32 If you have something to say, answer me; speak, because I want to show that you are right.

Job 33:33 If not, then listen to me; keep quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34:1 Elihu continued speaking:

Job 34:2 “Hear my words, you sages! Listen to me, you who know so much!

Job 34:3 For the ear tests words, just as the palate tastes food.

Job 34:4 Let’s choose for ourselves what is just; let’s decide among ourselves what is good.

Job 34:5 For Iyov says, ‘I am in the right, but God is denying me justice.

Job 34:6 Against justice, I am considered a liar; my wound is mortal, though I committed no crime.’

Job 34:7 “Is there a man like Iyov, who drinks in scoffing like water,

Job 34:8 who keeps company with evildoers and goes with wicked men,

Job 34:9 since he thinks, ‘It profits a person nothing to be in accord with God’?

Job 34:10 “So listen to me, you men with sense! Far be it from God to do anything wicked!

Job 34:11 For he pays people back for what they do and sees that each gets what his conduct deserves.

Job 34:12 It is certain that God does nothing wicked; [Shaddai] will not pervert justice.

Job 34:13 Did someone else put him in charge of the earth? Who else established the entire world?

Job 34:14 If he were to take back man’s heart to himself, if he gathered to himself his spirit and breath;

Job 34:15 all flesh would instantly perish, everyone would return to dust.

Job 34:16 “If you have any sense, [[Iyov,]] hear this; listen to what I am saying.

Job 34:17 Should a hater of justice be in control? If you wouldn’t tell a king, ‘You’re a scoundrel!’ or nobles, ‘You are wicked men!’ then you shouldn’t condemn the Just and Mighty One,

Job 34:18

Job 34:19 who is neither partial toward princes nor favors the rich over the poor, since they all are the work of his hands.

Job 34:20 They may die in a moment, in the middle of the night- the people are shaken and pass away, the mighty are removed without human hands.

Job 34:21 For he keeps watch on a person’s ways; he sees his every step.

Job 34:22 There is no darkness, no death-like gloom, where wrongdoers can hide;

Job 34:23 for he doesn’t give warning to people when they must appear before God in judgment.

Job 34:24 He shatters the mighty without needing to investigate and sets up others in their place.

Job 34:25 Therefore, aware of what they are doing, he overturns them by night, and they are crushed.

Job 34:26 He strikes them as if they were common criminals in the open sight of others,

Job 34:27 because they turned away from following him and gave no thought to any of his ways,

Job 34:28 thereby bringing before him the cries of the poor; and he hears the cries of the oppressed.

Job 34:29 “But if God is silent, who can accuse him; if he hides his face, who can see him? He may do this to nations and persons alike,

Job 34:30 so that godless men will not become kings, and the people will not be lured into traps.

Job 34:31 “For has anyone said to God, ‘I have been chastised without having offended;

Job 34:32 teach me what I have failed to see; and if I have done wrong, I will do it no more’?

Job 34:33 Must his rewards meet your approval? Well, you are the one who doesn’t like them, so you, not I, should pick the alternative; come on, say what you think!

Job 34:34 Intelligent people will tell me, every wise man who hears me will say,

Job 34:35 ‘Iyov is speaking without thinking; his words lack discernment.’

Job 34:36 “I wish Iyov would be kept on trial forever, because he answers like wicked men.

Job 34:37 For now to his sin he adds rebellion; he [[mockingly]] claps his hands among us and keeps adding to his words against God.”

Job 35:1 Elihu went on to say:

Job 35:2 “Are you so convinced you are right, that you say, ‘I am more just than God’?

Job 35:3 For you ask what advantage it is to you, ‘How do I gain from not sinning?’

Job 35:4 “Here is my answer to you, to you and to your friends:

Job 35:5 Look at the heavens and see; observe the skies, high above you.

Job 35:6 If you sin, how do you hurt him? If your crimes are many, how do you affect him?

Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give him? What benefit does he get from you?

Job 35:8 Your wickedness can affect only others like you, and your righteousness only other human beings.

Job 35:9 People cry out from under many oppressions; they cry for help from under the fist of the mighty.

Job 35:10 But no one asks, 'Where is God my maker, who causes glad songs to ring out at night,

Job 35:11 who teaches us more than he teaches wild animals and makes us wiser than the birds in the air?'

Job 35:12 They may cry out, but no one answers, because of evil men's pride.

Job 35:13 For God will not listen to empty cries; [Shaddai] pays no attention to them.

Job 35:14 All the more when you say that you don't see him! Just be patient; he's considering the matter.

Job 35:15 But now, just because he doesn't get angry and punish, does it mean he doesn't know what arrogance is?

Job 35:16 So Iyov is being futile when he opens his mouth; he is piling up words without knowledge."

Job 36:1 Elihu added:

Job 36:2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you that there is more to say on God's behalf.

Job 36:3 I may search far and wide for my arguments, but I will ascribe righteousness to God my maker.

Job 36:4 For the fact is that my words are true; you have with you a man whose views are pure.

Job 36:5 "Look, God is powerful and despises no one, powerful in his strength of understanding.

Job 36:6 He does not preserve the lives of the wicked, but he gives justice to the poor.

Job 36:7 He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous; but when he sets kings on their throne forever, they may become proud;

Job 36:8 if, then, they are bound in chains, held in oppressive cords,

Job 36:9 he shows them the results of their doings, the crimes caused by their pride.

Job 36:10 He sounds a warning in their ears and orders them to repent of their evil.

Job 36:11 "If they pay attention and obey him, they spend their days in prosperity; their years pass pleasantly.

Job 36:12 But if they don't pay attention, they perish by the sword and die without learning their lesson.

Job 36:13 The godless in heart cherish their anger, not crying for help when he binds them.

Job 36:14 Their soul perishes in their youth, and their life becomes depraved.

Job 36:15 “God, with his affliction, delivers the afflicted; and he gets their attention by pressing on them.

Job 36:16 Indeed [[Iyov]], he is drawing you away from distress to an untroubled open place, with rich food on your table.

Job 36:17 But the judgment on the wicked applies fully to you, judgment and condemnation take hold [[of them]].

Job 36:18 For beware of wrath when abundance entices you; don’t let a big bribe turn you aside.

Job 36:19 Will your great wealth help you? or all your efforts, no matter how strong?

Job 36:20 Don’t desire the night, when people suddenly die.

Job 36:21 Be careful; turn away from wrongdoing; for because of this, you have been tested by affliction.

Job 36:22 “Look, God is exalted in his strength; who is a teacher like him?

Job 36:23 Who ever prescribed his course for him? Who ever said, ‘What you are doing is wrong’?

Job 36:24 Remember, rather, to magnify his work, of which many have sung.

Job 36:25 Everyone has seen it, [[but]] humans see it [[only]] from a distance.

Job 36:26 Look, God is great, beyond what we can know; the number of his years is uncountable.

Job 36:27 “He makes the droplets of water, which condense into rain from his mist.

Job 36:28 The clouds pour it down upon humankind in abundance.

Job 36:29 Can anyone fathom the spreading of the clouds, or the crashes that come from his canopy?

Job 36:30 See how he scatters his lightning over it and covers the roots of the sea.

Job 36:31 By these things he judges the people and also gives food in plenty.

Job 36:32 He gathers the lightning into his hands and commands it to strike the target.

Job 36:33 Its crashing announces its presence and apprises the cattle of what is coming.

Job 37:1 “At this, my own heart trembles and leaps out of its place.

Job 37:2 Just listen to the rumbling of his voice, to the thunder that comes from his mouth!

Job 37:3 He sends it out under all of heaven, his lightning to the ends of the earth.

Job 37:4 There follows a sound, a roar- he is thundering with his majestic voice, and he keeps releasing [[the lightning]] even while his voice is being heard.

Job 37:5 “God thunders wonderfully with his voice, he does great things beyond our understanding.

Job 37:6 He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth!’- likewise to the light rain, also to the downpour.

Job 37:7 He brings all human activity to a stop, so that everyone he has made can know it.

Job 37:8 Then the animals go into their lairs and hibernate in their dens.

Job 37:9 “Out of its chamber comes the storm, with cold out of the north.

Job 37:10 By the breath of God, ice is given, and the wide waters freeze over.

Job 37:11 He weighs the clouds down with moisture, and they flash forth his lightning.

Job 37:12 He, by his plans, turns them around, so they do what he commands them anywhere on earth;

Job 37:13 he brings them forth on the earth sometimes to punish, sometimes to express his grace.

Job 37:14 “Listen to this, Iyov! Stop, and consider God’s wonders.

Job 37:15 Do you know how God puts them in place, how he causes lightning to flash from his cloud?

Job 37:16 Do you know how he balances the clouds? These are marvels of him who knows everything!

Job 37:17 “You, sweltering in your clothing as the earth lies still under a sultry south wind,

Job 37:18 can you, with him, spread out the sky, hard as a cast metal mirror?

Job 37:19 Teach us what we should tell him, for the darkness keeps us from organizing our case.

Job 37:20 Is he to be told that I will speak? Can a man speak at all when he is already swallowed up?

Job 37:21 Now people don’t see the light, which is bright in the sky; but then the wind blows and clears [[the clouds]] away.

Job 37:22 Out of the north comes a golden glow, fearsome majesty surrounding God.

Job 37:23 [Shaddai], whom we cannot find, whose power is immense, in his great righteousness does not pervert justice.

Job 37:24 This is why people fear him; he does not consider those who think of themselves as wise."

Job 38:1 Then ADONAI answered Iyov out of the storm:

Job 38:2 "Who is this, darkening my plans with his ignorant words?

Job 38:3 Stand up like a man, and brace yourself; I will ask questions; and you, give the answers!

Job 38:4 "Where were you when I founded the earth? Tell me, if you know so much.

Job 38:5 Do you know who determined its dimensions or who stretched the measuring line across it?

Job 38:6 On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone,

Job 38:7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

Job 38:8 "Who shut up the sea behind closed doors when it gushed forth from the womb,

Job 38:9 when I made the clouds its blanket and dense fog its swaddling cloth,

Job 38:10 when I made the breakers its boundary set its gates and bars,

Job 38:11 and said, 'You may come this far, but no farther; here your proud waves must stop'?

Job 38:12 "Have you ever in your life called up the dawn and made the morning know its place,

Job 38:13 so that it could take hold of the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

Job 38:14 Then the earth is changed like clay under a seal, until its colors are fixed like those of a garment.

Job 38:15 But from the wicked the light is withheld, and the arm raised [[to strike]] is broken.

Job 38:16 "Have you gone down to the springs of the sea or explored the limits of the deep?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you, the gates of death-like darkness?

Job 38:18 Have you surveyed the full extent of the earth? Say so, if you know it all!

Job 38:19 "Which way leads to where light has its home? and darkness, where does it dwell?

Job 38:20 If you knew, you could take each to its place and set it on its homeward path.

Job 38:21 You know, of course, because you were born then; by now you must be very old!

Job 38:22 “Have you gone into the storehouses for snow or seen the storehouses for hail,

Job 38:23 which I save for times of trouble, for days of battle and war?

Job 38:24 “By what path is light dispersed, or the east wind poured out on the land?

Job 38:25 Who cut a channel for the downpours, or a way for the lightning and thunder,

Job 38:26 causing it to rain where no one is, in a desert without anyone there,

Job 38:27 drenching the waste and desolate [[ground]], till the tender grass sprouts?

Job 38:28 Does the rain have a father? Who is the father of dewdrops?

Job 38:29 From whose womb does ice come? Who gives birth to the frost of heaven,

Job 38:30 when water becomes as hard as stone, and the surface of the deep freezes solid?

Job 38:31 “Can you tie up the cords of the Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you lead out the constellations of the zodiac in their season or guide the Great Bear and its cubs?

Job 38:33 Do you know the laws of the sky? Can you determine how they affect the earth?

Job 38:34 “Can you raise your voice to the clouds and make them cover you with a flood of rain?

Job 38:35 Can you send lightning bolts on their way? Will they say to you, ‘Here we are’?

Job 38:36 “Who put wisdom in people’s inner parts? Who gave understanding to the mind?

Job 38:37 Who, by wisdom, can number the clouds? Who can tilt the water-skins of heaven,

Job 38:38 so that the dust becomes a mass [[of mud]], and its clods stick together?

Job 38:39 “Can you hunt prey for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, Job 38:40 when they crouch in their dens or lie in ambush in their lairs?

Job 38:41 Who provides food for the raven when his young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?

Job 39:1 “Do you know when mountain goats give birth? Have you seen deer in labor?

Job 39:2 Can you tell how many months they carry their young? Do you know when they give birth,

Job 39:3 when they crouch down and bring forth their young, when they deliver their fawns?

Job 39:4 Their young become strong, growing up in the open; they leave and never return.

Job 39:5 “Who lets the wild donkey roam freely? Who sets the wild donkey loose from its shackles?

Job 39:6 I made the ‘Aravah its home, the salty desert its place to live.

Job 39:7 It scorns the noise of the city and hears no driver’s shouts.

Job 39:8 It ranges over the hills for its pasture, searching for anything green.

Job 39:9 “Would a wild ox be willing to serve you? Would it stay by your stall?

Job 39:10 Could you tie a rope around its neck and make it plow furrows for you?

Job 39:11 Would you trust its great strength enough to let it do your heavy work,

Job 39:12 or rely on it to bring home your seed and gather the grain from your threshing-floor?

Job 39:13 “An ostrich’s wings beat wildly, although its pinions lack plumage.

Job 39:14 It leaves its eggs on the ground and lets them be warmed by the sand,

Job 39:15 forgetting that a foot may crush them or a wild animal trample on them.

Job 39:16 It treats its chicks heartlessly, as if they were not its own; even if her labor is in vain, it really doesn’t care;

Job 39:17 because God has deprived it of wisdom and given it no share in understanding.

Job 39:18 When the time comes, it flaps its wings, scorning both horse and rider.

Job 39:19 “Did you give the horse its strength? Did you clothe its neck with a mane?

Job 39:20 Did you make him able to leap like a locust? Its majestic snorting is frightening!

Job 39:21 It paws with force and exults with vigor, then charges into the battle;

Job 39:22 mocking at fear, unafraid, it does not shy away from the sword.

Job 39:23 The [[rider's]] quiver rattles over it, [[his]] gleaming spear and javelin.

Job 39:24 Frenzied and eager, it devours the ground, scarcely believing the [shofar] has sounded.

Job 39:25 At the sound of the [shofar] it whinnies; as from afar it scents the battle, the roar of the chiefs and the shouting.

Job 39:26 "Is it your wisdom that sets the hawk soaring, spreading its wings toward the south?

Job 39:27 Does the eagle fly up when you say so, to build its nest in the heights?

Job 39:28 It lives and spends its nights on the cliffs; a rocky crag is its fortress.

Job 39:29 From there it spots its prey, its eyes see it far off.

Job 39:30 Its young ones suck up blood; wherever the slain are, there it is."

Job 40:1 Continuing to address Iyov, ADONAI said:

Job 40:2 "Does the critic still want to dispute [Shaddai]? Let him who wants to correct God give an answer!"

Job 40:3 Then Iyov replied to ADONAI:

Job 40:4 "I am too ashamed; I have nothing to say. I lay my hand over my mouth.

Job 40:5 Yes, I spoke once, but I won't answer more; all right, twice, but I won't go on."

Job 40:6 ADONAI answered Iyov out of the storm:

Job 40:7 "Stand up like a man, and brace yourself; I will ask questions; and you, give the answers!

Job 40:8 "Are you impugning my justice? Putting me in the wrong to prove yourself right?

Job 40:9 Do you have an arm like God's? Can you thunder with a voice like his?

Job 40:10 Come on, deck yourself with majesty and dignity, robe yourself in glory and splendor.

Job 40:11 Let loose your furious anger, look at all who are proud, and humble them.

Job 40:12 Look at all who are proud, and bring them down; tread down the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:13 Bury them in the ground together, bind their faces in the hidden world.

Job 40:14 If you do this, then I will confess to you that your own power can save you.

Job 40:15 “Now consider Behemot, whom I made along with you. He eats grass like an ox.

Job 40:16 What strength he has in his loins! What power in his stomach muscles!

Job 40:17 He can make his tail as stiff as a cedar, the muscles in his thighs are like cables,

Job 40:18 his bones are like bronze pipes, his limbs like iron bars.

Job 40:19 “He ranks first among God’s works. Only his maker can approach him with his sword.

Job 40:20 The mountains produce food for him there, where all the wild animals play.

Job 40:21 He lies down under the thorny lotus bushes and is hidden by the reeds in the swamp;

Job 40:22 the lotus bushes cover him with their shade, and the willows by the stream surround him.

Job 40:23 If the river overflows, it doesn’t worry him; he is confident even if the Yarden rushes by his mouth.

Job 40:24 Can anyone catch him by his eyes or pierce his nose with a hook?

Job 40:25 “And Livyatan! Can you catch him with a fishhook or hold his tongue down with a rope?

Job 40:26 Can you put a ring in his nose or pierce his jaw with a barb?

Job 40:27 Will he entreat you at length? Will he speak with you softly?

Job 40:28 Will he agree with you to be your slave forever?

Job 40:29 Will you play with him as you would with a bird or keep him on a string to amuse your little girls?

Job 40:30 Will a group of fishermen turn him into a banquet? Will they divide him among the merchants?

Job 40:31 Can you fill his skin with darts or his head with fish-spears?

Job 40:32 If you lay your hand on him, you won’t forget the fight, and you’ll never do it again!

Job 41:1 “Look, any hope [[of capturing him]] is futile- one would fall prostrate at the very sight of him.

Job 41:2 No one is fierce enough to rouse him, so who can stand up to me?

Job 41:3 Who has given me anything and made me pay it back? Everything belongs to me under all of heaven.

Job 41:4 “I have more to say about his limbs, his strong talk, and his matchless strength.

Job 41:5 Who can strip off his [[scaly]] garment? Who can enter his jaws?

Job 41:6 Who can pry open the doors of his face, so close to his terrible teeth?

Job 41:7 “His pride is his rows of scales, tightly sealed together-

Job 41:8 one is so close to the next that no air can come between them;

Job 41:9 they are stuck one to another, interlocked and impervious.

Job 41:10 “When he sneezes, light flashes out; his eyes are like the shimmer of dawn.

Job 41:11 From his mouth go fiery torches, and sparks come flying out.

Job 41:12 His nostrils belch steam like a caldron boiling on the fire.

Job 41:13 His breath sets coals ablaze; flames pour from his mouth.

Job 41:14 “Strength resides in his neck, and dismay dances ahead of him [[as he goes]].

Job 41:15 The layers of his flesh stick together; they are firm on him, immovable.

Job 41:16 His heart is as hard as a stone, yes, hard as a lower millstone.

Job 41:17 When he rears himself up, the gods are afraid, beside themselves in despair.

Job 41:18 “If a sword touches him, it won’t stick; neither will a spear, or a dart, or a lance.

Job 41:19 He regards iron as straw and bronze as rotten wood.

Job 41:20 An arrow can’t make him flee; for him, slingstones are so much chaff.

Job 41:21 Clubs count as hay, and he laughs at a quivering javelin.

Job 41:22 His belly is as sharp as fragments of pottery, so he moves across the mud like a threshing-sledge.

Job 41:23 “He makes the depths seethe like a pot, he makes the sea [[boil]] like a perfume kettle.

Job 41:24 He leaves a shining wake behind him, making the deep seem to have white hair.

Job 41:25 “On earth there is nothing like him, a creature without fear.

Job 41:26 He looks straight at all high things. He is king over all proud beasts.”

Job 42:1 Then [[at last,]] Iyov gave ADONAI this answer:

Job 42:2 “I know that you can do everything, that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

Job 42:3 “[[You asked,]] ‘Who is this, hiding counsel, without having knowledge?’ Yes, I spoke, without understanding, of wonders far beyond me, which I didn’t know.

Job 42:4 “Please listen, and I will speak. [[You said,]] ‘I will ask questions; and you, give me answers’-

Job 42:5 I had heard about you with my ears, but now my eye sees you;

Job 42:6 therefore I detest [[myself]] and repent in dust and ashes.”

Job 42:7 After ADONAI had spoken these words to Iyov, ADONAI said to Elifaz the Teimani, “My anger is blazing against you and your two friends, because, unlike my servant Iyov, you have not spoken rightly about me.

Job 42:8 So now, get yourselves seven young bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Iyov, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Iyov will pray for you- because him I will accept- so that I won’t punish you as your boorishness deserves; because you have not spoken rightly about me, as my servant Iyov has.”

Job 42:9 So Elifaz the Teimani, Bildad the Shuchi and Tzofar the Na’amati went and did what ADONAI had ordered them to do, and ADONAI accepted Iyov[[‘s prayer]].

Job 42:10 When Iyov prayed for his friends, ADONAI restored his fortunes; ADONAI gave Iyov twice as much as he had had before.

Job 42:11 Then all his brothers and sisters came to him, also all who had known him before, and they ate a meal with him in his house. They consoled and comforted him for all the evils ADONAI had inflicted on him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

Job 42:12 ADONAI blessed Iyov’s later situation even more than his earlier one- he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 pairs of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys.

Job 42:13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 The first he named Y’mimah; the second, K’tzi’ah; and the third, Keren-Hapukh.

Job 42:15 Nowhere in the land could women be found as beautiful as Iyov’s daughters; and their father gave them inheritances along with their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this, Iyov lived 140 years, long enough to see his sons and grandsons, four generations.

Job 42:17 Then, old and full of days, Iyov died.

Psalms

1:1 How blessed are those who reject the advice of the wicked, don’t stand on the way of sinners or sit where scoffers sit!

Psalms 1:2 Their delight is in ADONAI’s [Torah]; on his [Torah] they meditate day and night.

Psalms 1:3 They are like trees planted by streams- they bear their fruit in season, their leaves never wither, everything they do succeeds.

Psalms 1:4 Not so the wicked, who are like chaff driven by the wind.

